fleet (I), vb intrans & trans [1 flēt, 2 flit] OE flētan, 'to float, swim', ME flētan, 'to flow, swim, float', O S flētan, O H G flotan, Gorm fliesen, O N fljóta, connoted w flit, flutter, & also flow (rare except in Pres Part as adj) 1 intrans a To glide away, pass swiftly and silently the years fleet by, b to fly or move swiftly, flit, c (naut) to shift 2 trans a (obs) To while away 'fleece the time carelessly' (Shakespeare), b (naut) to move, shift fleet (II), adj First recorded in early Mod E, fr or closely related to prec, op O N fljótr, 'swift' Rapid in movement, swift a fleet horse, fleet of foot fleet (III), n OE flēot, ME fleet, as fleet (I), op M Du vleet, L G fleet, Gorm flēas (obs or provin except in Place-Names) a Creek, inlet, small stream, esp the Fleet, stream flowing through part of the City of London, now covered over, also abbr for the Fleet Prison, formerly used for debtors, situated near this stream, b (attrib) Fleet chaplain, clergyman who used to celebrate clandestine marriages in the Fleet Prison, Fleet marriage, such a marriage, Fleet Street, street near the Fleet famous as centre of journalism, bones, journalists collectively fleet (IV), n OE flēot, 'ship, vessel', ME flēte, 'fleet', fr fleet (I) 1 Number of vessels sailing or acting together the Yarmouth fishing fleet, a fleet of whalers 2 Specif (nav) a organized force of warships, larger than squadron, under one chief command the Channel Fleet, Phr a fleet in being, fleet able to hold the sea, though generally too weak to attack, b entire naval force of a nation, navy, Phr Admiral of the Fleet highest British naval rank 3 (fig) collection of vehicles, esp when used together a fleet of motor cars, of tanks fleeing, adj [1 flēing, 2 flīng], fr Pres Part of flee (I) (liter) Gliding away, passing swiftly and silently, transient, transitory fleety, adv [1 flētl, 2 flītl] flee (II) & -ly In a fleet manner swiftly fleetness, n [1 flētnes, 2 flītnes] flee (II) & -ness Swiftly, rapidly of movement

Flemish, adj [1 flēmish, 2 flēms] M Dn Vlaemisch, Mod Dn Vlaamsch, fr base flām, as in Fleming & Flanders Pertaining to Flanders or the Flemings, Flemish brick, kind of hard yellow brick for paving, Flemish horse, draught horse of large heavy breed fench, fense, fench, vb trans [1 flensb, 2 flūs], fr Du vlezen, or Dan flense. To strip blubber from (whale), skin from (seal &c)

flesh (I), n [1 flēsh, 2 flē] OE flēsc, ME flesch, op OS flēsc, O H G fleisc, Mod Germ fleisch, 'flesh', O N, Dan, flesh, 'pork, bacon', Gmc base flāsh* is of uncertain origin & has no authenticated cognates 1 a Soft parts of animal body, chiefly muscular tissue, between skin and bones the flesh of the cheeks, of the back &c. Phrs flesh and blood, body, living person, one's own flesh and blood, kindred, near relation, to make one's flesh creep, to make one shudder with fright or apprehension, (to have one's) pound of flesh, demand stipulated, and ruthlessly or inhumanly pressed (after the story of Shylock in Shakespeare, 'Merchant of Venice'), proud flesh, granulated growth over wound, to make, put on, flesh, to grow fatter, to lose flesh, to become thinner, in flesh, fat, in the flesh, alive, as a reality, b muscular tissue and fat of animal, regarded as food, now generally replaced by meat wolves live on flesh, often excluding fish, and sometimes birds neither fish, flesh, nor fowl, neither one thing nor another, of indeterminate character, o (paint) surface of human body masterly treatment of flesh, d solid, pulpy part of fruit or vegetables. 2 The human body and its attributes as distinguished from the intellectual and spiritual faculties the vile of the flesh, the spirit is willing but the flesh is weak; Phrs arm of flesh, maternal force, to be made, become, one flesh, intimately united, as husband and wife, to be made flesh, to become incarnate 3 A Animal nature of man, bodily appetites, propensities, and lusts sins of the flesh, hence, b addition to bodily appetites, sensuality the World, the Flesh, and the Devil 4 (fig, Bib) Chiefly all flesh, mankind, human nature has gone the way of all flesh, has shared the common lot of mankind flesh (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 a To incite, stimulate (hawk or hound), to hunt by feeding on flesh of game it has killed, (fig) b to incite, incite (person), to bloodshed & by foretaste 2 To thrust a weapon into, embed in, flesh to flesh one's sword 3 To cause to put on flesh, fatten 4 To scrape off particles of flesh adhering to newly stripped hide flesh-brush, n Brush used on skin to stimulate circulation flesh-coloured, adj Having the natural colour of the surface of the human body, (only in reference to that of a person of a white race), pale, yellowish pink flesh-eater, n Person or animal that habitually eats flesh, a carnivore flesh-eating, adj Habitually eating flesh, carnivorous flesher, n [1 fšəhər, 2 fšə] flesh (I) & -er A butcher (chiefly Scots) flesh-feeding, adj Flesh eating flesh-fly, n ME fleschflie Any fly which lays its eggs in dead or living animal flesh, and whose larva feed on this flesh-glove, n Glove used for rubbing the flesh to stimulate circulation flesh-hook, n ME flesch hook a Hook used for hanging flesh, as in butcher's shop, b (Bib) hook used for lifting flesh from pot fleshiness, n [1 fšəhɪnəs, 2 fšəhɪnəs] fleshy & -ness Condition of being fleshy, corpulence fleshings, n pl [1 fšəhɪŋz, 2 fšəhɪŋz] flesh & -ing Skin-coloured tights worn by acrobats, actors &c fleshless, adj [1 fšəhɪləs, 2 fšəhɪləs] flesh & -less Destitute of flesh fleshless bones

fleshliness, n [1 fšəhɪlnəs, 2 fšəhɪlnəs] O E fleschlicness, ME fleschlicness Next word & -ness Quality of being fleshy, sensuality fleshly, adj [1 fšəhɪli, 2 fšəhɪli] O E fleschlic, ME fleschlich flesh (I) & -ly 1 (archaic) Made of, pertaining to, flesh the fleshly envelope, the body 2 Pertaining to the body and its character, corporeal the fleshly nature of man 3 Addicted to, prone to indulge, the bodily appetites, carnal, sensual fleshment, n [1 fšəhɪmənt, 2 fšəhɪmənt] O E flescmēte (archaic) Food that consists of animal flesh fleshment, n [1 fšəhɪmənt, 2 fšəhɪmənt] flesh (I) & -ment Action of fleshing (hound, person &c) (Shakespeare) fleshpot, n [1 fšəhɪspɒt, 2 fšəhɪspɒt] a Vessel in which flesh is cooked, hence, b (fig) luxury after which one hankers the fleshpots of Egypt flesh-tint, n (paint) Colour representing that of surface of human body flesh-wound, n Wound which penetrates or tears the muscular tissue below the skin, but which does not reach any internal organ, or break a bone fleshy, adj [1 fšəhi, 2 fšəhi] ME flesch flesh (I) & -y 1 Pertaining to, consisting of, flesh 2 Having much flesh, corpulent, fat fletch, vb trans [1 fletʃ, 2 fletʃ], fr Fr fleche, 'arrow' See fleeche (archaic) To feather, put feather on (arrow) fletcher, n [1 fletʃər, 2 fletʃər] O Fr fletcher See prec & -er (archaic) Maker of arrows fleur-de-lis, also fleur-de-luce, n [1 flɔːr də li, 2 flɔːr də li, -ljɔː] Fr, 'flower of lily', see flower & lily (her) Representation of garden lily or iris, the armorial bearing of the Kings of France from 1147, also borne by some British families fleur-de-lis, n [1 flɔːr də li, 2 flɔːr də li] Fr fleur-de-lis, dimin of fleur See flower & -of Conventionalized representation of a small flower, used as an ornament fleur-de-lis, n [1 flɔːr də li, 2 flɔːr də li] Fr, augment of fleur, 'flower' See -oon Flower-like ornament, used in various arts fleur-de-lis, n [1 flɔːr də li, 2 flɔːr də li] Fr fleur-de-lis, 'covered with flowers', P P of fleur-de-lis, q v under flourish (I) (her) Sprinkled, adorned, with fleur-de-lis flew, vb [1 fləʊ, 2 fləʊ] OE fleah, ME flew Pret of fly (II) flew, adj [1 fləʊd, 2 fləʊd] Flew, aug of next word, & -ed. (rare) Having flows (Shakespeare) flew, n pl [1 fləʊz, 2 fləʊz] Origin unknown Loose, hanging chaps of bloodhound or other dog flew, n [1 fləʊ, 2 fləʊ] Lat flew (um), P P type of flectere, 'to bend' Prob connected w Lat fale em, 'sickle', see falcon, the base is obscure, but Walde suggests that it is a modified form of that in Lat flectere, 'to bend, interweave', q v under plexus, plash (IV), fold (I) 1 trans To bend, chiefly a (med, anat, of joints) to bend in the natural manner, b (geol, of strata) to fold 2 intrans (of joints) To be bent, allow of bending flew, n [1 fləʊ, 2 fləʊ] Abbv fr flexible Flexible insulated wire for conveying electric current to lamp &c flexibility, n [1 flɛksəbɪlɪtɪ, 2 flɛksəbɪlɪtɪ] Fr flexibilité, fr Lat flexibilis em See next word & -ity Quality of being flexible flexible, adj [1 flɛksəbəl, 2 flɛksəbəl] Fr, fr Lat flexibilis, 'pliant' See flex (I) & -ible 1 a Capable of being bent, pliant flexible wire, b (of the voice) capable of modulation 2 a (of the mind and character) Pliable, compliant, tractable, open and adaptable to new ideas and circumstances, (in bad sense) complaisant, b (of style, language) adaptable, plastic, expressing, capable of expressing, variety of ideas and emotions, c (of persons) versatile, capable of easily adapting themselves to circumstances flexibly, adv Prec & -ly In a flexible manner flexile, adj [1 flɛksəl, 2 flɛksəl] Lat flexilis (u), 'pliant, supple, curved' flex (I) & -ile Flexible (in lit and fig senses) flexility, n [1 flɛksɪlɪtɪ, 2 flɛksɪlɪtɪ] Prec & -ity Quality of being flexible flexion, incorrectly flection, n [1 flɛksɪən, 2 flɛksɪən] Fr, fr Lat flexio (em), 'a bending, turning, curve, modulation, change'. flex (I) & -ion 1 a Action of bending, b thing bent, fold 2 (anat) Inward bending of a joint, action of flexor, contrasted with extension 3 (gram) Inflection flexional, adj [1 flɛksɪənəl, 2 flɛksɪənəl] Prec & -al Pertaining to, capable of, flexion, or inflection flexionless, adj [1 flɛksɪənəls, 2 flɛksɪənəls] flexion & -less (gram) Incapable of, lacking, flexion flexor, n [1 flɛksər, 2 flɛksər] Mod Lat flex (I) & -or (anat) Muscle that bends a joint inwards, contrasted w extensor flexuose, adj [1 flɛksjuəs, 2 flɛksjuəs] Lat flexuosus (u), 'full of turns, tortuous', fr flexu -s, 'a bending' See flex & -ose flexuous, n [1 flɛksjuəs, 2 flɛksjuəs] Prec & -ity, cp Fr flexuosité Quality or state of being flexuous flexuous, adj [1 flɛksjuəs, 2 flɛksjuəs] Lat flexuosus (u) See flexuose, cp Fr flexuosus (u) See flexuose, full of curves, sinuous, tortuous, winding, b (fig) yielding, wavering flexuously, adv Prec & -ly In a flexuous manner flexure, n [1 flɛksər, 2 flɛksər] Lat flexura See flex & -ure Act or process of flexing, bending, curving, or bowing, also a bend, curve, or fold, speed, curvature, or sagging of heavy body due to its weight, or of stratum under pressure flibbertigibbet, n [1 flɪbɪtɪgɪbɪt, 2 flɪbɪtɪgɪbɪt] Invented word. Irresponsible, unreliable, wavering person with no concentration of mind or character, and no fixity of purpose flick, vb trans & n [1 flɪk, 2 flɪk] Perh a weakened form of obs or provinc flack, vb, 'to flap, flutter', n, 'stroke, blow', cogn w Gk plégē, 'stroke', Lat plangere, 'to beat the breast' &c See plague 1 vb trans a To strike, tap, or flip very lightly with a rapid jerky movement, as of a whip, handkerchief, or finger-nail to flick a lazy horse, to flick away a crumb, b to jerk (whip &c) rapidly at anything 2 n Smart, light, jerky stroke or blow, as of a whip, lash, or of the finger flicker (I), vb intrans & n [1 flɪkər, 2 flɪkər] O E flicoran, -erian, ME flickeren, flickeren, to flintier, waver', op Da flickeren, 'to sparkle', fr base flic*, as prec & freq -er 1 vb intrans a To flutter, quiver, waver flags, leaves, flicker in the wind, flickering shadows, b to burn unsteadily, burn up and die down with quick alternations the candle flickers, c (fig) a last faint hope flickered up and died 2 n a Fluttering, quivering motion, as of fluttering bird, or agitated leaves, b brief lapping or dart of flame, (also fig) a feeble flicker of animation flicker (II), n Perh fr flick & -er, or ummut of note Golden winged woodpecker of N America flier, also flyer, n [1 flɪər, 2 flɪər] fly (I) & -er Person or thing that flies flight (I), n [1 flɪt, 2 flɪt] OE flȳht, ME flȳht See fly (I) & subst suff -t 1 a Action or process of flying, as by winged creature a bird takes its flight, b free movement through the air flight of a bullet, spear, aeroplane, balloon, c manner of flying a steady, heavy, dipping, flight, d pursuit of prey by flying hawk, e migration of birds or in scots the spring and autumn flights of swallows 2 Distance traversed by flying, by bird, airship, aeroplane &c a long flight 3 (in non material sense) a Process of passing away, passage, lapse the flight of time, departure the spirit takes, wings, its flight 4 Action of mental aspiration, bold or sustained mental effort, excursion, or rally a flight of imagination, wit, fancy, ambition 5 a Number of creatures or things flying together, flock (of birds, esp migrating), volley (of missiles) a flight of starlings, arrows, Phr in the first flight, of the highest class or rank, b (coll) young birds produced in the same season, c a formation, a unit, of aeroplanes, under a flight-lieutenant 6 a Continuous set or series of stairs or steps, b series of hurdles across racing track, c series of locks on canal, of terraces &c 7 (archery) a Contest in long-distance shooting, b arrow used for such shooting flight (II), n ME flȳht, fr flȳht, stem of OE flȳan, see flee, & subst suff -t, cp Gorm flucht &c Confused w prec Act of fleeing, hurried retreat, running away the flight into Egypt, Mahomet's flight from Mecca Phrs to take flight, take to flight, to flee, to put to flight, to rout flight (III), vb trans & intrans flight (I) 1 trans a To shoot (birds) flying in a flight b to put feather in to flight an arrow 2 intrans (of birds) To fly or migrate in a flight or flock flight-arrow, n One used for long distance shooting flight-feather, n One of the quill feathers of a bird's wing flightily, adv [1 flɪtɪli, 2 flɪtɪli] flighty & -ly In a flighty manner flightiness, n [1 flɪtɪnəs, 2 flɪtɪnəs] flighty & -ness Quality of being flighty; levity, of character or conduct flight lieutenant, n. Rank in Royal Air Force, equivalent to captain in the army flight-muscle, n. Bird's muscle used in flying flight-shooting, n. (archery) Long distance shooting flighty, adj. [1 fliti, 2 flaiti] flight (I) & -y 1 (of character and conduct) Volatile, capricious, giddy, fickle, ill balanced 2 (obs) Fleeting, transient (Shakespeare) flimflam, n. [1 flimflam, 2 flimflam] Re dupl. fr flam Nonsense, humbug, a trifle, sham flimsily, adv. [1 flimzli, 2 flimzli] flimsy & -ly In a flimsy manner flimsiness, n. [1 flimness, 2 flimness] Next word & -ness Quality of being flimsy, instability, lack of solidity, (in material and non material sense) flimsiness of structure (in a house &c), flimsiness of an argument flimsy, adj. & n. [1 flimzi, 2 flimzi] Of uncertain origin, perh fr flim & -y, w in section of s as in clumsy, tipsy, tricksy, op Dan dial fims, 'film' 1 adj. a (of material things) Thin and fragile, slight, unsubstantial, lacking durability and solidity, poorly constructed, easily torn or damaged flimsy paper, muslin, a flimsy structure of lath and plaster, b (of non material things) weak, inadequate, shallow, paltry, ill knit, not thought out, ill founded a flimsy pretext, argument, prelusion 2 n (colloq) A flimsy object, specif a thin sheet of paper, transfer paper, b reporter's paper, hence newspaper copy, o (slang) banknote, d (slang) telegram flinch (I), v. intrans [1 flinsh, 2 flinsh] O Fr fléncher, fléncher, 'to turn aside, bend', perh fr OHG flencan* (MHG & Mod Germ lenken), 'to turn aside', fr blanca, 'side' (see flank), prob influenced by Fr fléchir, 'to bend' 'to draw, start, back, as in fear or pain, to shrink (from anything painful or hard), wince to bear pain without flinching, to flinch from an unpleasant duty flinch (II) Variant of flense flinders, n. pl. [1 flinderz, 2 flinderz] M Scots flendirs, op Du flender, 'rage', & see flounder (I) Fragments, shreds, splinters (rare, chiefly in Phr to break, fly, in flinders) fling (I), v. trans & intrans [1 fling, 2 flig] M E flingen, 'to rush', intrans, prob Scand, op Swed flinga, 'to use violent action, romp' Origin obscure The general sense is to cast, throw, usually with the implication of a certain degree of vehemence, violence, impatience, haste, attending the action A trans 1 a To propel forcibly through the air, to hurl, throw to fling a stone, a spear, fling a dead cat on a dust heap, fling one's hat in the air &c, to fling a coil of rope, Phr to fling one's clothes on, dress rapidly, b to move arms or men rapidly to a given point to fling three divisions, many guns, into a battle 2 To move some part of the body rapidly, violently, or impulsively to fling one's arms round a person's neck, the horse flung his head about, his heels up 3 (reflex) a To cast oneself, move with haste or violence, into a given position to fling oneself into the saddle, into a chair, to fling oneself into one's clothes, dress hastily, b (fig) to enter into, embark upon, take up, esp with spirit and determination to fling oneself whole heartedly into an undertaking, pursuit &c Phr to fling oneself upon a person's mercy, generosity &c, to surrender oneself, trust to 4 a In various other phrases as equivalent of throw or cast to fling caution to the winds, to fling off pursuers, outdistances, escape from, to fling something in a person's teeth, face, reproach him with it, b to scatter broadcast to fling money to the crowd, o (poet) to diffuse, shed abroad the flowers flung their fragrance all around B intrans Generally followed by preposition or adverb 1 To rush impetuously and vehemently, to go, turn abruptly, as under stress of strong feeling, to flounce to fling out of doors in a rage, to fling away, off, without a word 2 Fling out, a (of horse) kick, lash out, b (of persons) to launch, burst out, into passionate, reckless protest, abuse &c fling (II), n. fr prec 1 n Act of flinging, throwing, or hurling an object, throw, cast, b (fig) sharp, sudden, or brief invective, sarcastic hit, taunt, flout, sally, gibe to have a fling at one's old enemy 2 a Vehement and sudden movement, as of restive horse, fit of kicking and plunging, Phr in full fling, in full course, active progress, b specif, a fling of the dice, cast, c (fig) fit of abandonment to rage or other passion, or to dissipation or pleasure of any kind to have one's fling 3 Highland fling, a Scottish dance with rapid steps, and movements of arms in time to the tune, b air to which this is danced flint (I), n. [1 flint, 2 flint] In OE & ME, cogn w Gk phlîn (cp), 'brook' See plinth. 1 a Very hard dark grey or brown form of quartz, occurring in irregular nodules or lumps in chalk &c, b (fig) anything very hard, obdurate, or unyielding a heart of flint 2 A nodule or piece of flint Phr to skin a flint, be very stingy or miserly, to wring water from a flint, to perform the impossible or miraculous, as hard as a flint, specif a piece of flint shaped for producing fire on being struck with steel, esp in tinderbox or match, b ancient prehistoric implement made from chipped flint flint (II), adj. fr prec Consisting, made of, flint flint arrow, flint axe, flint implements, prehistoric tools or weapons made of chipped or flaked flint flint-glass, n. Dense, lustrous kind of glass, originally made from calcined flint, crystal glass flintiness, n. [1 flintness, 2 flintness] flinty & -ness Quality of being flinty, extreme hardness, chiefly in fig sense flint-knapper, n. Man who breaks flints for road making, formerly one who chipped flints for flint locks &c flint-lock, n. A Ancient type of gun lock with piece of flint fixed in hammer or cock, for igniting the priming, b gun with this type of lock flinty, adj. [1 flinti, 2 flinti] flint & -y a Consisting of, abounding in, flint a flinty soil, b (lit and fig) resembling flint, hard, obdurate flip (I), v. trans & intrans [1 flip, 2 flip] Perh a variant of flap (I), cp M E flipen, 'to pull' (off a sleeve) Cp flip, flippant 1 trans a To propel or tap smartly as with the nail of finger or thumb, to flip, flick, jerk, b to move about rapidly or jerkily 2 intrans To make smart, light stroke, as with finger or whip flip (II), n. fr prec Act of flipping, flip, flick flip (III), n. Prob fr flip (I), in sense, 'beat up, whip' Drunk composed of hot milk, egg, sugar, and cherry, or spirits flip-flap, flip-flop, n. Jingle fr flip (I) & flap, flop 1 a Flapping noise, b a kind of fireworks 2 a semersault flippancy, n. [1 flipancy, 2 flipancy] Next word & -cy, on anal of words of Fr origin Quality of being flippant, levity of speech or mind flippant, adj. [1 flippant, 2 flippant] Origin doubtful Lacking seriousness, weight, gravity in feeling and expression, characterized by levity, pert, frivolous flippantly, adv. Prec & -ly In a flippant manner flipper, n. [1 flipper, 2 flipper] flip (I) & -er a Limb of mammal, bird, or reptile adapted for swimming, as of whale, penguin, turtle, b (slang and facetious) the human hand flirt (I), v. trans & intrans [1 flirt, 2 flirt] Of obscure origin, perh connected w OE flerdian (rare), 'to play the fool', fr flerd (rare), 'a trifle, deception', derived fr or cogn w ON flær, 'decent' Cp also E. Fris. flirtje, 'a giddy girl' A trans To jerk, flick, shake, or wave quickly a bird flirt its tail, 'to flirt a fan, to make play with it, open and shut it quickly' B intrans 1 To move fitfully or jerkily 2 a To play at love making, to court triflingly or without serious intentions, to coquet, b to cultivate superficially friendly relations, to toy, dally some Socialists flirted with Imperialism flirt (II), n. fr prec 1 Sudden brisk movement, jerk, flick, as with tail or fan. 2 Man or woman who flirts, a philanderer, coquette. flirtation, n. [1 flirtsation, 2 flirtsation] flirt (I) & -ntion Action or practice of flirting, making love for amusement, coquetry flirtatious, adj. [1 flirtsatious, 2 flirtsatious] As prec & -atious Addicted to flirtation, inclined to flirt, light, frivolous, in behaviour, esp in dealings with the opposite sex flirty, adj. [1 flirti, 2 flirti] flirt & -y Inclined to flirt, coquettish flit (I), v. intrans [1 flit, 2 flit] M E fliten, fluten, 'to carry away, go away, migrate', fr ON flytja, 'to cause to flit', weak grade of flyða, 'to float, flow', cogn w OE flotan, q v under fleet (I) 1 (of flying creatures) a To fly lightly and quickly from place to place, to rove about in flight bats and moths flit hither and thither in the dusk, to flit from tree to tree, b to pass with silent, steady flight to flit past 2 a (of persons) To move about lightly and quietly swims flit through the hospital ward, b (fig) (of thoughts, dreams &c) to come and go unobtrusively fancies flit through one's mind 3 a (Scot or North Engl) To remove from one house to another, change one's place of abode, b to leave one's quarters secretly, by stealth, esp to escape creditors flit (II), n. fr prec Act of flitting, esp sudden or secret change of abode flitch, n. [1 flitch, 2 flitch] OE flitche, 'flitch of bacon', M E flische, op ON flitka, 'a patch', fr Gmc base flask*, 'broad, flat' See fleek. 1 a Side of a pig salted and cured, the Dunmow Flitch, a flitch of bacon given yearly to the happiest married couple claiming it; b steak of halibut, o square of blubber 2 Outside shoe sawn from tree trunk flite, flyte, v. intrans & trans [1 flit, 2 flait] OE flitan, M E fliten, op OHG flizan, Mod Germ fliezen, 'diligence' (archaic and Scots) a intrans To quarrel, wrangle; b trans, to quarrel with, scold, abuse flitting, flyting, n. [1 flitting, 2 flitting] M E fliting Prec & -ing (archaic or Scots) Scolding, wrangling, specif (hist) contest in mutual metrical abuse between two poets. flitter, v. intrans [1 flitter, 2 flite] Apparently a variant of flutter (I) To flitter, flit about as a bird flittermouse, n. [1 flittermouse, 2 flittermouse] Dial word, apparently an old compound; op OHG cogn flidarmūs, 'bat' Prec & mouse Bat flivver, n. [1 flivver, 2 flive] Invented word. (slang, USA) A cheap motor car fix, n. [1 fix, 2 fix] Origin unknown. Down, fur, from breast, esp of rabbit or beaver float (I), v. intrans & trans [1 flöt, 2 flout] Late OE flotan, M E floten (rare), fr stem flot (cp next word), fr Gmc flut* flān, weak grade of flotan, 'to float', q v under fleet (I) Thus vb has ousted fleet (I) through influence of O Fr floter, Mod Fr flöter, 'to float', fr Gmc source A intrans. 1 a To rest or drift on, buoyed up on, or near, the surface of water or other liquid, to be suspended in water &c, opposite of to sink a cork floats in water, b specif, to remain balanced and buoyed up in water without swimming, and neither sinking nor moving along 2 To be suspended in, hover in, drift, or glide through, the air, as in water clouds float in the sky, dust floats in the air, goesamer floats on the breeze. 3 (fig) a To move with a stately, gliding gait, b to drift about, wander or move aimlessly or vaguely ideas floating in the mind B trans 1 To set afloat, cause to float, bring to surface of water and causes to stay there - to float a ship 2 (of a liquid) To bear up, buoy up, retain suspended on the surface enough water to float a ship; the tide floated us into the harbor 3 To cause to float or lower in the air coal gas will float a balloon 4 To flood, drench, cover, a surface with water 5 (commerce) To start, launch, set going, set on foot, put in circulation to float a loan, company, scheme float (II), n OE flota, 'that which floats, a ship' See prec 1 Thing that floats on surface of, or in a liquid (in many senses), specif a raft, floating stage, b cork or quill on fishing line, used to prevent bait from sinking below a certain depth, c one of series of masses of cork attached to edge of fishing net to keep it afloat, d hollow ball at end of lower attached to valve in oyster to regulate depth of water, e air-bladder of fish or other water animal 2 A kind of oar with low floor, for conveying heavy goods, as eans of mill, coal &c, b low wheeled platform drawn in procession with group of persons in costume &c 3 A wooden implement used for spreading plaster on wall &c, b kind of file for smoothing 4 Float-board 5 (sing or pl) Footlights in theatres floatable, adj [1 flótəbl, 2 flótəbl] float (I) &-able Cp Fr flottable a Capable of floating or being floated, b (of stream) deep enough for floating a raft floatage, floatage, n [1 flótɪ, 2 flótɪdʒ] float (I) &-age Cp Fr flottage 1 State of floating, ability to float, buoyancy 2 a (coll) Things that float, floating matter, floatam, b right to take floatam 3 The part of a ship above the water-line floatation, n [1 flótəʃən, 2 flótəʃən] float (I) &-ation, or Fr flotation 1 State of floating 2 Centre of floatation, centre of gravity in floating body 3 The launching of a commercial or other undertaking float-board, n One of the boards fixed at intervals round the wheel of an undershot water mill or of a paddle steamer float-bridge, n Bridge built on rafts floatier, n [1 flótɪə, 2 flótɪə] a Person or thing that floats, b (finance, colloq) security payable to bearer float-grass, a One of several kinds of marsh grass floating (I), vbl n [1 flótɪŋ, 2 flótɪŋ] float (I) &-ing Aot or process of floating (in various senses) floating (II), adj, fr Pres Part of float (I) 1 a Borne up by a liquid, buoyant, resting or drifting on the surface of water floating wreckage Various spoils use floating wrecker, drag-ancher, sea-ancher, floating battery, raft or other vessel used as platform for guns in coast defence or attack on fortifications, floating dock, dry dock floating on the sea, capable of being partly submerged to admit vessel, and then raised to lift vessel out of water, floating harbour, one formed by floating anchored breakwater of timber, floating island, mass of floating decayed vegetation &c, supporting fresh vegetation; also artificial raft anchored in river, lake &c, for raising crops &c, floating light, lightship or other floating structure bearing beacon for navigation, life buoy with light for use at night, b suspended or drifting in air or other gaseous medium floating theslidown, c pertaining to cargoes at sea floating rate, trade 2 Not attached to, or fixed in, one place loose, shifting, movable Specific uses floating kidney, liver, one abnormally capable of displacement, floating rib, one of the lower ribs not attached to the breastbone, floating capital, movable capital, such as money, goods, distinguished from fixed capital, floating charge, neb, one fluctuating or varying according to circumstances, floating policy, insurance policy of which the application is not in the first instance specified, floating population, shifting, variable part of the population of a place, as of a seaport floating bridge, n A bridge of boats, pontoon, or rafts, also floating part of a bridge, made to swing open, b kind of large ferry-boat hauled across water by chain attached to both banks, c kind of military bridge for crossing moats &c float-stone, n Sense 1 fr float (I), 2 fr float (II) 1 One of several kinds of light stone that float in water 2 Stone used for smoothing brickwork flocillation, n [1 flókəliʃən, 2 flókəliʃən] fr Lat floculus, 'flock of wool', see flock (I), & Lat dimin -ill- &-ation (med) Plucking at bedclothes by patient in delirium flocose, adj [1 flókə, 2 flókə] L Lat flocosa (ur) See flock (I) &-ose Woolly, tufty, specif (bot) bearing woolly tufts floculus, n [1 flókəl, 2 flókəl] See floculus a Detached mass of wool or of substance of similar structure, b flaky substance in a precipitate floculence, n [1 flókələns, 2 flókələns] See next word &-ence Quality or state of being floculent floculent, adj [1 flókələnt, 2 flókələnt] Flocul-, as in floculus, &-ant Resembling wool or flock, having consistency, or consisting, of flaky, fibrous matter floculose, adj [1 flókələs, 2 flókələs] Flocul-, stem of floculus, &-ose Floculent floculous adj [1 flókələs, 2 flókələs] As prec &-ous Floculent floculus, n [1 flókələs, 2 flókələs] Mod Lat dimin of flocus 1 Small tuft of woolly or curling hairs 2 (anat) Small lobe on lower side of cerebellum 3 (astron) Cloud-like mass of vapours in sun's atmosphere flocus, n [1 flókəs, 2 flókəs] Lat, 'look, flock of wool', fr Aryan bhel-*los, cogn w Gk phlōdēm, 'to tear' Other cognates doubtful a Tuft of wool or hair, tuft at end of animal's tail, b first down of young birds flock (I), n [1 flók, 2 flók] ME flocke, fr O Fr floc, fr Lat See floculus 1 A small look, bunch, or tuft of wool, b (pl) shredded woollen or cotton waste used to stuff mattresses &c, c (coll, sing or pl) minute fragments of wool used to make flockpaper 2 (pl) Floculent precipitate floating in solution flock (II), vb trans, fr flock (I) a To attach flocks to paper (see flockpaper), b to roughen surface of glass so as to give it a flocky appearance flock (III), n OE floc, ME floc, cp ON flokk, 'troop, band', cognates outside Gmc appear to be lacking Assemblage, company, crowd Specif 1 a collection of certain animals, used esp of sheep, goats, geese, ducks, or other of the smaller gregarious domestic animals, a number of these which belong to one owner and live and feed together, (often, esp in pl) sheep master of many flocks, flocks and herds, sheep and cattle, b natural assemblage of gregarious birds a flock of gulls, chaffinches, or of wild sheep or goats, or sometimes of other animals, as seals Phr the flower of the flock (fig), handsomest, cleverest, most satisfactory, member of a family 2 (of human beings) a Crowd, bevy, of persons (often pl) people come in flocks, a whole flock of visitors, b company under one guide or guardian, esp the children of one family or school the mother, teacher, with her little flock, c the Christian Church in relation to Christ as the Good Shepherd the flock of Christ, d a Christian congregation in relation to its pastor 3 (of inanimate things, rare) Large collection or number, heap a flock of pamphlets flock (IV), vb intrans & trans, fr prec A intrans 1 a (of human beings) To crowd, come, together, form a flock, to flock together, b to move all together in a single body or crowd the crowd flocked into the church, to flock to hear a famous preacher 2 (of birds) To assemble in large numbers, esp preparatory to a fight B trans (rare) To bring together, form, into a flock.

flocked, n [1 flókəbəd, 2 flókəbəd] flock (I) Bed stuffed with flock flockmaster, n [1 flókəməstə, 2 flókəməstə] flock (III) Owner or keeper of flocks of sheep flockpaper, n [1 flókpepə, 2 flókpepə] Wall paper coated all over or in patterns with flock (I), 1, c floe, n [1 flō, 2 flou] Icel flō, 'layer', or Das (ms) flage, 'floe' See flag (VI) flake, flaw Large sheet or field of floating ice on sea flog, vb trans & intrans [1 flɒg, 2 flɒg] First in 17th cent as cant word, perch school slang, fr Lat flagellare, 'to scourge' See flagellate A trans 1 To beat hard, thrash, scourge, with whip, stick, or the like, to lash, to punish by thrashing, specif, to inflict severest form of corporal punishment on a schoolboy, usually with a birch rod Phr to flog a dead horse, to try to revive interest in a stale or worn out controversy, to waste one's efforts, to flog the water, to keep throwing a fly over it in fishing, to flog (a donkey &c) along, compel to go, drive, by flogging, to flog (laziness) out of, (Latin) into, a boy, to induce to abandon, to learn, by use of corporal punishment 2 To hit very hard to flog the boring, at cricket B intrans (of sails) To flap noisily and violently in the wind flogging, vbl n [1 flɒgɪŋ, 2 flɒgɪŋ] Prec &-ing Punishment by beating, corporal punishment flogging is an excellent thing if administered judiciously flood (I), n [1 flʌd, 2 flʌd] OE, ME flōd, 'a flowing, flow, stream' &c, Com mon Gmc, OE, flōd, OHG fluo, Goth flōdus &c Closely related in Gk plōdēs, adj, 'floating, navigable', & fr same Aryan base plō-* &c, also Lat plōrē, 'to weep, lament', orig 'to stream at the eyes', cp deplore, & see also under flow (I) 1 A large body of water collected in an unusual place, generally due to a river &c overflowing its banks, or abnormal rainfall, inundation, deluge the floods are out all along the railway line, specif b the Flood, that described in the story of Noah in Genesis, the Deluge 2 (archaic or poet) The sea, a river, any large body of water, a lake 3 Flow or rising of the tide the tide is at the flood Phr at the flood, at the favourable moment 4 a Copious discharge, or torrent, of water or other liquid a flood of water poured from the roof, floods of rain, Phr floods of ink, copious writing, esp in contempt, very, b violent and copious weeping a flood of tears 5 (fig) Great flow, torrent, gust, outpouring, outburst (of emotion) a flood of anger, b (of utterance or expression) a flood of calumny, floods of words flood (II), vb trans & intrans, fr pres A trans 1 a (of water) To cover with a flood, inundate, deluge, to discharge a large volume of water over or into, to drench the river has flooded the meadows, to flood the drains, b (of human agency) to cause to become covered with water, let water in upon to flood a meadow by opening the sluices 2 To cause to become swollen with excessive addition of water the river is flooded by the rains 3 (fig) To crowd into, throng, overwhelm applicants flooded the offices, to be flooded with inquirers B intrans 1 a (of river) To overflow, brim over, b (of tide) to rise, be at the flood 2 (med) To have uterine haemorrhage floodgate, n [1 flʌdgæt, 2 flʌdgæt] ME flōdgat a Gate in river or stream, opened to release flood water, and closed to retain water in channel, sluice, lower gate of lock, b (fig) thing that restrains a flood or outburst 'The floodgates of her eyes' (Shakespeare), to open the floodgates of wrath, passion &c flooding, n [1 flʌdɪŋ, 2 flʌdɪŋ] Emersion of a flood, torrent, or stream, specif, uterine haemorrhage.

finders Perhaps cogn w Lat planta, 'sole of the foot', s.e. plant (I) One of several of the smaller edible flat fishes flounder (II.), vb intrans & n. Origin unknown 1 vb a To make vehement but awkward and helpless efforts to rise or advance, as through water or mire, to stagger, roll, or wallow helplessly to flounder through, into, a morass, a porpoise floundering in a shoal, b (fig) to speak, act, as though confused in mind, to blunder, stumble, hesitate, become involved in speech and expression 2 n Action of floundering flour, n & vb trans [1 flour, 2 flours] M E flour (of white), op Fr fleur de farine, 'flower or finest part of meal' Merely a variant of flower (I) 1 n a finely ground, or ground and bolted, meal, esp of wheat, b any very fine, soft powder 2 (rare) vb a To reduce to flour, b to sprinkle or cover with flour flour-beetle, n Beetle breeding in flour flour-box, n Flour-dredger flour-dredge, -dredger, n Perforated tin box used for dredging or sprinkling flour flourish (I.), vb intrans & trans [1 flourish, 2 flourishes] M E florisschen, flursschen, fr O Fr flurr, flurr (Pres Part flurissant, Mod Fr flourir, flourissant), fr Lat flōrēre, 'to blossom, flourish', & its morpheme flōrescere. See florid, flower (I), also -ish. A. intrans 1 a (of plant) To grow vigorously or luxuriantly, to thrive, be in a healthy condition, b generally, to thrive, prosper, succeed, be in a vigorous state, c (of eminent person, chiefly Prot, op floruit), to be active, productive, pursuing one's calling (at such a time) The philosopher Socrates flourished 400 B.C.

2 To make or perform a flourish of any kind, speed a to make fanciful, waving movements, as of the arms, b to write in an affectedly ornate hand, to make fanciful strokes with the pen, c to use flowery or florid language, to talk boastfully, d to make musical flourishes, to sound a fanfare B trans 1 (rare) To decorate with flowery or fanciful ornament 2 To move, wave, swing, brandish, shake in a fantastic or ostentatious manner, to flaunt to flourish a sword, a handkerchief, one's arms flourish (II.), n, fr prec 1 a Flourishing state, prosperity in full flourish 2 The movement of flourishing, brandishing, anything, wave, rapid swing a flourish of swords, of one's hat &c 3 Decorative or fanciful curved line or lines in handwriting, engraving, or printing, appended to signature, initial letter &c 4 Flowery or florid expression or passage in speech or writing, rhetorical ornament or display 5 (mus) Florid or showy passage, often improvised as prelude or addition to a piece 6 Fanfare, esp to welcome distinguished visitor a flourish of trumpets, (this phrase also fig) an ostentatious introduction or advertisement, e.g. in the press flourishing, adj [1 flourishing, 2 flourishings] Pres Part of flourish (I) Vigorous, thriving, in good health, prosperous, successful, happy.

flourishy, adj [1 flourishy, 2 flourishys] flourish (II) & -y Having, abounding in, flourishes flourmill, n [1 flourmil, 2 flourmils] Mill in which grain is ground into flour flour-moth, n. Moth whose larva infests flour floury, adj [1 floury, 2 flourys] flour & -y a Pertaining to, consisting of, sprinkled with, flour, b resembling flour.

flout (I.), vb trans & intrans [1 flout, 2 flouts], fr 16th cent, prob a special sense of M E floutin (see flute), cp M Du. fluyten, 'to play the flute, to jeer, to impose on' 1 trans To mock at, show scorn of, treat with contempt, disregard contemptuously to flout one's advice. 2 intrans To utter contemptuous speech, to jeer, scoff, behave with contempt to flout at one

flout (II.), n, fr prec Expression of contempt, insulting speech or act, gibe, jeer, mockery, scoffing flow (I.), vb intrans [1 flow, 2 flows] O E flōwan, O.N. flōa, fr same base as flood.

Outside Gmc, Aryan plōw-* has given rise to Gk plōōn, for plōw-*, 'to float, swim' &c, O Slav plōati, 'I swim', Lat plūere, 'to rain' See plural. 1 a (of water and other liquids) To move along, stream, glide, run, to gush rivers flow down to the sea, tears flow from the eyes, Phrs. to flow like water (esp of wine), to be forthcoming in lavish abundance, to flow with milk and honey, abound in good things, b specif. (of the blood) to circulate royal blood flows in his veins, Phr blood will flow, (before things are settled &c.) there will be bloodshed, c (of air, fins sand, molten metal, lava &c) to move along, run as though flowing hot air flows up the chimney, sand flows through an hour-glass 2 (of the tide) To rise, come in, reverse of to ebb 3. (of a number, series, of moving objects) To pass, move along in continuous sequence like a stream the crowd, traffic, flows past the Marble Arch all day 4 (of various non-material things) To come forth, run easily and continuously, glide along, pass (said of eloquence, conversation, verse &c) 'There the last numbers flowed from Cowley's tongue' (Pope), also of life, time 5 (in fig sense) To proceed from, be due to, as a cause, to spring, be derived from, as a source many excellent results flowed from his action, 'Praise God from Whom all blessings flow' 6 (of drapery, long hair &c) To fall in loose folds or masses, stream down, descend in waves robes that flowed from his shoulders, hair flowing down her back flow (II.), n, fr prec 1 a Process of flowing in various senses, manner of flowing, current to proceed with steady flow, b specif. the rise, coming in, of the tide; opposite of ebb 2 Something which flows, stream, gush, outburst, a of water, blood, oil &c, also of air, b (in non-material sense) flow of conversation, wit, words &c, Phr flow of spirits, unflagging cheerfulness 3 Amount of substance that flows; quantity, output a daily flow of 1000 gallons, a good flow of milk flower (I.), n [1 flower, 2 flowers] M E, O Fr flour, flūr, flōr (Mod. Fr. fleur), fr Lat flōr (em), acc of flōs, w change of s, through z, to r between vowels, Aryan base bhlō-*, 'to swell, blow' See Gmc derivations fr this base under blade, blood, bloom, blossom, blow (I) Lat folium, 'leaf', q v under folio, is prob also cogn. 1 a (bot) That part of seed plant comprising the reproductive organs, esp when furnished with a perianth, between opening of bud and development of seed vessel, b popularly, any of the variously coloured heads of plants, composed of floral leaves or petals, blossom, c flowering herb or plant smaller than a shrub, whether actually in flower or not, d state of blooming in flower 2 Carven or other representation of a flower, conventional ornament suggested by form of a flower, Phr flowers of speech, rhetorical, picturesque, decorative expression 3 The finest, choicest, part, or result, of anything, a height of strength, vigour, activity the flower of one's age, life, strength, b finest, ripest, intellectual product flower of scholarship, of poetry, c (of human beings) noblest, bravest, most beautiful, most distinguished part of a population, or group of men, at a given time, the cream, finest type, embodiment of the best qualities the flower of the youth of the country, of the army, of chivalry, the flower of the countryside & (old hom) a Fine powder left after sublimation flowers of sulphur, b scum from fermentation flower (II.), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans. a To produce, bear, a flower or flowers, to bloom, blossom, b (fig) to be in, come into, prime, or state of highest vigour the Italian genius flowered at the Renaissance 2 trans. (rare) a To cause, or allow, to flower to flower hyacinths in a greenhouse, b to decorate with a floral pattern.

flowerage, n [1 flowery, 2 flowerings] flower (I) & -age (rare) a State of flowering, b flowers collectively flower-bearing, adj Producing flowers. a flower bearing stem.

flowerbed, n [1 flowerbed, 2 flowerbeds] Garden bed in which flowers are grown.

flowerbud, n [1 flowerbud, 2 flowerbuds] Bud which develops into a flower flower-de-luce, n [1 flower de lûs, 2 fleurs de lys] Variant of fleur-de-lis a Fleur de-lis, b arms flowered, adj [1 flowerd, 2 flowered] flower (I) & -ed Decorated with floral pattern flowered silk, chemise, gown &c flowerer, n [1 flowerer, 2 flowerers] flower (II) & -er Plant that flowers on early flowerer floweret, n [1 floweret, 2 flowerets] flower (I) & -et Cp floret (post) Little flower flower-garden, n Garden devoted to the cultivation and display of flowers, contrasted with kitchen garden flower girl, n Girl or woman who retails flowers in the street or market floweriness, n [1 floweriness, 2 flowerinesses] floweriness & -ness Quality of being flowery (lit and fig) flowering, adj [1 flowering, 2 flowerings] fr Pres Part of flower (II) Bearing flowers, blooming, having conspicuous flowers, grown on account of its flowers flowering shrub, tree, specif, flowering currant, ribes, flowering fern, ling fern, flowering rush, British water plant unrelated to the rush, with pink flower flowerless, adj [1 flowerless, 2 flowerless] M E flowerless flower (I) & -less Bearing no flowers, having lost or shed its flowers.

flower-pieces, n Picture of flowers flowerpot, n [1 flowerpot, 2 flowerpots] Pot of coarse ware, in which plants are grown flower service, n Church service at which offerings of flowers are made for the sick.

flower show, n Exhibition at which flowers and ornamental plants are shown, and prizes given for the best specimens of each class.

flowerstalk, n [1 flowerstalk, 2 flowerstalks] Stem supporting flower, peduncle flowery, adj [1 flowery, 2 flowery] M E flōwer flower (I) & -y 1 a Abounding in, covered with, flowers a flowery meadow, b resembling flowers a flowery pattern, the Flowery Land or Kingdom, China (rendering of Chinese designation meaning 'polished nation') 2 (of language and style) Highly ornate, abounding in fanciful or rhetorical figures, florid a flowery address, style flowing, adj [1 flowing, 2 flowings] Pres Part of flow (I) That flows (in any sense), specif. a steadily and smoothly moving, as a fluid, running flowing water, b rising, advancing the flowing tide, (fig) steady progressive movement, as of public opinion, c (of language) fluent, moving easily and smoothly flowing periods, d (of graphic lines or contours) smoothly curving without breaks or abrupt changes of direction, o descending in loose folds flowing draperies flowingly, adv Pres & -ly In a flowing manner flow-line, n (geol) Line in igneous rock caused by its flow when molten flown (I), vb [1 flōn, 2 flown] O E flōwer, M E flōwen P.P. of fly (II) flown (II), adj Obs P.P. of flow (I) 1 (abs or archaic) Flushed, exalted 'Flown with insolence and wine' (Milton) 2 Having colours which flow into one another flown porcelain.

flu, flue, n [1 flū, 2 flūs] Abbr fr influenza (colloq or slang) Influenza fluctuant, adj [1 flūktuant, 2 flūktuants] Lat flūctuant (em) Pres Part of fluctuare See next word (rare) Undulating, moving like a wave fluctuate, vb intrans & trans [1 flūktuāt, 2 flūktuēt] fr Lat flūctūā-(um), P.P. type of fluctuare, 'to move as a wave', fr fluctu-s, of fluctuare, early P.P. stem of fluere, 'to wave', fr fluē, early P.P. of fluere, 'to flow'. See fluent & -ate 1 intrans a To move alternately up and down or backwards and forwards, waver, b (fig) to vary irregularly in quantity or degree, be unstable the patient's temperature, the price, opinion, etc. fluctuates 2 trans. To cause to fluctuate 'And fluctuates all the still perfume' (Tennyson, 'In Memoriam')

fluctuation, n [1 fluktu'ashun, 2 fluktu'shun] Fr, fr Lat fluctuatio (em), fr fluctuare See prec & -ion a Alternate motion in different directions as of a wave, b ir regular variation in quantity or degree, instability, vacillation, wavering flue (I), n [1 flu, 2 flu] Of uncertain origin, perh fr O Fr flue, 'a flowing', fr fluere, 'to flow', fr Lat fluere See fluent Perh confused w Du. vloer pijp, 'ventilating shaft', lit 'flow pipe' Tubo, pipe, or shaft for the conveyance of air, smoke, flame, or gas, specif. a small chimney, separate passage in chimney, b hot air pipe for heating a room &c, c tube conveying flames and hot air through boiler, d mouthpiece of flue pipe in organ.

flue (II), vb intrans & trans, fr obs or provide adj flue, 'shallow, open, flaring or expanding', of uncertain origin, perh cogn. w flow (I), or fr Fr fluer, 'to flow', see prec, ep Fr dimin adj fluet, 'lean, thin, slender' 1 intrans To be played, as opening or jamb in thick walls 2 trans To play (windown &c) flue (III), n ME flure, flours, op Flam fluere, LG flap, E Frs flap, Norw flu, perh fr Gmc base flug*, weak grade of fleg*, fly (I) See finif Loose, light, flocculent, fluffy mass of small filaments or fragments of wool, cotton &c esp as a form of dust that collects under furniture &c flue (IV), n. Cp M Du, Flem. fluere, Du flouet, 'fishing net', fr flue, 'part of net' One of several kinds of fishing net.

fluency, n [1 fluen'sa, 2 fluen'si] fluent & -cy Cp Lat fluentia Quality of being fluent, readiness, copiousness of speech, easy smoothness, and movement in style fluent (I), adj [1 fluent, 2 fluent] Fr, fr Lat fluent (em), Pres Part type of fluere 'to flow', cogn w Gk. phludera, 'to boil over, bubble up, spout, babble' Prob fr Aryan base bleu g*, 'to gush, stream out', an expansion of bhele*, &c, 'to swell', q v under blade, flower &c Cp flux 1 (rare) Flowing, capable of flowing, fluid, mobile. 2 Proceeding smoothly, easily, or gracefully fluent curves, contours, a (of speech) uttered readily, easily, or rapidly to speak fluent French, b (of speaker) able to speak readily & fluent orator, (often slightly ironical) glib, voluble but shallow fluent phrases 3 (math) Flowing, fluent fluent (II), n, fr prec (math) Flowing quantity or function in fluxions fluential, adj [1 fluen'shal, 2 fluen'sal] prec & -ial (math) Pertaining to a fluent fluently, adv [1 fluentli, 2 fluentli] fluent & -ly In a fluent, easy, ready, copious manner flue-pipe, n Pipe of organ or other musical instrument, in which sound is produced by current of air striking edge of mouthpiece flue-work, n. In organ, flue pipes collectively fluey, adj [1 flui, 2 flui] flue (III) & -y Like flue, fluffy fluff (I), n [1 fluf, 2 flaf] Perh a variant of flue (III) a Very soft light mass of down, hair, wool, or other filaments, flue, first soft growth of beard, b (theatr slang) imperfectly learnt part fluff (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To make fluffy, give a fluffy appearance to 2 intrans a To become fluffy b to speak one's part incorrectly on the stage fluffiness, n [1 flufnes, 2 flafnes] fluffy & -ness Quality of being fluffy fluffy, adj [1 fluf, 2 flaf] fluff & -y 1 Pertaining to, having, or resembling, fluff, covered with or consisting of very soft wool or hair, downy, furry 2 (slang) a Forgetful of acting part, b drunk, unsteady flugelman, n Variant of tugleman.

fluid, adj & n [1 fluid, 2 fluid] Fr fluide, fr Lat fluidus (us), fr fluere, 'to flow' See fluant. 1 adj a Capable of flowing, not solid, liquid, viscid, or gaseous, b (fig) not rigid or fixed, capable of change, mobile, pliable the opinions of the young are fluid 2 n. a (phys) Liquid, viscid, or gaseous substance, (in popular speech) liquid, b (obs phys and popular) electric fluid, hypothetical substance formerly supposed to cause electricity, magnetism, or mesmeric phenomena.

fluidal, adj [1 fluidal, 2 fluidal] prec & -al Pertaining to a fluid.

fluidity, vb trans [1 fluiditi, 2 fluiditi] fluid & -ty To make or render fluid.

fluidity, n [1 fluiditi, 2 fluiditi] Fr fluidité fluid & -ity 1 a Quality of being fluid, liquid, viscid, or gaseous state, b (fig) lack of fixed or definite form, liability to alteration. 2 Fluid substance, condition.

fluidize, vb trans [1 fluidize, 2 fluidize] fluid & -ize To render fluid, fluidity flake (I), n [1 flak, 2 flak] Scots & provino flake is etymologically more correct, OE flak, ME flake, flak, 'kind of flat-fish', ep OJN flak, prob fr a different grade of Gmc base flat*, 'flat' See flake 1 Flounder or other flat fish. 2 Flat parasitic worm, shaped rather like flat-fish, infesting liver of sheep &c and causing liver rot. 3 Kind of kidney potato flake (II), n. Perh. special sense of prec fr its shape & flatness 1 a Broad, flattened, barbed extremity of the arm of an anchor, by which it attaches itself to the ground, b barbed head or bark of harpoon, lance, arrow &c 2 Either lobe of a whale's tail flake (III), n., & vb intrans & trans, first in connexion w billiards, origin unknown 1 n a Lucky accidental stroke or shot in billiards or other game, b (colloq) piece of good luck, accidental success, happy chance 2. vb a intrans To make a flake, b trans, to hit, gam, by a flake flake-worm, n Parasitic worm in liver of sheep, flake.

flakily, adv [1 flakili, 2 flakili] flaky & -ly (colloq) In a flaky, chancy manner, by luck.

flakiness, n [1 flakines, 2 flakines] flaky & -ness (colloq) Quality of being flaky flaky, adj [1 flaki, 2 flaki] flake (I & III) & -y 1 (colloq) a Having the nature of a flake (III), lucky, chance a flaky shot, b uncertain, shifting, incalculable a flaky breeze 2 Suffering from, infested by, flakes (I), 2 flume, n, & vb intrans & trans [1 flum, 2 flum] ME, fr O Fr flum, 'river', fr Lat flumen for fluens* men, river, flowing water', fr same base as fluere, 'to flow' (see fluent), & subst suff -men 1 n a (chiefly Am) Artificial channel, generally in form of wooden troughs, for conveying water down incline, for power, transport &c, chute, b (Am) narrow ravine containing stream 2. vb (chiefly Am) a intrans To make a flume or flumes, b trans, to convey, transport, by flume flummery, n [1 flumer, 2 flumer] Origin unknown 1 a Sour jelly made of oatmeal boiled with the husks, sowens, b sweet blancmange made of flour, eggs, cream, fruit &c 2 (fig) Insipid, shallow talk, humbug, nonsense flummox, vb trans [1 flumaks, 2 flumaks] Also flumox, of unknown origin (slang) To confound, abash, disconcert flump, vb intrans & trans, & n [1 flump, 2 flump] Perh a 'portmanteau word', concocted fr fall & plump (colloq) 1 vb a intrans To fall with a thud or dull, heavy noise, to flop plump, b trans, to throw or put down with a dull, heavy noise 2 n Act or noise of flumping flung, vb [1 flung, 2 flaj] OE, ME flugen, PP, ep OE flot sing flang Pret & PP of fling flunkay, n [1 flungki, 2 flungis] Orig Scots, ep Fr flangier, 'to run at the side of, to stand by, to assist', fr flanc, flank. (contemptuous) a Laveried man servant, lackey, b (fig) an obsequious, servile, cringing person, toady, snob flunkyard, n [1 flungkardum, 2 flungkardum] prec & -dom Flunkays collectively; obsequious persons or toadies as a class flunkysish, adj [1 flungkish, 2 flungkish] flunkay & -ish Like a flunkay, obsequious, servile flunkysism, n [1 flungkizim, 2 flungkizim] flunkay & -ism Quality of being a flunkay fluor, -fluor-, pref Abbr fr fluorine, or fr Fr fluor, 'fluorine' (chem) Forms used in combination, denoting fluorine, as fluoride, fluorophane fluor, n [1 fluor, 2 fluf] Lat, 'a flowing, flux', fr fluere, 'to flow' (see fluent & -or), orig applied to minerals (1540) as a rendering of Germ flus, 'a flowing, flux'

One of several varieties of mineral containing fluorine, fluoria, fluor-spar fluoresce, vb intrans [1 fluoris, 2 fluoris] Back formation fr fluorescence, fluorescent To exhibit fluorescence fluorescence, n [1 fluorisens, 2 fluorisens] Fr, fr fluorine, 'fluor-spar', wh exhibits this property, & essence, on anal of epi-escence, phosphorescence Property possessed by certain transparent substances of emitting light rays of a different colour from those reflected or transmitted, esp of producing light from invisible rays, as Röntgen rays fluorescent, adj [1 fluoriscent, 2 fluorescent] As prec & -ent Exhibiting fluorescence fluoride, adj [1 fluorid, 2 fluorid] Fr fluor, 'fluorine', q v, & -id, op Fr fluorine (chem) Pertaining to fluorine.

fluoride, n [1 fluorid, 2 fluorid] fluor & -ide (chem) Compound of fluorine.

fluorine, n [1 fluorin, 2 fluorin, 3 fluorin] Fr fluor, 'fluorine', fr Lat fluor (see fluor) & -ine, on anal. of the related chlorine, iodine &c Non metallic, very active element, at ordinary temperatures a pungent yellow gas fluorite, n [1 fluorit, 2 fluorit] fluor & -ite Fluor spar fluoro-, pref Fr fluor, 'fluorine' See fluor Form used in combination denoting a fluorine, as fluoriform, gas resembling chloroform; b fluorescence, as fluoroscope, q v fluoroscope, n [1 fluoroskop, 2 fluoroskop] prec & -scope Instrument for observing fluorescence, consisting of box with fluorescent screen at and opposite the eyes fluoroscopia, n [1 fluoroskopii, 2 fluoroskopii] prec & -y Examination of object with Röntgen rays and fluorescent screen.

fluor-spar, n. fluor, because used as a flux, & spar (II), op Germ fluorapat, lit 'fluor-spar' Calcium fluoride or fluoric, a transparent crystalline mineral of various colours, oftenest purple or blue, popularly called Derbyshire spar or Blue John flurry (I), n [1 fluri, 2 fluri] Orig of wind, prob extended fr flurr, obs provino 'to whir', provino 'to ruffle, disarrange', op Norw flurr, 'to be in disorder', perh associated w hurry 1 Sudden, brief gust of wind, often with rain, hail, or snow, a squall 2 State of hurry and confusion of mind, fussiness, commotion, nervous agitation 3 Death throes of harpooned whale flurry (II), vb trans, fr prec To make nervous, bewilder, fluster, by haste or bustle flush (I), vb intrans & trans, & n [1 flush, 2 flaf] ME flusen, flush, 'to fly, fly about quickly' (of a bird), of obscure origin, but perh, as Skeat suggests, fr O Fr fluer, fluer Part type of fluere, 'to flow', & orig used in sense of 'murmur', as flowing water, & 'to rustle', as wind. Flush is used in M Scots for 'pool' Skeat cites M Du. fluyzen, 'to gush', prob fr O Fr, wh may itself be of Gmc origin, ep OHG flusan, 'to flow', cogn w OE flusan q v. under clouds, loose pieces of paper fly about &c. Phr to make the feathers, dust, fly, cause a turmoil, engender strife, e (of animate things) to leap lightly and swiftly for some distance through the air he flew over the hedge at a bound 4 To be borne up, spread out, agitated, by the wind, to stream out, flatter, wave in the air or wind with garments, hair, flying behind him, flags flew from every mast Phr with flags flying, as a conqueror, in triumph 5 a (of persons) To go with great speed, move in given direction with haste and impetuosity, to hasten, rush I flew to meet him, to fly to a person's arms, he simply flew down the road, it is going late, I must fly, most hurry off, Phr time flies, passes rapidly, to fly in the face of Providence, to take a course which is clearly dangerous, b (of inanimate things) to be moved suddenly, rapidly, and violently, to be hurried the window flew up, the door flew open, the wheel flew round, Phr. to fly to arms, prepare hastily for war, to send things flying, scatter them by hasty, sudden movement, to send a person flying, dismiss him abruptly, drive him away, to fly in pieces (of brittle substance), smash to atoms, to make the money fly, squander it 6 (Pret flew) To retreat hastily, run away, take to flight, flee (gen. used now instead of flee) B trans 1 To cause, allow, to fly to fly a hawk, pigeons &c 2 To bring into position, oodithoo &c for flight, direct flight of, control while flying to fly an ewer &c, to fly (also said) a kite 3 To display from mast or flag-pole, allow to stream in the wind to fly a flag Phr (nav) to fly one's flag, to assume, exercise, admiral's functions 4 Specif (athletes) to jump (on obstacle) by springing from one foot and alighting on the other to fly a hurdle 5 (Pres only) To run away, flee from to fly the approach of danger C followed by preposition or adverb Fly at, intrans, n to rush violently upon with intent to assault, to attack the dog flew at the tramp, b (fig) to attack with words, vituperate Fly into, intrans, to be carried away, transported, esp to fly into a temper, rage, fit &c Fly off, intrans, to hurry, rush, dart, away Phr to fly off at a tangent, to start a topic quite irrelevant to the matter in hand Fly out at, intrans, to burst out suddenly into anger with, assail with abuse fly (III.), n, fr prec The relation in sense between this n, in some of its senses, & tho v is not always apparent 1 Act of flying, flight, distance flown to have a fly in an aeroplane 2 In various senses, derived perhaps from idea of rapid movement, o g four-wheeled covered one horse carriage working for hire (probably abbreviated from fly by night) 3 Flap of cloth (variously applied), a part of flag at side opposite staff, width of flag from staff to outer edge, b flap of canvas covering entrance to tent, c flap of cloth, on garment, covering buttons 4 Contrivance for regulating speed of clockwork or accumulative power fly wheel &c 5 (pl) Space with gallery or galleries over proscenium of theatre, where scenes &c are shifted.

fly (IV) adj Perch fr fly (I) (colloq or slang) n Quick, agile, nimble, b knowing, sharp wideawake fly agaric, n Poisonous fungus resembling mushroom fly-away, adj & n 1 adj o (of dress, hair &c) flying loose, streaming, b (of person) flighty, volatile 2 n fly away person or thing a fugitive flybane n [1 flibin 2 flidwem] Phat or substance that kills flies fly-bitten, adj Marked with spots as from bites of flies fly-blister n (med.) One produced by cantharides or Spanish fly fly-blow n & v trans 1 n o feg or lars a black fly deposited in liver or dead flesh b oo disc of bent fly blown 2 v (of fish) To deposit eggs in, also lg fly-blown, adj a Infested or tainted with fly-blows, maggoty, b (fig) discredited, tarnished a fly blown reputation fly-boat, n Du sheboot, 'flat-bottomed coasting vessel', fr vliegen, 'to fly', & boot, 'boat' See fly (II) & boat Long, narrow canal boat for passenger traffic fly-book, n Kind of pocket-book or case specially adapted for keeping artificial flies for fishing fly-by-night, n [1 flibhi nit, 2 fidi bee nest] 1 a Person who gads about by night, b debtor who decamps by night 2 (obs) Kind of wheeled sedan chair fly-catcher, n 1 One of several small European birds that feed on flies, one of several American birds unrelated to these 2 Device for catching flies 3 Plant which catches flies in a kind of cup shaped receptacle and assimulates them fly-fish, vb intrans To catch, or attempt to catch, fish with artificial, more rarely with real, flies fly-fisher, n Person who fly fishes fly-fishing, n Act, art, of catching fish by means of flies fastened to a hook fly-flap, n Imprompt with long hoodle and one broad plant end, for driving away or killing flies flying (I), ed [1 fling, 2 flap], fr Pres Part of fly (II) 1 a Capable of flight, habitually practising flight in, or through, the air flying insect, dragon &c, flying fox, b adapted, prepared, for flight flying machine, c hurried, hasty, as though occurring during brief suspension of flight flying vest 2 Streaming loose, flowing, in the air flying hair, flying colours, waving regimental standards Phr with flying colours, in triumph, with great success 3 Resembling flight through the air flying leap, bound 4 Speedy, very fast flying squad, special detachment of police provided with fast motor cars or motor cycles flying (II), n fly (II) & -ing Action, motion, of person or thing that flies (in any sense), (attrib) flying country, country in which horsemen can ride fast, flying shot, shot at a flying or rapidly moving object flying-bridge, n 1 a Ferry boat attached by rope to fixed object, and swinging across river, usually by action of current, b pontoon bridge or other floating bridge 2 Highest of several bridges on ship flying-buttress, n Buttress built into an outer wall so as to give extra support and carry part of the weight, with the top sloping to an inner wall, or, if the buttress is in the form of a detached column, bearing one end of a half arch, the other end of which is connected with the wall flying-column, n Military force equipped for rapid movement, and supplied so as to be practically independent of main base flying-fish, n One of several allied fishes found in warm seas, that when pursued leap out of the water, and make a short flight, resembling that of a bird, by means of pectoral fins flying-fox, n A large fruit-eating bat flying-frog, n A large East Indian tree frog with large webbed feet, enabling it to spring from tree to tree flying-officer, n Commissioned officer in Royal Air Force, next in rank below flight-lieutenant flying-phalanger, n Small Australian marsupial, resembling the flying squirrel flying-squirrel, n A kind of squirrel with expansible fold of skin, joining front and back limbs, enabling it to take flying leaps, b flying phalanger fly-leaf, n Blank leaf at beginning or end of book, b circular printed on single sheet flyman, n [1 fliman, 2 flidman] 1 Man who drives the carriage called a fly 2 Man stationed in the flies of a theatre to shift scenes &c fly-net n fly (II) & net (I), ep OE fteol-net Net for protecting horse from flies fly-paper, n Paper treated with adhesive or poisonous substance, used hung up, or spread out, for catching or killing flies fly-rail, n Hinged bracket at side of table, which can be pulled out to support hinged leaf fly-rod, n Rod for fly-fishing fly-sheet, n Loose printed sheet, handbill flyte Variant of flite flying Variant of flitting fly-trap, n 1 Trap for catching flies 2 One of several plants which catch and digest small insects, the pitcher plant, Venus's fly trap, American plant of sundew family fly-wheel, n Heavy, rapidly revolving wheel attached to machine for regulating speed fly-whisk, n Light whisk for driving off flies foal (I), n [1 fól, 2 foul] OE fola, ME fole, Common Gme, op OHG folo, Mod Germ fohlen, Goth fula, ON foli, cogn w Gk. pólos, 'foal', Lat pullus, 'young animal' See filly, pullet Young of horse, ass, or other member of the horse family, whether colt or filly Phr in foal, with foal, (of mare &c) pregnant foal (II), vb intrans & trans fr prec a intrans To bear a foal, b trans, (of mare) give birth to a colt foaled by a thoroughbred mare foalfoot, n [1 fólfoot, 2 fólufut] (hot) Coltsfoot foam (I), n [1 fóm, 2 foun] OE fám, ME fóm, OHG, Mod Germ feim, cogn w Sort phéna, O Slov péna, 'foam', also Lat púmer, 'pumice', & parh spuma for '(s)puma, 'foam' See pumice, spume 1 White, frothy mass of small bubbles, froth, oo surface of agitated or effervescent liquid, o g oo waves of the sea, newly drawn ale &c 2 (poet) The sea itself to sail the foam 3 Anything resembling foam, thick sweat or saliva from horse, yvofuso saliva in human beings foam (II), vb intrans OE fámigan, ME fámien, fómien, fr prec 1 intrans (of water or other liquid) To boil, be agitated, effervesce, so as to produce foam, to have foam on the surface, to froth foamingale &c 2 (of horses and human beings) To produce, exude, omit, saliva or sweat resembling foam, whether from exertion, disease, or fury foaming steeds Phr to foam at the mouth, as in a fit, or (fig) to be furiously angry 3 To issue in foam milk foaming into the pusle foamless, adj [1 fómles, 2 founliss] foam (I) & -less Devoid of foam foamy, adj [1 fóm, 2 foun] OE fámig, ME fóm, foam (I) & -y Consisting of, resembling, covered with, foam fof (I), n [1 fob, 2 fob] Of LG origin, ep the LG dimin fobke, 'little pocket', & HG provmo fuppe, 'pocket' Small pocket for watch &c, opening from waistband of breeches fob (II), vb trans Back formation fr ME fobber, 'cheater', fr fobbe, variant of foppe, 'fool' See fop (obs) To cheat, deceive Survives only in fob off a to impose (some thing worthless or undesirable) upon a person by fraud or trickery to fob off a spurious antique on one, b to delude (a person) into accepting something worthless to fob one off with empty promises focal adj [1 fókál, 2 fókul] Fr, fr focus & -al Pertaining to a focus focal distance or length, distance from focus to centre of the lens or mirror, focal plane, plane parallel to that of lens or mirror, passing through its focus focalization, n [1 fókálizashun, 2 fókulashun] Next word & -ation Action of focalizing, state of being focalized focalize, vb trans [1 fókáliz, 2 fókulaliz] focal & -ize To focus (lit. and fig) focimeter, n [1 fókímetr, 2 fókúsmetr] Foc, combining form of focus, & -meter Instrument for measuring focal distances focimetry, n [1 fókímetri, 2 fókúsmetri] As prec & -meter Measurement of focal distances foe's'le, n [1 fōkəl, 2 fōk(ə)sl]. Phonetic spelling of forecastle focus (I), n [1 fōkus, 2 fōk(ə)sl] Lat focus, 'fireplace, hearth, fireside, home'. Prob not related to O E bacan, q v under bake, more likely connected w Lat facies, 'appearance, aspect, shape, beauty, face'. See face. The orig sense wd thus be 'shining, glowing, place'. 1 a Point at which converging rays of light, heat, or waves of sound meet after refraction or reflection, b also virtual focus, point at which rays appear to meet, or would meet if prolonged in a straight line, c adjustment of instrument or distance so as to produce sharp definition of image, Phrs in focus, (of optical instruments) adjusted so as to give clear and sharp outlines in image, (fig, of description &c) clearly and definitely presented, out of focus, not adjusted, distorted (also fig), d focal length 2 (geom) One of two points having a definite relation to a curve 3 (fig) Point or area of greatest intensity or activity, centre of radiation or dispersion a focus of sedition, focus of a disease, part of the body where it originates or is most active, focus of an earthquake, subterranean centre, below epicentre focus (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans a To cause to converge to focus the sun's rays with a burning glass, b to adjust (instrument or eye) to object, so as to produce a clear image, to focalize, c to obtain a clear image of (object) by adjusting instrument, d (of mental action) To concentrate to focus one's attention, thoughts, on a subject 2 intrans (of rays &c) To converge fodder, n & vb trans [1 fōder, 2 fōd(ə)] O E fōdor, later fodder, M E foder, fr O E fōda, 'food', OHG fuotar, Mod Germ futter, Icel fōr See food 1 n Food, other than growing grass, applied to horses, cattle, sheep, and other large domestic animals 2 vb To feed with fodder fodderer, n [1 fōderer, 2 fōd(ə)r] Prec & -or Person who fodderes animals fodderless, adj [1 fōderles, 2 fōd(ə)les] Fodder & -less Having no fodder foe, n [1 fō, 2 fow] O E fāh, 'proscribed, hostile', fr faih-*, op also O E fāhp(o), 'enmity', corresponding to OHG fēhida, both fr faih-pā* (op feud (I)), op also O E fāge, OHG fēgi, 'fated to die', Mod Germ fēge, 'overtly' (see key) The base, Aryan pei-k-, pek-, pik-* &c, 'to be hostile, evil-minded' &c, is further seen in Lat peget, 'it irks' &c, Lith piktas, 'wicked, angry', piktas, 'bad, stupid', Sert prāčēl, 'demon'. See also sickle 1 (chiefly poet or liter) a Enemy, opponent, adversary (in war), b person who is unfriendly to one, ill wisher 'No Frenchman is my foe' (Macaulay) 2 One opposed to some particular principle, system, condition &c a foe to Nonconformity, to Jewish influences &c 3 Something prejudicial, destructive, incompatible idleness is a foe to virtue, cleanliness is a foe to disease

Föhn, Föhn, n [1 fōn, 2 fān] Swiss Germ, perh fr Lat Favēnus, 'west wind', connected w favere See favour Hot dry wind which blows down Alpine valleys foe-like, adj foe & -like. Resembling a foe foeman, n [1 fōman, 2 fōuman] O E fāhman, M E fōman foe & man. (archaic or poet) Enemy in war Phr a foeman worthy of one's steel, a brave enemy, (fig) a stout, fair, competent opponent of any kind fœtal, fœtal, adj [1 fēd, 2 fīt] Lat fēt-, stem of foetus, & -al Pertaining to a foetus foetation, fœtation, n [1 fētāhun, 2 fīt(ə)jan] Lat fōt-, PP stem of fōtēre, 'to bring forth', fr fetus See foetus & -non. Formation and growth of a foetus, pregnancy fœticide, fœticide, n [1 fētīd, 2 fīt(ə)zīd] Lat fēt-, combining form of fetus foetus foe & -icide Act of killing a foetus, or causing abortion foetus, fetus, n [1 fētus, 2 fīt(ə)sl] Lat fētus, incorrectly foetus, 'a bringing forth, offspring', fr fē-, PP stem of O Lat fēre, 'to impregnate', fr Aryan base dh-*, 'to produce'. See fecundity, felicity, felune, feminine Young of an animal in the womb or egg in advanced stage of development fog (I), n [1 fog, 2 fōg] M E fogge, 'rank grass', of Scand. origin, op Norw fogg, 'long straggling grass in a moist hollow', Dan fugtig, Germ feucht, 'damp' Coarse, long grass which has not been grazed, new growth after mowing, aftergrass, aftermath fog (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans a To leave (grass) standing until winter, b to feed (animals) on fog 2 intrans Fog off (of plant), to die off from damp fog (III), n Of Scand. origin, op Dan (sene-) fog, 'driving, thickly falling snow', Icel fok, 'spray, snowdrift', fjuk, 'snowstorm'. Perh back-formation fr foggy in sense 'covered with rank grass, mossy, marshy, damp' 1 a Thick mist, water vapour or cloud resting on land or water, b cloud of smoke, dust, spray &c, obscuring the air 2 Blurred or cloudy condition of a photographic negative or print 3 (fig) State of obscurity, bewilderment, lack of clarity or intelligibility, mental confusion or ignorance the fog of war, to have one's mind in a fog fog (IV), vb trans & intrans fr prec 1 trans a To envelop in fog, befog, b to produce foggy effect in photograph, c (fig) to render obscure to the understanding, to confuse, perplex, bewilder the mind. 2 intrans a To become foggy, b to become fogged, as a photograph, c to place fog-signals on railway fogbank, n [1 fōgbangk, 2 fōgbænk] Mass or belt of fog on the sea fogbound, adj [1 fōgbound, 2 fōgbau] Detained by fog, esp of ship at sea fogbow, n [1 fōgbō, 2 fōgbou] Arch of whitish light, caused by the sun's rays striking the particles of vapour in a fog fogey, fogy, n [1 fōgi, 2 fōgi] Origin unknown Old or middle-aged man who is out of touch with the ideas and habits of the time, a fussy, dull, slow, old-fashioned person, often old fogey fogeydom, n [1 fōgidum, 2 fōgidəm] fogey & -dom *Fogey*s collectively, character, manners, or ideas of fogey fogeyish, adj [1 fōgush, 2 fōguʃ] See prec. & -ish. Pertaining to, resembling, a fogey fogeyism, n [1 fōgizum, 2 fōgizəm] See prec. & -ism. Quality of being a fogey foggage, n [1 fōgi, 2 fōgidz] fog (I) & -age a (chiefly Scots) Fog (I), b (Scots law) right of pasturing cattle on fog fogger, n [1 fōger, 2 fōg] fog (II) & -er Man who places fog signals on railway foggily, adv [1 fōgili, 2 fōgili] foggy (II) & -ly In a foggy manner; with fog in the atmosphere &c fogginess, n [1 fōgines, 2 fōginis] Next word & -ness Condition of being enveloped in fog, of being pervaded with fog (lit and fig) foggy (I), adj [1 fōgi, 2 fōgi] fog (I) & -y Pertaining to, abounding in, resembling, the kind of grass called fog foggy (II), adj, fr fog (II) & -y 1 a Pertaining to, full of, enveloped in, resembling, fog, misty, murky a foggy atmosphere, day, b (of photograph) blurred, indistinct 2 (fig) a (of ideas &c) Obscure, not clear to the mind, b (of the mind) confused, perplexed foghorn, n [1 fōghorn, 2 fōghōn] Powerful horn, often blown by steam, to give warning of a ship's whereabouts in a fog fog-signal, n. Warning signal in fog; specif, detonating cap placed on rail and exploded by train fogy See fogey

föh, interj Variant of faugh.
Föhn See Föhn.

foible, n [1 fōibl, 2 fōibl] Obs Fr form of faible (see feeble), cp Fr faible in sense of 'weakness' 1 Weak point in one's character, little frailty, failing, esp inclination to be unwarrantably vain about some imagined quality or accomplishment one of his foibles is to think he can sing 2 (fencing) Plant part of sword-blade from middle to point foil (I), n [1 fōil, 2 fōil] M E 'leaf', fr O Fr foil, ful, fr Lat folium, 'leaf', cp Fr feuille, fr Lat pl, folia. See folio, counterfoil, trefoil 1 Leaf shaped space between two cusps in Gothic tracery (op trefoil, quatrefoil, cusped foil) 2 a Sheet of metal beaten very thin lead, silver, foil, b thin coat of quicksilver amalgam as used behind glass of mirror and for other purposes 3 (fig) Thing or person enhancing or setting off qualities of another by contrast foil (II), vb trans, fr prec. 1 (archit) To furnish with foils a foiled arch. 2 a To cover or back with foil or a foil, b (fig, rare) to set off as a foil foil (III), vb trans & intrans M E foilen, 'to trample', prob fr O Fr, fuler, fouler, foler (Mod Fr fouler), 'to trample on', fr L Lat fullāre, 'to full' (cloth), fr fulla, 'a fuller'. See full (I) The diphthong in Engl may be due to confusion w Fr foillier, 'to dig for, ransack', fr Romance type fodi* culture, dimin fr Lat fodicitre, 'to dig' 1 trans a (hunt) To spoil or confuse (the scent, trail), by retreating or crossing track, b to baffle, balk, frustrate (a person, attempt, action), to parry, repel (an attack) 2 intrans (hunt) To foil the scent or trail foil (IV), n, fr prec 1 Trail of hunted animal. Phr to run (upon) the foil, to foil the scent or trail 2 (archaic) Cheek, frustration, repulse to put to the foil foil (V), n. Of uncertain origin, perh a special sense of foil (IV), because the sword is only used to check or baffle the antagonist, op. the obs pl. at foils, 'parrying', otherwise a corrupt of foun. Light sword only used in fencing, with blunton on point to prevent injury in thrusting foible, adj [1 fōibl, 2 fōibl] foil (III) & -able liable to be foiled or frustrated foiling (I), n [1 fōiling, 2 fōiling] foil (I) & -ing (archit) Decoration consisting of foils foiling (II), n. foil (II) & -ing (hunt) Trail of deer foin, vb intrans [1 foin, 2 foin] M E foinen, fr O F foi(x)ne, 'fish-spear', fr Lat fusca, origin unexplained, cp Fr provine foinier, 'to spear eels' (archaic) To lunge, thrust with sword, spear, or other weapon foison, n [1 fōizon, 2 fōizon] O Fr, fr Lat fūnōn(-em), 'a pouring'. See fountal (archaic) Plenty, abundance, a bountiful harvest foist, vb trans [1 fōist, 2 fōist] Orig a gambling term, 'to palm' (false die), fr Du vuisten, 'to take in the fist', fr vuist, fist. To palm off, pass, impose, introduce or interpolate fraudulently or unwarrantably to foist a forged bank-note upon one, to foist a clause into an Act of Parliament fold (I), vb trans & intrans [1 fōld, 2 fōld] O E (Merc) faldan (WS faldan), M E faldan, Common Gmc, cp OHG faldan, Mod Germ falten, Goth faltan, O.N felda, Gmc type falpan*, cogn. w Gk plassein for plaijan*, 'to form, mould' (see plastic, plaster), (di) plasia, 'two-fold', & perh Lat Sert prā-, 'a fold'. Cogn also w Lat Sert prā-, 'a fold' (see double), & prob -pl in duplus (see double), & prob w Lat phōire, 'to fold' (see ply (I)) A trans 1 To lay or press one part of (flexible thing) against another, to bend over or back on itself, to double up to fold clothes, a sheet, to fold down the corner of a page, Phrs to fold one's arms, to twine them together on one's chest, (fig) to abstain from action, to fold up, one's hands, to clasp them together, fold up, to double, wrap together, tidily and symmetrically, by folding, to reduce to a more compact shape by folding to fold up a newspaper 2 To wrap, wind, round a thing to fold one's cloak about one 3 A To enclose in folds, enfold, wrap up in sheet &c, swathe, envelop to fold ex object in paper, clouds fold the hills, b to clasp, embrace to fold a person in one's arms, to one's breast B intrans To be folded, to be capable of folding the shutters fold back fold (II), n ME feald, fold See prec 1 A Part of flexible material that is folded, bent over, or doubled, plait, layer, coil of rope, snake, &c, b depression or hollow in material made by folding to carry something in a fold of one's robe, c crease or wrinkle made by folding 2 A Hollow in undulating ground a fold of the hills, specif b (geol) dip in strata fold (III), n O.E. folod, folud, later fald, 'covered, shelter made with boards, fold', fr fala, 'hoard, plank', ME fold, op Dan fald, 'sheep-pen', Dn enalt, 'dung-pit' 1 A Enclosure for sheep, usually made of wattle hurdles or rough stone, pen, b the sheep in a fold, flock 2 (fig) The Church, a church or religious congregation, the true Fold, name used of itself by each branch of the Church.

fold (IV), v trans, fr prec a To enclose in a fold, b to manure (land) by keeping sheep in a fold on it

-fold, suff O.E. -feald, ME -fald, -fold Common Gmc, op OS -fald, OHG, Mod. Germ falt, Goth -falds, ON -fold r, fr base of fold (I), Lat plus (duplus &c), Gk. ha plós, 'angle', also plastos, 'fold', cp haplo- Sniff added to cardinal number denoting multiplication, increase twofold, double, threefold, triple &c These forms now largely replaced by Lat words in ble, ple folder, n [1 fólder, 2 fóldr] fold (I) & -er 1 A Person or thing that folds, specif b instrument for folding paper 2 Thing that can be folded up, specif a printed paper thus made, b (pl) pair of folding eyeglasses folderol, n Variant of faldral folding (I), adj [1 fóldng, 2 fóldng] Pres Part. of fold (I). Capable of folding or being folded folding boat, chair, folding bed, one that can be shut up and stood by the wall of the room, folding door (usually pl), one consisting of two or more leaves with hinges folding (II), n fold (II) & -ing a Keeping or enclosing of sheep in a fold, b manure from a fold foliaceous, adj [1 fólishús, 2 fólishús] Lat foliaceus (us), fr folium, 'leaf' See folio & -aceous Pertaining to, resembling, the leaf or leaves of a plant, or foliage foliage, n [1 fóliu, 2 fóliud] O Fr foilage, feuillage (Mod. Fr feuillage), fr feuille, 'leaf' fr Lat foli (a), 'leaves' See folio & -age a Leaves of plant collectively, esp as growing, leafage, (attrib) foliage leaf, leaf in strict sense, as distinguished from petal, sepal, bract &c, foliage plant, one cultivated for its handsome foliage rather than its flowers, b (art) decoration resembling leaves foliaged, adj [1 fóliud, 2 fóliud] Prec & -ed Having foliage, generally in composition, as dark, heavy foliaged foliar, adj [1 fóliar, 2 fóliar] Lat foli (um), 'leaf', see folio, & -ar (bot) Pertaining to a leaf or leaves foliate (I), vb trans & intrans [1 fóliat, 2 fóliat] fr Lat foliatus (um) See folio & -ate 1 trans a (archit) To decorate with foils or foliage, b to beat (gold &c) into leaf or foil, c to furnish (mirror) with foil, d to number leaves of (book) instead of pages 2 intrans To split into laminae foliate (II) adj See prec a Furnished with, bearing, a leaf or leaves, b resembling a leaf foliated, adj [1 fóliat, 2 fóliat] Prec & -ed a Having leaves or leaf like ornaments, marks, or forms, b capable of splitting into laminae.

foliation, n [1 fólishun, 2 fóliatshun] fr foliate & -ion 1 Action or process of foliating, state of being foliated 2 Production of leaves, leafing of plant foliature, n [1 fóliohur, 2 fóliatshur] Lat foliatura, 'foliage' See foliate & -ure The leaves of a tree collectively, foliage folio (I), n [1 fóliu, 2 fóliou] Abbr fr Lat in folio, 'on leaf', in references, ahl of folium, 'leaf' The Aryan base is bhlē*, bhlē* &c, 'to swell', whence also Lat flūs (see flower), OE blēd, 'leaf' &c (see blade), OE byle, 'swelling' (see boil (I)), Gk. phyllon, 'leaf' See also blow (IV), bloom, blossom 1 A Sheet of paper folded once to make two leaves of a book or manuscript, hence, b large size of paper used for this purpose 2 A Volume made of such sheets folded once, b size of such volume, largest ordinary class of volume two volumes (in) folio 3 (book keeping) Page, or two opposite pages, of ledger used for both sides of an account 4 A Leaf of manuscript or printed book numbered only in front, b (print) page number of book 5 (law) Unit for estimating length of document, in Britain 72 words, or 90 for an Act of Parliament. 6 (attrib) Of the size of a folded folio a folio volume folio (II), vb trans, fr prec To number the leaves of (book) on one side only foliols, n [1 fóliol, 2 fólioul] Fr, fr L Lat foliolum, dimin of folium, 'leaf' See folio a (bot) Separate part of compound leaf, leaflet, b (zool) small organ resembling a leaf foliose, adj [1 fóliis, 2 fólious] Lat foliosus (us) See folio & -ose (hot) Leafy folk, n [1 fók, 2 fóuk] OE folc, ME folk, op OS, OHG folk, Mod Germ volk, ON folk, fr Germ fulla*, 'people, crowd, nation, army' This Gmc word is prob connected w the equally widespread full (I) Cp Lat populus, 'people, nation', fr popl* or, w reduplication of base pel*, 'fill' (see popular), & Lat plēbs, 'common people' (see plebs, plebeian), both connected w Lat plēre, 'to fill', plenus, 'full' (see plenum), O Slav plěti, 'army', Russ polk, are borrowed fr Gmc 1 Large community, nation, (in this sense, a revival of OE usage, perhaps influenced by Mod Germ) 2 (with pl vb) People in general, the public folk will believe anything they are told 3 Class of people specified rich, poor, old, young, folk, (colloq, pl) my folks, my relations, the old folks at home folk-dance, n A One of the old traditional dances of the country, b music for this folk-etymology, n Ad fr Germ volks etymologie Popular, non scientific etymology folkland, n [1 fókländ, 2 fóuklænd] Mod adaptation of OE folc-land folk & land (I) (hist) In Anglo-Saxon law, land held by customary right, and not, as bookland, by written title folklore, n [1 fóklör, 2 fóuklör] folk & lore (I) Mod concoction Aggregate of traditional popular beliefs, tales, sayings, and customs, the scientific study of these folklorist, n [1 fóklörst, 2 fóuklörst] Prec. & -ist Person versed in the study of folklore folk-mote, folk-moot, n [1 fókmöt, -moot, 2 fóukmout, -müt] Mod adaptation of OE folc-mōt, -gemōt folk & moot (I) (hist) General assembly of the men of a town or district in Anglo-Saxon England folksong, n [1 fóksong, 2 fóukson] folk & song, after Germ volkslied Traditional song and melody, current among the common people and usually of unknown origin folktale, n [1 fóktäl, 2 fóuktel] Mod concoction on Germ model Traditional tale, usually with mythical elements, current among the common people follicle, n [1 fólikl, 2 fóukil] Fr, fr Lat. folliculus (us), 'little bag, pod', dimin of foliis, 'bellows', fr base bhlē* &c, 'swell, blow'

See bellows, belly, blow (II), flower &c a (hot) Seed vessel from single carpel, opening on one side only, b (zool) cocoon; c (anat) small deep or narrow mouthed sac or gland a hair follicle follicular, adj [1 fóliklär, 2 fóukylär] Lat follicularis (us) See prec & -ar Pertaining to a follicle folliculate(d), adj [1 fólikulat(ed), 2 fóukju-leit(id)] See prec & -ate Having, consisting of, a follicle or follicles follow (I), v trans & intrans [1 fóllw, 2 fóllw] OE folgian, fr fulgōjan*, ME folewen &c, Common Gmc, OS folgōn, OHG folgen, Oñ fylga, only found in Gmc & supposed by some to be an old compound of the base of full (I), & that of go, & to have had primary sense of 'accompany', A trans 1 A To come or go after, Phrs to follow one's nose, go straight ahead, to follow hounds, to hunt, follow the plough, guide 'it, to plough, b to pursue, chase, hunt to follow a retreating enemy, to follow the fox 2 a (in physical sense) To go, walk, along, or by to follow a road, b (fig) adopt, pursue (line of conduct &c) to follow a course, plan of action 3 A To come after in time, be later than night follows day, Monday follows Sunday, b to occur, take place, after a sermon followed the service 4 a To succeed (person) in an office, a position &c to follow one's father in his estates, to follow one's senior in command of a regiment &c, b to come after or next to, in order of rank or precedence earls follow marquises 5 To engage in, pursue, a particular profession, occupation to follow the trade of a hatter Phr to follow the law, the sea, to be a lawyer, sailor 6 A To be an adherent, disciple, of a person in his moral or intellectual teaching, to adopt a person's ideals, views, precepts &c, imitate his conduct, regard as a leader to follow a blind guide, to follow the best authorities; to agree with I am unable to follow you in all your views, b to abide by, obey, act in accordance with to follow directions, instructions, precepts &c, Phrs to follow a lead (i) (cards) play after and in accordance with another player, (ii) (fig) to act in accordance with a hint received, to follow suit (i) (cards) play card of suit which has been led, (ii) to imitate what has already been done 7 To understand clearly and in detail, to grasp thoroughly with the mind, to keep pace mentally with exposition, or gradual unfolding of, to take in to follow an argument, to follow an explanation, to follow a teacher in his demonstration 8 A To keep the sight or hearing concentrated on moving or changing objects, so that one perceives each movement or change to follow a procession, review, cricket match &c, with a field-glass, to follow a conversation through a closed door, b to keep in touch with, keep attention fixed upon, a series of events, changing state of affairs &c I don't follow French politics very carefully, c to think out, concentrate the mind upon, pursue a certain series of ideas to follow a train of thought B intrans 1 To come after, and later go on ahead and I will follow with the dog 2 To occur later after what has already happened n one knows what may follow 3 To occur as a natural or logical consequence, (gen impers) from what you say it follows that he must be dismissed C Followed by preposition or adverb Follow on, intrans, a (colloq) to follow after an interval, b to keep up a pursuit, press on, c (cricket) to have a second innings following the first, when other side leads by certain number of runs, d (billiards) to cause ball to continue travelling in straight line after striking another ball, (of ball itself) to do this Follow out, trans, to pursue, carry out, to a conclusion to follow out a plan, a design, instructions Follow through, intrans, a to continue a stroke, as in golf, tennis &c, to the fullest extent of arms and body wrought, after striking the ball, so as to give

at the greatest amount of carry, b (of ball, as at billiards) to follow on Follow up, trans, a to pursue with persistence, to continue the act of pursuing to follow up a wounded deer, b (fig) to prosecute to a conclusion a clue, a suggestion &c, c to enhance the effect of by further action to follow up a blow, a victory, d (football &c) to keep near player on own side who has ball, so as to support him.

follow (II), n, fr prec 1 Act or process of following, specif, billiard stroke in which the player's ball follows another ball after striking it, also follow through, continuation of stroke, as at golf &c 2 (colloq) Small portion of food served as second helping in restaurant &c.

follower, n [1 fólser, 2 fólous] OE folgere, ME folwere, follow (I) & -er 1 Person who follows, specif a disciple, adherent a follower of Cobden, b a retainer, c one who follows an army as a hanger-on 2 Man who courts a girl, esp a maid servant no followers allowed 3 Part of machine actuated by another part following (I), adj [1 fólōing, 2 fólouing] fr Pres Part of follow (I). That follows (in any sense), specif a next after, subsequent following day, b the following, that, those, to be mentioned immediately the following have received honorary degrees, c (of wind or tide) moving in the same direction as the vessel following (II), n follow (I) & -ing Body of followers or adherents follow-my-leader, n [1 fóló mī lēder, 2 fólou mī lds] Children's game in which the players imitate every movement of the leader follow-on, n [1 fóló on, 2 fólou on] (cricket) Second innings immediately following the first by the side behind by a certain number of runs folly, n [1 fól, 2 fól] ME, OFr, Mod Fr folie, fr O Fr fol (Mod Fr fou), 'fool, madman' See fool & -y Sense 3 perh fr special sense of Fr folie, 'favourite abode, pleasure pavilion' 1 Foolish state or quality of mind, stupidity, imbecility, irrationality an action due to folly 2 Foolish action, behaviour, utterance it is folly to yield to threats, what you propose is mere folly 3 A useless, fantastic structure, built from foolish caprice foment, vb trans [1 fómēt, 2 fóumēt] Fr fomentier, fr L Lat fōmentāre, fr Lat fōmentum, 'poultice' &c, for fōvimentum*, fr fōvire, 'to warm', the etymol of the base is not clear See -ment 1 a To apply a hot or medicated lotion, or poultice to, to batho with warm water &c 2 (fig) To cherish, stimulate, instigate, encourage, promote to foment disorder, rebellion, hatred fomentation, n [1 fómētāshun, 2 fóumētāshun] Fr, fr Lat fōmentātō-(em) Pres & -ation 1. a Action of fomenting or warming, b lotion, poultice, hot compress, or other means used for fomenting 2 Instigation, encouragement (of discontent &c) fomentier, n [1 fómēnter, 2 fóumēnter] foment & -or One who foment, esp strife, disorder &c fond, adj [1 fond, 2 fond] ME fonned, 'infatuated', PP of fonnen, 'to dote, to befool', whence Mod Provenc Engli fun, 'to hoax' (see fun), fr ME fon, fonne, 'fool', also 'foolish'; of Scand origin, esp Icel fáni, 'foolish', fána, 'to oot foolishly', Swed fane, 'fool' 1 a (obs or archaic) Foolish, vain, inept 'A very foolish fond old man' ('King Lear'), b credulous, foolishly sanguine to nourish a fond hope, fond imaginings 2 a Foolishly doting, infatuated, over-indulgent, esp fond and foolish, b loving, affectionate a fond father 3 a Fond of, attached to, having affection for fond of one's mother, b deriving enjoyment from, taking pleasure in, addicted to. fond of smoking, fond of drink fondant, n [1 fóndant, 2 fóndant] Fr, 'a sweetmeat', fr Pres Part of fondere, 'to melt', fr Lat fundere, 'to pour' See found (II) Kind of soft sweetmeat, made of flavoured sugar, which melts easily in the mouth fondle, vb trans & intrans [1 fóndl, 2 fóndl] Obs fond, 'to be fond', fr fond & freq -le a trans To caress, stroke, or toy with lovingly, dandle, b intrans, (rare) indulge in caresses to fondle with one fondling, n, [1 fóndling, 2 fóndlīg] fond & -ling Person who is fondled or doted on, object of foolish affection, darling, pet fondly, adv [1 fóndlī, 2 fóndlī] fond & -ly In a fond manner, a vainly, in ignorance, being misled as I fondly imagined, b with affection, lovingly to gaze fondly at fondness, n [1 fóndness, 2 fóndnis] ME fonnedness, 'foolishness', fond & -ness Quality of being fond, doting affection, love, liking fondue, n [1 fóndū, 2 fóndyū] Fr, fr fem PP of fondre, 'to melt', as fondant. Dish of scrambled eggs with melted cheese font (I), n [1 font, 2 font] OE, ME, & also O Fr font, 'baptismal font', fr Lat font-em, 'fountain, source', in Eccles Lat, 'font' The etymol is quite uncertain 1 a Receptacle for baptismal water, usually of carved stone, fixed in church or baptistry, b (rare) holy water stoup 2 (poet) Fountain, spring, well 3 (modern) Oil reservoir of lamp font (II) See font (typog) fontal, adj [1 fontal, 2 fontál] Low Lat fontál-(us) font (I) & -al 1 Pertaining to a fountain-head, original 2 Baptismal fontanel, fontanelle, n [1 fontánél, 2 fontánél] Fr fontanelle, dimin fr Low Lat fontāna See fountain & -el (anat) Space covered with membrane at angles between bones of skull of young mammals food, n [1 fóod, 2 fúd] OE fōda, ME fōde, op Goth fōd eins, 'food', fōdjan, 'to feed', also w different gradation ON faba, 'food', oogn w Gk paidēsthai, 'to feed', Lat pā-bulum, 'food' (see pabulum), pā-nez, 'bread', pā-ccere, 'to feed', pāstor (see pastor & pasture) Cogn w feed & foster 1 a Matter which can be eaten or absorbed, and assimilated, by animal or plant, nutriment, aliment, victuals, specif b solid nourishment, contrasted with drink, Phrs (to become) food for fishes, (be) drowned, food for worms, dead; food for the flames, food for powder, soldiers 2 Particular kind of solid nourishment, esp a patent preparation an infant's food, a breakfast food 3 (fig) Something that provides mental stimulus, which develops and sustains spiritual nature of man mental, spiritual food, food for thought, reflection.

food controller, n Person who determines amount of food to be supplied per head of population in times of scarcity, and who organizes the storing and distribution of supplies foodless, adj [1 fóodlēs, 2 fódlīs] food & -less Destitute of food foodstuff, n [1 fóodstuf, 2 fódstaf] (common) Material for food, article of food in bulk the importation of foodstuffs fool (I), n [1 fool, 2 fól] ME fól, fr O Fr fol (Mod Fr fou), 'fool, madman', fr Lat folis, 'bellows, ball filled with air', in Low Lat 'empty-headed person'. See follicle & bellows 1 a (archaic) An imbecile, idiot, person mentally deficient, hence b silly or stupid person, ooo devoid of wisdom, judgement, sense, or prudence (commonly applied in contempt or scorn, often with a suggestion of moral weakness) what a fool the man is! Phrs to be no fool, be very shrewd; fool's mate, (chess) checkmate with ooe's second move, fool's paradise, (1) limbo on confines of hell, formerly supposed to be the destination of fools, (2) (often fool's paradise) state of happiness based on illusion, imaginary good fortune, c dupe, butt, victim of jest the fool of fate, All Fools' Day, popular name for the 1st of April, when hoaxes are played off, April fool, person then hoaxed, to be a fool for one's pains, to gain no result or reward from one's efforts, fool's errand, undertaking which proves abortive, to make a fool of, to befool, mislead, dupe, d (Bib) wicked, immoral, or impious person (Proverbs, passim) 2 Man, often eccentric or half-witted, or feigning madness, formerly kept in household of prince or noble to make jests, jester, buffoon, clown Phr to play the fool, to indulge in buffoonery or clownish jests, also (see 1 a) to behave with levity or folly to play the fool with, (s) to deceive, seduce, (n) to spoil, destroy fool (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 in trans To behave as a fool, act with levity 2 trans To make a fool of, befool, make (person) appear silly or ridiculous, to dupe, hoax, trifle with 3 Followed by adverb or preposition Fool about (Am fool around), intrans, to dle, loiter or hang about, foolishly, and with no set purpose Fool away, trans, to waste in folly, fritter away to fool away one's time, health, money Fool out of, trans, to deprive of by resorting to deceit, trick out of to fool one out of one's fortune Fool with, intrans, to trifle, meddle, play foolishly with to fool with a loaded gun fool (III), n Of uncertain origin, perh fr fool (I) (op trifle) or fr Fr fouler, 'to trample, crush' (grapes) See full (V) Dish consisting of fruit, cooked and whipped up with cream or milk gooseberry fool foolery, n [1 fóolēry, 2 fóolēry] fool (I) & -ery a Behaviour, actions, of a fool, b foolish act or notion foolhardily, adv [1 fóolhárđlī, 2 fóldhárđlī] ME foolhardilī foolhardy & -ly In a foolhardy manner foolhardiness, n [1 fóolhárđnes, 2 fóldhárđnes] ME foolhardnesse Next word & -ness Quality of being foolhardy foolhardy, adj [1 fóolhárđy, 2 fóldhárđy] ME foolhardi, fr O Fr fol hardi fool (I) & hardy Foolishly daring, venturesome, rash, food of taking risks fooling, n [1 fóoling, 2 fóling] fool (II) & -ing Actoo of playing the fool, jesting, buffoonery, humorous nonsense foolish, adj [1 fóolish, 2 fólish] fool (I) & -ish 1 (of persons) A Silly, unwise, imprudent, b weak-minded, imbecile 2 (of actions and conduct) Exhibiting, resulting from, folly, ill-considered, unwise foolishly, adv Prec & -ly In a foolish manner foolishness, n See prec & -ness Quality or state of being foolish foolproof, adj [1 fóolprúf, 2 fólaprúf] (colloq) Proof against fools, not liable to be spoilt or to do harm when misused or tampered with, so contrived that even a fool cannot misunderstand it foolscap, n [1 fóolshap, 2 fólskep] 1 Usually fool's cap or fool's cap n Close fitting hood, adorned with bells and crest like cock's comb, formerly worn by jester, b dancer's cap 2 Size of writing paper, usually long folio, 17 x 13 in unfolded (formerly bearing water mark of fool's cap and bells) fool's parsley, n [1 fóol's pársli, 2 fólr pársli] Poisonous umbelliferous British plant, resembling parsley and liable to be mistaken for it foot (I), n, pl feet [1 foot, fēt, 2 fuť, fēt] OE, ME fōt, Common Gmc, cp OHG fuoz, Mod Germ fuss, Goth fuus, ON fiť, cogn w Sert pūd ad, 'foot', pād, 'to go', Russ pod oshra, 'sole of foot', Lith pad-as, 'sole', pad-a, 'footprint', Gk ps, psēma, 'foot', pēdē, 'fetter', Lat pēs, stem pēd, 'foot' See pedal 1 Terminal part of leg of man and other animals, upon which they stand and walk, in man the part below the ankle-joint, considered as a single, separate limb or member, Phrs at one's feet, at one's disposal, to pick and choose from, to have the ball at one's feet, to have an oppor

tumty of snoozing or distinguishing oneself, to carry one off one's feet, (1) to lift one off the ground, knock one down, as a wave or strong wind (u) (fig) to overpower one with emotion and enthusiasm, to change foot or feet, to keep the time with the other foot in marching, to fall on one's feet, to have good luck, find oneself in agreeable circumstances, to find one's feet, gain experience, skill &c, in new surroundings, to take the length of a person's foot, (slang) to discover his weak points, size him up, to be carried out, leave, feel foremost, (colloq) in one's coffin, light, heavy, foot, light tread &c, fleet, swift, of foot, able to run fast, to have one foot in the grave, to be very old, ill, or decrepit, to be near death, to keep one's feet, save oneself from falling, on foot, (1) standing or walking, contrasted with riding &c, (u) (fig) in progress, started, proceeding, to set on foot, to start, set going, on one's feet, (1) standing up, esp to speak, (u) (fig) well again after illness, (u) financially independent, to set a person, thing, on his, its, feet, render self supporting, a foot's pace, a walk, to put one's foot down, to act with decision, to put one's foot in it, (colloq) to make an awkward blunder, to make a faux pas, cause embarrassment, to put one's best foot foremost, (colloq) (u) to walk one's best, (u) do one's best, wet, damp, under foot, on the surface of the ground, for walking, to tread, trample, under foot, (fig) to crush, oppress, tyrannize over 2 Organ of one of the lower forms of creatures, by means of which it creeps or attaches itself the foot of a snail, of a caterpillar 3 (bot) Part by which a petal or hair is attached 4 That part of a stocking which covers the foot 5 a That part of thing on which it stands, esp when shaped so as to form a base the foot of a wine glass, b distinct terminal part of leg of table, chair, &c 6 Generally, lowest part, bottom, base the foot of a mountain, pillar, wall, page, list 7 End of bed, couch, grave &c, where occupant's feet are, contrasted with the head 8 (mil) Foot soldiers, infantry a regiment of foot, the 42nd foot, horse and foot 9 Linear measure of 12 inches, or a third of a yard, hence, square foot and cubic foot, both called simply foot where there is no ambiguity Pl feet and foot, latter chiefly in measurements two foot (or feet) six, and attrib a two foot rule 10 Unit in scansion of verse, containing in English and most modern poetry one strong stress or accent 11 (pl) foote) Sediment, dregs, coarse sugar, etc.

foot (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 a To tread, step, pace, walk or dance over to foot the road, the floor, b to perform (a dance), dance (a figure &c) to foot a measure, o to foot it, (u) to dance, (u) (colloq) to go on foot 2 Also foot up, add up (account), Phr (colloq) to foot the bill, pay expenses 3 To supply a new foot to (a stocking &c) B intrans (colloq) Foot up (to), mount up the stems foot up to £100 foot-and-mouth disease, n Contagious disease of cattle and other animals, resembling eczema, with eruptions in mouth and feet, communicated to animals feeding in contaminated pasture aphthous fever football n [1 fútból, 2 futbál] 1 A large round or egg shaped leather ball, inflated with air used in games 2 Game played with such a ball, by two teams in field with goal at each end, of two main types, Association and Rugby qq v footballer, n [fútbawler, 2 futbále] Player of football footbath n [1 fútbáht, 2 futbáp] Portable bath for the feet footboard n [1 fútbórd, 2 futbód] 1 Board on which one can stand or step, specif a board running along side of railway carriage, lower than floor, step below door of motor-car b footplate, c platform for footman at back of carriage 2 Sloping board on which coachman places his feet when driving footboy, n [1 fútbói, 2 futbái] Young manservant footbridge, n [1 fútbrij, 2 futbrídž] Narrow, light, bridge confined to the use of pedestrians footdrill, n [1 fútdríl, 2 futdríl] (mil) Most elementary form of military exercises, designed to train soldiers in proper carriage of the body, and in the various turns and movements carried out, in combination, by dismounted men foot drop, n Paralytic affection of flexor muscles of the foot footed, adj [1 fúted, 2 futéd] Having feet or a foot footed like a cat, chiefly in comparison, as four footed footer, n [1 footer, 2 futá] (slang) The game of football footfall, n [1 fútfawl, 2 futfál] a Foot-step tread, b sound of footsteps footgear, n [1 fútgár, 2 futgá] (coll) Coverings for the feet, boots, shoes, stockings &c Foot Guards, n pl (mil) Infantry regiments of the Household Brigade of Guards, comprising the Grenadier, Coldstream, Scots, Irish, and Welsh Guards foothill, n [1 fúthíl, 2 futhíl] Hill at the foot of mountain or higher hill, usually pl foothold, n [1 fúthóld, 2 futhóld] a Surface affording support for the foot, b (fig) stable or secure position footing, n [1 fúting, 2 futín] foot (I) & -ing 1 a Action of placing the feet, position of the feet when standing mind your footing when you climb, b (archaic or rare) stepping, walking, tread, movement of the feet in dancing &c, c foothold, place in which one can stand 2 (fig) Basis, position that supports one, hence, established or recognized standing, status, position in relation to another person to obtain a footing in society, to be on a friendly footing with one Phr to pay (for) one's footing, to make a customary gift or entertainment on admission to a society, trade &c 3 a Making of a foot or feet, material of which they are made the footing of a stocking, footing for lace, plain edge or strip attached to pattern lace, b projecting course or courses at the foot of a wall 4 Adding up of a column of figures, sum total of figures footie, vb intrans & n [1 fúti, 2 futí] Perhaps formed, w freq suff -ie, fr provine footy [fúti], 'musty, paltzy, contemptible', fr Early Mod Engl foughthe, cp Du roeking, Dan fughit, Germ feucht, 'damp', also O E fúht, 'moisture' See fog (I) (colloq or slang) a vb To trifle, behave or talk in a silly way, b n, nonsense, twaddle, foolishness footless, adj [1 fútle, 2 futíle] foot (I) & -less a Having no feet, b (poet) untrodden foothlight, n [1 fúthlīt, 2 futlīt] a One of row of lamps, screened from auditorium, along front of the stage in a theatre, b (fig, pl) the stage, the profession of acting footling, adj [1 fútlīng, 2 futlīng] fr Prec Part of footie (colloq or slang) Trifling, paltzy, silly footman, n [1 footman, 2 futmən] ME footman foot (I) & man 1 a Domestic man servant, generally in livery, who admits visitors waits at table, attends master when driving &c, b (archaic) foot soldier 2 Kind of moth footmark, n [1 fútmārk, 2 futmāk] Footprint footmuff, n [1 fútmuf, 2 futmaf] Thick bag or muff in which the feet are placed to keep them warm footnote, n & vb trans [1 fútnót, 2 fútnót] a n Note at the foot of a printed or written page, b vb, to supply with footnotes footpace, n [1 fútpás, 2 futpás] 1 Walking pace 2 Dais, altar platform footpad n [1 fútpad, 2 futpad] See pad (II) Highway robber who goes on foot footpage, n [1 fútpáj, 2 futpédž] Page, boy who delivers messages &c footpath, n [1 fútpaht, 2 futpáp] Narrow path only to be used by persons walking, esp one across fields, raised path for persons on foot, along country road footplate, n [1 fútplāt, 2 futplést] Platform at back of locomotive for driver and fireman foot-pound, n Unit of energy, being the amount of energy expended in raising one pound avoirdupois one foot footprint, n [1 fútprint, 2 futprint] Print or impression of a foot foot-pump, n. Pump for inflating tyres &c, worked, or held in position, by the foot footrace, n [1 fútrás, 2 futrás] Contest of speed in running or walking footrail, n [1 fútrál, 2 futreil] (nant) Rope fixed horizontally, below yard, on which men stand to reef sail.

footrot, n [1 footrot, 2 futrót] Contagious bacterial disease in feet of sheep and cattle foot-rule, n Rigid measure or ruler one foot long footscald, n [1 fútskawld, 2 futskáld] Inflamed or bruised condition of sole of horse's foot foot-soldier, n An infantry soldier footsore, adj [1 fútsúr, 2 futás] Affected with soreness or tenderness in the feet, generally from excessive walking footsalk, n [1 fútsawl, 2 futsták] a (bot) Stalk of a leaf, petiole, stalk of a flower, pedicel or peduncle, b (zool) stalk of sedentary animal, as barnacle footstep, n [1 footstep, 2 futstep] 1 a Action of stepping, distance stepped, b noise made by stepping I hear footsteps 2 a Footprint, b (fig) trace or mark, vestige, of past action to follow in one's footsteps, imitate his actions footstone, n [1 fústótn, 2 futstoun]. a Stone set at the foot of a grave, b foundation stone footstool, n [1 fústútl, 2 futatíl] Low stool on which the feet are placed when sitting foot-ton, n. Unit of energy, being that expended in raising one ton one foot footwarmer, n [1 fútwawmer, 2 futwómə] Apparatus for warming the feet, formerly used in railway carriages, consisting of a receptacle filled with hot water footwear, n [1 fútwár, 2 futwə] Trade term for boots and shoes collectively footworn, adj [1 footworn, 2 futwōn] 1 Worn or abraded by the feet a footworn pavement 2 Having weary feet, footsore a footworn wanderer foozle (I), vb trans & intrans [1 fúzl, 2 fúz] Etymol uncertain (colloq) 1 trans a To bungle, do clumsily or ineffectively, b (golf) to spoil (stroke in golf) 2 intrans To act clumsily and ineffectively foozle (II), n, fr prec Clumsy, ineffective action, bad stroke or shot in golf fop, n. [1 fop, 2 fop] ME foppe, fobbe, 'fool', cp Du, Germ foppen, 'to befool, hoax, chaff', also fob (II) Finicky, fastidious fellow who is vain of, and fastidious about, his appearance, dress, or manners &c, conceited puppy, coxcomb, dandy, exquisite fopling, n [1 fúplīng, 2 fúplīng] Prec & -ling Trifling, insignificant fellow who ape the affectations of a fop foppery, n. [1 fopən, 2 fúpari] See prec & -ery Trivial affectation, sham refinement, in manners, bearing, speech, dress, and taste generally, unsupported by real good breeding or sincerity of feeling, coxcombry foppish, adj [1 fúpish, 2 fúpiš] fop & -ish. Pertaining to, resembling, having the character of a fop foppishly, adv Prec & -ly In a foppish manner foppishness, n See prec & -ness Manners, affectation, of a fop, foppery for (I), prep Stressed form [1 fōr, 2 fōr], unstressed form [1 fər, 2 fər] OE for, w very much the same force as in Mod Engl;

OF fur, OHG fur, Mod Germ für, 'for'; Goth faur. The word is closely related in origin, in the old Gmc languages, & associated in meaning, w OE for, 'before, on account of' & o, q v under for, of same origin also as Goth far, fra, inseparable pref (see for-). These words, fr Aryan pr-, per- & o, have numerous cognates, w various meanings, in the other branches of Aryan speech. Cp Lat prae, 'before, in front, by the side of, in comparison with, for, because of, on account of' & o (see pre-), Gk para, 'from beside, by the side of, by, to, towards, beyond, except, compared with, during' (see para-), see further cognates under per- & pro-. 1 Expressing benefit, advantage, favour, suitability, or the reverse a present for you, for my sake, a great pleasure for me, very good for you, too good for him, a rebuff, disappointment, for him, a great pity for some things, not good for you. 2 a Expressing end, purpose, aim, intention to go to Scotland for grouse shooting, to come for dinner, to send for a doctor, to work for one's living, to go out for a walk, just for fun, Phr (vulg) to go for a soldier, (archaic or provine when followed by infin) What went ye out for to see? I should like for to go with you, b expressing wish, desire, expectation to wait for an answer, to long for fine weather, to hope for better things, anxious for peace, 'O for a draught of vintage' (Keats). 3 Expressing cause, reason, on account, because of for many reasons, for fear of, for the love of God, tremble for his safety, I can't see anything for the fog & Expressing a duration of time to stay for a week, for the present, to last for an hour, Phr for good, permanently, b length, extension, distance to run for a mile, the forest stretches for a long way, c sum, price, to amok an amount to sell a horse for twenty pounds, all out for forty runs. 5 a Direction, tendency towards 'Fair stood the wind for France' (Drayton), b destination to which person, ship, train & o is bound or thing being sent to start for India, the train for London, letters for home, c point of time at which something is fixed to happen the ceremony was arranged for two o'clock. 6 a Equivalence, exchange, substitution, requital to plant three trees for every one that is cut down, I give you a horse for your gun, Phr to give one a Roland for his Oliver, to return an equivalent for injuries inflicted, to reply in similar terms to another's remark & o, b penalty, reward beaten for stealing, to suffer for one's sins, to get a medal for saving life, c representation no one would think that this picture was drawn for a portrait, 'The picture that thou see'st here cut, it was for gentle Shakespeare put' 7 Considering certain conditions and circumstances a good piece of work for so young a man, rather cold for August. 8 Followed by all, expressing opposition, obstacle, in spite of for all that, for all his professions, I do not believe him. 9 In Phrs as for me, as for that & o, in respect of, regarding, so far as concerns. for (II), conj ME, 'because', abbr fr earlier for þan, þi, þat, representing OE for-þam-þe, for-þy, 'for this thing, that'. See pro a (introducing co-ordinate explanatory sentence) Seeing that, since, as, because I am thirsty, for the sun is hot, b (introducing separate sentence) the explanation of the foregoing is or was that he felt no fear for he was very brave. for-, pref Early OE for-, fer-, later replaced by for-, the orig stressed form used w us, ME for-, or OHG far-, far-, Mod Germ ver-, Goth far- (for fer-), Aryan types per-, per-*, whence Sort pār, O Slav prě, Russ pere, Lith per, per-, Gk peri-, Lat per-. A form of the base found in foro (op para-, per-, peri-, pro-), w the senses 'forward, through, or across, out beyond, past', hence 'thoroughly, in excess, to a wrong end, ruinously', op. perdition, perish, pervert, corresponding to Germ. per-, as in ver-kommen, 'to come to grief, perish', Goth far, as in far-kunnan, 'to despise', fr kunnan, 'to know'. See fret (I). Prefix used with verbs and their derivatives, all except in forfeud of English origin, as intensive forquither, forlorn, forpint, forsepet, forwearied, forworn, b expressing destruction, detriment forde, forwear, c expressing omission, exclusion, refusal, neglect forbear, forbid, forfeud, forgo, forsake, forwear (1 a). The full original force of the prefix is, however, lost in some of these words. forage (I), n [1 fōry, 2 fōrdz] ME, fr O Fr fouage, fouage (Mod Fr fouage), fr O Fr forer, 'to forage', fr forre, fuere (Mod Fr feurre) 'fodder', fr Low Lat fōdum, fr a Gmc source. See fodder & -age. a Fodder, provender for horses or other beasts, esp those of a camp or military force, b action of obtaining forage or provisions of any kind.

forage (II), vb trans & intrans. Preo, op O & Mod Fr fouager. 1 trans a To supply (horses, camp) with forage, b to obtain forage from, to plunder, pillage, ransack, ravage (place), c to obtain by foraging. 2 intrans a To go about in search of forage; b to search for supplies or something one needs to forage (about) for a meal, to forage about to find a book.

forage cap, n. (mil) Undress cap of infantry forager, n [1 fōryer, 2 fōrdz] ME, fr O Fr fouageur, see forage (I) & -er. Person who forages.

foramen, n [1 fōrāmen, 2 fōrāmen] Lat forāmen, 'hole, opening', fr forāre, 'to bore', cogn w Gk pharēn, 'to plough', also w OE boran, 'to bore', & n suff-men. See bore (I), & op perforate, pharynx (anat, bot, zool). Natural perforation or small orifice in bone & o.

foraminate(d), adj [1 fōrāmīnāt(ed), 2 fōrāmīnāt(ed)] L Lat forāmīnāt(-um), fr forāmen, stem of forāmen (see preo) & -ate. Having a foramen or foramina, perforated. Foraminifera, n pl [1 fōrāmīnifera, 2 fōrāmīnifera] Mod Lat, fr forāmen, combining form fr forāmen, stem of forāmen (see foramen) & -fer-re, 'to bear'. See -ferous (zool). Order of minute, mostly marine animals, having calcareous shell with orifices through which filaments are protruded.

foraminiferal, foraminiferous, adj [1 fōrāmīniferal, -us, 2 fōrāmīniferal, -us] Preo & -al, -ous. Containing foraminifera.

foraminous, adj [1 fōrāmīnus, 2 fōrāmīnus] Lat forāmīnōs (us), see foraminate, & -ous. Perforated, having foramina.

forasmuch, conj [1 fōrasmuch, 2 fōrasmuch, fōrasmuch] for (I) & as & much (liter and in legal formulae) Forasmuch as seeing that, considering that, since.

foray (I), n [1 fōrā, 2 fōrā] ME foras, foras. See next word (orig Scots and Nthn). A raid, plundering or ravaging incursion.

foray (II), vb trans & intrans ME forayen, perh a back-formation fr forreier. See next word (orig Scots and Nthn). a trans To raid, ravage, make an incursion into, b intrans, to go out foraging or pillaging, make a predatory raid.

forayer, n. [1 fōrāyer, 2 fōrāyer] ME forreier, 'forager, harbinger', perh fr OF forreier, fr forre. See forage (I) & -er. Person who forays.

forbad, forbade, vb [1 fōrbād, fōrbād, 2 fōrbād, fōrbād] Pret of forbid.

forbear (I), vb trans & intrans [1 fōrbār, 2 fōrbē] OE forberan, 'to restrain, endure', ME forbēren (for- & bear (I)), ep OHG forberan. 1 trans a To restrain oneself from, refrain or abstain from, avoid, to desist from to forbear angry feelings, to forbear passion, to forbear to strike, b (obs or archaic) to bear with, be patient or tolerant towards 'Forbearing one another as love' (Ephes. iv. 2). 2 intrans.

To refrain, abstain desist, check oneself I longed to punch his head, but I forbore, forbore from complaining.

forbear (II), n [1 fōrbār, 2 fōrbē] ME (orig Scots), fr for- & be & -er. Ancestor, forefather, predecessor a forbear of mine, one of my forbears.

forbearance, n [1 fōrbārāns, 2 fōrbārāns] forbear (I) & -ance. A lot or quality of forbearing, self-restraint, patience or indulgence toward one who provokes or annoys, unwillingness to retaliate or exact penalty, leniency to treat an offender with excessive forbearance, b (law) omission to exact performance of obligation.

forbearing, adj [1 fōrbārīng, 2 fōrbārīng] fr Preo Part of forbear (I). Disposed to forbear, patient, long suffering, lenient. forbearingly, adv Preo & -ly In a forbearing manner.

forbid, vb trans [1 fōrbīd, 2 fōrbīd] OE forbēdan, ME forbēden, w meaning of Mod vb. The old vb bēdan, 'to command', is completely lost, though its sense is transferred to bidden (see bid), an unrelated vb w, formerly, quite a different meaning. See for- & bid a To refuse to allow, to command or order not to be or do, to prohibit, interdict duelling is forbidden, to forbid one to speak, we are forbidden to deal, I am forbidden tobacco, to smoke it, Phr to forbid the banns, to declare publicly that they are invalid, b (ellipt) to forbid one (to enter) the house, the country, c to make logically or physically impossible, exclude, prevent this fact forbids the assumption of his guilt, high walls forbid all approach Phr God forbid, solemn assertion of desire that a thing may not happen God forbid that you should ever regret your marriage, that I should ignore you.

forbiddance, n [1 fōrbīdāns, 2 fōrbīdāns] Preo & -ance (obs or rare) Prohibition. forbidden, adj [1 fōrbīdēn, 2 fōrbīdēn] PP of forbid. Not allowed, prohibited, interdicted Phrs forbidden city, city or part of city from which all but privileged persons are excluded, the forbidden degrees, prohibited degrees of marriage, forbidden fruit, a the fruit which Adam and Eve were forbidden to eat, b (fig) an unlawful or prohibited pleasure, thing coveted because forbidden, c kind of shaddock or other citron.

forbidding, n [1 fōrbīdēn, 2 fōrbīdēn] forbid & -er. Person that forbids.

forbidding, adj [1 fōrbīdīng, 2 fōrbīdīng] Preo Part of forbid a Repellent, dangerous-looking, threatening forbidding cliffs fringe the coast, forbidding thunder clouds, b unattractive, repulsive, sinister forbidding countenance, features, manner.

forbiddingly, adv Preo & -ly In a forbidding manner.

forbiddingness, n See preo & -ness. Quality, state, of being forbidding.

forbore, vb [1 fōrbōr, 2 fōrbōr] Pret of forbear (I).

forby, forbye, prep & adv [1 fōrbi, 2 fōrbi] ME forbi fore- & by Cp Germ vorbei (Scots, archaic or provine) a prep Beside, not to mention, b adv, besides, in addition. force (I), n [1 fōrs, 2 fōrs] ME, fr O Fr, 'strength', fr Low Lat fortis, formed fr Lat fortis, 'strong'. See fort. Orig only of muscular & moral strength. 1 (phys) Defined by Newton as that which changes, or tends to produce change of, motion in a body on which it acts, more recently defined as the rate per unit of length at which energy is transferred or transformed. The term is applied to the phenomena of gravitation, to those of electricity and magnetism, and to the power engendered by steam & o. 2 a Muscular strength, vigour, Phr brute force, sheer strength or violence, unassisted by intelligence, b exhibition, exertion, of physical strength, esp vehement and violent use of strength, to employ force to reduce this. the police had to employ force to reduce the prisoner to accompany them, they held him firmly but used no force, c (law) compulsion, constraint illegally exerted, including not only the application of physical violence, but also threats and intimidation 3 a Violent motion of an inanimate body in falling, sliding &c, momentum, impetus a mass of rock fell with considerable force, b violent disruptive action of an explosive &c killed by the force of an explosion 4 a Intellectual, emotional, or moral vigour force of mind, force of character, overcome by the force of his sinations, b intangible spiritual influence which affects men's minds, opinions, and conduct, something which modifies these, and predisposes in a given direction, moral stimulus, persuasion a force for good, religion and politics are powerful forces in society, also of persons exerting such influence he soon became a force in the country, a effect, result, of exercise of such influence the force of example, of public opinion, d power of convincing, persuading, cogency the force of an argument, of an objection, by force of contrast 5 External conditions which affect and modify behaviour, habits, mode of life, stress, compulsion by force of circumstances 6 Legal power of binding, validity the force of an agreement, a rule no longer in force, to come into force, become operative 7 Precise function, meaning, significance, bearing force of a word, phrase, clause &c 8 Military, naval, air, power, organized and armed strength, a the forces of the Crown, army and navy, b specif, organized body of armed men a small force of infantry, cavalry &c, c body of men organized to preserve civil order police force, the Force, the police force (II), vb trans ME forcen, O Fr forcer, Low Lat fortūre See prec 1 To apply physical force to, use bodily strength in order to execute one's purpose, obtain one's wish &c, a specif, a to rape, violate, b to break through, or into, by use of violence to force one's way, to force an entry, to force the pass, c (mil) to force a position, capture by force 2 a To use an effort in order to produce, to strain after in an unnatural manner to force a smile, a feat &c, b to use undue effort upon, exert beyond limits of capacity, to overstrain to force the voice, to force a child's intelligence 3 n To compel, constrain, by physical or moral means to force a man to confess, I am forced by necessity to yield, if he won't act voluntarily, he must be forced, b to extort, wring from, elicit by force of any kind to force a surrender, confession, (mil) to force an action, compel enemy to fight 4 (horti) To cause plants to grow, to flower, fruit &c, before the natural season by subjecting to extra heat, giving careful protection to, manuring heavily &c to force strawberries, asparagus &c 5 (cards) a To compel an opponent to play a trump by leading a suit of which he has no cards, b to manoeuvre a person into selecting a particular card from a pack while preserving the illusion that he is choosing freely forces (III), n North, also fors, fr ON fors, later foss, cp Swed fors, frusa, 'to gush' (chiefly province) Waterfall force (IV), vb trans Variant of force (II), Fr forcer, 'to stuff', Engl word prob influenced by force (II) (rare) To stuff, season (meat), cp forcement forced, adj [1 forst, 2 fäst] PP of force (II) 1 Made, performed, by means of external force, by necessity, under compulsion forced labour, service, a forced landing from an aeroplane, a forced loan, one extorted, 2 Effected, produced, only through the exertion of unusual or special effort, not spontaneous or natural a forced laugh, a forced style Phr forced march, very rapid march in military emergency, forced draught, one produced by mechanical means to increase heat of furnace forcedly, adv [1 forseðli, 2 fäsdli] Prec & -ly In a forced manner, by compulsion forceful, adj [1 forsoðol, 2 fäsdal] force (I) & -ful Full of force, forcible, (esp in moral sense) having vigorous, enorgotized personality or character forcefully, adv Prec & -ly In a forceful manner forcefulness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being forceful forceless, adj [1 forles, 2 fäslis] force (I) & -less Devoid of force force majeure, n [1 förmahzhér, 2 fäsmälä] Fr, 'superior strength' See force (I) & major (II) (law) Irresistible force or coercion, that exerted by a powerful state on a weak one forcement, n [1 förämät, 2 fösmät] force (IV) & meat Minced and seasoned meat, usually for stuffing forceps, n [1 förseps, 2 föseps] Lat, 'pair of tongs, pincers', fr formi cepa, fr form (use), 'bot', cogn w therm, warm, & stem of capere, 'to hold, take' See captive a pair of pincers or tweezers used in surgery or in delicate mechanical work, b (zool) grasping organ of insect or other animal, resembling forceps force-pump, n Kind of pump which forces water or other liquid through a pipe by action of a plunger or piston without valve, once treated with a lift pump forcer, n [1 förser, 2 fäsa] force (II) & -er Person or thing that forces, specif, piston of force pump forcible, adj [1 föräbl, 2 fösibl] O Fr forco (II) & -ible 1 Done, effected, by or with force or compulsion Phr forcible entry and detainer, illegal occupation of property by violence or display of force 2 Having, displaying, force, convincing, compelling, persuasive a forcible speaker, word, expression Phr forcible-feeble, displaying show of vigour and force with nothing behind it forcibly, adv Prec & -ly In a forcible manner forcing, n [1 försing, 2 fösing] force (II) & -ing 1 Action of person or thing that forces, process of bringing force to bear on a thing, of hastening growth of plant &c plants for forcing 2 (attrib) Forcing bed, heated for plants, forcing house, greenhouse in which growth of plants is accelerated, forcing pump, force pump forçipat(ed), adj [1 forçipät(ed), 2 fösipät(ed)] Lat forçip, stem of forceps, & -ate Having the form of a forceps forçite, n [1 först, 2 fäst] force (I) & -ite Kind of dynamite foreclose, foreclosure, n. See foreclose, foreclosure ford (I), n [1 förd, 2 föd] OE, ME, ep OHG furd, cogn w Lat portus, 'harbour' (orig 'entrance, house door, passage') See port (I) Extended fr a different grade of the base seen in OE faran, 'to go' &c See fare (III) Shallow place in river or body of water, where passage is practicable by wading or on stepping-stones ford (II), vb trans, fr prec a To cross (a river &c) by a ford, b to wade across, ford or no ford fordable, adj [1 fördabl, 2 födebl] Prec & -able Capable of being forded fordless, adj [1 fördles, 2 födlis] ford (I) & -less Having no ford fordo, vb trans [1 fördö, 2 födä] OE, ME fördön for- & do (archaic or obs) a To undo, destroy, ruin, b to weary out fordone, edj [1 fördun, 2 födän] PP of prec (archaic or obs, chiefly pred.) Worn out, exhausted with fatigue fore (I), prop & adv [1 för, 2 fä] OE fore, 'before, in the sight of', ME fore, Common Gmc, cp OHG fora, furi, Mod Germ vor, 'before', für, 'for'. Goth faura for 'fura', 'before', Aryan *per, *pr &c See for (I), for-, before, first, former, forth, per-, primary, primum, pre-, pro- 1 prep (archaic or rare, chiefly in oaths) Before, in the sight of fore Heaven, I am innocent, fore George, by George (prob altered from fore God) 2 adv (naut) In front, only in Phr fore and aft, in the fore part and hinder part of the ship See fore-and-aft

fore (II), adj & n, fr prec 1 adj Situated in front or in the forward part the fore files came under fire, the fore part of the train 2 n Front, forward part, only naut or in Phr to the fore, to or at the front, to or in a prominent position, notably active fore (III), interj. Prob abbr fr before (golf) Warning call by player to person in the way fore-, fr fore (I) Pref used in forming vbs, participial adjs, & ns, denoting a before, in front, in place or degree, as forelook, foreman, b front part of, as forearm (I), forequarter, c before in time, in advance, preceding, as foresee, forenoon, d for for- (O Fr fora, 'without'), in foreclose fore-and-aft, adj [1 föraudshft, 2 föränddft] (chiefly naut) Having the direction of the ship's length, longitudinal a fore-and-aft rig fore-and-after, n [1 för and äfter, 2 för end äfte] Prec & -er (colloq) Vessel with fore and aft rig forearm (I), n [1 förarm, 2 födräm] fore- & arm (I) Part of the arm between the elbow and hand, corresponding part in animal forearm (II), vb trans [1 förärm, 2 födräm] fore- & arm (III) To arm, take defensive measures beforehand, in advance 'Fore warned is forearmed' (proverb) forebode, vb trans [1 förböd, 2 föböd] OE forebodian See fore- & bode 1 a To foretell, predict, to portend, be an omen of, b to indicate beforehand the sky forebodes a storm 2 To have a gloomy presentiment of, to augur misfortune concerning I forebode disaster for the enterprise foreboding, vbl n [1 förbödning, 2 föbödning] Prec & -ing a Evil omen or presage, b presentiment or apprehension of evil forebodingly, adv Prec & -ly In a foreboding manner forecabin, n [1 förkabin, 2 fökabin] fore- & cabin (I) Quarters in forepart of ship, accommodating second class passengers forecarriage, n [1 förkär, 2 fökär] Front part of a four wheeled horse vehicle including the two front wheels constructed to turn on a pivot forecast (I), vb trans [1 förkäst, 2 fökäst] ME forneast (PP), fore- & cast (I) To calculate, estimate, conjecture (event, result) beforehand, to estimate the probable course or outcome of to forecast tomorrow's weather, the winners in a race forecast (II), n [1 förkäst, 2 fökäst] Prec a Calculation, estimate, or conjecture regarding future event or development a weather forecast, b (rare) faculty of fore-sight or forethought forecaster, n [1 förkähster, 2 fökähster] See prec & -er Person who forecasts forecastle, n [1 fökäl, 2 fökäl] fore- & castle (naut) a (hist) Short, elevated deck in bows of ship, formerly used to command deck of enemy ship, b forepart of deck of warship, c crew's quarters in forepart of merchant ship foreclose, vb trans [1 förklöz, 2 föklöz] ME forclösen, fr O Fr forclous, PP of forclure, to exclude, fr O Fr (Mod Fr hors) fora, fr Lat foris, 'outside, out of doors', orig abl pl. of O Lat fora, 'door', cp Lat foris, 'door' (see forum, forensic), & O Fr clorre, fr Lat claudere, 'to shut' See cioso (III) 1 (law) a To shut out, bar, preclude, exclude (person) from enjoyment to foreclose a person of a property, b to deprive (mortgagor) of the right of redemption as failure to pay, c to prevent the redemption of (mortgage), d to take away (right or equity of redemption) from mortgagor 2 To close or settle (issue, question) beforehand, to anticipate the conclusion of to attempt to foreclose discussion foreclosure, n [1 fɔrkloʊʒər; 2 fɔrkloʊtʃ] Proc & -ure Act or process of foreclosing, annihilation of right to redeem a mortgage forecourt, n [1 fɔrkɔrt, 2 fɔl.ɪt] fore- & court (I) Court in front of building foredeck, n [1 fɔrdɛk, 2 fɔdek] fore- & deck (II) Front part of ship's deck foredoom, vb trans [1 fɔrdʊm, 2 fɔdɪm] fore- & doom To condemn in advance, to doom to penalty from the outset, (usually fig) to predestine to evil the attempt was foredoomed to failure forefather, n [1 fɔrfaððər, 2 fɔfəðs] M E forefader, op ON forfadir, fore- & father a Remote male ancestor, b (pl) past generations, predecessors forefinger, n [1 fɔrfɪŋgər, 2 fɔfɪŋgə] M E foro- & finger Finger next the thumb, first finger forefoot, n [1 fɔrfʊt, 2 fɔfʊt] M E fore- & foot fore- & foot 1 One of animal's front pair of feet 2 (naut) Foremost timber of keel, curving upward to stem forefront, n [1 fɔrfɹʊnt, 2 fɔfrant] Emphatic for front a extreme front, in Phr in the forefront of the battle, b (fig) position of chief importance, centre of greatest activity and interest foregather See forgather foregift, n [1 fɔrgɪft, 2 fɔgɪt] (law) Piumium paid by tenant for lease or its renewal forego, vb trans [1 fɔrgə, 2 fɔgə] fore- & go 1 (rare) To go before, precede, in time, place, or degree 2 Forego, qv foregoer, n [1 fɔrgər, 2 fɔgə] M E foregoers Proc & -ar One who precedes foregoing, adj [1 fɔrgɔɪŋ, 2 fɔgɔɪŋ] Pres Part of forego Preceding, already mentioned the foregoing are only a few of the instances foregone, adj [1 fɔrgən, 2 fɔgən] PP of forego Anticipated Phr foregone conclusion, a premature conclusion, one that anticipates the evidence, b issue that never was in doubt, that may be confidently foretold, inevitable result foreground, n [1 fɔrgraʊnd, 2 fɔgrawnd] fore- & ground, prob as a term in painting after Du voorgrond a That part of a scene which lies nearest to the spectator, b that part of a picture representing this, c (fig) the most conspicuous, prominent, position to be, keep oneself in the foreground forehammer, n [1 fɔrhæmər, 2 fɔhæmə] fore- & hammer (I) Sledge-hammer used in conjunction with hand-hammer forehand, n & adj [1 fɔrhænd, 2 fɔhænd] fore- & hand (I), op behindhand 1 n Part of horse in front of the rider 2 adj (lawn tennis &c) Pertaining to a normal stroke made with palm of hand holding the racket turned in direction of the stroke, contrasted with backhand forehanded, adj [1 fɔrhændəd, 2 fɔhændəd] (obscure Am) Acting, done in good time, timely, (Am) thrifty forehead, n [1 fɔrhɛd, 2 fɔrd, ɛd], vulg or mod [1 fɔrhɛd, 2 fɔhd] O E forhæfod, M E forhēved fore- & head (L) a Brow, upper part of face and skull between eyebrows and beginning of the hair, b (fig, obs or archaic) affrontery, impudency foreign, adj [1 fɔrɪn, 2 fɔrn] M E forēn, forēne, fr O Fr forain, *fr Low Lat type forānus for forāneus, 'residing outside', fr Lat forā (of motion), 'out of doors, outside', orig acc pl of O Lat forā, 'door'. See forum 1 a Not belonging to, or originating in that which is specified, introduced from without, extraneous, alien, strange, decent is foreign to his nature, b unconnected, irrelevant, impertinent the question is foreign to the matter in hand 2 (med &c) Not organically related to, not forming a structural part of, an organism a foreign substance, body, in the eye 3 a Pertaining to, characteristic of, derived, coming from, country, state, nation or nationality other than the speaker's, not native; exotic, alien a foreign accent, manners, foreign goods, Phr foreign affairs, policy, business connected with foreign countries, contrasted with home affairs, Foreign Secretary, qv under Foreign Office, foreign note paper, thin paper for letters to be sent abroad, foreign parts, countries outside the British Isles, foreign policy, policy in relation to foreign states, b (law) having, subject to, laws or jurisdiction different from those of the country specified a foreign bill of exchange foreigner, n [1 fɔrɪnər, 2 fɔrnə] Proc & -er a Person of foreign nationality, one owing allegiance to another state, (popularly) person of another, alien, race or speech, b (colloq) animal, plant, ship, security, of foreign origin foreignism, n [1 fɔrɪnɪzəm, 2 fɔrnɪzəm] foreign & -ism Idiom, peculiarity, of foreign origin foreignize, vb trans [1 fɔrɪnaɪz, 2 fɔrnənaɪz] foreign & -ize (rare) To make foreign, cause to resemble a foreigner Foreign Legion, n A volunteer force recruited by France from foreigners, for service abroad foreignness, n [1 fɔrɪnnes, 2 fɔrnɪs] foreign & -ness Quality of being foreign Foreign Office, n Department of state dealing with foreign affairs, with relations with foreign states, at the head of which is the Foreign Secretary, in full Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs forejudge, vb trans [1 fɔrjʊdʒ, 2 fɔdzʌdʒ] fore- & judge (II) To judge, decide about, before knowing the relevant facts, to prejudge forejudgement, n [1 fɔrjʊdʒmənt, 2 fɔdzʌdʒmənt] See proc & -ment Act of forejudging, premature or anticipatory decision foreknow, vb trans [1 fɔrnə, 2 fɔnə] fore- & know. To know beforehand, have presence of foreknowable, adj [1 fɔrnəbəl, 2 fɔnəbəl] Proc & -able Capable of being known in advance foreknowledge, n [1 fɔrnələdʒ, 2 fɔnələdʒ] fore- & knowledge Knowledge of that which will be, preexistence forel, forrel, n [1 fɔrel, 2 fɔrl] M E forel, fr O F forrel (Mod Fr fourreau), 'sheath', dimin (see -el) of O F fuerre (Mod Fr fourre, 'straw for thatch'), fr Low Lat fōdrus, 'case', of Gmc origin, op O H G fuotar, Mod Germ futter, Goth fōdr, 'case', covering, cogn w Sert patra-m, 'receptacle'. See fur Kind of parchment or vellum of which book covers are made foreland, n [1 fɔrlænd, 2 fɔlænd] M E forland, fore- & land, in sense 3 fr Germ vorland 1 Tract of land jutting into the sea, headland, cape the North Foreland 2 Strip of land in front of an embankment or wall of fortification 3 Coast land in relation to region behind it, distinguished from hinterland foreleg, n [1 fɔrleg, 2 fɔleg] fore- & leg Front leg of an animal forelock (I), n [1 fɔrlɒk, 2 fɔlɒk] fore- & lock (I) Lock of hair above the forehead Phr take time by the forelock, to seize the first opportunity, act with promptness, to pull (his) forelock, rustic mode of saluting superiors forelock (II), n & vb trans fore- & lock (II) 1 n Imphopun, pin passed through hole in bolt to fasten it 2 vb To fasten with a forelock foreman, n [1 fɔrmən, 2 fɔmən] fore- & man, op Germ vormann, 'leader of a file' &c a President of jury, b chief workman who acts as overseer and superintendent of a body of workmen foremast, n [1 fɔrmæst, 2 fɔmæst] fore- & mast (L) 1 The mast, properly lower section of it, nearest the bow of a ship 2 (attrib) Foremast hand, seaman &c, sailor below rank of petty officer foremost, adj & adv [1 fɔrmɒst, 2 fɔmɒst] O.E., M.E. formost, double superlative, fr

O E for ma, superl of fore (see fore), op Lat pri m us, 'first', & -est, altered, like utmost &c, by assimilation to most 1 adj a First in position, situated in front head foremost, headlong, b (rare) first in time, c first in degree, rank, dignity, most remarkable or distinguished, chief the foremost statesman of his age 2 adv Firstly, chiefly in Phr first and foremost, emphatic for first, before all else forename, n [1 fɔrnām, 2 fɔneɪm] Formed on model of Germ vorname (rare) Name preceding surname, Christian name forenoon, n [1 fɔrnʊn, 2 fɔnʊn] fore- & noon (Chiefly Scots) Not commonly current in Engl usage Part of the day before noon, morning forensic, adj [1 fɔrnɪk, 2 fɔrensɪk] Lat forensicus, 'pertaining to the forum or to public speaking', forum, adj suff -ensis & -ic Pertaining to law courts, having the qualities of a lawyer forensic eloquence, ability, forensic medicine, medical jurisprudence forensically, adv [1 fɔrnɪkəl, 2 fɔrensɪkəl] Proc & -al & -ly In a forensic manner foreordain, vb trans [1 fɔrɔrdæn, 2 fɔr ɔrdæn] fore- & ordain (chiefly theol) To ordain, determine, beforehand, preordain, predestine foreordination, n [1 fɔrɔrdænment, 2 fɔr ɔrdænment] Proc & -ment (rare) Foreordination foreordinate, vb trans [1 fɔrɔrdɪnət, 2 fɔr ɔrdɪnət] foreordain & -ate To foreordain foreordination, n [1 fɔrɔrdɪnɪʃən, 2 fɔr ɔrdɪnɪʃən] Proc & -ion Act of foreordaining, predestination forepart, n [1 fɔrpɑrt, 2 fɔpɪt] fore- & part First part, part in front forepeak, n [1 fɔrpɛk, 2 fɔpɪk] fore- & peak Pointed part of hold of ship, in bows forereach, vb trans & intrans [1 fɔrfɛtʃ, 2 fɔrfɪtʃ] fore- & reach To overtake and pass, in sailing, (also fig) forerun, vb trans [1 fɔrrʊn, 2 fɔrn] fore- & run (archaic or rare) a To go before, precede, be in advance of, b to be the precursor of, to herald, foreshadow forerunner, n [1 fɔrrʊnər, 2 fɔrnə] Proc & -er 1 a Person who goes in advance of another to prepare for or announce, him, precursor, harbinger, b person who precedes another in time, and begins, or lays foundations of, work completed, or brought to a higher stage of perfection by his successor Chaucer and Spenser were forerunners of Milton in English poetry 2 Sign that some thing is to follow, prognostic of disease foresail, n [1 fɔrsəl, 2 fɔsəl] fore- & sail Principal sail on foremast foresay, vb trans [1 fɔrsɛɪ, 2 fɔsɛɪ] fore- & say (rare) To foretell, predict foresee, vb trans [1 fɔrsɛ, 2 fɔsɛ] fore- & see (L), op O E foresēon, Germ vorsehen &c 1 To see beforehand (in vision &c), to have foreknowledge of 2 To be aware, to infer, in advance foreseeing, adj [1 fɔrsɪŋ, 2 fɔsɪŋ] fr Pres Part of proc a Seeing or knowing beforehand, present, b having foresight, provident, prudent foreseeingly, adv Proc & -ly In a foreseeing manner foreseer, n [1 fɔrsɪər, 2 fɔsɪər] foresee & -er Person who foresees foreshadow, vb trans [1 fɔrshədd, 2 fɔrshədd] fore- & shadow (theol) To typify (shadow), beforehand, prefigure, hence generally, to suggest, indicate in advance, to presage, adumbrate foresheet, n [1 fɔrshɛt, 2 fɔfɪt] fore- & sheet 1 Sheet or rope attached to foresail 2 (pl) Space at bow end of open boat O.E. forēscip, fore- & ship (L), forēscip, M.E. forēscip fore- & ship (L), op Du voorship (obs) Front part, bow, of ship.

foreshore, n [1 forshor, 2 f6f5] fore- & shore Part of the shore between high and low water marks, (loosely) strip of waste land along the coast foreshorten, vb trans [1 forshórtan, 2 f5-[6tn] fore- & shorten In the graphic arts, or sculpture in relief, to represent (object) in accordance with laws of visual perspective, thereby shortening the lines projecting towards the spectator foreshortening, n [1 forshórtanng, 2 f5-[6tnng] Preo & -ing Effect of visual perspective whereby projecting lines are apparently shortened, representation of this foreshow, foreshew, vb trans [1 forsh6, 2 f5[6u] O E forscēawan, 'to foresee', fore- & show (I) To show, indicate, beforehand, to prefigure, foretell foreshower, foreshewer, n [1 forsh6ar, 2 f5[6u] Preo & -er One who foreshows foreshowing, foreshewing, n [1 forsh6ing, 2 f5[6u] O E forscēawung, 'prudence, providence', M E forschēwung foreshow & -ing Action of person or thing that fore shows, revelation of what is to come in the future, prefiguration foreside, n [1 forsid, 2 f5saið] fore- & side (archaic) Front foresight, n [1 f6rsiðt, 2 f5sai] M E forēsīht fore- & sight, cp Germ vorsicht 1 A act of foreseeing, prevision, fore knowledge, b forethought, prudent regard for the future 2 Sight on muzzle of gun foresighted, adj [1 f6rsiðtad, 2 f5saiad] Preo & -ed Having foresight, prudently regardful of the future foresignify, vb trans [1 f6rsigniði, 2 f5-[signi] fore- & signify (rare) To signify beforehand, prefigure foreskin, n [1 f6rskīn, 2 f5skīn] fore- & skin Skin covering the glans of the penis, prepuce foresleeve, n [1 f6rslēv, 2 f5sliv] M E fore-sleeve fore- & sleeve (obs) A Detachable sleeve covering forearm, b part of sleeve from elbow to wrist forespeak, vb trans [1 f6rspēk, 2 f5spik] fore- & speak (rare) To predict forest (I), n [1 f6rest, 2 f6rist] M E, fr O Fr (Mod. Fr forēt), fr Low Lat foresta (silva), 'unenclosed woodland or hunting ground', orig adj, 'lying open', cp Low Lat foresta, 'a wood', fr Lat foris, 'outside' See forum 1 a (hust) Royal demesne, consisting of unenclosed land, mostly wooded, formerly strictly preserved for hunting, b large tract of land, wholly or partially covered with timber trees, whether growing naturally or especially planted, c large unenclosed tract of waste land, heath &c, now often almost denuded of trees, often carefully preserved for game deer forest, d (fig) something resembling a forest of trees a forest of masts, large collection of shipping, a forest of chimneys, forest of spears 2 (attrib) Pertaining to a forest or forests forest pines, pines bred, and running wild in a forest, forest fly, large kind attacking horses, forest laws, (hust) laws regulating royal forests, forest marble, colitic marble of Wyckwood Forest, Oxon, forest oak, the oak, forest ranger, keeper of a royal forest, forest tree, any large kind of timber tree such as are grown in forests, contrasted with fruit tree forest (II), vb trans, fr Preo To afforest forestage, n [1 foresti, 2 f6ristidz] O Fr forest (I) & -age (hust) 1 Duty paid to royal foresters 2 Service paid by forester 3 Right to take wood from forest forestal, adj [1 forestal, 2 f6rstel] forest & -al Pertaining to a forest forestall (I), n [1 f6rstāwl, 2 f5stā] O E forstēall, forestall, 'assault, ambush, interference', M E forstall, fore & O E steall, 'act of standing, place' See stall (I) (hust and obs) a The crime of waylaying on a highway, b feudal lord's jurisdiction over the forestall (II), vb trans M E forestallen, 'to obstruct a man's trade, by buying up his goods fore- & woman a President of jury of matrons, b woman who is overseer and superintendent of a body of workwomen foreword, n [1 f6rw6rd, 2 f5w6d] fore- & word, after model of Germ vorwort Preface, prefatory note, to a book foreyard, n [1 f6ry6rd, 2 f5j6d] fore- & yard Lowest yard on foremast forfars, n pl [1 f6rf6rz, 2 f5f6z], fr Forfar, town in Scotland Kind of coarse unbleached linen cloth forfeit (I), n [1 f6rfit, 2 f5ft] M E, fr O Fr, 'crime punishable by fine, the fine itself', P P of forfeire, 'to transgress', fr Low Lat forisfactum, P P of forisfacere, lit., 'to act outside, beyond, the limits of the law', fr Lat foris, 'outside' See forum & fact-

1 (obs) A ermo, offence 2 That of which one is deprived or mulcted as a punishment for an offence, the fine paid for an offence his life was the forfeit of his crime 3 A stake deposited in game of forfeits, lost under certain conditions 4 Act or process of deprivation as a forfeit for an offence, forfeiture forfeit (II), adj See preo (of property &c) Confiscated by law, taken away, as punishment for an offence the lands and titles of the Jacobite lords were forfeit forfeit (III), vb trans M E forfetan, 'to transgress, forfeit' See forfeit (I) 1 A To lose, be deprived, mulcted of, suffer confiscation of, as punishment for a crime to forfeit one's property for rebellion, b to be fined, deprived of legally, for irregularity of any sort to forfeit a motor licence 2 To lose in consequence of an act or of conduct of any kind to forfeit one's life on the battlefield, the esteem of one's friends by one's bad manners forfeitable, adj [1 f6rfitabl, 2 f5ftabl] forfeit (II) & -able Liable to be forfeited forfeiter, n [1 f6rfiter, 2 f5ftit6] M E forfetur, Low Lat forfeactor, forfeit (II) & -er Person who forfeits forfeiture, n [1 f6rfiehur, 2 f5ftit6] M E forfetur See forfeit (II) & -ure Act or process of forfeiting something as a penalty for an offence, or as a result of an action the forfeiture of property, of one's good name forfend, vb trans [1 f6rfend, 2 f5ftend] M E forfendan, 'to keep, protect, prohibit', hybrid fr for- & fend (archaic) To ward off, avert, chiefly in Heaven, God, forfend forfex, n [1 f6rfeks, 2 f5fteks] Lat, 'pair of shears or scissors, olav of crab or insect' Etymol uncertain The first element may be for-, fr *bhorbh, cp Scrt bardhalak, 'shearing, cutting' The base is perh an extension of that seen in for as in Lat forare, 'pierce' See foramen 1 (rare) Used by Pope for pair of scissors in Rape of the Lock 2 (zool) Scissor like organ at tail of certain insects, as earwig forficate, adj [1 f6rfik6t, 2 f5ftik6t] Lat forfic, stem of preo, & -ate (zool) Shaped like shears or scissors forgather, vb intrans [1 f6rg6dher, 2 f5-[g6ds] for- & gather (orig Scots) To assemble, come together, in intimate, friendly way, to meet socially, associate to forgather with friends, he and I forgathered abroad forgave, vb [1 f6rg6v, 2 f5g6v] O E for-gaf Pret of forgive forge (I), n [1 f6rj, 2 f5d] M E, O & Mod Fr, fr Lat fabrica, 'workshop of one who works in hard materials' See fabrica 1 A Blacksmith's workshop, smithy, b furnace or hearth for smith's work, c establishment or plant for hammering, working, shaping, rod hot metal 2 (fig) Workshop, place where plans, ideas &c are shaped forge (II), vb trans & intrans M E forgen, fr O Fr forger (Mod Fr forger), fr Lat fabricare, -are 'to make of hard materials, forge', fr fabrica See preo A trans 1 A To soften (iron or other metal) by heat and shape by hammering, to work (iron); b to make by this process to forge an anchor fore- & taste (I), n [1 f6rt6st, 2 f5ft6st] fore- & taste (II) First or preliminary taste, slight experience of something which one is afterwards to enjoy or suffer, anticipation fore- & taste (I), n [1 f6rt6st, 2 f5ft6st] fore- & taste (I) (rare) To taste beforehand, have a slight anticipatory experience of foretell, vb trans [1 f6rt6l, 2 f5ft6l] M E foreteller fore- & tell To tell or announce beforehand, to predict, prophesy foreteller, n [1 f6rt6ler, 2 f5ft6l6] Preo & -er One who foretells forethink, vb trans [1 f6rthīngk, 2 f5pīpk] fore- & think Cp O E forþencan (rare or obs) To think of beforehand, to realize mentally before occurrence forethought (I), n [1 f6rth6wt, 2 f5p6t] M E foreþought fore- & thought Careful, prudent thought for the future, consideration of future possibilities, foresight forethought (II), adj [1 f6rth6wt, 2 f5p6t], fr P P of forethink (obs or rare) Thought of, planned, beforehand foretime, n [1 f6rtīm, 2 f5t6im] fore- & time Early times, old time, former days foretoken (I), n [1 f6rt6ken, 2 f5t6uk6n] O E foret6cen, M E foret6cne, fore- & token, cp Germ vorzeichen &c Premonitory sign, premonitory omen foretoken (II), vb trans [1 f6rt6keo, 2 f5-[t6uk6n], fr Preo Cp O E foret6cman To give a foretoken of, to signify beforehand, foreshadow foretooth, n [1 f6rt6uth, 2 f5t6up] O E foret6th, M E foret6th Front tooth, incisor foretop, n [1 f6rt6p, 2 f5t6p] M E fore- & top (naut) Platform at top of foremast fore-topgallant, adj [1 f6r t6pg6lant, 2 f5t6pg6lant] fore- & topgallant Belonging to the mast, sail &c, above the fore-topmast fore-topman, n [1 f6r t6pman, 2 f5t6pman] fore-top & man (naut) Man stationed on top of foremast fore-topmast, n [1 f6r t6pm6st, 2 f5t6pm6st] fore- & topmast Mast above the foremast fore-topsail, n [1 f6r t6ps6l, 2 f5t6ps6l] fore- & topsail Sail on fore-topmast foretype, n [1 f6rtip, 2 f5t6up] fore- & type Type symbol, foreshadowing of some thing to come forever, adv & n [1 f6rv6r, 2 f6rev6] for & over a adv For ever, b n, eternity forewarn, vb trans [1 f6rw6rn, 2 f5w6n] fore- & warn To warn beforehand forewoman, n [1 f6rw6man, 2 f5w6man], society) manners, et quotq, convention, esp the recognized kind good form is an affair of the feelings as well as an outward observance, b (of public observance) ceremonial, series of prescribed actions, movements, utterances &c the coronation of a British sovereign is accompanied by many ancient forms, to attach importance to forms, a matter of form, a embodiment in documentary shape of a fixed, prescribed, order of words &c, formula, formulary the form of Morning Prayer, form of prayer used at sea, a form of words 6 A model, pattern (in several senses), specif, printed official document in which various items are to be filled in in writing under several heads income tax form, form of application (for a licence &c) 7 Physical and mental condition as fitting a person for some kind of bodily or intellectual action in good form for running, for lecturing &c, specif, to be in good form, to be in good health and spirits, lively in body and mind. 8 A wooden bench, usually without a back, on which a number of persons can sit, as used in schools, b class in a public school, grammar school, or preparatory school. 9 Place in which a hare is couched, lair 10 (print, usually form) Collection of type ready set up and looked into to chase ready for printing form (II), v trans & intrans M.E. formen, O Fr former, fr Lat formāre. See prec A trans 1 (of material action) a To give form to, to shape, fashion by manual acts to form a vessel out of clay, b to utter, pronounce, frame the baby was beginning to form short words, his lips could hardly form a sentence 2 To put together, build up, constitute, create, out of separate elements In various senses a to plan out and construct to form a garden in an open field, b (gram and rhet) to form words, create them by putting together base, stem, suffix, to form sentences, build them up by arranging words in requisite order, c to be the source of, cause to develop the rain soon formed large pools on the lawn 3 To constitute, act as, become, make up, he used as, afford the clouds formed a veil over the mountain-tops, his small capital formed a useful basis on which to build a fortune, chocolate forms a wholesome substitute for more solid food 4 a (of mental action) To call up in the mind, excogitate, conceive to form an idea, a concept, a plan, b to train, develop, educate, build up to form the mind, character &c 5 To organize, construct, bring together to form a regiment an army, to form a class for beginners in Italian, a society &c 6 (mil) To draw up, arrange, cause to assume a particular order to form a regiment into columns, to form fours B intrans 1 n (of material objects) To take shape, assume a form clouds are forming on the hills, crystals form in the retort, b (of non material things) to arise in the mind, come into existence, develop the idea, hope, belief &c, slowly formed in my mind, a spirit of discontent is rapidly forming among the people 2 (nav and mil) To assume a formation, move into a particular order to form into line. form-, for formic Used in composition -form Fr forme, fr Lat. -formis, fr forma See form (I) Suffix denoting a having (so many) forms, as multiform, uniform, b having the form of, as cruciform. formal, adj [1 formal 2 fōrməl] Lat formalis See form (I) & -al 1 Pertaining to the external form apparent or formal reverberance 2 Pertaining to the inner form or reality, essential 3 A performed according to, characterized by its relation to precedent and recognized forms ceremonial, still formal reasons, a formal box bearing &c b devoted to observance of form; functionary, precise a formal case, c a done in proper form characterized by due observance of custom and rule, orderly, regular a formal receipt, official permission b (of concrete objects) made according to rule, symmetrical trum formal dress, a beard of formal cut, formal garden, one exhibiting symmetrical shapes and geometrical lines, in which everything is rigidly balanced and artificially ordered. 5 Being purely a matter of form and outward appearance, but lacking reality his politeness is merely formal, formal religion, acquiescence &c formaldehyde, n [1 fōrmaldhīd, 2 fōrmaldhaid] form- & aldehyde Chemical compound used as deodorant and antiseptic &c formalin, n [1 formalin, 2 fōrməlīn] Prec shortened & -in Aqueous solution of formaldehyde formalise, vb See formalize formalism, n [1 fōrmalizm, 2 fōrmalizm] Fr formalisme formal & -ism Quality of being, tendency to become, formal, excessive or exclusive insistence on, or preoccupation with, formalities, esp in religion or the arts formalist, n [1 formalist, 2 fōrməlist] Fr formaliste formal & -ist Person addicted to formalism, esp in religion, one who adheres rigidly to rules and set forms, to the neglect of inner spiritual reality, a precisionist, pedant formalistic, adj [1 fōrməlistik, 2 fōrməlistik] Prec & -ic Pertaining to formalism or a formalist formality, n [1 formaliti, 2 fōrməlisti] Fr formalité formal & -ity 1 Quality of being formal, specif a observance of, conformity to, established forms, rules, or order, propriety, orderliness, b excessive regularity, precision, or conventionality, as in manners, conduct, reasoning, c stiffness and lifelessness of design in art 2 Formal or conventional act, customary proceeding or requirement, ceremony, esp one devoid of practical significance or use to comply with all legal formalities, a mere formality formalization, n [1 fōrməlizashun, 2 fōrməlizashun] Next word & -ation Action of formalizing formalize, v trans & intrans [1 fōrməliz, 2 fōrməliz] formal & -ize 1 trans a To give form to, b to render formal 2 intrans To behave in a formal manner formally, adv [1 fōrməli, 2 fōrməli] formal & -ly In a formal manner formant, n [1 formant, 2 fōrmənt] Fr, Pres Part of former, 'to form' Inherent tone or pitch of a vowel sound, determined by the position and condition of tongue and position of lips, and independent of the tone of the voice format, n [1 formah, 2 fōrmā] Fr, fr Lat format, PP stem of formāre See form (II) Shape and size of a book as published, style, got up formation, n [1 fōrmāshun, 2 fōrməshun] Fr, fr Lat formatiō (em), 'a shaping' form (II) & -ation 1 Action or process of forming (in any sense) 2 Manner in which a thing is formed, arrangement of parts, structure, conformation 3 (mil and nav) Arrangement or disposition of troops or vessels 4 Thing in relation to its forming or structure, specif (geol) small group, usually less than series, of stratified rocks of similar character formational, adj [1 fōrmāshunəl, 2 fōrməshunəl] Prec & -al Pertaining to formation or a formation formative (I), adj [1 formativ, 2 fōrmətiv] Fr formatif form (II) & -ativo 1 Giving form capable of forming, tending to develop and shape, plastic creative the formative energy of a plant, b pertaining to formation 2 (gram) Formative element one used in combination with another or others to form a word e.g. a prefix or suffix or other internal part the identity and origin of which are often irrecoverable formative (II), n, fr prec A formative element formic, n Variant of form (I) 10 former (I), n [1 fōrmer, 2 fōrmə] M.E.

formeur, former, fr O Fr type formeur*, fr Lat formātor form (II) & -er a Person who forms, b thing used in forming or shaping articles, mould, gauge, pattern &c former (II), adj M.E. formere, compar, back formation fr former See foremost a Preceding in time, earlier, prior, previous in former times, b the former, quasi pronoun, opposed to the latter, of two persons, things, or groups, the one, those, mentioned first and immediately before they leap horses and cattle, the former for riding, the latter for food formerly, adv Prec & -ly In the past at a former time, once formic, adj [1 formik, 2 fōmīk] Abbr for formica*, fr Lat formica, 'ant', & -ic This Lat word is a puzzle, it has been suggested that it stands for formica*, fr mormica*, but the form is irregular If the explanation be right, the word is perhaps cogn w Gk murmēla, 'ant' See also second element of pismire Pertaining to, found in, ants formic acid, irritant, volatile organic substance, occurring in ants, stinging nettles &c, and produced artificially formicary, n [1 fōrmikari, 2 fōmīkəri] Low Lat formicāri (um), fr Lat formica, 'ant' See prec & -ary Ants' nest, ant hill formicate, vb intrans [1 formikāt, 2 fōmīkēt] Lat formicat (um), PP of formicār, 'to creep like ants, feel like the creeping of ants' See prec To creep, swarm, with ants formication, n [1 fōrmikāshun, 2 fōmīkēshun] Prec & -ion (med) Morbid sensation of tingling, as if ants were creeping over the skin formidability, n [1 fōrmidābiliti, 2 fōmūdābiliti] Lat formidābil (as) (see next word) & -ity Quality of being formidable formidable, adj [1 fōrmidābl, 2 fōmūdābl] Fr, fr Lat formidābil (as), fr formidāre, 'to fear, dread', fr form ido, 'terror', perh cogn w Gk mormō, 'monster, bogey, loth goblin' 1 Causing, inspiring, fear, dread, awe, terrifying, awe inspiring a formidable appearance 2 Difficult to accomplish, presenting obstacles, requiring effort to overcome a formidable task, a formidable army 3 Considerable in bulk, amount, number a formidable pile of letters, helping of pudding formidableness, n Prec & -ness Quality of being formidable, formidability formidably, adv [1 fōrmidāblī, 2 fōmūdāblī] formidable & -ly In a formidable manner formless, adj [1 fōrmles, 2 fōmles] form (I) & -less Having no form, shapeless, indefinite, having no definite plan or design, amorphous formlessly, adv Prec & -ly In a formless manner formlessness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being formless, absence, lack, of form, shape, design formula, n [1 fōrmūla, 2 fōmjul] pl formulae or formulae [1 fōrmōlē 2 fōmjulī] Lat, 'small pattern, rule, formula &c, fr forma, form (I), & dimin suff ula See -ule 1 A set form of words, prescribed for use, or habitual on certain occasions a legal formula, the baptismal formula, b (contempt) conventional phrase, rule, custom, belief &c to swallow formulas, to repeat the hackneyed formulas of condolence Specif. 2 A definition of a theological doctrine or doctrines, confession of faith, creed the Chalcedonian formula, b pharmaceutical recipe 3 a (math) Concrete statement usually in algebraic symbols, of a general principle, law, truth, or theory, for application to particular instances b (chem) axiomatic representation of the composition or atomic structure of a substance formular, adj [1 fōrmulār, 2 fōmjulār] Prec & -ar (rare) Pertaining to a formula or formulas formularization, n [1 fōrmulārizashun, 2 fōmjulārizashun] Next word & -ation. Act of formularizing formularize, vb trans [1 fórmuláriz, 2 fórmuláriz] formular & -ize To express in a formula, formulate formuláry, adj & n [1 fórmulári, 2 fórmulári] Lat fórmulári (us), 'lawyer who composes writs, properly adj formula & -ary Op Fr formuláre 1 adj Pertaining to a formula or formulas, prescribed, ritual 2 n Collection of formulas, book containing liturgical or other formulas formulate, vb trans [1 fórmulát, 2 fórmulát] formula & -ate To reduce to, express in, a formula or formulas, to express in a promise form to formulate a scientific theory, proposals for reform formulation, n [1 fórmuláshun, 2 fórmuláshun] Prec & -ion Act of formulating formuláshun, n [1 fórmuláshun, 2 fórmuláshun] formuláshun & -ism Addiction to, excessive belief in or reliance on, formulas formulist, n [1 fórmulíst, 2 fórmulíst] formula & -ist Person addicted to formulas or formulaism, and inclined to decide questions and regulate his conduct by their means instead of by principle and judgement formulístic, adj [1 fórmulístik, 2 fórmulístik] Prec & -ic Pertaining to formulaism or formulaists formulization, n [1 fórmulízashun, 2 fórmulízashun] Next word & -ation (rare) Act of formulizing formulize, vb trans [1 fórmulíz, 2 fórmulíz] formula & -ize (rare) To formulate forment, prep [1 fórmént, 2 fórmént] See fore (I), adv, & anent Scots & Nthn 1 A Opposite to, b near, alongside of 2 Respecting, in connexion with fornicate (I), vb intrans [1 fórnikát, 2 fórnikát] Ecclies Lat fórnikát (um), P P type of fornicát, 'to visit a brothel', fr Lat fornic, stem of fornax, 'aroh, vault, brothel', prob eogn w O Lat forn us, later furnus, 'oven', & w Lat fornax, 'furnace'. See furnace To commit fornication fornicate (d) (II), adj [1 fórnikát(ed), 2 fórnikát(ed)] Lat fórnikát (um), vaulted, arched, fr fornix, 'aroh' (see prec), & -ate (bot) Arching over, having aroh-shaped appendages fornication, n [1 fórnikáshun, 2 fórnikáshun] M E fórnicaashun, fr O & Mod Fr fornicaashun, fr ecclies Lat fornicaashun (em), fr fornicát (see fornicate (I)) & -ion Sexual intercourse between unmarried persons, or between a married and an unmarried person fornicator, n [1 fórnikátor, 2 fórnikátor] M E fórnicaator, fr O & Mod Fr fornicaator, fr ecclies Lat fornicaator (em), as prec & -or Person who fornicates fornicatress, n [1 fórnikátress, 2 fórnikátress] Prec & -ess Female guilty of fornication fornice, vb intrans [1 fórpín, 2 fórpín] M E fórpín, 'to torture, pine, famish' for- & pine (I) (archaic, chiefly P P) To pine away, waste away, through pain, hunger &c forrader, adv [1 fórrader, 2 fórrader] Phonetic spelling of old pronunciation of forward In Phr to get no forrader, to make no progress forrel, n Altiernative spelling of forrel forsake, vb trans [1 fórsák, 2 fórsák] O E fórsacan, 'to refuse, relinquish, deny', prob ong 'to oppose strongly', M E fórsaken, 'to forsake', O H G fórsahhan, Sw fórsaka, fr for- & O E sacan, 'to disagree, contend, quarrel', fr sacu, 'dispute, quarrel, strife', of Goth sahan, 'to strive, dispute' See sake 1 To abandon, desert, to break off social relations with (a person) to forsake one's old friends, one's children 2 To give up, relinquish, renounce (a habit, practice, former way of life &c.) forsaken, adj [1 fórsáken, 2 fórsáken] fr P P of prec. O E fórsacen Abandoned, deserted forsaker, n [1 fórsáker, 2 fórsáker] forsake & -er One who forsakes.

forsook, vb [1 forsook, 2 fəsuk] O E forsōc, M E forsōk Pret of forsake forsooth, adv [1 forsooth, 2 fəsūp] O E; M E forsoðe, 'for a truth', for (I) & sooth (now always ironical) Truly, indeed, no doubt and be forsooth expecting to be well paid for doing nothing! forspent, adj [1 forspént, 2 fəspént] P P of obs forspend, 'to spend entirely'; O E forspendan, 'to squander', M E forspenden for- & spend (archaic) Exhausted, wearied out forswear, vb trans & intrans [1 forswár, 2 fəswár] O E forswarian, 'to renounce', also 'swear falsely', M E forswáren, op Germ verschwören, 'to conspire' for- & swear A trans 1 a To renounce, refuse, or deny on oath or by solemn protestation, to abjure, b to give up, abandon, use or practice of 2 To forswear oneself, to perjure oneself B intrans To swear falsely forsworn, adj [1 forsworn, 2 fəswɔn] P P of prec O E, M E forsworen Having sworn falsely, perjured forsythia, n [1 forsethia, 2 fə'sa:pi:] Mod Lat, generic name fr William Forsyth (1757-1804), gardener Shrub, originally from Asia Minor, growing freely in English gardens, cultivated for its profuse yellow blossoms, which it bears in the spring fort, n [1 fort, 2 fɔt] O & Mod Fr, fr Low Lat fortis (domus), 'a strong house, fortress', fr Lat fortis, 'strong, bold', O Lat fortis, 'strong', cp O Lat fortis (& horcius), 'good' It has been suggested that the Lat forms represent Aryan bhergh- & are cogn w O E beorgan, 'to hide, protect', & burg, 'fortified place' &c, see borough, other authorities derive the Lat forms fr Aryan dhergh-, whence also Lat firmus, see firm (I), & Sert djha, 'firm, strong' a Building or group of buildings and earthworks, strengthened as far as possible to withstand artillery fire, and armed and equipped for military defence, now usually detached part of system of defences, b fortified trading post, esp on confines of civilization fortalice, n [1 fortalix, 2 fɔ'tælɪs] O Fr fortalece, op Span fortaleza, fr Low Lat fortalitia, -itium, 'fortress', fr fortis, 'strong' See prec a Small fort or outwork, b (archaic or poet) Fortress forte (I), n [1 fort, 2 fɔt] Fr fort, 'strong, strength', -e has been erroneously added, as in locale, morale See fort 1 Quality or accomplishment in which one excels, strong point 2 Part of sword blade between the hilt and middle forte (II), adj, adv, & n [1 fɔrte, 2 fɔtɪ] Ital, fr Lat fortis, 'strong' See fort (mus) 1 adj Loud 2 adv Loudly 3 n Loud passage (Symbol f) forte-piano, adj, adv, & n [1 fɔrte piáno, 2 fɔt piáno] Ital, 'loud soft' See prec & piano (mus) 1 adj First loud and then soft 2 adv In this manner 3 n Passage played or sung thus forth, adv & prep [1 forth, 2 fɔp] O E, M E forð, cp Du voort, Germ fort &c, fr fore & suff -p, Aryan to 1 adv a Forwards, onwards, in place, time, or degree to go forth to battle, from this day forth, archaic except in Phr and so forth, and so on, and the like, &c, so far forth, to that extent, so far forth as, to whatever extent, back and forth, (Am) backwards and forwards, to and fro, b into general view or notice (chiefly with vb) to bring forth young, to put forth leaves, to come, set, stand, look, show, hold, forth &c, see each of these 2 prep (obs or archaic) Forth from, from out of to go forth the house forthcome, vb intrans [1 forthkum, 2 fɔp kám] forth & come Cp O E forþcuman (rare) To be forthcoming forthcoming (I), adj [1 forthkumɪŋ, 2 fɔp kámɪŋ] Pres Part of prec 1 About to appear, approaching a host of forthcoming works 2 Ready, at hand, available, when required the promised help was not forth coming 3 (of persons, their manners, and characters) Easy of access, gracious, affable, courteous, communicative forthcoming (II), n forthcome & -ing Process of coming forth, appearing forthright (I), adv [1 foríthrit, 2 fɔ'praɪt] O E fórd ríht, 'at once, instantly' forth & right (II) (archaic) a Straightforward, b at once, straightway forthright (II), adj & n O E, M E fórd ríht, forth & right (I) (archaic) 1 adj a Giong straight on, direct, b (fig) straightforward, outspoken, downright, candid 2 n. Straight course 'Forthrights and meanders' (Shakespeare) forthwith, adv [1 forthwidh, -with, 2 fɔp wɪð, -wɪp] M E fórd wíð, forth & with used absol, op M E, forthwithall, representing O E fórd wíð, 'forward with' Immediately, at once fortieth, adj & n [1 fɔrtieth, 2 fɔtɪp] O E fówertigoba, M E fówertigoba forty & -th (II) a adj Ordinal of forty, b n, fortieth part fortifiable, adj [1 fɔrtifíabl, 2 fɔrtifíabl] fortify & -able Capable of being fortified. fortification, n [1 fɔrtifíkáshun, 2 fɔrtifík:jaɪ] Fr, fr Lat ffortifícatíō (em), 'act of strengthening', fr fortificāre fortify & -ation 1 Action of fortifying or strengthening, specif, strengthening of wine or other liquor by adding alcohol 2 Act, process, art, of making a town or other place militarily strong by the erection of defensive works 3 Fortifications, complex or aggregate of defensive works, town walls, towers &c, earthworks, fortified lines fortifier, n [1 fɔrtífíer, 2 fɔrtífíer] Next word & -er Person or thing that fortifies, specif (facet) alcoholic drink taken nominally as a tonic, or pick-me-up fortify, vb trans [1 fɔrtífí, 2 fɔrtífí] Fr fortifier, fr Lat fortificāre See fort & -fy 1 To make strong or stronger, to strengthen, specif a to make (structure) more enduring, b to strengthen liquor by adding alcohol, c to make a person physically, mentally, or morally stronger to fortify oneself against the cold, fortified with the last rules of the Church, d to corroborate, confirm to fortify one's case with statistics, a statement with facts 2 (mil) To protect a place against attack, by building defensive works, to convert into a fortress fortissimo, adv [1 fɔrtisímō, 2 fɔrtisímō] Ital, fr dat of Lat fortissimus, superl of fortis, 'strong' See fort (mus) Very loud. (Abbreviation, ff) fortitudo, n [1 fɔrtítūd, 2 fɔrtítūd] Fr, fr Lat fortitudo, 'strength, courage', fr fortis, 'strong' See fort & -tude Calm, sustained courage, resolute endurance, in the face of pain, danger, or trouble fortnight, n [1 fɔrtnaɪt, 2 fɔrtnaɪt] O E fówertighe nīht, 'fourteen nights' (night being unit in reckoning time), M E fourtē(n) nīht See fourteen, night, & ep eennight. Period of fourteen days or two weeks yesterday, today, Monday, fortnight, at a date a fortnight after yesterday &c fortnightly, adj & adv [1 fɔrtnaɪtlɪ, 2 fɔrtnaɪtlɪ] Prec & -ly a adj Happening, performed, produced &c, at intervals of a fortnight, b adv, at intervals of a fortnight fortress, n & vb trans [1 fɔrtres, 2 fɔrtres] M E fortress, fr O Fr fort(e)re, forteresse, variant of fortlece See fortalice 1 n Fortified place, stronghold, town or permanent camp protected by strong fortified lines, forts, or defensive works 2 vb. (rare) To furnish with a fortress fortuitism, n [1 fɔrtúitizm, 2 fɔrtúitizm] Lat fortuitus, see fortuitous, & -ism. Doctrine that evolutionary changes are the result, not of design, but of the fortuitous operation of natural laws fortuitist, n [1 fɔrtúitist, 2 fɔrtúitist] See prec & -ist. Adherent of fortuitism.

fortuitous, adj [1 fortiūtus, 2 fōtūstas] Lat fortuit (us), 'casual, accidental', fr fort, stem of fortis, 'chance', see fortune, & -ous. Due to, happening by, chance or accident, casual.

fortuitously, adv. Free & -ly. In a fortuitous manner, casually, accidentally.

fortuitousness, n. See free & -ness. Quality of being fortuitous.

fortuity, n. [1 fortiūta, 2 fōtūstas] Fr fortuité for fortuit-ité*. See fortuitous & -ity. A fortuitousness, accidental character, a accidental occurrence.

fortunate (I), adj [1 forchunat, fortūnat, 2 fōtūnat, fōtūnat] Lat fortūnat (us), PP of fortunare, 'to make prosperous'. See fortune (II) & -ate. 1 Enjoying good fortune, having some unexpected or unearned good, lucky, happy. 2 Bringing or heralding good fortune, auspicious. 3 born under a fortunate star, a fortunate speculation.

fortunate (II), n., fr free (rare) Fortunate person.

fortunately, adv [1 forchunatli, fortūnatli, 2 fōtūnatli, qunatli] fortunate (I) & -ly. In a fortunate manner, b by good fortune, happily. fortunately I remembered the address.

fortune (I), n. [1 forchun, fortūn, 2 fōtūn, fōtūn] M.E., O & Mod. Fr fortune, fr Lat fortuna, 'chance, good luck, fate, goddess of fate', fr fort, stem of fortis, 'chance, luck', fr bess for, 'to bear', see -ferous & bear (I). 1 A chance, luck, hazard, the apparently accidental or incalculable element in affairs by good fortune. 2 Fortuna, a soldier of fortune, one who offers his services to any employer or cause he chooses, to try one's fortune, to take a risk, make a venture, the fortune of war. 3 This personified as a goddess. 4 Fate, destiny, lot in life, esp one's future lot, Phr to tell fortunes, to profess to foretell person's future fate or destiny. 5 A (2.) Good fortune, good luck, (u) prosperity, success, wealth. 6 to seek one's fortune, a man of fortune, b large possessions, wealth to make, riches, have, a fortune, Phr to marry a fortune, to marry a wealthy woman, a small fortune (colloq.), a considerable sum.

fortune (II), vb. trans & trans M.E. fortunen, fr O Fr fortuner, fr Lat fortunare, 'to make prosperous', fr fortuna. See free (archaic) a trans. To chance, happen. It fortune that he was passing, Phr to fortune upon, happen to find, b trans, (rare) to furnish with a fortune or estate.

fortune-hunter, n. Person who makes unscrupulous efforts to obtain wealth, esp by marriage.

fortune-hunting, n. Action, occupation, of a fortune-hunter.

fortuneless, adj [1 forchunles, 2 fōtūnles] fortune (I) & -less. A having no good fortune, b having no wealth.

fortune-teller, n. One who professes to predict person's destinies, as by palmistry &c.

fortune-telling, n. Action, practice of predicting people's destinies.

forty, adj & n [1 forti, 2 fōt] O.E. fōrtig, M.E. fourti, fourti, four & -ty. 1 adj. Four times ten. Phr forty winks, (colloq.) a short sleep or nap, esp by day. 2 n. Sum of four tens. a man of forty, he is under forty, in the forties, between the ages of 30 and 50. Phr the Forty, body of 40 persons, as the French Academy, the forties, the years 1840-49, 1740-49 &c., the (roaring) forties, stormy zone of N. Atlantic between 39° and 50° N. lat., the Forty fives, Jacobite rising of 1745 out in (the) Forty fives.

forum n. [1 forūm, 2 fōrūm] Lat, 'market place, place for public business'. Orig the forecourt of a house where business was transacted, from same base as Lat for, 'door', whence foris, 'outside'. Forum prob. derives its orig sense fr being outside the house. See further under door, wh. is cogn. 1 Market-place of ancient Rome or of forward (I), adv [1 forwārd, 2 fōwārd] The old received pron [1 fōrad, 2 fōrad] is now obs., province, or vulg., except in naut. use. Cp forradar O.E. forwærd, forwærd, adj., naut. adv., M.E. forwærd, adv & adj, the adv being derived fr O.E. on forwærdan, 'in a forward (position)', fore- & -ward. Mod. adj. & n fr adv. See also forwards 1. A towards the front, forepart, or place before one, onward, in the direction in which one is facing. to go, hurry, look forward, Phr to play forward, (cricket) to reach or stop forward to play the ball, forward (mil) command to advance, b m advance, ahead, of another or the main body. soldiers were sent forward, c (fig) in a progressive manner, so as to advance or make progress to help a movement forward by work or money, d into notice or prominence to bring, put, set forward, to come forward, Phr to put oneself forward, assume undue importance. 2 (naut) In the forepart of the ship, contrasted with aft. 3 Towards the future, onwards in time from the time forward. Phr carriage forward, (of goods) to be paid for at destination, to date forward, to post-date, to look forward, to consider the future, to look forward to, await, expect, with pleasurable anticipations.

Roman town, used for legal, political, and other public business. 2 (fig) The law courts, esp as contrasted with parliament the forum and the senate. 3 (fig) Tribunal, organ of judgement or decision the forum of public opinion, of conscience.

forward (II), adj. 1 A situated in front of, before, one, in the forepart of a thing, specif (naut) of a ship, b moving forward, advancing a forward march, cricket, forward play (see free 1 a). 2 (fig) Progressive, advanced, endeavouring to make progress in ideas, policy &c. a forward movement in a party, the Church &c. 3 (fig) a In the habit of putting oneself unduly forward, officious, presumptuous, impudent, pert a forward minor, b prompt, quick, eager the crew were forward to assist & (commerce) Pertaining to, concerned with, the future, esp with produce that is not yet ready forward buying, prices, a forward contract. 5 Well advanced, hastening to maturity, early, precocious, a of physical condition a forward spring, b of mental condition a forward pupil, to be forward with one's work.

forward (III), n., fr free a (in football, polo, and hockey) One of the players in the front line, b (fig, pl.) group of persons working in advance of main body, pioneers the Liberal Forwards.

forward (IV), vb. trans, fr forward (I). 1 To help to advance, to further, promote, to hasten progress and development of to forward a plan, scheme. 2 a To send forward, post on farther (letter, parcel &c.) to person for whom it is intended to forward letters to a new address, b to dispatch, send the goods shall be forwarded to your house.

forwarder, n. [1 forwārdar, 2 fōwārdar] Free & -er. Person who forwards, specif, one who undertakes delivery of goods to carrier.

forwarding, n. [1 forwārding, 2 fōwārding] forward (II) & -ing. Action of one who forwards, business of a forwarder.

forwardness, n. [1 forwārdness, 2 fōwārdness] forward (II) & -ness. 1 State or quality of being forward, specif, state of being advanced, or early mature or ripe (of physical and mental condition) the forwardness of the season, of the crops, of a pupil. 2 a Undue readiness to push oneself forward, officiousness, pertness, presumption, b readiness, willingness, promptness.

forwards, adv [1 forwārdz, 2 fōwārdz] M.E. forwārdes, forward (I) & gent suff -s, wh. was often used adverbially. See -wards. Used indifferently with forward in many adverbial phrases (to walk &c.) backwards and forwards, to look forwards, to look ahead, to the future, to move a thing forwards &c.

forwarded, adj [1 forwārd, 2 fōwārd] M.E. forwārd, PP of forwārdan, 'to weary out', for- & weary (II) (archaic or poet) Utterly wearied, tired out.

forwardly, adv & conj [1 forw, 2 fōw] O.E. for hweg, 'because', instrumental of hwe, 'what'. See what (archaic and obs) a adv. Why, wherefore, b conj, because.

forworn, adj [1 forworn, 2 fōworn] PP of obs forwear, O.E. forwæran, M.E. forwæren, 'to wear out', for- & wear (I), perh confused w O.E. forworen, 'decayed, worn out', fr for- & worn, PP of wesan, 'to be'. See was (archaic or poet) Worn out, exhausted.

fossa, n., pl fossae [1 fōsa, 2 fōsa, -i] Lat. See next word (anat) Groove, pit, depression, small cavity, as nasal, cranial fossae &c. fosse, n. [1 fōs, 2 fōs] M.E., O & Mod. Fr., fr Lat fossa, 'ditch' (for fossa terra, 'dug earth'), fem PP of fodere, 'to dig', cp O. Slav bodŭ, 'I prick, pierce', Lith beželi, 'to dig, hollow out', fr the same base as Goth bada, 'bed'. See bed 1 Dry or wet ditch, moat, or trench, esp in fortification, ditch running parallel with rampart made of materials dug from it. 2 (anat) Groove or depression as in a bone.

fossette, n. [1 fōsēt, 2 fōsēt] Fr, 'small hollow, dimple'. Free & -ette. Little depression, a dimple.

fossick, vb. intrans & trans [1 fōsh, 2 fōsh] Prob eastern dial fussack, fussel, 'to bustle about, make a fuss'. See fuss & -ock. 1 intrans. a (Austral mn.) To search for gold in old workings, crannies &c., b (fig, colloq) to search, rummage, for pickings. 2 trans. To dig (gold &c). fossicker, n. [1 fōshak, 2 fōshak] Free & -er. Gold miner who fossicks.

fossil, n. & adj [1 fōsil, fōsil, 2 fōsil, -il] Fr fossile, fr Lat fossil (us), 'that may be dug up', fr fosa, PP stem of fodere, 'to dig'. See fosse & -ile. 1 n. A Remains of animal or vegetable organism, or cast or trace of such, as footprint, found petrified, and naturally imbedded in stratified rock, b (fig) old person who retains unchanged the habits or ideas of a past age, institution or thing that has survived its use, without adaptation to changed conditions. 2 adj. Having the nature and character of a fossil, connected with, resembling, a fossil a fossil fish, fossil remains &c., a fossil bone, shell, tree, footprint.

fossiliferous, adj [1 fōsiliferus, 2 fōsiliferus] Lat fossil, stem of fossilis (see free), & -iferous. Bearing, containing, fossils fossiliferous rocks.

fossilization, n. [1 fōsilizashun, 2 fōsilizashun] Next word & -ation, cp Fr fossilisation. A process of becoming fossilized, b something which is fossilized.

fossilize, vb. trans & intrans [1 fōsiliz, 2 fōsiliz] fossil & -ize. 1 trans. a To convert into a fossil, to petrify, b (fig) to render antiquated or incapable of progress or adaptation to circumstances. 2 intrans. a To become fossilized or petrified, b (fig) to grow antiquated, c (rare) to search for fossils. fossorial, adj [1 fōsorial, 2 fōsorial] Lat. fossor (us), 'adapted for digging', fr fossor, agent-n fr foss, PP stem of fodere, 'to dig'. See fosse & -or & -al. (zool) a Digging, burrowing fossorial weasel, b adapted for burrowing the fossorial feet of the mole.

foster (I), adj [1 fōster, 2 fōsta] O.E. fōster, fōster, M.E. fōster, 'nursing, nourishment', cp O.N. fōstr, connected w O.E. fōda (see food), Gmc type fōstr*, fr fār*, fr Aryan passr*, fr pal-tr*, fr base pā*, 'to feed', whence Lat. pāscere, 'to feed', pābulum, 'food', pāstor, 'shepherd' (see pabulum, pastor, pasture) (rare, except in composition) Pertaining to fostering, connected, not by birth, but by nursing or rearing foster parents &c.

foster (II), vb trans OE fōstran, ME fostren, fr prec, op ON fōstra 1 a To nurse, nourish, rear, bring up, to cherish, tend to foster a child, the sick &c, b (fig) to encourage, promote, stimulate schools to foster artistic talent, to foster social evils 2 To cherish, harbour in one's heart to foster a desire for revenge, an idea, hope &c fosterage, n [1 fōstarij, 2 fōstaridj] Prec & -age a Act of fostering, b custom or practice of employing foster-mothers foster-brother, n OE fōsterbrōðer foster (I) & brother One of two male persons, not actual brothers by blood, who are being, or have been, nursed, suckled, and brought up by the same woman, the mother of one of them foster-child, n Child nursed or brought up by foster-parent fosterer, n [1 fōsterer, 2 fōsters] foster (II) & -er Person who fosters foster-father, n OE fōsterfader, ME foster-fader Man who takes, or has taken, the place of father to one in one's childhood, the husband of foster-mother fosterling, n. [1 fōsterling, 2 fōsteling] OE fōstoring, ME fōsteling foster (I) & -ling Foster-child, nursing foster-mother, n. OE fōstermōðor, ME fōstermōder 1 Woman who suckles the child of another, or brings it up, woman standing in such a relation to one 2 Device, furnished with a means of heating, for protecting and keeping warm young chicks hatched by an incubator, or taken from the hen as soon as hatched foster-parent, n Foster-father or foster-mother foster-sister, n OE fōstersweostor Female person, not actual sister, who is, or has been, nursed, or brought up, with another, by a woman who is the mother of one of them fostress, n [1 fōstres, 2 fōstres] foster (II) & -ess Woman who fosters foudroyant, adj [1 fōdrōiant, 2 fōdrōiant, -rwasj] Fr, Pres Part of foudroyer, 'to strike with lightning', fr foudre, 'lightning', fr Lat fulgur See fulgurite, fulgent (med) Attacking one suddenly and overwhelmingly, fulminant foudroyant paralyse fought, vb [1 fawt, 2 fōt] OE Pret feahit, ME fauht Pret & PP of fight foughten, adj [1 fāwtn, 2 fōt(ə)n] OE fōhten, ME foughten, old PP of fight (I) (archaic, poet) Fought, esp the foughten field foul (I), adj [1 foul, 2 faul] OE fūl, ME fūl, foul, OHG fūl, Goth fūl s, ON fūll, fr Aryan base pū-*, op Lat pūs, 'foul matter produced by inflammation' &c (see pus), pūlere, 'to stink', pūtridus, 'rotten' (see putrid), further Gk pūthēin, 'to rot' &c, Sert pūyati, 'stinks' See filth & filthy 1 A filthy, covered with filth, extremely dirty, unclean, the word expresses a degree of filth so great as to cause disgust and loathing a foul hovel, the floor was foul with the dirt of weeks, b putrescent, septic wounds foul for lack of dressing, c offensive, revolting to the senses, suggestive of filth a foul smell, Phr foul linen, such as requires to be washed, soiled linen, d (of disease) very severe, disgusting, infectious 2 a Clogged up with dirt and impurities, not clear a foul pipe, gun-barrel &c, b specif (of a ship) having hull covered with barnacles and other accretions, c (of fish) in poor condition, esp after spawning 3 (naut, of ropes and cordage &c) Tending to jam, jammed, caught in other ropes, pulleys, chains &c Phr a foul berth, one in which a ship is in danger of collision 4 a (of weather) Stormy, squally, b (of wind) contrary, adverse 5 (print and writing) Full of erasures and corrections a foul proof, foul copy 6 Ugly, only in Phr be she fair or foul &c 7 (in moral sense) a Vile, wicked, abominable a foul crime, wrong &c, b stained, polluted, with vice or crime a foul rogue, Phr the foul fiend, the devil, c impure, obscene, unclean foul language, a foul term, expression 8 a Underhand, treacherous, unfair foul play, cheating, a foul blow, Phr foul play, specif, crime, b not in accordance with the rules or laws of sport, sometimes implying only error, and not deliberate unfairness a foul stroke, foul riding (in a race) generally implies unfair riding Phr by fair means or foul, without scruple, somehow or other 9 (in colloq use) Often employed of material objects, circumstances, behaviour &c, to express merely strong disapproval or dislike, having sense of very bad, unpleasant, unsatisfactory &c - my cold is perfectly foul, he is a foul dancer, dances badly, a foul journey, inconvenient, uncomfortable, and so on foul (II), adv, fr prec Fouly Phrs to fall (run) foul of, (naut) to become entangled with, collide with, (fig) to come into conflict with, be involved in difficulties or a quarrel with, to hit foul, (boxing) to hit in contravention of the rules, esp to hit below the belt, (fig) to treat unfairly to play one foul, to deal deceitfully with one in a game, or (fig) in earnest foul (III), n, fr foul (I) 1 (rare) Foul weather, ill-fortune, chiefly in Phr through fair and through foul 2 (naut) Entanglement, as of ropes, slight collision, as of cars or boats 3 (sport) Deliberate obstruction of opponent when contrary to rules of the game, wilful or accidental breach of rules which affects result of game Phr to claim a foul, to demand annulment of opponent's victory, or a penalty, for breach of rules foul (IV), vb intrans & trans OE fūlan, 'to become foul, rot', ME fūlen, 'to befoul', fr foul (I) A intrans 1 (rare) To become foul, dirty, or offensive 2 To become clogged or choked with waste matter, as the products of combustion a gun-barrel fouls 3 To become entangled, as a rope & To come into collision our boat fouled on leaving harbour B trans 1 a To make foul or dirty, to defile, soil, befoul, Phrs to foul one's hands with, lower oneself by having to do with, 'It's an ill bird that fouls its own nest' (proverb), it is unseemly to defame one's self, one's own family or belongings, b (fig) to render vile or loathsome to foul one's reputation, to dishonour, asperse, slander to foul a person's name 2 To impede, obstruct, specif a to clog, choke to foul a gun (gun barrel), b to cover (ship's bottom) with growths that impair speed, c to block (railway line, traffic), d to entangle (rope, &c), to become entangled, collide, with the yacht fouled a buoy, e (sport) to get in the way of, collide with, try to hinder or thwart (competitor) in irregular or unfair way foulard, n [1 fōlard, 2 fūld] Fr, of uncertain origin a Thin, soft textile of silk, or silk and cotton, b handkerchief made of this foully, adv [1 foulli, 2 foulli] OE fūllice, ME fūlliche foul (I) & -ly In a foul, dirty manner, a in a physically offensive or disgusting manner, b in a morally loathsome or abominable manner, vilely, obscenely foul-mouthed, adj Speaking foully, vilely, or obscenely, addicted to foul language foulness, n [1 foulnes, 2 foulnes] OE fūlness, ME fūlnesse foul (I) & -ness a Quality of being foul, b something physically or morally foul foul-spoken, adj A foully spoken, b speaking foully, foul-mouthed foul-tongued, adj [1 foul tungd, 2 foul tapd] Foul-mouthed founmart, n [1 fōmart, 2 fūmāt] ME fūlmart, fūlmard, fr foul (I) & OE meard (see marten), cp Fr marie Polecat found (I), vb trans & intrans [1 found, 2 found] ME founden, fr O Fr funder, fonder (Mod Fr fonder), fr Lat fundare, fr fundus, bottom. See fund A trans 1 a To lay the foundation of, to begin the building or construction of Romulus founded Rome, this church was founded in the 12th century, b to establish, set up, institute, originate to found a dynasty, Phr to found a family, to be the first of a family to acquire for it a recognized and influential social status, c to create as permanent institution, to settle the original rules of and provide endowment for to found a college, hospital, association, d to initiate, invent, set going, by intellectual activity to found a theory, system of philosophy &c, e to start, lay basis of, to be the originator of to found a fortune 2 To construct out of, adapt from, elements already in existence, using these as a basis a novel founded on old legends, founded on fact, not entirely an invention 3 To base, rely on as a sound foundation I found my hopes of success on my own hard work, to found an argument on well-known facts B intrans (rare) To be based, to depend found (II), vb trans Fr fondre, 'to melt', fr Lat funderē, 'to pour, cast, melt (metal)', Lat base extended fr Aryan ghnu*, ghnu* &c, whence also Goth gutan, OE gōtan, OS geotan, OHG gōtan, 'to pour', also Gk llei(w)-ein, 'to pour', ON gōsa, 'to gush' &c See chyle, fuse (I), futile, geyser, gush, gut a To melt (metal or materials for making glass) and pour into a mould, b to make by pouring molten metal or glass into a mould to found a bell found (III), vb Pret & PP of find OE, ME funden (special sense) Provided, equipped with well found in plate and linen &c Phr all found (of servants' wages), with everything provided foundation, n [1 foundaheun, 2 foundaheun] ME foundacioun, fr O & Mod Fr fondation, fr Lat fundatō (-em), 'a founding', vhl n fr fundare See found (I) & -ation 1 Action of founding, placing on a basis, or establishing, settlement, institution the foundation of London took place at an unknown date Phr Old Foundation, (of cathedrals) secular cathedrals founded before the Reformation, New Foundation, old monastic cathedrals refounded by Henry VIII, and new cathedrals founded at the time of, and since, the Reformation 2 That on which a thing rests or is sustained, part of a thing which underlies and supports the rest, base, basis, specif a (often pl) substructure of building, usually underground, solid mass of masonry or of natural rock on which walls are built, b piece of strong or stiff material on which the rest of a garment is built up, usually interlining, c first row of stiches in knitting or crochet 3 Principle, ground, basis on which an idea, belief, or system of ideas is based, or which applies motive for course of action, under lying reason the foundations of belief, the rumour is without foundation 4 Underlying circumstances, basis, starting-point the foundation(s) of one's career, of one's fortune 5 a Thing which is founded or maintained by a fund, endowed institution or society, as a college, monastery, library &c, b fund for the endowment of an institution, society &c, endowment Phr on the foundation (of an institution), a beneficiary of such an endowment foundationer, n [1 foundashuner, 2 foundashuner] Prec & -er Member of a college or school who is on the foundation foundationless, adj [1 foundashunles, 2 foundashunles] foundation & -less Lack of foundation foundation school, n. School with a permanent endowment foundation stone, n 1 a Stone forming part of the foundation of a building, b stone laid with ceremony and inscribed to commemorate the foundation of a building, usually a public building 2 (fig) Fundamental fact or principle founded, adj [1 founded, 2 founded], fr PP of found (I) Usually well-, all founded, of found (I) a good, a bad, foundation; in non-material sense ill-founded hopes, reports &c founder (I), n [1 founder, 2 founda] M E. founder, fr O Fr fondeur, fr Lat. fundātor, agent - n fr fundare. See found (I) & -er. Person who founds, sets up, or establishes something, esp a society or institution. Phrs founder's kin, persons related to founder of college, school &c, thereby eligible for election &c, founder's day, that on which an institution specially honours the memory of the founder, founder's prayers, religious service at which names of founders and benefactors are rehearsed and thanks given for benefactions, founder's shares, those allotted to original promoters of a company.

founder (II), n. found (II) & -or, op. Fr fondeur. Person who founds or casts metal or glass. Generally in compounds crucifounder &c.

founder (III), vb intrans & trans M E. founden, fr O Fr fonder to submerge, sink in, collapse, irreg. formed fr fond, 'bottom'. See fund (I) 1 intrans. a (of ship) To fill with water and go down, b (of horse) to fall, to break down, esp through lameness or fatigue, to sink or stick fast in soft ground, also of rider, c (of building, bank of earth, gen) to give way, sink, collapse. 2 trans. a (esp of ship or horse) To cause to founder, b (golf) to drive (ball) into soft ground.

founder (IV), n, fr pro Inflammation of horse's foot, also, rheumatic affection of horse's chest muscles.

foundership, n [1 foundership, 2 foundaʃp] founder (I) & -ship. Quality or state of a founder or establisher.

foundling, n [1 foundling, 2 foundlɪŋ] M E fundeling, fr O E fund, weak grade of findan (find), op found (III), & -ling, op Du rondeeling, M H G rundelinc. Child found abandoned by, or destitute of, parent or guardian.

foundling hospital, n. Institution or building for the maintenance of foundlings.

foundress, n [1 foundres, 2 foundris] founder (I) & -ess. Female founder or establisher.

foundry, foundry, n [1 foundri, 2 foundri] found (II) & -ery. A set, process, of founding or casting metal &c, b piece, works, where this process is carried out.

font (I), n [1 font, 2 font] M E, fr O Fr font, fr Lat fontem, 'fountain' &c, differentiated in early Mod Engl fr font (later or poet) a Fountain, spring of water, (fig) source, b font.

font (II), n. Fr fonte, 'casting (of metal)', fr fondre, found (II) Set of printers' type of one size and design, also font.

fontain, n [1 fontain, 2 fontain] O Fr fontaine, op Mod Fr fontaine, fr L Lat fontāna, 'spring, fountain', prop fem of Lat adj fontānus, 'pertaining to a spring', fr font (em). See font & -an. 1 (archaic or poet) Spring of water naturally issuing from the earth, source of stream. 2. Artificial jet of water rising or spouting from pipe, group of such jets, structure, generally ornamental, containing one or more streams of water flowing or falling into basin or basins, structure supplying drinking water in public place. 3. Reservoir, as for oil in lamp, or ink in a fountain pen. 4 (fig) Source, origin. the Crown is the fountain of honour.

fountain head, n. A source, spring, from which stream or river flows, b (fig) source, origin, the fountain head of knowledge, person or place whence knowledge comes.

fountain pen, n. Pen containing reservoir from which ink flows to the nib.

four, adj & n [1 fɔr, 2 fɔ] O E fourer, M E fourer, fourer, cp OS fiuwar, OHG fior, Mod. Germ vier, ON fjör v, representing an Aryan variant type petwōr*, due partly to influence of pentē* 'five', for orig type kwetwōr*, cp also O E fīder fote, 'four footed' &c, Goth fīdōr, fr same type also Gk. (Aeolian) piures, (Doric) petares, & V petawōr; fr the other type comes Lat quatuor, see quadri-. Sort latrā-d, O Slav četyre, Lith keturi, Gk tetras &c, for kwetwōr*, O Ir ceithir 1 adj. Three and one, Phr to be four, four years old, the four corners of the earth (Bib), the furthest regions, within the four corners (of an act), within its range or scope, within the four seas, in Great Britain, to the four winds (archaic or Bib), in all directions. 2 n. a. Sum of three and one, b. symbol for this, c. playing card, domino, feso of die &c, marked with four pips the four of clubs, d. four years a child of four, e. four o'clock come at four, f. four horses coach and four, g. (orokot) hut for four runs, h. (oollog) four-oared boat or crew, four, race rowed with such boats, i. (mil) four, marching formation four deep four right, form four, j. four, 4% stock, k. Phr on all fours, on hands and knees or feet.

four-ale, n. Ale sold at fourpence a quart.

four-cornered, adj [1 fɔrkɔrnəd, 2 fɔrkɔnəd] M E fourer cornered. Having four corners.

four-course, adj. a (agric) Having four crops in rotation, b (of meal) having four courses.

four-dimensional, adj. Pertaining to, existing in, four dimensions. four dimensional space.

four-flusher, n (slang, USA). One who bluffs at poker, playing and betting as if he held a flush or five cards of the same suit, when he only holds four.

fourfold, adj & adv [1 fɔrfɔld, 2 fɔfɔld] O E fourfold, M E fourfold four & -fold 1 adj. a. Repeated, multiplied, four times, quadruple. a fourfold profit, b. having four folds or divisions. a fourfold leaf. 2 adv. Four times, to a fourfold degree.

four-footed, adj. pred [1 fɔr fɔtəd, 2 fɔ fɔtəd], attrib [1 fɔrfɔtəd, 2 fɔfɔtəd] M E fourfooted. Having four feet, quadruped.

four-foot way, n. (railways) Space 4 ft 8½ in wide, between pair of rails.

fourgon, n. [1 fɔrgɔn, 2 fɔrgɔ] Fr Baggage wagon.

four-handed, adj [1 fɔr hændəd, fɔr hændəd, 2 fɔ hændəd, fɔ hændəd]. See note on four-footed. 1. Having four hands, as monkey, quadrumanous. 2. a. Played, as game, by four persons, b. played, as piece of music for piano, by two persons.

four-horse four-horsed, adj [1 fɔr hɔrs(t), 2 fɔ hɔrs(t)] Drawn by four horses.

Fourierism, n [1 fɔrɪəzɪzəm, 2 fɔrɪəzɪzəm], fr Fourier, French Socialist (1772-1837) System for reorganizing society.

four-in-hand, adv, adj, & n. a. Team of four horses harnessed together for drawing coach or carriage, b. vehicle drawn by four horses, and horses drawing it.

four-legged, adj. Having four legs, pertaining to a quadruped.

four oar, n. Boat with four oars.

four o'clock, n [1 fɔr ɔklɔk, 2 fɔr ɔklɔk] 1 (of time) Four hours after mid day or mid night. 2. Plant, Mirabilis jalapa, also called marvel of Peru.

four-part, adj. (mus) a. Arranged for four voices. a four part song, b. quadruple four-part time.

fourpence, n [1 fɔrpens, 2 fɔpens] a. Sum of four pennies, b. British silver coin of this value formerly current, fourpenny piece.

fourpenny, adj & n [1 fɔrpənɪ, 2 fɔpənɪ] 1 adj. Having the price or value of four pence. a fourpenny loaf, fourpenny bit, piece (obs), British silver coin worth four pence. 2 n. a. Fourpenny piece, b. also costing fourpence a quart.

fourpost, adj [1 fɔrpɔst, 2 fɔpɔst] (of a bed) Having four posts at the corners, supporting frame for hanging curtains.

fourposter, n [1 fɔrpɔstər, 2 fɔpɔstər] Fourpost bedstead.

four-pounder, n [1 fɔrpəundər, 2 fɔpəundər] Gun throwing shot weighing 4 lbs.

four-score, adj & n [1 fɔrskɔr, 2 fɔskɔ] (archaic) Eighty.

foursome, n. [1 fɔrsəm, 2 fɔsəm] Orig Scots adj. four & -some (golf) Game between two pairs of players, each side using one ball. mixed foursome, one with man and woman on each side.

four-square, adj, adv, & n [1 fɔrkwɔr, 2 fɔrkwɔr] (archaic) Square.

fourteen, adj & n [1 fɔrtiən, 2 fɔtɪn] O E fourteyne, tēne, M E fourtēne four & -teen a. adj. Four more than ten, b. n. sum of ten and four, symbol for this.

fourteenth, adj & n [1 fɔrtiənt, 2 fɔtɪnt] fourteen & -th, replacing O E fourteioða, M E fourteioðe 1 adj. Ordinal of fourteen, a next after thirteenth, b. consisting of a fourteenth. 2 n. One of fourteen equal parts.

fourth, adj, adv, & n [1 fɔrth, 2 fɔp] O E feorð, M E feorðe, ferðe four & -th 1 adj. Ordinal of four, a next after third, Phr the fourth estate (oollog), journalism, the public press, fourth dimension (see dimension, 2), b. consisting of a quarter. 2 adv. In the fourth place. 3 n. a. Fourth part, quarter, b. fourth day of the month, Phr the Fourth (of July), (USA) Independence Day, c. (mus) interval of four diatonic degrees, tone separated by this interval from another, harmonic combination of the two, d. (pl., commerce) goods of class inferior to thirds.

fourthly, adv [1 fɔrthli, 2 fɔpli] Proc & -ly In the fourth place (only in enumeration).

four-wheeled, adj. Having four wheels.

four-wheeler, n. (oollog, now rare) Four-wheeled hackney carriage or cab.

fowl (I), n [1 fəʊl, 2 fəʊl] O E fugol, M E fugel, fowl, Common Gmo, op. O H G fugol, fogol, Mod. Germ. Du. vogel, Goth fugl, O N fugl, fogel, Gmo type fugl* az, fagl* az, perch for fugl*, fr fugl*, weak grade of feugon*, 'to fly', & suffix. See fly (I) 1 a (archaic or poet) Bird, generally the fowls of the air, b. (with qualifying adj) bird of one of the larger kinds. sea fowl, water fowl, wild fowl. (also coll) a flock of water fowl. 2. Speckl a cook or hen, esp when full grown, of domestic breeds or their wild congeners. a barn-door fowl, to keep fowls, a pair of roast fowls, game fowl, jungle fowl, b. flesh of mature cock or hen, of any edible bird, in Phr neither fish, flesh, nor fowl.

fowl (II), vb intrans O E fugian, M E foulen, fr pro (obs) To shoot, snare, catch, or pursue birds, esp large or edible birds.

fowler, n [1 fəʊlər, 2 fəʊls] O E fuglere, M E fuglere fowl (I) & -er Person who shoots or traps wild fowl.

fowling, n [1 fəʊlɪŋ, 2 fəʊlɪŋ] M E fowlings fowl (II) & -ing Act, sport, of killing or trapping wild fowl.

fowling-piece, n. Lightshot gun for shooting birds.

fowl-run, n. Enclosed piece of ground in which poultry are kept.

fox (I), n [1 fɔks, 2 fɔks] O E, M E, O H G fuha, Gmo type fux* az, extended fr fux*, cp O H G fōha, Goth fauhō, ON fōn, vixen, possibly cogn w. Scat puðna, 'tail, brush'. See also vixen 1 a. Animal of dog family, genus Vulpes, smaller than wolf, of reddish colour with large bushy tail, preserved in the British Isles in wild state for hunting, one of several related species. silver fox, b. fur of fox. 2 (fig) Cunning, crafty, or sly person.

fox (II), vb trans & intrans, fr pro A trans 1 a (chiefly P P) To discolour (paper) with brown or reddish spots (the engraving is badly foxed), b. to make (beer &c) sour in the process of fermenting. 2 To deceive. B intrans 1 To behave craftily, as a fox. 2 To become foxed, as paper. 3 To become foxed, as beer.

fox and geese, n. Game played on board by two players, one with sixteen pieces, called geese, the other with one, called the fox.

fox-brush, n. Fox's tail.

fox-earth, n. Burrow of fox.

foxglove, n [1 fóksglɒv, 2 fóksglɒv] OE foxes glōve, ME foxes glōve British wild plant, Digitalis, also cultivated in gardens, with tall raceme of purplish red, or white, tubular flowers foxhound, n [1 fókshəʊnd, 2 fókshəʊnd] Parti-coloured hound of powerful breed, used for hunting the fox fox-hunt, n Pursuit of fox on horse with hounds fox-hunter, n Person who hunts the fox fox-hunting, n Act, sport, of hunting the fox foxiness, n [1 fókshɪnɪs, 2 fókshɪnɪs] foxy & -ness Quality of being foxy foxtail, n [1 fókstáil, 2 fókstáil] 1 Fox's tail or brush 2 One of several kinds of grass with bushy spike fox terrier, n Terrier of breed originally used for driving fox from cover, either smooth-coated or wire-haired, and white with yellowish-brown, or black spots foxtrot, n [1 fókstrot, 2 fókstrot] A Kind of easy short-stepping trot of horse, a dance of American origin foxy, adj [1 fókxi, 2 fókxi] fox (I) & -y 1 Like a fox, specif a cunning, crafty, b of the colour of a fox, reddish or yellowish brown, foxy hair, red hair, c having a strong, rank smell 2 (of paper &c) Marked with brown spots from damp 3 (of alcoholic drink) Sour through bad fermentation foyer, n [1 fwáhyá, 2 fwájei] Fr, fr Lat focū(-um), adj nout, 'pertaining to a hearth or fireplace' See focous & -ary Port of theatre for use of public, esp during intervals

Fra, n [1 fráh, 2 fráh] Ital Abbreviated form of frate, as form of address of a friar Fra Lippo Lippi fracas, n [1 frákah, 2 fráká] Fr, fr Ital fracasso, 'a crash', fr fraccassare, 'to break in pieces', fr fra, 'among', fr Lat infra, 'below' (see infra), & casare, 'to break', fr Lat quassare, 'to shoke, shatter' (see quash) Noisy dispute, brawl, uproar fractile, adj [1 fráktil, 2 fráktil] fr Lat fract(um), PP type of frangere, 'to break' (see next word), & -ile (geol) Indicating fracture of rocks fraction, n [1 frákshun, 2 frákshən] ME fraction, fr O & Mod Fr fraction, fr L Lat fractiō(-em), 'a breaking', fr frac(um), fr frog* (tom), PP type of frangere, 'to break', the Lat base is fr Aryan bhrag-* &c, represented in Gmc by OE brecan &c, q v under break (I), & brook (I) 1 Action of breaking or dividing, specif (ecclcs) ritual breaking of the bread of the consecration of the Eucharist 2 Something broken, or broken off, n small detached portion, a very small part, amount, degree, a rarely of material objects and usually in neg sentences he did not derive from his principles by a fraction, b (chem) substance separated by precipitation or crystallization 3 (arith) Quantity less or more than an integer, decimal fraction, one expressed decimally, vulgar fraction, one with numerator above, and denominator below a line, compound fraction, fraction of a fraction fractional, adj [1 frákshunl, 2 frákshənl] Prec & -al. a Pertaining to a fraction or fractions fractional crystallization, distillation, precipitation, one producing fractions, fractional currency, one consisting of coins or notes which are fractions of the monetary unit, b forming a fraction, esp on the Stock Exchange, less than the accepted unit of 100 shares &c, c (colloq) consisting of a very small part, insignificant fractionally, adv Prec & -ly In a fractional manner, by fractions fractionary, adj [1 frákshunari, 2 frákshənari] fraction & -ary, cp Fr fractionnaire Fractional, pertaining to fractions, fragmentary fractionate, vb trans [1 frákshunāt, 2 frákshənēt] fraction & -ate (chem) To separate into fractions.

fractionation, n [1 frákshun'ishun, 2 frákshən'ishən] Prec & -ion (chem) Process of fractionating fractionize, vb trans [1 frákshuniz, 2 frákshəniz] fraction & -ize To divide or separate into fractions fractions, ndy [1 frákshus, 2 frákshəs] Prob formed fr fraction in obs sense, 'brawling, dissension', on anal of capious &c Peevish, irritable, cross fractionously, adv Prec & -ly In a fractionous manner fractionousness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being fractionous fracture (I), n [1 frákohur, 2 frákthjə] Fr fracture, n, fracture, vb trans, fr Lat fractūra, vbi n fr fract-, as in fractio, & -ure 1 Breaking, breach, break, state of being broken, specif a (surg) breaking of a bone or cartilage compound fracture, one producing rupture of the skin, simple fracture, one without this, b (phon) diphthongization of certain OE vowels before certain groups of consonants, sometimes called breaking 2 (min) Surface of mineral when broken across the plane of cleavage joint has a conchoidal fracture fracture (II), vb trans & intrans See prec 1 trans To break, esp something hard to fracture one's thigh, arm &c, to fracture a pane of glass 2 intrans To become fractured, be liable to break a child's bones fracture easily fraenum, frenum, n [1 frānum, 2 frānam] Lat frēnum, frēnum, 'bridle, curb, bit, ligament' Origin & connexions very doubtful See second syll of restrain (I) Possibly related to Lat frēndere, 'to gnash the teeth', in wh case 'bit' wd be the earlier sense The base of frēndere is Aryan ghren(dh)*, whence also grund (anat and zool) Small ligament supporting organ or keeping it in place, as under the tongue fragile, adj [1 frájil, 2 frádžáil] Fr, fr Lat fragilis, fr frag- See fraction & -ile, cp frail (II) a Easily broken, shattered, or damaged, brittle a fragile existence, b having a delicate structure or constitution, frail fragile health, c not durable or lasting, easily destroyed fragile happiness fragility, n [1 frájiliti, 2 fródžiliti] ME, fr O Fr fragilitas, fr Lat fragilitas (em) Prec & -ity Quality of being fragile, brittleness, delicacy fragment, n [1 frágment, 2 frággment] Fr, fr Lat fragment(um), fr frag- See fraction & -ment a (of material and non-material things) Piece broken off, detached portion of a thing the vase lay in fragments, only fragments of the speech could be heard, a few fragments of Sappho's poetry survive, b unfinished, incomplete, portion of a literary or artistic work 'Edwin Drood' unfortunately is only a fragment fragmental, adj [1 frágmentál, 2 frágmentál] Prec & -al (geol) Consisting wholly or mainly of fragments of older rock fragmentarily, adv [1 frágmentaril, 2 frágmentaril] fragmentary & -ly In a fragmentary manner fragmentariness, n [1 frágmentarɪnɪs, 2 frágmentarɪnɪs] See next word & -ness Quality of being fragmentary fragmentary, adj [1 frágmentari, 2 frágmentari] fragment & -ary; cp Fr fragmentaire Consisting of fragments or detached portions, incomplete a fragmentary manuscript, (geol) fragmental fragrance, n [1 frágrens, 2 fréigrəns] Fr, fr Lat frāgrātia See next word & -ce a Quality of being fragrant, b pleasant, sweet smell, perfume fragrant, adj [1 frágrent, 2 fréigrənt] Fr, or Lat frāgrans (em), Pres Part of frāgrāre, 'to emit a smell, be fragrant', prob cogn w OHG bracho, 'a hound that follows scent' See brach. Having a pleasant or sweet smell or odour, sweet-scented, (also fig) delightful, full of charm fragrant memories fragrantly, adv Prec & -ly In a fragrant manner, with fragrance frail (I), n [1 fráil, 2 freil] ME frail, fr O Fr frach, frach, frach, 'rush basket for fruit', fr Lat flagellum, 'vine-shoot, scourge', in L Lat 'basket for fruit' See flagellum, flail a Rush basket in which figs, raisins, or other fruit are packed; b quantity of raisins, commonly 75 lb, packed in a frail frail (II), adj ME fráile, fr O Fr frêle, frêle, the vernacular form fr Lat fragilis Cp fragile a Fragile, not robust or vigorous, weak, having delicate health, prone to illness, b (l) easily crushed and broken a frail structure, (h) easily ruined or destroyed, precarious man's life, happiness, as frail, c morally weak, easily tempted or seduced from virtue, (euphemism) unchaste fairer'd frail ladies of the Restoration frailty, n [1 fráiliti, 2 fréiliti] ME fráile, fr O Fr fráile, fr Lat fragilitas (em) See fragility a Quality of being frail, b a moral weakness, fault, failing fraise (I), n [1 fráz, 2 freiz] Fr, orig 'ruff', of uncertain origin, in sense 2 through Fr fraser, 'to enlarge (a hole)' 1 (fort) Palisade of pointed stakes in a horizontal or sloping position 2 Kind of reamer or instrument for enlarging holes in stone fraise (II), vb trans, fr Fr fraser, fr prec To ream or enlarge (hole in stone) framboesia, n [1 frambéas, 2 frambéiz] Mod Lat, fr Fr framboise, 'raspberry', perh fr Du bram besie, 'blackberry' See bramble, berry The yaws, a tropical skin disease of negroes, producing small tumours resembling raspberries in appearance frame (I), vb trans & intrans [1 frám, 2 freim] OE framian, 'to avail, be profitable', ME framien, 'to be profitable, frame, construct', fr OE fram, vigorous, bold, excellent', orig 'pushing forward', fr fram (see from), cp ON frama, 'to be profitable' Sense A, 3, fr frame (II) A trans 1 a (now chiefly of intellectual action) To contrive, devise, make, put together, elaborate to frame a plan, a theory, a petition, a system of philosophy, a lie &c, also b (of physical action) to frame a shelter out of brushwood, c to express in words, construct, put together, build up to frame a sentence, d to articulate, pronounce, utter his lips could hardly frame the words 2 To design, adapt, fit for some special purpose (in physical and moral sense) a structure framed to resist the fiercest storms, a man not framed for trials and hardships, b to dispose, arrange, bring into position to frame one's lips to flattery 3 To provide with a frame to frame a picture, b to serve as a frame, enclose like a frame a lake framed in woods B intrans To progress, develop, take shape our plans, preparations, are framing well frame (II), n, fr prec 1 Something framed and fitted together, a completed, well knit structure, fabric 'This universal frame' (Milton), the whole frame of the universe 2 The skeleton of a building or structure, the essential structural elements which support the rest, and to which these are fixed or stretched, framework, the frame of a building, ship, umbrella, aeroplane &c 3 The structure of the human or animal body, used both of the skeleton and of the body as a whole a man of iron frame, a horse with a good strong frame 4 Construction consisting of a kind of box with solid sides, higher at the back than in front, with a sliding or hinged glazed top, used for forcing or rearing plants which require regular heat exuberant frame &c 5 Border of wood, leather, silk, or other material, often carved and gilded when of large size, used to surround a picture picture frame 6 Applied to various objects and appliances, in form of a frame, work, used for technical purposes card-frame &c 7 Particular state of mind, mood, frame &c 8 A (of non-material things) frame of mind 9 a (of non-material things)

Characteristics structure, constitution, mode of organization the frame of our legal system, b (rare or obs) mental or moral complexion, disposition a character of noble frame.

frame-house, n. One that is half timbered, a house with a wooden framework covered with boards frameless, adj [1 frámles, 2 frémles] frame (II) & -less Having no frame (in any sense) framer, n [1 frámer, 2 fréme] frame (I) & -er One who frames (in various senses), a the framers of British liberty, b specif, men who makes and fits frames to pictures picture framer frame-saw, n. A narrow saw kept tight by means of a light wooden frame which forms three sides of an oblong of which the saw itself is the fourth frame-up, n, fr frame (I), to form a plan, scheme (colloq, USA) A plot, underhand arranged scheme, swindle framework, n [1 frámwérk, 2 frémwál] frame (II) & work Aggregate of fundamental parts of a structure, or of those which hold the rest together, substructure, skeleton, (also fig) the framework of society framing, n, [1 frámíng, 2 frémíng] ME framing, fr frame (I) & -íng 1 Action of person or thing that frames 2 Thing or material serving as a frame franc, n, [1 fránk, 2 fráŋk] O & Mod Fr, prob fr Lat legend Francorum Rex, 'King of the French', on gold coin of 1360 See Frank (I) French silver coin, the monetary unit of France of 100 centimes, worth formerly 84d at par, corresponding coin or unit of Belgium or Switzerland, and under various names of the Latin monetary union, op lira, peseta &c franchise, n [1 fránchíz, 2 frémfráiz] ME, O & Mod Fr, fr Low Lat type francica frank (II) & -ise 1 a (law) immunity, exemption or privilege, granted by the Crown or Government to an individual or corporation, b (rare) area to which such privilege applies 2 a Full membership of a corporation, b full rights of citizenship, esp the right of voting in parliamentary, municipal, or other public elections, qualification for such right, suffrage the parliamentary, municipal, franchise Plur franchise, any arbitrary qualification for a vote

Franciscan, adj & n [K fransískan, 2 fransískus] Low Lat Franciscus (us), fr Franciscus us, 'Francis', orig 'French', & -an. 1 adj Pertaining to St Francis of Assisi (1182-1226), or to the Order of St Francis founded by him in 1209 2 n Friar of the Franciscan Order, Minorite, Grey Friar, member of one of the affiliated orders franco-, pref [1 fránkô, 2 fránkô] L Lat franco (us), Frank (I) Form used in combination, chiefly with national or geographical names, denoting a Frankish franco Gallic civilization, that of Gaul under the Franks, b French the franco German, or franco Prussian War, that waged (1870-71) between the French and Germans (Prussians) francohn, n, [1 fránkôhn, 2 fránkôhn] Fr, fr Ital francohno One of several Asiatic and African partridges, esp a species formerly inhabiting S Europe francophile, -phil, adj & n [1 fránkôfil, 2 fránkôfil] Franco- & -philie a adj Friendly or favourable to the French, b n, Francophile person francophobe adj & n [1 fránkôfôb, 2 fránkôfôb] Franco- & -phobe a adj Dreading, or hostile to, the French, b n, Francophobe person franco-tireur, n [1 frón tîrér, 2 frî tîr] Fr, lit 'true sharpshooter' Irregular light infantryman frangibility, n, [1 fránkplîbîlî, 2 frándîbîlî] Next word & -ity Quality of being frangible frangible, adj [1 fránkplî, 2 frándîblî] ME frangibilis, fr O Fr frangibilis, fr Low Lat frangibilis (us), fr Lat frangere, 'to break' (see fraction), & -ible Capable of being broken, fragile frangipani, n [1 fránkîpáni, -páni, 2 frándîpáni, -páni], or more rarely frangipana, [1 fránkîpán, 2 frándîpán] Fr, fr name of Roman family Frangipani 1 Kind of pastry made with almonds, sugar, and cream (said to have been invented by the French general, the Marquis Frangipani) 2 Por fume made from red jessamine

Frank (I), n, [1 fránk, 2 fránk] OE Franc, ME Frank, 'Frank, Frenchman', fr L Lat Francus, O Fr Frane, op OHG Franko, the people were named fr the javelin, OE franca, ON fralla a Person belonging to a West Germanic confederation on the Rhine, a branch of which founded the Kingdom of France, b (poet) Frenchman, c Greek and Mohammedan generic name for a West European frank (II), adj Fr franc, 'free' (same as free), fr the Franks having been the only free class in Gaul. Freely revealing one's thoughts or feelings, sincere, candid, unguessed a frank look in one's eyes, outspoken a frank avowal of guilt, to be frank with one

frank (III), v, tr & intrans, fr free, in sense of 'free of charge' To render free, in specific sense to free from expense, a to frank a letter, ie by putting one's signature on cover to enable it to be delivered free of postal charges, privilege formerly of Peers of the Realm and members of Parliament, b (in gen use) to pass (a person) in to a meeting &c free of charge, c to pay, be responsible for, a person's expenses for particular purpose frank (IV), n, fr free a Signature on cover of letter &c authorizing free postal delivery, b letter or parcel thus sent, c right to use post free of charge frankalmoinage, -almoign, -almoin, n [1 fránkalmoin, 2 fránkalmoin] frank (II) & A-Fr almoine, variant of O Fr almoine, Mod Fr aumône, 'almos' (see almoner) (law) Perpetual tenure of land by religious corporation, free of all payment except the duty of praying for the soul of the donor

Frankenstein, n [1 fránkênstîn, 2 fránkênstîn] Name of central figure in a novel by Mary Wollstonecraft Shelley, 1818, who created a monster which became his curse, hence, a Frankenstein's monster, something which proves disastrous to the producer

Frankfort black, n, [1 fránkfort blák, 2 fránkfort blák] fr name of German town Pigment made of carbonized wine lees &c, used in engraving frankincense, n, [1 fránkînsens, 2 fránkînsens] ME, fr O Fr frank encens frank (II), in sense 'luxuriant', otherwise 'pure', & incense Gum resin burning with sweet pungent odour, used in incense, produced by S Asiatic tree of balsam family franklin, n, [1 fránklin, 2 fránklin] ME frankleyn, franklin, fr A Fr frankelajn (op Low Lat francoalainus), fr O Fr franc, 'free' (see frank (II)), & lein, lain, fr Gmc source, corresponding to -ling (op chamberlain) Rather vague term indicating a smaller landowner in the Middle Ages, one below the rank of knight and above that of yeoman, corresponding to a country squire of moderate estate of the present time frankly, adv [1 fránkli, 2 fránkli] frank (II) & -ly In a frank manner, to be frank frankly, I don't like him frankness, n, [1 fránknes, 2 fránknes] frank (II) & -ness Quality of being frank, candour, unguessedness, outspokenness frankpledge, n, [1 fránkplej, 2 fránkplej] A Fr franc plege, free pledge' (frank (II) & pledge (I)), perh meaning 'pledge given by free men', or a mistranslation of O E frithberh, 'peace pledge' (hist, law) System by which all free men of a tithing were responsible for the general good behaviour of the members, the system died out under the early Tudors frantic, adj [1 fránkîk, 2 fránkîk] ME frantike, frantik, fr O Fr frantike, fr Gk phrén, 'mind' &c See phrenetic 1 (archaic) Violently insane 2 a (of persons) Violently excited, esp with rage, grief, or pain, frenzied, raving, b (of actions and behaviour) indicating or caused by frenzy frantic appeals for help, c (of circumstances) of a character to render frantic frantic muddle frantically, adv [1 fránkîkâl, 2 fránkîkâl] Free & -al & -ly In a frantic manner frantically, adv [1 fránkîk, 2 fránkîk] Hardly distinguished fr free in rapid speech (rare) Frantically frap, v, tr & intrans [1 fráp, 2 fráp] Fr frapper, 'to strike, blind', of uncertain origin (naut.) To hind firmly, to strengthen (ship &c), by girding with cables frappé, adj [1 frápá, 2 frápá] Fr, PP of frapper See free (of wine &c) Iced.

frass, n, [1 fras, 2 fras] Germ, 'a devouring', v, n fr fressen, corresponding to OE frean, 'to devour' See first (I) Refuse or excrement left by insect larvae that bore into and eat wood.

frate, n, [1 fráhtá, 2 fráhtá] Ital, 'brother'. See fraternal. A friar frater, n See fraternity fraternal, adj [1 frátérnal, 2 frátérnal] O & Mod Fr fraternel, fr Low Lat fraternalis (em), fr Lat fraternalis (us), 'brotherly', fr frater, q v under brother, & suff -us, & -al. Brotherly, specif, pertaining to, designating, an association for mutual benefit, much used by Free Masons fraternity, n, [1 frátérnî, 2 frátérnî] ME fraternité, fr O & Mod Fr fraternité, fr Lat fraternalis (em), fr fraternalis (us), as in free & -ity 1 a State or condition of being a brother or brothers, b quality or character of being brotherly or fraternal 2 Association of men united for common harmonious action, specif a religious society, confraternity, b fraternal association or benefit society, c (Am) society of students, usually secret, with branches in various colleges &c a Greek letter fraternity, d (fig, and loosely) class of men with common pursuit or interest the angling fraternity, the fraternity of the Press fraternization, n, [1 frátérnîzâshun, 2 frátérnîzâshun] Next word & -ation. Act of fraternizing fraternize, v, intrans & trans [1 frátérnîz, 2 frátérnîz] Fr fraterniser, fr Lat fraternalis (us), see fraternal, & -ize a intrans To behave as a brother or brothers, hence, to associate with in a spirit of friendly equality, b trans, (rare) to cause to behave in a brotherly manner fraternizer, n, [1 frátérnîzér, 2 frátérnîzér] Free & -or Person who fraternizes fratry, frater, frater, n, [1 frátr, frátr, 2 frátr, frátr] ME freldur, fr O Fr fratrum, abbr fr refractor, fr Low Lat refractorium, refectory (hist) Refectory of a monastery fratricidal, adj [1 frátérîdal, 2 frátérîdal] Next word & -al. Pertaining to fratricide (I or II), (fig) pertaining to, involving, the slaughter of persons by their own kinsmen or fellow countrymen, inter-necine a fratricidal struggle, civil war fratricide (I), n, [1 frátérîsd, 2 frátérîsd] Fr, fr Lat fratricida, fr frater, combining form of frater, brother, & -icide Person who wilfully slays his own brother or sister fratricide (II), n, Fr, fr Lat fratricidium, see free Act of wilfully slaying one's own brother or sister frau, n, [1 frau, 2 frau] Germ, fr OHG frōwa, fem of frō, op Goth frōwa, 'lord', fr same base as Lat princeps, 'first' (see primary), & Engl fore &c German married woman or widow, title, corresponding to Mrs, prefixed to her name fraud, n [1 frəʊd, 2 frɔːd]. ME, O. & Mod. Fr fraude, fr Lat fraud (em), fr a base dhren* (gh)-, &co, 'to deceive', op OS būdragan, 'to deceive', OHG briogan, op also Mod Germ trügen, OS griogan, 'a phantom, apparition' OHG troum, ON draumr, 'illusory vision, dream', are prob related (see dream (I)) 1 Quality of being deliberately deceptive, trickery, wilful deceit, dishonesty his heart is full of fraud 2 An act of wilful deception and dishonesty, carried out with a view to securing some advantage, profit &co to which one is not entitled, at the expense of another, (law) some statement or suppression of fact in word or deed with intent to deceive Law Pur in fraud of, in the fraud of, with the result of defrauding, constructive fraud, fraud indirectly resulting from an action or omission, virtual fraud, fraud in fact, fraud which is the direct or immediate object of an action, Statute of Frauds, of 1677, setting out what transactions must be in writing to render them valid in law Phr pious fraud, act by which a person is deceived with a view to his spiritual or other good 3 (colloq) Person, or thing, that deceives, imposes upon one, that falls short of professions, disappoints reasonable expectation, impostor, cheat, swindler, imposture, imposition the phrenologist turned out a pure fraud, much advertised nostrums are often frauds fraudulence, -cy, n [1 frəʊdʊləns (I), 2 frɔːdʊləns (I)] O Fr, fr Lat fraudulentia, fr fraudulent (us) See next word & -oe & -oy Quality of being fraudulent fraudulent, adj [1 frəʊdʊlənt, 2 frɔːdʊlənt] ME, fr Lat fraudulent (us), fr fraud (em) fraud a Acting with fraud, deceitful a fraudulent trustee, b having the nature of fraud, done or effected by fraud a fraudulent representation, conveyance fraudulently, adv Preo & -ly In a fraudulent manner fraught, adj [1 frawt, 2 frɔːt] PP of obs vb ME fraghten, fr a LG or Flem source, op LG vrachten, Du (bs-) vrachten, fr LG, Du vracht, Germ (fr LG) fracht, 'load, cargo', whence ME fraght See traight Now only prod 1 (in lit sense only, archaic or poet) Laden freighted an argosy fraught with precious wares 2 (fig) Charged, teeming, full of a policy fraught with danger, a heart fraught with sorrow fräulein, n [1 frɔːlɪn, 2 frɔːlɪn] Germ, fr MHG früwelin, dimin of früwe See frau 1 German unmarried woman, originally a title of nobility 2 a German governess or teacher of German in England, b mode of address corresponding to Miss, prefixed to name or used alone

Fraunhofer lines, n [1 frɔːnhöfer lɪnz, 2 frɔːnhöfer lɪnz], fr name of German physicist, d 1826 The dark lines in the spectrum

fraxinella, n [1 frɔːksɪnɪlə, 2 frɔːksɪnɪlə] Lat dimin of fraxinus, 'ash tree' Cp Lat farnus, 'ash tree' (fr farnos*), oogn w Lath birzās, Sort būryas, O E birce, beore, 'birch', q v under birch. Perennial plant with white flowers, and leaves somewhat resembling those of the ash fray (I), n [1 frɔː, 2 frɔː] ME fray, abbr fr affray, see affray a Noisy or irregular fight, brawl, b (fig) conflict of any kind eager for the fray fray (II), vb trans Abbr fr affray, vb See affray (archaic) To fight, scare to fray birds away fray (III), vb trans & intrans Fr frayer, fr O Fr freier, 'to rub, grate on', fr Lat fricare. See fricative 1 trans a fray out, to render (cloth &co) ragged or shabby by much use, especially to ravel the edges a frayed collar, shirt, Phr to fray head (of deer), to rub velvet off new antlers, b (fig) of nerves 2 intrans a To become frayed, as cloth, b to fray head, as deer fraying, n [1 frɔːɪŋ, 2 frɔːɪŋ] Preo &

-ing a Action of wearing or rubbing away; b thing frayed off

frasil, n [1 frɪzəl, 2 frɪzəl] Canadian Fr frasil, 'snow floating in water', perh a special sense of fr frasil, 'waste charcoal, coal cinders', fr Low Lat type facile*, 'thing pertaining to a torch', fr Lat fac em, fax, 'torch, firebrand' See facula & -ile (Canada and America) Ice formed at the bottom of a river &co, anchor-ice frazzle, vb trans & intrans & n [1 frɪzəl, 2 frɪzəl] Origin unknown (colloq, chiefly Am) 1 vb a trans To fray out, reduce to tatters, b intrans, to become frayed or tattered 2 n Action of frazzling, rags and tatters Phr (along) to beat to a frazzle, to beat thoroughly freak (I), n [1 frɪk, 2 frɪk] First in Early Mod Engl., of doubtful origin, very improbably fr the OE adj fræc, 'grosdy, bold', ME frēk(e), 'daring, insolent', Common Gmc., op OHG frēh, 'grosdy', Mod Germ fröh, 'insolent', Goth (fasku)-fruk a, 'greedy of money', ON frēkr, 'greedy' 1 Absurd or ludicrous prank or whim, eccentric or capricious behaviour 2 a Abbreviation from freak of nature, rendering Lat lusus naturae, abnormal natural product, monster, monstrosity, sport, b (colloq) grotesque person freak (II), vb trans Prob introduced into literature by Milton, 'The pensive freak'd with jet' ('Lyc' 144), perh a variant of province Engl freak, 'to dapple' See freckle (post or lit) To slock, dapple, streak freakish, adj [1 frɪkɪʃ, 2 frɪkɪʃ] freak (I) & -ish. a Given to freaks, whimsical, capricious, b resembling a freak, queer, odd freakishly, adv Preo & -ly In a freakish manner freakishness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being freakish, whimsicality, quaintness freckle, n & vb trans & intrans [1 frɪkl, 2 frɪkl] Dimin fr base frak-*, 'spot', whence ME frakin, 'a freckle', cp ON pl frēknur &co Vb fr n 1 n Small yellowish spot on exposed surface of human skin, produced by effect of sunburn 2 vb a trans To cover with freckles, produce freckles on, b intrans, to become freckled freckled, adj [1 frɪklɪd, 2 frɪklɪd] Preo & -ed Having, covered with, freckles freckly, adv [1 frɪklɪ, 2 frɪklɪ] freckle & -y Having many freckles free (I), adj [1 frɪ, 2 frɪ] OE frēo, ME frē, OHG frī, Goth frēs The word is usually connected w OE frīon, 'to love', & frēond, 'friend, lover', Goth frjōn, 'to love', & frjōnds, q v under friend The connexion in meaning is not very clear, in spite of the meanings expressed by the base in Scrt grila, 'satisfied' &co, & O Slav prigati*, 'to be favourable' Connexion w Lat privus, 'for oneself, peculiar, particular', has also been suggested, but the phonology is not clear 1 Enjoying political liberty, not enslaved, not in bondage or serfdom, not living, or acting, under compulsion England is a free country, all men are now free in America, free labour, that of persons not slaves, free speech, right to express opinions openly 2 Not suffering imprisonment, out of prison, not confined or detained by justice the accused left the court a free man. Phr to set, make free, liberate, to have, give one, a free hand, power to act at one's own discretion 3 (of the intellect) Devoid of, unhampered by, prejudices, bias, preconceptions, unfettered by convention, tradition, authority, independent a free spirit, free play of mind, imagination &co & (of action, manners, bearing &co) a Easy, gracious, unconstrained, not stiff or staid, b (in bad sense) not sufficiently restrained, not sh sense of decency and decorum undue licence too free for habitually easy, cas 5 (of ad necessity, independent, under one's own control, subject to one's own volition you are free to go or stay as you please, the human will is free Phr to have a free hand, liberty to act at one's own discretion 6 a (of persons) Not occupied or busy, at leisure I am busy till six o'clock but free any time after, b (of things) not in use, disengaged, available for use have you any rooms, seats &co, free?, to have one's hands free, empty or disengaged (also fig) 7 a (of bodily movements) Not constrained, stiff, or halting, easy, graceful, marked by suppleness his gestures were free and unembarrassed, a free action, esp of a horse, free in one's gait &co, b (fig, of liter style) flowing, smooth, c (of lines or curves in drawing &co) made with an unhesitating sweep, graceful, elegant 8 a Unrestrained, profuse, lavish this rose is a very free bloomer, to be free with one's money, Phr (to spend, give &co) with a free hand, lavishly; b unconditional, unlimited, absolute a free pardon, to make free use of, a ready, spontaneous a free offer 9 a Not bound by rules, irregular, not reducible to a hard and fast system free verse, Phr a free fight, confused, general milis, b not adhering with exactness to an original or model, not strictly literal or exact a free translation, a free copy, likeness &co 10 a Not costing anything, obtainable without payment or price the beauties of Nature are free to all, all the seats in this church are free, to have free drinks all round, Phr (to make a person) free of one's house &co, give full permission to use, b not liable to be charged for, exempt from free of duty, not taxable by customs, free imports, those on which no duty is payable, free of income tax, not liable to tax, having the tax already paid 11 a Unobstructed, clear of obstacles and encumbrances the way is free for an advance, also (fig) to leave the way free for progress, b unattached, not fastened, loose to leave one end of a rope free, c (obem) separate, uncombined free hydrogase 12 (philol) Free accent, one which is not placed always upon the same syllable of the same word, but whose position may vary in inflection &co 13 Free from, a exempt from, lacking a day free from wind, b delivered from, quit of, protected from free from unwelcome attention, I want a seat free from draught, free from pain, a free from encumbrances 14 Free of a having passed beyond, outside of we're not free of the harbour, the suburbs, the station, yet, b delivered, safe, from, clear of to be free of debt, we shall be free of infection in a week free (II), adv, fr preo Freely, in various senses 1 To run free, without obstruction 2 Without charge, gratis all members admitted free free (III), vb trans OE frēon See free (I) 1 To set free, rid at liberty, to liberate In various senses a to free a person from restraint, b to deliver from to free the land from oppression, c to free a person from a charge, accusation &co, to exonerate, acquit 2 To relieve from embarrassment, hindrances, obstacles a (in physical sense) to free one's hands from fetters &co, b (in fig or moral sense) to free a person from debt, to free the mind from anxiety &co free and easy, adj & n 1 adj Informal, easy going, unconstrained, unconcerous 2 n (colloq) Informal gathering or entertainment, esp smoking concert freebench, n [1 frɪbenʃ, 2 frɪbenʃ] (law) Widow's dower derived from her husband's copyholds freeboard, n [1 frɪbɔːd, 2 frɪbɔːd]. Part of side of ship between water line and gunwale or deck freeboot, vb intrans [1 frɪbɔːt, 2 frɪbɔːt]. Back formation, fr freebooter (rare) To freebooter

freebooter, n [1 frɪbɔːtɜː, 2 frɪbɔːtɜː] oter, n [1 frɪbɔːtɜː, 2 frɪbɔːtɜː], through Flem, fr Du vrijbuter, 'to rob, plunder', fr wybut, 'plunder' See free (I) & booty Cp Allbaster Person who plunders, or wages war for plunder, by sea or land, without authority from the state freebooting, n [1 frībūtīng, 2 frībūtīng] Action of a freebooter freeborn, adj [1 frībōrn, 2 frībōrn] Born free, not born in slavery or serfdom Free Church, n & adj a n Church which is not established, or officially connected with the State the Free Churches, the Nonconformist bodies in England, the Free Church (of Scotland), part of the Presbyterian Church which seceded from the Scottish Establishment (reunited 1929), b adj, pertaining to a Free Church or Churches free city, n a (hist) City of the Holy Roman Empire, exempt from feudal obligations to any but the Emperor, b one of the three German cities of this class, Hamburg, Lübeck, and Bremen, which have maintained their liberties since the Middle Ages free company, n One of the bands or armies of mercenary soldiers of the Middle Ages, hired by various states for their wars freedman, n [1 frīdman, 2 frīdman] Former slave who has been manumitted, or liberated from servitude freedom, n [1 frīdum, 2 frīdum] OE frēdōm, M E frēdom, used by Chaucer, 'OT Prologue, 46, in sense of 'policeness, good breeding' free (I) & -dom 1 State of being free in any sense 2 Special senses a frankness, unceremonious behaviour, excessive familiarity, act of this nature to use freedoms with one, b easy, unconstrained action, boldness, unconventionality to point, speak, with freedom 3 a Rights and privileges of a corporate body, as a city or company, honorary grant of these the freedom of a city, b (fig) free permission to use something belonging to another the freedom of the house, Freedom of the Seas, (international law) doctrine of the immunity of neutral shipping from interference by a belligerent navy in time of war free-hand, adj & n. (ort) a adj Drawn, traced by the hand, with easy, sweeping movements free hand drawing, b n, free hand drawing free-handed, adj Generous, liberal, lavish free-hearted, adj M E frēherdīd Frank, open, generous, unreserved in character free-heartedly, adv Free & -ly In a free hearted manner freehold, n [1 frīhōld, 2 frīhōld] free (I) & hold (I) a Tenure of estate as absolute property, in fee simple, fee tail, or for life, similar tenure of office, b estate or office thus held

freeholder, n [1 frīhōlder, 2 frīhōlder] Free & -er Possessor of a freehold free house, n A public house not 'tied' to a particular brewery for its beer &c free kick, n (football) Kick allowed without interference, as penalty for breach of rules by other side freelance, n [1 frīlāns, 2 frīlāns] a (hist) Soldier who fought as mercenary for any one who would pay him for his services, b (fig) one who acts as his principles or inclinations prompt, one not controlled by a particular party, or body of authority, c journalist, writer on miscellaneous subjects, not attached to a particular paper &c free liver, n Person who indulges his appetites freely, person addicted to the pleasures of the table free living, n Gratification of one's appetites, unrestricted indulgence in pleasure freely adv [1 frīli, 2 frīli] OE frēlice free (I) & -ly In a free manner (in all sense) freeman, n [1 frīman, 2 frīman] OE, M E frēman free (I) & man 1 Man who is not a slave, serf, or vassal, one legally independent 2 Person enjoying the full privileges of membership of a corporate body a freeman of the City of Oxford freemartin, n [1 frīmārtin, 2 frīmārtin] Origin doubtful Imperfectly developed cow-calf, usually twin of a bull freemason, n [1 frīmāsn, 2 frīmāsn] Prob called free because allowed to move from town to town. 1 (hist) Member of association of skilled masons and builders 2 Member of an ancient fraternity, Free and Accepted Masons, practicing benevolence and brotherliness, which possesses certain distinguishing signs and words, and carries out certain symbolic acts at its meetings freemasonry, n [1 frīmāsnri, 2 frīmāsnri] Free & -ry 1 a System, organization of freemasons, b doctrines inculcated by and symbolical observances of freemasons 2 (fig) Instinctive understanding between persons, based on like experience &c free on board, adj Of goods, abbr F O B With all charges paid for delivery when put on board ship, train, or other means of conveyance freesia, n [1 frīzia, 2 frīzia] Mod. Lat generic name, after E M Fries, Swedish botanist (1794-1878) S African bulbous plant of the family, cultivated in greenhouses, with racemes of white or pale yellow flowers free-spoken, adj Habitually speaking frankly and without reserve, outspoken free-spokenness, n Free & -ness Quality of being free-spoken freestone, n [1 frīstōn, 2 frīstōn] ME frēstōn, trans of Fr pierre franche Any kind of stone that can be worked or sawn freely without breaking, usually sandstone or limestone free-stone, n Kind of peach in which the flesh is readily detached from the stone freethinker, n [1 frīthīngkər, 2 frīthīngkə] Person who rejects all authority in religious matters, one who professes to form conclusions on such matters without the bias of preconceptions or traditions freethinking, n [1 frīthīngkīng, 2 frī-thīngkīng] Habits of thought of a freethinker free thought, n Thought on religious matters which is independent of authority or tradition free-tongued, adj Free spoken free trade, n 1 Trade carried on without any artificial encouragement, restriction, or regulation by Government, specif, international trade unrestricted by protective or preferential duties, bounties, or monopolies 2 (obs or archaic) Smuggling free trader, n A Adherent of the policy of free trade, b (obs) smuggler free-wheel, n & vb intrans a n Driving wheel of bicycle, so constructed that it will rotate when the pedals are at rest, similar device in other machines, b vb to move forward on a free wheel bicycle with the pedals at rest free will, n & adj 1 n a Human will acting spontaneously, or without external compulsion pressure, or influence Phr of one's own free will, voluntarily, b power of the human will (denied by determinists and predestinarians) to choose, either without any motive, or from motives created by the will itself 2 adj a Spontaneous a free-will offering, b pertaining to, holding, the doctrine of free will the Free Will Baptists freewoman, n [1 frīswōman, 2 frīswōman] o Woman who is not a slave or serf, b woman who possesses the freedom of a city freeze (I), vb intrans & trans [1 frīz, 2 frīz] OE frēosan, M E frisen, Gmc type *frosan-, whence also OHG frosan, Mod Germ frieren, ON frýsa op Goth frosan, 'frost', fr Aryan base *preus, 'to burn', whence also Serb. plus, Lat prurire, 'to itch', pruinā, 'hoar frost', prūna, 'lvo coal' See prurient A in trans 1 a (impers) to be cold enough to turn water into ice, to be frosty it froze hard last night, b (of water) to become ice, wholly or partially a pond freezes over, is covered with ice, (of substance which is ordinarily fluid) to be congealed or solidified by cold the mercury froze in the bulb, c (of a solid thing containing or surrounded by moisture) to become rigid, stiff, or fixed by frost birds froze to their perches, hair freezes together, to freeze to death 2 (fig) a To feel very cold I am freezing, b to be chilled or made momentarily rigid by some powerful emotion, terror the sight made my blood freeze, c to become rigid or impassive his face froze into a stilted stare B trans 1 a To convert (water or other substance ordinarily fluid) into a solid by lowering temperature, to congeal with cold, b to stiffen, harden, fix the road is frozen hard, ships were frozen in, Phrs to be frozen to death (1) to die from frost, (u) feel very cold, to be frozen up, to be rendered immovable or inactive by frost, c to preserve (meat &c) by refrigeration 2 (fig) To dull with terror, to unnerv, damp the ardour of, paralyse to freeze one with a frown Phr to freeze one's blood, strike one with terror or horror C In phrases with adverb or preposition Freeze on to, trans, (slang) to cling tightly to Freeze out, trans, (slang) (of oh-noxious person, business rival &c), to get rid of, shake off, cause to give in freeze (II), n, fr prec State of freezing, frost freezer, n [1 frīzər, 2 frīzər] freeze (I) & -er Person or thing that freezes, specif a refrigerator, b (Austral colloq) one who breeds or deals in sheep for freezing freezing, adj [1 frīzīng, 2 frīzīng], fr Pres Part of freeze a That freezes, frosty, very cold, b (fig, of manners &c) extremely chilling, icy, distant, repellent freezingly, adv Free & -ly (chiefly fig) In a freezing manner freezing machine, n Apparatus for making ice cream, by use of a freezing mixture freezing mixture, n Mixture, as of ice or snow with common salt, used to produce a low temperature freezing-point, n Temperature at which a liquid congeals and solidifies, specif, that at which water freezes, 32° Fahrenheit freight (I), n [1 frīt, 2 frīt] M E freight, freht, freyte, prob fr M Du wreht, variant of M & Mod Du wreht See freight Gmc type prob *fra-ahz, *fra, being related to for-, & *ahz= O E āht, 'possession, property', vbl n fr āgan, owe Freight may be influenced by O & Mod Fr frēt, 'hire of ship, cargo', fr the corresponding OHG frēht, 'carriage, hire' 1 a Hire, or charge for hire, of ship or other vessel for conveyance of goods, b conveyance, transport, of goods by water, c cargo, lading of vessel 2 (Am) Charge for transport, transport, load, carried by land or water, esp by railway, (attrib) freight train, goods train, freight car, goods truck 3 (fig) Load, burden freight (II), vb trans, fr prec a To hire, let out vessel (Am also vehicle) for transport, b to load (vessel &c) freightage, n [1 frītāg, 2 frītāg] freight (I) & -age a Hire of vessel for transporting goods by water, b charge for transport of goods by water (Am also by land), c action of freighting freighter, n [1 frīter, 2 frīter] freight (II) & -er 1 a Person who charters and loads a vessel, or for whom a cargo or load is conveyed, b agent who transports goods by sea (Am also by land) 2 Cargo vessel French, adj & n [1 frēnsh, 2 frēnsh] OE Francisc, M E Frēnsc, Frēnsch, fr OE Francs (Frank (I)) & -ish, cp Low Lat Franciscus 1 adj Pertaining to France or its people, having some quality of these Phr to take French leave, to depart without notice or permission French marigold, garden variety like African margold with red centre, French partridge, red legged partridge, French roll or bread, kind of fancy bread, French sash, easement opening on hinges 2 n a The French language, attrib, as French master, b (pl) the French, the French people frightfulness, n See prec & -ness a Quality of being frightful, b specif (transl. of Germ schrecklichkeit) the system of terrorization practised by the Germans in the Great War upon the inhabitants of territories temporarily occupied by them frigid, adj [1 frɪd, 2 frɪdɪd] Lat frigidus, 'cold', fr frigus, n, 'state of cold', frigere, 'to be cold', fr base frig-*, op Gk hrygos, 'frost', for hrygos*, perh. connected w Lat rigidus, 'stiff, hard' (with frost) See rigid. 1 Very cold (of climate and atmosphere) frigid zone, region within the circle of either pole 2 a (of temperament, character) Lacking warmth, fire, enthusiasm, strong passion, b (of manner) lacking animation and geniality, chilling, distant, forbidding, repellent, also c (of any mode of expression) passionless, devoid of feeling a frigid style, utterance, tone &c frigidity, n [1 frɪdɪti, 2 frɪdɪdɪti] Fr frigidité, fr Lat frigiditas (cm) prec & -ity (chiefly of non-material qualities) Condition of being frigid, coldness, indifference, absence of warmth and animation frigidly, adv [1 frɪdli, 2 frɪdɪdli] frigid & -ly In a frigid manner frigidness, n [1 frɪdnes, 2 frɪdɪdnəs] frigid & -ness Frigidity frill (I), n [1 frɪl, 2 frɪl] Origin uncertain 1 Narrow, crimped border or flounce, used as a trimming, a one of lace, muslin &c worn round the neck or wrists, b one of paper used as an ornament round the narrow end of a ham &c Phr (fig) to put on (one's) frills, give oneself, affect, airs of superiority &c 2 Useless, excessive, meretricious adornment a style with too many frills 3 (photog) Frill like crinkling at the edge of a film frill (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To adorn with a frill 2 intrans To form into something resembling a frill, specif. (of photographic film) to crinkle at the edges frilled, adj [1 frɪld, 2 frɪld] frill (I) & -ed. Provided, adorned, with frills frillery, n [1 frɪlri, 2 frɪlri] frill (I) & -ery Collection of frills frilling, n [1 frɪlɪŋ, 2 frɪlɪŋ] frill (I) & -ing Strips of material used for frills frilly, adj [1 frɪli, 2 frɪli] frill (I) & -y Covered with frills, resembling a frill or frills Frumaire, n [1 frɪmɑːr, 2 frɪmɑːr], fr Fr frumais, 'hoar-frost' See rime Third month of the French Revolutionary calendar, November 21st to December 20th fringe (I), n [1 frɪŋ, 2 frɪndʒ] O Fr frange, frange, fr Lat fimbria, 'border, edge, fringe', see fimbriated 1 Ornamented border or edging, often of loose threads, as at the end of a cash, an oriental rug &c, or on an outer edge of some portion of a garment, shawl &c 2 Something resembling a fringe, a border, margin of something, objects situated on thus a common with a fringe of houses round it, o fringe of beard on the chin, Phr Navigate fringe, beard worn on throat and projecting below the chin, the chin itself and the lips being shaved, b specif, border of hair growing above woman's forehead, cut and left just long enough partially to cover the forehead. 3 a Extreme outer edge on the fringe of the forest, crowd &c, b (fig) elementary part, external aspects, initial stages of a subject of study the mere fringes of philosophy fringe (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To put a fringe on to, provide with a fringe 2 (fig) To serve as a fringe for houses fringed the road on either side

Fringillidae, n pl [1 frɪŋɪlɪdɪ, 2 frɪndʒɪlɪdɪ], fr Lat fringilla, 'chaffinch', op Sert binggus, 'a black bee', &, without the nasal, Lat fringere, 'to squeak, squeal', Gk phryngilos, a kind of bird (ornith.) The family of birds which includes the finches &c fringy, adj [1 frɪŋi, 2 frɪndʒi] fringe (I) & -y a Having a fringe, b resembling, serving as, a fringe.

frippery, n [1 frɪpəri, 2 frɪpəri] Fr fripperie, 'old clothes', fr frippe (s), 'old clothes'. Origin uncertain. 1 (obs) a Old, second-hand clothes, b place where these are sold, c business of buying and selling cast-off clothes 2 a Tawdry finery, b (fig) sham elegance and refinement, trifling, contemptible adornment frisette, n [1 frɪzət, 2 frɪzət] frizz & -ette Row of artificial curls worn on the forehead friseur, n [1 frɪzɛr, 2 frɪzɪ] Fr friseur frizz & -eur Hairdresser Frisian, adj & n [1 frɪzɪən, 2 frɪzɪən], fr Low Lat Frisia & -an. 1 adj Of, belonging to, Friesland, province of Holland, and district of Germany, or of the Frisian Islands, off the west coast of Denmark, Germany, and Holland, Frisian, Frisian cattle, special breed of cattle renowned as milkers 2 n Frisian frisk (I), n [1 frɪsk, 2 frɪsk] O Fr frisque, 'lively', prob. of Gmc origin, op O H G frisk. See fresh a A frolic, a light-hearted sporting, b a light, agile leap or bound, a gambol.

frisk (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec A intrans 1 To leap lightly and playfully, to bound, skip, gambol, about, as children and young animals 2 To indulge in light-hearted frolic, to disport oneself B trans To move, skip, rapidly in a playful, sportive manner to frisk a fox, a lamb frisks its tail frisket, n [1 frɪskət, 2 frɪskɪt] Fr frisquelette Etymol unknown Iron frame for holding sheet of paper in position during printing friskiness, n [1 'frɪskɪnes, 2 'frɪskɪnɪs]. Next word & -ness a State of being frisky, liveliness, sportiveness, playfulness, b behaviour of person or animal that is frisky, liveliness, playfulness of movement frisky, adj [1 frɪski, 2 frɪski] frisk (I) & -y Inclined to frisk (in both senses), a lively, frolicsome, indulging in playful gambols, specif. (of a horse) fresh, alitash, inclined to leap about, to kick up its legs &c; b fond of amusement and gaily, prone to levity of conduct friz, n & vb trans [1 frɪz, 2 frɪz] Ital friz, 'fried', P P form of friggere, 'to fry' See fry (I) 1 n Material from which glass is made, after being coloured in furnace, but before being vitrified. 2 vb To calcine materials for glass making, to make into frit friz fly, n Origin unknown Small European fly which destroys grain frith (I), n [1 frɪθ, 2 frɪθ] Variant of firth frith (II), n ME w metathesis fr OE fyrh (o), 'a wood', fr Gmc fyrh* (p), lit 'a collection of fir trees' See fir The suff -th is cogn w Lat -thum, as agave-thum, 'plantation of oaks', pōm-thum, 'orchard' &c 1 (obs, or rare, except in P L Ns) Tract of wooded, or forest land, tract where there was formerly a forest, esp a region much covered with brushwood Chapel-en-le Frith, Derbyshire 2 (province) Small brushwood, the smaller boughs and twigs from the top of a tree frithly, n [1 frɪθli, 2 frɪθli] more rarely [1 frɪθlɪ, 2 frɪθlɪ] Fr frithly, Med Lat frithlaria, name of genus, fr Lat frithlus, 'dice box' Applied to flowers & butterflies on account of the markings on petals & wings respectively The word is perh connected w Lat frithnare, 'to twitter', & may refer to the rattle of dice 1 One of several varieties of purple or white bell shaped flowers growing from bulbs, with slender springy stems, and petals which are often frayed or mottled. 2 One of a genus of butterflies having usually brown wings spotted with black and pearly markings friture (I), n [1 frɪtɜːr, 2 frɪtɜːr] Fr friture, 'something fried', fr P P frui & -ure See fry (I) Slice of apple, orange &c, fried in butter fritter (II), vb trans Origin doubtful, perh. fr O Fr fritare, fr Lat fractura See fracture Generally fritter away, to waste, dissipate, money, time, strength &c, in petty, trifling, futile pursuits and objects frivol, vb intrans & trans [1 frɪvəl, 2 frɪvəl] New formation fr frivolous 1 intrans To engage in trifling, futile pursuits, to lead a frivolous life, spend one's time idly and unproductively 2 trans (uncommon) Fritrol away, same as fritter away frivolity, n [1 frɪvəlɪti, 2 frɪvəlɪti] frivol-, as in next word, & -ity 1 Lightness, superficiality of character, lack of seriousness and depth. 2 A foolish, frivolous action frivolous, adj [1 frɪvələs, 2 frɪvələs] Lat frivolus, 'brittle, crumbling; silly, empty, paltry', fr same base as frāre, 'to crumble, rub', q v under friable, & -ous a (of persons) Silly, futile, inclined to levity, unstable, not serious, paltry, having no depth of character, or power of concentration, b (of action, thought, character &c) lacking importance, weight, superficial, trifling, petty frivolously, adv prec & -ly In a frivolous manner frivolousness, n See prec & -ness Frivolity frizz (z) (I), vb trans & intrans [1 frɪz, 2 frɪz] Cp Fr friser, 'to curl' 1 trans To curl, render curly, esp of the hair 2 intrans To become curly, become crisped into curls frizz (z) (II), n, fr prec Something curled, a mass or row of curls frizz (III), vb intrans Imitative of sound, but perh also associated w fry (II) To hiss and sputter, sizzle, as bacon when being fried. frizzle (I), vb trans & intrans [1 frɪzl, 2 frɪzl] frizz (I) & -le 1 trans To curl the hair into small tight curls, also frizzle up 2 intrans (of the hair) To be crisped into small tight curls frizzle (II), vb trans & intrans frizz (III) & -le Doubtless associated w prec & referring not only to the sound, but to the curling up of what is fried 1 trans a To fry thoroughly (bacon &c), so that it huses and becomes crisp, b to burn. 2 intrans a To be fried thoroughly, to become crisp from being fried, b to be exposed to great heat I was frizzling in Baghdad for months frizzly, adj [1 frɪzli, 2 frɪzli] frizz (I) & -ly Curled, having masses of curls.

frizzy, adj [1 frɪzi, 2 frɪzi] frizz (I) & -y Curly fro, adv [1 frō, 2 frou] Scand, ME, fr ON frā, cogn w from Only in Phr to and fro, a backwards and forwards, up and down walking to and fro in the room, b from one place to another my business takes me constantly to and fro frock (I), n [1 frɒk, 2 frɒk] Fr froe, Low Lat froccus, perh fr Lat flocus, 'lock of wool', referring to a rough woolly garment See flock (I) Long outer garment, in various specific senses 1 Monk's coarse robe 2 a A woman's dress, including skirt and upper part, b a child's outer garment, c a long military coat, out something like a frock-coat frock (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To clothe, cover, with a frock 2 (fig) To make a monk of frock-coat, n Long coat for men, shaped to the figure, with large lapels and long square tails or skirts, now nearly obsolete frog, n [1 frɒg, 2 frɒg] OE froga, ME frogge, also another OE type froce, frox &c, whence ME & Mod. Engl dial froel, frash &c, op Mod. Germ frosch Etymol. as present unsettled. 1 Amphibious, tailless animal, family Ranidae, developed from a tadpole, having a smooth shiny skin, webbed feet, short fore-, and long powerful hind legs, with which it swims rapidly and, when on land, is able to make considerable leaps 2 (vulg., obsolete) A Frenchman, from the popular idea that the French lived largely on frogs. 3 Elastic, horny pad in middle of lower surface of hoof of the horse, ass &c, perhaps so called from its shape 4 (railways) Junction of several rails and tracks, which converge to, and branch out from a point of union, so called from resemblance to hind-leg of a frog with its branching toes 5 Ornament, often consisting of a loop and button of silk or wool, or sometimes merely of a kind of tuft, upon military cloaks, tunics, or academic robes, either from shape, or perhaps variant of Port froco, fr Lat flocus, 'tuft of wool' frogbit, n [1 frogbit, 2 frǫgbīt] frog & bit (I) Popular name of a floating water plant, Hydrocharis, with white flowers frogged, adj [1 frōgd, 2 frǫgd] frog & -ed. Adorned with frogs, in sense 5 froggy n [1 frōgi, 2 frǫgi] frog & -y Diminutive of frog, child's word frog-hopper, n Popular name of certain hopping or leaping insects, esp of those whose larvae, covered with white froth, are attached to plants and known as 'cuckoo spit' frolic (I), adj [1 frōlik, 2 frǫlik], fr Dn vroolijk, 'merry', op Mod Germ fröhlich, fr fröh, 'bappy, glad', OS frāo (archaic) Merry, gamesome, jovial frolic (II), n & vb intrans, fr prec 1 n. A merry-making, a jovial prank, bout of gaiety; an hilarious, roistering party, merriment, gaiety 2 vb To engage in a frolic, to make merry, to play gay, lively pranks frolicsome, adj [1 frōliksom, 2 frǫliksom] Free & -some Inclined to frolic, full of high spirits, sportive, gamesome frolicsomenly, adv Free & -ly In a frolicsome way frolicsomeness, n See prec & -ness Quality, state, of being frolicsome from, prep [1 from, 2 frōm], unstressed [frām] OE & ME from, earlier fram, OS OHG, Goth fram, 'from, away, farther', op also for sense, Goth frama, 'farther', oogn also w Goth fruma, 'the first', OE forma, 'first' See first & former The elementary sense appears to be 'far, away from' Outside Gmc op Gk proton, 'the foremost man, chief' See also primary, pro- From in a general way, expresses the ideas of separation, departure, removal, subtraction, oxolation, deprivation, it also indicates place whence motion takes place, person or place from whom or whence something comes, the starting point, place of origin and kindred notions It occurs after vbs expressing these 1 In denoting place or point whence a movement is made a motion away from a chair, jump from a window, fall from the sky, he went from me, gone from home, b removal, subtraction a brand snatched from the burning, to brush a crumb from one's coat, take 6 from 10, to blot out a word from a page, c deprivation to steal money from the till, to take his sword from a prisoner d prevention to save oneself from falling 2 A denoting place or position apart and separate, at or in which a thing is and remains to hang from a bough, to stay away from home, b exclusion, prohibition prevented from coming in, cut off from civilization, shut out from light and warmth, c degree of remoteness (in space or time) a mile from home, five years from now 3 A denoting point of departure, source, place of origin to set out from London, Phr (he is) from Berkshire, a native, or resident of Berkshire, gold from the mine, water from the well, from the counter, the train from Bunodon, to speak from memory, b indicating person who gives or sends or place whence a thing is sent a present from his father a letter from a friend, a parcel from the draper a message from America, c indicating ground of an inference I judge from his conduct that he is in sane d indicating model to which an action conforms to paint from nature, from the life 4 Expressing difference, distinction not to know chalk from cheese, to distinguish good from bad 5 Indicating point from which a process occurs, or an action is performed to look from a window, to hear from the rest room, to jump from a wall 6 Indicating reason, cause, motive to die from exhaustion, to suffer from indigestion, to act from the highest motives 7 from—to expresses continuance, or repeated action, movement, process, or recurrence of these to go from house to house, from place to place, from one thing to another, from time to time 8 Used before adverbs and adverbial phrases to express direction or position in space or time to come from beyond the mountains, to steal from under the bedclothes, to enter from outside, to send a message from over the sea, that dates from before the war frond, n [1 frōnd, 2 frōnd] Lat frond (em), stem of frons, 'leafy branch, foliage', perh oogn w Gk throna (pl), 'flowers embroidered on cloth, flowers used as charms' Organ in ferns or other flowerless plants, resembling a leaf, but differing from this in bearing reproductive cells frondage, n [1 frōndij, 2 frōndidz] Prec & -age Fronds collectively, foliage fronde n [1 frāwəd, 2 frōnd] Fr, lit 'slung' 1 (hist) a Political party in France during minority of Louis XIV, 1648-1653, opposed to Cardinal Mazarin and the Court, b period of civil war & fomented thereby 2 A violent, political opposition frondescence, n [1 frōndēsens, 2 frōndēsens] Lat See next word & -ce A Period, state, of putting forth leaves, b foliage frondescant, adj [1 frōndēsant, 2 frōndēsant] Lat frondescant (em), Prec Part of frondescere, 'to put forth leaves' See frond Putting forth fronds or leaves frondose, adj [1 frōndōs, 2 frōndōs] frond & -ose a (obs or poet) Bearing leaves, b bearing fronds front (I), n [1 frant, 2 frant] Lat front (em), frons, 'forehead, human brow, countenance, forefront of anything' Origin doubtful All the etymologies hitherto proposed are rejected as improbable by Walde The most plausible of these 'improbabilities' is perhaps the derivation fr bhruu-uent*, 'having brows', wh connects the word w Gk ophrus, 'eye brow', & Engl brow 1 a (obs or poet) The human forehead, the face, b thus as symbolical of character, esp in bad sense, impudence, sfrontery, Phr to have the front to, to be impudent enough to, to put a bold front on the situation, to con front boldly 2 a The fore, or forward part of anything, b position before one, Phrs in front of, to the fore, before, before the face of, to come to the front, become well known, important, look to your front, before you, c the most forward line held by a combatant in the sphere of military operations, firing line, d the whole area of military activity 3 a Face of a building the north, east front, specif b principal side with main entrance the front of the house contrasted with the back 4 a That region of land abutting esp on the sea, but also on a lake or large river, frontage, b promenade, parade, constructed along a sea front, above the beach 5 Something fastened to the front of another thing, specif a false border of hair worn upon front part of a woman's head, b breast of a shirt, esp a stiffened front part of a white linen shirt or altar frontal 6 (phon) a Middle part of the tongue, that part with which are formed what are sometimes misleadingly called 'palatal' sounds b the forward part of the month, c a sound uttered by the front of the tongue, a so called 'palatal' front (II), adj, fr prec 1 Of, at, pertaining to the front of anything, to the fore, forward front row, front door, front page, that at beginning of a book, title page 2 (phon, of sounds) Articulated with the front (ie middle) of the tongue, also called by some 'palatal' front consonants, vowels front (III) adv To the front eyes front front (IV), vb trans & intrans front (I) A trans 1 (archaic) To confront 2 To face towards, turn front, or face, towards the castle fronts the sea. 3 (phon) a To shift area of articulation further forwards in the month, b pced, to convert into a front sound B intrans To face, look, towards frontage, n [1 frāntij, 2 frāntidz] front (I) & -age a Front part of a building, b line of land, esp of property fronting, bordering, a road, street, river &c frontager, n [1 frāntijor, 2 frāntidzə] Prec & -er Owner of property fronting or bordering a road &c frontal (I), adj [1 frāntl, 2 frānt(ə)] See front (I) & -al a Connected with the front situated in front, Phr (mil) frontal attack, one delivered from direction towards which the enemy are facing, without any attempt at outflanking, b specif (anat) connected with the forehead or brow frontal bones &c frontal (II), n, fr prec 1 Ornament, part of armour, worn on the forehead. 2 (scots) Movable, often highly decorated covering generally of embroidered fabric, hung in front of that part of the altar facing west frontier, n [1 frāntier, 2 frānties] Fr frontière, Low Lat frontaria See front (I) & -ier 1 a The extreme limit, boundary, marsh border line, of a state where its territory abuts upon that of another state, b (astr) belonging to, situated on, a frontier a frontier station, fortress &c

2 (fig, in non material sense, often pl) Extreme limits, limitations, confines, outposts frontiers of knowledge, of civilization frontiersman, n [1 frāntierman, 2 frāntiezman] Dweller on a frontier

Frontignan, n [1 frōntunjak, 2 frōntenjæk] Fr adj fr Frontignan in France, influenced by Cognac Armagnac &c a Kind of muscat grape, b wine made from this fronting, vhl n [1 frānting, 2 frāntip] front (IV) & -ing a Process or action of putting nearer the front specif b (phon) process of shifting articulation nearer fore part of the mouth, process of shifting articulation to front of the tongue, also called palatalization frontispiece, n [1 frāntispēs, 2 frāntisplis] Fr frontispice, fr Low Lat frontispicium, 'countenance, front of a church', fr frons, stem of frons (see front (I)), & specere 'to look' (see species) The last syll has been assimilated to Engl pioco The part which is first seen Specif 1 The principal façade of a building 2 A illustration or ornamental design at the beginning of a book (more rarely) b front page of a book frontless, adj [1 frāntles, 2 frāntlis] front (I) & -less 1 Looking a front 2 (archaic and rare) Having no modesty, impudent, unblushing frontlessly, adv Prec & -ly Impudently frontlessness, n See prec & -ness Impudence frontlet, n [1 frāntlet, 2 frāntlit] front (I) & -let 1 a A band for, worn on the forehead, a fillet, b front part of animal's head esp when of a different colour from the rest

2 Narrow strip added as a finish, hanging over upper part of an altar frontal fronto- pref [1 frōntō, 2 frōntos] Form of Lat frons 'forehead' (see front (I)), used in compounds, meaning connected with, on, the forehead, frontal' Fronto parietal, connected with the frontal and the parietal bones &c fronton n [1 frūnton, 2 frāntən] Ital frontone. See front (I) & -oon (archit) Pediment frore, adj [1 fror, 2 frīs], fr obs PP of freezes OE frōren, MF frōren Frosty, frozen, very cold 'The parching air burns frore' (Milton, 'P L') frost (I), n [1 frāwat frost, 2 frōst, frōst] OE forst, frōst, ME forst, frōst, in most old Gmc languages, fr Gmc frus ta*, fr fruz-ta*, formed fr type fruz* of frezs*, 'to freeze', as in OE PP frōren fr frus* an See prec & freezes 1 a That condition of the atmosphere when ice forms, which begins to occur at a temperature of 32° Fahrenheit and under, b frozen -state or the ground &c, c effects of frost too, frozen, or partially frozen down or vapour frost on the grass, on the window panes &c 2 (fig) a Chilly moral atmosphere, depression of spirits, coolness, lack of animation at a social gathering, b (colloq) result of such low spirits, failure of a social entertainment, failure generally, esp lack of success of efforts to amuse the dance, play, book, turned out a frost frost (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 a To injure, wither, nip (plants), with frost, b (fig) to afflict with low spirits, chill 2 To give the appearance of frost to, to make frosted to frost a cake, with icing or sprinkling of sugar, to frost glass, by giving it a roughened or granulated surface B intrans To freeze slightly, produce slight degree of frost frostbite, n [1 frástbit, 2 frástbit] Injury, resulting in a kind of gangrene, to the tissues of the body, caused by prolonged exposure to extreme cold frosted, adj [1 frástved, 2 frástvəd] frost (I) & -ed 1 a Covered with, whitened by, frost, b (fig, of hair) whitened 2 a Affected, nipped, by frost, b (fig, of character, temperament &c) repressed, chilled, frigid, not cheerful and genial 3 a (of glass) Having surface roughened, granulated, so as to produce effect resembling that of frost which destroys transparency but preserves some degree of translucency, b coated with white sugar, as a wedding-cake frostily, adv [1 frástvili, 2 frástvili] frosty & -ly In a frosty manner (chiefly fig) to smile frostily

frostiness, n [1 frástvines, 2 frástvins] frosty & -ness Condition of being frosty frosting, n [1 frástvng, 2 frástvng] frost (I) & -ing a Coating of frost on windows &c, b granulation on glass, c coating of sugar on cakes &c frostwork, n [1 frástvørk, 2 frástvørk] Pattern resembling tracery produced by frost on glass and other smooth surfaces frosty, adj [1 frástvi, 2 frástvi] frost (I) & -y 1 a Characterized by presence of frost a frosty day, sky, b covered with frost frosty ground, pavements, trees &c, c (fig) white from age &c a frosty head 2 (of moral qualities) Cold, frigid, in feeling, repellent in manner, lacking animation and geniality a frosty nature, a frosty smile &c froth (I), n [1 frástv, 2 frástv] froth ME frothe, fr ON fröða, not in OE, vb, however, has the related vb (ä-) fröðan, 'to froth up' Origin uncertain 1 Light mass of minute cohering bubbles formed on the surface of liquids by fermentation or agitation, spume, foam, similar collection of bubbles produced from saliva by disease or extreme mental excitement 2 (fig, of non-material things) Light, trifling, superficial thought and ideas, shallow, excited feelings, the expression of these, futile, worthless talk froth (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans a To produce, emit froth, to foam, bubble thickly the sea frothed on the rocks, beer froths in the glass, to froth at the mouth, b (fig) to utter shallow thoughts 2 trans To cause to froth to froth eggs, by beating them &c frothily, adv [1 frástvili, 2 frástvili] frothy & -ly In a frothy manner frothiness, n [1 frástvines, 2 frástvins] Next word & -ness Quality, condition, of being frothy frothy, adj [1 frástvili, 2 frástvili] froth (I) & -y 1 Consisting of froth, having consistency of froth 2 (fig) Light, trifling, superficial, lacking substance, weight, depth, of thought and feeling a frothy preacher, frothy oratory &c frown-frown, n [1 frást frøn, 2 frást frū] Fr, imitative Sound made by a soft, silky fabric when moved, crumpled, rubbed &c, a rattle.

frown (I), vb trans & intrans [1 froun, 2 frau] ME frounen, 'to wrinkle', O Fr froncer, Mod Fr froncer, 'to cause to wrinkle', fr Low Lat fronthare*, fr front- See frown (I) (archaic) 1 trans To make plait, folds, wrinkles, in, adorn with plait or flosses 2 intrans To gather, form into folds or wrinkles frown (II), n, fr prec (archaic) 1 A plait, fold, wrinkle, a curl 2 (fig) Empty show, affectation frown, n [1 frou, 2 frau] Du wroue, 'woman' See frau Dutchwoman of humbler classes froward, adj [1 frōard, 2 frōard] fro & -ward (archaic) Laterally, turned away, hence, perverse in character and behaviour, disobedient, obstinate, refractory frowardly, adv Pre & -ly Perversely frowardness, n See prec & -ness Disobedience, perversity &c frown (I), vb intrans & trans [1 froun, 2 frau] ME frounen, fr O Fr frouner &c, 'to frown, look sullenly', prob fr Gmc source, cp Norw froyne, 'to make a wry face' Origin uncertain A intrans 1 a To wrinkle the forehead, b to look sternly, gloomily, sullenly 2 (fig) To be sullen, to disapprove, frown at, on, upon, to view with disfavour, disapprove of, be unfavourable to B trans (rare) To express by frowning to frown disgust, disapproval &c, frown down, subdue by means of frowns frown (II), n, fr prec 1 A wrinkling of the brows, stern face, look, esp one expressing sullenness, disapproval 2 State of being unfavourable, of disapproving, expression, manifestation, of disfavour and disapproval frowning, adj [1 frōning, 2 frōning] fr Pre Part of frown (I) 1 a Having, bearing, frowns a frowning face, b disapproving, stern 2 (of inanimate objects) Inspiring awe, terror, dread, having dreadful, terrifying, appearance, menacing, lowering a frowning cliff, tower &c frowningly, adv Pre & -ly With a frown, or frowns frowsily, adv [1 frōuzli, 2 frōuzli] frowsy & -ly In a frowsy manner, state &c frowsiness, n [1 frōuznes, 2 frōuznes] See prec & -ness State, quality, of being frowsy frowst, n [1 froust, 2 froust] fr next word frowsiness, 'stuffy atmosphere of a room' frowsy, -zy, adj [1 frōuz, 2 frau] Origin unknown a Stuffy, musty, ill smelling, as of crowded or badly ventilated room, b dirty, dragged, unkempt, slatternly froze, vb [1 frōz, 2 frōuz] Pret of freeze, fr PP, op ME Pret frēas frozen, adj [1 frōzen, 2 frōuz(en)] fr PP of freeze, fr ME frōren (see froze), w z introduced fr usu 1 Congealed, turned to ice with extreme cold 2 Charac-terized by, subject to, extreme frost and cold the frozen regions of the pole 3 (fig) A cold in feelings, extremely reticent, frigid in character and bearing, b (of feelings) pent-up, under severe constraint, suppressed 4 (of a ball in billiards) Touching, lying against, the cushion, or another ball

Fructidor, n [1 fruktīdor, 2 fruktīdō], fr Lat fructus, 'fruit', & Ok dōron, 'gift', 'the month of fruit' See fruit & date (I), donor Name invented in France during the French Revolution for the last month of the new calendar, it began Aug 18th and lasted till Sept 16th fructiferous, adj [1 fruktīferus, 2 fraktīforas] Lat fructifer, 'fruit-bearing' See fruit & -ferous Bearing, yielding, fruit fructification, n [1 fruktīfikāshun, 2 fraktīfikāshun] Lat fructificāshō(em) See fruit, & -fication 1 Process of becoming fruit-ful, of forming fruit 2 Act or process of rendering fruitful, fertilization (esp bot.)

fructify vb intrans & trans [1 fruktīfi, 2 fraktīfi] Fr fructify, fr Lat fructif-icare. See fruit & -fy 1 intrans a (of plants &c.) To become fertile, to yield fruit, b (fig) to yield results, come to maturity (of efforts, measures &c.) 2 trans To render fertile, fertilize, make productive fructose, n [1 fruktōs, 2 fraktōus] Lat fructus, see fruit, & -ose Sugar derived from fruit fructuous, adj [1 fruktūus, 2 fruktūus] O Fr, fr Lat fructuosus, 'productive, fruit-ful' See fruit & -ous a (of trees &c.) Fruitful, productive, b (fig) fruitful in results fructuously, adv Pre & -ly Fruitfully fructuousness, n See prec & -ness Quality, state, of being fruitful frugal, adj [1 frōgəl, 2 frōg(ə)] Lat frūgālis, 'pertaining to produce, thrifty, temperate', fr frūg, stem of frūz, 'fruits, produce, of the earth', & -al See base frūg under fruit 1 Economical, sparing, thrifty; not wasteful, lavish, or inclined to squander a frugal housekeeper 2 Marked by thrift, used, enjoyed, with moderation, inexpensive a frugal dinner, frugal house keeping frugality, n [1 frōgāliti, 2 frōgāliti] Lat frūgāliti(em) See frugal & -ity Frugalness, carefulness in using and expending, thrift frugally, adv frugal & -ly In a frugal, careful, thrifty manner

frugality, n See prec & -ness Quality of being frugal, thrift, economy frugivorous, adj [1 frōgīverus, 2 frūdīf varas] Mod Lat formed on anal. of carnivorous, q v See base frūg(s) under frugal, & -vorous (zool, of classes of animals, as bats &c) Feeding on fruit fruit (I), n [1 frūt, 2 frūt] ME, fr O Fr fru(e)t, fr Lat fructus, 'enjoyment, that which is enjoyed, proceeds, profit, produce, fruit, consequence, effect' The base is frūg, as seen in Lat frūgus, genus of frūx, 'fruits of the earth', it is further found in Lat fruo, 'feed oneself, enjoy, make use of', wh is fr frug*-or This base appears also in Gmc in the form brūk*, cp OE brēcian, 'to make use of, enjoy' See brook (II) 1 (gon sense) Any product of a plant used by man for food or other purposes, including gram, cotton &c the kindly fruits of the earth (Prayer Book) 2 Specif a the edible, pulpy product of a plant, whether tree or shrub, not distin-guished with any precision from a 'vegetable' in popular usage Roughly speaking, a fruit is more often eaten raw, and is often sweet-ened with sugar, esp when cooked, fruit is used collectively for the whole product, or fruitage, of a plant or tree some trees have lost all their fruit in the drought, also b of the product in general to grow fruit, to like fruit 3 (bot) That part of a plant which contains the seed, including, besides what are popularly called fruits, all pods, nuts, berries, and grains 4 (archaic) Offspring of human beings or animals, children, young the fruit of the womb 5 (gon pl) Product of any action, circumstance, process, result, effect, profit, reward to live to see the fruits of one's labours, the fruits of early training, the fruits of virtue and good living &c fruit (II), vb intrans, fr prec To produce fruit in many soils the Ribston Pippin does not fruit well fruitage, n [1 frōtij, 2 frātīdž] fruit (I) & -age Fruits collectively, esp the growing crop as a whole frutarian, n [1 frōtārian, 2 frūtērian] fruit & -arian, modern formation modelled on vegetarian One who lives, or professes to live, almost entirely upon fruit fruit bud, n Bud that produces blossom, whence later, fruit, as distinct from one pro-ducing foliage fruit-cake, n Cake containing raisins, currants, or other dried fruit fruiter, n [1 frōtēr, 2 frātē] fruit (II) & -er Tree that produces fruit a prolific fruiter fruiterer, n [1 frúit'er, 2 frúit'ar], fr obs fruiter, fr fruiter, 'seller of fruit', & (redunder) -er Person who sells fruit retail, but, as a rule, does not grow it fruit-fly, n One of various kinds of fly which lay their eggs in young growing fruit, and whose larvae when hatched feed on, and destroy the fruit fruitful, adj [1 frúit'fúl, 2 frúit'f(ə)l] fruit (I) & -ful 1 Producing fruit, productive, prolific a fruitful tree, soil &c Phr a fruitful vine, a woman who bears a large family 2 Productive of, yielding, results, successful in producing effects fruitful labours, a fruitful career fruitfully, adv Prec & -ful a So as to produce fruit, b in an effective manner fruitfulness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being fruitful, in all senses fruition, n [1 frúit'shun, 2 frúit'sən] Lat frúitiō (em), 'enjoyment', fr fruit, PP stem of frūo- See fruit (I) & -ion Use possession of anything, pleasure derived from possession, enjoyment fruitless, adj [1 frúit'les, 2 frúit'lis] fruit (I) & -less 1 Bearing no fruit 2 Having no result, vain, without effect, profitless fruitless efforts fruitlessly, adv Prec & -ly Vainly, in effectually fruitlessness, n See prec & -ness Use lessness, ineffectiveness fruit tree, n One specially cultivated for its edible fruit fruity, adj [1 frúti, 2 frúti] fruit (I) &

 -y Connected with, of the nature of, fruit, specif, resembling and suggesting fruit in taste and smell, pungent, aromatic a fruity wine Phr a fruity voice, rich, sonorous, mellow voice frumentaceous, adj [1 frúment'ášus, 2 frúment'ášas], fr Lat frumentum, 'corn, grain', for *frumentum, fr frug, q v under fruit (I) & -aceous Made of, connected with, resembling, wheat or other grain frumenty, n, also furnety [1 frúment'i, 2 frúment'i, fúment'i] Fr fromente, fr Lat frumentum, 'grain' See prec Dish made of wheat boiled in milk, sweetened, and spiced frump, n [1 frump, 2 framp] Orig. doubtful Plain, badly dressed, dowdy woman frumpish, adj [1 frúmp'ish, 2 frúmp'is] Prec & -ish. Like a frump, dowdy frumpy, adj [1 frúmp'i, 2 frúmp'i] frump & -y Frumpish frustrate (I), adj [1 frústrát, 2 frústréti], fr Lat frustat (um), PP type of frustari,
 'to deceive, disappoint', formed fr frustat, 'uselessly, in vain' This word is fr same base as Lat frus, q v under fraud. (archaic) Frustrated frustrate (II), vb trans [1 frústrát, 2 frástréti] See prec 1 To haffle, circumvent, bring efforts of to nought, to balk to frustrate one's opponents 2 To bring to nought, foil, render of no effect to frustrate the designs of one's enemies frustration, n [1 frústrášun, 2 frástré'sən] Prec & -ion Act, or process, of frustrating, nullification, overthrow frustule, n [1 frústul, 2 frástjúl] Lat frustulum, dimin of frustum, 'piece' See next word. Shell of a diatom frustum, n [1 frustum, 2 frástəm] Lat, piece, bit Several etymols have been suggested. Perh. the most plausible is that wh derives the word fr earlier *fruda tem, fr Aryan base *bhud &c, & connects it w OE bréotan, 'to break', & brytta, for *brutya, 'distributor' &c See further under brittle (geom) Lower part of a solid figure when the top has been cut off parallel to base frutescent, adj [1 frúit'sént, 2 frúit'sént] Shortened fr frutescent See next word & -escent. Resembling, of the nature of, a frutex frutex, n [1 frúit'is, 2 frúit'is] Lat, 'a shrub, a bush' Perh orig., 'budding, sprouting plant', op Lat Frutex, name for Venus Op further O Slav brúti, 'bud', & perh Goth brúpa, 'bride', q v under bride Shrub with woody stem, smaller than a tree fruticose, adj [1 frúit'ik'is, 2 frúit'ik'us], fr stem frutic, of prec, & -ose Resembling a shrub, bushy, shrubby fry (I), n [1 fri, 2 frai] LME fri, 'seed, offspring', op A-Fr frie, fry, 'apawn', variant of O Fr froi, 'spawn' The word is perh of Gmc origin, op ON frie, Goth *frawa, 'seed, descendants' See the last under fresh (I) Young fishes just hatched salmon fry &c Phr small fry, (contemptuous) unimportant, insignificant persons, (facet) young children fry (II), vb trans & intrans M E frien, Fr frire, fr Lat frigere, 'to roast, paroh, fry', op Scrt bhryditi, 'he roasts', Gk phrygēn, 'to roast, bake' A trans 1 To cook in boiling fat 2 (fig, obs) To torment, torture mentally B intrans 1 To be cooked in hot fat, undergo process of frying the sausages are frying buskily 2 (archaic or obs) A To undergo mental anguish, to be strongly agitated, b (of the sea) to boil, foam fry (III), n, fr prec 1 Dish of fried food 2 Certain internal organs of animals, usually cooked by frying pig's fry 3 (colloq) State of mental excitement fryer, frayer, n [1 frier, 2 frair] fry (II) & -er 1 Person who fries 2 Article of food intended for frying frying-pan, n [1 fri'ing pán, 2 frú:ɪŋ pán] Flat, shallow utensil of metal with a long handle, used for frying Phr out of the frying pan into the fire, to escape one danger or difficulty and get involved in a worse fubby, adj [1 fubn, 2 fúbsi] Origin doubtful (rare) Fat, plump, squat fuchsia, n [1 fúsha, 2 fúshə] Named after Fuchs, a German botanist One of many varieties of plants with graceful, drooping flowers, red or pink, pink and white, or pink and purple in colour fuchsine, n [1 fúsh'én, 2 fúsh'én] Prec &

 -ine Named fr its colour Chemical dye-stuff, dark red in colour fucus, n [1 fúkus, 2 fúkus] Lat, 'rock lichen', fr Gk phukos, 'red paint, rouge', kind of seaweed from which this is obtained', fr Hoh pük Kind of flat tough seaweed fuddle, vb trans & intrans & n [1 fúdl, 2 fádli] Orig. uncertain 1 vb a trans To render confused, and muddled in mind, render stupid and confused by intoxication, also to fuddle oneself, b intrans, to tittle (rare) 2 n Confusion of mind, hebetude fuddlement, n [1 fúdl'ment, 2 fádli'ment] Prec & -ment State of being fuddled fudge, n, interj & vb trans [1 fúj, 2 fádž] Orig. uncertain 1 n a concocted story, nonsense, empty talk, b kind of soft, granulated toffee 2 interj Nonsense! 3 vb trans To fake, vamp, put together in a careless, dishonest manner, also fudge up fuel, n & vb trans & intrans [1 fúel, 2 fúil, fúal] O Fr fouaille, fuaille, fr Low Lat focalia, neut pl, fr Lat focus, 'hearth', fire' See focus 1 n Material used for fires, coal, wood, oil &c, also fig, in Phr to add fuel to the flames, to inflame, aggravate, already existing anger, passion &c 2 vb a trans To provide with fuel to fuel a ship, b intrans to procure, take in, provide oneself with fuel the ship put into port to fuel fuelling, n [1 fúel'ing, 2 fúil'ing] Prec &
 -ing a Act or process of collecting or providing with fuel, b material used for fuel fug, n & vb intrans [1 fug, 2 fag] Orig. unknown (schoolboy word, colloq) 1 n a Stiffness, fastness, closeness of air, as in an ill ventilated room &c, b dust, stuff, flue &c, such as collects under furniture, or in the seams of pockets 2 vb To remain in a close warm room to sit fugging in the house, (fig) to lead a sedentary as contrasted with an active life in the open air fugacious, adj [1 fúgášus, 2 fúgášis] Lat Lat fugax, stem of fugax, 'apt to fly, transitory' & -ous; cp fugere, 'to flee, take flight', & fuga, 'flight', fr Aryan base *bheugh-, *bhugh-, orig 'to bend, curve', hence, 'to swerve aside in flight', op Gk pheugain, 'to flee', & phugē, 'flight', Scrt bhuyat, 'he bends, thrusts aside', further O E bügen, 'to bend, stoop, bow down', averse &c, & boga, 'bow (for arrows)' See bow (III), bow (I), & bight 1 Flying, disposed to flee, or pass away, hard to capture or keep, transitory, transient 2 (biol) Lasting but a short time (of flowers and parts of these) fugaciously, adv Prec & -ly Transitorily, fleetingly fugaciousness, n See prec & -ness Transience fugacity, n [1 fúgášiti, 2 fúgášiti] Lat. fugax, as in fugacious, & -ity Fugaciousness fugal, adj [1 fúgal, 2 fúgəl] fugue & -al (mus) Of the nature of, pertaining to a fugue fugally, adv Prec & -ly In the manner of, by means of a fugue

-fuge, suff [1 fúj, 2 fúdj] Lat -fugus, 'fleeing from', as in lucifugus, 'fleeing from light' &c, in mod compounds the suff has sense of 'putting to flight', op febrifugus &c See base *fug, 'flight' &c, under fugacious. fugginess, n [1 fúgnes, 2 fúgnes] Next word & -ness State of being fuggy fuggy, adj [1 fúg, 2 fúgi] fug & -y 1 (of rooms, atmosphere &c) Stuff, close, ill ventilated 2 (of persons) a Fond of warm rooms, afraid of fresh air and heedless of stiffness, b fond of sedentary pursuits at home, rather than of sport &c, in the open fugient, adj [1 fúj'ient, 2 fúdj'ient] Lat fugient-(em), Pres Part of fugere, 'to flee' See fugacious Apt to flee, retreating fugitive (I), adj [1 fúj'it'iv, 2 fúdj'it'iv] Lat fugitivus, 'running away', fr stem fugit-, as in PP of fugere, 'to flee', q v under fugacious, & -ive 1 Fleeing, running away, engaged in, having taken to, flight, esp from danger, justice, compulsion &c a fugitive prisoner, slave &c 2 Liable to pass, to fade away, evanescent fugitive thoughts, colours &c 3 Dealing with matters of passing, ephemeral interest, transient fugitive essays, verse &c fugitive (II), n See prec 1 One who flees, or has fled, from pursuit, danger, constraint, justice, refugees, deserter &c fugitives from the battle, from the invaded areas, from justice, from the army 2 Something hard to catch 'the swallow, light winged fugitive' fugle, vb intrans [1 fúgl, 2 fúgl] Back-formation fr next word To act as a fogleman fogleman, n [1 fúgl'man, 2 fúgl'man] fr Germ fúgelmann, man who acted as guide or model, on the 'wing' of a military formation, fr fúgel, 'a wing', fr the same base as flown (I) & fly (II) 1 (rare) Soldier who is expert in drill, stationed as guide and leader, or wing of a company, to direct, or serve as model in movements &c 2 Leader, guide, spokesman fugue, n [1 fúg, 2 fúg] Fr, fr Ital fuga, fr Lat, 'flight' See fugacious (mus) Contrapuntal composition with a 'subject' or chief theme, and subordinate themes which recur, together with their 'answers' fugust, n [1 fúgist, 2 fúgist] Prec & -ist.
 Composer of fugues
-ful, suff [1 fúol, f, 2 -ful, -fal, f] Reduced form of full (I), used as suff 1 Used to form adjectives from nouns expressing a possession of qualities, full of, abounding in, characterized by plentiful, shameful, beautiful, b forming adjectives from verbs, expressing 'tending to, shla to' wakeful 2 Forming nouns from other nouns, and then denoting 'as much as will fill' glassful, plateful, mouthful, handful These nouns are inflected finally, as completely welded unitiescupful, spoonful &c, not cupeful and so on.

fulcrum, n, [learned pl fulera [1. fálkrum; 2. fálkrum] Lat, 'bed-post', prob for fulcrom*, connected w Lat fulcrē, 'to prop', this base is perh bhel-, bhoil- &c, whence OE bealcra, 'beam', q v under balk (I) a Object which supports a lever, precise point on which a lever rests when in action, b (fig) anything used to attain an end, influence others &c fulfil(l), vb trans [1 foolfil, 2 fulfil] ME fulfillen &c See full (I) & fill (I) To carry out, perform, bring to completion, specif a to discharge, perform adequately to fulfil one's duties, b to satisfy, come up to, in performance to fulfil one's hopes, expectations, to fulfil desires, c to comply with, observe, be faithful to to fulfil one's obligations, to fulfil conditions, a command, one's promises fulfilment, n [1 foolfilment, 2. fulfilment] Prec & -ment a Completion, due performance of (duties), b compliance with, observance of (promises, the law, conditions, obligations &c), c satisfaction, contentment, gratification of (desires, expectations, hopes) fulgent, adj [1 fúljent, 2. fúldžent] Lat, fr fulgenti-(em), Pres Part of fulgere, 'to shine', fr same base as flagrare, 'to blaze, flame', q v under flagrant (post) Shining, radiant, blazing fulgurant, adj [1 fúlgurant, 2. fúlgurant] Lat fulgurant-(em), Pres Part of fulgurare, 'to lighten', fr Lat fulgur, 'lightning', fr base fulg-*, 'blaze' &c as in prec. Flashing, like lightning fulgurite, n [1 fúlgurit, 2. fúlgurant] Lat fulgur, 'lightning' See prec & -ite Tubes of vitrified substance found in sand, formed by the passage of lightning fuliginous, adj [1 fuliginus, 2. fúldžinəs] Lat fuligin-, stem of fuligo, 'soot', & -ous, fr Aryan base dhūh-*, as in Sort dhūh, 'dust', the same base with other formative elements occurs in Lat fūmus, 'smoke, vapour' See fume (I) & dust Connected with, resembling, soot, sooty, smoky full (I), adj [1 fool, 2. ful] OE & ME full, also OS, OHG fol, Goth fulls, fr Aryan pln-*, cp w different grade, Lat plenus, 'full', see plenum, plenitude, plenty, also Lat -plere, 'to fill', PP -plēum, whence the second syll of complete &c Exactly cogn w full are, Lath plinas, O Slav plnъ, 'full' See further fill & folk. 1 a (of receptacle) Containing as much as it will hold, filled to utmost capacity, overflowing to pump full the cistern is full, a box full to overflowing, to have one's mouth full, b (of buildings) crowded, packed a room full of furniture, of people, the room was full before the lecture began, a full house, a crowded theatre, c (fig) overflowing with, strongly affected by, emotion my heart is too full for words, a mind full of jealousy, bitterness &c 2 Filled with food, satisfied, replete to eat till one is full, as full as one can hold 3 Serving to fill, occupying completely a given space a full audience 4 a Furnished, well provided, plentifully stored with, rich, abounding in rivers full of fish, woods full of game, a cake full of plums, pockets full of money, a house full of mice; also b (of non-material things) full of ideas, a book full of good things, his head is full of nonsense, c a man concerned with, engrossed by, having one's thoughts running on, occupied with, intent upon to be full of one's own affairs, full of one's subject 5 a (of garments, drapery &c) Ample, roomy, hanging in folds, flowing, loose, easy-fitting I like a coat made full across the chest, b bulky, plump, swelling, rather full in the face, a full throat and bosom; a full figure, c (of supply, amount) copious, plentiful a full meal, full measure, a very full harvest 6 a Complete, having attained to the expected or maximum degree of height, amount, volume, growth, development, intensity, perfection a full tide, full moon, is full bloom, a full crop of apples &c; in full career of happiness, full vigour, strength, in full gallop, full speed, at full length, stretched out, completely extended, to spend one's full time, a full hour, a full orchestra, b (of sounds) resonant, penetrating, possessing volume a full voice, full notes, c (of wines) possessing rich, strong consistency, body and flavour Phrs of full age, having attained majority, of full blood, not mixed in race, full brother, sister, born of same father and mother, in full cry, of hounds following hot on scent, full dress, most elaborate dress, worn on ceremonial occasions, in full fig, in best, most splendid clothes, in full feather, same as full fig; also, in best possible physical and intellectual condition full (II), n, fr prec Utmost extent, highest degree, chiefly in Phrs to the full, completely, in full, fully, at full length, in the whole extent full (III), adv, fr full (I) 1 (as intens, archaic, or poet) Entirely, completely, very full well, very well, fully; 'Full many a flower is born to blush unseen' (Gray's 'Elegy'), full soon 2 (joined by hyphen to adj. or PP) Fully, to the fullest extent, completely full-blown, full grown full (IV), vb trans & intrans, fr full (I) 1 trans To make a garment, or part of it, full to full a sleeve &c 2 intrans To have fullness the folds don't full enough (rare) full (V), vb trans OE fulhan, 'to whiten cloth', borrowed fr Lat fulco, 'cloth-filler' See fuller (I) To cleanse, formerly to whiten cloth, now chiefly to shrink and thicken cloth after weaving full-blooded, adj [1 fool bluded; 2. ful bládd] 1 a Having copious supply of blood, (fig) b (of persons, modes of expression &c) lusty, vigorous, virile, passionate 2 Of unmixed race, pure a full-blooded negro, Jew, Englishman &c full-blown, adj, a (of flowers) Completely expanded, b (of persons) stout, exuberant, expansive full-bodied, adj Stout, inclined to corpulence full-bottomed, adj [1 fool bótmúnd, 2. ful bótmúnd] 1 Full bottomed wig, having large, broad bottom, like those still worn by K O's in full dress 2 (of ships) Having great capacity below the water line fuller (I), n [1 fooler, 2. ful] OE fullere, fr Lat fullo, 'one who fills, one who cleanses & whitens cloth', cogn w Gk phallos, 'shining', phallos, 'white', Lath balas, 'white', O Slav belъ, 'white', Sort bdalam, 'brightness', OE bél, 'fire, blaze, funeral pile' See this base further under bald & balefire One whose trade is to full, cleanse, and dress freshly woven cloth fuller (II), n & vb trans Etymol unknown 1 n Tool used for grooving iron 2 vb To groove with a fuller fuller's earth, n, fr fuller (I) Variety of soft yellowish clay, used by fullers to remove grease from newly woven cloth, also used in manufacture of some soaps full-eyed, adj Having large, well opened, rather prominent eyes full-face, n & adv [1 fool fás, 2. ful fás] & adv [1 fool fás, 2. fúfás] 1 n Bold-faced type 2 adv Having face turned full towards speaker or spectator full-faced, adj Having broad or plump cheeks full-fledged, adj [1 fool fléjd, 2. ful fléjd] Having all the feathers grown; (fig) fully established, developed a full-fledged barrister, one who has been called to the bar, having completed his training full-grown, adj Having reached limit of growth and development, fully grown full hand, n (poker) A hand containing three of a kind, as three kings, fives &c, and a pair, also called 'full house' fulling, n [1 fooling; 2. fulh] full (V) & -ing Process of soaking, cleansing, twisting, shrinking newly made cloth, carried out by a fuller fulling-mill, n Works in which process of fulling is carried out full-length, adj, n, & adv 1 adj (of portrait) Showing, depicting, person's whole figure 2 n A portrait depicting the whole figure 3 adv In one whole length, at full length full-mouthed, adj 1 Having complete number of teeth 2 Uttered with full force of voice, loud fullness, n [1 foolnes, 2. fulnes] full (I) & -ness Condition, quality of being full (in various senses) 1 (non-material) a Abundance, sufficiency, copiousness fullness of detail, b completeness to write with great fullness of all that one sees, c completion, fulfilment the fullness of joy, in the fullness of time. 2 (in material senses) a Amplitude, roominess a fullness of the skirts, sleeves &c, b stoutness, plumpness, corpulence a great fullness of bust, face, c swelling, puffiness a fullness under the eyes, d satiety, repletion to have a sense of fullness after meals full-orbed, adj [1 fool órbd, 2. ful órbd] (of the moon) Having the whole disk illuminated full-rigged, adj Having full, maximum, number of masts and sails fully, adv [1 fooh, 2. ful] full (I) & -ly To this full, completely, entirely fulmar, n [1 foolmar, 2. fulmá] Scand ON full, 'foul', & már, 'sea mew' See fool & mew (I) Arctosea bird of the petrel family resembling a gull fulminant, adj [1 fulminant, 2. fulminant] Lat fulminant-(em), Pres Part of fulminare, 'to lighten, to hurl lightnings', fr fulmen, 'lightning', fr fulg men*, wh base see under fulgent & flagrant (med) Developing with lightning rapidity and suddenness a fulminant disease fulminate (I), vb intrans & trans [1 fulmínat, 2. fulmínat] fr Lat fulminat-(um), PP type of fulminare, 'to lighten' See prec A. intrans 1 a To flash, b to explode violently, detonate 2 To issue commands, utter denunciations, in a vigorous, masterful manner fulminate against, denounce forcibly and with an air of authority B trans 1 To cause to explode 2 To send forth, issue, with vehemence and authority to fulminate orders, decrees &c fulminate (II), n, fr prec (ohem) Highly sensitive explosive compound, fulminate of mercury, used for detonation of high explosives fulminating, adj [1 fulmínating, 2. fúlmínating] fr Pres Part of fulminate (I) 1 Thundering, exploding with great violence fulminating powder, fulminate of mercury 2 (fig) Expressing denunciations or threats with great violence 3 (med) Developing suddenly and with great rapidity; fulminant fulmination, n [1 fulmínashun, 2. fulmínashun] Lat fulmínation-(em) fulminate (I) & -ion. 1 Act of fulminating 2 Some thing fulminated, violent denunciation fulminator, n [1 fulmínator, 2. fulmínator] Lat fulminator (I) & -or One who fulminates, title applied to Jupiter fulminatory, adj [1 fulmínator; 2. fúlmínator] fulminate (I) & -ory n Of the nature of a fulmination, b given to fulminating fulmine, vb intrans & trans [1 fulmín, 2. fulmín] Fr fulminer, fr Lat fulminare. See fulminant. (rare) To fulminate fulminic, adj [1 fulmínik, 2. fúlmínik] Coined in 1800, fr Lat fulmen, 'lightning', see fulminate, & -ic Explosive fulminic acid, acid which combined with mercury forms highly explosive salts fulminous, adj [1 fulmínus, 2. fúlmínus] Lat fulmen, 'lightning' See fulminate & -ous Connected with, resembling, lightning fulsome, adj [1 foolsum, 2. fulsum] full (I) & -some 1 (obs senses) Copious, excessive, fat, overgrown, nauseating, disgusting 2 Excessive and insincere, servile from base motive, chiefly fulsome flattery, praise, admiration &c fulsomeness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being fulsome fulvous, adj [1 fulvescent, 2 fulvèscent] Lat fulvescent-(em), Pres Part of fulvescere, 'to become yellow', fr fulvus, 'tawny', &c See next word Tending to become fulvous fulvous, adj [1 fálvus, 2 fálves] Lat fulvus, 'reddish yellow, tawny', fr same base as flávus, 'gold coloured'. See flavescens Dull, reddish-yellow, tawny fumade, n [1 fúmdé, 2 fúmdéid] Span fumado, fr Lat fumōtum, 'smoked'. See fume (I & II) Smoked and salted fish, esp pilchard fumarole, n [1 fúmaról, 2 fúmaróul] Fr fumerolle, Ital fumarola, fr Lat fumariol-(um), dimin of fumariol, 'smoke chamber'. See fume & -ary Place in one of a volcano whence fumes and vapour escape fumatorium, n [1 fúmatórium, 2 fúmatórium] New formation fr Lat fumāt-(um), PP type of fumōre, 'to smoke' (see fume), & -rium (see -ory) Place where things are smoked, fumigated &c fumatory, adj & n [1 fúmatóri, 2 fúmatári] See prec 1 adj Connected with smoke or smoking 2 n Fumatorium fumble (I), vb intrans & trans [1 fuml, 2 fámbl] Cp Swed fumla, 'to grope', cogn w ON fálma & OE fólm, 'hand', further connotations under feel & palma (of hand) 1 intrans To grope with the hands clumsily, or uncertainly, to make a clumsy, hesitating, unskilful attempt to do some thing with the hands to fumble with a lock, to fumble about, grope about, bungle 2 trans To handle hesitatingly, clumsily, unskilfully, to bungle, make failure of some attempted action to fumble a ball (in games), a stroke &c fumble (II), n, fr prec Unskilful, hesitating, action or use of the hands, bungle fumbler, n [1 fumlér, 2 fámblér] fumble (I) & -er One who fumbles, one who is awkward, clumsy, unskilful with his hands fumbling, adj & n [1 fumlíng, 2 fámblíng] fr Pres Part of fumble (I), also vbl n a adj Awkward, groping, uncertain, b n, action of a fumbler fume (I), n [1 fúm, 2 fúm] Fr, fr Lat fumus, 'smoke, steam, vapour', cogn w Gk thúmos, 'soul, life, breath', Scrt dhūmāti, 'shakes, whirls', O Slav dyimā, 'smoke, vapour', OE dūst, 'dust' &c See further under theo-, dew, dust, & beast 1 Smoke, pungent vapour, especially of an irritating, offensive kind, strong odour cp 'fishy fume' (Milton, 'P L'), hot blast fumes of burning coal, of vine &c, fumes of heat 2 Excited, agitated, state of mind to be in a fume of anxiety fume (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec A intrans 1 a (obs or poet) To smoke, to steam, fr to emit, give off, fumes or strong pungent vapour, c fume away, to pass off in fume or vapour 2 (of mental action) To fret, chafe, fidget, worry, to be in an irritated, fussy state of mind, to be ruffled to fuss and fume B trans 1 (rare) To fill with fumes 2 Specif, to darken the surface of wood for cabinet-making by exposure to fumes or smoke fumed oak fumigate, vb trans [1 fúmgāt, 2 fúmgā] gerit fr Lat fūmgāre-(um) PP type of fūmgāre. See fume (I) To saturate with fumes or smoke, esp for purposes of disinfection fumigation, n [1 fúmgāshun, 2 fúmgāgí-] prec & -ion Act or process of fumigating fumigator, n [1 fúmgātor, 2 fúmgātor] fumigate & -or a One who fumigates, b apparatus for fumigating fumigatory, adj [1 fúmgātorí, 2 fúmgātorí] fumigate & -ory Having the property of fumigating and disinfecting fuming box, n [1 fúmg bók, 2 fúmg bók] (photog) Chamber where sensitized paper is subjected to the action of ammonia to hasten printing fumitory, n [1 fúmtóri, 2 fúmtóri] ME, fr O Fr fumiterre, 'smoke of the earth', fr Lat fumus, 'smoke' (see fume (I)), & terra, 'earth' (see terra) Herb of many varieties with flowers of various colours, formerly used as an antiscorbutic fumous, adj [1 fúmus, 2 fúmas] Lat fūmōsus, 'smoky, full of smoke'. See fume (I) & -ous Full of smoke, smoky fumy, adj [1 fúmi, 2 fúmi] fume (I) & -y Full of fumes, giving off fumes, vaporous fun (I), n [1 fun, 2 fan] Cp ME sonnen, 'to be foolish'. See fond Never preceded by indef art 1 Merriment, mirth, gaiety, hilarity, frolic to be fond of fun, full of fun, full of his fun 2 Source, cause, of merriment and amusement, an amusing person, thing, circumstance, occupation Mr Jones is great fun, camping out is rather fun, I don't see the fun of practical joking fun (II), vb intrans, fr prec (rare) To canoe fun, jost, to play the fool, to hoodwink, bamboozle chiefly in Pres Part he is always funning funambulist, n [1 fúnámbulíst, 2 fúnám hylíst] fr Lat fūnus, 'rope' (see funicular), & ambulāre, 'to walk', see amble, & -ist Tight-rope walker function (I), n [1 fúngkshun, 2 fápljən] Lat functio-(em), 'performance, execution', formed fr funct, PP stem of fungi, 'to discharge, perform, do', & -ion, the etymol of the base is not clear 1 (general sense) Natural, normal action which a person or thing is appointed or designed to perform, special activity, operation, utility, purpose &c the function of education is to develop the mind 2 (physiol, biol) Characteristic action or activity of an organ in the economy of an organism the functions of the nerves, leaves &c 3 Allotted task, special duty, activity which it is incumbent upon a person to carry out, that series of actions imposed by moral or legal obligations the functions of an officer of state, of a schoolmaster, the functions of one's office &c 4 Something which is performed, a ceremony, celebration &c the installation and enthronement of a bishop is an imposing function, b (colloq) a social gathering on an elaborate scale to go to a function of the palace &c 5 (math) A quantity is said to be the function of another, when for any particular value of one there is a corresponding value or set of values of the other function (II), vb intrans, fr prec To work, act, in performance of functions, to fulfil allotted task, duty, purpose functional, adj [1 fúngkshunál, 2 fápljənal] function (I) & -al a Concerned with, pertaining to, based on, functions, b designed for, performing, a regular function, functional organ, contrasted with rudimentary, functional disease, one affecting, or arising from, the function of an organ functionally, adv prec & -ly In connexion with the functions, as regards the functions functionary, n & adj [1 fúngkshunári, 2 fápljənarí] function (I) & -ary 1 n Person entrusted with certain functions, an official 2 adj Functional functionate, vb intrans [1 fúngkshunnāt, 2 fápljəneit] function (I) & -ate To fulfil, perform, a function fund (I), n [1 fund, 2 fand] Lat fundus, 'bottom, basis, foundation', fr Aryan base bhūdān*, cp Gk puthēnē, 'bottom, base, root of a tree', OE botm See bottom 1 Permanent supply, accumulated store, stock (now only of non material things) a fund of good nature, humour, wit, fund of anecdotes &c 2 Accumulation, sum of money, set apart for some particular purpose, the principal and interest of which are available for that alone a fund for missionary purposes, a scholarship fund &c, sinking fund, q v 3 (pl) Funds, pecuniary resources, specif, those of a state, government securities to have money in the funds fund (II), vb trans, fr prec To constitute, convert into, a fund, to provide a fund for payment of interest fundament, n [1 fundament, 2 fándement] Lat fundamentum, 'foundation, groundwork'. See fund (I) That part of the person upon which one sits, the buttocks fundamental, adj & n [1 fundamental, 2 fándementál] prec & -al 1 adj (chiefly in non material sense) a Basic, serving as a foundation, connected with the foundations, going to the root of things, hence, b essential, of primary importance, serving as necessary starting point 2 n a Essential, basal principle, rule the fundamentals of religion &c, b (mus) lowest note of a chord fundamentalism, n [1 fundamentalizm, 2 fándementálizm] prec & -ism a Strict adherence to what are regarded as fundamental principles, esp in religion, specif b a firm belief in the Biblical account of the Creation and total rejection of evolution, and of the Darwinian theory of the origin of species fundamentalist, n [1 fundamentálist, 2 fándementálist] See prec & -ist Adherent of fundamentalism fundamentally, adv [1 fundamentálí, 2 fándementálí] prec & -ly At, to, from, the bottom, from the foundations, essentially, completely fundamentally wrong funded, adj [1 funded, 2 fándid] fr PP of fund (II) 1 a Converted into a debt secured by state credit, repayable after fixed period, and bearing interest at regular intervals, b (rare) accumulated, stored in a fund 2 Invested in the funds, or state securities funding, vbl n [1 funding, 2 fándíng] fund (I) & -ing Act or process of creating a funded debt funereal, adj [1 fúnebríal, 2 fúnebríal] Lat funēbris, 'pertaining to a funeral', & -al See funeral. Connected with a funeral, or funeral ceremonies &c funeral, n & adj [1 fúnerál, 2 fúnerál] Fr funérailles, Lat funerālio, 'funeral rites', neut pl of funerālis, fr funer, stem of fūnus, 'burial, funeral', & -al Fūnus is perh fr gheu-*, cogn w Goth gounōn, 'to lament', & gounōps, 'mourning, sorrow', ON gaula, 'to howl', others connect it fr dhowenos*, cp Goth diwans, 'mortal'. See death, die (II) 1 n a A burial, interment of the dead, including all the rites and ceremonies connected with this, obsequies, b procession accompanying the corpse 2 adj Connected with, pertaining to, a funeral or funerals funeral ceremonies, procession &c, funeral urn, one for holding the ashes of the dead after cremation, funeral pile, pyre, heap of wood &c, upon which a corpse was burnt funerary, adj [1 fúnerári, 2 fúnerári] Lat funerārius, fr funer, as in prec, & -ary Of, pertaining to, a funeral funereal, adj [1 fúnebríal, 2 fúnebríal] Lat funere (us) See prec & -al Adapted to, suitable for, a funeral, expressing gloom, dark, hence, mournful, dismal, lugubrious funereal garments, expression of face, voice &c funerally, adv prec & -ly In a funereal manner, dimly, lugubriously fungible, adj [1 funjibl, 2 fándzibl] Med Lat (res) fungibiles, fr fungi, 'to perform, discharge'. See function (I) & -ible (law, of goods) Capable of being used in place of another, mutually interchangeable, capable of being replaced by another specimen in discharge of a contract fungicide, n [1 fánjísíd, 2 fándzísíd] See fungus & -icide Substance that kills fungi.

fungiform, adj [1 fúnj'orm, 2 fándisfsm] fungus & -form Having the shape of a fungus fungin, n [1 funjm, 2 fándžin] fungus & -in Substance composing the solid parts of a fungus fungoid, adj [1 funggoid, 2 fángoid] fungus & -oid Like, characteristic of, a fungus fungosity, n [1 funggosit, 2 fánggosit] Lat fungo- as in next word, & -ity Fungoid exorescence, growth fungous, adj [1 funggus, 2 fángas] Lat fungus (us), 'spongy' Next word & -ous Spongy, having the structure of a fungus fungus, n, pl fungi [1 fúngus, 2 fángas] Lat, 'mushroom', fr Gk sphoggos, 'spongy' See sponge One of a large group of vegetable growths ranging from the largest toadstools to microscopic organisms, and including mushrooms, puffballs, rusts, mildews &c fungusy, adj [1 fungguai, 2 fánggoui] Preo & -y Affected by fungous growth funicular, adj & n [1 fúnikular, 2 fúnikulo] fr Lat funiculus, 'a slender cord', dimin of fūnis, 'rope, line, cord', & -ar, fr Aryan gʰom-*, fr wh w another grade & different formative element also Lat fīlum, 'thread', for gʰin-slo-* See this base under file (III), filament 1 adj Connected with, worked by, a rope, cord &c, esp funicular railway, one in which a vehicle, running on a line, is drawn up a mountain by means of a metal cord passing over small easily running wheels, the other end of which is fastened to another car, specially weighted, at the top of the mountain, which runs down and pulls the lower car up 2 n A funicular railway funk (I), n [1 fungk, 2 fangk] A slang word, first in 1743, origin unknown (slang) 1 Fear, cowardice, physical or moral, unworthy, unnecessary terror to be in a funk Phrs a blue funk, state of great fear, in a funk of, afraid of 2 Person who feels funk, a coward funk (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo 1 trans a To fear, feel fear of, be afraid of, frightened by or at to funk pain, the rain, a scolding, a whipping, b to shrink, flinch from, try to avoid to funk a difficult strole, a difficulty, hard words 2 intrans To experience fear, play the coward he always funks when the pinch comes funkiness, n [1 fungkines, 2 fánkines] Next word & -ness State of being funky funky, adj [1 fungki, 2 fánk] funk (I) & -y Feeling funk, frightened, given to funk, cowardly funnel, n [1 funl, 2 fánal] M E fonel, fr Fr, fr Lat (infundibulum, 'instrument for pouring into', fr fundera, 'to pour' See found (II) 1, instrument with a wide mouth leading into a tapering tube, used for pouring or transferring liquid from one vessel to another when the one into which the transference takes place has a narrow inlet 2 Cylindrical metal chimney or smoke stack of a locomotive or steamship funnelled, adj [1 funel, 2 fánal] Preo & -ed Provided with, shaped like, a funnel funnily, adv [1 funih, 2 fánih] funny & -ly In a funny manner Phr funnily enough, strange to tell funniment, n [1 funiment, 2 fápiment] funny & -ment Jest, comicality, piece of waggonishness funniness, n [1 funines, 2 fánines] funny & -ness Quality of being funny funny (I), adj [1 funi, 2 fáni] fun & -y 1 Giving rise to fun, causing amusement, amusing, comical, laughable jokes are not always as funny as they are meant to be 2 Strange, queer, unexpected, exceptional, out of the ordinary, difficult to explain a good man spoiled by a funny temper, a funny way to behave. Phrs a funny thing, a remarkable, puzzling circumstance; a funny business, affair, conduct, which appears to be touched with dishonesty, or to show a lack of straightforwardness, there's something funny about it, something underhand, not straightforward, to feel funny, to go all funny, to feel queer, ill, to become unwell, to present a strange appearance funny (II), n Small clinker-huntrowing-boat funny-bone, n Sensitive, pointed bone at elbow joint fur (I), n [1 fër, 2 fä] M E forre, furre, 'fur', orig 'case, covering, lining', fr O Fr forre, fuerre, 'scabbard', op Span forro, 'lining', Ital fodero, 'lining, sheath, scabbard', fr a Gmc source, op Goth fōdr, 'sheath for a sword, scabbard', & O N fōdr, 'lining', fr Aryan base pā-*, 'to guard, protect', op Sert pātra-, 'receptacle', pāmi, 'I protect', Gk pōma, 'cover', & poimén, 'shepherd' 1 A Short, soft hair forming the coats of certain species of animals, b animals with coats of this kind collectively, Phr fur and feather, rabbits, hares &c and hinds, to make the fur fly, (fig) to cause trouble, disturbance, quarrelling, to stir up dissension 2 A Coat of an animal when stripped off, cured and prepared, and fashioned into coats, linings &c, b (pl) such skins collectively, peltre a fine collection of furs 3 Coating, deposit, of various kinds, a that on the human tongue in illness, b lumpy deposit left from water when boiled fur on inside of a boiler, saucepan &c 4 (hor) One of certain tinctures, represented on the esontohoon by spots of varying size, shape, arrangement fur (II), vb trans & intrans. Prob fr preo, q v, but op O Fr fouirer, 'to line' &c A trans 1 To trim, line, cover, with fur (only in P P as adj) a furred gown &c 2 To coat, cover, with a deposit, a hard water furs kettles and boilers &c, b the tongue becomes furred in influenza 3 To level a floor &c, with furring, q v fur up, down B intrans To become furred, a of boilers &c, b of the tongue furbelow, n [1 fërbelō, 2 fäbilō] By popular etymol for falbala Flounce on a woman's garment Phr flounces and furbelows, collection of pleats, flounces, trimmings furbelowed, adj Preo, & -ed Covered with furbelows furbish, vb trans [1 fërbish, 2 fäbif] M E forbischen, fr O Fr fourbuis, Preo Part type of fourbir, 'to clean, polish', fr M H G furben, 'polish, rub bright', cognates are doubtful To scour, clean, polish, burnish to furbish armour, a sword &c, furbish up a to revive, clean, polish up, smarten up, esp after disuse or neglect to furbish up a room, old furniture, clothes &c, b (fig, of non-material things) to touch up, adapt for use to furbish up an old sermon furcate, adj & vb intrans [1 fërkät, 2 fäloht] Lat furca, 'fork' See fork & -ate 1 adj Forked, dividing into two branches 2 vb To divide, branch into a fork furcation, n [1 fërkäshun, 2 fälëfjan] Preo & -ion Process, act, of furcating furfuraceous, adj [1 fërfüräsbue, 2 fäfjürëfjæ] fr Lat furfuraceus, fr furfur, 'bran, scurf', fr far far* See farina & op barley a Covered with dandruff or scurf, scurfy, b (bot) covered with bran-like scales furfural, n [1 fërfürol, 2 fäfjürol] Lat furfur, 'bran', see preo, & -ol (obem) Colourless volatile oil, produced in distillation of bran, wood, and other carbohydrates furbund, adj [1 fërbund, 2 fjörband] Lat furbundus, 'raging, furious', fr fura See fury (rare) Mad with rage, furious furious, adj [1 fërus, 2 fjöras] Lat furiösus, 'full of rage and madness' See fury & -ous 1 a (of the mind and feelings) Greatly excited, frenzied, incensed, roused to the point of fury, b (of the passions and their effects) raging, violent, uncontrollable furious love, hate, resentment &c, evincing such feelings a furious quarrel, struggle &c, furious glances 2 (of persons) a Inspired with fury, mad with rage, violently angry, enraged he was empty furious, b savage, fierce, vehement 3 (of the elements) In a state of violent agitation, raging, boisterous a furious storm, sea &c furiously, adv Preo & -ly In a furious manner, with great violence, boisterously furiousness, n See preo & -ness Condition of being furious, fury furl, vb trans & n [1 fërl, 2 fäl] Perh fr O Fr fardeler, 'to make into a bundle' Cp fardel 1 vb a trans To fold, roll up, and make secure to furl sails, a flag, (poet) to close, fold (of a bird) furl its wings, b in trans, to become rolled up 2 n a Act of furling, b something furled, coiled furlong, n [1 fërlong, 2 fälj] O E furlang, M E furlong, lang, lung, 'length of a furrow' See furrow & long Measure of distance, the eighth part of a mile, 220 yards furlough, n & vb trans [1 fërlō, 2 fälō] Du verloep, 'permission', op Mod Germ verloub, the pref is cogn w for-, & the second element w leave, 'permission' 1 n Leave of absence from duty granted to a soldier, sailor, or government official 2 vb (rare) To grant leave of absence to furnace, n See frumentary &c furnace, n & vb trans [1 fërnis, 2 fänis] M E formais, formais, fr O Fr formais, fr Lat formāem, acc of formaz, 'an oven', fr formus, 'oven', fr Aryan ghru-*, op also O Slav grunilo, 'stove, oven', & Sert ghrñōti, 'glows, shines' The base is a variant of that fr wh comes Lat formus, 'warm', fr gʰrm-*, whence also Gk thermos, 'warm' See therm, & further under warm 1 n An enclosed chamber of brick &c or vessel of iron in which great heat is generated for purposes of warming houses, water &c, or for smelting metal and other purposes 2 vb (rare) except in P P To supply with a furnace, or furnaces furnish, vb trans & intrans [1 fërnish, 2 fänis] O Fr formir, formir, formir for fourmir*, op A-Fr formir, borrowed fr O H G frumjan, 'to perform, provide' &c, fr another form of same base comes O E fremman, 'to further, advance' &c, fr framman*, fr fram, 'from' See this base further under frame, from See -ish (II) A trans 1 To provide, supply, fit out, equip, a of material action to furnish a garden with flowers, a library with books, b of intellectual action to furnish a person with information, I can explain, but I can't furnish you with intelligence to understand 2 Specif, to stock, fit out, equip (house, room, office &c) for use with furniture (in various senses) and all necessary appointments Phr furnished house, one that is let or hired with furniture in it B intrans To engage in the occupation of furnishing, of supplying furniture for a house I shan't be in any hurry to furnish

furnisher, n [1 fërnisher, 2 fänis] Preo & -er One who furnishes, specif, a tradesman who sells furniture for houses furnishing, n [1 fërnishing, 2 fänis] Preo & -ing 1 The act of equipping a house with furniture. furnishing is an expensive business 2 (pl) a Ornaments, adornments, b apparatus, furniture &c for a house furniture, n [1 fërnichur, 2 fänis] Stem of furnish & -ure 1 That with which anything is furnished, equipped, fitted out, in material and non-material senses - the furniture of a bookshelf, of one's mind 2 (specif collectively) Movable articles of household requirement in a house, esp the larger pieces, chairs, tables, sofas, mirrors, bookcases, sideboards &c a piece of furniture; full of fine old furniture. 3 (archaic) All the articles necessary for the equipment of a man and horse; armour and harness. 4 Articles necessary for full equipment of a ship, machine &c.

furor, n [1 fūrōrē, 2 fūrōrē] Ital, fr Lat furor, 'rage, madness' See furv Wide spread, enthusiasm, excited, admiration, craze, 'rage' the play created a regular furor furred, adj [1 fērd, 2 fīd] fur (I) & -ed, or P P of fur (II) a Trimmed, covered, with fur, b overlaid with unhealthy covering (of sick man's tongue), c coated with lining deposit (of kidneys &c) furrier, n [1 fūrēr, 2 fārēr] fur (I) & -ier Tradesman who sells furs, and supplies coats &c made of fur furriery, n [1 fūrērī, 2 fārērī] Prec & -ry 1 The business of a furrier, the fur trade 2 Furs collectively furring, vhl n [1 fūrīg, 2 fārīg] fur (I) & -ing 1 Collection of fur for lining or trimming 2 A process of depositing lime from water on the inside of boilers &c, b the deposit itself 3 Process of levelling the surface of a wall, beam &c, in building, by covering with thin casing of wood or other material, preparatory to plastering &c furring tile, n One, usually of fire proof material, affixed to walls by means of spikes furrow (I), n [1 fūrō, 2 fārō] OE furh, ME forow &c, OHG furih, cogn w Lat porca, 'ridge between furrows', the further etymol is very uncertain 1 a Groove, channel, made in land, esp by a plough, b (poot) (i) plough land, (u) act of ploughing 'their furrows of the stubborn glebe hath broke' (Gray's 'Elegy') also c any prolonged groove in land, e g a cart rut &c 2 A deep wrinkle on the face or forehead furrow (II), v trans fr prece To make furrows, a to plough, b (poot) to cross the sea in a ship to furrow the ocean with keels &c, c to cause wrinkles on the face &c a brow furrowed with sorrow furrowing, n [1 fūrōg, 2 fārōg] Prec & -ing Corrosion of metal by action of acids &c furzy, adj [1 fēr, 2 fār] fur (I) & -y Covered with fur, having appearance and texture of fur further (I), compar adv having no positive [1 fērdher, 2 fīds] OE furdor, formed fr forð, 'forwards' (see forth), but used as compar of fore, 'before, above', cp Gr. prōteros, 'before, former' For the old compar ending -ter, Gmc -per- &c, see -ther & other 1 Used as compar of far, see also farther On the whole, although further and farther are often used indifferently, the latter tends to be chiefly used in literal sense, the former in derived, secondary senses, to a greater distance, degree of remoteness to go further (or farther) away, not further (or farther) than a mile from here, as far as this but no further (or farther) Phr I'll see him further first, expressing strong withholding of consent or agreement 2 Besides, in addition, also, moreover we have seen further that, let me further tell you Phrs to inquire further, make additional inquiries, to be further continued, for an additional period, to an additional occasion further (II), adj OE furihra See prece 1 More remote, more distant the further end of the village, the further side of the road, river &c 2 Additional, going beyond that already existing, seen, known, or referred to &c to obtain further information, let us have no further talk and delay, there is this further advantage further (III), v trans OE fyrðrian, 'to advance, promote', fr fyrþr jan See further (I) 'to bring to a further, superior, stage of progress to forward, promote to further one's plans, hopes &c furtherance, n [1 fūrdhorens; 2 fādhorens] Prec & -ance Act or process of furthering, advancing, promotion the furtherance of one's schemes furthermore, adv [1 fūrdhermōr, 2 fādhmōr] further (I) & -more Moreover, in addition to something already referred to furthermost, adj [1 fērdhermōst, 2 fīdhmōst] further (I) & -most Farthest-most furthest, adj & adv [1 fērdhest, 2 fīdhst] Superl formed on anal of further, furth & -est Used as superl of far, most remote, farthest furtive, adj [1 fērtiv, 2 fīrtiv] Lat furtivus, 'stolen, secret, concealed', fr furt, as in furtum, 'theft', fr fūr, 'a thief', fr fūr*, cp the cogn Gk phor, 'thief', fr Aryan base bher* &c, 'to carry, bear (away)', Lat fer (see fertile, -ferous) See further under bear (I) a (of actions) Done secretly and surreptitiously, clandestine, stealthy, covert, hole and corner a furtive blow, gesture, movement, glance, smile, measure &c, b (of persons) given to behaving in a furtive manner, secretive, behaving as though anxious to escape observation furtive in one's movements, actions &c furtively, adv Prec & -ly In a furtive manner, covertly, stealthily furtiveness, n See prece & -ness Quality of being furtive furuncle, n [1 fūrūngkl, 2 fūrūngkl] Lat furunculus, 'petty thief', dimin. of fūr, 'thief' See furtive (med) Small suppurating inflammatory tumour, a boil furuncular, adj [1 fūrūngkular, 2 fūrūngkular] Prec & -ar Of the nature of, resembling, a furuncle furunculous, adj [1 fūrūngkulus, 2 fūrūngkulus] furuncle & -ous Afflicted with boils, b apt to cause boils fury, n [1 fūr, 2 fūr] ME, fr O Fr furie, fr Lat furia, 'rage' &c, fr furere, 'to rage, rave, be distracted, mad' Prob fr Aryan base bher-, of wb a fuller form is bheru-, 'to be in violent movement, to be agitated', cp Lat fervere, 'to boil' (see fervent), more closely connected w furia, furere, are Gk phēreia, 'to mix, mingle, confound, confuse', Gmc phurms, 'confusion' The root meaning of fury wd seem to be 'confusion, perplexity, agitation of mind' 1 Violent excitement, agitation of mind, rage, a extreme anger, tempestuous wrath, b violence, vehemence, of the passions the fury of desire &c, c (of actions) violence inspired by such passions and feelings the fury of battle, of an attack &c 2 a Violence, boisterousness, raging, of the elements the fury of the storm, waves &c, b intensity the full fury of the sun's blaze 3 (class mythol, cap) a An avenging spirit, b one of the Fates the blind Fury with the abhorred shears, Milton, 'Lyc' 4 A violent, unrestrainable person, esp a violent, ungovernable woman, a virago furze, n [1 fērz, 2 fāz] OE fyr, possibly cogn w Lat porrum for pors om*, 'leek', though this is denied by Walde, & certainly the connexion between the two plants is not obvious Thick growing, wild, evergreen shrub, with spikes instead of leaves, bearing yellow flowers, also called gorse and whin furzy, adj [1 fēr, 2 fār] Prec & -y Covered with, abounding in, furze

fuscous, adj [1 fuskus, 2 faskas] Lat fuscus, 'dark, swarthy', & -ous Fuscus is fr Aryan dhus ko*, cp also Lat fuscus, 'dark, dusky, gloomy', fr dhus wos*, a close cogn is OE doz, doct, 'dark coloured', fr Germ duska* See dusk Dark in colour, brown or greyish black fuse (I), v trans & intrans [1 fūz, 2 fūz] fr Lat fūsum, P P of Lat fundere, 'to pour, to melt' (see found (II)), fūs um is fr gheud lom*, this base appears in Gmc as geut*, gut*, cp Goth gutān, OE gēotan, 'to pour' (see second syll of ingot, & gut (I)) A trans 1 To melt (metal) by heat, liquefy, dissolve 2 To cause to mingle together, to blend B intrans 1 To become liquid, to melt 2 To intermingle, become blended. (For use of term in electricity see next word) fuse (II), n. Ital fuso, fr Lat fūsus, 'spindle' Etymol doubtful Walde tentatively suggests connexion w prece, assuming that possibly the name was first given to stones used as spindles wb had been shaped by the action of water. This is perh fer-fetobed Name given to various mechanical devices 1 A tube filled with combustible or explosive material, used to start explosion in blasting operations, explosive shells &c 2 (elect) Bar of metal inserted as a precaution in electric circuit, which melts, 'fuses', and interrupts the circuit when current exceeds a given strength In this sense the meaning is probably associated with fuse (I) fusee, n [1 fūrē, 2 fūzē] Fr fusée, 'spindleful', fr Mod Lat fūsala, fr Lat fūs (us), see fuse (II) 1 Conical wheel with a spiral groove in old fashioned clock, from which a cord is unwound by the turning of a herel containing the spring 2 Bony growth on horse's leg 3 Kind of match used formerly for lighting a pipe in a wind, having a large head, which on being struck flames and glows for some time, and is attached to the shank by thin threads, also called a braided light fuselage, n [1 fūzēlj, 2 fūzēljdz], or as Fr Fr, fr fusil, O Fr fusel, 'spindle', see fusil (I), & -age The body of an aeroplane, containing the pilot's seat &c, of long narrow, spindle shaped form fusel oil, n [1 fūzēl ōil, 2 fūzēl ōil] Germ, 'bed spirit', fr fuseln See foecle Only liquid of unpleasant taste, associated with whisky or other spirit insufficiently distilled or matured fusibility, n [1 fūzēbilitā, 2 fūzēbilitē] Next word & -ity Capacity for being fused, degree to which this exists fusible, adj [1 fūzēbl, 2 fūzēbl] fuse (I) & -ible Capable of being fused fusiform, adj [1 fūzēform, 2 fūzēfōrm], fuse (II) & -form Shaped like a spindle, broadest in the middle and tapering towards either end fusil (I), n [1 fūzēl, 2 fūzēl] O Fr fusel, fr Lat fūsellum, 'little spindle', dimin o' fūsus, 'spindle' See fuse (II) (her) Figure resembling the lozenge, but longer and narrower, and sharper at upper and lower ends fusil (II), n. Fr, fr Ital focile, fr Lat foculus, 'hearth', w dimin snff See focus Old fashioned light musket, now obsolete fusile, adj [1 fūzēl, 2 fūzēl] Lat fūsilis See fuse (I) & -ile Molten, fluid fusilier, n [1 fūzēlēr, 2 fūzēlēr] fusil (II) & -ier 1 (obs) Soldier armed with a fusil 2 Soldier belonging to one of those British regiments who were formerly armed with fusils Royal Fusiliers &c fusillade, n & v trans [1 fūzēlād, 2 fūzēlād] Fr See fusil (II) & -ade 1 n Rapid and continuous fire from a number of firearms 2 v To shoot down with such a discharge fusilly, adj [1 fūzēl, 2 fūzēl] fusil (I) & -y (her, of shield) Covered with fusils fusing, n [1 fūzēg, 2 fūzēg] fuse (I) & -ing Process of melting, fusion fusion, n [1 fūzhun, 2 fūzhun] Lat fūsiōn (em), 'a pouring out', fr fūs, P P type of fundere, 'to pour, melt' (see fuse (I)) See also foison, & second element in confusion, profusion &c 1 a Action or process of melting, liquefying metals by subjecting them to intense heat, b condition of being melted 2 (immaterial and non material sense) a Act or process of blending, mixing things, as though melting them together, b result of such act or process, things blended, mingled, mixed, together, a blend, intimate mixture, coalition fusion of race, speech, creeds &c, fusion of political parties fusionism, n [1 fūzhunizm, 2 fūzhunizm] Prec & -izm Theory in favour of fusion, of races, creeds, parties &c fusionist, n [1 fūzhunist, 2 fūzhunist] fusion & -ist. Advocate of fusionism fuss (I), n [1 fus, 2 fas] No history or cognates; prob imitative of hissing, or puffing sound 1 A nervous, highly excited, irascible state of mind, in which unnecessary anxiety is felt and expressed regarding unimportant things to get into a fuss, in a state of fuss 2 Nervous, rapid, excited activity, a bustle, commotion, tumultuous state of affairs there was a terrible fuss on the platform when the king arrived Phrs to make a fuss, cause trouble, make angry complaints, make a fuss of (a person), treat with marked consideration, be attentive to, make a fuss about, a complain angrily about, b be ostentatious, make a parade of fuss (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans To get nervously excited, to worry, chafe, fuss about, to bustle about in an excited, agitated way 2 trans To worry, bother, put into state of commotion and agitation, make nervous or anxious fussily, adv [1 fúsh, 2 fásli] fussy & -ly In a fussy manner fussiness, n [1 fuamee, 2 fásinis] See prec & -ness State of being fussy fussy, adj [1 fusi, 2 fási] fuss (I) & -y 1 a (of persons) Tending to fuss or to make a fuss, insisting strongly on trivial details, fidgety, full of fads and crotchets, b (of behaviour) nervous, jumpy, lacking restraint, calm, dignity 2 Exhibiting unnecessary and trivial detail, finicky, reverse of simple or restrained a fussy literary style, fussy ornamentation &c fust, n [1 fust, 2 fast] O Fr fust, 'staff, cask (made of staves)', Mod Fr fût, Lat fustis, 'cudgel, staff', fr Aryan bʰudatis*, cp ON beysla, 'to knock, strike', cp second element in confute, cogn w OE bēatan, 'to beat' (see beat (I)) 1 The shaft of a column 2 Stale, musty smell, originally the smell of a cask (see meanings of O Fr fust above) fustanella, n [1 fustanēla, 2 fāstanēla] Fr fustanella, dimin of Ital fustagno, fr Mod Gk phoustani, 'fustian' See next word Short skirt of stiffened lunon, somewhat resembling a highland kilt in shape, worn by men in Albania and some parts of modern Greece fustian, n & adj [1 fustian, 2 fāstian] ME fustane, fustyane, fr O Fr fustagne, cp Ital fustagno, fr Mod Gk phoustani, named after Fustāt, near Cairo, where the material was made 1 n a Coarse, twilled cloth with a nap resembling velvet, corduroy, b (fig) pretentious, high-sounding, but empty talk or style, bombast, claptrap 2 adj a Made of fustian, b (fig) pretentious, empty, bombastio fustic, n [1 fústik, 2 fástik] Arab fustug, fr Pers pistak See pistachio a The wood of a tree that grows in Mexico, yielding a yellow dye, b the dyo itself.

fustigate, vb trans [1 fústigāt, 2. fástigēt] Lat fustigāt(-um), PP type of fustigare, 'to cudgel', fr fustis, 'stick, cudgel' See fust To thrash with a stick fustigation, n [1 fústigābun, 2 fástigē[ən]] Prec & -ion A thrashing fustiness, n [1 fustanes, 2 fástinis] fusty & -ness Condition of being fusty, stale, mouldy, musty smell fusty, adj [1 fusti, 2 fásti] fust & -y 1 Smelling stale and mouldy, stuffy 2 (fig) Lacking freshness, stale, old-fashioned, out of touch with life and realities a fusty pedant, a fusty book, Phr musty fusty fustel(l), n [1 fúchel, 2 fát[əl]] Origin unknown A timber supporting the shafts or the axle bar of a vehicle futharc, futhorc, n [1 fúðhark, -ork, 2 fúðák, -ák] Runic alphabet, so called from the first six letters, ih is written þ futile, adj [1 fútil, 2 fút[əl]] Lat fútilis, 'easily poured, brittle, worthless', prob fr fud-, Aryan ghu d-, 'pour' (see fuse (I)), the series of changes in meaning being 'flowing, tending to flow, not easily contained, mobile, restless, volatile, unreliable, worthless' a (of persons) Frivolous, ineffective, mane, superficial, mept, b (of action) accomplishing nothing, ineffectual, vain, useless, fruitless a futile attempt futilely, adv Prec & -ly In a futile manner futleness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being futile, manly, meptitude, uselessness, fruitlessness, ineffectualness futility, n [1 fút[li], 2 fút[li]] Lat fútilis(-em), 'worthlessness' See futile & -ity 1 a Emptiness, frivolousness, ineffectiveness, of mind and character, b uselessness, fruitlessness, worthlessness 2 a A foolish, futile action, piece of folly, b futile person.

futtock, n [1 fútok, 2 fátak] Origin uncertain, several writers suggest derivation fr foot hook 1 A crooked lower timber of a ship below the deck, esp one passing across and over keel 2 (attrib) Futtock plates, iron plates in a ship's top, to which the dead-eyes are fastened, futtock-shrouds, small shrouds beneath a ship's top future (I), adj [1 fúebur, 2 fút[ə]] Fr futur, fr Lat futurum, 'about to be', used as fut part of esse, 'to be', cp Lat fu-, fr Aryan base bʰhú-, bʰeu- &c, 'to become, exist, generate' &c, whence also OE bēon &c (see be), Gk phuein, 'to produce, bring forth, make to grow' &c, phúma, 'growth', phúsis, 'nature' (see physio- & phyllo-), Scrt bharati, 'is, exists, happens', bhūmī, 'earth', O Slav byti, 'to be, become, grow' See also boor, bower, build 1 a Happening hereafter, going, about, to happen in a time later than, after, this present future events, b that will exist, that will appear, be born, come into existence, fyte See fit (II) at a time subsequent to, later than, the present future ages, future generations of men, the Future Life, that which will follow mortal, earthly, existence, the Hereafter 2 Of, connected with, expressing, time that is to come future tense future (II), n, fr prec 1 Time to come, the time which will follow this present no one can predict what will happen in the future, to prepare for the future 2 What will happen to a person, country &c in the time to come, career, life, fate, esp with an idea of favourable conditions, developments to provide for the future of one's family, to have a great future, to have no future 3 The Future, the Future Life, life beyond mortal existence 4 (commerce) Futures, goods, esp grain, cotton, wool &c, bought at prices ruling when bargain is made, and paid for and delivered, subsequently futureless, adj [1 fúchurles, 2 fút[ə]les] Prec & -less Without hope or expectation of a future futurist, n [1 fúchurist, 2 fút[ə]rist] future (II) & -ist 1 Person who looks forward to future fulfilment of Biblical prophecies 2 One of a school of modern painters &c whose work few persons can appreciate in the present, and who, supposing themselves to be ahead of their age, are presumed to be working for the applause of the future future, n [1 fút[ər]i, 2 fút[ə]r[ist]] future (II) & -ity 1 a Time to come, the future, b specif, the time after this mortal life 2 Futurities, future events futurity race, n One for futurity stakes futurity stakes, n Stakes competed for, in racing, a considerable time after the competitors are entered fuzz, n [1 fuz, 2 faz] Light, tangled mass of fibres, threads, hair &c, of stiffer or wrier consistency than fluff fuzziness, n [1 fuzines, 2 fázinis] Next word & -ness Quality of being fuzzy fuzzy, adj [1 fúzi, 2 fazi] fuzz & -y Fluffy, consisting of, having consistency of, fuzz

Fuzzy-wuzzy, n [1 fúza wuzi, 2 fazi wázi] (slang) Soudanese fighting man in his natural, wild state

-fy, suff [1 fi, 2 fai], fr Fr -fier, fr Lat -ficāre, see -fic & -fication, fr Lat fac-, 'to make, cause' &c The suff means 'make, cause to become', & is added freely to adjs & ns beautify, desify, Frenchify &c In jocular formations fr Engl words the suff often has an intens or freq force, e.g. speechify, 'to keep on making speeches' For base see fact fyfot, n [1 filfot, 2 filfot] Said to mean 'fill the foot', of a window, in reference to device in lower half of a stained glass window. The swastika, the symbol ☸.

fyte See fit (II)

G

G, g [1 jē, 2 dži] The seventh letter of the English & other alphabets, as in Latin &c, for abbreviations &c see end of Dictionary (mus) the fifth note of the major scale of C gab, n [1 gab, 2 gab] Du gabberen, 'to joke, to chatter', Fr gaber, 'to deceive', akin to 'gabble, gape' (colloq) Loquacious, talkativeness, chatter Phr the gift of the gab, readiness, fluency, of speech gabardine See gabardine gabble (I), vb intrans & trans [1 gábl, 2 gábl] Freq of gab, akin to gabble, imitative in origin 1 intrans To chatter, jabber, talk, speak rapidly and indistinctly. speak more slowly, don't gabble 2 trans To utter rapidly and indistinctly to gabble one's prayers, gabble out an apology &c gabble (II), n, fr prec. a Rapid, indistinct talk or utterance, b foolish, meaningless talk gabbler, n [1 gáblar, 2 gáblar] gabble (I) & -er One who gabbles, chatterer gabbro, n [1 gábrō, 2 gábrō] Ital name for certain kinds of rock in N Italy, including serpentine (geol) A basic, igneous rock, resembling granite, having a mottled appearance, composed of feldspar, augite &c gabelle, n [1 gábel, 2 gábel] Fr, 'tax on salt', fr Span gabela, O Ital cabella, caballa, Arab gabala, 'tax, tribute', apparently confused w gavel (see gavelkind) 1 A tax, or impost, levied in certain continental countries 2 Specif, an indirect tax on salt levied by the State in France under the Old Régime gabardine, gabardine, n. [1 gáberdēn; gabionade, n. [1 gábrunād, 2. gábrunād]

2 gábedin, fr O Fr gavardine, prob fr. M H G wallerart, 'pilgrimage, journey', fr O H G wall ōn, 'to roam, wander', & O H G far, 'journey', fr faran, 'to go' See under walk & faxe 1 A long, loose gown, specif, garment prescribed for Jews in the Middle Ages 2 A kind of thin cloth gabion, n [1 gábrun, 2 gábrun] Fr, fr. Ital gabione, augm of gabbia, Low Lat gabbia, Lat cavea, 'a cage' See cage 1 (fort) A bottomless basket or cylinder of wicker-work or the like, filled with earth, used to form temporary defences, parapets &c against the enemy's fire or as a revetment 2 A similar contrivance filled with stones and sunk at a harbour mouth or elsewhere in order to form a bar gabionade, n. [1 gábrunād, 2. gábrunād]

See prec & -ade Any work composed of gabions, a protective traverse sheltering guns, b lines of sunken gabions forming the nucleus for a sand bar in harbour works gable, n [1 gáhl, 2 géib] ME, fr O Fr gable, fr ON gaff, op OHG gebal, 'skull, head', gabala, 'fork', Goth gabla, 'gable, pinnacle' Cogn. w Gk lephalé, 'bead' See cephalic 1 Angular upper part of wall of building, enclosed by sloping sides of roof 2 End wall of a building, the upper part of which consists of a gable 3 Architectural ornament shaped like a gable gabled, adj [1 gáblid, 2 géibid] Prec & -ed. Furnished with, in form of, a gable gable-end, n End wall finished with a gable gabled, n [1 gáblit, 2 géibit] gable & -et Small gable shaped canopy over window &c, as ornament gable-window, n Window opening from a gable gaby, n [1 gábu, 2 geibi] Etymol uncertain Foolish person, simpleton, nunny gad (I), interj [1 gad, 2 gad] Variant of God, showing the unrounding of the vowel, which is fairly frequent in 16th- & 17th cent English A meaningless exclamatory utterance gad (II), vb intrans Prob back formation fr obs gading, OE gædeling, ME gadeling, cp OHG gatelung, OS gadelung, Goth gadiþuggs, dimin of Gmo gad*, 'companion' (OE ge gada, MHG gate) See gather 1 To run about from one place to another, esp in search of amusement and excitement, to waste time in aimless wandering, usually gad about 2 (of plants) To straggle With wild thyme and the gadding vine o'ergrown (Milton, 'Lvo') gad (III), n Apparently variant of gnad, cp gad-fly A point of a spear or arrow, b a gad, o bar or wedge of steel used in quarrying gadabout, n [1 gádabout, 2 gadéabout] gad (II) & about Person given to gadding gad-fly, n First element, prob OE gād, 'gad', w shortening of vowel before following two consonants in combination See goad. 1 Fly attacking cattle 2. An irritating person gadjet, n [1 gájot, 2 gadžit] Origin unknown, first a naval term (colloq) A Any ingenious fitting, contrivance, or accessory, to a motor-car &c, b (contemptuous) a small, trifling, complicated, fussy, rather useless object Gadhelic, adj & n [1 gadelik, -elik, 2 gæde hok, gadilik] Ir Gaedheal, 'Gael', & -ic 1 adj Pertaining to the Gaels of Scotland, Ireland, and the Isle of Man 2. n The dialects of the Gaelic tribes, Irish Gaelic, Scottish Gaelic, and Manx Gadidae, n pl [1 gádídē, 2 gadídē] fr Neo Lat gadus, fr Late Gk gádos, 'a kind of fish' (zool) The family of sea-fishes which includes the cod fish, genus Gadus, the haddock, pollack &c gadoid, adj [1 gádoid, 2 gadóid] See prec & -oid. Resembling, belonging to, the cod fishes, the family Gadidae gadron, n [1 gadróon, 2 gadróin] fr Fr godron. Etymol doubtful One of a series of raised bosses used as an ornament on the border of a cup &c, or in architecture Gaekwar, Gaikwar, n [1 gikwar, 2 gáikwā] Hind, properly a family name of the dynasty Title of the ruler of Baroda, in India Gael, n [1 gál, 2 geil] fr Scottish Gaelic, Gaehel Scottish or (more rarely) Irish Celt Gaelic, adj & n [1 gáihk, 2 geilik] Prec & -ic 1 adj Pertaining to the Gaels, or to their language 2. n. a Celtic speech of Scotland, Ireland, and the Isle of Man, Gaelic, thus distinguished from Brythonic or Gynneic, i.e. Welsh, Cornish, and Breton, b one of these dialects, esp Scottish Gaelic gaff (I), n [1 gáf, 2 gáf] fr Fr gaffe, 'boat-hook, gaff' 1 Iron hook set on short handle for landing salmon &c 2 A kind of fish-spear 3 (naut) Spar for extending upper edge of fore and aft sail Phr (vulg slang) to blow the gaff, give away, divulge, a secret gaff (II), vb trans, fr prec To spear, or land (fish) with a gaff gaff (III), n Cp Fr faire une gaffe, 'commit an error of tact or manners', perb same as gaff (I) (slang) Low class theatre or other place of amusement gaffer, n [1 gáfer, 2 gáfo] Contracted fr grandfather through intermediate granfer, or fr godfather 1 A queer, talkative, old fellow, esp an aged rustic, used as mode of address, sometimes prefixed to name 2 Foreman of a gang of labourers gag (I), n [1 gag, 2 gag] fr next word. 1 Anything thrust into, or covering, person's mouth to silence him, specif (surg) a device for holding patient's mouth open during operation 2 (fig) n Anything acting as check or restraint on speech, b (parl) closure 3 (slang) Deceit, imposture, hoax 4 (theatr slang) Words, not in the book, interpolated by actor into his part gag (II), vb trans & intrans ME gaggen, 'to gag, suffocate' Proh imitative of sound of choking A trans 1 To silence, prevent from speaking, by filling or covering the mouth 2 (fig) To restrain from, deprive of power of, free speech, deny expression to, to silence by authority 3 (slang, rare) To deceive, impose upon, hoax B intrans (theatr slang) To interpolate one's own words into a part gage (I), n [1 gāj, 2 geidz] ME gage, fr O Fr guage, of Gmo origin See wage, wed 1 A pledge, guarantee, security 2 a Symbol of challenge to fight, glove &c, proffered as challenge, Phr to throw down a gage, to challenge, b a challenge gage (II), vb trans, fr prec To offer as pledge or security, to engage, stake gaggle (III), n See gauge gaggle (I), n [1 gágl, 2 gágl] Cp ON gaggl, 'flock of geese' Prob imitative of the birds' cries (arhaic) Gaggle of geese, all those feeding, or being driven, together, a flock gaggle (II), vb intrans To cackle gaiety, n [1 gáti, 2 geiti] fr Fr gaieté. gay & -ty 1 The state or quality of being gay, mirth, light-heartedness 2 (of inanimate things) Brightness, gay appearance, cheerfulness 3 (often pl) Festivity, merry making, light, gay entertainment the gaieties of the London season gayly, adv [1 gáli, 2 géili] gay & -ly In a gay manner, so as to express, suggest, or induce gaiety, a light-heartedly, cheerfully, b brightly, in bright, strong colours gayly lighted windows, gayly painted walls &c gain (I), vb trans & intrans [1 gán, 2 gem] This word appears to represent two quite distinct orig words, the form might result fr either, the meanings include those of both, (1) ME gain, 'advantage, profit', & gamen, 'to be of use, to profit' This is of Scand origin & is not found in OE or OHG, but is fr ON gagn, 'advantage, use, avail' The cognates geigan, 'strive', & ga geigan, 'to obtain, win', occur in Goth (2) O Fr gagner, Mod Fr gagner, 'to gain' &c, wh orig. meant 'to derive profit from cultivating the soil', also 'to obtain pasture, feed' Cp ME, fr O Fr gavage, 'profit from cultivation of soil' This = Ital guadagnare, & is derived fr Gmo, cp OHG weulanan, 'to pasture, feed, cattle', wh comes fr OHG weida, 'food, fodder, pasture', also 'hunting, hunting ground', cp Mod Germ weide, 'meadow, pastures' With this are cogn, OE wāp, 'wandering, travelling, hunting', & ON veir, 'catch of fish, hunting' A remoter cogn is Lat. venāre, 'to hunt', q v under venery (I) & venison. A trans 1 To obtain, secure, by labour and industry, to earn to gain one's living, livelihood &c 2. To obtain by effort or merit, esp. in competition, to win to gain a victory, to gain a prize, to gain the chief applause, to gain an advantage over another, to gain the upper hand, obtain predominating position, influence 3 To acquire as an increase of, secure as an addition to, one's possessions; obtain as a profit (opposed to lose), a (of material things) to gain wealth, to gain the whole world and lose one's soul, to gain five pounds over a transaction, to gain a faithful servant, b (of non material advantage) to gain fresh honours, to gain rudos, gain experience, Phrs to gain strength, improve in health and vigour, to gain ground (fig), to make progress, to gain time, (i) to save time, get something done more quickly, (u) to secure extra allowance of time, cause delay deliberately 4 To reach, attain to, arrive at (esp as a result of effort) to gain the summit of a mountain, to gain the harbour; to gain shelter B intrans 1 To derive benefit, to profit you may suffer at first, but you will gain in the end by your unselfishness 2 To improve, become enhanced in value, merit &c his writing gained by continued practice Phr to gain by comparison, to create more favourable impression, appear to be all the better, in contrast with something else C Followed by preposition or adv Gain on, upon, 1 a to get nearer to, decrease distance between, overtake to gain on one's prey, b to move faster than, make more progress than, outstrip to gain on one's pursuers 2 (of sea) To encroach upon (the land) 3 (fig) To make progress in the favour of, grow upon Gain over, to bring to one's side, prevail upon, win over gain (II), n See prec 1 Increase, addition, a (of material possessions, wealth &c) profit, earnings, winnings, opposite of loss - the gain(s) from scientific work is (are) small, compared with the profits from commerce, b (of non material advantage) increase of wealth is not always a gain to one's happiness, a gain to knowledge, intellectual gain 2 Process of gaining, of acquiring, and accumulating, material wealth blinded by the love of gain 3 Increase, enhancement, a in value, b in magnitude, bulk, strength &c gainable, adj [1 gánahl, 2 géinahl] Prec & -able Capable of being gained gainful, adj [1 gánfool, 2 geinful] gain (II) & -ful 1 Yielding gain, profitable 2 Eager for gain. gainings, n [1 gáinniz, 2 géinipz] gain (II) & -ing (I) What is gained a earnings, b profits, emoluments, c something acquired by victory, winnings gainless, adj [1 gánleo, 2 géinlis] gain (II) & -less Yielding no gain, profitless; unavailing gainly, adj [1 gánli, 2 géinli] ME geinliche, ly, 'gracious', cp ME gein, 'convenient, ready, direct', fr ON gegn, ultimately same word as in again (obs. or provino) Comely, graceful, alert, in movements, cp ungainly gainsay, vb trans [1 gánsá, 2 geinséi] ME gainsere, fr ON gegn, 'against', cogn. w again, & say To contradict, dispute, deny gaunt, prep [1 gáunst, 2 geinst] Contracted fr against (poet) Against gait, n [1 gát, 2 geit] Variant of gate (II) Manner of walking, carriage of the body in walking or running an awkward, clouching gait gater, n [1 gáter, 2 gæstə] fr Fr guître, 'gaiter' Origin doubtful Cloth or leather covering for leg from knee to ankle, or for ankle only gaitered, adj [1 gáteri, 2 géitad] Prec & -ed a Wearing gaiters, b covered by gaiter(s) gala, n [1 gála, 2 géila] Fr, fr Ital gala. Prob of Gmo origin, op O Fr galer, 'to rejoice, make merry', & see gallant Time of rejoicing and merry-making, festivity, fete galactic, adj [1 galáktik, 2 galéktik], fr Gk galaktik-(os), 'milky', fr galakt-(os), gent of gála, 'milk' See next word & -ic (astron) Pertaining to the Milky Way or Galaxy galacto-, pref representing Gk gálaktio-(s), gent of gála, 'milk', cogn w Lat lac, gent lacta, 'milk' (see lacteal), fr plag* i- (in scientific terms) Milk, e.g. galactometer, instrument for testing quality of milk, galactophorous, (of ducts) conveying milk gala-day, n Day of festivity and merry-making gala-dress, n Dress suitable for festive occasion, full dress galago, n [1 galágo, 2 galéigou] Native name A genus of small tropical African lemurs, with large ears and long tail galangale, n See galangale galantine, n [1 galántén, 2 galéntín] Fr Dish made of chicken, veal &c, boned, cut small, and seasoned, usually rolled, boiled, and eaten cold galanty show, n [1 galánti shò, 2 galánti] Prob fr Ital galanti, pl of galante, 'fine gentleman' See gallant a Shadow pantomime thrown on screen by moving puppets, b popularly, any spectacular theatrical performance, or (contempt) ceremonial proceedings supposed to resemble this galaxy, n [1 galáksi, 2 galéksi], fr Fr galaxie, fr L Lat, fr Gk galaxias, 'the Milky Way', fr galakt, stem of gála, 'milk'. See galacto- 1 The Milky Way, an irregular luminous band extending across the heavens, consisting of innumerable stars, too distant to be seen separately by the naked eye 2 A splendid or illustrious assembly, brilliant group a galaxy of beauty galbanum, n [1 galbanum, 2 galbanem] Lat, fr Gk khallabân, prob a Semitic loan-word An aromatic, resinous juice obtained from a variety of the plant ferula gale (I), n [1 gál, 2 gól] OE gagel, ME gawel, MHG gagel, 'sweet-gale' An aromatic shrub, bog-myrtle, generally sweet-gale gale (II), n Etymol doubtful Connexion w OE gál, galan, 'to sing', or on the other hand, w Dan gal, 'furious', appears to be merely speculative & fanciful 1 a (popular) A strong, violent, boisterous wind, b specif, a wind with any velocity between 25 and 75 miles per hour a gale of wind, it is blowing a gale 2 (poet) A breeze, a light air gale (III), n Perh fr a Late ME form gál*, contracted fr gavel, 'tribute, rent, tax' See gavelland. (rare) Rent paid at fixed intervals gales, n [1 gálea; 2 gélsa] Lat galea, 'leather helmet, guinea-fowl's crest' Prob a loan-word fr Gk galéē, 'weasel, polecat, marten', w the name transferred first to 'ekm or hudo, leather', & then to 'something made of leather' Gk galéē is cogn w Sort giris, 'mouse', Lat glis, 'dormouse' (bot, zool) Helmet shaped structure, covering, or process galeate(d), adj [1 gáhat(ed), 2 géhest(r)d]] Pref & -ate (& -ed) Covered with, furnished with, a helmet shaped structure or process galeeny, n [1 galén, 2 gólín], fr Span galina (morisca), 'Moorish hen', fr. Lat galina, 'hen' See gallinaceous A guinea-fowl

Galén, n [1 gálen, 2 gélen], fr Lat, fr Galénos, a Greek physician & medical writer who died c. a. 200 (facot) A physician galena, n [1 galéna, 2 gólina] Lat, 'lead ore', fr Gk galénē, 'calmness as of the sea, lead sulphide', connected w Gk gelenin, 'to emulate', wh is prob cogn w OHG lleini, 'bright, elegant', OE cléne, see clean. Native lead sulphide, ore from which lead is extracted, also called 'lead glance' galenic(al), adj [1 galénik(l), 2 gólinik(l)] See Galén & -ic (& -al) 1 Of, pertaining to, resembling the methods of, Galén. 2 (of remedies) Compounded of vegetable substances without chemical process

Galilee, n [1 gálís, 2 gálí], fr district in Palestine, prob fr 'Galilee of the Gentiles' (Matt iv 15), therefore of something less sacred Porch or chapel at west end of certain cathedral churches galimatias, n [1 galimátias, 2 galimátias] Fr, 'nonsense, gibberish' Etymol. uncertain, but Meyer-Lübke suggests derivation fr garrimantia, humorously concocted by Albertus Magnus fr garrir, 'to prate, chatter', on anal of necromantia, geomantia &c Confused jumble of words, nonsensical medley, confused jargon with words from different languages galingale, n [1 galinggál, 2 gélíngel], fr O Fr galingal, fr Arab lhalanyān, perh fr Chinese. 1 Aromatic root of certain East Indian herbs of the ginger family 2 A kind of sedge of the south of England, the sweet sedge galiot, n See galiot

galipot, n [1 galipot, 2 galipot] Fr Etymol. unknown Resinous substance which oozes from fir trees, and becomes hard when dried by the air gall (I), n [1 gawl, 2 gól] Prob fr ON gall, op also OE g(e)alla, 'gall, bile', ME galle, 'gall, bile, bitter substance, anger', OS, OHG galla, cogn w Gk. lholé, khólos, 'bile', (fig) 'anger, hatred' (see cholera), cogn w Lat fel, 'gall' See further under yellow 1 A Bitter, greenish or yellowish fluid secreted by the liver into the gall-bladder (of lower animals), bile, b gall-bladder 2 (fig) a Bitterness, rancour, malignity, Phrs gall and wormwood, something causing intense bitterness of feeling, a pen dipped in gall, expressing bitterness, malvolence, b (Am slang) effrontery, audacity, impudence to have the gall to do &c gall (II), n OE g(e)alla, ME galle, 'gall, sore place', op ON galls, MHG galle, perh fr Lat galla, 'gall-nut' (See gall (IV)) 1 Swelling, blister, on horse 2 Sore (esp on horse) produced by friction or pressure, abrasion gall (III), vb trans, fr prec 1 To injure, break, the surface of, make sore, by rubbing, to abrade 2 (fig) To irritate, chafe, provoke, mortify, also absol that remark galls gall (IV), n, fr Fr galle, fr Lat galla, 'gall-nut' - Walde suggests an earlier form galnā*, fr Aryan base gel-, gl- &c, 'to form into a ball'. See globe, gland, & further olot, cleat Small excrescence produced on tree (esp oak) by insect oak gall, used in dyeing, medicine &c gallant (I), adj [1 gálant, 2 gélant], fr Fr galant, Pres Part of O Fr galer, 'to make merry', prob of Gmc origin, op OHG wallōn, 'to wander, rove', q v under walk. 1 (archaic, of appearance) A Gaily attired, fine, showy, decorative to make a gallant show, b (specif of ship or horse), making a fine, imposing show, noble, stately, imposing 2 Brave, daring, chivalrous, noble a gallant knight, soldier &c, (parl) the honourable and gallant member, in referring to member of Army or Navy sitting as MP 3 (also [1 galánt, 2 galánt]) Showing especial courtesy and deference to women 4 (also [1 galant, 2 galánt]) Pertaining to, love, amorous gallant adventures gallant (II), n [1 gálant, galánt, 2 gélant, galánt], fr prec 1 Young man of fashion, one of gay and dashing manners 2 A Man courteous and attentive to women, b (in good and bad sense) lover gallant (III), vb trans & intrans, fr prec (rare) 1 trans a To escort, accompany, attend (lady), b to act as lover to, flirt with 2 intrans To play the gallant gallantly, adv [1 galántli, 2 galántli] gallant (I) & -ly 1 Bravely, nobly, chivalrously 2 Deferentially, devotedly, after the manner of a lover or admirer gallantry, n [1 galántri; 2 galéntri], fr.

Fr galanterie gallant (I) & -ery 1 A Spirit of courage and chivalry, bravery, daring, intrepidity, b specific exhibition of these qualities, gallant conduct, deed. 2 a Chivalrous and courteous attention to women, b specif, amorous affairs, intrigue gall-bladder, n Small membranous sac or duct below liver, containing gall galleass, n [1 galas, 2 gelas], fr O Fr galeasse, fr Ital galeazza, fr Med Lat galea, 'galley' See galley Large, heavy, three masted galley, formerly used on the Mediterranean galleon, n [1 gáhn, 2 gáhn], fr Span galeon, fr Med Lat galeón (em), fr Med Lat galea, 'galley' See galley & -on, -oon Old Spanish sailing ship, usually with three or four decks, used for war and commerce galleried, adj [1 gálerd, 2 gélerd] Next word & -ed Furnished with a gallery, pierced with galleries gallery, n [1 galéri, 2 géleri], fr Fr galerie Etymol doubtful 1 Long, narrow passage in thickness of wall, or projecting from wall and supported by corbels, at side or end of room &c above floor level, and open to interior 2 Long, narrow, covered court or passage, open at one side, loggia, cloister 3 Raised platform in church, hall &c, projecting from wall and supported by pillars, to give extra accommodation 4 (theatr) a Uppermost tier, where cheapest seats are usually placed, b audience using these seats, regarded as least intellectual or refined section of audience, hence, c popular, uncultivated taste Phr to play to the gallery, make a bid for popularity by appealing to the tastes, passions, or prejudices of the mob 5 Long, narrow room, broad corridor 6 Room or building for exhibition of works of art 7 (min, mil engin) Underground communicating passage gallery-hit, n (cricket, theatre &c) Spectacular stroke or performance designed to please the crowd galley, n [1 gál, 2 gól] ME galere, fr O Fr gale, galez, fr Med Lat galea Etymol doubtful 1 Ancient war ship fitted with benches for rowers 2 Low, single decked ship with masts and oars, in former times rowed chiefly by slaves or criminals, hence, pl, a form of penal servitude of France, Spain, and other Mediterranean countries to be sent to the galleys, undergo punishment of such form 3 Large rowing boat, especially of the type used by captain of man-of-war 4 Kitchen on board ship 5 (print) a Shallow tray with adjustable sides, to which type is transferred from the composing-stick, before being divided into pages, b galley-proof galley-proof, n (print) Impression from type in galley, before division into pages galley-slave, n a Slave or criminal condemned to work in galley, hence, b person forced to work unreasonably hard, drudge galley-worm, n A millipede, so called from number of its legs, supposed to move like oars of a galley gall-fly, n Insect causing galls on plants gallambic, adj & n [1 galámbik, 2 galámbik], fr Lat gallambus, 'song of the priests of Cybele', fr Gall-(i), 'the priests of Cybele' (named fr their raving, fr Gallus, a river whose water caused insanity), & ambus 1 adj a (class pros) Written in feet of four syllables, consisting of a pyrrhus (~ ~) and a spondee (~ ~) or 'Ionia minore', as Catullus's Atis and Tennyson's Boadicea 2 n Gallambic verse galliard, n [1 gálard, 2 gáljád], fr O Fr gallard, 'gay, merry', Animated dance of 16th and 17th cent for two persons

Gallie (I), adj [1 gálík, 2 gálík] fr Lat Gallie-(us), 'of the Gauls', fr Gall-(us), 'a Gaul', & -ic a Of, relating to, Gaul or the Gauls; b French gallic (II), adj, fr gall (IV.) & -ic Pertaining to, obtained from, galls, as gallic acid.

Gallican, adj & n [1 gálíkan, 2 gálíkan], fr Lat Gallican (us), 'of Gaul' See Gallico (I) & -an 1 adj A Of, pertaining to, the Roman Catholic Church in France, b being long to a former body of French Roman Catholics claiming a certain amount of independence of Papal authority 2 n a Member of the Roman Catholic Church in France, b a supporter of Gallicanism

Gallicanism, n [1 galíkánizm, 2 galíkénizm] Free & -izm Principles of a body of French Roman Catholics enunciated in 1682, claiming partial autonomy for the national Church of France

Gallicanist, n [1 gálíkaníst, 2 galíkéníst]

Gallican & -ist Supporter of Gallicanism gallice, adv [1 gálíse, 2 gálísi] Lat gallice, 'in Gaulish', fr Gallic (us), 'gallic'

See Gallico (I) In French (in giving French form of name, or translation of phrase &c) gallicism, n [1 gálíszm, 2 gálíszizm]

Gallic (I) & -izm French word, idiom, or mode of expression, introduced in speaking or writing another language

Gallicize, vb trans [1 gálísz, 2 gálísz] Lat gallic (I) & -ize To make French, in feeling, opinion, language &c, to Frenchify gallogaskins, n pl [1 gálígaskínz, 2 gálígaskínz], fr Fr garguette, fr Ital grechesca, fem of grechesco, fr Grec (o), 'Greek' (see Greek), & -esque (chiefly facetious, rather vaguely used) Garters, coverings for the legs, wide breeches gallimaufry, n [1 gálímáfri, 2 gálímófri], fr Fr gallimaufree, 'hash, regent', etymol doubtful Heterogeneous collection, confused medley gallinacean, adj [1 gálínáshun, 2 gálínéízan], fr Lat gallinacea (us), 'gallinaceous' (see next word), & -an Gallinaceous gallinaceous, adj [1 gálínáshun, 2 gálínéízan], fr Lat gallinaceus, 'of domestic poultry', fr gallin (a), 'hen' (fr gall (us), 'cock', & -ina (I)), & -aceous The etymol of gallus is doubtful, it is prob cogn w O.N kalle, 'to cry out, to name' (see call & glory), O Slav glas, 'voice', glasolati, 'to speak' Of that order of birds which includes domestic poultry, pheasants, grouse &c gallinazo, n [1 gálínázó, 2 gálínéízon], fr Span gallinaza, fr Lat gallina, 'hen' See prec An American vulture galling, adj [1 gálwíng, 2 gálwín], fr Pres Part of gall (III) (chiefly fig) Causing soreness of feeling, humiliating, wounding, irritating gallinule, n [1 gálínül, 2 gálínýül] L Lat gallinula, dimin of galline, 'hen' See gallinaceous gallinaceous A water fowl, meor ben Galho, n [1 gálhó, 2 gálhóu], fr name of a Roman procurator (Acts xvii 17) Official who shirks responsibility of dealing with any matters outside his immediate department or concerns, an indifferent, easy going person galhot n [1 gálhet, 2 gálhet] M.E., fr O Fr galotte galley & dimin suff -ot Fast ship moved by both sails and oars, formerly used on the Mediterranean gallipot, n [1 gálipót, 2 gálipót] Prob galley & pot, as being shipped in galleys fr Mediterranean coasts Glazed jar or pot of coarse earthenware &c, chiefly used for holding preserves, jam pot gallium, n [1 gálíum, 2 gélíem], fr Lat gall (us), 'cock' (see gallinaceous) as translation of Christian name of discoverer Lecco de Bousbaudran, & -ium A rare metallic element, soft and greyish white in colour gallivant, vb intrans [1 gálívánt, 2 gélívant] Prob connected w gallant a To run after, go about with, members of opposite sex, b to gad about, esp in pleasure seeking gall-nut, n gall (IV) Oak apple

Gallo-, pref [1 gáló, 2 gélou] representing Lat. gall (us), 'a Gaul' Tranch, eg Gallo-rania, craze for imitating French fashions &c, Gallophobia, hatred of anything French gallon, n [1 gálun, 2 gélán] M.E. galoun, fr A-Fr galon, etymol obscure, op Fr jale, 'bowl' A measure of liquid or dry capacity, equal to 4 quarts, b this amount of liquid or of corn galloon, n [1 gálóon, 2 gélóu], fr Fr galon, 'lace', fr O Fr galonner, 'to hind the hair, deck with bands', prob fr galer, 'to make merry', q v under gallant Strong narrow braid for trimming, bridging &c, of cotton or silk, sometimes interwoven with gold or silver gallop (I), n [1 gálup, 2 gélup] See next word 1 The fastest pace of quadrupeds, all four feet being in the air together at one stage of each stride, Phrs at full gallop, at a gallop, at this pace 2 A ride on a galloping horse, quick ride to go for a gallop gallop (II), vb intrans & trans, fr Fr galoper, prob of Gmo origin, porh same as wallop A intrans 1 a (of quadruped) To move at a gallop, b (of rider) to ride at a gallop 2 (of person speaking or reading) To hurry, go excessively fast to gallop through a book &c 3 To progress, develop, rapidly galloping consumption B trans To cause to gallop, send along at a gallop to gallop a horse gallopade, n [1 gálópád, 2 gélóped] Fr fr galop & -ade A quick, lively dance, b music for such a dance galloper, n [1 gáluper, 2 gélópe] gallop (II) & -er 1 One who, that which, gallops 2 (mil) a An aide de camp, b a small field gun

Gallowdian, n [1 gálóvídian, 2 gélóuvídian], fr Mod Lat Gallowdia, Latinized form of Galloway, & -an A native of Galloway

Galloway, n [1 gálówá, 2 géléwó], fr place name, Scotland 1 A small, strong horse, of type originally bred in Galloway 2 A breed of cattle gallows, n [1 gálóz, 2 galóuz] OE galga, M.E. galloche, cp O.N galpi, O.H.G galgo, Goth galga, etymol obscure 1 Framework of post(s) with cross beam, on which animals are hanged Phrs to come to the gallows, be hanged, a gallows look, look of a criminal who ought to be hanged 2 Any structure or framework resembling gallows gallows-bird, n Criminal who deserves hanging gallows-ripe, adj Deserving to be hanged gallows-tree, n Gallows gall-stone, n Calculus formed in the gall bladder or gall ducts galop, n & vb intrans [1 gálup, 2 gélup] Fr, fr galoper, q v under gallop (II) 1 n a A quick dance in 2/4 time, b music for this dance 2 vb intrans To dance a galop galore, adv & n [1 gálór, 2 góló] Ir go leór, 'enough' fr advbl particle go & adj leór, 'sufficient', O Ir leor, M Ir lór, 'enough', perh cogn w Gk ploutos, 'riches', q v under plutocracy 1 adv Plentifully, in abundance flowers and fruit galore 2 n (rare or obs) Plenty, abundance galosh, n See golosh galumph, vb intrans [1 gálámf, 2 gélámf] Invented by Lewis Carroll, combination of gallop & triumph To prance about, or along, expressing self-satisfaction and triumph galvanic, adj [1 gálvánik, 2 gélvánik] See galvanism & -ic 1 (elect) Relating to, produced by, galvanism, producing electricity by chemical voltaic action 2 (fig, of movement &c) Caused, worked, by sudden stimulus, spasmodic, unnatural galvanically, adv [1 gálvánikah, 2 gélváníkalí] Free & -al & -ly By galvanism, in a galvanic manner galvanism, n [1 gálvánizm, 2 gélvánizem], fr name of discoverer, Galvani (d 1788), & -ism 1 Electricity produced by chemical action 2 a Branch of electrical science treating of this, b treatment of diseases &c by use of galvanic battery galvanist, n [1 gálváníst, 2 gélváníst], fr name Galvan-(s) (see prec) & -ist A student of galvanism galvanization, n [1 gálvánizáshun, 2 gálvánizáshon] Next word & -ation Act or process of galvanizing, state of being galvanized galvanize, vb trans [1 gálvániz, 2 gélváníz] See galvanism & -ize 1 a To subject to galvanic action, electrify by galvanism, b (fig) startle, stimulate, into sudden activity 2 To coat with metal, originally by use of galvanic battery, galvanized iron, corrugated sheet iron coated with zinc, to prevent rust, usually without any galvanic process galvano-, pref Form, used in combination, fr name Galvani See galvanism Galvanism, galvanic galvanometer, instrument for measuring strength of galvanic current

Galwegian, adj & n [1 gálwéíjan, 2 gélwídzíjan], fr Galloway, on nuel of Norwegian 1 adj Of Galloway 2 n Native of Galloway gamba, n [1 gámba, 2 gémbe] Ital, fr L Lat, 'leg', orig an abbr for viol da gamba (see viol), Lat gamba, also written camba, is prob borrowed fr Gk kampé, 'wind, twist, turn' See gambit Organ-stop producing a note with a tone like that of a viol gambade, n [1 gámhá, 2 gémhá] Fr gambade See next word Gambado gambado, n [1 gámhá, 2 gémhá] fr Span gambada, fr Ital gambata, 'gambol' (see gambol) 1 Horse's spring into the air, survet 2 A caper, gambol, prank gambeson, n [1 gámhusun, 2 gémhusun], fr O Fr gambeson, gambeson, fr O Fr garri bas, wambais, fr O.H.G uamba, 'stomach' See womb (hist) Doublet of leather or quilted cloth worn for defence gambier, n [1 gámber, 2 gémber] Malay gembir, 'plant yielding gambier' Astru gent substance prepared from East Indian plant, and used in tanning, dyeing &c gambit, n [1 gámbit, 2 gémbit], fr Ital gambetto, 'a tripping up', fr gamba, 'a leg', fr L Lat gamba, 'fotook, hoof, leg', (cp gamba), prob a loan word, fr Gk kampé, 'a turn, bend, joint', cogn w Lat campus, 'level place, plain, field', orig 'depression, subsidence' (see camp), Lath kampas, 'corner, angle, region', kumphi, to bend, bow, bnt kumpal, 'having the hand useless', Goth hamfa, 'maimed', orig 'deformed', O.S hóf, O.H.G hamf, 'crippled' a One of several opening moves in chess, in which a pawn is risked for the purpose of gaining an advantage later, b (hg) initial move in an action or transaction gamble (I), vb intrans & trans [1 gámbl, 2 gémbl] Prob fr gemel*, fr M.E. gamenen, 'to play, joke, to amuse', fr gamen, 'a game' See game (I) A intrans 1 To play games of chance with money staked on result, to play for high stakes, to speculate in financial transactions to gamble in rashway shares, in sugar &c 2 (fig) To take great risks in order to secure possible profit or advantage to gamble with one's future B trans gamble away To waste, squander (fortune, estate) in gambling gamble (II), n, fr prec a The act of gambling, b any risky undertaking venture, speculation gambler, n [1 gámblér, 2 gémblér] gamble (I) & -er Person given to gambling, a gambler gamblesome, adj [1 gámblám, 2 gémblám] gamble (I) & -some Given to gambling gambling, n [1 gámblíng, 2 gémblíng] gamble (I) & vbl n suff -ing Playing games for money, gaming gamboge, n [1 gámboz, 2 gémboz], fr Mod Lat gambogium, fr Cambodia, in Indo-China A brownish gum resin obtained from trees of Siam, Cambodia, and Ceylon, used in medicine, and to produce a yellow pigment gambol, n & vb intrans [1 gámbl, 2 gámbl] Earlier gambolde, fr O Fr gambade, 'a leap, caper', fr Ital gambata, 'a caper, kick', fr gamba, 'a leg', q v under garabit 1 n A skip, playful caper, frolicsome movement or series of movements, used especially of young lambs and of children 2 vb To skip, caper, frolic, frisk game (I), n [1 gām, 2 gēm] O E gamen, 'amusement, game, sport, joy, merriment, joke', M E gámel(n), 'sport, game, jest' Cp O H G, O S, O N gaman, O Frs game It has been suggested that these stand for ga am-*, the second element being cogn w that in Lat amāre, 'to love' (see amative), thus is, however, quite uncertain 1 Sport, amusement, frolic, play 2 One of many particular kinds of contest conducted according to fixed rules, and entered into for exercise, amusement, recreation & the game of cricket, tennis &c Phr to play the game, play according to rules of game, (fig) to behave in a straightforward, honourable manner, to have the game in one's hands, be sure of success 3 Single round of some contests, e.g. tennis &c 4 Success in a game this game is yours 5 (pl) Athletic, dramatic, musical, literary, or other contests, esp in ancient Greece or Rome as public diversion or celebration Olympic games 6 Jest, joke, fun, opposed to earnest to speak in game Phr to make game of, ridicule, laugh at, to have a game with, to hoodwink, fool 7 a Scheme, project, undertaking, esp one whose object is to defeat another person or plan the game of war, politics &c, to play a losing, double, game &c, Phr the game is up, the scheme is a failure, game not worth the candle, unprofitable enterprise, b (i) artful scheme, trick, dodge don't try any of your games, we saw through your game, he's been up to his old games again, (ii) scheme intention, proposed plan I wish I knew what his game is 8 a Wild animal or bird hunted for food, for sport, or as harmful animal that must be destroyed, b animals and birds that may be hunted, considered collectively big game, the larger kinds of hunted animals, elephants, tigers, lions &c, c flesh of game to eat game, game pie, d (fig) any object of pursuit, material or non-material, quarry fair game, legitimate, natural, object of pursuit, one open to attack & forbidden game, prohibited object of pursuit, to fly at higher game, have more ambitious end or objective game (II), adj, fr game-cock 1 Spirited, courageous, plucky, ready to begin or continue fighting, refusing to give in without a struggle Phr to be game, voluntarily fighting to the last 2 Ready, spirited enough for, willing to be game for anything, to do something game (III), vb, intrans & trans, fr game (I) 1 intrans To gamble, play game of chance for money 2 trans (followed by away) game away (property &c) to waste, lose, in gaming game (IV), adj Origin doubtful Injured, useless, crippled a game leg

Game Act, n (usually pl) Laws controlling preserving, killing, selling &c of game game-bag, n Bag to hold game when killed game-cock, n Chicken, cock, of kind bred for fighting gamekeeper, n [1 gámkēpər, 2 gēmklēpər] Man employed to look after game preserve, rear game &c game-law(s), n Game Act game-licence, n Licence obtained on payment, entitling holder to kill or sell game game, adv [1 gámli, 2 gēmli] game (II) & -ly In a game manner, pluckily game, n [1 gámnes, 2 gēmnes] game (II) & -ness The quality of being game, pluck gamesome, adj [1 gámam, 2 gēmam] game (I) & -some Playful, merry, sportive, frolicsome gamesomely, adv Prec & -ly. In a gamesome manner gamesomeness, n. See prec & -ness The quality of being gamesome gamester, n [1 gánster, 2 gémster] game (III) & -ster Person given to gaming, a gambler gamete, n [1 gamēt, 2 gamit], fr Gk gamētē, 'wife', fr gamē(ein), 'to marry', fr gam-(os), 'marriage' See gamio- Reproductive cell which unites with another to form germ of new individual game-tenant, n Person renting shooting or fishing rights gamey, adj. See gamy gamun, n [1 gáman, 2 gámā] Fr Ety-mol unknown Street arab, mischievous, neglected, or homeless boy gaming, n [1 gámung, 2 gémung] game (III) & vil n suff -ing Playing for money, gambling gaming-house n House in which gambling is carried on as a source of profit to the proprietor gaming-table, n a Table used, or having apparatus for, gambling, b (fig) gambling gamma, n [1 gáma, 2 géma] Gk gamma, fr Hebrew gimel 1 Third letter of Greek alphabet γ, l=g 2 Symbol for the third of a series, as gamma-rays 3 A kind of European moth, with γ shaped mark on wing gammer, n [1 gámer, 2 gáma] Contracted fr grandmother, through intermediate gramer, or fr godmother. Cp gaffer Old countrywoman gammon (I), n & vb trans [1 gámun, 2 gáman], fr A-Fr gambon, fr O Fr gambe, 'leg', fr L Lat gambā, 'leg', see gambit, & -oon 1 n a Part of fitch of bacon including ham, b a cured ham 2 vb To cure (bacon) gammon (II), vb trans & n Etymol unknown (naut) 1 vb To make fast (bowsprit) to stem of vessel 2 n (also gammoning) Lashing of rope, chain &c, securing bowsprit to stem gammon (III), n & interj Perh fr M E gamen, 'game', See game (I) 1 n Nonsense, humbug, a hoax, deception 2 interj Nonsense!

gammon (IV), vb trans & intrans Prob fr gammon (V) 1 trans To hoax, hoodwink, deceive, impose upon 2 intrans To speak or act so as to deceive, to dissemble gammon (V), n & vb trans Perh fr M E gamen, 'game', See backgammon & game (I) 1 n Victory (at backgammon) won in specific way 2 vb To defeat (opponent) in this way.

game, pref [1 gamō, 2 gemō], representing Gk game (2), 'marriage', prob cogn w Lat geminus, 'twin', M Ir gemel, 'fetter', O N kimbell, 'bundle', Gk gambrōs, 'relation by marriage, son-in-law, brother-in-law', Lat gener (fr gēner, 'son-in-law', Aryan baseo gem-, gm-, 'to join, unite' (esp bot) United, coalescing, e.g. gamopetalous, with petals joined together, gamosepalous &c gamons, suff, forming adj, w sense 'marrying', fr Gk gam (os), 'marriage' See prec & -ous, e.g. polygamous, bigamous &c gamp, n [1 gamp, 2 gemp], fr the umbrella of Mrs Gamp in Dickens's Martin Chuzzlewit a A large, bulging, untidily rolled umbrella, b (facet and colloq) any kind of umbrella gamut, n [1 gámut, 2 gemat], fr Med Lat gamma ut, fr gamma, name given by Guido d'Arezzo (11th cent) to lowest note of mediæval scale (see 1 below), & ut, name of first note of hexachord, the names of these notes being taken fr the italicized sylls of an old Latin hymn to St John 1 Lowest note of mediæval scale, i.e. G below middle C, two somtimes below lowest note of classical scale, note written on lowest line of bass staff 2 Mediæval scale, including all notes from G on lowest line of bass staff to E in top space of treble staff. 3 Type of musical scale used in specific period 4 Whole range or compass of voice or instrument 5 (fig) Whole extent, scope, range to experience the whole gamut of suffering

gamy, gamey, adj [1 gámi, 2 gēmi] game (I) & -y a Having the flavour or smell of game, b high, strong, to the smell or taste verging towards putrescence

-gamy, suff, forming ns, w sense 'marrying, uniting', fr Gk gam-(os), 'marriage', ees gamio-, & -y, e.g. bigamy, exogamy &c gander, n [1 gándər, 2 gándə] O E gandra, gandra, M E gandra, op Du gander, prob fr ganza*, variant of gans*. See goose 1 A male goose 2 Fool, dullard, simpleton gang, (I) n [1 gang, 2 gəŋ] M E gang, 'the act of going, walking, a passage, a band, troop', fr O E gang, 'the act of going, progression, passage, channel, course' cogn w O H G gang, O N gangr, Goth gangs, fr Gmo gang*, 'to go', O E gangan, O N ganga, Goth gaggan Cogn w Scrt. ganga, 'lower leg', Lath zengni, 'step, walk', prob ultimately related to go 1. A band, group, squad, a of labourers working together, b of slaves, prisoners &c 2 (in bad sense) a A group of persons organized for evil or criminal purpose a gang of burglars &c, b (colloq, in disparagement) a body, party, group, of persons I am sick of the whole gang of university wranglers 3 Set of tools designed, arranged, to work together gang (II), vb See prec (Soots) To go gang one's own gait, go one's own way, adopt one's own course of action gang-board, n M E gang, 'a going, passage'. See gang (I) & board Plank, usually provided with cleats, laid across from vessel to wharf &c or to another vessel, as means of egress or ingress, gangway gange, vb trans [1 ganj, 2 gendj] Origin unknown To bind part of fishing line or cast, next hook, with fine thread, so as to strengthen or protect it ganger, n [1 gánger, 2 gəŋə] gang (I) & -er Foreman of gang of labourers or workmen ganging, n [1 gánpŋg, 2 gendjŋ] gange & -ing The act or process of twisting wire round fishing line ganged, adj [1 gáŋgháted, 2 gəŋ ghētid], fr Gk gággē (on), 'swelling', see ganglion, & -ate & -ed Having ganglia gangliaform, adj [1 gáŋghlīform, 2 gəŋ ghīlīm], fr Gk gággē (on), 'swelling' (see next word), & -form Shaped like a ganglion ganglion, n [1 gáŋghlūn, 2 gəŋghlīn], fr Gk gággē (on), 'a swelling, exorascence, gland' Etymol doubtful 1 a Nerve-centre, mass or group of nerve cells, b (fig) centre of activity, centre from which several forms of intellectual or industrial activity radiate 2 Small tumour, or sac, containing fluid, usually on a sinew ganglionated, adj [1 gáŋghlūnāted, 2 gəŋ ghēnēstīd] Prec & -ate & -ed. Having ganglia ganglion-cell, n Nucleated cell forming part of ganglion ganglionic, adj [1 gáŋghlōnīk, 2 gəŋghlōnīk] ganglion & -ic Of, pertaining to, resembling, a ganglion gang-plank, n Gang board gangrene (I), n [1 gáŋgrēn, 2 gəŋgrūn], fr Lat gangraena, fr Gk gaggraino, 'gangrene', perh cogn w Gk gággros, 'exorascence oo trees', O N lǫlir, 'mass of earth', Leth gungris, 'swelling, growth' 1 Mortification in some part of a living body, due to imperfect nutrition of the part, necrosis 2 (fig) Source of corruption, decay gangrene (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To cause gangrene, set up mortification 2 intrans To become gangrenous gangrenous, adj [1 gáŋgrēnus, 2 gəŋgrēnus] gangrene (I) & -ous Of the nature of, affected by, gangrene gangster, n [1 gáŋstər, 2 gəŋstə] gang

(I) & -ster (Am usage) Member of a gang of toughs or criminals gangue, n [1 gang, 2 gæŋ], fr Fr gangue, fr Germ gang, 'a going, walking, step, gait', a passage, channel, course, vein, lode', fr O H G gang, q v under gang (I) (min.) Rock &c in which metallic ore is embedded, matrix gangway, n [1 gæŋwā, 2 gæŋwei], fr O E gangweg, 'road', fr gang, 'a going, walking, passage, way, course, channel' See gang (I) & way Passage, way of approach, of ingress and egress Specif 1 a Passage between rows of seats, as in theatre, lecture hall &c, b esp the passage across the floor of the House of Commons, below the front benches of the Ministry and Opposition 2 a Bridge giving communication between the land and a ship lying alongside wharf, gang plank, b opening in ship's bulwarks in which this is placed.

ganister, ganister, n [1 ganister, 2 gænistə] Origin unknown, apparently a local name in Yorkshire A hard siliceous rock mixed with clay found in the Yorkshire coal measures, it is made into fire resisting bricks and used for lining metallurgical furnaces gannet n [1 ganet, 2 gænit] O E ganot, cp O H G ganazzo, 'gander', Dn gant, 'gander' Same base as gander, goose The solan goose ganoid, adj & n [1 gánoíd, 2 gænoíd], fr Fr ganotide, fr Gk gan (as), 'brilliance, splendour, joy', & -oid, cp Gk ganumata, 'rejoice' (fr gan new mi*), gêlêthê (fr gaw-ethê*), Lat gaudere (fr gaw idere*), 'to be joyful', Aryan base gāu*, 'to rejoice' See gaud 1 adj a (of fish scales) Smooth, hard, and polished, having the appearance of enamel, b (of fish) having such scales, as the sturgeon &c 2 n A ganoid fish gantlet, gantlope, n. See gauntlet (II).

gantry, n [1 gantri, 2 gæntri] O Fr dial ganter, Mod Fr chanter, 'framework', & in various other senses, fr Lat cantērus, 'beast of burden, pack-mule, framework, trolley' &c (cp our use of horse in similar sense), loan word fr Gk kanthēlos, 'pack ass', fr kanthōn, in same sense, the origin of wh is unknown. 1 A frame like structure supported at each end, made to span a distance a one built across several lines of rails, supporting signals, b bridge or platform carrying a travelling crane 2 Wooden frame to support barrels in a cellar &c gantry-crane, n Travelling crane mounted on platform

Ganymede n [1 gæniméd, 2 gænimíd], fr Lat, fr Gk Ganymēdēs, onphearer to Zeus 1 (facet) A young waiter 2 (astron) One of the satellites of Jupiter gaol (I), jail, n [1 jāl, 2 dzeil] M E gaiole, gaile, fr A-Fr gaiole, gaole, fr O Fr gaiole, fr Low Lat gabola*, dimin of Lat cavea, 'a cage' See cage 1 Building for confinement of persons arrested or sentenced by law, prison. 2 Confinement in a gaol to suffer the workhouse or the gaol gaol (II), vb trans, fr prec To pnt in gaol, imprison gaol-bird, n Habitual criminal, convict gaol-delivery, n A criminal assize for the trial of prisoners committed to gaol gaoler, jailer, jailor, n [1 jālér, 2 dželér] gaol & -er, -or a Man in charge of gaol, or of prisoners in gaol, b person responsible for keeping another in custody gaolress, jailress jailoress, n [1 jálérès, 2 dželérès] Prec & -ess Woman in charge of female prisoners gaol-fever, n Typhus fever, formerly prevalent in prisons.

gap n [1 gáp, 2 gæp] O N gap, 'chasm, abyss, deep sea', M E gappe, space, gap, interval', cp O N gapa, 'to yawn, split open' Mod Germ gaffer, 'to stand open-mouthed', Aryan base gha* (p), 'opening', cp, w different formative suff, Gk khazā, 'yawn', khazō, 'open' (fr khan-jō*), khazema, 'chasm, gulf' (see chasm), & w a different grade of vowel, Gk khēlos, 'a chest, coffin', khēramōs, 'a hole, cavity' See gap, chaos, hiatus, & op gape 1 Hole in bridge, fence, wall &c, cleft, opening, breach 2 Deep ravine, gully, gorge 3 (in non material sense) Interval, vacant period, blank, interruption of continuity, lacuna a gap in historical records, gaps in one's knowledge Phr to fill, stop, a gap, supply something lacking gape (I), vb intrans [1 gáp, 2 gæp] M E gappen, fr O N See prec 1 a (of human beings) To yawn, b to have and keep the mouth open, especially when staring, in a foolish, vacant manner, as from surprise, wonder &c to stand gaping, to gape at, to exhibit signs of foolish, ignorant wonder 2 (of the earth, or other solid substance) a To be opened, to open, to cleave or burst open, b to be, remain, stand open.

gape (II), n, fr prec 1 The act of gaping, a yawn 2 The gapes, a a disease of birds, characterized by constant gaping, b a fit of yawning 3 (zool.) Extent of extremest possible opening of mouth 4 An opening, gap, fissure, empty space gaper, n [1 gáper, 2 gæps] gape (I) & -er One who, that which, gapes, specif a kind of eel fish, b a kind of bird gappy, adj [1 gápi, 2 gæpi] gap & -y Having many gaps, not continuous or unbroken garage, n & vb trans [1 gárahzh, garij, 2 gær-ôz, gærdiz] Fr, lit 'protection, guardianship', fr (se) gar (er), 'to be on one's guard, protect oneself', & -age Of Gmc origin See ware (II) & wary 1 n a Building, shed, or part of one, in which vehicles are housed, specif, one set apart for housing motor cars, b commercial establishment where motor cars are stored, repaired, cleaned &c, and at which fittings and petrol for cars can be obtained 2 vb To pnt (a motor car) into a garage garb (I), n [1 garb, 2 gæb], fr Ital garbo, 'elegance, grace' Of Gmc origin Cp O H G gar(a)wi, 'preparation' See gear (I) Style of dress, costume, attire, esp style characteristic of occupation, period, country &c in the garb of a sailor, clerical garb, fantastic garb garb (II), vb trans, fr prec To dress, attire, array, clothe to garb oneself, be garbed, in moiley garb (III), n O Fr garbe (Mod Fr gerbe), fr O H G garba, 'sheaf, handful', wb is fr same base as grip & gripe (ber) Representation of a sheaf of corn garbage, n [1 garbij, 2 gæbɪdʒ] Perb fr O Fr garbe, 'a sheaf' See prec a Offal, refuse, waste matter removed from animal carcass intended for food, hence, b (fig) anything worthless, offensive literary garbage &c garble, vb trans [1 gárbl, 2 gæbl], fr Ital garbell (ore), fr Arab gharbala, 'to sift' 1 (rare) To sort, sift, pick out what is good in, take best of 2 (in bad sense) To select, over emphasize, parts of, make suppressions in, so as to misrepresent facts, to falsify, pervert, distort a garbled text, account, statement &c garboard, n [1 garbord, 2 gæbəd], fr Du garboord, fr gar, 'to gather', & boord, 'board' Garboard strake, a row of planks above keel on outside of ship's bottom, b similar row of plates in ship built of iron garçon, n [1 garson, 2 gærɔ̃] Fr, 'boy, waiter', fr gars, garce, 'guy', Meyer Lubke regards this as a Gmc loan word & connects w O H G warz, 'wart' The relation in meaning is obscure! Waiter in a French hotel gardant, also guardant, adj [1 gardant, 2 gædant] Fr, Pres Part of O Fr garder 'to guard, watch, look at, to keep, preserve' See guard, ward. (her, of animals) Depicted with head and face turned towards the spectator, looking straight forward, full-face garden (I), n [1 gárdn, 2 gædn] M E gardin, fr A-Fr gardin, fr Gmc Cp Mod Germ garten, O H G garto, 'garden', O H G gart, cogn w O E gard, 'enclosure, court, dwelling' See yard, & words there referred to, also garth 1 Piece of cultivated ground, often surrounding or adjoining house, for growing flowers, vegetables, fruit, trees &c, and including lawns, paths, and sometimes water &c, kitchen garden, for growing vegetables for domestic use, hanging garden, laid out in terraces, market garden, for growing flowers, vegetables, fruit &c for sale, rock garden, with mounds or slopes of pieces of rock built into soil between, for growing rock plants, ferns &c 2 (often in pl) Piece of enclosed ground for public enjoyment, planted with specimen flowers, trees, often with lawns and walks and glades &c, open to the public, and controlled and kept up by a public authority Botanic Garden(s), Kensington Gardens (London) 3 Specially fertile or highly cultivated region Phr the garden of England, Kent, Isle of Wight 4 (pl) Applied to rows of houses in towns, built round, or looking into a planted open space Sussex Gardens, Queen's Gardens &c 5 (attrib) A Cultivated, as distinct from wild garden plants, garden hyacinths, b found in, frequenting, gardens garden snail, c of, pertaining to, used in, a garden garden wall, gate, roller &c 6 The Garden, the school of Epicurus garden (II), vb intrans, fr prec To cultivate, work in, a garden garden city, n An industrial town laid out with wide tree planted roads, and plenty of garden space for houses and generally on the lines of a 'garden suburb', q v gardened, adj [1 gárdnd, 2 gædnd] garden (I) & -ed Cultivated, laid out as a garden, having a garden gardener, n [1 gárdner, 2 gædn-ə] garden (II) & -er a Person whose trade and occupation is to look after, cultivate, lay out, and plant gardens, b person who gardens for pleasure, one skilled in management of gardens and plants gardenesque, adj [1 gárdn esk, 2 gædn-esk] garden (I) & -esque Like a garden garden-frame, n Frame for forcing plants garden-glass, n Bell-glass for covering plants gardema, n [1 gárdéma, 2 gædéma], fr name of an American botanist, Alex Garden (d 1791), & -ia Genus of trees and shrubs, mainly tropical, with large, scented, yellow or white flowers gardening, n [1 gárdning, 2 gæd(ə)ning] garden (II) & -ing (I) The art or occupation of cultivating a garden garden-party, n. Social gathering held out of doors in a garden, or park.

garden-plot, n Piece of ground cultivated as a garden.

garden-seat, n. Seat used in, suitable for, a garden garden-stuff, n Garden produce, flowers, vegetables &c garden-suburb, n Tract of land adjoining a town, laid out for building, but so designed as to avoid appearance of a town, by leaving as much open space as possible round the houses, and by judicious planting of trees and shrubs &c garden-white, n A kind of cabbage butter-flv garefowl, n [1 gárfowl, 2 gæfau], fr O N gar ful See first element of next word, & fowl a The great auk, b the razor billed auk garfish, n [1 gárfish, 2 gæfɪʃ] M E garfish, fr O E gar, 'spear, javelin', cogn w O N garr, cp prec & see gore & fish. A long, slender fish, with jaws prolonged and tapering to a point Gargantuan, adj [1 gárgántiən, 2 gærgántiən], fr Gargantua, hero of Rabelais' work of same name, described as a giant w a huge appetite,

& -an Resembling, suitable to, characteristic of, Gargantua, very large, esp gargantuan meal, banquet &c, gargantuan appetite garget, n [1 gárgat, 2 gárgat] M E gargale, 'throat', fr O Fr gorgate Etymol doubtful 1 A swelling of the throat in pigs and cattle 2 Inflammation of the udder in cows or sheep gargle (I), vb intrans & trans [1 gárgl, 2 gárgl], fr Fr gargariller, 'to gargle', fr gargarille, 'throat' See gargoyles 1 intrans To rinse, wash, the throat with liquid, agitated and prevented from entering the windpipe by a continuous stream of air which is allowed to pass from the lungs 2 trans In Phr to gargle the throat, treat it by gargling gargle (II), n, fr prec Medicated liquid used for gargling gargoyle, gurgoyles, n [1 gárgoil, gárgoil, 2 gárgoil, gárgoil], fr O Fr gargarille, 'throat, water spout, gargoyle', fr Lat gurgulio, 'gullet, windpipe', w dissimilation fr gurgurio, redupl form, cp Lat gurgus, 'whirlpool', Scrt gargaras, 'abyss, whirlpool', O Slav grǫlo, Russ górla, 'throat' See gurgles Form of projecting waterspout used in Gothic architecture, often carved into grotesque representation of a human or animal figure, so devised that the water from the roof is conveyed through the mouth and is delivered clear of the walls of the building garibaldi, n [1 gáribaldi, 2 gáribaldi] Name of Italian patriot (died 1882) Kind of loose blouse worn by women in imitation of the red shirts of Garibaldi's followers garish, adj [1 gárish, 2 gárish] Perh connected w M E gause, 'to stare', & -ish Gaudy, showy, ostentatious, too bright or highly coloured garishly, adv Prec & -ly In a garish manner garishness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being garish garland (I), n [1 gárland, 2 gárland] M E, fr O Fr gerlonde, garlande &c, prob of Gmc origin, cp Frankish waron, 'to bind' 1 Wreath of flowers, or leaves, worn on head or round neck, also one used to adorn buildings &c, as decoration, token of rejoicing, victory &c 2 (fig) Token of victory, success, prize won in a contest, token of admiration and homage accorded to victor or successful contestant 3 Representation of a garland, painted, carved, cast in metal &c 4 (archaic) Anthology, collection of poems or literary excerpts garland (II), vb trans, fr prec To hang, adorn, with garlands, to wreath garlic, n [1 gárlík, 2 gárlík] O E gárlēac, M E gárlēk, fr O E gār, 'spear', see goro (II) & lēac, 'leek', see leek Perennial plant of onion kind, with long tapering leaves, and very pungent bulbous root with characteristic flavour, used for seasoning garlicky, adj [1 gárlík, 2 gárlík] Prec & -y Like garlic, having the smell or taste of garlic garment (I), n [1 gármēt, 2 gármēt] M E gar(n)ment, fr O Fr garnement, fr garni-(r), 'to fortify, to furnish, provide, to adorn' (see garnish) & -ment 1 A An article of clothing, b (pl) dress, costume, clothes 2 (fig) Outer covering, outward appearance, of anything the earth's garment of green garment (II), vb trans, fr prec (poet, but rare, and chiefly in PP) To array, robe, clothe garner (I), n [1 garner, 2 gáner], fr O Fr gerner, fr Lat granarium, 'granary' See granary (usually poet or fig) A Storehouse, place for storing corn &c, hence, b store, accumulation, e.g. a collection of literary pieces garner (II), vb trans, fr prec (usually fig or poet) To store up, accumulate garnet, n [1 gárnēt, 2 gárnēt] M E gernet, garnet, fr O Fr grenat, fr Med Lat granat (um), see pomegranate, fr resemblance of stone to pomegranate seeds 1 A vitreous mineral of various colours, red, brown, green &c 2 Deep red variety of garnet, semi-precious stone, out as a gem garnish (I), vb trans [1 gárnish, 2 gárnish], fr O Fr garni-(r), 'to fortify, to provide, furnish, to adorn', & -ish Of Gmc origin, cp O H G warnōn, 'provide, equip' See warn 1 a To decorate, adorn, improve appearance of Phr swept and garnished, thoroughly cleansed and brightened up, b specif, of food for table to garnish a dish with parsley, slices of lemon &c 2 (legal) To warn (a person) by serving him with a 'garnishee' order 3 (her) Garnished, ornamented with devices of specified tincture garnish (II), n, fr prec 1 A Anything used as decoration, b specif, articles used as embellishment, or as a relish, placed round a dish for the table 2 Literary ornament, embellishment garnishee (I), n & adj [1 gárnishē, 2 gárnishē] garnish (I) & -ee (law) 1 n A Person holding money or property of, or owing money to, another, on whom notice is served by a creditor of the latter under order of the court not to pay or hand over such money &c, b procedure of attachment by this means 2 adj Garnishee order, order obtained from a court by a creditor attaching funds of a debt or in hands of a third party garnishee (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To serve garnishee order on (party holding funds &c, of another) 2 To attach (funds) in hands of a third party by a garnishee order garnishing, n [1 gárnishung, 2 gárnishung] garnish (I) & -ing (I) Thing used as garnish garnishment, n [1 gárnishment, 2 gárnishment] garnish (I) & -ment 1 Ornament, embellishment 2 (law) Notice given to a person that he will be summoned to a court garniture, n [1 gármohur, 2 gármohur], fr Fr, fr garn (v), 'to furnish, provide, to adorn', see garnish (II), & PP ending -ure That which serves to adorn or embellish, ornament, furniture garotte See garrotte garret (I), n [1 gáret, 2 gáret], fr O Fr garie, 'watch-tower', Mod Fr guérie, 'sentinel's box', fr PP stem of garir, 'to guard, defend', fr Gmc, cp O H G werten, Goth wairan, 'to defend', Cp garage & see ware (II) & wary A Room immediately below the roof of house, with oblique and sometimes walls formed by slope of roof, attic, (loosely) b room on top storey of a house, attic, esp a poor small wretched room garret (II), vb trans Etymol unknown (archaic) To fill up interstices in coarse masonry by inserting small pieces of stone after the work of building is done garreteer, n [1 gáretēr, 2 gáretēr] garret (I) & -eer Person living in garret, esp poor writer, literary hack garreting, n [1 gáretang, 2 gáretang] See garret (II) & -ing A Process of filling up interstices between joints of coarse masonry with small splinters of stone, b result of this process; c material used garrison (I), n [1 gánsun, 2 gánsun], fr O Fr garnison, 'defence', fr garni-(r), 'to defend', see garret, & -son, confused in meaning w obsolete garnison, 'supply, provision', fr Fr garni-(r), 'to furnish' See garnish Military force stationed in town, fortress &c, to defend it garrison (II), vb trans, fr prec a To furnish (town, fortress &c) with garrison, b to act as a garrison for, to occupy (town &c) for defence, c to detail, send (troops &c) as garrison garrison artillery, n A Heavy artillery used for defence of fortifications, as distinguished from field artillery, b a corps, trained for the use of such artillery garrison town, n Town in which a garrison is stationed.

garron, n [1. gárun, 2 gáran], fr Gael gearran (Scots) Small, common breed of horse garrot, n [1 gárut, 2 gáret], fr Fr garrot Etymol unknown A kind of sea duck garrotte, garotte (I), n [1 garot, 2 gáret] Span garrote, 'strick', specif, 'stick twisted in rope &c, to tighten it', etymol uncertain 1 Instrument used for capital punishment in Spain and Portugal, originally with apparatus for strangling, now with brass collar fitted with a point which enters the spinal cord 2 Execution by means of the garrotte 3 Highway robber's method of strangling victim by approaching him from behind and putting cord, strap &c, across his throat garrotte (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To execute by strangling, with a garrotte 2 To strangle and rob garrotter, n [1 gárotēr, 2 gáretā] Prec & -er Highway robber who strangles his victims garrulity, n [1 gárobūti, 2 gárlūti], fr Lat garrulūti (em), 'chattering, loquacity', fr garrul (us), 'talkative' See next word & -ity Talkativeness, loquacity, tendency to chatter or talk constantly garrulous, adj [1 gárolous, 2 gárlous], fr Lat garrul (us), 'chattering, babbling, talkative', fr garr ire, 'to talk, chatter', & -ous, cp Gk gárus, 'voice', O Ir garrm, call, cry, O H G lara, 'lament' See charma (I) A Given to constant talking on trivial matters, talkative, loquacious, b (of stream &c) producing a constant ripple of sound, babbling, chattering garrulously, adv Prec & -ly In a garrulous manner garrulosity, n See prec & -ness The quality of being garrulous, garrulity garter (I), n [1 gártar, 2 gáta], fr O Fr garier, fr garal, 'band of the knee', prob Celt, cp Bret gar, W gar, 'bone of leg' 1 Band worn round leg above or below knee to keep stocking in place 2 (cap) A Highest order of knighthood in Great Britain, founded c 1344, b badge of this order of knighthood, c Garter King of Arms, d mena bership of the order garter (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 a To support (stocking) with garter, b to bind (log) with garter 2 To invest (person) with the Order of the Garter

Garter King of Arms, n One of three chief heralds of the College of Arms of England garter-snake, n One of several species of harmless American snake, named from its markings garth, n [1 gárlh, 2 gárlh], fr O N garþr, 'enclosed court, yard, dwelling' Cogn w O H G gart, O E gearð See yard (II) (archaic and dialectal) Enclosed space, yard, court, garden gas (I), n [1 gas, 2 gas] Word invented by Lofgan chemist, van Helmont (d 1644), & suggested by Gk chaos, see chaos 1 One of variously composed vaporous substances, having the property of, and tendency to, indefinite expansion, in popular usage, gas made from coal, used for heating and lighting Phrs to light the gas, turn down the gas &c 2 Specif (mil) one of various kinds of poisonous gases used in warfare 3 Kind of gas (nitrous oxide) used as anaesthetic (also laughing gas) 4 (mun) Mixture of air and fire damp 5 (fig, colloq) Empty talk, eloquence devoid of substance 6 (Am) Gasolene, petrol Phr to step on the gas, accelerate (in motor-car) gas (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans (mil) To poison by gas fumes 2 intrans (colloq) To talk nonsense at great length gas-bag, n 1 Bag for containing gas, as of a balloon, or airship 2 (colloq) Person who talks nonsense at great length, loquacious twaddler gas-bracket, n Pipe projecting from wall of room &c, fitted with burner for lighting by gas gas-buoy, n. A buoy containing a small tank or reservoir of illuminating gas, used for lighting a fairway, marking a shoal &c at night gas-burner, n. Pierced jet through which illuminating gas passes from pipe to the air gas-coal, n. Kind of coal from which gas for lighting is obtained Gascon, n. [1 gaskon, 2 gaskon] Fr a native of Gascony, b a hoaster, blusterer gasconade, n & vb intrans [1 gaskonad, 2 gaskoneid] fr Fr, fr prec & -ade 1 n Boastful talk, bluster, brag 2 vb To boast gaseity, n. [1 gashia, 2 gashiti] See gaseous & -ity The quality of being gaseous gaselier, n. [1 gaselér, 2 gashia] fr gaa, w ending formed on anal of chandelier Hanging and branching structure consisting of tubes supplying several gas burners gas-engine, n. Engine driven by regularly recurring explosions of gas in cylinder gaseous, adj [1 gáseus, 2 geisús] gas & -eous Of the nature of, in the form of, gas gas-fire, n. Fire in which the heat is supplied by gas gas-fitter, n. a Workman who installs gas pipes, brackets &c, b tradesman supplying these gas-fittings, n. Pipes, lamps &c for heating or lighting by gas gas gangrene, n. A form of spreading gangrene occurring in wounds infected by a special bacillus, which forms bubbles of gas gash (I), n. [1 gash, 2 gash] ME garre, n., fr O Fr garser, prob fr L carazure, fr Gk kharsen, 'to sharpen, to cut, scratch, incise, inscribe', op khazar, 'pointed stake', whence Gk kharakter, 'engraved mark' See character Long, deep cut, slash, fissure, cleft (in land) gash (II), vb trans, fr prec To cut deeply, slash gas-helmet, n. Covering for the head and face, used as a protection against poison gas in warfare, for rescue work in mines, or in cases of fire &c, a gas mask, the impregnated air before being breathed is passed through or over chemicals able to absorb and extract the poison gas gasifiable, adj [1 gasifiabl, 2 gasifiabli] gasify & -able Capable of being converted into gas gasification, n. [1 gasifikashun, 2 gasifikés] [on] gas & -fication Process of gasifying, state of being gasified gasiform, adj [1 gasiform, 2 gasiform] gas & -form In the form of gas, gaseous gasify, vb trans [1 gasifi, 2 gasifi] gaa & -ty To convert into gas, obtain gas from gasket, n. [1 gasket, 2 gashit] Ital gashella, 'rope end', cp Fr garcelle 1 (nant) Piece of rope or strip of canvas used to tie furling sail to yard 2 Piece of tow &c packed round piston &c, or in joint to make it water tight gas-light, n. a Light produced by gas, b lamp or burner lit by gas gas-main, n. Chief pipe conveying gas from gas works which supplies smaller pipes in houses &c gas-man, n. a Man employed in the manufacture of gas, b man who collects money payable for supply of gas gas-mantle, n. Device for increasing the illuminating power of gas, consisting of a net of cotton fabric chemically treated with thorium &c, which becomes incandescent when it is heated by the gas flame enclosed by it gas-mask, n. A form of gas helmet, q v gas-meter, n. Instrument registering quantity of gas consumed gasogene, n. See gazogene gasolene, -inc, n. [1 gasolén, 2 gasolin] gas & -ol & -ene a Inflammable liquid produced in distilling petroleum, used for lighting and heating, b (Am) petrol used for internal combustion engine gasometer, n. [1 gasómeter, 2 gasómite] gas & -o & -meter 1 Large tank at gas-works for storing gas 2 (ohom) Apparatus for collecting, containing, or measuring gas gasp (I), vb intrans & trans [1 gahsp, 2 gúsp] ME gaspen, fr ON geispe, 'to yawn', cp w different formative elements, OE giscian, 'to sch', ON gjo, 'cleft, split', gino, 'to gape open', OE ginan, 'to gape, split', gimion, 'to yawn', O Slav zèah, Lath ziyau, 'to yawn', Lat hiore, 'to split, yawn, gape' Aryan base ghē(s), ghī, gho*, 'to gape open, to be empty' See further chaos, gape, hiatus, yawn 1 intrans a To struggle for breath, breathe through the mouth with difficulty, and in a rapid, spasmodic manner, to pant, b to catch the breath in astonishment &c 2 trans Gasp out, a to utter with gasps to gasp out a few words, b to gasp out one's life, to die gasp (II), n., fr prec Sudden catching of the breath through fear, astonishment, exhaustion &c Phr at the one's last gasp, in extremity, at the point of death gasper, n. [1 gahsper, 2 gdepā] gasp (I) & -er (slang) A cheap cigarette, a fag gaspig, adj [1 gáhsung, 2 gáspin] fr Pres Part of gasp (I) Convulsive, spasmodic gaspigly, adv Prec & -ly In a gasping manner, with gasps gas-pipe, n. Pipe for conveying gas gas-ring, n. Tubular ring attached to gas pipe, pierced with holes for gas jets to supply heat for cooking gas-shell, n. Explosive shell filled with poisonous or blistering gas or chemical, fired from a gun or dropped by aeroplane in war gas-stove, n. Cooking stove heated by gas gassy, adj [1 gas, 2 gasi] gas & -y 1 a Gaseous, b full of gas 2 (of talk &c) Boastful, empty, pretentious gas-tar, n. Coal tar gast(e)ropod, n. [1 gást(e)ropòd, 2 gast(e)ropòd] gast(r)- & Gk pod, stem of poie, 'foot', q v under pedal & -pod Member of a class of molluscs which move by means of a muscular disk on the surface of the stomach, e.g. snails, limpets, slugs &c gasteropodous, adj [1 gasteropodus, 2 gas taripada] Prec & -ous Of the nature of a gasteropod gastrea, n. [1 gastrea, 2 gastria] Scientific name fr Gk gaster, 'belly' See gast(r)- Hypothetical primitive ancestral form of animal life gastrie, adj [1 gástrik, 2 gastrik] See gast(r)- & -ic Of, connected with, the stomach, gastrie juice, thin acid fluid secreted by glands of stomach and acting as digestive, gastrie ulcer, one in the stomach gastritis, n. [1 gastitis, 2 gastritis] gast(r)- & -itis Inflammation of the stomach gast(r)-, pref representing Gk gast(e)r-, stem of gastér, 'stomach', prob fr gms*, w orig sense 'receptacle', cp Gk gémén, 'to be full', orig 'to contain', gémós, 'cargo, load', no cognates apparently outside Gk Connected with the stomach gastrologer, n. [1 gastrologer, 2 gastrolodze] gast(r)- & -loger Gastrologist gastrologist, n. [1 gastrologist, 2 gastrolodist] gast(r)- & -logist A student of gastrology, lover of good food well cooked gastrology, n. [1 gastroloji, 2 gastrolodis] gast(r)- & -logy The science of cookery gastronomie, n. [1 gástronóm, 2 gastrenóm] fr Fr, back-formation fr gastronomy Gastronomer gastronomer, n. [1 gástronómor, 2 gastrenómor] See gastronomy & -er A connoisseur of cookery and good eating, an epicure gastronomie(al), adj [1 gástronómik(i), 2 gastrenómik(i)] fr Gk gastronóm (ia), 'gastronomy' See gastronomy & -ic & -al Pertaining to gastronomy gastronomically, adv Prec & -ly In a gastronomical manner gastronomist, n. [1 gástronómist, 2 gastrenómist] See next word & -ist Gastronomer gastronomy, n. [1 gástronómí, 2 gastrenómí] fr Fr gastronomie, fr Gk gastronomia, 'gastronomy', fr gast(r)-, on anal of astronomy The science or art of cookery and diet gas-works, n. Establishment for the manufacture of gas for heating and lighting gate (I), n. [1 gát, 2 geit] fr ME gôte, derived fr such an OE type as gatu, n pl of geat Etymol doubtful, but prob connected w gate (III) & possibly w gait & gut A gate may be generally defined as one of various movable structures used for giving or denying ingress and egress through an opening in a wall, fence, hedge &c It differs from a door in that while the latter word is primarily used of a structure closing an entrance to a closed and roofed building, a gate closes the entrance to an open space within an enclosure of walls &c, such as a field or court A gate may consist of an open framework, or a solid structure, of wood or iron, it is hung from hinges and swings so as to close, or leave open, the space in the wall, fence &c into which it fits, and it is capable of being fastened with a catch or lock Specific uses 1 A structure of kind described used to close the entrance into a courtyard or quadrangle of a large building such as a castle, college &c, b one giving entrance through the wall surrounding a city, c one giving entrance to a stable, or other yard, d one leading through a wall, fence, or hedge into a park, garden, field, e one constructed and placed so as to close a roadway, turnpike gate 2 (loosely) The structure immediately surrounding a gate of any of the above kinds, including not only the gate itself, but also the posts from which the gate is hung, and the opening in the wall, fence &c which the gate fills, i e the gateway, hence Phr to go through the gate 3 A number of persons entering the gate of a field in which sports or games are being held on a given day, those entering any form of public, open-air entertainment, exhibition &c, b money taken at the gate on given occasion from those paying to see a match, exhibition &c, gate money 4 Wooden or iron structure in a canal, dock &c, used to control the in rush or out flow of water gate (II), vh trans, fr prec (Universities of Oxford and Cambridge) To confine to college after certain hours gate (III), n. ME gáte, fr ON gata, 'road, street', cp Mod Germ gasse, 'lane', prob connected w gate (I) (Nthn) Street, lane, passage, generally distinguished by special name prefixed gate-bill, n. (Universities of Oxford and Cambridge) a Record of undergraduate's absences from college after prescribed hours, b fines imposed for such absences gate-crasher, n. (slang) Person who intrudes at a private party, reception &c to which he has not been invited, one who obtains admission to a public entertainment without a ticket gate-house, n. House at side of, or built over, a gate leading into a courtyard or quadrangle, park &c, used as porter's lodge, or as defensive structure with guard rooms &c gate-keeper, n. Person in charge of gate and of its opening and shutting gate-legged table, n. Table with legs having bars resembling a wooden gate, made to swing back, so as to allow part of table top to fold downwards gateless, adj [1 gátles, 2 geitlis] gate (I) & -less Without a gate gate-money, n. Money taken at entrance gate giving access to a match or open-air exhibition gate-post, n. One of two posts between which gate is swung Phr between you and me and the gate post, in strict confidence

- gateway, n. [1 gátwā; 2 géstwē] 1. Opening in wall, hedge, fence, filled by a gate. 2 (fig) Means of approach: gateway to knowledge, success &c
- gather, vb trans & intrans [1. gáðher, 2 gæðs] OE gaderan, ME gaderen; cp O Frs gader, MHG gaderen Cp further OE gædor, 'together', gæð(e)re, 'together' (see together), (ge)gader, 'companion'; Goth gadiŕga, OHG gadiŕing, 'relative'; OE gædeling, 'companion'; O Slav goditi, 'to be pleasant, precious', goditi, 'acceptable', Lett gāds, 'property, provision', Scrt gādhyaś, 'to possess, retain, hold fast'. Aryan base ghādh-*, 'to possess; hence, to value'. See also good. A. trans. 1 To bring together, cause to assemble; to draw: he succeeded in gathering a crowd about him Phr. to be gathered to one's fathers, to die 2 To amass, acquire, obtain, collect gradually to gather wealth, a collection of valuables &c Phrs to gather strength, volume, become stronger, larger, gather way, speed, (of moving body) increase in momentum, speed, to gather one's energies, make great effort of strength, gather oneself together, brace oneself for an effort 3 A To pick up, collect (mammate objects or substances). to gather shells, pebbles &c, the bee gathers honey, b to pick, pluck (growing things): to gather flowers, blackberries &c 4 a To take into, and store in, the mind, to acquire gradually. to gather impressions, experience &c, b to derive a mental impression, acquire information. I could gather nothing from his statement 5 To form into folds, pleats, specif in sewing, to draw (material) into small pleats by means of a thread drawn through it Phr to gather the brows, pucker, wrinkle, them B intrans 1 a To assemble, come together, congregate, form into masses. a crowd had gathered, gathering clouds, (also fig, of non-material things) troubles and anxieties gathered round his later years, b (chiefly fig) to increase in volume, accumulate suspicion was gathering rapidly in his mind 2 To form a suppurating swelling, fester C Followed by adverb Gather up 1 a to pick up and place together to gather up the crumbs, one's work, books &c, also b (of mental action) to gather up the threads (of a story &c), 2 to draw up, contract (one's limbs &c)
- gathering, n. [1 gáðhering, 2 gæðerig] Prec & -ing Esp 1 an assembly, meeting, coming together a social, political, gathering &c 2 A swelling, abscess 3 (book-binding) Single folded sheet
- gathering-coal, n. Large lump placed on fire to keep it alight all night
- gatherers, n. [1 gáðherz, 2 gæðaz] fr gather Small folds or pleats in material, garment &c drawn together by a thread
- Gatling, n. [1 gátling, 2 gátliŋ] fr name of American inventor (died 1903) Also Gatling-gun a kind of quick-firing machine gun
- gauche, adj [1 gôsh, 2 gous] Fr, lit 'left hand', of Gmo origin, cp OHG welh, 'soft, damp', Germ welk, 'withered, faded', q v under welk Tacitless, awkward, lacking in social ease and grace
- gaucherie, n. [1 gáðberé, 2 gôuŕer] Fr Prec & -ery Tacitlessness, awkward, clumsy, action or manner
- gaucho, n. [1 gônbô, 2 gautjou] Span, prob fr native Indian name A cowboy, rider, of Argentine or Uruguay, of mixed European and Indian blood
- gaud, n. [1 gawd, 2 gôd] fr O Fr goudir, 'to make merry', fr Lat gaudere, 'to rejoice, be pleased, delight in', fr earlier gawd-, fr gawedh-, op Gk gáidē (fr gawēth-ē*), 'to rejoice', gáw-ros, 'proud' See joy 1 Piece of showy finery, tasteless ornament 2 (pl) Gaudies, pretentious ceremony
- gaudily, adv [1 gáwdih, 2 gôdih] gandy (II) & -ly In a gandy manner
- gaudiness, n. [1 gáwdines, 2 gôdinis] gaudy (II) & -ness The quality of being gaudy.
- gaudy (I), n. [1 gawdi, 2 gôdi] fr Lat gaudium, 'joy, delight, gladness, expression or occasion of joy', fr gaud- (ēre), 'to rejoice' See gaud. A feast, entertainment, esp an annual or periodic college dinner given to former members.
- gaudy (II), adj Prob fr prec 1 Gay, brilliant, showy gaudy plumage; esp garish, over-brilliant, vulgarly fine. gaudy dresses, decorations &c 2 (of liter style &c.) Over-elaborate, showy, ornate
- gauffer See goffer
- gauge (I), n. [1 gā, 2 geidi] fr A-Fr gauge. Origin doubtful 1 Standard measure, specif a diameter of bore of gun, b thickness of sheet-metal; c distance between rails, broad, narrow, gauge, greater, less, than standard gauge of 56½ in 2 Instrument for determining, indicating, regulating, the measure, quantity, amount, capacity &c, specif a instruments recording amount of rainfall, height of tide, speed of wind, force of current &c, b instrument for testing size of tools, wire &c; c (print) metal strip for regulating width of margin. 3 (naut) usually gauge position in relation to wind and to another vessel. Phr. to have the weather gauge of, to be windward of (fig) to have the advantage of. 4 (fig) Extent, scope, compass Phr to take the gauge of, measure, estimate 5 (fig) Means of estimating, reckoning, testing
- gauge (II), vb trans, fr A-Fr gauger 1 To measure accurately, determine exact dimensions, quantity, force &c of, a thing made in standard size(s), e.g. wire, b things varying in quantity &c, e.g. rainfall. 2 To ascertain capacity of (vessel holding liquid, cask &c) 3 (referring to mental action) To estimate, measure, appraise, draw conclusion as to capacity or quality of, size up to gauge a person, a person's character &c
- gaugeable, adj [1 gāyabl, 2 geidiabl] Prec & -able Capable of being gauged
- gauger, n. [1 gājer, 2 geidiŕ] gauge (II) & -er (obs Scots) One who gauges and measures the capacity of casks of excisable liquor, an exciseman
- gauging-rod, n. [1 gājung rôd, 2 geidiŕng rôd] Instrument for ascertaining capacity of cask, esp of excisable liquor
- Gaul, n. [1 gawli, 2 gôli] fr name of country, Gaul, fr Fr Gaulle, fr Lat Gallia, fr Gall (us), 'a Gaul' See Gallic 1 Native of ancient Gaul 2 (facetious) Frenchman
- Gaulish, adj & n. [1 gāwlish, 2 gôliŕ] Prec & -ish 1 adj a Of, pertaining to, the Gauls, b (facetious) French 2 n The language of ancient Gaul
- gault, n. [1 gawit, 2 gôli] Etymol unknown (geol) Beds of clay between upper and lower greensand
- gaunt, adj [1 gawnt, 2 gônt] Perh Scand Cp Norw gond, 'thin person' a (of person, figure, face &c) Thin, lean, haggard, emaciated, b (of trees, shadows &c) long, lanky, uncannily attenuated, grim, forbidding
- gauntlet (I), n. [1 gáwntlet, 2 gôntlit] fr Fr gonflet, fr gant, 'glove', fr O Swed wante. 1 (hist) Leather glove covered with metal plates, forming part of armour, Phr (lit and fig) to throw down, fling down, the gauntlet, to issue a challenge, to take up the gauntlet, accept a challenge 2 Strong glove with long, wide extension covering wrist, esp for driving &c
- gauntlet, *gauntlet (II), n. Earlier gantlope, fr Swed gallopp, fr gata, 'lane', cp O.N. gata, 'road', q v under gate (III), & lopp, 'course', cogn w leap To run the gauntlet, as a punishment, to pass between two rows of persons who strike the victim as he passes, b (fig) to be exposed to hostile attacks, criticism &c*
- gauntleted, adj [1 gáwntleted, 2 gôntleted] gauntlet (I) & -ed Having, wearing, a gauntlet
- gauntiness, n. [1 gawntnes, 2 gôntnes] gaunt & -ness The quality or condition of being gaunt.
- gantry, n. See gantry
- gaur, n. [1 gour, 2 gurs] Hind. The wild ox, Bos gaurus, of the Indian hill forests and jungles
- gauze, n. [1 gawz, 2 gôz] fr Fr gaze. Etymol uncertain 1 Very fine transparent fabric of silk or other thin substance 2 Thin mist, light fog, haze
- gauntness, n. [1 gawtnes, 2 gôznes] Next word & -ness The quality of being gauzy
- gauzy, adj [1 gawzi, 2 gôzi] gauze & -y. Like gauze, thin, fine, diaphanous
- gave, vb [1 gāv; 2 geiv] O B geaf, ME ȝaf, gāve. Pret of give
- gavel, n. [1 gāvi; 2 gēvi] Etymol uncertain Hammer, small mallet, used by the chairman or presiding officer at a meeting, in calling for silence or for speakers to resume their seats &c, b by auctioneers
- gavelkind, n. [1 gāvikind; 2 gāvikand] fr obs gavel, O.E. gofol, 'tribute', fr type geaf ('WS geaf'), as in Pret sing of O.E. gifeŕon, 'to give'. See gave gave Mode of land-tenure, now esp in Kent and Wales, whereby property of man dying intestate is divided equally between all his sons
- gavial, n. [1 gāvial, 2 geivial] Fr, apparently erroneous form, fr Hind. ghariyāl A kind of crocodile with long, slender snout, found in the Ganges, Indus, and other rivers of India
- gavotte, n. [1 gāvôt, 2 gevôt] Fr, fr Provenc parvota, fr Garc, inhabitant of country round Gap in the Alps. 1 A lively, dignified dance, resembling the minuet but in common time 2 A music for the gavotte, b musical composition in common time, with two parts, each repeated, as part of a suite
- gawk, n. [1 gawk, 2 gôk] Origin uncertain An awkward, shy, and clumsy person
- gawkiness, n. [1 gāwkines, 2 gôkines] Next word & -ness The quality of being gawk.
- gawky, adj & n. [1 gāwki, 2 gôki] gawk & -y 1 adj Clumsy, awkward, ungainly Applied to a tall, overgrown person 2 n Gawk person
- gay, adj [1 gā, 2 ge] fr Fr gai, perh fr OHG gāhi, 'pretty' 1 a (of persons and their character, behaviour &c) Filled with, expressing, inclined to, joy, and lively feeling, merry, light-hearted, cheerful gay voices, a gay dance, company, laugh &c, b (in bad sense) immoral, dissipated to lead a gay life Phr (colloq) gay lady, (i) a light woman, (ii) the queen in cards 2 (of sensuous impressions) Conveying sense of gaiety and liveliness, suggesting, conducing to this, hence, bright, showy, of brilliant appearance gay colours, gay garments, plumage &c, a gay time
- gayal, n. [1 gial, 2 goyal] Hind A kind of ox domesticated in India, probably a form of the wild ox, the gaur
- gaze (I), vb intrans [1 gāz, 2 geiz] ME gāsen, Scand, cp Swed gasa Origundoubted To fix one's eyes, look intently, fixedly, and wistfully to gaze into the sky, a person's face, to gaze at, on, upon, a thing &c
- gaze (II), n. fr prec Prolonged, steady look, fixed regard Phr at gaze, in the attitude of gazing
- gazebos, n. [1 gāzēbō, 2 gāzibou] Prob facetious formation fr gaze (I) Balcony, turret, summer-house, in a garden &c, commanding a wide view
- gazelle, n. [1 gazel, 2 gazel] Fr, fr Arab ghazāl Small, delicately formed antelope of North Africa and Asia with large, gentle eyes
- gazette (I), n. [1 gāzet, 2 gāzet] fr Fr, fr Ital gazzetta, orig doubtful, usually connected w small Venetian coin of this name worth less than a penny 1 (hist) A Record of current events, published periodically, news sheet, journal, b used as title of various newspapers. 2 a (cap) One of four official journals, published in London, Edinburgh,

Belfast, and Dublin, giving lists of public, government, military, and naval appointments, and other public notices, b official publication of University of Oxford &c, containing university notices of all kinds gazette (II), vb trans, fr prec To publish in the Gazette (appointment, name of person appointed &c) gazetteer, n [1 gāzēter, 2 gāzētīf] gazette (I) & -eer (from early use of gazetteer by gazette writers) Geographical dictionary gazogene, gasogene, n [1 gāz-, gasojēn, 2 gāz-, gasōjēn], fr Fr gazogene gas & -gen. Apparatus for making aerated water gear (I), n [1 gēr, 2 gēr] ME gēre, 'equipment, clothes, armour', prob fr ON geri, 'equipment', cogn w OE gearwe, O.H.G. garawī, fr Gmc garw-*, 'ready, prepared' Cp yare 1 a (archaic) Apparel, clothes, equipment, accoutrements; b animal's harness, esp that for draught animals 2 Apparatus, implements, tackle, for work &c 3 Piece of mechanism in machines consisting of a system of toothed wheels, which communicate motion to, or receive it from, each other, the gear controls the number and speed of the revolutions of the ultimate moving part (driven part) of the machinery relatively to those of the part from which the motive power of the machine is primarily derived (driving part), high gear, adjustment by which the driven part of the machinery moves relatively fast, low gear, adjustment whereby the driven part moves relatively slow. Phr. out of gear, not adjusted by, or connected with, the gearing mechanism, (fig, gen of material and non material conditions) not working smoothly, out of relation, inharmonious gear (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 (also gear up) To harness 2 To put parts of machinery in relation, connect with, the gear Phr to gear up, down, to put into high, low, gear (see prec 3) B intrans To work in relation to the gear to gear with gear-box, n Case enclosing and protecting gear wheels &c, of bicycle &c gear-case, n Gear box gearing, n [1 gērɪŋ, 2 gērɪŋ] gear (I) & -ing System of cog wheels forming gear of a machine gearless, adj [1 gērles, 2 gērles] gear (I) & -less Without a gear gear-wheel, n Cog wheel forming part of the gear mechanism gecko, n [1 gēko, 2 gēko], fr Malay geko, imitative Kind of house lizard, found in warm countries, having adhesive disks on its toes which facilitate climbing gee (I), gee-gee, n [1 jē (jē), 2 dži (dži)], fr next word (childish or colloq) Horse gee (II), gee-up &c, interj Exclamation used to urge on a horse geese, pl of goose

geeser, geezer, n [1 gēzər, 2 gēzər] Variant of guesser (colloq slang) Old person, fellow, bloke gegenschein, n [1 gāgonsāin, 2 gēigonsāin] Germ Counter-glow, a faint, luminous patch seen opposite the sun's place in the sky, while it is still below the horizon gehenna, n [1 gēhēna, 2 gēhēna] Eccles Lat gehenna, fr Gk gehēna, fr Heb Ge Hinnom, valley in which children were sacrificed to Moloch, hence, hell a Hell, hence, b place of misery or torment geisha, n [1 gēsha, 2 gēsha] Jap Jap'n see enjo and dancing girl gelatin(e), n [1 jēlatin, ēn, 2 dželatin, in], fr Fr gelatine, fr Ital gelatina, fr gelata, 'jelly', fr Lat gelata fem P P of gelare, 'to freeze, to stiffen' See gelid, jelly & -in Hard, brittle, transparent, brownish-yellow substance, having an unpleasant smell when dissolved in hot water, obtained by long simmering, from animal tissue, bones, hoofs, horns &c, gelatine paper, covered with sensitized gelatine, for photography, explosive, blasting, gelatine, highly explosive compound of nitro glycerine, vegetable gelatine, gelatinous substance contained in gluten gelatiniform, adj [1 jēlatiniform, jēlatiniform, 2 dželatiniform, dželatiniform] Free & -i-form. In the form of gelatine gelatinize, vb trans & intrans [1 jēlatiniz, 2 dželatiniz] gelatine & -ize 1 trans To convert into a jelly like substance 2 intrans To become gelatinous gelatinoid, adj [1 jēlatinoid, 2 dželatinoid] gelatine & -oid Like gelatine in consistency gelatinous, adj [1 jēlatinus, 2 dželatinus] gelatine & -ous Having consistency of gelatine or jelly gelation, n [1 jēlāshun, 2 dželēshun], fr Lat gelātō (em), 'freezing', fr gelai (um), P P type of gelare, 'to freeze', & -iōn See solid See further glacial Solidification by freezing geld, vb trans [1 geld, 2 geld], fr ON gelda, 'to out, gold'; cogn w Gotb gylpa, 'nickle', lit cutting implement This represents an Aryan ghell*, fr wh. also Lith zirkles, 'shears', w dissimilation, fr ghli* lo, &c, by a similar process Lat furcula, 'forked prop' See fork To deprive of testicles, to castrate gelding, n [1 gēlding, 2 gēldɪŋ], fr ON geldingr Free & -ing A gelded animal, specif, a castrated horse &c gelid, adj [1 jēlid, 2 dželid], fr Lat gelidus, 'icy, frosty', fr gel (us), 'frost, cold', cogn w gelare, 'to freeze', op also Lat glacies, 'ice', see glacial, fr base gela*, 'to freeze cold', fr forms of wh come also chill, cold, cool 1 icy, freezing, frosty, ice cold 2 (fig, of temperament, manner &c) Frigid, not cordial gelignite, n [1 jēlignit, 2 dželignit] Invented word fr gelatin & Lat ign (is), 'fire', see ignite, & -ite A high explosive used for blasting purposes gem (I), n [1 jēm, 2 džēm] ME gemme, fr Lat gemma, 'a bud, gem' See gemma 1 A precious stone, esp when cut and polished 2 Carved or engraved precious or semi-precious stone 3 Anything of great beauty or value, or of exquisite finish, the gem of the whole collection, finest thing in it gem (II), vb trans, fr prec To set, stud, with, or as with, gems

Gemara, n [1 gemāra, 2 gemāra] Aram sic, 'completion' Second part of Talmud, an commentary on the first part, the Mishna gemels, n [1 jémelz, 2 džémelz] O Fr 'twin', fr base gem-*, q v under Gemini, & -el 1 (her) bare gemels, or gemels, bars or barrulets borne in pairs on the shield 2 Gumbel geminate (I), adj [1 jémnat, 2 džémnat], fr Lat gemināt (um), P P type of geminare, 'to double, repeat, to unite', fr gemin (us), 'twin, double' See Gemini. (bot., zool) Occurring in pairs geminate (II), vb trans [1 jémnat 2 džémnat] See prec 1 To double, repeat 2 To place, arrange, in pairs gemination n [1 jémnatshun, 2 džémnatshun] Free & -iōn The act of geminating, state of being geminated

Gemini (I), n [1 jémni, 2 džémni] Lat, 'twins', specif, the constellation, Castor & Pollux, fr pl of geminus, twin, double, twofold, prob cogn w Gk gamēō, 'I marry' (see gemma), Lat gener (fr gem*), 'son in law', M Ir gemel, 'fetter', O N limbelle, 'bundle', Aryan base gem*, 'to join, unite, fasten' (cap) a The constellation of Castor and Pollux, b the third sign of the Zodiac gemma (II), interj [1 jémum, 2 džémum], fr prec (obs) Exclamation expressing surprise &c gemma, n [1 jēma, 2 džēma] Lat gemma, 'a bud, a precious stone, gem', fr gem* mā, cogn w Lith lėmbu, O Slav zēbat, 'to bud, sprout' The orig meaning may have been 'small projection', the nearest cognates appear to be Serb jambāsh, O Slav zēbā, 'tooth', Gk gōmphos, 'nail' Aryan base gēmbh*, gōmbh*, gēmbh* &c, 'pointed projection, peg tooth &c' See also cornish 1 (bot) a leaf bud, b (in mosses) small mass of cells separating from mother plant to form a new plant 2 (zool) Bud like outgrowth in some organisms, developing into new individual gemmate (I), adj [1 jémāt, 2 džémāt], fr Lat gemma (us), P P of gemma, 'to bud', fr gemma, 'a bud' See prec a Having buds, b reproducing by gemmation gemmate (II), vb intrans [1 jémāt, 2 džémāt], fr Lat gemma (um) P P type of gemma, 'to bud' See gemma a To bud, produce buds, b to be reproduced by gemmation gemmation, n [1 jémāshun, 2 džémāshun] Free & -iōn 1 a The act or process of budding, b arrangement of buds on stem. 2 Development of new individual from bud-like outgrowth which separates from parent organism gemmiferous, adj [1 jēmiferus, 2 džēmiferus], fr Lat gemmifer, 'bearing gems' gemma & -i- & -ferous- 1 Yielding gems 2 (bot and zool) Producing buds gemmiparous, adj [1 jēmiparus, 2 džēmiparus] gemma & -i- & -parous Propagating by means of buds gemmule, n [1 jémül, 2 džémül], fr Fr, fr Lat gemmula, 'a little bud, small gem' gemma & -ula (zool and bot) A small, rudimentary gemma or bud gemmy, adj [1 jēmi, 2 džēmi] gem (I) & -y Containing set with, gems, like a gem gemshok, n [1 gemzbok, 2 gemzbok] Dn, cp Germ gemshock, the buck or male of the chamois A kind of South African antelope, with very long, straight, slender horns

-gen, suff, representing Fr -gene, fr Gk -γενēs, 'born of, produced by, of the nature of', fr stem genē*, fr Aryan base g(e)nē-, g(e)nō-, gēn-* &c, 'to produce, beget' See genus, & words there referred to The suff forms scientific names, in the senses of a 'producing' oxygen, nitrogen &c, b 'produced' - endogen genappe, n [1 zhēnāp, 2 žēnāp], fr town in Belgium A smooth worsted yarn used in making braid &c gendarme, n [1 zhondārm, 2 žādm] Fr, fr gens d'armes, 'men at (of) arms' 1 Member of a military force in France used to preserve public order, and performing many of the functions of police 2 Projecting peak or tower of rock gendarmérie, n [1 zhondārmērē, 2 žādmērē] Fr Free & -ary Military force consisting of gendarmes, these collectively gender (I), n [1 jēnder, 2 džende] M.E. gendre, 'kind, gender', fr O Fr genre, gendre, fr Lat gener, stem of genus, 'sort, kind, class' See genus 1 Grammatical conception, corresponding to sex, or the absence of it, in nature, but, in many languages, not entirely coincident with it. Gender concerns primarily nouns, and thence pronouns, and adjectives which refer to, or are applied to these The distinction is made between (1) natural gender which corresponds exactly to sex or the absence of it, the names of male persons and animals being masculine, those of females feminine, those of inanimate subjects neuter (or common), this holds in Modern English, (2) grammatical gender, which does not correspond to sex, as in many Aryan languages Gender of nouns and adjectives is expressed in inflexional languages by the endings where these have not been lost, in personal pronouns usually by the general form as well 2 (colloq) Sex.

gender (II), vb trans, fr O Fr gendrer, fr Lat generare, 'to engender, produce', fr gerer, stem of genus (poet) To engender, generate.

genderless, adj [1 jéndarles; 2 diéndales]. gender (I) & -less Without gender.

gene, n [1 jén, 2 džín] See -gen, & op genus (biol) An assumed factor or causative agent of any distinctive character transmitted from parent to offspring genealogical, adj [1 jénealójikl, 2 džín-alójikl], fr Gk genealogikḗ (-da), 'of genealogy', see genealogy & -ic & -al 1 Of, pertaining to, genealogy 2 Tracing, showing, genealogy or descent a genealogical table, genealogical tree, diagram in form of branching tree, showing descent of person or animal genealogically, adv Prec & -ly In a genealogical manner, according to descent genealogist, n [1 jénealójist, 2 džínalójist] genealogy & -ist A student of genealogy genealogize, vb trans & intrans [1 jénealójiz, 2 džínaléidzavz] Next word & -ize 1 trans To trace descent of 2 intrans To investigate genealogies genealogy, n [1 jénealój, 2 džínaléidž], fr L Lat genealogia, fr Gk genealogia, 'the making of a pedigree', fr genea, 'race, family', see genus, & -logy 1 A line of descent of persons and families from ancestors, pedigree, path of development of animals, plants, languages, from earlier ancestral types, b statement, account, table, diagram, setting forth a genealogy 2 Study, investigation, of the facts of descent, making of pedigrees general (I), adj [1 jénarál, 2 džén(ə)rál] M E, fr O Fr, fr Lat generālis (-is), 'of a specific kind, species, relating to all, general', fr gener, stem of genus, & -al 1 Not limited in application, entirely, or approximately, universal, extending widely, affecting all or many persons, all persons of a group &c, all parts or classes of anything, not particular, special, or local, widespread a matter of general interest, experience &c, a general favourite, to issue a general pardon, the general idea is that the rain seems to have been general, there was a general panic, uproar &c, General Confession, one made aloud by whole congregation, general meet- ing (of society &c), of all members, general election, of parliamentary representatives throughout the country, General Post Office, head post office in London, general strike, strike of workmen belonging to all, or the greater number of, the trade union of a country 2 Not limited in scope, not confined to specific subject, ranging over many subjects, not specialized general education, knowledge, o general examination, discussion &c 3 Relating to a whole class, involving, referring to, the common attributes of a class or group o general term, nome Plur as o general rule, in most cases, usually, in general, for the most part, apart from specific exceptions 4 Not restricted to one branch or department of occupation &c, not specializing general practitioner, doctor treating cases of all kinds, not a specialist general reader, one not keeping to one branch of literature, general servant, doing all kinds of housework 5 a Existing only in outline, lacking details a general idea, impression &c, o general re- semblance, b not specific, not going into detail, not minutely defined to speak in general terms, the statement is too general 6 (mil) General Officer, one above the rank of Colonel 7 (need after official title) Chief, leading, principal postmaster general, attorney general, chaplain-general &c general (II), n, fr prec 1 The general that which comprehends the whole of a class or group, and includes all the individuals, persons, things, ideas which compose it, contrasted with the particular 2 (archaic) The general public 'casualty to the general' 3 (mil) Specify a officer next in rank above a lieutenant-general and below a field-marshal, b officer above rank of colonel, a brigadier-general (now abolished), major-general, lieutenant-general, full general, o general at sea, title, under the Commonwealth, of three of the principal officers of the Navy 4 (mil) A commander regarded from point of view of his strategical and tactical skill Moriborough was a great general 5 Name given to head of certain religious orders, esp of the Jesuits and of the Salvation Army 6 (colloq) General servant

General Assembly, n Deliberative and legislative council of the whole of the Church of Scotland, represented by its ministers, which meets annually, presided over by a Moderator in the presence of the Lord High Commissioner representing the Sovereign general average, n See average (I)

General Council, n (eccles) One formerly summoned by the Emperor at the request of the Pope, consisting of all the Bishops of the Christian Church throughout the world generalissimo, n [1 jénarálissimó, 2 džénarál-issimó] Ital, superl of generale, 'general' See general (II) Supreme commander of a great military force in the field, or of several such forces of allied states acting in conjunction generality, n [1 jénaráliti, 2 džénaráliti], fr Fr, fr Lat generalitatem (-em), 'generality', general (I) & -ity 1 The quality of being general, applicable to a whole class or group 2 General, undetailed, statement, a general law &c, without specific application to confine oneself to vague generalities 3 The majority, bulk, greater proportion the generality of people are indifferent to the highest art generalization, n [1 jénarálizášun, 2 džén-arálizášun] See next word & -ation 1 Mental process of generalizing 2 A notion, rule, law &c resulting from such a process, derived, evolved, formulated, by observation of specific instances, an induction generalize, vb intrans & trans [1 jénaráliz, 2 džénaráliz] general (I) & -ize A in-trans 1 To draw a conclusion as to the whole from the observation of particular and special facts and instances, to formulate general principles covering or designed to cover an entire group or class of phenomena, from facts known, or supposed to be known, concerning a number of individual phenomena falling within the class 2 (in artistic expression) To emphasize general character, rather than special traits, features, and points of detail B trans 1 To reduce to generalization, formulate, state, in terms of general principles 2 (artistic expression) To describe, represent, with reference to general character, rather than to special features and details 3 To make general and widespread, give wide currency and vague to generally, adv [1 jénarál, 2 džén(ə)rál] general (I) & -ly 1 Widely, involving or applying to all, to or by most people an opinion generally held 2 Without going into detail, not referring to individual cases, in a general sense speaking quite generally, I dislike orders 3 As a rule, usually, in most cases dogs generally love their masters, we generally dine at eight generalship, n [1 jénarálship, 2 džén(ə)rál-ship] general (II) & -ship 1 The office or rank of a general 2 a Military skill, strategy, tactics, hence b (in general sense) management, direction, skilful organization, leadership generate, vb trans [1 jénarát, 2 džénarát], fr Lat generāre (-vum), PP type of generāre, 'to produce, engender', fr gener, stem of genus, 'race, family, offspring' See genus 1 (of physiological process) To produce new individual of a species, reproduce one's kind, procreate, beget 2 (of physical and chemical processes) To cause to occur, produce, result in friction generates heat, to generate gas, electricity 3 (fig, of material and nonmaterial processes) To give rise to, originate, be cause of misery often generates crime, disti generates disease, difference of religious opinion often generates hatred & (math) To trace out, produce (a line, surface, solid) generation, n [1 jénarášun, 2 džénarášun], fr Lat generātiō (-em), 'generation' Prec & -ion 1 The act or process of generating, in reference a to physiological process, reproduction, procreation generation of bacteria &c, b to physical process, production, origination generation of heat, energy, c (fig, rare) the process of causing, giving rise to, development generation of ill-feeling 2 That which is generated, a single stage in natural descent Queen Victoria, King Edward VII, and the present King George represent three generations, b all the individuals in the same degree of descent from a common ancestor, ie an individual and all his brothers and sisters form one generation, all the children of each of these form another, and so on 'A line among the years to limit the generations each to each' (Tennyson) 3 Group of related persons, kindred, progeny the Bolsheviks murdered the Czar and all his generation 4 All persons of approximately the same age, more loosely, those living at same time, whether related or not, the time in which they live, period, age few of the present generation can remember the excitement caused by the Tich- borne case, the last generation, Plur rising generation, the younger persons living at a particular period. 5 Period of time, roughly thirty years, which on an average separates each natural generation a generation ago women began to ride bicycles generative, adj [1 jénarativ, 2 džénarativ] generate & -ive 1 Of, pertaining to, generation, reproductive, procreative 2 Having the power of producing, originating generative force generator, n [1 jénarát, 2 džénarát] generate & -or One who, that which, generates, special, apparatus for generating gas, steam &c, or for converting mechanical into electrical energy, dynamo generatrix, n [1 jénarátiks, 2 džénarátiks] Lat (fem) form of prec (math) The moving point, line or surface, which generates or traces out a line, surface, or solid generic, adj [1 jénarik, 2 džénarik], fr Lat gener, stem of genus, & -ic 1 Pertaining to, characteristic of, a whole genus or class 2 Applicable to every member of class or genus, not specific and individual o generic name. 3 Having a wide application, general, comprehensive generically, adv [1 jénarikali, 2 džénarikali] Prec & -al & -ly In a generic manner

generosity, n [1 jénarositá, 2 džénarositá], fr Lat generositas (-em), 'nobility, goodness, excellence' See next word & -ity 1 The quality of being generous 2 Generous conduct or action, a chivalrous, noble, conduct, magnanimity, b liberality generous, adj [1 jénorús, 2 džénorús], fr Lat generós (-us), 'at noble birth, superior, excellent, noble minded, magnanimous', fr gener, stem of genus 1 Noble minded, free from meanness, gracious, magnanimous - a generous spirit, nature, generous protest.

2 a (of person, character &c) Bountiful munificent, open-handed, ready to give, b (of gift &c) showing generosity of mind, given readily and freely 3 a Abundant, plentiful, copious generous fore, b large, ample of generous size, animal 4 a (of soil) Rich, fertile, b (of colour) rich, deep, intense, c (of wine) rich, strong, full bodied generously, adv Prec & -ly In a generous

manner

genesis, n [1 jénesis, 2 džénesis] Lat, fr Gk. genesis, 'origin, source, birth, descent', fr genet*, w. -s for -t before -s, ep genet, 'birth', genetér, 'father' &c, ep further Gk genos, 'birth' &c; fr Aryan base gen-* &c, 'to produce, bring into being' See genus, & words there referred to 1 Origin, birth, beginning; mode of formation or production 2 (cap) The first book of the Old Testament, giving the story of the Creation genet, n [1 jenet, 2 džent], fr O Fr genet, fr Arab yarnat a kind of small orvet-cat, b the fur of this animal, usually grey with dark blotches genetic(al), adj [1 jenetik(l), 2 džentetik(l)] Modern formation fr stem genet, as in genesis, & -io, on anal of antithetic & O of, pertaining to, determined by, the genesis, mode of production of anything genetic affinity, one arising from a common origin

-genetic, adj suff (see preo) signifying 'pertaining to generation or genesis', see genesis a Producing, yielding, b produced, yielded by genetically, adv [1 jenetikal, 2 džentetikal] See genetic(al) & -ly According to the principles of genetics genetics, n [1 jenetiks, 2 džentetiks] Pl of genetic, used as n Branch of biology which deals with principles of heredity genève (I), n [1 jénève, 2 džénève], fr Du genève, fr O Fr genève, fr Lat jūmperus, juniper (see juniper), w assimilation to name of town See next word. Spirit distilled from grain and flavoured with juniper-berries, Hollands, gin

Genève (II), n Name of town in Switzerland (used attrib) Of, belonging to, originating in, Genève bands, strips of lawn suspended from front of neck, Genève gown, black robe as worn by Calvinist ministers, Genève Convention, international agreement (1864) providing for neutrality of hospitals &c in war, Genève Cross, red cross distinguishing hospitals &c in time of war

Genevan, adj & n [1 jénévàn, 2 džénévàn] Prec & -an 1 adj Of, pertaining to, Geneva 2 a Native of Geneva, b adherent of Calvinism

Genevise, adj & n [1 jénévéz, 2 džénévéz] Geneva & -ese Genevan genial (I), adj [1 jénial, 2 džénial], fr Lat genial (us), 'pertaining to generation or birth, nuptial, festive, jovial, pleasant', fr geni (us), 'tutelary spirit' See genius & -al 1 (poet and archaic) a Of, pertaining to, generation, fertile, productive, b connected with marriage, nuptial 2 (of climate, air &c) Mild, warm, benign 3 a (of human character &c) Kindly, benignant, affable, cheerfully amiable, cordial, b (of persons) exhibiting these qualities & (rare) Relating to, exhibiting, genius genial (II), adj [1 jénial, 2 džénial], fr Gk géné (on), 'chin', & -al Cp Gk gēna, 'the lower jaw', cogn w Scrt hanu, 'jaw', Lat gena, 'cheek', Goth kinzus, 'jaw, cheek', OE cin, 'chin' (see chin), cp further, w o different grade of vowel, Gk gnathos (see gnathus), Lat tandax, 'jaw' Arvan base gen*, g'n* &c 'lower part of face, jaw' (zool) Of, pertaining to, the chin genial plate, muscle &c geniality, n [1 jénialiti, 2 džénialiti] genial (I) & -ity Kindness, affability, cheerful benevolence of character, manner, or expression genialize, vb trans [1 jénializ, 2 džénializ] genial (I) & -ize To make pleasant, friendly, kindly genially, adv [1 jénial, 2 džénial] genial (I) & -ly In a genial manner geniculate(d), adj [1 jenkulát(ed), 2 dženkulát(ed)] fr Lat geniculatus (us), (of plants) having knots or nodes, jointed', & -ed, fr geni (um), 'o knee kneel on stalk of plant', fr genus, 'knee' (see genual) & -cule (bot, zool &c) a Having a jointed stem, having joints or nodes, b bent like a knee genie, n [1 j'ai, 2 džai] fr Fr génie, fr Lat genius, 'tutelary deity', see genius but confused w jinnoo Spirit, goblin, of a kind common to Arabian fairy tales genio-, pref, representing Gk généio (n), 'chin' See genio (II) Connected with the chin, e.g. genioglossal [1 jeniogléssal, 2 dženiogléssal] 'of the chin and tongue' genista, n [1 jénista, 2 džénista] Lat genista, genista, 'broom' Etymol unknown A genus of shrub like, leguminous plants, with yellow, more rarely white, flowers, (rare or obs) the common broom genital, adj & n [1 jénitl, 2 džénitl], fr Lat genital (us), 'of generation or birth', fr genit (um), P P type of gignere, 'to bear, bring forth, beget', cp also genesis, fr base g'en*, 'to bring into being', q v under genus 1 adj Pertaining to generation or to animal reproductive organs 2 n (pl) External organs of generation genital, adj [1 jénitl, 2 džénitl] See next word & -al Of, pertaining to, having form of, the genitive case genitive, adj & n [1 jénitiv, 2 džénitiv] Lat genitivus, genitivus, 'belonging to birth, generation', also genitivus casus, 'genitive case', lit 'case expressing origin', fr genit, as in genital, & -ive (gram) Genitive case, form of nouns, pronouns, or adjectives indicating source, origin, possession, kind, class &c, partly corresponding to possessive case in English genito-, pref representing Lat genit (um), P P type of gignere, 'to beget, bear'. See genital Of, pertaining to, the genital organs or their region, e.g. genito urinary &c genius, n [1 jénus, 2 džénus] Lat genius, 'tutelary deity, inclination, natural taste', (rare) 'wit, talents', orig the personification of reproductive power, cogn w genus 1 Tutelary deity, spirit, presiding over, guarding, a person, place, &c, Phr good, evil, genius (i) two opposed spirits, forces, directing human action, (n) person having great influence on another for good or evil 2 Mood, feeling evoked by, spiritual atmosphere, association of ideas, inseparable from, a place 3 a Inherent character, essential spirit, nature, principles, of a race, language, law, institution &c, b prevailing tendency, dominant influence, guiding principle, of age, nation, community &c 4 Natural endowment, capacity inherent ability, aptitude the study of books w repugnance to the genius of many people 5 a Extraordinary and exceptional intellectual and imaginative endowment, power, faculty, specifically of a creative, inventive, originaive kind, b person possessing such a faculty genius loci, n [1 jénus lóki, 2 džénus lóki] Lat, '(tutelary) genius of the place' See prec & locus Often used for atmosphere, associations, character &c of o place

Genoa, n [1 jénča, 2 džénčə] Name of town in North Italy Genoa cake, rich fruit cake with almonds on the top

Genoese, adj & n [1 jénčez, 2 džénčəz] Prec & -ese 1 adj Of, belonging to, Genoa 2 n Inhabitant of Genoa

-genous, suffix forming adjs meaning 'producing, generating', see -gen & -ous, as autogenous &c genre, n [1 žənr, 2 džənr] Variant of gender, fr Fr genre, 'kind, species', fr Lat genus, stem of genus 1 Kind, style, species 2 Genre painting, style of painting portraying scenes from ordinary or rustic life, often used attributively, genre pictures genro, n pl [1 jénrə, 2 džénrə] Jap The 'older' statesmen of Japan gens, n [1 jenz, 2 dženz] Lat gens, stem geni, 'race, clan, nation, people', fr earlier g'ni* & or g'ni* (s) See genus, cogn w kind (I) In ancient Rome and Greece, tribe, clan group of families united by descent from a common ancestor, and by a common name gent, n [1 jent, 2 džent] Abbreviated form of gentleman (colloq and vulg) Gentle man genteel, adj [1 jentl, 2 džentl] Variant of gentile, derived stress in 16th cent fr Fr gentil, 'well bred, nice' See also gentile 1 Formerly, well bred, polite, having distinguished manners and appearance expressing good breeding and usage with polite world 2 Now either a (vulg) used seriously in approximately above sense, or b (ironical) miming, affected in manner, affecting a refinement which is not natural, exhibiting sham good manners, aping and assuming manners of a superior class genteelly, adv Prec & -ly In a genteel manner gentian, n [1 jénšan, 2 džénšan], fr Lat gentiana, fr name of Elyrian king, Genti (us) & -an a Member of a large genus of herbs with bitter roots and bright, usually blue or yellow flowers, widely distributed and found esp in mountainous country, b gentian-bitter gentian-bitter, n Medicinal tonic substance extracted from roots of gentian gentile, adj & n [1 jénitl, 2 džénitl] Variant of gentle, fr M E type gentil, w Fr accentuation See gens & genus 1 adj Not belonging to the Jewish race 2 n A person who is not a Jew gentileism, n [1 jentilidəm, 2 džentilidəm] Prec & -dōm Whole of human race other than Jews gentilial, adj [1 jentilial, 2 džentilial], fr Lat gentilius (us), 'belonging to a particular gens', fr gentil (us), 'of the same clan' (see gentile), & -al Of, pertaining to, distinctive of, a gens or nation gentility, n [1 jentiliti, 2 džentiliti], fr O Fr gentilité, fr Lat gentilitas (em), 'relationship of members of a gens', fr gentil (us), 'of a gens' Regarded as abstract n associated w gentile in sense 1, & w genteel in sense 2 1 (archaic) Gentile birth, status of a gentleman 2 (usu iron) Second-rate politeness, genteel manners, sham, affected refinement, respectability Phr shabby gentility, attempt to maintain genteel appearance in face of poverty gentle (I), adj [1 jentl, 2 džentl], fr M E type gentil, fr O Fr, 'well bred', fr Lat gentilis, 'belonging to same family or stock' See gens & genus 1 a Of good birth and breeding, well born of gentle blood, birth, Phr gentle and simple, the well born contrasted with those of humble rank, b (her) entitled to bear arms, c (archaic) exhibiting the qualities natural to those of good birth, courteous, generous a gentle knight, gentle lady, conventional Phr gentle reader, formerly used by authors in their books 2 a (of human disposition, character) Mild, kindly, sweet, serene, patient a gentle spirit, heart, nature &c, b (of conduct, behaviour) proceeding from these qualities, courteous, considerate, tolerant gentle bearing, manners, glance, o (of human beings) possessing and exhibiting these qualities of nature and conduct, sweet natured, amiable, peaceable, reverse of violent, self assertive, harsh 3 When applied to human actions, or to corporeal movements, the word nearly always implies certain moral qualities (as referred to in 2) as guiding and determining the character of the actions and movements, a (of actions) not severe, harsh, lament, merciful, indulgent, clement, moderate a gentle reproof, rebuke, admonition, punishment, gentle rule, sway, b (of bodily acts and movements) carefully, skilfully, controlled, kindly benevolent, slow and deliberate, quiet, so carried out as not to wound or startle, not abrupt, caressing, soothing a gentle glance, smile, a gentle blow, tap, touch, push, a gentle voice, call &c 4 a (of movements of inanimate nature) Moderate, not violent or boisterous, slow, gradual a gentle breeze, a gentle swell, ripple, a gentle rustle in the grass or trees, not loud &c, b (of natural processes, conditions, and phenomena) a gentle heat, not excessive, a gentle glow, not too bright, not in teos, a gentle slope, declivity, a medicine gentle in its action, mild, not drastic 5 (of animals) Docile, easily managed, not fierce or restive gentle (II), n, fr prec 1 (archaic) In Phr gentles all, gentlemoon 2 Larva, maggot, of the bluebottle fly, used for fishing as bait, the name originated from the softness of the gentlefolk(s), n [1 jéntlfók(s); 2 džéntl-fók(s)] gentle (I) & folk People of gentle birth.

gentlehood, n [1 jéntlhood; 2 džéntlhud] gentle (I) & -hood (obs.) a Status or character of gentlefolk; b gentle, courteous behaviour gentleman, n [1 jéntlman; 2 džéntlman] gentle (I) & man 1 (hist) Man entitled to bear arms, but not belonging to the nobility 2 (hist and archaic) Man of good birth attached to court or large private establishment gentleman in waiting Phr (ironical) a gentleman's gentleman, manservant 3 (legal) Man of independent income, without occupation 4 (various implications) a Man of gentle birth and good social position, one of the landed gentry, or a member of one of the honourable professions, b man of wealth or leisure, one who is not obliged to work for his living, c (in common usage) applied to any male human being, often to one of no social position, breeding, education, manners, or wealth 5 Man of keen sense of honour and chivalry, of refined feelings and instincts, man who shows courtesy and consideration for feelings of others 6 Polite form of address to members of audience gentlemen, ladies and gentlemen 7 (facetious) The old gentleman, the devil gentleman-at-arms, n Member of royal bodyguard on state occasions gentleman-commoner, n One of a class of members of the university of Oxford who, by virtue of birth and age, ranked between graduates and undergraduates wore special academic dress, and enjoyed certain privileges They have now been abolished in all colleges except Worcester gentleman-farmer, n Gentleman who owns and manages a farm gentlemanhood, n [1 jéntlmanhood; 2 džéntlmanhood] gentleman & -hood (rare) The position or character of a gentleman gentlemanlike, adj gentleman & -like a (of persons) Having the manners and bearing of a gentleman, well-bred; b (of manners &c) becoming, characteristic of, a gentleman gentlemanliness, n [1 jéntlmanlins; 2 džéntlmanlins] See next word & -ness The quality of being gentlemanlike gentlemanly, adj [1 jéntlmanli; 2 džéntlmanli] gentleman & -ly Formerly regarded as a vulgarity, now has largely displaced gentlemanlike gentlemanship, n [1 jéntlmanšip; 2 džéntlmanšip] gentleman & -ship (rare) The status or character of a gentleman gentleness, n [1 jéntlins; 2 džéntlins] gentle (I) & -ness The quality of being gentle; (in moral and physical sense) kindness, mildness, mildness, absence of harshness, roughness, severity gentlewoman, n [1 jéntlwoman; 2 džéntlwoman] gentle (I) & woman a Woman of gentle birth, refined, well bred, educated woman, lady, b formerly applied to a female attendant upon a woman of rank gentlewomanhood, n [1 jéntlwomanhood; 2 džéntlwomanhood] gentle & -hood The position or character of a gentlewoman gentlewomanlike, adj [1 jéntlwomanlik; 2 džéntlwomanlik] gentlewoman & -like Likely, befitting, a gentlewoman gentlewomanliness, n [1 jéntlwomanlins; 2 džéntlwomanlins] See next word & -ness The quality of being gentlewomanly gentlewomanly, adj [1 jéntlwomanli; 2 džéntlwomanli] gentlewoman & -ly Likely, befitting, a gentlewoman gently, adv [1 jéntli; 2 džéntli] gentle (I) & -ly 1 After the manner of gentlefolk only in such phrases as gently born and bred, gently nurtured 2 In a gentle manner, a kindly, mildly, without harshness or severity; b quietly, moderately, without roughness, violence, or boisterousness gentry, n [1 jéntri; 2 džéntri] Prob fr gentry, fr O Fr genterie, variant of gentilise, fr gentil, 'gentle, well-bred' See gentle (I) 1 (archaic and obsolete) a Lineage, birth, b good birth 2 People of good birth and recognized social standing, below nobility 3 (in disparagement) People, class of people the less you have to do with these gentry the better genua, adj [1 jenua; 2 dženua], fr Lat genu, 'knee' & -al, cp Gk gónu, 'knee', Sert jánu, 'knee'; Goth knu, 'knee', Aryan base g^hen-, g^hóna-, g^hnu-, g^hneu- &c., 'knee' See genuiculate, kex, knee

Of pertaining to the knee genuflect, vb intrans [1 jenuflect; 2 dženuflect], fr Med Lat genuflecti-(ere), fr genu, 'knee' (see prec) & flexere, 'to bend' See flex To bend the knee, specif as act of reverence and humility in divine worship genuflectory, adj [1 jenuflectori; 2 dženuflectori] prec & -ory Pertaining to the bending of the knees genuflexion, n [1 jenufleksjun; 2 dženufleksjun], fr Med Lat genuflexi-(um), P.P. type of genuflectere, 'to bend the knee' See genuflect & -ion The act of genuflecting, of bending the knees, salutation thus made, implying reverence and adoration genuine, adj [1 jénjuin; 2 džénjuin], fr Lat genuin (us), innate, native, natural', fr an u-stem genu-, fr Aryan base g^hen- &c., 'to bring into being' See genuis & -ine 1 Pure-bred, from the real, original, stock. 2 a (of material objects) True, authentic, real, not false, fictitious, spurious - a genuine Rubens, a genuine example of 15th century binding, b (of feelings) to be trusted, relied upon, sincere, not assumed, real genuine respect, regard, sorrow, repentance &c genuinely, adv prec & -ly In a genuine manner genuineness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being genuine genus, n, pl genera [1 jénus, jénera; 2 džénus, džénere] Lat genus, 'descent, origin, race, stock, descendant, child; class, sort', cogn w Gk génos, Sert jónas, 'race' The Aryan base g^h(e)ne-, g^h(e)nd-, g^hen-* &c., 'to beget, to bear, to bring forth', is very widespread; cp Sert janat, 'begets', janman-, 'birth', Sert jálik 'relative', jáhs (fr g^hen-*), 'born'; Goth knōps, O H G chnuot, 'race'; cp further, w reduplication, Lat gignere, 'to beget, bear', Gk gignomai, 'to become, to be born', also w loss of initial g- in group gn-, Lat gnātor, 'to be born', gnātus, 'born' &c See further gens, genius, nation, nature, kand, kun, knave &c 1 (biol) Group of animals or plants, within a family, consisting of one or more species, with common characteristics distinguishing them from other groups, the genus Homo, man, mankind 2 (log) A class of things or objects divided into subordinate groups or species, distinguished from each other by differentia 3 (in general sense) Kind, sort, class, species

-geny, suffix representing Fr -genie, fr Gk gennēs, 'born, born of' (see -gen) denoting mode of origin, production, evolution progeny geo-, pref representing Gk gēō-, fr gē, 'the earth' Etymol unknown Of the earth geocentric, adj [1 jōsentrík; 2 džōsentrík] geo- & centro & -ic 1 Having the earth as centre 2 Regarded as seen or measured from the centre of the earth geode, n [1 jōd; 2 džōd], fr Fr globe, fr L Lat gēodes, 'a precious stone', fr Gk oidēs, 'earth-like, earthy', fr gē, 'the earth', & -odes a Rounded concretionary stone with hollow centre lined with crystals, b the cavity in such a stone geodesic, adj [1 jōdžik; 2 džōdžik] geodesy & -ic Of pertaining to, effected by, or determined by, geodesy geodesist, n [1 jōdžest; 2 džōdžest] See next word & -ist. A student of geodesy geodesy, n [1 jōdžes; 2 džōdžes] fr Fr géodésie fr geo- & Gk daikta, fr daiktai, 'to divide', cp Sert dāvatē, 'to share', dāid, 'distribution' The base is seen also in O E tīd, 'period of time' (see tide), & words there referred to. Aryan base dāi-, dā-, 'to distribute, divide' The science of measuring the earth and its surface, surveying on a large scale geodetic(al), adj [1 jōdžetik(l); 2 džōdžetik(l)] fr Fr, fr geo- & Gk dait, stem cogn. w. daiktai, 'to divide' See prec & -ic & -al Geodesic geodetically, adv prec & -ly In a geodetic manner; by geodesy geodic, adj [1 jōdžik; 2 džōdžik] geode & -ic. Of, pertaining to, a geode geognostic(al), adj [1 jōgnostik(l); 2 džōgnostik(l)] geo- & Gk gnōst-(os), later form of gnō (os), Perfect stem of gignōskō, 'to know', redupl form of Aryan base g^h(e)nd-* &c., 'to know' See know, gnosis, & words there referred to. Of, pertaining to, geognosy geognosy, n [1 jōgnosi; 2 džōgnosi], fr Fr géognose. See prec 1 Geology, esp study of geology of a particular district 2 Study of the character and composition of the earth, and of the distribution of various kinds of rocks geographic(al), adj [1 jōgráfik(l); 2 džōgráfik(l)] See geography & -ic & -al. Of, relating to, geography Phr geographical mile, about 2000 yds, one degree of longitude on Equator geographically, adv prec & -ly In a geographical manner, from a geographical point of view geography, n [1 jōgrafi; 2 džōgrafi], fr Fr, fr Lat, fr Gk geographia, 'geography' geo- & -graphy. 1 A descriptive science, based on the study of the surface of the earth, its physical features, divisions, natural products, races, climate, and their distribution, physical geography, that branch treating of physical features, natural products &c., political, human geography, that treating of the political divisions of the earth's surface, its peoples, social organization &c in relation to the physical features Geography as such does not deal with the development of the physical features which it describes, and in this is in contrast with Geology 2 Arrangement, plan, relationship, situation, of different parts or sections of a place, building &c 3 A book on geography geoid, n [1 jōid; 2 džōid], fr Gk geoidēs, 'earthlike' See prec & -oid The figure of the earth, an irregular sphere geologic(al), adj [1 jōelōjik(l); 2 džōelōjik(l)] geology & -ic & -al. Of, pertaining to, geology geologically, adv prec & -ly In a geological manner, from a geological point of view geologist, n [1 jōelōjist; 2 džōelōjist] geology & -ist A student of geology geologize, vb intrans & trans [1 jōelōjiz; 2 džōelōjiz] See next word & -ize

1 intrans To study geology, investigate geology of a district, to collect geological specimens. 2 trans. To investigate (a district &c) from a geological point of view geology, n [1 jōelōji; 2 džōelōji] geo- & -logy 1 Branch of science which deals with the structure and shape of the earth, and attempts to trace the evolution and mode of formation of these through the play of natural forces from the records preserved in the rocks 2 The geological features found in a given area, or an account of these the geology of the Grampians 3 A book on geology geomancer, n [1 jōmāns; 2 džōmāns], fr Gk gōmānēs, geo- & mānēs Divination by means of figures formed by handfuls of earth or gravel thrown on the ground, or of points dotted at random upon paper &c geomantic, adj [1 jōmāntik; 2 džōmāntik] See prec & -ic. Pertaining to geomancy

geometer, n [1 jəʊmɪtər, 2 dʒɪmɪtə], fr Lat., fr Gk geōmetrēs, 'a measurer of the land', fr geo- & metr (dō), 'I measure', q v under -meter 1 A student of geometry 2 Kind of moth, the caterpillars of which appear to measure out the ground as they move by drawing up and extending the body in loops.

geometric(al), adj [1 jəʊmɪtrɪk(əl), 2 dʒɪmɪtrɪk(əl)], fr Gk geōmetrik(-ōs), 'of geometry, geometrical', fr geometry & -ic & -al 1 Of, pertaining to, according to the laws of, geometry 2 Resembling the figures of geometry, regular, symmetrical geometrical markings, patterns &c; geometric spider, one spinning a circular web, geometrical tracery, consisting of regular, geometrical figures, lines, curves &c geometrically, adv Preo & -ly By geometry, according to the principles of geometry geometrician, n [1 jəʊmɪtrɪʃən, 2 dʒɪmɪtrɪʃən] geometry & -ician A student of geometry geometrize, vb intrans & trans [1 jəʊmɪtraɪz, 2 dʒɪmɪtraɪz] Next word & -ize 1 intrans. To study geometry, to follow geometric principles and methods 2 trans. To work out by geometric methods.

geometry, n [1 jəʊmɪtri, 2 dʒɪmɪtri], fr Fr., fr Lat. geōmetria, fr Gk. geōmetria, 'measurement of the earth, geometry' geo- & -metry 1 Branch of mathematical science treating of the properties of points, lines, surfaces, and solids, and their mutual relations in space 2 A book on geometry geophagist, n [1 jəʊfəɡɪst, 2 dʒɪfəɡɪst] See next word & -ist. Person given to geophagy geophagy, n [1 jəʊfəɡɪ, 2 dʒɪfəɡɪ] geo- & Gk phag (ein), 'to eat', q v under -phagous, & -y Tendency to eat earth, a symptom of mental disease geophone, n [1 jəʊfəʊn, 2 dʒɪfəʊn] geo- & -phone Instrument for the detection of sounds passing through the earth, as in underground mining and tunnelling &c geophysical, adj [1 jəʊfɪzɪkəl, 2 dʒɪfɪzɪkəl] geo- & -physical Of, pertaining to, the physics of the earth's structure a geophysical survey geophysics, n [1 jəʊfɪzɪks, 2 dʒɪfɪzɪks] geo- & -physics That branch of science which deals with the physics of the earth, the forces which modify its structure, and cause geological changes &c geoponic, adj [1 jəʊpənɪk, 2 dʒɪpənɪk], fr Gk. geōpon(-os), 'husbandman', fr geo- & ponos, 'toil, labour', & -ic Op Gk. geōponai, 'toil, suffer hardship', possibly cogn w Lith pinù, 'to weave, plait', parùs, 'cord', O Slav pina, 'to stretch out', O E spannan, 'to stretch, strain', spinnan, 'to spin' (see spin), Aryan base spen*, 'to stretch, to strain', hence, 'to strive, make an effort' (rare) Concerned with, pertaining to, agriculture.

George, n [1 ʒɔːrʒ, 2 dʒɔːrdʒ], fr Lat., fr Gk. Georgios, name of a Cappadocian prince who was supposed to have been martyred in the time of Diocletian, & who later became a legendary hero 1 St George, patron saint of England, and patron of the Order of the Garter, St George's Cross, two red bars crossing in the centre at right angles 2 George, jewelled figure of St George and the dragon, forming part of the Garter insignia 3 By George, exclamation, mild oath 4 A large brown earthenware jug for water, usually brown George

Georgette, n [1 ʒɔːrʒet, 2 dʒɔːrdʒet] fr name of a dressmaker A thin, transparent, silk crepe

Georgian (I), adj [1 ʒɔːrʒiən, 2 dʒɔːrdʒiən] George & -ian. Of the time of any one of the Georges, kings of England a Georgian building, Georgian literature &c, specif a of the 18th cent, of George I, II, and III, from 1715 on b of the time of George V, contrasted with Victorian or Edwardian.

Georgian (II), adj & n Georgia & -an 1 adj. a Of the country of Georgia, in the Caucasus, b of Georgia, one of the United States of America 2 n. a Inhabitant, language, of Georgia, Caucasus, b native of Georgia, U S A georgic, n [1 ʒɔːrjɪk, 2 dʒɔːrdʒɪk], fr Lat. georgicus (us), fr Gk. geōrgikós, 'of husbandry, agricultural', fr geōrg (dō), 'husbandman', & -ic, fr gaworgós*, fr gā-*, later gē, 'earth' (see geo-), & base worg*, werg*, 'work', Gk ergon, 'work' See ergon Single book of Virgil's poem on husbandry, the Georgics geotropic, adj [1 jəʊtɹɒpɪk, 2 dʒɪtɹɒpɪk] See geotropism & -ic Pertaining to geotropism geotropically, adv [1 jəʊtɹɒpɪkəlɪ, 2 dʒɪtɹɒpɪkəlɪ] Preo & -al & -ly In a geotropical manner geotropism, n [1 jəʊtɹɒpɪzəm, 2 dʒɪtɹɒpɪzəm] geo- & Gk trop (ē), 'a turning' See tropē & -ism Tendency of the growing parts of plants to point, extend, towards (positive geotropism), or away from (negative geotropism), the centre of the earth geranium, n [1 ʒerəˈniəm, 2 dʒɪrəˈniəm] Lat. geranium, fr Gk. geranion, 'the plant crane's bill', fr Gk geran(-os), 'crane', cp Lith garbja, 'heron', O H G chranuch, O E cran, 'crane' See crane 1 One of a large genus of plants with white, red, or blue flowers, and lobed leaves, growing wild, or cultivated for ornament in gardens 2 Pelargonium gerb, n [1 ʒərb, 2 dʒərb] Variant of garb (III), 'sheaf' gerent, n [1 ʒerənt, 2 dʒɪrənt], fr Pres Part gerent (em), of Lat gerere, 'to bear, to carry oneself, to comport oneself, behave, to have charge of, manage, govern', fr ges*, cp P P type gestum, see gesture, perh cogn w O N kasta, 'to cast' See cast (I) Person who governs, rules, directs, one holding power, rare, except as compound, vice gerent gerfalcon, n, also gyrfalcon [1 ʒɛrfəlˈkɒn, 2 dʒɛrfəlˈkɒn], fr O Fr gerfalcon, prob fr O H G gîr Germ gær, 'vulture' & falcon Large falcon of the northern regions germ (I), n [1 ʒɜːm, 2 dʒɜːm], fr Fr germe, fr Lat germen, 'bud, sprout, embryo, germ', dissimulated fr gen men*, cp Sct janman, 'birth, origin', fr Aryan base gēnē* &c, 'to bring forth' See genus 1 Rudimentary form capable of developing into a new individual 2 Microbe, bacillus, esp one capable of causing disease 3 (fig) That form or seed out of which something develops, elementary form, beginning, rudimentary stage, Phr in germ, in elementary stage, undeveloped.

germ (II), vb intrans, fr prec (fig) To originate, sprout, develop german (I), adj [1 ʒɜːmən, 2 dʒɜːmən], fr O Fr germain, fr Lat germān (us), '(of brothers, sisters) having the same parents, closely allied, genuine, true', cogn w germen, bud, offshoot, germ See germ (I) & cp germane Brother, sister, german, having the same parents, cousin german, having the same grandparents

German (II), adj, fr Lat German(-us), German 'Of, pertaining to, Germany, the Germans, their language &c, German measles, a mild contagious disease resembling measles, German sausage large sausage made of cooked and seasoned meat, German text, black letter, German silver, an alloy of nickel, zinc, and copper

German (III), n, fr Lat German(-us), 'a German' See prec 1 A native of Germany 2 The language of Germany High German group of dialects spoken originally in South and part of Central Germany, now standard language of the whole of Germany, Low German, local dialects of North Germany germander, n [1 ʒɜːmændər, 2 dʒɜːmændə], fr Med Lat. germandra, fr Late Gk. hamadra, fr Lharia, fr hamal, 'on the ground', q v under chameleon, & dris, 'oak tree' See dryad Member of a genus of aromatic, bitter, herbs, esp the speedwell, with small bright blue flowers germane, adj [1 ʒɜːmən, 2 dʒɜːmən] Variant of german (I) (only pred.) Relevant, appropriate, pertinent, to the point a remark hardly germane to the question

Germanic (I), adj [1 ʒɜːmənɪk, 2 dʒɜːmənɪk], fr Lat. Germanicus (us), 'of the Germans' German (II) & -ic 1 Of, pertaining to, the Germans 2 Of the Teutonic race

Germanic (II), n, fr prec The language of the Teutons, esp in its earliest form, Primitive Germanic, earliest form of Germanic speech, branch of Aryan family subsequently differentiated into West Germanic, North Germanic, East Germanic

Germanism, n [1 ʒɜːmənɪzəm, 2 dʒɜːmənɪzəm] German (II) & -ism 1 German spirit or characteristic, tendency towards, love for, Germany 2 German idiom, turn of phrase

Germanity, n [1 ʒɜːmənɪti, 2 dʒɜːmənɪti] German (II) & -ity German qualities, characteristics germanium, n [1 ʒɜːmənɪəm, 2 dʒɜːmənɪəm], fr Lat Germania, 'Germany' A rare metallic element, of greyish-white appearance, resembling tin and silicon and found in combination with argyrodite

Germanization, n [1 ʒɜːmənɪzəˈʃən, 2 dʒɜːmənɪzəˈʃən] Next word & -ation The act or process of Germanizing, state of being Germanized Germanize, vb trans & intrans [1 ʒɜːmənɪz, 2 dʒɜːmənɪz] German (II) & -ize 1 trans. To make German, assimilate to German methods, thought &c 2 intrans. a To develop German qualities, b to use German methods &c

Germano-, pref German & -o Of German or the Germans

Germanomania, n [1 ʒɜːmənɒˈmɑːniə, 2 dʒɜːmənɒˈmɑːniə] Preo & -mania Overfondness for, imitation of, German ways

Germanophil, n [1 ʒɜːmənɒˈfɪl, 2 dʒɜːmənɒˈfɪl] Germano- & -phil Person loving the Germans, and addicted to German ways

Germanophobia, n [1 ʒɜːmənɒˈfɒbiə, 2 dʒɜːmənɒˈfɒbiə] Germano- & -phobia Hatred of anything German germ-cell, n Cell in the body of an organism which is specialized for purpose of reproduction, and which when united to one of opposite sex, forms a new individual of the species germen, n [1 ʒɜːmən, 2 dʒɜːmən] Lat., 'bud, sprout, embryo, germ' See germ (bot) Ovary, seed-vessel germicidal, adj [1 ʒɜːmɪˈsɪdəl, 2 dʒɜːmɪˈsɪdəl] Next word & -al Tending to, having the power to, destroy germs germicide, adj & n [1 ʒɜːmɪˈsɪd, 2 dʒɜːmɪˈsɪd] germ & -ic & -cide 1 adj Capable of destroying germs, esp disease germs 2 n Substance which does this germinal (I), adj [1 ʒɜːmɪˈnəl, 2 dʒɜːmɪˈnəl], fr Lat germin, 'stem of germin', 'bud, shoot, germ' See germon & -al 1 Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, a germ 2 (fig) Rudimentary, in initial stage germinal (II), n [1 ʒɜːmɪˈnəl, 2 dʒɜːmɪˈnəl], or as Fr Fr See prec The seed month, that from March 21 to April 19 in the French Revolutionary Calendar germinally, adv germinal (I) & -ly In a germinal manner, as a germ.

germinant, adj [1 ʒɜːmɪˈnənt, 2 dʒɜːmɪˈnənt] Lat germinant (em), Pres Part of germinare, 'to germinate' See next word Germinating, beginning to develop, incipient germinate, vb intrans & trans [1 ʒɜːmɪˈnæt, 2 dʒɜːmɪˈnæt], fr Lat germināre (um), P P type of germinare, 'to sprout, bud', fr germin, 'stem of germin', 'bud, shoot' See germ. 1 intrans (lit and fig) To begin to sprout, shoot (as a seed does), to develop 2 trans. To cause to ..

germination, n [1 jěrmnashun, 2 džaminošon] Prec & -ion The process of germinating, state of germinating germinative, adj [1 jěrmnativ, 2 džaminstiv] germinate & -ive Pertaining to, tending to cause, germination germon, n [1 jěrmun, 2 džāmen] Fr A kind of tunny fish germ-plasm, n (biol) That nuclear part of the germ-cell, which, according to Weismann, continues from generation to generation and forms the basis of heredity gerontocracy, n [1 jeronokrasī, 2 džěrontskrasī], fr Gk geronto-, stem of gērōn, 'old man', & -cracy, op Gk gēras, 'prerogative', orig 'age, privilege of old age', geras, 'old', gēras, 'old age', grais, 'old woman, wrinkled skin' Cogn w Scrt jāran, 'old, infirm', jārimā, 'age', O Slav žreht, 'to ripen, mature' Aryan base g'ērē*, 'to grow old' See corn (I) 1 Government by old men 2 Governing body of old men
-gerous, suff representing Lat -ger, fr gerere, 'to bear, produce, to carry, to do, perform, happen', see gerent, & -ous, forming adjs w sense 'producing, carrying' Some of these adjs represent Lat words in -ger, e.g. lamigerous, others are modern formations fr Lat stems, e.g. frondigerous gerrymander (I), vb trans [1 jěrmānder, 2 džěrmāndas], fr Elbridge Gerry, a governor of Massachusetts, who in 1812 is said to have divided a county into electoral divisions to benefit his own political party, & (sala)-mander. To manipulate, falsify, pervert, facts, so as to give untrue impression, to practise trickery, formerly used of political trickery, but now in more general sense gerrymander (II), n Same as prec The act of gerrymandering gerund, n [1 jěrund, 2 džěrend], fr Lat gerund (um), 'gerund', prob fr gerund (um), gerund of gerere, 'to do' See gerent 1 (Lat gram) Verbal noun used for oblique cases of infinitive and governing the same cases as the verb from which it is derived 2 The so-called inflected infinitive in OE, to unlæne &c 3 English verbal noun in -ing, esp when followed by a noun or pronoun as object gerund-grinder, n Teacher of the elements of Latin grammar, schoolmaster gerundial, adj [1 jěrundial, 2 džěrundial] gerund & -ial. Of, pertaining to, a gerund, like a gerund gerundival, adj [1 jěrundivl, 2 džěrundavil] Next word & -al. Of, pertaining to, gerundive gerundive, adj & n [1 jěrundiv, 2 džěrundiv], fr L Lat gerundiv (-us) gerund & -ive 1 adj. Of, pertaining to, a gerund. 2 n Verbal adjective formed from stem of gerund, and expressing necessity, fitness &c gerundively, adv. Prec & -ly As a gerund or gerundive gesso, n [1 jěsō; 2 džěsou] Ital, fr Lat gypsum, 'plaster' See gypsum A plaster of Paris prepared for use in sculpture &c, b coat of this on surface prepared for painting gest, n [1 jěst, 2 džest], fr Lat gesta, 'deeds, acts', fr Lat gest (um), P P type of gerere, 'to bear, carry, to do, perform' See gerent (arohaio) A exploit, valiant deed, b tale of adventure gestation, n [1 jěstāshun, 2 džestēšon], fr Lat gestātō (em), 'a bearing, carrying', fr gestāre, 'to carry about', fr gest (um), P P type of gerere, 'to carry', see gerent, & -ation A The act of carrying, state of being carried, in the womb, between times of conception and birth, b period of gestation gestatorial, adj [1 jěstatorial, 2 džestatorial], fr Lat gestātō (us), 'for carrying', fr gestāt (um), P P type of gestāre, 'to carry about'. See prec & -ory & -al Gestatorial chair, ceremonial chair in which Pope is carried on certain occasions gesticulate, vb intrans & trans [1 jěstikūlat,

2 džestikūlet], fr Lat gesticulāt (um), P P type of gesticulār, 'to make pantomimic gestures', fr gesticul (us), 'gesticulation', dimin of gest (-us), 'gesture', fr gest (um), P P type of gerere, 'to carry, to do' See gerent 1 intrans A To use motions of hands and arms to assist, illustrate, or express one's meaning, b to make frequent use of gesture, to move, wave, the hands excessively in speaking 2 trans To express by means of gesticulation gesticulation, n [1 jěstikūlāshun, 2 džestikūlēšon] Prec & -ion A The act of gesticulating, b emphatic gesture gesticulative, adj [1 jěstikūlativ, 2 džestikūlativ] gesticulate & -ive Characterized by, accompanied by, gesticulation gesticulatory, adj [1 jěstikūlatori, 2 džestikūlatori] gesticulate & -ory Of, pertaining to, expressing meaning by, gesticulation gesture (I), n [1 jěschur, 2 džestšə], fr Mod Lat gestūra, fr Lat gest (um), P P type of gerere, 'to carry, to wield, brandish' See gerent & -ure 1 A Motion of hand or arm, expressing an emotion, idea, intention, one made to illustrate and emphasize what is being said, also b expressive movements of facial features, rapidly changing expressions of countenance facial gesture 2 The practice and art of making expressive movements of body, limb &c, esp for dramatic or rhetorical purposes 3 An action, or statement, intended to express, and to convey to others, a particular attitude of mind, or state of feeling a warlike gesture on the part of Russia, a gesture of friendship gesture (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec To gesticulate get (I), vb trans & intrans [1 get, 2 get], fr ON geta, 'to reach, obtain' &c The word in OE occurs only compounded, and-gietan, 'to understand', be-gietan, 'to get, obtain, to beget' (see beget), for-gietan, 'to forget' &c (see forget) The initial g in Mod Engl shows that the word is fr ON, as the OE form wd. have produced yet* Cp OS far-gietan &c, OHG fir-gezzan, also ir-gezzan, 'forget', Goth bi-gietan, 'to find' The base is fr Aryan ghe(n)ǵan*, 'to seize, take', as in Lat pre-hendere, 'to grasp, understand' (see prehensile), Gk khandanem, 'to hold, take in, comprise', O Ir galism, 'I take' A trans 1 A To obtain possession of, acquire as one's own property I should prefer to get the smaller house, you may want it, but you'll never get it, b to procure, purchase you had better get a new coat, I went and got some singing lessons in town, c to receive something sent to one I get a letter every day, I never got your telegram, d to gain, win, obtain as result of effort, to hit to get glory and wealth, to get several brace of pheasants, I got him first shot, e to succeed in bringing to a certain place, to put into particular state or condition I got him to bed at last, to get a woman with child, f (Scots) to be called, to be given the name of, be addressed as she always gets My Lady, he doesn't get Professor in his own town, Phrs to get (a) hold of, succeed in grasping (lit and fig), I don't get you, it, understand, catch meaning, to get (a) cold, catch cold, to get it in the neck (colloq), (i) to be severely punished, (ii) to suffer severely, to get one's own way, obtain what one wants, do what one likes &c 2 To engender, procreate, beget he seems unable to get children 3 A To influence a person to do something, to induce, persuade to get a man to speak, come to dinner, do as one wants, b to manage, contrive, that an animal, plant, or inanimate object shall behave, move &c in a particular way to get the pig into the cart, get a horse into a loose box, get a tree to grow in a bad soil; get a door to shut 4 With have and P P To own, have as one's own, be in possession of I've got very little money, what an ugly face she's got, he'll lose all he's got if he isn't careful 5 With have and P.P., followed by infinitive To be under an obligation or compulsion to do (common colloq usage) I've got to go for the doctor at once, you've got to listen to what I say 6 Followed by noun and P P To cause the performance of an action, bring it about that something is done, or put into a specified condition to get one's coat mended, to get one's hair cut B intrans 1 Expressing idea of passing by a gradual process from one state to another, to become, grow she gets uglier every day, he got quarrelsome in his cups, to get old; to get better, worse, get angry, to get into a rage, to get silly 2 To attain to, arrive at, reach to get home early, to get here, there, nowhere Phr to get there (fig), (i) to achieve, accomplish something, (ii) to understand what is said, grasp an idea, to get nowhere (fig), to be futile, accomplish nothing, to get on one's nerves, irritate extremely 3 Followed by P P or adjective To be put, put oneself, into certain condition, suffer, undergo, certain experience to get drunk, get hurt, get torn to bits, get wet, get cool, to get one's face scratched, to get one's feet wet Phr to get left, be put in awkward position, be duped. 4 To earn money, make a profit, gain 'Getting and spending, we lay waste our powers' (Wordsworth) C In special senses when followed by an adverb or preposition Get about, intrans, to walk about, attend to one's avocations Get along, intrans, a to get on, fare, manage, contrive they can only just get along on their small income; b (chiefly imperative, colloq) to depart, begone get along with you! Get at, intrans, a to obtain access to the tools are locked up and we cannot get at them, just let me get at him!, b (of non-material things) to grasp, ascertain to get at a meaning, result &c Get away, intrans, to leave (a place), go away Get away with, a (colloq) escape, carrying off booty, b Phr get away with you (colloq), facetious, be off!, don't talk nonsense! Get down, descend, be able to come down, get down to, settle down to study or consider something Get home (fig), but the mark, excite attention, get home on (a person), make successful attack on, wound in sensitive spot Get in, (to) enter (room, carriage &c), trans, to get a word in (edge-ways), be able, with difficulty, to make a remark, get a blow in, place it judiciously and effectively Get off, trans, a to dismount, alight, from (a horse), b to enable a person to escape punishment his counsel got him off, c intrans, to escape punishment or misfortune Get on, a intrans, to make progress, be successful, b get on to one's feet, stand up, esp when about to speak, c trans, to put something on to get a coat on Get on with (persons), agree, have friendly social relations with Get over, trans, a to cross, climb over (river, stile &c), b to recover from (an illness), c to excuse, tolerate, recover from disgust I can't get over his abominable manners, d to surmount (difficulties &c), e to feel no longer, cease to lament she has quite got over the loss of her husband Get out (of), intrans, a to come out from inside (of a carriage &c), trans, b to remove, from storage &c, take out, produce to get out a good bottle of wine, c to contrive to extract to get a cork out of a bottle, d to extract information, confidences &c I could get nothing out of him Get round, trans, a to cajole, have one's way with (persons), b to surmount, overcome (difficulties &c) Get together, trans, to bring together, collect, intrans, to come, meet, together Get up, trans, a to study, acquire some knowledge of (a subject), b get oneself up, dress up with care and elaboration, intrans, c to rise from bed to get up early of a morning, rise from the ground, from one's seat to standing position we all got up when the King came in get (II), n, fr prec Offspring, progeny (of animals) get-at-able, adj [1 getatābl, 2 getatābl] Capable of being reached, easy of access, accessible (of places).

get-up, n [1 get up, 2 get áp] a Mode of dress, general appearance, so far as this is deliberately produced a queer get up, b specif (of a book) ensemble of external characteristics, size, style of printing, binding &c geum, n [1 jéum, 2 dzéum] Lat, 'herb bennet' a Garden plant cultivated for its white, red, or yellow flowers, b (bot, cap) genus of plants including the herb bennet gewgaw, n [1 gúgaw, 2 gúgú] ME quegoue, later gugaw, gewgaude &c, 'toy' Dymol doubtful in object of trifling value designed for external show, a frivolous, trifling thing, piece of vanity geyser, n [1 gizer, gizer 2 gizer, gizer], fr Geyser, name of particular geyser in Iceland, fr Icel geysa, 'to rage, to gush', cogn w Goth us gaisjan, 'to terrify' See ghost 1 Natural spout of hot water rising from the earth to a considerable height, esp common in Iceland and New Zealand 2 (often [1 gizer, 2 gizer]) Device for heating water for baths &c by passing it over plates heated by gas ghastliness, n [1 gásthlines, 2 gásthlines] ghastly & -ness Condition or quality of being ghastly ghastly, adj [1 gásth, 2 gásth] Variant of ghostly, w differentiated meaning Normal development fr OE gásthlic, ME gásthli, but the latter & the Mod. form maybe equally well come fr OE gásthlic, a by-form w mutation, wh occurs once w the specific meaning, 'terrible, dreary' gásthlic in OE meant orig simply, 'spiritual' In Goth the closely related ghsman & (us gaisjan, mean 'terrify', and in OE itself gástan means 'afflict, torment', & Chaucer uses ghastly very much in our sense It may therefore, perch, be concluded that if gásthlic & gásthli were kept apart in OE, they were confused later in sense as they were in form 1 Having the property of horrifying, terrifying causing both repugnance and disgust o ghastly murder, story &c 2 (of a person's appearance) Inspiring horror and pity, esp implying that he is ill, miserable, pale, cadaverous to look perfectly ghastly 3 In colloquial and slang usage may mean either very bad, shocking &c, or merely rather troublesome, unpleasant &c a ghastly bore, the dinner was ghastly, a ghastly mess, and so on ghât, ghant n [1 gawt, 2 gât] Hind, landing-place, path of descent to a river, mountain-pass 1 A mountain pass, erroneously applied by Europeans to certain mountain ranges the Western Ghâts 2 An Indian river-side landing stairway

Ghazî, n [1 gahzê, 2 gâzi] Arab, fr ghaza, 'to fight' a Moslem fanatic, pledged to war against and kill the infidel, b title, meaning the victorious fighter, given to victorious Turkish generals ghee, n [1 gê, 2 gî] Hind. ghî, 'clarified butter' Boiled clarified butter used in cookery in India gherkin, n [1 gérkm, 2 gákin], fr Du gurke, 'small cucumber', cp Mod Germ gurke, earlier a(n)gurke, cp Dan agurk, borrowed fr Pol ogurek, cp Slovak okurka, wh come ultimately fr Late Gk aggourion, 'water melon', Anct Gk ágros, 'out of season, unripe', wh is fr á-, 'not', and hōra, 'season', cogn w Gmc jār*, 'year' See year also hour Small variety of cucumber, u.c.d chiefly for pickling ghetto, n [1 gétio, 2 getou] Ital Orig quarter in Venice & other Italian cities assigned to Jews perch fr Lat Aegyptus, Lgyptian, cp Span gitano, 'gypsy' a Quarter of a town or district to which Jews were formerly confined and which they were not allowed to leave after certain hours, b (colloq) part of town where Jews abound Park Lane became a regular ghetto

Ghibelline n & adj [1 ghibelû, 2 ghibelin, -in], fr Ital Ghibellino, possibly fr Germ Wib liven, one of the imperial estates 1 n Italian adherent of the Imperial party in the mediaeval Holy Roman Empire, opposed to the Papal party (see Guelph) 2 adj Pertaining to, adhering to, the Ghibellines ghost, n [1 gôst, 2 goust] OE gâst, 'life, spirit, soul, angel', ME gâst The h in our present spelling was introduced by the early printers, prob through the influence of Du gheest The word in above senses is confined to Gmc, & more strictly, to West Gmc, O HG & Mod Germ geist, OS gêst The Gmc base gais*, however, is found in ON geisa, 'to rage', of fire, passion &c (cp geyser), & in Goth us gaisjan, & geisau* (w different gradation), 'to terrify, make aghast' The Aryan base is ghes*, ghois* &c, & this is represented in Sort hêdas, 'writh', fr gheizdas*, wh wd correspond to a Gmc gist*, a pretty close & exact cogn of Gmc gast*, differing only in having a different vowel grade Cp ghostly The fundamental meaning appears to be 'something raging, strong passion, spirit' 1 Spirit, principle of life itself, soul to give up the ghost (archaic), to die 2 Human or Divine spirit to see a person's ghost, special, Holy Ghost, third Person of the Trinity 3 A apparition, wraith, dis embodied spirit of the dead, manifesting itself to the senses of the living, spectre, phantom to be afraid of ghosts, to see, hear, a ghost, the ghost of Homer's father, Phr as white as a ghost, very white, to look like a ghost, white and thin, to look as if one had seen a ghost, look horrified, or frightened, the ghost walks (theatr), salaries are paid, b (fig) haunting, saddening recollection of earlier life ghosts of the past, of former days 4 Anything shadowy, vague, filmy, slight, attenuated, a person who has grown thin and pale from sickness, or old age a mere ghost of his former self Phrs not to have the ghost of a chance, no chance, not the ghost of a notion, idea &c 5 One who executes literary or artistic work for another who passes as the author ghost-dance, n Religious dance of North American Indians ghostliness, n [1 gôsthlines, 2 gousthlines] Next word & -ness a Quality of being ghostly, as distinct from bodily, b quality of being like a spectre, c quality of suggesting the presence of ghosts ghostly, adj [1 gôsth, 2 goustli] ghost & -ly 1 Spiritual as opposed to bodily ghostly father, ghostly comfort &c 2 Pertaining to or having the nature of a ghost or apparition ghostly visitant 3 Like a ghost, vaporous, faint, shadowy trees loomed ghostly in the twilight ghost moth, n A night moth, so called from the white colour of the male and the peculiar flight ghost-word, n An historically bogus word whose form is due to a misconception, or to popular etymology, e.g. slughorn for slogan (Browning), as though from 'horn' ghoul, n [1 goul, gôul, 2 gaul, gûl], fr Arab ghûl 1 Evil spirit supposed in the East to haunt burial places and to feed on the dead, hence, 2 (fig) a person of horrible, revolting, inhuman tastes and habits, b person delighting in horrors ghoulish adj [1 goulsh, gôlsh, 2 gaulsh, gûlsh] Prec & -ish Like a ghoul, cruel, delighting in horrors, morbid ghoulishly, adv Prec & -ly In a ghoulish manner ghyll, n [1 gil, 2 gill] Variant of gill (III) (Ahn) A ravine, gully, chasm giant (I), n [1 jant, 2 dziant] ME giant, quant &c, fr O Fr geant, fr Lat gigant (em), Gk gigant-, stem of gigas, 'giant', possibly fr a vb giganein*, fr gi-gan-yô*, redupl form fr Aryan base g-en-* &c, 'to bear, produce' See giant 1 (class mythol, cap) a Fabulous monster, intermediate in nature between gods and men, and conceived of as possessing superhuman stature and strength, & warring continually with the gods, b somewhat analogous monster in mediaeval romance and folk lore, generally described as hostile to men 2 a Man far above the average in height and size, specif, person of 7 ft and upwards, b animal or plant of great size 3 (fig) One surpassing the common run of men in mental qualities, genius, character &c a giant among statesmen, poets &c giant (II), adj, fr prec Of extraordinary size and strength, very large, gigantio a giant potato, of giant strength, power &c, also in names of species of animals or plants of large size giant crab, giant nettle &c gianness, n [1 jantes, 2 dzaintis] giant (I) & -ness Female giant giantism, n [1 jantizm, 2 dzaintizem] giant (I) & -ism Pathological bodily condition in men or animals characterized by abnormal and disproportionate growth, esp of the bones, which often become misshapen, the disease is usually accompanied by weakness and ill health giantlike, adj [1 jentlik, 2 dzaintlik] giant (I) & -like Like a giant, immense giant powder, n A kind of dynamite or high explosive giant ('s)-stride n Gymnastic apparatus consisting of a tall, stout pole, having a revolving wheel on the top, from which ropes are suspended, a person grips one of these, and after running a few paces, takes off from the ground, flying out at the end of the rope as the wheel revolves gaur, n [1 jur, 2 dzaur], fr Pers gaur. Term applied by the Turks to all who are not adherents of Islam, infidel, specif, a Christian gib (I), n [1 jh, gh, 2 dzib, gib] Etymol. doubtful A The hook which appears on the lower jaw of male salmon after the breeding season, b a slip of wood or metal used for keeping parts of a machine tight gib (II), n Short for Gilbert A tom cat, esp castrated cat, also gib cat gibber, vb intrans [1 jiber, 2 dzibo] Imitative a To speak in a broken manner, as when the teeth are chattering with cold or fear, b to talk rapidly in an unintelligible language, c to talk unintelligibly, to talk nonsense gibberish, n [1 jiberish, 2 dzibersh] Prec. & -ish a Unintelligible chatter, indistinct speech, b unfamiliar language foreign gibberish gibbet (I), n [1 jibet, 2 dzibit] ME gebet, gibet, fr O Fr gibet, also meaning 'club' Origin doubtful Apparatus specially designed for execution by hanging, a gallows Phr to die on the gibbet, he hanged gibbet (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To hang upon a gibbet 2 (fig) To expose, denounce publicly, hold up to contempt, ridicule, derision gibbeted in the press

gibbon, n [1 gibun, 2 giban] Fr Etymol dubious, prob fr native name One of several species of a genus of small anthropoid, tailless apes, arboreal in their habits, of the Malay archipelago gibbose See gibbous gibbosity, n [1 gibositi, 2 gibositi] Prec & -ity 1 Quality of being gibbous 2 Lump, swelling, tumour, projection gibbous, gibbose, adj [1 gibus, gibôs, 2 gibus, gibous] Lat gibbosus, fr gibb (us), 'humped', cp gibba, 'hump', & -ous Etymol uncertain a Swollen, bulging, protuberant, convex, hunched, hump backed, b (of the moon) between half and full gibe, jibe (I), vb intrans [1 jib, 2 dzarb] Cp O N geipa, 'to talk nonsense' To carp, utter biting, insolent, contemptuous remarks, to turn things into derision, sneer Gibe at, make (person or thing) the subject of gibes, to deride, treat with expressed contempt gibe, jibe (II), n, fr prec An expression of derision and contempt, mocking taunt, sneer gibingly, adv [1 jibungh, 2 dzaintigh], fr

Prec Part of gibe (I) & -ly Mockingly, derisively giblets, n pl [1 jiblets, 2 džiblets] ME giblet, Fr giblet, O Fr gibelotte, 'ragout, stew' Edible, but inferior parts of poultry, such as heart and gizzard giblet pie, giblet soup gibus, n [1 jibus, 2 džibus] Fr, fr name of inventor Opera hat, crush hat, a top hat covered with black silk which can be folded flat and carried under the arm when not in use giddy, adv [1 gidih, 2 gidil] giddy & -ly In a giddy manner (in various senses) giddiness, n [1 gidines, 2 gidins] Next word & -ness Condition of being giddy, a in physical, b in moral senses giddy, adj [1 gidi, 2 gid] OE gydig, 'insane', perh. orig 'divinely inspired, in a state of ecstasy', & fr Gmo gid-*, 'god, deity' See god 1 a (in physical sense, only pred) Having feeling of vertigo, the sensation, often accompanied by nausea, of instability when trying to stand, sensation as though surrounding objects were revolving to feel, turn, giddy, b (in moral sense, pred and attrib) exhibiting levity, or lack of stability, in mind and conduct, flighty, unbalanced in principles a giddy girl, giddy young thing, her conduct was rather giddy Phr (vulg colloq) a giddy goat, feather-headed, irresponsible, foolish person 2 a Tending to cause, or suggesting likelihood of, physical giddiness, as from steepness, peril, or rapidity of movement, esp of rotatory kind a giddy path, climb, giddy dance, b tending to fatigue and dissipate one's energies and divert them from serious pursuits giddy whirl, round, of pleasure &c 3 (fig) Inspiring sense of transiency and insecurity giddy heights of fame, ambition &c gidya, n [1 gidya, 2 gudja] Native word a Australian tree of mimosa tribe with very hard wood (Acacia homalophylla), b a long thin spear, made from wood of this, in use among the Australian aborigines gift (I), n [1 gift, 2 gfit], fr ON gift, the corresponding OE gift, perh. also fr ON, means 'price of a wife' the OE word for 'gift, donation', is giefu See base under give 1 That which is given, something transferred to another's possession, without price or any equivalent value being received in exchange, present, donation birthday, Christmas, gifts Phr I wouldn't take, have, it as a gift, would not have it at any price 2 Right of bestowal, vested in patrons of church livings &c in the gift of So-and-so 3 Intellectual quality or endowment born with one and coming by nature, capacity, talent, aptitude a person of many gifts Phr gift of tongues, facility in learning languages, gift of the gab, power of fluent speech gift (II), vb trans, fr prec To bestow (gifts) upon, endow with, (chiefly of non-material endowments) we are all gifted with a conscience gifted, adj [1 gifted, 2 giftid], fr PP of prec Possessing natural aptitudes, talents, qualities, accomplished, talented, naturally able a gifted man, composer, poet &c gig, n [1 gig, 2 gig] Orig meaning 'spinning or whipping top' Etymol dubious 1 A light, high, two-wheeled carriage, drawn by one horse Phr (archaic) to drive a gig, be a prosperous, respectable person 2 A ship's boat, long, light, and fast, for oars and sail, usually appropriated for the commanding officer the crew of the captain's gig 3 A modified adaptation of a ship's gig, employed mainly in racing 4 A revolving toothed cylinder for teasing woolen fabrics 5 A land of harpoon, b a hooked drag used for sweeping the surface-waters over a school of fish that refuse to bite 6 Gig-lamps, (facitious) spectacles

Gigantean, adj [1 jiganitean, 2 džiganitean] Lat giganticus, fr Gk giganteos, w substitution or addition of adj suff -anus See giant & -an Like a giant in size, colossal

Gigantic, adj [1 jiganituk, 2 džiganituk], fr Lat giganti(-em), 'giant', fr Gk gigant-, stem of gigās, 'giant' See giant & -ic 1 Of or pertaining to a giant (obs) 2 Specif, having the size and proportions of a giant, very large, enormous, huge, immense, very extensive, on very large scale

Gigantically, adv [1 jiganituk, 2 džiganituk] Prec & -al & -ly On a gigantic scale

Gigantomachy, n [1 jiganituk, 2 džiganituk], fr Gk gigantomakhia, fr gigant-, 'giant', & makhē, 'battle' See giant & -machy a (class mythol) War between the Giants and the Gods, b a war between giant powers

Giggle, vb intrans & n [1 gigl, 2 gigl] Imitative Cp Germ gichelen 1 vb To laugh in a nervous, foolish manner, to nter repeatedly a continuous, high-pitched, convulsive peal of half-suppressed laughter 2 n A laugh of this kind

Gigot, n [1 jigot, 2 džiget] Fr gigot, fr O Fr gigue Leg of mutton

Gigue, n [1 zhēg, 2 žig] O Fr gigue, a kind of fiddle, lively dance, Ital giga, 'a fiddle', Span & Port giga Cf Germ geige, MHG gige, also Engl jig 1 Ancient stringed instrument of violin family 2 A species of lively old-time dance, b music to which this was danced Gilbertian, adj [1 gilbēshan, 2 gilbišan], fr W S Gilbert, collaborator w Arthur Sullivan in the comic operas Of, resembling, the main features of Gilbert's plots, dialogues &, topsy-turvy.

Gilbertine, n & adj [1 gilbērtin, 2 gilbārtin], fr St Gilbert of Sempringham 1 n A member of a religious order founded by St Gilbert in 12th cent 2 adj Of, pertaining to, St Gilbert, or to the order founded by him gild (I), n See gild.

gild (II), vb trans [1 gild, 2 gild] OE gyldan, ME gilde, fr Gmc gildjan*, fr gild-*, 'gold' See gold 1 a To overlay, coat with gold or gold-leaf, b to paint with pigment mixed with gold, or a substance resembling it, Phr to gild the pill, make unpleasant thing appear attractive 2 (poet) a To light up, brighten, with a radiance as of gold sunset gilds the sky, b to render beautiful, adorn, brighten 'Whether old age with fawn but cheerful ray, Attend to gild the evening of thy day' (Pope) gilded, adj [1 gilded, 2 gildid] PP of prec, mostly used idiomatically Overlaid, adorned, with gold leaf, gold dust, or pigment Gilded Chamber (in its decoration), House of Lords, Phr gilded youth, gay, fashionable, well dressed, exquisite young man (or man) of wealth and position gilder, n [1 gilder, 2 gildə] gild (II) & -er One who gilds, specif, one whose trade it is to put gold on to frames &c carver and gilder, usually associated with carving and picture-frame making gilding, n [1 gilding, 2 gildin] gild & -ing a Gold, or gold-coloured material put on to something in order to gild it; b act or process of covering with gold &c, c (fig) adornment, covering, concealment, of unpleasant facts, esp in Phr gilding of the pill gill (I), n [1 gil, 2 gil] Scand, ME gylle, O Dan gælle, O Swed gel Cogn w Gk khelānē, 'lip, jaw', khelōs, 'lip, lip of vessel', for khelōs*, Aryan ghel* 1 One of a pair of organs with which a fish breathes under water corresponding to the lungs of mammals Phr green about the gills (of human beings), sick-looking, disconcerted 2 Wattle of certain fowls 3 Radiating plates or ridges composing the under surface of mushroom or fungus gill (II), n [1 jil, 2 džil] ME gille, gylle, O Fr gelle, Lat gillo, gello, 'a cooling-vessel', cogn w geldius, 'cold, frozen' See gield a One quarter pint liquid measure, b vessel capable of containing this amount gill (III), n [1 gil, 2 gil], fr ON gil, 'glen', cp ON geit, 'narrow pass' Ravine, chasm, a woody glen traversed by a stream

Gill, Jill (IV), n [1 jil, 2 džil] Abbr of Gillian or Jillian, corrupt fr Juliana A girl, sweetheart every Jack has his Jill

gillie, n [1 gili, 2 gili], fr Gael gille, 'servant, boy' Name given in the Highlands of Scotland to an outdoor attendant, esp a gamekeeper, or attendant on deerstalkers and fishermen

Gillyflower, n [1 jiliflōur, 2 džiliflōur] ME gylflore, gelofer, fr O Fr grosfle, fr L Lat, fr Gk karuophyllon, fr karuo (n), 'nnt', cogn w carimate, & phyllon, 'leaf' See phyllo- 1 Name applied to the clove pink, the wallflower, and the common stock. 2 A species of apple gilt, n [1 gilt, 2 gilt], fr PP of gild (II) 1 Gilding, gold laid on in plate, leaf, or dust, gold paint 2 (fig) Superficial charm, beauty, attractiveness Phr take the gilt off the gingerbread, destroy illusion, spoil gilt-edged, adj [1 gilt ejd, 2 gilt edžd] a Having the edges gilt, e.g. the page of a book, b (fig) of finest quality, esp gilt edged security, originally Government stock (from being printed on gilt-edged paper), hence, any very safe, sound investment, such as trustees are allowed to invest in.

gilt-head, n. Name of two varieties of sea fish gimbal, n [1 jimbil, 2 džimbil] O Fr gamel, Fr jumeau, 'a twin', Lat gemellus, dimin of geminus, 'a twin' See Gemini & gemels 1 a (in pl) Device of combined rings for suspending a body (e.g. mariners' compass, barometer &c), so that it retains its level, however its support be inclined, by the rolling of the ship, b usually gimbal, or gamel ring, a finger-ring consisting of two rings interlaced 2 Obsolete name for kind of pastry See jumble (III) gimcrack, n & adj [1 jimbak, 2 džimbak] Prob ME gibecrale, denoting apparently some kind of inlaid woodwork, perh fr O Fr giber, 'to handle roughly, shake', & crack (I) a n A trumpery, frail, or tawdry object, a showy trillo, b adj, flimsy, trifling, tawdry, badly made gimcrackery, n [1 jimbakori, 2 džimbakori] Prec & -ery Collection of gimcracks gimlet, n [1 gimlet, 2 gimlit] ME gymlet, fr O Fr gimbelet, gumbelet, Mod Fr gibeler, dimin of Gmo orgun Boring tool with spiral cutting edge, and handle at right angles to shaft Phr eyes like gimlets, penetrating eyes, prying eyes gimp, n [1 gimp, 2 gimp] Cp O Fr gumpure, nasalized form of gumpure, also Du gimp, Germ gimpe Plaited or twisted cord of silk or other material used for trimming women's dresses, some academic gowns, and naval and military uniforms gin (I), n [1 jū, 2 džū], fr Fr genever, fr Lat jūniperum, qv under jumper, confused w Geneva by popular etymol 1 A sweetish spirituous liquor distilled from gram or malt and flavoured with juniper berries Phr (vulg and colloq) gin-and-water vice, hoarse and rancous as from too much drinking 2 (attrib) Gin palace, large, flamboyant public house, gin-sling, an icee drink of gin, sugar, and various flavourings gin (II), n & vb trans ME Contraction of engine 1 n a Machine, mechanical contrivance (obs except in some techn senses), kind of crane, appliance for extracting cotton seeds, b snare, trap, c (fig, obs) crafty trick 2 vb a To snare, b to extract seeds from (cotton) gin (III), vb intrans & trans [1 gū, 2 gū] ME ginnen, cp OE on ginnan, be ginnan See begin (obs or poet) To begin gingall, jungal, n [1 jingawl, 2 džingū] Hind janyal A fire-arm of China, India &c, either a light cannon mounted on a swivel or a heavy musket fired from a rest ginger (I), n [1 jīnjer, 2 džīndžē] OE gingifer(e), ME gingevr, gingivere, cp O Fr gingibre, gergivre, Mod Fr gingembre, fr L Lat zingiber, fr Gk zingiber (se), fr Scrt.

gingavēra, lit 'horn-body' See horn 1 a Aromatic tropical plant, b prepared root of this used in medicine, as a condiment, and, boiled in sugar, as a sweetmeat 2 (colloq and slang) a Energy, spirit, liveliness, go, b (of hair) a lively red (also used as adj) ginger (II), vh trans, fr vroo a To flavour with ginger; b to stimulate (racehorse) with ginger, hence (colloq) to enliven, stimulate, give more life and vigour to (gen) ginger up (a person, a performance &c) ginger-ale, n Sweet aerated drink flavoured with ginger, citric acid, caramel &c, usually of a pale, yellowish-brown colour resembling that of ale ginger-beer, n Sweet, straw coloured, often vescent drink flavoured with ginger gingerbread, n [1 jinjəbrəd, 2 dʒɪndʒəbrəd] Kind of cake compounded with treacle or honey and ginger or other spices gingerbread nut, n A round, sweet biscuit flavoured with ginger ginger cordial, n A liqueur made from ginger gingerly, adj & adv [1 jinjəli, 2 dʒɪndʒəli] Prob fr O Fr genzor, 'pretty, delicate', fr Low Lat type genhōr*, compar of genti*, for Lat genti-us, 'horn', whence O Fr gent, 'gentle' See gentle & -ly a adj Caustious, acting with extreme care, dainty, smoking in a gingerly manner, b adv, cautiously, delicately, shrinkingly to walk gingerly ginger nut, n Gingerbread nut ginger snap, n Variety of gingerbread nut ginger wine, n Fermented liquor made from ginger, lemons, raisins, and sugar gingery, adj [1 jinjəri, 2 dʒɪndʒəri] ginger (I) & -y a Of or pertaining to ginger, tasting of, or like, ginger, pungent, hot, (fig, of temperament) fiery, irascible, testy, b (of hair) reddish, or red in colour gingham, n [1 gɪŋɡəm, 2 gɪŋɡəm] Fr ginggan, fr Malay ginggang, 'striped cotton' 1 A kind of cheap cotton or linen cloth striped or chequered and dyed in the yarn 2 (colloq) An umbrella, esp a large, clumsy one, so called because common sorts were formerly made of this material gingival, adj [1 jinjɪvəl, 2 dʒɪndʒɪvəl] Lat gingiva, 'the gums' See gum & gnathic & -al 1 Of or pertaining to the gums 2 (phon) Pronounced with the point of tongue tip against the upper gums, also used substantively for gingival sound Not much used, sounds thus made are better called point alveolar gingivitis, n [1 jinjɪvɪtɪs, 2 dʒɪndʒɪvɪtɪs] See prec & -itis (med) Inflammation of the gums ginglymoid(al), adj [1 jinɡliɡmɔɪd(l), 2 dʒɪŋɡliɡmɔɪd(l)] See next word & -oid & -al Connected with, resembling, a hinge joint, of the nature of a hinge joint ginglymus, n [1 jinɡliɡmʊs, 2 dʒɪŋɡliɡmʊs] Lat, fr Gk giglymos, 'hinge joint', cogn w claw (auat) Hinge joint, one which permits of no rotatory movement, e.g. the knee joint gingko, n [1 jinɡkɔː, 2 gɪŋkɔː] gingko, dʒɪŋkɔː] Jap A tree of Japan and China with yellow fruit and handsome fan shaped leaves ginseng, n [1 jinseŋ, 2 dʒɪnseŋ] Chun jenšen, fr jen, 'man', & shên, perli image', fr form of root a Genus of Chinese and N American plants of vry family, b Chinese drug prepared from aromatic root of this

gipsy, gypsy (I) n & adj [1 ɡɪpsɪ, 2 dʒɪpsɪ], fr obs Gipsen, Giptian, fr ME Egyptien, 'Egyptian', fr O Fr Egyptien, fr L Lat Aegyptiānus (us), fr Lat Aegypti (us), fr Gk Aigyptios, adj, fr Agypti (os), 'Egypt', & -an The gipsies were wrongly supposed to have come from Egypt. 1 n a (cap or loc) Member of a nomadic race of Indian origin, inhabiting many parts of Europe, Asia

&c, living as horse dealers, metal-workers, musicians, and fortune tellers, b (i.e., fig) person resembling a Gipsy in appearance, esp in having a swarthy complexion, black sparkling eyes &c, or in roving or erratic habits 2 (cap) The Gipsy language, Romyany 3 adj Pertaining to, resembling, a gipsy or gipsies a gipsy camp Gipsy bonnet, broad brimmed hat tied under chin, gipsy caravan, van, covered wagon used to live and travel in, gipsy flower, rose, ecabious, gipsy moth, European species of tussock moth, gipsy table, light, round table on three legs gipsy (II), vh intrans, fr preo To live temporarily like a gipsy, to camp out, to picnic gipsydom, n [1 ɡɪpsɪdɒm, 2 dʒɪpsɪdɒm] gipsy (I) & -dom State of being a gipsy, the gipsies collectively gipsyfyed, adj [1 ɡɪpsɪfaɪd, 2 dʒɪpsɪfaɪd] gipsy & -fy & -ed Having become like a gipsy, addicted to gipsy life or habits gipsyhood, n [1 ɡɪpsɪhʊd, 2 dʒɪpsɪhʊd] gipsy & -hood Condition, state, of a gipsy gipsyish, adj [1 ɡɪpsɪʃ, 2 dʒɪpsɪʃ] gipsy & -ish Like, rather like, a gipsy gipsysism, n [1 ɡɪpsɪzɪzəm, 2 dʒɪpsɪzɪzəm] gipsy & -ism Expression, habit, borrowed from gipsies giraffe, n [1 ɡɪrɑːf, 2 dʒɪrɑːf] Fr, fr Span girafa, fr Arab zarāfa, zorāfa Large African hoofed ruminant mammal with an enormously long neck, a back sloping downwards from shoulder to tail, a tawny skin crossed by a network of paler lines, and a narrow head surmounted by two short horns, the camelopard girandole, n [1 ɡɪrændəl, 2 dʒɪrændəl] Fr, fr Ital girandola, dimin of giranda, 'revolving jet', fr Lat gyrāndē, gerundial stem of gyrāre, 'to turn, rotate' See gyrate Name given to a variety of ornamental objects of a more or less circular or radiating design, specif a branching chandelier or candleabrum, b a kind of revolving fire work, or rotating water jet, d a kind of pendant, such as an earring, having smaller pendants attached girasole, n [1 ɡɪrəsəl, 2 dʒɪrəsəl] Fr girasol, Ital girasole, fr Lat gyrāre, 'to turn, rotate', & sōl, 'the sun' Cp Fr tourne-sol See gyrate, solar 1 The sunflower (obs) 2 The fire opal gird (I), vh trans [1 ɡɜːd, 2 ɡæd] O E gyrdan, ME girden, cp OS gyrdian, Germ gürten &c, Gmc weak vb formed on base gyrd* See further under court, garden, girth, horticulture, yard (II) (chiefly liter) 1 a To encircle, esp at waist, or oneself at waist, with belt, sash &c he was girt about with a rope, fig in Phr to gird oneself (for a fight &c), (Bib) gird up one's loins, brace oneself, prepare for strenuous action, b to attach to (person) by belt, girdle &c to gird one with a sword, c (fig) to invest, equip girt with supreme power and authority, d (gen) to encircle, surround to gird a tree with iron bands, an island girded by the sea 2 a To put on (girdle, belt &c), b to confine (clothing) with girdle to gird one's robe about one, to attach to one's body by belt, straps &c to gird on one's armour, sword &c gird (II), vh intrans ME girden, 'to strike, pierce, cut through', of doubtful origin See grade Gird at, to gibe, taunt, nag, carp at (a person), to chafe, complain, at (a thing) gird (III), n, fr preo A taunt, gibe, sneer girdler (I), n [1 ɡɜːdlər, 2 ɡædlər] fr gird (II) & -er One who girds or taunts girdler (II), n gird (I) & -er Powerful support of timber, iron, or steel used in building and engineering to carry and distribute weights and thrusts, a large wooden beam, or piece of steel, supporting upper floor of a house &c, b one bearing superstructure of a bridge &c girdlerage, n [1 ɡɜːdləri, 2 ɡædləri] girdler (II) & -age System of girders girdle (I), n [1 ɡɜːdl, 2 ɡædl] O E gyrdel, fr same base as gird (I) 1 Belt, cord, or strip of any material used to gird the waist and hold clothing in position 2 Thing which surrounds, encloses, or encompasses like a girdle within the girdle of the sea, a zone, e.g. the zodiac, the equator, b ring-like structure the pelvic girdle, c ring round tree made by removing bark, Phr (fig) to put a girdle round, travel round (Shakespeare), also to surround as with a girdle, o.g. by railway lines, telegraphic cables &c girdle (II), vh trans, fr preo a To gird, to equip with a girdle, a belt, b to bind about, to bandage around, o (fig) to surround the town is girdled with railways girdle (III), n Nthn variant of griddle Flat sheet of iron placed over fire for cooking certain types of cakes, scones &c girdle-cake, n One cooked on a girdle girl, n [1 ɡɜːl, 2 ɡæl] O E gyrl(e), 'virgin', ME gerl, gurl, 'young person of either sex', dimm., O E type gyr-el*, fr Gmc gur-*, 'child', cp LG gôr, Norw gorre &c, 'child', possibly cogn. w Gk koros, 'child', & dimm -al 1 a A female child (as distinct from a boy) his first child was a girl, b female not yet adult, (by extension) c one still in the first flush of womanhood, below middle age she was married as a mere girl 2 Specif uses a a maidservant, b one of a number of women engaged collectively as members of a business staff, theatrical company &c shopgirl 3 (colloq, rather vulg) a Sweetheart, fiancée Jones and his girl came to lunch, b (familiar form of address) of woman of any age old girl

Girl Guide, n Member of an organization for young girls based on the principles and practice of the Boy Scouts girlhood, n [1 ɡɜːlhʊd, 2 ɡælhʊd] girl & -hood. The period of life between oldhood and womanhood.

girlish, adj [1 ɡɜːlɪʃ, 2 ɡælɪʃ] girl & -ish. 1 Of or pertaining to a girl, or girlhood girlish pranks, games &c 2 Like a girl fresh, youthful girlish appearance. 3 Applied to boys, unmanly, effeminate girlishly, adv Preo & -ly In a girlish manner girlishness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being girlish, in all senses giron, n See gyron

Girondin, Girondist, n. & adj [1 ɡɪrɒndɪn, 2 dʒɪrɒndɪn, -ist] Fr Girondin, fr Gironde, the chief members of the party being deputies of that department. A member of the moderate Republican party under the French Revolutionary government girt, n & vb trans & intrans [1 ɡɜːrt, 2 ɡært] Variant of girth 1 n Measurement round an object 2 vb a trans To measure girt of, b intrans, to be of such a girt girth (I), n [1 ɡɜːθ, 2 ɡæθ] ME gerð, fr ON gyrd, cp Goth gairda, 'girdle', fr Gmc base gerd-*, 'to enclose' See gird (I) 1 a A strap or band passed round the belly of a horse, mule, or other beast of burden to secure a saddle, pack, rug &c, b part of harness in draught animals which secures the saddle, belly band 2 a Dimension round the waist or body of a person; hence, b large dimension, corpulence, obesity, o (of other objects) circumferential measure, circumference girth of a tree, of the earth girth (II), vb trans, fr preo To put on, or tighten up, girths of a horse, also girth up gist, n [1 ɡɪst, 2 dʒɪst] O Fr giste, Mod. Fr gîte, 'lying place, lodgement', fr O Fr gêir, Lat jacere, 'to lie' See adjacent 1 (law) The essential grounds of an action at law, that which gives it force 2 Essence, pith, main points, of a subject, relevant to particular discussion the gist of the matter gith, n [1 ɡɪθ, 2 ɡɪp] O E gip corr Corn-cockle gittern, n [1 ɡɪtɜːn, 2 ɡɪtɜːn] See cithar (n) Obsolete stringed musical instrument of the lute or guitar class give (I), vb trans & intrans [1 giv, 2 giv] The initial sound shows the influence of O N gefa, as it cannot be derived fr OE gefan, gife(an), ME has both give(n), give(n) & give(n), give(n) & give(n), the word is Common Gmc, op OHG geban, Mod Germ geben, Goth giban, O N gefa, Gmc type geb-an-*, perh cogn w Lith gabėti, 'to bring', O Ir gab-im, 'I give, take'. A trans The basal meaning of this verb, from which all the others spring, seems to be the transference or passing of something, good or bad, material or non-material, whether for nothing or in exchange for something else from one person to another. From this general sense others arise—of conceding, dedicating, imparting something to another, in a literal or figurative sense, in fact of performing almost any overt act which affects some other person or thing, then a general sense of producing something, acting as author, as the source or cause of something discernible by the senses or by the mental faculties. 1 To transfer from one's own possession or control to that of another without any implication of exchange, bestow freely and without price, present, hand over to another as his own property, (of material things) a to give a handsome present, to give half-a-crown, to give money to the poor, b to pass on to, impart, communicate to, infect with (as a contagious malady) you've given me your cold, one boy can give measles to a whole school, c (1) (of non-material things, spiritual benefits) to confer, endow with to give one's blessing, to give one's good wishes, to give encouragement to, (u) (of honours, posts, appointments &c) to allot, assign to, confer on to give a man the place of honour, to give the command of a regiment to, to give a part in a play (to an actor), to give a title, Phrs (the following fall under several of above categories) to give a dinner-party, a ball, give a toast, propose someone's health, I give you the King, is the toast of his health, I give you joy, wish you happiness &c, to give one's word, promise faithfully, give my love, kind regards, to do and-so, express to him these sentiments from me, to give thanks, to be thankful, give us a song!, sing something, to give it, as I'll give it to you when I catch you, he gave it him hot &c, punish, reprimand severely, to give a person a piece of one's mind, say exactly what one thinks without reticence, hence, to give a dog a bad name, (fig) blatant person's character by insinuations, to give (a horse) his head, loosen strain on bit, let him go his own pace, (fig) to give a man his head, let him have his own way, give me (Beethoven, cric et &c), I prefer (rather than other alternative) 2 To transfer something to another in exchange for, or in consideration of, something else, to pay, a (for value received) I gave a guinea for this hat, how much did you give for that horse?, b (in return for services rendered) I'll give you five pounds for a week's work, to give a fair day's wage for a fair day's work, c (as compensation for injury or loss &c) to give a man a hundred a year for the loss of his foot, d to inflict, impose, something as punishment or retribution to give a man six months' hard labour, give a boy a good flogging, Phrs to give as good as one gets, return chaff, insult, injury, in kind, to give tit for tat, (1) repay an injury with another, (u) make suitable reply, to give one a Roland for his Oliver, same as pro, also, provide suitable opponent in any contest 3 To cause to occur, be a source of, supply, a (as result of natural process or function) cows give milk, trees give fruit, land gives crops, b to produce an effect as result of physical or mechanical action or process the sun gives light, the gun gave a loud report, c (of effects on the mind or emotions) to evoke, provoke, excite, induce to give pleasure, sorrow, offence, d to occur as the outcome of mental process the most careful research on these lines has given no result 4 To hand over to, entrust to, cause to pass temporarily into keeping of, another to give a porter one's bag to carry, to give a groom one's horse to hold 5 To concede, grant, allow I give you that point in the argument Phrs to give way, be unable to resist, to yield (lit and fig), give way to, (1) to retreat before, (u) abandon, surrender, oneself to (temptation, despair &c), give ground (esp of troops), to retire, to give points to, (1) (of superior player) to give opponent initial advantage, hence, (fig) (u) to be superior to 6 (of mental or moral action) To devote, dedicate to give one's mind, attention, to, to give one's life to study Phr to give one's life, sacrifice it, die 7 To communicate, impart (knowledge, information &c) to mind of another, to state to give evidence, give an account of, give instructions, orders &c Phr to give lessons, instruction, in (mathematics &c), to teach, be a teacher of 8 a To carry out, execute, perform such muscular activities as are required to produce bodily movements to give a start of surprise, a leap, a shrug of the shoulders, a blow &c, b to execute muscular movements of vocal organs which result in emission of sound to give a cry, a shout, loud laugh &c Phr to give tongue, (1) (of honours) to cry, as when they pick up the scent, (u) (fig, of persons) to chatter, cry out, esp noisily and complacently 9 To produce, represent, on the stage to give a concert, a performance of a play &c 10 To exhibit (human character, passion), in art or literature, to describe, express, (spirit of an age), portray (human form and feature, or features of external nature) in painting, or describe these in words Shakespeare gives us human nature in every degree, and under the stress of every emotion, Sir Walter Scott gives the scenery of the Highlands with such fidelity that we feel as though we knew the places he describes, Sir Joshua has given us the principal people of his day as they lived and went about their daily business B intrans 1 To practise giving, be in habit of bestowing, exhibit generosity to give generously to charity 2 To yield, relax, give way, break down, under violence or strain the foundations are giving 3 To be springy, resilient, elastic, not rigid, to yield, bend (of materials, wood, steel &c) to give but not to break, this chair gives comfortably C In special senses when followed by ver or preposition Give away, trans, a to alienate, transfer absolutely, b to sacrifice, surrender to give away on opportunity, c (colloq) to betray, expose, show up, voluntarily or accidentally his accent gave him away, d to transfer to another's charge, specify, to give away the bride, place her hand in that of bridegroom at marriage ceremony Give back, trans, a to return, restore, b to retort, repay, retaliate with give back insult for insult, c intrans, to fall back, retire Give forth, trans, to publish, announce broadcast (often with suggestion of falsehood) Give in, a trans, to hand in, register, record in an appointed quarter, b intrans, to surrender, yield Give out, trans, a to distribute, apportion, allocate &c, b to publish, make known (notice, news &c), c to allege, asseverate, brunt about to give it out that &c, d to emit, e intrans, to run short, come to an end, be exhausted, worn out, e g of supplies, strength Give over, trans, a to deliver up, transfer, b to cease, desist from, intrans, c to stop, cease, come to a halt Give up, trans, a to surrender, cede, sacrifice to give up one's place, b to renounce, abjure, abandon, forsake, to abstain from to give up one's faith, smoking, c to despair of, declare to be beyond hope given up by the doctors, d admit that one cannot solve or guess, and cease trying to do so to give up a riddle, problem Give upon, intrans, (a vicious Gallicism) to overlook, command view of, look out on, afford direct access to this window gives upon the street give (II), n, fr pro, in intrans sense 3 Elasticity, resilience, pliancy, adaptability

(of material substances), and fig (of human mind and character) Phr give and take, concessions on both sides in argument, negotiations &c given, adj [1 givn, 2 givn] PP of give (I) 1 Specified, agreed upon, stipulated within a given period 2 (math and log) Laid down as an antecedent condition, postulated, assumed, premised gizzard, n [1 gizard, 2 gizard] O Fr gussier, Fr gésier, fr Lat gigēra (pl) 'cooked entrails of poultry' Etymol doubt ful 1 One of the digestive organs of birds, forming a second stomach in which the food is ground 2 (colloq) Throat Phr (fig) it, that, sticks in my gizzard, I am reluctant to accept or agree to it, I dislike it glabrous, adj [1 glāhrus, 2 glāhrus] Lat glabr(um), glaber, 'smooth, bald', Aryan type ghladh* ro, cogn w Lith glodas, 'smooth' &c, see glad, & -ous (biol) Hairless, bald, hence, smooth glace, adj [1 glāsī, 2 glāsī] Fr, PP of glacier, 'to freeze, to glaze' See next word Having a smooth, shining surface, a (of leather, fabrics &c) glace kid, b (of confectionery) coated with sugar glacé cherries, marrons glacés glacial, adj [1 glāsīal, 2 glāsīal] Fr, fr Lat glaciāl (is), 'icy', fr glaci (is), 'ice', for ghlaci-*, cp gelu, 'frost', & -al See chill, cold, cool, gelid 1 Of or pertaining to ice, to the ice age, or to glaciers glacial period, glacial theory, that relating to the action of glaciers 2 Of the nature of, like, ice, icy, very cold glacial deposit, glacial weather 3 (fig of manner, bearing, speech &c) Unfriendly, distant, frigid glaciologist, n [1 glāsīshst, 2 glāsīshst] Pro & -ist 1 One who supports the glacial theory, 2 special student of glaciers, and their action glaciate, vb trans [1 glāsīst, 2 glāsīst] Lat glaciāt(um), PP type of glaciāre, 'to turn to ice' See glacial, -ato 1 a To freeze, turn to ice, b (geol) to affect by glacial action 2 To give a frosted surface to (metal &c) glacier, n [1 glāsīer, 2 glāsīer] Fr, fr glace, fr Lat glaciēs, 'ice' See glacial & -ier Agglomerated ice and snow gradually moving down from a mountain slope into the valleys along a definite path glacier table, n Block of stone left resting on a column of ice by retreating glacier glaciological, adj [1 glāsīolōjīk, 2 glāsīolōjīk] See glaciology & -ic & -al Of or pertaining to glaciology glaciologist, n [1 glāsīolōjīst, 2 glāsīolōjīst] See pro & -ist Student of glaciology glaciology, n [1 glāsīolōjī, 2 glāsīolōjī] See glacier & -logy The study of glaciers glacis, n [1 glāsī, 2 glāsī] Lat glaci-, 'ice', hence, 'smooth, level as ice' See glacial Smooth, gentle, slope or declivity, esp (fort) external slope without cover from gunfire glad (I), adj [1 glād, 2 glād] OE glād, 'glad, bright, cheerful, kind, gracious', ME glad, cp OHG glāt, 'clear, bright', Mod Germ glatt, 'smooth', cogn w Lith glodas, 'smooth', Russ gladkiy, 'even, smooth, polished', Lat glaber, 'hairless', q v under glabrous 1 (of persons) a (attrib, archaic, or poet) Happy, joyous, b (pred) pleased, filled with satisfaction I'm very glad to see you, glad I wasn't there, c (pred) willing, well-disposed I shall be glad to do what I can, glad to help &c 2 (of things) Full of, causing, gladness, joyful o glad New Year, glad tidings, 'glad evening and glad morn' (Milton) Phrs (vulg slang) (to give one) the glad eye, give an alluring, inviting glance, ogle, glad rags, best, smartest, clothes, specifi evening clothes glad (II), vb trans OE gladion, ME gladion, fr pro (archaic) To make glad, gladden gladden, vb trans & intrans [1 gládn, 2 glédn] glad (I) & -en a trans To make glad, render happy, to cheer, exhilarate to be gladdened by the sight of home, b intrans, to become glad glade, n [1 glád, 2 gléid] Prob fr base of glad (I), perb through Scand, the sense being 'a place made smooth' or perh 'bright, light' Opening, clearing, in a wood, or forest &c gladiat, adj [1 gládiut, 2 glédiet], fr Lat gladius, 'sword', & -ate According to Walde this Lat word is related to Lat clades, 'disaster, loss' &c, by an early change (dialectal) of cl to gl, cp W claddy, 'sword' See further on this base under clavicle, clause, cloister, glaive & words there referred to Sword shaped gladiator, n [1 gládiator, 2 glédiator] Lat gladiator, lit 'swordsmen' See preo & -or 1 One who fought with a weapon against other men, or against wild beasts as a public spectacle in the ancient Roman games 2 (fig) Polymical debater gladiatorial, adj [1 gládiatorial, 2 glédiatorial] Lat gladiators (us), fr preo & -al Of or pertaining to gladiators, or to their fights gladiolus, n [1 gládiólus, 2 glédiólus] or [1 gladiolus, 2 glédiolus] Lat, 'little sword', dimin of gladius See gladiat Plant of iris family, with erect sword shaped leaves, and spike of brilliant flowers, cultivated in gardens gladly, adv [1 gládi, 2 glédi] OE glædlice, ME gladliche, fr glad (I) & -ly With gladness, cheerfully, willingly gladness, n [1 gladnes, 2 gládnis] OE glædnes, ME gladnesse, glad (I) & -ness State or condition of being glad, cheerfulness gladsome, adj [1 gládsom, 2 glédsom] ME gladsum glad & -some (chiefly poet) Cheering, exhilarating, also cheerful, joyous, happy, esp gladsome mind

Gladstone, n [1 gládstan, 2 glédstan] After W E Gladstone, Engl statesman (1809-98) 1 Kind of light leather port mantan (also Gladstone bag) 2 Kind of four-wheeled carriage with two inside seats glair (I), n [1 glár, 2 gléa] ME gleyre, fr Fr glair, fr L lat clāra (ōri), 'clear, white (part of an egg)', fem of Lat clārus, q v under clear a White of egg, used as varnish or size, b any white, viscous substance resembling white of egg glair (II), vb trans, fr preo To coat with glair glareous, also glairy, adj [1 glárus, glán, 2 gléarus, gléari] glair & -ous, -y cp Fr glareux Lake, of the nature of, glair, coated with glair glave, n [1 gláv, 2 glév] ME, Fr, fr Lat gladium, 'sword', modified prob by Celt cladei, cp O Ir cladeib, W claddy, 'sword', cogn w Lat clades, 'slaughter' See claymore & gladiat (archaic) a Sword, b spear specif c variety of halberd class glamo(n)ous, adj [1 glamorus, 2 glameres] Next word & -ous Full of glamour, exercising fascination glamour, n [1 glámur, 2 gláme] Ong Scots, corrupt form of grammar in sense, 'profound or occult learning', cp gramarye(e), also Fr grimoire, 'book of magic' Popularized by Scott a Enchantment, spell, sorcery, magical illusion to cast a glamour over, b feeling of mystical pleasure, delight, associated with some object or scene, or with memory of it, mysterious charm, elusive magic, esp in poetry glamorous, adj [1 glamor, 2 glameri] See preo & -y Possessing glamour glance (I), vb intrans & trans [1 gláns, 2 gláns] Of obscure origin, perb due to blending of several words, cp ME glacen, 'to glance aside, to flash', fr O Fr glacier, 'to slip, slide', fr Lat glaci (ēa), 'ice', see glacial, cp ME glenden, 'to shine, move quickly, glance', Swed glánta (see glint), Du, Swed glans, 'brightness', Mod Germ glanz A intrans 1 a To strike obliquely, in such a way as to be deflected to glance aside, glance off (from), of an arrow or other missile, or a blow, b (of light) to be reflected from, flash, gleam fitfully, c (of bright object) to reflect light from surface, flash armour glancing in the sun 2 Glance at, a to look at hurriedly, cursorily, momentarily, to read rapidly I just want to glance at the paper, b (fig) to refer to briefly and pass on to another subject B trans (colloq) In Phr to glance one's eye over, down, to examine hastily, look through hurriedly and superficially glance (II), n, fr preo 1 a Oblique impact, causing deflection of the moving object, b (cricket) stroke with the bat bsd obliquely to the direction of the ball 2 Sudden transient gleam, flash of light, as from reflecting surface 3 a Swift, hasty look, a rapid view one glance was enough, to perceive at a glance, b a meaning look, a directing of the eyes towards those of another a reguish glance glance (III), n Prob Germ glanz, 'brightness, lustre' See glint (min and metal) A lustrous metallic sulphide lead glance, galena &c glance (IV), vb trans Perh Da glærzen, 'to polish', associated w glance (I) To burnish, polish, metal glancing, adj [1 gláknaing, 2 glánsing], fr Pres Part of glance (I) 1 Reflecting light in flashes, gleaming intermittently 2 (of a blow, shot &c) Striking obliquely so as to be diverted gland, n [1 gland, 2 glánd] Fr glande, fr O Fr glandre, fr Lat glandula, 'gland of the throat', dimin of gland (em), glana, 'acorn, pellet', Cogn w Gk balanos, O Slav želadi, 'acorn', Lith, gile, 'gland', cp balaniferous 1 a Organ of an animal body, which secretes substances from the blood, and excretes them, or transforms them into fluids which perform many chemical functions essential to health or nutrition, b secreting organ of plant the poison glands of a nettle 2 Specif (in popular speech) the glands of the neck glandered, adj [1 glánderd, 2 glánded] glanders & -ed Affected with glanders glanders, adj [1 glánderus, 2 glánderes] glandere & -ous Pertaining to glanders glanders, n [1 glánderz, 2 glándaz] O Fr glandere, pl, fr Lat glandulae, 'glands of the throat' See gland & -ule Contagious disease of horses and other domestic animals, more rarely affecting human beings, accompanied by inflammation of mucous membrane and glands of lower jaw, and discharge of pus, farcy glandiferous, adj [1 glandiferus, 2 glándiferus] gland & -ferous Acorn bearing glandiform, adj [1 glándiform, 2 glándisfm] gland & -form Shaped like an acorn glandular, adj [1 glándular, 2 glándjula] Lat glandula, 'gland', see gland, & -ar Pertaining to a gland or glands glandular extract, extract from certain glands, as the thyroid &c, taken from animals, and used in the treatment of diseases due to deficiency of corresponding gland in human body, glandular fever, an infective fever of the lymphatic glands of the neck glandule, n [1 glándül, 2 glándjül] Fr, fr Lat glandula See gland & -ule a A small gland, b a small tumour glandulous, adj [1 glándulus, 2 glándjulus] gland & -ule & -ous Glandular glare (I), vb intrans [1 glár, 2 gléa] ME glaren, 'to shine', cp LG glaren, 'to glow', prob for glaz*, fr glass, cp OE glær, 'amber' Sense 2 is prob affected by 1 To emit a dazzling, blinding light, to be intolerably bright 2 (of beast or person)

To stare, fiercely or threateningly, also glare at glare (II), n, fr preo 1 a Dazzling light, blinding radiance, annoying brightness, Phr the glare of the footlights, lure, publicity, of the stage, b (fig) position of marked prominence, conspicuousness in the full glare of publicity 2 Angry, arrogant stare, fierce, steady gaze glaring, vbl adj [1 gláring, 2 gléaring] Pres Part of glare (I) a (of light) Dazzling, blinding, excessively and unpleasantly bright, b (of colour) gaudy, loud, too bright, garish, conspicuous, c (of non material things) attracting attention by excess of bad qualities, obtrusive, flagrant glaring faults, errors, mistakes too glaring to be overlooked

glaringly, ndv Preo & -ly In a glaring manner glass (I), n [1 glásh, 2 glísh] OE glas, ME glas, gles, cp Du, Germ, ON, Swed glas, also Lat glæs um, 'amber', fr Gmo, perh fr base of glow 1 a A transparent or translucent hard and brittle substance, made by fusing some form of silicate with other materials, used for window-panes, vessels, optical instruments &c, Phr under glass, in a frame or hot-house, b substance resembling true glass glass of antimony, arsenic glass 2 (coll) Objects, esp vessels, made of glass, glassware glass and china 3 Utensil, instrument, or part of object, made wholly or partly of glass, espec a (i) drinking vessel, tumbler, wine glass &c, (ii) the contents of a glass drinking vessel glass of wine, Phr to enjoy, be fond of, one's, or a glass now and then, to be moderately fond of wine &c, b mirror to look in the glass, c optical instrument, as telescope, ologlass, (in pl) binoculars, spectacles to read without glasses, d barometer the glass is falling, e hour glass, sand glass glass (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 To furnish, cover, or protect with glass, to glaze to glass a window, a picture, peaches 2 To make glassy 3 To reflect, mirror the mountains glass themselves in the lake glass-blower, n [1 gláshblér, 2 gláshblús] One who blows and shapes glass glass-blowing, n [1 gláshblóing, 2 gláshblóing] Art, practice, of blowing glass glass-cloth, n Cloth for drying and polishing glassware glass-culture, n Rearing of fruit or plants under glass glasscutter, n [1 gláshskuter, 2 gláshkata] 1 a One whose trade is to cut sheets of glass into suitable sizes for window panes, b one whose trade is to ornament and polish the surface of glass 2 Tool for cutting glass glass eye, n Imitation eye, made of glass glassful, n [1 gláshfúl, 2 gláshfúl] glass & -ful a Contents of drinking glass, b amount which drinking glass will hold glass-gall, n Scum which rises from materials of which glass is made, when in state of fusion glass glaze, n Thick vitreous glaze glasshouse, n [1 gláshbús, 2 gláshdús] a Glass factory, b place for sale of glass, c conservatory, greenhouse, d photographer's studio

Glassite, n [1 gláshit, 2 glásait], fr John Glas(s) (1695-1773), founder of Scottish sect An adherent, follower, of Glass's doctrines, Sandemanian glassman, n [1 gláshman, 2 gláshmán] a Vendor of glassware, b glazier glass oven, n One for slowly cooling and tempering molten glass glass paper, n Paper coated with powdered glass for scouring, or for smoothing woodwork glass snake, n Kind of limbless lizard found in America, so called from its brittleness glassware, n [1 gláshwár, 2 gláshwár] (coll) Small articles, such as tumblers, dishes &c, made of glass (trade word) glasswork, n [1 gláshwérk, 2 gláshwérk] 1 Trade, occupation of making glass.

2 Glass factory 3 Articles made of glass.

glasswort, n [1 gláshwört, 2 gl'swát] A maritime plant growing in salt marshes, from the ashes of which soda is obtained, used in glass-making, also known as marsh samphire glassy, adj [1 gláhe, 2 glási] M E glasi glass & -y. 1 Resembling glass in appearance or texture 2 (fig) a (of the sea, or lake &c) Having a smooth, even, unruffled surface, b (of the eye) lacking appearance of life or fire, hence, expressionless, lifeless glauherite, n [1 glóuborít, gláwberít, 2 glauherát, glóberát], fr J R Glauber, Germ chemist (1604-1688), & -ite (min) Sulphate of sodium and calcium Glauber's salts, n [1 gláwberz sáults, 2 glóbez sáults] Sulphate of sodium, used medicinally as a saline aperient glaucescent, adj [1 gláwkesent; 2 glókesent] Lat glauco-(us), fr Gk glaukós, 'gleaming, bluish green' See glaucous & -escent (bot) Growing glaucous, somewhat glaucous glaucoma, n [1 gláwkóma, 2 glókóumá] See glaucous & -oma (mod) A disease of the eye leading to blindness, characterized by bluish tinge of the pupil, and tension and hardness of the eyeball glaucomatous, adj [1 gláwkómatus, 2 glókómatus] Prec & -ous, -i, being part of stem Pertaining to, resembling, affected by, glaucoma glauconia, n [1 gláwkónia, 2 glókóuná], fr its colour. See glaucous Burrowing snake, bluish-green or grey in colour glauconite, n [1 gláwkónit, 2 glókónat] See next word & -ite (min) A dull green silicate found in greensand glaucous, adj [1 gláwkus, 2 glókas] Lat glauco, fr Gk glaukós, 'gleaming, bright, bluish or grayish green', applied to the olive, & the willow, also to the eye Cp glauz, 'the owl', fr its glaring eyes Prob fr same base as Gk gelad, 'laugh', & gléná, 'pupil of the eye, eye ball' (cp clean (I)), Lith zilas, 'grey', fr same base The suff is fr Lat -osus See -ous a Bluish green, or greenish blue, b (bot) having a whitish bloom, such as that on a plum &c Glaucus, n [1 gláwkus, 2 glókas] See prec Genus of molluscs found in southern seas, blue and silvery white in colour glaze (I), vb trans & intrans [1 gláz, 2 gléiz] O E glaz, 'glass', & adj glazen, 'of glass' From these was formed a M E vb glāsen. The lengthening of the vowel in the open eyll, & the voicing of s between vowels, accounts for the difference in form fr the n See glass A trans 1 To put glass into to glaze a window 2 A to coat with a glassy layer, b specif (in cooking) cover with transparent, shiny film which dries hard, c to give a shiny, polished, glossy surface to leather, paper &c B intrans To become glazed, or glassy in appearance, to lose life and fire, grow dum, esp of the eyes with approach of death, or in illness glaze (II), n, fr prec 1 Act or process of glazing 2 Substance applied or process used in glazing, specif a transparent coating on pottery, b (in paint) thin wash, or superposed layer of varnish pigment, c (in cookery) jelly-like covering added to, or forming on, cold meats, eg galantines, tongues &c 3 (by extension) Pottery &c, which is glazed glazer, n [1 glázer, 2 gléize] glaze (I) & -er 1 Person whose trade is to put a glaze on anything 2 Tool for glazing, polishing &c glaze-wheel, n A wooden wheel faced with emery &c, for polishing outlery &c glazier, n [1 glázier, 2 gléizí] glaze & -er 1 One who outs, supplies, and puts in glass panes to windows &c 2 A glazer of pottery &c glazing, n [1 glázng, 2 gléizng] glaze (I) & -ing 1 The act or process of putting glass into windows &c, b of coating with a glaze 2 Material used as a glaze for pottery, paper &c glary, adj [1 glázi; 2 gléizi] glaze (II) & -y a Resembling or akin to glaze, lustrous, b (of the eye) glazed, lacking fire, lifeless gleam (I), n [1 glém, 2 glím] O E glēm, M E glīm, 'splendour, radiance', op OHG glemo, Gmc glam*, 'to shine', see glimmer 1 a Beam, ray, transient flash of light, b reflected brightness, light reflected from some polished substance, c suddenly perceived patch of colour gleam of gold and scarlet 2 (fig) a Sudden, faint flash of emotion or perception gleam of hope, intelligence, b something suggesting spiritual radiance, vigour, freshness 'Youth's golden gleam' (Wordsworth) gleam (II), vb intrans M E glēmen, fr prec 1 a (of sun, or other luminous body) To emit beams of light, flash, shine, b (of polished surfaces) to reflect light, glitter, sparkle gleaming armour, jewellery &c 2 (fig, of qualities of mind and character) To be manifest, reveal itself courage gleamed in his eye, wit gleamed out in his talk glean, vb trans & intrans [1 glēn, 2 glín] M E glēnen, O Fr glener, glaner, fr Low Lat glanāre, prob Celt, cp W glan, 'clean, tidy' A trans 1 a To pick up, gather, stray ears of corn left by reapers, or grapes omitted by vintagers to glean the corn that is left, b to clean up, clear, a field or vineyard in this way glean a field 2 To collect any trifling belongings 3 (fig, of non-material things) To collect, pick up, obtain, by diligent search to glean information B intrans a To go gleaming, gather stray belongings of reapers or vintagers, b (fig) to acquire, pick up, odds and ends gleaner, n [1 glēner, 2 glīna] One who gleans gleaning, n [1 glīning, 2 glīnng] Prec & -ing: a Act of gleaming after reapers &c, b that which is collected in this process, c (fig, of non-material things, usually pl) something collected, brought together from various sources, slight, stray fragments of knowledge &c gleanings of science, from the poets &c glebe, n [1 glēb, 2 glīb] Fr glebe, fr Lat glēba, earlier gleba, 'lump of earth, land, soil', connected w Lat globus, 'round, solid body', see globe, fr base gel-*, 'to roll up into a ball, stick together', & related to a large number of words Lat glūen, 'glue' (see glue), Gk glōids, 'sticky' &c See further the numerous Gmc cognates under clay, claw, cleave, 'stick to', clumb, clod, clog, clot, clue, & others, fr Lat, under agglomerate (fr glamus, 'ball') 1 (archaic and poet) Soil, earth, land 'Their furrow oft the stubborn glebe hath broke' (Gray's 'Elegy') 2 Land attached to an ecclesiastical benefice, and held by incumbent during his tenure Glecoma, n [1 glēkóma, 2 glókóumá] Gk glēkhōn, or blēkhōn, 'pennyroyal' Etymol doubtful Creeping plant of the mint family, ground ivy glide, n [1 glēd, 2 glíd] O E glida, 'late', M E glēde, different gradation form fr O E glidan, 'to glide' See glido (ornith) The common lute, Milvus regalis glee, n [1 glē, 2 glí] Cp O E glīw, & glē(w), 'music, minstrelsy', mirth, jest Cp Gk hlēuē, 'joke, jest', & Lith glivdas, 'recreation, pastime', O N glaurm, 'sprightliness', & O E glēm, 'merriment', are cognate 1 Mirth, exultant happiness, gay, light hearted mirth 2 (mus) Part-song, often sung without accompaniment Glee club, association formed for glee singing gleeful, adj [1 glēfool, 2 glífal] Prec & -ful a (of persons) Happy and exultant, gay, merry, hilarious, b (of non-material things) exulting, promoting, touched by, glee gleeful news, in gleeful mood gleefully, adv Prec & -ly In a gleeful manner, gaily, merrily gleek, n [1 glēk, 2 glík] Obs. Fr ghelque, ghic, fr. M Du ghelyc, 'alike', cogn w Engl like (I.) Obsolete card game in which players scored by getting three cards alike, 1 e of the same rank in different suits gleemarden, n [1 glēmāden, 2 glīmēden] O E glēo mærgen, 'female minstrel' (archaic) Wandering female singer, as in Scott's Fair Maid of Perth gleeman, n, [1 glēman, 2 glīman] O E glēo mann, 'minstrel, jester' See glea & man (archaic) Strolling minstrel, the Eng lish equivalent of troubadour gleesome, adj [1 glīsūm, 2 glīsam] glee & -some Gleeful gleet, n [1 glēt, 2 glīt] M E glēte, fr O Fr glēte, 'pus, filth' Morbid, watery discharge from urethra gleg, adj [1 glēg, 2 glēg] -Scand Cp O N glōgg (Scotts) Sharp, quick of perception, alert, keen glen, n [1 glen, 2 glin] M E, Gael & Ir glenn, fr O Ir glenn Narrow, lonely valley in the Scottish or Irish hills glengarry, n [1 glangari, 2 glengeri] Name of district in Scotland. Tight fitting Scots Highland cap, with narrow, sloping sides which open at the top, the crown being below this, and having long strings or ribbons at the back glenoid, adj [1 glénoid, 2 glénoid] Gk glēnoeidēs, fr glénē, 'socket of joint', & -oid (anat) Type of joint presenting a slight concave depression glib (I), adj [1 glīb, 2 glīb] Orig 'slippery', op obs ghibbery, Du ghibberg, 'slippery', glippen, 'to slip away' a (of persons) Superficially fluent, ready in speech, talkative, plausible, voluble without being convincing, b (of speech, utterance &c) ready, put, facile, copious and rapid, without expressing depth or thought glib (II), n, fr chib, glib (archaic) Kind of forelock peculiar to ancient Irish glibly, adv glib (I) & -ly In a glib, fluent, plausible manner glibness, n glib (I) & -ness Readiness in speech, fluency, volubility glide (I), vb intrans [1 glíd, 2 gláid] O E glidan, cp Du glyden, Germ gleiten &c Perh fr ga-lidan*, for pref see com-, & for second element see lead (IV) & lode 1 a (of persons) To move along with a smooth, easy, noiseless walk, as though sliding along, with very slight apparent effort, or motion of the limbs, esp of women to glide quietly out of the room, b (of inanimate objects, eg, a ship taking the water) to slip, slide easily and smoothly down an inclined plane, c (of flowing water) to flow smoothly and silently along its channel, d (of a boat on water) to float easily over the surface 2 a To slide smoothly through the air, b specif (aeron, of a flying machine) to plane down, or with alternate downward and upward movements, without using engine glide (II), n, fr prec 1 Any kind of gliding movement 2 Arrangement, inclined plane &c, upon which a gliding movement can be executed, a slide glider, n [1 glíder, 2 gláids] glide & -er Any thing, or person that glides, specif, kind of air-craft especially designed for gliding in the air without aid of engines glim, n [1 glím, 2 glím] Variant of or cogn. w gleam. (slang) Lamp or other artificial light, douse the glim, put out the light glimmer (I), vb intrans [1 glímer, 2 glíme] M E glimeren, 'to shine', O E gleomu, 'splendour', cp Germ glímmern, Da ghíme, fr Gmc base glīm*, another grade of glam*, 'to shine', as in O E glīm See gleam. a (lit and fig) To shine intermittently, flicker, b to glow faintly glimmer (II), n, fr prec 1 A fitful gleam, flicker, intermittent glow, b faint, feeble light 2 (fig, of mental processes) Slight, occasional, fitful manifestation glimmering, n [1 glímerng; 2 glímerng] Prec & -ing A glimmer glimpse (I), vb trans [1 glímpe, 2 glímpe] M E glímsen, 'to shine', also 'to see imperfectly', fr. base glīm*- as glimmer & formative -s-, cp M Du glinzen (rare) To see by glimpses, catch a brief sight of glimpse (II), n, fr prec 1 (obs) Fugitive gleam, glimmer, glint 'the glimpses of the moon' (Shakespeare) 2 Passing sight, fleeting impression of Phr to catch a glimpse of, see for a moment.

glint (I), vb intrans [1 glint, 2 glint] M.E. glinten, 'to shine, look, move quickly', cp Swed glänta, M Dan glint, M H G glinzen &c, 'to shine', perh nasalized form of base glit* See glitter & cp glance (a of luminous bodies) To shine with a fitful subdued gleam the sun glinted through the boughs, b (of polished surfaces) To reflect light faintly at intervals to glint in the sun glint (II), n, fr prec, cp M.E. glint, 'glimpse' Sudden, faint gleam, sparkle, flash.

glioma, n, pl. gliomata [1 gliōma, meta, 2 gliōma, mata] Gk glia, 'glue', & -oma See glue Tumour affecting some part of the brain, spinal cord, or nervous system gliomatosis, n, [1 gliōmetōsis, 2 gliōmatōsis] Prec & -osis Disease characterized by gliomata gliomatous, adj [1 gliōmatus, 2 gliōmatōsus] gliomat- see prec, & -ous Of or pertaining to gliomata, akin to, resembling, effected by gliomata glissade (I), n [1 glisād, -ād, 2 glisād, eid] Fr, 'a slide', fr glisser, 'to slip, glide, slide', of Gmc origin, cp Germ. glitschen, 'to slide', fr base of glide See -ade 1 Deliberate downhill glide over snow or ice, with alpenstock used as a check, practised by mountain climbers 2 Side ward gliding step in dancing glissade (II), vb intrans, fr prec To make a glissade, either in mountain climbing, or dancing.

glisten, vb intrans & n [1 glisan, 2 glisan] O.E. glisnian, M.E. glisnen, fr glis*, base of O.E. glisan, O Frs glisa, 'to shine' See glitter 1 vb To reflect light, glitter, shine, sparkle to glisten with dew, his eyes glistened with excitement 2 n A reflection of light, a glitter, gleam glister, vb intrans & n [1 glister, 2 glista] M.E. glisteren, glistren, formed as prec w freq -er-, cp M Du glisteren. 1 vb To shine, gleam, twinkle 2 n A twinkle, sparkle glitter (I), vb intrans [1 glitter, 2 glite] M.E. glitieren, w formative -er (cp M.H.G. glitzern, O.N. glitra), fr glit*, as in O.E. glitenian, Goth glit-munjan, 'to shine', another gradation form of Gmc base gleit-*, cp O.S. glitan, O.H.G. glitzen, Mod Germ. gliesen, 'to glitter', extended, like gleim*, glis* (see gleam, glisten), fr gli*, glis*,

'to shine' &c This Gmc base is probably cogn. w. Lat. laetare, 'joyful, cheerful, sprightly', wh may stand for ghliss* to a To shine, sparkle blaze with light, b (fig) to make a brave, splendid show. Phr all is not gold that glitters, appearances may deceive glitter (II), n, fr prec A Sparkle, shine, brightness b (fig) pomp, splendour, something that attracts the eye or imagination glittering, adj [1 glittering, 2 glitaring] fr Prec Part. of glitter (I) a Sparkling, shining, brilliant, (fig) b sumptuous, splendid glittering richness c attractive but specious glittering prizes, glittering prizes gloom, n [1 glōm, 2 glūm] O.E. glōm, Lorland Scots O.N. doubtful The vowel makes connexion w. gloom improbable (provine or poet) Twilight gloat, vb intrans [1 gloat, 2 glout] Cp O.N. glōta, to smile scornfully, Germ. glätzen 'to stare' a (gen) Gloat over, dwell upon contemplate with pleasure, enjoy sight, or thought of, exult in (lit. and fig.) to gloat over one's triumphs gloat over another's misfortunes; b (without object) to exult silently, feel a subdued but intense satisfaction at something to sit gloating by oneself gloating, adj [1 glōting, 2 glōtaring] fr Pres.

Part. of prec Arising from, expressing intense, but quiet, delight and exultation a gloating smile globose, adj [1 glōbēt, 2 glouhest] See next word & -ate Shaped like a globe, spheroidal globe, n [1 glōb, 2 gloub] Fr, fr Lat glob (us), 'round solid body, ball, sphere' See gleba, agglomerate 1 a A round body whose surface is throughout equidistant from its centre, sphere, ball, b specif, the earth the terrestrial globe, c any heavenly body 2 Spherical model of earth (terrestrial globe) or of the heavens (celestial globe) showing a map of principal continents, countries, mountain ranges &c, or of the constellations &c Phr the use of the globe, obsolete method of teaching geography and astronomy 3 Various globe like objects, specif a orb, one of the insignia of royalty, a small golden ball symbolizing sovereignty, b spherical glass vessel for holding water for gold fish &c, c glass cover for gas lamp, or electro light globe-amaranth, n Indian garden plant globe-artichoke, n The cardoon globe-dollar, n Spanish coin (18th cent) globe-fish, n Tropical variety of fish, which can assume a globular form globe-flower, n Trollius, q v globe-trotter, n [1 glōbtrōter, 2 glōubtrōte] One who travels continually and widely, esp one who travels from restlessness or for amusement globose, adj [1 glōbōs, 2 gloubōus] Lat glōbōs (us) globe & -ous a Globular, spheroidal, b rounded, convex globoseity, n [1 glōbōsiti, 2 gloubōsiti] Prec & -ity Quality of being globose globular, adj [1 glōbūlar, 2 glōbūlar] Next word & -ar Globe shaped, spherical globule, n [1 glōbūl, 2 glōbūll] Fr, fr Lat globul (us), dimin. of globus, 'ball, sphere' See globe Minute spherical body, esp of liquid, a drop globulin, n [1 glōbūlin, 2 glōbūlin] Prec & -in Protein substance of albuminous character, insoluble in water, a constituent of haemoglobin

globulous, adj [1 glōbūlus, 2 glōbūlus] Globule & -ous Of or pertaining to a globule, like a globule glochidiate, adj [1 glōkīdiāt, 2 gloukīdiēt] fr Gk glōkhis, 'point of an arrow', & -ate See gloss (III) (bot) Barbed glochidium, n [1 glōkīdium, 2 gloukīdiām] Mod Lat dimin. fr Gk, glōkhis See prec

Larva of fresh water mussel glockenspiel, n [1 glōkenspēl, 2 glōkenspīll] Germ, play of bells, fr glocke, 'bell' (see clock), & spiel, 'play' (see spell (IV))

Musical instrument, originally a set of small bells, now a set of tuned steel bars, played with a hammer glomerate, vb trans & adj [1 glomerāt, 2 glomerēt] Lat glomerāt, PP stem of glomerare, fr glomer, stem of glomus, 'ball, sphere' See agglomerate & globe a vb To roll up, collect into a ball or rounded mass, b adj, closely gathered together, accumulated glomeration, n [1 glōmerāsiōn, 2 glōmerēt-iōn] Prec & -iōn a Process of glomerat-ing, b that which is glomerated, a dense round mass, accumulation gloom (I), n [1 glōm, 2 glūm] O.E. glōm, 'twilight' (see glow), might well be the ancestor of this word, as regards both form & meaning but there is a break in the recorded usage, it is suggested that the n is formed fr the now obsolete gloom (II) See also glum

1 a Darkness, dimness of light, obscurity, b a dark place (poet) 2 (fig, of state of mind) Depression of spirits, dullness, melancholy 3 Combination of conditions and circumstances of a kind to produce depression of spirits cheerlessness &c the gloom of poverty, solitude &c gloom (II), vb intrans. M.E. glom (m)en, glomben, gloumen, 'to frown, be gloomy, lour (of weather)', cp Swed glomma, L.G. glummen, 'to scowl' &c See glum (rare) 1 a To grow dark, overcast, b to appear dimly, loom 2 (fig, of persons) To look, or behave, gloomily, show sullen discontent, to lour gloomily, adv [1 glōmūli, 2 glōmūli] Next word & -ly In a gloomy manner (in all senses) gloomy, adj [1 glōmū, 2 glōmū] gloom (I) & -y a Permeated by gloom, dark, dismal a gloomy house, b of a sombre temper, morose, moody, depressed a gloomy companion, c not hopeful, cheerless, dismal gloomy prospects gloria, n [1 glōria, 2 glōria] Lat See glory The name of certain doxologies in the Liturgy, from the first word in each Gloria Patri, Glory be to the Father &c, Gloria tibi, Glory be to thee, Gloria in excelsis, Glory be (to God) on high glorification, n [1 glōrīfīkāsiōn, 2 glōrīfī-kāsiōn] Lat glōr, fr glorifier, fr Lat glōrīfīcare See prec & -fy 1 a Act of glorifying, exalting, praising, worshipping God, b act of extolling, making much of the glorification of physical force 2 State of being glorified glorify, vb trans [1 glōrīfi, 2 glōrīfi] M.E. glorifier, fr glorifier, fr Lat glōrīfīcare See prec & -fy 1 a To worship, exalt, praise (God, the Saints &c), b to belaud, eulogize, extravagantly (persons, their actions or qualities) 2 a To add glory to, make illustrious the names which glorify this age, b to invest with glory glorified spirits in heaven 3 (colloq, chiefly as attrib P P glorified) Enriched, adorned, made larger or finer than usual the church is a sort of glorified barn gloriot, n [1 glōriōl, 2 glōriōul] Fr, fr Lat glōriola, dimin of glōria See glory Circle or disk round the head in representations of saints &c, a nimbus, halo, aureole glorious, adj [1 glōrius, 2 glōrius] M.E., O Fr glorīus (Mod Fr glorieux), fr Lat. glōriōs (us) glory & -ous 1 a Having heavenly or supernatural splendour and majesty a glorious vision, b radiantly beautiful, sublime, majestic a glorious sunset, glorious music 2 Having, or worthy to have, high renown, very illustrious, august, splendid, triumphant a glorious achievement, reign, victory 3 (colloq) a Thoroughly enjoyable, delightful to have a glorious time, holiday, glorious fun, b accompanied, or caused, by reckless high spirits a glorious rag, row, a glorious mess, complete, extravagant disorder and confusion glory (I), n [1 glōr, 2 glōr] M.E., O Fr glorie, fr Lat glōria, 'fame, renown, ambition, boasting', perh for glōna*, connected w. Lat glōris (in a gloss) = Gk muthologos, 'teller of legends', fr a base meaning 'cry out, sing' &c, cp O Slav glasati, 'famous', & glasati, 'voice', Russ. glas, 'voice' From same base come prob Lat gallus, 'a cock', lit 'the singer', & the Gmc kal-* as in O.N. kalla, 'call' See call & gallinaceous

1 Splendour, magnificence, radiance, specif a state in which Divine and celestial beings dwell, heavenly splendour and bliss to dwell with the saints in glory, Phr gone to glory, dead, b earthly pomp, splendour, triumph, pageantry 'Solomon in all his glory', the king reigned many years in great glory, 'the glory that was Greece' (Poe) 2 a Worship, honour, adoration accorded to God.
'Glory to God in the highest', b honour and respect, triumph, accorded to, fame, high renown won by human being through great services and achievements to win glory on the field of battle, 'He left him alone in his glory' (Wolfe), to return with glory, in triumph.
3 Any splendid, brilliant, and impressive sight, esp the radiance of nature the glory of the morning, the glory of the woods in autumn, Old Glory, the Stars and Stripes, national flag of U.S.A. & a Highest point of success, prosperity &c under George II the Whig party was at its glory, b high degree of pleasure, pride, satisfaction the poet was in his glory, surrounded by a crowd of admirers 5 a Halo, nimbus, aureole, supposed to emanate from, and surround the head of, Divine or saintly beings, b pictorial representation of this by golden ring or disk glory (II), vb intrans, fr prec Followed by in) 1 To take delight in, have keen feeling of exultation or triumph because of, take a pride in to glory in one's country's victory, to glory in one's health and strength 2 To exult to excess, hence, to exhibit boastful arrogance, to boast of he glories in his own disgrace glory hole, n a (naut) Steward's storeroom on board ship, b small lumber-room or cupboard in a house gloss (I), n [1 glos, 2 glos] Province & Scots in sense 'glow', prob fr ON glossi, 'a blaze', op Norw glosa, M H G glosen, 'to glow' See glow 1 Sheen, polish, smooth bright surface which reflects light 2 (fig) Superficial veneer of virtue &c, specious show gloss of respectability gloss (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To put a gloss upon, polish, make shiny the surface of 2 (fig, usually gloss over) To explain away, minimize by plausible arguments to gloss over one's faults (Probably influenced by gloss (III)) B intrans To take on a gloss, grow shiny serge is apt to gloss gloss (III), n Lat glossa, 'antiquated or foreign word needing elucidation', fr Gk glōssa, 'the tongue, speech' This word is for glōkhya*, cogn w Gk glōkhis, 'a projecting point', orig, in Gk, the tongue is 'the pointed thing' 1 In ancient MSS, explanation or interpretation of unfamiliar words or phrases, often written above the line, usually in a more familiar (or the native) language, hence, any succinct comment or elucidation 2 (extended fig use) Favourable explanation offered for reprehensible speech or conduct gloss (IV), vb trans, fr prec 1 To supply with glosses, write glosses to 2 Gloss over, extenuate, explain away (a fault) See however gloss (II) 2 glossarial, adj [1 glosarial, 2 glosarial] glossary & -al Pertaining to, of nature of, a glossary glossarial index glossarist, n [1 glosarist, 2 glosarist] glossary & -ist Compiler of a glossary or glossaries glossary, n [1 glosari, 2 glosari], fr Lat glossari-(um), 'collection, vocabulary of antiquated or foreign words', fr glossa, q v under gloss (III), & -ary Miniature dictionary, alphabetical list of unfamiliar words &c of any kind, whether foreign or native glossator, n [1 glosator, 2 glosator] Low Lat See gloss (III) Writer of glosses to texts glossic, a [1 glōsik, 2 glōsik] Coined fr Gk glōssa, 'tongue' See gloss (III) & -ic System of phonetic notation invented by A J Ellis, and hardly used except by himself, and, in the 'seventies, by Henry Sweet, this alphabet was abandoned on account of its omphibiousness glossitis, n [1 glositis, 2 glositis] Gk glōssa, 'tongue' See gloss (III) & -itis, 'inflammation' Inflammation of the tongue glosso-, pref Form of Gk glōssa, glōtta, tongue, 'language', used in compounds See gloss (III) for etymol glossograph, n [1 glosograhf, 2 glosograhf] Pref & -graph Device for recording movements of tongue in speech glossographer, n [1 glosografer, 2 glosografer] glosso- & -graph & -er A writer of glosses, annotator glossological, adj [1 glosolōjiki, 2 glosolōjiki] glosso- & -logical (obs term) Connected with the science of language glossologist, n [1 glosolōjist, 2 glosolōjist] Next word & -ist (obs term) Student of the science of language glossology, n [1 glosolōji; 2 glosolōjiz] glosso- & -logy Obsolete term for the science of language or comparative philology glossotomy, n [1 glosotomi, 2 glosotami] glosso- & -tomy (surg) Cutting out, extirpation, of the tongue glottis, n [1 glōtis, 2 glōtis] Gk glōttis, 'month of windpipe', fr glōtta, variant in Attic dial of glōssa, 'tongue' See gloss (III) Opening between the vocal cords, which are situated in the larynx or upper part of the windpipe glottological, adj [1 glōtōlōjiki, 2 glōtōlōjiki] See glottology & -ic & -al Pertaining to glottology glottologist, n [1 glōtōlōjist, 2 glōtōlōjist] See next word & -ist Student of glottology glottology, n [1 glōtōlōji, 2 glōtōlōjiz] See glosso- & -logy Obsolete name for science of language or comparative philology glove (I), n, [1 gluv, 2 gluv] OE glōf, 'glove, paw', perh fr ga-laf*, for pref see com-, the second element being cogn w Goth lafa, 'palm of the hand' The suggestion that the latter is cogn w Lat alapa, 'hox on the ear', & Gk lōaphos is to be rejected, these are early borrowings fr Heb khelaphōi, pl of khelaph, 'hammer' a Covering for the hand and fingers, of leather, wool, or silk &c, and provided with separate compartments for each finger and for the thumb, b similar article made of leather, padded, and with separate compartment only for thumb, the fingers being all together, also boxing-glove, (fig) take off the gloves (to), from prize ring, to fight in earnest, oppose strongly, to fit like a glove, fit exactly, to be hand in glove with, very intimate, in collusion with glove (II), vb trans, fr prec A To cover (the hand) with a glove, b to supply with gloves glove-fight, n Boxing match in which gloves are worn glover, n [1 gláver, 2 gláva] glove (I) & -er a Person whose trade is to make gloves, b a retailer of gloves glow (I), vb intrans [1 glō, 2 glou] OE glōwan, OS glōwan, OH G gluoen, Mod Germ glühen, 'to glow', base also in OH G gluot, OE glēd (fr glād*), 'hot coal, fire' &c The base is widespread in the Aryan languages, the essential meaning being 'bright, shining' Cp Gk khlorōs, 'light green, pale' (see chloro-), OE glōm, 'twilight, half-light' (see gloom), & ON glāmr, 'moon' ('yellow-faced'), belong to same group More remote fr these, but doubtless fr same base w special suff, are the group of words gold, & its nearer cognates 1 To be luminous from intense heat, to be incandescent, red-hot, as metals, glass &c in fusion 2 A To burn steadily with little or no flame (of partially burnt wood, coal &c, as opposed to blaze), b to emit a steady, even light (of lamps, fireflies) 3 (fig, of persons) A To feel comfortably warm, as from robust health, after exercise &c glow with health &c, b to swell, feel elated, be hot with emotion to glow with enthusiasm, pride, anger &c 4 a (of colours, or coloured things) To be bright, to flame, show great intensity of colour the reds in this picture seem to glow, the picture glowed upon the wall, lilacs and laburnums glow in the parks, b (of the cheeks) to flush, show red, from strong feeling or robust health cheeks that glow with shame, with pride, happiness, with health &c, c (of the eyes) to light up, flash his eyes glowed with anger, indignation &c glow (II), n, fr prec 1 In first, maternal, sense the word implies, a certain phase of combustion accompanied by both light and heat, but without flame or smoke the fire is in a glow, red-hot, b light alone, generally diffused, regarded merely as visual sensation, a reddish luminosity glow of distant fires, glow of sunset in the sky 2 A Sense of bodily warmth, comfort, and well-being all in a glow, a pleasant glow after a bath, hence, (fig) b sense of moral satisfaction.

glow of happiness, c moral fervour, ardour in the first glow of enthusiasm 3 a (of visual impression produced by bright and coloured objects) Vividness, penetrating intensity glow of colours, of the flowers, b (of colour in cheeks) a pink glow mounted to his cheeks glower (I), vb intrans [1 glōw, 2 glūw] Orig Scots & North M E glāren, 'to glare, stare', cp M Du glōeren, 'to leer', L G gluren, 'to be overcast', Swed glōra, 'to glare', apparently related to lour, M Du loeren, L G luren, perh w pref ge, (see com-), or affected by glare To lour, to stare gloomily, sullenly, threateningly, to scowl glower (II), n, fr prec Grm, gloomy stare expressing disapproval, or ill temper, a lowering look, scowl glowing, adj [1 glōng, 2 glōng], fr Pres Part of glow (I) 1 In a glow, red hot glowing embers 2 a (of persons) Roused to moral or emotional fervour glowing patriot, evangelist, enthusiast &c, b (of the mind and emotions) intense, vivid, fervid, enthusiastic, deeply moved a glowing imagination, glowing admiration for Phr to give a glowing account of, represent as highly admirable, exhibit enthusiasm in favour of 3 a (of colours &c) Intense, vivid, bright, reverse of sombre, dull &c Phr to paint in glowing colours, describe in most favourable manner, b (of the cheeks) suffused with a blush, red from excitement, exertion, good health &c glowingly, adv Pref & -ly a In a glowing manner, b (fig) warmly, enthusiastically glow-worm, n Wingless female of small European beetle, Lampyrus, which emits a phosphorescent light gloxinia, n [1 glōksīna, 2 glōksīna], fr name of B Gloxin, a German botanist A tropical plant, genus Simningia, cultivated in hot houses for its beautiful bell shaped flowers glōze, vb intrans [1 glōz, 2 glōz], fr Fr glozer See gloss (III) Glōze over, to explain away, put favourable interpretation on, to gloss (over) glucinum, n [1 glōksīnum, 2 glōksīnum] Fr minum, fr Gk glukus, 'sweet' See glyco- Beryllium, a white alkaline metal extracted from the beryl glucose, n [1 glōkōs, 2 glōlōus] Concocted fr Gk gleukos, 'must, sweet wine', connected with glukus, 'sweet' See glyco- & -ose (chem) A form of sugar, dextrose, or grape sugar, made by treating starch with acids and used in brewing &c glucoside, n [1 glōkōsid, 2 glōkōsid] See prec & -ide (chem) A compound substance which yields glucose by treatment with acids or ferments glucosuria, n See glycosuria glue (I), n [1 glō, 2 glū] O Fr glu, 'bird hme', fr L Lat glū-(em), glū, fr Lat glūen, 'glue', cogn w Gk glōic, 'glue', glōios, 'sticky', fr Aryan glōi*, wh becomes llei* in Gmc, cp OE clāg, fr llei* g (see clay) An enormous number of words are derived fr the various forms of this base, wh meant 'stick together, form a mass, roll up, gather into a ball' &c See the native Eng! words cleave (II), 'stick to', clod, clot, clew, club, & others referred to under these, & further such words of Lat origin as glue, globe agglomerate Glatinous, viscous, soluble, sticky substance obtained by boiling animal hides, hoofs, membranes, or bones, a powerful adhesive Phr (fig) to stick like glue to, to accompany, shadow, attend, (a person) persistently glue (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 A To coat with glue, b to stick, fasten, together with glue 2 (fig) a (esp in pass) To be inseparable from, refuse to leave, be constantly in company of she remained glued to her mother the whole evening, b to direct fixedly towards, concentrate upon to have one's eye glued to the keyhole glue-pot, n A double pot, with glue in inner, and water in outer part, placed on fire to liquefy glue for use gluey, adj [1 glōū, 2 glū] glue (I) & -y Covered with glue, like glue in character and consistency, sticky and thick glum, adj [1 glum, 2 glām] Closely related to gloom (II) Morose, silent, depressed, sullenly despondent, moody glumaceous, adj [1 glōmāshus, 2 glūmei-] See glume & -aceous Having glumes, akin to glumes glumal, adj [1 glōmal, 2 glūmāl] Next word & -al Having a glume, distinguished by a glume glume, n [1 glōm, 2 glūm] Lat glūma, 'hush, hull' The Lat word is fr earlier glub ma* & related to glūbere 'to peel, chafe' Cp Gk gluphō, 'hollow out, engrave, cave', & gluphis, 'notch in an arrow' (see glyph) In Gmo there are various cognates, e.g. O E clēofan, 'to split' (see cleave (I) & cleft (I)), & OHG & Mod Germ kluff, 'cleft, split'

Bract, hush, or shell of flowering grasses glumly, adv [1 glūml, 2 glāmli] glum & -ly In a glum, surly manner glumness, n [1 glūmnēs, 2 glāmns] See prec & -neas The quality or state of being glum glumous, adj [1 glōmūs, 2 glūmās] glume & -ous Bearing glumes glut (I), vb trans [1 glut, 2 glāt] ME gluten, fr O Fr glout, gloutir, 'to swallow, gulp down', fr Lat glūtīre, glūtīre, in same sense Cp also Lat in glūtīre, 'maw, crop, greed' This word is fr base gel-* & 'to swallow', & is connected w Lat gula, 'throat, gullet', wh has a near cousin in O E ceole, 'throat' (fr cela*), & OHG kela, Mod Germ kehle, 'throat, neck' Cp glutton & gullet 1 (obs) To swallow eagerly, guzzle 2 To regale to excess, feed to satiety, to surfeit, satiate to glut one's appetite 3 (fig) To cloy, surfeit, sicken, esp to indulge evil passions inordinately glutinous, revenge, hence, b to furnish superfluously, redundantly glut the market glut (II), n, fr prec Plentiful supply, superabundant quantity of anything, specif, of any marketable commodity, supply exceeding demand glut of eggs, glums, poultry &c gluteal, adj [1 glōtēal, 2 glūtēal] Formed fr Gk glūtōs, 'rump', & -al. Cogn w Sert glaut, 'ball', & ultimately related to the base seen in glue &c Of, or pertaining to, the muscles of the buttocks gluten, n [1 glōtēn, 2 glūtēn] Lat, 'glue' See glue A tough, viscid albuminous nutritive substance, plentiful in wheat flour gluteus, n [1 glōtēus, 2 glūtēus] Mod Lat, fr Gk glūtōs, 'rump'. See gluteal. Muscles of the buttocks glutinous, adj [1 glōtēnus, 2 glūtēnus] Lat. glūtīn (v), see gluten, & -ous Of the nature of glue, adhesive, sticky glutton, n [1 glutun, 2 glātun] ME glutūn, fr Fr glouton, fr Lat glūtōn-(em), glūtōn (em), glūtō (s), 'a gormandizer', fr glūtīre, 'to gulp down, swallow' See glut 1 a Greedy, inordinate feeder, gormandizer, guzzler, b (fig, colloq) one who is zealous, diligent, assiduous, unremitting, Phr (fig) a glut on for work, one who cannot have too much work, a good worker, a glutton for punishment, boxer who takes blows with indifference 2 (zool.) A carnivorous mammal, Gulo luscus, with long shaggy fur, found in Asia and North America, allied to the badger, weasel &c, known also as wolverine gluttonous, adj [1 glutunus, 2 glātunus] ME glōtunous prec & -ous Fond of eating, inclined to think too much about food, and to eat to excess gluttony, n [1 glutun, 2 glātun] ME glōtun, fr O Fr gloutenie, glutton & -y The vice of the glutton, habit of intemperate eating glycerine, n [1 gliserin, 2 gliserin] Fr glycérine, fr Gk glukērōs, 'sweet', & -ine, ep Gk glukus, 'sweet', those are for glukeros* &c, & are cogn w Lat dulcis, 'sweet to the taste' &c, wh is for dolucis*, earlier doluk* &c See dulcet A sweet, colourless, viscous liquid extracted from various animal and plant fats, and as by product in soap and candle making, used in medicine, the manufacture of explosives, also to sweeten wines &c, and as a toilet preparation &c glyco-, pref used in a number of newly invented scientific terms, fr Gk glukus, 'sweet' See etymol under glycerine glycogen, n [1 glīhōjen, 2 glīhōdžen] prec & -gen (chem) A carbohydrate, similar to starch, found in the liver and tissues of animals, also in certain fungi, producing glucose glycol, n [1 glīkol, 2 glīkol] glyco- & -ol (chem) A class of substances, midway between glycerine and ethyl alcohol glycome, glyconin, adj & n [1 glīkonik, -lōman, 2 glīkonik, -lōman], fr glukōn, Greek poet a adj A form of Greek and Roman verse of four feet, b n, a verse in this metre glycosuria, n [1 glīkōsūria, 2 glīkōsūria], fr glyco-, w s fr glucose, & -uria, 'diseased condition of urine' See urine Disease in which glucose is excreted in the urine, form of diabetes glyph, n [1 glīf, 2 glīf] Fr glyphe, fr Gk gluphē, cp Gk gluphein, 'to carve', &c, fr base glubh-* &c, cp Lat glūbere, 'to peel bark off, etnp' (see glume), & O E clēofan, 'split' &c (see cleave (I)) a (archit) Vortical channel or groove, b (archaeol) figure cut in relief glyphograph, n [1 glīfōgrāf, 2 glīfōgrāf] prec & -graph Etched plate, or etching produced by glyphotraphy glyphographic, adj [1 glīfōgrāfik, 2 glīfōgrāfik] prec & -ic Of, or pertaining to, glyphotraphy, produced by this process glyphotraphy, n [1 glīfōgrāfi, 2 glīfōgrāfi] Gk gluphein, 'cut, engrave' See glyph & -graphy Process by which a raised plate for printing is made from an etching by electro type glyptic, adj [1 glīptik, 2 glīptik] Gk gluphtikos, 'carving' See glyph Of, or pertaining to, carving or engraving, hence, glyptics, n pl, the art or study of engraved gems, ivory &c glyptodon, n [1 glīptōdon, 2 glīptōdon] Gk gluphtōn (adj), fr gluphein, 'engrave', see glyph, & odōn (n), 'tooth', wh base see under dental & tooth Cp also eat Extinct giant mammal with fluted teeth, whose remains are found in S America, related to the armadillos glyptograph, n [1 glīptōgrāf, 2 glīptōgrāf] Gk gluphtōs, 'carved', & -graph See glyph. Engraved precious stone, seal &c, the engraved design thereon glyptography, n [1 glīptōgrāfi, 2 glīptōgrāfi] prec & -y Process, art, or study of gem-engraving gnarled, adj [1 narld, 2 nāld] ON gnerr, 'knot in wood', cogn w ME knarre, 'knot in wood', op knar a (of trees) Having trunk or branches covered with knobs, rugged, b (of human beings) having rugged, knobby, weather-beaten appearance, c (fig, of character) cross grained, cantankerous gnash, vb trans [1 nash, 2 nēf] Prob imitative of sound, various Frs & Scand words, the origin of wh is unknown, are quoted by Skeat & others, having some resemblance in form & meaning Cp O E gnādan, 'to pulverize', wh may be connected, & ME gnāstien, 'gnash the teeth' Only in Phr to gnash the teeth, to grind the teeth, champ, but chiefly fig, to exhibit rage by facial contortion, or simply, to show strong displeasure, to be in a rage gnashing, n [1 nashing, 2 nēf] prec & -ing Act of grinding the teeth Phr (fig) gnashing of teeth, rage, despair gnat, n [1 nat, 2 nāt] O E gnat, perh connected w O.N gnata, 'to clash', fr the noise of its wings Any of various small two-winged insects or flies which bite and suck the blood Phr to strain at a gnat, stick at trifles gnathic, adj [1 (g)nāthik, 2 (g)nēpik] Gk gnathos, 'jaw, mouth', & -ic fr same base as Gk genus, 'lower jaw', gēneion, 'chin' (see genial (II)), Lat gena, 'cheek', & genuinus, 'molar tooth', gingivae, 'gums of the mouth' See gingival, further, Goth kinrus, O E cinn See chin Of, or pertaining to, the jaw gnathism, n [1 (g)nāthizm, 2 (g)nēpizm] See prec & -ism Relatively great projection of lower jaw, term as used in craniometry

-gnathous, suff, fr Gk gnathos, 'jaw' See gnathic & -ous Indicating the relative projection of lower jaw in craniometry, o.g. prognathous

gnaw, vb trans & intrans [1 naw, 2 nō] O E gnagan, Engl form, corresponding to Scand nag (II) 1 trans & intrans a To cut, wear, away by action of upper front teeth, as rats and mice &c, b to scrape, chew, mumble, with the teeth generally like a dog gnawing (at) a bone 2 trans & intrans (fig) a (of physical pain and sickness) To harass continually, torment unceasingly, wear down, sap constantly gnawed by pain, fever gnawing at his life, b (of mental grief and worry) to oppress, afflict, sharply and continually anxiously and distress gnawed at his heart gnawing, n & adj [1 nāwing, 2 nōw] n, prec & -ing, adj, fr prec Part of prec. 1 n a Action or process of that which gnaws, b (fig) dull, wearing, continuous pain of body or suffering of mind gnawings of hunger, conscience &c 2 adj That which gnaws (lit and fig) a gnawing animal, rodent, gnawing pain, hunger, grief gneiss, n [1 nis, 2 nais] Germ gneis, fr O.H.G. gneistan, 'to sparkle' Composite rock consisting of quartz, feldspar, and mica gnome (I), n [1 nōm, 2 noum] Fr, fr a Neo Lat word gnomus, invented by Paracelsus, prob fr Gk gnōmē, 'intelligence' See next word a Fabulous, grotesque, dwarfish, misshapen sprite, kind of earth-goblin, believed to guard hidden treasure, b a grotesque, dwarfish person gnome (II), n Gk gnōmē, 'mind, thought, opinion', fr base gnō* See gnomon Didactic, sententious, moral maxim, an aphorism gnomic(al), adj [1 nōmik(l), 2 noumik(l)] Gk gnōmīk (adj), prec & -ic & -al Connected with, based on, consisting of, gnomes, aphoristic, sententious, epical, gnomic poetry, type consisting chiefly in the expression of aphorisms and sententious platitudes and truisms gnomish, adj [1 nōmish, 2 noumish] gnome (I) & -ish Like a sprite or gnome, freakish gnomon, n [1 nōmon, 2 noumon] Gk gnōmōn, 'judge, interpreter', also 'a T-square', fr base gnō*, as in gnōmē, 'intelligence', gnōslein, 'to learn' &c, cogn w Lat (g)nōtus, 'known' &c, see notion, & w Engl know Index on a sundial, consisting of a rod which shows time by position of its shadow gnomonic, adj [1 nōmōnik, 2 noumōnik] Gk gnōmōnik (adj) prec & -ic Of, or pertaining to, gnomons, sundials, hence, gnomonics, n pl, principles of constructing dials gnosis, n [1 nōsis, 2 nousis] Gk gnōsis, 'knowledge, wisdom', fr base gnō*, 'to know', see gnomon The higher, spiritual wisdom or knowledge, claimed by the Gnostics

Gnostic, n & adj [1 nostik, 2 nōstik] Gk gnōstikōs, 'knowing', fr base in gnomon a n Member of the heretical Christian sect of Gnostics (mystics), of 2nd cent, b adj, of, or pertaining to, gnosticism, characteristic of this heresy gnosticism, n [1 nostisizm, 2 nōstisizm] prec & -ism The heresy of the Gnostics.

gnu, n [l. nɜ, 2 nɪ] Hottentot name (zool.) Large South African antelope with head, horns, and mane like those of an ox go (I), vb intrans [1 gō, 2 gou] O.E. gān, M.E. gō(n), O.H.G. gān, gān, Sved gō Orig. a vb in -m, as appears in O.H.G. gōm, 'I go'. Of the various suggested etymologies the most probable is perhaps that which derives the word from an Aryan base *g'h₂s, 'to move, leap', & connects it with Sert jīhī, 'he goes away, goes forward, leaps up', & further with Lat hēres, q.v. under its Engl. derivative bear, & with Lat haedus, 'he goat'. See further under goat, for Pres. went, see wend
A intrans 1 a (archaic) To walk, b to move voluntarily, to proceed, from one place to another, to travel I shall go to France, let us go by train, to go on foot, by road &c, c (of inanimate things) to be moved, driven, propelled, from one place to another this train goes to London 2 Spend a to depart from, leave, place where speaker is, reverse of come it is really time for us to go, don't go yet, b (of inanimate things, of conditions) to pass away from a given point in space, be moved off, disappear, cease to affect particular person or thing the clouds have gone and the sun has come out, I wish my pain would go, the train has just gone, a rifle bullet goes from the barrel with tremendous velocity, his life is going fast, all hope is gone, c to be eliminated, got rid of, abolished drink must go, this clause of the bill will have to go, that sentence goes altogether, as the passage now runs, d to give way, be carried away, broken off, torn away &c I thought every minute that the big elm would go, first the sail and then the mast went 3 To move, execute movements, without departing from a given place I want to see the wheels go round 4 a (of machinery) To move in the intended way, to perform the series of desired movements, work properly my watch won't go, the engine went beautifully all day, I hear the bells going, Phr it has just gone six, the clock has struck, b (1) (of the heart) to act I could feel my heart going at a tremendous rate, (u) of bodily organisms &c he is going strong, is full of health and vigour 5 a To engage in a particular line of action, conduct or thought, to follow a lead, be guided, directed, by I shall go entirely by what the doctor says, b to behave in a particular way, carry out certain movements, gestures &c all the time he was speaking he went like this, as he passed me, he went so, (such phrases are accompanied by appropriate gesture, grimace &c) 6 To be current, be commonly stated the story goes that 7 To be, live, exist, continually and habitually in particular condition to go hungry, empty, to go in rags, to go in fear of one's life, to go armed 8 (only in Pres. Part) To be available, to be in progress, on hand we have a prime leg of mutton going, there is sure to be some sort of dinner going 9 a (with, following, edv or adv phr) To proceed, pursue course, run, turn out things have gone badly with me of late now did the play go?, everything went better than I expected, b (unqualified by adv) to turn out well, succeed, follow a prosperous course just the man to make things go 10 To have a particular sequence, have a specified form, be expressed in way indicated this is how the tune goes, I forget exactly how the words go 11 To pass into a particular state or condition, to become, turn, a (of physical states) to go cold all over, to go to sleep; to go into a faint, swoon, to go black in the face, go green with envy, red with anger &c, Phr to go bad, become putrid, sour, decayed, b (of mental conditions, phases of opinions &c) become afflicted in particular way, adopt certain views to go mad, to go queer in the head, to go Conservative, Bolshevik, Phr to go to pieces, break up physically, mentally, or morally, or in all three ways 12 To be sold for, fetch a certain price eggs went for 3s a dozen, don't let your house go too cheap 13 To come to an issue, be decided the case went against him, how did the voting go? 14 To pass into possession of, come under control of, be allotted to, a (specific, by inheritance) I have decided to whom my money is to go at my death, the estates went to the eldest son, b (by natural course of events) victory always goes to the strong, honours do not invariably go to the most deserving 15 a To extend, be continued, run how far does this road go?, where does the path go to?, the boundary goes along the river and then northwards at right angles, b to be capable of extension between two given points, to reach a given length or distance that cash will never go round her waist, the plank just goes across the brook 16 a To have an allotted and habitual place or position, to be habitually kept in such a place that book goes on the top shelf, the silver goes in the safe every night, b to be placed I want the large table to go in my room, where is this carpet to go? 17 (Pres. Part going, followed by infin) a expressing action or event in near or immediate future do you think it's going to rain?, your dog is going to kill that cat in a minute, there are (colloq. there's) going to be apple dumplings for dinner, b expressing intention of future action I'm going to flog you, I'm not going to tell, I'm going to ask you a favour, are you going to behave like a gentleman or not? 18 a Phr such as go hunting &c. Rather (M.E.) to go on hunting, then to go a hunting &c, which is now archaic or provincial The ending was formerly -ing, -ing, suffix forming verbal noun (which took the place of -op, huntop, 'act of hunting') The construction is now fast as a Pres. Part There is a certain restriction in the verbs with which the construction is used to go shooting, fishing, skating, skiing, blackberrying &c, b a different, but closely associated construction is to go out fishing, shooting &c, and a more different still to go (out) duck shooting; d note Phr don't go picking the pears, don't go telling me lies, also, don't go and make a fool of yourself (emphatic imperatives), also he goes frightening people with his stories &c, implying he makes a practice of Idiomatization Phrs go it!, (colloq.) play up, do your best! &c, you have been going ill! (have strongly stressed), you have apparently been indulging in excessive dissipation, or in extremely vigorous activity, to go the whole hog, think, speak, act, without any reservations or compromise, to go all lengths, show excess of zeal; act uncompromisingly and without restrictions, to go to the bar, become a barrister, go to sea, become a sailor, to go the pace, live a fast, dissipated life, to go bang, to explode, to go bust, (colloq.) to be ruined, to go one better, to outdo, (all very well) so, as far as it goes, implying that further knowledge, information, experience are required before accepting, or acting on, a statement &c, to go for nothing, very little, amount to, count as B Followed by adverbs and prepositions Go about, a to circulate a story is going about, b (naut., of a vessel) to tack Go against, to oppose, run counter to. it goes against my principles Go ahead, to make progress, push forward, pass competitors, Phr go ahead!, a start, continue your journey, move forward!; b proceed with what you are saying or doing Go along, to proceed, progress, (colloq. interj.) go along (with you)!, (1) to be off (away from here)!, (u) don't be absurd! Go at, (colloq.) to assail, rush at, attack he went at him with his fists, Phr to go at it hammer and tongs, undertake, tackle, energetically Go back, a to return to place from which one has come, b (fig.) to pass again, deteriorate these old trees are going back Go back on, (1) to revoke, break, withdraw from (promise, bargain &c.), (u.) to betray, play false (a person) Go behind, to search for, investigate, facts underlying to go behind the evidence, to go behind what has been said, seek further information before accepting statement Go between, to mediate, act as agent, between (ep. go-between) Go beyond, to exceed to go beyond one's orders Go by, to pass, elapse years have gone by (ep. bygone) Go down, a to sink, be submerged, (of a heavenly body) to set, b (Oxford and Cambridge colloq.) to leave the University, c (colloq.) (1) to be swallowed, slip down the throat, hence, (u) (fig.) to be credited or approved that won't go down with me, d to be remembered he will go down to posterity as a traitor Go for, a (colloq.) To attack vehemently by act or word the speaker went for the profiteers, b to match at, aim at, try to get I should go for the cash Go forth, to be published an order went forth Go in, to enter to go in for an examination, to go in for golf, collecting, dissipation &c, devote, addict oneself to, Phr go in and win!, show enterprise and confidence Go into, (1) to occupy oneself with to go into details, (u) to investigate, examine carefully to go into the evidence Go near, almost attain or succeed in he went near success, breaking the record Go off, a (1) (of a firearm or explosive) to explode, be discharged, (u) (fig.) to burst out in word or act, b (colloq.) to deteriorate her voice is going off, c to pursue a certain course, be carried out the performance went off well, d to go away, run away, depart unexpectedly, abandoning one's responsibilities Jones has gone off with a friend's wife Go on, a to continue the battle went on all day, b (colloq.) to persist in particular line of behaviour (usually in unfavourable sense) don't go on like that, (colloq. Phr) go on! (1) continue, (u) (often ironical) nonsense!, c (cricket) to take turn at bowling Go on for, to approach, as in going on for fifty, for five o'clock Go out, a to attend social functions, cultivate society she goes out a great deal, b to vacate an office, retire the minister who has gone out, c to cease to be popular or in fashion what has quite gone out, d (1) (of a fire, light) to be extinguished, (u) (slang) to die, Phr my heart goes out to my sympathy, love, is drawn to, is aroused by Go over, a to study, learn, repeat, methodically, from beginning to end go over your lesson, your part, he went over the whole story, b to examine carefully in every part the engineers went over the machine, go over the accounts Go round, to be sufficient in number or amount to allow of complete and equal distribution or apportionment there's not enough wine to go round Go through=go over, to examine with care, look into in detail to go through the arguments on the other side Go through with, to persist to the end of I am resolved to go through with it Go to! (obs. Rib. interj.) expressing exhortation, remonstrance &c, come! Go under, a to sink, be submerged, hence, b (fig.) to succumb, fail, be ruined the firm has gone under Go up, to be blown up, explode to go up in flames, fire, smoke, (of buildings) to be consumed by fire Go with, a to accompany, Phr I can't go with you in everything you say, I can't agree, to go with one's party, act, vote, in accordance with their principles or opportunism, b (1) (of material things) to match, be suitable to, to harmonize with the colour of her dress doesn't go at all with her hair, fish doesn't go well with tea; the old furniture goes very well with the house, (u) (of non-material things) to be fitting with, be adapted to, agree, be in accordance with vulgar manners do not go with a noble nature.

go (II), n, n. inf. prec. (colloq. only) That which goes (in various senses of the vb) 1 That which runs its course, a performance, achievement, (u. colloq. or slang phrases) a rare go, strange occurrence &c here's a pretty go, awkward situation, all the go, much in vogue, no go, not to be done, impracticable, near go, a narrow margin of safety, time &c, a near thing, a narrow squeak 2 A spell of action, turn let's have a go at it, b quantity (of drink &c) taken at one time 3 Action agreed upon, bargain. Is it a go? 4 Act-ity, energy, spirit fuhr cf go, Phr or the go, (1) restlessly active I've been on the go ever since daylight, (n) on the point of departure, just off goad (I), n [1 göd, 2 goud] OE gād, 'point of weapon, sting, goad' (see gadfly), cogn w Lombardic gāda, 'point of an arrow' The base is prob Aryan ghai-*, as in Gk. thaios, 'shepherd's staff', & thus the Engl word are apparently related to OE gār, 'spear' & See further under gore (II) Sert hūit, 'missile', fr ghait*, appears to be the nearest cogn outside Gmc Cp also Lat gaesum, 'heavy javelin', fr Gall gaiso, fr the same base a Sharp stick or other pointed implement used for prodding and driving cattle, elephants &c, b (fig) a moral irritant or stimulus, an incentive goad (II), v trans, fr prec 1 'To prick, drive, urge forward with a goad 2 (fig) To stimulate, incite, provoke, by continued moral irritation goad to madness, to rebellion, into fury, goaded by incessant pain 3 To urge painfully, persuade with difficulty and by active measures into action he had to be goaded by threats into doing anything goaf, n [1 gōf, 2 gouf] ON gōlf, 'floor, apartment', whence ME golf, mod provino Engl goaf, 'heap of sheaves &c stored in barn' (in coal mining) a The open space or stall left between the pillars when coal has been extracted, b waste matter left to fill up such space, more usually called 'goh' go-ahead, adj [1 gōnbed, 2 gōushed] go (I) & ahead. Enterprising, progressive, pushing goal, n [1 gōl, 2 goul] Verb fr unrecorded OE n gāl*, implied by gēlan, 'to hinder', cp O HG ingelīst, 'thou didst hinder', the word appears as gōl in ME, meaning 'boundary', & in its present sense in 16th cent 1 a Post or other object set up to mark end of a race, winning post, b specif, posts between which the ball has to pass in order to score at football and other games, c score made by the side which gets the ball through the posts at football &c to get, kick, a goal 2 a Place which one wishes to reach on a journey, destination Naples is my goal on this tour, also, b (in non material sense) something set before one as an aim or ideal to be attained the goal of one's ambition, desires &c goal-keeper, n Player (in association football &c) whose object is to prevent the ball from passing through the goal goal-line, n Transverse line at end of playing ground, level with the goal-posts goal-post, n One of the upright posts between which the ball must pass in order for the attacking side to score a goal go-as-you-please, adj [1 gōazuplēz, 2 gōuzuplēz] (of persons and things) a Unmethodical, casual, without plan, b not restricted by conditions goat, n [1 gōt, 2 gout] OE gāt, 'she-goat', ME goat, Common Gmc, cp Dn gaut, O HG geiz, Mod Germ geisz, Goth gauts, ON geit 'she goat', cogn w Lat haedus, 'kid', prob fr Aryan base ghai(d)*, 'to leap', fr another grade of wh comes also Sert jūitē, 'he leaps, springs' See go 1 Member of a genus, Capra, of hollow horned ruminants, wild or domesticated, allied to the sheep but covered with hair instead of wool and differentiated by the presence of a beard, horns in both sexes, and strong odour in the male 2 (astron) The Goat, the zodiacal sign Capricorn 3 a The type of the wicked separate the sheep from the goats, b a lustful, lecherous man an old goat, c (colloq) a giddy, foolish person to act, play, (the giddy) goat, behave foolishly, frivolously &c, to get one's goat, to annoy, irritate, make angry goatee n [1 gōtē, 2 gōutē] Prec & -ee Loosely straggly beard worn on the chin, the upper lip and the cheeks being shaved, tuft of hair resembling a goat's beard goat-herd, n OE gāthyrde, ME goat'herde, goat & herd. Person whose business it is to look after a flock of goats.

goatish, adj [1 gōtish, 2 gōutish] goat & -ish. Resembling a goat, a in certain physical habits and tendencies, lecherous, b in having a rank odour goatishly, adv Prec & -ly In a goatish manner goatishness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being goatish goat-moth, n Large grey British moth with a goat like odour goat-pepper, n Variety of cayenne goat's-beard, n Popular name of several plants a salsify and others of the genus, the seeds being furnished with a pappus, b meadow-sweet, c a kind of fungus goat's-rue, n Leguminous plant with manve or white flowers, cultivated in gardens goatsucker, n [1 gōtāuker, 2 gōutsāuker] So called from erroneous notion of this bird's habits Nightjar gob, n [1 gob, 2 gob] fr O Fr gobe, 'monthful' See gobbet 1 (vulg) Mouthful of saliva 2 (col mining) The waste material left to fill up a stall or 'goaf', often the source of dangerous fires, called gobfires

'gobang, goban, n [1 gōbang, 2 gōban] Popular etymol fr Jap goban, fr Chin l'pan, 'chessboard' Japanese game resembling noughts and crosses, played on a chequered board of 256 squares, on which the two players alternately place counters, each endeavouring to place 5 in a row gobbet, n [1 gōbit, 2 gōbit] ME gobet, 'small piece', fr Fr gobet, 'mouthful, gobbling', dimin of O Fr gobe, 'mouthful', of Celt origin, cp Ir gob, 'beak, mouth' See gobbler 1 A lump or morsel of food, esp when in the month or just ejected from it 2 Portion of a text selected for translation or comment in an examination paper gobbler (I), v trans & intrans [1 gōhl, 2 gōhl] Fr gobler, 'to swallow, bolt', fr O Fr gobe See prec & freq -le 1 trans Also, gobble up, to eat voraciously, noisily, greedily to gobble (up) everything that is put before one 2 intrans To eat fast noisily, and greedily he doesn't eat, he simply gobbles gobbler (II), v trans & n Variant of gobbler a v To make the characteristic noise of a turkey cock, b n (also gobbler gobbler) The noise made by a turkey gobbler (III), n Origin doubtful Possibly fr gobbler (I) In golf, a quick putt into the hole gobbler (I), n [1 gōbler, 2 gōble] fr gobbler (I) One who gobbles food &c gobbler (II), n, fr gobbler (II) (colloq) The turkey-cock, esp a young gobbler

Gobelin, adj & n [1 gōbelin, gobelin, 2 gōbelin, -lā] Fr Gobelin, name of a family of dyers, members of which founded the old royal French tapestry-works 1 adj Of or pertaining to the work of the Gobelin looms, resembling Gobelin work Gobelin blue, dull blue green, Gobelin stich, tapestry stich, Gobelin tapestry, rich kind of tapestry, such as was made in the Gobelin factory. 2 n Gobelin tapestry, a specimen of it or of the same kind go-between, n [1 gō betwēn, 2 gōu hitwēn] go (I) & between a Intermediary, middleman, spokesman, b agent, esp in unfavourable sense, match maker, pander, agent in a shady transaction.

goblet, n [1 gōhlet, 2 gōhlet] ME, fr Fr goblet, dimin (see -et), of O Fr gobel, 'drinking-cup', fr L Lat cūpellus (us), dimin of cūpa, 'tub, cask' See coop & cup a Drinking vessel without handles, of metal or glass and provided with a foot, b (post) any kind of drinking-vessel

Goblin, n [1 gōblin, 2 gōblin] fr obs Fr gobelin, perh fr Low Lat cobellus, 'kind of demon', fr Gk kobalos, 'an impudent rogue, an evil spirit invoked by rogues', prob of Phrygian origin A malicious mischievous sprite, bogey, demon goblin fish, n. A small spiny Australian fish of fantastic appearance goblinry, n. [1 gōblinri, 2 gōblinri] goblin & -ry Goblins collectively goby, n [1 gōbi, 2 gōbi] Lat gōbi (us), fr Gk lōbids See gudgeon Member of a group of small marine fishes, in which the ventral fins form an adhesive disk or sucker go-by, n [1 gō bi, 2 gōu bai] Only in Phr to give the go by, a to avoid purposely, pass (person) without noticing (him), b to refrain from using, or doing, to avoid, pass over go-cart, n A frame on wheels, in which an infant can learn to walk, b one of several kinds of small vehicles propelled by hand, small, light perambulator god, n [1 god, 2 god] OE, ME god, Common Gmc, cp OS, Dn god, OHG got, Mod Germ gott &c, orig neut as Goth gub, ON gudr No certain cognates outside Gmc, but it prob represents an Aryan neut. PP type ghu tōm*, cp Sert hula, 'that to which sacrifice is made', fr hu, 'to sacrifice' (cp Gk khuton, 'poured out', lheen, 'to pour'), or perh Sert hūla, 'that which is invoked', fr hū, 'to call upon', cp cognates gveo under found (II) 1 a One of a class of powerful spirits, regarded as controlling a department of nature or of human activity, and as such generally worshipped, deity, divinity, Phrs god of love, Cupid, god of this world, Satan, a feast for the gods, delicious food (also ironical), a sight for the gods, surprising or delightful spectacle, ye gods!, facetious exclamation of wonder, b male deity, as distinguished from goddess 2 (fig) Object of excessive devotion 'their god is their belly', (little) im god, petty despot or official to whom extreme deference is paid, the gods, occupants of the gallery in a theatre (from their elevated position) 3 (cap) The Creator of all things, the Eternal Lord and Father of all, the Almighty, Phr God's acre (translation of Germ Gottes aker), churchyard, act of God, (law) calamity beyond human control, as lightning stroke, house of God, temple, church, or other consecrated place of worship, (nowhere on) God's earth, the whole world, God's truth, the absolute truth, under God, recognizing the ruling of Providence, humanly speaking, God willing, if Providence permits, he thinks himself God Almighty, has an overweening conceit of himself, of his own importance, God knows when, where, why &c, no one else knows In many exclamations, imprecations &c, expressing vehement emotion My God!, good God!, O God!, surprise God bless me!, pity God help him!, deprecation God forbid!, pious gratitude thank God!, often merely relief we've seen the last of him, thank God! To avoid profanity the word God in exclamations is often omitted (see gracious), or altered (see goodness, heaven) godchild, n [1 gōdchild, 2 gōdchild] ME god & child Person for whom one acts as sponsor at his baptism goddaughter, n [1 gōddawter, 2 gōddōter] OE gōddohter, ME gōddōhter god & daughter Female godchild goddess, n [1 gōdes, 2 gōdis] Hybrid compound, fr god & -ess a Female deity, b (fig) woman of notable attractions, adored woman godetia, n [1 gōdēsha, 2 gōdēsha] Mod Lat, fr Godet, name of a Swiss botanist, & -ia Garden flower, native of America, closely related to the evening primrose, with abundant crimson, purple, and white blossoms godfather n & v trans [1 gōdfāder, 2 gōddāder] OE gōdfader, ME gōdfader god & father, translating Lat pater in Deo 1 n Male sponsor at baptism 2 v trans To act as godfather to, stand sponsor to godfearing, adj [1 gōdfēring, 2 gōdfēring] Having a devout fear or awe of God, reverent, pious godforsaken, adj [1 gōdforsāken, 2 gōdforsāken] (colloq) a (of person) Abandoned,

- utterly deprived. b (of place) desolate, remote, devoid of resources or comforts, inspiring aversion
- godgiven, adj [1 gódgíven, 2 gódgíven] Sent, given, by God, hence, welcome, opportune, eminently suitable for purpose
- Godhead, n [1 gód-héd, 2 gódhéd] ME godhed God & -head 1 Deity, Divine character, God's essence, nature 2 That of a god or goddess
- godless, adj [1 godles, 2 gódles] god & -less 1 a (of persons) Without God or a god, ignoring or denying God or the gods, hence, ungodly, irreligious, hence, impious 2 (rare) Deprived of the presence or of the care and protection of God a godless universe
- godlessly, adv. Proc & -ly In a godless manner
- godlessness, n See proc & -ness Condition of being godless
- godlike, adj [1 gódlik, 2 gódlik] god & -like Like a god or God, of divine quality, majestic, august his godlike presence, brow
- godliness, n [1 gódlines, 2 gódlines] godly & -ness Devotion to God, piety, devout conduct, holiness of character and life
- godly, adj [1 gódli, 2 gódli] god & -ly Devoted to God, pious, the godly, pious, religious people (often ironical)
- godmother, n [1 gódmdthér, 2 gódmdthér] OE godmóðer god & mother Woman who acts as sponsor to a child in baptism
- go-down, n [1 gódoun, 2 gódoun] Corruption of Mulny godong Storehouse, ware house in China or the East Indies
- godparent, n [1 gódparent, 2 gódparent] Person of either sex who acts as sponsor to another in baptism
- godsend, n [1 gódsend, 2 gódsend] fr God's, ME sonde, sende, 'what is sent, a message', influenced by send See send Something that comes as a blessing, a useful, valued object; a fortunate, welcome occurrence, piece of good luck
- godship, n [1 gódship, 2 gódship] god & -ship Character, nature, rank, of God, or a god
- godson, n [1 gódson, 2 gódson] god & son Male person for whom one has acted as sponsor in baptism
- godspeed, n [1 gódspéd, 2 gódspéd] Contracted fr God speed you Success, good luck, the blessing of God, in vouch Plr as to wish, bid, a person godspeed
- godward, adj [1 gódward, 2 gódward] god & -ward Directed towards God, divine, concerned with God
- godwit, n [1 gódwit, 2 gódwit] Etymol dubious Smallish edible bird of the family, found on sea-shore
- goer, n [1 gór, 2 góra] go (I) & -er Person or thing that goes, used esp in describing pace and speed a good goer, poor goer &c
- goffer, n & vb trans [1 gófer, 2 gófer] Fr navire, 'buck, pleat', of Gmo origin See wafer 1 n Pleat, gather, ornamental puckered border in garments &c 2 vb To set (cloth, linen &c) in pleats or gathers
- goffering, n [1 gófering, 2 gófering] Proc & -ing Act or process of setting in pleats, puckering, fusing, collection, series, of pleats, gathers, frills
- go-getter, n [1 gógetter, 2 gógetter] fr go & get (slang, U.S.A.) A pushing, successful person, esp in business
- goggle (I), vb intrans [1 gógl, 2 gógl] Origin suggested fr lr goe, 'nod, slight motion', & -io 1 To stare with protruding, or widely opened eyes, as in amazement, terror &c 2 (of the eyes) To protrude, bulge, be wide open and staring
- goggle (II), n, fr proc 1 Wide-eyed stare expressing amazement or horror 2 a Goggles, spectacles with guards for protection against dust or glare (worn by motorists &c), b (slang) spectacles generally
- goggle-eyed, adj Having bulging, protruding eyes
- goggle-eyes, n Staring, protruding eyes
- goglet, n [1 góglet, 2 góglet] Corrupt by Anglo-Indians of Port gorgoleia A porous earthenware jar in which water is kept cool
- Goidelic, adj [1 goidélik, 2 goidélik] O Ir Goidel (op Gael), & -ic Pertaining to the race, language, &c of the Gaels
- going, n [1 góng, 2 góng] go (I) & -ing 1 a Act of one who goes, journey, movement in pursuance of one's ordinary occupations 'Order my goings in thy paths', b specif, departure let me know the day of your going 2 Mode of travelling, pace at which one travels 40 miles an hour is pretty good going 3 That upon which one travels, road, track &c, considered from the point of view of the ease, or the reverse, of travelling the going was very hard and difficult over the mountain roads
- goitre, n [1 góiter, 2 góiter] Fr, fr Lat guttur, 'throat, throttle' See guttural Pathological enlargement of the thyroid gland, characterized by swellings round neck and throat, often reaching great size, associated with cretinism and myxoedema, exophthalmic goitre, also called Graves' disease, disease of thyroid gland, marked by heart affections, protruding eyeballs &c
- goitrous, adj [1 góitrus, 2 góitrus] Fr goitreux See proc & -ous a Of or pertaining to goitre, of the nature of a goitre, afflicted with goitre
- Golkonda, n [1 golkonda, 2 golkonda] Name of a fortress near Hyderabad, India, once the treasure house of the Nizam (fig) Any reputed source of unlimited wealth
- gold (I), n [1 göld, 2 göld] OE & ME gold, also OS, O Frs & OHG; Goth gulþ, ogon W O Slav zlató, op also O Slav zlatá, 'yellow' There seem to have been two closely related Aryan bases ghel-* & ghel-*, both meaning 'yellow, yellowish' See also yellow & glow (I) 1 A precious metal, yellow in colour, untarnishable, heavy in proportion to its bulk, and very ductile 2 (collect) Objects made of gold, specif, minted gold, golden coinage to keep one's gold in a purse 3 (fig) Wealth, money, treasure greed of gold Phr oil is not gold that glitters, appearances may deceive, heart of gold, noble, generous nature, cloth of gold, rich fabric woven of, or shot with, gold thread 4 Gilding, lace, embroidery &c, of, or simulating, gold 5 A bright yellow colour resembling that of gold hair of gold, the red and gold of autumn 6 (arabesque) Bull's eye, centre of target (usually gilt)
- gold (II), adj, fr proc Made of gold gold coins, ornaments, a gold watch, brooch &c Used commonly instead of golden
- gold-beater, n One whose trade is to hammer out gold into very thin sheets for gilding
- gold-beater's skin, n Very thin substance made from outer membrane of the intestine of an ox, used to separate the sheets of gold-leaf, and also for covering wounds, and sometimes for lining gas-bags of airships
- gold brick, n Mass of gold, or what appears to be such, used as a lure by a swindler, who sells it to a duped, and transfers to the latter a worthless substitute, hence, any worthless thing used to extract money fraudulently
- gold-digger, n One who digs and searches for gold, especially an adventurer seeking his fortune by this means in an area where gold has been found, or where its presence is suspected
- gold dust, n Fine particles of gold washed out in plover mining
- golden, adj [1 göldon, 2 göldon] gold (I) & -en 1 (rare and archaic) Made of gold a golden guinea, otherwise gold is used in this sense except in fig Phrs golden age (fr mythol) primordial era of innocence and happiness, period of greatest glory or prosperity, zenith, apogee, golden balls, trade-sign of a pawnbroker, hence, pawnshop, golden hours, happy time, golden calf, wealth
- regarded as supreme object in life; golden mean, principle of avoiding extremes, moderation, golden opportunity, favourable opening, auspicious chance 2 Having the colour of gold, of a bright, shining, yellow colour suggesting that of gold golden hair, golden sunset, golden tinge &c
- Golden Bull, n Name of a mediaeval charter sealed with a gold bull or seal, esp that issued by the Emperor Charles IV in 1356, settling precedence among the Electoral princes &c
- golden-crested wren, n A warbler, Regulus cristatus, with a crest of yellow feather, also called knight or gold crest
- golden eagle, n Large eagle, now almost extinct in Great Britain, the plumage of whose head and neck is of a golden yellow colour
- golden eye, n A diving duck of Northern hemisphere, genus Clangula, with black and white plumage and gold iris to the eye
- Golden Fleece, n So called fr its badge representing the golden fleece sought by the Argonauts Order founded by Philip Duke of Burgundy in 1429, the order formerly existed both in Austria and Spain
- Golden Horde, n So called fr the magnificence of the leader's camp (Turk ordú) Name given to a body of Tartars, under a grandson of Genghis Khan, who invaded Europe in 1237
- Golden Horn, n Narrow inlet of Bosphorus at Constantinople
- Golden Legend, n English name of a collection of lives of Saints, compiled by Jacobus de Voragine, Archbishop of Genoa, in the 13th cent., it was translated into English from the French, and printed by Caxton in 1483
- golden-mouthed, adj Eloquent, used of, and as translating the name of, St Chrysostom
- golden number, n The number used in calculating the date of Easter
- golden pheasant, n Chinese variety of pheasant with brilliant plumage and bright yellow crest
- golden rod, n Perennial herb with long stalks terminating in branching clusters of small, yellow flower heads, genus Solidago
- golden rose, n Rose of wrought gold with jewelled petals, blessed by the Pope, and sometimes presented by him to some great and highly favoured personage, or merely treasured up in the Vatican
- golden rule, n Precept of the Saviour (Matt vi 12), in popular contracted form do as you would be done by
- golden syrup, n Sweet, pale yellow coloured sticky substance used for food, made by refining treacle, or synthetically by a chemical process
- golden wedding, n Fiftieth anniversary of wedding day
- gold fever, n Craze, eager desire, to explore for gold
- gold-field, n Area in which deposits of gold are found
- goldfinch, n [1 göldfinch, 2 göldfinch] Common British song-bird with black, white, and yellow plumage
- goldfish, n [1 göldfish, 2 göldfish] Small fish of the carp family, having deep gold coloured scales, a native of China and Japan, though often kept in ponds and aquaria in this country.
- gold lace, n Broad or cord made of gold thread, much used as ornament and in various arrangements as indication of rank in naval and military uniforms
- gold leaf, n Very thin sheet beaten out of pure gold, used in gilding
- gold-mine, n Place, area, where gold is mined, hence, source of great wealth (lit and fig)
- gold plate, n Table furniture, spoons, forks, dishes &c made of gold
- gold size, n Thin, very adhesive glue with which objects are coated before being covered with gold leaf
- goldsmith, n [1 göldsmith, 2 göldsmith] Worker in gold; one who sells the work of goldsmiths.

Goldstick, n [1 góldstík, 2 góldstík] Usually Goldstick, -in -waring, British Court official whose office is held in turns by the officers commanding the regiments of household cavalry, so called from a gilded wand which he bears before the sovereign on state occasions gold-thread, n Plant of ranunculus class, Coptis trifolia, having white flowers and fibrous yellow roots, used medicinally and in dyeing golf, n & vb intrans [1 go(l)f, 2 gɔ(l)f] Scots word mentioned in 1457 in reference to the game. Origin uncertain, perh connected w Du lof, 'club for striking balls', or also Swed lof, 'butt-end' 1 n A game of Scottish origin, which consists in placing a small ball successively into each of a series of (9 or 18) holes in an open course 'links', by striking with one of several clubs with wooden or iron heads 2 vb To play golf golf-club, n 1 Implement used for striking the ball in golf 2 a Association for promoting play of the game, by laying out and keeping up a suitable course with bunkers, greens, holes &c, b premises occupied by such an association golfer, n [1 gólfer, 2 gó(l)fə] golf & -er One who plays golf Golgotha, n [1 gólgotha, 2 gólgoθə] Lat, fr Gk, fr Heb gulgóleth, 'skull' A calvary Goliath, n [1 gólíath, 2 gólíəθ] Name of a giant mentioned in the Bible, who was slain by David A man of great size and strength goliath beetle, n Large black and white African beetle golliwog, n [1 gólíwog, 2 gólíwəg] Coined word with no history a Hideous doll with black face, staring eyes, and thick black hair standing on end, b grotesque looking, ngly person supposed to resemble such a doll golli, interj [1 gólí, 2 gólí] Negro modification of God (familiar and colloq, vulg or facetious) Mild exclamatory expletive, expressing surprise &c, equivalent to O Lord! golopshus, adj [1 gólópskus, 2 gólópsəs] Comic word partly suggested by voluptuous Delicious to the taste, luscious golosh, galosh, n [1 góləsh, 2 góləʃ] Fr galoch, prob modified fr Lat calceopodium, 'wooden shoe', fr Gk kalopódion, 'shoe maker's last', fr kalon, 'wood', & pod, stem of pous, 'foot' The origin of former appears to be unknown, for the latter word sees foot, podal, & -pod Shoe made of thin india rubber, with thick sole of same material, pulled on over other shoes or boots to protect them from wet gombeen man, n [1 gómbeén man, 2 gómbeén mæn] Ir Engli, fr Mod Ir gambín, 'rent, interest' fr Med Lat canbium, fr canbāre, 'to exchange', q v under change (I) Money lender, usurer, often used in Ireland of a man who keeps a shop or public house and lends money at exorbitant interest gombrion, n [1 gómbríon, 2 gómbríon] Name of town in Persia Kind of white porcelain formerly made in Persia gomerai, n [1 góməral, 2 góməral] Origin unknown A stupid, staring, mannerless, loutish fellow, a stupid fool, idiot gomphosis, n [1 gómifósis, 2 gómifósis] Gk gomphósis, 'a nailing together', fr gomphos, 'nail, bolt', cogn w Engl gum (in the mouth) See gum (I) & -osis (anat) An immovable union of bony parts of the body, e g the setting of teeth in the gums gomuti, n [1 gómúti, 2 gómúti] fr Malay gumuti A Malay palm with large feathery leaves, the fibres of the stalks of which are used for ropes &c, and the sap for making sugar and palm wine
-gon, suff, fr Gk gónos, 'angled', fr gónia, 'angle, corner', fr same base as Gk gónu, 'knee', Lat genu, Goth knu, 'knee' See knee & genuculated. In compounds denoting figures containing angles hexagon, sex-angled figure &c gonad, n [1 gónad, 2 gónəd] fr Gk gonē, 'generation, generating thing', fr gen*, 'to produce, beget' See gonus (biol) A reproductive gland, the ovary of the female, testis of the male gondola, n [1 góndola, 2 góndola] Ital Origin doubtful 1 Long, low, narrow, flat-bottomed boat used on the lagoons of Venice 2 The boat shaped car attached to an airship gondolier, n [1 góndolér, 2 góndolér] Prec & -ier Man who rows a gondola gone, adj [1 gawn, gon, 2 gón, gón] OE gān, ME gōn PP of go Lost, ruined a gone case, fated to die a gone man Phr a gone sensation, feeling, one of faintness and weakness, a gone coon, ruined man, a dying man, dead man goneness, n Prec & -ness State of exhaustion, esp from lack of nourishment goner, n [1 gáwner, 2 gónə], fr gone & -er (colloq slang) a One socially, financially, ruined, b person who is threatened with death, imminent danger &c gonfalon, gonfalon, n [1 gónfalon, 2 gónfabn] O Fr, fr Ital gonfalone, 'banner', fr Gmo source, op OHG gundfano, 'banner', OE gūpfana, fr gund, 'war', fr Gmo gump*, Aryan gʷm̥t*, 'to kill', whence also Gk phónos, 'slaughter' (fr gʷhōn*), thēnō, 'I kill' (fr gʷhēnō*), Sert halid, kill', & Lat fend in defendere (see defend), the second element is Gmo fano*, 'banner', q v under vane A flag which hangs from a cross piece, instead of being attached to a flagstaff, esp as the banner in the Middle Ages of an Italian city state or of the Papacy gonfalonier, n [1 gónfalonér, 2 gónfalonér] Prec & -ier One who carries a gonfalon, the standard bearer, a high official of an Italian city state in the Middle Ages gong, n [1 gong, 2 gɔŋ] Malay, imitative Sheet of metal, or vessel of metal shaped like a pan or kettle &c, open at one end, suspended from a frame, and giving forth a powerful note on being struck with a kind of drumstick, used as mode of summons gonidium, n, pl gonidia [1 gonídium, 1a, 2 gonídiam, 1a] Neo Lat dimin formed fr gonad (biol) The reproductive spore without distinctive sex, of snob plants as lichens, algae &c goniometer, n [1 góniómeter, 2 góniómétrē], fr Gk gōnia, 'angle', & metron, 'measure' See -gon & -meter Instrument for measuring angles in solids, such as crystals &c, also for measuring angle of rotation of aerial in wireless direction finder. goniometric, adj [1 góniómétrik, 2 góniómétrik] Prec & -ic Connected with goniometry goniometry, n [1 góniómétria, 2 góniómétria] goniometer & -y Theory and practice of measuring angles gonococcus, n, pl gonococci [1 gónókokus, 1a, 2 gónókokos, kai], fr first element in next word & Gk kókos, 'gran, seed', etymol unknown The micro organism which causes gonorrhoea gonorrhoea, n [1 gónorhēa, 2 gónorhēa] Gk, fr gonē, 'seed, that which produces, begets', fr same base as genus, 'race' &c, & hrēin, 'to flow', for srewen*, see base srew*, 'to flow' &c, and stream Contagious venereal disease attended with painful inflammation of urinary passage, and a morbid discharge from urethra &c gonorrhoeal, adj [1 gónorhēal, 2 gónorhēal] Prec & -al Connected with, caused by, gonorrhoea good (I), adj [1 good, 2 gud] OE gōd, ME good &c, OS gōd, OHG guot, ON gōdr, Goth gōps, 'good' &c The word is in gradational relation to Goth gadihlga, 'relation, cousin', corresponding to OE gædeling, 'companion, kinsman', further w OE (ge)gada, 'companion, associate', & gadræn, 'to gather, bring together' (see gather) The underlying idea of good was orig 'joined, combined, well put together, fitting' Cp further O Slav goditi, 'to be agreeable', godu, 'time, occasion, suitable time', & Sert gadhyā, 'to hold fast' &c, for gadhdh-* 1 a (in physical sense) Of superior quality, excellent of its kind, satisfactory, possessing the qualities useful and necessary for its purpose a good road, house, knife, really good cloth, a good view &c, good looks, handsomeness, a good family, an ancient or aristocratic one, good features, well-shaped, b (in non material sense) possessing qualities which appeal to the mind, gratify the taste and artistic sense &c a good dictionary, text-book, sermon, argument, play, good literature, a good picture, colour, good manners, breeding, polite, courteous, behaviour, c happy, agreeable, enjoyable, fortunate it is good to be rich and one's own master, to have a good time 2 Suitable, serviceable for some specific purpose, producing favourable results in given case, beneficial, salutary, wholesome a (physically) good for the gout, for toothache, milk is good for children, b (morally and mentally) discipline is good for everybody, it is not good for a man to live alone Phrs all in good time, at a suitable moment, to come in good time, punctually, it is a good thing (that), it is fortunate, 3 a Well and completely performed, thorough, satisfying to have a good meal, a good drink, what you want is a good thrashing, I gave him a good scolding, a good deal, considerable amount, a good while, long time, b (often as intens followed by another adj) good hard work, a good long walk, a good strong dose of salts & (of persons and conduct) a Morally excellent, virtuous, observant of moral obligations, pious a good, holy, man, it is difficult to be good amid the temptations of the world, to lead a good life, Phr good works, pious acts, deeds of charity, b fulfilling adequately the obligations of some particular position or relation, dutiful, conscientious a good father and husband, a good king, a good boy, well behaved, as good as gold (esp of children) well behaved, c benevolent, kind, obliging, indulgent he is very good to his poorer neighbours, it is extremely good of you to take so much trouble, Phrs be good enough to sign your name here, form of polite request, be good enough to hold your tongue, peremptory command, a good fellow, kind-hearted, honest man, jolly companion, my good man, ironical or patronizing mode of address 5 (of persons) a Competent, skilled, efficient in some specified way good at figures, at languages, at Latin prose, at golf, b (before ns expressing an agent) capable of performing well some particular action, expert, clever a good rider, dancer, football player, farmer, carpenter &c, c possessing some special form of knowledge, or intellectual quality a good lawyer, a good scholar, botanist &c, d suitable, qualified in some particular way for some specified functions a good man for the post 6 (of things) a Sound, in perfect condition, fresh, unspoilt this egg is not quite good, meat won't remain good long in thundery weather, b valid, genuine it is sometimes difficult to tell false money from good, Phrs his word is as good as his bond, he as good as said so, what he said was equivalent to, c strong, healthy, vigorous my sight is still good, to have good lungs, d (of persons) capable of given amount of endurance, possessing requisite amount of strength and vigour, ready to undertake I'm good for another 10 miles if you like, he is good for some years more, he will live that time, Phrs to be good for a hundred pounds, to be willing and able to pay it, a good life, one it is safe to insure as likely to last long good (II), n OE gōd, n, 'a good thing, good action, goodness, benefit, property' See prae That which is good (in various senses) 1 Moral virtue, integrity, merit, opposed to evil, harm I knew him well and could find no good in him, an influence for good Phr to do good, perform virtuous, meritorious actions 2 Moral, intellectual, physical advantage, happiness, profit. causes, source, of improvement or welfare. I am saying this for your good, the greatest good of the greatest number Phr what is the good of. 1, of what use or profit? much good may it do you (ironical), it won't profit you much, to do one good, (1) improve him morally, (u) benefit his health the medicine has done me (my complaint) a lot of good, it is no good, is useless, to come to no good, to land in disaster, (gone &c) for good, permanently, for ever, for good and all, finally and irrevocably 3 (adj as pl n) The good, good, virtuous persons, opposed to the wicked 4 (pl) Goods a property, possessions, esp movables to elect a man's goods, Phr goods and chattels, personal belongings, b wares, merchandise; objects exhibited for sale the latest spring goods, leather goods &c, Phrs a lovely piece of goods, (facetious) of young woman; to deliver the goods, to do what you undertake or promise to do; o articles sent by railway other than livestock good-bye, interj & n [1 gúd bi; 2 gúd bái] & [1 gúod bi, 2 gúd bái], n always latter Contraction of God be with ye. 1 interj Form of salutation at parting, farewell Phr to say good bye, to take one's farewell and depart 1 must say good bye, must go 2 n A farewell the last good-byes have been spoken good day, interj & n Form of salutation at meeting or parting good-for-nothing, adj & n [1 gúod for núthing, 2 gúd fə nánj] a adj Worthless, useless, chiefly of moral character a good-for-nothing rascal, b n, a worthless person

Good Friday, n The Friday in Pasmon Week, observed as a fast in memory of the Crucifixion goodness, n [1 gúodlines, 2 gúdlines] Next word & -ness a Beauty, b excellence of quality goodly, adj [1 gúodli, 2 gúdli] good (I) & -ly a Handsome, comely, well-favoured, b of large size, ample goodman, n 1 [1 gúodman, 2 gúdman] Master of the house, householder 2 [1 gúodmán, 2 gúdman] Husband good nature, n Kindness of heart, affability, mildness and placability of temper good-natured, adj [1 gúod náčhurd, 2 gúd néitjéd], attributively, [1 good náčhurd, 2 gúd néitjéd] as pred Kind, obliging, ready to help others, not easily angered or offended good-naturedly, adv Preo & -ly In a kind, obliging manner goodness, n [1 gúodnes, 2 gúdnes] OE gōdnes good (I) & -ness The quality of being good (in various senses) 1 a Excellence of character, virtue, worth, piety, kindness goodness of heart &c, b excellence of quality goodness of workmanship, material &c 2 Essence, strength, substance, best part of anything; esp nourishing part of food stuffs to bowl all the goodness out of meat goods-train, n Train which carries goods or freight only and no passengers good-tempered, adj Having an amiable temper, not easily ruffled or provoked to anger good-temperedly, adv In a good-tempered manner goodwill, n [1 gúodwíl, 2 gúdwl] 1 Kindly feeling, benevolence, amiability, kindly wishes for another's well-being 2 Cheerful, willing acquiescence, readiness 3 (law) Goodwill of a business, a salable if intangible commodity, consisting of the advantage which the business has acquired, and the probability of continued custom, owing to the skill with which it has been conducted, obligingness, and punctuality of those conducting it, and general reputation for competence and fair dealing goody (I), n [1 gúodi, 2 gúdi] good (I) & -y (obsolesc) A sweetmeat goody (II), n Elderly female in a humble rank of life goody (III) or goody-goody, adj & n [1 gúodi(gúodi), 2 gúdi(gúdi)] 1 adj Obtrusively and cantingly pious, weakly sanctimonious 2 n Person exhibiting these qualities gobgly, n [1 gúbgh, 2 gúgli] Origin unknown (snicket) Deceptive bill which breaks in from the off while delivered with a leg-break action gooroo, n See guru

goosander, n [1 goosander, 2 gūsander] Origin unknown Large diving bird closely allied to the duck, called also merganser goose, n, pl geese [1 gúos, gēs, 2 gūs, gis] OE gōs, fr gans*, op OHG gans, cogn w Lat anser for hanser*, Gk lhen, Scrt hāsa, 'water-bird', all fr Aryan base ghans-* &c Prob connected w Gk lhas-, 'to yawn', & perh w Lat hāre, q v under hatus 1 a A large web-footed bird, genus Anser, of the family Anatidae, which includes the ducks and swans, with longer neck than the duck, and habit of opening its bill wide and hissing when irritated, b (1) common domestic bird of this genus, (u) specif, the female bird as distinguished from the gander Phrs what is sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander, what is fair for one is fair for the other, all his geese are swans, he exaggerates the advantages and merits of his belongings, or of his relations and friends, he can't say so to a goose, is a timid person, lacking self-confidence, to cook a person's goose, to settle him 2 (fig) A silly, flighty, empty-headed person 3 Iron used by tailors for smoothing and pressing gooseberry, n [1 gozberi, 2 guzberi] Prob fr goose & berry, Germ name is krausbeere, fr groseille a Large, sweet, juicy, green, golden, or red edible berry, with hard seeds and a hairy skin, growing on a thorny bush; b the plant or shrub producing gooseberries, Ribes grossularia Phrs play gooseberry, act as chaperon, play old gooseberry with, ruin, c fermented effervescent wine made from gooseberries, hence applied to various imitation champagnes made from various fruits &c gooseberry fool, n Sweet dish composed of gooseberries boiled to a pulp, and mixed with cream and sugar goose club, n Association formed in villages, the members of which contribute small sums periodically during several months, to provide geese for Christmas goose-flesh, n Rough condition of surface of skin, arising suddenly from cold, fear &c goose grass, n Trailing weed with slightly prickly adhesive leaves and stems, and seed vessels in the form of burrs, which stick to the clothes, or to animals' coats goose-skin, n Goose flesh goose-step, n Balance step, Paradeschritt, practised in the German Army in marching, on ceremonial parades, in which the legs are alternately advanced without bending the knees, an exaggerated form of the slow march goosey, n [1 gúosi, 2 gúsi] dimin of goose Child's name for a goose, also applied playfully in mild censure, to a child gopher, n [1 gúfer, 2 gúvfe] Fr gaufre, 'honeycomb', fr the burrows of this animal See goffier Small American burrowing rodent somewhat resembling a large rat gopher-wood, n Heb gopher The wood of which Noah's ark was made, supposed to be cypress goral, n [1 gúral, 2 gúral] Native name A horned ruminant of the Himalayas, with rough hair, allied to the goats and antelopes, resembling the European chamois gor-cock, n [1 gór kók, 2 gók kók] Etymol of first element unknown Male of red grouse

Gordian, adj [1 górdian, 2 górdian], fr Gordius, King of Phrygia, who tied a knot of wb the oracle declared that he who untied it should be master of Asia, Alexander the Great, unable to undo it, severed it with his sword Only in Phr Gordian knot, baffling difficulty, to cut the Gordian knot, settle a difficult problem in the shortest way and by drastic means gore (I), n [1 gór, 2 gá] OE gor, 'dung, dirt', also in OHG & ON, fr Aryan g^hhr-*, & perh cogn w Lat foria, 'excrement' (archaic and poet) a Blood that has flowed and become thickened and clotted, b blood generally, esp blood shed from wounds gore (II), n & vb trans OE gār, 'spear', gāra, 'triangular piece of land', OS, OHG gēr, ON geirr, fr Gmc garz-*, & cogn w OE gār for garz-*, q v under god (I) Cp also OHG geisaz, 'whip', Mod Gorm geissel The Aryan base was ghnis* &c, op Lat gaesum, 'long, heavy javelin', fr Goul gaeson, 'spear', op O Ir gae See also first element of garlic 1 n A triangular piece of stuff let into a garment &c, to widen it, insertion, gusset, b (in Place Names) spear-shaped piece of land 2 vb A To insert a gore in (clothes &c) gore (III), vb trans See prec a (of cattle, boars &c) To pierce, injure by piercing, with a horn, or tusk to be gored (to death) by a bull &c, b (of rocks) to pierce, tear (sluts' side &c), with jagged edges gorge (I), n [1 gorj, 2 gádj] Fr, 'throat', fr Lat gurgies, 'whirlpool, abyss', cp also Lat gurgulio, 'gullet, weasand'. The underlying idea is 'swallowing up' The base shows partial reduplication, & is ultimately that in g^her-*, 'to swallow' See voracious & second element of deavour See also gargle & gurgle 1 Throat, obsolete except in Phr my gorge rises, rose, I am (was) revolted, nauseated, filled with disgust and loathing 2 a Narrow valley, defile between high hills, b narrow entrance through the outer works of a fortified place gorge (II), vb mitrans & trans & n See prec 1 vb a mitrans To eat greedily and ravenously, cram oneself with food to eat gorging for hours, b trans, to gorge a heavy meal &c, c (reflex) to gorge oneself (with), to stuff oneself with food 2 n Act of gorging, a copious, heavy meal, esp one of excessive size gorged, adj [1 gorjd, 2 gájd] fr PP of prec 1 Stuffed with food, filled to repletion and satiety 2 Distended, filled to bursting point arteries gorged with blood 3 (her, 'of figures of animals) Depicted with a collar round the neck gorgeous, adj [1 górjus, 2 gádjás] O Fr gorjus, n, 'a ruff for the throat', hence, adj, 'decked out in finery, luxurious, magnificent' &c See gorge (I) & -ous a Making a striking impression upon the eye, splendid, imposing, magnificent, resplendent, b (slang, expressing great delight and approval) capital, admirable, delectable gorgeous time he is perfectly gorgeous as Romeo gorgeously, adv Preo & -ly In a gorgeous manner, splendidly, so as to make a fine show gorgeousness, n See prec & -ness. Quality of being gorgeous, splendour, magnificence gorget, n [1 gorjet, 2 gádjét] Fr gorgette, dimin of gorge 1 Piece of armour defending the throat, generally crescent-shaped 2 a Covering for the neck, collar, necklace, b crescent-shaped ornamental plate hung round the neck, in some armies, by officers in full dress, c patch of colour different from rest of body, on the neck of a bird.

gorgio n [1 górjio, 2 gádjio] Romany word Gipsy name for a person not of gipsy blood Gorgon, n [1 górgon, 2 górgan] Gk gorgō, 'a gorgon', fr Gk gorgōs, 'terrible, fearful', cogn w O Ir garb, 'savage'; & O Slav groza, 'horror, fear' a (Gk myth) One of three females with snakes for hair, whose glance turned beholders to stone, esp Medusa, slain by Perseus - hence b (fig) hideous, horrifying person or sight.

gorgonian, adj [1 gorgōnian, 2 gōgōnian] Prec & -lan. Pertaining to a Gorgon, having the property of turning men to stone

Gorgonzola, n [1 gorgonzōla, 2 gōganzōla]

Name of town in Lombardy, near Milan

Kind of strong flavoured Italian cheese, with blue mould running through it, somewhat similar to Stilton in taste and appearance gorilla, n [1 gorīla, 2 garīla] Afr word,

'wild man', recorded in Hanno's 'Periplus'

Largest of anthropoid apes, untamable and abnormally powerful, found in Central Africa gorily, adv [1 gōrīh, 2 gārīh] gory & -ly

In a gory manner gormandize, vb intrans [1 gōrmandīz,

2 gōrmandīz] gormand & -ize To eat to excess, to gorge, to feed like a glutton gormandizer, n [1 gormandīzer, 2 gōrmandnīz] Prec & -er A glutton, a greedy, voracious person, one who eats to excess gorse, n [1 gōr, 2 gōs] O E gorsē, cogn w O H G gerda, 'barley' The ultimate meaning is 'prickly, spiky', fr Aryan gherdā*, ghrdā* &c, whence also Lat hordeum, fr horzd*, 'barley', prob connected w Lat horrere, 'stand on end, bristle' (see horror), O E grātan, w different gradation form, is prob related See groats 1 A spiny plant growing in form of a bush, with sweet-smelling yellow flowers, furze 2 Collection of gorse bushes, tract of land covered with these gory, adj [1 gōr, 2 gōr] gors (I) & -y a Covered with gore, bloody, blood stained, b characterized by much bloodshed, murderous a gory battle

gosh, n [1 gōsh, 2 gō] Corrupt of God Only in by gosh Vulgar, but not profane, expletive goshawk, n [1 gōshawk, 2 gōshōk] O E gōshafoc See goose & hawk (I) Kind of large hawk, with very powerful flight gosling, n [1 gōzling, 2 gōzling] goose &

-ling The vowel of O E gōs, was shortened in M E before -l- Young goose gospel, n [1 gōspel, 2 gōspel] O E gōd- spell, M E gōspel, gōspel, fr gōd, see good, & spell, 'narrative, tidings' &c, see spell

(I) The compound is a translation of Lat evangelium See evangel. 1 a One of the first four books of the New Testament, containing a narrative of the life and teaching of the Saviour the Gospel according to St Luke &c, 2 Fr gospel oath, one sworn upon a copy of the Gospels, and therefore inviolable, gospel truth, something absolutely true, to take everything one hears as, for, gospel, believe it true, b speak a part of one of the four Gospels read at the Eucharist, hence, gospel side, of altar, the north side 2 The doctrines and principles set forth in the teaching of Jesus Christ as recorded in the Gospels, hence, Christianity to preach the Gospel

3 A principle, or rule of conduct &c strongly held and proclaimed the gospel of health, temperance &c gospelize vb trans [1 gōspelīz, 2 gōspelīz]

Prec & -ize To preach the Gospel to, instruct in principles and doctrines of Christianity to evangelize gospeller, n [1 gōspeler, 2 gōspeler] O E gōspeller, 'evangelist' See prec & -er

1 One of the four Evangelists 2 The priest who reads the Gospel at the celebration of the Eucharist 3 One who preaches the Gospel, speci' an itinerant preacher 4 Fr hot gōpser, ardent travelling preacher, one who advocates any cause with enthusiasm gospodar, n See hospodar gossamer, n [1 gōsāmer, 2 gōsāmer] M E gōssamer fr gōssā & summer, referring to the time of year, early November, St

Martin's summer, when gossamer customarily even and when the material thus named is at its best 1 Light, filmy, gauze-like material of fine threads of cobweb, seen floating in the air or attached to bushes &c 2 A thin, light and filmy applied by tradesmen to various light, thin substances or to articles made of these gossamer, adj [1 gōsāmer, 2 gōsāmer]

Prec & -y Resembling, as light and thin as, gossamer gossip (I), n [1 gōsīp, 2 gōsīp, -ap] O E gōdēsb, sponsor', fr gōd & sīb, 'relationship' See sīb 1 (obs) a God-parent, b intimate friend, crony, familiar 2 a Person given to chattering, esp about the affairs of others, tattler, b one who spreads rumours or reports about others and their doings, without a scrupulous attention to veracity, a chattering busybody 3 a Friendly, intimate conversation, a chat to have a good gossip, b (esp in unfavourable sense), talk about the business of others, ill natured, ill-founded, reports and rumours, o personal, usually trivial, tittle tattle in the daily press, about society people and notabilities of the hour, also attrib gossip column, gossip- writer

as Fr Parh. of Gmo (Stand.) origin, cp.
O N gormr, 'core, mud, grounds' Cp O E gor, 'dung, filth' See gore (I) a One excessively fond of eating, and inclined to eat to excess, a glutton, b one who is fastidious about his food, one who has knowledge and discrimination in food, more properly gourmet gourmet, n [1 gōrmā, 2 guāmei] Fr, connected w preco Person who is fastidious and discriminating in what he eats and drinks, a connoisseur in food and wine, one who studies the fit and proper sequence of foods and drinks from the point of view at once of what pleases the palate and benefits the health gout n [1 gout, 2 gaut] Fr goutte, 'drop', fr Lat gutta, the origin of wh is unexplained 1 (arohaio and poet) A drop, clot, esp of blood 2 Disease due to excess of uric acid in the blood, characterized by deposits in the joints and fibres, causing swellings, tenderness, and paroxysms of pain gouty, adj [1 gout, 2 gauti] Prec & -y a Of the nature of, caused by, gout gouty pains, b liable to, affected by, gout a gouty constitution &c govern, vb trans & intrans [1 gūvern, 2 gaven] Fr gouverner, fr Lat gubernare, 'to steer, pilot a ship, to manage, conduct, govern', fr Gk kubernān, 'to steer, to govern', cogn w Sort kūbara, 'rudder, tiller' Further relationships uncertain

A trans 1 To direct, control, exercise authority over, specif, to direct the public affairs of a state, nation &c, and the actions of the citizens, to rule, whether by the administration of established laws, or by imposing an individual will 2 To sway, determine actions and conduct of I shall be governed by the exigencies of the moment, by circumstances &c, b to persuade, influence by appeal to reason &c I will be governed by you in what I do, o to be determining motive, esp to dominate, deprive of independence of will or judgement in action never let your passions govern you 3 To determine, direct nature of (a process, series of events &c) similar principles govern the early history of all primitive peoples, the state of weather in a given area is governed by what has happened thousands of miles away 4 To control, curb, restrain, hold in subjection to govern one's passions, one cannot completely govern one's thoughts at all times 5 (gram, esp of vbs and preps) To require a certain case in nouns to govern the dative &c, to stand in a dependent relation to another word the object of a sentence is governed by a transitive verb 6 To determine meaning of, modify bearing and force of the sense of the whole document is governed by the introductory clause. B intrans To exercise the function, perform act of governing in Great Government, n [1 gúvernment, 2 gávernment] Fr gouvernement See govern & -ment 1 a Act of governing, power to govern, a state the government of this country is in the hands of a few Ministers having the authority of the King and Parliament, b act of governing an institution the school thrives under the wise government of the headmaster 2 (coll, cap) Body of persons responsible for, and carrying on, the government of a country, the Ministers, Cabinet the early fall of the Government was confidently expected Phr against, (facet) again the Government, apt to resist authority of any kind 3 a State, whole territory ruled by independent sovereign, or other authority, b a subdivision, province, of a state governed by an administrator under the supreme authority governmental, adj [1 gúvernmental, 2 gávernmental] Proe & -al Connected with government, or with a particular Government governor, n [1 gúvernör, 2 gávena] ME gouverneur, fr O Fr gouverneur, Lat gubernator, 'steersman, ruler', fr Lat gubernā See govern & -or 1 One who governs, a ruler, specif a the ruler of a province or dependency of a state, b a member of the governing body of a hospital, public school &c 2 (slang) a One's father, b one's chief or employer the governor [gávena] (in both senses), o respectful and friendly mode of address to ennobled superior (used esp by workmen) Look here, Governor! = Sir 3 One of various devices for regulating movements and speed of machines governor-general, n Governor of a colony or dominion, viceroy governor-generalship, n Office, status, of a governor general governorship, n [1. gúvernörship, 2 gávena-ship] gov governor & -ship Office, status, of a governor gowan, n [1 gónan, 2 gduan] Origin doubtful, Skeat suggests connexion w ON gulk, 'yellow', orig appld on account of the colour to the marigold and buttercup (Soots) The daisy gowk, n [1 gouk, 2 gauk], fr ON gauks, 'cuckoo', cogn w OE gac, 'cuckoo' (north provins) a Cuckoo, b a stupid, foolish person gown, n & vb trans [1 gown, 2 gaun] ME, fr O Fr goune, fr L Lat gunna, 'a skin, fur, fur garment', a Celt word, cp W gun Prob fr vosna*, the first syll of wh is cogn w Lat vestis, 'robe' &c See vest (I) 1 n a loose flowing garment, b a woman's dress, c a robe worn by members of a university, indicating the wearer's academic status Phr town and gown, city and university; d official robe worn by mayors, aldermen &c, e robe of barrister worn in court in wig and gown, silk gown, that of King's Counsel 2 vb To clothe with a gown gownsmen, n [1 gonnzmen, 2 gaunzmen] A member of a university, esp one in residence, contrasted with townsman goyim, n pl [1 goyim, 2 góyim] Heb, 'the nations' The Gentiles, all non Jewish peoples, in Yiddish abbreviated as goy, a non Jew, Christian

Graafian follicle or vesicle, n [1 gráffian, 2 gráfian] Named after de Graaf (d 1673), Dutch anatomist One of two small sacs which contain the eggs in the ovary of mammals grail, n See grail

grab (I), vb trans [1 grah, 2 grab] Cp Swed gräbba, 'seize', related to grasp, grip &c 1 (familiar and rather vulg) To snatch, clutch, seize suddenly and rudely, to lay hold of he grabbed the purse and bolted, (also absol) don't grab 2 (fig) To take possession of unscrupulously and avariciously A did the work and B grabbed the credit grab (II), n, fr proe 1 A sudden snatch, hasty clutch to make a grab at a rope &c 2 Mechanical device for seizing and lifting heavy weights grabber, n [1 gráber, 2 grábe] grab (I) & -er a One who grabs, b a greedy, avaricious person grace (I), n [1 grás, 2 greis] ME, fr O Fr grace, fr Lat grátia, 'favour experienced by oneself, love &c, charm, beauty, loveliness, favour, kindness shown to another, thanks, gratitude', cogn w Sort grátia, 'praise', grátia, 'he sings, praises, announces', Lat grati, 'to praise, celebrate' Further connexions are doubtful & much disputed 1 (material sense) Pleasing, attractive quality, elegance, a (of form) refinement, symmetry, just proportion, harmony, b (of movement) ease, smoothness, delicacy, and dignity grace of bearing, carriage, action, deportment 2 (of liter and other style, and modes of expression) Elegance, polish, felicity, refinement, skilful, suitable, and congruous arrangement of parts, charm arising from what are felt to be the most suitable words &c arranged in most agreeable order 3 a Air, manner, degree of willingness or obligingness, with which something is done, Phr with a good grace, pleasantly, readily, with a bad, ill, grace, ungraciously, churlishly, reluctantly, to have the grace to do something, the good manners, decent feeling necessary, b (in pl) graces, collection, combination, of charming, delightful qualities of body, mind, manner, pleasant ways, attractive qualities of appearance, behaviour, movement &c every lover sees a thousand graces in the beloved object, Phr airs and graces, affected habits of speech and manner, mannerisms, foppiness, false refinements 4 a Favour, goodwill, willingness to grant something to sue for grace, Phr to be in a person's good graces, to be favourably regarded by him, b kindness, clemency, mercy, respite, esp in Phr an act of grace, one done out of pure kindness, without any obligation existing, to grant a week's grace, to allow an extra week for the performance of some obligation after its performance has legally become due, days of grace, days allowed beyond appointed time in which a bill of exchange &c must be met 5 (theol) a Divine clemency, favour, and mercy towards mankind, Phr by the Grace of God, of Great Britain &c, King &c, part of the style of a sovereign of Great Britain, b state of acceptance and reconciliation with God a state of grace, c a virtue, excellence of nature coming from God the grace of charity, humility &c, Phr the year of grace, (followed by date) the year of Our Lord 6 Form of thanksgiving said or sung before and after meals 7 A decree, act &c, by a government, or governing body of an institution, specif, one granting a privilege of some kind, e.g. those enacted by the Universities of Oxford and Cambridge 8 Form in addressing, or referring to, a duke or duchess, or an archbishop His, Her, Your, Grace 9 (mus) An added embellishment consisting of a flourish or trill &c not forming essential part of the air

10 (class mythol) The (three) Graces, easter goddesses, represented as lovely maidens, closely associated with the Muses, Aglaia, Euphrosyne, Thalia grace (II), vb trans; fr proe To lend grace, give a charm to, make worthier, to adorn her presence graced the occasion, cheerfulness and goodwill graced the board, banquet, a character graced by every virtue grace-cup, n 1 Cup used for drinking a toast at end of a banquet 2 Final drink, usually accompanied by a health or toast, immediately before departure graceful, adj [1 grásfúol, 2 gréist(e)l] grace (I) & -ful Possessing, exhibiting, grace (in various senses), a of bodily and material form, outline, movement, b of thought and expression gracefully, adv Proe & -ly In a graceful manner graceless, adj [1 grásles, 2 gréistles] grace

(I) & -less a Lacking spiritual grace, reprobate, depraved, b wanting grace or decency a graceless rogue gracelessly, adv Proe & -ly In a graceless manner grace-note, n (mus) A flourish or trill upon a note, given as an additional embellishment but not essential to the air gracile, adj [1 grásil, 2 grésail] Lat gracilis, 'slender, meagre, scanty', for earlier cracilis*, cp Lat cracens, 'slender', cogn w Sort křat, 'thin, weak', Lat karsati, 'to be very old, to age' Further connexions doubtful (rare) a Slender, thin, b (by association with grace) elegantly slim and slender gracility, n [1 grásiliti, 2 grésiliti] Proe & -ity (rare) Quality of being gracile gracious, adj [1 grásius, 2 grésius] O Fr gracioso &c, fr Lat grátiosus, 'enjoying favour, obliging' See grace (I) & -ous 1 (archaic in physical sense) Doing good 'A gracious rain' 2 a (archaic) Full of blessings 'So hallow'd and so gracious is the time' (of Christmas) (Shakespeare), b specif of God, element, merciful 3 (of persons, manner) Urbane, affable, conciliatory, winning, specif, conventionally of the King or Queen his gracious Majesty &c 4 In exclamatory Phr Gracious, (orig Gracious God!), Gracious me!, Gracious Heaven!, Good Gracious!

graciously, adv Proe & -ly a In a gracious, winning, affable manner, b as an act of grace, benevolently, favourably graciousness, n See proe & -ness Quality of being gracious, benignity, affability, amiability grackle, n [1 grákl, 2 grákl] Lat graculus, 'jackdaw', of imitative origin Indian bird of the starling family, the mynah graduate, vb intrans & trans [1 gradát, 2 gradéit], fr grad- as in grade (I), & -ate Prob back formation fr gradation 1 intrans (of colours &c, or fig of other things) To shade off, pass by insensible degrees, one into the other 2 trans To cause to shade one into the other, arrange colours so that they do this gradation, n [1 gradášun, 2 gradéishun] Lat gradatión (em), 'that which goes up or down by regular intervals, a staircase' See grade (I) & -ation 1 Act, process, of grading, condition of being graded 2 A gradual and imperceptible shading off of one colour into another, gradual passage from one condition, quality, degree &c into another 3 (philol) Name given to the interchange of vowels observed in words from the same original base, caused by difference in the position of accent, or in the tone, in Primitive Aryan, and preserved in all the derived languages Gradation, called ablaut by German philologists, affects both the quality of vowels, as in English wrote, wrold, and the quantity, as in Latin sed ére, 'to sit', compared with séd t, 'I eat' gradational, adj [1 gradášunel, 2 gradéishunel] Proe & -al Connected with, of the nature of, gradation (in various senses) grade (I), n [1 grád, 2 groud] Fr, fr Lat gradus, 'step, degree' See gradus 1 Step, stage, degree, a (in rank) a major in the army is one grade higher than a captain, b (in quality, value) a poor grade of oats &c, a high grade of intelligence, c (in proficiency, mental acquirements) specif, higher grade schools 2 Variety in animals, produced by cross breeding 3 (philol) One of the various possible forms in which the vowel of a base in an Aryan language may appear in a given word, thus OE writ (an), 'to write', is called the Strong, or Full Grade, because the i (earlier e) occurred in Aryan only when the chief stress fell upon the syllable containing it, writ (en), (-on), P P & Pret pl, is known as the Weak, or Reduced Grade, because the old diphthong was 'reduced' to i when it was unstressed, or weakly stressed 4 Gradient grade (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 To classify, arrange in groups, or in successive order, according to varying rank, quality, character &c 2 To improve stock, in cattle breeding, by crossing with a better breed, also grade up 3 To reduce gradient, in a road &c

-grade, suff, fr Lat gradī, 'to walk' See gradus (zool.) Suffix denoting mode of walking, e.g. plantigrade, an animal that walks flat on the soles of its feet gradient (I), adj [1 grādīent, 2 grēdīent] Fr, Lat gradient (em), Pres Part of gradiri, 'to go, walk' See gradus 1 a Walking, moving along, b capable of walking 2 (her) Shown as walking gradient (II), n, fr preo 1 Degree of slope, upwards or downwards, in a road, railway track &c 2 Amount of rise or fall in thermometer in varying temperature gradin(e), n [1 grādīn, 2 grēdīn] Fr gradin, fr Ital. gradino, dimin of Lat gradus, 'step' See gradus 1 One of a series of low steps rising one above another, as in an amphitheatre 2 Shelf or ledge at the back of an altar on which candlesticks &c are placed gradual (I), adj [1 grajoad, grādīal, 2 grēdīal, grēdīual] Fr graduel, fr Lat gradu, stem of gradus, 'step, stage' See gradus & -al. a Coming on, developing, slowly and by degrees, not sudden and instantaneous in manifestation, b sloping upwards or downwards in a gentle, progressive, rise or fall a gradual ascent, full, curve &c gradual (II), n L Lat graduale, adj neut See preo. 1 Antiphon sung, formerly from the altar steps, after the Epistle 2 Book for use of the choir, containing musical portions of the Mass gradually, adv gradual (I) & -ly By degrees, in slow, steady progression graduate (I), n [1 grājoad, grādīat, 2 grēdīat, grēdīuat] fr Med Lat graduātus formed fr gradu, as in gradual (I), & -ate a One who has taken a degree in a university, b one who has passed all examinations after a course of training in one of a certain kind of college, esp the Staff College at Camberley graduate (II), vb trans & intrans [1 grājoad, grādīat, 2 grēdīuat, grēdīuat] See preo 1 trans a To classify in order of degree, b to mark off a vessel, dial &c, so as to record relative degrees or measures graduated cup (for measuring medicine) 2 intrans To take a degree, esp the first, or Bachelor's degree at a university, to pass the examination at the end of a course at the Staff College graduation, n [1 grajoadshun, grādīashun, 2 grēdīashun, grēdīashun] Med Lat graduātō (em) See preo & -ion. 1 Act of taking an academic degree 2 Act or process of graduating, state of being graduated, a marking off of degrees of colour, intensity, measure &c, b act of arranging, classifying, according to quality, character &c 3 Indication of measure, amount &c the graduations on a medicine glass &c gradus, n [1 grādūs, 2 grēdūs] Lat, for gradus ad Parnassum, 'step to Parnassus' The Lat word means 'step, pace, stage, position, that on which one steps, a stair, a degree, rank' &c, cogn w Goth grīps, 'step, stage', O Slav grēdī, 'I come', op further Sert grīdyat, 'he seeks, desires', orig 'malos for', the sense 'steps out to wards' is once found Thus fig use of the base occurs also in Goth grādus, 'greed, hunger', OE grēd See further under greedy Book used by schoolboys to help in writing Latin verses, consisting of lists of Latin synonyms with all the quantities marked Graecism, Grecism, n [1 grāzīm, 2 grīsīm] fr Fr grécisme. See Greek & -ism a A Greek idiom, form of expression, as used in another language, b spirit, influence of Greek art, and culture, imitation of this, Hellenism

Graecize, Grecize, vb trans [1 grēsīz, 2 grīsīz] See preo & -ize To give a Greek form to, to Hellenize Graeco-, Greco-, pref Form used in compounds, fr Lat Graecus, see Greek, as Graeco-Roman &c graffito, n [1 grāfītō, 2 grāfītō] Ital, dimin of graffio, 'a scratching', fr Gk graphein, 'to scratch, to write' See graph. Ancient Roman inscription or design, rudely scratched on the walls of tombs, buildings &c graft (I), n [1 grāft, 2 grāft] ME, fr O Fr graffe, 'a penel', fr Lat graphium, Gk graphein, 'writing stylus' See graph. Named from resemblance of the ship or scion of plant used to a pointed penel The final -t is developed in 16th or 17th cent Such 'parasitic' consonants are not infrequent in writings fr 15th cent onwards 1 a Living shoot, scion, or bud, from a tree, inserted into another stock to form a new growth, b process of making a graft 2 (surg) A piece of living tissue, as skin, bone, or portion of gland, taken from a person or animal, and inserted to replace injured tissue or deficient gland (see vb, sense 1, b) 3 (Am slang, origin doubtful, but probably the same word in extended use) A Dishonest dealing with a view to profit, esp in political and municipal affairs, jobbery and corruption, b a swindle graft (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A trans 1 a To insert a living shoot, or bud, from a plant into another stock by a slit in the bark, or in the wood itself, to make a graft in, b (surg) to introduce piece of sound skin or other tissue, taken from the same or another individual, into an injured part, where under favourable conditions it becomes incorporated in its new surroundings 2 (fig) To attach one thing to another, so that they become inseparable to graft pagan rites upon Christian usage B intrans 1 To practise grafting 2 (slang) To practise graft, engage in jobbery and corruption grafter, n [1 grāfter, 2 grāftē] Preo & -er a One who grafts, a swindler, b (Am slang) corrupt official &c grafting, n [1 grāftīng, 2 grāftīng] graft (II) & -ing a (hort) Process of making grafts, method of propagating plants by this means, b (surg) similar process in tissues of the body grail, graal, n [1 grāl, 2 grāl] O Fr grail, grail, perh fr Low Lat gradalis, gradale, orig prob a vessel divided into compartments for different kinds of food, usually san grail &c, 'holy dish' The stymol is very dubious The enopposed vessel in which Joseph of Arimathea collected the Saviour's blood, an object of quest for the Knights of the Round Table, according to Arthurian Legend grain (I), n [1 grān, 2 grān] Fr, fr Lat grānum, 'grain, seed, small kernel', cogn w O Slav zrīno, 'corn', & w Goth laurn, OE corn See corn (I) The word is further connected by etymologists w Sert gīrnas, 'crumbled up, decayed, rotten, old', the Aryan base grē-* seems to have meant 'liable to crumble, brittle, worn, old' &c Gk grān, 'an old man' (see gerontocracy), is fr same base, & the more primitive sense of 'rubbing, breaking down, pulverizing' &c, is seen in Goth (ga) krīdōn, 'to grind, pound, shatter' 1 a Small, hard seed of plant, hence, b (coll) cereal produce, e.g. corn, rye, maize &c, c small, round body grain of shot, esp tiny particles of sand, sugar, dust, ground coffee &c, Phr to receive with a grain of salt, make a mental reservation, show caution in accepting, d (in non material sense) infinitesimal amount, sentilla, trace grain of sense, comfort, courage, 2 Smallest unit of apothecaries' (fr scruple) and Troy (fr dwt) weights 3 a Direction, characteristic distribution, of fibres or particles in wood, leather, stone &c, texture fine, coarse, grain, Phr (fig) against the grain, repugnant, distasteful, contrary to tastes and feelings, in grain, by nature, fundamentally, b rough, granular surface grain side of leather 4 (obs) a Cochineal dye, b crimson or purple dye, c any fast, permanent dye to dye in grain, dye a fast colour grain (II), vb trans, fr preo a To reduce to fine particles, b to give a granular surface to (leather &c), c to paint (wood, marble &c) in imitation of fibres, or veining grains, n, pl used as sing [1 grānz, 2 grēnz] fr ON grain, 'division, branch, fork', op Swed gren, 'branch' Fish spear, or harpoon, with barbed prongs Grallatores, n pl [1 grālātōrēs, 2 grālātōrīz] Lat grallator, 'stilt walker', fr grallae, 'stilts', for 'gradae', & derived fr gradus &c, 'a step' See gradus Wading birds, with long legs, necks, and bills, such as cranes, ampe, herons &c grallatorial, adj [1 grālātōrīal, 2 grālātōrīal] Preo & -al Belonging to the class of wading birds gralloch, n & vb trans [1 grālōk, 2 grālōk] Gael. gralach, 'intestines' 1 n Entrails, offal, of a deer 2 vb To remove the entrails &c from a dead deer gram (I), n [1 gram, 2 gram] Port grão, fr Lat grānum, q v under grain (I) Chuck-pea, used as fodder gram (II), n See gramme

-gram, suff, fr Gk. gramma, 'something written, a letter', fr base of graphein, 'to write', q v under graph Suff used in compounds derived fr Gk, such as epigram, in new formations fr Gk elements, telegram, & modern formations of mixed origin, cablegram &c grama (grass), n [1 grāma, 2 grāmā] Span, 'a kind of grass', fr Lat grāmen, 'grass' See gramin- Pasture grass in Western US gramary(e), n [1 gramari, 2 grāmari] ME gramery, 'skill in grammar, learning', hence 'skill in magic' See grammar, & glamour (archaic, restored by Scott) Magic gramercy, interj [1 grāmēras, 2 grāmāsi] Fr grand merci, 'great thanks' (obs) a Thanks, b as exclamation of surprise gramin(-), pref Lat stem of grāmen, 'grass', the stymol is doubtful, perh fr 'gras men', the first element being possibly cogn w Gk grain for 'grasem', 'to gnaw, nibble', cp Gk grasias, 'green fodder', Sert grasali, 'he swallows, devours', not connected w grass & grow Occurring in various compounds graminaceous, adj [1 grāmīnāshus, 2 grēmīnēs] Preo & -aceous Like grass, grassy gramineous, adj [1 grāmīnēs, 2 grēmīnēs] gramin- & -ous Pertaining to grass, grass like, belonging to the botanical family of the grasses graminiferous, adj [1 grāmīniferus, 2 grēmīniferus] gramin- & -iferous Yielding, bearing, grass graminivorous, adj [1 grāmīnivorus, 2 grēmīnivorus] gramin- & -vorous Grass eating, feeding on grass grammatalogue, n [1 gramalog, 2 grémalog] See -gram & -logue Word represented by a logogram, q v grammar, n [1 gramar, 2 grāmā] ME gramer, O Fr gramaire, cp L Lat grammatica, Gk grammatikē (telhne) 'grammar', wh wd not account for our form Thus must have been formed, perh in Fr itself, fr the base gram (see -gram) & suff -ary, fr Lat -arius, q v under -ary 1 Branch of learning dealing with language and its analysis, from several points of view, the term includes the study of the pronunciation of a language, its inflexions, or other means used to express the relations of words to each other in sentences, syntax, and the principles of word formation, it is also applied a to the purely descriptive study of the phenomena presented by a given language at a given moment, b to the historical treatment of these, which exhibits the changes which take place in a language from age to age, c to a study based on a comparison of the phenomena existing in several languages sprung from a common ancestor 2 A treatise dealing with any of the above aspects of language, or of a language 3 a The elements of a subject of learning, b (more rarely) a treatise of an elementary character on one of these grammarian, n [1 grāmārian, 2 grāmeariən] Preo & -ian Student of grammar, one well versed in the study, writer upon any of the various aspects and kinds of grammar grammarless, adj [1 grāmāless, 2 grāmēless] grammar & -less Devoid of grammar, lacking a knowledge, exhibiting ignorance, of grammar, illiterate grammar school, n Formerly a school where Latin was taught; (at present) a middle-class endowed school ranking below one of the great Public Schools in popular estimation and standing, at which all subjects are taught up to the university stage grammatical, adj [1 grāmātkl, 2 grāmātkl] fr Gk grammatikē (-do), 'skilled in letters, in grammar', fr grammatē, stem of gramma, 'letter' &c, see -gram, & -ic & -al 1 Of or pertaining to grammar 2 (of speech and style) In accordance with the rules of grammar, correct grammatically, adv Preo & -ly 1 From the point of view of the science of grammar 2 In accordance with the rules of grammar, correctly grammaticalness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being in accordance with the rules of grammar grammaticaster, n [1 grāmātkaster, 2 grāmātkēster] Grammatic, as in grammatical & -aster A pettifoggish grammarian, a pedant grammatize, vb trans & intrans [1 grāmātaiz, 2 grāmātaiz] Grammatic, see preo, & -ize 1 trans a To make grammatical, b to reduce to the rules of grammar 2 intrans To treat of, discuss, point out of grammar gramme, n [1 gram, 2 grām] Fr, fr Gk gramma, 'writing, written character, small weight, same word as the suff -gramma Metro unit of weight (= 1 cubic centimetre of water, or 15 43 grams troy) gramophone, n [1 grāmōfōn, 2 grāmōfōn] Gk gramma, 'letter, record', see preo, & phōnē, 'sound', q.v. under phone (I) Machine, based on the phonograph, which records and reproduces musical and other sounds by means of a needle attached to a vibrating metal plate, the point of which touches a revolving disc grampus, n [1 grampus, 2 grāmpas] O Fr graspes, 'fat fish', fr Lat crassus piscis (see crass), op also Span gran pez, 'large fish', fr Lat grandis piscis, 'large fish' (see grand (I) & piscary) Spouting cetacean, Orca gladiator or the killer, belonging to the dolphin family. Phr (colloq) to blow, snore, like a grampus, snore loudly granadilla, n [1 grānadilla, 2 grānedile] Span, dimin. of granada, 'pomegranate'. Fruit of kinds of passion-flower granary, n [1 grānari, 2 grānari] Lat granārium, 'granary' See grain (I) & -ary 1 Storehouse for grain 2 (by trans) Country, region, rich in grain, supplying it to other countries Canada, the granary of the Empire &c grand (I), adj [1 grand, 2 grand] ME, fr O Fr, fr Lat grandis, 'full grown, large, tall, important, powerful', fr grēndh-* &c, op Gk brēnthos, 'proud', brēnthuomai, 'bear oneself proudly' The orig meaning of the base seems to be 'breast', op O Slav grādi, 'breast', & O Ir brunne, O W brónu in same sense The derived meanings have perh sprung, on the one hand, fr the idea of having the breasts developed, hence, 'full grown', &, on the other, fr that of bearing the chest swelled out, as though with pride and self-importance The essential meaning in English is magnificent, splendid, impressive, whence various shades of meaning are derived 1 (in material sense) a Magnificent, splendid, imposing the Lord Mayor's show was a grand spectacle, the view from here is grand, b (colloq) magnificent in appearance, esp richly, finely, smartly, gaily dressed the General was very grand in full review order, where are you off to in those grand clothes!, c large, and splendid, luxurious, handsome, on a scale of magnificence he lives in a grand house, and in grand style 2 (of persons and their manners) a Important, distinguished the place was full of peers and ambassadors, and other grand people, he has the grand air, manner, a grand lady, b expressing a consciousness of importance, self-important, lofty, haughty, pretentious he was much too grand to speak to his old friends, you're very grand no doubt, but you might answer a civil question 3 (in moral sense) Impressive, possessing and expressing moral or intellectual greatness, august, majestic a grand character, a grand conception, achievement, Phrs the grand style, in the grand manner, (of literary and artistic productions) lofty, majestic style, suited to imposing themes 4 Most important, predominant, principal, (variously used) a the grand question we have to decide is . . ., a grand mistake, b main, largest among several, serving chief purposes, used on important occasions grand staircase, saloon, c full, complete grand opera, grand orchestra 5 (colloq) Delightful, highly satisfactory and enjoyable to have a grand time, we had grand weather for our trip, it will be grand if you can come grand (II), n Short for grand piano grandad, n See gran(d)-dad grandam, n [1 grandam, 2 grāndām] grand & dam Grandmother, old woman

Grand Assize, n (hist) Species of extraordinary trial by jury, instituted by Henry II, in which, at the choice of the defendant, an action was decided by twelve knights instead of by battle grand-aunt, n Aunt of either of one's parents, great aunt grandchild, n [1 grān(d)child, 2 grān(d)-tjeld] Child of son or daughter

Grand Cross, n Highest rank in various orders of knighthood gran(d)-dad, n [1 grāndad, 2 grāndēd] Childish word, used affectionately by older persons, for grandfather granddaughter, n [1 grāndawter, 2 grāndōte] Daughter of one's child

Grand Duchess, n a Consort of a Grand Duke, b lady who is the ruler of a Grand Duchy in her own right, c the daughter of a Czar of Russia

Grand Duchy, n Independent state whose sovereign is a Grand Duke or Duchess

Grand Duke, n a Sovereign of a Grand Duchy, b son of a Czar of Russia grantee, n [1 grāndē, 2 grāndē] Sp grande, 'great' See grand, a Nobleman of the highest rank in Spain or Portugal, b an important personage grandeur, n [1 grānyur, grāndūr, 2 grāndē, grāndjua] Fr See grand 1 a Material splendour, brilliance, visible magnificence, b power, greatness of position, c solemn, impressive, external beauty grandeur of mountain scenery 2 a (of persons) Moral greatness and impressiveness, augustness grandeur of character, nature, b (of ideas &c) greatness, magnitude, breadth, impressive range grandeur of conception, design &c grandfather, n [1 grāndfādhēr, 2 grāndfādh] a Father of either of one's parents, b a venerable old man grandfatherly, adj Like, characteristic of, a grandfather, kind and solicitous in manner, benignant grandfather's clock, n Large, standing clock in a tall narrow case, worked with weights and a pendulum grandiloquence, n [1 grāndilokwens, 2 grāndilokwens] Lat See next word a Act or habit of using big words and an imposing, pompous style, b pomposity of expression, bombast, boasting grandiloquent, adj [1 grāndilokwent, 2 grāndilokwent] The Lat word is grandiloquus, 'lofty in speech, bombastio', fr grands-, 'great' &c, see grand (I), & the base of loqu, 'to speak', q.v. under locution. The Engl word has been formed w the suff of Pres Part -ent (em) 1 (of persons) a Using high-flown language, fond of long words and pompous sentences, b boastful, bombastio, in speech 2 (of style) Exhibiting and expressing these qualities grandiloquently, adv Preo & -ly In a grandiloquent manner grandiose, adj [1 grāndiōs, 2 grāndiōus] Fr See grand & -ose a Lofty, sublime, imposing, b (in bad sense) pretentious, affecting sham grandeur, bombastio, high-flown grandiosely, adv Preo & -ly In a grandiose manner

Grandisonian, adj [1 grāndisōnian, 2 grāndisōnian] fr Sir Charles Grandison, hero of Richardson's novel of that name Resembling this character, that is, possessing a chivalrous spirit, courtly manners, and irreproachable moral character grand juror, n Member of a grand jury grand jury, n Jury of persons returned by the High Sheriff, whose business is to hear a brief summary of the evidence to be presented against persons charged with crime, and to decide whether it is sufficient to justify the accused being brought to trial at the Assizes

Grand Lodge, n Principal and governing body of certain associations, such as the Freemasons, Orangemen &c grandly, adv [1 grāndli, 2 grāndli] grand & -ly In a grand way grandmam(m)a, n [1 grān(d)mamāh, 2 grān(d)māmēd] Familiarly abbreviated to grandma [1 grānmāh, 2 grānmā] Used by children in addressing, and referring to, a grandmother, the longer form was also often used formerly by grown up persons

Grand Master, n 1 (hist) The chief, head of a military order of knighthood 2 Supreme head of all Freemasons in a country under the jurisdiction of a Grand Lodge, also Head of the Orangemen grandmother, n [1 grān(d)mudher, 2 grān(d)-mādh] Mother of either of one's parents Phr to teach one's grandmother, proffer superfluous advice and help to one more experienced and skilled than oneself grandmotherly, adj Prec & -ly a Like a grandmother, characteristic of a grandmother; chiefly b (fig, and contemptuous) inclined to be fussily interfering and insistent upon petty, trivial details grandmotherly legislation grand-nephew, n Son of one's nephew or niece grandness, n [1 grāndnes, 2 grāndnis] grand (I) & -ness Quality of being grand grand-niece, n Daughter of one's nephew or niece grandpapa, n [1 grān(d)papāh, 2 grān(d)-pāpē] Familiarly abbreviated to grandpa [1 grānpāh, 2 grānpā] Used familiarly but respectfully for grandfather grandparent, n [1 grān(d)pārent, 2 grān(d)-pārent] Parent's parent, grandfather or grandmother grandparentage, n [1 grān(d)pārenti, 2 grān(d)pārentidz] Prec & -age a Condition of a grandparent, b that part of one's ancestry represented by one's grandparents grand piano, n Large harp shaped piano, in which the strings are parallel to the ground grand quarter, n (her) One of the primary quarters of shield when quartered, or divided into four equal parts grand quartering, n (her) Quarterings on the grand quarter grandure, n [1 grán(d)sir, 2 grán(d)sar] 1 (archaic) a Grandfather, b ancestor, for bear 2 Form of peal, rung with an odd number of bells grandson, n [1 grán(d)son, 2 grán(d)san] Son of one's son, or of one's daughter grand-stand, n Principal covered erection, with rising tiers of seats, for spectators at a race meeting, or other out-of doors spectacle grand-uncle, n Uncle of either of one's parents, brother of a grandparent grange, n [1 grán], 2 grén(d)z] ME, fr A-Fr grangia, fr Med Lat granea, granea, barn See grain (I) 1 (archaic) a Storehouse for grain, granary, b collection of buildings connected with storage of the grain from an estate, together with a dwelling house 2 A small country house with farm buildings in close proximity to it, b (gen) a country gentleman's house of modest size and pretensions grangerism, n [1 gránjerizm, 2 grándz-izm] See grangerize & -ism Practice of grangerizing grangerization, n [1 gránjerizashun, 2 gréndz-izashun] Next word & -ation A Act or process of grangerizing a book, b a grangerized book grangerize, vb trans [1 gránjeriz, 2 gréndz-iz] fr the name of Rev James Granger (1723-78) who collected 14,000 engraved portraits to illustrate his 'Biographical History of England, 1769', & -ize To illustrate a copy of a book, after publication, by inserting into it portraits, and other pictures of persons, places, buildings &c, mentioned in its pages grangerizer, n [1 gránjerizet, 2 gréndz-izet] Prec & -er One who grangerizes a book graniferous, adj [1 graníferus, 2 gréniferas], fr Lat granifer See grain & -iferous Producing grain granite, n [1 grant, 2 gránt] Fr granit, fr Ital granito, 'granular stone', fr Lat granum, 'grain' See grain (I) Very hard, granular rock of igneous origin, usually of a shade of grey or pink in colour, and capable of receiving a high polish Phr as hard as granite, very hard, (fig) stubborn, obdurate granitic, adj [1 granítik, 2 grénítik] Prec & -ic Of the nature of granite, resembling granite in texture &c granuliform, adj [1 granúlfórm, 2 gránít-fórm] granule & -form Like granite in structure granivorous, adj [1 granívorus, 2 grénv-erás] See grain & -vorous Feeding on grain granite, n See granny granom, granam, n [1 gránom, 2 gránem] Origin unknown Species of reddish brown waterfly, artificial form of this used in fishing granny, granme, n [1 gráni, 2 gráni] fr first syll of grandmother & dimin -y, -ie a Affectionate, familiar form of grandmother, used as mode of address, and in speaking of a grandmother, b an old woman granny's knot, n [1 grán(z)not, 2 grán(z)not] Incompetently tied knot which does not hold grant (I), vb trans [1 gráht, 2 gránt] ME granten, fr O Fr grānter, grānter, creantier, crāntier, fr L Lat crēdēntē, 'to promise', formed fr Lat crēdēt, Pres Part stem of crēdere, 'to believe' See credo, credit, creed 1 To assent to, allow, permit to be realized, allow concession of esp in answer to supplication to grant a request, favour, to grant a pardon, a respite &c, 'Grant us Thy peace' 2 To bestow, allot, confer to grant a pension, b to make over, assign, in a legal and formal manner to grant the lease of property, to grant rights of pasture 3 A To concede, admit, acknowledge cogency of, make allowance of to grant the truth of what is said, I grant you the force of that argument, Phr to take for granted, to assume as a fact, as admitted, or as certain to happen, b to concede, assume, for the sake of argument granting for a moment that it really happened, granted that he did say so grant (II), n, fr preo 1 Something granted, bestowed, allotted (gen of material things) a grant of money, lands &c, a Government grant to universities, grant in aid, one made to further some specific object 2 (law) Assignment, transfer, of property by deed grantable, adj [1 gráhtabl, 2 grántabl] Prec & -able Capable of being granted, conceded, admitted grantee, n [1 gráhtát, 2 gránt] grant (I) & -ee One to whom a grant or conveyance is made grantor, n [1 gráhtór, 2 gránt] grant (I) & -or (law) Person by whom a grant or conveyance is made granular, adj [1 gránúlar, 2 gránýula] granule & -ar Of or pertaining to a granule, having a grain like texture or surface granulate, vb trans & intrans [1 gránúlat, 2 gránýulet] granule & -ate 1 trans a To reduce to grains, particles, b to roughen on the surface (leather &c) 2 intrans To become granular, assume a surface like goose flesh granulated, adj [1 gránúlatéd, 2 gránýuletéd] fr PP of preo 1 Consisting of, having consistency of, small grains granulated sugar 2 Having a roughened, granular surface granulation, n [1 gránúlishun, 2 gránýuleishun] Prec & -ion a Formation of grains or granules, b (med) surative formation of small, grain like bodies on a wound granule, n [1 gránúl, 2 gránýúl] Fr, fr L Lat granulum, 'small grain', dimin of granum, 'grain' See grain (I) Small, grain like particle granuliform, adj [1 gránúlfórm, 2 gránýul-fórm] granule & -form Having the form or structure of a granule granulose, n [1 gránúks, 2 gránýulus] granule & -ose Element of starch convertible by fermentation into sugar granulous, adj [1 gránúlus, 2 gránýulas] granule & -ous Resembling, consisting of, granules grape, n [1 gráp, 2 gréip] O Fr grappe, crape, 'bunch of grapes', fr OHG chrapfo, 'hook', allied to cramp Cp grapnel 1 A fruit of the vine, b plant on which the fruit grows, Phr sour grapes, affected in difference to what one cannot obtain 2 (mil) Grape shot. 3 (pl) A disease attacking horse's fetlocks, characterized by clusters of warty excrescences grape-fruit, n Large, round, pale yellow, tropical fruit having the shape of a large orange, but the colour and acid taste of a lemon, called also pomelo, and shaddock grape-hyacinth, n Dark blue hyacinth, Muscari, whose florets form dense rounded clusters grape-shot, n Cluster of small iron balls, held together in a frame, fired, formerly, from a smooth bore cannon, now superseded by shrapnel grape-stone, n Seed of the grape grape-sugar, n Form of sugar found in ripe grapes, and otherwise made from starch, glucose, or dextrose grape-vine, n Vine proper, i.e. that which bears grapes, distinguished from other climbing plants so called.

graph, n [1 graf, grafh, 2 graf, gráf] Abbr fr graphic formula Diagram which expresses statements, statistics, mathematical formulae &c, by means of lines and curves
-graph suff [1 grafh, 2 gráf], fr Gk base meaning 'to scratch', hence, 'engrave, draw, write', cp grapheme, 'to draw, write' &c Cogn w Gmc lerf*, 'to out' &c See carve Used to form new words, expressing chiefly modern scientific ideas and inventions, chiefly in compounds where first element is also from Greek Forming as denoting a instrument for writing, drawing, or recording phonograph, telegraph, b writing, picture or other representation specified in first element autograph, monograph, photograph graphic, adj [1 gráfik, 2 grafík] Lat graphicus, fr Gk graphikós, 'belonging to drawing or writing, picturesque' See preo & -ic 1 Pertaining to writing, expressed in writing graphic symbols, error 2 a Pertaining to, resembling, drawing, engraving or painting the graphic arts, b (fig) of verbal and literary expression) calling up a picture in the mind, vivid a graphic description &c 3 (science) Expressing, or elucidating by means of diagram, diagrammatic graphic algebra, formula, method graphical, adj [1 gráfíld, 2 gráfíld] Prec & -al Graphic Rare, except in phrases graphical formula, method &c Phr graphical staves, branch of staves in which results are obtained by empirical measurement of diagrams of forces graphically, adv Prec & -ly In a graphic manner graphics, n pl [1 gráfiks, 2 grafíks], fr graphos a Art of making drawings, as projections, by geometrical rules, esp in engineering and architecture, b calculation of stresses &c, by means of such drawings graphite, n [1 gráfít, 2 grafít] See -graph & -ite (mineral) Form of carbon, otherwise called black lead or plumbago, used in making lead pencils graphitic, adj [1 gráfítik, 2 grafítik] Prec & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, graphite grapho-, pref used in compounds, fr Gk base graph, 'to write, draw' &c See -graph Pertaining to, used for, writing, drawing, or recording grapholite, n [1 gráfíht, 2 gráfíulast] Fr, fr Gk, lit 'writing stone' Prec & -lite Kind of slate from which thin slabs are cut for making writing slates graphologic(al), adj [1 gráfóloj(k)l, 2 gráfóldžik(l)] grapho- & -logia (& -al) Pertaining to graphology graphologist, n [1 gráfólojst, 2 gráfóldžíst] graphology & -ist One versed in graphology graphology, n [1 gráfóloj, 2 gráfóldží] Next word & -logy 1 Study of handwriting, esp as expression of character 2 Art of using graphs, notation used in graphs graphomania, n [1 gráfómánia, 2 gráfóu-ménia] grapho- & -mania Morbid desire to write graphomaniac, n [1 gráfómának, 2 gráfóu-méníak] grapho- & maniac One afflicted with graphomania graphometer, n [1 grafómetér, 2 grafómtér] grapho- & meter Surveyor's instrument for measuring angles -graphy, suff Fr graphie, fr Lat graphia, fr Gk graphia See -graph Form in compounds of Greek origin, denoting, a kind of pictorial representation lithography, kind of writing or recording stenography, telegraphy, b descriptive science geography, topography, or literary form biography, c treatise of such a class grapnel, n [1 grapnel, 2 grápnal] ME grapnel, dimin of O Fr grappin, 'kind of hook', Mod Fr grappin, 'grapnel', fr O Fr grape, Mod Fr grappe, 'hook', of Gmc origin (cp grasp) See grape, -vine, -al Small anchor with several flukes for grappling enemy ship or for mooring boat, balloon &c, grappling iron grapple (I), n [1 grápl, 2 grápl] O Fr grappil, 'ship's grapnel', dimin of grape, 'hook' See preo (nant) Grappel, grappling-iron grapple (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo A trans 1 (nant) To lay hold of as with a grapple, esp for boarding or close combat.

2 To grip, clutch, grasp, as with a wrestler's hold 3 (fig) To attach firmly and closely 'grapple them (friends) to thy soul' (Shakespeare) B intrans 1 (naut) To use a grapple, engage in close combat 2 a Grapple with, to close with antagonist, wrestle, engage in hand-to-hand struggle, b (fig) to apply the mind with vigour and concentration to grapple with a problem grapple (III), n, fr prec (rare) a Firm, tenacious grip, clutch, hold, as of wrestler, b a fight, struggle, at close quarters grappling, n [1 gráplɪŋ, 2 gráplɪŋ] grapple (II) & -ing a Act of using a grapple, b act of fighting at close quarters, c act of applying the mind to problem grappling-iron, n Grapnel graphtolite, n [1 gráptolít, 2 gráptelát] Mod. Lat graptolithus, fr Gk graptós, 'engraved, written', fr graphein (see -graph), & -lite a Stone bearing natural markings resembling drawing or writing, b fossil remains of extinct marine zoophytes graphtolitic, adj [1 gráptolítik, 2 gráptelítik] Prec & -ic Pertaining to graptolite grapy, adj [1 grápi, 2 grépi] grape & -y 1 Pertaining to, resembling, grapes or a grape in shape, taste &c 2 (veter, of a horse) Suffering from grapes grasp (I), vb trans & intrans [1 grásp, 2 grásp] M E grapsen, grapsen, 'to grope', formed fr stem of OE grápan (fr 'grápan', 'to grope', op E Frs, L G grapsen, 'to seize' See gripe & grip A trans 1 To take firm hold of, grip, seize with the hand, clutch, clasp in the arms Phrs to grasp a nettle, to take unpleasant task in hand resolutely; to grasp the shadow and let go the substance, surrender something real for some imaginary advantage 2 (fig) To seize with the mind, to apprehend, comprehend, understand to grasp an argument, meaning &c B intrans 1 To perform act of grasping 2 (lit and fig) Grasp at, snatch at, clutch, seek eagerly to seize or secure Phr to grasp at a straw, (i) to avail oneself of the slightest help in an emergency, (ii) to seize on the faintest ray of hope grasp (II), n, fr prec 1 a Firm hold, grip, clutch, embrace, b power over, control, secure possession in the tyrant's grasp e mental capacity, power of understanding or getting hold of, comprehension, intellectual range a grasp of details, a problem beyond one's grasp, a mind of wide grasp 2 Power or possibility of seizing, reach (usually fig) within one's grasp grasping, adj [1 gráspɪŋ, 2, gráspɪŋ], fr Pres Part of grasp (I) (only fig) Eager for gain, exacting, covetous, rapacious, anxious to secure the utmost to which one is entitled and a little more graspingly, adv Prec & -ly In a grasping manner graspingness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being grasping grass (I), n [1 gráhs, 2 gráhs] OE gæs, grass, 'grass, young corn', Af E gras &c, Common Gmc, prob related to grow, & green Not related to Lat grāmen, in spite of resemblance in form & meaning See this under gramin- 1 (coll) a Wild, green, low growing herbage, such as cattle feed on, Phrs out at grass, (of horse &c) turned out to graze, at pasture, (fig, of person) unemployed, taking a holiday, to put out to grass, send to graze, to go to grass, (of animal), to go to pasture, (fig, colloq, of person) to cease work, take a holiday, not to let the grass grow under one's feet, to set to work without wasting time, to cut the grass, mow the lawn, to lay down in grass, to plant (land) with grass, b specul, plants of a monocotyledonous group, with leaves in form of blades sheathing jointed stem, bearing small seeds in spikelets, used for pasture and hay, excluding some true grasses (see 2), but including some plants which are not, as sedges, c land covered with grass, meadows, pasture, lawns twenty acres of grass, d (mun) surface of ground, pit-head 2 (bot, pl grasses) Any member of the Order Gramineae or Poaceae, including, as well as most grasses popularly so called, cereals, bamboos, and reeds grass (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To plant grass seed on (land), so as to produce crop, cause to be covered with grass to grass a field, to lay turf, for lawns to grass a quadrangle &c 2 a To graze, pasture, put to grass 3 To place on the grass or ground, to spread on grass, to knock down (person), shoot down (bird), land (fish) grass-blade, n Blade of grass grass cloth, n Cloth made of fibres of grass, or of rami grass-cutter, n 1 One who cuts grass, specif, servant in India whose business it is to obtain fodder 2 Machine for cutting grass, a lawnmower grassed, adj [1 gráhs, 2 gráht] grass & -ed a Of piece of land laid down in grass, with grass growing on it a grassed walk, court &c, b (golf, of a club) having the face slightly bevelled grass-finch, n a One of several American finches, b one of several Australian weaver-birds grass-green, adj & n M E grasgrēne, a adj Of a vivid shade of green, like that of young grass, b n, this shade of colour grass-grown, adj Overgrown with grass, bearing grass grass hand, n 1 Cursive Chinese or Japanese script 2 (printer's slang) a casual worker in a printing office grasshopper, n [1 gráhs-hoper, 2 gráshope] OE gærshoppa, M E greshoppe, Early Mod Engl grasshop, & -er See grass & hop (I) Type of small insect allied to the locust, but with short antennae, having very powerful hind-legs enabling it to leap, and producing shrill chirping noise by rubbing the forewings with the hind-legs grassiness, n [1 gráhsness, 2 gráhsnis] grassy & -ness Quality of being grassy grass lamb, n Lamb fed by a dam that grazes grass-land, n a (agro) Land kept permanently under grass, b (geog) region where grass predominates grassless, adj [1 gráhsless, 2 gráhsnis] grase (I) & -less Devoid of grass grasslike, adj [1 gráhslik, 2 gráhslik] grass (I) & -like Resembling grass grass of Parnassus, n [1 gráhs uv parnasus, 2 gráhs uv párnásus] British marsh plant with white flowers, related to saxifrage grass oil, n Fragrant volatile oil extracted from Indian grasses grass parakeet, n One of several Australian parakeets, including the budgerigar grass-plot, (archaeo -plat), n grass (I) & plot Plot of ground covered with grass, small lawn grass-snake, n Common British harmless snake grass-trees, n One of several Australasian trees with grass like foliage grass widow, n Of uncertain origin, perh 'widow at grass', i.e. on holiday Wife whose husband is temporarily absent from her grass widower, n Husband whose wife is temporarily absent from him grasswork, n [1 gráhswérk, 2 gráswáik] (mun) Work done above ground grassworker, n [1 gráhswérker, 2 gráswáike] (mun) Man employed above ground grassy, adj [1 gráhs, 2 gráhs] grass & -y a Pertaining to, resembling, grass; b covered with grass grate (I), vb trans & intrans [1 grát, 2 gréit] M E graten, fr O Fr grater, Mod Fr gratter, 'to scratch, scrape', Low Lat cratāre, gratāre (whence Ital grattare), of Gmc origin, fr type krattjan-*, ep O H G kratzōn, kratōn, Mod Germ kratzen, 'to scratch', Swed kratta, Dan kratte, 'scrape'. See scratch (I) A trans 1 a To scrape, scratch, rub harshly or noisily, as with a hard, rough surface to grate the teeth, gnash them, b to reduce to small shreds or grains by scraping to grate a nutmeg 2 To produce (harsh noise) by friction B intrans 1 To produce friction, rub together roughly, esp make harsh, discordant noise as of two pieces of metal rubbing together, jar wheels grate on an axle 2 Grate on, upon a (of sounds) to produce a painful, unpleasant, effect upon the ear his voice grated upon my ear, b (of moral effect) to shock, cause unpleasant impression upon, to jar such expressions rather grate upon me grate (II), n M E grate, fr Low Lat grāta, earlier crāta (whence Ital grata, 'grate, gridiron'), fr Lat crātis, 'hurdle, harrow'. Cp crate, hurdle Frame of metal bars, specif a frame with iron bars in fireplace, for holding fuel, b (more commonly grating) iron bars placed outside a window or opening in wall &c grate (III), vb trans, fr prec To provide with a grate or grating grateful, adj [1 grátfool, 2 grátif(u)] Obs Engl grate, 'pleasing', fr O Fr grat (fem grate), fr Lat grātus, 'beloved, pleasing, thankful' (see grace), & -ful 1 a Thankful, full of, feeling, gratitude, b expressing, exhibiting, gratitude grateful letter 2 Pleasing, acceptable, agreeable, gratifying, comforting, refreshing a grateful shade, warmth &c gratefully, adv Prec & -ly In a grateful manner, agreeably, thankfully gratefulness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being grateful, a gratitude, b agreeableness grater, u [1 grátér, 2 grátér] grate (I) & -er Person or thing that grates, specif, device with roughened metal surface for scraping nutmeg grater gratification, n [1 grátifikášun, 2 grátifikášén] Fr, fr Lat gratificātiō (-em), vb I fr gratificāre See next word & -ation 1 Act or process of gratifying, condition of being gratified, specif, satisfaction, indulgence, giving of pleasure, a to the physical senses and desires the gratification of sight and hearing, of a craving for drink, of one's passions &c, b of intellectual or spiritual needs and aspirations the gratification of one's love for art, gratification of one's desire for learning 2 a Pleasure, sense of satisfaction (chiefly in non material sense) your approval gives me much gratification, to have succeeded in one's aims is a source of gratification to one, b that which gratifies it must be a gratification to know that one is liked 3 (obs or archaic) a Gratuity, reward gratify, vb trans [1 grátifí, 2 grátifíat] Fr gratifier, fr Lat gratificāre, late form of deponent gratificāre, 'to do favour to, do as a favour', fr grātum, neut of grātus, 'pleasing', & facere, 'to do' See grace & -fy To please, give pleasure to, satisfy, be source of pleasure to, content, a (in material sense) to gratify one's physical desires, passions &c, b (in non-material, spiritual sense, (i) of persons) I am much gratified by my son's success, your kindness and appreciation have gratified me highly, (ii) (of spiritual aspirations &c) to gratify one's taste for pictures, one's thirst for knowledge gratifying, adj [1 grátifíŋ, 2 grátifíŋ] fr Pres Part of prec Causing gratification, agreeable, satisfactory the success of the undertaking is most gratifying gratin, n [1 grátán, 2 grátē] Fr, fr O Fr grater, 'to scrape' See grate (I) Light crust covering a dish, consisting of bread-crumbs or grated cheese, dish prepared thus Phr au gratin, by the method of cooking with such crust grating (I), n [1 grátíŋ, 2 grátíŋ] grate (II), & -ing 1 a Frame of parallel or cross bars, such as a window grating, lattice covering ship's hatch or floor of boat, a horizontal timber frame supporting foundations of building 2 (opt) Series of very close, fine parallel lines, engraved on glass or other polished surface, or formed by wires, to produce spectra by diffraction grating (II), adj Pres Part of grate (I) Censuring, consisting of, harsh, jarring, sound, as of friction between two objects a grating noise, discordant, rasping a grating voice gratingly, adv Pres & -ly In a grating manner gratis, adv & adj [1 grátis, 2 grátis] Lat gratis, contr fr grátis, 'by favour or kindness', abl pl of grátia, 'thanks, favour' &c See grace a adv Without payment or charge, gratuitously to be admitted to a performance gratis, b adj (chiefly pred), not charged for, free, gratuitous entrance is gratis, also (colloq & facet) free gratis for nothing gratitude, n [1 grátitüd, 2 grátitüd] Fr, fr L Lat grátitudo, fr grátus See grateful & -tude Feeling of thankfulness for benefits received, for kindness rendered, or good fortune of any kind experienced.

gratuitous, adj [1 grátitüts, 2 grátitüts], fr Lat grátitüts, 'done without reward or profit, spontaneous', fr grátus (see grateful) & formative -it- & -ous 1 a Given or done without advantage or recompense, freely bestowed, obtained without payment, earning, or claim a gratuitous distribution of tickets, gratuitous blessings, (econ) naturally obtained without effort or outlay, b (law) benefiting one party only, opposed to onerous a gratuitous contract, conveyance, trust 2 a (of actions) Uncalled for, unnecessary, unwarranted, a gratuitous blunder, lie, insult, assumption, b (of persons) acting without apparent motive a gratuitous liar gratuitously, adv Pres & -ly In a gratuitous manner gratuitousness, n See preco & -ness Quality of being gratuitous (esp in sense 2, a) gratuity, n [1 grátütü, 2 grátütü], fr Fr gratuité, fr L Lat gratuitas, 'free gift' Cp gratuitous a Gift, esp of money, usually in return for services rendered, bestowed on inferior at discretion of giver without stipulation, a tip, specif b (mil) money gift, bounty, given to soldier, esp at end of service gratulate, vb trans [1 grátülät, 2 grátüoolät, 2 grátüulät, 2 grátüulät] Lat gratuläri (um), PP type of gratuläri, 'to evince joy, congratulate', w formative -ul-, fr grätüli, 'to manifest joy, congratulate', fr gratus, 'pleasing' See grateful &c (archaic or obs) a To show joy at sight of, b to con gratulate gratulation, n [1 grátüläshun, 2 grátüuläshun] Lat gratulatio (em) Pres & -ation (archaic) Rejoicing, congratulation gratulatory, adj [1 grátülätöri, 2 grátüulätöri] gratulate & -ory Expressing pleasure at another's good fortune, congratulatory gravamen, n [1 grävämén, 2 grävämén] L Lat gravämen, 'trouble, physical inconvenience', fr graväre, 'to burden, incommodate, aggravate', fr gravis, 'heavy' (see grave (IV)), & men, suff forming vbl n w pass signification 1 Grievance, formal complaint, specif (eccl) one laid before

Upper House of Convocation by Lower House 2 The really weighty, essential, important, part of a charge, accusation, or grievance &c grave (I), vb trans & intrans [1 gräv, 2 gräv] OE grafen, 'to dig, carve', ME graven, OS, OHG, Goth &c graban See graven & groove A trans 1 (obs) To dig 'He hath graven and digged up a pit' (Prayer Book, Ps vii 16) 2 (archaic) a To hew out, carve, to mow, engrave, sculpture to grave marble with an inscription, to grave an inscription upon marble, b to impress, implant, deeply or indubitably to grave words, counsel, in the heart B intrans. To engrave, carve grave (II), n OE graf, 'cave, trench, grave', fr preco, op OS graf, OHG, Mod Germ grab, Goth graba 1 a Excavation in earth for burial of corpse, b mound or other monument marking a place of burial, tomb, sepulchre Phrs to find one's grave (in a place), to meet one's death there, to have one's foot in the grave, to be nearing death, to be very old and infirm, or grievously ill, silent, secret, as the grave, absolutely silent, secret, to sink into the grave, to die, enough to make (person) turn in his grave, something that he would have strongly disapproved while living, in one's grave, dead 2 (fig) a Death, state of being dead to dread the grave, b place that proves fatal to life Sierra Leone was the white man's grave Phr. grave of reputation, place, conditions, in which reputations are lost grave (III), vb trans Origin obscure, possibly fr O Fr grate, Mod Fr gräte, 'strand of sea or river' Cp gravel. (nant) To renovate (wooden hull of ship) by humming off growths, and tarring or pitching, while on shore or in graving dock grave (IV), adj & n Fr, fr Lat gravis, 'heavy, grievous, important, grave', fr Aryan base *g^{er}, *g^{er} &c, whence also Sert guri, 'heavy, important, honourable' (see guru), Gh barus, 'heavy' (see baro-, pref), Goth lausus, 'heavy' Another dialectal variant in Lat is brütus, 'heavy, stupid' (see brute) A adj 1 a Weighty, important, momentous, serious, demanding earnest attention to debate grave matters, grave responsibility, b fraught with danger, ominous a grave question, international situation, c (obs, of persons, writings &c) deserving deference, authoritative a grave author 2 (of persons) a Earnest, sedate a grave, quiet man, b serious, solemn, apprehensive to look grave, 3 a (of the mind and character) Serious, austere, sober, reverse of frivolous or gay, b (of cast of features, voice &c) expressive of a grave mind, mood, &c, expressing apprehension 4 (phon) a (of tonic accent) Low pitched, falling, b grave accent, grapho symbol () for this, in French this disorise placed over indicating special quality of vowel B n Grave accent grave-clothes, n pl Clothes in which a corpse is buried, ecerments, winding sheet, shroud grave-digger, n 1 Person employed to dig graves 2 Burying beetle gravel (I), n [1 grävi, 2 grävi] ME gravelle, gravel, fr O Fr gravelle, Mod Fr gravelle, 'gravel', prob dunn of O Fr grave, coarse sand with stones, sandy beach, strand, Mod Fr grève, fr Celt base *gravo Cp Bret grouan, Corn grou, 'gravel', W grq, 'pebbles' 1 (coll) Mixture of small pebbles and sand, clay &c deposited on shore, or in river bed, used for spreading on or rolling into paths and drives, (mun phr) pay gravel, auriferous gravel worth working 2 (med) a Collection of small calculi, resembling gravel, in kidney or bladder, b disease characterized by gravel gravel (II), vb trans, fr preco 1 To cover or repair with gravel to gravel a path, walk &c 2 a (obs) To run, drive (ship) on to a gravelly beach, to cause to stick fast in loose soil, hence b (fig) to disconcert, embarrass, check, bring to a non plus, to floor, esp a speaker or writer to be gravelled for lack of matter 3 To lame (horse) with gravel m shoes graveless, adj [1 grävles, 2 grävles] grave (II) & -less Without a grave, unburied gravelly, adj [1 grävli, 2 grävli] gravel & -ly a Of the nature of, consisting of, containing, gravel, b (med) pertaining to gravel in kidneys or bladder gravel-pit, n Pit from which gravel is dug gravel-stone, n A pebble contained in gravel, b renal calculus gravely, adv [1 grävli, 2 grävli] grave (IV) & -ly In a grave manner, seriously graven, adj [1 gräv, 2 gräv] Old PP of grave (I) OE grafen, ME gräven (archaic, Bih) Carved, sculptured a graven image graver, n [1 gräver, 2 gräve] grave (I) & -er 1 Person who carves or engraves, esp one who incises letters &c in stone 2 Instrument for carving or engraving, specif a burin, b diamond-point used in metal turning graves (I), n pl Variant of greaves

Graves (II), n [1 gräv, 2 gräv] Fr See gravel, so called fr the gravelly soil on which the vines grow A white wine from Bordeaux district

Graves' disease, n [1 grävz düdz, 2 grävz düdz] After R J Graves, Irish physician (1786-1853) (med) Exophthalmic goitre, disease marked by enlargement of the thyroid gland, heart palpitation, and protrusion of the eyeballs, also called Basedow's disease gravestone, n [1 grävstön, 2 grävstön] grave (II) & stone (I) Slab of stone placed either flat or perpendicularly over a grave, inscribed with names, age &c of deceased, tombstone graveward, adv & adj [1 grävward, 2 grävward] grave (II) & -ward(s) 1 adv (also graveward) Towards the grave, towards death 2 adj Advancing towards the grave or death graveyard, n [1 grävyard, 2 grävyard] grave (II) & yard (II) Enclosed area containing graves, cemetery, churchyard gravid, adj [1 grävíd, 2 grävíd] Lat gravidus, 'loaded, pregnant', fr gravis, 'heavy' See grave (IV) Pregnant, esp med, of the uterus gravidity, n [1 graviditi, 2 graviditi] Lat graviditas (em) Pres & -ity Pregnancy graving-dock n [1 grävíng dök, 2 grävíng dök] grave (III) & dock (II) Dry dock in which ships are laid up for cleaning and repairs graving tool, n Tool for engraving, burin gravitate, vb intrans [1 gravität, 2 grävitéit] gravity & -ate Cp Fr gravier 1 a (phys) To move, tend to move, in direction of another body in accordance with law of gravitation, b to sink in liquid to gravitate to the bottom 2 (fig) To be drawn by natural impulse, to tend to go, in particular direction sons of soldiers naturally gravitate to the army, in the summer many gravitate to the seaside gravitation, n [1 gravitáshun, 2 grävitéshun] Pres & -ion a Act or process of gravitating, b process exhibiting law of gravity gravitational, adj [1 gravitáshunal, 2 grävitéshunal] Pres & -al Pertaining to gravitation gravitationally adv Pres & -ly In accordance with, by means of, gravitation gravitative, adj [1 gravitativ, 2 gravitativ] gravitate & -ive Tending to gravitate gravity, n [1 gräviti, 2 gräviti] Fr gravité, fr Lat gravitas (em), 'weight, seriousness', fr gravis, 'heavy' (see grave (IV)), & -ity 1 (in moral sense) a Seriousness, sedateness, solemnity of character and bearing the gravity of his mind and appearance inspired confidence, b seriousness, danger, menace the gravity of the situation cannot be disregarded, c seriousness of guilt, enormity the gravity of his offence was such that it could not be overlooked 2 (phys) a Law of gravity, natural tendency of bodies to attract, and be attracted by, each other, b specific gravity, relative proportion of the weight of the volume of a substance to that of an equal volume of another taken as a standard unit, that of water for solids and liquids, of air for gases graveure, n [1 grävür, 2 grävür] Abbr fr photogravure gravy, n [1 grävi, 2 grävi] ME grave, gravy, written grave, gravy, 'dressing for meats made of broth, spices, wine &c

Origin unknown a Juice that flows from meat while it is being cooked, b sauce for meat chiefly made of such juices gravy-boat, n Boat-shaped vessel, or small tureen, in which gravy is served at table gray, adj [1 grā, 2 grei] Variant spelling of grey gray-fly, n Free & fly (I) (obs) Unknown droning fly, perhaps botfly or gadfly 'What time the gray-fly winds her sultry horn' (Milton, 'Lycidas', 28) grayling, n [1 grāling, 2 grēling] gray & -ling 1 Grey freshwater fish, European or N American, with high and long dorsal fins, related to trout 2 British or American butterfly with wings brown and yellow on upper side, grey on under side graze (I), vb intrans & trans [1 grāz, 2 greiz] O E grasian, fr graz See grass 1 intrans (of cattle &c) To eat growing grass, feed in pasture 2 trans a (of animals) To eat, feed on to graze the herbage, (of persons) b to use grass-land as pasture, put cattle to feed on it to graze a field before haying it, c to put out to graze to graze cattle all the winter graze (II), n, fr prec Grazing, pasturage graze (III), vb trans Formed apparently fr graze in sense, ong, of 'to touch, shave, brush the grass', said first of a shot just grazing the ground. Cp to wool, to skin, 'take off the wool, or the skin'. a To touch, rub, or scrape slightly, just to touch, during passage, or by a glancing blow a bullet grazed his cheek, hence b to cause slight scrape to a surface to graze the skin graze (IV), n, fr prec Slight contact in passing, slight injury, abrasion, caused by grazing, spot where thing grazes grazier, n [1 grāzier, 2 grēziz] graze (I) & -ier Person who grazes live stock, stock-breeder grease (I), n [1 grēs, 2 grīs] M E gresse, fr O Fr gresse, graisse, earlier crasse, Mod Fr graisse, fr unrecorded Low Lat crassia*, 'fatness', fr Lat crassus, 'thick, fat' See crass 1 Fat, in animal's body (obs, except of stag in hunting phr) in (pride, prime, of) grease, fat, in good condition for killing 2 a Soft animal fat, obtained by melting, b semi-solid oily or fatty matter, esp (1) for lubrication, as axle grease, or (2) for making grease paint, used by actors &c in making up, c oil exuding from a fleece, hence, uncleaned wool 3 (veter) Inflammation of horse's fetlock, producing cracks and ulceration grease (II), vb trans [1 grēs, 2 grīs], fr prec a To apply grease to, anoint, lubricate, with grease; make greasy stain on, b (fig, colloq phr) to grease the palm, hand, etc, to give bribe or 'tip' to (cp Fr graisser la palme d quelqu'un), to grease the wheels, to make things run smoothly, esp by aid of money grease-box, n grease (I) & box (II) Box containing lubricant attached to axle of railway carriage grease-paint, n grease (I) & paint (II) Mixture of grease and paint, used for the face by actors greaser, n [1 grēzer, 2 grēziz] grease (II) & -er 1 Person who greases axles of railway train, or parts of machine 2 (Am slang) Greasy person, esp (contemptuously) Mexican or other Spanish-speaking American grease-trap, n grease (I) & trap (I) Trap at entrance to drain to catch grease from a sink and prevent it entering and blocking drain greasily, adv [1 grēzili, 2 grīzili] greasy & -ly In a greasy manner greasiness, n [1 grēzines, 2 grīzines] Next word & -ness Quality of being greasy, (fig, of manner) oiliness, enraging attempt to ingratiate greasy, adj [1 grēzi, 2 grīzi] grease (I) & -y 1 Pertaining to grease; a coated with grease my hands are greasy, b containing, impregnated with, having consistency of, grease a greasy substance, greasy food, wool 2 Special uses a shiny, slippery with wet mud, as surface of road, mountain slope, b extremely smooth and slippery to the touch, as soapstone, graphite, c (nant, of weather) thick, dirty, damp 3 (fig, of manners, speech &c) Unpleasantly unctuous, oily, fawning greasy pole, n One specially greased for climbing or walking on in rustic sports great (I), adj [1 grāt, 2 greit] O E grēat, M E grēle, Common W Gmo, cp O Fris grāt, OS grōt, Dn groot, OH G grōz, Mod Germ gross No cognates outside Gmo have yet been traced 1 Much exceeding average or ordinary example of its kind in volume, area, length, or any dimension, large, big, contrasted with small, little General in elevated style, but in ordinary language tending in this literal sense to be restricted to following uses a impressive or imposing as well as large (less emphatic than huge, vast) a great mountain, river, city, building, b large, with slight suggestion of dislike, annoyance, fear, or contempt take your great nose out of the way, he put his great foot on the flower-bed, (emphasizing second epithet) a great bullying fellow, a great big man, fish &c (big weakly stressed), c distinguishing individual from smaller ones of same kind (usually with defin art and cap) the Great Bear, Pyramid, Lakes, auk, mullein &c, (of letters of alphabet) capital great A, also, Great Britain, the great cats, lions, tigers, leopards &c, great cattle, (law) all cattle except sheep and yearlings, great charr, armchair, great horse, shire horse, the great house, chief house in village, great organ, chief manual in large organ, great toe, big toe, largest toe, great wheel, wheel in clock or watch driving rest, (cap) large vertical wheel, driven by machinery, carrying seats for persons, worked for amusement, (so compar) the Greater Antilles, the greater spotted woodpecker, Phrs Greater Britain, parts of British Empire inhabited by British, Greater London, Metropolitan police area, d (with ns of quantity or number) large in number, numerous, abundant a great deal, company, pile, (with pl vb) a great many (people &c), very many, e (of time) long, protracted a great age, a great while ago, f (modifying and intensifying sense of n) great grass, 12 gross, great hundred, 120, great year, period of precessional revolution of equinoxes, Platonic year 2 (archaic) Pregnant great with child 3 a Surpassing in some quality, good or bad, eminent, egregious, existing in a high degree, intense, important a great light, noise, friend, rogue, fool, great patience, weakness; (with agent n) acting much or often as specified a great tailor, builder, novel-reader, lover, swimmer, farmer; vaguely intensive in colloq Phrs no great matter to, not important, to have a great mind to, feel very much inclined to, to have a great notion that, be inclined to think, b eminent in genius, ability, or power, excellent, superior a great soldier, composer, book, picture, Phr a great little man, one great in mind though small in body; c lofty, profound; sublime a great soul, thought, deed, truth, d of high rank, birth or station a great noble, great lady, the great families, (absol pl) the great, great people, e (colloq) grand, splendid, delightful, highly amusing that's a great story, he was great when he spoke after dinner, f (in pred) great in, excelling in a notion great in orms, (colloq) great at, versed in, clever at great at golf, (colloq) great on, much interested in, keen on great on heraldry, discipline &c 4 As title, quasi title, or designation, the great, (and cap), a (before common n, designating person) highest of class, supreme in power, dignity, or authority the Great Chamberlain, Khan, Mogul, (designating event, action &c) most important or notable of its kind the Great Charter, Plague, Rebellion, War, b after proper name, title, or designation of eminent ruler, hero or saint Alexander, Charles &c., the Great, (iron) Tom Thumb the Great great (II), n, fr prec 1 Whole, gross, in Phr in the great, including everything to build a ship in the great 2 (pl) Greats (Oxford University colloq) Final Honour School of Literae Humaniores (cp great go) great-, pref, fr great (I) Form prefixed to words of relationship great-uncle, aunt, great-grandfather &c, and, by analogy, to nephew, grandson, &c, to denote a further degree in ascending or descending scale Repeated indefinitely, once for each additional degree, e g great-great great-aunt, aunt of great-grandparent &c great circle, n & adj great (I) & circle (I), abbr fr great circle of a sphere 1 n Circle described on surface of sphere, such that its plane passes through centre, specif. (navig) circle, arc of which forms shortest distance between two places 2 adj Pertaining to great circle great circle chart, sailing, track greatcoat, n [1 grātkōt, 2 grētkōnt] great (I) & coat (I) Coat worn outside ordinary coat and other clothes, overcoat

Great Council, n (Engl hist) King's council of tenants-in-chief, bishops, and abbots great custom, n (Engl hist) Custom or duty formerly levied on exports and imports

Great Dane, n Very large smooth-haired dog, allied to the mastiff greaten, vb trans & intrans [1 grētn, 2 grēiten] M E grēthen, 'become great (pregnant)' great (I) & -en (archaic and rare) a trans To make great, b intrans, to become great great fee, n (Engl hist) Feudal estate held directly from Crown great go, n (Cambridge University colloq) Final examination for B A degree great-grandchild, n Child of grandchild great-granddaughter, n Daughter of grandchild great-grandfather, n Father of grandparent great-grandmam(m)a, -grandma, n (Child ish and colloq) Great grandmother great-grandmother, n Mother of grandparent great-grandpa(pa), n (Childish and colloq) Great-grandfather great-grandparent, n Parent of grandparent great-grandson, n Son of grandchild great-great-, pref See great-great-hearted, adj a Brave, courageous, high-spirited, b noble hearted, magnanimous, generous great line, n & adj a n Long line for fishing at great depth, b adj, pertaining to, employing, a great line a great line boat, great line fishing great-niece, n Daughter of nephew or niece

Great Power, n (polit) One of the states, exerting through their armaments and political power the chief influence in international relations great-primer, n (typog) Large size of type, between English and canon great-uncle, n Uncle of parent, grand uncle greave, n [1 grēv, 2 grīv] M E grēte, fr O Fr greve, 'shank, shin, boot, greave', cp Sp greba, greva, 'greave' Plate armour for the shins greaved, adj [1 grēvd, 2 grīvd] Prec & -ed Protected with greaves greaves, greaves, n pl [1 grēvz, grāvz, 2 grīvz, grēvz] O E grecfa, perh means 'melting-pot' Origin of this unknown Etruscan sediment in melted tallow, used as dogs' food and bait for fish grebe, n [1 grēb, 2 grīb] Fr grebe, fr Lyons dial grēpe, cp Savoy dial graviné, 'see-mew' (Colgrave), perh of Celt origin, cp Bret grēb, 'comb', W crēb, 'crest', or more prob fr Lat (avis) crepa, 'curly, frizzled', fr tufts of feathers on the head & neck One of several British diving birds, haunting fresh water, with imperfectly webbed feet, and no tail, including great crested grebe and dabchick or 'little grebe'

Grecian, adj & n [1 grēshn, 2 grīn] Lat Græcia, 'Greece', fr Græci, Greek, & -ia, suff denoting country, & -an A. adj Greek, Hellenic Obsolete, though still used in a few locutions, as Grecian architecture, profile, and in phrases Grecian bend, stooping attitude, supposed to imitate that of the Venetian Milo, affected by some women in the seventies of 19th cent, Grecian knot, ancient Greek form of woman's coiffure, with coil at back of head, Grecian slippers, slippers of kind worn in Levant B n (obsolete or archaic, except 2 b) 1 a Greek, Hellenic, b Hellenized or Greek speaking Jew (NT, AV) 2 a Greek scholar, b at Christ's Hospital, boy in highest form, deputy Grecian, one in the next form

Grecism, Grecize, Greco- Variants of Graecism, Graecize, Graeco-

greed, n [1 grēd, 2 grīd] Back formation fr greedy Excessive desire to acquire and possess, greediness, esp a cupidity, covetousness, rapacity, avarice, b (more rarely) greediness in respect of food, voracity, gluttony it is sheer greed that makes him eat so much, he cannot be hungry greedily, adv [1 grēdli, 2 grīdli] OE grēdlice, greedily & -ly In a greedy manner Phr to eat greedily, ravenously, as though hungry greediness, n [1 grēdnes, 2 grīdnes] OE grēdignes Next word & -ness Quality of being greedy, tendency to be greedy, a for food, voracity, b of gain &c, cupidity, rapacity greedy, adj [1 grēdi, 2 grīdi] OE grēdig, ME grēdi &c, OS grādag, OHG grālog, Goth grādag, ON grādur, cp Goth grēdas, 'hunger', ON grābr, 'hunger, greed', OE grēd*, 'hunger' &c, is not recorded Cogn w Scrt grāra, 'greedy', grāha, 'greed', grāhyati, 'he seeks, desires', see gradus, & -y 1 Excessively inclined to eat, esp from gluttony, rather than from hunger, indulging appetite for food without restraint, insatiate, voracious, ravenous a greedy boy, he is not hungry, merely greedy 2 (fig, often followed by of, for) A Excessively or viciously inclined to take good things for oneself, covetous, avaricious greedy for, of, gold, gain &c, expressing greed to cast greedy eyes upon, b greedy of, greedy for, excessively or intensely eager to gain, longing for, desirous of greedy of praise, for love, admiration

Greek (I), n [1 grēk, 2 grīk] OE Grēc, (also, pl) Grēc as, Grēc (this form apparently borrowed fr OHG), ME Grēc, fr grēc, fr Lat Græci, fr Gk Grāiōs, extended form (see -ic), fr name, found in Lat Græci, of small Hellenic tribe in Epirus, early known to Romans, & hence extended to Hellenes generally 1 a Member of the Hellenic race or nation, inhabitant of Hellas or Greece, b Hellenized Jew, c member of Greek Church 2 (fig) a Person whose mind, temperament, or outlook is akin to that of an ancient Greek if Keats was a Greek he was much besides, b (obs.) hoon companion, often merry Greek (Shakespeare), cp grig 3 The Greek language Phr Greek to me, unintelligible

Grook (II), adj, fr prec Pertaining to, resembling, Greece or the Greeks, Hellenic Phrs on the Greek Calends, never (because Greeks had none), Greek Church, a Orthodox Eastern Church b established Church of republic of Greece, Greek cross, cross with equal limbs, Greek fire, combustible used by mediaeval Byzantines for firing enemy ships, or other structures

Groekless, adj [1 grēkles, 2 grīkles] Groek (I) & -less Ignorant of Greek Phr (Oxford) Græciless Greek, study of Greek literature in translations only Greek-letter fraternity, n Students' society at American university, college, or school, designated by combination of Greek letters of alphabet, e.g. Phi, Beta, Kappa Greeking, n [1 grēking, 2 grīking] Greek (I) & -ing, trans of Lat Græculus Puny or contemptible Greek green (I), adj [1 grīn, 2 grān] OE, ME grēn, OS grōn, Da grōen, OHG gruoni, Mod Germ grün, ON grēnn for grān*, Swed, Dan grøn, fr Gmo type grōnyoz* for grō n 12*, fr base grō*, grā*, q v under grow, & cp grass 1 a Of colour between, or compounded of, yellow and blue, that of the leaves of most plants, the exact shade is often defined by prefixing noun, as apple green, grass-green, olive green &c, with or without hyphen, Phrs green book, Government publication, issued in green cover, green briar, smilax, green drake, mayfly, green earth, glauconite, celadonite, green fire, fireworks composition containing barium nitrate, burning green, green glass, common bottle glass, green or of any other colour, green man (hist), figure in masque, representing eavage, dressed in green leaves, green plover, lapwing, green soap, curative soap made with potash and linseed oil, green table, gaming table, covered with baize, green tea, tea retaining green colour by being dried while fresh, b consisting of fresh vegetable matter - green food, meat, a green crop, feed, c verdant, with ground not covered with snow, mild a green Christmas, January, winter, d having, producing, sickly greenish complexion, jaundiced, wan green jaundice, Phr green with envy, jealousy, pale or livid with such passion, (fig) vehemently envious, jealous, a green eye, envious or jealous look 2 a (fig) Immature, unripe green fruit, not seasoned, matured, or dried green clay, fish, ginger, hides, pelts, starch, sugar, timber, wood, not fired green bricks, Phrs green duck, one about 9 weeks old, green goose, one under 4 months old, green charge, imperfectly mixed gunpowder, green manure, green crop grown to be ploughed in, unrotted stable manure, green wound, unhealed wound, b (colloq) (1) immature, callow, raw, a green youth, (u) credulous, (m) (of a horse) untrained, not thoroughly broken this horse is still a bit green (in harness &c) 3 (fig) Fresh, flourishing, undecayed, verdant a green old oge, to keep a memory green, Phr in the green wood, tree (Bib), in time of vigour or prosperity green (II), n, fr prec 1 Greenness, green colour, a green element or part in a thing 2 (pl) a (obs) Vegetation, verdure With sudden greens and herbage crowned (Addison, Past Hymn), b leaves and stalks of plants, of kinds that are cooked for human food, as of cabbage, spinach, sorrel 3 Grassy place, lawn, specif a common land in village or town, used for public resort, for grazing geese &c, b grass plot for special purpose, as bowling, bleaching, c (golf) smoothed and mown part of course, level space of fine turf surrounding hole putting green 4 Green paint, dye, or other colouring matter, Brunswick green, pigment made of oxychloride of copper, Paris green, bright emerald green pigment and insecticide 5 a Green badge, as of Irish nationalism, bunch of shamrock or green ribbon the wearing of the green, b (pl) party or faction distinguished by green colours 6 Prime of life, full vigour in the green 7 (colloq, fig) Sign of inexperience, in Phr as there any green in my eye?, do I look gullible?

green (III), vb trans & intrans OE grēnan, 'become green', fr green (I) A trans 1 To make, colour, paint, green 2 To impose on, hoax, swindle 3 (bowls) To put (bow) on the green B intrans (rare) To become, turn, green greenback, n [1 grīnbæk, 2 grānbæk] green (I) & back (I) 1 (colloq) Legal tender note issued by U.S.A. government, printed in green on back 2 Popular name of several animals, as green plover, green frog &c

Greenback Party, n. (colloq) Former Independent Party in U.S.A., advocating Government paper money as sole currency green-blind, adj Suffering from green-blindness green-blindness, n Prec & -ness Form of colour blindness in which red and green appear grey, and the yellow part of the spectrum is brightest green cheese, n. 1 a Unripened cheese, b cheese coloured green with sage, c whey cheese 2 Cheese which is green from age, well matured cheese green cloth, n. Green material, such as baize, used as covering for table, hence, a (fig) gaming table, b esp in Phr Board of Green Cloth or Green-cloth, board of the Lord Steward in Royal Household, for examining and passing accounts, formerly court of justice with cognizance of offences committed within verge of royal court greenery, n [1 grīneri, 2 grāneri] green (I) & -ery 1 (collect) Green foliage, verdure 2 (rare) Greenhouse green-eyed, adj green (I) & eyed. Having green eyes, (fig) in Phr green-eyed monster (Shakespeare, Othello), jealousy, hence, jealous greenfinch, n [1 grīnfīnsh, 2 grānfīnsh] British finch with stout beak and green plumage, green grosbeak, green linnet greenfly, n [1 grīndi, 2 grāndi] Green aphid, plant-louse greengage, n [1 grīngē, 2 grīngēdī] Named after Sir Wm Gage, who introduced it into England from France, c 1725 Cultivated variety of plum, with golden green skin and flesh greengill, n. [1 grīngil, 2 grīngil] green (I) & gill (I) Oyster with gills coloured green by feeding on minute green algae greengrocer, n [1 grīngrōser, 2 grīngrōser] green (II) & grocer Retail dealer in fresh vegetables and fruit greengrocery, n [1 grīngrōseri, 2 grīngrōseri] Prec & -y a Business, b shop, c goods, of greengrocer greenheart, n [1 grīnhart, 2 grīnhāt] a West Indian and South American tree producing very hard timber, b wood of this greenhorn, n [1 grīnhorn, 2 grīnhōn] green (I) & horn (I) Lat 'green beak callow bird' a Inexperienced or untrained person, novice, b one easily duped, a simpleton greenhouse, n [1 grīnhous, 2 grānhous] Building, largely of glass, and often artificially heated, used to protect delicate plants from cold or to ripen fruit greenhouse plant &c., one that will only thrive in greenhouse greenging (I), n [1 grīnging, 2 grāning] green (I) & -ing (I) 1 (rare) Verdure (Keats) 2 Turning green of oysters, production of greengills greenging (II), n green (II) & -ing (III). Green variety of apple greemish adj [1 grīnish, 2 grānish] green (I) & -ish Somewhat green, tending towards the colour of green greenishness, n. Prec & -ness Quality of being greenish greonling, n [1 grīnling, 2 grānling] green (II) & -ling Variety of fish found in N Pacific, also called rock trout greenly, adv [1 grīnh, 2 grānh] green (I) & -ly a With green, b (fig) in a fresh or immature manner, foolishly (Shakespeare) greenness, n. [1 grīnnes, 2 grānnes] green (I) & -ness Quality of being green (lit or fig) greenroom, n [1 grīnroom, 2 grīnrum] green (I) & room 1 Room in theatre formerly decorated in green, for actors and actresses when off stage 2 Room in factory or warehouse for unfinished or unseasoned wares, as unfired pottery greensand, n [1 grīnsand, 2 grīnsand] green (I) & sand (I) a (mineral) Glauconite, green earth, b (geol) marine formation between Wealdon clay and chalk, often containing large proportion of glauconite greenshank, n [1 grēnshangk, 2 grīnʃəŋk] green (I) & shank (ornith) Large British sandpiper, with greenish legs greensick, adj [1 grēnsik, 2 grīnsik] Back-formation fr next word (rare) Suffering from greenickness greensickness, n green (I) & sickness A form of anaemia, chlorosis, b (fig) emotional malaise of adolescence greenstick, n [1 grēnstik, 2 grīnstik] green (I) & stick (II) Partial fracture of bone, esp in child, when one side of the bone bends without breaking, greenstick fracture greenstone, n [1 grēnstōn, 2 grīnstoun] green & stone New Zealand nephrite or jade greenstuff, n [1 grēnstuf, 2 grīnstaf] green (I) & stuff (I) Green vegetables greenward, n [1 grēnswōrd, 2 grīnswōd] green (I) & sward Green turf greenth, n [1 grēnth, 2 grīnth] green (I) & -th Mod formation on anal of warmth & cp coolth (rare) Greenness, herbage, green foliage greenwax, n [1 grēnwaks, 2 grīnwaks] green (I) & wax (I) (hist) a Seal of green wax, formerly attached to document issued by Exchequer to sheriff, hence, b such document, o fine levied by virtue of it greenweed, n [1 grēnwēd, 2 grīnwīd] green (I) & weed (I) Dyer's weed, genista

Greenwich time, n [1 grīny tīm, 2 grīndīz tīm] Solar time of meridian of Greenwich, adopted as standard time greenwood, n [1 grēnwood, 2 grīnwūd] green (I) & wood (chiefly liter and poet) Woodland in leaf, esp as haunt of outlaws greeny, adj [1 grīni, 2 grīni] green (I) & -y (colloq) Greenish greeny yellow greynard, n [1 grēnyard, 2 grīnyād] green (I) & yard Pound for stray beasts greet (I), vb trans [1 grīt, 2 grīt] O E grētan, 'to approach, visit, attack, greet', M E grēten, O Frs grāta, OS grātan, Du groeten, OHG gruoz(z)an, Mod Germ grüssen, fr W Gmc type grōtan-*, cognates outside Gmc not traced 1 a To hail, address, salute, with expression of friendliness, respect, or pleasure, by word or gesture, on meeting, or by message, as in letter to greet with a cheery word, an embrace, b to express pleasure at (event) many greeted the return of Charles with relief 2 To receive (person, utterance, or event) with expression of suspicion or displeasure to greet with a scowl, a volley of arrows, the remark was greeted with hisses 3 (of sensuous impression) To manifest itself to, intrude upon, strike (organ of sense) music greets the ear greet (II), vb intrans & trans O E grētan, grētan, 'to bewail, weep', M E grēten, grāten, Goth grētan, ON grāta, 'weep', perh cogn w Scrt hrād-, 'to resound, roar', perh affected by cogn O E grētan, 'to weep', cp OS grōtan (archaic or Scots and Nthn dial) a intrans To weep, lament, b trans, to bewail, lament greeting, n [1 grēting, 2 grīting] greet (I) & -ing a Action of one who greets, salutation, welcome, b friendly or complimentary message greffier, n [1 grēfiā, 2 grēfiē] Fr, fr Low Lat grafarius, graphiarius, fr Lat graphium, 'writing stylus', whence Fr greffe, 'record office' See graft & -ier (in Channel Islands) Registrar, notary gregarious, adj [1 grēgārius, 2 grīgēariəs] Lat gregari (us), 'belonging to flock', fr greg, stem of grex, 'flock', cogn w O Ir grain, 'hard of horses', W Gr, 'flock', perh w Gk agregrein, 'to gather together', gargara, 'heaps, plenty', agorā, 'orowd', prob a partial reduplication of base ger-*, 'gather together', whence, without reduplication, O E cor-der, 'troop, assemblage', & -ary & -ous cp agoraphobia & panegyric 1 a Pertaining to flock or community, b living in flocks, herds, or communities, c (bot) growing in clusters 2 (of persons) Fond of the society of fellow-men, sociable gregariously, adv Prec & -ly In a gregarious manner gregariousness, n See prec & -ness grego, n [1 grēgo, 2 grīgou] Quality of being gregarious grego, n [1 grēgo, 2 grīgou] Romano form of Lat Graecus, 'Greek' Short, hooded Levantine cloak Gregorian, adj & n [1 grēgōrian, 2 grīgōrian] Low Lat Gregorianus (see -an), fr Gregorius, fr Gk Grēgorios, personal name 1 adj Pertaining to, invented by, Gregorius or Gregory, specif a Pope Gregory I (590-604)

Gregorian chant, music, tones, plain-song, introduced by him, b Pope Gregory XIII (1572-86), Phr Gregorian calendar, reformed calendar established by him, 1582, year of Gregorian epoch, c James Gregory (1638-75), Scottish astronomer Phr Gregorian telescope, earliest type of reflecting telescope 2 n a Gregorian chant, plain-song, b Gregorian telescope

Gregory powder, n [1 grēgōri pōdər, 2 grēgari pōdər] fr J Gregory, Scottish physician (1753-1831) (pharm) Nauseous aperient powder containing rhubarb and magnesia gremial, adj & n [1 grēmial, 2 grīmial] Low Lat gremialis, adj, fr Lat gremium, 'bosom, lap', prob cogn w O E cramman, 'to stuff' See cram (I) & germ & -al 1 adj a Pertaining to lap or bosom, b pertaining to vestment called gremial 2 n Ecclesiastical vestment, in form of silk apron, placed on bishop's lap at mass or ordination grenade, n [1 grēnád, 2 grēnēd] O Fr, fr Span granada, 'pomegranate, grenade' See pomegranate & cp garnet 1 (mil) Small bomb or shell, thrown by hand into enemy trench &c Now usually hand-grenade 2 Globular bottle containing chemicals, breaking on impact, used for extinguishing fire, also for testing drains grenadier, n [1 grēnádər, 2 grēnēdər] Fr See prec & -ier 1 (mil) a (hist) Soldier employed to throw grenades, esp one of a right flank company of a regiment trained in use of grenades, b (now) in British Army, member of regiment known as Grenadier Guards or Grenadiers, first regiment of household infantry 2. (zool) a Weaver bird or grosbeak of South Africa, with red and black plumage, b one of a family of marine fishes, Macrouidae grenadine (I), n [1 grēnádēn, 2 grēnēdīn] Fr grenadin, most prob fr grenade See pomegranate 1 (hort) Middle sized, strongly scented carnation 2 (cookery) Franciscan of veal or poultry, filleted and glazed grenadine (II), n Fr (I) Perh fr Granada in Spain, (2) and (3) fr grenade, 'pomegranate', as in prec, cp grenade & -ine 1 Fine, thin silk or woollen fabric for dresses 2 Cordial from pomegranate 3 Red dye

Gresham's law, n [1 grēshamz lāw, 2 grēshamz lō], fr Sir Thomas Gresham, founder of the Royal Exchange, d 1579 (econ) The tendency for bad money to drive good money out of circulation gressorial, adj [1 grēsōrial, 2 grēsōrial] Lat gressor, 'walker', agent-n fr type gress, as in P P of grad, 'to walk' (see graduate), & -or & -ial (zool) Adapted for walking, of birds with feet having three toes in front and one behind, also of certain long legged insects grew, vb [1 grōw, 2 grū] O E grēow, M E grew, Pret of grow grey (I), gray, adj [1 grā, 2 grē] O E græg, M E gris, gris, O Frs grē, OHG grāw, grāw, ON grā-r, Engl form fr Gmc type grāw ja-, Aryan ghrē-wos, fr wh base many authorities agree in deriving Lat rāius, 'greyish or tawny', for grārus*, though the consonants offer some difficulty, also, fr different grade, Gk lhar-ops, 'bright eyed' The base is supposed to have meant orig 'to gleam, shine' 1 (in a physical sense) a Of a colour between white and black, or bluish a fr of orders grey, one habited in grey, grey hair, grey eyes, grey clothes &c, Phrs grey hairs, (fig) old age, the grey mare is the better horse, the wife rules husband, b (of complexion) pale, colourless, livid as with illness, or from mental pain &c, c (of weather &c) dull, cloudy, overcast, not sunny a grey day, sky, half dark, dim the grey dawn 2 (in non-material sense) Dreary, dull, colourless, sombrel, dismal grey thoughts, future surroundings, life had been rather grey for him of late grey (II), gray, n, fr prec 1 a Grey colour, a grey shade or tint, grey clothing to dress in grey, b grey pigment or dye 2 Grey horse the Greys, the Scots Greys, designation of Second Dragoons in British Army, from their grey horses grey (III), gray, vb trans & intrans, fr grey (I) a trans To make grey, b intrans, to become grey greyback, n [1 grāhak, 2 grēbæk] a (Am hist, colloq) Confederate soldier in Civil War, wearing grey uniform, b fungus infesting peach, c one of various animals, as grey whale, hooded crow, scamp duck greybeard (I), n [1 grābērd, 2 grēbīrd] 1 Grey-bearded man, old man 2 Stone ware jug for liquor, with face of bearded man on neck 3 Kind of hosen with long straggling tufts greybeard (II), adj (archaic) Grey-bearded greybearded, adj Having a grey beard greycoat, n [1 grākōt, 2 grēkōut] Person wearing a grey coat, specif, a soldier with a grey uniform grey-drake, n May fly, ephemera, artificial fly for fishing in imitation of this grey-eyed, adj grey (I) & eyed Having grey eyes

Grey Friar, n A Franciscan, from the colour of the habit grey goose, n Common British wild goose, graylag grey-haired, adj Having grey hair, middle aged, old grey head, n 1 Old, grey haired person 2 Old, male sperm-whale grey-headed, adj Grey haired, old grey hen, n 1 Female black grouse 2 Kind of stone ware bottle greyhound, n [1 grāhound, 2 grēhound] O E grighund for grīghund*, M E grihond, grēhound, grēhound &c, = ON grēyhund r, fr grey, 'dog' (etymol doubtful), & hund r, hound, not connected w grey a Slender, extremely swift breed of dog, with long, pointed muzzle, used for coursing hares, Phrs as swift, lithe, as a greyhound, greyhound racing, racing of greyhounds on track in chase of an electrically moved artificial hare, b (fig, liter) swift steamship ocean greyhound grey iron, n Kind of cast iron containing much graphite greyish, adj [1 grāish, 2 grēu] grey (I) & -ish Somewhat grey, a specif, of a white which has become dulled, clouded, darkened, b of a bright colour which has lost its intensity greylag, n [1 grālag, 2 grēlag] grey (I), & perh lag (IV), in obs sense, 'last to leave', because it leaves England after other migrants Grey goose greyling, n See grayling greylag, adv [1 grāli, 2 grēli] grey (I) & -ly In a grey manner, with a grey colour dawn rose greylag grey matter, n a (physiol, obs) Brownish-grey mass of nerve cells forming active centres of brain and spinal column, b (fig, colloq) brains, intelligence grey mullet, n Species so coloured, distinguished fr red mullet greyhness, n [1 grānes, 2 greynis] grey (I) & -ness Quality of being grey, grey colour grey squirrel, n Large N American squirrel, now naturalized in Britain greystone, n [1 grāstōn, 2 greistoun] (mineral.) Volcanic rock, consisting of feldspar and augite greywacke, n [1 grāwak, 2 grētwāk] grey (I) & wacke, after Germ grauwacke (geol., mineral.) Kind of conglomerate sandstone, containing nodules of quartz, feldspar, slate &c greywether, n [1 grāwēther, 2 greiwēthē] grey (I) & wether, fr its appearance Erratic block of sandstones, occurring on chalk downs, sarsen stone grey whale, n Large species of N Pacific whale grey wolf, n. N American species, also timber wolf gribble, n [1 grībl, 2 grībl] Prob fr grub (I) & -le, dimin or agent-suff Small marine crustacean that burrows into timber grid, n [1 grīd, 2 grīd] Contraction or back-formation fr gridiron. Grating, gridiron, griddle, specif a m wireless apparatus, network of wire between filament and plate of valve, for grid leak see leak (II), 3, b, b gridiron 2, b griddle (I), n [1 grīdl, 2 grīdl] M E grēdl, grēdel, fr A Fr grīdl, cp O Fr grēl, Norm dial grēdl, fr Low Lat type craticulum* for craticula, dimin of crālis, 'hurdle', op crate, grate (II), grill See also gridia (III) 1 Iron plate, with handle in form of a half hoop, placed over fire for cooking scones &c 2 (min.) Wire sieve for screening ore griddle (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To cook on griddle 2 (min.) To screen with griddle griddle-cake, n griddle (I) & cake (I) Flat cake cooked on a griddle over the fire gride (I), vb trans & intrans [1 grīd, 2 grīd] Prob by metathesis of r, fr grūd (II) Present meaning 2 appar developed through suggestion of sound Cp grate (I) 1 trans (obs) To cut, pierce (lit and fig) (Spenser, Milton) 2 intrans (lit, of weapon, door bolt &c) To be thrust, pushed, with harsh, grating noise, (of two objects rubbing against each other) to grate, grate, scrape gride (II), n, fr prec Harsh, rasping or grating noise gridelin, n [1 grīdelin, 2 grīdelin] Fr gris de lin, 'grey of flax' Cp grisette Violet-grey colour gridiron, n [1 grīdiern, 2 grīdiern] M E grēdre, grēdre, grēdre, grēdre, 'griddle', perh ung a more variant of griddle, assimilated to iron, a M E form of wh was ire Cp similar change in andiron 1 a Object consisting of metal bars running parallel, held together in square or oblong frame, and usually provided with longish handle, for broiling or grilling meat or fish over clear fire, b (hist) similar grating of great size used as instrument of torture by fire 2 One of several objects, resembling gridiron in shape, a (naut) frame in dry dock to support ship &c, b (theatr) frame above stage holding appliances for drop scenes, c (rlys) series of parallel rails for shunting, d network of high pressure cables for supply of electrical power gridiron pendulum, n Pendulum containing series of parallel rods of two different metals so arranged as to compensate for alterations in length caused by temperature grief [1 grīf, 2 grīf] In M E, fr Fr, 's d, l-rv', also n, 'sadness' &c, fr Lat grāve neut. of grāre 'heavy' See grave (IV) 1 (obs or archaic) Hurt, bodily or mental pain, sorrow, injury, woe 2 Phrs to grieve to grief, (i) sustain bodily injury (ii) to fail, land in disaster, (iii) to grieve to miscarry, ruin 2 (inf inward feeling) Deep protracted, mental suffering sorrow, distress, woe. to suffer grief at the loss of a son &c, to die of grief 3 Cause, source, of grief, sorrow, distress, or regret his conduct was a grief to his friends griefless, adj [1 grīfles, 2 grīfles] Prec & -less Without grief grievance, n [1 grēvāns, 2 grēvāns] M E, O Fr grēvance, fr grēver, 'to grieve' See grieve & -ance a Real or imaginary ground for complaint, not nr conduct rightly nr wrongly alleged to be cause of harm or inconvenience to nurse a grievance, b (obs) act of grieving, grief (Milton) grieves (I), vb trans & intrans [1 grēv, 2 grīv] M E grēven, fr O Fr grēter (in Mod Fr, 'to burden, encumber'), fr Lat grāvare, 'to burden', fr gravis, 'heavy' grave (IV) 1 trans To cause grief to, to distress, pain 2 intrans a (absol) To feel grief do not grieve—look on the bright side, b grieve at, feel grief on account of, grieve for, to lament, regret, sorrow after, grieve over, dwell on and feel grief concerning grieves (II), n Perh a Nthn Engl form of O E grēfa, 'steward' &c See reeve (II) a (hist) Legal officer in a town nr shire, a prefect, b (Scots) bailiff, overseer of farm grievingly, adv [1 grēvingh, 2 grīvīngl] Pres Part of grieve (I) & -ly With feelings of grief grievous, adj [1 grēvūs, 2 grīvūs] M E grēvous, fr O Fr grēvous grief & -ous 1 (archaic) Physically heavy, burdensome burdens too grievous to be borne 2 a Causing grief, distress, pain, or sorrow of any kind, distressing, oppressive grievous pain, tyranny, cruelty, grievous bodily harm, b of a kind to grieve over, lamentable, deplorable, deserving censure grievous mistake, accident, sin 3 (archaic) Expressing grief a grievous cry grievously, adv Prec & -ly In a grievous manner grievousness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being grievous griffin (I), griffon, gryphon, n [1 grīfin, grīfun, 2 grīfin, grīfun] M E grīffon, grīffyn, fr O Fr grīfoun (Mod Fr grīffon), fr Lat grīffina, fr Gk grīp s, fr grīp s, 'curved, hook-beaked', perh cogn w creep & cripple, cp also numb, gryphon is a pseudo classical form a Mythical animal, with head, beak, wings, and talons of eagle, erect ears, and body of lion, b (her) figure of this creature as charge, crest &c, o (fig) vigilant guardian, esp diuenna, chaperon griffin (II), n. Origin doubtful (Anglo Ind. colloq) European newly arrived in India or the East, inexperienced new-comer griffon (I) Variant of griffin (I) griffon (II), n [1 grīfon, 2 grīf] Fr, prob same word as in griffin (I) Sporting dog of continental breed, with coarse hair, Brussels griffon, toy variety of this griffon (III), gryphon vulture, n griffon (I) & vulture Large species of Old World vulture grig, n [1 grīg, 2 grīg] Perh Scand, cp Swed dial krāl, kril, Norw krēk, 'little, crawling creature' 1 a Small or young eel, sand eel as merry as a grig (perh for Greel), very lively, gay, b a cricket, grasshopper 2 Small, short-legged breed of poultry grill (I), n [1 grīl, 2 grīl] Fr grīl, O Fr grail, grīl See griddle In 1 b fr grille, in 2 perh fr grill (II) 1 a Gridiron, b grating, c pattern composed of cross bars, esp for defacing postage stamp 2 a Act nr process of grilling, b grilled food mixed grill, dish composed of various grilled meats &c, c grill room grill (II) vb trans & intrans Fr griller, fr grīl grill (I), sense 2 fr prec, 1, c & trans 1 a To broil on grill or gridiron, b to cook (oysters &c) in scallop, c (fig) to roast, scorch, torture by extreme heat, as of tropical sun 2 To deface (stamp) with grill. B in trans a To be broiled on grill, b (fig) to be exposed to extreme heat to grill is the cue grillage, n [1 grīlj, 2 grīldž] Fr See grill (I) & -age 1 (engin) Heavy frame of cross bars to support foundation of structure 2 Ground-work of lace design, resembling grating grille, grill, n [1 grīl, 2 grīl] Fr, fr Lat craticula See grill (I) Screen or lattice of open work, usually of parallel or cross bars, closing space in building, as window or hole in door, or surrounding private place, specif, the screen or lattice formerly in front of the ladies' gallery in the House of Commons grill-room, n Room in restaurant where meat and fish are grilled and served grisle, n [1 grīs, 2 grīs] Of doubtful origin, prob false ang fr pl grilles, A-Fr (15th cent) grilles, perh fr O Fr grisle, grille, 'greyish', dimin of gris, 'grey', op grissette, grizzle Young salmon on its first return to river from sea, nr, according to some, a distinct species closely allied to salmon. grim, adj [1 grīm, 2 grīm] OE grim, 'fierce, cruel, angry, severe', also in OS, O Frs, OHG, ON grimm r Another grade is seen in OE, OS, OHG gram, ON gram r, 'angry, hostile', fr Aryan grem-, grom, whence also Gk brēmēn, 'to roar' (of wind, sea &c) & brontē, 'thunder', cp brontosaurus 1 a Fierce, cruel 'the grim wolf' (Milton), b severe, stern, forbidding a grim smile, c inflexible, fiercely or sternly determined grim courage, Phr hold on like grim death, with a firm, determined, relentless grip, d sinister, ghastly, frightful a grim truth, joke, task, rather a grim business grimace (I), n [1 grīmās, 2 grīmēis] Fr grimace, 'winkle, wry face', prob fr O Fr grimache, 'embarrassment' (causing wrinkling of brows), fr Romance stem found in Ital grimo, 'wrinkled', fr Gmc, either fr base of grim in sense of 'frowning', or connected w OE &c grima, 'mask, visor' Contortion, distortion, of face, ugly facial expression, a deliberate, expressing ridicule, disgust, contempt &c, or with intent to amuse, b involuntary, caused by pain &c 2 Habit of grimacing grimace (II), vb intrans, fr prec, op Fr grimacer To make grimaces grimacer, n [1 grīmāser, 2 grīmēiser] grimace (I) & -er One who makes grimaces grimalian, n [1 grīmālian, 2 grīmālian] Earlier Graymalkin, in Shakespeare (Macbeth, I 1), proper name of familiar spirit in form of she cat, fr grey (I) & M E Malkyn, woman's name, also 'drab, slat', dimin (op -kin) of M E Malk, Maulk, 'Maid', fr O Fr Mahou (like Malde &c, of Gmo origin, op OE Māðhild, OHG Māthilt, of wh Māthilda is Latinized form Generic name for a cat, the cat tribe, like Bruin for a bear &c grime (I), n [1 grīm, 2 grām] M E grim, fr continental LG, op W Flsm grym, Du grim, grim &c, 'lamp-black, soot, grime', Swed. dial grima, 'smut on face', prob orig 'thung smeared', op OE be grīwan, 'to steep, smear', cogn w GL hkrēin, 'to smear, anoint' See chrism a Dirt, soot, deposited upon a surface, b general condition of dirt and dinginess, squalor, c moral degradation & defilement grime (II), vb trans, fr prec To soil, blacken, with grime, begrime grimly, adv [1 grīmli, 2 grāmli] grimy & -ly In a grimy manner griminess, n [1 grīmnes, 2 grāmnes] grimy & -ness Quality of being grimy grimly, adv [1 grīmli, 2 grāmli] OE grīmlice, fr grim & -ly In a grim manner grimness, n [1 grīmnes, 2 grīmnes] OE grimmer, M E grymness, fr grim & -ness Quality of being grim grim-visaged, adj [1 grīm vīxjd, 2 grīm-vīzjd] grim & visage & -ed. Having a grim, stern, forbidding face.

grimy, adj. [1 grīmi, 2 grīmi] grime (I) & -y Covered with, consisting of, grime, sooty, dirty, dingy grin (I), vb intrans & trans [1 grin, 2 grin] O.E. gremnan, 'to bare the teeth, as with pain', M.E. gremnen, grīnnien; O.H.G. gremnan, 'to mutter', O.N. gremja, 'to howl', may have been influenced in meaning by the Gmc base grain-*, 'howl' & so, as in O.E. grānian. See groan 1. intrans a (obs or rare) To draw the lips back and show the teeth in pain or anger, like a snarling dog 'to grin like a dog' (Bib), b to smile silently, and broadly, so that the lips are drawn back, and upwards at corners, and the teeth exposed; the action is supposed to express vulgar mirth, malvolence, or vacuity of mind Phrs (colloq) to grin and bear it, to suffer pain or trouble with forced cheerfulness, (colloq) to grin like a Cheshire cat, to grin through a horse collar competition in rustic sports 2 trans (rare) To express by grinning grin (II), n, fr prec Distortion of the mouth and exposure of teeth caused by grinning Phr (colloq) a broad grin, always on the grin, perpetually in act of grinning grind (I), vb trans & intrans [1 grind, 2 grind] O.E. grindan (strong), M.E. grinden, fr W Gmc type grēdan*, Aryan ghrendh-, gherendh- & so, 'to rub, grind' & so, whence also Lat frendere, 'to grind, to gnash the teeth', w fr- instead of (h)r-, fr ghr-* through influence of fricare, 'to rub' & so, also Lath grendu, 'I rub' & Gk khraínō, 'I smear', fr ghrn* yō, & khēradōs, 'gravel', fr gherndh-* Cp further perh ground (I) A trans 1 A To reduce to fragments or powder, by rubbing or crushing between two hard surfaces of which one usually revolves, to pulverize, tincturate to grind something to powder, grind corn, coffee & so, b to break up, wear away, by friction, as the waves on rocks & so. 2 (of moral action or process) To wear out, fatigue, reduce, by subjecting to cruelty, hardship, misery & so, to afflict, oppress, esp by extortion, to crush ground by tyranny, poverty, misery 3 A To wear down, polish, surface of by friction to grind a lens, b to sharpen edge of with revolving stone, to whet to grind a knife, axe, scythe, sword, Phr to have an axe to grind, have a personal interest to promote, c to roughen surface of by friction to grind glass, (fig, Bib) to grind the faces of (the poor), to oppress by extortion & so 4 A To work, actuate, (grinding instrument), by turning handle round to grind a hand-mill, barrel-organ; b to press upon with a turning, grinding motion to grind something into the ground with one's heel, Phr to grind the teeth 5 To produce by grinding to grind meal, flour 6 (fig, colloq) To teach assiduously or laboriously, to cram, coach to grind a person in Latin, to grind Latin into his head B intrans 1 A To perform the act or function of grinding in any sense Phr the mills of God grind slowly, Divine purpose slowly revealed, b (fig) to work laboriously, drudge, toil, esp to study hard, gen grind (away) at to grind away at one's duties, at examination subjects 2 To be capable of being ground this wheat grinds well C Followed by preposition or adverb Grind down, trans & intrans 1 trans, a to reduce to powder & so by grinding, b to wear away, reduce in bulk, by grinding to grind down a knife, c (fig) to oppress, subject to hardship, cruelty & ground down by poverty, 2 intrans, to be capable of being ground down this corn will grind down into a nice white flour Grind out, trans a to produce, cause to appear, by grinding to grind out a tune on an organ, b (of intellectual action) to produce something with effort and difficulty to grind out a few verses each year. Grind up, trans; to reduce to small particles or fragments by grinding grind (II), n, fr prec 1 Act of grinding 2 (fig, colloq) a A hard, protracted, laborious, or monotonous piece of physical or intellectual work saving hard oal is a considerable grind, he finds it a hard grind to learn a language, b strenuous walk for exercise a Sunday grind, c steepchase, the 'Varsity grind grinder, n [1 grinder, 2 grinders] O.E. grindere, M.E. grindere grind (I) & -er 1 One that grinds, as knife grinder, organ-grinder, (med) grinder's asthma, phthisis, iot, lung disease caused by inhaling fine particles while grinding, (slang) a private tutor, crammer, b hard student 2 Thing that grinds, specif a upper mill-stone, b molar tooth, (pl, colloq) teeth grinding (I), adj [1 grinding, 2 grinding], fr Pres Part of grind (I) a Exacting, tedious grinding toil, b oppressive grinding tyranny, c causing wearing, unceasing pain a grinding toothache grinding (II), n grind (I) & -ing Action of person or thing that grinds grindingly, adv grinding (I) & -ly. In a grinding manner grindstone, n [1 grind(st)ōn, 2 grind(st)ōn, -stōn] grind (I) & stone (I) 1 Disk of hard sandstone revolving on axle, for grinding tools or polishing Phr to hold, keep, put, one's nose to the grindstone, to compel one to work hard and continuously 2 Kind of stone of which grindstones are made Gringo, n [1 grīngō; 2 grīngōu] Origin doubtful Mexican contemptuous name for an American of US, equivalent to Yankee grinner, n [1 grīner, 2 grīne] -grin (I) & -er One that grins grinning, adj [1 grīning, 2 grīning], fr Pres Part of grin (I) Having a grin on the face a grinning urchin grinningly, adv Prec & -ly With a grin, as though grinning grip (I), vb trans [1 grip, 2 grip] O.E. grippan, 'to seize', cogn w gripan, 'seize, clutch', q v under gripe (I) The word has superseded the oogn gripe in most senses 1 (of living things) a To seize firmly, grasp, clutch; b to maintain a tight hold of 2 (of inanimate things) a To hold, catch, so as to retard motion, o g of machinery the brake doesn't grip the wheel properly, b to encumber, enfold, hold fast the boat was gripped by the ice 3 (fig, of action on, or of, the mind or emotions) a To awake interest, arrest, rivet, appeal powerfully to, the mind or attention, of to grip one's attention, to grip an audience, b to occupy fully, affect strongly, the emotions of fear gripped his heart, c to comprehend, grasp, obtain or maintain intellectual mastery of I cannot grip his argument.

grip (II), n O.E. gripe, 'grasp, clutch' (op 'gripa', 'handful'), oogn w gripan, 'gripe', op O.H.G. grif, Mod Germ griff, 'that which seizes, claw, that which is seized, a handle' Gmo grip-* is the reduced grade of grip*, q v under gripe 1 Act of gripping or seizing, grasp, clutch Phr come to grips, (of wrestlers) lay hold of each other, (fig) engage in a close and serious struggle 2 Manner of gripping the eagle has a strong grip, (of shaking hands) a freemason is recognized by his grip 3 (techn) a Handle of a weapon, b appliance for gripping, clutch 4 (fig) a Power of grasping with the mind, of understanding his mind has lost its grip, hence, b faculty of understanding a situation and of coping with it in a practical way, control to have a good grip on a situation, of the state of affairs & so, c ability to hold attention or maintain keen interest to have a grip on an audience. 5 (American usage) Gripsack grip (III), n O.E. grēp(e), grype, 'trench, ditch, drain', op L.G. grappe, Du gryp (province) Small ditch, open drain.

grip-brake, n One which acts by gripping axle and delaying the revolutions of this.

gripe (I), vb trans [1 grip; 2 grasp] O.E. & O.S. gripan, 'seize, grasp', Mod Germ greifen, 'seize', O.H.G. grifan, Goth greipan, O.N. grifa The Gmc types are grip*, grap*, grip*, wh wd correspond to Aryan ghreib-, ghroib-, but relations outside Gmo are very doubtful The original use in general sense of to clutch, grasp & so is practically obsolete, and the word has been specialized to express a specific kind of gripping, punching & so, that of pain in the bowels to be badly griped, to be griped by colic Used esp of a horse which gets colic from eating too much green food gripe (II), n, fr prec 1 (rare) Act of gripping, clutch, grasp, (fig) in the gripe of winter 2 (pl, vulg) The gripes, colic 3 (rare) Handle of a weapon or implement 4 (pl, naut) Set of ropes, dead-eyes, and hooks for hanging a hoist to the davits grippe, n [1 grip, 2 grip] Fr, 'influenza', fr gripper, 'to seize' See grip (I) (colloq) Influenza gripper, n [1 griper, 2 gripe] grip (I) & -er Person or thing that grips gripsack, n [1 gripsak, 2 gripsak] grip (I) & sack (I) (adopted from America) Handbag, snt caso & so used by travellers grisaille, n Engl pronunc [1 grizāl, 2 grizāl] Fr, fr gris, 'grey', & -aille, forming coll ns, fr Lat -aila, neut pl of adjectival suff -ails Fr. gris is of Gmo origin, op O.S. M.H.G. gris, 'grey-haired', Germ gris, 'an old man' Kind of painting in grey monochrome, imitating sculpture in relief, applied to mural decoration, illumination, stained glass & so grisamber, n [1 grizamber, 2 grizamber] (obs) Ambergris Used by Milton, 'P.R.' ii 341-4 'Meats grizamber-steamed' grissette, n [1 grizēt, 2 grizēt] Fr, ong a grey dress worn by working-class women, fem dimin of gris, 'grey', of Gmo origin Cp M.H.G. grise, grise, & -ette A young French woman or girl of the artisan class griskin, n [1 griskin, 2 griskin] Dimin of M.E. gris, 'pig', fr O.N. grisk, 'young pig' (lit) A little pig, yout of bacon-pig out from the backbone or loin grisly, adj [1 grizli, 2 grizli] O.E. grislic, 'horrible', fr gris-, cogn w. grisan, 'to shudder, be terrified', & -lic (see -ly), op O Frs grislik, gryslik, O.H.G. grisenlich. Etymol doubtful, & relationship w Germ grässlich unexplained a Tending to make one shudder, inspiring terror, loathsome and horrifying, b (in colloq use with weakened meaning) unpleasant, nasty, very bad, dismal grison, n [1 grizun, grizon, 2 grizun, grizon] Fr grison, properly 'greyish', fr gris, 'grey' See grissette (zool) a South American mammal, of the weasel family, greyish above and black below. b greyish South American monkey grist (I), n [1 grist, 2 grist] O.E. grist, gyrat, 'grinding, corn to be ground', perh fr Gmo grin(d)st*, fr Gmo. base grind*, q v under grind a Corn for grinding, Phrs to bring grist to the mill, to be a source of gain, all is grist that comes to his mill, he turns everything to account, b grain that has been ground, esp malt grist (II), n Etymol obscure, perh connected w gurd (I), gurdle Size of rope gristle, n [1 grisl, 2 grisl] O.E. & O Frs gristel, etymol unknown O.H.G. krustula, wh has same meaning, is difficult to relate on account of vowel This word, however, is connected w the rare O.E. grōst, 'gristle' Cartilage, esp in cooked meat Phr in the gristle, immature (Burke, alluding to the cartilaginous bones of very young animals) gristly, adv [1 grisl, 2 grisl] Prec & -ly Of the nature of, resembling, containing, gristle grit (I), n [1 grit, 2 grit] O.E. grōt, 'grit, sand, dust, earth, gravel', M.E. grē, O.S. grōt, O.H.G. grōt, Germ gras, O. Fra.

grit, O.N. grǫt. The present Engl form is due to an early shortening of Early Mod. [grit] The Gmc base grut-, grut- &c corresponds to Aryan ahrud-* &c wh. appears in Lat as ridus (for gruidos*), 'stones broken small and mixed with lime, for plastering walls'. Another form of the base appears in OE grȳt (fr grūh-*), grūl, 'coarse meal' (wh see under grout), grȳtla, exactly cogn w OHG gruzzo, Mod Germ grütze, 'grain of sand, or of corn', op further, Lith gruda, 'grain of corn'. See also groats 1 a (coll) Small fragments of stone, coarse sand or dust, gravel, Phr (fig) to put (a little) grit in the machine, do, say, something which hampers action, or prevents business from running smoothly, b (geol) one of several kinds of hard, esp siliceous or calcareous, sandstone millstone grit, grindstone grit, 'op griststone. 2 (fig) Moral firmness, endurance, strength of character grit (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans To grate, to produce, or give evidence of occurrence of, friction, as through the presence of grit in a machine, emit a noise such as arises from grit in a machine 2 trans In Phr to grit the teeth, gnash grnd, make a grating sound by rubbing the edges of the teeth together grits n pl [1 grits, 2 grites], fr OE grȳt(a), 'coarse meal', closely related to grit (I), as also groat & grout Coarsely ground grain, esp oats or wheat gristone n [1 gristōn, 2 gristoun] grit (I) & stone Hard gritty sandstone grittiness, n [1 grittines, 2 grittines] gritty & -ness The quality of being gritty gritty, adj [1 gritty, 2 griti] grit (I) & -y Containing, resembling, grit grivet, n [1 grivet, 2 grivets] Fr Omg unknown Monkev, of N East Africa, with a greyish green back grizzle (I), n [1 grizl, 2 grizls] MLE, fr O Fr grisel, 'grey-haired man', fr dimin of gris, 'grey' Cp grisette (rare and obsolete) a A grey thing, esp a horse, a wig, a partly burnt brick, b grey colour grizzle (II), vb intrans Perh freq or dimin vb fr grouse (II) (colloq, esp of young children) To keep on grumbling or whimpering, to fret grizzled, adj [1 grizld, 2 grizld] grizzle (I) & -ed a (chiefly of human hair, beard &c) Grey, turning grey, shot or streaked with grey b speckled with a light or dark shade so that the effect is greyish, as grizzled shippers, a butterfly grizzly, adj & n [1 grizl, 2 grizls] grizzle (I) & -y a adj Greyish, grizzled, only in grizzly bear, a large, fierce bear of the Rocky Mountains The application of the word here is possibly influenced by grisly, indeed it is sometimes so spelt when applied to the bear, b n, the grizzly bear groan (I), vb intrans & trans [1 grōn, 2 grōwn] O.E. grōnan, 'groan murmur', cp Du grānen 'weep grumble', OHG grānan, grānen, Mod Germ grēnen, 'weep', (obs) 'grin growl' Not found outside Gmc Cp grin 1 intrans a To utter a deep sound expressing bodily or mental distress, more violent or impatient than moan to indicate disapproval by groans, b to show deep distress, suffer profoundly, groan 2 trans a Groan (or) to utter, express, relate in a dismal voice, as with a groan 'groan out the tale of one's woes', b groan down (a speaker) silence intermittent, with sounds of disapproval resembling groans groan (II), n fr prec a Sound made in groaning deep, smart, acute, often involuntary, voiced sound, uttered by those suffering mental or bodily distress or pain, b (fig) loudly uttered complaint, c noise made to indicate disapproval, esp of a public speaker, d deep, harsh, creaking sound resembling a groan, made by heavy timber &c when subjected to strain and twisting groaning vbl n & adj [1 grōning, 2 grōwning], n fr groan (I) & -ing, adj, Pres Part of same vb 1 vbl n Act of making a groan 2 adj Making groans Phr groaning board, abundantly laden table groat, n [1 grōt, 2 grōts] M.E. grōte, fr M Du groot or M LG grote, 'groat', lit 'great', because thicker than the small coins in earlier use See great A small coin current at Bremen and in the Low Countries in the Middle Ages, b silver English coin nominally worth 4d, first issued by Edward III, and current until 1682 groats n pl [1 grōts, 2 grōts] O.E. grōt, 'coarse meal', M.E. grōtes The O.E. word is fr Gmc gruta*, the reduced grade of grut-*, O.E. grēat, wh see under grit (I) See also grout Hulled oats or other grain, grits grocer, n. [1 grōser, 2 grōuses] M.E. grosser, 'dealer in spices', fr O Fr (mar-chant) grossier, 'wholesale merchant', fr gros, 'gross', & -ier See gross Dealer in dry and preserved foods, spices, condiments, sugar, tea &c, and in various household requisites, such as soap, candles &c grocer's itch, n Kind of eczema produced by the sugar mite grocery, n [1 grōser, 2 grōsari] O Fr grosserie, 'wholesale sale of goods, goods thus sold' See grocer & -ery a The trade of a grocer a grocery business, b (coll, usually pl) goods sold by a grocer grog, n [1 grog, 2 grog] Said to be named from 'Grogan' or 'Old Grog', nicknames of Admiral Edward Vernon (1684-1757), who wore a cloak (or breeches) of grogram, and was the first to issue this drink to his men Any kind of spirit (orig rum) diluted with water and used as a drink A sailor's word comparatively rarely used except in nautical circles, or in allusion to sailors' drink, grog-blossom, n (colloq and vulg) Pimple or other eruption on the face, supposed to be caused by excessive drinking of spirits grogginess, n [1 grogmes, 2 grōgmis] Next word & -ness (colloq) State of being groggy groggy, adj [1 grōgi, 2 grōgi] grog & -y (colloq) 1 (rare now in this, the orig sense) Affected, intoxicated, by grog or other alcoholic drink, addicted to drink 2 (of persons and horses &c) a Inclined to stagger, as though from drinking, weak on the legs, tottery, having an uncertain, unsteady gait, b shaky, in poor, weak, health, weak and unsteady, esp from illness or nervous shock c (of objects which should normally stand firmly and steadily) shaky, unsteady, likely to collapse, e.g. of pillars, walls, houses &c, weak, badly fastened together, liable to break off or give way, loose, as legs of chairs and tables &c (Very widely applied) grogram, n [1 grōgram, 2 grōgrām] Fr gris grain, 'coarse grain' See gross grain a Coarse kind of cloth, generally containing silk and mohair, sometimes stiffened with gum b article of clothing made of this grog-shop n Small shop where grog is sold, low public house groin (I), n [1 groin, 2 grōin] M.E. grōvde (c. 1400), Early Mod Engl grynae grine, groyre (For the change of vowel cp boil, ulcer, fr M.E. bile) Omg obscure, perh O.E. grynde (once recorded), 'abyss', a lost meaning of wh word may have been 'depression hollow', fr grund, 'bottom, deep, ground', cp O.E. grýndan, 'descend' See ground 1 Depression in the body between thigh and abdomen. 2 a (archit.) Curved line, aris, formed by the intersection of two vaults, rib covering the line, b (math) volume contained by intersection of two cylinders, surface of the same 3 Groyne, q.v.

groin (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec (archit) a trans To make in form of groins 'The hand that groined the aisles' (Emerson), b intrans, to form a groin groined, adj [1 ground, 2 grōind], fr P.P. of groin (II) (archit) Made with groins a groined vault grooming, vbl n [1 grōming, 2 grōmining] groom (II) & -ing (archit) a Making of groins, b (coll) groins, groomed work groommet, n See grummet gromwell, n [1 gromwel, 2 grōmwel] M.E. grummel, gromelle, gromah, fr O Fr gromel (Mod Fr gromel), perh a form of O Fr grumel, 'pellet, grain', Fr grumeau, 'clot, lump', Lat grāmulus, 'hillock', dimin of grāmus, 'little heap, hillock' See grume A low growing plant, allied to borage, with blue flowers and hard stony seeds, whence its botanical name Lithospermum groom (I), n [1 grōom, groom, 2 grūm, grum] M.E. grōm(e), 'boy, groom', cp M Du grom, O.N. gromr, 'boy', perh shortened fr O Fr gromet, 'man servant' (whence obs E grummet, 'cabin boy'), apparently dimin of a lost O Fr grome*, wh may, however, be immediate source There has prob been confusion w O.E. guma 'man' Cp bridegroom 1 a (archaic) Boy or man, esp one employed as a servant, b officer in royal household groom of the Great Chamber, in charge of king's bedroom, groom of the stole, (formerly) in charge of wardrobe, groom in waiting, in attendance on king 2 Manservant in charge of horses 3 Bridegroom groom (II), vb trans- [1 grōom, 2 grūm], fr prec a To rub down, brush, clean, (a horse), b (of human beings, chiefly in P.P. & as adj) to smarten up, bestow care upon one's person or dress to be, look, well, badly groomed, well, badly, dressed or got up groom-porter, n groom (I) & porter (II) (hist) Officer of the royal household formerly in charge of the gaming tables and other furniture groomsman, n [1 grōomzman, 2 grūmzman] groom (I) & man Friend in attendance on bridegroom at wedding, best man groove (I), n [1 grōov, 2 grūv], fr Du groef, groete, 'trench, groove' also 'pit, mine' This word is not found in O.E. as a n, though the precise cogn form grōf occurs as the normal Pret of the strong vb grāfan, 'to dig, carve' The W Gmc type grōf*, besides appearing in mfn & pres of this vb, occurs also as O.E. grāf, 'cave, grave' See grave (I) & (II) 1 Long narrow hollow trench, or channel, made in surface of wood, stone, metal, or other material Phrs (fig) to get into a groove, to acquire fixed habits of thought or conduct, his mind works in a narrow groove, within narrow limits 2 Various specific and technical uses, e.g. a rabbit in edge of board, b hollow at bottom of printer's type, c spiral hollow in bore of rifle or gun &c 3 (by transf) Long narrow hollow generally the river has cut a deep groove through the plain groove (II), vb trans, fr prec To cut a groove in, furnish with grooves grooved, adj [1 grōvvd, 2 grūd], fr P.P. of prec Furnished with a groove or grooves, furrowed groover, n [1 grōover, 2 grūv] groove (II) & -or a Person who makes grooves, b specif, grooving tool grooviness, n [1 grōvines, 2 grūvmis] groovy & -ness Quality of being groovy, fixity of habits grooving, n [1 grōoving, 2 grūvin] groove (II) & -ing Act or process of making grooves (in compounds) Grooving plane, saw groovy, adj [1 grōov, 2 grūv] groove (I) & -y (only in fig sense) Inclined to get into a groove, tending to fixity and narrowness of mental habit, one-sided, narrow-minded grope, vb intrans & trans [1 gröp, 2 group] O E grüpan, 'feel with the hand', fr grüpan, 'grasp, ointob', cogn w. O E grüpan, 'to ointob' & o. See gripe 1 intrans Also grope about a To coach tentatively with the hands, feel round, as a blind person or one in the dark, fumble to grope in the dark, grope for the door-handle, for one's hat under the seat & o, b (fig) to search, or otherwise act, in a tentative, uncertain, or hesitating manner to grope for a clue, grope about for information 2 trans Chiefly in Phr to grope one's way, a to feel one's way, hesitatingly and doubtfully, as in the dark, b (fig, of spiritual and intellectual process) to attempt to settle or overcome difficulties, doubts, obscurities & o by patient, cautious thought and inquiry to grope one's way towards clear understanding, towards religious convictions & o groper, n [1 gröper, 2 groups] Variant of grouper a (zool) Variant form of grouper (fish), esp applied in Australia to several kinds of fish, b (Australian slang) an inhabitant of Western Australia gropingly, adv [1 gröpíng, 2 gróupíng] grope & -ing & -ly In the manner of one that gropes, (lit and fig) in a hesitating, uncertain, fumbling manner grossbeak, also grossbeak, n [1 grósbök, 2 grósbök] Fr grossbec, 'grossbeak' See gross & beak (zool) One of several kinds of finch having broad, conical beaks Common grossbeak, hawfinch, green grossbeak, greenfinch, pine grossbeak, pine bullfinch groschen, n [1 gróshon, 2 gróshon] Mod Gorm, fr M H G grosche, 'groschen', fr L lat grossus, 'groschen', fr Lat grossus, 'thick' (see gross), & -chen, dimin suff (see -ken) 1 (hist) Small silver coin, and money of account, formerly current in Germany, sometimes a 30th of a thaler, but of varying value 2 A German ten-pfennig piece gross (I), adj [1 grós, 2 grou] M E grös, 'large', fr Fr gros, 'big, thick, stout', fr L lat (4th cent) grossus, 'thick', the origin of wh is obscure, it may be cogn w M. fr. bras, 'big', Corn. bras, 'thick' 1 A big, bulky, thick, burly, usually in deprecatory sense, excessively fat, coarse a gross body, gross features, b coarse grained a gross powder, c (of air, liquids & o) dense gross vapours, humours 2 Coarse, unrefined, not delicate, crass, rank gross vegetation, food, a gross feeder, one who enjoys coarse and plentiful food 3 (of the senses) Dull, blunt, insensitive a gross ear 4 (obs) Palpable 'To all sense 'tis gross' (Shakespeare) 5 (fig) Indelicate, coarse, unrefined, vulgar, obscene gross language, manners, a gross story, jest 6 A excessively clumsy or inept, extravagantly wrong, flagrant a gross blunder, gross carelessness, a gross overcharge, insult, injustice, b (law) gross negligence, negligence involving wanton disregard of consequences of an act, gross dereliction of duty, wanton abandonment of one's duty 7 A Comprehensive, without deductions, including everything, total gross income, amount, gross weight, including tare & o, (math) gross error, sum of all errors, b (law) Phrs gross adventure, loan on bottomry, including partial liability for gross average, gross average, charge or loss involving ship as well as cargo, general average gross (II), n, fr proc 1 A Bulk, mass Now chiefly in Phr in (the) gross, by the gross, in, by bulk, in the mass, taken as a whole, wholesale, b (law) in gross, absolute, entire in itself, not as an appendage to something else, annexed, not to the land, but to a person aduocous, common, servitude, villain, in gross 2 (commerce) Twelve dozen, 144, great gross, twelve gross, 1728 grossly, adv gross (I) & -ly In a gross manner, coarsely, flagrantly grossness, n gross (I) & -ness The crabty of being gross, a (of size) excessive bulkiness, lateness, thickness, b (of non-material things) coarseness, indecency, vulgarity, obscenity, c high degree of some bad quality, enormity the grossness of one's misstatement, error & o grossularaceous, adj [1 gróseúlášus, 2 gróseúlášas] Contracted fr grossulariaceus, fr Mod Lat grossularia, fr Fr. grossulle, 'gooseberry', & Lat -aria, -ary, & -aceous (bot) Belonging to the order of Grossulariaceae, which includes the gooseberry and currants grossular, adj & n [1 gróseúlar, 2 gróseúle] Mod Lat grossularia, adj, fr grossularia See prec 1 adj Belonging to, resembling, the gooseberry, esp (mineral) grossular garnet 2 n (mineral) Pale green, yellow, brown, or red variety of garnet, found in Siberia, also called grossularite grot, n, [1 grot, 2 grot] Fr grotte, fr Ital. grotta, fr Lat crypta, crypta, 'subterranean passage, vault, cavern', fr Gk krupé, or krupé, 'vault', orig form of vbl adj krupé, 'concealed', fr krupéin, 'to hide, conceal' See crypt (root) Grotto, cave grotesque, adj & n [1 grótsék, 2 grótsék] Fr, n & adj, fr Ital grotesca (see pittura), 'grotesque painting', ie one of the kind found in a grotta (see grot), or ancient Roman crypt or other excavated chamber, & -esque 1 adj a (art) In or belonging to a decorative style, esp of painting and sculpture in relief, characterized by fantastic combinations of human, animal, and vegetable forms, (properly applied to Roman and Renaissance ornament, but extended to Gothic, Oriental, and other art), hence, b quaint, bizarre, fantastic, humorously extravagant or incongruous grotesque gestures of a baboon, c ridiculous, ludicrous, absurd grotesque manners, appearance, a grotesque mistake 2 n a (art) Fantastic style in painting, sculpture, literature & o the grotesque in art and literature, b a quaint, bizarre, figure, face, or person a grotesque grotesquely, adv Proc & -ly In a grotesque manner. grotesqueness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being grotesque grotto, n [1 gróttó, 2 gróttó] pl grottoes, grottoes Corrupt form of earlier grotta, fr Ital grotta See grot A Chamber, formed in, or imitating, a cave, usually lined with rough rocks and fancifully decorated with shells & o, forming a cool retreat or summer-house, b shrine formed in a similar manner, miniature cave built of shells on St James's day in honour of that saint, c small natural cave or grot gróuch, n [1 grouch, 2 gróuch] Variant of grouse (II), cp grudge (colloq) Sulkiness, ill temper ground (I), n [1 ground, 2 ground] O E grund, 'bottom, ground, earth, depth', M E ground, 'eol, foundation, reason', OS, Mod Gorm grund, OHG grund, Gotb grundu (in compo grundu waddjus, 'ground wall, foundation'), ON grunnr, 'bottom' Perh orig 'fine sand, grit' & o, & oogn w grund 1 Bottom, base, lowest part, depth (obs except fig) from the ground of the heart 2 Bottom of sea or other body of water, shallow area of sea fished by fishing-fleet Phrs to take ground, (of a vessel) to strike the bottom, be stranded, to touch ground, (i) come lightly into contact with the bottom, (u) (fig) to reach definite facts, get to realities, in discussion Cp aground, ground bait 3 A Soil, earth, land fruits of the ground, to till the ground, poor, fertile, ground, Phrs to break fresh ground, (i) bring virgin soil under cultivation, (u) (fig) to do something hitherto untrod, to pioneer work, forbidden ground, (fig) topic excluded from discussion or reference, common ground, (fig) point of contact, one on which agreement exists, between two persons or parties, b surface of the earth to fall to, lie on, spring from, the ground, she seemed hardly to touch the ground as she walked, Phrs above ground, alive, below ground, dead and buried, to cover ground, traverse space travel, to cut the ground from under one's feet, to embarrass one by anticipating arguments, defence & o, to hold, stand, one's ground, maintain one's position or claim, hold one's own against assailant, to gain ground, (i) advance, progress, (u) (fig) gain real advantage, to give, lose, ground, be forced back, fail to maintain one's position or claim, or one's full advantage in a contest, (colloq) down to the ground, entirely, absolutely that suits me down to the ground, c (mun) strata containing a lode or seam 4 A Area, piece of land, esp one set apart for some particular purpose or pursuit a football, cricket, ground, recreation ground, parade ground, b region devoted to some particular occupation, or where some process habitually occurs hunting, flehing ground, breeding ground 5 (pl) Large garden, small park & o, usually immediately surrounding a dwelling-house or other building, including lawns, shrubberies, walks, & o, but not orchards or kitchen garden 6 Grounds (perhaps from PP of grund) small parcels which settle at the bottom of a vessel containing liquid, lees, dregs, sediment, esp coffee-grounds 7 Underlying surface, background, on which decoration is placed, first coat of paint, in relief sculpture, plane from which figures stand out, in textiles & o, prevailing colour, relieved by decorative design roses on a black ground 8 Composition spread over plate in etching to resist acid where not cut through 9 (mus) a Composition in which a series of notes is continually repeated in the bass, with varying melody, b (obs) plain-song as basis for descants 10 A Foundation or basis, underlying or originating force, substance, or idea God is the ultimate ground of all reality, b in philosophy, sum of conditions, as distinguished from cause 11 a (often pl) Intellectual starting point, or basis, rational sanction, reason to have good ground(s) for thinking, grounds of complaint, to have no ground(s) for believing, b inducement, motive, cause, pretext to furnish grounds for suspicion, I see no ground for his action ground (II), vb intrans & trans, fr proc A intrans (nant) Of a vessel, to strike the ground or bottom, esp so as to be stopped in bor course, be stranded, run aground B trans 1 To bring to ground, speak (mil) ground arms, to lay (arms) on the ground 2 (nant) To cause to run aground 3 (elect) To connect (an electric wire or other conductor) with the ground, to earth 4 (in non material sense) To have, found upon, use as a rational basis to ground one's arguments on experience 5 To teach elements of a subject to, provide with a knowledge of to ground a child in arithmetic, well grounded in Latin ground (III), adj PP of grund (I) 1 Reduced to grains or powder by grinding-ground rice 2 Prepared, treated, by grinding the surface, a smoothed, polished by grinding ground cock, cock of which the plug is made to fit closely, by grinding-ground joint, joint in which the two surfaces are ground, b roughened by grinding ground glass, glass rendered non transparent by grinding one surface groundage, n [1 groundy, 2 groundidz] ground (I) & -age Due charged for letting a ship lie on shore or in a harbour ground-angling, n Angling with a weight at the end of the line, and the hook a little above it ground-annual, n (Scotts law) Ground rent charged annually before the land is built on ground-ash, n Ash sapling, walking stick or ewich consisting of young ash plant with the root for a handle, contrasted with one cut from a hough of a larger tree ground-bait, n Bait scattered at bottom of water by angler to attract fish ground-bass, n (mus) Bass which continually repeats a short independent movement ground-box, n Dwarf variety of box-plant used for edging ground-colour, n a First coat of paint, b colour of background in decoration grounded, adj [1 grounded, 2 grounded] PP of ground (II) Bored, founded, established, usually with adv a well grounded suspicion groundedly, adv Proo & -ly a With good ground, reasonably, b firmly (Browning) ground elder, n Common British creeping weed with leaves like those of the elder groundier, n [1 gróunder, 2 gróunda] (cricket) Ball that keeps close to ground when struck by the bat ground-fish, n Fish of any kind that lives near the bottom ground-floor, n That floor of a house which is nearest to the level of the ground Phr (colloq) to get in, be let in, on the ground floor, to obtain shares in n company or other concern on same terms as original promoters ground game, n (coll) Game that cannot fly, hares and rabbits ground-ice, n Ice which forms at bottom of river or other body of water grounding, n [1 gróundíng, 2 gróundín] 1 Act of bringing to, placing on, the ground 2 Act or process of laying preparing o ground, surface or base, in various arts 3 Thorough instruction in the essential elements of a branch of knowledge a good grounding in French ground-ivy, n a Variety of ivy which grows and creeps along the ground, b small creeping lobate British plant, with purplish flowers ground-landlord, n Owner of site on which building stands or is to stand, to whom lessee pays rent for the land groundless, adj [1 gróundles, 2 gróund] O E grundlæas, 'bottomless boundless' ground (I) & -less Devoid of foundation, cause, reason, unfounded, baseless groundless fears, rumours &c groundlessly, adv Proo & -ly Without cause or reason. groundlessness, n See prec & -ness Lack of foundation, cause, or reason, baselessness groundling, n [1 gróundíng, 2 gróundín] ground (I) & -ling 1 (hist) Low class spectator in Elizabethan theatre, who stood on the ground, or in what is now the pit 'To split the ears of the groundlings' (Shakespeare, 'Hamlet', III i 12) 2 (fig) Person of low taste, Philistine 3 One of several ground fishes, esp spined loach and black goby 4 (attrib as adj) Vulgar, low (Lamb) ground(s)man, n [1 gróundz'mán, 2 gróundz'mén] One, usually a professional player, employed to attend to a cricket field or other ground kept for games or sports ground nut, n The pea nut or earth nut, b leguminous plant of S America and W India, the stalks of which bend down to the ground in which the pods develop, the seeds are used as food and yield n valuable oil ground-pearl, n Female of a W Indian scale insect, forming a kind of hard shell over itself ground-pig, n African rodent, related to porcupines, living in burrow ground-pine, n a British lobate plant, with odour of resin, b one of two species of club moss ground-plan, n a (archit) Plan of building on the ground level or ground floor, b (fig) general scheme or design ground plan of a scientific theory ground-plane, n In perspective drawing, horizontal plane of projection, on which objects stand ground-rent, n Rent paid by lessee to owner of land upon which buildings are constructed, for right to occupy and improve it ground-sea, n Ground swell groundsel (I), n [1 gróund(s)el, 2 gróund(s)el] O E grundsewige, lit 'ground swallower', perh because it spreads rapidly, & occupies much ground, or by popular etymol, fr earlier grundsewige, fr grund, 'pus', & sewigan (see swallow (I)), 'absorb', fr its use in making poultices for wounds a Small plant of the Composite order, with yellow flowers and flying seed vessels, n very common English weed, used for feeding caged birds, b small maritime American tree of the same order groundsel (II), n ground (I) & sill (archaio) Horizontal timber serving as foundation for wooden frame, as sill of n door ground-swell, n Condition of the sea in which a slow swell continues after the wind has dropped ground-water, n Water that collects under ground, as in mines groundwork, n [1 gróundw'rk, 2 gróundw'rk] 1 a (in material sense) Basis, underlying support, or framework of a structure b (non material sense) foundation, essential and fundamental part of intellectual or artistic work 2 Underlying, fundamental principle group (I), n [1 gróup, 2 grúp] Fr groupe, fr Ital gruppo, also gruppo, proh of Gmo origin, cp O H G chrapp, 'lump, swelling (on human neck)', bird's crop' See crop (I) 1 Assemblage, aggregation, collection of objects, animate or inanimate, standing, or occurring at n given moment, in such close proximity to each other, and so far separated from others, as to strike the eye, or be thought of, as a loosely connected unity, a a hand, knot, cluster a group of persons, cows n group of trees, rocks, stars &c, b (painting and sculpture &c) representation in art of several figures, placed together as part of a deliberate design 2 (science) Assemblage, aggregation, of living organisms, or of inorganic objects conceived of as having (i) n natural affinity, relationship, association, as possessing (ii) a genealogical or historical connexion, (iii) resemblance or common features a group of fish, plants, a geological group (of rocks), a group of languages 3 (mus) Series of notes having their stems connected by a line in notation 4 Aggregation of persons sharing the same special views, theories, aspirations, beliefs, in politics, religion, art, philosophy &c, generally used of smaller parties within the main society, party, church &c, the free trade group in the Conservative party, the Romanizing group group (II), vb trans & intrans, fr proo A trans 1 a To form into, arrange in, groups with a view to artistic effect to group a wedding-party for a photograph, b to classify according to some specific plan or system based on community of origin, external resemblance, or the possession of some common characteristic or trait roses are best grouped together in the garden by colours, languages are grouped in accordance with their genealogical relation 2 (reflex) To constitute a group or groups, to cluster, gather, come together the party grouped themselves round the fire B intrans To allow of grouping, to occur in, fall into, a group of groups the outlying farm-buildings group splendidly in the landscape group captain, n Rank in Royal Air Force, equivalent to a colonel in the army grouped, adj [1 gróup't, 2 grúp't] PP of prec (espcc archit) Grouped columns, three or more having the same pedestal gronper, n [1 gróup'pér, 2 grúp's] Port garupa, perh a native S Am word a One of many allied marine fishes, related to sea bass, of warmer American coasts of Atlantic and Pacific, b one of various Australian kinds, also known as grasper grouping, n [1 gróupíng, 2 grúpíng] group (II) & -ing a Act of arranging in, putting into, a group or groups, b mode of arrangement in a group or groups grouse (I), n, pl grouse [1 gróus, 2 gráus] Found in 17th cent Of unknown origin One of several kinds of wild gallinaceous game birds with feathered feet, esp, in British Isles, the red grouse (Lagopus scoticus), the reddish-brown, speckled bird of the heather moors of Scotland and Yorkshire &c, also black grouse, black game (black cock and grey hen), white, or willow grouse, the ptarmigan, wood, or great grouse, capercaillie. grouse (II), vb intrans Proh fr O Fr 'grousser' (whence Mod Lat groussare), form of groucier, 'to murmur' See grudge, & ep grizzle (II) (colloq) To grumble, murmur grouse disease, n Disease of the red grouse, caused by n parasitic worm infesting young heather grouse-moor, n Stretch of heather moor where grouse breed and over which they are shot grouser, n [1 gróúser, 2 gráúser] grouse (II) & -or One who grouses grouse-shooting, n Sport of shooting the red grouse, usually driven over grouse butts, which begins annually on Aug 12th grout (I), vb intrans & trans [1 grout, 2 gráut] Origin uncertain, perh fr O E grūt, 'grains of meal', also 'fight, terror', a gradational variant of base of O E grēot, 'earth, dust' &c See grit, groats, grout (II) This Gmo word is cogn w Lat rudus, 'stones broken small and mixed with lime', fr hse ghrud*, 'to rub, pulverize' See also gruesome (of swine, not in frequent use) a intrans To root or rout about in the earth with the snout, b trans, to turn up by rooting grout (II), n O E grūt, 'coarse meal, melt grains' See prec Coarse meal, pollard (usually in pl grouts) grout (III), vb intrans & trans & n 16th cent Fr grouter, of Gmo origin See prec a vb To fill up interstices of loose or decayed masonry with cement in liquid form which hardens and forms a solid mass, the process is often carried out by injecting the liquid under pressure, b n, material used in the process grouting, n [1 gróutíng, 2 gráutíng] Proo & -ing a Action or process of filling up defective masonry by injection of liquid cement &c, b materials employed for this grove, n [1 gróv, 2 gróuv] O E grōf, 'grove, copse', connected w wh is O E grēfo, 'grove, thicket, brushwood' No other cognates known 1 (chiefly liter) Small wood, esp one planted for ornament or pleasure 2 a A group of trees, as a centre of worship in various pagan religions, b used erroneously in AV to translate Hebrew asherah, 'sacred pillar', & ēšēl, 'tamarisk' grovel, vb intrans [1 gróv, 2 grávl] Formed fr ME adv grufelinge, grouclinge, 'on the face', wh is fr Phr o grūfe, O N grūfa, 'on the face', & adv grūf hinge, q v under -long (as in headlong), of wh it is a variant The old adv was taken for a Pres Part, & the suff. grūf was taken for -ing, the first element is obscure 1 To lie flat, wriggling, squirming on the ground 2 (fig) a To behave one's self, behave abjectly, before another to grovel before, or to, authority, b to occupy one's self with base or mean things grovel, n [1 gróv(ə)l, 2 gráv(ə)l] Proo & -er One who grovels, a a sycophant, b one of low mean tastes grovel, adv & adj [1 gróv(ə)l, 2 gráv(ə)l] ME adv grufelinge, grouclinge, 'on the face' See grovel Now felt as a Pres Part, & formed afresh fr the new vb 1 adv (archaio or obs) On the face, prone, esp in an abject manner 'Upon thy belly grovelling thou shalt go' (Milton, 'P L') 2 adj (chiefly in fig sense) a Abject, servile, obsequious, cringing, b base, mean, sordid a grovelling nature, grovelling ideals grovelling, adv Proo & -ly In a grovelling manner grovy, adj [1 gróv, 2 gróuv] grove & -y. Covered with, abounding in, groves grow, vb intrans & trans [1 grō, 2 gróu] O E grōwan, 'grow' (of plants), O H G gruon, 'grow, grow green', proh connected w green, but not w Lat grāmen,

'grass' See gramin- A intrans 1 (of organic process) a To develop, increase in size by formation of new tissue Originally of plants, but extended to animals and persons in place of archaic vax, b (of plants) to live, flourish, occur, be produced the olive grows in Italy, rhododendrons won't grow in a limy soil 2 a (of material things) To increase in volume, size, amount, length &c you have grown since I saw you last, his hair has grown; the National Debt has grown enormously since the war, Phr to grow in (experience, wisdom &c), to attain to greater degree of, b (of non-material things) to increase in degree, attain greater intensity 'still the wonder grew', my difficulties are growing 3 (followed by pred adj, adv, n, or phr, expressing change, passage from one state to another) To become, turn to grow grey, old, rich, pale, silly; growing quite a handsome fellow, to grow less, diminish B trans To cultivate, cause to grow to grow roses, apples &c Phr to grow a beard &c, to allow to grow C Followed by preposition and adverb Grow down, intrans, to diminish in height, become shorter Grow on, intrans, a to establish ascendancy over a habit that rapidly grows on one, b to become endeared to, with the affection or admiration of, captivate taste of a wine, picture, place &c, that grows on one Grow out, intrans, a to sprout, chit, e.g. as corn after it has been reaped, b (of potatoes) to produce fresh crop from the new tubers before being lifted Grow out of, intrans, a to divest oneself of, cease to practise, abandon to grow out of a bad habit; b to become too big for, outgrow to grow out of one's clothes Grow up, intrans, (chiefly of persons) to attain full development of body and mind, pass into stage of an adult, reach maturity growable, adj [1 gróubál, 2 gróubál] Prec & -able Capable of being cultivated with success, of being raised, made to grow grower, n [1 gróer, 2 gróer] grow & -er 1 (with epith adj) Plant that grows in specific way a free, shy, rank, grower 2 Person who cultivates flowers or vegetable produce, esp for the market a well known grower of roses growing (I), n [1 gróing, 2 gróing] grow & -ing State or condition of increasing organically, growth growing (II), adj, fr Pres Part of grow 1 Associated with growth. growing pains, neuralgic pains in the young, formerly associated with growth, now attributed to a disposition to rheumatism; growing point, (bot) extremity of axis, consisting of undifferentiated tissue, from which growth proceeds 2 Suitable for, encouraging, growth growing weather, weather that promotes growth of crops &c, growing season, that at which growth of plants takes place 3 a In process of growth and organic development a growing child, b increasing, rising, in size, extent, volume, intensity &c growing discontent, anxiety, prosperity &c growingly, adv Prec & -ly Increasingly growl (I), vb intrans & trans [1 gróul; 2 gróul] M E growle, fr A-Fr grouler, 'make noise like a crane', Proard grouler, 'murmur, grumble', of Gmc origin Cp E Fris grullen, W Flem', Du, Germ grollen &c A intrans a (of animals) To utter a deep rumbling noise in the throat, expressing irritation or menace, as an angry dog, b (of human beings) to speak, or utter sounds, with a deep, harsh, surly voice, resembling the sound made by an angry animal, c (of inanimate things) rumble threateningly thunder growled in the distance B trans Also growl out, express, utter, with growls, say in a surly, gruff voice he growled (out) his disapproval growl (II), n, fr prec Sound made by person, animal &c, that growls growler, n [1 gróuler, 2 gróuler] growl (I) & -er a Person or thing that growls, b one of several kinds of fishes that grunt when removed from the water, as the grunt and gurnard, c (slang) old-fashioned four-wheeled horse cab, chiefly applied to the type formerly used in London, so called from the rattling or creaking sounds which it emitted when in motion grown, adj [1 grón, 2 grón] PP of grow a Fully developed, having reached full height, mature a grown man, b (with qualifying adv) well, ill grown tree &c growth, n [1 gróth, 2 gróup] Cp O N gróth, 'growth' Not in early use in Engl, prob a new formation on anal of length, breadth &c See grow & -th 1 a Organic process of growing, increase by formation of new organic tissue growth is rapid in infancy, b development, natural progress growth of institutions, of national spirit &c 2 Increase in size, length, quantity, or numbers the alarming growth of the population, of intemperance, armaments &c 3 Act of causing to grow, cultivation apples of foreign growth, the farm is devoted to the growth of fruit 4 a That which grows, esp vegetation and hair the luxuriant growths of the tropics, a weed's growth on the chin, b (pathol) a morbid formation of tissue, esp internally a malignant, cancerous growth, also an external excrescence groynes, n [1 gróin, 2 gróin] Variant spelling, w differentiated meaning, of groin Breakwater, usually of timber, crossing fore shore and projecting into sea, to prevent shifting of beach and erosion of coast grub (I), vb trans & intrans [1 grub, 2 grab] M E grubben, gröbben, 'dig' Origin uncertain; perh connected w O N grufja, 'a pit' A trans (usually with up, out) 1 a To dig up to grub up nettles, the roots of a tree, bushes, b (fig, colloq) to search out arduously, extract, from archives, books &c he grubbed up the family history; grub up facts for a speech, examination &c 2 To clear (ground) by digging up roots B intrans a To dig up roots, clear ground, b toil, drudge, c (fig, colloq) to search arduously, pursue tedious researches to grub about among records grub (II), n M E grubbe, prob fr prec 1 Larva of insect, esp one of various kinds of beetle, or larva that lives in soil, on plants, or in bodies of animals 2 (perhaps from idea of getting dirty from digging (grub (I)) A dirty, slovenly person. 3 (cricket) Ball that rolls along or keeps near the ground when bowled or batted grub (III), n & vb intrans & trans, perh fr prec (slang) 1. n Food, specif (among schoolboys) extra food from home, sweets, delicacies &c 2 vb. a intrans To consume food, b trans (rare) supply with food (Diokenes) grub-axe, also grubbing-axe, n [L grúb(ing) aks; 2 grúb(ing) aks] Implement in form of a kind of pick, with a cutting edge, used for cutting and extracting roots grubber, n [1 gróber, 2 grábe] M E 'grubbare grub (I) & -er a Person who grubs up roots &c, b implement for grubbing grubbiness, n [1 grúbines, 2 grúbines] Next word & -ness Dirtiness (esp of the person or dress), slovenliness, squalor grubby, adj [1 gróbi, 2 grábi] grub (II) & -y 1 Infested with grubs 2 Dirty, grumpy, unwashed, uncared for grub-hoe, n Kind of hoe for clearing the ground grubstake, n & vb trans [1 grúbsták, 2 grubsták], fr grub (III) & stake (Am min slang) 1 n a Provisions, stores &c supplied to a prospector on condition of getting some share in what he finds, b share in mine obtained in this way 2 vb a To supply provisions on such terms, b to obtain share in mine by such means

Grub-street, n Grub Street, near Moorfields (now Milton Street), was in 17th and 18th cents a haunt of booksellers' hacks and mean writers 1 (coll) a Literary hacks; b mean, catchpenny publications 2 (attrib) Connected with, typical of, resembling, mean scribblers or their writings grudge (I), vb intrans & trans [1 gruj, 2 grádž] M E gruechen, grugge, 'murmur, grudge', Scots dial grutch, fr O Fr groucier, groucher, also grousser (see grouse (II)), Mod Fr gruger, 'murmur, repine', of doubtful origin 1 intrans (now rare or obs) To murmur, complain, show discontent, ill-will, or envy 'They will grudge if they be not satisfied' (Ps lx, Coverdale), 'Grudge not one against another' (N T, A V) 2 trans (with indirect object of person) a To show ill-will or envy on account of, resent, be reluctant, through ill-will, stanginess &c, to give or allow to grudge a person the very food he eats, b to envy a person some possession or enjoyment, and feel annoyance at it I grudge such a stupid fellow his fine house and pictures, also followed by to one can grudge no success to such a worthy man grudge (II), n, fr prec Occasion, cause, pretext, for ill will, resentment or envy, real or imagined grievance, feeling of ill will, envy, spite Phrs to bear a grudge against, to cherish, harbour, a grievance or angry feeling against, to owe a person a grudge, to feel that one has adequate reason to be annoyed with a person grudging, adj [1 grujing, 2 grádžing], fr Pres Part of grudge (I) a (of persons) (i) Niggardly, stingy, (ii) ungenerous, b (of feelings, actions, conduct) arising from, be tokening, envious ill-nature, owning reluctance and lack of generosity, ungracious a grudging acknowledgement, praise, expression of gratitude &c grudgingly, adv Prec & -ly In a grudging manner, without generosity, stungly gruel (I), n [1 gróbel, 2 gróbi] O F (cp Mod Fr grau), fr L Lat grütellum, dimin of L Lat grütum, 'meal', fr a Gmc word cogn w O E grüt, 'meal' See grout (II) Thin, watery porridge made of oatmeal or other meal, boiled in water or milk, slang Phrs have, get, take, one's gruel, (i) be severely punished, (ii) be killed, to give a man his gruel, punish severely, kill (Probably from use of gruel by invalids) gruel (II), vb trans, fr prec (slang) a To punish severely, submit to harsh, rigorous treatment, b (rarely) kill gruelling (I), adj [1 gróbeling, 2 gróbiing], fr Pres Part of prec (slang) Severe, exhausting a gruelling race gruelling (II), vbl n (slang) Punishment, severe handling gruesome, adj [1 grósum, 2 grósum], fr M E grúsen, cp obs or dial Engl grue, 'to shudder, shiver', & -some Cp M L G, M H G grúsen, Germ. grúsen, O Swed grúa, Dan grúe, 'shudder, dread' The identical cogn appears in Du gruusaam, 'terrible', Germ grausam, 'cruel', Dan grusom, 'cruel', Norw. grusam, 'frightful'. The Gmc base *grú- is prob the same as that wh occurs w an additional -i in O E gréot, grát, 'fright', also 'grains of meal', q v under grout (I) & grit, fr Aryan *ghreu (d), meaning 'to rub, wear down, pulverize', & in non-material sense, 'to terrify' Cp further O H G grúsin, 'to feel terror', M H G gruol, 'horror', Mod Germ grüel Inspiring horror and repugnance, grisly, macabre gruesomely, adv Prec & -ly In a gruesome manner gruesomeness, n. See prec & -ness Quality of being gruesome gruff, adj [1 gruf, 2 graf] Early Mod Lowland Scots gruf, 'coarse, rough' (of stouts), perh borrowed fr a L G or Scand source, cp Dn, L G, E, Fris gruf, O H G gerof, gröp, Germ grub, 'coarse, rough' (lit & fig), Swed gruf, Dan gro The O H G gerof shows that g- represents the pref O E ge-, Goth ga-, (see y-), & the stem is perh that of OE hrēof, 'rough' a (of the voice) Rough, harsh, loud and unmusical, deep and hoarse, b (of manner) abrupt, displaying angry impatience, or ill nature gruffish, adj [1 grūfɪʃ, 2 gráfɪʃ] Prec & -ish Somewhat gruff gruffly, adv [1 grūfɪ, 2 gráfɪ] gruff & -ly In a gruff manner, sternly, roughly gruffness, n [1 grufnes, 2 gráfɪnəs] gruff & -ness Quality of being gruff grumble (I), vb intrans & trans [1 grʌmbl, 2 grámbl] Picard grumeler, groumeler, Fr grommeler, 'grumble, mutter', fr a Gmc source, op OHG grummeln, LG grummeln, M Du grommelen, frequentatives (see -le) of a Gmc vb found in M Du grommen, 'to grumble, growl', grade of stem gremn*, 'to be angry', found in grum A intrans 1 To mutter or murmur angrily, make a low growling, sullen noise, of distant thunder &c, to rumble 2 a (followed by at, over, about) To complain, murmur, express dissatisfaction or discontent, sullenly or peevishly to grumble at, about, one's food, b (absolutely) don't grumble!, to be always grumbling B trans (with out) To utter, say, in tone of peevish dissatisfaction grumble (II), n, fr prec a Process of, sound made by, grumbling, rumbling &c as of thunder, b act of complaining, uttered complaint grumbler, n [1 grʌmblər, 2 grámblər] grumble (I) & -er One who grumbles grumbling, adj [1 grʌmblɪŋ, 2 grámblɪŋ] Pres Part of grumble (I) a Inclined to grumble and complain, fault-finding, dissatisfied, b (of pain &c) gnawing, dull, and incessant grumblingly, adv Prec & -ly In a grumbling manner grume, n [1 grūm, 2 grím] Obs Fr grume, 'knot, bunch, cluster', fr L Lat grūmus, 'little heap of earth', orig perh a pile scraped, or scratched, together with the bent fingers, cogn. w Gk grúps, 'curved, hook nosed', & grúps, 'griffin' (see griffin), ep further OHG krouwon, 'to scratch'

All these words express the idea of something curved, or curved, & are connected w W crum, 'bent' (med) Clot of blood, viscous fluid grummet, grommet, n [1 grʌmɪt, 2 grámɪt] O Fr gromette (16th cent), Mod Fr gourmette, 'curb, curb-chain of bridle', fr or in financed by Fr gourmer, 'to curb', prob fr grum*, 'something curved or bent', see prec., & dimin suff (naut) a Ring at end of rope made by looping and splicing one or more strands, used as rowlock &c, b metal ring in eyelet, as at edge of sail, c wad of twisted hemp &c, used for stopping steam leak grumous, grumose, adj [1 grūməs, -əs, 2 grúməs, -us] grume & -ous, -ose 1 (med.) Containing, resembling, grume, clotted 2 (bot) Clubbed, knotted grumpily, adv [1 grʌmpɪli, 2 grámɪli] grumpy & -ly (colloq) In a grumpy manner grumpiness, n [1 grʌmpɪnes, 2 grámɪpɪnes] Next word & -ness (colloq) Quality of being grumpy, surliness grumpy, adj [1 grʌmpɪ, 2 grámɪpɪ] Obs grump, 'offence, snub', & -y, op Scots grumph, n & vb, prob connected w grunt, grumble (I) (colloq) Irritable, surly, peevish, bad tempered, ill conditioned

Grundyism, n [1 grʌndɪzəm, 2 grámɪzəm], fr Mrs Grundy, a character referred to in the phr 'What will Mrs Grundy say?' which often recurs in comedy 'Speed the Plough' (1788), by Thos Morton (d 1838) a Excessively conventional or prudish standard of propriety and morals, ultra-respectability, b example of this grunt (I), vb intrans & trans [1 grʌnt, 2 gránt] OE grunnetan (once in a gloss), ME grunten, fr OE grunzan, 'grunt', & -tan, OE intens or freq suff =Goth -tan, OHG -aztan, ep OHG, Mod Germ.

grunzen, Dan grynte, Swed grymta, 'grunt', of imitative origin, ep Lat grunnire, 'grunt', also grumble (I), grumpy 1 intrans a (of animals, spec of pigs) To utter a deep, rough, nasal sound, b (of persons) to utter an inarticulate sound, resembling this, expressing irritation, annoyance, contempt, or boredom 2 trans To utter, with a grunt grunt (II), n, fr prec 1 Deep, nasal, snorting sound, made by a pig, similar noise uttered by other animal or person 2 One of a family of W Indian marine fishes that grunt, related to snappers grunter, n [1 grʌntər, 2 grántə] ME grunlar, fr grunt (I) & -er a Animal or person that grunts, esp pig, b one of several grunting fishes grunting, adj [1 grʌntɪŋ, 2 grántɪŋ], fr Pres Part of grunt (I) Uttering grunts habitually grunting cow, az, the yak gruntingly, adv Prec & -ly In a grunting manner

Gruyere, n [1 grʊɪər, 2 grújər] For Gruyere cheese, fr La Gruyere, pastoral district in canton Fribourg, Switzerland, where it was orig made Kind of whole milk cheese, made in Switzerland and E France, having a distinctive flavour and a peculiar porous texture gryphon, n Variant spelling of griffin (I) grysbok, n [1 grɪsbɒk, 2 gráɪsbɒk] Du, fr gryse, 'gray', see grisette, & boel, see buck Small greyish antelope of S Africa guacharo, n [1 gwəˈtʃɑːrə, 2 gwəˈtʃɪrə] Span, fr native name A S American night bird, allied to the night-jars, the young yield an oil, used as butter, whence the variant name oil-bird guaco, n [1 gwəˈkoʊ, 2 gwəˈkoʊ] Span A S American climbing plant, the dried leaves of which are eaten by the natives as an antidote to snake bite guaiacol, n [1 gwáɪəˈkɒl, 2 gwáɪəˈkɒl] See next word & -ol A strong smelling colourless oil, obtained from creosote or wood tar by distillation, used medicinally in cases of tuberculosis of the lungs guaiacum, n [1 gwáɪəˈkʊm, 2 gwáɪəˈkʊm] Mod. Lat guaiacum, fr Span guayaco, fr Haitian name A Wood of tropical American trees of genus Guaiacum, used as timber, lygnum vitae, b resin from one of these trees, still used in medicine, in cases of rheumatism and in tuberculosis guan, n [1 gwán, 2 gwán] Native name Large game bird of S America, allied to the curassow guanaco, n [1 gwánəˈkoʊ, 2 gwánəˈkoʊ] Span, fr Peruv guanaco Large wild llama of the Andes guano, n & vb trans [1 gwáˈnoʊ, 2 gwáˈnoʊ] Span, fr Peruv guano, 'dung', 1 n a Manure, rich in phosphates and ammonia, consisting of dung of sea-birds, found in deposits on west coast of S America and in Pacific, b artificial or natural manure with similar properties 2 vb To manure with guano guarana, n [1 gwəˈrɑːnə, 2 gwəˈrɑːnə] Native name A Brazilian climbing plant, from the dried seeds of which a tonic, astringent drink is made guarantee (I), n [1 gəˈrɑːnti, 2 gəˈrɑːnti] Formed on anal of other law terms in -ee fr guarantor, guaranty. (law) 1 Person who receives a guaranty or surety 2 One who gives a guaranty, guarantor, surety 3 Act of one who acts as guarantor, pledge, promise that certain conditions covenanted for in a transaction will be fulfilled. 4 Something given as security for this guarantee (II), vb trans, fr pres 1 a To act as guarantor, agree formally to be answerable for, protect with one's credit, give security for to guarantee a loan, a dividend of 10%, b to make oneself responsible for another's habits, for faithful performance of legal obligations by another to guarantee a man's debts, overdraft, to guarantee that a contract shall be faithfully performed, to guarantee that a debt shall be paid, c to undertake to protect, insure, indemnify, a person against certain contingencies to be guaranteed against loss 2 a To undertake something to be as stated good quality and durability are especially guaranteed, b to engage, undertake to do something, or to secure that something shall be done I will guarantee the reconstruction of your house within a year, to guarantee one's success, the company is unable to guarantee the punctual arrival of trains 3 (popular usage) To promise, undertake, to state with certainty and conviction, affirm, as certain, or extremely likely, the existence of something, occurrence of some event, performance of some action perfect satisfaction is guaranteed to our customers, to guarantee that a person will be pleased, I will guarantee that he will refuse to come after all guarantor, n [1 gəˈrɑːntər, 2 gəˈrɑːntər] Mod Lat. See next word & -or (law) Person giving a guaranty guaranty, n [1 gəˈrɑːnti, 2 gəˈrɑːnti] Older form of guarantee, A -Fr guarantie, O Fr garantie, 'thing warranted', fem of garanti, PP of garantir, fr O Fr garant, of Gmc origin See warrant, warranty (law)

1 a Written promise or contract to be responsible for failure of another to perform undertaking, as to pay debt, b promise to maintain or secure possession by, or other right of, another, c in international law, obligation undertaken by state or states to maintain specified right of another state, or to enforce terms of agreement between two parties 2 Something offered as security or pledge by a guarantor to enforce obligation guard (L), n [1 gɑːd, 2 gɑːd] O Fr garde, garde, 'watching', fr Gmc source, the same word as ward (L) 1 a Action of watching against danger or surprise, watchfulness, wariness, vigilance, caution, Phr 'to keep guard, maintain watch against danger, be alert, vigilant, b in fencing, use of bayonet, in boxing &c, specific posture, or attitude of defence to learn all the guards, Phrs on (one's) guard, watchful against attack, alert, vigilant off one's guard, unprepared for, against, danger, c (cricket) position in which bat is held to defend wicket, Phrs to give guard, indicate such position to batsman, to take guard, place bat in such position

2 Person or body of persons that keeps watch against danger, protector, defender, guardian, specif a (mil and nav) sentry, sentinel, Phrs to mount guard, assume duty of sentry, to relieve guard, take place of sentry going off duty, to stand guard, act as sentry, b (mil) escort, armed man or body of men accompanying traveller &c, guard of honour, escort appointed as complement to distinguished visitor &c, c (mil and nav) armed man or men in charge of prisoner or prisoners, d (mil) body of men, regiment, whose duty is to protect person of the Sovereign, (pl) the Guards, regiments of household troops, as Life Guards, Royal Horse Guards, Grenadier Guards &c, extended also to Dragoon Guards, e part of army on march in van or rear, thus having main duty of repelling attack advanced guard, rear guard 3 Official in charge of train or stage coach 4 Any one of various objects designed to afford protection from different kinds of accidents or to prevent loss, a part of sword hilt protecting hand, b hinged bar on carving fork to prevent the left hand from being cut if the knife should slip, c plate over trigger of fire arm, d framework of wire, or iron bars, placed in front of fire-grate to prevent burning cinders &c from flying out, e chain or cord attaching watch to dress, f cord attaching man's hat to some part of dress, g ring worn above wedding ring to prevent this from slipping off guard (II), vb trans & intrans O Fr garder, Mod Fr garder, fr a Gmc source, ep OS warden See ward (II). In some senses fr preo A trans 1 To keep watch over, take care of, keep safe, protect, defend to guard life and property, to guard one's reputation 2 In games such as chess &c, to guard a man, piece &c, prevent from being taken by placing another by it 3 To watch over (prisoner, lunatic &c), so as to prevent escape or mischief, to restrain, hold in check by watching B intrans 1 (often followed by against) To prevent by vigilance, and precautions to guard against temptation, suspicion, misunderstanding, risk of infection &c 2 (fencing) To use a guard, assume defensive posture guardant, gardant, adj [1 gárdant, 2 gárdant] Fr, Pres Part, 'looking'. See prec (her.) Looking out from the field guard boat, n Boat employed as guard, esp a naval boat used to go rounds of fleet in harbour, b boat sent round by harbour authorities to enforce regulations guard-chain, n Small chain attaching watch, brooch, or other object to dress guarded, adj [1 gárded, 2 gárded] PP of guard (1) (of mode of expression) Cautious, discreet, reticent, non committal guarded remarks, be very guarded in what you say guardedly, adv Preo & -ly In a guarded, cautious manner, esp of speech or writing guardedness, n See preo & -ness Caution, discretion, careful reticence, esp in expression of ideas, promises, hopes &c guard-house, n A Building occupied by guard, b one in which prisoners are guarded guardian, n [1 gárdian, 2 gárdian] O Fr guardien, guarden, garden, Mod Fr gardien, variant of warden 1 Protector, defender, custodian, person or other agent who has charge of and protects a person or thing specif, member of board recently abolished, administering poor law in union of parishes, also guardian of the poor 2 (law) One who has legal custody of the person or estate of an infant or of a person declared incapable of conducting his own affairs, esp custodian (jointly with mother, if living) of person or estate of an orphan, or infant whose parents are incapable of exercising guardianship Guardian by nature, natural guardian, father or mother in capacity of guardian, guardian by statute, testamentary guardian, one appointed by deed or will Guardian in seque, person, being the next in blood who cannot inherit, who is guardian for an infant of lands in seque Guardian ad litem (Lat, 'for the suit'), person appointed to act for infant in law-suit Guardian of the spirit, ghosts, temporalities, person to whom is committed spiritual jurisdiction, temporal jurisdiction and profits, of a diocese, during vacancy 3 Superior of Franciscan convent guardian angel, n Angel whose office is to watch over and protect a person, community, or place, good genius guardianship, n [1 gárdianship, 2 gárdianship] guardians & -ship Office, function, of guardian guard-rail, n A Rail for the hand, on staircase &c, to save those going up and down from falling, b any rail which affords protection, o g from moving machinery &c guard-ring, n One worn above wedding-ring, to prevent this from slipping off, keeper guard-room, n A Room occupied by guard, b room where prisoners, esp soldiers under arrest, are kept guardship, n [1 gárdship, 2 gárdship] Warship stationed in harbour or river for defence against surprise attack, for direction of naval affairs, and for reception of seamen until they join their ships guardsman, n [1 gárdzman, 2 gárdzman] Officer or man of a regiment of Guards guard-wire, n (elect) Wire fixed transversely above hvo wire to prevent broken telegraph or telephone wires from falling on to it guava, n [1 gúáwa, 2 gúáwa] fr Span guayaba, 'guava fruit', prob fr native Am name A Small tree of myrtle order, native of tropical America; b fruit of this, which has a very pungent characteristic taste, used for making jelly and preserve gubernatorial, adj [1 gúbernational, 2 gúbernational] fr Lat gubernatorial, stem of gubernator, 'steersman, ruler', & -al See governor & govern Belonging to, connected with, a governor gudgeon (I), n [1 gúgun, 2 gádzan] ME gogon, fr Fr goujon, 'gudgeon', fr Lat góbion (cm), extended form of góbion, 'gudgeon', fr Gk lobios See goby 1 Small British freshwater fish of carp family 2 (fig) Person who can be easily duped gudgeon (II), n ME gogone, fr O Fr gogon, Mod Fr goujon, 'sculptor's chisel, gudgeon, dowel' See gougo & -on, -oon 1 Pivot or journal at end of moving shaft or axle, gudgeon block, bearing on which gudgeon turns, gudgeon pin, pin joining piston-rod to connecting-rod 2 Socket or oyo in which kungo turns, socket of rudder 3 Pin fixed in two stone blocks to hold them together guilder rose, n [1 gálder róz, 2 gálder róz] Fr rose de Guelde, 'rose of Gelders', former dnohy of Gelderland, a province of Holland Small tree of honeysuckle family, Viburnum, bearing globular clusters of white flowers, snowball tree, one of several foreign species grown in gardens

Guelph, Guelf, n [1 gwelf, 2 gwelf] fr Ital Guelfo, fr Gmc Welf (a form of wolf), ancestor of the royal stock whence the English Georges were descended, family name of British sovereigns fr George I to Queen Victoria Member of mediaeval Italian political faction, from 12th to 15th cent, which supported the authority of the Popes as against that of the German Emperors, the opposed faction were the Ghibellines

Guelphic, adj [1 gwélfik, 2 gwélfik] Preo & -ic Belonging to, connected with, the Guelphs guenon, n [1 gonón, 2 gonó] Fr guenon, 'she-monkey', of unknown origin One of a genus of long-tailed African monkeys, resembling the macaque guerdon (I), n [1 gárdun, 2 gádzan] ME guerdon, fr O Fr guerdon, of hybrid origin, fr Mod Lat uiderdonum (9th cent), 'recompense' (whence also Ital guerdone), the first element of wh is fr OHG widar, 'against, back', see withers, & the second is Lat dónum, 'gift', see donation, the OHG word was uiderlón (op O E uiderlón), 'return gift, recompense', fr widar as above & lón, 'reward, gift', Common Gmo, op O E lān, Goth laun (liter) Recompense, reward guerdon (II), vb trans ME guerdonen, fr O Fr guerdoner, fr preo (liter) To recompense, reward guereza, n [1 geréza, 2 geríza] Native name A large African monkey of Abyssinia and Zanzibar, genus Colobus, with long, silky black and white hair guerilla, n See guerrilla

Guernsey, n [1 gérnzi, 2 gánzi] fr name of one of Channel Islands 1 One of a breed of cattle reared in the island Also attrib Guernsey cattle, cow &c 2 Kind of blue, knitted woollen tunic, jersey, or sweater, with hole for neck, worn by seamen and children guerrilla, also guerrilla, n [1 gorila, 2 gerila] Span guerrilla, 'little war', dimin of guerra, 'war', fr OHG uerra, 'strife', see war, & dimin suff 1 Irregular war or campaign, waged by armed bands, usually of insurgents or volunteers 2 Person conducting, or fighting in, such warfare 3 Attrib, in guerrilla band, chief, war &c guess (I), vb trans & intrans [1 ges, 2 ges] ME gessen, in sense of 'think, suppose, believe', prob fr a LG or Scand source, op MLG gissen, M Du ghissen, N Fris geze, gedze, M Dan gide, giske, gelse, Mod Dan gisse, Swed gissa, 'guess', prob derived by addition of suff w -r, fr Gmo base seen in got Cp Icel geta, 'get, guess', Dan gætte, 'guess' The spelling gu- is a survival of the Fr mode of expressing the sound [g], as distinct fr [dʒ], before c. A trans 1. To come to a conclusion, make deduction, form a judgement concerning, in a tentative way, from data, or for reasons, which seem to establish a strong probability although not sufficient to give certainty from his appearance I should guess his age at 40, I guess your weight at 10 stone. 2 To judge, form and express an opinion concerning, at a venture, without having any materials upon which to base a judgement I can only guess the reasons for his conduct, as I have no certain knowledge 3 To hit upon, or attempt to hit upon, correct solution of by a happy conjecture, without any real data to guess a riddle, I can't guess your thoughts, he guessed the right answer at once, op Chaucer, Of twenty year of age he was I gesse, Prol 'OT' 82 4 (archaic or Am) To suppose, believe, feel certain of or that I guess we shall lose the train B intrans A To hazard a conjecture, make a shot, without having any knowledge upon which to base a genuine opinion if you don't know the meaning of a word say so, don't guess, you evidently know nothing about the subject and are merely guessing, b also, guess at I can't even guess at what you mean, can form no opinion concerning guess (II), n, fr preo Conjecture, opinion formed intuitively or without adequate evidence, surmise, shot a lucky guess guess-rope, guess-warp, n See guest-rope, -warp guess-work, n Process of guessing, without adequate data, theory, view, arrived at thos guest (I), n [1 gest, 2 gest] OE (noo- W Sax), gest, 'stranger, visitor, friendly or hostile', fr gasti-w + mutation, (IV S gest) The initial sound of g is due to influence of ON gestr The normal mod form of OE g is y as in OE gicst, 'yeast', q v, for spelling gue-, op remarks under gues OS, LG, OHG, Mod Germ gast, Goth gast, oogn w O Slav gost, 'guest', & Lat hostis, 'stranger, foreigner, enemy' See further under host & hostile 1 a (i) Person, enjoying another's hospitality, at the latter's own house, or elsewhere, whether during prolonged stay, at a single meal, or at a party &c, I was his guest for three weeks, a few guests to dinner, lunch with me at the hotel as my guest, I am paying, (u) also the guest of the city, of the University &c, b fig of birds &c the swallow is a summer guest in Britain 2 Person staying in an inn, or other house of entertainment, and paying for his accommodation Phr paying guest, boarder in a private house 3 Animal, esp insect, inhabiting nest, or other abode, of ooc of another kind whose food it shares. guest on! &c guest (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo (rare or obs) a trans To entertain as a guest, b intrans, to be a guest guest-chamber, n Room set apart for use of guests, used esp in an institution, corresponding to spare room in private house guestling, n [1 géstling, 2 géstling] Prob fr guest (I) & -ling, because the representatives of the subordinate parts may have been at first invited to sit in this court as guests of the Cinque Ports (law) Term used in, and as contraction for, Phr Brotherhood and Guestling, second court of the Cinque Ports, consisting of the members of the Court of Brotherhood, together with representatives of the corporate members guest-night, n Evening when guests are entertained at dinner by a society guest-rite, n Ceremonial observance, custom, connected with entertainment of a guest guest-room, n Guest chamber guest-rope, also guess-rope, n [1 gés(t) róp, 2 gés(t) róp] Origin of first element unknown, possibly the word means 'rope to aid guest coming aboard' See guest-warp (nant) a Rope attached to ship's side for boatmen coming alongside to hold, b rope to steady boat in tow in addition to tow rope, c rope or bawser for warping ship, carried by boat to object to which it can be attached guestship, n [1 gɛstʃɪp, 2 gɛstʃɪp] guest & -ship Fact of being a guest, status of guest guest-warp, also guess-warp, n [1 gɛs(t)wɔp, 2 gɛs(t)wɔp] See guest-rope & warp (II), guess warp seems to be the more usual form (naut) Guest-rope, a and c, guess warp boom, spar projecting from ship's side with rope to secure boat guffaw, n & vb [1 gufaw, 2 gɛfɔ] Imitative, orig Scots 1 n Sudden outburst of loud, rude laughter, noisy, coarse, vulgar laugh, horse laugh 2 vb To utter such a laugh guggle, vb intrans [1 gʊgl, 2 gɛgl] Imitative, op gurgle & gargle To make a noise like that of water flowing from a bottle, to gurgle gulk, n [1 gʊl, 2 gʊl] Germ, lit 'fermentation', different grade fr stem of gōren, OHG jezen, 'to ferment', cp yeast (manner) Earthy deposit, white, red, or yellow, produced in crevices by action of water guidable, adj [1 gɪdəbl, 2 gəɪdəbl] guide (I) & -able Amenable to guidance, capable of being guided guidage, n [1 gɪdʒ, 2 gəɪdʒ] Fr, 'guiding' See guide & -age (law, obs or hist) Fee paid for safe conduct guidance, n [1 gɪdəns, 2 gəɪdəns] guide (I) & -ance A act of guiding, directing, conducting, b process of being guided, direction, instruction guide (I), vb trans [1 gɪd, 2 gɔɪd] M E giden, fr O Fr guider, for older guier (M E guen), assimilated to corresponding O Provenç guidar, 'to guide', cp Ital guidare, fr a W Gmc source, cp OS, OE widan, 'take heed to, guard, impnte', OHG, wizan, 'impute, determine', Mod Germ weisen, 'show, point out', Goth weitan, 'see', cp also OE wisan, 'guide, show the way to', fr same base, fr Gmc base wit*, strong grade of wīt*, 'know' See wise, wite, wit, guy (rope) 1 (action of persons or animate creatures) a To accompany (a person) and show way to a place the blind man was guided by his dog, he guided me across the fields, through the forest, to the house, b to assist, direct, by bodily movements and support to guide the steps of, to guide a person's hand, c to give intellectual or spiritual instruction and help to, direct studies of to guide a person through the intricacies of the Greek syntax 2 To control, direct, rule, lead, act as governor of to guide the state 3 (action of thought, feelings, and other non material things) To control, influence, actuate, o person or his conduct, act as motive or inducement to to be guided by one's sense of duty, by one's passions, by one's love for truth 4 (action of inanimate things) To direct, to indicate, point out, serve as an indication of, direction, show the road the lights in the harbour guided the ship to port guide (II), n M E gide, fr O Fr guide, orig fem, fr older guie, assimilated to O Provenç & Ital guida, fr prec 1 a Person accompanying another to show way to, or position of, a place or thing, specif, one hired, to show way to and assist a traveller, on mountains, through strange country &c, or to conduct visitors round o town, museum &c, b (mil, pl) body of troops trained for reconnoitring Corps of Guides, mobile force in Indian army, for frontier service, c Girl Guide, q v 2 a Person who guides, directs, helps, (another) in intellectual and spiritual matters 'Thou wert my guide, philosopher, and friend' (Pope), one's guide in religion &c, b one whose example is followed as o model of conduct &c I early took my father as my exemplar and guide through life 3 A thing which guides, a something which indicates the way to, direction, position of, a thing, place &c, by an impression made on the senses the lights of the camp and the distant shouts of men were my guides, b book giving instructions, explanations, practical directions a guide to English studies, guide to poultry keeping, c a guide book, d a principle, belief, ideal, feeling &c which influences conduct, action, or thought instinct is not always a safe guide, whim and prejudice are poor guides 4 One of various objects of technical utility, specif, e g a (surg) device for guiding a probe, b one of several small rings on a fishing rod through which the line passes &c guide-book, n Book containing directions for visiting a country, town, district &c, with information regarding hotels, routes, objects of note &c, similar book for visitors to a museum, building &c guideless, adj [1 gɪdlɪs, 2 gəɪdlɪs] guide (II) & -less Without a guide or guidance guide-post, n guide (I) & post (I) Post, generally at cross roads, bearing board indicating direction to places guide-rail, n (riys) Additional rail to prevent wheels from leaving main rails guide-rope, n Small rope to steady and direct swinging load, guy guideway, n [1 gɪdwɛ, 2 gəɪdwɛ] (mech) Groove or other track in which a moving part travels guiding, adj & n [1 gɪdɪŋ, 2 gəɪdɪŋ] a adj, fr Pres Part of guide (I), acting as o guide a guiding star, light, principle &c, b n, fr guide (I) & -ing Guidance gudon, n [1 gɪdɒn, 2 gɪdɔ] Fr, perh fr Ital guidone, augmentative of guida See guide & -oon (mil) a Pennant or small flag carried by cavalry regiments, b bearer of such pennant guld, also gild, n [1 gɪld, 2 gɪld] OE g(y)eld, M E zilde, guide, 'payment', also 'guild, fraternity' (from contributions of members), (ge)gield, 'guld', fr gieldan, 'pay' See yield This present form of the word, esp the initial g, is prob due to Scand influence, op ON gild, 'payment', & Mod Dan gilde w Engl sense, A Fr guide, fr Low Lat gilda, a loan word fr Gmc, may have helped Yield preserves the orig Engl sound initially The spelling guld first occurs about 1600 An association with a common fund and aim, chiefly, a mediaeval, religious, charitable, technical, commercial, or administrative association, b by a revival of the word, a modern association with specific aim a guild of bank clerks guilder, n [1 gɪldə, 2 gɪldə] Corrupt of Du guilder, pronounced without the -n See guilder guilder Dutch or German coin guldhall, n [1 gɪldhɔl, 2 gɪldhɔl] a Hall used for meetings of mediaeval guild, b town hall, city hall, esp where the corporation was o guild, specif (cap) the hall of the Corporation of the City of London guild merchant, n The second word is here used adjectivally, following the Fr order, A-Fr guilde merchant, Low Lat gilda mercatoria (hist) a General association of merchants in a borough, possessing trade monopoly, b liberty or privilege granted to such merchants guildry, n [1 gɪldrɪ, 2 gɪldrɪ] guild & -ry (hist) In Scotland, association of merchants who were freemen of a royal burgh guild socialism, n Form of socialism aiming at modified revival of guild system with national guild council guild socialist, n Adherent of guild socialism gule, n [1 gɪl, 2 gɪl] M E gile, fr O Fr guile, fr o Gmc source See wile Wile, deceit, craftiness guleful, adj [1 gɪlfʊl, 2 gɪlfɔl] gule & -ful Full of gule gulefully, adv Prec & -ly In a guleful manner, with gule gulefulness n See prec & -ness Quality of being guleful guleless, adj [1 gɪles, 2 gɪllɪs] gule & -less Without gule gulelessly, adv Prec & -ly In a guleless manner, innocently gulelessness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being guleless, innocence guilemot, n [1 gɪlmɒt, 2 gɪlmɒt] Fr, dimin of the name Guillaume, 'William', cp the Engl surname Wilmot, also willock, Sussex name of guilemot The Fr name was possibly suggested by Bret guellan, gull (I) One of several web footed sea birds of the auk family, but with narrow bills guilloche, n [1 gɪləʃ, 2 gɪləʃ] Fr guilloche, earlier guilochis, name of a tool, perh fr name of early designer, Guillot (archt) Decorative pattern, used as border, consisting of two or more interlaced waving bands with circular spaces between them guillotine (I), n [1 gɪlɒtɪn, 2 gɪlɒtɪn] Fr, after the physician J I Guillotin (1738-1814), who advocated its adoption in France, 1789 1 Machine for beheading persons, consisting of o weighted axe head falling between two grooved posts connected by cross bar at top, esp improved form adopted in France in 1792 2 A Machine for shearing off edges of sheets of book, b surgical instrument for excision of uvula &c 3 (colloq) Resolution of House of Commons fixing times for votes on bill the guillotine fell of 11 P M and the House divided guillotine (II), vb trans Fr guillotiner, fr prec 1 To behead with guillotine, b to cut or out off with guillotine (I), 2, o (colloq) to expedite passage of (bill) by guillotine (I), 3 guilt, n [1 gɪlt, 2 gɪlt] Found nowhere but in Engl, OE gyht, 'guilt, sin, crime, debt, fine, forfeiture', M E guilt, gult, 'guilt, debt', fr Gmc type gultiz*, the origin of wh is quite uncertain Possibly connected w OE gieldar, 'to pay', q v under yield & guld 1 a Fact of having offended, state of responsible person who has knowingly and wilfully committed an offence, crime, sin, against moral, human, or divine law, culpability, b (theol) sin, opposed to innocence 2 (law) Wilful violation by responsible person of criminal law, criminality guiltily, adv [1 gɪltɪli, 2 gɪltɪli] guilty & -ly In a guilty manner, as though guilty guiltiness, n [1 gɪltɪnes, 2 gɪltɪnes] guilty & -ness State of being guilty, guilt guiltless, adj [1 gɪltɪs, 2 gɪltɪs] guilt & -less a Without guilt, innocent, b (colloq) not responsible for, incapable, innocent, of guiltless of writing poems, of reading Greek guiltlessly, adv Prec & -ly In a guiltless manner, innocently guiltlessness, n See prec & -ness State of being guiltless, innocence guilty, adj [1 gɪltɪ, 2 gɪltɪ] OE gyhtig, 'guilty, liable', M E guilt, gult, fr guilt & -y 1 a Having incurred guilt, having committed a crime or sin guilty of murder, b (of lesser faults than are implied by guilt), culpable, deserving blame, offending guilty of a blunder, of bad taste, of a breach of good manners 2 a Pertaining to, involving, guilt guilty knowledge, a guilty secret, b declaring, betraying guilt a guilty conscience, look, blush 3 (obs) Liable (to), deserving (of penalty) guilty of death gump, n See gump guinea, n [1 gɪni, 2 gɪni] fr Port Guiné, country in W Africa a Former English gold coin, at first made of gold from Guinea, nominally worth 20s to 21s, b monetary unit of 21s used in reckoning professional fees, prices of goods &c guinea-corn, n Guinea (country) & corn. a Durra Indian millet, b pearl millet guinea-fowl, n Guinea (country) & fowl. Gallinaceous African bird, also called 'gooney', of grey colour speckled with white, also all white, domesticated in Europe &c for its flesh and eggs, also any of several related birds guinea grains, n, pl. Seeds of Anomum, guinea pepper, grains of Paradise, used in veterinary medicine guinea grass, n A tall grass of W Africa and the W Indies used for fodder guinea-hen, n Female guinea fowl.

guinea pepper, n Guinea (country), in c error for Guiana a Aromatic fruit of Xylopium, an African tree, the tree, b guinea grains; c cayenne pepper guinea-pig, n Of uncertain origin, perb for Guinea pig, or cony & pig (formerly called pig cony) 1 Small particoloured domesticated rodent, variety of S American cavy, somewhat like pig in shape 2 (colloq, contempt) Person who receives guinea fees for small services, esp (i) company director for attending board meetings, or (ii) a clergyman taking temporary duty in another parish than his own who receives a guinea for each service he conducts guinea-worm, n Worm, of tropical Africa &c, parasitic in tissues of man and horse, esp in legs and feet, causing sores gumpure, n [1 gēpūr, 2 gippur] Fr, fr guiper, 'to cover (cord) with alk' See whip & -ure One of several kinds of lace, esp with large pattern and no mesh ground, lace made with gump, gimp guise, n [1 giz, 2 gauz] ME, fr Fr, fr O H G wise, Mod Germ weise, 'manner, way, mode' See wise (II) & cp disguise 1 a (arabac) Manner, customary behaviour, fashion he behaved after the natural guise of such people, b style of dress or equipment, garb, get-up a foreigner in strange guise appeared before us 2 Assumed dress or appearance, as in masquerade, disguise, also fig under the guise of friendship &c, under pretences of gusser, n [1 gizer, 2 garze] guise (I) & -er a (provino) Mummer, actor in a mummery, b (colloq) an old gusser, old person, bloke &c, also geezer guitar, n [1 gītār, 2 gītā] Span guitarra (whence also Fr guitare), fr Lat cithara See cithern Six-stringed lute with fretted finger-board guitarist, n [1 gītārist, 2 gītārist] Prec & -ist Player on guitar gulch, n [1 gulsh, 2 galz] Prob fr obs or dial Engl gulch, 'to swallow greedily', ME gulchen, borrowed fr some continental Gmo tongue, op, Germ dial gullen, gluchen, Swed dial gölka, prob imitative Cp gulp (Am, esp in gold-mining districts) Deep ravine or torrent-bed gulden, n [1 gölden, 2 gālden] Du, Germ gulden, fr M.H.G guldin, 'made of gold' See golden & cp gulder a (hist) Silver coin (orig gold) and money of account, formerly issued by Austria and other German states, florin, hence, b silver coin and money of account of Netherlands, gulder, worth about 1s 8d gules, n & adj [1 gūlz, 2 gūlz] ME goules, fr O. Fr goules, goules, goules (Mod Fr gueules), cp L Lat gulae, 'gules', of uncertain origin, perb fr Lat gulae, 'jaws' Cp gullet (her) a n The colour red, b adj, red gulf (I), n [1 gulz, 2 galz] ME goulf, fr O. Fr goulf, fr Provenc golfo, fr Late Gk kolphos for Gk kolp os, 'bosom, hollow, bay' If this is fr Aryan k^holp-*, then cp O E hwælf, 'a vault, hollow', if fr k^holw-*, then cp O E healh, 'nook, corner, retired place, bay', & see haugh 1 Large inlet of sea or lake into land, usually larger than bay, or running more deeply into land in proportion to width 2 Deep hollow, gap, or breach, (esp poet) abyss, ocean depth, (fig) impassable boundary or barrier, in allusion to Luke xvi 26 'Between us and you there is a great gulf fixed' 3 A Whirlpool, eddy that swallows things down 'It may be that the gulfs will wash us down' (Tennyson, 'Ulysses'), also b (fig) specif (univ colloq) at Oxford and Cambridge, place in list, hence position, of candidates for honours who fail to attain them, but receive a pass degree, the lowest distinction conferred by the University to get a gulf gulf (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 To suck down into abyss or deep water, swallow up, engulf 2 (univ colloq) To place (candidate for honours) in a gulf, award ordinary degree to

Gulf Stream, n Warm ocean current flowing N E from Gulf of Mexico to European coast

Gulf-weed, n Sea-weed bearing air-bladders, found in Gulf Stream &c, sargasso gully, adj [1 gulz, 2 galz] gulf (I) & -y Full of whirlpools gull (I), n [1 gul, 2 gal] Corn gullan, gullan, W. guylan (ie gūylan), Bret guelan, (whence Fr goeland), O Ir foilenn, Gael, Ir faileann, fr Celt type woilenn-*, prob 'wailer' Member of group of web footed, gregarious, fish-eating sea-birds, powerful fliers, usually white, but grey or black in parts, sea-mew gull (II), n In sense 1, prob ON gul r, yellow, whence perh sense 2 (op pygon), op also M Du gulle, 'great wench without wit' (Hexham), LG gul, E Fris gul, 'soft, mild, good-natured' Possibly, however, source of 2 is obs vb gull, 'to stuff, oram with food', fr O Fr gouile, gullet, in wh. case 2 is fr gull (III) 1 (oba or dial) Unfledged bird, nestling 'that ungentle gull, the cuckoo's bird' (Shakespeare, '1 Henry IV') 2 Person easily tricked or befooled, dupe gull (III), vb trans See preo To dupe, trick, swindle gull-catcher, n (obs) Person who makes dupes of others (Shakespeare, 'Twelfth Night') gullet, n [1 gulet, 2 galz] ME gole, fr O Fr goulet, dimin of gole, goule (Mod Fr goulet), 'throat', fr Lat gula, cogn w O E ceole, 'throat', O H G lela, Mod Germ lehle, 'throat', fr same base comes Lat glūtine, 'to swallow' (see glutton) See also gully 1 Passage from mouth to stomach, oesophagus, throat 2 (fig) Water-channel, gully gullibility, n [1 gūbbiliti, 2 galibiliti] gullible & -ity (colloq) Capacity for being gulled gullible, adj [1 gūbl, 2 galbl] gull (III) & -ible (colloq) Capable of being gulled, easily fooled, or duped, credulous gully (I), n [1 gul, 2 gal] Either directly fr Fr goulet, 'bottle neck, funnel like opening', see gullet, or corrupt of that word 1 A small ravine or hollow water course, esp one ordinarily dry, b artificial channel for water, gutter, drain 2 Hollow rail for trams, tram-plat gully (II), vb trans, fr preo To form gully or gulches in, to furrow by running water gully-drain, n Drain conveying water from gully or gutter to sewer gully-hole, n Shaft in street gutter covered with grating, to carry off surface drainage gully-trap, n Trap in gully hole gulosity, n [1 gūlosti, 2 gūlosti], fr L Lat glulositas (-em), fr glulosus, 'glutinous', fr gula, 'throat' See gullet (rare) Gluttony, voracity gulp (I), vb trans & intrans [1 gulp, 2 galp] ME gulpen, gloppen, glubben, of continental Gmc origin, cp M Du golpen, Du, E Fris gulpen, 'swallow eagerly', also Swed dial glupa, Norw glupa (both strong vbs), 'swallow', prob of imitative origin 1 trans (usually gulp down) a To swallow hastily, noisily, or by mouthfuls, esp liquid, b to repress, choke back, as if by action of swallowing to gulp down sobs, emotion, c (fig) to listen to, accept (a statement) with eagerness or credulity a public always eager to gulp down a sensational story 2 intrans To swallow with a convulsive movement or spasm gulp (II), n, fr preo a Action of gulping or swallowing hastily, Phr (to swallow) at one gulp, with a single act of swallowing, b convulsive movement or noise made while swallowing, c large mouthful, esp of drink gulgungly, adv [1 gūlpung, 2 galpung], fr Pres Part of gulp (II) & -ly In a gulping manner, with gulps gulpy, adj [1 gulpi, 2 galpi] gulp (II) & -y Pertaining to, resembling, a gulp gulpy sobs gum (I), n [1 gum, 2 gam] O E gōma, 'palate', pl gōman, 'jaws', ME gōme, gūme, O H G guomo, gawmo &c, Mod Germ gawmen, ON gōmr, all fr Aryan base g^hheu-* &c, 'to gape, yawn', whence also Gk lhaunos, 'gaping', lhemē, 'a gaping', & lhaos, 'empty space', fr g^hhous* See chaos (usually pl.) Firm tissues in upper and lower jaws in which the teeth are set gum (II), n ME gumme, gomme, fr Fr gomme, fr Lat gummi, fr Gk lōmni, prob fr Egypt Lami 1 a One of several sticky, viscid substances, usually exuding from trees or shrubs, solidifying in air, but soluble in water, b preparation of such substance for use as adhesive &c 2 (in wider sense) Viscid, vegetable substance, including mucilages, resins &c - chewing gum, made from chicle and flavoured 3 A gum tree, esp eucalyptus a plantation of blue gums gum (III), vb trans & intrans, fr preo Cp Fr gommer 1 trans To apply gum to surface of, to shock, fasten, or stiffen with gum to gum down, in, together, up 2 intrans (of trees) To exude gum, specif, of fruit trees of plum species, to produce gum in excess, a sign of unhealthy condition gum arabic, n gum (II) & Arabic, after Lat gummi Arabicum Fine kind of gum produced by acacia gumbo, gombo, n [1 gumbō, 2 gāmbou], fr kingombo, native name a A malvaceous tropical herb, also known as okra, of Africa and the W Indies, but cultivated elsewhere for its mucilaginous pods used for thickening soups &c, b soup thickened with these pods gumboil, n [1 gumboil, 2 gamboll] gum (I) & -boil (I) Boil or small abscess on the gums gumdigger, n [1 gūmdiger, 2 gāmdige] gum (III) & digger. (in New Zealand) Person who digs for fossil kaun gum gum-dragon, n Corrupt of gum tragacanth Gum obtained from Asiatic conifers, used medicinally, also called tragacanth.

gum-drop, n gum (III) & drop (II) Sweetmeat in form of drop, with gummy basis gum-elastic, n After Mod Lat gummi elastici cum Indian rubber, caoutchouc gum-juniper, n The sandrac tree gumma, n [1 gūma, 2 gamē], pl gummas, gummata [1 gumata, 2 gamōtē] Mod Lat, fr Lat gummi, gum (II), fr nature of contents (pathol) Soft, syphilitic tumour gummatous, adj [1 gumatus, 2 gāmōtēs] Gummat, stem of Mod Lat gumma, see preo & -ous Pertaining to, resembling, a gumma gummiiferous, adj [1 gumiferus, 2 gamiferēs] Lat gummi, gum (II), & -iferous Producing gum gummy, n [1 gūmmas, 2 gāmōtis] gummy & -ness State of being gummy gumming, n [1 guming, 2 gamēg] gum (III) & -ing 1 Production of gum, specif, as morbid exudation from cherry and plum trees 2 Application of gum to surface, as in lithography gummons, adj [1 gumus, 2 gamēs] Lat gummos (us), whence also Fr gommeux gum (II) & -ous 1 Pertaining to, consisting of, resembling, gum; gummy 2 (pathol) Pertaining to a gumma.

gummy, adj [1 gūmi, 2 gami] gum (II) & -y. 1 Pertaining to gum, of viscid or sticky consistency, like gum 2 Covered or smeared with gum gumption, n [1 gūmpshun, 2 gāmpshun] Orig Scots, of uncertain origin, possibly fr ON gaur r, gaur, care, heed', ME gōme, cogn w O E gōme, WS gieme, 'care, heed', & gieman &c, 'to take care', OS gōma, O H G gawma, gawma, Gohk gawman &c, 'to care for, heed', fr ga-u-man*, the second syll of wh is perh cogn w Lat ōmen (see omen) Suff -tion prob by facetious assimilation to words of Lat origin (colloq) Practical ability making for success, shrewdness in conduct of affairs, common sense, intelligence gum-rash, n gum (I) & rash (II) Rash on gums of teething child, red gum.

gum-resin, n. gum (II) & resin Natural mixture of a gum and a resin, often exuding together gum tragacanth, n. gum (II) & tragacanth. Tragacanth gum tree, n. One of several gum producing trees of N America and Australia, esp the eucalyptus, called also the blue gum Phr (colloq) (a 'possum) up a gum tree, driven to bay, cornered, in a fix gunwood, n. [1 gunwood, 2 gámwud] Wood of the gum tree or eucalyptus gun (I), n. [1 gun, 2 gán] M.E. gonnylde (gonnylde gnoste, 'spark of gun', before 1327), later gonne (Chaucer), prob respectively the woman's name Gunnild & its shortened form Gunne, the former (Dominus Gunnilda) being applied to a war engine in 1330-31. Cp such names as Mons Meg, Long Tom, Big Bertha & Gunnild, fr O.N. Gunnhildr, fr gunn 'war', & hild 'battle', but the orig meaning of the name has nothing to do w the above use 1 a (i) Metal tube from which missiles are propelled, usually by discharge of explosive in closed end, any kind of fire arm, often defined by word prefixed, as machinégun, Levin gun, elephant gun, sporting gun, also (ii) similar instrument acting without combustion as air gun, spring gun, pop gun, Phrs great gun, (i) (obs) cannon, (ii) (fig, colloq) eminent person, to blow great guns, (nant) to blow a gale, b (mil & nav) cannon, piece of ordnance, often excluding howitzers and mortars, Phrs gun of position, heavy field gun, to stand, stick, to one's guns, (fig) main ten one's point of view, opinions, against attack, son of a gun, (nant, colloq) worthless, despicable fellow, as sure as a gun, without doubt, certainly, c (in popular use) any fire arm carried in the hand, except, though colloquially often including, pistol or revolver, specif, a sporting gun, as dist from rifle 2 Discharge of cannon as salute or signal a salute of seven guns, the evening gun 3 Person using a gun, esp considered as a member of a shooting party gun (II), vi intrans, fr preo To use a gun, to go shooting gun-barrel, n. gun (I) & barrel. Barrel or tube of gun gunboat, n. [1 gánbót, 2 ganbout] gun (I) & boat (I) Small warship, a carrying one or more heavy guns, b of shallow draught, adapted for service on rivers gun captain, n. (nav) Petty officer commanding crew of gun gun-carriage, n. Apparatus with wheels upon which a cannon is mounted and on which it is transported gun-case, n. Case to contain sporting gun.

gun-cotton, n. gun (I) & cotton (I) High explosive made by soaking cotton or cellulose in nitro and sulphuric acids gun deck, n. (nav) Deck carrying guns, specif, deck next below main deck, formerly, any of several decks below spar deck.

gun-fire, n. 1 Discharge of gun or guns, specif (mil & nav) use of fire arms as distinct from other tactics 2 Time when morning or evening gun is fired gun-flint, n. Shaped flint striking spark to ignite charge in old flintlock guns gun-harpoon, n. Harpoon fired from gun, in whale fishing gun-house, n. Structure covering gun and gunners to protect them from enemy fire gun-lock, n. gun (I) & lock (II) Mechanical appliance, consisting of trigger, hammer &c, by which gun is fired gunman n. [1 gunman, 2 gánmən] 1 Man employed in making guns 2 Man armed with gun or revolver, esp armed supporter of a faction, armed bandit gun metal n. a Alloy of copper and tin or zinc, formerly used for making cannon, b metal used for fancy goods, treated to resemble true gun metal.

gunnage, n. [1 gunj, 2 gánndž] gun (I) & -age Number of guns carried by warship gunned, adj [1 gund, 2 gand] gun (I) & -ed Provided with cannon: a ship heavily gunned, usually in combination, as over, under gunned gunnel (I), n. [1 gunl, 2 gánl] Origin unclear Kind of blenny inhabiting N Atlantic gunnel (II), n. See gunwale gunner, n. [1 guner, 2 gane] gun (I) & -er 1 Man who works a gun; specif a (mil) artilleryman, officer or private, b (nav) warrant officer in charge of ordnance, Phr to kiss, marry, the gunner's daughter, (nant, obs) to be tied to a gun and flogged 2 Person carrying sporting gun to shoot animals 3 Horse trained in the artillery gunner's mate, n. Petty officer assisting gunner gunnery, n. [1 gúner, 2 gánari] gun (I) & -ory Theory and practice of using cannon, art of artillery gunnery-ship, n. gunnery & ship (I) Naval vessel on which gunnery is taught gunning, n. [1 gánung, 2 gánig] gun (II) & -ing Use of a gun, shooting gunny, n. [1 gám, 2 gáni] Hind & Marathi góni, 'sack, eackling', fr Sert góni, 'sack' Kind of coarse sacking of jute, often attrih, as gunny bag, cloth, etc gun-pit, n. 1 (mil) Excavation to contain gun and crew as protection against enemy fire 2 Pit in which cannon is cast or welded together gun-port, n. Port hole in ship's side through which the muzzle of a cannon protrudes gunpowder, n. [1 gúnpóder, 2 gánpaude] gun (I) & powder (I) Granulated mechanical mixture of pulverized saltpetre, charcoal, and sulphur, forming explosive used for fire arms, blasting &c Gunpowder Plot, Papist plot to blow up James I and his Parliament on Nov 5th, 1605 gunpowder tea, n. So called from its appearance Superior kind of green tea, consisting of leaves separately rolled into pellets gun-room, n. gun (I) & room a Room in private house in which guns and sporting tackle are kept, b (nav) room on lower deck of warship, formerly for use of gunner, now junior officers' mess room gun-runner, n. Person engaged in gun running gun-running, n. gun (I) & running Illicit introduction of fire arms into a district, esp for use of disaffected inhabitants gunshot, n. [1 gunshot, 2 gánjot] gun (I) & shot (III) 1 A firing of gun, b (attrih) caused by gunshot gunshot wounds 2 Range of gun out of gunshot gunshy, adj [1 gunshí, 2 gánjai] gun (I) & shy (I) Liable to fright at firing of gun, esp of a sporting dog or a horse gunsmith, n. [1 gúnsmith, 2 gánsmip] Person who makes and repairs small arms gun-stock, n. gun (I) & stock (I) Wooden shaped block or support into which barrel of gun is fitted.

gun-stone, n. (obs) Round stone formerly used as cannon ball gun-tackle, n. gun (I) & tackle (I) (obs) Tackle by which ship's guns were formerly attached to ports gunter, n. [1 guiter, 2 gánta] After Ed mund Gunter, English mathematician (1581-1626), inventor of the scale 1 Two foot rule marked with scales of chords, logarithms &c, used in navigation and surveying, also called Gunter's scale, Phr according to Gunter (Am) precisely, correctly 2 (nant) Topmast sliding up and down lower mast in rings (from resemblance to 1), sail carried by such topmast, (also attrih) gunter rig &c gunwale, n. [1 gunl, 2 gánl] gun (I) & wale, 'strake' (nant) a In decked ship, b in open boat, course of timber running round sides on top of uppermost, strake, Phrs gunwale down, gunwale to, of vessel, listing, so that gunwale is nearly on level with water, gunwale under, with gunwale submerged.

gurge, n. [1 gérj, 2 gídž] Lat. gurgus, q.v. under gurgle (obs or rare) Whirlpool (Milton) gurgitation, n. [1 gérjtitshun; 2 gídžitshən] Lat gurgitāt, PP stem of gurgilāre, 'to surge', fr gurgit, stem of gurgus, 'whirlpool', op O H G kwirka, 'neck, throat, crop', Sort gargara, see gorge, & -ion Surging, whirling, or eddying of liquid, as when boiling gurgle (I), vi intrans [1 gárgl, 2 gágł] Prob fr O Fr gorguler or obs Ital gorgolare, Mod Ital gorgogliare, fr Lat gurgulio, 'gullet', connected w Lat gurgus, 'whirlpool', cogn w O H G querechela, Lith gurlis, Russ górla, 'throat' Cp also Gorm gurgln, 'to gurgle, warble, gurgle' (=Du gorgelen), fr O H G gurgula, 'throat', fr Lat gurgulio Cp gorgo, gurgle, gargoyles a (of liquids &c) To make a bubbling, purling, or rippling sound, as of water flowing from bottle or over stones, b (of persons) to make bubbling sound in throat, as infant, when pleased.

gurgle (II), n. fr preo Gurgling sound Gurkha, Goorkha, n. [1 gúrkha, 2 guéka] Name of province in Nepal A military race, of mixed Aryan Mongol blood, settled in Nepal, enlisted in specific (Gurkha) regiments in the British Indian Army gurnard, n. [1 gérnard, 2 gáned] O Fr gornard, gornart (op Mod Fr groggnard, 'grumbler'), prob fr Proveng gourgna, 'to grunt' (whence gournau, 'gurnard'), metaphorical form of grougna=Fr grogner, fr Lat grunnire, 'to grunt', & -ard The fish grunts when taken from water Cp grunt One of a family, Triglidae, of small marine fishes with large head, plates on face, and six pectoral feelers gurnet, n. [1 gér-net, 2 gánit] As preo, w suff -et Variant of gurnard gurry, n. [1 gúr, 2 gári] Hind garhi (Anglo Ind) Small fort gurn, n. [1 gúroo, 2 gúrú] Hind. guru, fr Sort guru, 'heavy, venerable, a teacher' See grave (IV) Indian religious teacher gush (I), vi intrans [1 gush, 2 gash] M.E. guschen, gosshe, of uncertain origin, either imitative, or prob. related to E Fris, L G gúsen, M Dn guyzen, O N gusa, fr strong vi gosa, 'to gush', perh fr Gmc base gus* sk, op Dn gúdeen, 'to gush', extended fr gwi*-, weak grade of geu*-, 'pour' Cp geyser, gut 1 a To stream, burst, spring, forth, flow, abundantly and vehemently, as from an orifice, esp of water, blood, and other liquids, b (fig, of words or other sounds) to be uttered in quick succession, copiously or impulsively 2 a Gush with, to omit an abundant stream of liquid, to spout fountains gushed with wine, b (fig, of persons) to talk effusively or with sentimental extravagance, to exhibit on this manner in a silly, extravagant, or affected manner, also gush over, to talk effusively about gush (II), n. fr preo 1 Action of gushing, a vehement flow or jet of liquid from orifice, sudden outburst, as from well or pipe, b (fig) torrent of words or other sounds 2 (fig, abstract) Unrestrained, effusive sentimentality, esp in language, affected display of emotion gusher, n. [1 gusher, 2 gáje] gush (I) & -er Thing or person that gushes, specif a petroleum well that emits jet of oil, b silly, effusive, emotional person.

gushing, adj [1 gúshing, 2 gájtj], fr Pres Part of gush (I) a Pouring out in violent, profuse flow, b emitting a vehement flow of liquid, c (fig) exhibiting extravagant or affected emotion, adduced to gush a gushing person, letter, style gushingly, adv Pres. & -ly In a gushing manner gushy, adj [1 gushr; 2 gáfi] gush (II) & -y Gushing, (fig) adduced to gush gusset (I), n. [1 guet, 2 gást] M.E. guschet, fr O Fr goussel, 'gusset', dimm (see -et) of gousse, 'pod, husk, nut shell', Ital guscia, of unknown origin 1 (hist) Piece of chain-mail inserted in joint of armour, at armpit 2 a Piece of cloth of triangular, diamond, or other shape inserted in garment to enlarge or strengthen part, b piece of leather similarly inserted in glove, c triangular elastic piece in side of shoe or boot 3 Iron brace for strengthening corner of structure 4 (her) Triangular abatement on escutcheon, modification of a pall gusset (II), vb trans, fr preo To furnish with a gusset or gussets gust (I), n [1 gust, 2 gast] O N gust r, 'gust, blast', fr stem gus-, wk grade of giosa, 'to gush', & -t a Sudden, brief blast of wind, flaw, (fig) of other physical things, as fire, sound, b (fig) brief outburst of intense anger or other passion a gust of rage, desire &c gust (II), n Lat gustus, 'tasting, taste', op gustare, 'to taste, enjoy', oogn w. Sort gustus, 'love token, favour', gusale, 'enjoy', Goth kustus, 'taste', Germ kosten, 'to taste, try', fr Aryan base g'eus*, 'to taste, pick out, choose', whence also Goth kusan, O E cēosan See choose a Relish, gusto, b (obs or archaic) taste, flavour, aesthetic taste gustation, n [1 gustāshun, 2 gastet[ən]] Lat gustātiō(-em), vbl n fr gustare, 'to taste', & -iōn See gust (II) & -ation Action, faculty, of tasting gustative, adj [1 gustativ, 2 gastativ] Lat gustāt-, as in prec, & -ive Pertaining to sense of taste, gustatory gustatory, adj [1 gustatori, 2 gastatri] Lat gustāt- as prec & -ory (anat, physiol) Pertaining to the sense, or to an organ of taste gustatory cell, hair, nerve gustful, adj [1 gustifool, 2 gastifəl] gust (I) & -ful Full of gusts of wind, squally, gusty gustily, adv [1 gustali, 2 gastili] gusty & -ly In a gusty manner, in gusts gusto, n [1 gustō, 2 gastou] Ital, fr Lat gust(-us) See gust (II) a (archaic) Flavour, b relish, zest, delicate enjoyment gusty, adj [1 gusti, 2 gasti] gust (I) & -y Abounding in gusts of wind, blustery gut (I), n [1 gut, 2 gat] O E gutt*, recorded in pl guttas, 'entrails', ME gut, gutte, op Germ gosse, 'gutter, drain, water-pipe, sink', prob connected w ME gōle, 'channel, stream', Mod Engl dual gout, gut, 'water-course, drain', fr Gmc gut-, wk grade of geut-, 'to pour', O E gēolan, Mod Germ gießen, Goth grutan, O N gröla, cogn w Lat fund-, stem of funderē, 'to pour' Cp found (II) & chyle 1 a Alimentary canal, specif, that part below the stomach, bowel, b (in pl colloq, not delicate) bowels, intestines, entrails a pain in the guts, to run a man through the guts 2 (fig, pl, colloq) a Content, esp valuable, essential part, Phr to have no guts, to be hollow, lacking substance, b (of persons, familiar and vulg) stamina, spirit, courage, vigour of character, determination a man with plenty of guts 3 a Fine cord made from intestine of sheep &c, for strings of musical instruments and surgical stitching, the so called catgut, b tough material drawn from silkworm, used in making casts for fishing lines 4 Narrow passage, a in watercourse, in bend of a river, b in street, narrow lane gut (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans esp a (of preparing fish, game, poultry &c, for cooking) To disembowel, remove guts, and internal organs of, eviscerate, clean out (fish), b (fig) to remove entire contents of, plunder thoroughly, destroy whole interior of (building), esp by fire, to burn out a house completely gutted by fire, c to extract the gut of (a book, treatise &c), by rapid reading 2 intrans (vulgar) To eat gluttonously gutta (I), n, pl guttae [1 gāta, gūtē, 2 gāta, gātī] Lat, 'drop', initial g- is dialectal for f-, the word is fr base fut-*, 'pour', q v. under found (II) (archit) In Doric entablature, one of a number of small rounded ornaments, probably representing heads of wooden pegs or tree nails, studding lower surface of mutules and triglyphs gutta (II), n See next word a (chem) Principal constituent of gutta-percha, b gutta-percha gutta-percha, n [1 gūta pērcha, -ka, 2 gāta-pāt[ə], -ka] Malay gala, 'gum', doubtless associated w Lat gutta, 'drop', & Malay percha, 'gutta-percha tree' Elastic substance, formed by dried juice of several Malaysian trees, used for electric insulators, golf balls &c guttate, adj [1 gūtāt, 2 gātēt] Lat guttāt(-um), PP of gutturare, 'to drop', fr gutta, 'drop' See gutta (I) (zool, bot) Speckled as with drops gutté(e), guttée, guty, adj [1 gūti, 2 gātī] O Fr goté, fr Lat guttāt(-um) See prec (her, of the field, or shield) Sprinkled with drops (of gold, silver, or tears &c) gutter (I), n [1 guter, 2 gāte] ME gotere, fr O Fr guthere, gouthere, Mod Fr gouthière, 'gutter under eaves, channel, groove', fr O Fr gote, goute, 'drop', fr Lat gutta, see gutta (I) & adjectivalism snff -iere, fr Lat -āria See -er & op gout 1 Open channel made to carry away water, specif a narrow metal trough fixed under eaves to carry away rain water, b channel along a street, between road and path, to drain away surface water 2 a Channel worn by running water, melted wax &c, b groove, such as that worn in vent of gun by firing 3 (print) Grooved strip of wood or metal for separating pages of type in forme 4 (fig, of f, b) Lowest, most degraded, social environment, the slums language, manners, of the gutter, to rise from the gutter gutter (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans a To furnish with gutter or gutters, b to form channels in, furrow (as running water) 2 intrans a To trickle down, form gutter or channel, b specif (of burning candle) to let melted wax drip down sides guttering, n [1 gūtering, 2 gātaring] gutter (II) & -ing 1 a Action of making gutters, b set of gutters, c length of spoutings to be cut into gutters 2 Process of dripping or flowing, as melting wax gutter-man, n Man who stands in street gutter to hawk goods guttersnipe, n [1 gutersnīp, 2 gātersnāp] gutter (I) & snipe (I) a Child or young person born and living in slums, street urchin or arab, b (Am slang) stockbroker who is not member of Stock Exchange, kerb-stone broker guttiferous, adj [1 gūtiferus, 2 gātiferes] Lat See gutta (I) & -ferous (bot) Producing or exuding drops, as of gum or resin guttiform, adj [1 gūtiform, 2 gātifōm] See first element of prec & -form Drop shaped guttle, vb intrans & trans [1 gutl, 2 gātī] gut (II) & -le Prob suggested by guzzle To eat gluttonously, to gorge guttler, n [1 gutler, 2 gātē] Prec & -er One who guttles, glutton

Guttural (I), adj & n [1 gūtural, 2 gātural] Fr, fr Lat guttur, 'throat', prob connected w gutta (I), & -al 1 adj Pertaining to the throat, specif a (phon, of cons and vowels) strictly, produced in the throat, but loosely and inaccurately applied to those formed by back of tongue and soft palate or velum, velar, back, b (popularly) having a deep, harsh, rasping, throaty quality, or uttering 'guttural' sounds the guttural speech of a Dutchman or Arab 2 n (phon) Guttural consonant or vowel, velar, back sound

Gutturalism, n [1 gūturalizm, 2 gāturalizm] guttural (I) & -ism Guttural quality, tendency to gutturalize Gutturalization, n [1 gūturalizāshun, 2 gāturalizēshun] Next word & -ation Process of sound change whereby the place of articulation is gradually shifted to back of tongue (a bad term) gutturalize, vb trans [1 gūturaliz, 2 gāturaliz] guttural (I) & -ize a To pronounce gutturally, give guttural quality to, b to shift area of articulation from front to back

Gutturally, adv [1 gūturali, 2 gāturali] guttural (I) & -ly In a guttural manner gutturo-, combining form [1 gūtūrō, 2 gātūrō] Lat guttur, 'throat' a Pertaining to throat, as gutturo-mazillary, b (phon.) partaking of guttural character, as gutturo-nasal, gutturo-palatal guty (I), adj See gutté(e) guy (II), n [1 gūi, 2 gātī] Abbr for gutta percha ball & -y Gutta-percha golf ball

Guy (I), n [1 gi, 2 gai] O Fr guie, older form of guide See guide (I) a Rope used to guide and steady load while hoisting, b rope, wire, chain, or rod used as stay, as for spar in ship, derrick, suspension bridge, also guy rope

Guy (II), vb trans O Fr guier See prec To guide or steady with a guy

Guy (III), n After Guy Fawkes, conspirator, appointed to blow up Houses of Parliament, name fr Fr Guy, Ital Guido, fr Gmc Wido 1 Grotesque effigy of Guy Fawkes, carried about, and finally burnt on Nov 5th, to commemorate discovery of Gunpowder Plot, 1605, hence, any ridiculous effigy 2 a Person who is guyed, or made a butt for ridicule, b a ridiculously or badly dressed person, one presenting a grotesque appearance, a dowdy, fright, scarecrow to look a regular guy, c (Am colloq) chap, fellow guy (IV), vb trans, fr prec a To represent by a grotesque effigy, display in effigy, b to treat with ridicule, to chaff, banter, make a fool of

Guy (V), n & vb intrans Origin unknown (slang) 1 n Action of decamping or escaping, Phr to do a guy, disappear to give the guy to, run away from, escape from 2 vb To decamp, escape, run away

Guy rope, n guy (I) & rope (I) Ropes used as guy Guzzle, vb intrans & trans & n [1 guzl, 2 gāzl] Prob of Fr origin, op O Fr gosiller, Fr goser, 'gullet', O Fr desgouiller, desgouiller, 'to gulp, swallow down', also 'to vomit', part of Gmc origin, op Fr Lorraine dual gosse, 'throat, stomach of fattened animal', Germ dual guschel, gosche, 'chaps, mouth', Germ gosse, 'gutter, drain' See gut (I) 1 vb a intrans. To drink or eat greedily or copiously he guzzles all day, b trans, (i) to eat or drink greedily to sit guzzling beer, (u) to squander by guzzling to guzzle one's money away 2 n Bout of excessive drinking or eating guzzler, n [1 guzler, 2 gāzle] Prec & -er One who guzzles gwyniad, n [1 gwinad, 2 gwinad] W, fr gwyn, 'white' Small fish of salmon family, inhabiting Welsh and English lakes, the powan gybe (I), vb intrans & trans & n [1 jib, 2 dēab] Op obs Dn gyben, Mod gyper See jib (II), of wh it appears to be a variant (nant) 1 vb a intrans (of boom or sail) To swing with the wind from one side to the other, to take the wind on the other quarter, to jib, b trans, to cause to gybe 2 n Process of gybing or jibbing

Gyle, n [1 gil, 2 gail] Do gajl, 'unfermented beer', gylen, 'to ferment (brewing) a Fermenting wort, b amount of beer or ale brewed at once, c fermenting tun or vat gymkhana, n [1 jmkhāna, 2 djmkhōa] Hind gendkhana, 'racket-court', fr gend, 'ball', & khana, 'house', ossimil to gymnastic, gymnasium Fete, with athletic displays or sports gymnasial, adj [1 jmnāziāl, 2 djmnāziāl] gymnasium & -al (rare) Pertaining to a gymnasium gymnasiarch, n [1 gimnázjark, 2 džimnétziók] Lat gymnasiarchus, fr Gk gymnasiarkhos See gymnasium & -arch At ancient Athens, public officer supervising training and contests of athletes gymnasium, n [1 gimnázjom, 2 džimnétziom] Lat, fr Gk gymnasion, fr gymnazein, 'to exercise the body', fr gymnás, 'naked', because athletes trained naked See gymno- gymno- 1 a School for gymnastics, as in ancient Greece, b hall or area provided with appliances, where gymnastics are taught and practised. 2 In Germany and some other countries, a boys' school of highest class, providing humanistic education, as contrasted with a realschule or technical school gymnast, n [1 gimnast, 2 džimnast] Fr gymnaste, fr Gk gymnastés, 'trainer of athletes', fr gymnazem See prec & -ast One who practices, or is skilled in, gymnastics gymnastic, adj & n [1 gimnastik, 2 džimnastik] prec & -ic 1 adj a Pertaining to gymnastics or bodily exercises, promoting muscular strength or agility, b (fig) providing mental discipline or training, promoting mental agility 2 n a (usually pl) Art and practice of training the body to be healthy, strong, and agile, distinct from athletics, in which competition is an essential element, exercises designed to promote strength and agility, b exercise or discipline, designed to train the intellect the study of logic is a mental gymnastic gymnastically, adv [1 gimnastikalí, 2 džimnastikalí] prec & -al & -ly In a gymnastic manner gymno-, prec Gk gymnós, 'naked', wh stands for 'nugum no', showing in first syll the 'vanishing' grade of a base nog-*, op Lat nudus for nog-edos* (see nude), fr same base is Gmc nal-wada*, whence OE naced, q v undernaked Form in compounds of Greek origin, denoting naked, uncovered, esp in bot, as gymnocarpous, having exposed fruit, gymnogynous, having the ovary exposed, gymnosperm, naked spore &c gymnorhinal, adj [1 gimnorinal, 2 džimnorinal] gymno- & Gk rhin-, stem of rhis 'nostril', see rhino-, & -al (zool) Having naked nostrils, as certain crows gymnosophist, n [1 gimnosofist, 2 džimnosofist] Lat gymnosophista, fr Gk gymnosophistes See gymno- & sophist Name applied by Greeks to members of an Indian ascetic sect, who lived naked gymnosophy, n [1 gimnosofi, 2 džimnosofi] As prec & -sophy Discipline or doctrine of gymnosophists gymnosperm, n [1 gimnosperm, 2 džimnosperm] gymno- & Gk sperma, 'seed' See sperm (I) (bot) Plant of class of which the seeds are not contained in receptacle, including conifers and cycads gymnospermous, adj [1 gimnospermus, 2 džimnospermus] prec & -ous (bot) Having seeds not enclosed in receptacle gymnotus, n [1 gimnotus, 2 džimnotus] Mod Lat, fr gymno- & Gk notos, 'back', prob cogn w Lat nates, 'buttocks', see noto- (zool) 8 American freshwater fish, capable of discharging electric current, electric eel gympt, n Variant of gump gynaecium, n [1 ginesum, 2 gainesum] Lat gynaecium, fr Gk gynaikon prob neut adj, 'belonging to woman or women', fr gynai See gynaeco- 1 (Gk antiq) Apartments in house reserved for women 2 (bot) Aggregate of female organs in plant gynaeco-, gyneco-, prec Gk gynai, stem of gund, 'woman, female', for g-ené*, fr Aryan base g-ené*, cegn w OE cwene, 'woman', & cwen, 'queen' See queen, queen Form in compounds of Greek origin, denoting, pertaining to woman or women, female gynaecocracy, n [1 ginekokrasi, 2 gáinikokrasi] Gk gynaikokratia prec & -cracy Government by women, or by a woman gynaecocrat, n [1 ginekokrat, 2 gáinikokrat] As prec & -crat Supporter of gynaecocracy gynaecocratic, adj [1 ginekokratik, 2 gáinikokratik] prec & -ic Pertaining to gynaecocracy gynaecological, adj [1 ginekologik, 2 gáinikologik] gynaecology & -ic & -al Pertaining to gynaecology gynaecologist, n [1 ginekólogojst, 2 gáinikólogojst] Next word & -ist One skilled in gynaecology gynaecology, n [1 ginekóloj, 2 gáinikóloj] gynaeco- & -logy (med) Science dealing with diseases peculiar to women gyno-, prec Abbreviated form of gynaeco- gynocracy, n [1 gínokrasi, 2 gáinikrasi] gyno- & -cracy Gynaecocracy gynoecium, gynaecium, n [1 gínisum, 2 gáinisum] Incorrect forms of gynaecium (bot), duo to confusion with -oecium as in androecium, fr Gk oikion, 'house', q v under economy Same as gynaecium in botanical sense gynous, soff [1 junos, gunus, 2 džunos, gúnus] Gk gund, 'woman, female' See gynaeco- & -ous Combining form in adjs of Gk origin, denoting, pertaining to the female, esp in botany, as androgynous gyp, n [1 jip, 2 džip] Origin uncertain, prob abbr fr obs gyppo, 'man's short tunic', also 'scullion', fr obs Fr jupeau, dimin of jupe, 'skirt', cp Span (al) juba, fr Arab jubbah (univ, colleg) Male servant in a college at Cambridge or Durham gypseous, adj [1 jipsus, 2 džipsus] Lat gypse (us), fr gypsum, & -ous Pertaining to, resembling, gypsum gypsiferous, adj [1 jipsiferus, 2 džipsiferus] gypsum & -ferous Producing or containing gypsum gypsophile, n [1 jipsifila, 2 džipsifila] Mod Lat, fr Gk gypses, 'obalk, gypsum', & philon, 'to love' See gypsum & -phil- Plant related to the pinks, bearing sprays of small pink or white flowers gypsous, adj [1 jipsus, 2 džipsus] Next word & -ous Gypsous gypsum, n [1 jipsum, 2 džipsum] Lat, fr Gk gyps (os), prob fr an oriental language, cp Pers jabin, 'lime', Arab jib, 'plaster, mortar' Hydrous sulphate of calcium, found in various forms, including alabaster, used for making plaster of Paris, and as dressing for soil gypsy, n See gipsy

gyral, adj [1 jiral, 2 džiral] gyre & -al a Moving in a circle, gyratory, b (anat) pertaining to a gyrus gyrally, adv prec & -ly In a gyral manner gyrate (I), vb intrans [1 jirát, 2 džiraret] fr Lat gyrāt (um), PP type of gyrōre, 'to turn round, revolve', fr gyrus, gyre To revolve round central point, whirl round gyrate (II), adj [1 jirát, 2 džiraret] Lat gyrāt (um) See prec Coiled, convolute esp in botany gyration, n [1 jirášun, 2 džiraresen] prec & -ion a Action of gyrating or revolving, revolution, b (zool) single whorl of spiral shell gyrational, adj [1 jirášunal, 2 džiraresenal] prec & -al Pertaining to gyration gyratory, adj [1 jiratori, 2 džiraretari] Lat gyrāt, as gyrate (I), & -ory Pertaining to gyration, turning, revolving in a circle gyre, n & vb intrans [1 jir, 2 džir] Lat gyrus, 'circle', gyrāre, 'to revolve', fr Gk gúr os, 'ring', cogn w Norw kjuro, 'to bend, twist', Lith gaurai, 'hair', fr Leuru, 'curved' 1 n a Circular or spiral motion, gyration, b form described by gyrating body, vortex 2 vb To gyrate gyrfalcon, n Variant of gerfalcon

Gyro-, prec See gyre Combining form denoting, pertaining to gyration gyro-compass, n [1 jirólompas, 2 džiraroukampus] gyro- & compass A gyroscope with compass card attached, used esp on naval vessels, where the ordinary magnetic compass tends to become disturbed and unreliable gyrograph, n [1 jirograhf, 2 džiragrof] gyro- & graph Instrument for recording revolutions of wheel &c gyromancy, n [1 jirómansi, 2 džiraromansi] Fr gyromancie, fr gyro- & mancy Divination by walking in a circle till one becomes giddy and falls, place or direction of fall being considered significant gyron, giron, n [1 jiron, 2 džiron] Fr gyron, triangular piece', fr OHG géro, 'gusset', cogn w OE gār, 'apex' See gore (I), garlic (ber) Wedge shaped subsidiary, in form of triangle, equal to one-eighth of esentcheon, enclosed by two lines from fesse point or centre and part of edge gyronny, adj [1 jironi, 2 džironi] Fr gyronné prec & -y (her, of esentcheon) Divided into gyrons gyroplane, n [1 jiroplān, 2 džiraroplān] gyro- & -plane Aeroplane furnished with one or more horizontal or nearly horizontal propellers, enabling it to hover or move vertically gyroscope, n [1 jiroškōp, 2 džiraraskōp] gyro- & -scope Heavy fly-wheel, which when rotating tends to remain in same place, used to illustrate laws of rotation, also to stabilize mono rail car, aeroplane, steamer &c, and in the gyro compass gyroscopic, adj [1 jiroškopik, 2 džiraraskōpik] prec & -ic Pertaining to a gyroscope or its action gyroscopic compass, gyro-compass gyrostat, n [1 jirostat, 2 džirarastat] gyro- & Gk statos, 'standing' Cp static Modified form of gyroscope, in which wheel is fixed in rigid case with flange gyrostatic, adj & n [1 jirostatik, 2 džirarastatik] prec & -ic a adj Pertaining to gyrostat or gyrostatics, b n, pl gyrostatics, branch of dynamics dealing with gyrating bodies

Gyre, n [1 jiv, 2 dživ] ME pl gyres, gyres, fr A-Fr gyres, perh fr OE wādde, 'withy, theng, bond' (usually pl.) Shackles, fetters, handcuffs.

H

H, h, [1. áh, 2. etf] The eighth letter of the English alphabet 1 Expressing an aspirate or rough breathing, or, more accurately, a stressed breath on glide, before vowels, Phr to drop one's achilles, omit an aspirate where it should be pronounced 2 Written after t & p, to express respectively the simple consonantal sounds [p, b, f], and after c to express [tʃ] For use in abbreviations see end of Dictionary ha, interj [1 hah, 2 bá] Exclamation of surprise &c See also hum & haw habeas corpus, n [1 hábeas kópus, 2 héibias kópas] Lat, 'then must have the body'

(law) Writ ordering production of prisoner in court or before judge, esp in order to determine justice of his arrest and detention habendum, n [1 habendum, 2 hábéndum] Lat, 'to be had', neut sing gerundive of habere, 'to have', because Lat. formula begins thus (law) Part of deed following premises, defining estate which the grantee is to have and to hold' haberdasher, n [1 háberdasher, 2 háberdæʃə] ME haberdashere, fr obs Engl haberdash, 'small wares', prob fr A-Fr habertas, 'kind of stuff' Of unknown origin A Dealer in small articles, such as tapes, pins, needles &c, usually as part of a drapery business, b dealer in men's shirts, ties, collars &c haberdashery, n [1 háberdasherí, 2 háberdæʃərí] Prec & -y Goods sold by haberdasher habergeon, n [1 háherjun, 2 hábedʒən] ME & O Fr haubergeon, dimin of O Fr hauberc, hauberk. Short coat of mail, reaching from neck to waist, usually without sleeves habliment, n [1 habhliment, 2 habhlíment] Fr habliment, 'clothing', fr habiller, 'to dress', orig 'to fit out, make ready', fr habile, 'able', fr Lat habilis (see ability) & -ment, cp habit Dress, clothing (chiefly in pl) habit (I), n [1 hábit, 2 hábit] ME, fr Fr, fr Lat habitus, 'condition, habit, dress', fr habitu (um), PP type of habere, 'to have', reflex w se ('self'), 'to be constituted, be in a condition' The etymol of this very common Lat word is doubtful, it has prob no connexion w OE habban, qv under have 1 a Ordinary or settled condition, constitution, or disposition, of mind or body, esp (med) temperament, physiological constitution habit of body, a man of a gouty habit, b (biol) characteristic, normal mode of growth or life the arboreal habit, a plant of trailing habit 2 a Usual behaviour or course of action, b act of an individual frequently repeated, acquired tendency, practice which has become customary or automatic to fall into, break off, a habit, a habit of instant obedience, a nasty habit of sneering, to get into bad habits 3 Dress, garment, esp a one worn by member of a society or class a monk's habit, b one worn on particular occasions a doctor's convocation habit, c also riding habit, a wide skirt worn by women when riding habit (II), vb trans ME habiten, 'inhabit', fr Fr habiter, fr Lat habitare, fr stem habit-, as prec 1 (obs) To inhabit, dwell in 2 To dress, clothe, esp in dress of an order the bishop habited in his rochet habitability, n [1 hábitabiliti, 2 hábitabiliti] 'habitable & -ity' State of being habitable habitable, adj [1 bábitabl; 2 hábitáhl] ME, fr O Fr, fr Lat habitabilis See habit (II) & -able Capable of being inhabited, suitable and fit for habitation the habitable earth, a habitable house habitableness, n Prec & -ness Quality of being habitable habitably, adv [1 hábitáhl; 2 hábitáblí] habitable & -ly In a habitable manner habitant, n [1 hábitant, 2 hábitánt] Fr, fr Pres Part of habiter See habit (II) Inhabitant, espec, French inhabitant of Canada or Louisiana habitat, n [1 bábitat, 2 hábitæt] Lat, 'it inhabits', fr habitare, 'to inhabit' See habit (II) a (biol) Kind of region naturally inhabited by animal or plant, natural environment, b region or locality where anything commonly occurs habitation, n [1 hábitæhun, 2 hábitéʃən] ME, fr O Fr, habitation, fr Lat habitationem See habit (II) & -ation 1 Act or state of inhabiting, occupancy house no longer fit for habitation 2 a Dwelling-place, abode, residence, b name assumed by a local branch or 'lodge' of Primrose League habitual, adj [1 hábituə, 2 hábitúəl] fr Lat habituālis (w), whence also Fr habituālis See habit (I) & -al 1 (of things) Usual, frequent, customary, of the nature of a habit an habitual smile, joke, seat 2 (of persons) Acting by habit, addicted to a specified practice an habitual liar, drunkard, criminal habitually, adv Prec & -ly As a habit, by force of habit, commonly, as a usual practice habitualness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being habitual habituate, vb trans [1 hábituəst, 2 hábitúest] fr Lat habituāre (um), PP of habituare, fr habitu- See habit (I) Followed by to a (reflex) To accustom oneself, become used to to habituate oneself to hard work, b to make accustomed to, render familiar with to habituate a horse to harness habituating, n [1 hábituəʃən, 2 hábitúeʃən] Prec & -ion Process of habituating, condition of being habituated habitude, n [1 hábitúd, 2 hábitúəd] Fr, fr Lat habitus, 'condition' See habit (I) & -tude (rare) a Usual custom, habit, wont, b customary state of mind, disposition, c habit of body habitué, n [1 hábitú, 2 hábitúe] Fr PP of habituare See habituate One who frequents, haunts, or habitually visits an habitué of the opera, of the turf &c hachures, n pl No recognized pronoun in Engl, best as Fr [1 áshúr, 2 áʃúr] Fr, fr hacher, 'to cut' See hatchet, hash & -ure Lines used in shading in an engraving or drawing, esp to indicate variation of slope or height in maps hacienda, n [1 (h)ásienda, 2 (h)esienda] Span, fr O Span hacienda, 'employment, estate', fr Lat facienda, 'things to be done', neut pl gerundive of facere, 'to do' See fact (in Spanish America &c) a Estate for stock-raising, ranch, plantation, b establishment employing labour, factory hack (I), vb trans & intrans [1 hák, 2 hák] OE haccan, ME hacken, O Fris (to) hal (h)an, M Du, M HG, Mod Germ hacken, Swed hacka, Dan hakke Origin obscure A trans 1 a To chop, cut, as with axe, esp roughly, clumsily, or carelessly, to slash, gash, b to roughen (stone) with hack hammer, c to trim (hedge &c) as with hill 2 To break up (soil) as with mattock or hoe Phr to hack in wheat, to sow it while breaking up soil 3 To kick (leg) with boot to hack a man's shin at football B intrans 1 To practise hacking in any sense 2 To cough in harsh, dry manner (See hawk (III)) hack (II), n, fr prec 1 Action of hacking, specif a stroke or chop as of axe, b hacking cough 2 a Cut, notch, gash, or wound made by hacking, b bruise or abrasion made by kick, as on shin hack (III), n Cp Germ hacke, 'axe, hoe, mattock, pickaxe', Dan hakke, 'mattock' Cp hack (I) (not common) Name given to various cutting tools of the pickaxe type hack (IV), n & vb trans OE hæc, hatch (I) 1 n a (obs, falconry) Board to hold hawk's meat, Phr to be at hack, of eyes bawky, to be kept in partial restraint, b grating or rack, as for drying fish or cheese, holding food for cattle &c, c pile or stack of unburnt bricks, arranged for drying 2 vb a (obs, falconry) To keep at hack, b to put (cheese, fish &c) on back or rack for drying hack (V), n Porh abbr fr hackney (I), but cp O Fr hague, perh fr Span haca, fr O Span foca, 'nag' 1 a (i) Horse let out on hire, esp for riding, (ii) saddle-horse of medium quality, b (i) horse employed for all sorts of work, (ii) overworked horse, jade 2 (fig, contempt) Person employed to do dull, tedious work, such as dictionary making, the writing of inferior newspaper articles, or other forms of drudgery 3 (attrib) a Done by, fit only for, a hack hack work, b occupied in such work hack writers hack (VI), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans 1 a To let out (horse &c) for hire, b to use (a horse) as a hack, c (fig) to employ as a hack writer or drudge 2 intrans To jog along on a horse to hack along

hackberry, n Variant of hageberry hackbut, n [1 hákbut, 2 hákbat] O Fr haquebute, fr Du haakbus See arquebus hackery, n [1 hákeri, 2 hákerí] Hind chakrā, 'cart', op Sort chakra, 'wheel', op c:cle & wheel Indian bullock cart hack-hammer, n Mason's tool, resembling adze with hammer head hacking, adj [1 háking, 2 hákɪŋ] Pres Part of hack (I) Chiefly hacking cough, dry, hard cough hackle (I), n & vb [1 hákl, 2 hákl] fr OE hacela, 'cloak', ME halele Etymol unknown 1 n a Long feathers on neck of domestic cock, b tuft made from these, to imitate the legs, on an artificial fly for fishing 2 vb To put hackles on to (rare) hackle (II), vb trans, fr hack (I) & -le (rare or provino) To hack roughly hackle (III), n ME hakell, helele, fr OE hacul*, hecele*, both cogn w hook Comb for dressing raw silk or flax hackney (I), n [1 hákni, 2 hákni] ME hakene, halene, cp Med Lat hackenemus, A-Fr halenas, O Fr haguenée, 'pad horse', cp hack (V), etymol uncertain 1 Medium-sized horse of about 15 hands used for ordinary hacking and driving 2 (obs) Hackney carriage hackney (II), vb trans, fr prec To render trite, commonplace, unimpressive by familiarity Rare except in PP as adj a hackneyed phrase &c hackney carriage, n Hired vehicle plying for hire hackney coach, n One plying for hire hackneyed, adj [1 háknid, 2 háknid] fr PP of hackney (II) Vulgarized, commonplace, trite hacksaw, n [1 háksaw, 2 háksō] hack (I) & saw (I) Saw, with narrow blade set in a bow, used for cutting metal hackwork, n [1 hákwərk, 2 hákwərk] hack (V) & work Work of inferior, more or less mechanical, kind not requiring much effort or originality of mind had, vb [1 hád, 2 hád] OE hæfde, ME hadde, had Pret & PP of have haddock, n [1 hádok, 2 hádæk] ME hadok Origin unknown Edible sea fish, Gadus aeglefinus, allied to the cod hade, n & vb intrans [1 hád, 2 hád] Of uncertain origin; perh fr Norw dial hodd, 'slope' (mtn and geol) 1 n Inclination from the vertical of fault or vein 2 vb To incline from the vertical

Hades, n [1 hádez, 2 hádez] Gk Hádēs, 'god of the nether world, Pluto', deriv'd, perh wrongly, by the ancients fr a-, 'not', & ad-ein, 'to see' (qv under idea), thus 'the unseen' 1 Lower world, hell 2 Intermediate state or abode of the departed hady, also hajj, n [1 háj, 2 hádʒ] Arab hajj, fr hajjo, 'to walk, go on pilgrimage' Moslem pilgrimage to Mecca hady, also hajj, n [1 háj, 2 hádʒ] Arab hajj See prec Moslem pilgrim to Mecca, used as title of respect and honour haecceity, n [1 hekseti, 2 hekseti] Med Lat haecceitas, fr haecce (res), 'this (thing)', fem sing of haecce, intens form of haec, 'this', & -itas, -ity (scholast philos) 'Thinness', individuality haemal, adj [1 bēmal, 2 hīmal] Gk haima, 'blood' & -al, haima is for saima*, & prob oogn w OHG seim, 'virgin honey' Cp anaemia It has been further suggested that the Aryan base was saima-*, & some scholars think that the word contains the base -sa- wh in Scrt means 'juice, drink', also 'refreshment' Pertaining to the blood haemat-, pref Variant of haemato-, used before words beginning with a vowel haemato, adj & n [1 hēmatik, 2 hīmatik] Gk haematos, fr Gk haima, stem of haima, see haemal, & adj suff, see -ac a adj Pertaining to, containing, like, blood, blood-red, b n, medicine acting on the blood haematin, n [1 hēmatin, 2 hīmatin] Modern concoction fr haemat- See prec & -in (chem) Substance found in the blood, the pigment or colouring matter of haemoglobin haematite, hematite, n [1 hēmatit, 2 hēmatit] Lat haematites, fr Gk haematites, lit 'bloodlike', haemat- & -ite A red iron ore, ferric oxide, in earthy state it is known as red ochre, in crystallized state it is steel grey in colour and is known as specular iron haematite, ody [1 hēmatitlik, 2 hēmatitlik] Free & -ic Pertaining to, like, haemetite haemato-, pref Gk haimat, stem of haima, 'blood', see haemal Pertaining to or containing blood haematocoele, n [1 hēmatōsēl, 2 hēmatōsēl] Prec & Gk haimē, 'tumour' See -cale Tumour containing blood haematocyte, n [1 hēmatōsīt, 2 hēmatōsīt] haemato- & -cyto Blood cell haematuria, n [1 hēmatūra, 2 hēmatūra] Mod Lat, fr haemat- & -uria Discharge of blood in the urine haemo-, pref Same as haematohaemoglobin, n [1 hēmōglōbīn, 2 hēmōglōbīn] haemo- & globe & -in (physiol) The complex protein substance of the red corpuscles in the blood of vertebrate animals, which absorbs oxygen from the air and transports it to every part of the body, acting as chlorophyll in plants haemophilia, n [1 hēmōfīliā, 2 hēmōfīliā] haemo- & Gk philia, 'friendship, affection', here in sense of 'tendency towards', q v under philo- (med) Hereditary disease characterized by tendency to frequent, and excessive haemorrhage, popularly called 'bleeding' haemoptysis, n [1 hēmōptīsīs, 2 hēmōptīsīs] haemo- & Gk ptysis, 'spitting', fr ptuō, 'to spit' See spit (III) (med) Spitting of blood haemorrhage, hemorrhage, n [1 hēmōrij, 2 hēmōrij] Lat haemorrhagia, fr Gk haimorrhagia, 'violent bleeding', haemo- & rhag, 'bursting out', another grade of wh base is seen in Gk rhēgō nāmas (for 'wreck'), 'to break, hurt', cogn w wreck, wreak. (med) Bleeding haemorrhagic, hemorrhagic, adj [1 hēmōrājk, 2 hēmōrājk] Prec & -ic Pertaining to haemorrhage haemorrhoidal, hemorrhoidal, adj [1 hēmōrōidāl, 2 hēmōrōidāl] Fr hemorrhoidal See next word & -al Pertaining to, having character of, haemorrhoids haemorrhoids, hemorrhoids, n pl [1 hēmōrōidz, 2 hēmōrōidz] Fr hemorroïde, fr Lat haemorrhoida, fr Gk haimorrhōid, stem of haimorrhōis, fr haimorrhōos, 'flowing with blood', haemo- & rhē en for 'srew out', 'to flow', cogn w stream Cp emeralds Medical name for disease popularly called piles haemostasis, n [1 hēmōstāsīs, 2 hēmōstāsīs] haemo- & Gk stasis, 'standing still, stoppage', see static Stoppage of bleeding, as by tying of a blood vessel or by use of a haemostatic haemostatic, n [1 hēmōstātīk, 2 hēmōstātīk] See prec & static Something which stops bleeding, a styptic hafilz, n [1 hāfilz, 2 hāfilz] Pers Moham median who knows Koran by heart hafnium, n [1 hāfnīum, 2 hāfnīum], fr Hafnia, Lat name of Copenhagen One of the group of rare earth chemical elements, found with zirconium haft, n & v trans [1 hāft, 2 hāft] OE heft, ME haft & Connected w OE habban, 'to have, hold' See have 1 n a Handle, or part grasped by the hand, of a knife, dagger &c, b part of a spindle 2 v trans To supply with a haft, esp in PP hafted hag (I), n [1 hag, 2 hag] ME hagge, the origin of wh is unknown OE & the other Gmc languages have words somewhat resembling this in form w approximately the same meaning, none of these, however, throws any light on the ME form A hideous, malevolent, disgusting old woman hag (II), n. Scand. Cp O.N. hagg, 'ravine, out, gap', fr höggra, 'to ent, hack', cogn w hew (Nethn provincialism) a Projecting edge of peat-cutting in bog, hillock of firmer ground in bog or moss, b brook or soft place in bog hackberry, hackberry, n [1 hāg, 2 hākberī, 2 hāg, 2 hākberī] Scand, op Icel hæggr, Swed hagg, Dan haegbeær See berry a (Scots) Bird cherry, b (Am) a tree, genus Celtis, with small, reddish, edible drupes, usually called hackberry hagfish, n [1 hāgfīsh, 2 hāgfīsh] Origin doubtful Parasitic marine creature allied to the lamprey, which burrows into the bodies of fish and preys upon their vitals haggadah, n [1 hāgādāh, 2 hāgādā] Heb, 'tale, story' The legendary or narrative part of the Talmud haggard (I), adj [1 hāgārd, 2 hāgārd] Prob fr neth word, meaning orig 'wild looking' es Mod Fr hagard Origin unknown (of the face) Having a worn, wasted look, as if harassed by want of sleep, hunger, fever, or anxiety, gaunt, drawn, pinched haggard (II), adj & n (folclorn) a adj Hard to tame, b n, untamed hawk haggardness, n haggard (I) & -ness State of being haggard haggis, n [1 hāgīs, 2 hāgīs] ME hageys, hag(g)as, hal(h)ys, cp Scots dial hag, 'to hock, ent, chop', Scand, connected w ON högga, 'to strike, hock &c' Cp hag (II) Native Scottish dish made of various parts from the inside of a sheep, minced fine, mixed with snet, oatmeal, onions, and pepper, and boiled in a sheep's stomach haggish, adj [1 hāgīsh, 2 hāgīsh] hag (I) & -ish (of women) Resembling a hag, worn looking, ugly, gaunt, and scraggy haggishly, adv Prec & -ly In the manner of a hag haggishness, n. See prec & -ness Quality of being haggish haggle, v trans & n [1 hāgl, 2 hāgl] Prob orig a Scots word, freq of hag, 'to hock, chop' See hag (II), haggis, & -le Cp higgie 1 v trans To wrangle, dispute, over anything in a petty, mean way, esp over the price of an article, to attempt to cut down price asked 2 n Wrangle over terms, act of haggling hagiarchy, n [1 hāgārki, 2 hāgārki] hagio- & -archy 1 Rule, government by saints, or by men in holy orders 2 Order, hierarchy, of saints hagio-, pref Gk hag: ex, 'holy, sacred', fr hagos, 'awe', cogn w Sort yayyas, 'venerable', yaya, 'venerate' Pertaining to that which is holy, or to saints hagiocracy, n [1 hāgōkrāsī, 2 hāgōkrāsī] Prec & -cracy Government, demimem, exercised by saints, or by persons considered holy Hagiographa, n pl [1 hāgiōgrāfā, 2 hāgiōgrāfā] Lat, fr Gk hagiographa (biblia), (books) sacredly written, neut pl of hagiographos See hagio- & -graph One of the three Jewish divisions of OT, all the books which are not the Law or the Prophets hagiographer, n [1 hāgiōgrāfer, 2 hāgiōgrāfē] 1 (fr prec & -er) Writer of any of the Hagiographa 2 (fr hagio- & -grapher) Writer of life of a saint hagiographic(al), adj [1 hāgiōgrāfik(l), 2 hāgiōgrāfik(l)] See prec & -ic & -al Pertaining to the Hagiographa, b pertaining to hagiography hagiography, n [1 hāgiōgrāfi, 2 hāgiōgrāfi] hagio- & -graphy a Study of saints and saints' lives, b collection of such lives hagiolater, n [1 hāgiōlātēr, 2 hāgiōlātē] See hagiolatry One addicted to hagiolatry hagiolatrous, adj [1 hāgiōlātros, 2 hāgiōlātros] hagiolatry & -ous a Of the nature of, pertaining to, hagiolatry, b (of persons) addicted to hagiolatry hagiolatry, n [1 hāgiōlātē, 2 hāgiōlātē] hagio- & Gk latreia, 'service, worship', formed on anal of idolatry Excessive worship and veneration paid to saints hagiologic(al), adj [1 hāgiōlōjik(l), 2 hāgiōlōjik(l)] hagiology & -ic (& -al) Pertaining to hagiology hagiologist, n [1 hāgiōlōjist, 2 hāgiōlōjist] Next word & -ist One skilled in hagiology hagiology, n [1 hāgiōlōji, 2 hāgiōlōdji] hagio- & -logy a Study of saints or of lives of saints, b treatise on these, collection of such lives hagioscope, n [1 hāgiōskōp, 2 hāgiōskōp] hagio- & -scope (archit) Narrow passage or opening cut through a wall in a church near chancel end, to enable those in the side aisle to see the altar at the Elevation of the Host, also called a agium hag-ridden, adj [1 hāgrīdn, 2 hāgrīdn] hag (I) & ridden, PP of ride (I) Oppressed or harassed by a witch or female hogey ha ha (L), interj, n, v trans, & ndj [1 hāh hāh, 2 hāh hāh] 1 interj & n a Conventional representation of laughter, b exclamation of scorn or triumph 2 v trans To exclaim or laugh thus 3 ndj Foppish, snarcelous rather a ha ha manner ha-ha (II), hahā, haw-haw, n [1 hāh hāh, hāw hāw, 2 hāh hāh, hāw hāw], fr prec Sunk fence, in ditch, not visible until one is close to it, usually as boundary to garden haik, haick, n [1 hāik, 2 hāik] Arab haik, fr halā, 'to weave' Woollen or cotton sheet worn by Arabs as mantle wrapping head and body hail (I), n [1 hāl, 2 heil] OE hagol, hægel, hægl, ME hazel, havel, OHG hagal, Common Gmc, cogn w Gk kallhēr, 'round pebble' (coll) 1 a Small lumps of ice falling like rain from the sky, b shower, storm of hail 2 (fig) Said of anything which falls rapidly, or repeatedly and with violence a hail of blows, bullets &c hail (II), v trans & trans OE hagahan, ME hazelen, fr prec 1 trans a (impers) To precipitate, drop, shower down, hail, b (fig) to fall in showers, like hail 2 trans (fig) To hurl, deliver, violently and rapidly to hail stones, curses, on one hail (III), interj, fr ON heil, adj & n, 'whole, prosperous' &c, see hale (I) The OE cogn is hal, 'whole, healthy' (see whole), also hæl(u), 'health, prosperity' See hail, health Hail as a greeting is elliptical for 'he then hail', i.e. healthy, prosperous &c (obs, except poet and liter) Mode of greeting, see above, Phr (adjectival or adv) to be hail fellow well met with every body, to be on easy cordial terms, or to make shew of being so hail (IV), v trans & intrans ME heilin, fr ON heilla, 'to greet', fr heil, see prec A trans 1 a To say 'hail' to, greet, salute, welcome, congratulate, b (with complementary obj) to call, address as, in salutation 'All men hailed me happy' (Milton), to hail him king 2 (neut) To shout to, accost, signal to (o passing vessel), hence generally, to call out to, address in passing, attract attention of I was hailed by a stranger in the street, to hail a cab B intrans 1 (naut) a To shout, signal, to a vessel, b to announce one's home port or port from which one comes, hence, Phr (naut and colloq) to hail from, to come from, esp as one's home where do you hail from? hail (V), n, fr prec 1 Action of hailing, salutation 2 Distance within which shout can be heard at sea within hail

Hail Mary, n [1 hāl mān, 2 heil mēari] First words of the angele salutation to BVM, see Luke 1:28 Name of prayer of invocation to BVM, from opening words, Ave Maria to say three Hail Marys hailstone, n [1 hālstōn, 2 heilstōrn] OE hagolstān, op MHG hagelstein, ON haglsteinn &c, fr hail (I) & stone (I) Pellet of hail hailstorm, n. [1 hālstorm, 2 heilstām], hail (I) & storm (I) Storm of hail.

haily, adj [1 hál, 2 héil] hail (I) & -y Pertaining to, accompanied by, hail (I) hair, n [1 hár, 2 hēa] OE hār, ME hār & hār, OS hār, OHG hār & hār & hār, the Mod Engl form is due to confusion w ME hære, hære, 'hair-shirt', fr O Fr haire, itself a loan-word fr OHG hārra, a derivative fr hār, cp also OE hāra, ON hāra, 'hair-shirt' Outside Gmc there are many derivatives fr the Aryan base h₂er-, h₂or-, h₂er-* & h₂or-, Lat corium, 'hide, leather' See corium, coriaceous The orig sense of the base is 'to tear', thence 'something which is peeled, or torn off', whence 'skin, something growing on the skin' For similar development of meaning see derma (ool) 1 (physiol and biol) Fine, threadlike outgrowth from the skin of mammals, including fur on animals, the corresponding growth on human head and other parts of the body, the bristles of a pig, spines of a porcupine, and the whiskers of a cat 2 Spout, the growth covering the human head, also called the hair of the head to lose one's hair, (1) become bald, (2) (colloq) to get angry or excited, to cut, brush, one's hair & Phrs to wear one's own hair, not a wig, to comb a person's hair for him (fig), give him a severe scolding, to make one's hair stand on end (fig), to amaze, terrify one, make one shudder with horror, keep your hair on (slang), don't get excited, (of a girl) to put up her hair, put her hair up, to start wearing it rolled up on the head, as a grown-up woman, to put down, let down, her hair, remove hair-pins and allow the hair to hang down over shoulders & 3 A single thread or filament of hair to find a hair in one's soup, Phrs to a hair, to the turn of a hair, exactly, not to turn a hair, to show no nervousness or fear in trying situation, show no fatigue, to split hairs, to draw over subtle distinctions, (colloq) a hair of the dog that bit one (fig), the same conduct, method, substance used remedially, which has already been prejudicial, spout, alcoholic liquor for a person suffering from effects of drink, b pl hairs used collectively in archaic phr to bring down one's grey hairs in sorrow to the grave 4 A fine filament resembling a hair, growing from surface of leaf or stalk & of a plant, b hair like fibre, as seen in composition of paper when this is roughened or torn, 5 A very fine wire, or spring resembling a hair hairball, n [1 hārbawl, 2 hēaból] Roundish object composed of felt-like substance, found in stomachs of some animals, eg cows and goats, composed of hairs hooked off and swallowed, also called bezoar hairbell, n Variant spelling of harebell hairbreadth, n & adj [1 hārbredth, 2 hēabredp] 1 n Also hair's breadth, breadth of a hair, very short space missed by a hairbreadth, (hair's breadth) 2 adj Extremely narrow, barely or narrowly attained a hairbreadth escape hairbrush, n [1 hārbbrush, 2 hēabraf] Brush used for the hair haircloth, n [1 hārklawth, 2 hēaklōp] Cloth woven wholly or partially with horse hair hair-compasses, n pl Form of draughtsman's compasses adjusted by fine screw hairdresser, n [1 hārdressor, 2 hēadrēsō] Tradesman whose occupation is to dress and cut the hair hairdressing, n [1 hārdresing, 2 hēadrēsing] a Trade of a hairdresser, b action of dressing hair haired, adj [1 hārd, 2 hēad] hair & -ed Furnished with hair hair-grass, n One of several kinds of grass with very slender culms or leaves hairiness, n [1 hārinēs, 2 hēarinēs] hairy & -ness Stato of being hairy hair-lace, n Lace or fillet for binding or securing woman's hair hairless, adj [1 hārles, 2 hēalēs] hair & -less Without hair bald hairlike, adj [1 hārlik, 2 hēalask] hair & -like Resembling hair or a hair hair-line, n 1 Very thin line, like hair, specif, upstroke of letter 2 Lane or cord made of hair, specif, fishing line of horse-hair hair-net, n Fine net, made of hair or silk, for confining woman's hair and keeping it neat hair-oil, n Oil used for greasing the hair hair-pencil, n Camel's-hair brush, esp fine one used in water colour drawing hairpin, n [1 hārpín, 2 hēapín] a Device for fastening woman's hair, consisting of piece of metal, ivory, tortoiseshell, with two prongs, also b (attrib) in Phr hairpin bend, sharp bend in road, nearly reversing direction, esp on steep gradient hair-powder, n Scented white powder, formerly sprinkled over hair or wig, still occasionally used by lavored men-servants on their own hair hair's breadth, n Same as hairbreadth hair seal, n An eared seal or sea-bear, which is not covered with fur or seal skin hair-shirt, n Shirt, or strip of cloth round loins, made of horse hair, worn by ascetics as a penance hair-space, n (typog) a Narrowest space between words in printing, b narrow type used for it hair-splitter, n [1 hār splitor, 2 hēa splite] hair & split & -er Person addicted to hair-splitting, quibbler hair-splitting, n & adj [1 hār spliting, 2 hēa splitip] hair & split & -ing a Drawing of distinctions with excessive or pedantic subtlety, esp in argument, quibbling, b adj, tending to quibble, characterized by quibbling hair-spring, n Very fine recoil spring in watch hairstreak, n [1 hārstrēk, 2 hēastrik] One of group of small British butterflies, related to blues, having fine streak across under-side of wings hair-stroke, n Any very fine line in writing or printing, specif, fine horizontal line at top or bottom of letter, serif hair-trigger, n One which fires revolver & on the slightest pressure hairy, adj [1 hār, 2 hēar] hair & -y a Pertaining to, of the nature of, hair, b furnished or covered with hair hake (I), n [1 hāk, 2 hōk] ME hāke, perh fr Gmc base hak-*, 'to pierce, bite', op OE haca, 'hook', see hook (I) One of several coarse edible sea fishes, Aleuriscus, allied to cod hake (II), n Etymol doubtful Cp hack (IV) Wooden frame on which unbaked bricks are dried hakim (I), n [1 hākhim, 2 hōkhim], Arab hākim A Moslem judge or Governor in India and the East hakim (II), n [1 hākēm, 2 hēkhim] Arab hākīm, 'wise' A Moslem physician in India and the East halation, n [1 hālāhūn, 2 hēalēfōn], fr halo & -ation (photog) A bright patch or ring of light, like a halo, on a developed plate halberd, halbert, n [1 hāl, hāwbord, hāl, hāwbort, 2 hēl, hōbbod, hāl-, hōbbōt] O Fr halebarde, fr ME G halmbarte, earlier helmbarte

The origin of this word is a matter of pure speculation It is said to be possibly fr helm, 'helmet', & barla, 'axe', meaning one used for cleaving helmets, OHG barla is apparently closely related to bart, 'beard', & was perh so called fr the shape of the blade See helm (II) & beard Battleaxe with long handle and a spike projecting above the blade, really an axe blade fastened to a spear halberdier, n [1 hālberdēr, 2 hēalberdiēr] Fr, fr prec & -ier Soldier armed with a halberd, later, a person bearing a similarly shaped instrument for show at civic functions halcyon, n & adj [1 hālsūn, 2 hēalsūn] Lat (halcyon), fr Gk halcyōn, less correctly halcyōn, 'kingfisher', cogn w OHG alacro,

'a kind of diving bird', & w Lat alcedo, stem alcedōn-, but explained by popular etymol as fr Gk hal-s, 'sea', & kyōn, 'concealing' Some philologists suggest that Lat alcedō is a loan fr Gk, & that the Gk word is related to swallow (III) 1 n a Kingfisher, esp in connexion with ancient belief that it built floating nest on sea, which remained calm about winter solstice while the eggs were being hatched, b member of genus of Australian and Asiatic kingfishers 2 adj Pertaining to the halcyon, tranquil, peaceful Phr halcyon days, period of calm weather about winter solstice, hence, (fig) time of tranquillity and happiness hale (I), adj [1 hāl, 2 hēal] North dual type fr OE hāl See whole (only of persons) Sound, healthy, robust, vigorous Phr hole and hearty, esp of elderly persons, or those who have been oiled hale (II), vb trans ME halen, halen, Mod Engl haul (I), othor (1) directly fr o LG source, op O Frs halia, OS hōlōn, 'to pull', also OE (gē) hōlian, 'to oquire, get', & OHG halōn, hōlōn, Germ holen, 'to summon, fetch', or (2) through Fr haler, 'to haul, tow', fr above, cogn w Lat calare, Gk kalain, 'to summon' See calends (archaic, now usually haul) To haul, drag along, pull, constrain to go to hale a man before a magistrate haleness, n [1 hālness, 2 hēalness] hale (I) & -ness Health, sound condition of body, esp in an old person half (I), n [1 hālf, 2 hāf] OE (Angl) & ME holf, 'ends, half', op OS, OHG halpa, Goth halba Outside Gmc, cognates are Sort halp ayati, 'arrange, distribute', & the variant Lat scalpere, 'to carro, scratch' & a number of words beginning w sk

The orig sense of the base seems to have been 'divides, split up' See further under scalo (of fish), shell, shell 1 One of two precisely equal parts into which a thing is or can be divided, a (of numbers) the half of six is three, b (of amounts, measures) eighteen inches is half a yard, a pint is the half of a quart, o (of material objects) to sow a plank into two exact halves, Phrs to go halves in, to share alike, to see with half an eye, easily, immediately, half a loaf is better than no bread, be content with what one can get (N B—In many phrases of is omitted, eg half a mile, half a pint, half an inch, half a cup) 2 A one of two portions of a thing which are of approximately the same size, amount & c, b (still more loosely) either of two portions or divisions of a thing, amount & c, without regard to their equality in size he ate by far the larger half of the meat himself, to waste half (of) one's time, I couldn't hear half of what he said, Phrs one's better half, wife, to cut a stick in half, into two pieces, to do something by halves, incompletely, not thoroughly, too good, clever, by half, (ironic) much too good, better than was expected, unnecessarily good, clever & 3 A specific portion or period of time, esp at some schools, a school term he entered the school in the summer half, and only stayed three halves 4 Side, party in a transaction, chiefly in legal agreements & c John Brown of the one half, and George Grey of the other half half (II), adj See prec 1 Consisting of, equivalent to, one of two precisely equal parts, amounts, degrees & c to own a half share in a business 2 Consisting of, equivalent to, one of two approximately equal parts, amounts & c, possessing in the same degree two distinct qualities or characters, b not completely imperfect, partial a half conviction, a half light, half truth & c half (III), adj See half (I) 1 To the extent of a half my work is half done, 'half angel and half bird', half a fool, half a knave 2 A to a considerable extent I am half inclined to agree with you, b very nearly half dead, half asleep, half raw, Phrs not half good enough for you, quite inadequate, I don't half like it, I don't like it at all, not half bad, very good, o to a slight extent, imperfectly, inadequately, insufficiently half-educated, half-cooked, Phr (vulg slang) not half Do you like beer? Oh, not half! = don't I just, I should think I did' &c half-and-half, adj & n 1 adj a Composed of two things in equal quantities, b (in unfavourable sense) neither one thing nor the other he's not a sound Tory, rather half and-half 2 n Mixture of beer and stout in equal quantities half-back, n a Position in football or hockey between forwards and backs, n player in such position half-baked, adj [1 háhft bákt, 2 háf béikt] 1 Partially or incompletely baked 2 (fig) a Imperfectly developed, mentally immature, raw, b socially inexperienced a half-baked youth, o (of ideas &c) crude, undigested half baked theories, views half-beak, n [1 háhftbék, 2 háf bíkt] One of several marine fishes, resembling the garfish, with lower jaw rather like a bird's beak half-binding, n Style of binding in which only back, corners, and strips adjoining back of a book are of leather half-blood, n & adj [1 háhftblnd, 2 háf bládt] half (II) & blood (I) A n 1 a Blood relationship through one parent only brothers of the half blood [1 háhft hlud, 2 háf hládt] b person thus related to another 2 Person born of parents of two different races, half breed B adj Half blooded half-blooded, adj a Having only one common parent, b born of parents belonging to two different races or species half-boot, n Boot reaching about half way up calf of leg half-bound, adj (hookbinding) Bound in half binding half-bred, adj 1 Of mixed breed, mongrel 2 Possessing imperfect breeding half-breed, n a Person whose parents are of different races, specif, mixture of white man and American Indian, b hybrid animal or plant half-brother, n Brother of the half blood, brother by one parent half-butt, n Billiard butt or one intermediate between longest one and one of ordinary length half-caste, n & adj half (II) & caste 1 n Child of a European and an Oriental, or member of a coloured race, esp of non-European mother 2 adj Pertaining to a half caste, horn of mixed European and Asiatic parentage half-cloth, n & adj 1 n Bookbinding with cloth sides and leather back 2 adj Bound in half cloth half-cock, n & vb trans 1 n Half raised position of trigger of gun when held by sear, or first notch 2 vb To fix trigger of gun at half cock half-crown, n half (II) & crown (I) a British silver coin, of value of two shillings and sixpence, b emm of money represented by this coin half-deck, n Deck extending over half or a part of vessel half-decked, adj [1 háhft dekt, 2 háf dekt] Prec & -ed Furnished with half deck half-diphthong, n Vague, unscientific term, used to denote some vowel combination which the user cannot describe accurately half-done, adj half (III) & done Half completed, specif, half cooked half-hardy, adj half (III) & hardy (I) (hort) Of garden plants, resisting ordinary changes of weather, but not severe frost half-hearted, adj half (II) & hearted a Lacking resolution or zeal, not enthusiastic, faintly interested, lukewarm, b having conflicting aims or feelings, divided in sympathy half-heartedly, adv In a half hearted manner half-heartedness, n Quality of being half hearted half-hitch, n Kind of hitch made by hending rope or thread and pulling end through bight half-holiday, n Holiday lasting for the afternoon, or afternoon and evening half-hourly, adj & adv n ndj Occurring every half hour, at intervals of half an hour, b adv, at intervals of half an hour half-length, adj & n a adj Of half the full length, specif (of portraits) depicting upper half of the person, b n, half length portrait half-line, n half (II) & line (I) (geom) Straight line extended from a point in definitely in one direction half-mast, n, adv, & vb trans 1 n Position of flag when flown near middle of mast or gall, as sign of mourning or signal of distress 2 adv At half mast half mast high 3 vb To fly (flag) at half mast to half mast a flag half-measure, n Inadequate means taken to secure end half-moon, n 1 Moon at quarter, showing half of its disk 2 Half disk, object of this shape 3 Edible fish of ovate form inhabiting Pacific half-mourning, n a Costume of black reheaved with white, grey, or lavender, often worn as transition from full mourning to ordinary dress, b period during which half-mourning is worn half-nelson, n [1 háhft nélsun, 2 háf nélsén] Wrestling hold by which wrestler, facing opponent's back, hooks one arm under corresponding armpit of latter, and presses both hands on back of neck half-note, n (mus) Minim half-one, n (golf) Handicap by which player owes one nt every second hole halfpace, n [1 háhftpás, 2 háfpeis] Corrupt of earlier halfpace, prob fr O Fr half (Mod haus), 'high' (see haughty), & pas, 'step' (see pace) a Platform approached by steps, as for throne or altar, dais, b landing or broad step on staircase, esp at turn of stairs halfpaced, adj [1 háhftpást, 2 háfpeist] Prec & -ed. (of staircase) Furnished with a halfpace half-pay, n & adj a n Reduced pay, approximately half, given to officer of navy or army when not employed, or when retired, b adj, receiving half pay a half pay colonel &c halfpenny, n & adj [1 háfpni, 2 háfpni] 1 n a British bronze coin worth half a penny, b pl halfpence, (colloq) any small coin, oppore, Phr to receive more pinks than halfpence, more blame than praise or reward 2 adj Worth a halfpenny, hence trumpery, worthless halfpennyworth, n [1 háfpniwérth, háfporth, 2 háfpniwáp, háfpóp] Prec & worth Quantity of commodity worth, or sold for, a halfpenny half-price, adv At half the usual price or charge children (are admitted) half price half-rater, n [1 háhft ráter, 2 háf réter] Small racing yacht, of which maximum size is variously prescribed, often 20 ft length at water line half-round, adj a Semicircular, b of semi-circular section, of the form of half a cylinder a half round file half-royal, n Kind of millboard or pasteboard half-seas-over, adj Only pred a (naut) half across the sea, b (fig, colloq) half drunk half-shift, n (mus) Second position of hand in playing violin or similar instrument, shut in which first finger occupies original place of second half-sister, n Sister by one parent half-sovereign, n British gold coin of value of ten shillings half-timbered, adj half (III) & timbered (archit) Having walls made of timber frame with spaces filled with other material o half-timbered house front half-time, n a Work and pay for half the day only to go on half time, b (football &c) interval between the two halves of play half-timer, n [1 háhft tímor, 2 háf tímor] Prec & -er Child of school age excused attendance for about half time in order to work for wages half-tint, n a (in painting, engraving &c) Tint intermediate between high light and deep shade, b (in water colour) faint wash half-title, n Title of hook or of section of hook printed at head of first page of text, or on otherwise blank page half-tone, n & adj A n 1 a Half tint in painting, engraving, or photograph, b photo-engraving made by half tone process 2 (mus) Semitone B adj Pertaining to half tone, specif, pertaining to process of photo engraving in which half tones are reproduced by transmission of photographic image through glass screen ruled with fine cross lines half-truth, n Statement which omits many relevant and significant facts half-uncial, adj & n a ndj Written partly in uncial, partly in cursive characters, b n, half uncial script half-volley, n & vb trans & intrans 1 n. (in cricket, lawn tennis and similar games) Return of ball as soon as it touches ground 2 vb To deliver or play (ball) in half-volley half-way, adj & adv 1 adj Equally distant from the two ends or extremes Phr half-way house, inn or other house about midway between the starting point and termination of a journey 2 adv In the middle, Phr to meet one half way, to be ready for compromise or mutual concessions half-witted, adj Imbecile, mentally deficient half-year, n a Period of six months, b term at school or university where there are only two in year, semester half-yearly, adj & adv Prec & -ly a adj Occurring every half year, b adv, at intervals of half a year halibut, n [1 halihut, 2 hélibat] ME hāl, holy, & butt, prob because eaten on holidays, cp Dn heilbot, Gorm heilbut Largest kind of flatfish, Hippoglossus vulgaris, with edible but coarse flesh, inhabiting northern seas halidom, n [1 hálidom, 2 héliðam] OE haligðom, 'holiness, relic, sacrament, sanctuary', ME halidom, 'sanctuary, relic' See holy & -dom (obs or archaic) A holy thing or object, relic &c Phr (obs) by my halidom, form of oath halientic, adj & n [1 hálútik, 2 héliútik] Lat halieutic (us), fr Gk halieutiké, 'pertaining to fishing', fr halieuein, 'to fish', fr hal & 'salt een', for *sal, cp Lat sāl, 'salt' See sal (I) & salt a adj Pertaining to fish ing, b n (pl), art of fishing, treatise on same halitus, n [1 hálítus, 2 haliútus] Mod. Lat, fr Gk hal & 'salt, sea', see prec & ait stem of oils, ear (I) Abalone, ear-shell halitosis, n [1 hálítosis, 2 héliútosis] Invented word fr Lat halitus, 'breath', fr halare, 'to breathe' See exhale & -osis Medical term for foul breath hall, n [1 hawl, 2 hál] OE heall, hall, ME halle, 'hall', OS, OHG halla This Common Gmc word is cogn w Lat cella (see cell), Gk halid, 'hut, cabin' &c The orig sense of Aryan base h₁el-* &c is 'hide, protect', cp Gk haluptein, 'to cover', Lat celare, 'hide' (see conceal), & further OE hēlan, 'to hide', heolstor, 'hiding place, darkness' &c, helm, 'helmet, protection' See helm (II) & hoister 1 Originally a hall was a the great apartment, constituting the principal part of the dwelling of a king, chief, baron &c, in which most of the social occupations of life were carried on, esp eating and merry-making, b the whole dwelling where such an apartment existed, including the various other rooms and dwellings which clustered round it, c now applied to the large room in a castle, palace, mansion, chiefly used for dining banqueting hall, d large dining room in a college, school &c, Phr a hall, dinner eaten in hall, a servants' hall, sitting and dining room for servants in a private house.

2 Principal house in a place, esp the large residence belonging to the owner of a country estate 3 Large building, generally with some architectural pretensions, used for public purposes, a one where county and municipal business, or the administration of justice, is carried on Town Hall, County Hall, Hall of Justice &c , b place of meeting of philanthropic, religious, and other organizations and societies Masonic Hall, Mission Hall &c , c building used for public instruction, entertainments, and social functions, d building in which certain members of a university reside, in Oxford and Cambridge the term covers colleges, but refers specifically to smaller teaching institutions and their buildings hall of residence &c , e headquarters of learned, or professional society, trade guild &c Surgeons' Hall, Fishmongers' Hall &c 4 Portion of a public building or private house, situated near the entrance, a in large public building or private house, a spacious apartment communicating with outer air by means of principal door, and opening into other rooms, b in small houses, space, passage, or lobby immediately inside front door halallelujah, -iah, interj & n [1 hălălôjə, 2 hălălôjə] Heb hălălêh-yah, 'praise ye Jehovah' Cp alleluia Pious ejaculatory in praise and adoration of God, used in Jewish and Christian worship Phr (colloq) Halallelujah lass, female member of Salvation Army hallard, n See halyard hallmark (I), n [1 hălwmrk, 2 hălmrk] a Official mark stamped on gold or silver plate at Goldsmiths' Hall or by assay officers to guarantee quality, b (fig) token, criterion, of quality or distinction the hallmark of gentility hallmark (II), vb trans, fr prec a To stamp (plate) with hallmark, b (fig) to furnish with criterion of quality hallmoot, u [1 hălwmçot, 2 hălmrçt] OE hall-gemôt*, 'hall meeting', ME halmôt See hall, moot (hist) Court of lord of manor, held in his hall, court baron hallo, halloa, interj, u, & vb intrans [1 hulô, halô, 2 halôu, halôu] Imut See also hullo a interj Cry to attract attention, also cry of surprise, b u, this cry, c vb, to utter this cry halloo (I), interj & n [1 halôo, 2 halô] Perh variant of prec, or ME halow, 'call, shout' See halloow (III) a A call to hounds during chase, b shout given to attract attention halloo (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec Cp halloow (III) 1 trans a To incite hounds by shouting 'halloo!', b to chase with shouts, c to shout 'halloo!' to attract attention of, to shout to or at a person 2 intrans To shout 'halloo!' at hounds, b in order to attract attention, Phr don't halloo till you are out of the wood, don't triumph until all difficulties are surmounted halloow (I), n [1 hălô, 2 halow] OE hălga, 'holy person, saint', ME hălwe, fr wk form of adj hălga, 'holy' See holy Obsolete except in All Hallows halloow (II), vb trans OE hălgaian, 'to consecrate', ME hălgaen, hălgaen, op OS hălgaen, OHG hălgaen See prec & holy a To regard as holy, to reverence 'hallowed be thy name', b to make holy a place hallowed by sacred memories, c devote to sacred use, to dedicate to God, or to some cause a life hallowed by piety and goodness halloow (III) Variant of hallo, halloo, hullo Hallowe'en, n [1 hălôwcn, 2 hălôwcn] halloow (I) & Scots or North e'en, contr fr even (I) (chiefly Scots) The eve or vigil of Hallowmas or All Saints, Oct 31st, esp its evening Hallowmas, n [1 hălômas, 2 hălôumas] halloow (I) & mass (I) (archaic) The Church festival of All Saints, Nov let Hallstatt, adj [1 hălstat, 2 hălstat], fr name of town in Austria near wh first discovery was made Of, pertaining to, a period of prehistoric civilization in Europe during which iron began to take the place of bronze hallucinate, vb trans [1 hălúsinat, 2 hălúsinet] Lat hallucināt(-um), PP type of hallucināri, correctly alucināri, deponent vb, 'to wander in mind, dream, rave', cogn w Gk alucin, halucin, 'to wander in mind', & eleos, 'distracted, crazed' Origin of these unknown (rare) To affect with hallucination, produce hallucination in mind of hallucination, u [1 hălúsinášun, 2 hălúsinášən] See prec & -ion a Fancied perception by the senses of something which has no external, objective existence, b that which is supposed to be perceived hallucinative, adj [1 hălúsinativ, 2 hălúsinativ] hallucinate & -ive Pertaining to hallucination, hallucinatory hallucinatory, adj [1 hălúsinatori, 2 hălúsinatori] hallucinate & -ory Pertaining to, of the nature of, an hallucination hallux, n, pl halluces, [1 hăluka, hălúséz, 2 hăluka, hălúséz] Mistaken form of Lat (hăllex, -scis, 'great toe' (anat) First digit on hindleg of mammal, great toe of man, hind toe of bird halma, n See halm halma, u [1 hălma, 2 hălma] Gk halma, 'a leaping', fr hal esthai, 'to leap' Cp. salient Game played on board of 256 squares by two or four players, in which pieces proceed by moves or jumps from one corner to that opposite halo, n [1 hălô, 2 heilou] Fr, fr Lat halô, acc of halô, 'halo', fr Gk halô, 'threshing-floor, in which oxen walked in circle', hence, 'disk of sun or moon, halo', fr alein, 'to grind, pound', cogn w Sert lávaz, 'cutting' 1 Ring of light surrounding sun or moon 2 A aureole in form of ring, or disk, shown in pictorial representations round or above head of the Saviour and of saints, b (fig) glory, glamour, investing idealized person, institution, or thing Arthur wears a halo of romance 3 (anat, pathol) Aureole or coloured ring round nipple, vesicle, or pustule halosed, adj [1 hălôd, 2 heiloud] Prec. & -ed. Provided, represented, with a halo halogen, u [1 hălôjən, 2 hălôudžen] Gk hal s, sea salt, & -gen (chem) Element, or other radical, forming a salt in combination with a metal halogenous, adj [1 hălôjenus, 2 hălôdženus] Prec & -ous Pertaining to, of the nature of, halogen haloid, adj & n [1 hălôid, 2 hălôid] Gk hal-s, 'salt' See saline & -oid (chem) a adj Resembling common salt, b u, substance of this kind halt (I), adj [1 hălwt, 2 hălwt] OE halt, halt, ME halt, Common Gmc, cp OHG haltz, Goth halt-s &c Etymol doubtful, not cogn w Lat claudus, 'lame' (archaic) Lame, halting in gait halt (II), vb intrans OE haltian, haltian, ME hallen, fr prec 1 (archaic) To belame, walk lamely, lump to halt in one's gait 2 (fig) a To hesitate, vacillate, stand in doubt 'How long halt ye between two opinions?' (1 Kings xviii 21), b to speak with a hesitation, in a stumbling, disconnected manner, c (of verse) to run lamely, be metrically faulty, d (of argument) to be defective, to proceed illogically or inconclusively halt (III), u, fr prec (archaic) Lame, lump a halt in one's walk halt (IV), n, fr Fr halte, fr Germ halt (machen), 'stopping, halt', fr halten, 'to hold, stop, check' Cogn w hold (I) 1 a (mil) Temporary stoppage of moving troops to make, call, a halt, b (gon) cessation, stoppage, of walking or other movement, c pause in any form of activity 2 A Place on railway line at which a halt is made, place where train stop for brief space of time to take up and let down passengers, b stopping-place of trams &c halt (V), vb intrans & trans Pres, orig-make halt, fr Germ halt machen 1 intrans a (mil) To cease marching, come to a halt, b to pause during walk, or other form of movement, to cease activity and to remain at rest for a time 2 trans (mil) To make (troops) halt halter, n & vb trans [1 hălwtér, 2 hălwtér] OE hælfter, hælftre, ME halfter, halter, op OS halftira, MLG halter, OHG halftira Etymol. obscure, possibly allied to halve 1 n a Short rope, usually attached to a head-stall for leading a horse, b rope with noose for hanging person, Phr to come to the halter, be hanged as a criminal 2 vb (rare) To put a halter on to halter break, vb trans To break, accustom (colt &c) to a halter halting, adj [1 hălwtang, 2 hălwtang], fr Pres Part of halt (I) 1 (of gait) Stumbling, uncertain, limping 2 (fig, of speech, verse, argument) Uncertain, hesitating, stumbling, jerky, (of persons) speaking or arguing thus haltingly, adv Prec & -ly In a halting manner, with hesitation halting-place, n Place where a halt is made halve, vb trans [1 hălvt, 2 hălvt] ME halven, fr half (I) 1 To divide into halves 2 To share equally (with another) to halve expenses with Phr (golf) to halve a hole with, to reach it in as many strokes as, to tie with (opponent), so to halve a match 3 To diminish by a half this will halve the profits 4 (carpent) To fit two pieces of wood together by cutting each at place where they are to cross to half its thickness halyard, halliard, hauyard, n [1 hălyard, 2 hălyard] Cp ME halier, 'carrier, porter', halyard, fr halien, hale (II) The second element is yard (I) (naut) Rope &c, for hoisting or lowering flag, sails &c ham (I), n [1 ham, 2 hām] OE ham(m), homm, ME hamme, cp OHG hamma, Du ham, ON hóm, prob cogn w Celt base kamb* or, 'bent, crooked' (W cam), whence L Lat camba, 'head of leg' See gambol, jamb 1 a (obs) Inner or under part of knee, hock, cp Shakespeare, 'Old men have most weak hams', b back of thigh with buttock to squat on one's hams 2 A Thigh of animal, specif, a pig's leg salted, smoked, and seasoned for eating, b portion, slices, of this, meat of this considered as an article of diet to have ham for breakfast ham (II), n. (i) In some Pl Ns this is fr prec & means 'bend of a river', e.g. Ful-ham, OE Fullanham, (u) in the majority of Pl Ns the suff is shortened in the unstressed position, fr OE hām, 'dwelling' &c See hamlet & home hamadryad, n [1 hamadriad, 2 hāmā-driad] Lat hamadryad(-is), fr stem of Gk hamadryas, nymph whose life began and ended with that of a tree, fr hāmā, 'together with' (cp same), & dryas, 'wood nymph' See dryad 1 (Gk mythol) Tree nymph 2 a King cobra of India, b sacred baboon of ancient Egypt, now found in Abyssinia and Arabia hamartology, n [1 hāmārtólôj, 2 hāmārtólôlôdži] Gk hamartia, 'sin', fr hamartanein, 'to miss the mark, fail, sin', the etymol of wh is uncertain, & -logy Branch of theology dealing with sin, treatise on this Hamburg, n [1 hambro, 2 hambro] Earlier spelling of Hamburg, a town in Germany 1 Kind of black grape, also Black Hamburgs 2 Breed of domestic fowl hames, n pl [1 hāmz, 2 heimz] ME hāme (fr OE hama, 'dress, covering'), cp M Du hamme, Du haem, 'hame', also MLG hame, Germ hamen, 'hoop net, fish hook'. Outside Gmc cp perh Lat camus, 'bent inwards', & camera, 'a vault &c', borrowed fr the cogn. Gk kamára, 'vaulted chamber' &c (see camera, chamber), further Sert kamyá, 'pin of yoke' For other probable Gmc cognates see harm (I) Pair of curved pieces of metal, rarely of wood, passing on either side of the collar in draught harness, kept in place by a strap and buckle above and below the collar, and having each a metal loop to which the traces are attached hamesucken n [1 hāmsuken, 2 hēmsikan] OE hamsēcen, 'attacking enemy in his house, house breaking', ME hāmsēcen, cp ON hamsēfin (cp O Fris hamselerge, 'attack on one's house', Germ hamsuchung, 'visitation, affliction'), fr OE hām, 'home, house' (see home), & sēcn, 'attack' (cp seek) The above form is Nthn in type (Scots law) Offence of assaulting person in his own dwelling house hamite (I), n [1 hāmīt, 2 hēmat] Lat hām (us), 'hook' (etymol doubtful), & -ite (present) Fossil cephalopod with shell bent back like hook

Hamite (II), n [1 homit, 2 hēmat], fr name of Ham, son of Noah, supposed ancestor, & -ite Member of race with S European and Semitic affinities, predominant in N and NE Africa, including many Egyptians, Somalis &c, and possibly Berbers and Tuaregs

Hamitic, adj [1 hāmīk, 2 hēmatīk] Prec & -ic Pertaining to Hamites or their languages hamlet, n [1 hāmlet, 2 hāmlet] ME, A Fr hamlet, 'small village', fr O Fr hamel & dimin suff -et (Mod Fr hameau), itself fr LG hām & the further dimin suff -el- (see -le), cp OE hām See home A small village hammam, hummum, n [1 hāmam hūmam, 2 hāmam hāmam] Arab hammām Turk ish bath or bath house hammer (I), n [1 hāmer, 2 hāme] OE hamor, hamer, ME hamur, hamer, cp OS hamur, O HG hamar, ON hamar, fr Gmc type ham*-raz, w suff -r, as in thunder &c, the orig sense was 'stone', cp ON hamarr, wh still retains the meaning 'rock, crag', Cognates outside Gmc are Sert adman, '(meteoric) stone', O Slav hamén, Lith almu, 'stone', Gk dāmōn for kāmōn*, '(stone) anvil'. The word therefore, in the sense existing in all Gmc languages, goes back to the Stone Age 1 Tool for striking, consisting of a relatively long handle, with heavy metal head set at right angles to it, used to drive nails, chisels &c, to work metal, to break stones &c by repeated blows Phr throwing the hammer, hurling heavy hammer with long, pliant handle as a trial of strength, to go, be of, it hammer and tongs, with great animation, noise and violence, or (fig) with energy 2 Applied to various objects and appliances for striking, a device somewhat resembling hammer in shape, which strikes the ball in a clock, or the dial of electric bell, b device worked by lovers which strikes string of piano &c, c wooden mallet used by auctioneer to announce that lot is sold auctioneer's hammer, Phr to bring, send to, come under, the hammer, sell, be sold, by auction, d striking part of gun lock, which ignites priming, moved by the trigger, e heavy, striking part of large machine, raised and lowered by steam, used in metal working on a large scale steam hammer hammer (II), vb trans & intrans fr prec A trans 1 A To strike, drive, with a hammer to hammer a nail into a plank, b to use a hammer for making to hammer a rough box together, c to work and shape (metal) by striking repeated blows with a hammer (cp hammered adj) 2 A To strike violently and repeatedly, esp with the fists Carpenter was badly hammered in several rounds, b to attack (enemy) violently in war, esp by heavy artillery 3 To defeat in any contest by vigorous effort and attack The visiting cricket team were badly hammered 4 (Stock Exchange) To declare (a member) a defaulter (attention being drawn to declaration by hammering three times) B intrans 1 To ply a hammer 2 Hammer away, a to engage in continuous action to hammer away at a task, b to make noise like hammer-blows the guns are hammering away C Followed by prepositions & adverbs Hammer at, intrans, 1 to strike repeatedly blows upon to hammer at the door 2 (fig) a to approach, plead with (a person) repeatedly and insistently he was always hammering at me to let him ride, b to pursue a course of action with determination and persistence, work hard at I've been hammering (away) of the dictionary all day Hammer down, trans, to fasten down by hammering nails into to hammer down the lid of a packing case Hammer in, into, trans, a to drive in by hammering to hammer in a nail, or a nail in, b (fig) to instil knowledge, ideas &c into a person's mind by repeated instruction, explanation &c I want to hammer in a few facts if I can, I can't hammer anything into his thick head Hammer out, trans, 1 a to flatten, cause a substance to become thinner, and to be extended over wider surface by hammering to hammer out metal very thin &c, b to smooth out, remove, by hammering to hammer out the dents in a silver teapot, 2 (fig) a to elucidate a problem &c by repeated thought or discussion to hammer out the question in friendly debate &c, b to shape, devise, plan out, construct, scheme, &c, by assiduous thought I've had some trouble over my book, report, lecture &c, but I shall hammer out something at last hammer-beam, n hammer (I) & beam (archit) One of pair of short horizontal beams, projecting inwards from base of roof, supported by hammer braces and supporting collar-braces hammer-blow, n Heavy, severe, repeated blows, as from a hammer hammer-brace, n hammer (I) & brace (I) (archit) One of pair of braces or ribs rising from corbels to support hammer beams in roof hammer-cloth, n Early Mod E hamerclothe (1486), of uncertain origin, but prob so called because it covered the box in which, formerly, were carried hammers and other tools for repairing the carriage on a journey Ornamental cloth covering driver's seat on coach or horse carriage hammered, adj [1 hāmerd, 2 hāmēd] PP of hammer (II) Wrought, shaped, by hammer o gate of hammered iron, specif a (of thin metal ware) shaped with light hand hammer, retaining marks of its blows hammered work, b (of glass) irregularly indented on one side hammer-head, n 1 Head of hammer 2 One of various animals with head somewhat resembling that of hammer, as the hammer-headed shark hammer-headed, adj As prec & -ed Having head like that of hammer hammer-headed shark hammering, adj & n [1 hāmēring, 2 hāmer] Fr Pres Part of hammer (II) & vb1 n hammer (II) & -ing 1 adj Loud, or heavy, and repeated, as though delivered by a hammer hammering blows 2 vb1 n a Sound of hammers striking, b the striking of hammers, c (fig) defeat by repeated attacks or blows to give a man a good hammering hammerless, adj [1 hāmēries, 2 hāmēlis] hammer (I) & -less Specif a without a hammer, b (of small arms) having hammer or equivalent appliance without lock hammer-lock, n Hold by which wrestler bends and presses opponent's arm behind latter's back hammer-man, n hammer (I) & man (I) Man who plies a hammer, as in forge hammer-smith, n hammer (I) & smith One who uses hammer hammer-toe, n (med) Toe permanently deformed by being bent upwards hammock, n [1 hāmuk, 2 hāmek] Span hamaca, of W Indian, prob Carib, origin Bed or couch made from a long, narrow piece of canvas or netting, loosely stretched, and swung with cords from beams in ships, or from trees in gardens hammock-chair, n Prec & chair (I) Folding easy chair with seat and back formed by strip of canvas hanging freely from both ends hammy, adj [1 hāmī, 2 hāmī] ham (I) & -y Having the smell or flavour of ham hamose, hamous adj [1 hāmōs, hāmūs, 2 hāmōus, hāmūs] Lt hām (us), 'hook', the origin of wh is uncertain, & -ose, -ous (bot) Terminating in a hook hamper (I), vb trans [1 hāmpē, 2 hāmpē] M L hampere, of uncertain origin a To impede hinder, trammel, obstruct, prevent free movement of the swimmer was hampered by his clothes, a hampered lock, b (also of effect on non-material things) his mind is hampered by prejudice hamper (II), n, fr prec 1 (nant) Things that are useful in their place, but occasionally a nuisance, esp top hamper 2 Top hamper, the smaller houghs and thinner stem forming the uppermost part, about one third of entire length, of a tree useless as timber and suitable only as firewood hamper (III), n Variant of hanaper, a strong basket with lid, used for carriage of articles, esp of vegetables, poultry &c, b specif, hamper packed with eatables sent to a schoolboy to get a fine hamper from home hamshackle, vb trans [1 hāmshakl, 2 hāmshakl] Prob fr ham (I) & shackle, 'tie in the hams or legs' (proverb) To hinder (horse &c) from straying by means of rope connecting head with foreleg hamster, n [1 hamster, 2 hāmstē] Germ, fr OHG hāmīstro, hāmīstro (see -ster), cp Russ chomval, 'hamster' Kind of large rat, found in E Europe &c, having a short tail and large cheek pouches, German marmot hamstring (I) n [1 hāmstring, 2 hāmstring] ham (I) & string (I) a (in mon) Tendon at back of knee, b (in horse &c) great tendon behind hock, Achilles tendon hamstring (II), vb trans, fr prec a To lame by cutting a hamstring, to lough, b (fig) to cripple, disable hamulus, n [1 hāmulus, 2 hāmulus] Lat hamulus, 'little hook', dimin of hāmus, 'hook', the etymol of wh is uncertain (asat) Small hook-like process, as on haricle of a feather hanap, n [1 hānap, 2 hānap] Fr, of Gmc origin See next word Mediaeval drinking-cup or goblet with stem and foot hanaper, n [1 hānapē, 2 hānapē] ME hanypere, fr O Fr hanaper (L Lat hanaperium), 'large vessel to keep cups in', fr hanop, fr LG, cp OE hnap, hnap, hnap, bowl', cp OHG hnapf, Germ napf (hist) 1 Basket or hamper in which writs were deposited in Court of Chancery 2 Former office (abolished 1832) in Court of Chancery, into which fees were paid for sealing and enrolling documents, also called Hanaper Office hance n [1 hāns, hāns, 2 hāns, hōns] Of uncertain origin, associated w haunch (I), if not a form of it, cp obs Engl hance, 'to raise' See enhance (archit) a Part where curve is greatest in arch with three or more centres, also haunch hance arch, arch with three or more centres, b half arch supporting straight lintel hand (I), n [1 hand, 2 hānd] OE & ME hond, in all Gmc languages Cogn, in different grade, w Goth hamban, 'to seize', & OE hūp, 'that which is seized, booty', fr hamb-* The orig sense of hand is apparently 'that which seizes, the grasper' &c. It has been suggested that the Gmc forms of the base are fr Aryan hant*, hant* &c, & that fr the latter comes also Lat com, cum, 'together with' &c See com- 1 a Part of human body, forming extremity of the forearm, below wrist-joint, and consisting of the

palm, knuckles, fingers, and thumb; b corresponding member on foreleg of animals, esp of apes, frogs &c, Phrs at hand, close, near, m near future, by hand, through instrumentality of hand, as done, made, by hand, not by machinery, delivered by hand, not through post, to bring up by hand, rear child &c by bottle, to have with mother's milk, from hand to hand, from one person to another, from hand to mouth, precariously, without provision for future, to fight hand to hand, at close quarters, exchanging actual blows, hand in hand, holding each other's hands, in hand, (of work) in process of execution, to put in hand, start doing, begin, work &c, to have in hand, to have (a stock of) something in one's possession, to have under (one's) control, to take in hand, deal with, get into order, bring under discipline, control &c, to do something out of hand, at once, without preparation or delay, to feed out of one's hand, (fig) to be docile, amenable to control, to come to hand, be found, turn up, ready to one's hand, under one's hand, convenient, available for use, your letter, or yours, to hand, (commerce) received, to win hands down, easily, without effort, hands off!, don't touch, (fig) don't interfere (with), hands up!, put your hands up in token of surrender, to wait on hand and foot, assiduously, hand in (or and) glove with, in confidence of, intimate with, to lend, bear, a hand, give assistance, not to lift a hand, to make no effort, do nothing, to lift one's hand to, against, threaten to attack, to attack, strike, to put, set, one's hand to, undertake, begin work at, to lay (violent) hands on (a person), to attack, strike, to lay hands on (a thing), get hold of, seize, to keep one's hand in, keep in practice, retain one's skill, to have one's hands full, to be busy, to keep one's hand on, a firm hand on, retain control of, exercise control over, a bird in the hand, something gained, acquired, possessed, an assured gain or possession, on hand, available, on one's hands, under one's charge, responsibility, (to get something) off one's hands, out of one's charge, get rid of, time hangs heavy on my hands, passes slowly and tediously, heavy on hand, (of persons) dull, poor company, to give one's hand on a bargain, promise to enter to it, to ask for, win, a lady's hand, propose marriage, gain consent to marriage 2 Symbolical of some activity, function, influence, a guardianship, keeping, care, charge &c we are all in the hands of God, to leave a child in very good hands, b possession, custody the documents are in my solicitor's hands, c authority, jurisdiction, power, control to fall into the hands of one's enemies, Phr to keep a person, one's desires, well in hand, under discipline, in control, the situation is well in hand, being effectively dealt with, to get, be, out of hand, out of control, to have a person's fate, life, in one's hands, at one's disposal, I am entirely in your hands, subject to your wishes, in the hands of money lenders, their victim, the upper hand (of), advantage over, a high hand, arrogance, dictatorial, arbitrary, manner or conduct, an iron hand, a heavy hand, great severity, d agency, instrumentality, influence we see the hand of God in Nature; the hand of Napoleon was seen and felt in every department of national life, e source of, authority for, information to hear something at first hand 3 A mode of using the hand, degree of manual skill, dexterity, control, in some particular operation, touch to have a light hand at pastry, to have good hands in riding or driving, b artistic, executive skill, artistic quality, style, touch the picture, poem &c, showed the hand of a master 4 a Person who uses, works with, his hands, specif, one of a band of workers in a factory, at docks, member of ship's crew &c Government shipyards employ several thousand hands, the ship was lost with all hands, Phrs an old hand, person of experience, a poor hand at (golf, rowing &c) not good at, poor performer, b person considered as producer of some artistic or literary work the tool was the work of several hands, the picture is clearly by some skilled hand 5 Direction, position, side, thought of primarily as indicated by the left or right hand he was escorted by a policeman on either hand, Phr on one hand on the other (hand), from one point of view from another, on all hands, from every direction, on all sides 6 a Handwriting, type of script to write a good hand, it is possible to distinguish several hands in the MS of the Laud Chronicle, b signature given under my hand, to set one's hand to a document 7 (card games) a The whole number of cards dealt out to a player for one game to have a wretched hand, Phrs to play a good hand, play well, to take a hand at bridge, to play, to take a hand at, have a hand in, (fig) take part in, be concerned with, to play for one's own hand, (fig) to act from motives of self-interest, to play into one another's hands, (fig) to help each other by concerted action, (in good and bad sense), b one of the players at game of cards, Phr a cool hand, independent person, c a round in a game of cards to play another hand 8 (measurement) The approximate breadth of the hand, four inches, only used in measuring horses, the number of hands being counted from the ground to top of shoulder 9 Indicator on dial of clock or watch 10 Bloody Hand, armorial device of Ulster, borne also by baronets on their coats of arms hand (II), vb trans, fr preo A trans 1 a To pass, transmit, put, into another's hands please hand the key to my agent, specif b to put into another's hands as a gift or reward, to give I have pleasure in handing you the prize for reading, to hand a person five pounds, c to pass (a dish &c) to another at table would you kindly hand me the muffins? 2 To transmit, convey to another's keeping or possession by any means, to send, by letter &c I have pleasure in handing you the enclosed cheque B Followed by preposition or adverb Hand down 1 to take from a higher place and deliver to another to hand down plates from a shelf, 2 to conduct, accompany, from higher to lower level shall I hand her ladyship down to her carriage? 3 to transmit a as an inheritance or heirloom to hand down one's property, a picture, to one's descendants, b to transmit through the ages (a tradition, privilege, custom &c) our freedom has been handed down to us by our ancestors, to hand down a legend &c, c to transmit (a physical or mental trait) by biological inheritance it is said that acquired characters are not handed down to offspring Hand in, trans, 1 a to deliver by hand, give into keeping (from outside a house &c) to hand in a note at the door, b to send, transmit, to an official authority, esp to hand in one's resignation, Phr to hand in one's checks, to die, 2 (archaic) to conduct, lead, give an arm to, accompany, from one place, or room, to another the squire handed in the vicar's lady, re took her in (to dinner) Hand on, trans, 1 to pass by hand, or send, from one person to another when you've read this, kindly hand it on to your friends, 2 same as hand down 3 Hand out, 1 trans, a to give out, distribute to hand out blankets to the poor at Christmas, b to assist to get out, by giving hand to, to conduct to hand a lady out of her carriage, 2 intrans, (colloq) to spend, give out money he is quite rich, but he doesn't like handing out Hand over, 1 trans, to deliver into another's keeping, transfer from one's own to another's possession to hand over all one's property to one's son, hand over one's affairs to a lawyer, 2 intrans, (mil) to transfer one's duties, command, stores, position, headquarters &c, to another we handed over to the French Hand round, trans, to distribute, carry round, to a series of persons to hand round tea Hand up, trans, to pass something by hand, from a lower to a higher position to hand up luggage from the hold of a ship handbag, n [1 håndbag, 2 håndbæg] Light bag that can be carried by handle in one hand handball, n [1 håndbawl, 2 håndbål] In ME 1 Small ball which can be thrown or struck by hand 2 Game in which this is used handbarrow, n [1 håndbarø, 2 håndbærou] ME hand barou(e) Small light cart or barrow with two wheels, and handles by which it is pushed along handbell, n [1 håndbel, 2 håndbel] Portable bell with a handle at the top, rung by being shaken by the hand handbill, n [1 håndbil, 2 håndbíl] Printed notice, advertisement &c, on small sheet, distributed by hand handbook, n [1 håndbook, 2 håndbuk] Mod formation on model of Germ handbuch, but handbók existed in OE a Systematic treatise on special subject, manual, compendium handbook of anatomy, guide book handbook to a collection of coins, in Holland, b botting book carried by bookmaker handbreadth, n [1 håndbreddh, 2 håndbrsdh] Width of palm of hand, esp as linear measure hand-canter, n Easy canter, speed of which is checked by hand on bridle handcart, n [1 håndkart, 2 håndkåt] Small cart pushed or pulled by hand handcuff, n & vb trans [1 håndkuf, 2 håndkuf] Apparently fr OE, ME handcops (sing), pair of handcuffs, manacle, w second element influenced by cuff, fr hand (I) & OE cops, 'fetter', fr Lat compēs, fr con-, 'together', & pēs (stem ped-) See foot & pedal 1 n One of pair of iron rings made to open and lock, connected by short chain or bar, used to manacle the wrists of a prisoner (usually pl) 2 vb To put handcuffs on to hand-drill, n Small drill worked by hand, by means of cog-wheel and crank handed, adj [1 hånded, 2 håndid] hand (I) & -ed 1 Having a hand or hands, chiefly in compounds neat handed, heavy handed &c 2 Played by so many hands or players four handed game at tennis &c handfast (I), vb trans [1 håndfast, 2 håndfast] OE handfæstan, ME handfæsten, fr hand (I) & fæstan, 'to make firm' (see fast (I)), op ON handfesta, 'to pledge, betroth' a (archaic) To pledge, contract with, by holding hand, to betroth, b (hist, chiefly Scots) to give verbal pledge with handgrasp, formerly constituting, by custom, an irregular, probationary, marital union, binding for a year and a day handfast (II), adj & n ME handfest, PP of preo (archaic) 1 adj Betrothed, contracted, by handfasting 2 n Confirmation of contract by handgrasp, betrothal, handfasting handfasting, n [1 håndfasting, 2 håndfasting] OE handfæstung, fr handfast (I) & -ing (archaic or hist) Act of one who handfasts, betrothal, probationary marital union handful, n [1 håndful, 2 håndful] OE handfull, ME handful, fr hand (I) & -ful 1 A quantity of anything that fills the hand or can be grasped by the hand a handful of sand, straw, specif b eighth of a pound of flax 2 (fig) Very small number the fort was held by a handful of men 3 (colloq) Person or animal only to be managed or controlled by exerting all one's energy, undisciplined boy or girl hand-gallop, n Easy gallop, speed of which is controlled by one hand on bridle hand-gear, n a Part of machine worked by hand, as starting or regulating gear, specif b (in steamship) emergency steering gear hand-glass, n Glass that can be held in or lifted by the hand, specif a bell glass or small glazed frame for protecting plants from frost, b magnifying glass with handle, c small mirror with handle, d (mant) small sand-glass for timing log line hand-grenade, n Small bomb or grenade thrown by hand handgrip, n [1 hændgrip, 2 hændgrip] OE handgripe 1 Grasp of the hand, a as salutation, sign of friendship &c, b a close, hand to hand conflict to come to handgrips 2 Handle, hilt hand-hammer, n Hammer molded by (one) hand, specif a blacksmith's hammer for one hand, distinguished from sledge hammer, b mason's hammer with two smooth faces handhold, n [1 hænd hōld, 2 hændhōld] a Action of holding with hand, b object such as a projection of rock, that climber can grasp, cp foothold handicap (I), n [1 hændikæp, 2 hændikæp], fr hand in cap, the precise origin of wh is conjectural, the phrase prob referred to a game 1 a Some form of obstacle, disadvantage, in time, weight, score &c, hindrance, difficulty, imposed upon a competitor as player, runner, horse &c, of inferior strength, skill &c, in a contest, the object of which is to put him approximately on a level with superior opponents, b a contest of any kind in which handicaps are imposed 2 (fig) Disability of any kind which puts a person at a disadvantage compared with his fellows, in any form of action, intellectual or physical, any circumstance or set of conditions which render a person's life, career, position in society &c difficult or embarrassed handicap (II), vb trans, fr prec a To impose a handicap upon, b (fig) to place at a disadvantage, encumber, embarrass to be handicapped by poverty &c handicapper, n [1 hændikæpə, 2 hændikæpə] prec & -or Person who decides on handicaps to be imposed upon competitors in a contest of any kind handicraft, n [1 hændikræft, 2 hændikræft] OE handeraft, 'power or skill of hand, handicraft', fr hand (I) & craft, altered in Early Mod Engl to handicraft on anal of handiwork a Skilled work performed by hand, as weaving, joinery, pottery, b skill in working with the hand, manual dexterity handicraftsman, n [1 hændikræftsmæn, 2 hændikræftsmæn] prec & man (I) One occupied with a handicraft handily, adv [1 hændil, 2 hændil] handy & -ly In a handy manner, dexterously, conveniently handiness, n [1 handines, 2 handines] handy & -ness Quality of being handy hand-in-hand adv With one hand holding that of another person handiwork n [1 hændwɜ:k, 2 hændwɜ:k] OE handgeweorc, ME handzeweorc, fr hand (I) & OE geweorc, coll. derivative fr weorc See work a (1) Work done by hand, labour of one's hands, (u) performance, operation, b thing made by hand, something a particular person has made I suppose this box is your handiwork handkerchief, n [1 hændkərtʃ, 2 hændkərtʃ], vulgarly [1 chəf, 2 tʃif] hand (I) & kerchief (I) a Square piece of linen, cotton, silk &c, carried in pocket (pocket handkerchief), or otherwise on the person, used for wiping nose, face, or eyes, Phr to throw the handkerchief to (1) (lit) to throw, signify to call upon (player) to take his turn, esp to chase thrower, (u) (fig) to single out for special favour, by some sign of invitation, b piece of silk or other material worn round neck, a small shawl of silk, lawn &c handle (I), n [1 hændl, 2 hændl] OE handle, ME handele (cp Dan håndel), fr hand (I) & -le Part of utensil, tool, vessel &c, made to be held by the hand, for lifting, pulling, turning &c Phr (fig) to give a handle to (one's enemies) provide them a means of attacking one, also more generally, provide a pretext, a handle to one's name, a title handle (II), vb trans OE handlian, ME handli(en) See hand (I) & -le 1 a To use the hands upon, to touch, feel with take into, move with, the hand heavy timber is awkward stuff to handle, b to deal with, treat, behave to (in material and non-material senses) to be roughly handled by the mob, he was rather severely handled in the witness box 2 (commerce) To deal in, pass through one's hands as a commodity to handle thousands of pigs in the course of the year 3 a To manipulate, manage with the hand to handle the reins, a gun &c, b to control, use for a particular purpose, direct movements or action of to handle troops, a fleet &c, c to manage, cope, deal, with the police handle the traffic very efficiently, d (of intellectual activity) to treat of, elucidate, expound to handle a subject, theme, problem &c handle-bar, n Cross bar with handle at each end for steering bicycle.

handless, adj [1 hændləs, 2 hændləs] ME handlis, fr hand (I) & -less a Without hands, b (fig) clumsy, incapable of using hands well hand-line, n Fishing line without rod handling, n [1 hændling, 2 hændling] OE handlung, ME handlinge, fr handle (II) & -ing Action of one who handles, specif, treatment of subject by speaker, writer, or artist hand-loom, n Loom worked by hand hand-made, adj Made by hand, as distinct from machine made handmaid, n [1 hænd(m)meɪd, 2 hænd(m)meɪd] hand (I) & maid a Female attendant, b (fig) virtue, quality, branch of knowledge, closely associated with, and complementary to another, c kind of moth, larva of which feeds on apple tree, also handmaid moth handmaiden, n [1 hændmæɪdn, 2 hændmæɪdn] hand (I) & maiden Same as prec a hand-mill, n Small mill worked by hand, e.g. for grinding coffee &c hand of glory, n Transl of Fr main de gloire, popular corrupt of mandragore See mandrake Charm formerly used by thieves and others, consisting of a mandrake root, b preserved hand of an executed murderer holding a candle hand-organ, n Barrel organ played by crank-handle turned by hand hand-post, n Sign post, originally one with representation of a hand pointing in a given direction &c hand-rail, n Rail that may be held for support by hand, as on staircase handsaw, n [1 hændsaw, 2 hændsɔ:] Saw worked with one hand hand's breadth, n Same as handbreadth handscreen, n [1 hænd(d)skri:n, 2 hænd(d)skri:n] Screen held in hand to protect face from fire or sun hansel (I), hansel, n [1 hænd(d)səl, 2 hænd(d)səl] ME hansel, hansel, fr ON hansale, fr hand (I) & sale, 'bargain', op OE hanselen (rare), 'delivery into hand' 1 (legal hist) Transaction confirmed by shaking hands 2 (archaic or obs) Earnest, earnest, foretaste 3 Gift, payment, or feast made at beginning of new enterprise &c, or regarded as bringing good luck hansel (II), hansel, vb trans See prec 1 (archaic) To pledge oneself to, conclude hansel with, give hansel or earnest to 2 To inaugurate by hansel, bring good luck to, by initial gift, payment, feast &c handshake, n [1 hændʃeɪk, 2 hænd(d)ʃeɪk] Shaking or grasping of another's hand, in greeting or bidding farewell &c handsome, adj [1 hændsəm, 2 hændsəm] ME handsom, 'easy to handle, convenient', fr hand & -some 1 a (obs) Convenient, suitable, handy, b (archaic) becoming, decorous, well bred handsome manners, style, c generous, liberal, magnanimous to make handsome amends, a handsome apology, compliment, present, very handsome of you to say so, handsome is that handsome does (proverb), Phr (colloq) to come down handsome, behave generously, esp in money matters, d ample, considerable a handsome sum, margin, fortune 2 a Well proportioned, pleasing to the eye, comely, fine, generally implying in addition, imposing size, staidness, dignity &c a handsome pile of buildings, tree, flower, dog, design, dress, b (of persons) good looking, well proportioned and comely, having well shaped features and dignified bearing, possessing robust or virile beauty a handsome girl, old man, boy &c, handsome features handsomely, adv prec & -ly In a handsome manner, (in various senses) to behave handsomely, to be handsomely rewarded, the house was handsomely furnished handsomeness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being handsome handspike, n [1 hænd(d)spik, 2 hænd(d)spɜ:k] hand (I) & spike (I) a Lever for shifting heavy objects, as guns, by hand, b spoke of capstan or windlass handspring, n [1 hændspring, 2 hændspring] Kind of somersault in which hand or hands are placed on ground handstaff, n [1 hænd(d)staf, 2 hænd(d)stɜ:f] ME handestaffe, fr hand (I) & staff Handle of flail hand-tant, adj Hand tight hand-tight, adj (naut) Of rope &c as tight as hand alone can make it, fairly tight hand-to-hand, adj & adv a adj Waged at close quarters a hand to hand struggle, b adv, at close quarters, in close conflict to fight hand to hand hand-to-mouth, adj & adv a adj Uncertain, precarious, b adv, precariously handwheel, n [1 hændwiel, 2 hændwi:l] Wheel turned by hand, as for actuating brake &c handwork, n [1 handwɜ:k, 2 handwɜ:k] OE handweorc, ME handwerke Work done by hand, not by machine handworked, adj [1 handwɜ:kt, 2 handwɜ:kt] Wrought by hand, not machine-made handwriting, n [1 hændriting, 2 hændriting] a Writing by hand, manner or style of writing, script, characteristic of individual, b something written by hand, manuscript handy (I), adj [1 hændi, 2 hændi] hand (I) & -y, cp Du handig, 'handy, expert', perh altered through influence of hand (I), fr ME hendi, 'handy, apt, courteous', fr OE -hendig (as in hathendig 'having skilful hands'), formed as above, Swed händig, Dan händig, 'dexterous' 1 (of persons) Skilled with hands, dexterous, adroit handy with the needle 2 (of things) a Suitable for handling easily managed, well adapted for use, convenient a handy tool, ship, reference book, b within reach of, ready to, the hand, close at hand easily available you'd better have the ship handy, c easily reached, not distant the post office is handy handy (II), adv, fr prec (colloq, of persons) Near by, in an easily accessible spot the doctor lives quite handy handy-dandy, n ME handi dandi, 'juggling trick with hands, bribe', jangle formed fr hand (I) Children's game handy-man, n handy & man (I) Man employed in, and (supposed to be) clever at, various kinds of manual work, hence (colloq) man of war's man, bluejacket hang (I), vb trans & intrans [1 hang, 2 hæng] In OE there were two vbs fr same orig base hōn strong trans (only in compounds), fr Gmc hanyan*, whence also Goth hahan, wh has disappeared altogether, & hangian, wk trans, fr Gmc hanyōn* goes descended fr this, no doubt also supported by ON hanga, intrans The Aryas base was h₁ek-, h₁enk- &c., whence also Lat. enclitici, 'to tarry, linger, hesitate', Sort sanctus, 'hesitates, doubts', & sanctus, 'fear, suspicion, doubt'. The senses 'delay, impend' &c still exist in the Engl vb, but they are prob secondary. 'Hang' is now always strong, v Pret & P P hung, except in trans sense of 'execute', (see A 2), in wh Pret & P P are usually hanged, though hung is also common colloquially. A trans 1. To support from above, as by attaching to a cord &c, or to a hook &c, so as to allow to swing unsupported from below, to suspend to hang one's hat on a peg, to hang a fitch of bacon from a rafter. Phr to hang the head, (1) allow it to fall forward on the breast, (2) (fig) to exhibit signs of shame. 2. A To execute, deprive of life, by hanging by the neck, thus either strangling or dislocating neck to be hanged (hung) for murder. Phrs a hanging judge, a stern, severe one, who likes to hang a criminal when he deserves it, oh, hang it!, mild expletive, expressing annoyance, oh, hang it all!, expressive of mild remonstrance, I'm hanged if I know &c, I don't know, formula of judicial sentences to be hanged by the neck, b (reflex) to hang oneself, to commit suicide by hanging. 3 (special senses) a To hang up, suspend (meat, game &c), after it is killed, until it is in proper condition for eating this nation hasn't been hung long enough, venison requires to be well hung &c, b to hang a door, place upon its hinges, and fix these to doorpost, so that the door will open and shut, to hang wall paper, fix it to the wall, c to hang a scythe-blade, attach to handle, d to hang pictures, suspend by cords, chains &c, from a rail, or hooks fastened into wall, specif, to hang in a gallery for exhibition, e to hang curtains, to suspend them over window, door &c, from rings running on a rod. 4 To bedrape, bedeck, cover with hangings, or articles that hang the fronts of the houses in the main streets were all hung with flags and bunting, the trees are thickly hung with fruit. 5 To delay, only in Phr to hang fire a (of firearm) not to go off at once, b (fig, of events, action &c) to be delayed, be slow in coming to a head, to hang a leg (obs or rare), to hesitate to move. B intrans 1. To be hung, be in state of suspension, to depend, dangle his hat was hanging on a peg, hanging by a rope in mid-air, her portrait hangs over the mantelpiece. Phr to hang by a thread, by a (single) hair, (fig) to depend on very little, to be very precarious, in great danger &c. 2. To be executed by hanging he deserves to hang for his crime. Phr to let (something) go hang, to be indifferent, take no care of, or for 3 (of drapery, clothes &c) To fall, flow, over the person, be adapted to height, shape &c, of wearer I don't like the way his coat hangs, the mantle hung gracefully over her stately form. Phr to hang together, (1) (of persons) to be intimately associated, support, back, each other, (2) (of material things) to fit in together, be properly related as parts of a whole, have parts properly fitted and adjusted, (3) (of non-material things) to be consistent, logical, well arranged his story doesn't hang together well. C Followed by preposition or adverb. Hang about, intrans, 1 (with prep) a To loiter round, press against the children hung about their mother, b to haunt, frequent, infest I saw a tramp hanging about the garden, 2 (with adv) a to prowl round, idle, loiter, loaf about hanging about all day doing nothing, b to be in the neighbourhood, imminent there is thunder, rain &c hanging about. Hang around, intrans, same as prec, with adv more American than English. Hang back, intrans, a to start backwards, hesitate to move, b (fig) to hesitate to act, shrink action. Hang down, intrans, to descend, pass, go, in downward direction, the higher portion being fixed a rope hanging down from a window; her hair hung down her back. Hang on, intrans, 1 to cling tight, continue to hold on, support oneself by clinging help! I can't hang on much longer, Phrs to hang on like grim death, very tight, to hang on by one's eyelids, precariously, with great effort, 2 (fig) to persevere, persist, in a course of action, line of conduct &c, exhibit tenacity of purpose &c your task is tedious and difficult, but you must hang on till it is done, 3 see hang upon. Hang out, 1 trans, to exhibit by suspending outside building, window &c to hang out flags, 2 intrans, a to lean, thrust oneself, out to hang out of window, b (colloq slang) to live, take up one's quarters, reside, lodge where do you hang out? Hang over, intrans, a to keep close to to hang over the fire, b to hover, brood, above, rest upon clouds hanging over the mountain peaks, c to project over, overhang, overarch trees hanging over a lake, the cliff hangs over the road here, d (fig) to be imminent, threaten, oppress, loom ahead I can't settle down to work with this examination hanging over me, I feel that some great disaster is hanging over you. Hang round, intrans, same as hang about. Hang up, trans, 1 to hang in suitable or accustomed place, often implying placing a thing where it will not be in the way when not in immediate use come in and hang up your hat, hang up the scythe in the tree when you're done with it, Phr to hang up one's hat (in another's house), stay there a long time, 2 (fig) to delay, retard, interrupt, suspend, progress of, postpone the whole business was hung up owing to his dislowness, the measure was hung up for a whole season. Hang upon, intrans, to lean, support oneself, upon- to hang upon a person's arm, Phr to hang upon a person's lips, words, to listen attentively, attach great importance, to what he says. hang (II), n 1 (of material objects) a The way a thing hangs the hang of a coat, dress &c; b the way a thing is put together, the way it works, the mode of using the hang of a machine, c (of intellectual matters) meaning, drift, significance the hang of an argument, subject of study &c Phr to get, see, the hang of, to understand 2 (rare) Slowing down, delay in forward movement, the hang of a boat between strokes of the oars 3 Gentle expletive, I don't care a hang, I care nothing at all, milder than a damn. hangar, n [1 hánggar, 2 hánggá] Fr, 'shed', etymol doubtful A shed for aeroplanes or airships. hanger (I), n [1 hánger, 2 hánggá] hang (I) & -er 1 Person who hangs. Chiefly in compounds, as billhanger, paperhanger &c. 2 Any of various objects a which hang, as a small, naval sword, hung from a belt, or b which are for hanging other things from, specif, an iron hook in shape of S used for hanging a pot over a fire, c character shaped like S turned backwards, found in old-fashioned copy-books to teach children to write pot hooks and hangers. hanger (II), n O E hangro, fr hangian, hang (I) Wood on steep slope, hanging wood. hanger-on, n, pl hangers-on 1 (colloq) Person who hangs or depends on, or persistently attaches himself to, another person or to a society, parasite, toady, place hunter 2 (mun) Man who places a coal cove in position for raising to surface. hangfire, n [1 hángfí, 2 hángfí] hang (I) & fire (I) Delay in explosion of charge of gun. hanging (I), n [1 hánggung, 2 hánggung] hang (I) & -ing 1 Action of one who hangs, state of being hung or hanged, suspension, specif, putting person to death, execution, by hanging 2 Thing which hangs or is hung, specif (often pl) cloth, drapery, which hangs as part of furniture of room, wall-paper 3 (used attrib as an adj) Connected with execution by hanging, deserving, likely to lead to, the death penalty a hanging matter &c 4 (attrib) Used for hanging a hanging cupboard. hanging (II), adj Pres Part of hang (I) Which hangs (in all senses) hanging lamp, hanging garden, wood &c.

hangman, n [1 hángman, 2 hángmæn]. Public executioner. hangnail, n [1 hángnāl, 2 hángneil] Popular form of agnail. Fragment of torn skin attached to root of finger nail. hank, n [1 hángk, 2 hángk] In M E, cp M E hanklen, 'to tie up, fetter', Swed hankla, 'to tie up', fr O N hank, 'hank, clasp, knot', 'hank, coil'. 1 Coil, skein, of yarn, string &c, generally of specific length. 2 (naut) Ring sliding on stay, to attach stay sail. hanker, vb intrans [1 hángker, 2 hángker]. Prob a LG loan, cp Flom hankeren 'long for'. Origin unknown. A hanker after, to long for something which is out of one's reach, which is forbidden to hanker after the pleasures of one's youth, after forbidden fruit &c, b hanker for, to desire intensely, be eager for, crave to hanker for affection, for food when one is hungry &c. hankering, n [1 hángkerung, 2 hángkerung] Prec & -ing A longing, yearning. hankeringly, adv. Pres Part of hanker & -ly In the manner of one who hankers. hanky-panky, n [1 hángki pángki, 2 hángki pángki] (colloq) Underhand dealing, trickery, action, conduct, intended to baffie and deceive, immoral conduct. Phr to be up to some hanky-panky. Hansard, n [1 hánsard, 2 hánsard], fr name of Lake Hansard (1752-1828) and descendants who printed these reports until 1889 Official report of proceedings in British Parliament. Hansardize, vb trans [1 hánsardiz, 2 hánsardiz] Prec & -ize To confront (a member of Parliament) with former utterance recorded in Hansard. Hansa, n [1 hánsa, 2 hánsa] O Fr, fr O H G hansa, Mod Germ hansé, cp Goth hansa, O E hós, 'band of men'. The etymol of this Gmc word is uncertain, but osmos may be a cogn (hist) 1 A Medieval guild of merchants, esp in N Europe, b (cap) great league of N European commercial towns, flourishing in 14th and 15th cents. 2 Fee exacted by a merchant guild as entrance fee or tribute. Hanseatic adj [1 hánséatik, 2 hánséretik] Low Lat hanseaticus (us) See prec, -ate, & -so Pertaining to the Hanse the Hanseatic League, towns. hansom (cab), n [1. hansom (káb), 2 hansom (káb)] After J A Hansom (1803-82), inventor. Light two-wheeled covered hackney carriage for two passengers, with raised seat for driver at back, now obsolete. hap (I), n [1 hap, 2 hap] M E hap, fr O N happ, op O E (ge) hæp, 'fit, convenient', cogn w O Ir cob, Ir cobh, 'victory, triumph'. Other cognates not identified (archaic or liter) a Chance, fortune, lot it was my good hap to meet him, b accidental occurrence, happening. hap (II), vb intrans, impers & personal M E happen, fr prec, op Swed happa (archaic or liter) To happen, chance, befall. hap (III), vb intrans L Germ, cp N Fris happe, 'snatch, clutch' (of a dog) Hop of, to make a sudden, rapid snap at. hapax legomenon, n [1 hápaks legómenon, 2 hápaks legómenon] Gk hapax, 'once', & legómenon, 'said'. A rare word, form, or phrase, more strictly, one only once recorded. haphazard, n & adj [1 háphazard, 2 háphazard] hap (I) & hazard (I) 1 n Chance, accident, in Phr at haphazard, at random, fortuitously 2 adj Random, fortuitous a haphazard collection. hapless, adj [1 háples, 2 háples] hap (I) in obs sense, 'good luck' & -less Unlucky, unfortunate. haplessly, adv Prec & -ly In a hapless manner, unfortunately. haplessness, n. See prec & -ness Quality, state, of being hapless. haplo-, pref Gk haplós, 'simple, single', fr ha- for Aryan em-, 'together, one' (see henotheism, simple, single), & -plós or, 'fold'. Form in compounds of Gk. origin, denoting 'simple, single, simply, singly, once'.

- 2 a With great energy or effort, strenuously, urgently, vehemently *to pull, hold, ride, run, struggle, try, work, think, hard, to be hard driven, to rain, blow, hard, Phrs to stare, gaze, look, hard at one, fixedly, hard a port & (naut, of tiller), to the utmost, b severely, painfully, against great resistance, with difficulty to be hard pressed, to bear hard on, the wheels drag hard, Phrs hard put to it, embarrassed, hard pressed, hard hit, severely affected, esp (i) pecuniarily, (u) emotionally, deeply smitten with love, grief &c, to die hard, to die only after a hard struggle, (fig) to resist stubbornly to the last, to be very slow in dying out superstitions die hard (op die-hard), it will go hard with him (if he is found out), he will get into serious trouble, it will go hard but (he will succeed), unless the obstacles are overwhelming, o excessively, immoderately to drink, swear, hard, dolefully, immediately to follow hard after, behind, upon Phr *hard by, close by
- hard (III), n, fr hard (I) a Firm, solid, part of shore, suitable for landing, now only in local uses, b (colloq) hard labour five years hard
- hardbake, n [1 hárdbák, 2 hédbeik] hard (I) & bake Almond toffee
- hard-baked, adj [1 hárdbákt, 2 hédbéikt] Baked until hard
- hardbeam, n [1 hárdbēm, 2 hédbēm] hard (I) & beam (I), in obs sense 'tree' Species of tree, hornbeam
- hard-bitted, adj [1 hard bítet, 2 héd bítet] hard (II) & bit (III) & -ed (of horses) Not responsive to the bit, hard-mouthed, (fig) stubborn
- hard-bitten, adj [1 hárdbítin, 2 héd bítin] Perh variant of prae, or hard (II) & bitten, PP of bite (I) Stubborn, dogged, able to resist toughly
- hard-boiled, adj hard (II) & boil (I) & -ed (of egg) Boiled until contents are solid (NB accentuation a hard-boiled egg [1 hárdbóild eg, 2 héd bóild eg], but, I like my egg hard boiled [1 hárdbóild, 2 héd bóild])
- hard core, n hard (I) & core (I) Stones, clunker, brick-bats, and the like, used as bottom layer for road or foundation
- hard-earned, adj [1 hard ernd, 2 héd and] hard (II) & earn & -ed Earned with difficulty or hard toil
- harden, vb trans & intrans [1 hárden, 2 hédin] ME hardenen, fr ON hárðna See hard (I) & -en A trans 1 To make hard or harder, to make firm, solidify 2 (fig) a To make hardy or robust, invigorate, brace to harden troops by long marches, Phr to harden off, to make (seedlings &c) hardy by gradual exposure to cold, b to make resolute, courageous, or self-reliant, c to make insensitive, callous, obdurate to harden the heart, a hardened offender B intrans 1 To become hard or harder, grow cold 2 (fig) a To become hardy, robust, resolute, b to become callous, c to become set, definite, decided public opinion is hardening, d (of prices &c) to cease to fluctuate, maintain a steady high level
- hardener, n [1 hardner, 2 hédnē] harden & -er Person or thing that hardens something, specif, person who hardens steel tools
- hardening, n [1 hardening, 2 hédning] harden & -ing 1 Process of making or becoming hard 2 Material used for making hard
- hard-favoured, adj hard (II) & -favoured. Having a hard or harsh face
- hard-featured, adj [1 hard fēchurd, 2 héd fitəd] hard (II) & feature & -ed Having hard or harsh features
- hardfern, n [1 hardfern, 2 hédflān] hard (I) & fern One of several ferns of genus Lomaria
- hard-fisted, adj hard (II) & -fisted. Miserly, niggardly, close fisted
- hard-fought, adj hard (II) & fought Strenuously contested
- hard-gotten, adj [1 hárđgetn, 2 héd gētn] hard (II) & gotten, PP of get Obtained, won, earned, with difficulty or toil
- hard-grained, adj [1 hárđgránd, 2 héd grend] hard (II) & grain (I) & -ed a (of wood &c) Having a hard or close grain, b (fig, of human character &c) stern, harsh, insensitive, obdurate
- hard-handed, adj hard (II) & handed 1 Having hard hands, esp as result of manual labour 2 (fig) Oppressive, severe
- hard-head, n hard (I) & head (I) 1 Hard-headed person 2 One of several kinds of fish
- hard-headed, adj hard (II) & headed a Having a hard head, b (fig) shrewd, practical, business-like, not swayed by sentiment
- hard-hearted, adj hard (I) & hearted Having a hard heart, unfeeling, merciless, pitiless, heartless
- hard-heartedly, adv Præ & -ly In a hard-hearted manner
- hard-heartedness, n See præ & -ness Quality of being hard hearted
- hardihood, n [1 hardihood, 2 hédihud] hardy (I) & -hood Boldness, hardiness
- hardiness, n [1 hárđines, 2 hédinis] ME hardinesse, fr hardy (I) & -ness Quality of being hardy, a resolute boldness, audacity, impudence, b robustness
- hardish, adj [1 hárđish, 2 hédish] hard (I) & -ish Rather hard
- hardly, adv [1 hárđli, 2 hédli] OE hardlice, 'severely, harshly, stoutly', fr hardlic, 'severe, strict', see hard (I) & -ly, ME hardliche, hardeliche Cp OS hardlika 1 Severely, harshly, unkindly to be hardly treated 2 a Strenuously, vehemently, with great energy the battle was hardly contested, b with difficulty, only by great effort victory was hardly won 3 a Scarcely, barely, only just I had hardly spoken to him when he was gone, b (by litotes, ironically or politely) insufficiently, not at all, by no means his conduct hardly corresponded with the dignity of his position, you can hardly expect me to do that
- hard-mouthed, adj [1 hárđmoudhd, hard moudhd, 2 hédmaudhd, hédmaudhd] hard (I) & mouth (I) & -ed 1 (of horse &c) Having an insensitive mouth, not responsive to the bit, (fig) intractable 2 (fig) Prone to harsh, rough speech
- hardness, n [1 hárđnes, 2 hédnes] OE hardness, ME hardnesse hard (I) & -ness Quality or condition of being hard (in variety of senses)
- hardpan, n [1 hardpan, 2 hédpān] hard (I) & pan (I) (Am) Hard, but not rocky, subsoil, consisting of partially indurated clay, gravel, or sand
- hards, n pl [1 hárds, 2 hédz] OE heorðan, (pl) 'hards of flax', ME herace, hyrdys, cp MDu heerde, herde, fr Gmc hazdō*, hazdō*, Aryan h₂s-(d), h₂s-(d) &c, op Lat caesaries, 'hair', Sert kisaras, 'hair, mane', OE hād in hād-swipe, 'bridesmaid', lit 'one who brushes bride's hair', fr hazd*, cp Luth laizel, 'to shave' Orig sense 'hair, fibre' Refuss of flax or hemp, tow Phr flocks and hards, fibrous waste used for stuffing mattresses
- hard-set, adj hard (I) & set (III) Firmly fixed, stiff, rigid, specif a (of egg) having contents solidified by incubation, b determined, stubborn
- hardshell, adj [1 hárđshel, 2 hédshel] hard (I) & shell (I) 1 Having a hard shell Phr hard-shell crab, one that has not lately moulted 2 (fig, Am colloq) That cannot be influenced by argument, uncompromising, Hardshell Baptist, member of rigid Baptist sect in America
- hardship, n [1 hardship, 2 hédship] ME hardships, fr hard (I) & -ship 1 a Physical rigour, privation, great discomfort, arduous, hard, conditions of life polar exploration involves many hardships, b some specific circumstance or condition producing discomfort or privation early rising is not a hardship in summer 2 a Some thing hard to bear, circumstance, condition, regulation &c which is oppressive or unfair, b suffering or disability arising from this
- hard-tack, n hard (I) & Engl dial tack, 'bad food', see tack (III) (naut) Ship's biscuit
- hard-up, adj hard (I) & up (I) (only præ, colloq) Badly needing, in want of, spend a of money I'm very hard-up just now, b hard put to it to find, completely lacking hard up for something to say, do &c
- hardware, n [1 hárđwair, 2 hédwair] hard (I) & ware (I) (coll) Goods, such as tools or kitchen utensils, made of iron or other common metal, ironmongery
- hardwareman, n [1 hárđwairman, 2 hédwairman] Præ & man Maker of, dealer in, hardware
- hardwood, n & adj [1 hárđwood, 2 hédwud] hard (I) & wood 1 n a Heavy, close grained wood, specif b that of any deciduous timber tree, contrasted with that of pines 2 adj Made, consisting of, pertaining to, hardwood
- hard-working, adj hard (II) & working Working hard, industrious
- hardy (I), adj [1 hardi, 2 héd] ME hardi, fr Fr hardi, orig PP of O Fr hardir, 'to make bold', of Gmc origin See hard (I) 1 a Bold, resolute, daring, b rash, audacious, over confident a hardy assertion 2 a Capable of enduring, inured to, fatigue, privations, and pain, robust, b specif (hort) resisting frost and all weather changes, flourishing all the year without protection Phr hardy annual, (i) annual plant that can be grown in exposed position, (u) (fig, facetious) question that is brought up for discussion annually or periodically
- hardy (II), n Prob hard (I) & -y Short chisel of hard iron or steel fixed upright in blacksmith's anvil for cutting iron
- hare, n [1 hār, 2 hēz] OE hāra, ME hāre, OHG hasa, Mod Germ hase, fr Gmc type hazōn*- Cp OE hasu, 'grey', wh is oogn w Lat canus, 'hoary, grey', fr caunos*, also Lat cas cas, 'old', further, Sert šāsa, 'hare' Hare is thus 'the grey animal' 1 One of several widely distributed, swift rodents (genus Lepus), resembling rabbit, but larger, with long ears, short tail, and powerful hind legs Belgian hare, large species of rabbit Phrs mad as a (March) hare, very mad, even taw, or wild, first catch your hare (then cook him), make sure of person or thing with which you propose to deal, to start a hare, to raise a side issue in a discussion, to run with the hare and hunt with the hounds, endeavour to maintain good relations with two opposing parties, to play a double game, as timid as a hare, very shy and nervous 2 (zool) Member of family of Leporidae, which includes the rabbit
- hare and hounds, n Paper-chase, game in which two persons ('hares'), being given a start run across country, dropping trail of paper, and are pursued by number of others, a paper chase
- harebell, n [1 hārbel, 2 hēbel] ME harebelle, fr hare & bell (I) Round-leaved wild Campanula, with slender stalk and blue flowers, in Scotland called bluebell
- hare-brained, adj [1 hārbrind, 2 hēbrind] hare & brain (I) & -ed Volatile erratic, incoherent, flighty, scatter brained
- harefoot, n [1 hārfoot, 2 hēfoot] hare & foot (I) 1 Thing resembling foot of hare, specif a long narrow foot of some kinds of dog, b one of several plants avars, hare-foot trefol 2 Person swift of foot, specif, surname of King Harold I of England (d 1040)
- hare-lip, n hare & lip (med) Congenital fissure of human upper lip, often combined with cleft palate
- harem, n [1 hārem, hārūm, 2 hērem, hārūm, -em] Arab ḥarīm, ḥarām, 'thing forbidden', fr ḥarama, 'to forbid'. 1 a Part

- of Oriental, esp Mohammedan, house, in which women are secluded, seraglio, b (coll) occupants of harem
- hare's-ear, n European umbelliferous plant (Bupleurum) with yellow flowers and leaves like hare's ear
- hare's-foot, n Common wild British clover, with whitish flowers resembling foot of hare, also called hare's foot trefoil
- haricot, n [1 háríkō, 2 hæríkou] O Fr haricot (de mouton, 14th cent), Fr haricot in both senses, a & b, the former older, of unknown origin a Stew of mutton or lamb, prepared with kidney beans, turnips &c, b haricot bean
- haricot bean, n Kidney bean, esp the edible seed pod and seeds, called by green-grocers and others French bean
- hark, vb trans [1 hark, 2 hák] ME herren, of Continental LG origin Cp hearken. 1 To listen (chiefly in imperat. hark! and as interj) 2 Followed by preposition or adverb Hark away!, cry to hounds Hark back!, to return, a (in space) come back to place whence one started, b (in thought, speech &c) to revert to a subject, idea &c, which has already been discussed and passed, c hark back, to revert, return to Hark to, (archaic, colloq, or poet) to listen to just hark to him (iron also hark at), let us hark to the sweet song of the birds &c
- harl, harle, n [1 harl, 2 hal] ME herle, 'fibre', cp Frs harl, harrel, M LG herle, harl, 'fibre of flax or hemp' Flax, or hempen fibre, barb of a feather
- harlequin, n & adj [1 harlekwm, 2 hárlik-wm] Obs. Fr harlequin (16th cent) later arlequin, fr or affected by Ital arlechino = Span. arlequin Earlier, name of a demon, Low Lat Harlequinus, Ital Alichino (Dante), O Fr Harlekín, Helleguin, ME Harlekyn, leader of a demon troop called in O Fr la maistre Harlekín &c Proposed etymologies are mere speculations 1 n a (cap) Leading male character in the old Italian comedy and in modern pantomime, servant of Pantaloon, lover of Columbine, agile and given to tricks, wearing mask and parti coloured spangled tights, b a practical joker 2 adj Parti-coloured, having variegated plumage harlequin duck
- harlequinade, n [1 hárlekwmád, 2 hárlik-wmád] harlequin (L) & -ade Cp Fr arlequinade A scene, in pantomime, in which harlequin plays leading part, b buffoonery, droll, roguish frolic or prank
- harlot, n [1 harlot, 2 hárlot] ME harlot, herlot, 'vagabond, disorderly person' (of either sex), fr O Fr harlot, herlot, arlot, cp Provenc arlot Span arrote, 'vagabond', Ital. arlotto, 'hedge priest', (arlotto, 'harlot') Origin entirely dubious, perh Gmc Woman of bad life, prostitute
- harlotry, n [1 harlatn, 2 hárlatn] ME harlotrie, fr prec. & -ry Behaviour of a harlot, rascality
- harm (I), n [1 harm, 2 hám] OE harm, harm, 'injury, grief, insult', ME harm, harm &c cp O.S. O.H.G. harm, 'grief, injury, insult', O.N. harmr, 'grief', fr Gmc harm*, cogn w Slav Russ eram, 'shame', Scrt frana 'toll, fatigue' Injury, hurt, damage, physical or moral Phr to do harm, cause injury, to do harm to to injure, no harm done, all is well, no one injured &c out of harm's way, in safety, there's no harm in doing so-and-so, no reason for not doing &c, where's the harm?, how is it wrong?
- harm (II) vb trans OE harmian, 'to hurt, injure', ME hermen, harmen fr prec To cause harm to, injure, hurt, physically or morally
- harmattan n [1 harmstan, 2 hámstan] Fr, fr Faah harmata Drv, parching wind, changed with fine sand, blowing from Sahara to Atlantic coast from December to February
- harmful adj [1 hárifool, 2 hámful, fal] In M.E. fr harm (I) & -ful Causing harm and injury, injurious
- harmfully, adv Prec & -ly In a harmful manner
- harmfulness, n See prec & -ness Quality of causing harm or being harmful
- harmless, adj [1 hármls, 2 hámlls] fr harm (I) & -less a Incapable of doing harm, innocuous a harmless drug, habit, amusement, b doing no harm, inoffensive, innocent, the bullet struck a harmless passer by
- harmlessly, adv Prec & -ly In a harmless manner, without doing injury
- harmlessness, n See prec & -ness Quality, condition, of being harmless
- harmonic, adj & n [1 hármonik, 2 hámónik] Lat harmonic-(us), fr Gk. harmonikós, fr harmonia & -ic 1 adj a Pertaining to harmony, b (mus) harmonious, concordant, pertaining to harmonics, c (math) harmonic progression, series, series of numbers whose reciprocals are in arithmetical progression, harmonic proportion, relation between three consecutive terms of a harmonic progression, harmonic quantities, those in harmonic progression 2 n a (science of mus) One of the components of a complex musical tone, b (wireless, pl) secondary frequencies to which an oscillating circuit may respond
- harmonica, n [1 hármonika, 2 hámónika] Lat harmonica, fem of harmonicus, harmonic Instrument consisting of series of a glasses which emit musical notes when touched with a damp finger, b small glass or metal plates struck by a hammer
- harmonical, adj [1 hármonikl, 2 hámónikl] harmonic & -al Harmonio
- harmonically, adv Prec & -ly In a harmonic manner
- harmonicon, n [1 hármonikon, 2 hámónikon] Gk. harmonikón, neut sing of harmonikós, harmonic Small mouth organ
- harmonics, n pl [1 hármoniks, 2 hámóniks] Science or art of musical harmony
- harmonious, adj [1 hármoníus, 2 hámóníus] harmony & -ous 1 (mus) Having or producing harmony, melodious, not discordant 2 (of form) Justly proportioned, having all parts well fitted, well adapted in size and shape to each other a(n) harmonious arrangement of lines, a(n) harmonious room 3 (of moral conditions) Congruous, agreeing well together, free from strife and disagreement a(n) harmonious family, meeting &c
- harmoniously, adv Prec & -ly In a harmonious manner, in harmony
- harmoniousness, n See prec & -ness Quality, condition, of being harmonious, harmony
- harmoniphon, harmoniphone, n [1 harmoni-fon, 2 hámóni-fon, -fon] harmony & -phone Obsolete wind instrument with keyboard
- harmonist, n [1 hármunist, 2 hámønist] Fr harmoniste, fr harmony & -ist 1 a Person skilled in science of musical harmony, b musical composer who has special gifts of harmony 2 Person who forms full and consecutive narrative out of, and reconciles apparent inconsistencies in, the Gospels
- harmonistic, adj & n [1 hármonistik, 2 hámønistik] Prec & -ic a adj Pertaining to a harmonist or to harmony, b n, study of Biblical harmony
- harmonium, n [1 hármonium, 2 hámønium] Lat harmonia, harmony, & Lat neut termination -um Small organ, having bellows by which air is forced through free reeds, played from finger board
- harmonization, n [1 hármonizáshun, 2 hámønizáshun] Next word & -ation Action or process of harmonizing
- harmonize, vb trans & intrans [1 hármuniz, 2 hámøniz] harmony & -ize 1 trans To make harmonious, bring into harmony, concord congruity, agreement a (in music), b (in form), c (in moral end intellectual sphere) 2 intrans To form, constitute, harmonize, be harmonious (in music, physical form, morals, or logic)
- harmonizer, n [1 hármunizer, 2 hámønizer] harmony & -izer One who harmonizes or produces harmony
- harmonometer, n [1 hármonómeter, 2 hámønómeter] harmony & -meter, Fr harmonomètre Instrument determining harmonic relations of musical sounds
- harmony, n [1 hármoni, 2 hámøn] Lat harmonia, 'agreement of sounds, melody, concord', fr Gk harmonía, 'a fitting together, a joint, musical concord, agreement' (in temper &c) Connected w Gk harmós, 'a joining', and harmózein, 'to fit together, join, join in marriage' &c Sug gestions of connexion between this & the Lat group arma, 'weapons of war, arms', cannot be accepted on account of the initial h Undoubted cognates outside Gk. are unknown The original, & most of derived senses are seen in the Gk. A fitting together, joining, adaptation of parts, or of things, to each other in combination, specif 1 (in a work of art) Due proportion and adaptation of parts to each other in relation to the whole so as to make a pleasing aesthetic impression harmony of colour and design in a picture 2 (on mental and moral plane) Agreement, concordance, concordance, of ideas, tastes, opinions &c to live in harmony with one's neighbours 3 (mus) a Concord in musical tone, simultaneous combination of notes so as to form a chord, opposite of discord, b music in general, considered as a series of pleasing combinations of sounds 4 A work in which various narratives, descriptions, accounts of an event, or series of events are brought together in such a way as to display their essential unity and agreement a harmony of the Gospels
- harness (I), n [1 hárnes, 2 hárn] ME harnes, fr O Fr harnes, hernes, harnes, 'armour', Fr harnais, 'harness' (in senses 1 and 2), cp Ital arnese, borrowed in M.H.G. harnasch, Germ harnisch &c Of unknown origin 1 (chiefly archaic or liter) Complete body armour or military defensive equipment of man or horse Phrs to die in harness, to die while still actively engaged in one's work, in harness, at one's daily work 2 Gear or equipment, usually of leather, of draught horse, mule &c, including both those parts by which the animal is driven, and those by which it is attached to the vehicle, plough &c, which it is required to draw Phrs double harness, for two animals harnessed abreast to one vehicle, to work, run, in double harness, (fig) to work with a partner, said esp of husband and wife
- harness (II), vb trans ME harnessen, fr O Fr harnescher (mod harnacher), fr prec 1 (archaic or liter) To array, dress, in armour, equip with armour 2 a To put harness on to a horse or other animal to harness a horse, b to attach by means of harness to harness a horse to a carriage 3 (fig) To put to routine work to harness to a profession
- harness-cask, n harness (I) & cask. (naut) Cask containing salt meat for immediate use
- harnessed, adj [1 hárnest, 2 hárnst] PP of harness (II) a Wearing harness, b (of animal) having markings on body resembling harness harnessed antelope
- harnessry, n [1 hárnesn, 2 hárnstn] harness (I) & -ry a (coll) Parts of harness, b shop or store for sale of harnesses
- haro, interj & n [1 haró, 2 hærrou] O Fr haro, harou (whence ME haro, harrou, obs. Mod Engl harrow), 'cry for help', of an certain origin, cp possibly O.H.G. hara, variant of hera, 'hither' In Channel Islands, formal cry for legal redress, constituting appeal against encroachment on property
- harp (I), n [1 harp, 2 háp] OE hearpe, ME harpe, O.H.G. harpha, harfa, Mod Germ harfe. The word is almost certainly cogn w Lat carpere, 'to pluck', q v under carpel, carpet, the p in OE (& Gmc) corresponding to p in Lat may be explained by assuming original Gmc *harpp- w doubling due to a suff *-nā &c, in Aryan, & accentuation on suff, the series fr Aryan to Gmc being *Larynd < Gmc. *harbō, whence, later, *harbō < *harppo See also harvest Musical instrument, consisting of open upright triangular frame, on which are stretched strings that are set in vibration by being plucked by fingers harp (II), vb intrans O E hearpian, M E harpien, intrans, fr prec 1 To play the harp 2 (fig) Harp on, upon, to refer repeatedly or with tedious reiteration to, to dwell upon in the mind tediously to harp upon the glories of a former day, are you still harping on your troubles? Phr to be always harping on the same string, always dwelling on, referring to, the same theme harper, n. [1 hárper, 2 hápē] O E hearpere, M E harpere, op O H G harfere, O N harpari Prec & -er Performer on the harp harping(s), n pl [1 hárping(z), 2 hápīp(z)] (usually pl, naut) Strips or strakes on bow of a ship, to give extra strength harpist, n [1 hárpišt, 2 hápīšt] harp (I) & -ist Harper, esp modern professional harpoon (I), n [1 hárpōn, 2 hápūn] Early Mod Engl harpon, fr Fr harpon, 'clamp, grappling iron, harpoon' (whence Du harpoon, Germ harpune), fr Fr harpe, 'claw, clamp', obs 'grappling-iron' (cp harper, 'to claw, grip, grapple'), prob fr L harpē, 'curved sword', fr Gk hárpē, 'sickle', cogn w O Lat carpere, 'to prune', & Russ serp, 'sickle', O H G sarf, 'rough, sharp, acrid', Barbed spear with rope attached, used in whaling harpoon (II), vb trans, fr prec To strike with a harpoon harpooner, n [1. hárpōōner, 2. hápūnē] Prec & -er One who uses harpoon harpoon gun, n Gun used for firing a harpoon harp-seal, n harp (I) & seal (I) Arotic seal with black harp shaped mark on each side harpisichord, n [1 hárpiškord, 2 hápīškōd] Early Mod Engl harpischord, fr O Fr harpechorde, op Ital arpicordo See harp (I) & chord Obsolete musical instrument, forerunner of the piano, resembling harp placed horizontally upon legs, the strings being plucked by quills set in jacks worked from a keyboard, instead of being struck by hammers harpy, n [1 hárpi, 2 hápē] Fr harpie, fr Lat harpīya, fr Gk pl hárpiān, connected w harpazēn, 'to enstole, seize' Cognates outside Gk are quite uncertain See hearse 1 (cap, Gk mythol) Horrible, cruel, winged monster, with head and bust of a woman, and the tail, legs, and talons of a bird of prey 2 A greedy, merciless person who preys upon his or her kind harpy eagle, n Large, powerful bird of prey, of tropical America, resembling an eagle, but having a double crest harquebus, n See arquebus harridan, n [1 hárīdan, 2 hárīden] Of unknown origin, prob connected w obs Fr hardelle, 'worn-out horse', op O Fr harrebanne, 'debauched woman', (Godefroy) Worn out, disreputable, old woman, hag, vixen harrier (I), n [1 hárīer, 2 hárīē] Formerly also harrier, fr hare & -ier a Hound of breed used for hunting hare, like the foxhound, but smaller, (in pl) pack of such hounds with huntsman, b (fig) member of club for game called hare and hounds, or for cross-country running, (pl) such a club harrier (II), n. harrier (I) & -er 1 One who harries 2 One of genus of low-flying hawks, like buzzards, but bolder, as hen harrier, marsh harrier

Harris tweed, n [1 hárīs twéd, 2 hárīs twīd] fr name of island in Hebrides A hand-woven tweed made in this island harrow (I), n [1 hárō, 2 hárōu] M E haru, harve, harowe, not recorded in O E, but apparently Gmc word, op N Fris harwe, & cognates in Du & Scand. languages.

Origin obscure Agricultural implement, consisting of frame or chain network, with teeth, spikes, or tines below, dragged over ground, for levelling and breaking up soil &c Phr (a load) under the harrow, (fig) in great distress or tribulation harrow (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 To use a harrow upon to harrow a field 2 (fig, of moral action) To wound the feelings, cause mental distress and torment to to harrow one's feelings Also harrow up, in both senses B intrans To permit of harrow being used, he amenable to harrow the land won't harrow very well, it is too rocky harrower, n [1 hárōer, 2 hárōuē] harrow (II) & -er Person who harrows harrowing (I), adj [1 hárōing, 2 hárōuīng] fr Prec Part of harrow (I) Aontely distressing, wounding, to the feelings, heart-rending harrowing (II), vbl u, fr old variant of harry (obs) Harrowing of Hell, M E name for descent of the Saviour to hell and the release by Him of souls In this use the word means ravaging, despoiling harry (I), vb trans [1 hárī, 2 hárīē] O E hergian, 'to lay waste', M E hersten, op O H G harōn, herōn, Germ (ver) heeren, O N herja, all connected w O E here, O H G hēr, 'army, predatory hand', cp heriot Cogn w Lith kara, 'war', O Prussian karyu, 'army', O Slav kara, 'etnie' 1 To ravage, lay waste, raid, pillage, despoil the Danes harried many parts of England continuously for several generations 2 To harass, annoy, worry, persecute (persons)

Harry (II), n 1 The devil, in Phrs to play old Harry with, to destroy, throw into confusion, by the Lord Harry 2 A vulgar, loud young cad, esp a cockney, commonly 'Arry, from the manner in which this class of person pronounces the Christian name harsh, adj [1 hársh, 2 hāš] M E harsk, 'rough to touch', Scand, M Swed, Dau harsk, Swed harsk, Germ harsch The word is prob fr same base as hard (I), Aryan -h becomes -k in Gmc, so that Aryan krat ko* (with adj suff), wd become Gmc krast*, harsk* 1 (of material texture) Disagreeably rough, coarse, irritating to the touch a harsh texture, cloth &c 2 (of sound, voice, musical instrument) Discordant, producing jarring notes, grating &c 3 (of colours) Crude, offensively glaring, not subdued, unharmonious Phr harsh contrast, one that is too abrupt and violent 4 (in moral sense) a (of character and disposition, manners &c) Rugged, stern, hard, severe, b (of features, expression) betokening such character, rough-hewn, coarse, c (of action) severe, oppressive, animated by eterneness and rigour a harsh judgement, punishment harshly, adv Prec & -ly In a harsh manner harshness, n See prec & -ness Quality, condition, of being harsh hart, n [1 hárt, 2 hāt] O E heort, heort, M E hart, op OS hīrt, O H G hīrt, Mod. Germ hirsch, O N hýrt-r The word meant orig 'the horned animal'. The Aryan base ker-*, 'head, horn', occurred also in Lat cervus, 'stag', see cervine, & many other words, q v under cerebral, cervical, horn Adult male of deer, usually of red deer, more than five years old, stag, (archaic Phrs) hart of grease, fat hart, hart of ten, with ten tines on each antler, hart royal, hart that has been chased by a royal person hartal, n [1 hártal, 2 hātāl] Anglicized form of Hind hātālā, fr hāt, 'market', & talna, 'stop, prevent' Stoppage of all work, business &c, as a sign of humiliation or protest, adopted by Indian Nationalists for political purposes hartebeest, hartebeest, n [1 hárt(e)bēst, 2 hāt(e)bīst] S Afr Dn See hart & beast Large S African antelope, of reddish colour, with long curved horns, any species of same genus.

hartshorn, n [1 hárts horn, 2 hātshōn] hart & horn Ammonium carbonate, sal volatile, formerly distilled from antlers of hart, Phrs salt of hartshorn, the impure carbonate in solid form, smelling salts, spirit of hartshorn, aqueous solution of this hart's-tongue, hartstongue, n [1 harts tung, 2 hāts tēg] British fern with long narrow leaves, so called from shape of these hartwort, n [1 hártwärt, 2 hātwtāt] One of several European umbelliferous plants, of genera Laserpitium, allied to cicely, and Tordylium harum-scarum, adj [1 hárūm skárūm, 2 hēarūm skēarūm] Orig Scots, prob fr hare 'em, scar 'em, obs hare, 'to frighten' (colloq) Reckless, rash, irresponsible, extremely careless, hasty, or unmethodical haruspex, n [1 háruspeks, 2 hēaruspeks] Lat, lit 'gut-seer' The first element is fr Aryan gher-, ghor- &c, 'intestine', op Lat hīra, 'empty gut', hīllae (for hīr ulae*), 'small intestines', also Gk hōr-dē, 'gut', (see chord) The Gmc cognates are O E gearn, yarn, O H G garn, 'entrails' For second element see species, spy, & second element of auspice Ancient Roman sooth-sayer, who took auguries from an inspection of the entrails of animals sacrificed harvest (I), n [1 hárvest, 2 hávīst] O E herfest, 'season of crops, autumn, harvest', M E hervest &c Cp O H G herbst, herbest, Germ. herbst, 'harvest, autumn', fr Gmo base herb-, Aryan kerp, 'to cut, shear, pluck', wh occurs also in Lat carpere, 'to pluck' &c, also in Gk karp os, 'fruit', krōp ion, 'sickle' See carpel, carpet, harp 1 Gathering in of seed crops wheat harvest, rice harvest, of other produce, as apples, honey 2 Season when crops are gathered in, early autumn 3 A Crops or other produce when gathered or ready to be gathered, yield of the land the harvest is ripe, the harvest looks well this year, harvest of the sea, fish, b (fig) result of work, reflection, conduct researches have yielded a rich harvest of information, 'The harvest of a quiet eye' (Wordsworth), consequences of conduct the drunkard reaps a bitter harvest of misery harvest (II), vb trans & intrans M E herfesten, fr prec, op M Du herfsten, M H G herbesten 1 trans a To gather in, reap, (crop), b to store, when gathered 2 intrans To gather crops, to work as harvester harvest-bug, n. Harvest-mite harvester, n [1 hárvester, 2 hávīstē] harvest (II) & -er 1 a Person employed to gather crop, esp of corn, b machine for cutting standing crop, or for cutting and binding 2 Labourer who reaps and gathers in the harvest 3 Harvest-mite harvester ant, n Prec & ant One of several species of ant that store seeds for food harvest festival, n Service of thanksgiving held in Christian Churches after the harvest has been safely gathered in harvest home, n Words formerly shouted or sung by the reapers bringing last load home a Song of reapers accompanying last load, b festivities provided by farmer for reapers on completion of wheat harvest, c completion of harvest harvesting, n [1 hárvestīng, 2 hávīstīng] harvest (I) & -ing Act or process of gathering in harvest harvest-louse, n Harvest-mite harvest-man, n harvest (I) & man (I) Labourer employed in harvesting harvest-mite, n harvest (I) & mite Harvest-tick, small insect like a louse, infesting grass stalks &c, which burrows into the skin of men and animals, during harvest harvest moon, n harvest (I) & moon (I) Moon which is full nearest to autumnal equinox, and which is supposed to help in ripening the corn harvest-mouse, n Very small field mouse, which attaches its nest to growing cornstalks.

harvest-tick, n harvest (I) & tick (III)

Harvest mite

hash (I), n [1 hash, 2 hæs] Ahhr fr Early Mod Engl hachey, hachee, fr O Fr hache, PP of hacher, 'to chop up', fr O Fr, Fr hache, 'axe' Prob Gmo See hack (I), hatch (IV) & hatchet 1 Dish of meat cut small, reheated, and served with vegetables and gravy 2 (fig, colloq) a Trite subject presented afresh in disguised form, b medley, jumble, muddle, mess to make a hash of (a job &c) Phr to settle one's hash, to overwhelm, defeat, silence one completely hash (II), vb trans Proc, or directly fr Fr hacher a To chop up (meat), make into a hash, b (fig) to make a mess, a muddle of hashish, n [1 hásbesh, 2 hæsʃ] Arab hashish, 'dried hemp', op assassin Intoxicating and narcotic drug made from Indian hemp, smoked, drunk, or chewed in the East haslets, harslets, hastelets, n pl [1 hárslets, 2 háslets] ME hasletis, hasletis, fr O Fr hasletis (Fr hâtelette), 'meat roasted on spit', fr O Fr haste, 'spit', & -let, fr Lat hasta, 'spear, spit', see hastate Heart, liver, or other edible viscera of animal, esp of a pig, formerly roasted on a spit hasp (I), n [1 hásp, 2 hásp] OE haspe, hasp, ME haspe, haspe, & in other W Gmo languages, also ON haspa, 'hasp' With metathesis, fr hasp* s, fr base hap*, as in N Fris haspe, 'to eustach, clutob', & formative *-son 1 Metal clasp, or hinged flap, for fastening closed lid, door, window, book &c, held when closed by catch, staple, or other device 2 Spindle for winding thread 3 Skoin, hank hasp (II), vb trans OE haspan, ME haspen, fr prec To fasten or lock with hasp hassock, n [1 hásock, 2 hások] OE hassoc, hassoc, '(olimp of) coarse grass', ME hassol, mod dial hassock, 'large tuft of coarse grass, rushes, or sedges', of unknown origin, prob w dimin suff -ock. Is there any connexion w Lat cárex, 'sedge'? The origin of this is said by Walde to be unexplained Does it stand for káraz*? Small hard cushion for kneeling, probably from resemblance in shape to a tuft of grass &c hastate, adj [1 hástát, 2 hástát] Lat hastat-(um), 'armed with spear', fr hasta, 'spear', cogn w Goth gaza, OE gierd See yard (I) & -ate (hot) Shaped like the head of a spear haste (I), n [1 hást, 2 hést] ME, fr O Fr haste, Mod Fr hâte, a Gmo loan-word, op O E hæst, 'violence, fury', OHG heist, 'violent' The word has lost an f, op Goth haifst s, 'strife', ON heist (for heifst*), 'war' The etymol of the Gmo forms is not clear The word implies intentional, volitional, actions a Speed, rapidity, quick motion, or action, of person or animal, Phrs to make haste, to hasten, hurry make haste to come, or and come, b excessive speed, precipitancy, hurry, inconsiderateness, rashness to act in haste, 'I said in my haste', 'All men are hasty', Phr more haste less speed, c state of being urged or forced to act quickly I write in great haste, marry in haste, repent at leisure haste (II), vb trans & intrans ME hasten, fr O Fr haster, fr haste, see prec (now chiefly liter, superseded in popular speech by hasten) 1 trans To come to move or act with speed, to urge on, speed up hurry, accelerate 2 intrans (of animate beings) To move or act with speed, to be rapid, quick, to hurry haste away, to depart with speed hasten, vb intrans & trans [1 hásn, 2 hésn] Proc & -en A intrans 1 (of animate beings) a To move rapidly, in a definite direction, go or come quickly, and with speed, to hurry he hastened over to France to his mother's death bed, b to act with rapidity, without delay I hasten to let you know the good news 2 (of non-material things) To advance rapidly life, the year &c, is hastening to its close B trans 1 To impart haste to, cause to hurry, accelerate, speed up (a movement, action, process) to hasten the growth of plants, one's preparations, one's pace 2 To cause to come on more rapidly, cause to occur earlier, put forward to hasten one's departure, arrival &c hastily, adv [1 hástili, 2 héstili] hasty & -ly In a hasty manner, with haste, hurriedly, inconsiderately hastiness, n [1 hástines, 2 héstines] ME hastinesse, fr hasty & -ness Quality or condition of being hasty, in senses a rapidity, b precipitancy, rashness, c shortness of temper hasty, adj [1 hásti, 2 hésti] ME hastif, hasty, fr O Fr hastif haste (I) & -ive The loss of final f was frequent in ME, & later, op jolly, but there is little doubt that in ads the -f suff was identified w, & influenced by, OE ig See -y 1 (of persons, their movements and actions) a Exhibiting, characterized by, rapidity, b exhibiting undue haste, hurried, precipitate a hasty judgement, a hasty glance was all he bestowed upon me, c exhibiting impatience, shortness of temper, rashness he regretted his hasty words, I apologize for what I said—I've been too hasty 2 (of processes) Moving, advancing, coming about, with swiftness, rapid, quick moving the growth of the crops has been very hasty during the hot weather hasty pudding, n Pudding rapidly concocted by stirring flour in boiling water and milk until it becomes thick hat (I), n [1 hat, 2 hæt] OE hætt (t), ME hat, op ON hatt r, 'hat', hatt r, 'hood', Swed hatt, Dan hat, Gmo type hattuz*, perh for had* n-uz, related by gradation to hood, perh cogn w Lat caesus (for katt*), 'helmet', op chasuble Covering for head, usually of somewhat stiff material, and distinguished from cap or bonnet by continuous brim a beaver, bowler, chimney pot, cooled, high, opera, silk, hat, top hat Phrs as black as my hat, very, quite, black, to receive a cardinal's hat, the red hat, to be made a cardinal, from this as part of official dress or cardinals, picture hat, lady's hat with very broad bent brim, as in pictures by old masters, to hang up one's hat, to settle down, pay long visit in a house, (to come) hat in hand, obsequiously, with servile air as though to solicit a favour, to pass, send, round, go round with, the hat, to collect contributions of money, to raise, take off, touch, one's hat to, salute thus, to talk through one's hat (colloq, slang), to talk nonsense in the belief that one will be taken seriously by one's hearers, my hat! (slang), exclamation of surprise &c hat (II), vb trans, fr prec To supply with a hat, (chiefly in PP) hatted, wearing a hat hatable, adj [1 hátabi, 2 hétabi] hate (II) & -able Capable of being hated hathand, n [1 hátband, 2 hátband] Band surrounding hat immediately above brim, broad hatband, black band worn as sign of mourning hathlock, n [1 hátblok, 2 hátblok] Block or mould on which a hat is shaped or ironed hatbox, n [1 hátboks, 2 hátboks] Box, generally of leather, in which a hat or hats are kept or conveyed hatbrush, n [1 hátbrus, 2 hátbra] Soft brush for smoothing a top hat hatch (I), n [1 hach, 2 hæt] OE hæc (gen hæcce), grating, gate of lattice work', ME hacche, hecche (fr uhligue cases, op hack (IV)) Cp M Du hek 1 a Door or gate with open space above, lower part of divided door, wicket, b movable covering of cross bars or solid, to opening in floor or roof of building, (naut) in deck of ship, Phr under hatches (naut), confined below deck, as prisoners or slaves, also, off duty, (fig) in bondage or repression, put away out of sight, dead, c kind of door in weir, drawn up to open flood gate, or trap fish 2 Opening fitted with hatch, (naut) hatchway hatch (II), vb trans & intrans ME hacchen, cp MHG Germ hecken, Swed håcka, Dan hække, hekke, of doubtful origin A trans 1 a To produce (young) from egg whether by natural or artificial process of incubation to hatch chickens, b to produce young from (egg) hatch 12 out of 13 eggs 2 (fig) To originate, contrive, bring to maturity, esp by meditation or secretly to hatch a plot, design, theory B intrans 1 (often hatch out) a (of birds, fish &c) To produce young from egg, b (of young birds &c) to emerge from egg, c (of egg) to produce young, to develop embryo 2 (fig, of plot, design &c) To be in process of elaborating hatch (III), n, fr prec a Action of hatching, b brood, of chickens &c, hatched hatch (IV), vb trans & n Fr hacher, 'to chop, hatch', fr hache, 'axe' See hash (I), hatchet, hachures 1 vb a To engrave or draw upon with very fine parallel or cross lines, esp as shading, b to inlay, decorate, with thin bands 2 n a Line of hatching, b hatched moulding as architectural ornament hatch-boat, n hatch (I) & boat (I) Kind of cargo boat chiefly decked with hatches hatcher, n [1 hácher, 2 hátʃ] hatch (II) & -er 1 a Animal that hatches eggs, person that superintends hatching, b incubator 2 Contriver, plotter a great hatcher of plots hatchery, n [1 háoberi, 2 hátʃəri] hatch (II) & -ery Place or establishment for hatching fish hatchet, n [1 háchet, 2 hátʃt] ME hachet, fr Fr hachette, dimin. of hache, 'chopper', prob formed fr HG vb hacken (Meyer-Lühke) Cp hash (I), hatch (IV) Small axe, for one hand, for chopping firewood &c, tomahawk Phr to bury the hatchet, to make peace, compose a quarrel, to dig up, take up, the hatchet, to make war hatchet face, n Thin narrow face with prominent nose and jaw, suggesting shape of hatchet hatchet-faced, adj Proc & -ed Having a hatchet face hatching, n [1 háching, 2 hátʃɪŋ] hatch (IV) & -ing (in graphic arts) Process or method of marking shade by fine parallel lines hatchment, n [1 háchment, 2 hátʃment] Early Mod Engl atcheament, ahhr form of achievement Escutcheon painted on square panel, hung diamondwise on front of house to notify decease, and afterwards hung in church, an heraldic achievement hatchway, n [1 hácbwá, 2 hátʃweɪ] hatch (I) & way (chiefly naut) Rectangular opening in deck of vessel or floor of building, closed when required by a hatch hate (I), n [1 hát, 2 hést] OE hate, ME hete, altered to hate through influence of vb (see next word), & perh of ON hat r, Common Gmc, OS hete, OHG haz, Mod Germ hass, Gotb hais, neut, Gmo type hat*, fr Aryan ked*, wk grade of kéd*, 'destroy' &c, whence also Gl lédem, 'to trouble, vex', Scrt kadanam, 'destruction', prob also Lat cadere, 'to fall' (see cadency), & more certainly calamitas, 'misery, misfortune' &c, for cadamitas*, w Sahme/ford (see calamity) a Strong feeling of dislike, detestation, repugnance, against person or thing, hatred, extreme ill will, loathing, b (rare) object of hatred hate (II), vb trans OE hatan, ME haten, halen, fr Gmo type hatjan*. See prec a To entertain feelings of hatred for, to bear extreme ill will against, desire evil to (persons), b to loathe, detest, abhor, abominate (things), (colloq) regret, dislike strongly I hate to trouble you, I hate that you should think so hateful, adj [1 hátfool, 2 hátfel] hate (I) & -ful 1 Arousing hatred, worthy to be hated, loathsome, abominable, odious 2 (rare) Filled with feelings of hatred, malignant hatefully, adv Proc & -ly In a hateful manner hatefulness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being hateful hateful, n [1 hātfool, 2 hātfo] hat (I) & -ful Quantity that will fill a hat. hatless, adj [1 hātles, 2 hātles] hat (I) & -less Not having or wearing a hat, bareheaded hatpeg, n [1 hātpeg, 2 hātpeg] Wooden peg or metal hook for hanging hat hatpin, n [1 hātpin, 2 hātpin] Long pin, usually with ornamental head, used to fasten woman's hat to her hair hatrack, n [1 hātrak, 2 hātrak] Series of pegs or hooks for hanging hats hated, n [1 hātrd, 2 hātrd] ME hatereden, fr hate (I) & OE rāden, 'rule, direction, condition', used as substantival suff (as in OE frēondrāden, 'friendship', mān-rāden, 'allegiance', op kūndred), fr source of ready, ride a Vehement or profound ill-will, settled feeling of malignity or rancour towards person or thing, b loathing, abomination, detestation, (colloq) strong dislike hatstand, n [1 hātstand, 2 hātstand] Piece of furniture consisting of movable frame or post standing on floor with pegs to hang hats on. hatter, n [1 hāter, 2 hāte] hat (I) & -er Person whose occupation is to sell or make hats, colloq Phr as mad as a hatter, very mad, very angry hat trick, n a (cricket) Feat of taking three wickets with successive balls (originally rewarded by present of new hat), b (association football) feat of player who scores three goals in match hauberk, hawberk, n [1 hāwbérk, 2 hōbik] ME haubere, haubergh, fr O Fr hauberc, halbera (Fr haubert), fr OHG halsbera, fr hals, 'neck' (op hawsa), & bergan, 'to protect' (op borough, bury), OE healsbeorg, ON halsbjörg (op habergeon) Medieval coat of armour, esp one of chain-mail, or of cloth covered with rings, scales, or small plates of steel haugh, n [1 hāw, 2 hō] Prob identical w -haigh, -hall in place names, fr OE h(e)alh, 'corner, hiding-place, bay' Possibly fr Aryan k^oolk^o*, & perh oogn w Gk kolpos, 'bosom, lap, bay of the sea' (but see gulf) The word may, however, be cogn w Lat calx, 'heel', q v under calceolaria (chiefly Scots and N Engl) Alluvial flat in river-valley haughtily, adv [1 hāwti, 2 hōti] haughty & -ly In a haughty manner haughtiness, n [1 hāwtines, 2 hōtinis] Nextword & -ness Quality of being haughty haughty, adj [1 hāwti, 2 hōti] Early Mod Engl hauty, the spelling w gh has no historical justification, but due to anal of such words as naught, prob extension w suff -y, fr early Mod Engl haut, hault, haught, 'exalted, noble, haughty', fr O Fr halt, haut (Fr haut), 'high', fr Lat altus (see altitude), influenced by OHG hōh, huh Perh affected in meaning by ME hautein, hautyn, fr O Fr (hautain, Fr hautain, 'haughty', fr haut & suff -ain, fr Lat -ānus a (of persons) Proud and disdainful, supercilious, arrogant, b (of manner, speech, looks &c) expressing disdain or arrogance haul (I), vb trans & intrans [1 hawl, 2 hōl] ME hauen, variant of hālen (see hale (II)), Fr haler, 'to haul, tow' A trans 1 To pull, drag, esp with effort or force, to transport by pulling, specif, to haul timber, convey it from place where it is felled to sawmill Phr to haul over the coals, (colloq), from punishment of heretics) to reprimand, find fault with, to haul down one's flag, colours, (fig) to surrender 2 (naut) To bring up (ship) close to the wind (from hauling sheets, op close hauled) Phr to haul the wind, haul ship, (fig) to withdraw, draw back, to haul up, (fig, colloq) cheek irregularities of, call to account B intrans 1 A To pull to haul at, upon, a rope, b to pull apart, as two horses harnessed abreast 2 (naut) A To alter sailing course to haul off, round, Phr.

to haul up, sail near or into wind, stop course, to haul upon the wind, haul the wind, b (of wind) to shift haul (II), n, fr prec 1 a Hauling, pulling with effort or force, b length along which a thing is hauled 2 Catch of fish, (fig) capture, acquisition, quantity secured as result of a venture a good, big, haul haulabout, n [1 hāwlabout, 2 hōlabaut] Kind of steel coal-barge furnished with transporters haulage, n [1 hawli, 2 hōldi] haul (I) & -age 1 a Action or process of hauling, esp of carting, conveying goods &c, b force employed in hauling 2 Charge made for hauling, or for use of railway hauler, n [1 hāwler, 2 hōle] haul (I) & -er Person who hauls haulier, n [1 hāwier, 2 hōlie] haul (I) & -ier Hauler, specif a carter, b man who hauls coal in mine to foot of shaft haulm, halm, n [1 hawm, halm, 2 hōm, hām] OE healm, halm, 'straw, grass stem', ME halm, op OS, OHG halm, ON halm-r, oogn w Gk kalamos, 'reed', kalamē, 'cornstalk', Lat calamus, 'reed, cane', culmus, 'stalk, esp of grain', W calaf, 'stalk', O Slav slama, Russ soloma, 'straw' a Stalk, stem, of plant, b stalks, esp of peas, beans, cereals, also of other crops, e.g. of potatoes, esp after gathering, litter, straw, used for thatching &c. haunch (I), n [1 hawnsh, 2 hōnsh] ME, fr O Fr hanche, apparently fr W Gmc source, op M Du hancke, hencke Etymol obscure Could the word be fr ham (see ham (I)), w dimin suff? a Part in man and quadrupeds, including projection formed by the hip, together with the thickest part of the thigh and the buttock, hind quarter to squat on one's haunches, b (of meat) the above parts together with loin of the animal a haunch of venison haunch (II), n Perh fr prec Hance haunch-bone, n Hip bone, also called innominate bone haunched, adj [1 hawnsh, 2 hōnsh] haunch (I) & -ed Having haunches haunching, n [1 hawnshing, 2 hōnsh] haunch (II) & -ing Material or backing for haunch of arch haunt (I), vb trans [1 hawnt, 2 hōnt] ME ha(w)nten, 'to haunt, practise', fr Fr hanter (aspirated), 'to frequent, haunt', of uncertain origin, perh fr a Low Lat type ambulare*, 'to go about', fr ambitus, 'a going about' (see ambit), owing to anal of Lat habitare, 'to dwell' (see habit) 1 a To frequent, visit (place) often or habitually to haunt the lowest resorts, b to associate with (persons) to haunt bad company 2 Specif (of ghosts, goblins, spirits, spooks) a to frequent, reside, appear repeatedly in, to infest (places) the place was said to be haunted by the ghost of its former owner, b to appear frequently to, to obsess, accompany constantly (persons) to be haunted by the ghost of a dead friend, c (of persons) to annoy by constantly repeated visits, pester by appearing frequently to, importune with one's company 3 (of non material things) a (of thoughts, ideas, emotions &c) To occupy the mind, recur frequently to, obtrude upon persistently, obsess I am haunted by the thought that I might have saved him, remorse haunts him continually, to be haunted by fears &c, b to be associated with, evoked by, cluster round, pervade memories and visions of bygone events seem to haunt such buildings as Westminster Hall haunt (II), n ME hant, 'usage, haunt', fr O Fr hant, fr vb, see prec a Place which person frequents, resort haunts of vice and crime, haunts of one's youth, back in one's old haunts, a low haunt, a haunt of fashion, also (fig) his heart is the haunt of base thoughts, b lair, habitat, feeding-place of animal 'haunts of cool and fern' (Tennyson's 'Brook') haunted, adj [1. hāwnted, 2 hōnted] haunt (I) & -ed Repeatedly or habitually subject to ghostly or psycho manifestations a haunted house haunter, n [1 hāwnter, 2 hōnter] haunt (I) & -er Person, ghost &c that haunts haunting (I), n [1 hāwnting, 2 hōnting] haunt (I) & -ing a Action of frequenting or often resorting to place, b habitual or repeated appearance of ghost &c in place haunting (II), adj, fr prec Part of haunt (I) Often or persistently recurring to the memory, not easily forgotten a haunting melody, cadence, rhyme &c hauntingly, adv prec & -ly In a haunting manner haurient, -ant, adj [1 hāwrient, 2 hōrient] Lat haurient, stem of Pres Part of haurire, 'to draw up, drain, swallow' See exhaust. (her) Of fish, having head pointing upwards towards the top (chief) of the shield (as if rising to breathe air) Hausmannize, vb trans & intrans [1 hōusmaniz, 2 hōusmaniz] Baron G E Hausmann (1809-91), who rebuilt much of Paris To reconstruct or alter (town or quarter) by drastic or ruthless reconstruction hauboy, n [1 hōboi, 2 hōboi] Fr haut-bois, fr haut, 'high', & bois, 'wood' Op haughty, bush (I), choce a Oboe, b reed-stop or organ with thin tone hanteur, n [1 hōtér, 2 hōtér] Fr, fr haut, 'high' (op haughty), & eur See -or & -our Haughtiness, haughty aloofness, manner as of one dealing with an inferior Havana, n [1 havāna, 2 bevāna] Span Habana, capital of Cuba Havana cigar have, vb trans [1 hav, 2 hāv], & auxil [hāv, av, v], only [hāv] when specially emphasized OE habban, 'to hold, take, possess, have', ME habben & hāven, fr type haf-as in OE hafast &c, Common Gmc, OS habban, habban, fr W Gmc type habbi*, Gmc hab-tyan*, op OHG haben, Germ haben, Goth haban, ON hafa Not connected w Lat habere, 'to have' &c, in spite of resemblances of form & meaning Almost certainly fr same base as Lat capere, 'to seize, take', q v under captive, & cogn w heave, haff, & perh w hawk (I) A trans In the present and past tenses, the colloquial language generally uses construction have got instead of the simple have, in several of the senses in which the word is used This alternative usage is indicated in all cases where it may occur 1 (of persons) a To possess, hold, own, as a material possession, to be in possession of to have a large fortune, a house in the country, a polo pony, a motor car &c, also, I've got a house &c, b to control, keep, be in enjoyment of, have attached to one, enjoy services, affection, of &c to have a large staff of servants, a butler, to have a wife and family, a friend &c, also, I've got a friend &c, c (of things) to be closely associated with, in proximity to, to be in position of having something attached, or appertaining to as a part or accessory this house has an excellent garden, my room has three windows, such a book ought to have a fine binding 2 (of persons) To possess and exhibit, as a physical trait, feature, characteristic to have a bald head, a red nose, lovely blue eyes &c, also, I've, he's d.c., got a red nose &c, b as a mental characteristic, quality &c to have a bad temper, a powerful intellect, a good memory &c, also, I've, he's d.c., got a bad temper &c Phrs will you have the goodness, kindness d.c., to do so and-so?, be so kind as to, please do, so and-so, to have the cheek, impudence d.c., to do, say &c, to be so impudent &c as to 3 (of mental activity) a To retain, hold, in the mind, to entertain, feel, intellectually or emotionally to have in one's mind, to have a notion, an idea, hope, fear, also, I've got a notion &c, b to exercise a function of the mind, exert some mental or spiritual quality to have an affection for, to have regard to, to have care, charge, of, to have mercy, pity, compassion &c.

intercept to head a crowd off from the wrong end, b (fig) to divert thought, attention, from, to prevent a given action I headed him off (from) making a speech, to head off a person's attack &c 5 (rare or techn) To furnish a head, put a head on to head a pin, nail &c B intrans 1 To direct one's course towards, make for, go in, a certain direction to head straight for the open country 2 (of plants &c) To develop, form a head, generally head up the cabbages are heading up nicely

-head, suff OE hād, rank, condition, nature, forming common suff, becoming in ME (1) -hād, Mod. Engl. -hood, (2) -hede, hēd, the form of wh is prob due to the influence of suff -rēde, Mod. Engl. red as in hairred, kindred, or possibly to an unrecorded OE form w mutation hēd* State, nature, only in godhead, maidenhead, 'state of virginity', and a few archaic or obs words, as lushhead headache, n [1 hēdiak, 2 hēdek] OE hēafodece, ME hēafedeche. See head (I) & ache Ache or continuous pain felt in the forehead or back of the head headachy, adj [1 hēdaki, 2 hēdeki] Preo & -y A suffering from, having tendency to, headache, b tending to cause headache headachy wine.

headband, n [1 hēdband, 2 hēdbend] Band worn round the head.

headboard, n [1 hēdbord, 2 hēdbōd] A board forming, or placed at, head of structure, as bed, b heard at head of pen, to which beast is fastened by rope head-boom, n (nant) Jib boom or flying jib-boom.

headborough, n [1 hēdburo, 2 hēdbaro] ME hēdborwe. See head (I) & borrow (hist) A Head of frankpledge, titling man, hence, b petty constable headchair, n [1 hēdechār, 2 hēdt[ea]] Chair with high back and rest for head.

head-dress, n. Covering for head, esp when ornamental or elaborate, mode of dressing the hair headed, adj [1 hēded, 2 hēded] head & -ed Having a head, usually qualified, as blackheaded, long headed, two-headed &c header, n [1 heder 2 heds] head & -er 1 (rare) Person who a cuts off heads, b acts as head or leader 2 A dive, plunge, head first into water, a fall resembling such a plunge to take a header off a ladder 3 A stone or brick laid across at right angles to face of a wall, as a tie or bond headfast, n [1 hēdfest, 2 hēdfast] Rope at ship's head making her fast to wharf &c head first, adv With the head in front, head foremost.

head foremost, adv Head first head-gate, n Gate admitting water to look &c headgear, n [1 hēdgēr, 2 hēdgjē] A Covering or ornament worn on head, a hat, cap &c, b horse's bridle head-hunter, n Member of savage tribe which collects and preserves human heads head-hunting, n Custom of collecting the heads of one's enemies, and preserving them as trophies headily, adv [1 hedik, 2 hēdik] heady & -ily In a heady manner headiness, n [1 hēdines, 2 hēdins] heady & -ness Quality, condition, of being heady heading, n [1 hēding 2 hēdjn] head & -ing 1 Action or process, a of furnishing or forming a head, b of directing, pointing, or turning the head of a ship, a flock &c, also, direction in which thing is pointed or turned, e of beheading or lopping d (association football) of propelling ball with the head. 2 Thing which forms or constitutes a head, specif, running title, or inscription, at head of chapter, page, or section in book &c 3 Brick or stone laid with one of its smaller ends outwards heading course, n Course in which all the stones or bricks are laid at right angles to face of wall, course consisting of headers headland, n [1 hēdland, 2 hēdland] head

(I) & land (L) Cp OE hafudland, in sense h a Cape, esp one rising steeply, and jutting out into sea, lake &c, a promontory, b strip of unploughed land at end of ploughed field headless, adj [1 hēdles, 2 hēdls] OE hēafodlēas, ME hēafodlēas head (I) & -less Having no head (in various senses) headlight, n [1 hēdlit, 2 hēdliot] a Lamp fixed in front of locomotive, motor car &c, b lantern at masthead of ship headline, n [1 hēdlin, 2 hēdlin] 1 Lane of print at head of page, or of chapter, section, or paragraph, in book or newspaper, giving indication of subject matter &c 2 (nant) One of ropes at head of sail, fastening it to yard.

headlong, adv & adj [1 hēdlong, 2 hēdln] ME hēdelinge, hēdingele, adv, MHG houbelungen, fr head (L) & OE advbl suff lunge, lingo (ME -linge, -linges), formed by blending the OE advbl suffix -ling (as in on bedling), 'backwards', & -unga, ingo, confused in Mod. Engl w the adj long

Cp darkling, sidelong 1 adv A head first to fall headlong, b (fig) rashly, unpetiously, precipitately to rush headlong into danger 2 adj A Having the head in front or foremost a headlong fall, b (rare) precipitous, steep a headlong rock, o (fig) precipitate, impetuous, rash, excessive, hurried headman, n [1 hēdman, 2 hēdmen] OE hēafodman, 'chief, leader' &c, ME hēafedman, cp OHG houblimann, Mod. Germ hauptmann, 'captain' A Man recognized as leader or chief in a village or other community, esp in uncivilized or semi-civilized people, chief of tribe, b head worker, foreman headmaster, n [1 hēdmāster, 2 hēdmāstē] Chief master, director, in a school headmistress, n [1 hēdmistres, 2 hēdmistris] Woman who is chief teacher in, and directress of, a school head-money, n 1 Capitation tax, poll tax. 2 A Prize money for capture of persons at sea, reckoned at so much a head, b reward for producing head of enemy or proscribed person headmost, adj [1 hēdmōst, 2 hēdmoust] head (I) & most (rare) Most ahead, most to the front, foremost head-moulding, n (archit) Moulding over the head of an arch head note, n See head tone headnote, n [1 hēdnōt, 2 hēdnout] Note at head of document, specif (law) summary prefixed to law report, of rulings and usually, principal facts connected with judicial decision head-on, adv & adj head (L) & on (II) 1 adv (of ships, or vehicles) Head to head in collision, head first to strike an iceberg head on 2 adj Occurring head to head (of collision) headphones, n pl [1 hēdfōnz, 2 hēdfounz] See head (I) & -phone In telephony, or esp in wireless, apparatus with ear pieces or receivers fitting on to the head.

headpiece, n [1 hēdpēo, 2 hēdpis] 1 A Covering for the head, specif, helmet or other defensive headgear, b headstall 2 a Head itself, b this considered as seat of intelligence, brain to have a good headpiece c person possessing intelligence 3 Decorative engraving or design at head of chapter or page in book headquarters, n pl, often used as sing [1 hēdkwōrtēz, 2 hēdkwōrtēz] head (I) & quarter (I) 1 A Official residence of commander-in-chief of army, or of commander of lesser military unit, of chief of police, also of other official head of an organization, b central office from which any organization is directed, c headquarters staff 2 (fig) Best, most authoritative and reliable source of information, knowledge &c headquarters' staff, n Prec & staff (I) (mil) Staff attached to commander in chief headrace, n [1 hēdrās, 2 hēdras] Part of mill race above wheel, flume supplying engine &c

headreach, vb intrans & n [1 hēdrēch, 2 hēdrif] head (I) & reach (I) (nant) 1 vb Of ship, to move ahead while tacking 2 n Distance travelled by head reaching head register, n Register or series of tones produced by the upper or head voice in singing or speaking headrest, n [1 hēdrest, 2 hēdrest] Small curved bar, fixed to back of chair, to steady the head, used by dentists, photographers &c headrops, n [1 hēdrōp, 2 hēdrōp] 1 Rope attached to beast's head, by which it is tethered or led 2 (nant) Part of bolt rope sewn along head of sail headseal, n [1 hēdsāl, 2 hēdseil] (nant) Any of the sails set forward of foremast head sea, n Sea that flows or rolls directly against course of vessel headship, n [1 hēdship, 2 hēd[sp]] head (I) & -ship Office, dignity, of head or chief, leading position headsmen, n [1 hēdzman, 2 hēdzmen] head (L) & man (L) 1 One whose office it is to execute criminals by beheading 2 Man in command of whaling boat after whale is struck. 3 Collier who brings coal from working to homeway headspring, n [1 hēdspriug, 2 hēdspriug] head (I) & spring (II) 1 A Chief source of river, b (fig) chief source 2 Gymnastic feat consisting of a leap on to the feet from a recumbent position, the head and shoulders being used in starting headstall, n [1 hēdstawl, 2 hēdstāl] head (I) & stall (I), op finger-stall. Light leather or webbing harness, without a bit, but furnished with rings, passed over head of horse or beast for leading, or tying it up headstock, n [1 hēdstok, 2 hēdstōk] head (I) & stock (I) Bearing, supporting moving part or head of machine head stone, n head (I) & stone Chief, principal stone in foundation of a building headstone, n [1 hēdstōn, 2 hēdstoun] Upright stone at head of grave headstrong adj [1 hēdstrong, 2 hēdstrong] head (I) & strong a Vehemently, impetuously, rashly, self-willed or obstinate, having a will uncontrolled by reason, b (of action) directed by or arising from a headstrong will head tone, n Tone produced by head voice head voice, n Quality of voice depending upon adjustment and condition of vocal chords produced in singing or speaking in the head register, the tones of this are mostly higher in pitch than those of chest-voice headwater, n [1 hēdwawter, 2 hēdwōtē] (chiefly in pl) One of streams in upper part of river basin, which combine to form river headway, n [1 hēdwā, 2 hēdwei] 1 A Progress, rate of progress, esp that made by ship, b (fig) progress 2 Clear space over head in door, under arch, on staircase &c headwind, n [1 hēdwind, 2 hēdwind] Wind blowing directly against vessel's course headword, n [1 hēdwōrd, 2 hēdwād] 1 Word used as heading in book &c, often in heavier type 2 (gram) Word forming principal element in compound head-work, n 1 Mental work, brain-work 2 (archit) Figure of human or other head, or other ornament, carved on keystone heady, adj [1 hedī, 2 hēdī] head (I) & -y 1 Violently wilful, acting passionately or rashly on sudden impulse, ungovernable, headstrong 2 a (of alcoholic liquors) Apt to intoxicate, strong, affecting the head, inebriating, b (fig) apt to disturb the judgment, tending to inflame the passions heal, vb trans & intrans [1 hēl, 2 hēl] OE hēlan, ME hēlen, hēlen, fr Prim OE hēljan*, fr Gmc type hailjan*, op OE hol, 'whole, healthy' See whole & hale (I) & trans 1 (of physical action) a (archaic) To cure, restore to health to heal the sick, to heal a man of his disease, b to cure (a disease, or diseased or injured part) to heal diseases, injuries, speef, to cause (a wound, sore &c) to cicatrize the ointment healed his wounds 2 a To restore to mental or spiritual health or peace of mind time heals most troubles, b to make up, compose, appease to heal dissensions, breaches &c B intrans (of wounds, sores, abrasions &c) a To form a skin over, cicatrize, become healthy and sound, also, to heal up, become completely healthy and covered by a new skin, heal over, to become covered by a new skin, b also in mental sense healable, adj [1 hēlabl, 2 hīlabl] heal & -able Capable of being healed heal-all, n 1 Universal remedy, panacea. 2 Popular name of several plants supposed to have healing virtues, speef a self heal, b figwort heald, n [1 hēld, 2 hīld] OE hefeld Cp hoddle Heddle healer, n [1 hēler, 2 hīler] heal & -er Person who heals, speef, person who professes to heal by Christian Science, faith-healer healing (I), n [1 hēling, 2 hīling] heal & -ing Action of person or thing that heals, cure, remedy healing (II), adj, fr Pres Part of heal a Tending to heal a healing ointment, touch &c, b concerned with process of healing the healing art healingly, adv Prec & -ly In a healing manner health, n [1 helth, 2 help] OE hælh, fr Prim OE hāl* spū, fr hāl, 'whole, healthy', ME hēlthe, op OHG hesida See heal, whole, & -th 1 a State of bodily or mental wellbeing, normal condition of mind or body in which all parts and faculties perform their functions duly, easily, satisfactorily, soundness, freedom from disease, disorder, pain, or weakness health of body and mind, b moral or spiritual soundness or wellbeing the soul's health, (theol) state of grace 2 a Bodily condition, whether good or bad to be in good, bad, poor, ill health, Phr a (clean) bill of health, public health, state of health prevalent in community, b study or science of conditions of health, hygiene Ministry of Health, government department in charge of public hygiene and other matters of local government 3 Healing power there is health in the sea-breezes and sunshine healthful, adj [1 hēlthfūl, 2 hēlpfūl] Prec & -ful 1 Tending to maintain, promote, or restore bodily, mental, or spiritual health or wellbeing, salubrious, salutary 2 Enjoying, displaying, good health, in sound condition, healthy healthfully, adv Prec & -ly In a healthful manner healthfulness, n See prec & -ness Quality or condition of being healthful health-giving, adj [1 helth givng, 2 hēlp givng] Tending to promote health, having quality of imparting health healthily, adv [1 hēlthli, 2 hēlpili] healthy & -ly In a healthy manner healthiness, n [1 helthnes, 2 hēlpines] healthy & -ness Healthy condition, health health officer, n Officer appointed by public body to enforce regulations relating to public health health resort, n Place frequented by persons desiring to improve their health, on account of its climate, waters, curative establishments &c healthy, adj [1 hēlthi, 2 hēlpī] health & -y 1 a (of persons and living organisms generally) Having good health, in a sound, vigorous, hearty, normal condition a healthy infant, apple tree, skin, also a healthy mind, society &c, b (of conditions, functions &c) indicating, exhibiting, health, physical or moral a healthy colour, appetite, a healthy state of public opinion 2 a Tending to promote and maintain, conducive to, physical health, wholesome, healthful, salubrious a healthy climate, exercise, mode of life &c, b mentally or morally wholesome, salutary: healthy reading for the young heap (I), n [1 hēp, 2 hīp] OE hēap, 'troop, band, multitude, association', ME heap, heep, 'troop, heap, number', cogn w O Frs hāp, hepe, OS hāp, Du heep (sp forlorn hope), OHG hufe, houf, hauf, Germ haufe, fr Gmc type hauþ* n as, Aryan koup*, whence also Lith laupas, 'heap', Russ kupa, 'heap, crowd' For orig sense of this base see under head, hive, cup 1 Pile, mass of things lying one on the top of another, accumulation, mound a heap of stones, of ruins, of slain, colloq Phr struck, knocked, all of a heap, overwhelmed, reduced suddenly to utter powerlessness 2 a (chiefly colloq) Throng, crowd, collection, of persons or animals, large number of things, material or non-material to go to a heap of places, a heap of work, to have heaps of money, heaps of people, Phrs heaps of times, often; heaps of time, plenty of time, time to spare, b (often as adv) very much I am heaps better heap (II), vb trans OE hēapian*, formed fr n, ME hēpe(n) See prec 1 (also heap up) a To pile up, throw or place (together) in a heap to heap (up) sand, b to form by piling material to heap up a mound, (fig) to heap favours, insults, on one, c (fig) to amass, accumulate to heap up riches, Phr to heap coals of fire on a person's head, reward bad treatment with good 2 a To load, cover, fill, or encumber with a heap or heaps to heap a waggon with hay, to heap a table with books, the street was heaped with dead, (fig) to load to heap a person with favours, b to fill (measure) so that contents rise in heap above brim to heap a bushel, to pile (contents of measure) a heaped spoonful hear, vb trans & intrans [1 hēr, 2 hīr], fr OE, non W Sax hēran (W Sax form hieran), ME hēren, Common Gmc, op O Frs hōra, hāra, OS hōran, OHG hōrjan, hōren, Mod Germ hören, Goth haurjan & haurjōn, ON heyra Gmc type haurjan-, fr Aryan hous-, whence also Gk akouein, 'to hear', fr kous-* See acoustic A trans 1 a To receive an impression of sound upon auditory nerves, receive sensation of sound through the ear, to perceive sound produced by to hear the sound of laughter, to hear a loud noise, to hear a person speak(ing), o watch tick(ing) &c, Phrs to hear say, tell of, to hear come one, people, say &c, to make one's self heard, (fig) obtain a hearing, secure attention to one's views &c, b to be able to hear, not to be deaf to I hear what is said if you speak loud, he doesn't hear a word that is said 2 a To listen to, attend to you had better hear what I have to say, Phrs to hear a person out, to listen to all he has to say, to hear a child his lesson, listen while he repeats it, test his knowledge of it, b (1) to attend, be present at performance of to hear Mass, (n) to listen to lecture or sermon given by to go to hear the great professors and preachers of the day, to listen to artistic performance by to hear Kresler, a famous singer &c, c to attend habitually to hear a course of lectures &c, d to give audience to, listen to officially the court heard the witnesses, to hear a deposition, e (law) to preside at hearing of, to try the magistrate, judge, heard the case, to allow to speak you cannot be heard on that subject now, to be influenced by listening to, accede to, grant hear my prayer 3 To learn of, be told you mustn't believe everything that you hear 4 (obs classicism) To be addressed as, be called 'Or hear at thou rather pure Ethereal stream' (Milton, 'P.L.' in 7) B intrans 1 To perceive sound, to possess and exercise function of hearing the deaf do not hear 2 Listen 'take heed', Phr hear! hear!, exclamation, expressing approval of something said in speech, sometimes ironical 3 Specif a to receive a communication by letter I hear from India every week, b to receive information, be informed, learn, (that)

I heard that he was engaged, also, hear about, be informed concerning Phrs you will hear about this, be censured for, hear of, to receive a report about, get news of, I won't hear of such a thing, won't allow, refuse to tolerate it 4 (obs classicism, with adv) To be reputed, talked of 'Corruption, for which England hears ill abroad' (Milton, 'Areopagitica') hearable, adj [1 hērabl, 2 hīrabl] Prec & -able That may or can be heard heard, vb [1 hērd, 2 hīrd] OE hērd, ME herde Pret & PP of hear hearer, n [1 hērer, 2 hīrer] hear & -er One that hears, speef, auditor, one of an audience at a sermon, lecture &c hearing, n [1 hēring, 2 hīring] hear & -ing 1 a (1) Sense by which sound is perceived, (u) fact of perceiving sound, audition it was said in my hearing, b audience, attention given to a speaker, opportunity of being heard to give one a hearing, to gain a hearing, c action by judge or magistrate of investigating and trying a case at law, esp without jury 2 Distance within which one can hear, range of hearing, earshot within hearing hearken, vb intrans [1 hārken, 2 hārken]. OE heorcnan, ME herkenen, herkenen, related to hark & hear (only later) 1 To listen, hear, attend to what is said 2 To take heed, listen, a with intention of granting to hearken to a supplication, or b of obeying just hearken to what you are told hearken, n [1 hārken, 2 hārken] Prec & -or (only later) Person who hearkens hearsay, n [1 hērsā, 2 hīrsā] hear & say (I) a What one hears said, report, rumour this is mere hearsay, b (attrib) hearsay evidence (law), evidence consisting of what witnesses has heard said, inadmissible in court of law as establishing that the statement is true, though it may prove that the statement was made hearse (I), n [1 hērs, 2 hīrs] ME herce, herse, 'frame for caudles or for pall over bier or tomb', fr OF herce, 'herrow, frame with upright pins' (whence Fr herse, 'harrow'), fr Med Lat herpica, hercia, 'frame for caudles in church', Ital erpic, 'harrow', fr Lat (h) erpic, stem of (h) erpic, 'harrow', perh fr Gk harpax, harpag, 'thing that grips or seizes, gripping iron', cp Gk harpagē, hook, rale Cp harpy, rehearse, & herse 1 a Carriage for conveyance of body to grave, b (post, obs) bier 2 (hist) a Triangular frame resembling harrow, with spikes for caudles, used in church at Tenebrae, frame, bearing caudles, over coffin in church, b temporary framework over coffin bearing pall, or heraldic insignia &c, c (obs) sepulchral monument hearse (II), vb trans, fr prec (rare) To place in a hearse hearse-cloth, n hearse (I) & cloth Pall heart (I), n [1 hāt, 2 hāt] OE heorte, heort, ME heorte, herie, Common Gmc, op O Frs herie, herie, OS herie, OHG herza, Mod Germ herz, Goth haurt, ON hjarta, fr Gmc herion*, orig neut fr Aryan kerd-*, whence also Lat cord, base of cor, 'heart' (see cordate), Gk kardiā, kardiā, O Slav srūd-ice 1 Hollow muscular organ in animal body, which by rhythmical contractions propels blood through arteries and veins Phrs smoler's heart, weakness of heart caused by smoking, to do the heart good, rejoice the heart, give great joy to, to wear one's heart on one's sleeve, proclaim one's feelings openly, to have the heart in the right place, to have true, kind, humane feelings, (my) heart leaps up, throbs or bounds with joy, to have one's heart in one's mouth, to be startled, suddenly terrified, one's heart sinks (colloq, into one's boots), one feels suddenly dismayed or discouraged, one's heart leaps into one's mouth 2 The heart considered as the seat or organ of emotions or moral and mental qualities, a most, deepest part of one's nature, soul, consciousness, conscience, Phr change of heart, (theol) conversion, regeneration, from one's heart, in perfect sincerity, with the deepest feeling, in one's heart (of hearts), in the depths of one's soul, heart and soul, with all one's energies engaged, enthusiastically, to lay, take, to heart, accept and profit by (advice, reproof &c.), to be to heart, also, to grieve over, feel strongly about, a new heart, (theol) regenerate nature, to search the heart, search for, examine, ultimate motives, b vital energy, zeal, ardour, courage, fortitude, Phr in (good) heart, in state of confidence, cheerfulness, courage, to lose heart, to become depressed, faint-hearted, timid, out of heart, discouraged, to pluck up heart, to take courage, be emboldened, to take heart, to summon up courage, feel more confident, to take heart of grace, to pluck up courage to act, c emotional nature, temperament, sensibility, the affections, intimate feelings a hard, stony, tender, heart, a heart of flint, Phr to move, stir, touch, the heart, to set one's heart at rest, to steal the heart, to break the heart, to crush with grief, to cause profound sorrow to die of a broken heart, to cry one's heart out, to weep bitterly and without restraint, to devour one's heart, eat one's heart out, to pine, brood, over one's grief, to grieve bitterly in secret, to find in one's heart to do a thing, to be inclined to do it, not to have the heart to do a thing, to be too tender hearted to do it, to have (plenty of) heart, to have humane feelings, a man of heart, a humane man, heart of gold, a generous, kindly, unselfish nature, heart and hand, with goodwill and energy, heart to heart, intimate (ly), without reservations or reticences a heart to heart talk, to speak to the heart, to appeal to, stir, the deeper feelings, to take to heart, to grieve over, be greatly affected by, Phr an affair of the heart, love affair, after one's (own) heart, according to one's desire, such as one can love, to give one's heart to, to bestow one's love on, to hate of heart, to be devoted to, deeply interested in, to one's heart's content, to the full extent of one's desire, to lose one's heart to, to fall in love with, near one's heart, very dear to one, to set one's heart on, to make the object of one's desire, to steal one's heart, to capture one's affection, to win one's heart, to gain one's love, (to love) with all one's heart, with the full strength of one's affections, d intellect, understanding, mind, memory, Phr at the bottom of one's heart (one knows &c.), in the depths of one's mind, (to get, know, learn, say) by heart, by memory, by rote 3 Inmost part, centre, core, (in material sense) a dense part in centre of vegetable growth heart of a tree, of timber, heart of a cabbage, lettuce &c. Phr heart of oak, (1.) oak timber of toughest kind from centre of trunk, (2.) (fig) men of strong, resolute character, b central area, interior, of a region, country &c. in the heart of Africa, Phr the heart of the country, remote, rural spot or area, c (of non material things) the most fundamental, important, essential part, essence, inner meaning the heart of a mystery, problem, subject, to go to the heart of matters 4 Applied to persons, a as term of endearment dearest heart, b courageous, spirited person a noble, gallant heart 5 A fertility of soul the field is out of heart, b condition of soul in good heart, poor heart 6 Representation of a heart, heart shaped object, specif a conventional figure with two lobes, representing a heart, ornament or other object of this shape, b kinds of cherry a white, black heart, c heart shaped figure on playing cards, hearts, the red suit bearing this figure heart (II) vb intrans, fr prec (3 a) (of certain vegetables) Usually heart up, to form a heart the lettuce are hearting up well heart-ache, n Continuous mental or emotional distress, sorrow, anguish heart-beat, n Pulsation of the heart, throb heart-blood, n Heart's blood (q.v.) heart bond, n (building) Bond consisting of two headers placed in one line, and third over their joint heartbreak, n [1 hártræk, 2 hártræk] Sorrow that breaks the heart, overwhelming grief heartbreaker, n [1 hártræk, 2 hártræk] Person or thing that breaks hearts, specif, a ruthless coquette heartbreaking, adj [1 hártræk, 2 hártræk] Causing the heart to break, producing acute sorrow, (colloq) tedious, causing boredom or fatigue a heartbreaking job heartbroken, adj [1 hártræk, 2 hártræk] Having a broken heart, deeply wounded, overwhelmed by grief heartburn, n [1 hártræk, 2 hártræk], fr an obs vb heartburn, 'to affect with heart-burning' Burning sensation, caused by acidity of the stomach, formerly referred to region of the heart heartburning, n [1 hártræk, 2 hártræk] Phr to burn (often pl) Envious, discontented feeling, esp one due to secret disappointment heart cherry, n One of several kinds of sweet cherry, as black heart, white heart, so called from the shape heart disease, n Any organic or functional malady of the heart heart-easing, adj [1 hártræk, 2 hártræk] Giving ease to the heart, consoling, yielding relief -hearted, adj [1 hártræk, 2 hártræk] Only in composition, preceded by edj joint hearted hearten, vb trans & intrans [1 hártræk, 2 hártræk] heart (I) & -en 1 trans To give heart to, cheer up, encourage, also hearten up 2 intrans (rare) To take courage heartfelt, adj [1 hártræk, 2 hártræk] Deeply, sincerely, felt heart-free, adj Having the affections disengaged, not being in love hearth, n [1 hárth, 2 hárth] OE hearth, ME herd, cogn w O Fris herth, OHG herth, Mod Germ herd, fr Gmc type herdaz*, op Goth haur, 'coal', for haur*, ON hryr, 'embers', fr Aryan ker-* &c, 'burn', whence also Lat carbo, 'charred wood, embers' (see carbon), & cremare, 'to burn' (see cremate) 1 A Hard, flat stone surface beneath fireplace, or on which fire is made, b floor of smith's or other furnace, open hearth, bottom of a blast furnace in which the ore is exposed directly to the flame, hence 'open hearth steel', made in such furnace 2 (fig) Thus considered as centre of home life, friends, home, domestic circle to fight for hearth and altar, hearth and home hearth-brush, n Brush for sweeping hearth hearth-money, n Former English tax on hearths hearth-rug, n Rug or thick mat spread on the floor of a room before the hearth hearthstone, n [1 hárthstón, 2 hárthstón] 1 Slab of stone forming hearth 2 Soft kind of stone, or composition, rubbed with water over hearth, doorstep &c to whiten them heartily, adv [1 hárthl, 2 hárthl] heartily & -ly In a hearty manner, cordially, sincerely, vigorously heartiness, n [1 hárthnes, 2 hárthnes] heart & -ness State or quality of being hearty heartless, adj [1 hárthles, 2 hárthles] OE heartleas, ME heartles, fr heart (I) & -less Having no heart (only in fig sense), specif a unfeeling, callous, cruel a heartless man, b (of actions &c) exhibiting, indicating, these qualities a heartless speech, bargain, fraud &c heartlessly, adv Free & -ly In a heartless manner heartlessness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being heartless heart-rending, adj [1 hártræk, 2 hártræk] rending heart (I) & rend Causing vehement grief, intensely distressing, grievous heart-rot, n Fungoid disease of tree, causing heart-wood to decay heart's-blood, n a (rare) Blood in or flowing from heart, b (fig) (1) life, (2) deepest feelings, (3) most precious possession heart-searching, adj -Trying, testing, the thoughts, desires, motives heartsease, n [1 hártséz, 2 hártséz] heart (I) & ease (I) 1 (obs) Tranquillity or peace of mind. 2 A Common wild pansy (Viola tricolor), a preparation of which was supposed to cure pangs of love, b one of many cultivated varieties of pansy heart-shaped, adj Having approximately the form of a heart, or of its conventional representation heart-sick, adj Greatly depressed in spirits, deeply wounded in the affections heart-sickness, n Free & -ness State of being heartsick heartsome, adj [1 hártsóm, 2 hártsóm] heart (I) & -some (rare, chiefly Scots) Cheering, enlivening, cheerful, merry heart-sore, n & adj ME heartesor a n Sorrow or grief of heart, b edj, sore at heart, feeling aggrieved heartstricken, adj [1 hártsríken, 2 hártsríken] Stricken to the heart, wounded in the affections, oppressed with grief heart-string, n A Tendon formerly believed to trace the heart, b (obs) (pl) deepest affections or feelings, Phr to pull at one's heart strings, to stir one's deepest feelings heart-whole, adj 1 Having, keeping, the heart or affections unmoved by love for one of opposite sex 2 Whole hearted, devoted to one object heart-wood, n Hard wood in centre of tree-trunk, wood of the heart of a tree, duramen hearty, adj [1 hárth, 2 hárth] ME herth, fr heart (I) & -y Pertaining to, proceeding from, the heart (in fig senses) 1 A Vigorous, healthy, robust, lusty, spirited a hearty fellow, also as noun my hearties, stout fellows, b indicating, proceeding from, vigour or strong vitality a hearty appetite, meal 2 Sincerely and deeply felt, cordial hearty approval, dislike, dejection, support 3 Warm hearted, genial, affectionate, friendly a hearty welcome, cheer 4 (of land) Fertile, in good heart heat (I), n [1 hót, 2 hót] OE hætu &c (fr earlier hāt*), ME hæte, cogn w O Fris hæte, OS hāt, OHG hæti, fr Gmc hæti*, whence also, without mutation, OE hāt, q v under hot The Gmc type is fr Aryan kald*, whence Lat caelum, fr kald-* 'sky, heavens' See ceiling The original sense of the base appears to be 'bright, shining, glowing' 1 (phys) Formerly regarded as an independent substance, now held to be a form of energy associated with molecular agitation latent heat, radiant heat 2 (ordinary use) A condition of material substances accompanied, and characterized, by high temperature, warmth, hotness, reverse of cold the heat of the sun, the weather, day &c 3 This condition of external bodies as perceived by the sense of touch, sensation of burning, or of considerable warmth produced by contact with, or proximity to, bodies containing heat to back in, enjoy, the heat 4 Sensation resembling burning produced by certain substances such as mustard, pepper, and other condiments upon sense of taste 5 Condition of animal body arising from high, or too high, temperature in the blood, feverish, inflammatory condition of the body his face was flushed with sudden heat 6 Degree of heat, in any of above senses the heat of the sun, blood &c, red, white, heat &c 7 Appetence in female mammals, period of duration of this An animal in this condition is said to be on heat 8 (in moral sense) Strong, vehement feeling, fierceness, a fervour, ardour, impetuosity the heat of an attack, the heat of eloquence, b vehemence of temper, indignation, anger, ruffled feelings. to repel an accusation with some heat; the heat of argument, controversy &c. 9 Action performed in a single burst or effort, spout (athletes) single part, stage, round, of a contest, the object of which is to eliminate all but the best competitors from the final trial or test. the preliminary heats, the final heat, in a race &c. heat (II), vb trans & intrans O E hētan, M E hēten &c. See prec & op hot 1. trans To make hot, a (i) to heat an iron, some water, to heat oneself by running &c., (ii) heat up, bring to a high degree of heat, esp of something grown cold heat up the cold mutton, b (in moral sense) chiefly pass, to excite, inflame, animate, irritate, make angry heated with dispute, argument, battle, heated by opposition, heated with wine &c. 2 intrans To become hot (rare in moral sense)

heat apoplexy, n. heat (I) & apoplexy Sunstroke heated, adj [1 hēted, 2 hītd] heat (II) & -ed 1 Made hot, warmed up 2 (of the mind) Excited, inflamed a heated imagination, brain, b accompanied by passion, strong feeling, anger a heated discussion

heatedly, adv [1 hētdli, 2 hītdli] Preo & -ly In a heated manner heat-engine, n. heat (I) & engine Any kind of engine that converts heat into mechanical energy, as steam engine, petrol motor &c. heater, n [1 hēter, 2 hīts] heat (II) & -or One of various devices for heating, warming up, food, rooms &c.

heath, n [1 hēth, 2 hīp] O E hæth, fem. 'waste land, heath plant', M E hæbe; oogn w O H G heida, Mod Germ, & Du heide, Goth haidr, 'waste place', O N heidr r, fr Gmc type haidjō-, perh oogn w Gaulish cētum in Lat bū cētum, 'oow pasture', W coed, 'wood', fr Aryan base kōt-* 1 Tract of waste land, moor, esp barren land overgrown with any kind of heath 2 Any plant or species of an Old World genus, Erica, of narrow-leaved, tough stemmed, herbaceous or shrubby plants, with numerous small white, purple, or pink bell shaped flowers, esp the common ling, Calluna vulgaris, and the purple heather, Erica cinerea heath-berry, n. heath & berry Any small berry-bearing plant commonly growing on heaths or moors, as whortleberry, cranberry, crowberry, fruit of same heath-cock, n. heath & cock (I) Black-cock, male of black grouse heathen (I), n [1 hēthen, 2 hīðen] O E hæðen, hæðena, M E hæðen, Common Gmc, op O Frs hēthen, OS hēðin, O H G heidan, O N heðin-n, prob fr heath. 1 In the Old Testament (in pl, translating Heh goyim) applied to all nations and races other than the Jews, hence those who worship other gods than the God of Israel 2 a At present chiefly appd to heilver in, worshipper of, the gods of savage tribes, or to adherent of any other religion than Christianity, Judaism, Hinduism, Mohammedanism, unreligious person, infidel we don't want our children to grow up heathens, b (colloq) person of outlandish or uncivilized habits heathen (II), adj Same as prec 1 Pertaining to a heathen or the heathen a heathen man, temple, rite; b unreligious, c (colloq) barbarous, outlandish heathendom, n [1 hēðendum, 2 hīðandum] O E hæðendōm, M E heathendom, 'paganism' See heathen (I) & -dom 1. (coll) The heathen, the heathen parts of the world 2 (archaic) Paganism, heathen religion heathenese, n [1 hēðenes, 2 hīðanēs] O E hæþen-nes, 'paganism, district inhabited by heathens' (archaic) Used by Tennyson in sense of regions inhabited by the heathen Probably a new coinage w -ess, and not derived direct from old word heathenish, adj [1 hēðenish, 2 hīð(ə)nish] O E hæðenisc, fr heathen & -ish, op O H G heidanisc, Germ heidnisch a Pertaining to the heathen, characteristic of heathen peoples or religions, b unchristian, barbarous, outlandish heathenishly, adv Preo & -ly In a heathenish manner heathenishness, n See prec & -ness

Condition, quality, of being heathenish heathenism, n [1 hēðenizm, 2 hīðanizm] heathen (II) & -ism 1 Religion or religious practices of heathen, paganism 2 a Disregard of religion, condition of being without a religion, b barbarism, barbarity heathenize, vb trans [1 hēðeniz, 2 hīðaniz] heathen (II) & -ize To render heathen heathenry, n [1. hēðenri, 2 hīðanri] heathen (II) & -ry. 1 State or character of the heathen, heathenism 2 Heathendom, the heathen world heather, n [1 hēðher, 2 hēðə] M E (Soots) haddyr, Early Mod Engl hadder, later altered through influence of heath, relation to wh is obscure There seems to be an O E formative enff -ra in plant-names, eg ampra, clāfra, mæðere, M E doder See clover a Plant of heath family, esp Calluna vulgaris, with very small light-purple flowers, common heath, ling, or purple heath, Erica cinerea, b expanse of moor covered with it Phrs to set the heather on fire, to make a disturbance, to take to the heather, to become an outlaw (in Scottish mountains) heather ale, n Kind of ale flavoured with flowers of heather, formerly brewed in Scotland heather bell, n Bell-shaped flowers of the heather heather mixture, n Woollen fabric woven of threads of various colours, producing speckled effect somewhat like that of heather heather tweed, n Tweed cloth consisting of heather mixture heathery, adj [1 hēðher, 2 hēðə] heather & -y Abounding in, overcovered with, heather heath-fowl, n. heath & fowl (I) Black grouse heath-game, n. heath & game (I) Black grouse heath-hen, n. heath & hen Hen of black grouse, grey hen heath-pea, n. heath & pea Kind of wild pea with small edible tubers heathy, adj [1 hēthi, 2 hīpi] heath & -y Pertaining to, resembling, covered with, heather, abounding in heath or moor heating, vhl n & adj [1 hētung, 2 hītp] a heat (II) & -ing, b fr Pres Part of heat (II) a n Method of warming a building the heating of the church is very imperfect, b adj, tending to promote heat a heating drink, maize is too heating for hens in summer heathlightning, n. Distant sheet lightning, seen by reflection from clouds, summer lightning heat ray, n. Ray producing effects of heat, used formerly esp of ray near the red end of spectrum heat spot, n. 1 Sensory organ in skin, consisting of end of nerve, sensitive to heat 2 Pimple, slight skin-eruption, supposed popularly to be produced by heat heat stroke, n. Attack of prostration, with various symptoms such as unconsciousness and fever, syncope, slight apoplectic attack, caused by exposure to excessive heat heat tone, n. Quantity of heat produced by chemical reaction heat unit, n. Unit in quantitative measurement of heat, thermal unit, calorie heat wave, n. 1 Undulation of ether in radiant heat 2 Supposed movement of hot weather across part of earth's surface, resulting period of heat in a particular region heavne, n [1 hēm, 2 houm] Fr, fr O Fr helme, fr Gmc source. See helmet (II) Large, heavy, medieval helmet, completely covering head, and often resting on shoulders, much used in tilting heave (I), vb trans & intrans [1 hēv, 2 hīv]

Preo & PP in nant senses have. O E hebban (hef-), M E hebben, haben, heven, orig a strong vh of a ð type, but wk forms appear already in late O E, & both strong & wk

Preo & PP appear in M E Common Gmc, op O Frs heva, OS hebbian, M Du heven, Du heffen, O H G heffan, M H G heben, haben, Mod Germ heben, Goth heffan, O N hefja &c. The Mod Engl Preo have is not lineal descendant of O E hēf, wh wd give hoof*, hoove*, but is either formed on anal of broke, bore &c, or borrowed fr a LG source Gmc base hab*, hōb*, Aryan base hēp*, lēp*, lēp*, wh appear in Lat capere (capio), Preo cēpi, 'to take', Gk lōpē, 'handle' See further under captive, haft A trans 1 a To raise, lift, swing with movements of the arms to heave an axe, b to lift, haul, drag, or push up with effort to heave the anchor, c to cause to rise or swell the wind heaves the waves, to heave one's chest, bosom, breast, Phr to heave the gorge, to retch, d to emit (sound) from chest as if with effort or pain to heave a sigh, a groan 2 a (of heavy weights and bulky objects) To move, shift, propel, upward and forward, or in any direction, with effort to heave coal, b (nant) to move by hauling rope or cable, to haul in (cable &c) to heave a line taut, hence, to move (ship &c) by engines or any method to heave a ship ahead, astern In numerous nautical Phrs, eg to heave a ship ahead, to haul her forward at anchor until cable is nearly vertical, to heave a ship down, to careen her, to heave keel out, to careen ship until keel is out of water, to heave out sail, to unfurl it, to heave a ship to, to stop her headway, by bringing her into wind &c 3 (nant and colloq) To throw, cast, hurl to heave the lead, the log, to heave a brick 4 (geol) To fracture and displace (stratum or vein) B intrans 1 a To rise, esp slowly or laboriously, b to rise with rhythmical movement as of waves, to swell the billows heave, one's bosom heaves (with sighs, sighs &c), c to suffer from spasmodic, convulsive movements of the throat and stomach, as with nausea, to retch, d (fig) to make strenuous or convulsive efforts, as if struggling to throw off weight or burden, e (poet, of the ground) to roll, swell, undulate, form mounds 'Where heaves the turf in many a mouldering heap' (Gray) 2 (nant) a To haul rope or cable, by hand or with windlass or capstan, Phr heave away, heave ho!, seamen's call to heave, b (of ship) to be moved, by hauling or otherwise, to proceed, draw the ship heave alongside, she heave out of the harbour Phrs to heave down, to be careened, to heave in sight, to come into view above horizon (of approaching ships, and by extension, of other moving or fixed objects), to heave io, to heave to heave (II), n, fr prec 1 A Action of heaving, lifting, or hauling with effort, effort to raise weight, b upward movement, process of swelling, the heave of the sea, c heaving of stomach, retching 2 (geol, min) Amount of displacement caused by fault in stratum or vein, measured horizontally 3 Kind of throw in wrestling 4 (pl) The heaves, (veter) lung disorder of horse, a kind of asthma, emphysema, broken wind heaven (I), n [1 hēvn, 2 hevn] O E heofon, heofon, hefon, masc, also heofene fem, M E hevene, heven, OS heban, heben, LG heben, heven, O N hifn n. Origin unknown, connexion w heave (I), or w the other Gmc. names for heaven, viz (1) Goth himin s, O N himin n, (2) O Frs himul, OS, O H G himil, Germ himmel, is doubtful 1 (chiefly liter) a The apparent blue vault or dome spread over the earth, the firmament, sky 'hills whose heads touch heaven' (Shakespeare), 'Oth', I u 141, 'the floor of heaven' (Shakespeare, 'M Ven., V i 58), the starry cope of heaven' (Milton, 'P L', iv 982), Phr the eye of heaven, the sun, b the open space above the earth, apparently enclosed by the dome of heaven the winds, clouds, fowls, of heaven, rain from heaven, c part of sky over a region, climate, clime Italy has a brighter heaven than ours, d canopy with stars, over stage 2 (obs or lust.) Any one of the concentric spheres (often seven or nine) in which, according to Ptolemaic astronomy, the heavenly bodies are fixed Phrs the seventh heaven, the heaven of heavens, (Bib) the highest of the heavens, (fig) seventh heaven of delight, state of greatest happiness 3 (often pl) The expanse in which the earth, planets, sun, and stars move, the interstellar space, physical universe to search the heavens with a telescope, the starry heavens 4 a The abode of a god or of a class of spiritual beings, in some religions regarded as one of many the Buddhist heavens, b (in Jewish and Christian theology) Paradise, the abode of God, of angels, and (after the Judgement of, according to some, after death) of the redeemed, regarded either as a place where God's glory is immediately manifest, or as a state of eternal life, perfection and supreme bliss, the immediate presence of God 'Heaven lies about us in our infancy' (Wordsworth), Phrs to go to heaven, to die, in heaven, dead, o (coll) the inhabitants of heaven all heaven rejoices 5 (fig) a State of extreme felicity or blessedness, ecstatic bliss a heaven on earth, 'to be young was very heaven' (Wordsworth), perfection of goodness or love 'heaven in her eye' (Milton), 'love is heaven and heaven is love' (Scott, 'Last Minstrel'), b the sublimest height of imagination 'the brightest heaven of intention' (Shakespeare, 'Henry V', Prolog 2) 6 a (transf, usually cap) God, Providence the will, decrees, justice of Heaven, would to Heaven, Heaven forbid, (in pl) the supernal powers, the gods, b (in oaths) by Heaven!; in exclamations of surprise or pity good Heavens!, gracious Heavens!

 heaven (II), vb trans, fr prec (rare) To place in heaven or in bliss, to make blessed heaven-born, adj heaven (I) & born Procreated or originating in heaven, of heavenly descent heaviness, n [1 hevnlness, 2 hevnlness] Not word & -ness Quality or condition of being heavily heavenly (I), adj [1 hevnl, 2 hevnl] O E heofonic, M E heofenlic, fr heaven (I) & -ly 1 Pertaining to, situated in, proceeding from, or resembling heaven, celestial, a of the physical heavens, interstellar space, or eky heavenly influence, Phr heavenly body, a star, planet, comet &c, b connected with, coming from, heaven considered as the abode of God or the gods a heavenly angel, spirit, vision, the heavenly kingdom, Phr the heavenly city, the heavenly Jerusalem, the new Jerusalem, described in Rev xxi as coming down from heaven 2 a Transcendently or divinely good, holy, inspired by, or aspiring to, heaven a heavenly mind, heavenly thoughts, b of more than earthly beauty or glory, c (colloq) supremely, or intensely, delightful, causing, characterized by, great pleasure, highly enjoyable, delicious, blissful heavenly (II), adv heaven (I) & -ly Cp O E heofonlice (archaic) In a heavenly manner, by the act of heaven heavenly minded, adj Prec & minded Having the mind and aspirations directed to heavenly things baly heavenly mindedness, n Quality of being heavenly minded heavenward heavenwards, adv & adj [1 hevnlward(z), 2 hevnlwad(z)] M E heavenward, adv heaven (I) & -ward a adv Towards heaven, b adj, heavenward advancing towards heaven the heavenward journey heaven-offering n haave (I) & offering (Yosian law) Contribution to maintenance of priest, priestly due, 'heaved' or lifted out of rest of offering, as tenth part of tithe, shoulder or thigh of animal offered in sacrifice heavier, n [1 hevvr, 2 hevvr] haave (I) & -er 1 Person who heaves or moves heavy goods 2 (nant) Lever for twisting rope &c.

heavily, adv [1 hevvl, 2 hevvl] O E heaflice, M E heavliche, -ly, fr heavy (I) & -ly In a heavy manner, ponderously, weightily 1 With weight, with heavy pressure a heavily loaded wagon, to press, weigh, fall, heavily 2 (fig) a As if supporting or moving a heavy weight, slowly and laboriously to move, drag, heavily, b in a burdensome, grievous, oppressive manner anxiously presses heavily on me, food taxes fall heavily on the poor, c to a high degree, severely, to be punished, fined, heavily, to suffer heavily (chiefly of financial losses), d (archaic) gloomily, doggedly, sorrowfully heaviness, n [1 hevvlness, 2 hevvlness] O E hefigness, M E hevnness, fr heavy (I) & -ness Quality or condition of being heavy 1 (of physical weight) 2 (fig) a Langour, inertness, slowness, torpor, dullness, b dullness, lack of grace or lightness heaviness of movement, c oppression, grievousness, d depression, grief heaviness of heart heaving, n [1 hevving, 2 hevving] O E hefung, fr heave (I) & -ing Action or process of lifting, propelling, or throwing with effort, specif a (archaic or hist) former English custom of lifting or tossing aloft persons of opposite sex on Easter Monday or Tuesday, in allusion to the Resurrection, hence (attrib) heaving day, Monday, Tuesday, b (attrib m naut phrs) heaving line, light line to which hawser or other heavy line is attached, thrown to or from ship to establish connection with wharf &c, heaving line bend, clove lutch Heaviside layer, n [1 hevlsid lāer, 2 hevlsid lāer] fr A. W. Heaviside, British physicist, d. 1923 Theoretical layer of ionized particles, from 50 to 100 miles above the earth, acting as a reflector of wireless waves and compelling them to follow the contour of the earth heavy (I), adj [1 hevvr, 2 hevvr] O E hefig, M E hevi, OS hebig, OHG hebig, hevig Cp O E hefe, 'a weight' All these represent Qmc habig*, the base being the same as in heave (I) 1 (of material things) a Possessing weight; weighty, ponderous, difficult to lift or to move, having high specific gravity, as gold, lead, (opposite of light) *a heavy load, too heavy to lift, Phr (fig) to have a heavy hand, (s) to be clumsy, unskilful, (u) to be severe, inclined to punish harshly, b specif, heavy guns, artillery, of the largest class, heavy cavalry, consisting of heavy men and horses, heavy brigade, one heavily armed, Phrs (fig) heavy guns, artillery, overwhelming, conclusive, facts or arguments, heavy metal, (of persons) possessing moral or intellectual weight, (colloq) a heavy swell, man who from magnificence of his dress, or loftiness of bearing appears (or is) a person of importance and distinction, c (as n, pl) the Heavies, Dragoon Guards 2 a (fig) Burden some, oppressive, grievous, hard to bear, exacting heavy task, work, causing sorrow, lamentable heavy tidings, severe, dangerous a heavy wound, b overwhelming, delivered with force, violent, producing physical shock a heavy blow, a heavy fall 3 (of mental and moral effect) Depressed, borne down, filled, with sorrow, sad a heavy heart 4 (of various physical conditions suggestive of weight) a (of the sky) Overcast, lowering, b (of food generally) rich, indigestible, c (of bread &c) imperfectly aerated, doughy, d (of drink) thick, loaded with alcohol, e (of land, soil) stiff, clayey, hard to work, f (of a road) having a soft, sticky surface, making travelling difficult, g (of odours) penetrating, not easily dispelled, clinging 5 a Clumsy, lumbering, without spring (of gait and movements) *a heavy tread, b (of mental processes) slow, dull lacking animation and sprightliness a heavy type of writ, Phr (of persons) to be heavy on hand, sticky in conversation, a bore, c (theatr) serious, solemn, pompous, sententious the part of heavy father, d (arts) over ornamented, lacking lightness and grace, ponderous heavy style of architecture, e (of writing and writers) dull a heavy style, a heavy book, author, f (of physiological states) languid, lethargic, inert, torpid heavy with sleep, with wine, to look, feel, heavy heavy (II), adv See prec Cp O E hefige. Heavily In composition, as heavy laden, and in a few phrases, as to lie heavy on, to press heavily on, to find time hang heavy on one's hands, not to know what to do with one's time, oneself heavy (III), adj [1 hevvr, 2 hevvr] heave (II) & -y (veter) Affected by the heaves heavy-armed, adj (of troops) Carrying heavy weapons, wearing heavy armour heavy-browed, adj [1 hevvr broued, 2 hevvr broued] Having heavy, overhanging, or frowning brows heavy-handed, adj Acting with a heavy hand, specif a lacking lightness and fineness of touch, awkward, clumsy, unskilful, b oppressive, tyrannical heavy-hearted, adj Filled with grief, or anxiety, dejected, sad heavyish, adj [1 hevvrish, 2 hevvrish] heavy (I) & -ish. Rather heavy heavy-laden, adj Bearing a heavy load, oppressed, afflicted heavy-spar, n heavy (I) & spar (II) Native sulphate of barium, also called baryte heavy-weight, n Person or animal of more than the average weight, esp a heavy jockey or wrestler, boxer weighing more than 11 st 4 lb, one between this weight and 12 st 7 lb being sometimes called a light heavy-weight hebdomad, n [1 hebdomad, 2 hebdomad] Lat hebdomad-, stem of hebdomas, fr Gk. hebdomas, -ados, fr hebdomas, 'seventh' See hepta-, seven, & -ad Lat, group of seven things or persons, specif, a week hebdomadal, adj [1 hebdomadal, 2 hebdomadal] Lat hebdomadalis Prec & -al Weekly, Hebdomadal Council, supreme governing body in Oxford University, which meets weekly hebdomadary, adj [1 hebdomadary, 2 hebdomadary] L Lat hebdomadarius, hebdomad & -ary Weekly, hebdomadal Hebe, n [1 hebvr, 2 hebvr] Lat Hēbē, 'goddess of youth', fr Gk hēbē, 'youth, youthful strength', personified as the cup bearer of gods, and goddess of youth, op Luth yēnē, 'I have power' (colloq) Waitress, barmaid hebetate, vb trans [1 hebvtāt, 2 hebvtāt] Lat hebetāt (um), P P type of hebetāre, 'to make blunt', fr hebet-, stem of hebe, 'blunt', cp hebre, 'to be blunt, dull' Etymol unknown To make mentally blunt or dull hebetude, n [1 hebvtūd, 2 hebvtūd] Fr, fr Lat hebetudo, fr hebet-, stem of hebe, 'blunt, dull' See prec Mental inertness Hebraic, adj [1 hebrāik, 2 hebrāik] Lat Hebraicus, fr Gk hebraios, fr hebraios, Hebrew & -io Pertaining to the Hebrews, Hebrew Hebraically, adv [1 hebrāikah, 2 hebrāikah] Obs Hebraical, fr prec & -al & -ly In a Hebraic manner, like a Hebrew Hebraism, n [1 hebrāizm, 2 hebrāizm] See prec & -ism Cp Fr hebraïsme a A Hebrew idiom or figure of speech, b the Hebrew character and mode of thought, the Hebrew religion, Judaism Hebraist, n [1 hebrāist, 2 hebrāist] See Hebraize & -ist Cp Fr hebraïste a One skilled in the Hebrew language, literature, and institutions, b person who adheres or inclines to Hebrew thought or religion Hebraistic, adj [1 hebrāistik, 2 hebrāistik] Prec & -ic Pertaining to Hebraism or a Hebraist Hebraistically, adv [1 hebrāistikah, 2 hebrāistikah] Prec & -al & -ly In a Hebraistic manner Hebraize, vb trans & intrans [1 hebrāvr, 2 hebrāvr] L Lat hebraizare, fr Gk hebraizein, 'to speak Hebrew', fr hebraios,

Hebrew, & -ize 1 trans a To translate into Hebrew, b to make like a Hebrew 2 intrans To become Hebrew, to act or think in the Hebrew manner Hebrew, n & adj [1 hēbrē, 2 hibrū] ME Hebreu, Ebreu, fr O Fr Hebreu, fr Hébreu, fr Lat Hebraeus, fr Gk hebraios, fr Aramaic hebrai 1 n a Member of the people or nation of Israel, or of the tribe or group of tribes which became that people, Israelite, (in plain Mod Engl interchangeable with Jew), b ancient language of the Hebrews, Phr it's Hebrew to me, unintelligible 2 adj Pertaining to the Hebrews or their language hecatomb, n [1 hēkatōm, 2 hekatom] Fr hecatombe, fr Lat hecatombē, fr Gk hekatombe, fr hekaton, hundred, & bois, 'ox' Cp bovine, cow (I) a (Gk antiq) Sacrifice of a hundred oxen, b (fig) great sacrifice, massacre, slaughter, of human, or other living beings heck, n [1 hek, 2 hek] OE hæc, 'gate, grating', ME hel, heke, MLG, M Du heck Dn hek Dan hekka & Variant of hatch (I), hack (IV) (provinc) Frame on a loom for holding the warp threads heckle, v trans [1 hēkl, 2 hek] ME helehn, cp Du helelen, & hackle (II) 1 To heckle 2 (fig) To address difficult, searching, or inconvenient questions to public speaker, esp candidate at election meetings heckler, n [1 hēkler, 2 hekler] Prec & -er Person who heckles a speaker heckling, n [1 hēklng, 2 hekling] heckle & -ing Action of one who heckles speaker, process of being heckled hectare, n [1 hēktār, 2 hektares] Fr, fr hecto- & are (II) Metric measure equal to 100 ares, or 2.471 acres hectic, adj & n [1 hēktik, 2 hektik] Fr hectique, fr Gk hektikos, 'habitual, consumptive', w suff -ic, fr adj stem hekt-, found in hektis, 'being in a certain condition, or habit, of body', fr stem hekt- for 'sekh-', 'have, hold', cp Gk ekhein, 'to have, hold' (see epoch), fr Aryan base segh-*, 'to hold, overpower', whence Sort sah, 'to hold in, atop', sahad, 'victory', cogn w Goth sigis, OE sigis, 'victory' The same base underlies also scheme & school 1 adj a Pertaining to, suffering from, arising from, slowly wasting disease, consumptive a hectic patient, fever &c, b (in popular usage) feverish, unhealthily flushed a hectic appearance, o (colloq, fig) feverish, agitated, exuding a hectic time 2 n (rare) Hectic, feverish, consumptive person hecto-, before vowel hect-, pref Form, used in compounds, of Gk he-katon for sa-katon*, '100', the first eyll is supposed to represent earlier Gk ha-* for sa-*, Aryan eqn, cp Sort sa-haran, 'group of a thousand', & Gk hen, 'one', for sen-, -katon is the common Aryan numeral for 'hundred' a A hundred, as in hectogram &c, b a large number, as in hectograph &c hectocotylization, n [1 hēktōkōtūlīzāshun, 2 hektoūkōtūlīzāshun] See next word & -ation Process of forming a hectocotylus hectocotylize, v trans [1 hēktōkōtūlīz, 2 hektoūkōtūlīz] hectocotylus & -ize To modify arm or tentacle of cephalopod, so as to form hectocotylus hectocotylus, n [1 hēktōkōtūlus, 2 hektoūkōtūlus] Mod Lat (Cuvier, orig generic name of supposed parasite), fr hecto- & Gk kōtilē, 'cup' (cp cotyledon) One of arms or tentacles of certain cephalopods, such as the octopus, cuttlefish, argonaut, which undergoes modification as copulative organ, and in some species impregnates female after being detached from male hectogram, hectogramme, n [1 hēktōgram, 2 hektoūgram] Fr hectogramme, fr hecto- & gramme Metric weight of 100 grammes, equivalent to 3.527 oz av hectograph, n & v trans [1 hēktōgrāf, 2 hektoūgrāf] hecto- & -graph 1 n Device for multiplying copies of writing or drawing, from a gelatine surface, upon which the writing &c, to be multiplied, has previously been impressed 2 vb To multiply copies of, by hectograph hectolitre, n [1 hēktōlīter, 2 hektoūlīter] Fr hecto- & litre Measure of one hundred litres hectometre, n [1 hēktōmēter, 2 hektoūmēter] Fr, fr hecto- & metre (II) Measure of length, 100 metres hector (I), n [1 hēktor, 2 hekta] Lat, fr Gk Hektōr, lit 'he who holds fast' (fr base seen in ekhein, 'to hold', q v under hectic, epoch), name of a Trojan hero, son of Priam, in mediaeval romances represented as below Blustering bully, swashbuckler hector (II), v trans & intrans, fr prec a trans To bully, browbeat, scold, bluster at, b intrans, to behave as a hector hedge (I), n [1 hēd, 2 hēd] Apparently through intermediate held-* by metathesis of h, fr OE hefeld, heheld, hefel, hebel, 'thread for weaving', fr haf-ūd* (see base of heave, heavy (I)) Cp also OE hefeldgyrd, 'weaver's shuttle', ON hefeld, 'one of perpendicular thrums holding weft' (weaving) One of series of parallel cords or wires, fixed in shafts, and furnished with eyes through which warp threads pass in weaving hedge (II), v trans, fr prec Cp OE hefeldian, 'to fix the weft or woof' (weaving) To pass (warp thread) through hedge eyes hedge eye, n Loop or metal eye in hedge through which warp thread passes hedge (I), n [1 hēj, 2 hēd] ME hegge, OE hecg, op M Du hegge, MLG, Du hegge, heg, O HG hecla, Mod Germ hecke, 'hedge', op ON hegg r, 'kind of trees used in hedges' The Gmc type seems to be haz-jō*, the meaning of base haz-, Aryan kogh, was apparently 'seize, grasp, encompass' Walde compares the Lat in coh are, 'to lay foundations of, begin', orig 'take in hand, set about' Cp Sort kaksa, 'girdle, ring-fence' Cp also haw (I) 1 Line of bushes, shrubs, or small trees, usually quirk (thorn, privet, yew &c), planted close, trimmed level in height, and cut back on both sides, so as to form a continuous fence, or boundary (esp of a field or garden) a dead, quick-set, hedge, to pleach, plash, lay, a hedge, thicken and stuffen it, by interweaving new shoots Phr to come down on wrong side of the hedge, make wrong decision, do wrong thing, from idea of a fall when jumping a hedge in hunting 2 a Anything acting as a hedge, a barrier, formed by row of persons or things, b (fig) something which restricts one's freedom of action a hedge of etiquette, of convention 3 (colloq, fr vb hedge (II) 2) Act of hedging hedge (II), v trans & intrans ME heggen, fr prec, op M Du heggen, OE hegegan A trans 1 To provide or surround with a hedge, to separate by a hedge or hedges 2 (fig) To obstruct movements of, put obstacle in way of, barrier round to hedge a person about, round, in, with rules, restrictions, prohibitions, to hedge a person's path with difficulties &c 3 (fig) a To protect by surrounding with barrier, to hedge round with care and affection &c, b to safeguard (bet, speculation) by making provision which will indemnify one in event of loss B intrans 1 To make, trim, or plash a hedge, to work at hedges 2 (fig) To shelter, as if behind hedge, specif a to protect oneself in a bet or speculation, to reduce financial obligations, risk, b (in bad sense) to qualify what one has said, esp in untruthful or underhand way, so as to safeguard oneself against contradiction or exposure, to shilly-shally in action, hesitate in what one has promised, or begun, to do hedge-bill, hedging-bill, n hedge (I) & bill (I) Bill, often with long handle, used for trimming hedges, chopping small boughs &c hedgobots, n [1 hējbōt, 2 hēdjōbōt] hedge (I), & boot (III) Haybotes (q v) hedgohog, n [1 hējhog, 2 hēdhog] hedge (I) & hog 1 Common British insectivorous nocturnal mammal, Erinaceus europaeus, about 10 in long, with pointed snout, and body covered on upper surface, with spines, which defends itself by rolling up into ball, with spines erect 2 (colloq, fig) Irritable, opiky, ill natured person hedge priest, n Illiterate or disreputable priest, pretender to priesthood hedger, n [1 hōjer, 2 hēdže] hedge (II) & -er 1 Man who makes, trims, or repairs hedges commonly hedger and ditcher 2 Person who hedges, in any figurative sense hedgerow, n [1 hōjrō, 2 hēdžrō] hedge (I) & row (I) Cp OE hegerēne Row of bushes or small trees forming hedge hedge-school, n School of the humblest class, formerly conducted in open air, often under a hedge hedge-schoolmaster, n Master of hedge-school hedge-sparrow, n One of the commonest British warblers, Accentor modularis, brown above and grey below hedge-writer, n Mean, heggarily scribbler hedging, n [1 hējng, 2 hēdžng] hedge (II) & -ing Action of one who hedges (in any sense), (attrib) hedging bill hedonic, adj & n [1 hēdonik, 2 hīdonik] Gk hēdonika, fr hēdonē, 'pleasure', fr hēdus, 'sweet', & -ic Gk hēdu, 'sweet', for weidw*, is cogn w Lat suavis for widwis*, & OE swēte, fr Gmc swēts* See suave & sweet 1 adj a Pertaining to pleasure, b hedonistic 2 n (pl, hedonics) a Branch of ethics treating of pleasure in its moral aspects, b branch of psychology treating of pleasure and pain hedonism, n [1 hēdonizm, 2 hīdonizm] Gk hēdonē, 'pleasure' (see prec), & -ism a (philos) Ethical theory or doctrine that pleasure is the chief good, b devotion to pleasure hedonist, n [1 hēdonist, 2 hīdonist] Gk hēdon-, as in prec, & -ist a Adherent of hedonism, b person who lives for pleasure, self-indulgent person hedonistic, adj [1 hēdonistik, 2 hīdonistik] Prec & -ic Pertaining to hedonism hedonistically, adv [1 hēdonistikah, 2 hīdonistikah] Prec & -ally In a hedonistic manner hedral, adj suff, fr Gk hedra, 'side, face', fr base seen in hexagram, 'I seat myself, sit down', cogn w Lat sedere, 'seesedentary', & sit In polyhedral &c -hedron, n suff, see prec, as polyhedron head (I), v trans & intrans [1 hēd, 2 hīd] OE hēdan, ME hēden, cp O Frs hōde, OS hōdan, O HG hwalan, MHG hūeten, Germ hüten, all fr Gmc hōdan*, fr hōdō*, 'care, protection', whence OE hōd, 'hood', & O Frs hōde, hūde, Du hoede, O HG huota, Mod Germ hut, 'hat'. Another cogn is prob OE headerian, fr hador*, 'to confine, restrain', & possibly Goth hēþjō, 'a room' Outside Gmc cp. Lat cassis, 'helmet', for cassis*, & perh Gk kōtulos, 'pon', though this is doubtful & may belong to another group of words Connexion w OE hfd, 'skun', Lat cutis is still more doubtful See hood, hide (I), cuticle 1 trans To attend to, observe, take notice of, regard carefully head what I say, my warning 2 intrans To attend, take notice they were warned, but did not head head (II), n ME hēde, fr prec Attention, notice, regard, care to give heed to advice, to take no heed of danger, of what is said heedful, adj [1 hēdfool, 2 hīdful] head (II), & -ful Attentive, careful heedfully, adv Prec & -ly In a heedful manner heedfulness, n See prec & -ness Care, attention heedless, adj [1 hēdles, 2 hīdles] head (II) & -less Taking no heed, inattentive, careless, thoughtless heedlessly, adv Preo & -ly In a heedless manner heedlessness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being heedless, inattention, carelessness heehaw, hee-haw, n & vb intrans [1 hēhaw, 2 hēhā] Imitative, op Germ: a 1 n a Bray of ass, b (fig) loud senseless laugh, guffaw 2 vb a To bray like an ass, b (fig) to guffaw heel (I), n [1 hēl, 2 hēl] O E hēla, hēla, M E hēla, op O Fris hēla, heila, Du hēl, O N hēl I, Swed hāl, Dan hæl, perh contracted fr O E hōhla*, fr hōh, 'hough (I), heel', & dimin -ila, see -le 1 a Hinder part of foot, below ankle, of human being, corresponding part of hind foot of a flat-footed animal, Phrs at, on, upon, one's heels, close behind, in hot pursuit, to clap, lay, by the heels, to arrest, imprison (properly, fetter), to cool, kick, one's heels, to be kept waiting, down at heel, treading down the back of one's shoes, hence, slipshod, slovenly, shabby, head over heels, heels over head, turning a somersault, upside-down, (fig) in reckless haste, over head and heels (in love &c), intensely, deeply, heel I, (come, keep) to heel, call to dog to walk close behind one, (fig) to come to heel, consent to conform to discipline, rules, another's will &c, to cease opposition, to heel, in close attendance, to leave the house heels foremost, (colloq) to be carried out dead, out at heel, with one's socks or stockings worn through at the heel, shabby, beggarly, to show one's heels, a clean pair of heels, to take to one's heels, to run away, take to flight, to kick up one's heels, to be lively, skittish, frisky, indulges in a frolic, to tread on one's heels, to crowd one, (often fig) disasters come treading on each other's heels, to turn on one's heel, to swing or turn round abruptly, two far his heels, (in cribbage) two points scored for turning up knave before playing, under the heel, crushed or stamped upon, (fig) under the heel of a ruthless tyranny, b (comp ar anat) projecting joint, anatomically corresponding to the heel, half way down hind leg of hoofed animals, popularly called the hoof, o hoof, hinder part of either hind foot of horse &c just above hoof 2 a Part of hoof or shoe supporting heel, usually forming projection below sole to wear high heels, b one of the projections, or calks, on back portions of horse shoe, o part of stocking or sock covering heel 3 Part of various objects bearing real or fancied resemblance to a heel, as lower or hinder end, or projection at such part, o g a part of implement next handle or shaft, as of ploughshare, golf club &c, b lower end of post, rafter, mast, boom, bowsprit, stern post, c part of outfit for graft containing piece of bark of stem, d flag end of thing heel of a loaf or a cheese, e tail, rear heel of a hunt, f (hort phr) to lay in tree, or plant, by the heels, to cover roots temporarily with earth before finally planting, to heel in heel (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 To furnish (boot or shoe) with heel 2 a (Rugby football) Usually heel out to pass (ball) out of scrummage with heel, b (golf) to strike (ball) with heel of club 3 (hort phr) To heel in (tree, plant), to cover roots temporarily with earth before planting finally heel (III), vb trans & trans O E h(e)ldan, 'to incline, bend down &c', fr hēaldjan*, cp hēald, 'protection', hēaldan, 'to slope', M E helden, obs Mod Engl held, E Frs hella, OS (af) hēldan, OHG hēldan, hēlden, 'to alant, slope', fr O E hēald, op O Frs, OHG hald, 'sloping', fr Gmc haldaz*, cp Goth (wiþa) hjalper, 'inclination (of will), graciousness' Related to OE, O Frs, OS, OHG, Mod Germ hold, 'faithful, gracious', Goth hulþa, 'gracious', Gmc hulþaz*. This base in its various forms hēld*, hēld*, hēld*, hēld*, 'slope', has given rise to a large number of words, including Lat clinare, 'bend, bow' (see decline, element &c), & in O E Mēdan, hlēdder, hlid &c, see lean (II), ladder, lid 1 intrans To incline, slope, tilt, steadily to one side, esp of ship or boat to heel over 2 trans To make (ship &c) heel heel (IV), n, fr prec (chiefly naut) State or condition of heeling or sloping, amount of heeling, list heel-and-toe, adj Pertaining to walking race or walk in which foot touches ground with heel and leaves it with toe heel-ball, n heel (I) & ball (I) Mixture of hard wax and lamp black, used by hoot-makers for polishing leather of boots and shoes, also used for taking rubbings of brasses, coins, inscriptions &c heeler, n [1 hēler, 2 hēla] heel (II) & -er Person or animal that heels, specif (Am slang) one that follows at the heels of another, hanger on of politician heeling, n [1 hēling, 2 hēlɪŋ] heel (III) & -ing Condition of vessel that heels, list Phr heeling error, deviation of compass caused by heeling of vessel heel-piece, n A piece that forms or that is fitted to, the heel of a shoe, b (fig) end-piece tail piece heeltap, n [1 hēltap, 2 hēltæp] hool (I) & tap (IV) a (rare, or trade term) Tap or layer of leather for heel of hoot or shoe, b (fig) small quantity of liquor left in the heel or bottom of a glass after drinking no heel taps, drink every glass to the bottom heft (I), n [1 hēft, 2 hēft] heave (I) & n suff 1 Cp heft (obs or province) Action of heaving, retching (Shakespeare, 'Winter's Tale', II 1. 45) heft (II), vb trans, fr prec (Am) To judge weight of, by lifting hefty, adj [1 hēfti, 2 hēfti] heft (I) & -y (colloq) Capable of powerful effort, muscular, powerful

Hegelian, adj & n [1 hēgēliən, 2 hēgēliən] G W F Hegel, German philosopher (1770-1831), & -ian a adj Pertaining to the idealist philosophy of Hegel, b n, adherent of the philosophy of Hegel

Hegelianism, n [1 hēgēliənizəm, 2 hēgēliənizəm] Prec & -ism Hegel's system of philosophy hegemonic, adj [1 hēgemonik, 2 hēgemonik] Gk hēgemonikós, fr hēgemon, stem of hēgemon, 'leader, guide', w agent suff -mon, fr hēge esthai, 'to go before, lead', all fr base hēg* for hēg*, wh occurs also in Lat hēg ire, 'to perceive quickly', hēgus, 'prophetic', hēgus, 'wise, having keen senses' (see sagacious), & further Goth hēgjan, O E hēgan (see seek) Pertaining to hegemony, leading, predominant hegemonical, adj [1 hēgemonikl, 2 hēgemonikl] Prec & -al Hegemonic hegemony, n [1 hēgēmuni, 2 hēgēmuni, 2 hēgēmuni, hēgēmuni] Gk hēgemonia See hegemonic & -y Leadership, political preponderance, used esp of most powerful state in a league, federation, or geographical group the Prussian hegemony in Germany hegira, n, also hejira hijra [1 hējira, 2 hējira] Arab hijra, 'separation' a Flight of Mohammed from Mecca, July 15th 16th (conventional date, actually Sept 20th), 622, hence, the latter date, adopted as Mohammedan era, b (fig) any similar flight hegumen, n [1 hēgūmen, 2 hēgūmen] Gk hēgoumenos, prop 'leading, guiding', Pres Part of hēgēssthai See hegemonic In Orthodox Eastern Church, first or second official in monastery, of lower rank than archimandrite, corresponding to abbot or prior heifer, n [1 hēfer, 2 hēfa] O E hēahfore, M E hayfare A purely Engl compound, of wh the first element is hēah, 'high, full grown' (cp O E hēahdēor, 'stag'), the second is same word as O E fearr, 'bull', OHG farr, farr, MHG farre, Mod Germ farre, wh are cogn w Gk poris, poris, young heifer, female calf, any young animal', also w Lat parere, 'to bring forth, breed, produce', & parent, fr Pres Part of this,

'father or mother' (see parent) Young cow that has not yet calved heigh, interj [1 hā, hī, 2 hēi, hāi] Natural sound Exclamation calling attention, making inquiry, or expressing joy, encouragement &c heigh-ho, interj [1 hā hō, 2 hēi hōu] Prec & ho Exclamation expressing weariness, boredom, or dejection height, n [1 hit, 2 hait] O E hēahdu, M E hēhde, highte, Early Mod Engl (Milton) also highth (now only dial or vulg) Cp O HLG hōhida, Goth hauhiþa, fr Gmc hauhiþō*, fr O E hēah, high, & i for -th Cp drought 1 State of being high, loftiness, elevation, altitude to rise to a great height 2 a Amount or measure of upward extension of object from bottom to top, vertical dimension the height of a box, tower, mountain, person, b distance measured vertically from base line, such as ground or sea level, altitude the height of a cloud, aeroplane, town, c altitude measured by angular distance, angle subtended by perpendicular from object to horizon the sun's height was 20° 3 (fig, of non material things) a Loftiness, elevation, sublimity the height of his genius, imagination, to reach great heights of eloquence b extreme degree, culmination, summit expectation was at its height, the height of the storm, wind, fever, season, summer, of folly, fashion (cp depth of wonder, ignorance) 4 (of material objects) a Elevated place or position, high ground, hill castles on the heights, the Heights of Abraham, b (Bib, fig) the heavens praise him in the heights (Ps cxlviii 1) heighten, vb trans & intrans [1 hitn, 2 hōitn] Prec & -en, after lengthen &c 1 trans a To make high or higher, b (fig) (i) to make more prominent, intensify, augment, enhance to heighten a colour, an effect, one's guilt, (u) to exaggerate to heighten a description 2 intrans (lit and fig) To become higher, more prominent heinous, adj [1 hānus, 2 hēinas] M E hainous, heinous, fr O Fr hainos, Mod Fr haineux, 'full of hate', fr haine (Fr haine), 'hatred', fr hair, 'to hate', a Gmc loan-word, op O Frankish halyan See hate (L) & -ine & -ous (of wrongdoing) Lat, hateful, abominable, extremely wicked, atrocious - a heinous crime heinously, adv Prec & -ly In a heinous manner, abominably heinousness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being heinous heir, n [1 ār, 2 sē] M E, fr O Fr heir, heyr, er &c, fr L Lat hērem for Lat hērēdem, fr hēres, 'heir' See heredity 1 (law) One who succeeds, on the death of another, to the possession of landed property by the operation of the law, as being the son, or lineal descendant, of previous owner, also called heir at law, legal heir, contrasted with one who succeeds by will 2 (popular usage) a One, generally a male, who succeeds to another's property (real or personal) on the death of the latter, whether he be the heir-at-law, or whether the property he left him by will, b one who is entitled to succeed to property by the action of law, or to whom property has been left, the term is often applied to a person who expects to succeed to property in the future by will or otherwise. to make a person one's heir, to be heir to lands and money, he expects to be his uncle's heir c the term is used, followed by of or to, to denote reference either to the person from whom property is inherited, or, followed by to, to that which is inherited heir to, of one's father, heir to one's father's property 3 (fig) One who succeeds to, inherits, from his parents and ancestors, or from earlier generations, a some spiritual quality, advantage, tradition, ideal &c Englishmen are the heirs of liberty, 'the heir of all the ages' (Tennyson), heirs of salvation, of grace &c, or b some physical quality transmitted through his parents heir to his father's strength and his mother's grace.

hellebore, n [1 hēlēbōr, 2 hēlēbōs] Fr, fr Lat helleborus, fr Gk helleboros, of uncertain origin Name of two distinct groups of plants 1 a Christmas Rose (black hellebore), b poisonous plant whose root is powdered and used for destroying insects (white hellebore) 2 Purgative drug prepared from 1, a helleboreine, n [1 hēlēbōrm, 2 hēlēbōrm], fr Gk helleborinē, fr prec & -ism One of several British plants of orchid tribe Hellenic, adj [1 hēlēnik, 2 hēlēnik], fr Gk Hēllēnikos, 'Greek' Connected with, relating to, Greece, the Greeks, and their language Hellenism, n [1 hēlēnizm, 2 hēlēnizm] Gk Hēllēnismos, fr prec & -ism 1 Idiom or phrase of Greek origin 2 a Greek culture, the Greek mind or spirit, b Greek nationality 3 Adoption of Greek speech, culture, or manners Hellenist, n [1 hēlēnist, 2 hēlēnist] Gk Hēllēnistēs See Hellenize & -ist 1 a One who adopted and used Greek speech and manners, b (NT) a Greek Jew 2 Student of, expert in, ancient Greek culture, language, literature, and institutions Hellenistic, adj [1 hēlēnistik, 2 hēlēnistik] Prec & -ic a Pertaining to Hellenism or Hellenists, specif, b Hellenistic Greek, that of the NT, Greek as written and spoken by Jews Hellenize, vb trans & intrans [1 hēlēniz, 2 hēlēniz] Gk hellenizēin, 'to imitate the Greeks, speak Greek', fr Hēllēnē, 'descendants of Hellen', who were the first inhabitants of Thessalian Hellas, & -iza 1 trans To make Greek in character 2 intrans To adopt Greek speech, customs, &c heller, n [1 hēler, 2 hēler] Germ, M H G heller, prob because first found at Hall in Swabia a (hist) Former German copper coin of value of half a pfennig, b Austrian bronze coin, current until Great War, of value of one hundredth of krone, or about a tenth of a penny hellfire, n [1 hēlfir, 2 hēlfir] OE hellefyr, M E helle fir hell & fire Fire of hell, hellfire club, club of profligate atheists, esp in 18th century hellhound, n [1 hēlhound, 2 hēlhound] OE, M E hellehund hell & hound a Demou in form of hound, such as Cerberus, b an abominable, malignant, atrocious person hellish, adj [1 hēlish, 2 hēlish] hell & -ish a Pertaining to, resembling, worthy of, hell, infernal, devilish, b (colloq) term of reprobation inspiring great antipathy, detestable, disgusting, horrible &c hellishly, adv Prec & -ly In a hellish manner hellishness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being hellish hello, interj Normally [1 hēlō, 2 hēlō] Variant of hallo, hullo, & hullo Exclamation used to draw attention, esp by telephone operators helm (I), n [1 hēlm, 2 hēlm] OE helma, M E helme, op OHG halma, ON hjalma, op M E halma, Germ helm, 'handle', fr Gmc base halb*, 'to hold'! Op halter & helve Handle of rudder, tiller, steering wheel of vessel, whole steering apparatus, including rudder, the ship answers the helm, (fig) helm of state, government, directing power or principle in a state helm (II), n OE, M E helm, Common Gmc, OS, Du, O H G, Germ helm, Goth hilm, ON hjalma, op also OE helman, 'to cover', see hall, hall, hole Aryan base hel*, 'to cover, hide, protect', see cell & conceal, & substant suff -mo (Now only poet) Helmet helm-cloud, n Prec & cloud (I) Cloud gathering round mountain top before and during storm helmed, adj [1 hēlmd, 2 hēlmd] helmet (II) & -ed. (poet) Wearing a helmet, helmeted helmet, n [1 hēlmet, 2 hēlmet] O Fr, fr helme, 'helmet', itself a loan word fr Gmc helm See helm (II) & -et. 1 a Metal cap or covering for the head, part of defensive armour while this was worn, b bright metal head-covering worn (in peace) by certain mounted regiments, c hat of toughened steel, worn by troops in Great War, d cover of wire mesh protecting face in fencing, e protective headpiece worn by firemen, policemen, divers, f large thick helmet shaped hat of pith &c, worn by Europeans in hot climates 2 (ber) Representation of mediaeval helmet, in armoured bearings, placed above shield, and bearing crest 3 Various objects shaped like a helmet, specif (bot) hood shaped upper part of calyx or corolla of some flowers &c helmeted, adj [1 hēlmeted, 2 hēlmetid] Prec & -ed Wearing a helmet helminthic, adj & n [1 hēlmintik, 2 hēlmintik] Gk hēlmintik, stem of helmins, 'worm', esp 'intestinal worm', of doubtful origin, perh for hel*, 'roll, wind' &c See helix & -ic 1 adj Of, pertaining to, parasitic intestinal worms 2 n Drug which expels or destroys such worms helminthology, n [1 hēlmintbōlōj, 2 hēlmintbōladz] See prec & -logy Branch of zoology treating of parasitic worms helmsman, n [1 hēlmz, 2 hēlmz] helmsman (I), adj [1 hēlmles, 2 hēlmles] hslm (I) & -less (of vessel) Having no helm helmsman (II), adj hslm (II) & -less Having no helmsman helmsman, n [1 hēlmzman, 2 hēlmzman] helmsman (I) & 's (possess) & man (I) Man at the helm, steersman helot, n [1 hēlot, 2 hēlot] Gk hēlot, stem of heilōs, 'serf of the Spartans', prob orig a 'captive', fr hel* gō, op hēlein, 'to take, seize', fr base hel*, col* &c, op Goth ahjan, 'to give, bring as an offering', OE sellan, 'to give, sell' See sell (I) a In Greek usage, Phr drunken Helot, Helot made drunk as object lesson to Spartan boys, hence, person used as warning example, b (fig) member of a class that is kept in subjection, despised, regarded as outcast helotage, n [1 hēloti, 2 hēlotidz] Prec & -age Condition of helot, serfdom helotry, n [1 hēlotri, 2 hēlotri] helot & -ry (coll) Helot class (lit and fig) help (I), vb trans & intrans [1 hēlp, 2 hēlp] OE helpan, M E helpen, Common Gmc, OS helpan, O H G helpan, Goth hīlpan, ON hjalpa, cogn w Lath sepe h, 'to help' A trans 1 a To undertake part of work of (another) for his benefit, to work jointly with, aid, assist in doing something help me find it, or to find, Phrs God (or Heaven) help him, exclamation of pity or irony, i e no one else can, so help me God, formula of solemn oath, b specif, to give financial assistance to, help with money he helps his parents a great deal out of his small income 2 a To promote improvement in, to mitigate, alleviate to help a cough, cure it, b to contribute (to), facilitate, conduce to to help to ruin a man, to help his ruin 3 a To serve, supply (person) with food or drink at table let me help you to some cherry, b (colloq) to serve out (food &c) to help the potatoes, Phr to help oneself, to take for one's own use, make oneself free of help yourself to food, wine, cigarettes, or anything you want 4 Can't help, can help (probably developed from 2), a to be unable, or able, to avoid, avert, prevent (something happening) I can't help your being a fool, his bad language, the rain &c, Phr I can't help it, it's not my fault, I am powerless under the circumstances, b (i) to be unable to refrain from doing something I can't help thinking, wishing, wondering &c, (ii) to be unable to resist this peach looks so nice I can't help eating it now, c (after neg imperat with neg omitted after can) don't do, don't tell him, more than you can help, i e than you are obliged to do, to tell B intrans To co operate, render assistance, be of use, avail, contribute to result that doesn't help much Phr every little helps C Followed by various adverbs or prepositions Help down, downstairs, in, off, over, through, up &c, trans, to help person in getting down &c Help along, forward, on, trans, to help in advancing Help out, trans, to help in getting out, emerging, escaping, solving difficulty, supplying what is wanting Help to, trans, to help in reaching, attaining, finding this clue helped me to the solution help (II), n OE help, fem & masc, helpe fem, M E help(e), fr same base as prec 1 a Act of helping, aid, assistance, succour, relief thanks for your kind help, b thing that helps or avails your advice, work &c is a great help, c remedy, means of prevention or mitigation there's no help for it, d colloq and vulg for helping (of food) 2 a Person who helps, helper 'Thou art my help' (Pe xl 17), b (chiefly Am) domestic servant Phr lady help, mother's help, superior maid or nursemaid helper, n [1 hēlper, 2 hēlper] M E helpere, op OS helpere, M H G helfare, fr help (I) & -er Person who helps, assistant, supporter helpful, adj [1 hēlpfūl, 2 hēlpfūl] help (I) & -ful Affording help, of service, useful helpfully, adv Prec & -ly In a helpful manner helpfulness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being helpful helping, n [1 hēlping, 2 hēlpig] hslp (II) & -ing Various possible usages, chiefly portion of food, given to, or set aside for, one person helpless, adj [1 hēlples, 2 hēlples] help (I) & -less a Lacking help, not helped, b unable to help one's self, powerless a helpless infant, c shiftless, inefficient, incompetent helplessly, adv Prec & -ly In a helpless manner, impotently, feebly, shiftlessly helplessness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being helpless, feebleness, inefficiency helpmate, n [1 hēlpmat, 2 hēlpmet] Corrupt of next, as if fr hslp (II) & mate (I) Helpmeet helpmeet, n [1 hēlpmet, 2 hēlpmit] help (II) & mate (III), after Gen n 18, 'an help meet for him', perh through confusion w mate, as prec Fitting helper, comrade, partner, esp wife helter-skelter, adv, adj, & n [1 hēlterskēlter, 2 hēlterskēltē] Imitative jangle (op harum-scarum) 1 adv In tumultuous, disorderly haste to run helter skelter 2 adj (rare and colloq) Hurried, bustling, moving or acting hastily and without plan 3 n Tumultuous hurry and confusion helve, n & vb trans [1 hēlv, 2 hēlv], n fr OE helf also helfe, M E helve, helve, op O H G helbe &c, of dubious origin, perh fr Gmc base halb*, 'to hold', op halter, helm (I), vb, M E helven, fr n 1 n Handle of tool, esp of an axe, obs Phr to throw the helve after the hatchet, reject, cast away, impatiently what little remains after loss 2 vb To fit a helve to hem (I), n [1 hēm, 2 hēm] OE hem(m), M E hem, perb orig 'enclosure' Cp OE ham, O Fris ham, hem, 'piece of land enclosed by ditch or fence', Germ hamm, 'fence', hamme, 'border', also Germ hammen, 'to check, restrain', ON hemya, Swed hämma, 'to withhold, keep in' a Edge of cloth or woven material turned up and stitched, to prevent fraying, b fig in Phr the hem of a garment, edge, border, whether actually hemmed or not hem (II), vb trans M E hemmen, fr prec, op Germ hemmen 1 To furnish (cloth &c) with hem (also absol) 2 (fig) Hem in, about, round, to enclose, confine hem (III), interj, n, & vb intrans Imitative 1 interj & n Conventionalized form to represent sound of slight cough, or clearing of throat, specif such sound, a due to hesitation in speech, b one deliberately made to attract attention, esp as sarcastic comment. 2 vb To utter this sound hema-, hemat-, hemato- See haema-, haemat-, haemato- hematite, n See haematite hemu-, pref Gk hēmu-, 'half', for semi-*, cogn w Lat semi-. Prefix in words of Greek origin, denoting half hemicycle, n [1 hemiskl, 2 hemiscykl] Lat hēmicyclus, fr Gk hēmikuklos, fr hēmi- & cycle Semi-circle, semicircular structure, as room, part of room, wall hemiplegia, n [1 hemiplōgia, 2 hemipflidzia] Mod Lat after Gk paraplēgia, 'bemiplegia', fr Gk, fr hēmi- & plēgē, Doric plāgē, 'blow' & o, cp plēsis for plāsis*, 'stroke', concussion', cp plēssō for plālō*, 'striking with lightning, stun' & o, cp Goth flōtan, 'compain', OE flōcan, 'applaud, clop', OH G flukhōn, 'to curse' & o, Lat plāga, 'blow, stroke', whence plague, is borrowed fr the Gk Paralysis of one side of the body hemipterous, adj [1 hemipterus, 2 hemipterēs] fr hēmi- & Gk ptērōn, 'wing' See ptero-, feather, & -ous Of, pertaining to, order of insects Hemiptera, having a beak-like proboscis for piercing and sucking, they include cicadas, bugs, aphides &c, the name is due to the fact that many kinds have half-horny, half-transparent wing-coases hemisphere, n [1 hēmīsfēr, 2 hēmīsfērā] Fr hēmīsfērē, fr Lat hēmīsfērūm, fr Gk hēmīsfērātrōn See hēmi- & sphere 1 Half of a sphere 2 A Any half of the surface of the earth bounded by an imaginary circle, the Eastern, Western, Northern, Southern hemispheres, b specif, one half of the brain hemispherical, adj [1 hēmīsfērīk, 2 hēmīsfērīk] hēmi- & spherical Of, pertaining to, like a hemisphere hemistich, n [1 hēmīstīk, 2 hēmīstīk] Lat hēmīstīchium, fr Gk hēmīstīkhion, fr hēmi- & Gk stīkhos, 'row, verse', see stichic & op acrostic, distich, stair, sty (I), vestige A metrical half-line hemlock, n [1 hēmīlōk, 2 hēmīlōk] OE hymblīce, hymlice, hēmlīc, ME hūmlō(e), homelōk, hemlōk, of unknown origin, apparently found in no other language, & of obscure history, for second element op OE cyrlic, cerlic, ME carlok, charlock 1 A Umbelliferous British herb, Conium maculatum, with finely divided leaves and small white flowers, dangerously resembling cow-parsley in appearance, yielding virulent alkaloid poison, b powerful sedative drug made from this 2 (fig, poet) As symbolical of sleep hemlock spruce, n Preo & spruce (I) One of several drooping coniferous forest trees valuable for timber, found in Asia and America, genus Tsuga hemmer, n [1 hēmēr, 2 hēmēr] hem (II) & -er a One who hems, b apphence for hemming on sewing-machine hemo-, pref See haemohemorrhage, n See haemorrhage hemorrhoid, n See haemorrhoid hemp, n [1 hōmp, 2 hōmp] OE hænep, hænep, ME hemp, op Du hennep, OH G hanaf, Mod Germ hanf, ON hamp r, Swed hampa, Dan hamp, fr Gmo type hanap az*, a very early loan fr Lat cannabis, cannabum, fr Gk kannabis, bos, wh is prob fr a Semitic source Cp Arab linnub, & see cannas A Name applied to various plants whence a fibre is obtained for manufacture of ropes and of coarse cloth, b plant related to the mulberry, whob yields a resin of narcotic properties, and fibre having commercial value, c narcotic drug made from this, d (rare and obs) a bangman's rope hempen, adj [1 hēmpen, 2 hempen] ME, fr hemp & -en Cp OH G hanafin Made of hemp Phrs a hempen collar, hangman's noose, hempen widow, woman widowed by its means hemstitch, vb trans & n [1 hemstīch, 2 hemstītf] hem (I) & stitch a vh To decorate border of woven material (esp in handkerchiefs, table-napkins &c) by pulling out several contiguous threads, and tying or otherwise separating the cross-threads in series of bundles in the gap thus made, b n, ornamental hem made by this process hen, n [1 hen, 2 ben] OE hæn, hen(n), ME hen, OH G henna, ML G, Mod Germ henne & o, fr Gmo type haryō*, fem of hanon*, 'cook', lit 'singer', op OE, & Goth hana, OS, OH G hano, Mod Germ hahn, cogn w Gk kanassein, 'to sound', kanalhē, 'ringing sound', Lat canere, 'to sing', O. Ir canim, 'I sing', perh Sort lanlan, 'bell' See cant (I), chant A Female of domestic fowl, b female bird of any kind, as contrasted with, and distinguished from a male we saw a pair of eagles, and shot the hen, (in apposition) hen bird, sparrow & hen and chickens, n Popular nome given to various prolific plants henbane, n [1 bēnban, 2 bēnbein] ME, fr hen & bane Cp OE name of it, hænnewel, 'hen's pest' Virulently poisonous British herb, Hyoscyamus niger, of nightshade family, with brownish flowers and downy leaves, whence the drug byosone is got hence, adv [1 hens, 2 hens] ME hennes, hens, extension w advbl (genit) suff -es (as in once, else, since, thence &c), fr OE hnan, heonan, heonane, ME hennene, henne, cp OS, OH G hnan, hnanē, Mod Germ hinnen, also OE henna, ME hine, OH G hina, Mod Germ hin, fr demonstr base hi-* (see here, hither) See also thence, whence 1 a (of place, archaic, gen replaced by (away) from here) Away from here, from this place to go (depart) hence, (fig) to die, hence!, go away, be gone!, hence with it!, away with it!, b (of time) from this time, from now, chiefly in a year, month, week &c, hence, c (of origin) from this source, by descent, derivation, from this (often with ellipsis of vb) Jacob had twelve sons, hence (came) the twelve tribes 2 As a result of what has been said, for this reason, consequently, therefore he has neither ear nor voice, hence he cannot sing, hence we infer & henceforth, adv [1 bēnsfōrth, 2 bēnsfōr] OE heonan forð, ME heonne forð, see preo & forth From this time on, forward henceforward, adv [1 bēnsfōrward, 2 bēnsfōrward] hence & forward Henceforth henchman, n [1 bēnshman, 2 bēn(t)shman] ME hensman, hensman, hensheman (Latinized hengesmannus), 'page of honour', org 'groom', fr OE hengest, OH G hengist, O Frs, Du, Germ hengst, 'male horse, stallion', fr Gmo type hang ist*, prob connooted w vb hang, & man Revived by Scott in erroneous sense of 'haunch man', attendant who stands at side of chief, hence modern uses A Trusty male retainer, attendant, or follower, b staunch political supporter, c often in derogatory sense, satellite, creature hen-coop, n hen & coop (I) Coop for poultry hendeca-, pref Gk hendeka, 'eleven', fr hēn for sem*, nout of hens for sem-s*, 'one', fr Aryan base sem*, 'together', (cp Gk hamōi, 'to gether', Lat semel, 'once'), & deka, 'ten' See simple, dec-, & ten Combining form denoting eleven, in words of Greek origin hendecagon, n [1 bēndekogon, 2 bēndekogon] Preo & -gon (geom) Figure with eleven angles and eleven sides hendecasyllabic, adj & n [1 bēndekasilabik, 2 bēndekasilabik] Gk hendekasilabos, 'having eleven syllables', fr hendeca- & syllabē, syllable, & -ic a adj Containing eleven syllables, b n, a verse of this form hendiadys, n [1 bēndiadys, 2 bēndiadys] Mod Lat corrupt of Gk hen did duōin, 'one thing by means of two' Rhetorical figure by which idea ordinarily conveyed by noun and epithet is expressed by two nouns connected by and, as to put to death with the sword and with the steel henequen, n [1 heneken, 2 hēnkem] Span, also jeniquen, fr Mexican native name Sisal hemp hen-harrier, n hen & harrier (II) A species of hawk or harrier, of bluish-grey colour, which preys on poultry henna, n [1 hēna, 2 hēna] Arab (al-) hinnā' a Thorny Asiatic shrub of loose strife family, with fragrant white flowers, the so called Egyptian privet, Lawsonia, b reddish dye made from leaves of this, applied by Oriental women to the finger nails & hennery, n [1 bēnērī, 2 bēnērī] hen & -ery Enclosed place where domestic fowls are kept henotheism, n [1 bēnōthēizm, 2 bēnōthēizm] (Gk hēno, form of hēis (genit hēnōs), 'one', used in compounds, see hendeca-, & -theism System of religion, religious practice, which singles out one of several gods for special veneration henothestic, adj [1 bēnōthēstīk, 2 bēnōthēstīk] As preo & -theistic Pertaining to henotheism hen party, n (colloq) Party attended only by women henpeck, vb trans [1 bēnpēk, 2 bēnpēk] hen & peck To domineer over (husband) henpecked, adj [1 bēnpēkt, 2 bēnpēkt] Preo & -ed Tamelessly submissive to wife hen-roost, n OE henna hrōst, fr hen & roost (I) Place where poultry roost henry, n [1 bēnrī, 2 bēnrī] After Joseph Henry (1797-1878), American physicist (cleot) International unit of inductance henwife, n [1 bēnwīf, 2 bēnwīf] hen & wife Woman who tends poultry hepatic, adj [1 bēpātīk, 2 bēpātīk] Gk hēpatikos, fr hēpat, stem of hēpar, fr yēkwert*, 'liver', cogn w Sort yakri, genit yakri ad, Lith pl jeknos, Lat jejur (genit jejuror-ae), & -ic 1 Pertaining to the liver hepatic artery, duct &c, hepatic colic, that caused by passage of gallstones through bile duct 2 Of a brownish colour, like that of liver hepatic cinabar 3 (bot) Pertaining to the liverworts, Hepaticae hepatica, n [1 bēpātīka, 2 bēpātīka] Specific name of plants, form of Lat hēpaticus See preo So called from lobed shape of leaves European species of anemone, cultivated in gardens, bearing blue, red, mauve, and white flowers in early spring hepato-, pref See hepato Form used in compounds of Greek origin, denoting 'pertaining to the liver', hepato cirrhosis, cirrhosis of the liver & hephaestic, adj [1 bēfēstīk, 2 bēfēstīk] fr Gk Hēphaistos, god of fire and of smith's craft, cp Gk haphē, 'kindling', haptēin, 'to touch, kindle' Cognates in other languages not known (med) Pertaining to smiths, esp in hephaestic cramp, caused by excessive use of hammer Hepplewhite, adj & n [1 bēp(o)wīt, 2 bēp(o)wīt] a adj Relating to a graceful style of late 18th cent furniture, from designer's name the Hepplewhite style, b n furniture of this type a piece of Hepplewhite hepta-, pref Gk hepta, 'seven', for septm* See seven Form used in compounds of Greek origin, denoting seven heptachord, n [1 bēptākord, 2 bēptākord] Gk heptachordos, 'seven stringed', fr preo & chord (mus) a Diatonic system of seven tones, b interval of major seventh heptad, n [1 bēptad, 2 bēptad] Gk heptas, (heptad-) See hepta- a Sum, group, collection, of seven things, b (chem) atom, element, having valence of seven heptagon, n [1 bēptagōn, 2 bēptagōn] Gk heptagōnos, fr hepta- & -gon (geom) Figure with seven angles and seven sides heptagonal, adj [1 bēptagōnāl, 2 bēptagōnāl] Preo & -al Having seven angles heptahedron, n [1 bēptahēdrōn, 2 bēptahēdrōn] hepta- & Gk hedra, 'seat, foundation, base', for sed-*, 'sit', see secondary, sedate, seat, & sit The ending perh due to influence of -gon (geom) Solid figure having seven faces heptarch, n [1 héptark, 2 héptàrk] hepta- & -arch One of the rulers in a heptarchy heptarchy, n [1 héptark, 2 héptàrk] hepta- & -archy Government by seven rulers, specif, apposed system of seven kingdoms, existing at one time in Anglo-Saxon England heptateuch, n [1 héptatùk, 2 héptatùk] hē- Lat Heptateuchos, formed fr hepta- & Gk teulhos, 'tool, implement, hook', op Gk teulhein, 'make, fashion, prepare', op Goth, O E & doğan, 'to avail, suit' & q v under doughty First seven books of Old Testament her (I), pers pron [1 hēr, 2 hā, hō] O E here, fr Lat hēr, 'she', fem of hēr, see he, op O Frs hīre fr demonstr hā hi, M E here, here, extended, like other datives of pers pron, to direct object, replacing O E acc hīe. a Accusative of she, expressing direct object, b dative, expressing indirect object, c (archaic or poet) herself (direct or indirect) she leaned her o'er the saddle bow, d (colloq or vulg, emphatic) she it's her, sure enough her (II), possessive pronominal adj O E hīre, genit sing of hēr, 'she' (see prec), also in declinable pronominal adj, M E hīre, hir, her See also hers & herself Of, pertaining, or belonging to, her herald (I), n [1 hērald, 2 hērald] M E herald, heroud, fr O Fr heralt, heraut, Ital orailo The first element is apparently that seen in O H G herēn, herēn, 'to proclaim, cry aloud', op also O H G fora hōro, 'one who proclaims, a herald' (op hāro), cogn w Goth hazjon, O E herian, 'to praise' This second element is fr O H G -waldō, -walto, fr willan, 'to manage, govern', q v under wield 1 a Official who makes public announcements, esp in proclaiming king's death or accession, or other solemn public oaths, b official of the College of Arms charged with care of genealogies and armorial bearings 2 (hy extension) Any person who proclaims news, a person or thing whose appearance imports the coming of some other person or of an event, forerunner, harbinger herald (II), vb trans, fr prec a To announce, proclaim, to act as a herald to, b to usher in, make known coming of the song of birds heralds the approach of spring heraldic, adj [1 hēraldīk, 2 hēraldīk] herald (I) & -ic Pertaining to herald or to heraldry heraldically, adv [1 hēraldīkāl, 2 hēraldīkāl] prec & -al & -ly In a heraldic manner, according to the rules of heraldry heraldry, n [1 hēraldrī, 2 hēraldrī] herald (I) & -ry a Office or functions of herald, b art of recording genealogies, of determining precedence, the right to arms, and of blazoning, c blazonry, armorial bearings

Heralds' College, n herald (I) & college Corporation with authority from the Crown, to grant and record armorial bearings, to decide who is entitled to arms, and to which arms, and to keep records of pedigrees &c heraldship, n [1 hēraldshīp, 2 hēraldshīp] herald (I) & -ship Office of herald.

herb, n [1 hērb, 2 hāb] M E, O Fr herbe, erbe, fr Lat herba, 'grass, herb', etymol quite uncertain Derivation has been suggested fr a dual form of O Lat forbea, 'fodder', wh is fr Gk phorbē, 'pasture', connected w phorbēin, 'to feed, nourish' This is perh fr hase ther, 'to nourish' See hear (I) a Low plant, without woody tissue, usually dying down in winter, b plant, wild or cultivated, with aromatic or other property, for which it is used in flavouring food, for medicine, for scent &c, a simple a herb garden, pot herbs, c (archaic or poet) grass, herbage herbaceous, adj [1 hērbāshus, 2 hērbāshus] Lat herbaceus, 'grassy', see prec & -aceous 1 Pertaining to, of nature of, herb or herbs, dying down in winter, herbaceous border, garden border stocked with herbaceous plants 2 Resembling leaf herbaceous sepals herbage, n [1 hērbj, 2 hābīdž] Fr, fr L herbaticum See herb & -age 1 (coll) a Grass and other field plants, pasture, b tender leaves, tops, of herbs 2 (law) Right of pasturage herbal, adj & n [1 hērbal, 2 hābəl] Lat herbāl (is), fr herb & -al a adj Pertaining to herb or herbs, b n, descriptive treatise on herbs and their uses herbalist, n [1 hērbalist, 2 hābəlīst] Preo & -ist a Writer of a herbal, early descriptive botanist, b dealer in herbs, esp as curatives of disease herbarium, n [1 hērbārium, 2 hābēarīum] L Lat herbarium, fr herb & -arium a Systematized collection of preserved plants, b building or room for storing this herbary, n [1 hērbārī, 2 hābārī] Herbarium herb beer, n Non alcoholic drink made from herbs herb bennet, n [1 hērb benet, 2 hāb bēst] O Fr herbe benete, fr Lat herba benedicta, 'blessed herb' See benediction Yellow avens, the stringroot of which was used medicinally herb grace, n, also herb of grace. Rne herbiferous, adj [1 hērbīfōrus, 2 hābīfōrus] Lat herbifer, fr herba (herb) & -ferous Producing herbs herbivore, n [1 hērbīvōr, 2 hābīvō] Fr, fr Lat herbi, combining form of herbo (herb), & vōrāre, 'devour' See voraacious Mammal that feeds mainly on grass herbivorous, adj [1 hērbīvōrus, 2 hābīvōrus] Preo & -ous Feeding on herbage or vegetable food herborist, n [1 hērbōrist, 2 hābōrist] Fr herboriste, see herborize & -ist (archaic or rare) a Collector of plants, b herbalist herborization, n [1 hērbōrizāshun, 2 hābōrizāshun] See next word & -ation (archaic or rare) a Action of herborizing, b a collection of plants herborize, vb intrans [1 hērbōriz, 2 hābōriz] Fr herboriser, fr Lat herba, for herbal, confused w arbor, 'tree', & -ize (archaic or rare) To collect plants herb paris, n Perennial lilaceous herb, native of Britain, bearing green flowers in a wheel of large oval leaves herb robert, n [1 hērb rōbert, 2 hāb rōbet] Common British geranium with red flowers and an unpleasant odour herb tea, n Drink made from aromatic or medicinal herb herby, adj [1 hērbī, 2 hābī] herb & -y a Pertaining to, resembling, a herb or herbs, b covered with, abounding in, herbs or grass Herculean, adj [1 hērkūlēan, 2 hārkūlēan] Lat Herculeus, fr Hercules & adj suff eus, & -an, op Fr herculeen n Pertaining to or resembling Hercules, of extreme bodily strength or size a man of Herculean build, b needing the strength of a Hercules laborious, and of great magnitude a Herculean labour, task

Hercules, n [1 hērkūlēz, 2 hārkūlēz] Lat, for Hercle*, fr Gk Hēraklēs, Greek hero renowned for his strength and the number and magnitude of his labours Man of extraordinary strength a regular Hercules Hercules beetle, n Brazilian beetle, of which male is very large and has long horns Hercules powder, n Kind of dynamite used for blasting herd (I), n [1 hērd, 2 hād] O E heord, M E heorde, herd op O H G hera, Mod Germ herde, Goth haurda, O N hjórd, ep also Gk kórhús, 'boap, pile', & Sert fordhāf, 'troop, host' From Aryan hase her, 'to make, grow' &c See also create, creoscent 1 a Collection, group, flock, of large gregarious animals, such as cattle, deer, whales, living, feeding, and moving about together, b collection of beasts, esp cattle or swine, of one stock or breed the Chillingham herd 2 (fig, contempt) Mass, aggregate, of human beings, rabble, crowd, esp the herd, the common, vulgar, herd herd (II), vb trans & intrans M E herdsen, fr preo 1 trans To gather into, put into, a herd, to drive, tend, as a herd to herd sheep, cattle 2 intrans a To assemble or associate as a herd to herd together, b to join a herd or company, live in a herd, c to gather together into a crowd, flock, throng together herd (III), n O E (non WS) herde, cp WS herde, fr hirdjo*, 'shepherd', M E herde; cp OS hirdi, O H G hirti Mod Germ hirt(e), Goth hivrdais, O N hivrd, fr same base as herd (I) (archaic, liter, or dial except in composition, as cow herd) Man who herds beasts, or tends a herd, herdsman herd-book, n Book containing records of pedigree cattle or sheep herd-instinct, n (psychol) Instinctive tendency to feel, act, and think in accordance with the crowd or community, susceptibility to mass suggestion herdsman, n [1 hērdman, 2 hārdmən] herd (I) & man (I) (rare) Herdsman herdsman, n [1 hērdzmən, 2 hārdzmən] Man who tends herd, esp of cattle, owner of herd here (I), adv [1 hēr, 2 hīə] O E, M E hēr, Common Gmc, op O H G hīar, Germ hier, OS, Goth, O N hēr, Swed här, Dan her, fr demonstr base hi- (see he, her), & advbl suff -r See there, where 1 a In this place where now I am, near, round about me, in my hand I have here, here is what you ask for, take it, Phrs here I, present (reply at roll call), here below, on earth, here and there, sparsely, dispersed, here, there, and everywhere, (i) moving constantly between many places, (ii) in many places, neither here nor there, not to the point, irrelevant, without significance, here's (a health) to, I drink to the health of, here you are, (colloq) this is what you want, (colloq) my friend here, whom you see here, b at this place (on map &c) which I indicate here is where the battle was fought &c, c at this point which I have reached in my narrative, remarks &c here we will pause for a few moments, here he glanced at me, here I think he is wrong 2 Hither, towards me, to where I am come here (to me), look here, here he comes here (II), n 1 This place far from here, near here 2 (philos) Immediacy in space we are conscious of a here and a now hereabout, hereabouts, adv [1 hērabont(s), 2 hērabont(s)] Free & about & M E advbl suff -es, s, orig genit Near this place, in this neighbourhood hereafter, adv & n [1 hērahīter, 2 hērahīte] O E hērafter, M E hērafter, fr here & after 1 adv a After this time, in the future, b for the future, henceforth, c in the future life 2 n The future life, the world to come the unknown hereafter heret, adv [1 hērat, 2 hērat] At this, upon this, when this happened herby, adv [1 hērbī, 2 hērbī] a (archaic) By, near, this place, b by means, reason, of this hereditability, n [1 hēreditābiliti, 2 hēreditābiliti] See next word & -ity Quality, condition, of being hereditary hereditable, adj [1 hēreditābl, 2 hēreditābl] O Fr, fr L Lat hereditābilis, fr L Lat hereditare See heredity & -able (law) Heritable, capable of being inherited hereditament, n [1 hēreditāment, 2 hēreditāment] L Lat hereditamentum, as prec & -ment (law) Any kind of property that may be inherited hereditarily, adv [1 hēreditārī, 2 hēreditārī] hereditary & -ly In a hereditary manner, by or through heredity hereditarily afflicted hereditary, adj [1 hēreditārī, 2 hēreditārī] Lat hereditarius, fr hereditas See next word & -ary 1 (biol, of bodily and mental features and characteristics) Derived from, transmitted by, ancestors, not acquired hereditary characters, disease &c 2 (legal and constitutional) a (of rights, titles, offices to) Derived, handed on, descending by inheritance, from ancestors hereditary monarchy &c., b (of property) transmitted, acquired, by inheritance, ancestral, patrimonial hereditary estates, succession, o of persons, holding hereditary office hereditary monarch 3 (of habits, customs, beliefs &c.) Learnt, accepted, made current, by continued tradition, inveterate, traditional hereditary feud, friendship religion heredity, n [1 herédita, 2 hirediti] Fr hérédité, fr Lat hereditas (-em), 'heirship', fr hērēd, etym of hērēs (cp heir), an old compound, lit 'heritage-receiving', & -ity The first element is cogn w Scrt jāhāt, 'gives up, leaves', jāhā, 'goes forth', Gk khēros, 'deprived', khōros, 'empty space, land', see under chori- The second element, ēd, is prob fr a prep *ē, 'to, at, by', & *dhō-, *dhā-, 'to give', q v under date (I), do (I) (biol) a Tendency of living organism to transmit its bodily and mental characters to its offspring or descendants, h the body of theory and doctrine concerning this principle

Hereford, n & adj [1 hēriford, 2 hērifad] fr county of Hereford, England a n Beast of breed of red and white beef cattle, first bred in Herefordshire, h adj, pertaining to, derived from, this breed herefrom, adv [1 hērifrom, 2 hērifrām] From thus herein, adv [1 hērīn, hērīn, 2 hērīn, hērīn] O E hērīne In this hereinafter, adv [1 hērīnāfter, 2 hērīn dīta] (esp in legal documents) Henceforth in this document hereinafter called the vendor hereinbefore, adv [1 hērīnbefōr, 2 hērīnbīfō] Hitherto in this document &c hereinto, adv [1 hērīntō, 2 hērīntū] Into this hereof, adv [1 hērōv, -of, 2 hērōv, -of] Of this hereon, adv [1 hērōn, 2 hērōn] On this heresiarch, n [1 hērēzark, 2 hērēzārk] Lat haeresarcha, fr Gk hairesarkhēs, fr heresy & -arch Founder or leader of heresy or heretical sect heresiologist, n [1 hērēziōlogist, 2 hērēziōladist] Next word & -ist Student of heresy and heresies heresiology, n [1 hērēziōlogi, 2 hērēziōladī] Gk See heresy & -logy Systematic knowledge of heresies, treatise on heresies heresy, n [1 hērēsi, 2 hērēsi] M E, O Fr (hērēse, fr Lat haeresis, fr Gk haireis, 'a taking for oneself, choice, sect, heresy', fr hairsēshai, Middle Voice of hairsēin, 'to take', & Gk enff -sai, fr Aryan *-sai, forming abstract n fr v) Origin of word unknown 1 a An erroneous religious belief, especially one specifically condemned and denounced as such by the Christian Church the Arian heresy, h doctrinal error, heterodoxy to fall into heresy 2 Opinion on any matter, differing from the received, official, established, or prevalent teaching the antivaccinationist heresy heretic, n [1 hērētik, 2 hērētikl] M E heretike, fr Fr hérétique, fr L Lat haereticus, fr Gk hairetikós, 'able to choose, heretical', fr hairetós, 'to be chosen', as prec & -ic Person guilty of religious heresy, one holding a heresy of any kind, also attrib a heretic bishop heretical, adj [1 hērētikl, 2 heretikh] Prec & -al Pertaining to, tainted with, believing, containing, heresy, pertaining to a heretic heretically, adv Prec & -ly In a heretical manner hereticate, vb trans [1 hērētikāt, 2 heretikhēt] Low Lat haereticāt, PP stem of haereticāre, fr heretic & -ate (rare) To declare, esp officially, to be heretical hereto, adv [1 hērētō, 2 hētū] M E hēr to, fr here & to Hitherto, hereunto, to this heretofore, adv [1 hērētōfōr, 2 hētōfōr] here & O E tōforan, 'before', M E tōfōren, op OS tēforan, fr to & fore (archaic) a Hitherto, up to the present; b formerly hereunder, adv [1 hērūnder, 2 hērānde] here & under Under, below, thus (in document &c) hereunto, adv [1 hērūntō, 2 hērāntū] here & unto (archaic) Hitherto, to this place or time hereupon, adv [1 hērūpon, 2 hērāpōn] here & upon Upon this, immediately after this herewith, adv [1 hērwith, -with; 2 hērwith, -with] With, accompanying, thus, upon this occasion, now heriot, n [1 heriot, 2 hērīat] A -Fr, M E heriel, fr O E heregeat, hergeat, 'military equipment, heriot', fr here, 'army', see harry, & geatwa, earlier ge-lawe, pl 'ap paratus, arms', fr lāwan, 'to prepare' (Engl law) Feudal due or fine paid to lord of manor on tenant's death, originally, equipment previously lent to the latter, now, some chattel prescribed by custom of manor, or money equivalent heritability, n [1 hērītābiliti, 2 hērītābiliti] Next word & -ity Capacity for being inherited heritable, adj & n [1 hērītābl, 2 hērītābl] Fr heritable, fr hériter inherit & -able, op hereditable 1 adj a Capable of being inherited, inheritable, Phr (Scots law) heritable security, kind of mortgage, b capable of inheriting 2 n (usually pl) Heritable property, real estate heritably, adv Prec & -ly By right of inheritance heritage, n [1 hērīta, 2 hērītādī] M E, O F (hērītage, fr Lat hereditas See heredity 1 a Inherited property, inheritance, patrimony, b (Scots law) realty 2 (fig) a Anything material or non-material, to which one succeeds by birth, e g (i) a right, privilege, (ii) a burden, (iii) a characteristic, derived from parents, ancestors, or predecessors debt were his only heritage, English literature is a glorious heritage, a heritage of disease, of woe, b (Bib phr) God's heritage, the chosen people, Israel, the Church heritor, n [1 hērītor, 2 hērītō] M E heritor, fr hériter, fr Lat hereditas, see heredity & -er, assimilated to -or a Inheritor, heir, b (Scots) landholder in a parish herm, n [1 herm, 2 hām] Lat Hermē, fr Gk Hermēs, earlier Hermēas, god of luck, roads, trade, eloquence &c, also 'herm' of doubtful origin In ancient Greece, squared pillar, terminating in a head of Hermes, set up in the street, gymnasium &c hermaphrodite, n & adj [1 hērmafrodīt, 2 hāmāfrodīt] Lat hermaphroditus, fr Gk Hermaphroditos, properly son of Hermes (see herm) as male principle, and of Aphrodite (see aphrodisia) as female, who was united in one body with a nymph 1 n a Animal or plant capable at once of fertilizing and of being fertilized, b loosely, a human being or animal who has traces of both male and female sexual organs 2 adj Hermaphroditic hermaphroditic, adj [1 hērmafrodītīk, 2 hāmāfrodītīk] Prec & -ic Having character of hermaphrodite (lit or fig) hermaphroditism, n [1 hērmafrodītīzm, 2 hāmāfrodītīzm] hermaphrodite & -ism (biol) Condition of being an hermaphrodite, bisexuality hermeneutic, adj & n [1 hērmenētīk, 2 hāmēnētīk] Gk hermeneutikos, fr hermēneus, 'interpreter', fr hermēneuein, 'to interpret', perh fr Hermēs (see herm) as god of speech, or cogn w Lat sermo (stem sermōn-, see sermon), 'discourse', & tes, suff of agent-n, & -ic a adj Interpretative (esp in theol), b n, pl hermeneutics, science of principles of interpretation, specif, of Bible hermetize, adj [1 hērmetīk, 2 hāmētīk] L Lat hermeticus, 'alchemic' (whence Fr hermétique), ureg fr Hermes (Trismegistus), supposed author of Hermetic books on magic and alchemy a (cap) Pertaining to Hermes Trismegistus or his alleged works the

Hermetic art, philosophy, b (without cap) having external air excluded, air tight hermetically, adv [1 hermetikali, 2 hāmētīkālī] Prec & -al & -y In a hermetic manner, esp so as to be airtight hermetically sealed hermit, n [1 hērmit, 2 hāmīt] M E (hērmit, fr O Fr hermite, fr L Lat heremita, fr Lat erēmīta, fr Gk erēmīta, 'hermit', fr erēmos, 'solitary, isolated', cogn w Gk erēmos, 'rare, scattered', & w Lat rārus, 'thin, not dense', q v under rare (I) 1 a Person, usually man, living alone in cell, usually in secluded or desert place, for meditation and prayer, an eremite, an anchorite, h man who avoids all society, a recluse 2 One of several humming birds inhabiting recesses of forests hermitage, n [1 hērmitā, 2 hāmītādī] M E, fr Fr Prec & -age 1 a Cell or other abode of hermit, h any secluded dwelling 2 (cap) Kind of wine from place called l'Hermitage, near Valence, France hermit crab, n One of group of crabs with long soft bodies, inhabiting abandoned shells of gastropod molluscs hermitess, n [1 hērmitēs, 2 hāmītēs] hermit & -ess (rare) Female hermit hernia, n [1 hērnia, 2 hāmē] Lat, prob cogn w O E, gearn See yarn (I) (med) Protrusion, through natural or accidental opening, of part of internal organ of the body, esp of part of the bowel, rupture hermal, adj [1 hērma, 2 hāmā] Prec & -al (med) Pertaining to hernia herniated, adj [1 hērmatēd, 2 hāmīstēd] hernia & -ate & -ed (med) Affected by hernia herniotomy, n [1 hērniōtomi, 2 hāmīstōmī] hernie, form of hernia used in compounds, & -tomy (surg) Operation of cutting for hernia hernshaw, n [1 hērshaw, 2 hāmsh] M E heronshaw, fr O F heronshaw, dimin of heron, haron, see heron (obs or provinc) A heron hero, n [1 hērō, 2 hīarō] M Fr héros (Mod Fr héros), fr Lat hērōs, acc of hērōs, fr Gk hērōs, fr *wer-, cogn w Lat vir, O E wer, 'man', &c, cp virile, werewolf

1 Man, often worshipped as demigod, celebrated by any community, esp among primitive peoples, for warlike exploits, or credited with the introduction of arts &c 2 a Male person conspicuous for valour, fortitude, and endurance in danger and difficulty, and for such romantic qualities as outstanding personal strength and beauty, success in war, chivalry, magnanimity, perfect courtesy &c Brace and Wallace are Scotland's national heroes, h any person whose character, reputation, exploits, and personality strike the imagination, and cause one to regard him as the ideal of manly virtue one of my heroes, a schoolboy's hero 3 Leading male character in a literary work, or in a narrative the hero of an anecdote, of an adventure heroic (I), adj [1 hērōik, 2 hūrōik] Fr heroïque, fr Lat hērōicus, fr Gk hērōikos, fr prec & -ic 1 a Pertaining to a primitive hero or heroes, the heroic age, legendary age of Greek or other primitive heroes, b (of person or action) resembling, worthy of, a hero, dauntless, inflexibly courageous and steadfast, possessing and exhibiting the virtues of a hero, c daring, hazardous, but advisable in last resort, esp in med heroic measures, heroic medicine, remedy, treatment 2 a (art, of human figure) Of size larger than life, but less than colossal on a heroic scale, (also fig), b pertaining to epic, or to poetry dealing with heroes heroic poem, poetry, epic, c heroic verse, metre customary in epic, hence, specif, classical hexameter, French alexandrine, English line of ten syllables and five stresses in rhyming couplets, heroic couplets, d (of language) grandiloquent, bombastic heroic (II), n, fr prec a (sing or pl) Heroic poetry or verse, b (pl) heroics, grandiloquent, high-flown, bombastic, theatrical, talk, or behaviour

-tero, expressing contrast, comparison &c., op Lat alter, Goth an-par, other, also dexter Form in compounds of Greek origin, denoting a different from type, abnormal, irregular, b of more than one kind, contrasted w homo heteroclitic, adj & n [1 hétérokliit, 2 hétérakliat] Fr heteroclitie, fr Lat heteroclitus, fr Gk heteróklitos, fr hetero- & -klítos, vhl adj w pass sense fr klinein, 'to bend, decline, inflect' See clinical a adj Irregular, anomalous, specif, irregularly inflected, b n, (gram) irregular noun heterodox, adj [1 hétérodoksa, 2 hétéradoksa] Gk heteródokos, fr hetero- & dóxa, 'opinion', fr dokéin, dol e in, 'to think', cogn w Lat docere, 'to teach' See doxology, dogma & op docile 1 (theol) a (of opinions, he-hels) Differing from those generally taught and accepted as sound, verging towards heresy, unorthodox, b (of persons) holding such opinions 2 (gen, of persons, views &c) Differing from what is commonly received, held, or believed heterodoxy, n [1 hétérodoksa, 2 hétéradoksa] Gk heterodoxia, fr prec & -y a Body or system of heterodox opinion, b state of mind which is imbued with this heterodyne, adj [1 hétérodin, 2 hétéradin] See hetero- & dyne In wireless telephony, of a method of producing audible sounds by differences in beat between transmitted waves and waves produced in the receiver heterodyne receiver, circuit heterogamous, adj [1 heterogamus, 2 heterogamos] hetero- & -gamous a (hiol) Changing mode of reproduction from asexual to sexual from generation to generation, b (bot) having an irregular formation of stamens and pistils heterogeneity, n [1 hétérojanéti, 2 hétérou-dziniéti] fr Fr heterogénéité See next word & -ity Quality or condition of being heterogeneous, diversity heterogeneous, adj [1 hétérojanéus, 2 hétérou-dziniéus] L Lat heterogene us, fr Gk heterogénés, 'of different kinds', fr hetero- & genos, 'race, kind' See genus, kin, & -ous a Differing in kind from associated object, dissimilar, diverse heterogeneous elements in a society, (math) incommensurable heterogeneous quantities, b composed of parts or elements of different, unrelated, kinds, not homogeneous, disparate a heterogeneous collection of rubbish heterogeneously, adv Prec & -ly In hetero-geneous manner heterogenesis, n [1 hétérojanéus, 2 hétérou-dziniéus] hetero- & -genesis Production of a new organism otherwise than from a parent of same kind, spontaneous generation heterogenetic, adj [1 hétérojanéutik, 2 hétérou-dziniéutik] hetero- & -genetic Connected with, produced by, heterogenesis heteromorphic, heteromorphous, adj [1 heteromorfik, fus, 2 heteramfistik, -fas] See hetero- & -morphic, -morphous Differing in form and shape, exhibiting an abnormal form or shape heteronomous, adj [1 heterónomus, 2 heterónomas] See next word & -ous a Under the rule of another, converse of autonomous, b (hiol) subject to divergence of type heteronomy, n [1 heteronomi, 2 heterónami] hetero- & -nomy 1 Subjection to the rule of another, converse of autonomy, specif a political subordination, b (philos) subjection of desires to will, or of will to external force, deterministic ethics 2 (hiol) Divergence from type, specialization of different kind.

hetman, n [1 hetman, 2 hétman] Pol, prof fr Germ hauptmann, 'headman, captain', fr haupt, see head, & mann, man, cp Russ otaman, 'hetman' a (hist) Polish com-mander-in chief, b leader, commissar, of Cossacks henchera, n [1 húlera, 2 hýkara] fr German botanist Hencher Kind of American saxifrage, a species of which, having slender stems and red flowers, is cultivated in English gardens heuristic, adj & n [1 hūristik, 2 hjuer-istik] Formed fr Gk heuri-, stem of heuriskein, 'to find, discover', w suff -ist & -ic Cogn w O Ir fíar, 'I found', fr. base weur-* &, 'find', redupl fr wer-*, 'to find, take', seen in Armenian gerem, 'I take' a adj Enabling one to find out or discover, esp the heuristic method of education, b n (usually pl) method in which the pupil learns by being trained gradually to find things out for himself, heuristic method hew, vb trans & intrans [1 hū, 2 hju] OE hēawan, 'to cut, strike, hew', ME hēwen, cogn w OS hauwan, Du houwen, OHG houwan, Mod Germ hauen, ON höggva, Gmo type hau(3)wan-, fr Aryan base kou-, kou-* &, 'strike, beat', as in Luth lau ti, 'to beat, forge, fight', kugis, 'hammer', kowā, 'battle', O Slav kovati, 'to hammer, forge', op also Lat cū d-ere, 'to strike, beat, knock' &, chiefly in compounds, op Engl words ending in -cute & -cuss, eg concuss See hay (I), hoe A trans 1 To cut, hack, chop, by striking with edged instrument, often followed by preposition or adverb to hew to pieces, asunder, down, off 2 To make or shape by cutting or hollowing out to hew out a tomb in the rock, Phr to hew (out) a path, hew out a career, for oneself, to make, shape, arrange, one's own career, or walk in life B intrans (rare) To carry out act of hewing hewer, n [1 hūer; 2 hja] Prec & -er Person who hews, speer, collier who cuts coal from seam Phr 'Hewers of wood and drawers of water' (Joshua ix 21), members of servile class, drudges, menials hewn, adj [1 hūn, 2 hju] OE hēawen, ME heuen, PP of hew Cut, roughly shaped, by blows, as of axe or adze hewn timber, stone hex-, hexa-, pref Gk hēx, 'six', hexa-, combining form See six Form in compounds of Greek origin, denoting six, sixth hexachord, n [1 hēksakord, 2 hēksəkōd] Fr hexacorde See hexa- & chord (mus) 1 (hist) Ancient and mediaeval diatonic series of six tones 2 Major sixth hexagon, n [1 hēksagun, 2 hēksagən] Lat hexagonum, fr Gk hexagōnos, 'having six angles', fr hexa- & -gon Figure of six angles and six sides hexagonal, adj [1 hēksəgūnəl, 2 hēksəgūnəl] Prec & -al Pertaining to, having form of, a hexagon hexagram, n [1 hēksəgram, 2 hēksəgrəm] hexa- & -gram Figure formed of six lines, specif, figure composed of two equilateral triangles, so placed that the points coincide with those of a regular hexagon hexahedral, adj [1 hēksəhēdral, 2 hēksəhēdral] Next word & -al Having form of a hexahedron hexahedron, n [1. hēksəhēdron, 2 hēksəhēdron] hexa- & -hedron Solid figure having six faces, such as cube hexameter, n [1 hēksəmeter, 2 hēksəmətə] Lat, fr Gk hexamētros, 'having six measures', fr hexa- & -meter (metro) 1 Classical verse of six feet, specif, that in which first four feet are dactyls or spondees, fifth a dactyl, and sixth a spondee, b accentual verse in modern language of similar structure, (also attrib) hexameter verses hexametrical, adj [1 hēksəmetrik, 2 hēksəmetrik] Prec & -ic Pertaining to hexameter, consisting of hexameters hexapla, n [1 hēksəpla, 2 hēksəpla] Mod Lat, fr Gk hexaplā, neut pl of hexaploos, '-ploios', 'sixfold', fr hexa- & base -plo-, 'fold', cogn w Lat placāri, 'to fold' See ply (I) Edition of six texts or versions, esp of O T, in parallel columns hexapod, n [1 hēksəpod, 2 hēksəpəd] Gk hexapod-, stem of hexapous, 'six-footed', fr hexa- & -pod-, stem of Gk pous, 'foot' See pedal (zool) Any member of the class Hexapoda, the six-footed or true insects hexateuch, n [1 hēksatīk, 2 hēksətīk] Formed fr hexa- & Gk teikhos, 'tool, implement, hook', on anal of Pentateuch, the Gk vh teukhein means 'to make, fashion, construct, build, weave, cause' The Aryan base is dheugh-, dheugh-, wh is found also in O E Pret Pres dēah, 'avails, is worth something, is of use', & dugeub, 'mature, grown men', hence 'body of retainers' &c See doughty First six books of the O T hey, interj [1 hā, 2 he] ME hei, imitative, op Du, Germ hei Exclamation calling attention, or expressing interrogation, joy, surprise &c Phrs hey for . . . , hurrah for . . . , hey presto, conjuror's command when performing trick, hence used in narrative to announce a sudden or unexpected event hey presto! he escaped hey-day, interj [1 hā dā, 2 hēi dēi], fr Germ heida, or Du hei daar, 'hey there' Exclamation of joy or wonder heyday, n [1 hāde, 2 hēidei] First element prob a dialectal variant of high Hay, hast, as pronunciations for high, height, are recorded as late as 17th & 18th cents respectively Time of greatest vigour, prosperity, or triumph, prime, acme, flush in the heyday of youth

hi, interj [1 hī, 2 hāi] Imitative of cry Cp hey Exclamation, used for drawing attention or calling a person hiatus, n [1 hīatus, 2 hīēitas] Lat hiatus, fr hiat(-um), PP type of hiare, 'to yawn' See yawn Gap, lacuna, specif a gap or break in manuscript or other writing where part is lost, b juxtaposition of two vowels without contraction or elision hibernate, vb intrans [1 hībēnāt, 2 hībēnēt] Lat hibernāre (um), PP type of hibernāre, 'to pass the winter', fr hibernus, 'winter', for heimrinos*, cogn w Gk kheimrinos, fr Aryan base ghiem-*, 'winter', cp Sort hēman, 'in winter', also hmasē, 'cold, winter', wh is the first element in Himalaya, O Slav zima, Luth zēma, 'winter', Gk hēima, Lat hiem-s, 'winter', ON gymb r, 'ewe of one winter', is also cogn a (of some animals) To pass winter in state of torpidity and suspended animation, b to retire into warm winter quarters hibernation, n [1 hībēnāshun, 2 hībēnēt-ʃən] Prec & -ion Habit or state of hibernating Hibernian, adj & n [1 hībērian, 2 hībērian] Lat Hibernia, 'Ireland', altered prob by association w hibernus (see hibernate), fr Iuerna, Juerna = Gk I(u)ernē, fr O Celt Iuēri* (whence Ir Erin), & -an a adj, Irish, b n, Irish person hibernicism, n [1 hībēnizism, 2 hībēnizəm] Prec & -ic & -ism Irish peculiarity, esp idiom or figure of speech hibiscus, n [1 hībīskus, 2 hībīskəs] Lat, fr Gk hibiskos, 'marsh mallow' One of a genus of widely distributed plants cultivated in gardens; rose mallow hiccup, hiccough, n & vb intrans & trans [1 hīkup, 2 hīkap] Early Mod Engl hiccol, hiclet, n, w dimin sniffe -ock, -et (cp Fr hoquet, Walloon hiket), fr imitative base hik*, cp proximo Engl hic, 'to hiccup', also M Du huckup, Dn hik, Dan hikke, W 19, Bret hik, 'hiccup', n, the spelling hiccough is assimilated to cough, hiccup perh to up, vb fr 1 n Spasmodic contraction of the diaphragm, often accompanied by sudden closure of glottis, at the moment of drawing in the breath, sound accompanying this 2 vb a intrans To make a hiccup, b trans, to utter with a hiccup or hiccups hic jacet, n [1 hīk jaset, 2 hīk dīetst] Lat hic jacet, 'here lies', first words of epitaph Epitaph hick, n [1 hīk, 2 hīk] Origin doubtful (Am slang) A rustic, countryman, usually contemptuous, cp hay seed hickory, n [1 hīkōri, 2 hīkəri]. Earlier pokeberry, fr native Am word American tree with tough, hard wood, wood of this, stick made from this, (also attrib) hid, vb [1 hid, 2 hid] OE hýdde, ME hid Prot of hide (III) hidage, n [1 hīdij, 2 haididij] See hide (IV) & -age (hist) Former English land tax levied on each hide hidalgo, n [1 hīdālgō, 2 hīdalgou] Span, fr O Span hidalgo, contr fr fijo de algo, 'son of something', is 'son who inherits something', fr O Span fijo (Mod hijo), fr Lat filius, 'son' (see filial), & de, fr Lat dē, 'down from, of' (see de-), & algo fr Lat aliquid, abl of aliquid, 'something' (see aliquid) Spanish gentleman by birth hidden, adj [1 hīd(e)n, 2 hīd(e)n] PP of hide (III) ME hadden, now str PP, cp OE (ge)hýdd Concealed, secret hiddenly, adv Prec & -ly Secretly hide (I), n [1 hid, 2 haid] OE hýd, hīd, 'skin', fr hūd-*, ME hide &, OS hūd, OHG hūt, Mod Germ haut, ON hūð, cognates outside Gmo, Gk kutis, Lat cutis, 'skin' See cutis A Skin of large living beast, such as ox, horse &c, b skin of a beast when stripped off, raw or dressed, esp as article of commerce, c (vulg) applied to human skin Phrs to tan, dress, a person's hide, give him a thrashing, to have a thick hide, to be morally insensitive, lacking in sensibility &c hide (II), vb trans, fr prec a To flay, skin, b (colloq) to flog, to take the hide off, now only in colloquial special sense of, to flog, thrash severely hide (III), vb trans & intrans OE hýdan, ME hýden, hiden, fr hūd-jan*, perh cogn w Gk leukhein, 'to hide' See cutis A trans 1 (as affecting material objects) To conceal, a to prevent from being found to hide the family plate where burglars cannot find it, b to prevent from being seen, shut off from sight clouds hid the sun, his face was hidden by a beard, the walls are hidden by ivy, he hid his face in his hands Phr to hide one's face, head, to withdraw from observation through shame 2 (as affecting non material things) a To prevent from being known, to keep secret, not to reveal to have nothing to hide, to hide one's intentions, the future is fortunately hidden from us, he deliberately hid the facts from the jury, b to prevent from being understood, render obscure to the mind the author's meaning is hidden by the ambiguity of his style B intrans To conceal oneself from sight, observation, notice hide (IV), n OE hýd, hīd, ME hid The word is fr earlier hiz-*, 'household' &, & -(t)s, a suff forming abstract ns The base is found in OE hwa, higa, 'member of a family', hūten, 'family, household', & the pref hī- as in hīw-cūp, 'familiar, intimate' &c Other Gmc cognates are OHG hūzo, 'husband, member of a household', Goth hēwa-, 'household', as in hēwa-frauga, 'master of a household'. Outside Gmc the nearest cogn in form & sense is Lat civis, 'citizen' &c See civil The Aryan base is k₁et-, k₁et-, meaning 'to be down, settle' &c See further under hind (II) & home (hist) A variable measure of land, formerly one sufficient to support a family or household, and varying in extent from 60 to 100 acres hide-and-seek, n Children's game in which some hide themselves, and others try to find them hidebound, adj [1 hīdbound, 2 haidbound] hide (I) & bound (VI) 1 n (of an animal) Having the hide too closely adhering to back and ribs, b (of a tree) constricted by bark, also, more usually, barl bound 2 (in fig sense) Rigidly conventional, pedantically attached to rules, habits, traditions hideous, adj [1 hīdus, 2 hīdus] ME hīdous, fr O Fr hīd(e)us (Mod Fr hīd(e)ux), fr O Fr hī(s)de, 'fright, dread', unless this is a back formation, cp O Fr hīdor, 'fear', perh fr Lat hīsp-id-ux, 'bristly, rough', connected w hircus, 'he goat'. See hirc-

sute & -(e)ous a Repulsive to the senses of sight or bearing, frightful a hideous grimace, building, uproar, b morally or mentally revolting, horrible, dreadful hideous crime, cruelty, a hideous story, Hideous ruin and combustion (Milton) hideously, adv Prec & -ly In a hideous manner hideousness, n See prec & -ness Quality or state of being hideous hiding (I), vbl n [1 hiding, 2 hiding] hide (II) & -ing (colloq) Flogging, thrashing I'll give you a good hiding hiding (II), vbl n hide (III) & -ing a Action of one who hides, b place where one hides, concealment to be in hiding hiding-place, n Place where person or thing is, or can be, hidden hidrosis, n [1 hidrosis, 2 hidrosis] Mod Lat, fr Gk hidros em, 'to sweat', fr hidros, 'sweat', fr *hid for *suid, fr base *suid, whence Lat sud are for *suid are See sudorifio & sweat & -osis a (physiol) Perspiration, b (med) excessive perspiration, malady of which this is a symptom hidrotic, adj [1 hidrotik, 2 hidrotik] Gk hidrotikos, fr hidrōt, stem of hidros, as prec & -ic (med) a adj Producing perspiration, b n, medicine producing perspiration, sudorifio hie, vb intrans & reflex [1 hi, 2 hai] O E higan or higan, 'to hasten, strive, pant', M.E hizhen, hien, cogn w Lat cirē, 'to move, put in motion, shake', see cite, Gk kien, 'to go', & kinein, 'to move, set in motion' See cinema & kinetic (chiefly poet or facet) 1 intrans To go in haste, hasten 2 reflex To hasten he hied him homeward hierarch, n [1 hirark, 2 hiarark] L Lat hierarcha, fr Gk hierarkhēs, fr hieros, 'sacred' (see hieros), & arkhē, 'to lead, rule' (see arch-) Chief, leader or ruler, of a sacred order or society, high priest hierarchical, adj [1 hirākal, 2 hiarākal(a)] Prec & -al Pertaining to a hierarchy or hierarch hierarchical, hierarchical, adj [1 hirāhik(i), 2 hiarāhik(i)] hierarch & -ic & -al Cp Fr hiérarchique Pertaining to a hierarchy hierarchy, n [1 hirārkia, 2 hiarārkia] Gk hierarkhía, 'office of a hierarch', whence L Lat hierarchia, Fr hiérarchie hierarch & -y 1 a Rank, order, or class of sacred persons, specif, one of the three divisions of angels, b government by these as conceived of by mediaeval writers celestial hierarchy 2 System, organized body of persons, especially of sacred persons, graded so that those of each rank control or direct those below them, specif a system, society, of graded ecclesiastical officers, organized government in religious matters, government by ecclesiastics, b any graded system, or body of officials to advance a step in the hierarchy of the Civil Service hieratic, adj & n [1 hiratik 2 hiaratik] Lat hieraticus, fr Gk hieratikos, cp hieratēa, 'priest's office', fr hieros, 'sacred, holy' See hieros - a adj Pertaining to sacred things, priestly, sacerdotal hieratic art, hieratic writing, form of ancient Egyptian cursive writing intermediate between hieroglyphic and demotic, in later age used only by priests, b n, hieratic writing hieros- pref Gk hieros, 'sacred', for hieros*, cp also hierus, 'priest' In the history of this word there appear to have been several influences in operation Walde connects it w a base ais*, is, meaning 'honour, worship' & appears in Lat acutissime, 'to honour' & (see entomēn), in Etrusc aiar, 'god', an Italic loan word & in O.H.G. era, Mod Germ ehre, 'honour', fr ais*, also in Goth aihan, 'to heed, regard' The h in Gk hieros is due to confusion & association w another word hieros, wh occurs as hieros in inscriptions, & means 'alert, active lively' This is related to a vb hiemai, 'to pot, place utter', & fig 'to desire, yearn after, feel an impulse towards', cogn w Lat via, 'way', see via The force of the prefix in compounds is holy, priestly, connected with priests, with sacrifice, or with sacred things hierocracy, n [1 hirōkrasi, 2 hiarōkrasi] Prec & -cracy Government by sacred persons, rule of priests hierocratic, adj [1 hirōkratik, 2 hiarocratik] hiero- & -cratic Connected with, based on, characterized by, priestly rule hierodule, n [1 hirōdūl, 2 hiarōdūl] Lat hierodulus, fr Gk hierodoulos, fr hieros & Gk doulos, 'slave', cogn w Goth taujan, O.H.G. zouwen, 'to make, prepare' Cp tool Temple slave, dedicated to a deity, esp in ancient Greece hieroglyph, n [1 hirōglif, 2 hiaroglif] Fr hieroglyphe, back formation fr hieroglyphique See next word A character in the sacred script of the ancient Egyptians, originally a form of picture writing, hence, symbol or character used in any picture writing, as that of the Mexicans, b (fig) secret or generally unintelligible written symbol, (facet) badly written word I can't read his hieroglyphs hieroglyphic, adj & n [1 hirōglifik, 2 hiaroglifik] Lat hieroglyphicus, fr Gk hieroglyphikos hiero- & Gk gluphein, 'to carve' (see glyph), & -ic a adj Pertaining to hieroglyphs or writing in hieroglyphs, b n pl hieroglyphics, (coll) writing in hieroglyphs (in any sense) hieroglyphically, adv [1 hirōglifikali, 2 hiaroglifikali] Prec & -al & -ly In a hieroglyphic manner, in hieroglyphs hierogram, n [1 hirōgram, 2 hiarogram] hiero- & -gram Sacred character or written symbol hierographic, adj [1 hirōgrafik, 2 hiarografik] Gk hierographos See hiero- & -graphos Pertaining to sacred writing hierolatry, n [1 hirōlatrī, 2 hiarōlatrī] hiero- & -latry Worship of saints hierology, n [1 hirōlojī, 2 hiarōladzī] Gk hierologia, 'sacred language' See hiero- & -logy Body of religious tradition and literature of a race or people, sacred lore hierophant, n [1 hirōfant, 2 hiarōfant] Gk hierophantēs, 'priest conducting initiation into the mysteries', fr hieros & phainein, 'to show' See phantasm Person who reveals or explains religious mysteries, or who professes to do so hierophantic, adj [1 hirōfantik, 2 hiarōfantik] Gk hierophantikos, fr prec & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, a hierophant or his acts huggle, vb intrans [1 higl, 2 higl] Prob a weakened form of haggle To haggle, chaffer, to drive a hard bargain higgledy-piggledy, adv, adj, & n [1 higlidi glidi, 2 higlidi glidi] a adv In complete disorder, in utter confusion, b adj, mixed up, jumbled up, completely disordered and confused, c n, complete muddle, confusion, disorder higgling, n [1 higlign, 2 higlign] huggle & -ing Action of one who huggles Phr higgling of the market, (econ) process of bargaining by which current prices are determined high (I), adj [1 hi, 2 hai] O E (non WS) hēh, (WS) hēah, M.E heigh, hij, fr Common Gmc hauh*, cp O Fris kach, O.S. O.H.G. hōh, Goth hauh s, O.N. hār Other Gmc cognates are Germ hügel, 'hill', O.N. haugr, 'mound' Prob fr same Aryan base as Lat cumulus, 'pile, mound' & c, w quite other formative elements (see cumulus), & Luth kupis, 'great pile of hay' 1 a (i) Extending upwards far above a given level or base, having great altitude, tall, lofty, elevated (not of persons or animals, of which tall is used) a high mountain, tower, tree, collar, flagstaff, pole, to fire at a high angle, Phr (to ride) the high horse, assume lofty, arrogant bearing, high neck, part of woman's dress covering shoulders and part of neck, high relief, (in sculp &c) bold relief, (u) having a specified degree or amount of height a house 40 ft high, b (i) situated at great distance above the surface of the earth or sea a high flight, tableland, the highest floor, the sun was high, (u) situated at a specified distance above surface of earth or sea the cloud is three miles high, Phrs high and dry (of vessel) aground out of water, (fig) (i) isolated, left in the lurch, (u) out of date, not in the swim or movement, with a high hand, (i) (fig) in an arbitrary, overbearing manner, (u) (Bib) mightily, high place, (O.T.) place of worship on hill top, high tide, (i) tide at its greatest height, time of this, (u) culmination, climax, c pertaining to the higher part of the country High German, dialects of S Germany, literary German, d (phon, of tongue position) raised towards roof of month, also of sound so formed a high back vowel 2 (fig) a (of persons, societies &c) Elevated, exalted in office, rank, dignity, power &c a high caste, family, official, high life, aristocratic or fashionable society, also in titles High Commissioner, Lord High Chancellor, Phrs high and low, all classes, high and mighty, (i) very exalted, (u) haughty, disdainful, high place, office, exalted official position, the Most High (Bib, also the Most Highest), God, b (i) chief, main, most important high altar, festival, road, street (usually with caps), (u) specially solemn High Celebration (of Eucharist), High Mass, Phrs high table, table on dais in hall of college &c, where seniors dine, high treason, that against the sovereign or state, o of the best quality, superior, very good, excellent a high quality, class, high art, to have a high opinion of one, in high feather, in good spirits, joyous, merry, frolicsome a high (colloq) high old time, high jinks, spirits, riot, luxurious high feeding, living, liver, d morally or intellectually lofty, noble, sublime high thinking, aims, a high character, resolve, tone, calling, o (Bib) arrogant, haughty a high stomach, high looks, f of a High Church character high sacramental doctrine, a High Anglican, (colloq) a high service, g higher, more developed or differentiated the higher mammals, more advanced the higher mathematics, arithmetic &c Phrs the higher criticism, that of a literary document which is not purely textual criticism, on a higher plane, in a condition of fuller or richer existence, at a superior level of thought, higher space, that of more than three dimensions 3 a (i) Intense, extreme, very great a high wind, explosive, polish, temperature, high velocity, speed, tension, frequency (elect), high mettle, a high Tory, a high percentage, figure, price, cost, (u) costly wheat is high today, Phrs a high area, (meteor) of high barometric pressure, high change, state of money market when exchange is highest, a high colour, ruddy complexion, flush, high farming, intensive cultivation, high latitudes, those near the poles, high lights, (in grapho arts) areas which have the greatest illumination, the high seas, seas outside national jurisdiction, high words, angry speeches high words passed between them, b (of time) (i) advanced, full high noon, day, summer, it is high time you were gone, (u) remote of high antiquity & (of sound) shrill, acute, sharp a high voice, key, pitch, note 5 (of meat) Slightly tainted high (II), n 1 (meteor) High area, anticyclone 2 (cards) Highest card dealt or drawn 3 Heaven, in Phrs on high, from on high, from heaven high (III), adv See prec a At, to, a high level, or place (lit or fig) to fly, mount, climb aim high, Phrs to hold one's head high, to hear oneself resolutely, proudly, haughtily, the sea runs high, is at high tide with strong current, passions run high, are deeply stirred, to search, hunt, high and low, in all sorts of places, to stand high in popular esteem &c, to occupy a good position, b intensely, vehemently, to a high degree the wind blows high, to play high, to play for high stakes, to play a high card, at a high price to pay, be old, high, o luxuriously to live high, d at or to a high pitch - to sing, speak, high, his voice rose high, s with a high flavour high-angle, adj Proceeding from a gun raised to a high angle high-angle fire highball, n [1 hībawl, 2 hāibōl] Origin doubtful (Am colloq) A whisky and soda high-blower, n Horse that flaps its nostrils noisily when breathing high-blown, adj Highly inflated, puffed up with pride high-born, adj Of high birth, of exalted parentage high-bred, adj 1 Of high birth, of superior stock, having qualities of a good race or stock 2 Educated or trained in a superior, refined, or aristocratic manner, showing good breeding highbrow, n & adj [1 hībrou, 2 hāibrau] (colloq, orig Am) 1 n Person who assumes airs of superior intellect or culture, (densively) intellectual or cultured person lacking broad human sympathies 2 adj Pertaining to, characteristic of, a highbrow a highbrow play

High Church, n [1 hī chēroh, 2 hāi t[ʃ]t[ʃ], & adj [1 hī chēroh, 2 hāi t[ʃ]t[ʃ]] 1 n Party, tendency, in the Church of England, or other Church, which lays great stress upon the episcopal and priestly offices, and emphasizes sacramental grace and ecclesiastical tradition 2 adj Pertaining to, of the nature of, the High Church

High-Churchman, n Adherent of High Church principles

High-Churchmanship, n Quality, principles of a High Churchman high-coloured, adj a Having a high, bright, or glaring colour, b (fig) vividly descriptive, exaggerated, overdone

High Court, n The Supreme Court of Judicature high-day, n Festival, holiday, esp in Phr high days and holidays high explosive, n An explosive, detonating very rapidly and of powerful action, as used in shells in heavy artillery.

highfalutin, highfaluting, adj & n [1 hī-falōtūn, 2 hāifalōtūn] Of doubtful origin 1 adj Bombastic, high-flown, extravagantly rhetorical 2 n Bombast, fustian high-fed, adj Richly fed, pampered high-flier, high-flyer, n a Bird & that flies high, b (fig) person who talks, behaves, or thinks in an extravagant, extreme, or over-ambitious manner, also a brilliant, talented, person, c (hist) extreme Tory or High Church partisan high-flown, adj Soaring, flighty, ambitious, extravagant, bombastic high-flying, adj Flying high, (fig) of the nature of a high flier high-frequency, n (elect) An alternating current whose periods exceed 1000 per second, see frequency high-handed, adj Acting with a high hand, arbitrary, domineering, overbearing high-handedness, n Character of one who is high-handed, arbitrary conduct high-hearted, adj Courageous, full of high resolve high-heartedness, n Quality of being high-hearted highland, n & adj [1 hlānd, 2 hāilānd] high (I) & land (I) Cp OE hēahland 1 n a (often pl) Elevated or mountainous region the highlands of Turkey, 'specif b (pl, oap) the Highlands, the mountainous or hilly north and north-west part of Scotland 2 adj Pertaining to a highland, b to the Scottish Highlands a Highland fling, Highland pony &c highlander, n [1 hlānder, 2 hāilānder] Free & -er a Inhabitant of a highland, b specif (oap) inhabitant, native, of the Scottish Highlands, c (oap) soldier in a Highland regiment of the British army high-lows, n pl [1 hī lōz, 2 hāi lōuz] (archaic or obs) Laced shoes or boots reaching to the ankle highly, adv [1 hīft, 2 hāift] OE hēallice, ME hehlice, fr high (I) & -ly a (rare or archaic in lit sense) To or at a height a highly walled city, b (fig) in a high place a highly placed official, c in or to a high degree, greatly, extremely, very to favour, commend, esteem, colour, season, highly, highly pleased, educated, paid, highly original, satisfactory, daring, dangerous, d favourably, with esteem or honour to think, speak, highly of one, e nobly highly connected, descended high-mettled, adj High-spirited, gallant high-minded, adj a Having a lofty or noble mind, principles, or character, highly honourable, b (Bib) proud, haughty high-mindedness, n Quality of being high-minded high-necked, adj [1 hī nēkt, 2 hāi nēkt] (of woman's dress) Having a high neck highness, n [1 hīnes, 2 hāines] OE hēahness, ME hēhness, hīness, fr high (I) & -ness 1 Quality, fact, of being high (esp as contrasted with lowness), elevation, loftiness the highness of prices, I complained of the highness of the wall (not the particular height), the highness of his aims 2 (with cap) Title, in England, bestowed only on princes of the blood royal always His, Her, Your, Royal Highness, in speaking of foreign princes, various His, Her &c, Highness, Serene, Imperial, Highness &c high-pitched, adj 1 (of sound, voice) Having a high pitch, shrill 2 (of roof) Steep 3 (fig) a Lofty, aspiring a high-pitched aim, character, b haughty, c highly strung high-pressure, adj a (of engine, machine &c) Having, driven by or at, a high pressure of steam, air, water &c, b (fig) urgent, earned on at great speed high-priced, adj Offered for sale at a high price, expensive, dear high-priest, n Chief priest, specif, head of the ancient Jewish priesthood high-priesthood, n Office of high priest high-principled, adj Imbued with lofty principles of conduct, highly honourable high road, n Main road, highway, (fig) easy or direct way the high road to fame, success high school, n Secondary school, usually of superior kind, non-proprietary, but having a governing body, and giving instruction in special subjects, technical or other high seas, n, pl The seas, ocean, outside territorial waters high-seasoned, adj [1 hī sēznd, 2 hāi sēznd] a Highly flavoured, as with spice &c, b piquant, spicy high-souled, adj Having a lofty or noble soul high-sounding, adj (of style, titles) Pompous, inflated, ostentatious high-spirited, adj Having a lofty spirit, daring, ardent a high spirited person or action, (of a horse) restless, frisky high-stepper, n a Horse that steps high, b person of lofty spirit and courage, of distinguished bearing and manners, of soaring, powerful intelligence high-strung, adj In a state of nervous tension, sensitive, easily worked up, excitable hight, vb trans, pass [1 hīt, 2 hāit] Only trace of pass vb in Engl, ME highte, 1st & 3rd Pres & Pret Pass, formed by fusion of OE hātte (Goth haitada), Pres & Pret Pass, w OE hēit, fr orig reduplicating (op Goth haitait) Pret active of hātan, 'to call, name, command', Common Gmo, op OS hētan, Du heeten, OHG heizan, Mod. Germ heissen, Goth haitan, ON heita, fr Gmo type hailan-* As PP (2) for ME hōten, by confusion w 1 Cogo w Lat cēre, one sense of wh is 'to invoke, summon' See cite & hie 1 (obs) Ie, was, called or named 'This graily beast, which Lion hight by name', (Shakespeare) 2 (archaic or facet) Called, named 'Ghilde Harold was he hight' (Byron) high tension, n (wireless) Current supplied to a node circuits of receivers and transmitters high-toned, adj Elevated, lofty, in moral or intellectual character or in sentiment a high-toned journal, often iron this book is too high toned for me highly-tighty See hoity-toity high water, n & adj 1 n a Highest level ordinarily attained by body of water subject to fluctuations, specif h state of tidal water at high tide, immediately before it turns, time of this it is high water today at 4 p.m. at London Bridge 2 adj a Pertaining to high water, Phr high-water mark, mark made along shore or bank by high water, b (fig) highest point of success or excellence reached the high water mark of English poetry &c highway, n [1 hīwā, 2 hāiwei] ME heizwa, fr high (I) & way 1 High or main road the king's highway (orig road where the king's peace was maintained), contrasted with byway in Phr highways and byways, chief roads and minor roads 2 a Public thoroughfare, by land or water, traffic route the highways of the Empire b (fig) (1) direct line or road towards a non-material aim highway to success, (u) best-known, chief part of a subject of study & the highways of literature highwayman, n [1 hīwāman, 2 hāiweimān] Robber, generally mounted, who formerly extorted money from travellers on the public roads by threats of violence or murder high-wrought, adj (rare or obs) Worked up to a high pitch of skill, perfection, or intensity hijacker, n [1 hījaker, 2 hāidzake] Origin unknown (USA slang) Person who preys on boot leggers and takes from them the alcoholic liquor they are attempting to smuggle into, or deal with in, the United States

hija, n See hegira

hike, vb intrans & n [1 hīk, 2 hāik] Possibly a dialectal variant of hitch (colloq) a vb To tramp, to go on a walking tour through the country; b n, a tramp, country walking excursion hilarious, adj [1 hlārūs, 2 hlēarūs] Lat hilaris, hilarus, fr Gk hilaros, 'cheerful, glad' (op hila(w)os, 'propitious, kind', hlēnai, 'to be gracious'), prob cogn w Goth hels, 'kind', OE hēil, 'season, happiness' (see silly), & w Lat salvus, 'safe, unhurt, sound' (see safe (I)), & -ous a Merry, blithe, gay, b noisily, boisterously merry, as with drink hilariously, adv Prec & -ly In a hilarious manner hilariousness, n See prec & -ness hilarity, n [1 hlārītā, 2 hlēārītā] Fr hilarité, fr Lat hilaritatem, (em), fr hilaris See hilarious & -ity Quality or state of being hilarious, mirth, merriment, jollity

Hilary, adj [1 hlārī, 2 hlārī] St Hilary or Hilary of Poitiers (d 367), whose festival is Jan 13th Applied formerly to one of the terms in the English law-courts, Jan 11th-31st Hilary sittings, term (now abolished), also to University term between Christmas and Easter hilding, n & adj [1 hlīdng, 2 hlīdng] Proh fr OE hyldan, heldan, 'to incline, bend' See heel (III) & -ing (archaic) a n Base, servile wretch, b adj, base, mean hill (I), n [1 hīl, 2 hāil] OE hyll, ME hull, hil, cogn w Lath kainas, Gk kōlinos, kōlinē, Lat collis, 'hill', fr Aryan base kel* &c, 'to be elevated, rise' See holm, column, culminate, excel a Small elevation of the earth's surface, intermediate between a knoll or mound, and a mountain, the limits varying with the more or less mountainous nature of the country, in Britain usually up to about 2000 ft the Malvern Hills, Phr up hill and down dale, high and low, everywhere, far and wide, b artificial mound or heap of earth &c, chiefly in compounds, e.g. dunghill, molehill &c hill (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec (rare) 1 trans a To make into a hill, pile up, b (Am) to surround with a bank of earth to hill potatoes 2 intrans a To form a hill, b to resort to hills, as birds hill country, n Rugged or undulating elevated district.

hilliness, n. [1 hīlness, 2 hīlness] hilly & -ness Quality of being hilly hillman, n. [1 hīlman, 2 hīlman] Man living in the hills, member of a hill tribe hullo, hulloa. See hollo hillock, n. [1 hīlūk, 2 hīlūk] hill (I) & -ock Little hill, mound, knoll, heap hillocky, adj. [1 hīlōki, 2 hīlōki] Heo & -y Diversified by hillocks hill-side, n. Side, slope, of a hill hill-top, n. Top of a hill hilly, adj. [1 hīl, 2 hīl] hill (I) & -y a Containing, full of, hills hilly country, b having the nature of a hill hilt n. & vb trans [1 hīlt, 2 hīlt] OE hilt, hilt ME hilt, cp OHG hēlza, ON hilt, perh related to helve, cp LG helft 'axe handle' 1 n. a Handle of sword or dagger, Phr (up) to the hilt, completely the charge was proved up to the hilt, b handle of miner's pick. (rare) 2 vb To furnish with a hilt hilum, n. [1 hīlum, 2 hīlum] Lat hilum, 'very small thing, trifle', according to Festus, 'that which adheres to a bean', perh same word as second element in Lat nil, 'nothing', on wh see nilul Scar on seed where it was attached to the pod or vessel him, pers. pron. [1 him, 2 him] OE him, dat sing of he, in ME also replacing acc him to form obj case 1 Objective case of he, a referred to another person than subject, b reflexive where there is no ambiguity he looked about him, he bethought him of his danger, (archaic and poet) as general reflexive he made him ready 2 (colloq and vulg.) Emphatic form of nominal that's him himation, n. [1 hīmation, 2 hīmation] Gk himation, Attic form for himation, fr ues ria*, cp Gk hēmāma, 'clothes', fr ues nu*, see further on this base under wear (I), vest, (ant. Gk) The typical Greek outer garment worn over the chiton himself, pron. [1 himself, 2 himself] OE him selfum, dat sing of hit self See ho, self, ME himself himselfe (maso sing pron) 1 (reflex) He supports himself, he gave himself much trouble, he kept it for him self Phr (all) by himself, alone, unaided 2 Emphatic, a for pers. pron., as obj the money I gave him is for himself, (archaic) as subj himself will be there, b in apposition to subj or obj the King himself says so, he says so himself, I saw him himself 3 (as quasi n) His normal self he is himself again, he came to himself, recovered his senses hind (I), n. [1 hind, 2 hind] OE hind, ME hinde, OHG hinda, Mod. Germ. hinde, ON hind, Gmc type hīndō*, perh. cogn. w Gk lemas, 'young deer, gazelle' Female of the (red) deer hind (II), n. ME hine, fr OE hina, contracted fr hīna, hīna, genit pl of hīna, hīna, 'member of household, domestic servant' See hide (IV) The new OE nom hīna perh arose fr such phrases as hīna man, 'man of the domestics' For the added d op sound, lend a (archaic) Farm servant, peasant, rustic, b (Nthn Engl. and Scots) skilled farm servant having charge of two horses, farm bailiff hind (III), adj. Perh back formation fr hinder (I), hindmost, or fr OE hindan, ME hind, 'behind', or abbr fr behind. Hinder, situated behind, at the back, in the rear, posterior the hind legs, feet, of a beast, hind wheels, quarters hinder (I), adj. [1 hinder, 2 hindere] OE hinder, adj. 'back, behind', ME hindre, adj. fr ON hindra, OHG hīndra, O HG hīndra, Mod. Germ. hinter, prep, 'behind', Goth hīndra, prep, 'behind, beyond', fr Gmc demonstr stem hin-* (see hence), fr base hi-*, 'that' (see he), & suff -der, denoting motion to a place (see hither), identical w compar suff, as in Gk -ter- or Cp OE hindan, adv. 'behind', OHG hīndan, Mod. Germ. hinter, 'behind', Goth.

hindra, prep, 'behind' See behind. Situated at the back, in the rear, posterior, (more general than hind) the hinder parts, end hinder (II), vb trans & intrans [1 hinder, 2 hindre] OE hindrian, 'to repress', ME hīnd(e)ren, OHG hīndarōn, hīndarwan, Mod. Germ. hindern, ON hindra, fr OE hinder (see prec), orig sense being to 'keep back' 1 trans a To keep brief prevent, stop I was hindered from coming, b to delay, impede, thwart, embarrass to be hindered in one's work 2 intrans To cause or be a hindrance hinderer, n. [1 hinderer, 2 hindere] MF hīndrer, fr prec & -or Person who hinders hindmost, adj. [1 hindmost, 2 hindmost] Superl of hinder (I) See -most. Hindmost hind-foremost, adv. hind (III) & foremost With the hinder part in front Hinds, adj. & n. [1 hindō, 2 hindū] Hind, fr hind, 'India', see Hinduism 1 adj. Pertaining to N India or the dialect of this part 2 n. The Aryan dialect of Northern India hindmost, adj. [1 hindmost, 2 hindmost] Superl of hind (III), see -most, cp Goth hīndmīst s Most to the rear, farthest behind, hindmost hind quarters, n. pl. hind (III) & quarter (I) & -s, pl ending Lower part of back of human being, posterior part of animal's back, posterior, buttocks hindrance, n. [1 hindrans, 2 hindrans] hinder (II) & -ance a Action or process of hindering, b thing or person that hinders, impediment, obstacle Hinduism, n. [1 hindūism, 2 hindūism] Pers hindū, 'Indian', fr hind, 'India', fr O Pers hindu, 'land on the river Indus', fr Scrt sindhu, 'river', specul, 'the Indus' See Indian & -ism Religion of the Hindus Hindustani, adj. & n. [1 hindostānī, 2 hindostānī] Pers hindū, see prec, & stan, 'place' 1 adj. Pertaining to the people or language of Hindustan 2 n. Dialect consisting of Hindi with an admixture of Arabic, Persian &c, developed after the Mohammedan conquest of India, Urdu hinge (I), n. [1 hūn, 2 hūn] ME henge, fr hengen, 'to hang', a term affected by ON hengja See hang 1 a Joint, usually of metal, on which door, gate, lid, or the like, hangs and turns, Phr off the hinges (fig), mentally or physically disordered, unhinged, unable to function, b thing resembling and serving purpose of, hinge, specul, joint of bivalve shell, as oyster, (also attrib) hinge joint 2 (fig) Principle, fact, on which matters turn or depend, cardinal point hinge (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec 1 intrans a To swing, turn on a hinge, b (fig) to depend on, be contingent on everything hinges on his wishes 2 trans a To supply with a hinge or hinges, b (obs) to bend as by a hinge 'hinge thy knee' (Shakespeare) hinged, adj. [1 hūnd, 2 hūnd] fr PP of prec Furnished with a hinge or hinges hunny, n. [1 hūn, 2 hūn] Lat hinnus, fr Gk hinnos, earlier ginnos perh imitative, cp Lat hinnire, 'to neigh, whinny' *OHspring of stallion and she ass, resembling small mule hint (I), n. [1 hint, 2 hint] Early Mod Engl (Dunbar), 'sudden seizure', fr OE hentan, ME henten, hīnten, 'to take, seize', cp Goth (fra-) hīnpan, 'to capture', sp hint & perh hand 1 a Slight, indirect, or unobtrusive intimation of fact, desire &c, covert suggestion or allusion to drop, let fall, a hint, to take a hint, act on a slight suggestion, a delicate, strong, broad, hint, b brief piece of advice hints on housekeeping hint (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec a trans To intimate indirectly or covertly, to give a hint of to hint disapproval, he hinted that he knew more, b intrans, to give, utter, a hint to hint at foul play hinterland, n. Anglized [1 hinterland, 2 hīnterlend] Gorm, fr hinter, 'behind' (see hinder (I)), & land, land (I) a Land lying behind strip of coast or the bank of a large river, held to lie within sphere of influence of state occupying coast &c, b area served by a port hintingly, adv. [1 hintingly, 2 hīntighly] hint (II) & -ing & -ly In the manner of one who hints hip (I), n. [1 hip, 2 hip] OE hype, ME hipe, hipe, Common Gmo, cp OHG huf, Goth hup s, ON huppr, Gmc type hupiz*, cogn w Lith kumpis, 'ham', & prob w Gk kubos, 'hollow above hip of cattle', perh connected w hop (I) 1 Projecting part on either side of human or animal body, formed by edge of pelvis and upper end of thigh bone, together with the covering muscular tissue &c, haunch Phr to have, q, one on the hip, to tackle, control, effectively (fig, from wrestling), to smite (enemies) hip and thigh, (Bib) relentlessly, utterly 2 Sloping line of junction of two adjacent sides of roof meeting at an external angle hip (II), n. OE hēope, ME hepe, Mod. Engl hep, Gmc type hupōn*, cp OE hīpa, 'hriar', OS hīpo, OHG hūfo Seed vessel of the wild rose or hriar hips and haws hip (III), n. & vb trans Abbr fr hypo- chondria, (colloq, rare) 1 n. Melancholy, depression of spirits 2 vb To depress the spirits of (chiefly in P P) to feel hipped hip (IV), interj. Sound made twice as signal for a united cheer hip, hip, hurrah! hip-bath, n. Portable bath in which one sits but cannot lie hip-belt, n. Medineval sword belt, worn slanting down from right to left side hip-bone, n. Haunch bone, innominate bone hip-disease, n. Tubercular or other disease of the hip-joint hipe, n. & vb trans [1 hip, 2 hipe] Possibly connected w hip (I) a n. Kind of throw in wrestling in which opponent's thigh is struck up from behind, b vb, to throw by a hip hip-joint, n. Joint between pelvis and thigh bones hippish, adj. [1 hīpish, 2 hīpish] hip (III) & -ish (colloq) Somewhat melancholy or depressed hippo-, pref. Gk hippos, 'horse', dial. hīlos, cogn w Scrt āsias, O Pers aspa, Lith asva, Goth aswa (for ehwa*), OE eah, Lat equus, Gaulish epo, O Ir ech, fr Aryan type el-* wo s See equine Form in compounds of Greek origin, denoting horse hippocampus, n. [1 hippókampus, 2 hippókampus], pl hippocampi [1 hippókampi, 2 hippókampi] Gk hippokampus, fr hippo- & kampus, 'sea-monster', prop, 'writhen, coiled', op lampē, 'caterpillar', lampē tern, 'to bend' See gambol, harm (I) 1 (class mythol) Sea horse with hinder part in form of long curling tail, represented as drawing ear of a sea god. 2 Small fish called sea horse 3 (anat) One of two curved nores on each lateral ventricle of brain.

hippocras, n. [1 hippōkras, 2 hippōkras] ME, O Fr ypocras, ypocras, Mod Fr Hippocras, fr name of Hippokratēs, Gk physician of 5th cent BC, fr whom a wine-strainer called Hippocrates' sieve was named Wine spiced with ginger, cinnamon &c, strained, and used as cordial Hippocrene, n. [1 hippōkrēn, 2 hippōkrēn] Gk, fr hippos, 'horse', see hippo-, & krēnē, 'spring, fountain' Etymol doubtful a (Gk mythol) Fountain of Mt Helicon, sacred to the Muses, produced by the hoof of Pegasus, b poetic inspiration 'the true, the blueful Hippocrene', Keats, 'Nightingale' hippodrome, n. [1 hippōdrōm, 2 hippōdrōm] Fr, fr Lat, fr Gk hippodromos, fr hippo- & drōmos, 'course', see dromedary a Ancient Greek or Roman course for horse or chariot races, b circus, arena, for equestrian displays hippogriff, hippogryph, n [1 hippōgrif, 2 hippōgrif] Fr hippogriffe, fr Ital ippogryfo, fr hippo- & Ital grifo, griffin (I) Fabulous monster, consisting of horse with head and wings of griffin hippophagous, adj [1 hippōfagus, 2 hippōfagos] hippo- & -phagous Eating horse-flesh hippophagy, n [1 hippōfagi; 2 hippōfagē] hippo- & -phagy Practice of eating horseflesh hippopotamic, adj [1 hippōpotamik, 2 hippōpotamik] Next word & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, a hippopotamus, unwieldy, clumsy hippopotamus, n [1 hippōpotamus, 2 hippōpotamus], pl hippopotamuses, learned pl hippopotami Lat, fr Gk hippopotamos, fr hippo- & potamos, 'river', see potamo-, prob fr Aryan base pet-*, 'to fall, fly, hasten towards', on Gk pel esthai, 'to fly', potē, 'flight', Lat pet ere, 'to seek' & -us, see ptero-, feather Very large ungainly amphibious African pachydermatous ungulate mammal, having large muzzle and short legs, related to swine, the river-horse hipshot, adj [1 hipshot, 2 hipshot] hip (I) & shot (II) Having a dislocated hip hirable, adj [1 hīrabi, 2 hīrabi] hira (II) & -able That may be hired hircline, adj [1 hīrcin, 2 hīrcin] Lat hircin us, fr hircus, hircus, 'he goat', q under hirsute, & -ine A pertaining to, resembling, a he goat, b having a rank smell hire (I), n [1 hīr, 2 hīr] OE hīr, 'wages, usury', ME hīre, Du huur, Germ dial heuer, Swed hyra, Dan hyre, origin unknown 1 Right acquired, in return for payment of an agreed sum, a to make use of a person's services in performing a piece of work, or b to enjoy use of a thing belonging to another 2 The act of employing a person, or making use of a thing, in return for payment to let out on hire 3 Money paid or received for person's services the labourer is worthy of his hire, to work for hire, b for use of another's property to pay for the hire of a motor car hire (II), vb trans OE hīrian, ME hīren, hīren, fr prec 1 a To engage and pay (a person) to do work, b to secure services of (person) in return for wages, c to obtain the use of (a thing) by payment to owner to hire a gardener, cheap labour, a flat, a cab &c, a hired assassin, to hire a man to do one's dirty work &c 2 Generally hire out, a to let out to others for their use, to permit use of by others, in return for payment to hire out horses, bicycles &c by the hour, b (reflex) to hire oneself out as a hack writer &c hireling, n [1 hīrling, 2 hīrling] OE hīrling, ME hīrling, hīrling hire (I) & -ling A person who works for hire, (now usually contemptuous) mercenary person the hirelings of the press, (also attrib) hireling scribbles &c, b thing hired this horse is only a hireling hire-purchase, n & adj a n Contract by which thing, as house, furniture, motor car &c, is hired on condition that after payment of hire to a date or amount agreed upon, it becomes the property of the hirer, purchase by instalments, b adj, pertaining to hire-purchase the hire purchase system, a hire-purchase agreement hirer, n [1 hīrer, 2 hīrer] hire (II) & -er Person who hires hirsute, adj [1 hīrsūt, 2 hīrsūt] Lat hirsūt-us, for earlier hircus, on the form hircus, also hircus, 'he goat', connected w hispidus, 'bristly' (sp hirsutus) & horridus, 'to bristle' See horrid Shaggy, bristly, hairy, bearded hirsuteness, n Free & -ness State or quality of being hirsute hirundine, adj [1 hirundin, 2 hirundin] fr Lat hirundo, hirundo-is, 'swallow', & -ine, normal form wd be hirundin-ine The etymol is very doubtful Pertaining to, of the nature of, a swallow.

his, pronominal adj [1 hiz, 2 hiz] OE his, gen sing of maso & neut See he, at Possessive pronoun, of 3rd pers maso, also used absolutely the book is his hispid, adj [1 hispid, 2 hispid] Lat hispid-us See hirsutus & hirsute (bot, zool) Bristly, covered with stiff hairs hiss (I), vb intrans & trans [1 his, 2 his] ME hissen, imitative, on OE hīsc, 'insult', an entirely different word 1 intrans a (of a person) To make a noise like that heard in prolonging the sound of s, esp as a sign of strong disapproval or anger, b (of gase and snakes) to make a similar noise, the sign of fear or anger, c (of air, steam &c) to produce such a sound in escaping from a narrow opening, d (of liquid) to bubble, sizzle, when falling on a hot surface 2 trans a To express disapproval of, or anger at, by hissing, b his off, to drive (actor) from the stage by hissing, b (very rare) to utter with a hissing sound, c in rage to his disdain hiss (II), n, fr prec Noise produced in any of the ways mentioned in prec word, sound of the voiceless open consonants s, sh [s, f] hissing, n [1 hissing, 2 hiss] hiss (I) & -ing Action of person or thing that hisses hust, interj & vb trans [1 hust, 2 hust] Imitative a interj (archaic or liter) Hush, silence, b vb, to summon or morn by calling 'hust' histo-, pref Gk histōros 'wise', web, tissue, earlier 'ship's mast, upright beam of loom', fr histōros for histōros*, 'to make to stand' See stand (I) & state (I) (anat, bot, physiol) Form used in compounds of Greek origin, denoting tissue histogenesis, n [1 histōgenesis, 2 histōgenesis] Free & genesis Formation and development of organic tissue histogenetic, adj [1 histōgenetik, 2 histōgenetik] histo- & -genetic Pertaining to histogenesis histologic(al), adj [1 histōlogik(l), 2 histōlogik(l)] histo- & logos, -logical Pertaining to histology histologist, n [1 histōlogist, 2 histōlogist] histo- & -logist Person who studies or is skilled in histology histology, n [1 histōlogi, 2 histōlogi] histo- & -logy Study of the structure of organic tissue histolysis, n [1 histōlysis, 2 histōlysis] histo- & -lysis Dissolution of organic tissue, specif, that of the tissues of certain organs of larva during pupal stage histolytic, adj [1 histōlytik, 2 histōlytik] histo- & -lytic Pertaining to histolysis historian, n [1 historian, 2 historian] Fr historien history & -an Writer of history, student of, one learned in history historiated, adj [1 historiated, 2 historiated] L Lat historiāt (um), PP of historiāre, 'to narrate, depict', fr Lat historia, history & -ed Decorated with figures of flowers, animals, persons &c, as a capital letter or border in a medieval manuscript historic, adj [1 historik, 2 historik] Lat historicus, fr Gk historikós, fr history & -ic 1 a Pertaining to history, historical the historic sense, historic times, those within scope of recorded history, contrasted with prehistoric, b now usually restricted to certain senses famous, notable, having importance, associations, in history a(n) historic spot, this speech will become historic 2 (gram, esp Gk and Lat) Historic infinitive, that used in narration instead of indicative, historic present, present tense used for past in vivid narrative, historic tenses, those ordinarily used in narrating past events, the imperfect and pluperfect historical, adj [1 historik, 2 historik] Free & -al 1 Pertaining to the science and art of history the historical science, method, a(n) historical training &c 2 Pertaining to written history, to a record of events and actions, a serving as a source, furnishing evidence, for a fact in history a(n) historical document, b established by, recorded in, history, authentic, not legendary a(n) historical event, personage &c, c based on, referring to, suggested by, some person or event recorded in history a(n) historical picture, novel &c 3 Connected, concerned, with, exhibiting, tracing, a gradual development or evolution, contrasted with what is merely descriptive of a single phase a(n) historical treatment of literature, a(n) historical account of a language historically, adv Free & -ly In an historical manner, specif according to the methods of historical science, b so as to exhibit the gradual development and changes which have arisen from age to age historicity, n [1 historiaiti, 2 historiaiti] historic & -ity Historical character, authenticity historico-, pref, fr Gk historikos See historio Used in a few compounds, such as historico philosophical, combining historical and philosophical character historied, adj [1 historid, 2 historid] history & -ed Having a history, recorded in history historiette, n [1 historiēt, 2 historiēt] Fr histoire & -ette Short history, short story historify, vb trans [1 historifi, 2 historifi] history & -fy To treat of as in history, make subject of history historiographer, n [1 historiōgrapher, 2 historiōgrapher] Lat historiographus, fr Gk historiographos, fr historia, combining form denoting history, & -graph & -er Writer of a history, specif, one officially commissioned to record historical events Historiographer to the King historiographic(al), adj [1 historiōgraphik(l), 2 historiōgraphik(l)] See prec & -ic, -al Pertaining to historiography, or to a historiographer historiography, n [1 historiōgrafi, 2 historiōgrafi] See historiographer & -y Art of writing history, specif, official history history, n [1 histori, 2 histori] Lat historia, 'narrative of past events, any narrative, story, account', fr Gk historia, 'learning by inquiry, knowledge gained by inquiry, narration of what is learnt, historical narrative', fr histōr, 'knowing, acquainted, versed in, one who knows' These words stand for historia* &c, & are derived fr the base wid-, wid &c, on Gk oida, 'I know' &c (see idea), & Gme, OE &c, witian, 'to know' See wit, see also story 1 A That branch of knowledge which is concerned with the study of the development of man as a social and political being, b the science of dealing systematically with the records whence information about human action in the past is derived, and of sifting and so ordinating the evidence which these records yield it has often been disputed whether history is a science or an art Natural history is the study of the phenomena of external nature, the term is now often restricted to the study of animate nature, in particular to zoology 2 a The series of events and actions which occur in the life of peoples the early history of Scotland was extremely animated; Phr to make history, to do something which is of importance in the history of a country, or of mankind, b the events and experiences of an individual life Tamburlane had an amazing history 3 The whole series of gradual changes and modifications which occur during the development of philosophy, religion, arts, institutions, laws, languages, and other products of the human mind and of society, development, evolution the history of religious beliefs, of laws and customs, of language or a language &c 4 A systematic reasoned, consecutive, written narrative of the life of a people, an institution, or an individual, or of any series of human activities a history of Greece, England &c, a history of the stock exchange, of criminal law, a history of war in the Middle Ages, a history of scientific covery &c Phrs a matter of history, something recorded by history, a question of history, one for history to decide to become history, subject-matter for history. 5 An account of the evolution of a language, and of the gradual phases through which it passes, of the various tendencies which arise among the speakers of it at different times, and the changes which it exhibits in each period throughout the whole time during which records of it exist a history of English histrionic, adj [1 hīstrionik, 2 hīstrionik] Lat histrionicus, fr histrion (em), 'stage-player, actor', fr early Lat hīster, said to be fr Etruscan, & -ic a Pertaining to, resembling, an actor or acting, dramatic, also in derogatory sense, artificial, affected, theatrical, b (med.) pertaining to the facial muscles histrionic paralysis, o as n. in pl, histrionics, (i) theatrical display, (u) deliberate play acting for effect histrionically, adv [1 hīstrionikali, 2 hīstrionikali] Prec & -al & -ly In a histrionic manner, theatrically hit (I), vb trans & intrans [1 hit, 2 hit] Late OE hittan for hittan, ME hitten, fr ON hitja, 'to light on, meet with'. A trans 1 a To reach, touch, strike (object aimed at) to hit the target, Phr to hit the (right) nail on the head, to get to the root of a matter, seize on vital and essential point, to express an shrewd judgement in a telling manner, b to light upon, fall in with, find, by design or luck to hit the right path 2 (fig) a To attain (one's aim), to guess right, suit exactly to hit a like ness, you're hit it, are perfectly right, b to strike, appeal to to hit one's fancy, Phrs to hit it off with, to get on well with, to hit off, to portray, describe, tellingly in a few strokes or words 3 a To knock, smite to hit a ball to the boundary, Phr to hit a man when he's down, hit below the belt, (fig) take unfair advantage of, treat unfairly, b to deal (stroke) he hit him a heavy blow on the head, c to bring into collision to hit one's head against a beam, d to wound, hurt, injure feelings of you don't know whom your sarcasm may hit Phr hard hit, gravely affected B intrans a To aim (hit or fig), b to hit on, upon, to light upon, find, meet with casually to hit on a gold reef, to hit upon a passage in a book, c to strike to hit against a wall, Phr to hit out, to strike holdily or vigorously, esp with the fists, (also fig) to attack or repel attacks with vigour, d to smite hard as at cricket &c go in and hit, make runs quickly hit (II), n, fr prec 1 Stroke, blow, or shot that hits what is aimed at to register a hit on the target, (cricket) a good hit, a hit for three, batsman a stroke resulting in three runs 2 Success, attainment of purpose, a something that pleases popular taste, which gains wide approval his last novel was, made, a great hit, b piece of good luck, successful stroke, of business, in affairs, a allusive remark, joke, quip, sarcasm, aimed at, directed against, person or thing the play contained some clever hits at public characters, 'Punch' has many good hits at the fashions of the day hitch (I), vb trans & intrans [1 hitch, 2 hit] ME hicken, 'to remove', Mod Engl dial hile, hock, 'to move with a jerk', ep LG hicken, of uncertain origin, perh connected w hook. 1 trans a To move, pull, twitch, with a jerk to hitch up one's trousers, to hitch one's chair to the table, b (i) to secure by a hitch, hook, projecting part &c to fasten temporarily or loosely to hitch a rope over, round a bough, (u) to harness or yoke to hitch a horse to a whippole tree. 2 in trans a To move, advance, jerkily, b to be fastened or secured by a hitch, to catch on a nail, book &c hitch (II) n, fr prec 1 Jerk, jerky movement 2 Kind of nautical knot for fastening rope temporarily 3 Entanglement, catch, (fig) something which delays, hinders, renders difficult, an obstacle, hindrance, to action, a cheek a hitch in the negotiations Phr with out a hitch, smoothly, easily, successfully hither, n [1 hīdh, 2 hādh] OE hīð, ME hīðe, hīðe &c, fr Gmc hūþj*, oogn w Goth hīþan, 'to take, seize', & w hand (archaic, rare, except in Place Names) Landing place for vessels on coast or river hither, adv & adj [1 hīðhor, 2 hīðe] OE, ME hīder, ep Goth hīðr, ON hīðra for hīðra*, fr Gmc demonstr base hī* (see he, here) & suff ðer*, as in hinder, other &c, Aryan ter*, oogn w Lat extrā, 'on this side' 1 adv (archaic, now gen replaced by here) In this direction, towards this place, towards me, to the place where I am come hither Phr hither and thither, in various directions 2 adj Nearer, on this side, on the side where I am the hither side.

hitherto, adv [1 hīðhertō, 2 hīðhertō] hither & to a Up to this time, to this moment, so far, b (obs) hither, up to this point hitherward, adv [1 hīðherward, 2 hīðward] OE hīðerward hither & -ward (obs or rare) Hither hit-or-miss, adj Careless, happy go lucky, casual, haphazard, chancey hitter, n [1 hīter, 2 hīta] hit (I) & -er Person who hits this cricketer is a hard hitter hive (I), n [1 hīv, 2 hāv] OE hīf, ME hīes, Da hūf, 'hood, hive', MLG hūne, 'hive', ON hūfr, 'hull', Gmc type hūf*, cogn w Lat cūpa, 'tab', fr Aryan base leup* &c, 'to bulge, swell out', ep OE cofa, 'chamber', fr kufan* (see cove (X)) See further under cup & heap, also head 1 a Hut shaped receptacle, of plaited straw, or of wood, provided for swarm of bees to live and store honey in, also beehive, b (fig) place where human beings swarm, scene of busy life a hive of industry 2 a Swarm of bees inhabiting hive, b (fig) busy community hive (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans a To gather (bees) into a hive, b (of bees) to store (honey) in a hive, (fig) to store up, garner 2 intrans To enter, live in, a live, (fig) to form, live in, a community hive-nest, n Common nest built and used by several pairs of birds hives, n [1 hīvz, 2 hāvz] Soote, origin uncertain One of several maladies, a eruptive disease like chicken pox, nettle rash, b laryngitis, croup ho, interj [1 hō, 2 hou] Cp ON ho, Du hou, not in OE a As a call or cry to excite attention &c ho! there, what ho! &c, b as expression of various feelings, as surprise, weariness &c ho! ho! heigh ho! &c hoactzan n See hoactzan hoar, adj [1 hōr, 2 hō] OE hār, ME hor, OHG hār, MHG hār, 'old, proud, lofty', Mod. Germ här, 'exalted, august', orig 'grey haired, venerable' (cp yunker), ON har r, 'grey', Gmc type hair az*, 'shining, white', fr base har*, ep Goth hairs, 'toreb', ON hes &, 'brightness', OE hādor, Germ heiter, 'bright', perh cogn w Gk hōranos, 'lord (archaic or poet) a (of the head or hair) Hoary, white, grey, esp with age, b (of the ground) white with frost hoard (I) n [1 hōrd, 2 hōd] OE, ME hord, Common Gmc huzda-*, OS hord, OHG Mod. Germ hord, Goth huzd, ON hodd Aryan huzdho* for huzd dho*, 'thing hidden', fr huzd*, wk. grade of leudh*, 'to hide', whence also Gk keuthen, 'to hide', huzthos 'a hollow' See hide (III), house a Store of treasure, esp one that is hidden or guarded a hoard of coins was unearthed b secret accumulation, as of food a squirrel's winter hoard, c (fig) mass of material, stored in memory, fund a hoard of witty stories hoard (II) vb trans & intrans OE hordian, ME horden, fr prec cp Goth huzdian a trans To amass and secrete, store up, make a hoard of, b intrans, to practise hoarding, to store up, accumulate, wealth, goods &c hoarder, n [1 hōrder, 2 hōde] hoard (I) & -er Person or animal that hoards hoarding (I), n [1 hōrding, 2 hōding] hoard (II) & -ing 1 Action of one who hoards 2 Store of hoarded goods hoarding (II), n Obs Engl hoard, 'hoarding', either fr O Fr hoard, hoart, 'scaffold', fr Du or Germ horde, cogn w hurdle, crate, or direct fr Du, & -ing a Temporary fence or screen of boards round waste land, or in front of place where building &c is being carried on, b similar screen for display of posters, c (mil hist) projecting wooden scaffold on top of wall of fortress hoar-frost, n ME hoarfrost hoar & frost (I) Deposit of minute needles of ice on the ground surface of leaves &c, white frost, rime hoarhound, n See horehound hoariness, n [1 hōrines, 2 hōrines] hoary & -ness State of being hoary, whiteness (of the hair), antiquity, age hoarse, adj [1 hōrs, 2 hōs] OE hās, ME hās, hōrs, w r- through association w harsh, ep OHG hars, Mod. Germ heiser, ON hæs, Gmc type hais az* or hais az*, a (of the voice) Rough, husky, harsh, lacking clearness and ring as when affected by a cold &c in the throat, b (of person or animal) having a hoarse or husky voice. the hoarse raven, Phr as hoarse as a crow; c (of inanimate things) discordant, harsh, grating hoarse breakers, thunder hoarsely, adv Prec & -ly In a hoarse manner hoarseness, n OE hærness, ME hoo(r)s-ness See prec & -ness Quality, condition, of being hoarse hoar-stone, n hoar, in sense of 'aged', & stone Prehistoric monolith, sometimes used to mark boundary hoary, adj [1 hōri, 2 hōri] ME hōr, hoar & -y 1 White or grey, specif a white haired or grey haired with age a hoary head, Phr a hoary sinner an old reprobate, b (bot) covered with white downy hairs, canescent hoary plantain 2 (fig) Ancient, venerable hoary antiquity, old hoary-headed, adj Having a head hoary or white with age 'some hoary headed swain' (Gray's 'Elegy') hoatzin, hoactzin, n [1 hōtāzin, 2 hōtāzin] fr native name A bird of tropical S America, of unique skeletal structure and forming a group, Opisthocomus, its plumage is olive with yellow-tipped feathers and yellow crest, the young have claws on the wings, with which they climb hoax, vb trans & n [1 hōks, 2 hōuks] Earlier hocus See hocus-pocus 1 vb To deceive, dupe, take in, by misrepresentation, to play off a practical joke upon 2 n a A deception, misleading statement, esp one calculated to induce action based upon a misconception of facts, b a practical joke hoaxer, n [1 hōksr, 2 hōuksr] See prec & -er Person who hoaxes hob, n [1 hob, 2 hob] Formerly, 'a projection, boss, knob', prob a variant of hub 1 Horizontal ledge or shelf on either side of a fire grate and level with its top, forming stand for a kettle, saucepan &c 2 a Peg set as mark in quoits, or other game, b game in which coin laid on peg is target 3 Shoe on the runner of a sledgo hob and nob See hobnob hobble (I), vb intrans & trans [1 hōbl, 2 hōbl] ME hobelen, ep Du hobbelen, 'to rook from side to side, ride bobbly horse stammer', province Germ hoppeln, 'to hobble', freq (see -le) of a weakened form of hop, as Du hobben, 'to toss up and down', ep O Fr hober, 'to move, beat oneself', & ep hopples 1 intrans a To walk lamely or in an awkward, clumsy manner, as if the feet were painful or partially useless, to walk with a kind of stumbling limp, also hobble along, b (fig, of verse) to halt, run lamely 2 trans To impede movement of (horses &c) by connecting two legs by rope, to hobble hobble (II), n, fr pres 1 Limping, stumbling, gait 2 A Rope used to hobble animal, b (fig., colloq., rare) difficulty, dilemma, straits 'I'm in rather a hobble. Hobble skirt, woman's skirt made very narrow round the knees hobbledehoy, hobbledehoy, hobbledehoy, n [1 hōbledohi, 2 hōbledohi] Early Mod Engl hobledchoye, hoberdchoie &c, of unknown origin, possibly connected w hobble An awkward, clumsy, gawky, overgrown, rather ill-mannered boy or youth, youth between boyhood and manhood hobbledehoyish, adj [1 hōbledohi-ish, 2 hōbledohi-ish] Frce & -ish Having appearance, manners &c of a hobbledehoy hobbler (I), n, [1 hōbler, 2 hībīl] hobbler (I) & -or Person or animal that hobbles hobbler (II), n M E, O Fr hobeler, op Fr hobereau, 'squire', apparently connected w O Fr hobin, hōbi, 'a nag', op hobby (I) (hist.) Roturier bound to maintain a hobby or horse for war, light armed soldier mounted on a small horse or hobby hobblingly, adv. [1 hōblingh, 2 hōblingh], fr Pres Part of hobble (I) & -ly In a hobbling manner.

hobby (I), n [1 hōbi, 2 hībīl] M E hobin, 'nag', hōbin, name for horse (op Dobbin), perh fr. O Fr hobin, hōbi, 'nag, small horse', Hobin being an Engl (& perh Fr.) variant of Fr Robert, familiar form of Robert 1 (obs) Middle sized, active horse for riding, a nag 2 Hobby-horse, 1, hence 3. (fig) a (obs) idea on which one dwells or occupies to excess; craze, fad to ride a hobby (to death), b favourite occupation of one's leisure, subject that one studies as an amateur his hobby is collecting old china hobby (II), n M E hōbi, hōbi, fr. O Fr hōbi, hōbi, op the dimin form hōbi, hōbi, perh fr. O Fr hōbi, 'to move, bestir oneself', fr a L G source, op M Du hōben, 'to toss, move up and down' See hobbie Small European species of falcon, formerly used for hawking hobby-horse, n See hobby (I) 1 Figure representing a saddle horse, specif a in the Morris dance, figure of horse attached to dancer, so that he appears to be riding it, also the dancer himself, b stork with head of horse, which child bestrides in imitation of rider, c wooden horse for riding, as a rocking-horse, or horse in roundabout 2 (very rare) Favourite occupation, hobby hobgoblin, n [1 hōbgōblin, 2 hōbgōblin] Early Mod Engl hob, kind of fairy, fr hob, familiar form of Robert See hobby (I), & op smol names for similar supernatural beings as Robin Goodfellow, fr Robin For second element see goblin. n A sprite, a hideous bogey, conceived of as a mischievous creature of the male sex, b an ugly, mischievous child, or small ugly person.

hobnail, n & v trans [1 hōbnail, 2 hōbnail] hob, 'peg', & nail (I) 1 n Nail with large projecting head, used to stud soles of boots, also attrib, hobnail tire, (met) form of curriose of the tyre, in which the shrunken surface is studded with nodules. 2 v To stud with hobnails hobnailed, adj [1 hōbnaild, 2 hōbnaild] Pres & -ed n Set with hobnails, b (rare) wearing hobnailed boots, rustic, clownish hobnob, v intrans [1 hōbnob, 2 hōbnob] Early Mod Engl, also hob nab, 'whatever may happen', fr O E habban, 'to have', & nabban for ne habban, 'not to have', also hob and nob 1 v To associate familiarly with, be on intimate terms, behave as close friends to hobnob with strangers 2 n (rare and vulg) A friendly talk hobo, n [1 hōbo, 2 hōbōu] Etymol unknown (Am slang) tramp vagrant

Hobson's choice, n [1 hōbsn-ohio, 2 hōbs-sōl-nōis] Thus Hobson (d 1633), carrier and keeper of hired stables at Cambridge, who let out his horses by strict rotation, the University Carrier of Milton's verses

Sham choices, offer with no alternative; 'take it or leave it'

hock (I), n & v trans [1. hok, 2 hok] Southern form of hough (I), or back-formation fr obs hox, n & v, O E hōksinn, M E hou, seniu, hoi, fr hough (I) & snow Cp O Frs hōvinc, hōvinc, M.H.G hahse, Mod Gern. heche, O N hāsm 1 n. a Joint in middle of the hind leg of a horse, ass, or &c, corresponding anatomically to human ankle and heel, hough, b butcher's term for flesh on fore or hind leg immediately above foot, esp of swine 2 v. To hough, hamstring.

Hock (II), n. Abbr. fr. hockamore, ad fr Gern. Hochheimer, 'wines of Hockheim', village near Mainz, Germany (usually cap) Any white Rhemish wine still, sparkling, Hock hockey, n, [1 hōki, 2 hōki] Of doubtful origin, perh fr. obs or dial Fr hogel, 'bent club, shepherd's crook', dimin fr a L G source, cogn w hook (I) a Game played with a ball, and sticks with curved ends, in a hold or on ice, between two teams, each of which tries to drive ball through opponent's goal, b (attrib) as in hockey ball, club (society), stick

Hock-fido, n Second element fido, 'sersion'; etymol of hock unknown, not in O E, no connexion w Gern hock, 'high'. An old festival and holiday held on the second Monday and Tuesday after Easter, it was celebrated with feasting and much rough horseplay hocus, n & v trans [1 hōkus, 2 hōkus] Abbr fr word 1 n Drugged drink 2 v a To hox, dupe, swindle, b to put drug in another's drink; to give drugs to a person, horse &c in drink.

hocus-pocus, n [1 hōkus-pōkus, 2 hōkus-pōkus] Mercurial magic formula, bogus 17th cent Lat Cp hoax (I) Mercurious talk &c, intended to deceive or divert attention from the facts, mystification, clap trap, jugglery, swindling hock, n [1 hōd, 2 hōd] Early Mod Engl hodd, oke, hol, M Du hōdde, 'basket', Gern hōtte, 'wooden vessel, basket for the back', whence Fr hōtte, perh fr Gmc. source & a form of base hēd-*, 'to hide, cover' See hido (III), but. Wooden receptacle, open above and at sides, with long handle underneath, for carrying over the shoulder; used by bricklayers to convey bricks, mortar &c hoddan, n & adj [1 hōd[ə]n, 2 hōd[ə]n] Scots; etymol unknown a n Coarse undyed woolen fabric, b adj, clad in hoddan, rustic, hoddan grey (also hōdengry), hoddou cloth of mixed black and white wool

Hodge, n [1 hōj, 2 hōj] Used as name of servant in comedy 'Gammer Gurton's Needle' (1676), familiar form of the name River Cp hobby (I) (colloq) The agricultural labourer Gladstone gave the role to Hodge hodge-podge See hotchpotch hodiernal, adj. [1 hōdiernal, 2 hōdi[ə]n[ə]l] Lat. hodiern us, fr hōdi, 'today', for hoc die, 'on this day' (see die non), & -ern-us, adjectival suff, & -al Pertaining to of, to day, of the present day hodomoter, n [1 hōdōmōter, 2 hōdōmōter] Gk hōdō for 'road', & metrō, 'path', fr hōdō base hēd-*, q v under hēd, & for sense 'go' under codō, & -mōter Instrument attached to wheel of vehicle to measure the distance traversed hoe (I), n [1 hō, 2 hōu] Norm Fr hoe, Fr houe, fr O H G houar (Mod Gern haue), connected w how Implement of various makes and shapes, consisting mainly of small blades attached transversely at various angles to long handle, used for uprooting weeds, breaking up hard surface of ground &c hoe (II), v trans & intrans, fr pres, cp Fr houer a trans To treat (soil, crop) with hoe, to uproot (weeds) with hoe; to hoe a row of onions &c, break up and loosen earth round the plants, Phr a long row to hoe, a tedious task, b intrans, to work with hoe hog (I), n [1 hog, 2 hog] O E hog, hog (1), M E hog, hog, prob orig meaning 'out or castrated animal', op O N hogga, cogn w how 1 a Castrated boar b adult domestic swine or pig generally rarely, wild swine. Phrs to eat, behave, like a hog, eat greedily, behave rudely, hog in arrows, (colloq.) an awkward, ungainly person, person ill at ease in fine dress &c, to go the whole hog, (colloq.) to carry action or opinion to logical conclusion, go all lengths, to bring one's hog to the wrong market, (colloq.) make proposals &c in unsuitable quarters 2 (fig) Greedy, selfish, coarse or filthy person 3 Young sheep before its first shearing 4 Kind of brush for scraping ship's bottom under water hog (II), v trans & intrans, fr pres. A trans 1 To arch (back) like hint of hog 2 To scold (food &c) greedily 3 To elp (horse's mane, or man's moustache) short and close, 4 To scrape (ship's bottom) with hog 5 (rare) To keep (hamb) till it is a hog B, intrans 1 (of horse &c) To arch the back and lower the head. 2 To be humped in middle, as stranded ship with broken back hogback, n [1. hōgbak, 2 hōgbak] Ridge sloping abruptly on each side.

hogbacked, adj. [1 hōgbak, 2 hōgbak] Pres & -ed. Having a hogback, shaped like a hog's back hogfish, n [1. hōgfīsh, 2 hōgfīsh] One of several fishes with back, body, or head some what like that of a hog; esp a W Indian fish related to wrasse hog-frame, n Trussed frame extending along ship's deck to prevent hogging hogged, adj [1. hōgd, 2 hōgd] hog (II) & -ed 1 a Having a narrow ridge like a hogback, b sloping towards front and back 2 (of horse's mane &c) Clipped short hogger, n [1. hōgeri, 2 hōgeri] hog (I) & -ery 1 Place where hogs are reared, herd of hogs 2 Hoggy behaviour hoggin, n. [1 hōgin, 2 hōgin] Etymol m known. Mixture of screened gravel and mud hoggyish, adj. [1. hōgīsh, 2 hōgīsh] hog (I) & -ish Resembling a hog, as much, bestial, greedy, selfish hoggyshly, adv. Pres & -ly. In a hoggysh manner hoggyshness, n See pres & -ness Hoggysh behaviour, quality of being hoggysh Hogmanay, n [1. hōgmāni, 2 hōgmāni] Scots, fr O Fr, hōgmāni, hōgmāni, hōgmāni, refrain of song on New Year's Eve, a corrupt. of Lat. hōc in anno, 'in this year' (see hōc influenced by Fr anue, 'year' (in Scotland) New Year's Eve, the festivities then observed hogmano, n [1. hōgmān, 2 hōgmān] hog (I) & mano Hogged wine of horse hogmained, adj [1 hōgmāind, 2 hōgmāind] Having a hogmano hog's back, n See hogback hogsherd n [1. hōgsherd, 2 hōgsherd] M E hogsheerd, hogshere, hogshere, apparently 'hog's head', though the reason for this designation is unknown a Large cask, b liquid measure equal to 62½ imperial gallons, or 64 in the case of beer or cider hogsty, n, [1 hōgstī, 2 hōgstī] Pigsty hogwash, n [1 hōgwōsh, 2 hōgwōsh] Kitchen refuse &c mixed with water and given to hogs, b (fig vulg) silly, rapid, or low talk, poor, contemptible, writing hoicks, hoick interj [1. hōiks, 2 hōik-]. Cp yoicks. Call to hounds hoiden n See hoyden hoi polloi, n pl [1. hōi pōloi, 2 hōi pōloi] Gk. 'the many', see poly- The common people, the majority, the rabble hoise, v trans [1. hōiz, 2. hōiz] Obs form of hoist (I). Only in P.P., hoist with his own petar (petard), (Shakespeare, 'Hamlet', III iv 207), blown up with his own bomb caught in his own trap hoist (I), vb trans [1 hoist; 2 hoist] Late ME hysen, hysen, howsen, prob fr M Du hysen (Mod. Du hyschen), LG hysen, hysen, Germ hysen, of doubtful origin, the form hoist for howsen is prob due to the PP a To raise, pull up with effort (sail, flag, load), by cord, pulley &c, to raise weights with a crane, b to heave, lift, fling up hoist (II), n, fr prec a Action of hoisting, b appliance for raising heavy goods from lower to higher level, kind of lift, esp on board ship ammunition hoist hoistway, n [1 hoistway, 2 hoistway] Opening in floor or floors for hoist or lift hoity-toity, interj, adj, & n [1 hoity toity, 2 hoity toity] Exclamatory jingle Cp hoots, tut (archaic or facet) a interj Exclamation expressing irritable, contemptuous, derisive, or surprised protest, b adj, given to exclaiming 'hoity toity', hence, irritable, fussy, easily offended, touchy, petulant a hoity toity kind of person, he was very hoity toity, c n, this exclamation hokey-pokey, n [1 hōki pōki, 2 hōki pōki] Perh fr hocus-pocus (gutter colloq) Cheap ice cream sold in streets hold (I), vb trans & intrans [1 hōld, 2 hōuld] OE (Anglian) haldan, ME halden, Common Gmc, Goth haldan, 'to tend, feed, sheep', OS, 'hold', O Frs, ON halda, OHG hallan, prob not cogn w Lat colere, 'till, tend, take care of' &c (see colony, cult &c), but perh fr same base as Lat celer, 'swift, rapid' &c (see celerity), also Gk. hēlē, 'race horse', & hēlēma, 'to drive, urge on, push ashore', & hōu-hōlos, 'cow-herd', further Lath kelhā, 'I lift' The specialized sense of the word in Goth & the various other meanings seen in the other words might be reduced to a common basal meaning such as 'to run after, follow, and drive, a flock or herd', hence 'to tend, guard a flock, to guard, keep, hold', in more general sense A trans 1 a Specif, to grasp with, and retain in, the hand to hold a pen, brush, to hold a gun, spade &c, b to grip, keep, retain, by any bodily means to hold a pipe between the teeth, c to clasp, embrace to hold a child in one's arms Phr to hold (a person or thing) in the hollow of one's hand, to have complete power and control over 2 To maintain, support, in a given place or position, a the body, or a part of it, by muscular action to hold one's hands before one's face, the head straight, on one side, to hold oneself upright, b (of external objects) to hold a shield in front of one, c (of function of inanimate things) to keep in place, yield support to bear weight of, resist strain of this beam holds the whole weight of the next story, this wall won't hold a book bearing a heavy picture, 3 To keep oneself, or something else, in a certain state, or condition, of preparedness for action or use to hold oneself ready to start at a moment's notice 4 a To have and keep, enjoy possession of, have in keeping or possession, to own to hold land, to hold shares in a company, to hold a brief for, (law) be entrusted with defence of, (fig) be favourably disposed to, be prepared to support and justify, b specif (mil) to occupy and fortify, protect, maintain against assault, retain in spite of attack to hold a fortress position trench &c, Phrs to hold one's own one's ground, (fig) (i) preserve one's position, maintain one's point, in argument &c not to retreat (ii) maintain strength in illness &c lightly won lightly lost readily obtained, soon lost 5 To contain, enclose a (material things) this box holds all my securities, this house holds everything I love on earth, b (non material things) we can not tell what's in store for the future we hold (in our hearts) 6 a To be able to contain, have capacity for containing so much or so many things my hold is a quart, the room won't hold more than a hundred persons, Phr to eat as much as one can hold, to one's utmost limit, b to be able to retain a certain kind of substance a leather receptacle will hold water but not petrol, Phr (fig, of statement, argument &c) to hold water, be perfectly consistent, logically unassailable 7 a (of mental action) To have, keep, retain, in the consciousness I can't hold all these details in my head, memory, at once, b to have an opinion or belief concerning, to consider, regard to hold a man to be a fool, a thing to be impossible, Phr to hold in great esteem, contempt, to esteem highly, have contempt for, c to cherish, entertain (ideas, notions &c) to hold strange views, d specif (law) to lay down as a principle, enunciate as legally binding, decide judicially, or authoritatively the evidence was held by the court to be inadmissible 8 To restrain, control, dominate, check, a (by physical effort) to hold a restive horse, to hold a man prisoner, Phr (fig) to hold a man to his promise, compel him to fulfil it, Phrs to hold one's breath, not to breathe, to hold one's hand, to cease, or delay action, neither to hold nor to bind, uncontrollable, to hold one's peace (archaic), to hold one's tongue, to be silent, (colloq and vulg) hold your nose, row, jaw, stop making a noise, stop talking b (by moral influence) he held the mob by the power of his eye and the dignity of his gesture, c to attract and keep by intellectual appeal to hold the attention of one's audience, to hold an audience spellbound 9 To bring about, institute, take part in, conduct, carry out, esp a public or official function to hold a meeting, discussion, religious service &c B intrans 1 To stand, be equal to, a strain, not to give way I doubt if the rope will hold much longer 2 (of non material things) To be valid, be in force, apply the principle, bargain, promise, still holds, also to hold good 3 To continue in existence, last if the frost holds we shall have skating tomorrow, I fear this beautiful weather won't hold much longer 4 Phr hold, enough!, (archaic) that will do, no more of that! hold hard!, stop a moment, don't be in a hurry &c C Followed by adverb or preposition Hold back, a trans, to restrain, deter, b intrans, to refrain, hesitate, delay Hold by, intrans, (i) to adhere to to hold by one's decision; (ii) follow advice of, be guided, abide, by to hold by one's teachers &c, by what so-and-so says &c Hold forth, a trans, to offer as inducement or encouragement to hold forth a hope, b intrans, to declaim, make harangue, speak publicly (often contempt) Hold in, a trans, to restrain, check, confine, b intrans, to restrain oneself Hold off, a trans, keep back, prevent from attacking &c to hold a dog off, b intrans, to keep aloof, hold back, delay Hold on, intrans, a persist, continue in to hold on one's course, b to maintain grip can you hold on?, c to cling to hold on by one's hands, d (fig) to persist, endure, hold out things will come right if you can only hold on a bit Hold out, 1 trans, a to stretch forth, b to offer, promise to hold out a prospect of promotion, 2 intrans, to maintain one's position against difficulties or assaults, to endure to the end the garrison could hold out no longer on account of starvation Hold over, 1 trans, a to postpone, keep in reserve or abeyance to hold over a decision for a week, b (fig) to threaten with to hold a threat of disclosure over one's head, 2 intrans, (law) to keep possession beyond expiry of term Hold to, intrans, to abide by, adhere to I still hold to my former views Hold together, a trans, to cause to cohere, keep united, b intrans, to cohere, remain united Hold up, 1 trans, a to exhibit, display to hold up as a model, to ridicule, b to sustain support, uphold, c (colloq, orig Am) to stop (train, vehicle, passenger) by violence or threats, for the purpose of robbery, hence, d (colloq) to stop, delay (traffic &c) the car was held up by fog, 2 intrans, a to avoid falling, as horse, when slipping or stumbling, b to keep up, maintain, speed, c (of weather) to keep fine Hold with, intrans, a to agree with, hold the same views as, b to approve of I don't hold with Sunday dancing hold (II), n OE (ge) heald, -held, 'holding, protection, rule', ME hold See prec 1 a Action, manner, power, of holding, grasp, grip, clutch to take, lose, hold of, keep a firm hold on, a thing, Phrs to get hold of, obtain possession of, also specif, to get hold of a person, exercise undue influence over him, to lay hold of, to grasp, b (fig) power, control, authority the government maintained, relaxed, its hold over the province, c (fig) mental grasp, apprehension to lose one's hold of, or on, realities 2 Means of holding, something to hold on by these rocks afford no hold for hand or foot 3 (archaic) Thing that holds, confines, specif a place of custody, prison to put a man in hold, b place of protection or refuge, fastness, stronghold 4 (law) Tenure (only in compounds, as copyhold, freehold &c, q v) 5 (mus) Pause, (in notation) mark (") indicating that note or rest is prolonged hold (III), n Du hol, 'hole, cavity, ship's hold' See hole (I), confused w prec a Space within ship below lower deck, in which cargo is placed, b specified part of this when divided hold-all, n hold (I) & all Large unwieldy bag or case for carrying traveller's effects hold-back, n 1 Hindrance, check 2 Stop on shaft of vehicle which prevents this from touching horse when he stops or backs holden, vb [1 hōlden, 2 hōuldēn] Old PP of hold (I) Archaic, except in official Phr a meeting &c will be holden &c, held holder, n [1 hōlder, 2 hōuldē] ME haldere hold (I) & -er 1 Thing in or by which something is held, esp in composition, as cigarette holder, pen holder 2 Person who holds, specif a tenant, occupier, esp in composition as small holder &c, b person in (legal) possession of hill, promissory note &c a holder for value holdfast, n [1 hōldfast, 2 hōldfast] Thing that holds fast, specif a clamp, staple, or nail securing object to wall, b (bot) disk like organ attaching seaweed or clinging plant to rock &c holding, n [1 hōlding, 2 hōlding] ME holdinge hold (I) & -ing 1 Action of person who holds, specif a (Scots) legal tenure, b (football, boxing &c) irregular seizing of opponent 2 Thing held; specif a land held, tenement small holdings, b property owned, as bonds or shares hold-up, n (colloq, chiefly Am) a Detention, by violence or threats, of train, vehicle or passenger for purpose of robbery, b stoppage, delay, in traffic &c hole (I), n [1 hōl, 2 hōul] OE hol, orig neut of adj holl (see hollow) ME hole, op OHG hol, MHG hohl, adj, 'hollow', ON holr adj, hol n, cp Goth. hul undr, 'cave', Gmc type hul*, wk grade of hel*, 'to hide, cover', cp OE helan, fr Aryan base kel*, kēl* &c, q v under conceal, cell, colour, hall, hell. 1 Cavity, depression, in solid body various specia uses a cavity in the ground: pit to dig a hole, Phr to be, put, in a hole, in a position from which escape is difficult, a fix, dilemma, b specif, cavity hollowed out by an animal, his burrow the hole of a badger, Phrs like a rat in a hole, driven to last refuge from which there is no escape, every hole and corner, every obscure, secret place, cp hole-and-corner, c hollow, empty space, depression in any solid body a hole in an apple, Phrs make a hole in, (colloq) reduce in size &c, consume, use, a large amount of, hole in one's head &c, wound, d small hollow in golf green into which players putt their balls to win the first three holes, e (fig, contempt) poky, stuffy, squalid, little house, nasty little place a beastly hole to live in 2 Break, gap,

HOLY GHOST
Gk holo-, stem of holos, 'whole', or solus* os, cogn w Sert salva I or haurua-, Lat solus for solus* os, nure', op Lat salvus, 'whole, safe', one'. See safe (I) Form in common. Greek origin, denoting whole, entire, adv, (geol.)

HOLE (II)

aperture in a flat surface, a hole in a wall, roof, window (pane) &c., b tear, rent, in fabric a hole in a sheet, heel of a stocking, in &c. Phr to put holes in (a man's) character, in a plan, argument, performance &c., to find fault with, criticize adversely 3 Jan outlet, vent, a natural orifice of animal body, such as eye, month, ear, b outlet or slot in vessel pipe &c. a hole, bung, vent-hole in a cask Phr square peg in a round hole, person whose occupation or surroundings are unsuited to his capacities, and incongruous to his character hole (II), v trans & intrans See prece hole (II), v trans 1 To make hole or holes in, or through 2 To make hole in, spoil (to) b to undercut (coal), c to make hole through, pierce, excavate to hole a rabbit, to drive, put into a hole to hole the red, hole (out) one's ball, in golf, to hole the red, put red ball into pocket, in billiards B intrans Phr to hole out in four &c, to get the ball into the hole in four strokes hole-and-corner, adj (colloq) Secret, underhand, furtive hole-and-corner methods, procedure hole, adj [1 hól, 2 hól] OE hólýdag, (rare) Having a hole or holes holiday, n [1 hólí, 2 hólí] OE hólýdag, ME hólíday, hólíday &c., w vowel of first element shortened See holy & day

1 a (scoler) Feast day, day of rejoicing, festival, in commemoration of a saint, or sacred personage, or of some great event in the Church calendar, b a cessation from work combined with festivity to make a holiday or partially suspended, day of recreation and amusement to have a holiday every Saturday, on one's birthday &c

Bank holiday, statutory holiday throughout England, on which banks are closed, and public offices as far as possible suspend work

3 A Period of time during which recreation is taken, and rest from the ordinary, regular duties and tasks is enjoyed to take a month's holiday, b specific (pl) the holidays, period during which certain large sections of the community enjoy rest from their regular work the Easter, summer, holidays, esp regularly recurring periods when schools close, and teachers and taught count down, and learning and go home, contrasted with the term 4 (attrib) holiday holiday mood, with, a holiday behaviour &c., holiday task, spirit, a holiday prescribed by the holiday piece of work prescribed by a school, to be carried out by pupils during the holiday holiday-maker, n a Person out on a holiday, festive person, b (contemptuous) noisy, vulgar tripper holily, adv [1 hólí, 2 hólí] ME hólílike holy &-ly In a holy manner holiness, n [1 hólíness, 2 hólíness] OE hólínesse ME hólínesse holy &-ness Quality of being holy, sanctity, sacred character, His Holiness, title of the Pope, or of a bishop of the Eastern Church. See holiness of the East Roman Emperor holism, n [1 hólizm, 2 hólizim] See holism &-ism Theory which regards nature as a unity, made up of 'wholes' which are more than a mere aggregation of disparate elements holla, interj [1 hól, 2 hól] Fr hól, 'ho there', fr ho & Fr ld, fr Lat hólle, 'in that place', there', ahl fem ang (agreeing with partic, 'part') of hólle, 'that', & demonstrative particle ce, new undistinctish-able fr hóllo, hóllo &c (obs) Call to attract attention, answer call, or make person stop

Holland, n & adj [1 hólánd, 2 hólánd] Holland, district in Netherlands, also the Netherlands, fr Du hól, 'wood'. See hól & land a n A coarse linen or linen and cotton textile, unbleached and usually undyed [illegible]

Holy Land, n. Palestine

Holy Offices, n. The Inquisition.

holy orders, n. See order (1) holystone, n & vb trans [1 hólístón, 2 hóulístón] Etymol. doubtful, prob fr holy (because used for Sunday cleaning) & stone (1) 1 n Kind of soft stone used for scrubbing decks of ships 2 vb To scrub with holystone holy water, n A Water blessed by priest, and used to sprinkle persons and things, b (attrib) holy water stoup, holy water sprinkler

Holy Week, n The week before Easter Sunday homage, n [1 hómú, 2 hómídz] ME homage, fr O Fr homage, (h)omage, fr L Lat hom(in)itium, fr Lat homo (stem homin-), 'man' (see humus, human), in Low Lat also 'vassal', cogn w Goth & OE guma, 'man' (see (bride)groom), & -age 1 (hist.) Ceremonial act by which a man became the vassal of the king, or other superior lord, or acknowledged his obligations and claimed his rights as such, declaration of allegiance to do, pay, homage 2 (fig) Expression of reverence, respect, or devotion offered to person of recognized superiority and merit of any kind, deference to merits of person a regnant beauty expects homage, to pay homage to the genius of a poet home (I), n [1 hóm, 2 hóum] OE hām, 'home, house, dwelling', ME hām, OS hēm, OHG heim, 'residence, homestead', Goth haim, 'village', ON heimr Proh cogn w Gk hómē, 'village' (fr h₂óm*), related to Gk leimnā, 'he down, rest', ep further Lith lėimas, 'village' From same Aryan base, though w other formative elements, come Lat civis, 'citizen' & civis civil & also hūde (IV), 'measure of land' 1 a House where one is born and bred, house of one's parents and family the home of one's fathers, ancestral home, one's own home, the old home & c, b residence, house, place, in which one lives to make one's home in the country, abroad & c, every man returned to his own home, c house which one regards as one's home, where one is received as a member of the family my friend's house was my second home Phras at home, in one's house, (I am) not at home today, not receiving visitors, to be, feel, make oneself, at home, at one's ease, as though in one's own house, (fig) at home in (a position & c), accustomed to, familiar with, one's long home, the grave, future life 2 a House hold, family, occupants of a home the War brought sorrow to many homes, b domestic life the joys of home. 3 a Native country, as distinct from foreign parts to leave India for home, b place from which one sets out on an expedition, and to which one will return having reached the goal of our journey, we had better turn and set out for home. 4 Place of rest, asylum, a institution where medical care is given nursing home, b charitable or other institution for the indigent, sick, unfortunate & c a home for orphans, idiots, inebriate gentlewomen, lost dogs & c 5 a Habitat, habitual haunt of an animal or plant the Indian jungle is the home of the tiger and the elephant, b place where an idea, institution & c rises, is cherished and fostered England is the home of constitutional government, Oxford has been called the home of lost causes 6 Base, goal, in certain children's games, where a player is safe, and cannot be caught home (II), adj, fr prec 1 Connected with the house, family, home & c home interests, his, home joys & c 2 Connected with one's own country, a connected with internal affairs and government Home Office & c, b specif, pertaining to native country as distinct from foreign country home rails (Stock Exchange) home (III), adv, fr home (I), hām, indecl, as adv in OE 1 Towards home to go home, also (colloq) to die. Phr curse comes home to rect react on their author

2 (of material objects) So as to fit in place made for it, as far as it will go to shoot a bolt home drive a nail home & c Phrs to drive an argument home, the shaft went home (fig) 3 So as to touch the feelings acutely, appeal to reason this comes home to me, to bring home to, to convince Phr to bring a crime & c home to a person, prove he did it home affairs, n, pl Internal affairs of nation, esp those of England and Wales as sphere of one of the Government State Departments, the Home Office home-born, adj Born at home, native home-bred, adj a Bred at home, not foreign home bred mutton, b homely, unpolished home-brewed, adj & n [1 hóm brúdz, 2 hóm brúdz] a adj Brewed at home, b n, also brewed at home home-coming, n Coming, return, to one's home home counties, n The counties lying round London home farm, n Farm attached to the residence of the occupier of an estate home-keeping, adj Accustomed to stay at home homeless, adj [1 hómles, 2 hóumles] OE hómleas home & -less Having no home homelike, adj [1 hómlik, 2 hóumlik] home & -like Lake (a) home homely, adv [1 hómlik, 2 hóumlik] homely & -ly (rare) In a homely manner homeliness, n [1 hómlihes, 2 hóumlihes] Next word & -ness Quality or state of being homely homely, adj [1 hómli, 2 hóumli] home & -ly 1 Resembling, reminding one of, home, homelike, evoking memories of home the place had a homely air 2 a Simple, unpretentious homely fare, quite a homely sort of person, or body, b of everyday usage, familiar, not far fetched, elaborate, or aiming at a high degree of elegance if I may use a homely phrase, expression & c 3 (of persons, only Am) Plain, ugly home-made, adj Made at home home made bread

Home Office, n. One of the principal State Departments, dealing with the home affairs of England and Wales, such as the police & c, under the Home Secretary homeopath & c Variants of homoeopath & homier (I), n [1 hómér, 2 hóumér] Heb homer, 'measure', also 'heap, mound', fr hāmar, 'to swell up' (Bib) Ancient Hebrew measure of capacity, equal to 10 ephahs, or about 11 bushels homer (II), n See homing & -er Homing pigeon

Homeric, adj [1 hómérík, 2 hóumérík] Lat Homéricus, fr Gk Homērikos, fr Hómēros, 'Homer', lit 'hostage', traditional author of the Gk. epics, the 'Iliad' & 'Odyssey' a Pertaining to Homer, resembling some thing described by him, Phrs a Homeric battle, conflict, one characterized by feats of individual heroism, Homeric laughter, loud, irrepressible laughter, b pertaining to the poems of Homer, their style, language & c

Home Rule, n Home (I) & rule Self-government, autonomy, for nation or province, originally, specif, for Ireland

Home Secretary, n British Secretary of State for Home Affairs, ministerial head of the Home Office homesick, adj [1 hómísk, 2 hóumísk] Ardently desiring to go home, pining, longing, for one's home homesickness, n Prec & -ness Condition of one who is homesick, nostalgia homespun, adj & n [1 hómzpun, 2 hóumzpun] home & spun, PP of spin

1 adj a Spun at home, woven of thread spun at home, b (fig) coarse, plain, homely a homespun proverb 2 n Cloth woven of homespun thread, home made cloth hempen homespun, plain home product homestead, n [1 hómstéd, 2 hóumstéd, stéd] OE hāmstede 'residence', ep ON heim.

stét home & stand 1 Home, dwelling-house, with the enclosed land surrounding it, farm 2 (Am and colonial) Area of farm land granted to settler, on conditions regarding residence, cultivation & c, (also attrib) homestead lease & c homethrust, n [1 hómthrust, 2 hóumprast] a Thrust with a weapon that is driven home, b (fig) remark aimed at a person and felt by him to be painfully true homeward, adv & adj [1 hómward, 2 hóumward] OE hāmweard, ME hāmward home & -ward 1 adv Towards home homeward bound 2 adj Tending towards home the homeward way homewards, adv [1 hómwardz, 2 hóumwædz] home & -wards Homeward homicidal, adj [1 hómídzl, 2 hómísdzl] Lat homicidā (us) homicide (I) & -al. a Pertaining to, of the nature of, homicide, murderous, b having a tendency to homicide a homicidal lunatic homicidally, adv Prec & -ly In a homicidal manner homicide (I), n [1 hómísd, 2 hómísd] Fr, fr Lat homicida, fr homi for homin-, stem of homo, 'man' (see homage & words there referred to), & -cida See -cide Person who kills another, manslayer homicide (II), n Fr, fr Lat homicidium, fr homi, see prec, & cidium See -cide Action of person who kills another, intentionally or accidentally, whether with, or without justification felonious, justifiable, excusable, homicide homiletic, adj & n [1 hómiletík, 2 hómiletík] Gk homilētikos, fr homilēscen, 'to converse with', fr homilōs, 'assembly' See homily 1 adj Pertaining to sermons or to homiletics, hortatory 2 n pl Homiletics, art of preaching homiletical, adj [1 hómiletíkl, 2 hómiletíkl] Prec & -al Homiletic homilist, n [1 hómílist, 2 hómílist] homily & -ist. Preacher or composer of homilies homily, n [1 hómih, 2 hómih] ME omelye, fr O Fr omelle, fr homelle, fr L Lat homilia, 'homily', fr Gk homilia, 'converse, homily', fr hómilos, 'assembly, concourse', fr hom, homo-, & ilē, eilē, 'crowd', fr eilēm, 'to press, crowd together', fr uel*, cogn w Lith velu, O Slav velu, 'to throng' a Sermon, esp of a practical or expository nature, b tedious moral exhortation, Phr to read one's homily, to address such an exhortation to one homing, adj [1 hómíng, 2 hóumíng] As though fr Pres Part of vb to home, wh is not used a Bound for home, on the way home, esp homing pigeon, b longing for home hominy, n [1 hómín, 2 hómín] N Am Ind euhuminea, 'paroled, maize' Meal made from Indian corn or maize homo-, pref, fr Gk hómós for *somos, 'the same', cogn w Sort sama-, O Slav samā, Goth sama See same Form used in compounds, usually of Greek origin, denoting the same, of the same kind, contrasted with hetero homoblastic, adj [1 hómóblástík, 2 hómoblastík] See prec & first element in blastoderm & -io (biol) Developed from cells of the same kind.

homodont, adj [1 hómódont, 2 hómodont] homo- & Gk odont, 'tooth' See dent-, denti- (zool) Having all the teeth of the same type homoeo-, pref Gk homōio, form of homōios, used in compounds, 'like, similar', fr homos, 'same' See homohomoeomorphism, n [1 hómōmorfizm, 2 hómōmorfizm] Prec & first element in morphology & -ism Resemblance of form in unrelated crystals homoeomorphous, adj [1 hómōmórfus, 2 hómōmórfus] See prec & -morphous a (crystal) Exhibiting homoeomorphism, b (pathol) structurally similar to normal tissue shape or use, specif a covering for head of hawk or horse, b covering or felding roof of carriage, bath chair &c, c cover to prevent escape of fumes &c during chemical operations, d projecting plate above grate to improve draught, e cow of chimney, f (nant) erection with door above companion hatch hood (II), vb trans, fr prec To furnish or cover with a hood, (fig) to cover, veil

-hood, suff O E hād, 'person, sex, degree, estate, condition, nature', M E hād, hōd, Common Gmo hād*, cp O H G heit, Goth haidus, O N heid r &c, cogn w Sort lētū, 'sign by which a thing is known, form', connected w lit, 'to perceive' Used in O E, as O H G, Mod Germ heit &c, to form abstract ns in same way as -head & cogn forms The Mod Engl form hood is not satisfactorily explained Thonormal form, unless shortened in M E, wd be -hōde [hōud], or if shortened -had [həd], hūd [hūd] The present pronunciation may be due to the spelling, wh formerly expressed a long vowel of a different kind fr that new usually written as Suffix forming: 1 Abstract nouns denoting quality, condition, estate, a with nouns, chiefly names of persons or living things childhood, manhood; (in this sense a living suffix: puppyhood), b rarely with adjectives falseness, hardness, hishood, sometimes in concrete sense to tell falseness 2 Collective nouns fr other nouns priesthood, brotherhood, neighbourhood hooded, adj [1 hōoded, 2 hūdud] hood (II) & -ed a Wearing, furnished with, a hood, having a hood drawn over the head, b (zool) having crest or other appendage, or markings, resembling hood, on the head: hooded crow, common British crow with grey body and black head and wings; Royston crow, resembling hood, on the head: hooded gull, black-headed gull; hooded merganser, seal &c hoodle, n [1 hōdū, 2 hūdū] hood (I) & Scots id, -y (provin) Hooded crow hoodless, adj [1 hōdles, 2 hūdles] hood (I) & -less Having no hood; having lost, discarded a hood hoodlum, n [1 hōdlum, 2 hūdum] Origin unknown (Am slang) Young rowdy, tough, hoodlum hoodman-blind, n [1 hōodman blind, 2 hūdman blind] Obs hoodman, 'blindfolded man', fr hood (I), man (I), & blind (I) (Obs) Blindman's-buff hoodmould(ing), n [1 hōodmōld(ing), 2 hūd-mōld(ing)] Projecting moulding over an arch, dripstone hoodoo See vooodoo

hoodwink, vb trans [1 hōodwink, 2 hūd-wink] hood (I) & wink 1 a To cover, or cover partially, the eyes of a horse, b (obs) to blindfold (a person) 2 (fig) To deceive, impose upon, mislead by falsehood hoof (I), n, pl hoofs, hooves, [1 hōof, 2 hūf] O E hōf, M E hōof, hūf, O H G huf, Mod Germ huf, O N hōf r, cogn w Sort sapha, Russ kopyto, 'hoof' Further connections are doubtful, the suggested relation of the word w Lat caballus, 'horse' (see cavalier), is not clearly established 1 a Modified form of the toe nail in ruminants, swine, horses, and allied animals, forming horny curved sheath, sometimes divided, covering the lower part of one or more toes, a cloven hoof being in reality the nails of two or more toes (for Phr see cloven), Phr on the hoof, (of cattle) alive, b (facet or contempt) human foot, Phr to pad the hoof, (slang) to walk, under the hoof, down-trodden 2 (fig) Hooded animal hoof (II), vb trans, fr prec Chiefly in vulg Phr to hoof out, (slang) to kick out, eject with contumely, also, to be hoofed, turned out of post, employment &c, (slang and rare) to hoof it, to walk, tramp hoof-bound, adj (of horse &c) Suffering from a contracted hoof, which causes lameness hoofed, adj [1 hōofed, 2 hūf] hoof (I) & -ed Having hoofs, ungulate hoof-pad, n Pad attached to hoof to protect it hoof-pick, n Instrument for extracting stones from horse's hoof hoof-rot, n Inflammatory disease in feet of cattle, sheep &c hook (I), n [1 hook, 2 huk] O E & M E hōk, cogn w Dn hecl, fr Gmo hōl*, another form of wh base is hala*, ep O E hosa, 'hook' Op hake (I) 1 Piece of curved metal with one free end which is often pointed, one of various metal objects made in this form, for catching or hanging, a small piece of metal curved and barbed, with very sharp point for catching fish fish-hook, b piece of curved metal one end of which is fastened to a wall, or attached to a chain &c, leaving the other end free for hanging things on a clothes hook, pot hook, one shaped like letter S for hanging a pot from a chain over a fire, c small metal catch or clasp with bent, blunt end which goes into a metal loop (eye), for fastening clothes together hooks and eyes Phr by hook or by reel, somehow or other, by any means at all; to go off the hook, (i) to become mentally deranged, (ii) to lapse from normal, moral, conduct; (iii) to die, to take, eling, one's hook, (slang) to go away 2 One of several strongly curved cutting instruments, a a reaping hook, sickle, b similarly shaped, but smaller implement for rough cutting and hooking, hedge trimming, road-cutting &c faggot-hook, bagging-hook, c short stout chopping implement with partially straight blade having curved end, and short or long handle, for cutting thickish objects, such as small branches &c 3 (rare) Sharp bend in a river 4 a Side blow with bent arm in boxing, b stroke in hooking a ball at cricket, golf &c hook (II), vb trans & intrans See prec With sense A 4, op M E hōken, 'to run away', perh a different word A trans 1 To make, bend, into form of a hook to hook one's finger 2 a To seize, hold, with a hook, or something shaped like a hook to hook a fish, a branch; Phr to hook one's fish, catch, secure, beguile person for one's own purposes, persuade him to consent to some proposed course; b (slang) to seize furtively, steal, c to fasten, secure, with a hook or hooks to hook a dress, to hook up, on, in, a thing 3 a (boxing) To strike on the side with the bent arm, b (cricket) to play (ball) from off-side round to square-leg, c (golf) to drive (ball) so that it swerves round far to the left 4 Phr to hook it (slang), to go, run, away, decamp B intrans 1 To form a hook or curve, be bent 2 To be attached or fastened by a hook or hooks this dress is made to hook up the back hookah, hooka, n [1 hōka, 2 huk] Arab huggah, 'casket, bowl', fr hugg, 'hollow place' Oriental tobacco pipe with long flexible tube, and water-bottle through which the smoke passes, narghile hooked, adj [1 hookt, 2 huk] hook (II) & -ed a Furnished with a hook or hooks, b having the shape of a hook a hooked nose hookedness, n [1 hōokednes, 2 hūkednes] Prec & -ness (rare) Quality of being hooked hooker, n [1 hooker, 2 huk] Dn hooker, fr hook, hook (I), & -er a Dutch fishing-boat with two masts, b English or Irish fishing smack hook-nosed, adj hook (I) & nosed Having a hooked, aquiline nose hook-pin, n Iron pin with hook at end, used in constructing floors and roofs hookworm, n [1 hōokwōrm, 2 hūkwōrm] Intestinal worm with hooks about mouth, (atrh) hookworm disease ankylostomiasis hooky, adj [1 hōoka, 2 huk] hook (I) & -y (rare) Having a hook or hooks, b having the nature or shape of a hook hookigan, n [1 hōhigan, 2 hūhigan], fr Ir surname Hookigan, used as name of rowdy family in music hall song c 1885 Member of gang of street roughs, rowdy, ruffian hookiganism, n [1 hōhiganizm, 2 hūhiganizm] Prec & -ism Character behaviour of a hookigan; brutal savagery, rowdiness hoop (I), n [1 hōop, 2 hūp] O E, M E hōp, apparently Gmo word, op M Dn hoep, though this might be a loan-word, no other cognates traced. 1 Circular band or ring of metal, wood, or other material, specif a one of series of bands used to bind together the staves of cask, tub &c, b one of the cylindrical forgings shrunk on to cannon, c one of set of rings of whalebone &c formerly used to expand lady's skirt, d large ring of wood or iron bowled along by child as toy, e flattened finger-ring 2 Small iron arch through which croquet ball is driven hoop (II), vb trans M E hōpen, fr prec To bind with a hoop or hoops, (fig) to encircle, clasp hoop (III), vb intrans M E hoopen, fr O Fr hooper (ep Fr hoop), interj, call to animals, prob imitative, but cp Goth hūþan, 'to boast', also whoop, w wh it has been confused To utter a cry or sound like 'hoop', as a swan, or a person with whooping cough hooped, adj [1 hōopt, 2 hūpt] hoop (II) & -er Having hoops a hooped petticoat, gun hooper (I), n [1 hōoper, 2 hūpe] hoop (II) & -er Person who makes or affixes hoops, cooper hooper (II), n hoop (III) & -er Common wild swan, also called hooper-swan or whooper hooping-cough, whooping-cough, n [1 hōop-ing kəw, 2 hūp, hūp kəw] hoop (III) & -ing & cough (I) Infectious disease, esp of the young, marked by paroxysmal cough followed by difficult inspiration, and vomiting, producing sound like 'hoop' hoop-iron, n Iron in thin strips for hooping barrels &c hoopoe, n [1 hōpō, 2 hūp] Imitative, the Mod form, like obs Engl hoopoop, L G huppupp, O Fr pupu, is a nearer approximation to the bird's cry than Early Mod Engl houpe, fr O Fr houpe, fr Lat upupa, op Gk ὑπὸς Insectivorous bird of S Europe and N Africa &c, rare in Britain, with handsome erectile crest and plumage, and long, curved bill, Upupa epops hoot (I), vb intrans & trans [1 hōot, 2 hū] Imitative M E hūten, hūten, hūten, fr a Scand source, op Mid & Mod Swed, Norw huta (op Norm Fr dual houter, 'to whoop'), orig to utter the sound hū, ie 'off, begone' (see hoots) Cp hūe (II) 1 intrans a To utter a prolonged deep, hollow sound, usually expressing contempt, derision, or anger, b to cry as an owl, c to sound as a steam-whistle, siren, foghorn, or motor horn 2 trans To assail or mock with hoots Phr to hoot down, to silence by hoots, to hoot off, out, to drive out &c by hoots hoot (II), n, fr prec Sound made in hooting a hoop, hoote, of rage, joy &c, cry expressing these hooter, n [1 hōoter, 2 hūta] Prec & -er Person, animal, or thing that hoots, specif, siren or steam whistle sounded as signal to workers hoots, interj [1 hōots, 2 hūta] See hoot (I) & cp hūe (II) (Scots & N Engl) Exclamation of impatience or disgust, pshaw!, tut!

hoove, n [1 hōov, 2 hūv] Perh fr O E hōf*, strong grade of hebban, 'to lift up' &c See heave, op perh O E hōfer, 'hump' Distension of stomach of cattle by gas hop (I), vb intrans & trans [1 hōp, 2 hūp] O E hoppian, M E hoppian, huppen, 'to hop, dance', fr Gmo hup*, op Du, L G hoppian, M H G hūpfen, hūpfen, Germ hūpfen, O N, Swed hoppa, perh connected w hup (I) A intrans 1 (of human beings) a To leap or spring with one leg only, to advance by series of short, jerky leaps from one foot to hop along, b (slang) to dance 2 a (of birds) To spring, to make one or more short light springs from both legs at once to hop about, move along ground, bough &c by series of such short springs, b (of frogs) to advance by leap or leaps from both hind legs B trans a To hop over, cross with a hop.

to hop a stick, ditch, Phrs to hop the twig, (vulg slang) (1) to evade one's creditors, (u) to die, to hop it (slang), to depart hastily, b to cause to hop or skip, as cricket ball, also of a punch or other tool making a series of strokes hop (II), n, fr pre a Action of person or animal that hops, short leap with one leg (human beings), or with both legs together (birds &c), Phrs a hop, skip (or step), and jump, (1) attempt to cover greatest possible distance with these actions in succession, as game or contest, (u) (fig) short distance, to catch on the hop, (colloq) to catch at the moment of departure, b (slang) n dance, ball, c (cricket) ball which comes to batsman with a hop, usually long hop hop (III), n Late ME hoppe, fr O Du hoppa (Mod. Du hop), op O S hoppe, Swed. O H G hopfo, Germ hopfe n, of uncertain origin, Mod Fr houblon, 'hops', comes through Wallon fr Do 1 n a Perennial climbing plant of hemp family, Humulus Lupulus, cultivated for its clusters of greenish cone shaped female flowers, which have a bitter, aromatic flavour, b (pl, as a crop, or article of commerce) female flowers of this plant, dried in kiln, and used for flavouring beer and other drinks, also used medicinally 2 (attrib) a Pertaining to hops hop garden, hop bine, -pole &c, resembling hop hop clover, b preying on hop hop borer, kind of moth or its larva, hop flea, hop fly or louse, hop moth hop (IV), vb intrans & trans, fr pre 1 in trans a To gather hops, b to produce hops (as vine) 2 trans To flavour with hops hop-back, n hop (III) & back (V) (brewing) Back or vat which strains hops from boiled wort hop-bine, n hop (III) & bine Twining stem of hop hope (I), n [1 hōp, 2 hōp] OE hōpa, ME hōpe, Du hoop, op M H G hoffe, Swed. hoppa, of uncertain origin, perh fr Gmc base hūd* n, <hupp*, & connected further w Lat cupere, 'to desire', v under cupid 1 State, quality, of mind in which one expects confidently that what one desires will come about, the opposite of despair 'Hope springs eternal in the human breast' (Pope), one of the Christian virtues Faith, Hope, and Charity 2 Expectation, confident anticipation, conviction, that some specific thing that one desires will happen, or be obtained to cherish the hope that , I have good hopes now that he will recover, Phr 'hope deferred maketh the heart sick' (proverb), prolonged disappointment destroys a man's confidence 3 Probability, likelihood, that something desired will happen or be secured there is no hope of success, there is now a hope of improvement Phr while there is life there is hope, until the worst has actually happened, there is always a chance that it may be avoided, past hope, hopeless affording no basis for hope 4 Person, thing, circumstance, action, which inspires hope, on whom or which expectation of success is based Mr Gladstone was at one time considered to be the hope of the Tory party, the British Navy was the great hope of the Allies hope (II), vb intrans & trans OE hōpan, ME hōpen &c See pre a intrans 1 To entertain hope, to desire that something shall happen, and at same time expect, feel confident, that it will I hope to be able to come, I thought at one time that things would improve, but now I hope no longer to hope in, place reliance upon Phrs to hope for the best, to hope against hope, to retain hopefulness where there seems to be no basis for hope 2 To desire strongly that certain things should come about, that certain circumstances should arise I hope you will be able to come to dinner, I hope you won't hurt yourself B trans (rare) To hope for, desire (something), and expect to attain it 'I wait better winds, and hope a calmer sea' (Dryden, Sen iv 823) hope (III), n, fr Du hoop, 'troop' &c See heap (I), popularly confused & identified w hope (I) Only in Phr forlorn hope (q v) hopeful, adj & n [1 hōpfool, 2 hōpful] ME hope (I) & -ful 1 adj Full of hope, a feeling, or inclined to feel, hope, sanguine I feel hopeful about a settlement, b affording, promising, encouraging hope c hopeful sign, prospect, pupil 2 n Person, esp boy or girl, who gives good promise c young hopeful (often ironical) hopefully, adv Pre & -ly In n hopeful manner hopefulness, n See pre & -ness Hopeful state of mind, hope hopeless, adj [1 hōples, 2 hōpless] hope (I) & -less 1 (of persons) Having no hope, unable to hope, desperate I am hopeless of effecting anything 2 a (of circumstances) Affording, promising, or exciting, no hope a hopeless case, situation, b (of persons) irreclaimable incorrigible a hopeless idiot, waster hopelessly, adv Pre & -ly In a hopeless manner hopelessness, n See pre & -ness 1 Hopeless state of mind, despair 2 Condition of affairs which gives no ground for hope hop-garden, n Enclosed field in which hops are grown and trained on wires or poles hop-kiln, n Kiln in which hops are dried, east house hoplite, n [1 hōplit, 2 hōplit] Gk hoplitēs, 'heavy-armed', also n, fr hōplēr for hop* l on, 'tool, piece of armour, heavy shield', prob in grade relation w hōplēr, 'to be about or with', cogn w Lat sorvus, 'companion' (see social), fr Arvan base sel*-, sel*- &c, 'to accompany' (see sequel), & -l, instrumental suff, & -ito (anc Gk hnt) Heavy armed foot soldier hop-o'-my-thumb, n [1 hopom thumb, 2 hop am thumb] Mannikin, dwarf, pigmy, (originally hero of French nursery tale, 'Le petit Poucet') hopper (I), n [1 hōper, 2 hōpe] ME hoppere hop (I) & -er 1 Person, animal, or thing that hops, specif a leaper, dancer, b any small hopping animal, as leaf hopper &c, c piano jack 2 Vessel, usually in form of funnel or inverted pyramid with onifice at bottom, through which loose material is passed originally by agitating it, specul a box through which grain is poured into mill, coal into furnace or truck, or the like, b vessel from which grains mechanically dropped into furrow, c barge with collapsible bottom for disposing of mud from dredger, railway truck with similar device hopper (II), n hop (IV) & -er Hop picker hop-picker, n a Person who helps to get in hop crop, b mechanical device for picking hops hop-pillow, n Pillow stuffed with hops, supposed to induce sleep hopple (I), vb trans [1 hōpl, 2 hōpl] hop (I) & freq or instrumental suff -le, cp M Du hoppelen LG hoppeln See hobble

To hobble (animal), (fig) to impede, hamper hopple (II), n, fr pre Rope or thong used to hobble horse or other animal hop-pocket, n Sack holding 1½ owt of hops, used as measure hop-pole, n a Pole up which hops are trained, b a tall, lanky person hoppy, adj [1 hōpi, 2 hōpi] hop (III) & -y Having the flavour of hops hopscotch, n [1 hōpskocht, 2 hōpskotch] hop (I) & scotch (II), 'notch mark' Children's game in which player, while hopping, kicks a pebble in succession into series of compartments marked on the ground hop-vine, n Hop vine hopyard, n [1 hōpyard, 2 hōpyād] Hop garden horal, adj [1 hōral, 2 hōral] Lat hōrāl (us) See hour & -al Pertaining to an hour or hours, hourly horary, adj [1 hōrari, 2 hōrari] L Lat hōrari (us) hour & -ary a Pertaining to an hour or hours, b hourly, c lasting an hour or a very short time

Horatian, adj [1 hōrāshun, 2 hōrēi(s)ən] Lat Hōrātian (us), fr Hōrāt us, 'Horace', & -an Pertaining to, written in the manner of, the Roman poet Horace (Q Horatius Flaccus, 65-8 B c) an Horatian ode horde (I), n [1 hōrd, 2 hōd] Fr, fr Turk ordū, fr Tatar yurt, Urdu, 'tent, royal court, camp', cp Urdu 1 Aggregate of nomads on or from the steppes of Central Asia, loosely organized for war the Golden Horde, body of Tatars who invaded Europe in 13th cent, and set up a Khanate in Russia 2 A large predatory band, b (contempt) rough crowd, gang, c pack of animals a horde of wolves horde (II), vb intrans, fr pre To gather or live in a horde horehound, hoarhound, n [1 hōrhound, 2 hōrhound] OE hārhtūne, ME hōrhūne, fr hoar & OE hāne, 'horehound', of uncertain origin, possibly cogn w Gk lonitē, Lot cunilo, 'wild marjoram', the final -d is excrement as in sound (I) a Kind of mint (also called white horehound), wild in Britain, with white down on leaves (whence the name) and bitter flavour, b medicinal extract from same used for cough &c, c one of several similar plants, as black horehound horizon, n [1 hōrizn, 2 hōrdizm] Fr, fr Lat hōrizon, fr Gk hōrizont (kullos), lit 'bounding (circle)', Pres Port masc of horizon, 'to bound, limit', fr hōros, 'boundary', orig 'furrow', cogn w Lot urvus, 'boundary' a Circle bounding the part of the earth's surface visible from a given point, line at which sky and sea or land appear to meet, b (fig) limits of knowledge, interests, or mental outlook beyond the horizon of one's age, science gives us a new horizon horizontal, adj & n [1 hōrizontl, 2 hōrizontl] Fr, fr Lat hōrizont, stem of hōrizon Pre & -al 1 adj a (obs) Pertaining to the horizon 'the horizontal air' (Milton, 'P L'), b parallel to the horizon, at right angles to the vertical, flat, level a horizontal line, plane, horizontal bar, one fixed thus a few feet above floor, for gymnastics 2 n a Horizontal thing, as a line, bar, b horizontal position out of the horizontal horizontality, n [1 hōrizontaltē, 2 hōrizontaltē] Pre & -ity Quality of being horizontal horizontally, adv [1 hōrizontah, 2 hōrizontah] horizontal & -ly In a horizontal manner or direction hormone, n [1 hōrmōn, 2 hōrmōn] Irregularly formed fr Gk hōrmōn, 'to urge, stimulate', fr hōrmē, onset, impulse, (physiol) Internal secretion which passes into the blood and stimulates functional activity horn (I), n [1 hōrn, 2 hōn] OE & ME horn, in old Gmc languages, fr hurna*, cogn w Lat cornu, 'horn', Gk lēras, see keratin. See further under hart, corvine, cerebrum 1 a One of a pair of permanent, hard, pointed, curved projections on the head of oxen, sheep, goats &c, Phrs to take the bull by the horns, to confront an emergency boldly, act promptly and resolutely, on the horns of a dilemma, b one of pair of branched, horny appendages on the head of deer, which fall and grow again each year, an antler, c thick, pointed growth, resembling the horn of an ox in structure, on the nose of rhinoceros, d (obs) the horns, represented, and referred to, as growing on the head of a cuckold, symbol of a cuckold 2 Various organs or excrescences on heads of animals, somewhat resembling true horns in appearance, e g tufts of feathers on heads of certain birds, projecting tentacles of a snail &c, Phr to draw in one's horns, diminish one's zeal, activity &c 3 The substance which composes the horns of a oxen &c, b of deer, esp considered as a material from which various articles are manufactured a knife with a handle of horn (ie a piece of the horn either of an ox &c, or of a stag), speckle frames of horn, Phr the gate of horn, in classical mythology, that through which true dreams pass, as contrasted with the gate of ivory

4 Any of various objects, made from or formerly made from, or resembling in shape, a horn of an ox, ram &c., a drinking cup made from horn of an ox drinking horn, receptacle for gunpowder. powder horn, c a cornucopia, or horn of plenty, i.e. representation of a horn with flowers, fruit &c., flowing from it, the conventional symbol of abundance, wealth &c., d (i) one of various wind instruments, formerly of horn, now of metal, capable of emitting musical notes hunter's horn, a bugle, and other musical instruments, (u) instrument for uttering loud, harsh note of warning &c. foghorn, motor-horn &c., e hollowed piece of horn used for putting shoes on to the feet shoe horn &c. 5 Either of the pointed extremities of the crescent moon. 6 Projecting horn shaped device at each corner of Jewish altar, to which the victim was bound for the sacrifice. 7 (attrib. or adj.) Made of horn a horn handle, horn spectacles, those having frames made of horn horn (I), rh trans, fr prec 1 a (rare) To furnish with horns, b (obs, fig) to onokold 2 To remove the horns of to horn cattle 3 (rare) To use the horns upon, to gore with the horns hornbeam, n [1 hörnbeim; 2 hörnbeim] horn (I) & beam (tree), prob. fr. its tough, close grained wood Deciduous European tree, Carpinus betulus, resembling beech, grown for hedge, and for charcoal, one of several allied trees hornbill, n [1 hörnbill, 2 hörnbill] Member of family of large tropical Old World birds, mostly bearing large horn protuberance on top of the head and bill hornblende, n [1 hörnblend, 2 hörnblend] Germ See horn & blende Mineral, generally black or dark green, found in granite and other igneous rocks hornbook, n [1 hörnhook, 2 hörnhook] Sheet with alphabet &c., on small board covered with transparent horn, formerly used by children for learning to read horned, adj [1 hörn, 2 hörn] horn (I) & -ed 1 a Provided with, having, horns horned cattle, h having tufts or excrescences resembling horns upon the head horned owl, pheasant, adder, toad, o (of the crescent moon, poet) the horned moon, d (of certain plants) having a spike horned poppy, violet 2 PP of horn (II) Having been deprived of the horns horner, n [1 hörner, 2 hörner] horn (I) & -er (rare or obs, except as family name) a Person who makes articles of horn, esp spoons, b one who blows a horn hornet, n [1 börnet, 2 börnet] O E hurnet, hurnet, M E harnelle &c., associated w horn, fr its droning note, or fr its sting (p its name in O S, horno vero, lit 'horn-bearer', & M Du horener, lit 'horner'), but not derived fr horn in Gmc period Op O H G hornuz, M H G hornuz, Mod Germ hornuse, Gmc type hurnz* nut, -nut &c, fr base hurnz*, 'to buzz' (op Du horzel, 'hornet', horzelen, 'to buzz'), oogn w O Slav srěd eně, Serb. srě-lyen, Lith szers-u, Lat crabro for crā-rōn*-, 'hornet' Possibly fr a base remotely connected w horn, Aryan Keres*-, q v under cerebrum a Large species of wasp, Vespa crabro, dark brown and yellow, with powerful sting, b (fig) persistently annoying or pugnacious person, Phis to stir up a nest of hornets, to bring a hornet's nest about one's ears, to provoke a widespread outburst of angry feeling hornfish, n [1 hörnfish, 2 börnfish] O E hornfisc, O N hornfisk, Dap hornfisk, fr horn (I) & fish (I) Garfish horn-fly, n Small European fly infesting base of horns of cattle hornful, n [1 hörnfool, 2 börnful] horn (I) & -ful Quantity that will fill a (drinking) horn horniness, n [1 hörnunes, 2 börnunes] horny & -ness Quality of being horny horning, n [1 hörning, 2 börn] horn (I)

& -ing (Scots law) a (hist) Action of outlawing person by three blasts of horn, b execution against debtor, Phr letters of horning, direction to debtor to comply with law under penalty of arrest hornless, adj [1 hörles, 2 börnles] horn (I) & -less Having no horns hornless sheep horn-mad, adj Orig used in reference to cattle whose horns were growing Furiously angry horn-owl, n Horned owl hornpipe, n [1 hörnpip, 2 hörnpiip] 1 Obsolete reed instrument of wood, sometimes with horn opening at larger end 2 a Kind of lively dance for one or more persons, originally accompanied by hornpipe, popular with sailors, b musical composition for such dance hornplate, n [1 hörnpłat, 2 hörnplät] Axle-guard on railway carriage &c hornwork, n [1 hörnwerk, 2 hörnwerk] 1 Working in horn, (coll) objects made of horn 2 (fort) Outwork consisting of two half-bastions connected by a curtain horny, adj [1 hörn, 2 börn] horn (I) & -y a Consisting of, having structure and texture of, horn a horny growth &c., h hard and tough like horn horny-handed, adj Preo & handed Having hands with a tough, horny skin, esp fr hard work horny handed son of toil horologe, n [1 hörölög, -lög, 2 hörölöd, -löd] M E, fr O Fr (& Mod Fr) horologe, fr Lat hōrologium, fr Gk hōrologion, fr hōro-, combining form of hōra, see hour, & -logion See -logue (rare) Any instrument for indicating the hour, such as a sundial or clock horologer, n [1 hörölöjer, 2 hörölödža] Preo & -er (rare) One who makes horologes or is skilled in horology horologic(al), adj [1 hörölögik(l), 2 hörölödžik(l)] horologe & -ic, -al (rare) Pertaining to horology or horologes horologist, n [1 hörölögist, 2 hörölödžist] horologe & -ist Horologer horology, n [1 hörölög, 2 hörölödži] Gk hōro, as in horologe, & -logy (i) Art of indicating the hours or of measuring time, (u) construction of instruments for this purpose horopter, n [1 höröptēr, 2 höröptē] Gk horos, 'limit, boundary' (see horizon), & optēr, 'one who looks', fr. base op-, 'to see' (see optio) & tēr, agent suff Range of line and surface seen as single vision when both eyes are directed and fixed upon a given point horoscope, n [1 hörösköp, 2 hörösköup] Fr, fr Lat hōroscop (us), fr Gk hōroscopos, adj, 'observing hours', n, 'horoscope', fr hōro-, form of hōra See hour & -scope (astrol) a Calculation of positions of heavenly bodies at particular moment, esp of person's birth, in order to predict fortune, b diagram indicating such positions to cast a horoscope horoscopic, adj [1 hörösköpik, 2 hörösköpiik] Lat hōroscopicus horoscope & -ic Pertaining to a horoscope or horoscopy horoscopist, n [1 hörösköpi, 2 höröskäpi] horoscope & -ist Person who casts a horoscope, or studies horoscopy horoscopy, n [1 hörösköpi, 2 höröskäpi] horoscope & -y a Art of casting horoscopes, b aspect of the stars at a particular moment horrent, adj [1 hörēnt, 2 hörānt] Lat horrent-, stem of horrens, Pres Part of horrēre, 'to bristle' See horror (rare or liter) Bristling 'With bright emblems and horrent arms' (Milton, 'P L') horrescent, adj [1 hörēsent, 2 hörāsant] fr Lat horrescent (em), Pres Part of horrescere, 'to shudder', uceptive fr horrēre, 'to stand on end, bristle, to shiver' &c See horror Bristling, shuddering with terror &c horrible, adj [1 hörbl, 2 hörbl, -ēbl] M E, O Fr (& Mod Fr), fr Lat horribilis, fr horrēre for hōra* ēre, 'to stand on end, bristle, shudder' See horror a Such as to make one shudder, causing, of such a nature as to cause, physical fear, disgust, or moral repulsion, dreadful, shocking, revolting a horrible sin, sound, sight, horrible crime, depravity &c, b (colloq) extremely unpleasant or vexatious a horrible bore horribleness, n Preo & -ness Quality of being horrible horribly, adv See prec & -ly In a horrible manner, to a horrible degree horrid, adj [1 höröd, 2 höröd] Lat horrid us, 'rough, bristly, frightful', fr horrēre See horror 1 (obs, or archaic) Rough, bristling, shaggy 2 a Repulsive, frightful, disgusting, horrifying, b (colloq) disagreeable, rude, annoying how horrid of him, what a horrid man, nuisance (wilder than horrible) horridly, adv Preo & -ly In a horrid manner horridness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being horrid horrific, adj [1 hörifik, 2 hörifik] Lat horrific (us), lit 'making the hair to stand on end', fr horri-, combining form of horrēre See horrible & horror & -fic (liter) Horrifying, frightful horri-fy, vb trans [1 hörifi, 2 hörifat] Lat horrificare, as horrifico, on anal of words derived through Fr *vb*s in -fier See -fy To affect, fill, with horror, excite horror in, (colloq) to shock, scandalize I was horri-fied to see her wearing such a hat horri-fying, adj [1 hörifing, 2 hörifis (v)] Preo & -ing That horrifies, shocking horripilate, vb trans & intrans [1 hörripilāt, 2 hörripilāt] Lat horripilāt-(um), PP of horripilāre, intrans, fr horri-, as in horrific, & pilus, 'hair', see pile (VII) (rare) 1 trans To cause (the hair) to bristle or stand on end, to frighten 2 intrans To bristle, stand on end horripilation, n [1 hörripilāshun, 2 hörripilāshun] Lat horripilātio (em) Preo & -ion Bristling of the hair, gooseflesh horror, n [1 horor, 2 hörä] M E, O Fr horror (Mod Fr horreur), fr Lat horror (em), 'a standing on end, bristling, roughness, rudeness, a trembling, fear, dread terror' &c Thus & the associated words horrire, horribilis &c, fr hōra*-, all have, to start w, a purely physical sense The base phars* &c, meaning orig simply 'rough', is hardly found outside Lat, but in that language has several derivatives, hircus, 'he-goat', see hircine, & hirsutus, 'shaggy, prickly', see hirsute Other cognates in Engl are horrent, horrid, horrible Hardly used now in other than moral sense, except in mod (direct fr Lat), where the word is still used for the severe trembling & shuddering before fever Even this is archaic 1 Powerful emotion of terror and disgust, repulsion, moral shrinking from, loathing his mind, or he, was filled with horror at the thought, sight &c Phr to have a horror of, to loathe, be disgusted by Specif use, the horrors, uncontrollable fit of unreasoning terror, esp in delirium tremens 2 Something which provokes horror in the mind, a something horrible, disgusting, repellent the papers are full of murders and horrors of every sort, the horrors of war, h (colloq) an ugly sight, something, or some person, that inspires mild repulsion and ridicule she thought her elderly beau a perfect horror, chamber of horrors, department of a wax-work show filled with effigies of criminals, and objects associated with crimes horror-stricken, -struck, adj [1 hörör strukn, -struk, 2 hörör strukn, -struk] Preo & stricken, struck, PP of strike (I) Stricken, seized or overwhelmed with horror hors de combat, pred. adj, Anglicized pronunciation [1 ör de kombah, 2 ör de, dā, kōbā] Fr, 'out of fight', fr hors, 'outside', fr Lat foris, 'out of doors', abl pl of fora* (see forum & door), & dē, 'of' (see de-), & combat a Precluded from fighting, b disabled, out of action hors d'œuvre, n [1 ör dēvr, 2 ör dāv] Fr, 'outside of (the) work', fr hors de as prec & œuvre, 'work', fr Lat opera, 'works' See opera Small dish, consisting of a selection of highly flavoured or salted fish, meats, and cold vegetables, olives &c., served before a meal as appetizer or relish horse (I), n [1 hors, 2 hōs] OE hros, hōra, ME hōra, OS hros, OHG hros(s), MHG ros, ors, Mod Germ ross, ON hross, Gmc type hrossan*, prob 'leaper' or 'runner', ep OE, OHG hros (for hros* sso), 'swift, brisk', cogn w Lat cursus for curs* ere, 'to run' See more on this base under current, course 1 A large, powerful, solid hoofed, domesticated mammal, with long, coarse, flowing mane and tail, used for carrying burdens, draught, and riding, Phrs to take horse, to mount or ride a horse, to horse, oom mand to mount, to work like a horse, very hard, with great energy, a horse of another colour, quite a different matter, to put the cart before the horse, to reverse the order of things, events, take the effect for the cause, a dark horse, person or thing whose character and qualities have still to be discovered, dead horse (slang), a piece of work for which one is paid in advance, to flog a dead horse, to argue about a question which has been already settled, to waste one's efforts, to look a gift horse in the mouth, i.e. to look for signs of old age in it, hence, to outsize a gift or favour received, to mount, ride, the high horse, to assume airs of importance, to behave haughtily, to spur a willing horse, to mount without need b (zool) member of horse family, including ass, zebra, and extinct genera, o full grown male of the species contrasted with a mare, or a foal 2 (coll) Mounted troops, cavalry Phrs horse and foot, cavalry and infantry, (fig) with all one's resources, light horse, lightly armed mounted troops 3 One of several objects, made of wood, with legs, some of them bearing rough resemblance to trunk and legs of a horse, used for various purposes specif a vaulting horse, vaulting block for gymnastic exercises, b (hist) frame on which a soldier had to sit as punishment to ride the wooden horse, o sawing frame, d frame on which clothes &c are hung clothes horse, towel horse &c, o outner's trestle 4 (techn) Any of various tools or appliances, as clamp, wedge 5 (attrib or adj) a Pertaining to a horse or horses horse hoof, trappings, artillery, b before certain nouns, expressing large, strong, or coarse variety of thing referred to horse ant, mackerel, mussel, mushroom, plum, radish Cp also horse laugh, horse play, horse sense &c horse (II), v trans & intrans OE hrosian, ME hrosen, 'to provide with a horse or horses', fr pree 1 trans a To provide (person, troop, vehicle) with a horse or horses to horse a squadron, a carriage, to be well horsed, b (rare) to put on the back of a person, wooden horse &c for the purpose of flogging, to flog, o (rare) to carry on one's back, d to cover (mare) 2 intrans (rare or obs) To mount, ride, a horse Horse Artillery, n Light field artillery with mounted gunners, capable of rapid movement horseback, n [1 horsbak, 2 hōsbak] ME hōrsbak Back of a horse, chiefly in Phr on horseback, riding, mounted horse-bean, n Coarse variety of bean used for feeding horses &c horse-block, n Low platform of stone &c with step, used as aid in mounting horse horse-boat, n 1 Boat in which horses are transported 2 Boat towed by a horse horse-box, n a Railway-van specially adapted for carrying horses, b kind of cage in which horse is slung on board ship, stall for horse on ship horse-boy, n Stable boy horse-chestnut, n a European and Asiatic tree, Aesculus hippocastanum, superficially resembling the true chestnut, bearing spikes of white or red flowers, seed vessels with large reddish-brown nuts, and palmate leaves, cultivated for ornament, b nut of this, said to have been ground and used as food for horses, whence the name horse-cloth, n Specially shaped blanket, covering horse's back and loins, kept in place by strap and buckle at the breast, and a girth passing round the belly, worn in stable, or in the open air when the animal is being exercised gently horse-collar, n Padded collar of leather &c worn by draught horse, bearing the hames, to which the traces are attached Phr to grin through a horse collar, formerly a competitive game in rustic sports horse-coper, n horse & coper (I) Horse dealer, esp one of doubtful honesty horse-doctor, n (colloq) Farrier, veterinary surgeon horse-drench, n Dose of medicine for horse horse-flesh, n 1 Flesh of horse, as article of food 2 (collectively) Horses a good judge of horse flesh horse-fly, n ME hōra fleese horse & fly (I) One of several species of large flies that torment horses and cattle, gadfly, breeze fly Horse Guards, n pl 1 (mil) Household cavalry, esp the cavalry brigade of the British Guards, consisting of 1st and 2nd Life Guards and specif, the Royal Horse Guards, the Blues 2 Headquarters of British household cavalry in Whitehall, London, formerly used as offices of commander in chief's branch of War Department, now headquarters of the Commander in chief of the Home Forces and of the London district horsehair, n [1 hōra hār, 2 hōshē] ME hōrshēr horse & hair a Long hair of horse's mane or tail, as used in upholstery, b cloth woven of this horse-latitudes, n pl A sailor's name, origin unknown One of two oceanic zones about 30° N and S, esp that in North Atlantic, distinguished by frequent calms and high barometric pressure horse-laugh, n Loud, coarse laugh, guffaw horse-leech, n 1 A kind of leech supposed to enter mouth or nostrils of a horse when drinking, b (fig) unsatiable person (see Prov xxx 15) 2 (rare) Horse doctor, veterinary surgeon horse-litter, n Litter borne on poles between two horses horse-mackerel, n Spiny fish somewhat like mackerel, sea, also tunny, or one of several other fishes horseman, n [1 hōrman, 2 hōsman] 1 Man who rides a horse, mounted man 2 A variety of carrier pigeon, b W Indian land crab horsemanship, n [1 hōrmanSHIP, 2 hōsmanSHIP] Prec & -ship Art of riding horses, skill in this horse-marines, n pl (faet) Imaginary force of naval cavalry, chiefly in Phr tell that to the horse marines, said as comment on incredible statement horse-master, n 1 One who besides having skill in riding, can manage, school, and train horses 2 Man who owns horses, esp one who keeps horses for hire, job master horse pistol, n Large pistol carried in holster horse-play, n Violent, rough, or boisterous play, noisy romping horse-pond, n Small, shallow pond in which horses are watered or washed horse-power, n Unit of work or power exerted by machine &c, equivalent to the force required to raise 550 lb one ft per sec, abreviated h.p. horse-race, n One between horses carrying riders horse-racing, n Act of organizing, riding in, or frequenting, horse races horse-radish, n Plant, Cochlearia armoracia, with hot, pungent, white root, which is grated down and made into a sauce horse-rake, n Rake drawn by horse horse-sense, n Rough, instinctive, practical common sense horseshoe, n [1 hōrshōō, 2 hōshū] 1 Flat strip of iron shaped to fit horse's hoof, open at the back, placed when hot upon the under surface of hoof and fastened on with nails 2 Thing shaped like a horseshoe 3 (attrib or adj) Shaped like a horseshoe horseshoe arch horse-tail, n 1 Tail of horse, esp as Turkish standard or badge of rank 2 A genus, Equisetum, of an order Pteridophyta, of flowerless plants which resemble a horse's tail in appearance, allied to ferns, but having jointed hollow stem and whorls of leafless branches horse-trainer, n Person who trains horses horsewhip, n & vb trans [1 hōrswip, 2 hōswip] 1 n Whip used for driving horses 2 vb trans To thrash (person) with horse-whip horsewoman, n [1 hōrswoman, 2 hōswoman] Woman rider, esp one who rides well, horsily, adv [1 hōrsli, 2 hōsli] horsy & -ly In a horry manner horsiness, n [1 hōrsness, 2 hōsness] Next word & -ness Quality of being horsey, fondness for horses and everything connected with them, fact of being associated with horse dealing, raising &c horsy, adj [1 hōrs, 2 hōs] horse (I) & -y a (of persons) (i) Fond of horses, having much to do with horses, their use and management, (ii) fond of, having to do with, horse-raising, b (of manners, appearance, dress &c) suggesting familiarity with horses, riding, horse racing &c, sporting hortation, n [1 hōrtāshun, 2 hōrtāshən] Lat. hortatio (em), fr hortā (um), PP of hortār, 'to urge, incite, instigate, encourage, cheer', freq of hort, 'to urge, incite', cogn w Gk. khairō, 'I rejoice', fr kharjō*, cp also khāra, 'grace' &c, q v under eucharist, fr Aryan base gher-*, wh is found also in O.E. geornian, 'to desire' (see yearn) Action of inciting, encouraging, or exhorting hortative, adj [1 hōrtativ, 2 hōrtativ] Lat. hortativus, fr hortā, as in prec, & -ive Pertaining to exhortation, admonitory hortatory, adj [1 hōrtat(ō)rī, 2 hōrtat(ō)rī] Lat. hortatōr(-ius), fr hortā, as in hortation, & -ory Hortative horticultural, adj [1 hōrtikūlhural, 2 hōrtikūlhural] horticulture & -al Pertaining to horticulture a horticultural society, show &c horticulturalist, n [1 hōrtikūlhuralist, 2 hōrtikūlhuralist] Popular and usual form for horticulturist horticulture, n [1 hōrtikūlehur, 2 hōrtikūle] Lat. horti, fr hortus, 'garden', q v under hortus siccus, & cultura, 'tilling, husbandry' &c, q v under culture Art of cultivating gardens, art of producing flowers, fruits, and vegetables horticulturist, n [1 hōrtikūlehurst, 2 hōrtikūlehurst] Prec & -ist Person who practices horticulture, expert in gardening hortus siccus, n [1 hōrtus sikkus, 2 hōrtus sikkus] Lat. 'dry garden', Lat. hortus means 'an enclosed space for plants, a garden', cogn w Gk. khōrtos, 'feeding-place' The essential primitive meaning is 'enclosure', fr Aryan base ghert-, ghort-, 'to surround, enclose', see discussion under cohort, court From same base comes O.E. gyrdan, 'to put a girdle on' (see gird), & O.E. gyrdel, 'belt' &c (see girdle), both fr Gmc gurd* Further O.E. geard, 'enclosure' &c, see yard (II), fr Gmc gard-, Aryan ghort-, exactly equiv to Lat. hortus Of Lat. secus, 'dry', there are several suggested explanations, q v under excoctive A collection of dried and preserved plants, a herbarium hosanna, interj & n [1 hōzāna, 2 hōuzāna] L. Lat. fr Gk. hōsanna, fr Heb. hōshānā, ahhr fr hōsh hōshānā, 'eave, we pray' Hebrew exclamation of praise or adoration hose (I), n pl [1 hōz, 2 hōuz] Never used in sing sense The old pl hosen, used as late as 17th cent, now purely provincial, if still existing O.E. hōsa, 'covering for the leg, garter', ME hōse, OHG, Mod Germ. hose, h Christ Church, Oxford, c the London Stock Exchange, d (popular slang) the workhouse house (II), vb trans & intrans [1. houz, 2. hauz] OE hūsan, 'take into a house', fr hūs See prec A trans 1 a To provide dwelling-place(s), house(s), for to house a large population, b to provide house room for, be large enough to include this cottage will never house us all, c to receive into a house, give shelter to, to harbour I shall be happy to house you for a night or two, d to store, place, lodge, bestow in shelter and custody I must find some place where I can house my books 2 To insert in a housing, i.e. put part of a piece of timber in a cavity out in another piece to receive it B intrans To lodge, dwell, keep house you and I may as well house together house-agent, n Person who negotiates sale or lease of houses house-boat, n Barge with superstructure, moored in river or lake, used as summer residence housebote, n [1. housbōt, 2. houshout] house (I) & OE bōt, 'advantage, profit, recompense' See boot (III) & booty Wood to which tenant is entitled for repairs to house housebreaker, n [1. housbraker, 2. housbreika] 1 Person who feloniously breaks into a house, a burglar 2 Person whose trade is to pull down buildings housebreaking, n [1. housbraking, 2. housbreikij] Action of a housebreaker (in both senses) housecarl, n [1. houscarl, 2. houskār] OE hūscarl, fr ON hūskarl, fr hūs, house, & karl, 'man' (see churl) (hist) Member of body-guard of a king or nobleman in late Anglo-Saxon times, esp among the Danes house-cat, n Cat kept in a house, as distinct from stable cat house-dog, n Dog kept in, or to protect, a house houseflag, n [1. housflag, 2. housflæg] Ship's flag indicating owner or line to which it belongs house-fly, n Common fly, Musca domestica, infesting houses houseful, n [1. housful, 2. housful] house (I) & -ful As much or as many as a house will hold or accommodate a houseful of furniture, of guests household, n [1. hous-(h)öld, 2. hous-(h)ould] ME houshold house (I) & hold Cp Germ haushalt 1 a (coll) Persons living together in one house, family and servants, domestic establishment, b spouse (with cop.) the Household, that of the Sovereign, the Royal Household, Gentlemen of the Household 2 (fig) Members of same religion, supporters of same cause the household of the faith 3 (used attributively) Pertaining to, used in, a household household accounts, bread Phrs Household Brigade, brigade of guards having duty of protecting person of British sovereign, so Household cavalry, troops, household franchise, suffrage, that possessed by a person as householder, household gods, (Rom antiq) lesser deities presiding over a household, or their images, Lares and Penates, hence (fig) valued family possessions, household word, word or phrase in familiar, everyday use your name is a household word with us householder, n [1. hous-hölder, 2. houshoude] ME housholdere house & holder Head of household, occupier of tenement housekeeper, n [1. houskeper, 2. houskipe] Woman who manages or keeps house in order, and provides for household, spouse a mistress of house (usually with qualifying adj) a thrifty, bad, housekeeper, b woman hired to manage a house, head female servant housekeeping, n [1. houskeping, 2. houskeping] Act, operation, art, of managing household business, domestic economy house (I), n [1. houz, 2. hauz] OE hūs, 'the Eucharist', orig 'the holy thing, service' &c, ME hūs, Goth hūs,

'sacrifice', ON hūs; Gmc type hūs* Lan-, cogn w O Slav svetŭ (for svet-*), Lith svėntas, 'holy'. (archaic) Consecrated elements of the Eucharist, administration of the same house (II), vb trans OE hūshan, ME hūshen, Goth hunsjan, ON hūsja See prec (obs or archaic) To administer the Eucharist to houseleek, n [1. houslæk, 2. houslik] ME hūslik house & leek. Herb, Sempervivum, with rosettes of fleshy leaves and pink flowers, growing on old roofs and walls houseless, adj [1. housles, 2. housles] house & -less Having no house housemaid, n [1. housmāid, 2. housmeid] Female servant who keeps rooms of a house clean, and does other housework housemaid's knee, n Inflammation of sac over knee-cap, due to too much kneeling house master, n Master in charge of a house in a school house match, n Match between houses of a school housemate, n [1. housmāt, 2. housmest] One who shares a house with another or others house-parlourmaid, n Housemaid who also does parlourmaid's work house party, n Party of guests entertained for several days in country house house-physician, n Senior physician resident in hospital house porter, n Doorkeeper in house house-room, n house (I) & room Space in a house, capacity of a house for accommodating dwellers house sparrow, n Common sparrow, frequenting neighbourhood of houses house-surgeon, n Senior surgeon resident in hospital house-to-house, adj Carried on, performed, by visiting a number of houses in succession a house-to-house canvass, collection, visitation housetop, n [1. houstop, 2. houstop] Top, roof, of house Phr to cry, proclaim (some thing), from the housetop(s), to publish abroad, give wide publicity to house-warming, n Entertainment given by person or family to celebrate entrance into, taking up residence in, a new home housewife, n [1. houswif, hānz, 2. hauswif, hānz] ME hūswif house & wife, op kussey 1 Mistress of a house 2 (usually pronounced [1. hānz, 2. hānz]) Small receptacle for needles, thread, scissors, buttons &c housewifely, adj. Prec & -ly Appropriate to a housewife, domestic, managing well housewifery, n [1. houswifn, hānzfn, 2. hauswifn, hānzfn] housewife & -ry Business of a housewife, domestic management or economy housing (I), n [1. houzng; 2. hauzng] ME hūsnng house (II) & -ing 1 a Action of providing with house or houses, with storage, provision of house or shelter, b (coll) accommodation in houses it is difficult to provide housing for a rapidly increasing population, c (attrib) the housing question, problem of providing housing 2 Cavity, hollow space, notch, out in timber, into which part of another timber rests or is fitted housing (II), n Obs Engl house, n, 'housing', vb, 'to provide with housing', fr O Fr houce, huche, Mod Fr houce, fr Low Lat hūsa, hūsa, 'mantle, housing', prob fr Arab ghūshāh, ghūshāh, 'covering, veil', & -ing Fr ph confused w house (I) Cloth covering for horse's body for protection or show, saddle cloth, (pl) trappings

Honyhnnnn, n [1. hōnnnn, 2. hunnnn] Invented by Swift to suggest horse's whinny One of imaginary race of rational, noble horses in Swift's Gulliver's Travels hovel (I), n [1. hōvl, 2. hōvl] formerly [1. hūvl, 2. hūvl] ME hovel, hōvl, of doubtful origin, prob fr (1) an A-Fr hovel*, dimin w suff -el, fr OE hof, house, hall', cogn w hover or (2) A Fr hovel*, similarly formed fr OE hūfe, 'covering for the head', see hove, op O Fr huvelet, 'penthous' 1 Hut, shed, cabin or cottage of the meanest sort, a squalid dwelling 2 (archit) Niche for statue 3 (pottery) Large brick cone covering kilns for porcelain hovel (II), vb, fr prec 1 To shelter in a hovel 2 To make in shape of hovel, to make chimney with covered top hoveller, n [1. hōveler, 2. hōveler] Of uncertain origin, dial also hobbler, huffer a Coast boatman who does odd jobs, b hoveller's boat hover (I), vb intrans [1. hōver, 2. hōve], formerly [1. hāver, 2. hāve] ME hēterēn, 'to hover, hover', freq w suff -er, fr hōver 'to hover, be poised, inhabit, tarry', op M Du, M LG hōven, of uncertain origin, prob fr OE hof, 'house' (see hovel), or fr hōf*, strong grade of OE hebban (see heave) a (of birds and flying insects) To float in the air, to linger, poised aloft, motionless, or slightly moving a hawk hovers overhead, b (of persons) to linger, loiter, hang about to hover around, about, near one, c (fig) to remain irresolute, waver to hover on the brink of a decision hover (II), n, fr prec Action or state of hovering hoverer, n [1. hōverer, 2. hōverer] hover & -er Person or thing that hovers hovering (I), n [1. hōvering, 2. hōvering] hover (I) & -ing Action of bird or person that hovers hovering (II), adj, fr Prec Part of hover (I) In state, position, of one that hovers hovering butterflies hoveringly, adv Prec & -ly With a hovering motion how, adv & n [1. hou, 2. hau] OE, ME hū, hūv, for hūv*, fr Gmc interrog base hau*, Aryan h₂u*, op O Frs hū, hō, OS hūo, Du hoe, OLG hūeo, w/o, Mod Germ wie, Goth hwa w/o, cogn w Lith lāt, 'how', Lat cei for ce* w, 'as, like as', fr base h₂u* & onobis particle uē*, 'or, like as', Sert uē, 'or, as', Gk ēi for ē* w, 'or', ēi (te), 'as', Lat -ut, 'or' A adv 1 (interrog) a In what manner, way, condition how shall I dress?, how is the country looking?, by what name how is he called?, at what price how is the frame today?, Phrs how do you do? (colloq) how-d'y-do?, what is the state of your health? (conventional greeting), how's that? (cricket &c) appeal to umpire to decide whether play is out, b by what means how did he escape?, how on earth (the deuce &c) do you do it?, how dare you?, how is it (comes it) that you are here? 2 (rel) a In what manner, way, condition he knows how to behave, to see how matters stand, I understood how you feel about it, by what name I don't know how to call him, at what price find out how the exchange is, b by what means I don't know how to account for it, to bear it, Phr all you know how, (vulg or slang) to the utmost of your power, c (in rel clause) that I told him how I had read in the papers, (obs Bib) how that 3 (interrog or rel with adj or adv) To what extent, amount, or degree how old is he?, I wonder how old he is, how much time, how many people, how fast are we going?, how far is it? (obs) how over 'I never yet saw man how wise... but' (Shakespeare) 4 (in exclamatory or interjectional sentences or phrases, expressing wonder, surprise, or other feeling, qualifying adj, adv, or vb) To what an extent, amount, or degree how absurd!, how kind of you!, how like him!, how far away!, how well you look!, how you talk! B n Manner, means the how and the why of st howbeit, conj [1. houbait, 2. houbait] how & be soj, & it. (archaic) However it may be, notwithstanding, yet, nevertheless howdah, houdah, n [1 hōnda, 2 hōude] Hind, Pers haudah, fr Arab haudaj, 'litter'. Structure, sometimes having a canopy, containing seats for several persons fastened with girths to an elephant's back how-d'ye-do, n [1 hōu de dōb, 2 hau di dū] How do you do? See how (colloq) Awkward, troublesome, situation, dilemma a nice, a pretty, how d'ye do however, adv & conj [1 hōuēver, 2 hōuēva] how & ever 1 adv a In whatever manner, by whatever means however you do it, the result is the same, b to whatever extent or degree however fast he ran, his appeals, however just, were disregarded, c (obs) although 'How'er thou art a fiend' (Shakespeare) 2 conj Nevertheless, still, though, all the same I must hurry off now—however, we shall meet tonight, I hate concerts—I shall go to this one, however howitzer, n [1 hōuēter, 2 hōuētes] Appears to be through corrupt Germ forms fr Czech houfnice, 'a catapult'. Kind of short cannon used for high angle fire at short range, esp for shelling trenches howl (I), v intrans & trans [1 hōul, 2 hawl] M E houlen, op Du hulen, O H G hruonlon, M H G hulen, Mod Germ heulen, O N gla, imitative, op Gk hulain, 'to bark as dog, howl', Lat ululare, 'to howl', ulula, 'screach owl'. See also owl, ululation 1 intrans a To utter loud, protracted, dismal cry, as wolf or dog, or as a person expressing pain, rage, complaint or derision, 'to wail, yell', b to laugh loud and heartily, also, howl with laughter, c (of inanimate things) to emit wailing sound as of howling animal the wind howls through the forest, also of faulty wireless transmission or reception due to oscillation 2 trans a To utter with howls to howl defiance, b to howl down, to drown speech, remarks of (person) with cries of derision or indignation howl (II), n fr prec Sound made by animal or person that howls, a protracted, dismal cry of pain, fear, rage &c, b loud burst of laughter, also howls of laughter, mirth, merriment &c howler, n [1 hōuler, 2 hōula] howl (I) & -er 1 Animal, person, or thing that howls, speak a professional wailer for the dead, b howling monkey 2 (colloq or slang) Egregious blunder, esp in an examination howlet, n [1 hōulet, 2 hōulet] Variant of owl, perh affected by Fr hulotte, 'owl' howling, adj [1 hōuling, 2 hōuling] fr Pres Part of howl (I) 1 Producing, uttering, prone to utter, howls a howling dog, a howling wind, a howling baby, howling derush, one expressing religious madness in this way, howling monkey, one of a group of Central and S American monkeys that howl, howling wilderness, one full of wild heats 2 (slang) Immense, tremendous a howling success, a howling swell howsoever, adv [1 hōusōver, 2 hōusōveva] how & so & ever However (adv), in what soever manner or degree hoy (I), n [1 hoi, 2 hoi] M E hoye, fr M Du hoi, also heu, heude, ep Flem hui, of uncertain origin Small coasting vessel or barge, usually aloop rigged hoy (II), intery & n Natural sound of shout, ep Du, Dan hui Cp ahoy Call to attract attention of ship, or to stop cattle hoya, n [1 hōya, 2 hōya] fr T Hoy, horticulturist The wax flower or wax plant hoyden, n [1 hōid(ə)n, 2 hōid(ə)n] In Early Mod Engl usually applied to male sex, origin quite uncertain Ungainly, rough, undisciplined, romping girl, a tomboy hoydenish, adj [1 hōidenish, 2 hōidenish] Prec & -ish Resembling a hoyden hub, n [1 hōb, 2 hāh] Proh variant of hob 1 a Projecting centre of wheel, nave, b (fig) centre of activity or importance a hub of industry, Phr hub of the universe, a place considered by the inhabitants as of world wide importance 2 Mark at which quarts are aimed, hoh hubble-bubble, n [1 hūbl bubl, 2 hābl babi] Imitative word, formed w hubble as a basis a Kind of hookah, form of pipe used in India, in smoking which the smoke is drawn through water, causing a bubbling noise, b bubbling noise, confused chatter hubbub, n [1 hūhnb, 2 hābah] Cp now obs hubbuboo, hubbaboo, in Spenser ('State of Ireland') hubbaboo, prob representing some fr word or phrase, op Gael ubub, exclamation of contempt, Ir abu, a war cry Confused noise, as of many voices, uproar, tumult hubristic, adj [1 hūbristik, 2 hūbristik] fr Gk hubristikos, 'insolent, wantonly, overweeningly proud', fr hubris, 'violent, overweening, pride and insolence', etymol doubtful Overweeningly proud and insolent, arrogant, overbearing huckaback, n [1 hukahak, 2 hākebāk] Perh orig meaning 'pedlar's ware', op perb LG hukabak, 'pick a hack' The second element may well be aback, 'on the back' First element perh connected w huckster Coarse linen or cotton fabric with rough surface, used for towels &c huckleberry, n [1 hūklhəri, 2 hāklhəri, -həri] Proh for hurtleberry, dial form of whortleberry Edible berry or shrub of Gaylussacis, N American plant resembling whortleberry huckster (I), n [1 hūkster, 2 hākster] M E huester, holestier, fr M Du huckster, fr heulen, 'to retail' (op M E hucken, 'to huggle, sell'), proh ong 'to carry on bent back', LG hulen, Germ hocken, O N hūla, 'to crouch, squat, stoop', of uncertain origin, op Germ hucke, 'bent back' (see huckaback), & -ster See also hawkster (II) a Retail dealer in small wares, a petty trader, b (fig) person of mean, haggling, mercenary character huckster (II), v intrans See prec To be a huckster, carry on petty trade, haggle hucksteress, huckstress, n [1 hukstres, 2 hāksteris] huckster(I) & -ess Female huckster huckstery, n [1 hūksteri, 2 hāksteri] M E huesterie, holesterie (I) & -y Trade, hustiness, methods, of a huckster hud, n [1 hud, 2 had] Perh form of hood, or fr base of hide (I), w shortening See husk (I) The outer shell or husk of seeds, nuts &c huddle (I), v intrans & intrans [1 hūdl, 2 hād] Origin doubtful 1 trans a To put, throw, drive, squeeze, together in a confused promiscuous crowd or pile to huddle clothes into a trunk, the sheep were huddled together in a ditch, b to gather, draw, (oneself) together in a heap to be huddled up, c to put on, hastily, carelessly, in a disorderly way to huddle on one's clothes, d to do something in a hasty, clumsy, careless way to huddle a job through, to huddle up a treaty 2 intrans To crowd, press, together in a mass, heap to huddle together for warmth huddle (II), n, fr prec Cluster of objects, closely packed together without plan or arrangement a huddle of roofs Hudibrastic, adj [1 hūdrastik, 2 hūdrastik] fr Hudibras, title and hero of mock-heroic satirical poem (1663-78), by Samuel Butler, formed on anal of fantastic &c Resembling, in the manner of, 'Hudibras', of the nature of a lampoon expressing rather coarse satire in rough, cleverly rhymed verses hue (I), n [1 hū, 2 hū] O E, non WS hrow, hēow, WS hēow, hūw, 'form, kind, appearance, colour, beauty', M E hēow, hew, ep Goth hwiw, 'form, appearance', Swed hy, 'skin, complexion', cogn w Sort chūyō, 'skin, complexion' a Colour, tint, particular shade or variety of a colour, b (fig) variety of opinion &c Conservative politicians of various hues hue (II), n, M E, fr O Fr hu, 'cry, shout', ep huer, 'to shout', of imitative origin Shouting, clamour, of pursuer, now only in hue and cry, a (hust) outcry against felon, in which all who heard it were bound to join, b (hust) official proclamation calling for capture of felon &c, c (fig) popular clamour against unpopular person, fugitive &c to raise a hue and cry huesless, adj [1 hūles, 2 hūlis] hue (I) & -less Colourless huer, n [1 hūer, 2 hūer] fr O Fr huer, 'to cry, shout', see hue (II), & -er (in Corn wall) Man stationed on cliffs to give warning of approach of shoals of pilchards huff (I), v trans & intrans [1 huf, 2 haf] In Early Mod Engl, 'to blow', imitative 1 trans a To behave insolently to, hully, hector, drive by bluster or huffing to huff one into silence, to huff one out of the room, b to offend, make sullen or petulant to be huffed, c (draughts) to remove opponent's piece or man from board as penalty for not taking a piece 2 intrans To fuss, fret, fume, as though offended huff (II), n, fr prec 1 Fit of sulkiness, petulance, or resentment to get into a huff 2 (draughts) Action of huffing huffily, adv [1 hūfil, 2 hūfil] huffy & -ly In a huffy manner huffiness, n [1 hūfines, 2 hūfines] huffy & -ness State of being huffy, cross, sulky behaviour of one who has taken offence huffish, adj [1 hūfish, 2 hūfish] huff (II) & -ish Inclined to be petulant or sulky huffishly, adv Prec & -ly In a huffish manner huffishness, n See prec & -ness Huffish state of mind and behaviour huffy, adj [1 hūfi, 2 hūfi] huff (II) & -y a In a huff, sulky, b liable to be huffy, taking offence easily hug (I), v trans [1 hug, 2 hag] Origin uncertain, perh connected w Icel hugga, 'to soothe, comfort' 1 To embrace closely and fondly, clasp tightly in the arms (of beam) 2 (fig) a To squeeze with the fore legs 2 (fig) a To cling to, cherish, show fondness for, Phrs to hug one's chains, to prefer servitude to freedom, to hug oneself (on), to congratulate oneself, be pleased with oneself, b to skirt along by, keep close to, (of ships) to hug the shore, (of pedestrians or vehicles) to hug the side of the road hug (II), n, fr prec a Close, affectionate, or amorous embrace, b (wrestling) kind of grip a Cornish hug huge, adj [1 hū, 2 hūdz] M E hūge, hūge, fr O Fr ahuge, ahoge, possibly fr a Gmo source, op Du hoog, O H G hōh, high Very great, enormous, gigantic (of size or amount) a huge animal, building, huge profits, delight, enjoyment &c hugely, adv M E hūgeliche Prec & -ly To a huge extent hugely pleased hugeness, n M E hūgenesse See prec & -ness Quality of being huge, vast size hugeness, adj [1 hūjus, 2 hūdzæ] huge & -ous (obs) Huge hugger-mugger, n, adj, & adv [1 hūger muger 2 hūge-mage] Origin unknown 1 n a (archaic, Spenser), secrecy, b muddle, disorder 2 adj Confused, muddled 3 adv Confusedly, in a muddle Huguenot, n [1 hūgenot, 2 hūgenot] Perh fr earlier Fr eigenot, fr some form of Germ eidenoss, LG genoot, 'confederate'; Germ eid, 'oath', & genoes(e), 'comrade' The first syll perh influenced by Fr pers n Hugues, all more or less speculation. French Protestant of the 16th or 17th cent Huguenotism, n [1 hūgenotizm, 2 hūge notizəm] Prec & -ism Principles of the Huguenots hugy, adj [1 hūji, 2 hūdzji] (obs & poet) Huge hulk, n [1 huk, 2 huk] O E hulc, 'a shed, a lightship', M E hulc, 'ship', Du hulke, M LG hulk, O H G holcho, holcho, fr Mod Lat holcus, hulcus, fr Gk hollas, 'ship which is towed, trading vessel', fr holl* for solc*, strong grade of halken, 'todrag, tow', cogn w Lat sulcus, 'furrow', cardinal number ten multiplied by ten, ten decades, in singular always preceded by indefinite article or adjective a hundred, a bare hundred, one hundred, the second hundred, some hundred, about 100, uninflected in plural when preceded by another number or adjective expressing number two hundred, a few, several, hundred of them, great, long, hundred, 120, six score. Phrs to lend a man a hundred (pounds), to live to a hundred, to age of 100 years, here hundred, though apparently a noun, is really an adjective with following noun understood 2 Large, indeterminate number hundreds of people, hundreds and hundreds, a very large number Phr to have hundreds in the bank, hundreds of pounds, a large sum 3 Old administrative division of English or Irish county, perhaps originally an area supporting a hundred free families or containing 100 hides hundred (II), adj. See prec 1 a Ten times ten a hundred men; two, a few, many, hundred men, b (in composite ordinal numbers) the hundred and first 2 A hundred, very many to have a hundred things to do Phrs a hundred and one things, a large, indefinite number, not a hundred miles away, comparatively close hundreder, hundredor, n [1 hündreder, 2 hündrds] Mod. Lat hundredarius Prec & -or (hist, obs) a Chief officer of a hundred, b freeman of a hundred hundredfold, adj, adv, & n [1 hündredfōld, 2 hündredfōld] M E hundredfold hundreded & -fold 1 adj (rare) Multiplied by a hundred a hundredfold return on one's money 2 adv (preceded by a or archaic an) A hundred times as much or many the seed increased a hundredfold 3 n Amount a hundred times as great to yield a hundred-fold hundredth, adj & n [1 hündredth, 2 hündredp] hundred & -th 1 adj a Last in series of a hundred, b forming one part in a hundred 2 n a Last object in series of a hundred, b hundredth part hundredweight, n [1 hündredwāt, 2 hündredwēit] hundreded & weight A weight, formerly (and still in U.S.A.) of 100 lb, now of 112 lb avoirdupois, or one-twentieth of a ton, abbr-cwt hung, v [1 hung, 2 hæg] Pret & PP of hang hunger (I), n [1 húnger, 2 hángg] O E hungor, M E hunger, Common Gmc, OS, OHG hungar, MHG, Mod Germ hunger, Goth hūrus, ON hungr, Gmc type hąp̥x-r-uz*, huggruz, cogn w Lith kankti, 'suffering' 1 Bodily condition of discomfort, weakness, extreme exhaustion, and emaciation, ending in death, caused by lack of nourishment, famine to die of hunger 2 a Appetite, desire for food after fasting to satisfy one's hunger with a mutton chop, b any physical craving 3 Spiritual desire, craving, eagerness, for a hunger for the truth, for affection hunger (II), v [1 húnger, 2 hángg] O E hunger, M E hunger, Common Gmc, OS, OHG hungar, MHG, Mod Germ hunger, Goth hūrus, ON hungr, Gmc type hąp̥x-r-uz*, huggruz, cogn w Lith kankti, 'suffering' 1 Bodily condition of discomfort, weakness, extreme exhaustion, and emaciation, ending in death, caused by lack of nourishment, famine to die of hunger 2 a Appetite, desire for food after fasting to satisfy one's hunger with a mutton chop, b any physical craving 3 Spiritual desire, craving, eagerness, for a hunger for the truth, for affection hunger strike, n Refusal of political or other prisoner to eat hungrily, adv [1 húngerli, 2 hánggri] hungrily & -ly In a hungry manner hungeriness, n [1 húngerines, 2 hánggrines] hungrily & -ness Quality of being hungry, hunger the hungeriness of the soil hungry, adj [1 húnger, 2 hángg] O E hungry, M E hungry, Common Gmc, OS, OHG hungar, MHG, Mod Germ hunger, Goth hūrus, ON hungr, Gmc type hąp̥x-r-uz*, huggruz, cogn w Lith kankti, 'suffering' 1 a (of living beings) Suffering from lack of nourishment, starving crowds of hungry children followed the travellers, to go hungry, go without food, starve, Phr the hungry forties, decade from 1840, during which there was famine in parts of Great Britain and Ireland, b (of land, soil) poor, requiring much manure 2 a Having a keen appetite for food I'm hungry today and shall enjoy my dinner; b expressing, suggesting, hunger a hungry look 3 Experiencing spiritual hunger, keenly desirous of, yearning after hungry for home and friends, for knowledge &c hunk, n [1 hunk, 2 hąnk] Op W Flom hunk, of obscure origin, op the older hunch Large hunch, lump, thick slice, chunk, esp of bread hunkers, n pl [1 húngerz, 2 hąngkz] fr Scots dial hunker, 'to squat on one's hams', origin doubtful, possibly nasalized form of ON huka, 'to squat, crouch' See huckster (dial, esp Nthn and Scots) Hams, buttocks, esp in Phr on one's hunkers, squatting, crouching hunks, n [1 húngks, 2 hąngk] Origin doubtful (colloq or slang) A mean, selfish, ruggedly, disagreeable old fellow

Hunnish, adj [1 húnish; 2 hánis] Hun & -ish a Pertaining to, resembling, the Huns, b (fig) wantonly destructive, barbarous, c (slang) pertaining to the Germans hunt (I), vb trans & intrans [1 hunt, 2 hant] O E hūntian, M E hūntian, honten, only Engl This base is prob variant a of Gmc hūnp-, wk grade of base hūnp-, 'to seize', op Goth hūpan, 'to seize', hūp, 'captive' See hand (I) A trans 1 a To follow, chase, pursue (wild animal) with object of shooting or entangling to hunt antelope, big game, special b to pursue (a fox, stag, or hare) with horses and hounds, c phrase in names of various children's games in which person or thing is sought hunt the fox, hare, squirrel &c 2 a To follow the chase through or in (district) to hunt a country, b to employ (horse) in hunting to hunt one's horses in winter and put it out to grass for the summer, c to act as master, or huntsman, to a pack of hounds he hunts the hounds himself 3 To pursue, cause to run away, to chase, drive away to hunt cats (away) 4 To pursue (person), follow pertinaciously, to harry, persecute to hunt a thief, heretics 5 To search through, scour, ransack to hunt half London for a book B intrans 1 To engage in hunting, follow the chase, to ride to hounds to hunt with the Beaufort, to go out hunting 2 To search assiduously for a thing to hunt high and low 3 (of part of machine) To oscillate or move excessively C Followed by preposition or adverb Hunt down, trans, to pursue vigorously and remorselessly until caught, to track down to hunt down a murderer Hunt for, intrans, to seek, search assiduously for Hunt out, trans, to seek something which has been put away and hidden from sight, to root out to hunt out some old clothes, to hunt out a person's address and visit him Hunt up, trans, to look for, find, something which is hard to discover through being buried in scattered documents, among disparate matter &c, hunt out: to hunt up one's family history, a reference &c hunt (II), n, prec 1 Action of hunting, chase after fox or hare to have a good hunt twice a week 2 a (esp) Local association of persons who engage in hunting the Quorn Hunt, b party engaged in hunting, riders, horses, and hounds, c district hunted over by particular pack 3 Assiduous search a hunt for a job, for a missing key hunter, n [1 húnter, 2 hánt] O E hūnta, w different suff, M E hūntere hunt (I) & -er 1 Person or animal that pursues, hunts &c (not used of a person who hunts foxes &c on horseback) a mighty hunter, Red Indians are hunters and fishers, the leopard is a skilful hunter, hunter's moon, full moon after harvest moon 2 Horse used for hunting, horse of a breed adapted for fox-hunting 3 (rare) Person who seeks persistently for a thing a hunter after glory 4 Kind of watch of which the dial is protected by metal cover, suitable for hunting-man hunting (I), adj [1 húnting, 2 hántig] fr Pres Part of hunt (I) (of person or animal) That hunts. hunting-spider, hunting-dog, S African animal resembling dog, hunting in packs See also hunting (I) hunting (II), n O E hūntung, M E hūntunge hunt (I) & -ing a Action of person or animal that hunts, chase, pursuit, spent, fox hunting to be fond of hunting, Phr hunting-man, one addicted to fox hunting, b (attrib) used in hunting hunting cap, dog, knife &c, hunting cat, leopard, cheetah hunting-box, n Small house in hunting district used for residence during season hunting-case, n Metal case for watch, protecting glass and dial hunting-crop, n Riding whip, with thong and lash, sometimes furnished with longish handle at right angles to stock, for pulling gates open and shut, used by persons riding to hounds hunting-field, n Country over which one hunts, killed in the hunting field, while out hunting hunting-ground, n a District to which hunters resort for game, Phr happy hunting grounds, future life as conceived of by N American Indians, b place where one searches for, and sometimes finds, what one wants old bookstalls are his (happy) hunting-ground hunting-horn, n 1 Horn or bugle giving signals during hunt 2 (rare) Second pommel on near side of side saddle huntress, n [1 húntres, 2 hántres] hunter & -ess (liter) Woman or goddess who hunts huntsman, n [1 húntsmān, 2 hántsmān] Possess of hunt (II) & man. a Hunter, b hunt servant, in charge of hounds during a hunt huntsmanship, n [1 húntsmanship; 2 hántsmanship] Prec & -ship a Office of huntsman, tenure of this, b skill and abilities as a huntsman hunt's-up, n [1 húnts'up, 2 hánt's'up] fr Phr 'the hunt is up', ie started (archaic) Tune played on hunting horn or bugle in early morning to arouse hunters, reveille hunt-the-slipper, n Children's game in which one standing inside a close circle formed by other players sitting on floor, tries to find a slipper passed rapidly round below their knees hurdle (I), n [1 húrdl, 2 hád] O E hyrdel, M E hurdel, húrdel, fr W Gmc hurdil-*, op OHG hurd, MHG hurt, 'basket-work structure', Goth haurd-s, 'door', cogn w Scrt kyt, 'to spin', ert, 'to bind, connect', Gk kátralos, 'kind of basket', kúrtia, 'wicker-work', Lat crāta, 'hurdle, wickerwork', fr Aryan base h₁er-* &c, 'to weave, plait' See crate, grate (II), boarding (II) 1 A Movable oblong frame made of osier &c, generally with three uprights, four or five rails, and a cross A shaped stay, used to form section of light, temporary fence, of pen for sheep &c, one of a series of light, wooden rails, used in a hurdle race, also iron hurdle, section of railing made of iron, used in fencing, b (hist) rough structure resembling a hurdle on which condemned persons were dragged to execution 2 (pl) Hurdle race.

hurdle (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec A trans 1 a To make, supply, hurdles, b to place hurdles round, to enclose (space) or fill (gap) with hurdles 2 To leap over in race B intrans To leap over barrier in race, to jump an obstacle in special manner, as though striding, adopted in jumping hurdles hurdler, n [1 húrdler, 2 hídler] Prec & -er 1 Maker of wooden hurdles 2 Person who leaps hurdles in a race, an expert at a hurdle-race, n Foot race or horse-race in which the course is crossed by series of fences or hurdles which have to be leapt hurdy-gurdy, n [1 húrdi gúrdi, 2 hád gád] Initiative a An obsolete stringed instrument, in which the place of the bow was taken by a wheel turned by a handle, b loosely applied to various forms of hand-organ, especially as played in the street.

hurl (I), vb trans & intrans [1 hɜrl, 2 hɔl] ME hurlen, horlen Of LG or Scand origin, op E Frs hurleln, 'to blow in gusts', Norw hurle, 'to blitz', Dan hurle, 'to whir' 1 trans a To throw, cast, fling, with vigour and force to hurl a javelin, to hurl a person downstairs Phr to hurl abuse at, abuse loudly, b (reflex) hurl oneself at, upon, to rush 2 intrans a To throw (something) with force; b (archaic, op hurle) to rush noisily through the air, to whiz, c to play the game of hurling hurl (II), n, fr preo Aot of hurling hurlbat, n [1 hɜrlbæt, 2 hɔlbæt] Stick or club used in the game of hurling hurler, n [1 hɜrlər, 2 hɔlɪ] hurl (I) & -er Person who hurls, specif, one who plays at hurling hurley, n [1 hɜli, 2 hɔli] hurl (I) & -ey (Ir) a Game of hurling, b stick or club used in hurling hurling, n [1 hɜrlɪŋ, 2 hɔlɪŋ] hurl (I) & -ing 1 Action of person or machine that hurls 2 A Irish ball game, like hockey, played with crooked sticks or clubs between two goals, b Cornish game in which ball is thrown or carried to opponents' goal hurly, n [1 hɜli, 2 hɔli] O Fr hurlee, 'great noise', orig fem PP of hurler, 'to howl, yell', for earlier kuller, op Ital urlare, urlare, fr Lat urlare, op ulula, 'owl' See ululation (obs) Tumult, uproar (Shakespeare) hurly-burly, n [1 hɜli hɜli, 2 hɔli hɔli] Relation, if any, to Fr hurli burli, obs hurli burli, 'giddy, extravagant person', is doubtful. Uproar, tumult, commotion hurrah, hurra, interj, n, & vb intrans & trans [1 hʊərə, 2 hʊəd] Prob fr Du hoera or Germ hurra, replacing the older huzza, op MHG hurra, imitative Cp hurry 1 interj Exclamation or shout of joy, applause, or welcome hurrah for the king!, for the holidays!, often given as cheer by number of persons together at word of command hup, hup, hurrah! 2 n A shout of 'hurrah' listen to the hurrahs of the crowd 3 vb intrans To shout hurrah, b trans, to greet, applaud, with hurrah hurray, interj, n, & vb [1 hʊərə, 2 hʊəri] Variant of preo hurricane, n [1 hʊrɪkən, 2 hɜrkən, -ɪn] Formerly hurricane, 'water spout' (Shakespeare), fr Span huracan, fr Carib huracan Cp Fr ouragan 1 a Extremely violent cyclonic storm in W Indies or tropical Atlantic, b any wind of extreme violence it blew a regular hurricane 2 (fig) Sudden vehement outburst of passion, strong feeling &c a hurricane of popular fury, of applause hurricane-bird, n Frigate bird.

hurricane-deck, n (obs) Light upper deck on steamboat hurricane-lamp, -lantern, n Lamp or lantern with the light well protected against wind hurried, adj [1 hʊrɪd, 2 hɜrɪd] PP of hurry (II) a Urged, impelled, to move, act &c, in haste a hurried speaker, b done, performed, carried on, in a hurry, hasty, perfunctory a hurried glance, a few hurried notes, a hurried meal hurriedly, adv Preo & -ly In a hurried manner hurry (I), n [1 hʊri, 2 hɜri] Scand Cp Swed hurra, 'great haste', prob imitative in origin 1 a Action of hastening, expedition, haste, undue haste, bustle, hasty movement all was hurry and confusion, Phrs in a hurry, (i) impatient, anxious to get something done quickly, in a hurry to be rich, an old man in a hurry, (ii) (colloq) readily, easily, soon he won't do that again in a hurry, b (colloq), chiefly in interrog or neg sentence) reason for haste, urgency, immediate need is there any hurry about it?, don't go yet, there's no hurry 2 (mus) Tremolo played by violins &c to accompany rapid action on stage 3 Chute on quay or stage for loading ship with coal or ore hurry (II), vb trans & intrans See preo A trans 1 a To cause to move or to act rapidly, or more rapidly, to increase speed of, expedite, movement or action the police hurried the prisoner into a closed car, Phr hurry no man's cattle, don't be impatient, b to cause movement to become more rapid, to accelerate motion, to get action performed, or work done, with greater speed to hurry one's movements, to walk with hurried steps, dictionary-making is work which cannot be hurried beyond a certain point 2 To dispatch, send hastily troops were hurried to the threatened point 3 To hasten unduly, to do, cause something to be done, with precipitation, to bustle I have been hurried into error, it is easy to see that you were hurried when you wrote that; it would be a pity to hurry the work B intrans To move or act, quickly, with great, or increased, speed I wish you would hurry a bit, you'll be late if you don't, don't hurry, there's plenty of time C With adverbs Hurry along, a intrans, to move along with haste, b trans, to cause (a person &c) to hasten, to urge on, to expedite, speed up (an action, piece of work) Hurry away, a intrans, to depart in haste, b trans, to compel (a person) to depart with speed, take away with one Hurry off, hurry away Hurry over, intrans, to carry out, do, perfunctorily Hurry up, a intrans, to make haste, increase one's speed of movement or action, b trans, to expedite, to cause (a person) to move or act more rapidly, to cause (action) to be done more quickly hurry-scurry, adv, n, & vb intrans, fr hurry (I) & scurry 1 adv In extreme hurry, in wild, disorderly haste 2 n Disorderly haste 3 vb To act with extreme, disorderly haste hurst, n [1 hɜst, 2 hɔst] OE hyrst, 'wood, thicket', ME hurst, 'wood', OHG, MHG hurst, 'thicket', MLG, M Du, Germ horst, 'thicket, eyrie, sandbank' Prob fr Aryan base her-*, 'grow', whence also Lat creāre, q.v. under create, crētere, 'to grow', see creoscent, see further under herd (I) Survives chiefly in Place Names Wood, copse, wooded hill hurt (I), vb trans & intrans [1 hɜrt, 2 hɔt] ME hurten, hurten, 'to dash, push, injure', fr O Fr hurter (Mod Fr heurter), 'to knock, strike against', fr Romance type urire, as in Ital, late formation fr PP stem urt* of Lat urgere, 'to press, push' See urge, also work A trans 1 a To cause bodily smart or pain to a mustard plaster hurts you, but does good at the same time, I won't hurt you, b to do bodily harm to, inflict injury upon his back was permanently hurt by his fall 2 (fig) To wound the feelings of, to pain, distress he was felt, hurt by what was said 3 To damage, tend to destroy, injure, or to make less efficient, to cause deterioration of, obstruct progress of, to be bad for the drought has hurt the roses this year, strikes often hurt the strikers more than the employers, the reports hurt his reputation 4 (impers) It hurts, causes pain, does damage, to, in all senses of 1, 2, 3 it hurts the eyes to expose them to the sun, it hurts the feelings to be laughed at, it hurts the amenities of social life when there is mutual distrust B intrans 1 To cause bodily or mental pain nothing hurts worse at the time than a slight burn, systematic contempt and neglect hurt worse than actual insults 2 To be the seat of pain (colloq) my tooth still hurts a little 3 (impers) To do harm, cause pain or injury it didn't hurt a bit Phr it won't hurt, no harm will come of it 4 (colloq) To come to harm, suffer injury he won't hurt by himself for a few hours hurt (II), n, fr preo Injury, wound, harm, mischief (physical or mental) to do hurt to &c hurter, n [1 hɜrtər, 2 hɔtər] Fr heurteur, 'buffer, fender', fr heurter, 'to knock' See hurt (I) & -er a Shoulder on axle of wheel, b timber on gun platform acting as buffer to gun-catchage hurtful, adj [1 hɜrtfʊl, 2 hɔtʊl] hurt (II) & -ful Causing bodily or spiritual hurt, injurious, harmful hurtful to the health, to the morals hurtfully, adv Preo & -ly In a hurtful manner hurtfulness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being hurtful hurtle (I), vb intrans & trans [1 hɜtl, 2 hɔtl] ME hurlen, fr hurt (I) & freq -le 1 intrans a (archaic or liter) To clash, collide, jostle, crash, b to rush, fly, fall, be hurled violently or rapidly the shot hurled through the air, a chimney pot came hurting down 2 trans (rare) To cause to hurtle hurtle (II), n, fr preo a Clash, collision, shock, b house of this hurtleberry, n See whortleberry hurtless, adj [1 hɜtləs, 2 hɔtləs] hurt (II) & -less a Causing no hurt, b suffering no hurt husband (I), n [1 hʊzbənd, 2 hɜzbənd] OE hūsbanda, 'householder', ME husbonde, 'householder, small farmer, husband', fr ON húsbandi, fr hús (see house) & bandi, Pres Part of bīa, 'to dwell, inhabit' See bondage; & cp boor, & bower (I) 1 a (obs or archaic) Person who manages a household, estate, or other concern, specif, b ship's husband, agent managing the business of a ship for owners 2 a Man to whom a woman is married Prince George of Denmark was Queen Anne's husband, b man as thought of in relation to his wife he was a good, bad, husband to her husband (II), vb trans ME husbonden See preo 1 a To manage thriftily, to spend economically to husband one's resources, b (obs) to cultivate (ground, plants) 2 (rare) a To supply with a husband, b to be a husband to, to marry (woman) husbandage, n [1 hʊzbəndɪdʒ, 2 hɜzbəndɪdʒ] husband (I) & -age (naut) Commission paid to ship's husband husbandless, adj [1 hʊzbəndləs, 2 hɜzbəndləs] husband (I) & -less Having no husband, having lost a husband husband-like, adj husband (I) & -like Resembling, characteristic of, a husband husbandly, adj [1 hʊzbəndli, 2 hɜzbəndli] husband (I) & -ly Belonging to a husband, befitting a husband husbandly rights and duties husbandman, n [1 hʊzbəndmən, 2 hɜzbəndmən] ME husband (I) & man (I) (archaic) Farmer, cultivator of the soil husbandry, n [1 hʊzbəndri, 2 hɜzbəndri] ME husbonderie husband (I) & -ry 1 (archaic) Domestic management, control of household expenditure and affairs, economy, thrift 2 Work of husbandman, management of land and crops, farming, agriculture hush (I), vb trans & intrans [1 hʊʃ, 2 hɔʃ] Of imitative origin Similar words occur in other Gmc languages The starting point was prob the exclamation [ʃ] enjoining silence Mod hush / may perh be regarded as imperat of the vb 1 trans a (i) To make silent or quiet all strife and clamour were hushed, to hush a baby to sleep, (ii) (archaic, also reflex) O hush thee, my baby!, b (fig) to hush, calm, soothe, o (fig) to suppress, procure silence concerning, usually hush up to hush up a scandal 2 intrans To become silent or quiet, (imperat, as quasi-interj) silence!

hush (II), n See preo Silence, stillness the hush of evening hush (III), interj, imperat of hush (I) if pronounced [hʌʃ], as [ʃ], prob the starting-point of the group Be silent, don't speak, be quiet, don't make a noise, don't, you mustn't, say that!

hushaby, interj, [1 hʊʃəbi, 2 hɜʃəbi] hush (I), op lullaby Word in nursery rhymes used to hush an infant hush money, n Money paid to induce one to keep silence regarding a scandal husk (I), n [1' husk, 2 husk] ME huske, of doubtful origin. Perh related to hud, formed w -sk, adj suff a Dry tough covering of certain fruits or seeds, esp that of cereals, contrasted with groin, b (fig, pl) dry, uninteresting aspect, or treatment, of a subject, lacking soul and imagination husk (II), vb trans See preo To remove husks from husk (III), n, also hoose, op OE hās, ME hoos, Engl dial hask, hush, 'dry, hoarse' husk (IV), n [1' husk, 2 hāske] Cp husky (II) Dry cough in cattle, caused by small worms in bronchial tubes husker, n [1' husker, 2 hāske] husk (II) & -er Person or instrument that removes husks huskily, adv [1' hūsiklī, 2 hāsiklī] husky (II) & -ly With a husky voice huskiness, n [1' hūsiknēs, 2 hāsiknēs] huskiness & -ness Quality or condition of being husky (II) husky (I), adj [1' hūski, 2 hāski] husk (I) & -y 1 Resembling, covered with, husks 2 (slang) Coarse, rough, exhibiting a rude vigour a fine husky fellow husky (II), adj Associated w preo, but prob ultimately for Engl dial hask, hush, 'hoarse' See husk (I & III), hoarse Hoarse, a (of the voice) harsh, rasping, rough, b having a dryness or roughness in the throat, having a husky voice husky (III), n Variant or corruption of Eskimo a Eskimo, b Eskimo dog, c Eskimo language hussar, n [1' hoozár, 2 huzár] Germ husar, fr Hung huszar, fr O Serb huzor, 'freedomer, pirate', fr Ital corsaro, or Med Gk koursarios, fr Low Lat corsarius See corsair a (hist) One of the light cavalry of Hungary or Croatia, b soldier of regiment of light cavalry, with distinctive uniform, in British or continental army hussif, n See housewife

Hussite, n [1' hūsīt, 2 hāsāt] Follower of John Huss, Bohemian Reformer (burnt 1415) hussy, n [1' hūzā, 2 hāsā] fr M E huseif, w loss of final -f as in hasty See housewife a Pert, forward, or ill-mannered young woman or girl, a minx, b woman of doubtful character hustings, n pl [1' hūstingz, 2 hāstingz] OE hūsting, 'council', of Danes, ME hūsting, fr ON hūsting, fr hūs (see house (I)) & þing, 'assembly, council', cp Swed, Dan ting, 'assembly' See thing 1 Court formerly held in some English cities and boroughs, now only in city of London the court of hustings 2 a (hist) Platform in London Guildhall where court of hustings was formerly held, b (hist) platform where parliamentary candidates were nominated, and from which they spoke, c the hustings, electioneering platform, election proceedings hustle (I), vb trans & intrans [1' hūsl, 2 hāsl] Cp Du hutselen, husselen, 'to shake up and down in a vessel', freq (see -le) fr M Du hutsen, 'to shake, jog, jolt' 1 trans a To push, shove, jostle (person) roughly or rudely, as in crowd to be hustled by a pickpocket, the mob was hustled along, hustled out of the street by cavalry, he was hustled into a cab, b (fig) to impel, hurry, rush, bustle, (person) into acting to be hustled into a decision, I won't be hustled, c (colloq) to cause to be carried on or completed quickly to hustle something through, get it done, also hustle up 2 intrans a To push, press, roughly (against person), to press forward to hustle against one, to hustle through the streets, to move about hurriedly, b (Am colloq) to act rapidly and energetically.

hustle (II), n, fr preo Action of one who hustles, a rapid, energetic action, esp such action when it results in something being done, push, drive, b fussy, restless movement or action hustler, n [1' hūsler, 2 hāsle] hustle (I) & -er Person who hustles, one who acts with norvone rapidity and energy, but tends to get things done.

hut (I), n [1' hnt, 2 hat] ME hette, rare & doubtful, Fr hutte, fr OHG hutta, hutta (Mod Germ Hütte), Gmc type huddjō*, W. Gmc huddjō*, fr Gmc hūd*, wk grade of base hūd* & -to, 'to protect, hide, shelter' & See hide (II), house a Small rude shelter, poor dwelling, hovel, cabin, b light temporary building, used by soldiers in camp, workman &c hut (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo a trans To provide with, shelter in, huts, b intrans, to lodge in a hut or huts hutch (I), n [1' huoh, 2 hot] ME huc(c)he, hoche (also shuche, whych), fr O Fr huche, 'chest, bin', fr Low Lat hūthica Origin doubtful 1 a Box, bin, chest, as for grain, bin into which flour is bolted, b truck in which coal is conveyed to bottom of shaft and hauled up, c baker's kneading trough, d trough for washing ore 2 a Coop or cage for small animals, esp for rabbits or ferrets, consisting of box with bars or wire netting in front, b (colloq) cabin, small cottage hutch (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 (obs or archaic) To store in a hutch or chest (Milton) 2 (min) To wash (ore) in hutch hutmēt, n [1' hūtmēt, 2 hātmēt] hut (I) & -mēt (mil) a Housing in huts, b collection or camp of huts huzza, interj, n, & vb intrans & trans [1' hoozāh, 2 huzā] Germ husea, imitative (archaic) Hurrah huzzy, n See hussy hyacinth, n [1' hiasynth, 2 hātesynth] Fr hyacinthe, fr Lat hyacinth (us), fr Gk hualanthos, possibly cogn w Lat vaccinium, 'whortleberry', the earlier Engl form was jacinth 1 a Fabulous blue flower supposed by ancient Greeks to have sprung from blood of the youth, Hyacinthus, slain by Apollo, b plant nearly related to the squills, cultivated for its handsome spikes of flowers of various colours, a common English bluebell or wild hyacinth &c, c one of several related plants, as Cape hyacinth, Galltonia, grape hyacinth 2 Precious stone usually of a blue or dark colour, a jacinth of ancient writers, b red or brownish variety of zircon, c brownish variety of garnet, cinnamon stone hyacinthine, adj [1' hiasinthīn, 2 hātesynthīn] Lat hyacinthinus, fr Gk hualanthinos hyacinth & -ine a Pertaining to hyacinth flower, b resembling it in colour, traditional rendering of Homeric epithet applied to hair, perhaps dark and glossy hyacinthine locks (Milton)

Hyades, Hyads, n pl [1' hīadiz, hīadz, 2 hāidiz, hēidiz] Lat, fr Gk Hyades, orig prob 'little pigs', fr hūs (see sow (I)) & -ad, but associated w hāsin, 'to rain' See hyetogroup of five stars in Taurus, anciently supposed to indicate rain when they rose with the sun hyaina, n See hyena

hyaline (I), n [1' hīalīn, -m, 2 hāielōin, -m] Lat hyalinus, fr Gk hūdiinos, 'glassy', fr hūalos, hūelos, 'crystal, glass', said to be an Egyptian word 1 (poet, Milton) The glassy sea 2 Opalescent nitrogeous compound, found in hydatic cysts hyaline (II), adj See preo Crystalline, glassy, transparent, translucent hyalite, n [1' hīalīt, 2 hāielōit] hyalo- & hyalite, n [1' hīalītis, 2 hāielōit] hyalo- & -itis (pathol) Inflammation of the vitreous humour of the eye hyalo-, pref Gk hūalos, 'crystal, glass' See hyaline Form used in combination, denoting 'glassy, transparent, translucent' hyaloid, adj & n [1' hīalōid, 2 hāielōid] Gk hūaloisidēs Preo & -oid 1 adj Resembling crystal or glass, transparent, translucent, hyaloid membrane, that enclosing the vitreous humour of the eye 2 n Hyaloid membrane hybrid (I), n, a [1' hībnd, 2. hāibnd] Lat.

hībnda, hībnda, 'offspring of domesticated sow and wild boar, mongrel, person of mixed race', of doubtful, but prob Gk origin, perh fr Gk hūs (see sow (I)) & hībda*, 'wild boar' (1), assumed fr this compound hībkalos, 'hog', & -ide, otherwise fr. Gk hībda, hībda, 'maelence', see hūbristic 1 Animal or plant (rarely of human being) produced by parents of different species, cross breed, mongrel (sometimes excluding offspring of parents of different varieties, which is then termed crossbreed) 2 Thing of mixed origin, specif, compound word with elements from two languages, such as sociology, stratification hybrid (II), adj, fr preo Having the nature of a hybrid. a hybrid race, hybrid rose hybridism, n [1' hībndizm, 2 hāibndizm] hybrid (I) & -ism a Condition, nature, of a hybrid; b production of hybrids hybridist, n [1' hībndist, 2 hāibndist] See preo & -ist Person who practises hybridization hybridity, n [1' hībnditā, 2 hāibnditā] hybrid (I) & -ity Quality, state, of being hybrid hybridizable, adj [1' hībndizabl, 2 hāibndizabl] hybridize & -able Capable of hybridization, of producing a hybrid hybridization, n [1' hībndizashn, 2 hāibndizashn] Next word & -ation Act, process, of producing a hybrid hybridize, vb trans & intrans [1' hībndiz, 2 hāibndiz] hybrid (I) & -ize 1 trans To cause (animals or plants) to produce hybrids, to cross, cross fertilize to hybridize sweet peas 2 intrans To produce hybrids, to interbreed hydatis, n [1' hīdotid, 2 hōidōtid] Gk hūdidō, stem of hūdidō, 'drop of water, watery vesicle', fr hūdō, stem of hūdō, 'water' See hydro- Cyst or sac in animal body, containing watery fluid hydr-, pref Form used in combination for hydro- before vowel or h hydra, n [1' hīdra, 2 hādra] Lat hydra, fr. Gk hūdra, 'water-serpent', fr hūdōr, 'water' See hydro- 1 a (cap, Gk mythol) Serpent slain by Hercules at Lerna near Argos, having nine heads, any one of which, when struck off, was replaced by two, b (cap or lo, fig) evil which tends to reappear after each effort to exterminate it 2 (zool) Small, sessile, freshwater polyp, of which any severed part will grow into complete animal hydraemia, n [1' hīdrēmā, 2 hāidrimā] Preo & Gk hāima, 'blood' See haemal & -ia (pathol) Excessively watery condition of the blood hydragogue, adj & n [1' hīdragog, 2 hāidragog] Lat hydragōgus, adj, fr Gk hūdragōgōs, fr hydr- & Gk agōgōs, 'leading, drawing forth', fr agōm, 'to lead' See this base under agent (mod) 1 adj Expelling water from the body, diuretic 2 n Medicine having this property hydrangea, n [1' hīdrānjā, 2 hāidrēn(d)jā] Generic name, fr hydr- & Gk aggon, 'vessel, capsule' Cp Gk oggos, 'ware', cogn w O Ir ogien, 'dish' One of genus of Asiatic and N American shrubs, cultivated in gardens and greenhouses for its handsome globular clusters of pink, white, or blue flowers hydrant, n [1' hīdrant, 2 hāidrant] hydr- & -ant, orig an Am usage Pipe, termination of pipe, from water-main, usually in street pavement, with valve and screen to which hose or standard with nozzle can be attached, fire plug hydrate, n & vb trans & intrans [1' hīdrāt, 2 hāidreit] hydr- & -ate (chem) 1 a Compound, usually a neutral salt, formed by union of water with another substance 2 vb a trans To make into a hydrate, b intrans, to become a hydrate hydration, n [1' hīdrāshan, 2 hāidrāshn] Preo & -ion (chem) Process of forming a hydrate hydraulic, adj [1 hídraulík; 2 haidrólik]. Lat. hydraulica, fr Gk. hydraulikos, fr hydra, 'water-organ', fr hydr- & aulós, 'pipe, tube', formed instrumentally formative -i-, fr Aryan base we*, 'to blow, breathe'. See air, weather, wind (1), & -ic. 1. Pertaining to, operated by, water or other liquid flowing through a pipe, channel, or orifice, pertaining to hydraulics. a hydraulic brake, lift, crane, engine, lift &c. 2. (loosely) a Containing water. hydraulic joint, valve, one that prevents escape of gas from pipe by an enclosing vessel containing water; b consolidating in water hydraulic cement. hydraulically, adv Prec & -al & -ly By means of water power, by means of hydraulics. hydraulics, n. pl, used as sing [1 hídraulika, 2 haidrólika]. See hydraulic Science of liquid as motive power, art of applying water pressure to engineering. hydric, adj [1 hídrik, 2 haidrik]. hydr- & -ic (chem.) Pertaining to, containing, hydrogen. hydride, n. [1 hídrid, 2 haidrid] hydr- & -ide (chem.) Compound of hydrogen with another element. hydro-, pref Lat. hydro-, fr Gk. hydro-, combining form of hídōr, 'water', cogn. w. Scrt. cr- dr-, 'waterless' &c., extended fr Aryan base we-* &c. See further under water, wet, other, vodka, whiskey Form used in combination with scientific term, mostly of Greek origin, denoting a water, liquid, fluid, as hydroelectric, pertaining to the generation of electricity by water-power; hydro-extractor, apparatus for extracting water from jam &c.; hydrozoo, derivation by water hydrozoo, mechanics of liquids, hydrozoo (bot.), plant which grows in water, hydrozoo &c., pertaining to the employment of water in engineering, hydrozoo, treatment of disease by bathing and drinking water, b (chem.) measuring hydrogen, as hydrogen, hydrogen, hydrogen, hydrogen &c. hydro-, n. Popular abbreviation of hydrozoo &c. (see hydrozoo). hydrocarbon, n. [1 hídroscharbon, 2 haidroscharbon]. See hydro- & carbon. Compound of hydrogen and carbon, as coal gas &c. hydrocele, n. [1 hídrosél, 2 haidrosél]. Gk. hydro- & celē, 'tumour', see -cele Dropsy of the scrotum, spermatic cord &c. hydrocephalic, adj [1 hídroséfálik, 2 haidroséfálik]. See hydro- & cephalic Pertaining to, suffering from, water on the brain, having abnormally and excessively large head. hydrocephalous, adj [1 hídroséfálos, 2 haidroséfálos]. See prec & -ous Hydrocephalic. hydrocephalus, n. [1 hídroséfálos, 2 haidroséfálos] Mod. Lat., fr Gk. hydrocephalus, fr hydro- & Gk. kephalē, 'head'. See cephalic. Disease of the brain, esp. in infant, causing accumulation of liquid in and around the brain, often enormously enlarging the head, and causing mental degeneration, drops of the brain, water on the brain. hydrochloric, adj [1 hídrosklórík, 2 haidrosklórík]. (chem.) Compounded of hydrogen and chlorine, hydrochloric acid, this formed by these elements, muretic acid. hydrodynamic, adj & n. [1 hídrosdínamik, 2 haidrosdínamik]. hydro- & dynamic. 1. adj Pertaining to the dynamics of fluids. 2. n. pl Hydrodynamics science of the dynamics of fluids, comprising hydraulics and hydrostatics. hydrogen, n. [1 hídrosén, 2 haidrosén] Fr hydrogène, hydro- & -gen. Inflam. gasous element, the Lavoisier known substance combined with oxygen, of water.

hydrogenation, n. [1 hídrosénizáción, 2 haidrosénizáción] Prec & -ation. Formation of hydrogen compounds (e.g. petrol) from lower hydrocarbons (e.g. petroleum) treated with hydrogen under heat and pressure. hydrogenate, vb trans [1 hídrosénizáción, 2 haidrosénizáción] Prec & -ize a To combine with hydrogen, b to treat with hydrogen.

hydrogenous, adj [1 hídrosénus, 2 haidrosénus] hydrogen & -ous Pertaining to, containing, hydrogen. hydrographer, n. [1 hídrosgráfer, 2 haidrosgráfer] hydro- & -graph & -er Person versed in hydrography. hydrographic, adj [1 hídrosgráfik, 2 haidrosgráfik] hydro- & -graphic Pertaining to hydrography. hydrography, n. [1 hídrosgráfia, 2 haidrosgráfia] hydro- & -graphy, cp Fr hydrographie a Descriptive science treating of the bodies of water on the earth's surface, art of surveying and mapping them, b representation in map of oceans, seas &c. hydroid, adj & n [1 hídroid, 2 haidroid] hydr- & -oid. 1 adj Resembling the hydra, polyp-like. 2 n. Animal resembling the hydra. hydrologic, adj [1 hídrológik, 2 haidrológik] hydro- & -logic Pertaining to hydrology. hydrologist, n. [1 hídrológist, 2 haidrológist] hydro- & -logist Person versed in hydrology. hydrology, n. [1 hídrológi, 2 haidrológi] hydro- & -logy, cp Fr hydrologie Science treating of water, esp in relation to its subterranean distribution. hydrolyse, vb trans [1 hídrolíz, 2 haidrolíz] See next word. (chem.) To subject to hydrolysis. hydrolysis, n. [1 hídrolízis, 2 haidrolízis] hydro- & -lysis (chem.) Decomposition of a substance by the combination of one of its elements with one of those in water. hydrolytic, adj [1 hídrolítik, 2 haidrolítik] hydro- & -lytic (chem.) Pertaining to hydrolysis.
Hydromedusae, n. pl [1 hídromedúsé, 2 haidromedúsé] hydro- & medusa (zool.) A subclass of Hydrozoa, including the marine jellyfish. hydromel, n. [1 hídromel, 2 haidromel] Lat. hydromeli, fr Gk. hydromeli, hydro- & Gk. melis, 'honey'. See melliferous & muldew. Drink composed of honey and water. hydrometer, n. [1 hídrometr, 2 haidrometr] hydro- & -meter 1 Instrument for measuring specific gravity and strength of liquids, or of solids. 2 Instrument for measuring velocity of water.
hydrometric(al), adj [1 hídrometrík, 2 haidrometrík] hydro- & -metric & -al Pertaining to hydrometry or to the hydrometer. hydrometry, n. [1 hídrometría, 2 haidrometría] hydro- & -metry Measurement of the specific gravity of liquids, use of the hydrometer. hydropath, n. [1 hídrosfát, 2 haidrosfát] hydro- & -path. Hydropathist. hydropathic, adj & n [1 hídrosfátik, 2 haidrosfátik] hydro- & -pathic. 1 adj Pertaining to hydropathy, hydropathic establishment, hotel with special baths and other facilities for hydropathy. 2 n. (colleg.) Hydropathic establishment. hydropathist, n. [1 hídrosfátist, 2 haidrosfátist] hydro- & -pathist. Physician who practises hydropathy. hydropathy, n. [1 hídrosfátia, 2 haidrosfátia] hydro- & -pathy System of treating diseases by internal and external application of water, water cure. hydrophane, n. [1 hídrosfán, 2 haidrosfán] hydro- & Gk. phainō, 'to show'. See phantasm. Variety of opal which becomes transparent when wetted. hydrophobia, n. [1 hídrosfóbía, 2 haidrosfóbía] Lat., fr Gk. hydrophobos, fr hydro- & -phobos. A dread of water, esp as symptom of disease. b rabies, in animals or human beings which is marked by convulsions on patient attempting to swallow liquid. hydrophobic, adj [1 hídrosfóbik, 2 haidrosfóbik] Lat. hydrophobos, fr Gk. hydrophobos, fr hydro- & -phobos. Pertaining to hydrophobia.

hydrophone, n. [1 hídrosfón, 2 haidrosfón] hydro- & -phone Instrument for detecting sound as made by submarine moving in the neighbourhood, b of water flowing through pipe. hydropic, adj [1 hídrosfík, 2 haidrosfík] Mod. Lat., fr O Fr hydropique (Mod Fr hydropique), fr Lat. hydropicus (us), fr Gk. huidropikos, fr huidrops, see dropsy, & -ic Dropsical. hydroplane, n. [1 hídrosplán, 2 haidrosplán] hydro- & -plane 1 a Plane projecting from submarine, enabling it to be steered upwards or downwards, b plane attached to motor boat enabling it to skim along surface of water, c motor boat fitted with such planes. 2 Specif. waterplane, aeroplane which can alight and float on water. hydroscope, n. [1 hídroskóp, 2 haidroskóp] hydro- & -scope Instrument for observing the bottom of a body of water. hydrosphere, n. [1 hídrosfēr, 2 haidrosfēr] hydro- & -sphere, after atmosphere a The aqueous vapour of the atmosphere, b waters of the earth's surface collectively. hydrostat, n. [1 hídrosstat, 2 haidrosstat] hydro- & -stat Appliance indicating irregularities in level of water in reservoir or boiler. hydrostatic(al), adj [1 hídrosstatík, 2 haidrosstatík] hydro- & -static (& -al) Pertaining to hydrostatics, or to the properties of liquids in equilibrium, hydrostatic press, machine for compressing materials by transmitting water pressure from small to large cylinder.
hydrostatics, n. pl, used as sing [1 hídrosstatika, 2 haidrosstatika] fr prec Science treating of liquids in equilibrium, statics in relation to liquids. hydrotropism, n. [1 hídrosfropizm, 2 haidrosfropizm] hydro- & -tropism (biol.) Tendency of organism to grow either towards or away from moisture positive and negative hydrotropism. hydrons, adj [1 hídros, 2 haidros] hydro- & -ous Containing water, esp chem, in combination.
Hydrozoa, n. pl [1 hídroszóa, 2 haidroszóa] Mod. Lat., fr hydro- & Gk. zōa, 'animals'. See zoo- (zool.) Animals forming a class of coelenterates including jellyfishes and polyps. hydrozoon, adj & n [1 hídroszón, 2 haidroszón] Prec & -an. 1 adj Pertaining to the Hydrozoa. 2 n Member of the class Hydrozoa. hyena, hyaena, n. [1 híēna, 2 haviēna] Lat. hyaena, fr Gk. hyaena, 'hyena', lit 'sow', fr its bristly mane, fem of hūs, 'swine'. See sow (1) & swine. One of a family of carnivorous mammals, allied to the dog, of Asia and Africa, strong, but cowardly, feeding on carrion by night. hyena-dog, n. Cape hunting dog.
hyeto-, pref Gk. hūelos, 'rain', cp hdes, 'it rains', for hū-, fr wh base comes also O E ēaur, 'sap', sūgan, 'to snek', Lat. sūcus, 'juice'. See succulent, cp also O Prussian evge, 'rain'. Form used in combination, denoting rain, as hyetograph, chart showing annual rainfall, hyetography, scientific description of distribution of rain, hyetology, science of atmospheric precipitation, hyetometer, rain-gauge.
hygiene, n. [1 híēn, 2 haidzín] Fr hygiène, fr Gk. hygieinē (lekhnē), '(art) of health', hygieia, 'health', fem sing of hygieinos, 'pertaining to health', cp Gk. hygieis, 'healthy', cogn. w. Scrt. ugras, 'vigorous' &c. & -ine, fr base wrg-* &c. whence also Lat. regere, 'to quicken, arouse, be brisk', also regulus, 'lively, vigorous' &c. See further under vegetable Science or art of maintaining the health of the individual or community, sanitary principles and methods.
hygienic, adj [1 híēnik, 2 haidzínik] Prec & -ic Pertaining to hygiene, or to the law of health, conducive to health, healthy.

hygienically, adv [1 hījēnikali, 2 haidžīns-koli] hygienic & -al & -ly In a hygienic manner hygienics, n pl, used as sing [1 hījēniks, 2 haidžīnski] See hygienic Laws, principles, methods, of preserving health hygienist, n [1 hījīnist, 2 haidžīnist] hygiene & -ist Person versed in hygiene hygro-, pref Gk hugros, 'moist', cogn w Lat ūvere, 'to be moist', humidus, 'moist', fr 'ug'. See humid, humour Form used in combination with words of Greek origin, denoting moist, humid, as hygrograph, instrument recording changes in atmospheric humidity, hygrology, science treating of humidity &c. hygrometer, n [1 hīgrōmeter, 2 haigrōmēta] hygro- & -meter. Instrument for measuring the humidity of the atmosphere hygrometric, adj [1 hīgrōmetrik, 2 haigrōmetrik] hygro- & -metric Pertaining to hygrometry or the hygrometer hygrometry, n [1 hīgrōmetri, 2 haigrōmetri] hygro- & -metry Science of measuring the humidity of bodies, esp of the atmosphere hygroscopic, n [1 hīgrōskōp, 2 haigrōskōp] hygro- & -scope Cp Fr hygroscopie Instrument showing variations in atmospheric humidity hygroscopic, adj [1 hīgrōskōpik, 2 haigrōskōpik] Free & -ic 1 Pertaining to the hygroscopic 2 a Absorbing or attracting moisture, as salt, b indicating the absorption of moisture hygroscopic movements hyle, n [1 hīl, 2 hai] Gk hūlē, silē 'wood, matter', prob for (k)hulwā*, & cogn w Lat silva, 'wood' See savage, silvan (philos) Matter, as distinguished from form.

hylie, adj [1 hīlik, 2 haijik] Gk hūlikos, fr prec & -io (philos) Material, corporeal hyleo-, pref Gk hūlo, form of hyle used in combination with words of Greek origin denoting a wood, as hylophagous, hylozomous, (zool) eating, cutting, wood, hylophyte, (bot) plant living in woods, b (philos) matter, material, as hylomorphism, doctrine that nothing exists but matter and material forms, hylophilism, doctrine that matter is sentient, or that matter and spirit are interdependent, hylotheism, doctrine identifying God with matter, hylozoism, doctrine that all matter is living hymen, n [1 hīmen, 2 haimen] Mod Lat, fr Gk hūmēn, 'thin skin, membrane', prob for syūmēn*, cogn w Sort syūman, 'band', fr syū, 'to sew', Aryan base seu*, 'to sew' See sarum, suture, & op hymn 1 a (anat) Virginal membrane in the vagina, b (bot) pellicle surrounding flower in bud 2 (fig, cap) Marriage (from Lat. Hūmēn, from Gk Hūmēn, god of marriage rites) hymenal, adj [1 hīmenal, 2 haimēnal] Prec 1 & -al (anat) Pertaining to the hymen hymeneal, adj [1 hīmenēal, 2 haimēnēal] Lat hymenae (us), fr Gk hūmēnaios, 'wedding song, wedding', also 'the god Hymon' See hymen & -al Pertaining to a wedding or to marriage

Hymenoptera, n pl [1 hīmenōptēra, 2 haimēnōptēra] Mod Lat, fr Gk hūmēnōptēros, 'membrane-winged', fr hūmēn, 'membrane' (see hymen), & pteron, 'wing', fr base pet-*, 'fly' &c See ptero- & feather Highest order of insects, including bees, wasps, ants, sawflies &c, having four membranous wings hymenopterous, adj [1 hīmenōptērus, 2 haimēnōptērus] Prec & -ous Pertaining to the Hymenoptera hymn (I), n [1 hīm, 2 hīm] M E ymne, fr O Fr ymne (later Fr & Engl hymne through Lat influence), fr Lat hymn (us), fr Gk hūmnos, 'festal song, hymn' Origin doubtful, perh orig 'nuptial song' & connected w hymnen a Soloman song of praise or triumph, addressed to God, a god or gods, or other exalted being, b specif, religious song performed in Christian churches during divine service hymn (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec, cp. L Lat hymnāre 1 trans To address or praise in a hymn or hymns, to celebrate (an event &c), proclaim (glory, merits of), in hymns to hymn the Redeemer's praise 2 intrans To sing a hymn or hymns hymnal, adj & n [1 hīmnal, 2 hīmnēl] hymn (I) & -al 1. adj Pertaining to, consisting of, hymns 2 n Collection of hymns, hymn-book hymnary, n [1 hīmnari, 2 hīmnari] L Lat hymnārium hymn (I) & -ary Hymnal, hymn-book.

hymn-book, n Book consisting of collection of hymns, esp for public worship hymnic, adj [1 hīmnik, 2 hīmnik] hymn (I) & -ic Cp Fr hymnique Pertaining to, resembling, a hymn hymnist, n [1 hīmnist, 2 hīmnist] hymn (I) & -ist Composer of a hymn or hymns hymnodist, n [1 hīmnodist, 2 hīmnēdist] See next word & -ist Person versed in hymnody hymnody, n [1 hīmnodi, 2 hīmnēdi] Gk hūmnōdiastēs, hymn (I) & aidein, 'to sing' (see ode), & -y a Singing of hymns, b hymns collectively, c study of history and classification of hymns, hymnology hymnographer, n [1 hīmnōgrafa, 2 hīmnōgrafa] hymno-, combining form of hymn (I) & -graph & -er Cp Gk hūmnographos, 'writing hymns' 1 Person who writes on subject of hymns 2 Writer of hymns hymnography, n [1 hīmnōgrafi, 2 hīmnōgrafi] See prec & -y 1 Descriptive and historical treatment of hymns and their composition 2 Composition of hymns hymnologist, n [1 hīmnōlojst, 2 hīmnōlojst] See next word & -ist 1 Student of hymnology. 2 Composer of hymns hymnology, n [1 hīmnōloj, 2 hīmnōlojst] Eccles Gk hūmnologia See hymn (I) & -logy 1 a Study of hymns, treatise on this, b hymns collectively 2. Composition of hymns hyoid, adj & n [1 hīoid, 2 haoid] Gk hūoidēs, 'shaped like the Greek letter U' (which, when the initial of a word, is always written with aspirate), fr the name of the letter & -oid 1. adj (anat) U shaped, hyoid bone, small, U-shaped bone at base of tongue 2. n Hyoid bone hyoscin(e), n [1 hīosēn, 2 haosēn] Term formed fr first element in Gk hyoskiamos, 'henbane', & -in(e), the Gk. word is fr hūs, 'pig' (see sow (I)), & kuamos, 'bean', the origin of wh. is doubtful A poisonous alkaloid found in the datura or thorn apple, also in henbane &c, used in medicine as a powerful nerve sedative &c hypæthral, adj [1 hīpēthral, 2 haipēthral] Lat hypæthr (us), fr Gk hypæthros, 'under the open sky, or æther', fr hypo-, 'under', & aitēr, 'sky' See æther (archit) Open to the sky an hypæthral court hypallage, n [1 hīpālaj, 2 haipālēdži] Lat hypallagē, fr Gk hypallagē, fr hypallassein, 'to exchange', fr hypo- & allassein, 'to change', fr base all-*, 'other' See alien, alter, else (rhet) Figure of speech by which the syntactic relation of terms in sentence is reversed, as the ground hit me in the face, instead of my face hit the ground hyper-, pref Lat hyper-, fr Gk hyper, 'above, beyond', orig a compar. adv, fr hupo, 'under, beneath, up to', see hypo- & op sub-, up, cogn w Sort upari, Lat super, Goth ufar, q v under above, over, Aryan type uper-* Prefix generally equivalent to super-, properly, but not always, with words of Greek origin, denoting a above, beyond, in excess of, the normal or usual, as hyper-Calvinism, frequent in physiology and pathology, as hyperæsthesia, abnormally keen power of sensation, hyperæsthetic, hyperalgesia, hyperkinesia, opasm, hyperpnoea (Gk pnōtē, 'breath'), excessively rapid breathing, hyperthensia (Gk sthenos, 'strength'), excessive vigour of body or of any part, b transcending, as hyperphenomenal, hyperphysical, (geom and math) transcending conditions of three dimensions, as hypergeometry, hyperplane, hypersolid, hyperspace, hypersphere, c superimposed, as hyperparasitic, parasite of parasite hyperbatic, adj [1 hīperbātik, 2 haipēbātik] Gk hyperbatikos. See next word & -ic Pertaining to, marked by, hyperbaton hyperbaton, n [1 hīpēbaton, 2 haipēbaton] Lat, fr Gk hyperbaton, fr hyperbatos, 'transposed', vbl adj, fr hyperbassein, 'to go over', fr hyper- & bassein, 'to go' See basis, (gram) Inversion of natural order of words, e g 'All that beauty, all that wealth &c gave, Awaits a while the inevitable hour' (Gray's 'Elegy'), for the inevitable hour awaits all that beauty &c hyperbola, n [1 hīpēbola, 2 haipēbola] Lat, fr Gk hyperbolē, 'throwing beyond, excess, hyperbola', vbl n, fr hyperballen, 'to throw beyond, exceed', fr hyper- & ballen, 'to throw' See ballistic (geom) 'Curve formed by section of cone when the cutting plane makes greater angle with base than sides of cone make' (Webster's 'Internat Dict') hyperbole, n [1 hīpēboli, 2 haipēboli] Lat, fr Gk hyperbolē, 'an overshooting, excess' See prec (rhet) a Figure of speech which consists of obvious over- or under statement, intended to give emphasis and not to deceive, b fantastic, extravagant, exaggeration in statement, made in excitement, from enthusiasm &c hyperbolic, adj [1 hīpēbōlik, 2 haipēbōlik] Lat hyperbolicus, fr Gk hyperbolikos See prec & -ic 1 (math, geom) Pertaining to the hyperbola 2 Of the nature of hyperbole hyperbolical, adj [1 hīpēbōlik, 2 haipēbōlik] Prec & -al Pertaining to hyperbole, rhetorically or poetically exaggerated hyperbolically, adv Prec & -ly 1 In the manner of hyperbole 2 In the manner of the hyperbole hyperbolist, n [1 hīpēbolist, 2 haipēbolist] hyperbole & -ist. Person who employs hyperbole.

hyperborean, adj & n [1 hīperbōrean, 2 haipēbōrean] L Lat hyperboreanus, fr Gk hyperbōreos, 'belonging to a region far north' See hyper-, 'beyond', & boreal 1 adj Northern, bitterly cold 2. n Inhabitant of the North hypercatalectic, adj [1 hīperkatalektik, 2 haipēkatalektik] L Lat hypercatalecticus, fr Gk hyperkatalektikos See hyper- & catalectic (prosody) Having a redundant syllable at the end of the verse hypercritical, n [1 hīperkritik, 2 haipēkritik] hyper- & critic Person who is hypercritical hypercritical, adj [1 hīperkritik, 2 haipēkritik] Prec & -al Excessively critical, addicted to coarse judgement, carping, captious hypercritically, adv Prec & -ly In a hypercritical manner hypercriticism, n [1 hīperkritisizm, 2 haipēkritisizm] hyper- & criticism Excessive or captious criticism hypercriticize, vb trans & intrans [1 hīperkritizē, 2 haipēkritisizm] hyper- & criticize To criticize excessively or captiously hypermetrical, adj [1 hīpermetrik, 2 haipēmetrik] Gk hypermetros, 'going beyond measure' hyper- & metric & -al. (prosody) a Redundant, b having a redundant syllable at the end.

hypermetropia, n [1 hīpormetrōpia, 2 haipēmetrōpia] Gk hypermetros, see prec, & Gk ōps, 'eye' See optic. Excessively long sight; reverse of myopia.

hypermetropic, adj [1 hīpermetrōpik, 2 haipēmetrōpik] Prec & -ic Having excessively, morbidly, long sight hypertrophic, adj [1 hīpertrōfik, 2 haipētrōfik] hypertrophy & -ic Pertaining to, of the nature of, affected with, hypertrophy hypertrophied, adj [1 hipértrofiá, 2 hásipá-trófiá] Next word & -ed. a (pathol, biol) Affected with hypertrophy, b (fig, of non-material things) over developed, morbidly excessive hypertrophied self esteem hypertrophy (I), n [1 hipértrofi, 2 hásipá-trófi] fr hyper- & Gk tróphē, 'nourishment', cogn w Gk tróphēn, 'become fat, be nourished' &c See second element of atrophy a (pathol, biol) Excessive development, abnormal or morbid enlargement, of any part of an organism, reverse of atrophy, b (fig) excessive development of a faculty hypertrophy (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec 1 trans To affect with hypertrophy 2 intrans To be affected with hypertrophy hypophen, n & vb trans [1 híphen, 2 hásíphen] Lat, fr Gk hypēn for huph' hén, 'under one (head)', fr hypo- & hén, neut of hēs, 'one', see first element in hendeca- 1 n Short horizontal stroke (-) used in writing and printing, to connect the two parts of a compound word, as in Anglo Indian, dining table, or to connect the parts of a word divided at the end of a line of writing or printing, also sometimes to indicate the division of a word into syllables or etymological elements, as co-operate 2 vb To connect by a hypen, to hypenate hypenate, vb trans [1 hífenát, 2 básífenát] Preo & -ate To connect with a hypen, to write with a hypen or hypens. Phr hypenated American, (colloq) one of foreign origin, not fully assimilated, as German-American hypnagogic, adj [1 hípnagóik, 2 bípnagédíik] Gk hypn-(os), 'sleep', see hypno-, & agōgos, 'leading, eliciting', fr agēn, 'to lead', see agent & -ic Pertaining to drowsiness, ushering in sleep, hypnagogic illusions, dream-like images seen before falling asleep hypnic, adj & n [1 hípnik, 2 hípnik] Gk hupnikós, 'pertaining to sleep' See hypno- & -ic 1 adj Inducing sleep 2 n Soporific hypno-, pref Gk hypnos, 'sleep', for swepno*, cogn w Sart swep nat, 'sleep', Lat swp nas, 'dream', Lat som nas for sop nas*, fr sweepnos*, 'sleep', OE swef en, 'sleep, dream', fr *Aryan base swep, 'to sleep' See further under somnolent, soporific Form used in combination with words of Greek origin, denoting, a sleep, ordinary or hypnotic, as hypnogenic, hypnogenic, producing hypnotic sleep, hypnophobia, morbid dread of sleep, b dormant condition, as hypnospor, (bot) hibernating spore of certain algae hypnoid, adj [1 hípnoid, 2 hípnoid] Preo & -oid. Resembling hypnosis, partially or imperfectly hypnotic hypnosis, n [1 hípnosis, 2 hípnosis] Mod Lat, fr Gk hypnōsis, 'to put to sleep' hypno- & -osis 1 Induction of sleep 2 Hypnotic state, condition resembling profound sleep, usually artificially induced, marked by unconscious activity and suggestibility hypnotic, adj & n [1 hípnótik, 2 hípnótik] Lat hypnōticus, fr Gk hypnōtikós, 'drowsy, soporific', fr hypnōsis, 'to put to sleep' See prec 1 adj a Inducing sleep, soporific, b pertaining to, inducing, subject or susceptible to, hypnosis the hypnotic state, a hypnotic subject 2 n a Drug or other agent that induces sleep, soporific, narcotic, b person susceptible to hypnosis hypnotism n [1 hípnōtizm, 2 hípnōtizm] See hypnotize & -ism a Induction of hypnosis 2, practice of inducing it, b (loosely) hypnosis, c (fig) power of dominating or controlling a person's feelings and will, fascination, power of suggestion hypnotist, n [1 hípnōtist, 2 hípnōtist] See hypnotize & -ist Person who practices hypnotism hypnotization, n [1 hípnōtizashun, 2 bípnōtizashun] See next word & -ation Action or process of hypnotizing hypnotize, vb trans [1 hípnōtiz, 2 hípnōtiz] Gk hypnōzō, adj stem fr hypnōsis (see hypnotic) & -ize a To put into the hypnotic state by suggestion, b (fig) to dominate the feelings and will of, to fascinate hypnotized by the speaker's eloquence hypnotizer, n [1 hípnōtizer, 2 hípnōtizer] Preo & -er One who hypnotizes, a hypnotist hypnotoid, adj [1 hípnōtoid, 2 hípnōtoid] See hypnotize & -oid. Resembling hypnosis hypo, n [1 hípo, 2 hípo] Ahbr fr hypophosphite Sodium hypophosphite, used in solution for fixing photographs hypo-, pref Lat hypo, fr Gk hupō, 'under, below', also 'from below', cogn w Sart upō, 'near, on, under, up to', Lat s ub (see sub-), Goth uf, 'under' See above, over Prefix generally equivalent to sub-, but used with words of Greek origin, denoting, a below, under, on the lower or inner side, as hypobasal, hypoblast, inner germ layer of embryo, hypoblastic, hypobranchial, hypogastric, hypogastrium (Gk hypogastrium), lowest median abdominal region, hypogeal (Gk gē, 'the earth', see geo-), subterranean, hypogene, (geol) produced underground, hypogenous, (bot) growing on the underside, hypogeous, (bot) subterranean, subordinate, subordinately, as hypogaeic, hypogaeic, in a minor degree, somewhat, a little, as hypothermal, (chem) combined with less oxygen, as hypochlorous, hypophosphate, hypophosphoric, d deficient, as hypobulia (Gk boulesia, 'to will'), deficient will power hypocaust, n [1 hípkawst, 2 hípkawst] Lat hypocaustum, fr Gk hypokaulon, lit 'burnt below' See hypo- & caustic a Space beneath pavement of ancient Roman house or bath filled with hot air from furnace, b modern heating apparatus beneath floor of hothouse &c hypochondria, n [1 hípkondria, 2 hípkondria] Lat pl, fr Gk hypokhondria, pl, upper parts of abdomen, a, anciently considered seat of the malady, prop neut pl of adj -ia, 'pertaining to the region below the cartilage' (of the breastbone), fr hypo- & khondria, 'grain, groat, gristle', perh cogn w grind, & cp gristle Morbid depression of spirits, usually with anxiety regarding health hypochondriac, n [1 hípkondriak, 2 hípkondriak] Gk hypokhondriakós Preo & -iac Person who suffers from hypochondria hypochondriacal, adj [1 hípkondriakl, 2 hípkondriakl] Preo & -al Suffering from, liable to, hypochondria, due to hypochondria hypocoristic, adj [1 hípkoristik, 2 hípkoristik] Gk hypokoristikos, fr hypokoristhōs, 'to use childish language, call by an endearing name', fr hypo- (hypo-), in sense 'secretly, privately', & koris eikha, 'to caress, coax', fr koris, 'child', fr *base ker-, 'to grow' See further under create, dord (gram) Endearing, familiar Hypocoristic name, one abbreviated or otherwise altered from the full name, familiar, pet, name e.g. Bill for William &c hypocrisy, n [1 hípkris, 2 hípkris] M E, O Fr ipocrisie (later ipocris), on model of Lat hypocrisis, fr Gk hypokrisis, 'an acting on the stage', hence 'hypocrisy', fr hypokrisis eikha, 'to answer, speak in dialogue, play a part', fr hypo-, 'subordinately', & krin-eikha, 'to contend, dispute', middle voice of krinein, 'to judge, decide' See critic Action or practice of feigning to be better than one is, simulation of virtue or piety, insincere profession of goodness, affection &c hypocrite, n [1 hípkrit, 2 bípkrit] M E, O Fr ipocrite (later ipocris, as prec), fr Lat hypocrita, fr Gk hypokritēs, 'actor, hypocrite', fr hypokrinesthai, as prec Person who practices hypocrisy, one who feigns virtue or piety, affection &c, a dissembler, a double faced person.

hypocritical, adj [1 hípkritikl, 2 hípkritikl] Gk hypokritikós (ds) See prec & -ic & -al Pertaining to a hypocrite or to hypocrisy, simulating virtue or piety, double-faced, insincere, false hypocritically, adv Preo & -ly In a hypocritical manner hypodermic, adj & n [1 bípodérmik, 2 bípodérmik] hypo- & derm(a) & -ic 1 adj (lit) Under the skin, pertaining to, applied to, some part of the body beneath the skin a hypodermic injection, syringe 2 n a Drug injected beneath the skin, b hypodermic injection of drug hypodermically, adv [1 bípodérmikali, 2 bípodérmikali] Preo & -al & -ly So as to enter below the skin hypophosphate, -ite, n [1 hípofofát, It, 2 hípofofát, ast] See hypo- & phosphate, -ite (chem) Salts of hypophosphoric acid and of hypophosphorous acid hypophosphoric, -phosphorous, adj [1 hípofofōrik, -fofōrik, 2 hípofofōrik, -fofōrik] See hypo- & phosphoric, -ous (chem) Pertaining to two types of acids of phosphorus hypostasis, n [1 hípostasis, 2 hípostasis] Lat, fr Gk hypóstasis, 'underlying nature, substance', fr huphistasthai, 'to stand under, substant', fr hypo- & histasthai, 'to stand', middle voice of histanaí, 'to cause to stand' See state (I), stand (I) 1 (philos) a Substance, reality, or essence which underlies attributes, b concept hypostatized, or regarded as having real existence 2 (theol) Any one of the persons of the Holy Trinity hypostatic(al), adj [1 hípostátik (I), 2 hípostátik (I)] Gk hypostatikós (ds), fr hypostati-, adj stem fr huphistasthai See prec & static 1 (obs or archaic) Underlying, fundamental 2 (theol) Pertaining to an hypostasis or divine person, hypostatic union, union of the human and divine natures in Christ hypostatization, n [1 hípostatizashun, 2 hípostatizashun] Next word & -ation A Action of hypostatizing, state of being hypostatized, b object hypostatized hypostatize, vb trans [1 hípostatiz, 2 hípostatiz] Gk hypostati- See hypostatic & -ize a To regard as a substance, essence, or thing with real independent existence, b to regard as a person, to personify hypostyle, adj [1 hípostil, 2 hípostail] Gk hypostylōs, fr hypo- & stilos, 'pillar' See style (III) (archit) Having pillars to support the roof a hypostyle hall hypotenuse, n [1 bípoteniz, 2 bípoteniz] Fr hypoténuse, fr Lat hypotēnusa, fr Gk hypotenousa (grammē), 'sahntending (line)' Preo Part lem of hypotenuse, 'to stretch under, subtend', fr hypo- & teinēin, 'to stretch' See tenuous & thin (geom) Side of right angled triangle opposite the right angle hypothee, n [1 bípothek, 2 bípothek] Fr hypothèque, fr L Lat hypothēca, fr Gk hypothēkē, 'pledge, mortgage', fr hypothēnā, 'to put under, pledge', fr hypo- & thēnā, 'to put', base dhē-* See thesis (Roman and Scots law) Security held by creditor over debtor's property hypotheary, adj [1 bípothekari, 2 bípothekari] L Lat hypothēkarius Preo & -ary (law) Pertaining to a hypothec hypothecate, vb trans [1 bípothekāt, 2 bípothekāt] L Lat hypothēcā, P P stem of hypothēcāre, 'to pledge', fr hypothēcā, see hypothec, & -ate (law) To subject to a hypothec, to pledge, mortgage, without transferring possession or title hypothecation, n [1 bípothekashun, 2 bípothekashun] L Lat hypothēcātiō (em) See prec & -ation Action of hypothecating, obligation thus created hypothecator, n [1 bípothekātōr, 2 bípothekātōr] hypothecate & -or Person who hypothecates hypothesis, n [1 bípothēs, 2 bípothēs] Mod Lat, fr Gk hypóthesis, 'foundation, ICE (I)

I

ibis, n [1 ibis, 2 dibis] Lat ibis, fr Gk ibis, ibus, prob of Egypt origin, a wading bird with a long curved bill, found in many tropical and sub tropical countries, Sacred ibis, edj suff [1 ibi, 2 bis] representing Lat -ibilis, forming eds fr vbs, v the sense of 'capable of being, able to be' Cp -abile Adj*s* in -ibile undoo a Lat. adjs formed fr the infn or P.P. etes of vbs in -ire, -jre terrible, edible, legible, discernible, visible, plausible, divisible, sensible, b later or modern formations fr such vbs dirigible, exchaustible, audible, fallible, responsible &c suff [1 ik, 2 -iks] representing Gh. -il (os) (more rarely) Lat -ile (us), forming [1] adjs n, [2] ns fr these eds, forming [1] adjs n the sense of 'like, pertaining to' The eds here have, heroic, fantastic, frantic, fr (Gk) aitic, rustic. Thoseuff is still in use to form nouns encephalic, athenatic, fr Gk or carionic, b fr proper names magnetic, electric, Napoleonic, n fr ns in -itic realistic, journalistic. Ns in ns in -itic Gk or Lat adjs elastic, septic, climacteric, public, classic, b Gk alés, -ika, chiefly names of arts and music, rhetoric, c modern formations in -itic, denoting 'the art or science of', and in -ice, as acoustics, physics, etc., d as contrasted fr -ous, having no analogy than the equivalent in -ous, barious, acid cut to ice, to affect little or nothing, on thin ice, in a delicate situation, touching upon matters best avoided 2 Frozen water, cream &c, sweetened and flavoured a water ice, strawberry ice ice (II.), vb trans, fr pres 1 a To freeze, b to chill (wine, coffee &c) with ice 2 To cover with ice the shallow pond was soon iced over 3 To cover (cake &c) with sugar icing

-ice, suff [1 is, 2 is] forming a abstract ns, fr O Fr ice, fr Lat ista justice, malice, b ns, fr Lat ns in stium precipice, hospice ice-age, n (geol) Part of the tertiary era, characterized by extensive movements of ice fields ice-axe, n Axe used in Alps climbing, for cutting footholds &c in the ice iceberg, n [1 isbërg, 2 aisbërg] Cp Du yisberg, Dan isberg, fr Germ eisberg, where second element is Gmc berg*, 'hill' See ice & berg Large mass of floating ice broken from glacier iceblink, n [1 isbhlngk, 2 disbhlngk] Light on the horizon caused by reflection from ice field ice-boat, n Light boat fitted with long runners and sails for sailing on ice icebound, adj [1 ishonnd, 2 aisbound] Obstructed by, frozen up in, ice ice-cap, n Large, perennial sheet of ice, especially one covering mountain top ice-cream, n Frozen mixture of sweetened and flavoured cream &c ice-field, n Extensive sheet of floating ice ice-foot, n Wall of ice along the shore, in Polar regions ice-house, n Building for storing ice

Iceland, n [1 islander, 2 aislander] Iceland, island in N Atlantic, &-er An inhabitant of Iceland

Icelandic, adj & n [1 islandik, 2 aislandik] See pres &-ic 1 adj Pertaining to Iceland 2 n The language of Iceland

Iceland moss, n [1 island mos, 2 aisland mbs] Kind of edible, medicinal, lichen found in Iceland, Norway &c

Iceland poppy, n Perennial yellow poppy growing in Arctic regions, nearly related to Alps poppy

Iceland spar, n A transparent variety of calcite used for making prisms ice-man, n [1 isman, 2 aisman] One experienced in traversing or walking among, ice ice-pack, n Expanse of broken masses of ice formed into solid mass by pressure ice-plant, n Aspecies of Mesembryanthemum, the leaves of which are covered with small vesicles showing like specks of ice ichneumon, n [1 iknūmon, 2 iknyūmon] Lat, fr Gk ikhneumon, lit 'the tracker', name given to a spider hunting wasp, and to the ichneumon, fr ikhneumon, 'to track, trace, hunt for', fr ikhnos, 'track, footprint' See ichno- 1 Small animal resembling a weasel, inhabiting Asia and Africa, which digs up and destroys the eggs of the crocodile, the Indian variety is known as the mongoose 2 An ichneumon fly ichneumon-fly, n A parasitic insect which deposits its eggs in the living tissues of another insect ichno-, pref, fr Gk ikhno (s), 'track, footprint' (fr ikhno*), cp Gk ikhnos, 'bounding' (of the wild goat) Cp also Lath ico, 'splits', fr Aryan base ag*, y*, 'to jump', hence, on the one hand, 'the mark left on the ground by a jump or rapid movement', on the other hand, 'to spring apart, split' Of tracks, traces, footprints ichnography, n [1 ikhogrfi, 2 ikhogrfi] Pres &-graphy The art of drawing ground plans ichnolite, n [1 ikhnlit, 2 ikhnlart] ichno- &-lite (geol) A fossil footprint ichnology, n [1 ikhnlōj, 2 ikhnlōdzī] ichno- &-logy The study of fossil footprints ichor, n [1 ikor, 2 aikō] Gk ikhōr, 'ichor, any watery fluid' Etymol unknown 1 (Gk mythol) Fluid, answering to human blood, supposed to flow in the veins of the gods 2 (mythol) Watery matter discharged from wounds and sores ichthus, n See ichthys ichthy(o)-, pref, fr Gk ikhthē (s), 'fish' Alleged cognates fr Baltic languages (Lith zvis &c) throw no light on primitive meaning, & leave the form doubtful Of, pertaining to, fish ichthyography, n [1 ikhthōgrafi, 2 ikhthōgrafi] Pres &-graphy A treatise on, description of, fish ichthyoid, adj & n [1 ikhthōid, 2 ikhthōid] ichthy(o)- &-oid 1 adj Lake-fish 2 n A fish like vertebrate ichthyolatry, n [1 ikhthōlatrī, 2 ikhthōlatrī] ichthy(o)- &-latry The worship of a god in the form of a fish ichthyolite, n [1 ikhthōlit, 2 ikhthōlit] ichthy(o)- &-lite (geol) A fossil fish ichthyologist, n [1 ikhthōlōgist, 2 ikhthōlōgist] See next word &-ist One who studies ichthyology ichthyology, n [1 ikhthōlōj, 2 ikhthōlōdzī] ichthy(o)- &-logy Branch of zoology which deals with fish ichthyophagous, adj [1 ikhthōfagūs, 2 ikhthōfagūs] ichthy(o)- &-phagous Fish eating, living on fish ichthyornis, n [1 ikhthōrnīs, 2 ikhthōrnīs] ichthy(o)- & Gk ornis, 'bird' See ornitho- A kind of fossil bird with fish like teeth ichthyosaurus, n [1 ikhthōsōrūs, 2 ikhthōsōrūs] ichthy(o)- & Gk sauros, 'lizard', q v under saurian A fossil, marine, carnivorous reptile with a long tail, large head, and four limbs like paddles ichthyosis, n [1 ikhthōsis, 2 ikhthōsis] ichthy(o)- &-osis A skin disease characterized by a dry, scaly formation ichthyotic, adj [1 ikhthōtik, 2 ikhthōtik] ichthy(o)- &-otic Pertaining to, resembling, affected with, ichthyosis ichthys, n [1 ikhthīs, 2 ikhthīs] Tr, fr Gk ikhthē, 'fish' See ichthy(o)- Name of an early Christian emblem in the form of a fish, the initial letters in Greek of 'Jesus Christ, Son of God, Saviour', spelling the Greek word

-ician, suff [1 ishen, 2 ishen] Suff -ian added to ns & adjs, in -ic(s), forming ns denoting 'person connected with, learned in' mathematician, musician, physician, mechanician, academician icicle, n [1 isil, 2 aisil] OE is gicel, ME isel, cp ON is jökull, cp also ON jag, 'ice', Ir ag, Pers yagh A spear-shaped piece of ice hanging from an edge or projection, formed by the freezing of drops of dripping or slowly trickling water icily, adv [1 isli, 2 aisli] icy &-ly In an icy manner (lit and fig) iciness, n [1 isnes, 2 aisnes] icy &-ness The quality of being icy (lit and fig) icing, n [1 isng, 2 aisng] ice (II) &-ing A mixture of sugar, white of egg, and other ingredients, used for coating, or forming a layer in, a cake &c icon, n [1 ikon, 2 aikon] L Lat, fr Gk eikōn, 'a likeness, image, portrait, picture, statue', cp Gk eikē*, 'to be like, to appear, seem', eikōs, 'likely, probable', eikos, 'like, resembling', also, Lith (pa)kūlis, 'example', Aryan base weil*, wōl*, wōl*, 'to be like' 1 Image, likeness, portrait, whether picture or statue & 2 Specif (Gk Ch) sacred portrait, mosaic &c, representing the figure of Christ, or of a saint or martyr, usually having the face, and sometimes the hands, painted, or made in enamel, the rest of the figure being moulded in metal which is placed above the enamel, so that the face &c appear through openings in the metal iconic, adj [1 ikhōm, 2 aikhōm] fr L Lat, fr Gk eikōnikos, 'pertaining to a portrait, representation' Pres &-ic 1 Pertaining to, of the nature of, a portrait 2 (of sculpture) Following a conventional type icono-, pref representing Gk eikōn, 'image'. See icon Image, icon.

iconoclasm, n [1 ikhōnoklasm, 2 aikhōnoklasm] Pres & Gk klasma, 'something broken', fr klain, 'to break, break off' Cp Gk klēma, 'a cutting (of a plant)', klā d os, 'a ship, shoot, for grafting', kladōs, 'fragile', klōs, 'cut off, truncated', Lat clades, 'harm, damage', (per)cellere, 'to overthrow', O Slav kladivo, 'hammer', Ir claid, 'I dig', Lith kalti, 'beat, forge', Aryan base lā* (d), lā* (d), lā* (d), lā* (d), 'to cut, hence, to destroy, harm' See further holt, gladiator, cataclasm.

1 The destruction of images 2 (fig) The destruction of popular idols, of established belief, illusions, objects of admiration &c iconoclast, n [1 ikhōnoklast, 2 aikhōnoklast] fr Gk eikōn, 'image' (see icon), & klast, fr klain, 'to break' See pres 1 A breaker of images, esp one of a religious party in the Eastern Church of the 8th and 9th cents, who attacked the worship of images 2 (fig) One who attacks traditional or cherished beliefs, superstitions, institutions &c iconoclastic, adj [1 ikhōnoklastik, 2 aikhōnoklastik] Pres & -ic Pertaining to an iconoclast, or to iconoclasm iconography, n [1 ikhōnogrfi, 2 aikhōnogrfi] icono- &-graphy 1 A study of portraits, statues &c, b specif, study of the portraits of a particular person the iconography of Christ, Shakespeare &c 2 The art of illustration by means of figures, diagrams &c iconolatry, n [1 ikhōnōlatrī, 2 aikhōnōlatrī] icono- &-latry The worship of images iconology, n [1 ikhōnōlōj, 2 aikhōnōlōdzī] icono- &-logy The study of icons, images &c iconomachy, n [1 ikhōnomāchī, 2 aikhōnomāchī] icono- &-māchy Hostility to the devotional use of images iconostasis, n [1 ikhōnostasis, 2 aikhōnostasis] icono- & Gk stasis, 'the act of placing, setting, standing, position' See stas (I) (Gk Ch) Screen, adorned with icons, separating the sanctuary from the rest of the church icosahedron, n [1 ikhōsahēdrōn, 2 ikhōsahēdrōn, -hedrōn, fr Gk eikōsahēdrōn, 'a body with twenty surfaces', fr eikōs, 'twenty', fr eikōs*, cp Sert vīstā, Lat vīginti, O Ir fiche, 'twenty' From wī*, 'two' (cp Sert vī, 'separately, separating', vī taram, 'farther', Goth unþra, 'against' (see with)), & (d)ēmī, 'ten' Aryan base del*, del*, del*, 'ten' See deca-, ten, hundred, &-hedron Polyhedron with twenty planes

-ics, suff -ic & pl ending -s, forming ns w sense of 'art, science, of' dynamics, optics, politics ictus, n [1 iktus, 2 iktus] Lat ictus, 'a blow, stroke, metrical stress', PP type of icere, 'to strike, wound', cogn w Gk ikhmē, 'lance point', Lith esmas, Lett esms, 'roasting spit' Rhythmical stress icy, adj [1 isī, 2 disī] ice (I) &-y 1 a Covered with, abounding in, ice icy waters, the icy North, b very cold the icy blast 2 (fig) Cold, frigid, distant in manner, lacking cordiality icy politeness id, n [1 id, 2 id] (biol) Term proposed by Weissmann for the smallest visible unit of life, assumed hypothetically to be made up of a group of still smaller, and invisible, particles of living matter called biophores

-id (I), suff representing Lat -id (us), forming adjs, a fr vbe w &- stems, horrid, frigid, stund, fervid, b fr ns turbid, morbid Words in -id (I), are borrowed either directly fr Lat, or through Fr

-id (II), suff representing a Gk n. stem pyramid, orchid, caryatid

-idae, suff [1 idō, 2 idō] fr Lat pl, fr Gk patronymic suff idēs, used as termination of zoological families, as Felidae &c ide, n [1 id, 2 aid], fr Swed id A fresh-water fish of the carp family

-ide, suff used in chemistry to form names of compounds of two elements oxide, bromide, carbide &c, sodium chloride, oxide of zinc &c idea, n [1 idca, 2 aidca] L Lat, fr Gk idéa, 'form, look, semblance, kind, nature, class, species, ideal form, archetype', earlier uidea*, cp. Gk eidos, 'outward form, idea', fr base ueid-, uoid-, uid-* wh appears in Lat uidere, 'to see', visio, 'sense of seeing, sight' &c (see vision), & in OE witan, 'to know' (see wit (I)), & OE wis (see wise) For other Gk forms see idol & -oid Used in various and differing senses by philosophers 1 (Gk philos) Self-activity which is manifested in life and mind, self-activity cause of life, permanently existing model of which all individual things are but imperfect reproductions 2 (mod. philos) Purely subjective notion, immediate object of thought, perception, and understanding 3 (popular usage) a Notion, mental conception to form an idea of virtue, to have a poor idea of a man's abilities, b plan, scheme, formed in the mind, proposed, suggested course of action, realization of this my idea is to close up the windows looking west, and to open out new ones to the south, that was a good idea of yours to plant a clump of trees on the skyline, Phrs full of ideas, a man of ideas, fertile in suggestions and expedients, resourceful, a vague premonition, intuition, instinct, fancy, sense of the probability of some coming event I have an idea somehow, that he will come today, Phrs to get ideas into one's head, to cherish illusions, the idea of such a thing!, such conduct is preposterous, such things are highly improbable, d opinion, aspiration to force one's ideas on others, e thought, knowledge; imagination I haven't an idea what you mean, he hasn't an idea in his head idea'd, idead, adj [1 idéad, 2 aidéad] idea & -ed Full of, rich in, ideas ideal (I), adj [1 idéal, 2 aidéal], fr Fr idéal, fr L Lat ideālis, 'of an idea' idea & -al 1 Of the highest, most perfect, type, in accordance with one's most exalted imagination, or conception, realizing one's highest standard of excellence an ideal companion, an ideal place for a holiday 2 a Representing, embodying, giving visible form to, an idea, created by the imagination an ideal portrait b existing only as an idea, having no substance or reality, visionary ideal schemes for the reformation of the world, contrasted with real ideal (II), n, fr prec 1 a Conception, standard, formed in the mind, of the highest excellence, supreme perfection, as of something to be aimed at, aspired to, or most to be desired, in material and non-material things few of us realize our ideals, an ideal of conduct, of happiness, of comfort, of physical beauty &c, b this contrasted with actuality the Ideal and the Real 2 Something which comes up to and embodies a conception of the highest attainable excellence lovers believe each other to be the ideal of everything desirable, he was the very ideal of an English gentleman idealism, n [1 idéalizm, 2 aidéalizm] ideal & -ism 1 (philos) Conception of the universe which regards mind as the ultimate reality, and ideas as the only objects of perception 2 Habit of mind which tends to form ideals, or to idealize 3 (art and liter) Doctrine and practice emphasizing and embodying imaginative treatment of life and nature idealist, n [1 idéalist, 2 aidéalist] ideal & -ist a An adherent of idealism as a conception of the universe, b one who tends to set up, and be influenced by, ideals, c practitioner of idealism in art or literature idealistic, adj [1 idéalistik, 2 aidéalistik] Preo & -ic Pertaining to, of the nature of, based upon, idealism (in all senses) ideality, n [1 idéality, 2 aidéality] ideal & -ity 1 The quality of being ideal 2 Tendency, power, to form, habit of forming, ideals 3 An idealization idealization, n [1 idéalizáshun, 2 aidéalizáshun] See next word & -ation a The act of idealizing, b state of being idealized, something resulting from the act of idealizing idealize, vb trans & intrans [1 idéális, 2 aidéális] ideal & -ize A trans 1 To render ideal, to regard as coming up to an ideal to idealize a person's character 2 To represent in accordance with an ideal, rather than in accordance with strict reality a son writing the biography of his father is apt to idealize his subject B intrans 1 To practise, be in the habit of, forming ideals 2 To practise representation according to an ideal he is a good painter, but tends to idealize ideally, adv [1 idéálh, 2 aidéálh] ideal & -ly In an ideal manner, in accordance with ideals, or an ideal ideate, vb trans & intrans [1 idéát, 2 aidéát] idea & -ate 1 trans To form an idea of, imagine 2 intrans To form ideas, have mental conceptions ideation, n [1 idéáshun, 2 aidéáshun] Preo & -ion The act of ideating, state of being ideated ideational, adj [1 idéáshunal, 2 aidéáshunal] Preo & -al Pertaining to ideation idée fixe, n [1 idéá fiks, 2 aidéá fiks] Fr, 'fixed idea' Idea occupying the mind to the exclusion of other ideas, an obsession idem, n & adv Lat idem (maso), idem (nent), fr pronominal stem is, 'he', & dem, a particle, cogn w Aryan pronominal stem de-, de-, see to 1 n & adv [1 idem, 2 idem] (In) the same author &c 2 n [1 idem, 2 idem] The same word, book, authority &c identical, adj [1 identik, 2 aidentik] fr Med Lat identicus (us), fr Lat ident (was), 'identity' See identity & -io Identical Specific, identical note, dispatch sent simultaneously from two or more states to another, making the same statement or request, or expressing the same opinion in exactly the same terms identical, adj [1 identikl, 2 aidentikl] Preo & -al 1 Actually the same, the very same, that one and no other the identical room where Shakespeare was born 2 (of different objects &c) Alike in every respect, agreeing absolutely the handwriting on both cheques is identical identically, adv Preo & -ly In an identical manner identifiable, adj [1 identifiable, 2 aidentifiable] Identify & -able Capable of being identified identification, n [1 identifikáshun, 2 aidentifikáshun] fr L Lat identificatio (tre), 'to identify' See identify & -ation The act of identifying, state of being identified identification, also identity, disk, n Small metal disk, inscribed with owner's name, regimental number &c, and worn by member of fighting force while on active service, as a means of identifying him when dead or severely wounded &c identify, vb trans [1 identifí, 2 aidentifí] fr L Lat identificāre, 'to identify', fr stem of identis (was), 'identity', see next word, & -fy 1 To regard as identical, to proclaim, establish, identity of to identify a prisoner, lost property &c 2 To show (oneself &c) to be interested in, play a prominent part in, be associated with to identify oneself, be identified, with a movement &c identity, n [1 identití, 2 aidentití] fr L Lat identitas (em), 'identity', fr idem, 'the same', see idem, & -ity 1 The state of being identical, absolute agreement, sameness 2 The state of being some specific person or thing, individuality to prove, recognize, a person's identity ideo-, pref, fr Gk idé (á), 'form, kind, idea'

See idea Idea

ideogram, n [1 ideógram, 2 aidéogram] Preo & -gram A symbol used in writing, eg in Chinese, which represents a picture of the thing itself, or which symbolizes an idea, and not, as in a phonetic system, the sounds which make up the name of these ideograph, n [1 ideográfh, 2 ideógráf] ideo- & -graph Ideogram ideography, n [1 ideógrafi, 2 ideógrafi] Preo & -y Study of ideographs, employment of these in writing ideological, adj [1 idéolopikl, 2 aidéolopikl] ideology & -io & -al Connected with, pertaining to, ideology

Ideologist, n [1 idéolójist, 2 aidéolójist] See next word & -ist A student of ideology ideology, n [1 idéolopí, 2 aidéolopí] ideo- & -logy 1 a Inquiry into the origin of ideas, specul b theory deriving them from sensations 2 Visionary theorizing 3 (political jargon) The idea or ideas at the basis of some political or economic theory or system

Ides, n [1 idz, 2 aidz] fr Fr, fr. Lat idus, 'Ides' Etymol disputed & doubtful One of the three days in each month in the Roman calendar, from which dates were reckoned, the fifteenth of March, May, July, October, the thirteenth day of other months Id est, phr [1 id est, 2 aid est] Lat id est, 'that is' Commonly abbr to ie, that is idio-, pref, fr Gk idios, 'one's own, private, personal, peculiar, separate, distinct', fr earlier uidios*, cogn w Sort w, 'separately', Goth. wipra, 'against' (see with) Aryan base ui-*, 'two' Separate, distinct, independent idiocy, n [1 idiosi, 2 aidiosi] fr Gk idiotia, 'private life or business, lack of education, unaccountness', fr idiot &c, 'a private person, a layman, an ignorant, untrained person' See idiot 1 State of being an idiot, extreme defectiveness of mind, and absence of reasoning faculty, imbecility 2 Action and behaviour resembling that of an idiot, foolish, irrational action or behaviour idiom, n [1 idíom, 2 aidíom] fr Lat, fr Gk idíoma, 'a peculiarity in language', fr idio & oma, 'make one's own' See idio- 1 Special mode of expression, use or grouping of words, peculiar to a specific language 2 General way of expressing ideas in a language, the language itself idiomatic, adj [1 idiomátik, 2 aidiomátik] fr Gk idiomáti &c, fr idíomat (-os), genit of idíoma, 'a peculiarity of a language' See preo & -ic 1 In accordance with the idioms peculiar to a given language to speak idiomatically French 2 Characterized by, containing, rich in, peculiar idioms an extremely idiomatic language idiomatically, adv [1 idiomátikalh, 2 aidiomátikalh] Preo & -al & -ly In an idiomatic manner idiomorphic, -morphous, adjs [1 idíomorfik, -fús, 2 aidíomorfik, -fús] idio- & -morpho, -ous a Having its own proper shape or form, specif b (of crystals) not having its shape or form altered by intrusion of other constituents idiopathic, adj [1 idíopatíkh, 2 aidíopatíkh] idiopathy & -ic (of disease) Developing independently, not as result of another disease, primary idiopathically, adv [1 idíopatíkalh, 2 aidíopatíkalh] Preo & -al & -ly In an idiopathic manner idiopathy, n [1 idíopatí, 2 aidíopatí] idio-, 'independent' &c, & -pathy, 'suffering' State of disease not caused by and following upon another, but independent and primary idiosyncrasy, n [1 idíosíngkrazí, 2 aidíosíngkrazí] fr Gk idiosynkrasia, 'peculiarity of temperament', see idio- & syn-, 'together with', & Gk krás (us), 'a blending', see crasis, & -y 1 Temperament, mental constitution, habit of mind, manner of thought, peculiar to an individual, 2 Mode of expression peculiar to an individual, personal mannerism 3 (med.) Physical constitution of specific person.

idiosyncratic, adj [1 idiosynkratík, 2 idiosynkratísk], fr Gk. idiosynkratís-la, 'peculiarity of temperament'. See proo. Arising from, connected with, an idiosyncrasy, peculiar.

idiot, n. [1 idiot, 2 idjot], fr Fr, fr Lat idiotus, 'an uneducated, inexperienced person', fr Gk. idiotēs, 'a private person, one not engaged in public affairs, one without professional knowledge, a layman, an ignorant, uneducated person', fr idio (s), 'one's own, private'. See idio- 1 A human being of such defective intellect as to be incapable of rational judgement or action, an imbecile. 2 (colloq.) A foolish, flighty, unbalanced person, a silly fool.

idiotic, adj [1 idiotik, 2 idiotisk] Proo & -ic 1 Pertaining to, characteristic of, an idiot. 2 Utterly foolish.

idiosyncratically, adv [1 idiotikali, 2 idiotiskali] Proo & -al & -ly In an idiosyncratic manner.

idle (I), adj [1 idli, 2 idil] OE & ME idel, 'empty, vain, idle', OS idel, OHG idel. Orig meaning was apparently 'empty', then 'worthless', etymol doubtful, but Kluge suggests connexion w base aidh*, 'to burn' (see aidle), in this case the starting-point of meaning was 'burnt out', hence 'empty' 1 a (of persons) Doing no work, unemployed, unoccupied, inactive to stand idle while a man is drowning, the strike has rendered thousands idle, to have one's hands idle, b (of machines, workshops &c) disused, not active, Phr to be idle, to be idled, c (of time) not spent in doing something, not filled with activity I have not an idle moment, one during which I am idle 2 Lazy, slothful, disinclined for work, habitually doing nothing a thoroughly idle and useless fellow 3 a (of action and thought) Futile, ineffective, vain, yielding no result to make an idle attempt, it is idle to expect help from him, an idle conceit, b (of statements, talk &c) empty, baseless, trivial, irresponsible, trifling, shallow idle rumours, conversation, chat idle (II), vb intrans & trans, fr proo 1 intrans Also idle about, a to be idle, to remain inert and inactive, b to waste one's time, to loaf, saunter 2 trans Chiefly, to idle away (one's time, life &c), to spend in idleness.

idleness, n. [1 idleness, 2 idilness] idle (I) & -ness The quality, state, of being idle, unemployment.

idler, n. [1 idler, 2 idile] idle (II) & -er a One who idles, a lazy, slothful person, b a trivial, frivolous, superficial, ineffective person.

idle wheel, n. Wheel placed, and revolving, between two others, so that its cogged edge functions against the edges of each and imparts motion from one to the other.

idly, adv [1 idli, 2 idil] idle (I) & -ly In an idle manner.

ido, n. [1 ido, 2 idow] Invented word. An artificial universal language, a modified form of Esperanto.

idol, n. [1 idol, 2 idil] fr O Fr idole, fr Lat idolū (um), fr Gk. eidōlon, 'an image, phantom, a likeness, idol', fr base oid* &c, 'to see', q v under idea & words there referred to, & op eidolon. 1 A image, statue &c representing a deity and worshipped as such, b a false god. 2 Person or thing regarded with extravagant affection, admiration, or reverence, object of extreme devotion to make an idol of wealth, a popular idol 3 (obs) a Representation, effigy, b an appearance, or image without substance, e.g. reflection in a mirror, c (in Baconian logic, usually in Lat pl idola, see idolum), a fallacy the idols of the market place &c.

idolater, n. [1 idolater, 2 idilater] fr O Fr idolâtre, contracted fr L Lat idololātres, fr eccles Gk eidōlatrēs, 'an idol worshipper', fr eidōla (n), 'an image, phantom, an idol' (see proo), & latrēs, 'a hired workman, servant', fr lastr (on), 'hire, payment' (see -latry) 1 One who worships idols, a worshipper of false gods, pagan, heathen. 2 A fervent, devoted admirer, adorer.

idolatress, n. [1 idolātres, 2 idilātres] Proo & -ess Fem of proo.

idolatrous, adj [1 idolātrous, 2 idilātrous] idolater & -ous 1 Of the nature of, pertaining to, idolatry idolatrous worship 2 (of persons) Addicted to idolatry.

idolatrously, adv Proo & -ly In an idolatrous manner.

idolatry, n. [1 idolātrā, 2 idilātrā] idol & -lātrā 1 a The worship of idols, images &c, b the worship of false gods, natural objects &c 2 Excessive devotion, admiration.

idolization, n. [1 idolizāshun, 2 idilāzēishun] idolize & -ation. The act of idolizing, state of being idolized.

idolize, vb trans & intrans [1 idoliz, 2 idilāz] idol & -ize 1 trans (chiefly fig) To make an idol of, to be excessively devoted to, to love, admire, venerate, to an extreme degree to idolize wealth, to idolize a hero 2 intrans (rare) To worship idols.

idolum, n, pl idola [1 idolum, la, 2 idilolum, -la] L Lat idolum, fr Gk. eidōlon, 'a phantom, an image, likeness, a mental image, idea'. See eidolon. 1 An idea, conception, mental image 2 (Baconian logic, usually pl) Source of error in reasoning, fallacy idola theatri &c.

idyll (I), n. [1 idyl, 2 idil, 2 idil, 2 idil], fr Lat idyllū (um), fr Gk. eidyllon, lit. 'a little picture', hence 'a short, descriptive, pastoral poem', same base as idol 1 a A short, simple, descriptive or narrative poem, esp one treating in a manner tinged with romance, of familiar, or pastoral scenes, of incidents of everyday life, b prose idyll, amular description or narration in prose 2 Incident, rural scene &c forming a suitable subject for an idyll.

idyllic, adj [1 idilik, 2 idilisk] Proo & -ic Of, pertaining to, an idyll, suitable to, having the qualities of, an idyll.

idyllically, adv [1 idilikali, 2 idiliskali] Proo & -al & -ly In an idyllic manner.

idyllist, n. [1 idilist, 2 idilist] idyll & -ist A writer of idylls.

idylize, vb trans [1 idiliz, 2 idilāz] idyll & -ize To represent as an idyll, make the subject of an idyll.

-ter, suff Fr, fr Lat ātrus (see -eer), used in forming ns denoting person's occupation. Words in ter include, a early formations found already in ME & now accented on first syll glasser, heater, & blaster formations accented on suff goldster, grenadier &c.

if, conj [1 if, 2 if] OE if, ME if, if 1 On the supposition that, supposing that, provided that, on the condition that a (with reference to present time) if you like we will go straight home, b (with reference to future) if you get back before I do, wait for me here, I shall see him if he comes, if he gets a fair chance he will win, c (implying conditions which are hypothetical, doubt, uncertainty) if I had known, I wouldn't have done it, if he had caught the train he would be here by now, if you knew how I suffered, you would pity me 2 Even though, granting that I will do it if it kills me, if I am wrong, you are at least not absolutely right 3 Whenever if I do not understand what he says, I always question him 4 Whether I don't know if he is here, he asked if you were at home 5 (in exclamatory clause expressing surprise) If he hasn't kicked his football through the window! Phr as if, as though fulfilling the conditions indicated he looks as if he were angry, he talks as if he knew everything.

igloo, -u, n. [1 igloo, 2 igloo] Eskimo. Winter hut, with domed roof, made of blocks of frozen snow.

igneous, adj [1 igneus, 2 ignēs], fr Lat igne (us), 'of fire, fiery', fr ign (te), 'fire', cogn w Scrt agnis, O Slav ogni, Lith. agnis, 'fire' 1 Consisting of, resembling, pertaining to, fire, fiery 2 (geol) Igneous rock, produced by the action of fire or great heat.

ignis fatuus, n. [1 ignis fatuus, 2 ignis fatuus] Lat ignis, 'fire' (see proo), & fatuus, 'foolish'. See fatuous. 1 Phos phorescent light sometimes seen hovering above stagnant water or a marsh, so called because it is supposed to lead travellers out of their way, will-o'-the-wisp 2 (fig) A misleading object of pursuit, mistaken ideal, hope, aspiration, eagerly followed and never attained.

ignitable, adj [1 ignitabl, 2 ignitabl] See next word & -able. Capable of being ignited.

ignite, vb trans & intrans [1 ignit, 2 ignit], fr Lat ignis (um), P P type of ignite, 'to set on fire', fr ignis, 'fire'. See igneous 1 trans To set on fire, to kindle, light 2 intrans To take fire, be kindled.

igniter, n. [1 igniter, 2 igniter] Proo & -er One who, that which, ignites, specif, device for starting ignition in an internal combustion engine.

ignition, n. [1 ignishun, 2 ignishun] Proo & -ion. a The process of igniting, b state of being ignited, specif c (of internal combustion engine in a motor-car &c) the igniting of explosive mixture in the cylinder, also device for so doing, igniter.

ignoble, adj [1 ignobl, 2 ignobl] fr Fr, fr Lat ignobilis, 'unknown, obscure, undistinguished, of low birth', fr in- (IL) & O Lat gnobilis, 'known, famous, renowned, high-born'. See noble 1 (rare or archaic) Not of noble birth, plebeian 2 a (of character, conduct, actions) Mean, base, degraded, despicable, b (of persons) possessing and exhibiting mean qualities in character, actions &c, c (of events) humiliating, shameful.

ignobleness, n. Proo & -ness The quality of being ignoble.

ignobly, adv See proo & -ly In an ignoble manner, shamefully.

ignominious, adj [1 ignominus, 2 ignominus] ignominy & -ous 1 Deserving disgrace, dishonourable, shameful, contemptible, mean, unworthy ignominious conduct 2 Involving disgrace and contempt, bringing dishonour, humiliating an ignominious dismissal, death, end.

ignominiously, adv Proo & -ly In an ignominious manner.

ignominy, n. [1 ignumini, 2 ignumini], fr Lat ignominia, 'disgrace, dishonour', orig 'deprivation of one's good name', fr in- (II) & gnōmen, 'name'. See nominal 1 Disgrace, dishonour, degradation 2 Base, ignoble, conduct, degrading action.

ignoramus, n. [1 ignoramus, 2 ignoramus] Lat, 'we do not know', (legal) 'we disregard, do not recognize', as written on bill of indictment, thrown out by a grand jury for want of evidence, fr ignorare, 'to have no knowledge of, to disregard'. See ignore. An ignorant person.

ignorance, n. [1 ignorans, 2 ignorans] Fr, fr Lat ignorantia, 'want of knowledge', fr Pres Part stem of ignor (āre), 'to have no knowledge of'. See ignore & -ance 1 Lack of cultivation or education, want of knowledge, inexperience he earned rather from ignorance than from actual wickedness, to live in a state of ignorance 2 Want of knowledge of particular subject, fact &c I am in complete ignorance of his intentions, his total ignorance of foreign languages.

ignorant, adj [1 ignorant, 2 ignorant], fr Fr, fr Lat ignorant (em), Pres Part type of ignor (āre), 'not to know'. See ignore & -ant 1 a (of persons) Knowing little or nothing, uneducated, uncultivated, illiterate an ignorant man, b (of actions, conduct &c) springing from, due to, betokening, ignorance an ignorant letter, ignorant behaviour 2 Uninformed with regard to a specific subject, unaware, unconscious, of a specific fact to be ignorant of Latin, of a person's intentions, I was ignorant of the time.

ignorantly, adv Proo & -ly In an ignorant manner, in an ignorant way.

ignoratio elenchi, n [1 ignorátiō elénchī, 2 ignorétiō elénchī] Lat, 'ignorance of the argument, refutation', second word fr Gk Soe elenchus (log) Apparent refutation of an argument which in reality only disproves something which was never maintained ignore, vb trans [1 ignōr, 2 ignō], fr Fr ignorer, fr Lat ignōrāre, 'not to know, to have no knowledge of, to take no notice of, disregard', fr in- (II) & gnōr-*, 'knowing', op gnārus, 'knowing, acquainted with, expert', Gk gnōrēzin, 'make known, explain'. Cp also Lat nōscere, 'to know', Gk gnōōs, 'known', Aryan base gñō-, gñō-, &c, 'to know' See gnostic, know 1 To take no notice of, disregard, refuse to consider to ignore a person and his remarks 2 (law, of Grand Jury) To reject, throw out (an indictment) ignotum per ignotus, phr [1 ignōtūm pēr ignōtū, 2 ignōtūm pār ignōtū] Lat, (to explain) 'the unknown by something still less known' iguana, n [1 igwána, 2 igwána] Span, fr Carib iguana A large, arboreal, herbivorous lizard, with crest on the back, found in tropical America and W India iguodonon, n [1 igwónodón, 2 igwónedón], fr iguana & Gk odon-(tos), genit of odous, 'tooth' See odont- A very large, extinct, herbivorous lizard, with long, heavy tail, small fore limbs, and large hind-limbs used in walking ihlang-ihlang, n, also ihlang-ihlang & ihlang-ihlang [1 ihláng ihláng, 2 ihláng ihláng] Malay, 'flower of flowers' A tree of Malay Arohupelago &c, with large fragrant yellow flowers, b strong perfume distilled from these flowers il-, pref, representing in- (I) & (II) before i- (e), suff, forming adjs & ns, (1) adjs, representing a O Fr il (sem -ile), fr Lat ilis civil, virile, senile, servile, b later Fr loan-words fr Lat ilis docile, agile, fragile, sterile, versatile, c Fr or Engl formations fr Lat stems prehensile, protracile, d Engl borrowings fr Lat adjs in -ilis futile, puerile (2) Nouns in -ile, -il represent Lat ns or adjs in -ilis, either directly fr Lat adile, manile, textile, or through Fr foresil, ulensil ihlang-ihlang, n See ihlang-ihlang ileak, ihlac, adj [1 ihlák, 2 ihlák], fr ileum & -ac, cp ihao (anat) Of, pertaining to, affecting, the ileum ileo-, pref used to form compounds, fr ileum, as ileo caecal, pertaining to the ileum and the caecum ileum, n [1 ihlūm, 2 ihlūm] Lat, also ile, lower part of abdomen from lower ribs to groin Variant of ilium (anat) The lower part of the small intestine ilex, n [1 ihlák, 2 ihlák] Lat ihlák, 'holm-oak', the Romance forms indicate a Lat form ihlák, in distinction to the poetical ihlák The word is prob pre Aryan Holm oak, evergreen oak ihlac, adj [1 ihlák, 2 ihlák], fr Fr ihlague, fr L Lat ihlacus, fr ihla, pl of ihlum, 'flank' (sing only in glosses) See ilium (anat) a Of, near, pertaining to, the ilium or flattened upper bone of the pelvis ihlac artery &c, b of, pertaining to, the ileum, ihlac ihlad, n [1 ihlád, 2 ihlád] Lat ihlád (s), stem of ihlas, 'the ihlad of Homer', fr Gk ihlas (poiesis), 'the ihlad', fr ih (oe, -on), 'Troy', & -ad Greek epic attributed to Homer, telling of the siege of Troy Phr ihlad of woes (trans fr Gk proverb ihlas lakón), 'succession of misfortunes, sorrows' ilium, n [1 ihlūm, 2 ihlūm] Lat ihlūm, pl ihla (sing only in glosses), 'the flanks', prob cogn w O Fris ih, 'swelling', O E ih, O N ih, 'sole of the foot' Aryan base ih*, 'to swell, spread out' Cp ihao & ileum (anat) One of the flattened upper bones of the pelvis, forming part of the hip-bone ilk, adj [1 ihlák, 2 ihlák] O E ihla, NE ihla, 'same', prob fr pronominal - (cp Goth is, Lat is, 'he'), & -hke, 'like' See like (I) (Scots) a Of that ihl, of the place or estate bearing the same name as that of the owner Anstruther of that ihl = Anstruther of Anstruther, b used also ignorantly, in England, as meaning 'of the same class, set' &c and others of that ihl &c ill (I), adj [1 ihl, 2 ihl] ME ihle, fr ON ihl, 'ill, bad', prob connected w ON ihl, 'heat', & ihla, 'to burn', & w O E ihlan, 'to burn, to kindle', & ihled, 'fire, fire-brand' The latter may be fr Aryan adhl* 1, developed by an extending process wh is not very clear, fr base adhl*, whence Lat adollere, 'to burn', esp as a sacrifice, & adollere &c, see altar The connexion of the Gmc & Lat words must, however, still be considered doubtful 1 (pred, replacing sick) In bad health, affected with disease, ailing to look, be, ihl, be taken ihl &c Rarely attributive in this sense, the more common word being sick, as sick people 2 Morally bad, of evil character of ihl repute 3 Unfriendly, hostile 'this ihl mansion' (Milton, 'P.L'), malevolent, unkind ihl usage, ihl will, ihl blood, hatred, enmity, malevolence Phr an ihl turn, action which injures another 4 Unfavourable, unpropitious, promising or expressive of evil birds of ihl omen, ihl news, ihl luck Phr an ihl wind (fig) 5 Irritable, morose, gloomy, eulion ihl temper, humour 6 Poor, unsatisfactory, imperfect, defective to meet with ihl success 7 (archaic) Difficult, hard, trouble some an ihl man to please ill (II), adv, fr prec Badly, in a wrong, faulty, incorrect manner to behave ihl, (in various Phrs) to take a thing ihl, be offended by, be indignant at, to speak ihl of, to disparage, discredit, speak unfavourably of, it ihl comes (you, him &c), it is unsuitable, improper, for you &c, ihl at ease, uncomfortable, uneasy, in body or mind, to go ihl with, be unfavourable to, be disastrous, ihl equipped, provided, inadequately, I can ihl afford, with difficulty ill (III), n, fr ihl (I) 1 Evil, wickedness, wrongdoing, wrongful action to do ihl 2 Misfortune, unfavourable circumstance, annoyance, difficulty 'all the ihl that flesh is heir to', to suffer various ihl ill-advised, adj Unwise, rash, imprudent an ihl advised proceeding, you would be ihl advised to do so and so ill-advisedly, adv Free & -ly In a rash, imprudent manner ill-affected, adj Not favourably disposed towards, having feelings of disapprobation for illation, n [1 ihlášuu, 2 ihlášun], fr L Lat illation (em), 'deduction', fr illat (um), used as PP of inferre, 'to bring, carry in', to produce, bring forward, to cause, give rise to, occasion, to infer, conclude' See il-, & for ilatum (for ilatum), second element of elate, & first syll of tolerate 1 Deduction, inference, conclusion 2 Something deduced or inferred illative, adj [1 ihlášiv, 2 ihlášiv], fr L Lat illative (us) See prec & -ive 1 (gram) a (of words) Introducing an inference, b (of phrase) expressing an inference 2 Of the nature of, pertaining to, deduction, inferential illatively, adv Free & -ly In an inferential manner ill-bred, adj Imperfectly trained in, or acquainted with, the traditions and manners of good and polite society, charish in character, common, discourteous, in manner ill-breeding, n Lack of instruction in, and experience of, the traditional ways of regarding, and behaving to, one's fellows which are current in polite society, general or specific exhibition of bad manners and conduct due to such defects of education, ignorant boorishness, rudeness, discourtesy, commonness of manner and behaviour ill-conditioned, adj 1 Having a bad disposition, a inclined to wickedness, b ihl temper, d, surly, cantankerous 2 In bad physical condition ill-disposed, adj [1 ihl dispódz, 2 ihl dispódz] 1 Inclined to evil, having propensity to behave badly, malicious, malevolent ihl disposed persons 2 Having unfavourable bias towards, unfavourable to ihl disposed towards a person, plan &c illegal, adj [1 ihlégál, 2 ihlégál], fr Med Lat ihlégál (is), 'illegal', il- & legal Not according to law, in opposition to, forbidden by, the law, not legal, unlawful illegality, n [1 ihlégáliti, 2 ihlégáliti] Free & -ity 1 The quality of being illegal 2 An illegal action illegally, adv [1 ihlégáli, 2 ihlégáli] illegal & -ly In an illegal manner illegibility, n [1 ihlégáliti, 2 ihlégáliti] il- & legibility The quality of being illegible illegible, adj [1 ihlégál, 2 ihlégál] il- & legible Difficult or impossible to read, not legible illegibly, adv Free & -ly In an illegible manner illegitimacy, n [1 ihlégítimáti, 2 ihlégítimáti] il- & legitimacy The state or quality of being illegitimate illegitimate (I), adj [1 ihlégítimát, 2 ihlégítimát] il- & legitimate 1 (of actions) Without legal authority, unlawful 2 (of persons) Not born in lawful wedlock 3 (of deductions, conclusions) Not logically possible, wrongly deduced illegitimate (II), vb trans [1 ihlégítimát, 2 ihlégítimát], fr prec To pronounce, declare, render, illegitimate illegitimately, adv illegitimate (I) & -ly In an illegitimate manner illegitimation, n [1 ihlégítimásun, 2 ihlégítimásun] illegitimate (II) & -ion The act of illegitimizing, state of being declared, or rendered, illegitimate il-fated, adj 1 Fated, destined, to misfortune 2 Bringing misfortune il-favoured, adj (of person, looks &c) Unpleasant, unpossessing, not pleasant to look at, ugly il-gotten, adj [1 ihl gótá, 2 ihl gótá] See got for old PP Gained by unscrupulous or unlawful means chiefly in ihl gotten gains il-humour, n [1 ihl ímur, 2 ihl ímur] Bad temper il-humoured, adj [1 ihl ímurd, 2 ihl ímurd] Free & -ed Bad-tempered, irritable il-liberal, adj [1 ihl liberál, 2 ihl liberál], fr Lat ihl liberál (is), 'unworthy of a free man, low, mean' il- & liberal 1 Not generous, parsimonious, niggardly 2 A characterized by lack of broad and humane culture, b narrow-minded, bigoted, intolerant il-liberality, n [1 ihl liberáliti, 2 ihl liberáliti] Free & -ity The quality of being il-liberal, a niggardliness, b narrow-mindedness il-liberally, adv [1 ihl liberáli, 2 ihl liberáli] il-liberal & -ly In an il-liberal manner illicit, adj [1 ihl ihlák, 2 ihl ihlák], fr Fr, fr Lat ihl ihlák, 'not allowed, illegal', il- & licit Not lawful, prohibited illicitly, adv Free & -ly In an illicit manner ilimitability, n [1 ihl ihlímítábliti, 2 ihl ihlímítábliti] See next word & -ity The quality of being ilimitable ilimitable, adj [1 ihl ihlímítábl, 2 ihl ihlímítábl] il- & limit & -able Without real or apparent limits, unlimited, boundless, limitless, vast ilimitable space, the ilimitable ocean, ilimitable wealth ilimitableness, n Free & -ness The quality of being ilimitable ilimitably, adv See prec & -ly le an ilimitable manner illiteracy, n [1 ihl ihlitérasi, 2 ihl ihlitérasi] See next word & -acy The quality, state, of being illiterate, specif, inability to read and write illiterate (I), adj [1 ihl ihlitér, 2 ihl ihlitér], fr Lat ihl ihlitér (us), 'unlearned, ignorant' il- & literate 1 Lacking humane learning and knowledge of literature 2 Specif, unable to read or write, lacking the elements of education the illiterate voter illiterate (II), n, fr prec An illiterate person, specif, one unable to read or write illiterateness, n illiterate (I) & -ness The quality of being illiterate ill-judged, adj [1 il jʊd, 2 il dʒʌdʒd] (of conduct, action) Springing from lack of sound judgement, imprudent, mistaken, inopportune ill-luck, n Misfortune, an unfortunate, unhappy, experience ill-mannered, adj Having bad, vulgar manners ill-natured, adj [1 il nətʃəd, 2 il nɛtʃəd] Bad-tempered, surly, cross grained ill-naturedly, adv Prec & -ly In an ill-natured manner illness, n [1 ilnes, 2 ilnis] ill (I) & -ness 1 Unhealthy, morbid condition of the body, less frequently of the mind, disease, opposite of health there is no serious illness in the city 2 a A specific form of disease to suffer from a serious illness, b attack, fit, bout, of illness to be suddenly seized with illness illogical, adj [1 ilɒlədʒəl, 2 ilɒdʒəl] il- & logical Not logical, a (of arguments, statements), not in accordance with logical processes of thought, irrational, b (of persons) not reasoning in a logical manner, c (of actions) based upon, arising from, imperfect reasoning illogicality, n [1 ilɒlədʒəli, 2 ilɒdʒəlɪti] Prec & -ity The quality of being illogical illogically, adv [1 ilɒlədʒəlɪ, 2 ilɒdʒəlɪkəlɪ] Illogically & -ly In an illogical manner ill-omened, adj [1 il ɒmɛnd, 2 il ɒmɛnd] Accompanied by, associated with, unfavourable omens, destined to misfortune, unfortunate ill-starred, adj Born under an evil star, doomed to misfortune, unlucky ill-tempered, adj Bad tempered, irritable, only ilth, n [1 iltʃ, 2 iltʃ] ill (I) & -th Formed on anal of wealth (rare) Absence of prosperity, unhappy state, opposed to welfare, well-being ill-timed, adj [1 il tɪmd, 2 il tɪmd] Unwise or inappropriate at a particular time, inopportune an ill timed jest, remark &c ill-treat, vb trans To treat badly, unkindly ill-treatment, n Cruelty illumine, vb trans [1 iluːm, 2 iljuːm] Shortened fr illumine (poet, lit, and fig) To shed light upon, make clear or bright illuminate, adj & n [1 iluːmɪnət, 2 iljuːmɪnət] illumine & -ant 1 adj Giving light, brightening, illuminating 2 n Something that illuminates or gives light illuminate, vb trans [1 iluːmɪnət, 2 iljuːmɪnət] fr Lat. illumināre (um), PP type of illumināre, 'to make light, brighten', fig 'to adorn (speech &c)', fr il & lūmin (us), stem of lūmen, 'light' See luminous

1 To give light to, make light the room was poorly illuminated by one candle 2 To light up brilliantly, adorn with lights to illuminate a house, town, street, for a festivity &c 3 To decorate (manuscript &c) with coloured designs, letters &c 4 a To give mental or spiritual light to (a person, mind &c) many heathen have now been illuminated by the Gospel, b to shed light on, give clarity to, help to explain the text of a commentator is how far he illuminates his author's obscurities, c to lend prestige to, make illustrious the roll of citizens were illuminated by many famous names illumination, n pl [1 iluːmɪnət, 2 iljuːmɪnətʃən] Lat illumināre, nom pl masc of PP of illumināre, 'to light up' See prec 1 Persons professing to possess remarkable endowments or perception 2 One of several religious sects e.g. Rosicrucians 3 A secret deistic and republican society founded in Bavaria in 1776 illumination, n [1 iluːmɪnətʃən, 2 iljuːmɪnətʃən] illuminate & -ion 1 Act or process of illuminating, state of being illuminated 2 (often pl) Festive lighting up and decoration of buildings &c by means of coloured lights &c 3 Coloured and gilded decorations in a manuscript illuminative, adj [1 iluːmɪnətɪv, 2 iljuːmɪnətɪv] illuminate & -ive Tending to illuminate (in material and non material senses) illumine, vb trans [1 iluːmɪn, 2 iljuːmɪn] fr Fr illuminer, fr Lat illumināre, 'to light up' See illuminate 1 To give light to, light up 2 (fig) a To give mental or spiritual light to, enlighten, b to brighten, cheer, relieve (gloom &c) illumism, n [1 iluːmɪzəm, 2 iljuːmɪzəm] Prec & -ism The principles, doctrines, of the Illuminati Illuminist, n [1 iluːmɪnɪst, 2 iljuːmɪnɪst] illumine & -ist A supporter of, believer in, Illuminism ill-use, vb trans To use in an improper way, a to ill treat, cause to suffer, behave cruelly to (sentient beings), b to make a wrong use of, injure, do harm to (inanimate objects) illusion n [1 iluːʒən, 2 iljuːʒən] fr Fr, fr Lat illūs (um), PP type of illudere, 'to play with, to mock at, to deceive', fr il- & ludere, 'to play', see ludicrous, & -ion 1 a (physical) Sensuous perception which conveys an impression other than that of what is perceived, as when a number of lines of equal length are so arranged as to convey the impression that they are of varying length &c optical illusion, b loosely, any visual image, or other sensuous impression which misleads, deceptive appearance illusion of the senses, e.g. distant view of water which travellers in the desert fancy they see when none is there 2 Belief not in accordance with actual facts, baseless opinion held about anything, state of mind in which one is deceived, delusion illusional, adj [1 iluːʒənəl, 2 iljuːʒənəl] Prec & -al Connected with, of the nature of, an illusion illusionary, adj [1 iluːʒənəri, 2 iljuːʒənəri] illusion & -ary a Illusional, b subject to illusions illusionism, n [1 iluːʒənɪzəm, 2 iljuːʒənɪzəm] Prec & -ism Doctrine that the external world exists entirely and only in illusions of the senses illusionist, n [1 iluːʒənɪst, 2 iljuːʒənɪst] illusion & -ist 1 A supporter of illusionism 2 A public performer who produces illusions, a conjurer illusive, adj [1 iluːsɪv, 2 iljuːsɪv] fr Lat illūs (um), PP type of illudere, 'to play with, to mock at, to deceive' See illusion & -ive Producing, based on, illusion, deceptive, delusive illusively, adv Prec & -ly In an illusive manner illusiveness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being illusive illusory, adj [1 iluːsɪrɪ, 2 iljuːsɪrɪ] illusory & -ly In an illusory manner illusoriness, n [1 iluːsɪrɪnɪs, 2 iljuːsɪrɪnɪs] Next word & -ness The quality of being illusory illusory, adj [1 iluːsɪrɪ, 2 iljuːsɪrɪ] fr Lat illūs (us), see illusion, & -ory Illusive, deceptive, unreal, based on illusion illustrate, vb trans [1 ɪlʌstrət, 2 ɪləstreɪt] fr Lat illustrāre (um), PP type of illustrāre, 'to make light, to bring to light, make known, to explain, to make illustrious, celebrate' il- & lustrā 1 To make clear (a statement, argument) by giving specific examples and comparisons &c 2 To furnish (book, lecture) with figures and pictures of persons and things dealt with illustration, n [1 ɪlʌstrəʃən, 2 ɪləstreɪʃən] fr Lat illustrāre (em) See prec & -ion 1 An example, b a picture, esp one in a book, 2 Act of giving, providing, illustrations (in either sense) illustrative, adj [1 ɪlʌstratɪv, 2 ɪləstreɪtɪv] illustrate & -ive Serving as, intended as, an illustration, example illustratively, adv Prec & -ly In an illustrative manner illustrious, adj [1 ɪlʌstriəs, 2 ɪləstriəs] fr Lat illustris (s), 'light, bright, brilliant, clear, evident, famous, renowned', fr il- & lustr-, 'to make bright, illumine', see lustrate (II), & -ous Famous, celebrated, distinguished illustriously, adv Prec & -ly In an illustrious manner illustriousness, n See prec & -ness The state of being illustrious im-, pref Form of in used before the hp consonants b, m, p See in- (1) = not, (2) = in, also as prefix having intensive force image (I), n [1 ɪmɪdʒ, 2 ɪmɪdʒ] fr Fr, fr Lat imāgin (em), nom imāgo, 'a representation, portrait, statue, a likeness, an appearance, pretence, mental representation, idea', cp imātor, 'to copy, to be like, to represent, depict', aem imātor, 'rivalry', Aryan base im*, 'to be like, resemble' See emulate, emulous 1 A material representation of person or thing, carved or painted figure, statue, effigy an image of a saint, b specif, such a carved representation of person or animal to which superstitious reverence or worship is accorded to worship images, graven images 2 Person or thing exactly like, or bearing a striking resemblance to, another, counterpart he is the image of his father 3 (optical) Visual impression of an object made upon a mirror, or upon the retina of the eye 4 Figurative expression, simile, metaphor to speak in images 5 (psychol) A revival, reproduction by memory, in the mind, of some sensuous experience undergone in the past, including the visual, auditive, tactile, and other impressions associated with it, an idea image (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To make an image, representation, of 2 To reflect, present a counterpart of, to mirror 3 To present to the imagination, recall to the mental vision, to figure, imagine 4 To portray, describe, in a life like manner imageable, adj [1 ɪmɪdʒəbəl, 2 ɪmɪdʒəbəl] image (II) & -able Capable of being imaged, capable of being imagined imagery, n [1 ɪmɪdʒəri, 2 ɪmɪdʒəri] fr Fr imagerie image (I) & -ery 1 (in plastic arts) Representation of objects, statues, carving 2 (in liter) Figurative representation, metaphorical description, system, mode, of employing images in writing or speaking imaginable, adj [1 ɪmɪdʒəbəl, 2 ɪmɪdʒəbəl] fr L Lat imaginābilis, 'imaginable' image & -able Capable of being imagined imaginably, adv Prec & -ly In an imaginable manner imaginal, adj [1 ɪmɪdʒənəl, 2 ɪmɪdʒənəl] fr Lat imāgin (em) See image & -al (anatom) Pertaining to the image of an insect imaginarily, adv [1 ɪmɪdʒənəlɪ, 2 ɪmɪdʒənəlɪ] See next word & -ly In an imaginary manner imaginary, adj [1 ɪmɪdʒənəri, 2 ɪmɪdʒənəri] fr Lat imagināri (us), 'imaginary', fr Lat imāgin, stem of imāgo, see image, & -ary Having no actual existence, existing only in the imagination imagination, n [1 ɪmɪdʒɪnəʃən, 2 ɪmɪdʒɪnəʃən] fr Lat imagināre (em), 'imagination, fancy' imagine & -ation 1 Function or power of the mind of calling up images, specif a power of recalling to the mind, and reproducing in more or less detail, experiences already undergone in the past, b power of creating, constructing, mental images of things not previously experienced, but merely suggested or hinted at 2 a A mental image, or group of these, recalled or created by the imagination, b a fanciful idea, foolish notion imaginative, adj [1 ɪmɪdʒɪnətɪv, 2 ɪmɪdʒɪnətɪv] fr O Fr, fr L Lat imagināre (us), 'imaginative', fr imāgināre (um), PP type of imāgināri, 'to imagine, picture to oneself' See imagine & -ive. 1 Pertaining to, depending on, springing from, exhibiting, imagination imaginative poetry 2 (of persons) Possessing, and in the habit of employing, strong powers of imagination & imaginatively, adv Preco & -ly In an imaginative manner imaginativeness, n See preco & -ness The quality of being imaginative imagine, vb trans & intrans [1 imājin, 2 imādzin], fr Fr imaginer, fr Lat imāgināri, 'to imagine, picture to oneself', fr imāgin-, stem of imāgo See image A trans 1 To form a mental picture of, conceive in the mind, form an idea or notion of, construct mentally each sufferings as we cannot even imagine; I imagine King Richard I as a tall, strong, handsome man Phr to imagine the king's death, to contrive or attempt to kill the king, one of the offences constituting high treason B intrans a To form an idea, opinion I cannot imagine who the man is, b to suppose, conjecture I hardly imagine that the Income Tax will be abolished this year imago, n [1 imāgō, 2 imāgou] pl imagines, imagos [1 imājmāz, imāgōz, 2 imādzimāz, imāgouz] Lat See image (I) (zool) Final, fully developed, stage of an insect, esp of a winged insect imam, imamun, n [1 imām, 2 imām] Arab imam, fr. amma, 'to precede' 1 Religious leader or head of the Moslem state 2 The official leader of prayer and preacher in a Moslem mosque imbécile, adj & n [1 imbesil, 2 imbesil], fr Fr imbécile, fr Lat imbécillus, 'weak, feeble', prob fr earlier im bacillus*, 'unsupported', op baculum, 'a staff', Gk baktron, baktrōn, 'a staff, cane' See bacillus 1 adj a Mentally deficient, weak in intellect, b unwise, stupid, foolish 2 n a A person of feeble intellect, b a foolish person imbecilely, adv Preco & -ly In an imbecile manner imbecility, n [1 imbesiliti, 2 imbesiliti] imbecile & -ity 1 The state of being imbecile 2 An imbecile action, speech & imbibe, vb trans [1 imbib, 2 imbib], fr Fr imbiber, fr Lat imbibere, 'to drink in, to conceive (an opinion, idea &c)', to resolve upon', fr im- & bibere, 'to drink, drink in, absorb' See under bibulous 1 (of living organisms) a To take in nourishment, or air, into the system, b (colloq) to drink, to drink alcoholic beverages to excess 2 (of inanimate objects) To soak up, absorb, moisture the earth imbibes the rain 3 (fig) To receive into the mind, drink in, assimilate (ideas, theories, opinions &c) imbibition, n [1 imbibishun, 2 imbibishun], fr Lat imbibitum, PP type of imbibere, 'to receive mentally, drink in' See preco & -ion (rare) Act of imbibing, absorption imbricate (I), vb trans & intrans [1 imbrikat, 2 imbrikat], fr Lat imbricatū (um), PP type of imbricare, 'to shape like a tile', fr imbric-, stem of imbrex, 'a hollow roofing-tile to carry off the rain', fr imber, 'a shower of rain', cogn w Sort abhrās, 'dull weather', Gk aphrōs, 'foam' Cp also, w different grade of vowel, Sort ambas, 'water', Gk ambros, 'rain' (see ombro-) Aryan base mbh-, embh-, ombh-* &c See nebula (zool and bot) 1 trans (of scales &c) To place eo as to overlap 2 intrans To overlap imbricate (II), adj [1 imbrikat, 2 imbrikat], fr Lat imbricatū (um), PP type of imbricare, 'to shape like a tile' See preco (zool and bot) Overlapping, arranged like tiles imbrication, n [1 imbrikashun, 2 imbrikashun] imbricate (I) & -ion The process of imbricating, state of being imbricated, specif, arrangement of scales &c so that they overlap imbricative, adj [1 imbrikativ, 2 imbrikativ] See preco & -ive Tending to overlap imbroglio, n [1 imbrohō, 2 imbrohōu] (tal), fr im- & broglie, 'confusion, muddle-hurry'. See broil (II) (rare in material sense) A confusion of ideas, complicated situation imbrue, vb trans [1 imbrūō, 2 imbrūō], fr O Fr embreuer, embreuer, 'to moisten', fr em-, im-, & Lat biberē*, 'cause to drink, moisten', fr bibere, 'to drink' See bibulous To stain, discolour, soil (chiefly fig) to imbrue one's hands with blood, be guilty of, responsible for, bloodshed imbrute, embrute, vb trans [1 imbrūtō, 2 imbrūtō] im- & brute To make like a brute, brutalize imbue, vb trans [1 imbūō, 2 imbūō], fr Lat imbuerē, 'to moisten, steep, saturate', to stain, taint, to accustom, inure', prob cogn w Gk aphuein*, aphussein, 'to draw, pour out (liquid)', Aryan base mbhu-, 'liquid', fr mbh-, 'rain, water', whence Lat imber, 'rain', Gk aphrōs, 'foam' See imbricate 1 To moisten thoroughly, steep, saturate 2 To steep in colouring matter, dye 3 To stain, taint, imbrue 4 (fig) To inspire, instil into, fill the mind of with imbued with hatred, with socialist doctrine, with a love of piety imitability, n [1 imitabiliti, 2 imitabiliti] See next word & -ity The quality of being imitable imitable, adj [1 imitabl, 2 imitabl], fr Lat imitabilis, 'imitable', fr imit- & -abilis, 'imitate' See imitate & -able Capable of being imitated imitate, vb trans [1 imitāt, 2 imitāt], fr Lat imitatū (um), PP type of imitāri, 'to imitate, copy, to be like, resemble, to replace, be substitute for, to represent, depict' Cp im-ago, 'likeness, representation' (see image), aemulus, 'rivaling' (op emulate) Aryan base aim-, im- &c, 'be like, resemble' 1 (of human action) a (in moral sense) To follow example of, take as model of conduct, to act, behave in same way as we ought to imitate the wise and good in all things, to reproduce to imitate the virtues of, b (in material sense) to copy external appearance of, reproduce, assume, manners, style, bearing, speech &c of vulgar people often try to imitate their betters, specul o to mimic, take off, burlesque, to copy in a ludicrous way, to caricature Garrick used to amuse his friends by imitating Johnson 2 a To produce upon the senses an impression of resemblance or identity between two things, to make a thing resemble another by producing through one medium sensuous impressions similar to those produced by something else, to make or do something which looks, sounds, feels, like some other thing, action &c to imitate diamonds in paste, to imitate oak by graining, to imitate a bird's cry with the lips, b to copy fraudulently, with intent to deceive, to counterfeit dishonest dealers sometimes imitate the worm-holes in old wood 3 a (of inanimate objects) To resemble in appearance, look like, have same appearance and other qualities as fabric is now made from cellulose to imitate silk, b (biol, of animals) to acquire similar appearance to the colour of many animals imitates that of their natural environment imitation, n [1 imitashun, 2 imitashun], fr Lat imitationem (em) See preco & -ion 1 The act of imitating painters lacking originality often spend their lives in the imitation of the great masters 2 That which imitates, something constructed as a copy of something else wood may be painted as an imitation of marble, b a fraudulent copy, a counterfeit, c mimicry, burlesque Charles Mathews used to give imitations of other actors 3 (attrib) Imitation antiques, imitation pearls &c imitative, adj [1 imitativ, 2 imitativ] imitate & -ive 1 Imitating, following a model Phrs imitative arts, painting, sculpture, imitative words, one reproducing approximately the sound which it signifies, e.g. buzz, fiddle, plop, or intended to give an impression of the quality which it denotes, e.g. fimsy, blob 2 a (of persons) Tending to imitate others rather than to behave naturally, tending to reproduce ideas of others, instead of having one's own, b (of actions, artistic products &c) not original, modelled on, reproducing, those of others imitative poetry &c imitatively, adv Preco & -ly In an imitative manner imitativeness, n See preco & -ness The quality of being imitative immaculacy, n [1 imākūlasi, 2 imākūlasi] See next word & -acy The state or quality of being immaculate, freedom from stain or defect (in material and non-material senses) immaculate, adj [1 imākūlat, 2 imākūlat], fr im- & Lat maculāt (um), PP type of maculāre, 'to make spotted, stain, to defile, pollute', fr macula, 'a spot, mark, the mesh of a net, a blemish, fault' See macula 1 a (in material sense) Unsoiled, perfectly clean, spotless, stainless an immaculate robe, shirt front, b scrupulously correct, faultless an immaculate style in dress, c specul (zool) not spotted 2 (in non-material sense) Pure, unsoiled by sin, without fault, spotless, innocent, irreproachable immaculate life and conduct Immaculate Conception, n Doctrine that the Blessed Virgin Mary was born free from original sin immaculately, adv [1 imākūlath, 2 imākūlath] immaculate & -ly In an immaculate manner immaculativeness, n [1 imākūlatnes, 2 imākūlatnes] See preco & -ness The state or quality of being immaculate immanence, n [1 imanens, 2 imanens], fr L Lat imman- (ēre), 'to dwell in' See immanent & -ce The state of being immanent, specul (theol) that of God in the universe immanency, n [1 imanensi, 2 imanensi], fr L Lat imman- (ēre), 'to dwell in' See next word & -cy Immanence immanent, adj [1 imanent, 2 imanent], fr L Lat, fr im- & manent (em), Pres Part of manēre, 'to remain, stay, to endure, last' See this base under remain 1 Remaining within, inherent, indwelling Specul 2 (theol, of the Deity) Pervading, present, throughout the universe immarcescible, adj [1 imarsēsibl, 2 imarsēsibl] Lat, im- & marcescere, 'to fade, wither, pine away', fr marcere, 'to shrivel, shrivel', & -ible The Lat vb contains same base as mort- (ēre), 'death' See mortal Undying, imperishable 'the immarcescible crown of glory' (Edward VI's First Prayer Book), altered to never-fading after the Second P B immaterial, adj [1 imatērial, 2 imatērial] im- & material 1 Without bodily form or substance, not corporeal, spiritual, insubstantial 2 Unimportant, having no weight or consequence immaterialism, n [1 imatērializm, 2 imatērializm] Preco & -ism Theory that matter has no objective existence immaterialist, n [1 imatērialist, 2 imatērialist] immaterial & -ist Believer in immaterialism immateriality, n [1 imatērialiti, 2 imatērialiti] immaterial & -ity The state of being immaterial immaterialize, vb trans [1 imatērializ, 2 imatērializ] immaterial & -ize To make immaterial immature, adj [1 imatūr, 2 imatūr], fr Lat immatūr (us), 'unripe, immature, untimely', im- & mature Not completely formed or developed, not ripe, (in material and non-material sense) immature stock, fish &c, an immature mind, literary work &c immaturity, n [1 imatūriti, 2 imatūriti] Preco & -ity The state of being immature immeasurability, n [1 imāzshurabiliti, 2 imāzshurabiliti] Next word & -ity The quality of being immeasurable immeasurable, adj [1 imézhurabl, 2 imézhurabl] im- & measurable Not capable of being measured, very great, vast immeasurableness, n Preo & -ness The quality of being immeasurable immeasurably, adv See preo & -ly In an immeasurable manner, to an immeasurable degree immediacy, n [1 imédiats, 2 imédiats] See next word & -acy The state of being immediate, of being free from a medium, or something intervening, directness immediate, adj [1 imédiat, 2 imédiat] fr Med Lat immediat(us) See im- & mediate Having no intermediary, nothing coming between, 1 (in space) A Next to, in direct contiguity immediate contact, b adjacent to, near, close the immediate neighbourhood 2 (in time) Without intervening interval, following directly and without pause or delay to take immediate action 3 (of other relations) A Direct, next in relation, succession &c, not remote immediate heir, b (of non material things or conditions) direct, first hand immediate information immediately, adv Preo & -ly 1 Without the intervention of anything, without a medium, directly 2 (of time) Without loss of time, at once, without delay immediateness, n See preo & -ness The state of being immediate immemorial, adj [1 imemórial, 2 imemórial] fr Med Lat immemorial(is) im- & memorial 1 Beyond the limit of living memory, exceedingly remote from time immemorial, immemorial use, custom &c 2 Hence, very ancient, of great age immemorial oaks immemorially, adv Preo & -ly From time immemorial immense, adj [1 iménus, 2 iménus] fr Fr, fr Lat immensus, 'immeasurable, boundless, vast', fr im- & mens (um), PP of mētre, 'to measure' See measure & metre 1 Very large, enormous, vast 2 (slang) Splendid, first-rate, deserving highest praise &c he was simply immense as the comic mother immensely, adv Preo & -ly 1 To an immense degree 2 (colloq) Very much, greatly immensely pleased &c immensity, n [1 iménsité, 2 iménsité] im- & -ity a The state or quality of being immense, vastness, huge size, extent, degree, b infinite space immerse, vb trans [1 imérs, 2 imérs] fr Lat immers (um), PP type of immergere, 'to plunge into', fr im- & mergere, 'to dip into, to sink down, to overwhelm' See merge 1 To plunge, dip, into water or other liquid, esp so as to cover completely 2 (in non-material sense) a To absorb mind (of) completely, occupy exclusively, fix attention and interest of, engross immersed in thought, a book, conversation &c, also reflex to immerse oneself in study, in games &c, b to entangle, involve, im plicate immersed in difficulties, debt &c immersion, n [1 imérsion, 2 imérsion] fr Lat immersio (em), 'immersio' Preo & -ion 1 The act of immersing, state of being immersed (in material and non material senses), specif, total immersion, complete covering with water, as in some forms of baptism 2 (astron) Concealment of one heavenly body behind, or by the shadow of, another immigrant, adj & n [1 imigránt, 2 imigránt] See im- & migrant, a adj Coming into a country as a settler, b n, one who comes into a foreign country as a settler immigrate, vb intrans & trans [1 imigrát, 2 imigrát] fr Lat immigrat (us), PP type of immigrare, 'to remove into' See im- & migrate 1 intrans To enter a foreign country for the purpose of settling there 2 trans To bring (a settler) into a foreign country immigration, n [1 imigráshun, 2 imigráshun] Preo & -ion a The act of immigrating, b state of being immigrated, c number of immigrants settling in a country over a certain specified period imminence, n [1 imínens, 2 imínens] fr Lat immin (ere), 'to hang, project, over, (fig) to threaten, be imminent' See next word & -ce The state of being imminent imminent, adj [1 imínent, 2 imínent] fr Preo Part of Lat immin (ere), 'to hang, project, over, (fig) to threaten, be imminent', fr im- & minere, 'to project, overhang' See menace, minatory (of future events, esp danger &c) About to happen, threatening, impending imminently, adv Preo & -ly In an imminent manner immiscibility, n [1 imísibilté, 2 imísibilté] See next word & -ity The quality of being immiscible immiscible, adj [1 imísibl, 2 imísibl] fr im- & Lat misc (ere), 'to mix, mingle' (see mix), & -ible Not capable of being mixed immiscibly, adv Preo & -ly In an immiscible manner immutability, n [1 imútgabl, 2 imútgabl] fr im- & mutabile Not capable of being mutated, moderated, or alleviated immutably, adv Preo & -ly To an immutably degree immixture, n [1 imíkschur, 2 imíkschur] See im- & mixture 1 The act of mixing, state of being mixed 2 (fig) The state of being a sharer in, concerned, involved in immobile, adj [1 imóbil, 2 imóbil] fr Fr, fr Lat immobil (is), 'immovable' im- & mobile 1 Incapable of movement, or of being moved, immovable 2 Not moving, motionless immobility, n [1 imóbilité, 2 imóbilité] Preo & -ity The state or quality of being immobile immobilization, n [1 imóbilizáshun, 2 imóbilizáshun] See next word & -ation The act of immobilizing, state of being immobilized immobilize, vb trans [1 imóbiliz, 2 imóbiliz] im- & -ize 1 To make immobile, to fix, establish immovably 2 To withdraw (con) from circulation immoderate, adj [1 imódorat, 2 imódorat] fr Lat immoderát (um), 'without measure, endless, intemperate, unrestrained' im- & moderate Not kept within limits, lacking in moderation, extravagant, unrestrained immoderate expressions of gratitude, immoderate indulgence &c immoderately, adv Preo & -ly In an immoderate manner, to an immoderate extent immodest, adj [1 imódést, 2 imódést] fr Lat immodest (us), 'intemperate' im- & modest 1 Lacking modesty, indecent, unseemly, unbecoming, indelicate 2 Bold, forward, presumptuous, pert immodestly, adv Preo & -ly In an immodest manner immodesty, n [1 imódésté, 2 imódésté] fr Lat immodestia, 'intemperate conduct, subordination' im- & modesty The quality of being immodest immolate, vb trans [1 imólát, 2 imólát] fr Lat immolat (um), PP of immolare, 'to sacrifice' im- & Lat mola, 'mill stone, meal' See molar & mill 1 To kill, offer up (a sacrificial victim) 2 (fig) To sacrifice to immolate one's ambitions on the altar of duty immolation, n [1 imóláshun, 2 imóláshun] Preo & -ion The act of immolating, state of being immolated immoral, adj [1 imóral, 2 imóral] im- & moral 1 (of persons) a Not guided by principles of morality and rectitude, unprincipled, unscrupulous in conduct b specif, lawless and irregular in sexual habits, unchaste, incontinent 2 (of conduct) a Not directed by moral sense, b specif, exhibiting lawlessness and lack of restraint in exercise of sexual functions, licentious, loose 3 (of books, pictures &c) Expressing, depicting, conceptions at variance with morality, speed, impure, obscene immorality, n [1 imórálité, 2 imórálité] Preo & -ity 1 The quality or state of being immoral (in all senses) 2 Immoral conduct immorally, adv [1 imóral, 2 imóral] im- & -ly In an immoral manner immortal (I), adj [1 imórtl, 2 imórtl] fr Lat immortál (is), 'deathless, immortal, everlasting, immeasurable' im- & mortal, a Never dying, living for ever the immortal gods, b imperishable, undying, everlasting immortal fame, an immortal poem, c enjoying everlasting fame and enduring renown an immortal poet, hero &c immortal (II), n, fr preo One who is immortal, a one who will not die, b famous person, one whose fame endures immortality, n [1 imórtálité, 2 imórtálité] fr Lat immortalitas (em), 'immortality, everlasting renown' im- & mortality The quality of being immortal immortalization, n [1 imórtalizáshun, 2 imórtalizáshun] See next word & -ation The act of immortalizing, state of being immortalized immortalize, vb trans [1 imórtaliz, 2 imórtaliz] im- & -ize To confer immortality upon, (chiefly in fig sense) to make famous for ever, give undying fame to immortally, adv [1 imórtál, 2 imórtál] im- & -ly 1 Without dying, eternally, for ever 2 (archaic slang) Very, exceedingly immortelle, n [1 imórtél, 2 imórtél] fr, lem of immortel, 'immortal' See immortal Bright coloured aster like flower, naturally devoid of moisture, which preserves its shape and colour when dried immovability, n [1 imóuvábilité, 2 imóuvábilité] See next word & -ity The quality of being immovable immovable, adj & n [1 imóuvabl, 2 imóuvabl] im- & movable 1 adj a Not capable of being moved, (L) in physical sense, (u) (of the mind, resolution &c) unshakable, unflinching, b not moving, stationary, motionless, c (law) immovable estate, property, such as is incapable of being moved, e.g. land, trees &c 2 n (law, usually pl) Immovable possessions, such as land, and everything naturally pertaining and adhering to it, as permanent buildings, also trees and crops immovableness, n Preo & -ness The quality of being immovable immovably, adv See preo & -ly In an immovable manner immune, adj [1 imún, 2 imún] fr Lat immún (us), 'exempt from tax, military service &c, free, exempt' See im- & municipal Not liable to be attacked by, secure, safe from attack, infection, poison &c immunity, n [1 imúnité, 2 imúnité] fr Lat immunitas (em), 'exemption from public offices or burdens' Preo & -ity 1 (law) Non liability to, exemption from, taxation &c 2 Safety, security, freedom, a from disease, infection, poison &c, b from molestation or attack, physical, mental, or spiritual immunization, n [1 imúnizáshun, 2 imúnizáshun] See next word & -ation The act of immunizing, state of being immunized immunize, vb trans [1 imúniz, 2 imúniz] im- & -ize To make immune, give immunity to, protect from liability to (disease &c) imure, vb trans [1 imúr, 2 imúr] fr Med Lat imurare, fr im- & Lat mūr (us), 'a wall' See mural To shut up, enclose, imprison, (also fig) to imure oneself, to shut oneself up, live solitary existence imurement, n [1 imúrmént, 2 imúrmént] Preo & -ment Act of immunizing, state of being immunized immutability, n [1 imútabilté, 2 imútabilté] fr Lat immutabilitas (em), 'immutability' See next word & -ity The

- quality of being immutable, changelessness; specif (biol) immortality of species, incapacity to become modified, to change into another
- immutable, adj [1 imútabl, 2 imjútábl], fr Lat immūtābilis '(is)', 'unchangeable' im- & mutāble Not liable to change, or variation, unchangeable, unalterable
- immutably, adv Prec & -ly In an immutable manner
- imp (I), n [1 imp, 2 imp] OE, ME impe, 'scion, graft, young tree' See next word 1 Little devil, demon 2 (playful) Mischievous child
- imp (II), vb trans OE impeian, ME impen, 'to graft', fr Gk emphuein, to implant', fr em- & phuein, 'to grow', qv under -phyte 1 To mend or strengthen by inserting something, specif, in falconry, to imp the wing of a hawk &c, mend or strengthen by inserting feather(s) 2. (rare) To help out, add to, increase
- impact (I), n [1 impákt, 2 impékt], fr Lat impactum, PP type of impingere, 'to strike against, to press upon one' See impinge Collision, shock of sudden, violent encounter, striking, dashing, against
- impact (II), vb trans [1 impákt, 2 impékt] See prec To press, pack, tightly together, to fix, wedge firmly
- impaction, n [1 impáksun, 2 impéksən] Prec & -ion The act of impacting, state of being impacted
- impair, vb trans [1 impár, 2 impeá], fr O Fr empever, fr em- & L Lat péjorare, 'to make worse', fr péjor, 'worse' See pejorative To lessen in strength, vigour, quality, value &c, to cause to diminish or deteriorate, to injure, to reduce to impair one's health, means, usefulness
- impairment, n [1 impármēt, 2 impeármēt] Prec & -ment The act of impairing, state of being impaired
- impale, vb trans [1 impál, 2 impeíl], fr Fr empaler, fr Med Lat impālāre, fr im- & Lat pāl (us), 'a stake' See pale (I) 1 a To pierce, transfix (body) with sharp-pointed instrument to impale oneself upon one's enemy's sword, upon a spike &c, b to transfix with a stake as capital punishment 2 (her) To blazon (two coats of arms) on one shield, divided by vertical line in pale 3 (archaic) To enclose, fence round, with stakes
- impalement, n [1 impálmēt; 2 impélmēt] Prec & -ment 1 Act of impaling, state of being impaled, esp as a form of capital punishment 2 (her) Union of two coats of arms on one shield
- impalpability, n [1 impálpáblitá, 2 impélpáblitá] Next word & -ity The quality of being palpable
- impalpable, adj [1 impálpábl, 2 impélpábl] im- & palpable 1 a Not perceptible to the touch, not distinguishable by touch impalpable powder, one so fine ground that no grittiness is perceptible, b not material, incorporeal impalpable forms and shadows 2 (in non-material sense) Not perceptible to, not to be apprehended by, the mind impalpable distinctions of meaning
- impalpably, adv Prec & -ly In an impalpable manner, imperceptibly
- impaludism, n [1 impálpúdzim, 2 impélpúdzim], fr im- & Lat palúdis, stem of palus, 'a marsh' See paludal & -ism Malarial disease to which inhabitants of marshy country are liable
- impanate, adj & vb trans [1 impánāt, 2 impéniēt], fr Mod Lat impánātum, PP type of impānāre, fr im- & Lat pān (is), 'bread' See panification & words there referred to (of the Eucharist) 1 adj Present in the consecrated bread 2 vb To embody, present, in the form of bread
- impanation, n [1 impánáshun, 2 impéniéshun] Prec & -ion Inclusion of Christ's material body in bread at the Eucharist
- impanel, vb trans See empanel
- imparadise, emparadise, vb trans [1 imparádis, 2 impewédis] im- & paradise 1 To bring into a state of bliss resembling paradise Imparadised in one another's arms (Milton, 'P L') 2 To make into a paradise
- imparisyllabic, adj & n [1 imparisiláblik, 2 impeirisiléblik] im- & parisyllabic (Gk and Lat gram) 1 adj Having more syllables in genitive than in nominative, e.g. nom dens, genit dentis 2 n Imparisyllabic noun
- impark, vb trans [1 impárk, 2 impékh], fr O Fr emparquer im- & park 1 To enclose (animals) in a park 2 To enclose (land) for a park, convert into park land
- imparkation, n [1 impárkashun, 2 impékhéshun] Prec & -ation The act of imparking, state of being imparked
- impart, vb trans [1 impárt, 2 impépt], fr O Fr empartir, fr Lat impartire, 'to impart, communicate, share', fr im- & partire, 'to divide, distribute' See part (II) a To bestow, give, procreate sense of to impart comfort, warmth, colour, b to communicate, tell, transmit to impart a secret, news
- impartation, n [1 impártáshun, 2 impéptéshun] Prec & -ation (rare) Act of imparting, state of being imparted
- impartial, adj [1 impárshál, 2 impéptshál] im- & partial Not biased, unprejudiced, just, fair
- impartiality, n [1 impársháhlitá, 2 impéptsháhlitá] Prec & -ity The quality of being impartial, fairness, justice
- impartially, adv [1 impársháli, 2 impéptsháli] See prec & -ly In an impartial manner
- impartible, adj [1 impárshábl, 2 impéptshábl], fr L Lat impartibilis, 'impartible' im- & part & -ible (of an estate) Indivisible
- impartiment, n [1 impármēt, 2 impéptmēt] impart & -ment (rare) Impartation
- impassability, n [1 impásháblitá, 2 impéptsháblitá] See next word & -ity The state of being impassable
- impassable, adj [1 impáshábl, 2 impéptshábl] im- & passable Not capable of being crossed, passed over, traversed an impassable swamp, road &c
- impassableness, n Prec & -ness The state of being impassable
- impasse, n [1 impásh, 2 impéptsh] Fr, fr im- & passer, 'to pass' See pass 1 Passage open at one end only, blind alley 2 Unsurmountable difficulty, inextricable entanglement, position from which one cannot escape, stage of negotiation in which no further progress can be made because neither side will yield, deadlock
- impassibility, n [1 impásháblitá, 2 impéptsháblitá], fr eccles Lat impassibilis '(is)', 'impassible' See next word & -ity The quality of being impassible
- impassible, adj [1 impáshábl, 2 impéptshábl], fr eccles Lat impassibilis, 'impassible' im- & passible 1 Not liable to, incapable of, suffering 2 Not capable of being touched or roused, unresponsive, unfeeling, apathetic
- impassibleness, n Prec & -ness The quality of being impassible
- impassibly, adv See prec & -ly In an impassible manner
- impassion, vb trans [1 impáshun, 2 impéptshun], fr Ital impassionare, fr im- & passione, 'passion' See passion To arouse, inflame, excite, the passions of, stir deeply
- impassioned, adj [1 impáshund, 2 impéptshund], fr PP of prec A animated with passion, having the feelings stirred, ardent, fiery, b expressing passion, glowing impassioned glances, oratory
- impassive, adj [1 impáshiv, 2 impéptshiv] im- & passive 1 Not subject to, not liable to, suffering 2 A lacking emotion, without feeling, unemotional, calm, unmoved, b expressing no feeling, emotion, passion, apathetic
- impassively, adv Prec & -ly In an impassive manner
- impassiveness, n See prec & -ness Impassivity
- impassivity, n [1 impáshivitá, 2 impéptshivitá] impassive & -ity The quality of being impassive
- impaste, vb trans [1 impást, 2 impéptst], fr Ital impastare See im- & paste 1 To cover, envelop with, or as with, paste 2 To cover with paint in thick layers, paint in impasto
- impasto, n [1 impástó, impáshtó, 2 impéptstó, impáshstó] Ital See prec Laying on of colours thickly in painting
- impatience, n [1 impáshens, 2 impéptshens], fr O Fr, fr Lat impatiens, 'impatience', fr impati (entem) See im- & patience State or quality of mind marked by incapacity to endure delay, restraint, opposition, pain &c, specif a eagerness, strong desire to go somewhere, or to do or get something, b irritability of mind, intolerance
- impatient, adj [1 impáshént, 2 impéptshént], fr O Fr, fr Lat impatiens '(em)', 'unable to endure, impatient' See im- & patient 1 a Not enduring easily, unable to brook delay, strongly eager to move, do, obtain object of desires &c impatient to start, to begin, impatient to see one's parents, impatient to get rich, also impatient of, (1) not tolerating, chafing under, restraint, opposition &c impatient of reproof, discipline, (n) (archaic) not bearing, incapable of conveying, not intended to convey, not patient of this clause is impatient of the interpretation put upon it, b expressing impatience an impatient gesture, exclamation &c 2 a Irritable, fretful, b restless, uneasy
- impatiently, adv Prec & -ly In an impatient manner, with, so as to express, impatience
- impawn, vb trans [1 impáwn, 2 impéptsh] im- & pawn 1 To put in pawn, pledge 2 (fig) To pledge, plight
- impayable, adj [1 impábl, 2 impéptshábl], or as Fr [épejébl] im- & payable 1 (rare) Not capable of being paid, admirable 2 (Fr, colloq) Comic beyond measure
- impedech, vb trans [1 impésh, 2 impéptsh], fr O Fr empécher, 'to hinder, impede', fr L Lat impedicare, 'to hinder', fr im- & pedica, 'a fetter, snare' See impede 1 a To charge, accuse, indict to impedech a person of, with, a crime, fault &c, specif b to bring before a court on a charge of high treason 2 a To express unfavourable opinion of, disparage, b to complain of, find fault with 3 Still used by Spenser (em, impedech) in orig sense of 'to hinder' 'There was no barre to stop, nor foe him to empedech' ('F Q')
- impeachable, adj [1 impéshábl, 2 impéptshábl] Prec & -able Liable to be impeached, deserving impeachment
- impeachment, n [1 impéshment, 2 impéptshment] impedech & -ment 1 a The act of impeaching, state of being impeached, b specif, prosecution for high treason &c 2 Accusation, reproach, in Phr (Sheridan) soft impeachment
- impeccability, n [1 impésháblitá, 2 impéptsháblitá], fr L Lat impeccabilis '(is)', 'impeccable', fr im- & peccā (re), 'to sin' See peccavi a Incapable of, not liable to, sin, b beyond reproach, faultless
- impeccably, adv Prec & -ly In an impeccable manner
- impeccant, adj [1 impéshánt, 2 impéptshánt] See prec & -ant Impeccable
- impecuniosity, n [1 impékúnióshitá, 2 impékúnióshitá] Next word & -ity Condition of being without money, poverty
- impecunious, adj [1 impékúniús, 2 impékúniús] On model of Fr impecunieux, 'lacking money', fr Lat pecuniōsus, 'rich', fr pecunia, 'money', see pecuniary With out money, lacking means, poor, hard-up impedance, n [1 impédans, 2 impédans] Next word & -ance (elect) Resistance, due to self induction, to current in a circuit, particularly in an alternating current circuit impede, vb trans [1 impéd, 2 impéd], fr Lat impedire, 'to entangle, ensnare, hamper, embarrass', fr im- & ped-, 'foot', q v under pedal 1 To obstruct, prevent, hamper, bodily movement 2 To embarrass, hinder, delay, thwart, offer opposition to impediment, n [1 impédiment, 2 impédiment], fr Lat impedimentum (um), 'hindrance', fr impedi (re), 'to hinder, detain' See prec & -ment a Cause of delay, hindrance, obstruction, check, obstacle, to movement or action, b spent, defect in utterance, stammer an impediment in one's speech impedimenta, n [1 impedimenta, 2 impedimenta] Lat, ment pl, 'hindrances, encumbrances, stuff, travelling equipment, baggage, supplies (of an army, &c)', pl of impedimentum, 'hindrance' See prec & -ment impedimental, adj [1 impedimental, 2 impedimental] impediment & -al Of the nature of an impediment, hindering impel, vb trans [1 impel, 2 impel], fr Lat impellere, 'to push, strike against, to drive forward, urge on, to incite, instigate, persuade', fr im- & pellere, 'to beat, strike, to thrust, push, drive' See pulse a To push, drive forward, urge on, cause to move forward, b to exercise moral influence, to urge, constrain, force into action I felt impelled to take sides in the quarrel impellent, adj [1 impellent, 2 impellent] prec & -ent Tending to impel, driving impend, vb intrans [1 impend, 2 impend], fr Lat impend (ere), to hang over, to impend, be imminent, threaten' See im- & -pendant (chiefly m Pres Part) 1 a To overhang, hang above, be suspended over, b to be about to manifest itself an impending storm 2 (of events and conditions) a To be about to happen, develop, or be realized an impending marriage, impending happiness, b (in bad sense) to threaten impending disaster, danger &c impedence, -cy, n [1 impédens(i), 2 impédens(i)] prec & -ence & -cy The state of being impendent impendent, adj [1 impédent, 2 impédent] impend & -ent About to happen, imminent, threatening, impending impenetrability, n [1 impénétrabilité, 2 impénétrabilité] im- & penetrability The quality of being impenetrable, a incapability of being pierced (of hard substance, and fig, of darkness &c), b inscrutability of mind impenetrable, adj [1 impénétrable, 2 impénétrable], fr Fr, fr Lat impenetrabilis, 'that cannot be penetrated, unyielding, unconquerable' im- & penetrable 1 (of material things) Not capable of being penetrated, dense, a unyielding, solid, not to be pierced impenetrable rock, b that cannot be passed through impenetrable forests, c incapable of being seen through impenetrable shade, darkness &c 2 (of non material things) a Not capable of being penetrated by the intelligence, not to be solved, understood, obscure, inscrutable, unfathomable an impenetrable mystery, b not to be broken through, unyielding impenetrable reserve, silence, c impervious to, not allowing the introduction of, not giving passage to, ideas &c, obtuse a mind impenetrable by, to, new ideas &c impenetrableness n prec & -ness The quality of being impenetrable impenetrably, adv See prec & -ly In an impenetrable manner impenetrate, vb trans [1 impénétrât, 2 impénétrât] im- & penetrate To sink deep into, penetrate deeply impentence, -cy, n [1 impéñens(i), 2 impéñens(i)] fr Lat impentence, 'impentence' im- & penitence Impenitent state of mind, failure, refusal, to repent impenitent, adj [1 impéñent, 2 impéñent], fr Lat impentence (em), 'not repenting' im- & penitence Not penitent unrepentant impenitently, adv prec & -ly In an impenitent manner imperative, adj [1 impératif, 2 impératif] See next word & -al (gram) Pertaining to, expressing, the imperative mood imperative (I), adj [1 impératif, 2 impératif], fr L Lat imperāto (us), 'of, proceeding from, a command', fr imperō (um), PP type of imperāre, 'to command' See imperator & -ive 1 Authoritative, peremptory, not to be disobeyed an imperative command, gesture 2 (of action, circumstances) Urgent, essential, important it is imperative that we should act at once 3 (gram) Expressing a command imperative mood, sentence imperative (II), n, fr prec 1 (gram) The imperative mood 2 Word, sentence &c, expressing an imperative, a command, order a categorical imperative imperatively, adv imperative (I) & -ly In an imperative manner imperativeness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being imperative imperator, n [1 imperator, 2 imperator] Lat, 'commander in chief, title conferred on general after important victory, emperor', fr imperā (um), PP type of imperāre, 'to command', fr im- & parire, 'to prepare' (see pare), & -or See emperor 1 Title conferred on Roman general, under the Republic, after an important victory 2 Supreme ruler, emperor imperial, adj [1 impératorial, 2 impératorial] prec & -ial Pertaining to an emperor imperceptible, adj [1 impercéptibl, 2 impercéptibl] im- & perceptible a Not capable of being perceived, b very slight, gradual imperceptibly, adv prec & -ly In an imperceptible manner, so as not to be perceptible, by imperceptible degrees, gradually impercipient, adj [1 impercipient, 2 impercipient] im- & percipient Lacking in perception, not perceiving imperfect, adj [1 imperfekt, 2 imperfekt], fr Lat imperfect (us), 'unfinished, incomplete' im- & perfect 1 (of material things) Not complete, defective, lacking in some part 2 a (of non material things) Not full, incomplete, not reaching a given standard to have but an imperfect knowledge of a subject, b (of character &c) defective, faulty, blemished, not morally perfect 3 (gram) a Imperfect tense, that expressing an action still in progress and not completed, b as n, the imperfect tense imperfection, n [1 imperfekshun, 2 imperfekshun] fr Lat imperfekshun (em), 'imperfection' imperfect & -ion 1 The state of being incomplete, defective, inadequacy, deficiency 2 The state of being morally imperfect, faulty, blemished 3 Something that mars, detracts from, perfection, fault, weakness, blemish imperfectly, adv [1 imperfekth, 2 imperfekth] imperfect & -ly In an imperfect manner imperfurate, adj [1 imperfurât, 2 imperfurât] im- & perforate Not perforated, a (anat) without an opening, completely closed, lacking a natural or normal opening, b (of postage stamps) without perforations imperial (I), adj [1 impérial, 2 impérial], fr O Fr, fr Lat imperiāl (is), 'of the empire or emperor' Op imperator & imperium 1 a Pertaining to an empire, specif b pertaining to the British Empire imperial trade, preference, c fixed by a statute of Great Britain, standard imperial gini &c, d relating, belonging, to Great Britain as a whole, contrasted with local imperial taxes 2 Of, belonging to, pertaining to, an emperor imperial purple, crown imperial (II), n, fr prec 1 Small beard or tuft below lower lip, so called from the

Emperor of the French, Napoleon III 2 A former Russian gold coin imperialism, n [1 impérializm, 2 impérializm] imperial (I) & -ism 1 Doctrine that it is at once the duty, and to the advantage, of the members of a State, and of the government of a State, to preserve the integrity, secure the safety, and protect the interests and welfare of the State, and its dependencies, and of the dominions united to it, by all legitimate means 2 Travesty, or misconception, of this principle, which affirms the aim of statecraft to be unscrupulous aggrandizement of the State, and the increase by fair or foul means of its territories and influence imperialist, n [1 impérialist, 2 impérialist] See prec & -ist 1 Supporter of an emperor or of imperial rule, in distinction to other forms of government 2 An advocate of imperialism imperialistic, adj [1 impérialistik, 2 impérialistik] prec & -ic Pertaining to, imbued with, imperialism imperialize, vb trans [1 impérializ, 2 impérializ] imperial (I) & -ize To render imperial, a to bring under, or into, an empire, b to spread or apply imperialist principles of government to imperialy, adv [1 impérial, 2 impérial] imperial (I) & -ly In an imperial manner, a like, befitting, an emperor, b according to, in harmony with, the principles of sound imperialism we should learn to think imperialy imperi, vb trans [1 impéril, 2 impéril] im- & peril To expose to peril, bring into danger imperious, adj [1 impérieux, 2 impérieux], fr Lat imperiosus, 'possessed of power, far, ruling, puissant, tyrannical, domineering', fr imperi (um), 'command, dominion, empire' See imperium & -ous 1 a Commanding, dominating, lofty, masterful, b domineering, arrogant, tyrannical, dictatorial 2 Imperative, urgent, pressing imperiously, adv prec & -ly In an imperious manner, a in a masterful, commanding manner, b arrogantly imperiousness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being imperious imperishability, n [1 impercéptibilité, 2 impercéptibilité] See next word & -ity The quality of being imperishable, (chiefly referring to non material things) durability, lastingness, immortality imperishable, adj [1 impercéptibl, 2 impercéptibl] im- & perishable (chiefly in non material sense) Not liable to perish or pass away, enduring, indestructible, permanent imperishable glory, renown &c imperishableness, n prec & -ness Imperishability imperishably, adv See prec & -ly In an imperishable manner, everlastingly imperium, n [1 impérium, imperium, 2 impérium, imperium] Lat imperium, a command, order, sovereignty, dominion, realm, empire, fr imperāre, 'to command' See imperator 1 a Imperial sovereignty, authority of an emperor, b absolute authority, supreme power 2 Right of jurisdiction in an empire impermanence, -cy, n [1 impermānens(i), 2 impermānens(i)] im- & permanence, -cy The quality of being impermanent, lack of durability, transitoriness impermanent, adj [1 impermānent, 2 impermānent] im- & permanent Temporary, lasting only for a time, not permanent impermeability, n [1 imperméabilité, 2 imperméabilité] See next word and -ity The quality of being impermeable impermeable, adj [1 imperméabl, 2 imperméabl], fr Lat imperméabil (is), 'impermeable' im- & permeable Not capable of being permeated, passed through, impervious, impenetrable (in material and non-material senses) impermissible, adj [1 im-pér-missí-bl, 2 im-pám-issí-bl] im- & permissible Not permissible, not to be allowed imperscriptible, adj [1 im-pér-skriptí-bl, 2 im-páskriptí-bl] fr im- & Lat perscribere (um), P P type of perscribere, 'to write out, to enter, register', see per- & scribere, 'to write' (see scribe), & -ible. Not supported by documentary authority, unofficial impersonal, adj [1 im-pér-són-ál, 2 im-pá-són-ál] fr L Lat impersonalis (is), 'impersonal', im- & personal 1 (of verbs) Used only in 3rd pers sing, without referring to a person or a definite subject, e.g. it is raining 2 Without direct reference to oneself, or to any specific person an impersonal point of view, to write in an impersonal manner 3 Having no personality, not distinctive or individual impersonality, n [1 im-pér-són-ál-ty, 2 im-pá-són-ál-ty] Preo & -ity The quality of being impersonal impersonally, adv [1 im-pér-són-ál-ly, 2 im-pá-són-ál-ly] See preo & -ly In an impersonal manner impersonate, vb trans [1 im-pér-són-át, 2 im-pá-són-át] im- & person & -ate 1 To represent in material form, to embody, give bodily substance to 2 A To assume appearance or character of, pretend to be, with fraudulent intent, b to act, play, take the rôle of (character in drama &c) impersonation, n [1 im-pér-són-á-shun, 2 im-pá-són-á-shun] Preo & -ion 1 The act of impersonating, b state of being impersonated 2 a The assumption of another's appearance, manner &c (i) with fraudulent intent to pass for him, (u) with the innocent intention of mimicry and burlesque, b the mode of interpreting a character in a play impersonative, adj [1 im-pér-són-á-tív, 2 im-pá-són-á-tív] impersonate & -ive Pertaining to impersonation, capable of impersonating impersonify, vb trans [1 im-pér-són-í-fy, 2 im-pá-són-í-fy] im- & personify To personify impertinence, n [1 im-pér-tín-ens, 2 im-pá-tín-ens] fr Lat impertinens (entem), 'not pertinent' See next word & -ence 1 The quality of being impertinent, a irrelevancy; b impudence, insolence, rudeness 2 Act, speech, which is impertinent impertinent, adj [1 im-pér-tín-ent, 2 im-pá-tín-ent] fr Lat impertinent (em), 'not belonging, not pertinent' im- & pertinent 1 A Not pertinent, not to the point, irrelevant, b not suitable to the occasion, inopportune 2 Not in accordance with good manners, lacking in consideration and respect, officious, impudent, insolent impertinently, adv Preo & -ly In an impertinent manner imperturbability, n [1 im-pér-túr-bá-bí-l-ty, 2 im-pá-túr-bá-bí-l-ty] fr L Lat imperturbabilis (is), 'that cannot be disturbed' See next word & -ity The quality of being imperturbable imperturbable, adj [1 im-pér-túr-bá-bl, 2 im-pá-túr-bá-bl] fr L Lat imperturbabilis (is), 'that cannot be disturbed' See im- & perturb & -able Not liable to be agitated, disconcerted, disturbed, or excited, unruffled, calm imperturbableness, n Preo & -ness The quality of being imperturbable imperturbably, adv See preo & -ly In an imperturbable manner impervious, adj [1 im-pér-ví-ús, 2 im-pá-ví-ús] fr Lat impervius (us), 'that cannot be passed through', im- & pervius 1 Not permitting the passage of, impenetrable, impermeable impervious to rain, to light &c 2 (of the mind &c) Not affected by, proof against, deaf to, insensible to, obtuse impervious to reason, criticism &c imperviously, adv Preo & -ly In an impervious manner imperviousness, n See preo & -ness The state of being impervious impetiginous, adj [1 im-pét-i-jí-n-ús, 2 im-pét-i-jí-n-ús] fr Lat impetiginus (is), genit of impetigo See next word & -ous Afflicted with, of the nature of, impetigo impetigo, n [1 im-pét-i-gó, 2 im-pét-aigou] Lat, 'an eruption on the skin', fr impetere (ere), 'to attack', fr im- & petere, 'to fall upon, rush at, to seek, make for' See petition. An eruptive and pustular disease of the skin, resembling eczema impetrate, vb trans [1 im-pét-rát, 2 im-pét-rét] fr Lat impetrat (um), P P type of impetrare, 'to accomplish, effect, obtain, procure', fr im- & petere, 'to obtain, gain, bring about', prob fr base pad*, 'grasp, contain', whence also O E feol, 'swordhilt', fat, 'tub, cauldron, vessel', q r under vat, & cp perpetrate (theol) To ask for and obtain, obtain by prayer impetration, n [1 im-pét-rá-shun, 2 im-pét-ré-shun] Preo & -ion The act of impetrating impetratory, adj [1 im-pét-rá-tór, 2 im-pét-rét-ór] impetrate & -ory Of the nature of an impetration impetuosity, n [1 im-pét-u-ó-si-ty, 2 im-pét-u-á-si-ty] fr Lat impetuosus (us) See next word & -ity a The quality of being impetuous, b an impetuous action impetuous, adj [1 im-pét-u-ús, 2 im-pét-u-ús] fr Lat impetuosus (us), 'impetuous, violent', fr impetu (a), 'attack' See impetus & -ous 1 Rushing, moving, with force, violent, furious an impetuous gale, torrent, charge, movement 2 a (of persons) Inclined to act on sudden impulse, (i) eager, ardent, vehement, (u) rash, hasty, precipitate, b (of action) performed as result of sudden impulse impetuously, adv Preo & -ly In an impetuous manner, impulsively impetuousness, n See preo & -ness The quality of being impetuous impetus, n [1 im-pét-us, 2 im-pét-us] Lat, 'attack, onset, impulse, vigour, force, ardour, passion', fr im- & petere (ere), 'to rush towards, to seek' See petition. 1 (mechan) Property in a moving body derived from its weight, and rate of motion, tendency to continue in motion in a certain direction, momentum 2 Intellectual and spiritual stimulus, or incitement, to action, or activity, that which provides such stimulus

Impeyan, adj [1 im-pí-an, 2 im-pí-an] After Lady, the wife of Sir Elyah Impey, d 1787 Impeyan ghesant, a brilliantly coloured Himalayan pheasant impi, n [1 im-pí, 2 im-pí] Zulu A regiment, large organized body of Zulu warriors impiety, n [1 im-pí-et-ty, 2 im-pí-et-ty] fr Lat impietas (em), 'want of reverence', im- & pietas 1 A Lack of piety, ungodliness, b an impious, wicked, action 2 Disrespect for, inattention to, traditional duties and virtues, disregard of parents or their memories, and of one's country and its institutions &c impinge, vb intrans [1 im-pí-nj, 2 im-pí-nj] fr Lat impingere, 'to push, drive, thrust against', fr im- & pangere, P P pat (um), 'to drive in, fix, plant, to settle, determine'

See pat & cp impact 1 (of physical process) To strike, fall, on, upon, against rays of light impinge upon the retina 2 (of non-material process) To infringe, encroach upon, come into contact or collision with to impinge upon a person's authority impingement, n [1 im-pí-nj-ment, 2 im-pí-nj-ment] Preo & -ment The process or act of impinging impious, adj [1 im-pí-ús, 2 im-pí-ús] fr Lat impius (us), 'irreverent', & -ous im- & pius a Wanting in respect and regard for God, b without piety, wicked impiously, adv Preo & -ly In an impious manner impish, adj [1 im-pí-sh, 2 im-pí-sh] imp (I) & -ish Like an imp, mischievous impishly, adv. Preo & -ly In an impish manner impishness, n See preo & -ness. The quality of being impish impituous, adj [1 im-pí-tú-ús, 2 im-pí-tú-ús] im- & pitaeus (rare) Unpitiful, pitiless implacability, n [1 im-plák-á-bí-l-ty, 2 im-plák-á-bí-l-ty] fr Lat implacabilis (is), 'unappeasable' Next word & -ity The quality of being implacable implacable, adj [1 im-plák-á-bl, 2 im-plák-á-bl] fr Lat implacabilis (is), 'unappeasable' im- & placabile Not capable of being appeased, inexorable, relentless implacably, adv Preo & -ly In an implacable manner, inexorably implacental, adj [1 im-plás-én-tál, 2 im-plás-én-tál] im- & placental Having no placenta, referring to certain division of mammals which includes marsupials implant, vb trans [1 im-plánt, 2 im-plánt] fr Fr implanter im- & plant a To fix firmly, insert, but chiefly in metaphorical sense, b to impress, fix deeply, inculcate (into the mind), imbue to implant a hope, aspiration, ideal, doubt &c (in the mind) implantation, n [1 im-plánt-á-shun, 2 im-plánt-á-shun] Preo & -ation The act of implanting, something which is implanted implodge, vb trans [1 im-plódj, 2 im-plódj] im- & pledge To pledge, pawn implement (I), n [1 im-plé-mént, 2 im-plé-mént] fr Lat imple (re), 'to fill up, to fulfil, discharge', & -ment See plenum, plenty 1 Article for performing some form of work, tool, instrument. Plr agricultural implements includes certain types of machines for reaping, binding, sowing &c 2 (Scots law) Performance, fulfilment, carrying out (of covenant, promise &c) implement (II), vb trans [1 im-plé-mént, 2 im-plé-mént] fr preo 1 To complete, accomplish 2 (Scots law) To carry out, perform, fulfil (an engagement, contract &c) implosion, n [1 im-plé-shun, 2 im-plé-shun] fr L Lat imploratio (em), 'filling up, fulfilment', fr implere (um), P P type of implere, 'to fill up, to fulfil', & -ion. See plenum, plenty The act of filling, state of being full implicate (I), n [1 im-plí-kát, 2 im-plí-két] fr Lat implicat (um), P P type of implicare, 'to enfold, entwine, envelop', fig 'to involve'. im- & plicare, 'to fold', see plicate, ply (I) Thing that is implicated implicate (II), vb trans, fr Lat implicat (um), P P type of implicare, 'to enfold, involve' See preo 1 (of material process) To entangle, entwine, envelop, enfold 2 (of non-material process) a To involve, imply, infer, necessitate a particular inference, b to involve, entangle (persons), show to have a share in or connexion with, to incriminate to be implicated in a crime implication, n [1 im-plí-ká-shun, 2 im-plí-ké-shun] Preo & -ion 1 The act of implicating, state of being implicated (in crime &c) 2 A Act of implying, b something that is implied implicative, adj [1 im-plí-ká-tív, 2 im-plí-ká-tív] implicate (II) & -ive Tending to imply implicit, adj [1 im-plí-sít, 2 im-plí-sít] fr Lat implicit (um), occasional P P type of implicare, 'to enfold, entangle, to involve, entail, imply' See implicate 1 Involved in, inhering in, to be inferred from, something stated, or that is known to exist, though not ostensible or definitely expressed, reverse of explicit 2 Complete, absolute, unquestioning, unreserved implicit obedience, implicit faith, acceptance of Church's doctrine without full personal understanding 3 (obs and poet) Entangled in implicitly, adv. Preo & -ly In an implicit manner implicitness, n See preo & -ness The quality of being implicit implode, vb intrans & trans [1 im-plód, 2 im-plód] fr Lat implodere, 'to clap', See plaudere, 'to clap'

1 a (archaic) To place, put, lay upon; b (print) to arrange (pages of type) in a chase 2 To make responsible for, cause to assume obligation of, to exact to impose a law, a duty, task 3 To persuade to accept by unfair means, to palm off, fust, upon to impose bad wine on customers B intrans 1 (rare) To produce an effect, exert an influence upon, impress by virtue of character, appearance &c 2 Impose on, upon, to deceive, take in, mislead deliberately his plausible talk completely imposed upon his hearers, I was imposed upon when I bought that horse.

imposing, adj [1 impozɪŋ, 2 impozɪŋ], fr Pres Part of pre Making a forcible impression, inspiring admiration, striking, impressive, majestic imposingly, adv Pre & -ly In an imposing manner imposingness, n See pre & -ness The quality of being imposing imposition, n [1 impozɪʃən, 2 impozɪʃən], fr Lat impositiō (em), 'laying on, application' im- & position 1 a The act of laying on, imposing, specif b (eccles) imposition of hands, by bishop in ordination or confirmation 2 a The act of imposing a tax, burden &c, b that which is imposed, (1) a tax, burden &c, (n) specif, task set as school punishment 3 a The act of imposing upon, b that which imposes upon, c take in, a swindle impossibility, n [1 impozɪbɪləti, 2 impozɪbɪləti], fr Lat impossibilitās (em), 'impossibility' See next word & -ity 1 The state of being impossible 2 Something that is impossible impossible, adj [1 impozɪbl, 2 impozɪbl], fr Lat impossibilis (is), 'impossible' See im- & possible 1 Not capable of being done, not feasible an impossible task 2 a Not capable of existing or happening an impossible circumstance, event, b expressing, dealing with, what cannot exist or happen an impossible story, account 3 (colloq) Intolerable, unsufferable, not to be endured; not reaching a recognized standard an impossible person impossibly, adv Pre & -ly In an impossible manner impost (I), n [1 ɪmpəst, 2 ɪmpəst], fr O Fr, fr Med Lat impost (um), Lat imposit (um), PP of imponere, 'to place, lay upon'. im- & ponere, 'to place', see position 1 Tax, duty 2 (racing) Weight carried by horse in handicap impost (II), n, fr Fr imposte, fr Ital imposta, fr Lat imposit (a) See pre (archit) Upper part of pillar from which an arch springs impostor, n [1 ɪmpəstər, 2 ɪmpəstər] L Lat, 'deceiver', cp Fr imposteur, fr imposit (um), PP type of Lat imponere, 'to put, place, to impose upon, to deceive' See impose a One who fraudulently impersonates another, one who pretends, from interested motives, to be what he is not Perkin Warbeck was shown to be an impostor, b one who practises impostation, a deceiver, cheat, swindler, charlatan, quack.

imposturous, adj [1 ɪmpəstərəs, 2 ɪmpəstərəs] Pre & -ous (rare) Of the nature of, pertaining to, an impostor impostume, impossthume, n [1 ɪmpəstju:m, 2 ɪmpəstju:m], fr O Fr empos'tume, formed, w different suff, fr Gh apostēma, 'abscess', lit 'something which stands away from', fr aphutēma, 'stand away, aloof, apart, stand out', fr apo- & hustēma 'I stand' See under state (I), stand (I) (archaic and rare) a swelling, abscess imposture, n [1 ɪmpəstʃər, 2 ɪmpəstʃər], fr Fr, fr L Lat impositūra, 'deceit, imposture' See impose, impostor, & -ure a Fraudulent deception, a swindle impotence, -cy, n [1 ɪmpəʊtəns(i), 2 ɪmpəʊtəns(i)], fr Lat impot (ens), 'powerless, weak' See impotent & -ence The state of being impotent, specif, sexual incapacity impotent adj [1 impotent, 2 impotent], fr Lat impotens (em), 'powerless, weak, uncontrolled, passionate' See im- & potent 1 Physically feeble, weak, decrepit, spend (of males) lacking sexual capacity 2 Feeble in mind 3 Unable, powerless, to act impotently, adv Preo & -ly In an impotent manner impound, vb trans [1 impound, 2 impound] im- & pound (III) 1 a To shut up (animal) in pound, hence b to enclose, imprison, shut up (person or thing) as in a pound 2 To take possession of by legal authority, to confiscate impoverish, vb trans [1 impoverish, 2 impoverish], fr O Fr empoveriss-, Preo Part stem of empoverir, fr em- & poire, 'poor' (see poor), & -ish 1 To render poor, reduce to poverty, deprive of means, wealth &c 2 a To deprive of goodness or richness, to render less fertile, to make barren, exhaust impoverished land, soil, b to weaken, debilitate impoverished health, c to divert of interest, variety, charm, to render dull to banish art and literature from life would be to impoverish it greatly, an impoverished existence, mind &c impoverishment, n [1 impoverishment, 2 impoverishment] Preo & -ment The act of impoverishing, state of being impoverished impracticability, n [1 impracticability, 2 impracticability] See next word & -ity a The quality of being impracticable, b something which is impracticable impracticable, adj [1 impracticable, 2 impracticable] im- & practicable 1 Not capable of being put into practice, not feasible, unworkable, impossible an impracticable scheme 2 (of person or character) Unmanageable, intractable, stubborn, difficult to deal with 3 (of roads &c) Not fit to be used, impassable impracticableness, n Preo & -ness The quality of being impracticable impracticably, adv Preo & -ly In an impracticable manner imprecate, vb trans [1 imprecate, 2 imprecate], fr Lat imprecari (um), PP type of imprecari, 'to invoke, call down, upon', fr im- & precari, 'to pray' See pray To invoke, summon, call down (misfortune &c) to imprecate evil upon a person imprecation, n [1 imprecation, 2 imprecation] Preo & -ion 1 The act of imprecating, of calling down evil 2 Something uttered in imprecating, malediction, curse imprecatory, adj [1 imprecatory, 2 imprecatory] See preo & -ory Like, pertaining to, of the nature of, an imprecation impregnability, n [1 impregnability, 2 impregnability] See next word & -ity The quality, state, of being impregnable impregnable, adj [1 impregnable, 2 impregnable] im- & pregnable 1 Not capable of being taken by force, proof against seizure, strong enough to resist attack an impregnable fortress 2 (in moral sense) Not capable of being shaken, not yielding to persuasion, moral pressure, or attack impregnable virtue impregnably, adv Preo & -ly In an impregnable manner impregnate (I), adj [1 impregnate, 2 impregnate], fr L Lat impraegnare (um), pregnant, PP type of impraegnare, 'to render pregnant' im- & pregnant 1 Impregnated, pregnant 2 Fermented, saturated impregnate (II), vb trans [1 impregnate, 2 impregnate] See preo 1 a To make pregnant, b (biol) to fertilize, fecundate 2 a To permeate, saturate, fill air impregnated with disease germs, b to imbue, impress; implant in, instil into (the mind) impregnation, n [1 impregnation, 2 impregnation] Preo & -ion The act of impregnating, state of being impregnated impresario, n [1 impresario, 2 impresario]

Ital, fr impresa, 'undertaking, enterprise' See enterprise Manager and organizer of an operative company, of concerts, and other forms of public entertainment impresscriptible, adj [1 impresscriptible, 2 impresscriptible] im- & prescript & -ible Not to be challenged or withdrawn, inviolable, inalienable an impresscriptible right impress (I), vb trans [1 impress, 2 impress], fr Lat impress (um), PP type of imprimere, 'to press into, impress, imprint', fr im- & primere, 'to press' See press (I), & print (II) 1 To imprint, stamp to impress a mark upon a surface 2 To mark by means of pressure to impress a surface with a mark 3 a To cause, produce, a vivid and lasting mental impression, to fix firmly in the mind, implant in the memory I want to impress upon you the necessity for hard work, b to strike the mind, make powerful appeal to the judgement or emotions, create vivid impression, fill with sense of importance, significance &c, to stir, move deeply to be much impressed by a book, speech, sight &c, to be favourably, unfavourably, impressed, he did not impress me at all, did not create a strong (favourable) impression, did not strike me as remarkable &c impress (II), n [1 impress, 2 impress] See preo 1 The act of pressing, pressure 2 a Mark produced by physical pressure, stamp, imprint, b result produced on the mind or character by intellectual or moral force or influence to leave an impress upon one's age, a work bearing the impress of genius impress (III), vb trans im- & press (III) 1 To compel (men) to serve in army or navy, to press 2 (of goods) To seize, confiscate, commander for the public service 3 (fig) To introduce, bring in, make use of to impress a fact into one's service for argument &c impressible, adj [1 impressible, 2 impressible] impress (I) & -ible Easily impressed, susceptible to mental or emotional impressions impression, n [1 impression, 2 impression], fr Lat impression (em), 'impression' impress (I) & -ion 1 The act of impressing, state of being impressed 2 (print) a Number of copies of single edition of book &c printed at one time, b reprint of edition of book &c without alteration 3 Mark left by physical pressure, stamp, imprint the impression of a hand, foot, of fingers &c 4 Effect, result, produced by effort, labour the efforts of philanthropists and legislators make but little impression on the mass of human misery 5 a Effect produced upon the senses by external stimuli sensuous, visual, auditive, impressions, the impression of light on the eye, b immediate effect of external stimuli on the consciousness 6 a vague idea, ill defined notion I have an impression that we've taken the wrong road Plr to be under the impression, to have an idea, think, have a vague belief impressionability, n [1 impressionability, 2 impressionability] See next word & -ity The quality of being impressionable impressionable, adj [1 impressionable, 2 impressionable], fr Fr, fr impressionner, 'to impress' See impression & -able Capable of receiving, liable to receive, and be affected by, impressions, spend a (of nervous system) affected by external stimuli, sensitive an eye no longer impressionable by light, b easily accessible to, influenced, moulded, by, intellectual, emotional, or moral, impressions, emotionally or morally susceptible an impressionable nature, heart, youth is an impressionable age impressionary, adj [1 impressionary, 2 impressionary] impression & -ary Pertaining to, of the nature of, impressionism impressionism, n [1 impressionism, 2 impressionism] impression & -ism (arts) impressionism started in France in first half of 19th cent, that a picture should record the immediate sensuous impressions made upon the painter when he looks at the objects which he is representing, and should not be a conventional representation of extraneous facts which may be known from sources other than direct visual experience, b the embodiment of this doctrine in the practice of the painter 2 Extension of the doctrine and practice, so far as possible, to literature impressionist, n [1 impressionist, 2 impressionist] impression & -ist Painter or writer who practices impressionism impressionistic, adj, [1 impressionistic, 2 impressionistic] Preo & -ic Pertaining to, of the nature of, based on, embodying, the ideals of, impressionism impressive, adj [1 impressive, 2 impressive] impress (II) & -ive Producing a deep moral or intellectual impression, affecting strongly, arousing, the mind or emotions an impressive speech, gesture, scene &c impressively, adv Preo & -ly In an impressive manner impressiveness, n See preo & -ness The quality of being impressive impressment, n [1 impressment, 2 impressment] impress (III) & -ment The act of impressing, state of being impressed imprest, n [1 imprest, 2 imprest] Ital imprestare, 'a loan', fr Lat praestare, 'to act as surety for', fr prae, 'before' (see pre-), & stare, 'to stand' (see state (I)) Advance of money made to an individual by the State to enable him to perform duties for the State imprimatur, n [1 imprimatur, 2 imprimatur] Mod Lat, 'let it be printed', fr Lat imprimere, 'to impress, imprint' See impress (II) 1 Licence to print a book &c, esp official licence granted by authority of Roman Catholic Church 2 Authority, sanction, guarantee, approval an organization whose work has received the imprimatur of the Government imprimis, adv [1 imprimis, 2 imprimis] Lat imprimis, 'among the first, chiefly, especially, in the first place', fr in primis, 'among the first things', im- & primus, 'first' See primus Firstly, in the first place imprint (I), vb trans [1 imprint, 2 imprint], fr O Fr emprimer, fr PP type of emprimere See im- & print 1 a To produce, reproduce, apply, by pressure, stamp to imprint a mark on a surface, b to press, apply to imprint a kiss on a person's brow &c 2 To mark by pressure, apply mark or design to imprint a surface with a mark &c 3 To fix firmly, establish, impress in the mind words, a scene &c for ever imprinted on one's heart, mind imprint (II), n [1 imprint, 2 imprint], fr preo a That which is imprinted, an impression, mark, stamp printer's, publisher's, imprint, details of name, place of business, date &c printed on title page or at end of book &c, b (fig) distinctive character, impress the imprint of care, anxiety &c imprison, vb trans [1 imprison, 2 imprison], fr O Fr emprisoner. See im- & prison. 1 To put in prison 2 (fig) To shut up, enclose, confine, restrain imprisonment, n [1 imprisonment, 2 imprisonment] Preo & -ment a The act of imprisoning, b state of being imprisoned improbability, n [1 improbability, 2 improbability] See next word & -ity The quality of being improbable improbable, adj [1 improbable, 2 improbable], fr Lat improbabilis (is), 'not deserving of approbation, exceptionable' See im- & probable 1 Not probable, not likely to happen 2 Not likely to be true, not possessing verisimilitude, unlikely an improbable story improbably, adv Preo & -ly In an improbable manner improbity, n [1 improbity, 2 improbity], fr Lat improbatus (em), 'wickedness, dishonesty' See im- & probity Lack of probity or uprightness, dishonesty impromptu, adv, adj, & n. [1 impromptū, 2 impromptu] fr Lat impromptu, 'in readiness'. See in- & prompt. 1 adv Without preparation, extempore to speak impromptu. 2 adj Unprepared performed or given extempore an impromptu speech. 3 n. a An impromptu performance, speech &c. b a musical composition designed to give an impression of improvisation.

improper, adj [1 improper, 2 improprie] im- & proper. 1 a Not suited or adapted to the circumstances, unsuitable for purpose in view behaviour, speech &c. improper to the occasion. to put something to an improper use, to use different from that for which it was intended, b not in accordance with wisdom, knowledge, truth &c. improper treatment of disease, or improper rendering, statement &c. 2 Not in accordance with decorum, good breeding, decent feeling and convention, unbecoming, unseemly, indecent improper language, or improper word, book &c., an improper person, one of loose, bad character. 3 (arith.) Improper fraction, one in which the numerator is greater than the denominator.

improperly, adv Preco & -ly In an improper manner, unsuitably, wrongly, in decently.

improprie (L) vb trans [1 improprie, 2 improprie] fr Med Lat improprie (im-), P.P. type of improprie, fr im- & Lat proprie (-bre), 'to appropriate', fr propi (us) own. See proper. 1 To transfer, take over, annex as private property (esp ecclesiastical benefice &c.), to appropriate. 2 To transfer (ecclesiastical property, such as tithe &c.) to layman.

improprie (II) adj [1 improprie, 2 improprie] fr preco (of eccles. property) Having been impropried.

improprie, n [1 improprie, 2 improprie] improprie (L) & -ion. a The act of improprie, b that which is impropried.

improprie, n [1 improprie, 2 improprie] See preco & -or. Person to, or by, whom something has been impropried, specif. layman in possession of ecclesiastical property, such as tithe &c.

impropriety, n [1 impropriety, 2 impropriety] Lat impropriety (em), 'impropriety' im- & propriety. 1 a Usual absence of correctness, unfitness impropriety of manner, expression, diction &c., b specific exhibition of this, a mistake or error. 2 a Unseemliness, indecorum, indecency, b improper act, piece of conduct.

improvability, n [1 improvability, 2 improvability] See next word & -ity The quality of being improvable.

improvable adj [1 improvable, 2 improvable] improve & -able Capable of being improved.

improvable n. See preco & -ness The quality of being improvable.

improve, vb trans & intrans [1 improvo, 2 improvo] fr im- & provo, fr O Fr provo, profit 'advantage'. See pro- & -ness. 1 trans To make better, increase value, strength &c. of to improve Phrs. to improve the colour, opportunity to use to advantage make good use of the advantage of a to be as text for a moral dissertation, to improve the good of (a good quality) in attempting to improve improvement upon (a thing already good) make pro & something better than 2 intrans To improve the good, to increase in any good or improvable quality, to acquire more strength, value &c. improve &c. to improve in learning, health &c.

improvement, n [1 improvement, 2 improvement] Preco & -ment. 1 The act or process of improving, state of being improved improvement in learning. 2 Something which improves a good in learning, beauty &c. 1 improvement in learning &c.

improver, n [1 improver, 2 improver] improve & -er a One who, that which, improves, b specif. apprentice working for small wage to gain knowledge of his trade.

improvidence, n [1 improvidens, 2 improvidens] im- & providence The quality of being improvident, improvident conduct.

improvident, adj [1 improvident, 2 improvident] im- & provident. Wanting in foresight not given to looking ahead, and providing for the future, unthrifty.

improvidently, adv Preco & -ly In an improvident manner.

improvisation, n [1 improvisation, 2 improvisation] improvisare & -ation The act of improvising, b something improvised.

improvisator, n [1 improvisator, 2 improvisator] (rarely used) improvisatore.

improvisatore, n [1 improvisatore, 2 improvisatore] Ital. See improvisare & -ate & -or One who improvises.

improvisatorial, adj [1 improvisatorial, 2 improvisatorial] improvisator & -ial Pertaining to improvisation.

improvisatory, adj [1 improvisatur, 2 improvisatur] See preco & -y Improvisatorial.

improvisare, vb trans & intrans [1 improvisare, 2 improvisare] improvisare, fr Lat improvisare, fr Ital improvisare, fr Lat improvisare (im-), 'not foreseen'. See im- & provisare.

improvisare, n [1 improvisare, 2 improvisare] improvisare (verb, music &c.) extempore, on the spur of the moment, without preparation. 2 To contrive, arrange or construct as a makeshift, esp hastily, without previous warning that this would be necessary, and without proper materials to improvise a bed on a sofa.

imprudence, n [1 imprudens, 2 imprudens] fr Lat imprudens, 'lack of foresight'. im- & prudence a Quality of being imprudent, rashness, indiscretion, b an imprudent act, utterance &c.

imprudent, adj [1 imprudens, 2 imprudens] fr Lat imprudens (em), 'not foreseeing, imprudent' im- & prudent Without thought of consequences, not cautious, rash, indiscreet, incautious.

imprudently, adv Preco & -ly In an imprudent manner.

imprudence, n [1 imprudens, 2 imprudens] fr Lat imprudens, 'shamelessness', fr imprud (em), 'imprudent'. See next word & -ence. 1 The quality of being imprudent. 2 Imprudent words or actions.

imprudent, adj [1 imprudens, 2 imprudens] fr Lat imprudens (em), 'without shame, imprudent', fr im- & prudens (em), 'bashful, modest', fr prudere, 'to be ashamed' (see prudency) & -ent. 1 Forward, bold, audacious, shameless, n (of persons) an imprudent rogue, beggar &c. b (of actions, words &c.) or imprudent charge, lie, speech. 2 Insolent, rude, saucy imprudent young rascal &c.

imprudently, adv Preco & -ly In an imprudent manner.

imprudently, n [1 imprudens, 2 imprudens] fr Fr., fr Lat imprudens (us), 'shameless, immodest'. See base in preco, & -ity Immodesty, shamelessness.

impugn, vb trans [1 impugn, 2 impugn] fr Fr impugnare, fr Lat impugnare, 'to attack, assault', fr im- & pugnare, 'to fight, contend with'. See pugnacious. a To attack with entire argument &c. b to challenge, call in question, deny.

impugnable, adj [1 impugnabilis, 2 impugnabilis] Preco & -able Capable of being impugned, open to attack.

impugnament, n [1 impugnament, 2 impugnament] impugnare & -ment The act of impugning, state of being impugned.

impugnance, n [1 impugnans, 2 impugnans] fr im- & puissance Weakness, feebleness, want of power.

impugnant, adj [1 impugnans, 2 impugnans] im- & puissant Feeble, weak, powerless, ineffective.

impulse, n [1 impuls, 2 impuls] fr Lat impuls (us), 'a pressure, shock, incitement, instigation', fr impuls (um), P.P. type of impellere, 'to push'. See impel & pulse (L). 1 Physical act of impelling, a push, thrust, propulsion. 2 Intellectual or moral stimulus from without, instigation to action. 3 a Intellectual or emotional propensity, or incitement to act, coming from within, b sudden access of this kind of propensity, often occurring in madness and appearing to be irresistible.

impulsion n [1 impulsio, 2 impulsio] fr Lat impulsio (em), 'external pressure, instigation', fr impuls (um), P.P. type of impellere, 'to push'. See preco & -ion. 1 A act of impelling, b process of driving, or being driven, forward, impetus. 2 Mental impulse.

impulsive, adj [1 impulsiv, 2 impulsiv] impuls & -ive. 1 Tending, serving, to impel. 2 a (of persons) Prone, liable, to act on sudden impulse, without reflection, b (of actions) performed as result of an impulse.

impulsively, adv Preco & -ly In an impulsive manner.

impulsiveness, n See preco & -ness a The quality of being impulsive, b impulsive tendency or action.

impunity, n [1 impunitas, 2 impunitas] fr Lat impunitas (em), 'freedom or safety from punishment', fr impun (se), 'without punishment', fr im- & poena, 'punishment, penalty'. See penal & -ity Freedom, safety, exemption, from penalty, punishment, injury &c., esp in Plr with impunity.

impure, adj [1 impur, 2 impur] fr Lat impur (us), 'unclean' im- & pure. 1 Not clean, dirty, filthy. 2 a Mixed with other substances, adulterated, not pure, (also fig.) not disinterested impure motives b specif. (of colour) mixed with another colour. 3 Unchaste, immodest, immoral, obscene: an impure mind, life, an impure book.

impurely, adv Preco & -ly In an impure manner.

impurity, n [1 impuritas, 2 impuritas] fr Lat impuritas (em), 'impurity' impure & -ity. 1 The quality or state of being impure (in physical and moral senses). 2 a An impure thing, foreign substance occurring in another impurities in the air, in food &c., b impure, unchaste, conduct.

imputability, n [1 imputabilitas, 2 imputabilitas] See next word & -ity The state of being imputable.

imputable, adj [1 imputabilis, 2 imputabilis] impute & -able Capable of being imputed, attributable, ascribable.

imputation, n [1 imputatio, 2 imputatio] impute & -ation. 1 The act of imputing, ascription, attribution (esp in bad sense) of responsibility for, accusation imputation of dishonesty, cowardice &c. 2 Scur, aspersions to cast an imputation on a person's character.

imputative, adj [1 imputativ, 2 imputativ] impute & -ative Pertaining to imputation, imputed.

imputatively, adv Preco & -ly As an imputation.

impute, vb trans [1 imputo, 2 imputo] fr Fr imputer, fr Lat imputare, 'to reckon, charge, ascribe', fr im- & putare, 'to clean, cleanse, to clear up, settle, to come to a reckoning, to reflect, consider'. See putative. 1 (chiefly in bad sense) To consider as belonging to, attribute, ascribe to, credit with, regard as guilty of I impute no evil motives or improper conduct to him. 2 (theol.) To ascribe to, put vicariously to credit of the superabundant merits of Christ are imputed to reprieved mankind.

in (L), prep [1 in, 2 in] OE, ME in, OHG, OS, Goth in, ON í, 'in', Lat in, 'in, on, among, into', Gk en, em, O Frisian en. 1 a Expressing point on within enclosed space or specified area, inside of, within in the house, in a box, two horses in a field; to live in England, in London, to be held by, supported by, partly surrounded by, framed by to have a stick in one's hand and a pipe in one's mouth, a candle in a candlestick, a plant in the window 2 Expressing relation to physical circumstances and surroundings out in a storm; in the rain, to sit in the sun, buried in the sand, in the dark, in chains, in prison Phrs in clover, in pleasant, profitable state; in hot water, in trouble 3 Expressing action, nature of activity engaged in reading, in search of truth 4 Of immediate physical surroundings, covering, dress, or part of dress dressed in velvet, in rags, upholstered in leather, in green, in mourning, in a top hat, in uniform 5 Physical condition in bad health, in a state of collapse, her dress was in rags 6 Inclusion in printed or written composition, or in an utterance in the second chapter, in a speech, in Shakespeare 7 Expressing sphere or scope of activity in his sight, in one's power, in my opinion 8 Mental or moral state or circumstances in a rage, in despair, in difficulties, in an uproar, in the greatest excitement, in tears 9 Expressing relation to time a within the limits of, during in the meanwhile, in his absence, in June; in the winter, b at the end of to be ready in an hour, a week 10 Implying membership of, existence among, a group, party &c, indicating occupation in the army, in society, in trade, in the Cabinet 11 Limitation, a to particular part to be blind in one eye, a wound in the head, b to physical quality, or amount to vary in size, colour &c, his equal in strength, a foot in length 12 Limitation with respect to specific mental or moral quality, capacity, accomplishment &c, as regards lacking in faith, weak in Latin 13 Relation to capacity, character, ability I didn't think he had it in him 14 Conditional, having regard to, should certain things happen in the circumstances, in that case 15 Expressing means, medium, mode of expression to paint in oils, printed in colours, written in pencil, in English; in a few words 16 Expressing mode of arrangement, order &c sitting in rows, in groups, grouped in tens, hair in ringlets 17 Expressing reason of, motive for, action to cry out in alarm, to rejoice in one's recovery 18 Expressing object of action to speak in reply, in a person's defence, to urge a thing in excuse 19 Expressing direction of action, motion &c, into to put one's hands in one's pockets, to dip a pen in the ink in (II), adv O E, OS *in, in, Goth, ON in, Gmc *in, fr prep in See in Becomes an adv after a vb in certain idiomatic uses to come in (the house, room &c understood), to take in what is said (into the mind understood), also after certain vbs, as to live in, i.e. in the house where one's work is in (III), adj. Interior, internal, in a few Phrs in patient, one who lives in the hospital where he is being treated, the in side, at cricket, the side having an innings in (IV), n, fr in (II) 1 The ins, (polit) members of party in office 2 Ins and outs, a (often fig) twists and turns, nooks and corners, b full details, complexities the ins and outs of a question, subject, situation &c in (V), prep Lat in, in, on, among, into. See under in (I) In various Phrs, in com-mendat &c, q v in- (I), pref Lat, fr prep in; in composition, this becomes, in Lat itself, in- before l, m- before b, m, p, n- before r. Often remains unaltered in words of recent formation, esp if the word wh it is compounded is of Engl. origin—innate, inlay &c It is some times difficult to distinguish fr. the O E pref innan-, inne, 'within', cogn w in (I, II), eg in inward The force of the pref in composition is 'in, upon', before vbs implying rest, 'into, against, towards', before those implying motion In O Fr the pref becomes en-, em-.

in- (II), pref, fr Lat in, 'not', neg. pref, cogn w Gk a-, Goth, O H G, O E un- See un- Living pref, giving neg sense to adjs & words derived fr adjs, esp of Lat origin inappropriate, inconclusive, indestructible &c Becomes il-, im-, ir- under same conditions as in- (I) in-, suff, used in chemical terminology See -ine (VII)

-ina (I), suff [1 ēna, 2 ina] Lat fem suff regina In Engl, used to form fem titles czarina, & female names Georgina &c, also in names of musical instruments concertina, ocarina

-ina (II), suff representing neut pl of Lat adjs (usually mod acentis) Lat, forming names of groups of animals &c related to a specific genus.

inability, n [1 inabilit, 2 inabilit] in- (II) & ability Lack of ability, power, resources, opportunity, condition of being unable to do something inability to help, stand, pay, wait &c inaccessibility, n [1 inaccessibilit, 2 inaccessibilit] See next word & -ity The state or quality of being inaccessible inaccessible, adj [1 inaccessibl, 2 inaccessibl] fr Fr, fr. L Lat inaccessibilis, 'unapproachable'. in- (II) & accessible 1 a (of material things) Not easily accessible, hard to approach or reach, remote, out-of-the-way an inaccessible dwelling, peak &c, b (of non-material things) not easily attained, unattainable, beyond attainment the inaccessible object of one's ambition 2 (of persons) Not easy of access, unapproachable, distant, reserved in manner and nature inaccessibly, adv in & -ly In an inaccessible manner inaccuracy, n. [1 inaccurat, 2 inaccurat] in- (II) & accuracy 1 The quality of being inaccurate 2 Something that is inaccurate, an error, a mistake inaccurate, adj [1 inaccurat, 2 inaccurat] in- (II) & accurate Incorrect, wrong, inexact, not accurate inaccurately, adv in & -ly In an inaccurate manner inaction, n [1 inacthun, 2 inacthun] in- (II) & action Absence of mental or of physical action, rest, quiescence, passiveness, inactivity, idleness, inertness inactive, adj [1 inaktiv, 2 inaktiv] in- (II) & active 1 Incapable of physical or mental activity, sluggish, inert, dull, b not actually engaged in action or motion; motionless, quiescent, o (i) not industrious, idle, (u) not busy, unemployed inactively, adv. in & -ly In an inactive manner inactivity, n [1 inaktivit, 2 inaktivit] in- (II) & activity 1 The state of being inactive. 2 A Absence of action, motion, or movement, immobility, quiescence, state of unemployment, b lack of energy, sluggishness, inertness, lethargy inadaptability, n. [1 inadaptabilit, 2 inadaptabilit] in- (II) & adaptability Lack, absence, of adaptability inadaptable, adj [1 inadaptabl, 2 inadaptabl] in- (II) & adaptable Incapable of adapting oneself, not capable of being adapted inadequacy, n [1 inadekwat, 2 inadekwat] in- (II) & adequacy. The quality of being inadequate, a insufficiency, incompleteness, b incompetence inadequate, adj [1 inadekwat, 2 inadekwat] in- (II) & adequate. A Not fulfilling requirements, b insufficient, incompetent inadequately, adv in & -ly In an inadequate manner inadhesive, adj [1 inadhesiv, 2 inadhesiv] in- (II) & adhesive Not adhesive, not sticking. inadmissibility, n [1 inadmissibilit, 2 inadmissibilit] See next word & -ity. The quality of being inadmissible inadmissible, adj [1 inadmissibl, 2 inadmissibl] in- (II) & admissible Not to be admitted; not permissible, that cannot be granted.

inadvertence, -cy, n [1 inadvertens(i), 2 inadvertens(i)] See next word & -cy The quality of being inadvertent, a result, effect, of inadvertence, oversight, error inadvertent, adj [1 inadvertent, 2 inadvertent] in- (II) & obs advertent, fr ad- & -ent 1 Inattentive, unheeding, negligent 2 (of actions) Due to oversight; unintentional, undesigned inadvertently, adv in & -ly 1 Negligently, heedlessly 2 Unintentionally, accidentally inalienability, n [1 inalienabilit, 2 inalienabilit] in- (II) & alienability The quality of being inalienable inalienable, adj [1 inalienabl, 2 inalienabl] in- (II) & alienable Not alienable, not capable of being separated, transferred, or taken away an inalienable right inalienably, adv in & -ly Inseparably, so as to be incapable of being alienated inalterability, n [1 inalterabilit, 2 inalterabilit] in- (II) & alterability The quality of being inalterable inalterable, adj [1 inalterabl, 2 inalterabl] in- (II) & alterable Not capable of being altered, unchangeable inalterably, adv in & -ly In an inalterable manner inamorata, n [1 inamorata, 2 inamorata] Ital, fem of PP of inamorare, 'to fall in love', fr in- (I) & amorare, 'to fall in love', fr amor, fr Lat amor, 'love'. See amorous Lady with whom one is in love inamorato, n [1 inamorato, 2 inamorato] Masc of prec Man with whom a woman is in love in-and-in, adj [1 in and in, 2 in and in] In Phr in and-in breeding, mating of animals or human beings, repeatedly, with individuals of same stock, sprung from common ancestors inane (I), adj [1 inān, 2 inān] fr Lat inānus, 'empty, void, worthless, vain, unprofitable'. Etymol doubtful 1. (rare in physical sense) Empty, void, vacant 2 (of the mind and its operations) Foolish, trivial, frivolous, silly inane (II), n, fr prec The inane, infinite space 'Pinnacled dam in the intense inane' (Shelley) inane, adv inane (I) & -ly In an inane manner inanimate, adj [1 inanimat, 2 inanimat] fr L Lat inanimat (us), 'lifeless' in- (II) & animate 1 Deprived of life, lifeless, dead 2 Not endowed with organic life inanimate matter, inanimate nature 3 Without animation, spiritless, listless, dull inanimately, adv in & -ly In an inanimate manner inanimation, n [1 inanimatshun, 2 inanimatshun] See in & -ion The state of being inanimate inattention, n [1 inattēshun, 2 inattēshun] fr Lat inattēntion (em), 'emptiness', fr inān (um), 'emptied'. See next word & -ion Emptiness, exhaustion from lack of food or nutriment inanity, n [1 inānit, 2 inānit] fr Lat inān (em), 'emptiness, uselessness', fr inān (is), 'empty, foolish, trifling'. See inane & -ity 1 The quality of being inane 2 Something that is inane, foolish triviality inappeasable, adj [1 inapēzabl, 2 inapēzabl] in- (II) & appeasable Not capable of being appeased inappellable, adj [1 inapēlābl, 2 inapēlābl] in- (II) & Lat appell (are), 'to address, accost, to entreat, appeal to' (see appeal), & -able Not able to be appealed against inappellable inappetence, n [1 ināpētens, 2 ināpētens] in- (II) & appetite Lack of appetite, absence of desire inapplicability, n [1 ināpplikāblit, 2 ināpplikāblit] in- (II) & applicability. The state of being inapplicable inapplicable, adj [1 ináplíkl, 2 inéplíkl--əb] in- (II) & applicable Not capable of being applied, unsuitable to, either generally or under particular circumstances.

inapplicably, adv Prec & -ly In an in-applicable manner inapposite, adj [1 inápozít, 2 inapozít] in- (II) & apposite Not apposite, out of place, ill timed, irrelevant, not pertinent inappositely, adv Prec & -ly In an inapposite manner inappreciable, adj [1 inapréshabl, 2 in-apréshabl] in- (II) & appreciable So small or slight as to be incapable of being appreciated, imperceptible, negligible inappreciably, adv Prec & -ly In an in-appreciable manner, very slightly inappreciation, n [1 inapréshashun, 2 inapréshashun] in- (II) & appreciation Lack of appreciation inappreciative, adj [1 inapréshatív, 2 in-apréshatív] in- (II) & appreciative a Not appreciating, not estimating at just value inappreciative of, b not able to, indifferent to, merit, good qualities &c inapprehensible, adj [1 inápréhénabl, 2 inapréhénabl] in- (II) & apprehensible Not capable of being apprehended, not intelligible inapproachable, adj [1 inapráchabl, 2 inapráchabl] in- (II) & approachable (chiefly in moral sense) Inaccessible, unap-proachable, reserved, distant inappropriate, adj [1 inapróprát, 2 inapróprát] in- (II) & appropriate Not appropriate, unsuitable, incongruous inappropriately, adv Prec & -ly In an inappropriate manner inappropriateness, n See prec. & -ness The quality of being inappropriate.

inapt, adj [1 inápt, 2 inépt] in- (II) & apt a Unskilful, unqualified, not deft or dexterous, b inappropriate, irrelevant, unsuitable, not to the point inaptitude, n [1 ináptítud, 2 inéptítud] in- (II) & aptitude a Incapacity, lack of aptitude, b unsuitability inaptnly, adv [1 ináptl, 2 inéptl] inapt & -ly In an inapt manner, unsuitably inaptness, n [1 ináptnes, 2 inéptnes] inapt & -ness Unsuitability, incongru-ousness inarch, vb trans [1 inarch, 2 inárf] in-

(I) & arch (II) To graft (a shoot, bud) without separating from parent stem inarm, vb trans [1 inarm, 2 inárm] in-(I) & arm (I) (poet) To take into one's arms, clasp, embrace articulate, adj [1 inartikúlat, 2 iná-tikúlat] fr L Lat. articulāt (us), 'indistinct, articulate', fr in- (II) & articulāt (us), 'jointed, distinct' See articulate 1 (anat) Not joined 2 a (of speech) Indistinct, not articulate, not distinguishable, b (of persons) not capable of speaking distinctly 3 Incapable of expressing one's ideas and feelings, having no fluency in speech, not given to talking much, reticent inarticulately, adv Prec & -ly In an inarticulate manner inarticulateness, n See prec. & -ness The quality of being inarticulate inartificial, adj [1 inártífíshabl, 2 inártífíshabl] fr L Lat. inartificialis (us), 'artificial, m-artistic' in- (II) & artificial 1 (archae) Not in accordance with artistic principles, inartistic 2 Natural, artless, not artificial inartificially, adv Prec & -ly In an in-artificial manner inartistic, adj [1 inartístik, 2 inástístik] in- (II) & artistic, cp unartistic a Not in accordance with the principles of art, not showing and expressing a sense of form, proportion, symmetry, colour &c an inartistic arrangement style &c, b (of persons, mind &c) devoid of artistic sense and culture inartistically, adv [1 inartístikál, 2 inástístikál] inartistic, adj [1 inártístik, 2 inástístik] in- (II) & artistic In an inartistic

manner

inasmuch, adv [1 inasmuch, 2 inasmát] in & as & much Inasmuch as, a (archae) in so far as, b since, because, seeing that inattention, n [1 inatenshun, 2 inaténshun] in- (II) & attention 1 Lack of attention, absence of concentration of mind, heedlessness 2 Neglect, lack of care, consideration, absence of polite solicitude inattentive, adj [1 inaténshiv, 2 inaténshiv] in- (II) & attentive a Not attending, heedless, without concentration of mind, b lacking in assiduity, careless, neglectful inattentively, adv Prec & -ly In an inattentive manner inattentiveness, n See prec. & -ness The quality of being inattentive inaudibility, n [1 ináwádbiliti, 2 iná-wádbiliti] fr Lat. inaudibilis (us), 'inaudible' Next word & -ity The quality of being inaudible inaudible, adj [1 ináwádbil, 2 ináwádbil] fr Lat. inaudibilis (us), 'inaudible' in- (II) & audible Not capable of being heard.

inaudibly, adv Prec & -ly In an inaudible manner

inaugural, adj & n [1 ináwárgúral, 2 iná-wárgúral] fr stem of inaugurate & -al 1 adj Pertaining to, uttered on occasion of, inauguration an inaugural lecture, address &c, (i) delivered at a ceremonial opening, e.g. of a congress &c, (u) by a person, e.g. president, professor &c, on assuming office 2 n An inaugural address inaugurate, vb trans & intrans [1 ináwárgú-rét, 2 ináwárgúret] fr Lat. inaugurāt (um), P P type of inaugurare, 'to practise augury, to consecrate, inaugurate, to install', fr in- (I) & augurare, 'to examine omens', fr augur, 'augur, soothsayer' See augur & trans 1 To admit (a person) to office ceremoniously, induct, introduce formally 2 a To make a formal, ceremonious, entrance upon, b to open, begin to inaugurate a new era 3 To open publicly with formality and ceremony (a building, exhibition &c) B intrans To deliver an inaugural address inauguration, n [1 ináwárgúráshun, 2 ináwárgúráshun] Prec & -ion The act of inaugurating, state of being inaugurated.

inauguratory, adj [1 ináwárgúráshun, 2 ináwárgúráshun] See prec. & -ory Inaugural inauspicious, adj [1 ináwépsíshus, 2 ináwépsíshus] in- (II) & auspicious Ill omened, unpropitious, unlucky, untoward inauspiciously, adv Prec & -ly In an inauspicious manner inauspiciousness, n See prec. & -ness The quality of being inauspicious inboard, adv & adj [1 ináberd, 2 ináberd] in (I) & board. (naut) In the interior of, near centre of, ship inborn, adj [1 ináborn, 2 ináborn] in (II) & born Born in one, natural, inherent, innate inbreathe, vb trans [1 inábrédh, 2 inábrédh] in (II) & breathe (lit and fig, rare) To breathe in, take in, imbale inbred, adj [1 inábred, 2 inábred] in (II) & bred, see breed (I) 1 Innate, inherent, natural, hereditary 2 Bred from parents who have common ancestors, derived from one or more unions of near kin inbreeding, n [1 inábrédh, 2 inábrédh] in (II) & breeding Breeding from closely related stocks

Inca, n [1 inka, 2 inka] Peruvian a A king of ancient Peru, b member of royal family of Peru before the Spanish conquest incalculability, n [1 inálkálúblítí, 2 inálkálúblítí] See next word & -ity The quality of being incalculable incalculable, adj [1 inálkálúblí, 2 inálkál-úblí] in- & calculable 1 Too great to be calculated, computed 2 Not to be foretold, predicted, or reckoned beforehand 3 (of person or character) Not to be relied upon, not to be understood, uncertain, liable to behave in an incalculable manner incalculably, adv Prec & -ly In an incalculable manner incamera See camera incandescence, n [1 inkándésens, 2 inkándésens] See next word & -ce Process of becoming, state of being, incandescent incandescent, adj [1 inkándésent, 2 inká-ndésent] incandescence & -ent a Glowing, luminous, white, with heat, b shining, brilliant, gleaming, specif. incandescent light, that derived from a substance in a state of incandescence, as a mantle or network of fibre coated with oxide of thorium and cerium in gas lamp, or of tungsten wire in electric bulb incantation, n [1 inkántáshun, 2 inkánté-shun] fr Fr, fr Lat. incantation (em), 'enchantment', fr incantare, 'to bewitch with spells', fr in- (I) & cantare, 'to sing' See chant. Magic words or formula, spell, charm incapability, n [1 inkáptáblítí, 2 inkáptá-blítí] in- (II) & capability The state of being incapable incapable, adj [1 inkáptábl, 2 inkáptábl] in- (II) & capable Lacking the capacity, ability, power, quality, necessary for some specific end or purpose, a (physical) incapable of speech, movement &c, b (intellectual) inefficient, incompetent an incapable person, incapable of understanding, Phr drunk and incapable, so drunk as to be helpless, dead drunk, c (moral) (i) incapable of telling a lie, too truthful ever to do so, (u) incapable of speaking the truth, utterly untruthful incapably, adv Prec & -ly In an incapable manner

incapacitate, vb trans [1 inkápatát, 2 in-kápatét] See incapacity & -ate 1 To render incapable of, unfit for, to deprive of power to, make unequal to to incapacitate one from working, for work &c 2 To disqualify to be incapacitated from voting by lack of fixed domicile incapacitation, n [1 inkápatáshun, 2 in-kápatéshun] Prec & -ion. a Act of in-capacitating, b state of being incapacitated.

incapacity, n [1 inkápatá, 2 inkápatá] fr Fr incapacité in- (II) & capacity 1 Want of physical or mental capacity, inability, powerlessness, incompetence 2 Legal disqualification incarcerate, vb trans [1 inkáserét, 2 in-káserét] fr Med Lat. incarcerat (um), P P type of incarcerare, fr in- (I) & L Lat. carcerare, 'to imprison', fr Lat. carcer, 'an enclosed place, a prison', perh cogn w O E hearg, 'heathen temple', cp O N hrygr, 'stone mound, heathen altar', orig meaning 'piled up stones, whether as mound or as enclosing wall' Cp Gael cairn, 'pile of stones' See cairn (lit and fig) To imprison, shut up, confine incarceration, n [1 inkáseréshun, 2 inkáseréshun] Prec & -ion. The act of in-carcerating, state of being incarcerated incarnadine (I), adj [1 inkárnádn, 2 inkárnádn] fr Fr, fr Ital incarnadino, fr incarnato, 'in the flesh', fr Lat. incarnat (us) See incarnate (poet) Flesh coloured, reddish incarnadine (II), vb trans, fr prec. (poet) To redden, cause to turn red or crimson 'my hand with the multitudinous seas in-carnadine' (Shakespeare, Macbeth) incarnate (I), adj [1 inkárnat, 2 inkárnat] fr Lat. incarnat (um), P P type of Lat. incarnare, 'to make flesh', fr in- (I) & carn (us), genit of carn, 'flesh' See carnal. a Having a body, invested with flesh an incarnate fiend; b (of an ideal, an abstraction &c) given, appearing in, a concrete, tangible form.

incarnate (II) vb trans [1 inkárnāt, 2 inkárnē] See pre & To invest with flesh, give bodily form to, to embody, to give concrete, tangible form to, make concrete (a plan, vision, idea &c) incarnation, n [1 inkárnashun, 2 inkárnēshən] Pre & -ion 1 Process, act, of enclosing in flesh, of giving bodily form to, specif, the Incarnation, the taking on of human form and nature by Christ 2 Embodiment in concrete form, something which embodies, expresses, typifies, an abstract quality &c the incarnation of health incautious, adj [1 inkáwshus, 2 inkáshəs] in- (II) & cautious Not cautious, rash, imprudent incautiously, adv. Pre & -ly In an incautious manner incautiousness, n See pre & -ness The quality of being incautious incendiarism, n [1 insendiarizm, 2 insendjarizm] See next word & -ism 1 Deliberate, malicious burning of property, arson 2 (fig) Stirring up of dissension, wilful incitement to violence, rioting &c incendiary, adj & n [1 insendyari, 2 insendjari], fr Lat incendiarī (us), 'causing a fire', fr incendi (um), 'a fire, conflagration', fr incend-ere, 'to set fire to' in- (I) & up candere, 'to gleam, burn, glow', see candescere & candid 1 adj a Pertaining to, given to, guilty of, incendiarism, b tending to arouse dissension, sedition, strife 2 n a Person who deliberately and maliciously sets fire to property, b one who stirs up violence, strife, rebellion, an agitator incense (I), n [1 insens, 2 insens], fr O Fr encens, fr Lat incensum, 'something burnt, incense', fr incens-um, PP of incendere, 'to set fire to' See pre & 1 A Pungent, fragrant smoke arising from burning herbs and spices, specif, this used ceremonially in religious worship, b herbs &c used for this purpose 2 (fig) Pleading homage, adulation, flattery incense (II), vb trans [1 insens, 2 insens], fr pre & To fumigate, perfume, make fragrant, with incense, to cense, b to offer incense to, to burn it in honour of incense (III), vb trans fr Lat incens-um Same word as pre Lat incendere has fig meaning 'to irritate, enrage' See incendiary To anger, enrage, make indignant incense burner, n Stationary vessel for burning incense, in contrast to a censer, which is swung incensory, n [1 insensuri, 2 insensuri], fr Mod Lat incensurum, 'censor' incense (I) & -ory A censor incensive, adj & n [1 insentiv, 2 insentiv], fr Lat incensiv (us), 'setting the tune, giving the note', fr incens-um, PP type of incensere, 'to sound, sing', fr in- (I) & censere, 'to sing, sound, play' See chant & -ive 1 adj Tending to incite, stir up, urge 2 n Something that incites to action, stimulus, motive incept, vb trans & intrans [1 insépt, 2 insépt], fr Lat incept (um), PP type of incipere, 'to begin, take in hand', fr in- (I) & capere, 'to take' See captive A trans 1 (obs) To begin to incept the Psalms, to sing opening words as solo 2 (biol) To take in (foreign matter) and convert it into organic tissue B intrans a (Oxford Univ) To incept in arts, to complete the exercises prescribed for the BA degree, thus qualifying for degree of Master of Arts, or one in a higher Faculty, b (Cambridge) complete taking Master's or Doctor's degree inception, n [1 inséptshun, 2 inséptshən], fr Lat inception (em), 'beginning' Pre & -ion 1 Beginning, commencement, start 2 (Cambridge Univ) Taking of full Master's or Doctor's degree inceptive, adj & n [1 inséptiv, 2 inséptiv], fr Lat incept (um), PP type of incipere, 'to begin' See incept & -ive 1. adj a Beginning, marking the beginning, initial, introductory, b specif (gram, of vb) expressing the beginning of an action 2 n An inceptive verb incertitude, n [1 insértitúd, 2 insértitúd], fr Fr, fr Lat incert- (us), 'uncertain' (fr in- (II), & cert- (us), see certain), & -tude Uncertain state of mind, uncertainty, absence of conviction, or assurance, doubtfulness, dubiety incessancy, n [1 insésansi, 2 insésansi] See next word & -cy The state of being incessant incessant, adj [1 insésant, 2 insésant], fr L Lat incessant (em), 'unceasing', fr in- (II) & cessant- (em), Pre Part of cessare, 'to stop, cease' See cease Never ceasing, continual, uninterrupted incessantly, adv Pre & -ly Ceaselessly, without stopping incest, n [1 inest, 2 inest], fr Lat incest- (us), 'unchastity, incest', fr in- (II) & castus, 'obaste' See chaste Crime consisting in sexual intercourse between closely related persons incestuous, adj [1 inséstius, 2 inséstius], fr Lat incestuos (us), 'incestuous' Pre & -ous a Of the nature of incest, b guilty of incest incestuously, adv. Pre & -ly So as to constitute incest inch (I), n [1 meh, 2 intj] OE ynce, ME meche, fr Lat uncia, 'a twelfth part, the twelfth part of a pound, an ounce, twelfth part of a foot, an inch', orig 'unt', fr Lat in (us), 'one' See un- & ounce (I) 1 a The twelfth part of a foot, an inch of rain, amount sufficient to cover surface to depth of one inch, b inches, height, stature 2 A small amount, distance, degree in various phrs by inches, a small bit at a time, inch by inch, by degrees, every inch, completely, entirely, not to yield an inch (lit and fig), not to give way in the smallest degree, if you give him an inch he'll take an ell, will take un justifiable advantage of any concessions inch (II), n, fr Gael innis, 'island' (Scots) A small island, hill, or other piece of land isolated from surroundings

-incher, n suff [1 incher, 2 intja], fr inch (I) & -er Thing measuring so many inches (in length, breadth &c) six incher &c inchoate, (I) adj [1 inkóit, 2 inkóvst], fr Lat inchoat (um), PP type of inchoare, 'to begin', fr in- (I) & kogh-*, '*kogh-', 'to take hold of, fasten together, lay together' Cp Lat cohui, 'a strap fastening plough-beam to yoke' In the first stages, just beginning, undeveloped, rudimentary inchoate (II), vb trans [1 inkóat, 2 inkóvst] See pre (rare) To begin, be author of, originate, initiate inchoation, n [1 inkóashun, 2 inkóvstshən] Pre & -ion (rare) Beginning, origin inchoative, adj [1 inkóativ, 2 inkóvstiv] inchoate (II) & -ive (gram) Inchoative verb, one expressing beginning of an action incidence, n [1 insidens, 2 insidens], fr Fr, fr Lat incid-entem, 'falling upon' Next word & -ence 1 Fact, mode, of falling or effecting, scope, range, of occurrence incidence of lazation, of a particular disease &c 2 Direction in which one body falls on, or strikes another, angle of incidence, that mode with the falling or moving body, and the plane struck incident (I), adj [1 insident, 2 insident], fr Fr, fr Lat incident (em), Pre Part of incidere, 'to fall upon, to happen, occur', fr in- (I) & cadere, 'to fall' See cadence 1 Naturally belonging to, liable to occur in connexion with, attendant on diseases incident to childhood, weaknesses incident to human nature. 2 (law) Dependent on, naturally involved in, attached to, something else rights, duties &c, incident to a settled estate. 3 (phys) Falling, striking upon, meeting. a line, ray of light &c, incident upon a surface. incident (II), n, fr pre 1. a Something that happens, an event, occurrence, b a subordinate event, detail, minor episode, esp one apart from the main design in a composition 2 (law) Something attaching to, dependent on, something else, esp a privilege or burden attached to an estate incidental, adj & n [1 insidentl, 2 insidentl], Pre & -al 1 adj a Occurring as a result of, consequent on, liable to occur in, attaching to, incident the dangers incidental to a soldier's career, b forming an unimportant part, unessential, casual 2 n Something which is incidental incidentally, adv Pre & -ly In an incidental manner incinerate, vb trans [1 insinerat, 2 insinereit], fr Med Lat incinerat-um, PP type of incinerare, 'to reduce to ashes', fr in- (I) & ciner-, stem of ciner, 'ashes' See cinerary. To burn up, reduce to ashes incineration, n [1 insinerashun, 2 insinereitshən] Pre & -ion Reduction to ashes, burning up incinerator, n [1 insinerator, 2 insinereitor] incinerate & -or Furnace for burning rubbish &c incipience, -cy, n [1 insipiens(i), 2 insipiens(i)] See next word & -ce, -cy The state of being incipient, beginning, first stages incipient, adj [1 insipient, 2 insipient], fr Lat incipient (em), Pre Part of incipere, 'to begin' See in- (I) & captive Beginning, not fully developed, in the early stages incipient lunacy incipiently, adv Pre & -ly As a beginning incipit, vb [1 insipit, 2 insipit] Lat incipit, 'begins', 3rd sing pres of incipere, 'to begin' See incipient & incept (Here) begins (book &c) incise, vb trans [1 insiz, 2 insiz], fr Fr inciser, fr Lat incis (um), PP type of incidere, 'to cut into, cut through, to carve, engrave', fr in- (I) & cadere, 'to cut, to cut down, hew, to strike, kill' See Caesar & excement 1 To cut into, make a cut or gash in 2 To carve, engrave, a to incise a stone surface, b to incise a design &c on a surface incision, n [1 insizhun, 2 insizhun] Pre & -ion a The act of incising, b that which results from incising, a cut, gash, specif, one made in a surgical operation incisive, adj [1 insiziv, 2 insiziv] incise & -ive 1 (rare) Cutting into, sharp, keen, penetrating 2 a (of the mind &c) Alert, acute, keen, penetrating, active, b (of modes of expression) vigorous, cutting, pointed, caustic, sarcastic incisively, adv Pre & -ly In an incisive manner incisiveness, n See pre & -ness The quality of being incisive in mind or expression incisor, n [1 insizor, 2 insizor], fr Med Lat incisor, 'cutting tooth' incise & -or Any one of front teeth, between canines, in upper or lower jaw of mammals incitation, n [1 insitashun, 2 insitashun], See next word & -ation Incitement, stirring up incite, vb trans [1 insit, 2 insit], fr Fr inciter, fr Lat incitare, 'to set in motion, to encourage, urge, to rouse, stir up', fr in- (I) & cidere, 'to put in motion, stimulate' See cito To stir up, inflame, to encourage, urge, rouse incitement, n [1 insitment, 2 insitment], Pre & -ment 1 The act of inciting, state of being incited 2 Something that incites, spur, stimulus, motive to action incivility, n [1 insiviliti, 2 insiviliti], fr Fr, fr L Lat incivilitas (em), 'incivility' in- (II) & civility 1 Discourtesy, impoliteness, unmannorliness 2 Discourteous act incivism, n [1 insivizm, 2 insivizm], fr Fr incivisme, fr in- (II) & Lat civ (us), 'citizen', see civil, & -ism a Neglect of civic duties, uselessness as citizen; lack of good citizenship, disloyalty to the state, b speed, term applied to the principles of Frenchmen hostile to the French Revolution in-clearing, n [1 in klirɪŋ, 2 in klirɪŋ] Amount payable by bank on cheques presented through clearing house inclement, n [1 inkle'ment, 2 inkle'ment], fr Lat inclementis, 'rigour, harshness, severity' in- (II) & clementia (of weather and climate) Quality of being inclement inclement, adj [1 inkle'ment, 2 inkle'ment], fr Lat inclementis (em), 'severe, rough, harsh' in- (II) & clement 1 (of weather, climate) Reverse of calm, fine, warm, rough, boisterous, cold, severe 2 (rare, of character &c) Harsh, severe, lacking mercifulness inclination, adj [1 inkle'naibl, 2 inkle'neibl] inclines & -able Followed by to a Disposed, inclined, willing, ready, b favourable to approving inclination, n [1 inkle'naʃən, 2 inkle'ne'ʃən], fr Lat inclinationem, 'bending, leaning, inclining, inclination, tendency' Next word & -ation 1 A act or process of bending, a bending, leaning, alope, b state of being inclined, slope, slant 2 (geom) Angle formed by the intersection of two lines or planes 3 a (of mental state or process) Tendency, willingness, disposition, propensity (to do something), b liking, fondness, partiality, preference, predilection (for something) c physical or bodily propensity or tendency an inclination is slowness incline (I), vb trans & intrans [1 inkle'n, 2 inkle'n], fr O Fr incliner, fr Lat inclinare, 'to cause to lean, to bend, bow, to be favourably disposed', fr in- (I) & clinare, 'to bend, incline' See base under decline, clinical, lean (II) A trans 1 To cause to assume a position out of the vertical, to cause to slope, slant, lean, inclined plane, one up which a body too heavy to lift may be rolled, one of the mechanical powers 2 a To bend, bow, stoop to incline one's head &c Phr to incline one's ear (to), give one's attention to, listen to, be favourable to, b (of non-material process) to direct, dispose 'incline our hearts to keep this law' 3 (in PP after to be feel) To be, feel, inclined, to be feel, disposed, predisposed, drawn to, to tend, in feeling, thought, or habit to be inclined to think believe, inclined to drink too much, inclined to grow fat &c B intrans 1 To lean, slope, be on a slant, be out of the vertical 2 (of mental process) To tend, be disposed towards to incline to think that, to incline to an opinion 3 To have an habitual tendency, be naturally disposed, to be prone to incline to laziness incline (II), n [1 inkle'n, 2 inkle'n], fr Lat inclinatio, 'a slope slant, in the ground ascent or descent' Inclinometer, n [1 inkle'nometer, 2 inkle'nometer] inclines & -meter Apparatus furnished with magnetic needle, for measuring the force, and the direction relative to the plane of the horizon, of magnetic attraction exercised by the earth inclose, vb trans See enclose include, vb trans [1 inklu'd, 2 inklu'd], fr Lat incluere (ere) 'to shut up, shut in, enclose, to include, insert, enclose', fr in- (I) & cludere, 'to shut' See close (I) 1 To contain, comprise, embrace, have as a part of the whole the greater includes the less, a good text book ought to include a bibliography of the subject 2 To reckon, regard, consider take into account, as part of a whole as member of a body &c he includes everything in his survey, I include you among my friends including, prep [1 inklu'dɪŋ, 2 inklu'dɪŋ] Part of includes Inclusive of, reckoning in, with, among these five members were present at the meeting, including the chairman inclusion n [1 inklu'ʒən, 2 inklu'ʒən], fr Lat inclusio (er), 'a shutting up, confinement', fr incluere (uri), PP type of incluere (ere), 'to shut up' &c See includes & -ion The act of including, state of being included inclusive, adj [1 inklu'siv, 2 inklu'siv], fr Med Lat inclusivus (us), fr Lat incluere (um), PP type of incluere See pre & include & -ive 1 a Including, comprising, not omitting a party of ten, inclusive of the host, b including the extremes, or limits stated chapters 1 to 5 inclusive, from January 1st to 31st inclusive 2 Including, reckoning in, everything inclusive terms (at hotel &c) inclusively, adv Pre & -ly So as to include everything inclusiveness, n See pre & -ness The state of being inclusive incognito, adj, n, & adv [1 inkog'nɪtə, 2 inkog'nɪtə] Ital incognito, 'unknown', fr Lat incognitus (us), fr in- (II) & cognitus (us), PP type of cognoscere, 'to know, learn, recognize' See cognition 1 adj Passing under an assumed name or character 2 n Assumed name or character 3 adv (abbr incog) under an assumed name or title the king travelled incognito incognizable, adj [1 inkog'naɪzəbl, 2 inkog'naɪzəbl] in- (II) & cognizable Not capable of being perceived, apprehended, by the senses or mind incognizance, n [1 inkog'naɪsəns, 2 inkog'naɪsəns] in- (II) & cognizance The state of being incognizant incognizant, adj [1 inkog'naɪzənt, 2 inkog'naɪzənt] in- (II) & cognizant Not recognizing, unconscious, unaware (of) incoherence, n [1 inkoh'rens, 2 inkoh'rens] in- (II) & coherence The state of being incoherent, incoherent utterance or ideas incoherent, adj [1 inkoh'rent, 2 inkoh'rent] in- (II) & coherent a (of ideas and expression) Lacking logical sequence, not coherent, rambling, disconnected, b (of person) exhibiting incoherence of thought or expression incoherently, adv Pre & -ly In an incoherent manner incohesive, adj [1 inkoh'siv, 2 inkoh'siv] in- (II) & cohesive Not cohesive incombustibility, n [1 inkombustɪbɪlɪtɪ, 2 inkombustɪbɪlɪtɪ] in- (II) & combustibility The quality of being incombustible incombustible, adj [1 inkombustɪbl, 2 inkombustɪbl] in- (II) & combustible Not inflammable, incapable of burning income, n [1 inkam, 2 inkam], fr inkam, inkam in (II) & come 1 (obs) Entrance, coming in 2 Money periodically received whether as rent, interest on property or investments, derived from commercial activities and operations, or paid as salary for performance of services, for purposes of taxation classified as earned or unearned income incomer, n [1 inkamər, 2 inkamər] in (II) & come & -er One who enters or comes in b an immigrant, settler c successor income-tax n Tax levied on annual income incoming (I), n [1 inkamɪŋ, 2 inkamɪŋ] in (II) & come & -ing 1 The act of coming in, entrance 2 (pl) Revenue, income incoming (II), adj [1 inkamɪŋ, 2 inkamɪŋ] in- (I) & Fr Part of come 1 Coming in, on back, returning the incoming tide 2 Sue ceeding, following, just entering upon possession office &c the incoming tenant 3 Coming, falling due, accruing incoming payments incommensurability, n [1 inkəmensjə'raɪbɪlɪtɪ, 2 inkəmensjə'raɪbɪlɪtɪ] in- (II) & commensurability Quality of being incommensurable incommensurable (I), adj [1 inkəmensjə'raɪbl, 2 inkəmensjə'raɪbl] in- (II) & commensurable 1 A Not comparable with, not capable of being measured along with, having extreme inequality of size, b not deserving comparison with 2 Of quantities magnitudes a (of two quantities) having no common measure b (of one quantity) irrational incommensurable (II), n fr pre A thing, amount &c which is incommensurable with something else incommensurably, adv Pre & -ly In an incommensurable manner incommensurate, adj [1 inkəmensjə'reɪt, 2 inkəmensjə'reɪt] in- (II) & commensurate 1 Unequal, inadequate, disproportionate (with or to) 2 Incommensurable incommensurateness, n Pre & -ness The quality of being incommensurate incommode, vb trans [1 inkə'məʊd, 2 inkə'məʊd], fr Fr incomoder, fr Lat incommodare, 'to be inconvenient, troublesome', fr in- (II) & commodare, 'to make suitable, adapt, accommodate', fr commodus (us), 'suitable, convenient' See commodate & further under meditate 2 To inconvenience, annoy, disturb, make uncomfortable incommodious, adj [1 inkə'məʊdɪəs, 2 inkə'məʊdɪəs] in- (II) & commodious Not spacious, lacking adequate space, inconvenient, uncomfortable incommodiously, adv Pre & -ly In an incommodious manner incommodiousness, n See pre & -ness Quality of being incommodious incommunicability, n [1 inkə'mju:nɪkə'bɪlɪtɪ, 2 inkə'mju:nɪkə'bɪlɪtɪ] in- (II) & communicability The quality of being incommunicable incommunicable, adj [1 inkə'mju:nɪkə'bl, 2 inkə'mju:nɪkə'bl] in- (II) & communicable Not capable of being communicated to another incommunicableness, n Pre & -ness The quality of being incommunicable incommunicably, adv See pre & -ly So as to be incommunicable incommunicative, adj [1 inkə'mju:nɪkə'tɪv, 2 inkə'mju:nɪkə'tɪv] in- (II) & communicative Not communicative, not ready to impart information, unwilling to express thought and feelings, reticent incommunicativeness, n Pre & -ness Quality of being incommunicative incommutable, adj [1 inkə'mju:tə'bl, 2 inkə'mju:tə'bl] in- (II) & commutable Not capable of being exchanged, unchangeable incommutably, adv Pre & -ly In an incommutable manner incompact, adj [1 inkəmpəkt, 2 inkəmpəkt] in- (II) & compact Not compact incomparable, adj [1 inkəmpərə'bl, 2 inkəmpərə'bl], fr Lat incomparabilis (is), 'that cannot be equalled' in- (II) & comparable 1 Not to be, not capable of being, compared 2 Without equal, peerless, matchless, unique incomparableness, n Pre & -ness Quality of being incomparable incomparably, adv See pre & -ly In an incomparable manner beyond measure or comparison incompatibility, n [1 inkəmpə'tɪbɪlɪtɪ, 2 inkəmpə'tɪbɪlɪtɪ] in- (II) & compatibility Quality of being incompatible incompatible, adj [1 inkəmpə'tɪbl, 2 inkəmpə'tɪbl] in- (II) & compatible 1 Disagreeing, opposed, in nature or temperament, unharmonious, discordant 2 Not consistent with, disagreeing with, logically opposed to incompetence, -cy, n [1 inkəmpetənsɪs, 2 inkəmpetənsɪs] in- (II) & competence & -cy The quality of being incompetent, powerlessness, inability, incapacity incompetent, adj [1 inkəmpetent, 2 inkəmpetent], fr L Lat incompetentis (em), 'insufficient' in- (II) & competent 1 a Lacking requisite knowledge, skill, ability, for specified task incompetent as an administrator, an incompetent cook &c, b generally unskilful, incapable, ineffective, futile a thoroughly incompetent person c (of work, action &c) displaying incompetence of author or performer an incompetent lecture book, incompetent leadership, acting &c 2 Logically unqualified,

- incompetently, adv Prec & -ly In an incompetent manner
- incomplete, adj [1 inkomplēt, 2 inkomplēt], fr L Lat incompletus (us), 'incomplete' in- (II) & complete Not complete, a imperfect, defective, b not completed, not brought to state of perfection
- incompletely, adv Prec & -ly Not completely, imperfectly
- incompleteness, n See prec & -ness State of being incomplete
- incomprehensibility, n [1 inkompřehensibilita, 2 inkompřehensibilita] in- (II) & comprehensibility The quality of being uncomprehensible
- incomprehensible, adj [1 inkompřehensibl, 2 inkompřehensibl], fr L Lat incomprehensibilis (is), 'that cannot be seized, incomprehensible' in- (II) & comprehensible 1 Not capable of being grasped by the mind, not to be understood, unintelligible 2 Not capable of being limited, confined, illimitable, boundless, infinite, esp as attribute of God, also as noun 'not three incomprehensibles but one incomprehensible' (Athanasiian Creed)
- incomprehensibleness, n Prec & -ness The quality of being incomprehensible
- incomprehensibly, adv See prec & -ly In an incomprehensible manner
- incomprehension, n [1 inkompřehenchun, 2 inkompřehenchun] in- (II) & comprehension Lack of comprehension
- incompressibility, n [1 inkompřesibilita, 2 inkompřesibilita] in- (II) & compressibility The quality of being incompressible
- incompressible, adj [1 inkompřesibl, 2 inkompřesibl] in- (II) & compressible Not capable of being compressed, hard, unyielding
- incomputable, adj [1 inkumpřtubl, 2 inkumpřtubl] in- (II) & computable Not capable of being computed
- inconceivability, n [1 inkonsřvabilita, 2 inkonsřvabilita] in- (II) & conceivability Quality of being unconceivable
- inconceivable, adj [1 inkonsřvabl, 2 inkonsřvabl] in- (II) & conceivable a Not capable of being conceived by the mind, unimaginable, unthinkable, b (colloq) hard to believe, hence, very unlikely
- inconceivably, adv Prec & -ly In an inconceivable manner, to an inconceivable extent
- inconcinnity, n [1 inkonsřnita, 2 inkonsřnita] in- (II) & concinnity Unsuitableness, incongruity, lack of concinnity, inelegance
- inconclusive, adj [1 inkunklřsiv, 2 inkunklřsiv] in- (II) & conclusive Not leading to a conclusion, not carrying conviction, indeterminate, not settling point under discussion
- inconclusively, adv Prec & -ly In an inconclusive manner
- inconclusiveness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being inconclusive
- incondensable, adj [1 inkundensabl, 2 inkundensabl] in- (II) & condensable Not capable of being condensed
- incondite, adj [1 inkondit, 2 inkondit], fr Lat inconditus (um), 'unformed, uncooked, rude, artless', fr in- (II) & condit (um), P P type of condere, 'to put together, form into a whole, construct' See condition a (of liter composition) Not well put together, badly constructed, b rough, unpolished
- inconformity, n [1 inkonfřmity, 2 inkonfřmity] in- (II) & conformity Lack of conformity
- incongruity, n [1 inkongřřřity, 2 inkongřřřity] in- (II) & congruity 1 Quality of being incongruous 2 Something that is incongruous
- incongruous, adj [1 inkongřřřous, 2 inkongřřřous], fr Lat incongruus (us), 'inconsistent, unsuitable' in- (II) & congruous a Inconsistent, not in keeping, with, b out of place, unsuitable, inappropriate
- incongruously, adv Prec & -ly In an incongruous manner
- incongruousness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being incongruous, incongruous thing or action
- inconsecutive, adj [1 inkunsekřtiv, 2 inkunsekřtiv] in- (II) & consecutive Not following in natural order, lacking consecutiveness
- inconsecutively, adv Prec & -ly In an inconsecutive manner
- inconsecutiveness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being inconsecutive
- inconsequence, n [1 inkunsekřwone, 2 inkunsekřwone], fr L Lat inconsequentia, 'want of logical connexion' in- (II) & consequence Quality of being inconsequent
- inconsequent, adj [1 inkunsekřwent, 2 inkunsekřwent], fr Lat inconsequent (em), 'not logically consequent' in- (II) & consequent Without logical connexion, not following naturally, irrelevant, beside the mark
- inconsequential, adj [1 inkunsekřwensibl, 2 inkunsekřwensibl] inconsequent & -ial Illogical, not following logically, inconsequent
- inconsequently, adv Prec & -ly In an inconsequential manner
- inconsequently, adv [1 inkunsekřwent, 2 inkunsekřwent] inconsequent & -ly In an inconsequent manner
- inconsiderable, adj [1 inkunsidřrabl, 2 inkunsidřrabl] in- (II) & considerable a Not worth considering, unimportant, b of small proportions, small
- inconsiderate, adj [1 inkunsidřrat, 2 inkunsidřrat], fr Lat inconsideratus (us), 'thoughtless, inconsiderate' in- (II) & considerate a Not showing regard for the wishes, feelings, of others, thoughtless, b ill considered, rash
- inconsiderately, adv Prec & -ly In an inconsiderate manner
- inconsiderateness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being inconsiderate
- inconsideration, n [1 inkunsidřrashun, 2 inkunsidřrashun] inconsiderate & -ion (rare) Inconsiderateness
- inconsistency, n [1 inkonsřstonsi, 2 inkonsřstonsi] in- (II) & consistency a Quality of being inconsistent, b something that is inconsistent
- inconsistent, adj [1 inkunsřstent, 2 inkunsřstent] in- (II) & consistent 1 Not consistent in kind or character, not agreeing, incompatible, not in keeping, (with) 2 Not logically consistent, contradictory, not holding together an inconsistent narrative 3 (of persons and character) Not consistent in principle, not showing uniformity of feeling, habit &c, changeable
- inconsistently, adv Prec & -ly In an inconsistent manner
- inconsolable, adj [1 inkunsolřbl, 2 inkunsolřbl], fr Lat inconsolabilis (us), 'unconsolable' in- (II) & consolable a (of person) Not to be consoled, b (of grief) not yielding to consolation
- inconsolably, adv Prec & -ly In an inconsolable manner
- inconsolance, n [1 inkunsunans, 2 inkunsunans] in- (II) & consolance The state of being inconsistent, inharmoniousness
- inconsonant, adj [1 inkonsřnant, 2 inkonsřnant] in- (II) & consonant (I) Not agreeing, inharmonious, inconsistent
- inconspicuous, adj [1 inkunspřkřus, 2 inkunspřkřus], fr L Lat inconspicuus (us), 'inconspicuous' in- (II) & conspicuous a Not easily seen, not attracting attention, specif b (bot, of flowers) small and green
- inconspicuously, adv Prec & -ly In an inconspicuous manner
- inconspicuousness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being inconspicuous
- inconstancy, n [1 inkonsřtansi, 2 inkonsřtansi], fr Lat inconstantia, 'fickleness' in- (II) & constancy Quality of being inconstant; a changeableness of character, fickleness, infidelity, b variability, lack of uniformity
- inconstant, adj [1 inkonsřtant; 2 inkonsřtant], fr Lat inconstant (em), 'changeable' in- (II) & constant 1 A Changeable in character and purpose, unsteadfast, vacillating, capricious, b changeable, not constant in feelings and affections, unfaithful 2 Subject to change, variable, not constant, irregular, alterable
- inconstantly, adv Prec & -ly In an inconstant manner
- inconsumable, adj [1 inkunsumřbl, 2 inkunsumřbl] in- (II) & consume & -able Not capable of being consumed
- incontestable, adj [1 inkuntřstřbl, 2 inkuntřstřbl] in- (II) & contest & -able Not to be contested or disputed, undeniable
- incontestably, adv Prec & -ly In an incontestable manner
- incontinence, -cy, n [1 inkontřnens(s), 2 inkontřnens(s)], fr Lat incontinentia, 'incontinence' in- (II) & continence & -cy The quality of being incontinent, lack of restraint, inability to control, specif a inordinate indulgence of sexual appetite, unchastity, b (med) inability to restrain natural evacuations incontinency of urine Phr incontinence of speech, loquacity
- incontinent (I), adj [1 inkontřnent, 2 inkontřnent], fr Lat incontinent (em), 'incontinent' in- (II) & continent (I) 1 Incapable of self restraint, specif, given to unlawful indulgence of sexual passion, unchaste 2 (med) Not capable of retaining natural evacuations
- incontinent (II), adv & adj, fr O Fr, fr L Lat incontinent (tempore), 'without interruption, instantly', fr in- (I) & continere (em), 'continual, uninterrupted', Pres Part of continere, 'to hold, keep, together, to contain, enclose, to continue' See contain (archaic) a adv Immediately, forthwith, straightway, b adj, immediate
- incontinently, adv Prec & -ly Forthwith
- incontrovertible, adj [1 inkuntřvřřřřbl, 2 inkuntřvřřřřbl] in- (II) & controvert & -ible Not to be controverted or disputed, unquestionable, unassailable
- incontrovertibly, adv Prec & -ly In an incontrovertible manner
- inconvenience (I), n [1 inkunvřřřans, 2 inkunvřřřans], fr O Fr, fr L Lat inconvenientia, 'incongruity, lack of harmony' in- (II) & conveniencia 1 The state of being inconvenient, lack of convenience, unavailability, discomfort 2 Something that is inconvenient, cause of discomfort
- inconvenience (II), vb trans, fr prec To cause inconvenience to, render uncomfortable, to disturb
- inconvenient, adj [1 inkunvřřřent, 2 inkunvřřřent], fr Fr, fr Lat inconvenient (em), 'unsuitable' in- (II) & convenient a Not adapted to comfort, to easiness of action, &c, causing trouble and difficulty, awkward, ill-arranged, b (archaic, in moral sense) unfitting, unbecoming
- inconveniently, adv Prec & -ly In an inconvenient manner
- inconvertibility, n [1 inkunvřřřřřřbl, 2 inkunvřřřřřřbl] in- (II) & convertibility The state of being inconvertible
- inconvertible, adj [1 inkunvřřřřřřbl, 2 inkunvřřřřřřbl] in- (II) & convertible a Not convertible, unexchangeable for something else, b specif (of paper money) not capable of being exchanged for coin
- inconvertibly, adv Prec & -ly In an inconvertible manner
- inconvincible, adj [1 inkunvřřřřřřbl, 2 inkunvřřřřřřbl] in- (II) & convince Not capable of being convinced
- inco-ordination, n [1 inkordřnřřřshun, 2 inkordřnřřřshun] in- (II) & co-ordination Lack of co-ordination
- incorporate (I), adj [1 inkorpřrit, 2 inkorpřrit], Lat incorporatus See in- (II) & corporate Incorporate, spiritual, not bodily
- incorporate (II), adj, fr L Lat incorporatus (um), P P type of incorporare, 'to incorporate'

ate', fr in- (L) & corporare, 'to make into a body, furnish with a body', fr corpor, stem of corpus, 'a body' See corpus 1 United, combined, in one body, group, or corporation 2 Constituted as a legal corporation incorporate (III), vb trans & intrans [1 in corporat, 2 in corporat] See prec & trans 1 To include, combine, assimilate, into o unity a book which incorporates the newest information 2 a To add, join (a person), to a body or society, make a member of to be in incorporated a member of a college, b to blend, mingle with to incorporate a chemical substance with others 3 To form into, recognize as, a legal corporation B intrans To be capable of blending m with, to mix, unite, with incorporating, ody [1 in corporat, 2 in corporat] fr Pres Part of incorporate (III) (of languages) Expressing modifications of meaning by the incorporation of formative elements into the body of words incorporation, n [1 in corporat, 2 in corporat] Pres & -ion. Act or process of incorporating, state of being incorporated incorporative, adj [1 in corporat, 2 in corporat] incorporate (II) & -ive Tending to incorporate incorporator, n [1 in corporat, 2 in corporat] incorporate (III) & -or Member of one university who is incorporated in the membership of another incorporeal, adj [1 in corporat, 2 in corporat] See in- (II) & corporeal 1 Having no bodily form, spiritual, unsubstantial, immaterial 2 Pertaining to incorporeal beings 3 (law) Of something not having physical existence but existing as a right attached to corporeal property incorporeal hereditaments incorporeally, adv Pres & -ly In an incorporeal manner incorporeity, n [1 in corporat, 2 in corporat] See incorporeal & -ity The quality of being incorporeal incorrect, adj [1 in corrigere, 2 in corrigere] fr Lat incorrect (us), 'uncorrected, unfinished' in- (II) & correct 1 A Not adhering strictly to rules or a model incorrect drawing, incorrect grammatical construction b Not in accordance with facts, inaccurate, wrong an incorrect statement 2 Not in accordance with a recognized standard, not conforming to custom or convention incorrect behaviour incorrectly, adv Pres & -ly In an incorrect manner incorrectness, n See prec & -ness The state of being incorrect, a inaccuracy, b breach of convention or decorum incorrigibility, n [1 in corrigere, 2 in corrigere] See next word & -ity The state of being incorrigible incorrigible, adj [1 in corrigere, 2 in corrigere] fr L Lat incorrigibilis (us), 'not to be improved' in- (II) & corrigible (of person, character, quality, behaviour) Not capable of correction, amendment, improvement, or reform incorrigibly, adv Pres & -ly In an incorrigible manner incorruptibility, n [1 in corruptio, 2 in corruptio] See next word & -ity The quality of being incorruptible incorruptible, adj & n [1 in corruptio, 2 in corruptio] fr L Lat incorruptibilis (us), 'not to be corrupted' in- (II) & corruptible 1 adj n Not liable to decay, imperishable b no to be influenced by bribery and corruption 2 n (archaic) 1 corruptible this & next incorruptibly, adv Pres & -ly In an incorruptible manner incorruption, n [1 in corruptio, 2 in corruptio] fr L Lat incorruptio (em), 'incorruption' in- (II) & corruption 1 The act of corrupting, state of being corrupted 2 n Outer coat, crust, deposit, b inlay, mosaic facing incubate, vb trans & intrans [1 in incubare, 2 in incubare] fr Lat incubare (em), P P type of incubare, to sit on eggs, brood, to sit on (L) & cubare, 'to lie down' See cubicle A trans 1 a (of bird) To hatch, develop (eggs) for hatching, by sitting on them, b to hatch (eggs) by artificial heat 2 (fig) To meditate upon, bring to maturity, hatch (schemes &c) B intrans a To sit on eggs, b (of eggs) to undergo process of incubation incubation, n [1 in incubare, 2 in incubare] fr Lat incubatio (em), 'a sitting on eggs, brooding' Pres & -ion. 1 The act or process of incubating, state of being incubated 2 (pathol) Stage through which disease germs pass, or a disease itself passes, between the moment of infection and the development of the first symptoms incubative, adj [1 in incubare, 2 in incubare] incubate & -ive Pertaining to incubation incubator, n [1 in incubare, 2 in incubare] incubate & -or Artificially heated apparatus, a for hatching eggs, b for rearing prematurely born infants, c for developing bacteria incubatory, adj [1 in incubare, 2 in incubare] incubate & -ory Incubative incubus, n [1 in incubare, 2 in incubare] L Lat incubus, 'nightmare', fr incubare (em), 'to lie, lie down' See incubate 1 A Evil spirit supposed to materialize and to oppress sleeping persons, b bad dream, nightmare 2 Tedious, burdensome, oppressive, person or thing that cannot be shaken off or get rid of inculcate, vb trans [1 in inculcare, 2 in inculcare] fr Lat inculcare (um), P P type of inculcare, 'to tread down, press, stuff, in, to urge, impress, upon', fr in- (I) & calcare, 'to tread on, trample on', fr calx, stem of calc, 'heel' See calceolaria To impress, implant, instil, establish firmly, in the mind of another, to enforce, urge upon to inculcate a doctrine, an idea, obedience, patience &c inculcation, n [1 in inculcare, 2 in inculcare] Pres & -ion The act of inculcating inculpate, vb trans [1 in inculpate, 2 in inculpate] fr in- (I) & Lat culpā (um), P P type of culpā, 'to reproach, blame, censure' See culpable 1 To accuse, make a charge against, to censure, blame 2 (of circumstances, evidence &c) To involve in, associate (person) with, a crime, or accusation of crime, to incriminate inculpation, n [1 in inculpate, 2 in inculpate] Pres & -ion The act of inculpating incult, ody [1 in incult, 2 in incult] fr Lat incult (us), 'untilled, unpolished, rough, unadorned', fr in- (II) & cult (um), P P type of colere, 'to till' See cult (rare or archaic) 1 (of land) Untilled, uncultivated. 2 (of person, manners, products of intellect) Rough, unpolished, unrefined, inelegant incumbency, n [1 in incumbere, 2 in incumbere] incumbent (II) & -cy 1 The fact of holding, tenure of, period of tenure of, an ecclesiastical benefice 2 An ecclesiastical benefice incumbent (I), n [1 in incumbere, 2 in incumbere] See next word a One who holds an ecclesiastical benefice; b (more rarely) holder of any office incumbent (II), ody, fr Lat incumbent (em), Pres Part of incumbere, 'to lie, lean, recline, upon, to apply oneself to, pay attention to', fr in- (I) & cumbere, 'to lie, to lie down' See cubicle 1 (or chaise) Lying, resting, upon 'incumbent on the dusty air' (of Satan) (Milton, 'P L') 2 Incumbent upon, resting upon one as an obligation, due from one as a duty, morally obligatory incunabula, n pl [1 in incunabula, 2 in incunabula] Lat incunabula, 'swaddling clothes, the cradle, childhood, origin, beginning', fr in- (I) & cunabula (pl), 'cradle', fr cunae (pl), 'cradle', fr kuna* See bass under civic, hude (measure of land), home 1 Two beginning, origin, first stages, of anything Specif 2 Early printed books, books printed before 1500 incur, vb trans [1 in incurrere, 2 in incurrere] fr Lat incurrere (ere), 'to run towards, rush out, assail', fr in- (I) & currere, 'to run'. See current crass (us), 'thick, solid' See crass (zool, bot) Thick, stout, swollen increase (I), vb intrans & trans [1 in increasere, 2 in increasere] ME encreasen, fr O Fr encreasere, stem of encreasere, fr Lat increasere, 'to grow, to augment, increase', fr in- (I) & creasere, 'to grow' See creasere

A intrans 1 a To grow larger in bulk or amount, b to grow in numbers, become more numerous, to multiply 2 (of qualities) To become more pronounced, to be intensified one's sanity, wisdom, skill &c increases B trans 1 To make greater, extend to increase one's dominions, wealth 2 (with reference to qualities &c) a To make more pronounced, aggravate, intensify, b in various Phrs to increase (one's) speed, go, move, faster, to increase one's pace, walk faster, increase one's efforts, work harder, make greater exertions increase (II), n [1 in increasere, 2 in increasere] fr prec 1 Growth, enlargement, multiplication, enhancement, in size, amount, numbers, intensity &c a steady increase in the population Phr on the increase, growing, increasing 2 Amount by which a thing increases his weight showed an increase of 3 lbs in a month 3 (archaic) Something that has grown, crops the earth yields her increase increasingly, adv [1 in increasere, 2 in increasere] Pres Part of increase (I) & -ly More and more, to an increasing extent or degree incredibility, n [1 in incredibilis, 2 in incredibilis] See next word & -ity The quality of being incredible incredible, adj [1 in incredibilis, 2 in incredibilis] fr Lat incredibilis (us), 'incredible' in- (II) & credibilis 1 Not to be, incapable of being, believed, passing belief 2 (colloq) Marvellous, extraordinary, remarkable incredibly, adv Pres & -ly To an incredible degree used colloq as more intensive, very incredibly easy, large, offensive &c incredulity, n [1 in incredulitas, 2 in incredulitas] fr L Lat incredulitas (em), 'incredulity' in- (II) & credulitas The state of being incredulous incredulous, adj [1 in incredulus, 2 in incredulus] fr L Lat incredulus (us), 'unbelieving' in- (II) & credulous a Unbelieving, finding difficulty in believing, sceptical, b expressing unbelief an incredulous laugh incredulously, adv Pres & -ly In an incredulous manner increment, n [1 in incrementum, 2 in incrementum] fr Lat incrementum (um), 'growth, increase', fr increre (seere), 'to grow' See increase & -ment 1 Act or process of increasing, growth, increase 2 The amount by which a thing increases, specif a profit, increase, gain, b (math) regular amount of increase of variable quantity incriminate, vb trans [1 in incriminare, 2 in incriminare] fr Med Lat incriminare (um), P P type of incriminare, 'to incriminate', fr in- (I) & criminare, 'to accuse' See criminate 1 To accuse, make a charge against attribute a crime to 2 To indicate guilt of, make guilt of appear probable, render liable to accusation, (often reflex) to incriminate oneself, as by admissions &c incriminating, adj [1 in incriminare, 2 in incriminare] fr Pres Part of prec Tending to incriminate incriminatory, adj [1 in incriminare, 2 in incriminare] Pres & -ory Tending, serving to incriminate incroach, vb intrans. See encroach incrustation, n [1 in incrustatio, 2 in incrustatio] fr L Lat incrustatio (em), 'covering (of walls &c) with plaster' enrust & -tion. 1 The act of encrusting, state of being encrusted 2 n Outer coat, crust, deposit, b inlay, mosaic facing

incubate, vb trans & intrans [1 in incubare, 2 in incubare] fr Lat incubare (em), P P type of incubare, to sit on eggs, brood, to sit on (L) & cubare, 'to lie down' See cubicle A trans 1 a (of bird) To hatch, develop (eggs) for hatching, by sitting on them, b to hatch (eggs) by artificial heat 2 (fig) To meditate upon, bring to maturity, hatch (schemes &c) B intrans a To sit on eggs, b (of eggs) to undergo process of incubation

To run into, bring upon oneself, meet with, become liable to to incur debt, loss &c incurability, n [1 inkurabilita, 2 inkjör-sbliti] See next word & -ity The quality of being incurable incurable, adj & n [1 inkurabl, 2 inkjör-sbl], fr L Lat incurabil(-is), 'incurable', fr in- (II) & curable 1 adj Not capable of being cured, ameliorated, or corrected, not yielding to treatment, inveterate an incurable disease, habit &c 2 n Person suffering from an incurable complaint incurableness, n Prec & -ness The quality or state of being incurable incurably, adv See prec & -ly In an incurable manner incuriosity, n [1 inkürösiti, 2 inkjörösiti] in- (II) & curiosity Lack of curiosity incurious, adj [1 inkürus, 2 inkjörus], fr Lat incurios(us), 'careless, indifferent, negligent' in- (II) & curious 1 (archaic) Careless, heedless, negligent, indifferent 2 Not curious or inquisitive, not seeking, indifferent to, information 3 Devoid of interest, uninteresting, chiefly not incurious incuriously, adv Prec & -ly In an incurious manner incursion, n [1 inkürshun, 2 inkürshun], fr Lat incursio(-em), 'assault, inroad', fr incurra(-um), PP type of incurrere, 'to attack' See incur Attack, invasion, inroad, raid incursive, adj [1 inkürsiv, 2 inkürsiv], fr Lat incursiv(-um), PP type of incurrere, 'to attack' See prec & -ive Assaulting, invading incurvation, n [1 inkürvashun, 2 inkürvashun], fr L Lat incurvatio(-em), 'a bending, curving', fr incurvare(-um), PP type of incurvare, 'to bend, crook, curve' See next word The act of incurving, state of being incurved incurve, vb trans [1 inkürv, 2 inkürv], fr Lat incurvare(-re), 'to bend, curve, crook', fr in- (I) & curvare, 'to bend, curve' See curve To bend, curve, inwards an incurved beak incus, n [1 inkus, 2 inkus] Lat incūs, 'anvil', fr incūd, op incūdere, 'to forge with a hammer', fr in- (I) & caudere, 'to strike, beat, to forge', cp cauder, 'split wood, wood block, tablet' See oodex A bone in the middle ear, to which vibrations are transmitted by the malleus, called also anvil bone incuse (I), adj & n [1 inküz, 2 inküz], fr Lat incūs(-um), PP type of incūdere, 'to forge with a hammer' See incus 1 adj Stamped, hammered in, impressed by stamp 2 n Impression stamped on coin &c incuse (II), vb trans See prec 1 To impress, stamp (a mark, design &c), on a coin &c 2 To mark (a coin &c) by stamping a design &c on it indaba, n [1 indābah, 2 indābah] Bantu, 'business, affair' A tribal council or meeting among the Zulus and other Bantu tribes of S Africa indebted, adj [1 indētd, 2 indētd], fr PP of ME endelten, 'to put under an obligation', fr O Fr endetter, w substitution of Lat in- for en-, & dette, 'debt' See debt 1 Owning money, being in debt 2 Under moral obligation, owing gratitude, being obliged to be greatly indebted to one for help, kindness &c indebtedness, n Prec & -ness The state of being indebted indecent, n [1 indēsens, 2 indēsens], fr Lat indecentia, 'impropriety' in- (II) & decency 1 The quality of being indecent 2 Something that is indecent, impropriety, obscenity indecent, adj [1 indēsant, 2 indēsant], fr Lat indecent(-em), 'unseemly, immodest, improper' in- (II) & decent 1 Unbecoming, unseemly, improper, not fitting or suitable indecent haste 2 Immodest, obscene indecent story, picture &c indecently, adv Prec & -ly In an indecent manner indeciduous, adj [1 indēs(dūus, 2 indēs(d-jus)] in- (II) & deciduous Not deciduous indecipherable, adj [1 indēsiferaibl, 2 indēsiferaibl] in- (II) & decipherable Not capable of being deciphered, not to be read, illegible indcision, n [1 indēsizhno, 2 indēsifan] in- (II) & decision Want of decision, irresolution, hesitation indcisive, adj [1 indēsisiv, 2 indēsistiv] in- (II) & decisive 1 Not settling a thing definitely, inconclusive 2 Hesitating, undecided, irresolute indcisively, adv Prec & -ly In an indecisive manner indcisiveness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being indecisive indeclinable, adj [1 indēklinabl, 2 indēklinabl] in- (II) & declinable (gram) Not capable of being declined, uninflected indecomposable, adj [1 indēkumpōzabl, 2 indēkumpōzabl] in- (II) & decompose & -able Not capable of being split up or separated into its constituent parts indecorous, adj [1 indēkōrus, 2 indēkōrus], fr Lat indecor(us), 'unseemly', & -ous in- (II) & decorous Not in accordance with good taste or manners, unbecoming indecorously, adv Prec & -ly In an indecorous manner indecorousness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being indecorous indecorum, n [1 indēkōrum, 2 indēkōrum] Lat, noun form of indecorus, 'unseemly' in- (II) & decorum 1 The quality of being indecorous 2 Indecorous behaviour, proceeding &c, improperly indeed (I), adv [1 indēd, 2 indēd] in (I) & deed 1 In fact, in reality, in truth 2 Giving emphasis very cold indeed, yes, indeed! 3 Cocessive, it is true, I grant, admit I may, indeed, be wrong indeed (II), interj, fr prec Expressing incredulity, indignation, irony, interrogation &c indefatigability, n [1 indēfatigabilita, 2 indēfatigabilita] See next word & -ity The quality of being indefatigable indefatigable, adj [1 indēfatigabl, 2 indēfatigabl], fr Lat indefatigabil(-is), 'that cannot be wearied', fr in- (II) & fatigāre, 'to tire, exhaust', fr de- & fatigare, 'to weary' See fatigue & -able Not capable of being wearied, unwearying, untiring, unremitting indefatigably, adv Prec & -ly In an indefatigable manner indefeasibility, n [1 indēfēzibilita, 2 indēfēzibilita] See next word & -ity The quality of being indefeasible indefeasible, adj [1 indēfēzibl, 2 indēfēzibl] in- (II) & defeasible Not liable to be annulled, forfeited, taken away indefeasible rights indefeasibly, adv Prec & -ly In an indefeasible manner indefectible, adj [1 indēfēktibl, 2 indēfēktibl] in- (II) & defect & -ible 1 Not liable to become imperfect, unfailing 2 Not liable to defects, perfect indefensibility, n [1 indēfēnsibilita, 2 indēfēnsibilita] See next word & -ity The quality of being indefensible indefensible, adj [1 indēfēnsibl, 2 indēfēnsibl] in- (II) & defensible 1 Not capable of being defended, liable to capture by force of arms 2 (of conduct, argument &c) Not capable of being justified, inexcusable indefensibly, adv Prec & -ly In an indefensible manner, so as to be indefensible indefinable, adj [1 indēfinabl, 2 indēfinabl] in- (II) & definable Not admitting of definition, vague, indescribable an indefinable air of distinction indefinably, adv Prec & -ly In an indefinable manner indefinite, adj [1 indēfinit, 2 indēfinit], fr

L Lat indēfinit(us), 'indefinite' in- (II) & definite 1 Not having clearly or sharply defined limits or outlines, not precise, a (of sensuous impressions) indistinct, blurred, of indeterminate character, b (of ideas &c) not clear and precise, vague, ill defined, c (of number, amount, size) not specifically stated, not strictly limited, undetermined, d (of modes of expression) lacking clearness and precision 2 (gram) a (of pron and adj) Not giving exact indication of the number, person &c to which they refer, e.g. some, any, few, indefinite article, a, an, b (of vb inflexion) not specifying whether the action or occurrence is completed, or still continuing at the moment at which it is referred to indefinitely, adv Prec & -ly In an indefinite manner, to an indefinite extent indefiniteness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being indefinite indefinitude, n [1 indēfinitūd, 2 indēfinitūd] indefinite & -tude Indefiniteness indehiscent, adj [1 indēhisent, 2 indēhisent] in- (II) & dehiscent (bot, of seed-vessels) Not bursting or splitting open indehibility, n [1 indēhibilita, 2 indēhibilita] See next word & -ity Quality of being indehible indehible, adj [1 indēhibl, 2 indēhibl], fr Lat indehibil(-is), 'indehible, imperishable', fr in- (II) & dehēre, 'to abolish, destroy, blot out, efface' See delete & -ible a (physical sense) Not capable of being erased, effaced, blotted out, b producing an indehible mark indehible pencil, also c (of non material things) not to be done away indehible disgrace, shame, impression &c indehibly, adv Prec & -ly In an indehible manner indelocacy, n [1 indēlōkam, 2 indēlōkam] in- (II) & delicacy A quality of being indelocote, b indelocote action, behaviour, utterance &c, impudency indelicate, adj [1 indēlikat, 2 indēlikat] in- (II) & delicate Lacking delicacy of feeling, speech, offending against modesty and decency, unrefined, coarse, suggestive of immodesty indelocately, adv Prec & -ly In an indelocate manner indemnification, n [1 indēmnikāshun, 2 indēmnikāshun], fr Lat indemnitas, 'uninjured' See next word & -fication The act of indemnifying, state of being indemnified indemnify, vb trans [1 indēmni, 2 indēmni], fr Lat indemnitas, 'uninjured', fr in- (II) & damm(-um), 'loss, injury' See damn & -fy 1 To make safe, secure, against, prevent liability to indemnify one from, against, loss 2 To give legal security against, give freedom from responsibility or penalty for to indemnify one for an action 3 To compensate, make up to, make good to indemnify one for loss &c indemnity, n [1 indēmni, 2 indēmni], fr Fr indemnité, fr L Lat indemnitas, 'security from damage, loss', fr indemnitas, 'uninjured' See prec & -ity 1 Safety, security, from, non liability for, loss, injury, damage &c 2 Legal security from blame, penalty, punishment &c, for an action 3 Compensation for loss or damage 4 A Amount paid as compensation for loss, damage &c, esp b sum demanded as compensation by victorious nation &c at conclusion of war indemonstrable, adj [1 indēmni, 2 indēmni], fr Fr indémonstrable, fr L Lat indemonstrabilis, 'unprovable' See prec & -ity 1 Safety, security, from, non liability for, loss, injury, damage &c 2 Legal security from blame, penalty, punishment &c, for an action 3 Compensation for loss or damage 4 A Amount paid as compensation for loss, damage &c, esp b sum demanded as compensation by victorious nation &c at conclusion of war indemonstrably, adv Prec & -ly In an indemonstrable manner indent (I), vb trans & intrans [1 indēt, 2 indēt], fr Fr indenter, fr in- (I) & Lat dent(-em), 'a tooth' See dent- A trans

dent(-em), 'a tooth' See dent- A trans 1 a To cut pointed pieces from the edge of, notch, b to make curves, recesses, in, carve out an indented coat line 2 a To cut (a document drawn up in duplicate) in two indent (II), vb trans & intrans [1 indēt, 2 indēt], fr Fr indenter, fr in- (I) & Lat dent(-em), 'a tooth' See dent- A trans

dent(-em), 'a tooth' See dent- A trans 1 a To cut pointed pieces from the edge of, notch, b to make curves, recesses, in, carve out an indented coat line 2 a To cut (a document drawn up in duplicate) in two indent (III), vb trans & intrans [1 indēt, 2 indēt], fr Fr indenter, fr in- (I) & Lat dent(-em), 'a tooth' See dent- A trans

dent(-em), 'a tooth' See dent- A trans 1 a To cut pointed pieces from the edge of, notch, b to make curves, recesses, in, carve out an indented coat line 2 a To cut (a document drawn up in duplicate) in two along a zigzag line, so as to form an 'indenture', b to draw up in duplicate 3 (print) To print (first line of paragraph &c) further from left hand margin than remaining lines of paragraph &c or further than is normal B intrans To present an official demand for, make requisition for, usually by means of a written order of which a duplicate is retained to indent upon a person, stores &c for goods indent (II), n [1 indent, indent, 2 indent, indent], fr preo 1 A cut, notch, indentation 2 Indented document, indenture 3 Indent mg, official demand, for goods &c 4 Commercial order for goods (esp for abroad) indent (III), vb trans [1 indent, 2 indent] in- (I) & dent 1 To make a dent, do impression, small hollow, in 2 To impress, imprint, stamp (a mark &c) indent (IV), n [1 indent, 2 indent], fr preo Small hollow, depression, dent indentation, n [1 indentashun, 2 indentashun] indent (I) & -ation 1 The act of indenting, state of being indented 2 A space left as by cutting out of pointed piece from edge, a notch, cut, b an inward curve, recess indentation, n [1 indentashun, 2 indentashun] indent (I) & -ion 1 (print) The act of indenting, state of being indented 2 Indentation indenture (I), n [1 indentshur, 2 indentshur], fr O Fr indenture, indent (I) & -ure 1 An indented document, one cut into two parts along a zigzag line, as a means of future identification Hence, 2 Any document, deed, contract, drawn up in duplicate and sealed, esp contract binding apprentice to employer Phr to take up, be out of, one's indentures complete one's apprenticeship 3 Indentation, notch indenture (II), vb trans, fr preo To make an agreement, contract, with, bind as apprentice by means of an indenture independence, n [1 independens, 2 independens] in- (II) & dependance 1 The state or quality of being independent 2 An independent income independency, n [1 independens, 2 independens] in- (II) & dependency 1 An independent state 2 (cap) Congregationalism independent (I), adj [1 independent, 2 independent] in- (II) & dependent 1 Not subject to the control of another, not dependent or subordinate, able to act on one's own authority, not having to rely on another person or thing independent of authority, a motor car makes one independent of trains

2 Unwilling to be subject to or under obligation to, another, resenting control, shunning advice rather an independent young woman 3 Uninfluenced by any other person or thing, standing by itself not depending on not related to, anything else independent proof, witness, account 4 A (of income) Large enough to obviate the necessity for owner to earn his living, b (of persons) (i) having such an income on independent grounds (ii) not dependent on another for support either possessing or earning means of support his elder sons are now quite independent (of their father) independent (II), n, fr preo 1 Person who acts without professing allegiance to any party in politics &c 2 (cap) A Congregationalist independently, adv independent (I) & -ly In an independent manner indescrivability, n [1 indescrivabiliti, 2 indescrivabiliti] See next word & -ity The quality of being indescrivable indescrivable, adj [1 indescrivabil, 2 indescrivabil] in- (II) & descriptible 1 Not so vague as to impress on the mind or serve to allow of adequate description or definition indescrivable as indescrivable 2 Forcibly some quality or character so great as to be described soon as it is to be described indescrivable charms, sufferings indeterminability, n [1 indeterminabiliti, 2 indeterminabiliti] See next word & -ity The quality of being indeterminate indeterminable, adj [1 indeterminabil, 2 indeterminabil] in- (II) & determinable 1 Not determined or fixed, uncertain, doubtful, vague, of undetermined character &c 2 (math, of quantity) Not fixed in value indeterminately, adv Indeterminable & -ly In an indeterminate manner indeterminateness, n See Indeterminable & -ness The quality of being indeterminate indetermination, n [1 indeterminashun, 2 indeterminashun] in- (II) & determination 1 The quality of being indeterminate 2 Lack of decision, irresolution, want of fixed purpose or intention indeterminism, n [1 indeterminism, 2 indeterminism] in- (II) & determinism (metaph) Doctrine that human will and choice of action are free, and not determined by external causes, and that the choice of motives of action is free

indeterminist, n [1 indeterminist, 2 indeterminist] in- (II) & determinist Adherent of indeterminism

index (I), n [1 indiks, 2 indiks], pl indexes or, in learned usage, indices [1 indiks, 2 indiks] Lat 'a pointer, indicator, the forefinger', a sign, mark, indication a list, table, catalogue, a guide, witness, informer' See in- (I) & the base in diction, & words there referred to 1 Anything that indicates, points out, draws the attention to something, esp a pointer on an instrument for indicating measurement &c 2 The forefinger, also winter finger 3 (fig) An indication, guide, witness style is an index of the mind 4 A Alphabetical list of subjects treated, words found &c, in a book, b specif, the Index, Index expurgatorius, or Index librorum prohibitorum, list of books forbidden by the Roman Catholic Church to be read, or permitted to be read only in expurgated editions 5 (olg) The exponent of a power index (II), vb trans, fr preo a To supply (a book) with an index, b to enter (word &c) in an index

indexer, n [1 indokser, 2 indelsa] Preo & -er Compiler of an index to a book

index number, n (in statistics) A percentage number, based on prices, wages &c taken as 100 at a certain time, shown, rise and fall

India n [1 India, 2 India] Lat fr Gk fr Inds, 'the river Indus', fr Pers hind, Sart, sinhu, 'river' 8 Asiatic peninsular country between the Indus the Himalayas and the Brahmaputra Further India, country between NE India and China including Burmah, Siam, Indo China &c India Office, British Government department dealing with Indian affairs, East India Company, a once rich and important company incorporated in 1600 for trading with India and East Indies

Indiaman n [1 indiaman, 2 indiamen] Preo & man Ship engaged in trade with India

Indian adj & n [1 Indian, 2 Indian] India & -an 1 adj Of pertaining to, India or an Indian 2 n A native of India, b European long domiciled in India, c an original inhabitant of N or S America

Indian club, n Bottle shaped wooden club held in the hand and swung as gymnastic exercise indiscribably, adv Indiscribable & -ly In an indiscribable manner, to an indiscribable degree indiscribability, n [1 indiscribabiliti, 2 indiscribabiliti] See next word & -ity The quality of being indiscribable indiscribable, adj [1 indiscribabil, 2 indiscribabil] in- (II) & descriptible Not capable of being destroyed indiscribably, adv Indiscribable & -ly In an indiscribable manner, so as to be indiscribable indeterminable, adj [1 indeterminabil, 2 indeterminabil] fr L Lat indeterminabilis (ie), 'that cannot be defined' in- (II) & determinable Not capable of being ascertained, fixed, determined indeterminate, adj [1 indeterminat, 2 indeterminat] fr L Lat indeterminatus (ie), 'undefined' in- (II) & determinate 1 Not determined or fixed, uncertain, doubtful, vague, of undetermined character &c 2 (math, of quantity) Not fixed in value indeterminately, adv Indeterminate & -ly In an indeterminate manner indeterminateness, n See Indeterminate & -ness The quality of being indeterminate indetermination, n [1 indeterminashun, 2 indeterminashun] in- (II) & determination 1 The quality of being indeterminate 2 Lack of decision, irresolution, want of fixed purpose or intention

indeterminism, n [1 indeterminism, 2 indeterminism] in- (II) & determinism (metaph) Doctrine that human will and choice of action are free, and not determined by external causes, and that the choice of motives of action is free

indeterminist, n [1 indeterminist, 2 indeterminist] in- (II) & determinist Adherent of indeterminism

index (I), n [1 indiks, 2 indiks], pl indexes or, in learned usage, indices [1 indiks, 2 indiks] Lat 'a pointer, indicator, the forefinger', a sign, mark, indication a list, table, catalogue, a guide, witness, informer' See in- (I) & the base in diction, & words there referred to 1 Anything that indicates, points out, draws the attention to something, esp a pointer on an instrument for indicating measurement &c 2 The forefinger, also winter finger 3 (fig) An indication, guide, witness style is an index of the mind 4 A Alphabetical list of subjects treated, words found &c, in a book, b specif, the Index, Index expurgatorius, or Index librorum prohibitorum, list of books forbidden by the Roman Catholic Church to be read, or permitted to be read only in expurgated editions 5 (olg) The exponent of a power

index (II), vb trans, fr preo a To supply (a book) with an index, b to enter (word &c) in an index

indexer, n [1 indokser, 2 indelsa] Preo & -er Compiler of an index to a book

index number, n (in statistics) A percentage number, based on prices, wages &c taken as 100 at a certain time, shown, rise and fall

India n [1 India, 2 India] Lat fr Gk fr Inds, 'the river Indus', fr Pers hind, Sart, sinhu, 'river' 8 Asiatic peninsular country between the Indus the Himalayas and the Brahmaputra Further India, country between NE India and China including Burmah, Siam, Indo China &c India Office, British Government department dealing with Indian affairs, East India Company, a once rich and important company incorporated in 1600 for trading with India and East Indies

Indiaman n [1 indiaman, 2 indiamen] Preo & man Ship engaged in trade with India

Indian adj & n [1 Indian, 2 Indian] India & -an 1 adj Of pertaining to, India or an Indian 2 n A native of India, b European long domiciled in India, c an original inhabitant of N or S America

Indian club, n Bottle shaped wooden club held in the hand and swung as gymnastic exercise

Indian corn, n Maize

Indian file, n Single file, one behind the other Indian ink, n Very black fluid for writing, drawing &c, made in China and Japan

Indianize, vb trans [1 indianiz, 2 indianiz] Indianize & -ize 1 To make into, cause to resemble, an Indian 2 To alter the character of government, administration, the army, education, and other public institutions in British India by placing them more and more under the control of Indians

Indian meal, n Maize meal

Indian summer, n A period of warm, dry weather in late autumn, b (fig) revival of vigour or passion late in life

India paper, n A thin, soft paper made in China and Japan, used for fine impressions of engravings, b a thin, opaque paper used for printing books such as Bibles &c

India proofs, n Proofs of engravings on India paper

India-rubber, n A commercial product made from solidified juice of rubber plant, b specif, small piece of this used for rubbing out pencil marks indicate, vb trans [1 indikait, 2 indikait], fr Lat indico (um), PP of indicare, 'to point out, indicate, to show, declare, make known', fr in- (I) & dicere, 'to proclaim, make known, to dedicate, consecrate, to set apart, appropriate' See diction 1 A To point to, point out, direct attention to, show, make known to indicate the required road, b to give a sign, hint, of what is in the mind, to intimate, to make known in outline to indicate one's intentions, to indicate assent, signify it by some outward gesture c to imply, suggest necessity of, require severe illness indicates drastic treatment 2 To be a sign of, give grounds for an inference, give a hint of snow indicates the coming of winter indication, n [1 indikashun, 2 indikashun] Indicate & -ion 1 The act of indicating, state of being indicated 2 That which indicates, a sign, evidence, a (in material sense) a thermometer gives indication of changes in temperature, b (in non material sense) his manner is no indication of his feelings, c an intimation, suggestion, hint, foreshadowing an indication of one's intentions indicative, adj & n [1 indikativ, 2 indikativ] Indicate & -ive 1 adj a [also 1 indikativ, 2 indikativ] Serving to indicate giving a hint, intimation, of, suggestive of, b (gram) indicative mood, that which states an action or state as a fact, contrasted with conditional, imperative &c 2 n Indicative mood indicatively, adv Indicative & -ly In an indicative manner indicator, n [1 indikaiter, 2 indikaiter] Indicate & -or One who, that which, indicates, esp a pointer on a dial, in an instrument or engine &c, which denotes measurement of some kind, amount of pressure, speed &c indicatory, adj [1 indikaitari, 2 indikaitari] Indicate & -ory Tending, serving, to indicate indiscern, n [1 indisurn, 2 indisurn] Lat indiscern, 'information, discovery, disclosure, sign, mark, token', fr indiscere, stem of indico, 'a pointer, indicator, a witness' See diction A sign, mark, indication, token indict vb trans [1 indit, 2 indit] Spelling influenced by Lat, fr ME indican, fr A Fr indict, 'to indict', fr O Fr indict, 'to indict indito', fr Low Lat, indicare, 'to declare, make known, proclaim in writing', fr in- (I) & dicere, 'to pronounce, declare, to express in writing, pronounce, order, detain' See diction for etymol of base To make a formal accusation against to indict a person for, on a charge of, manslaughter indictable, adj [1 inditabl, 2 inditabl] Indict & -able a (of person) Liable to indictment, b (of action) rendering one liable to be indicted an indictable offence indiction, n [1 indikshun, 2 indikʃən], fr Lat indiction (-em), 'a declaration, imposition of a tax, fiscal period of fifteen years', fr indicare, 'declare, proclaim' &c See in- (I) & dictio A Edict of Roman Emperor (first made by Constantine in A.D. 312) establishing a valuation of property for purposes of taxation, this was done at the beginning of a period of fifteen years, b tax levied under such an edict indictment, n [1 indiktment, 2 indiktment] indict & -ment 1 a Act of indicting, b state of being indicted 2 Document embodying formal statement of offence with which a person is charged

Indies, n pl [1 indiz, 2 indiz] Pl of old Indy, 'India', op Fr les Indes Old, general collective term for India and the Far East, generally thought to have been reached by the early discoverers of America, specif, East Indies, India, Further India, and Malay Archipelago &c, West Indies, group of Islands in or about the Caribbean Sea, off the east coast of Central America indifference, -cy, n [1 indifferens(i), 2 indif(ə)rəns(s)], fr Lat indifferentia, 'want of distinction, equality', fr indifferens (-em), 'indifferent' See next word & -ce, -cy 1 State characterized by lack of interest in, state of not being intellectually, emotionally, or morally stirred by, unconcern, callousness, insensitiveness indifference to suffering, danger, art, pleasure 2 Unimportance, insignificance, absence of material consequence a matter of indifference indifferent (I), adj [1 indifferent, 2 indifferent], fr Lat indifferent (-em), 'not different, similar, regarding indifferently, neither good nor evil' in- (II) & different 1 a Not affected, not intellectually stimulated, uninterested indifferent to politics, religion; b not emotionally or morally stirred; callous, unfeeling indifferent to the suffering of others, impassive, heedless, unmoved, regardless indifferent to pleasure, danger, discomfort &c, c unbiased in judgement, not swayed by partiality, neutral, impartial, dispassionate to remain indifferent in a dispute, (archaic) an indifferent judge 2 *A*rousing no interest, passion, emotion success and failure are alike indifferent to me 3 a Neither good nor bad; of medium quality, commonplace, mediocre an indifferent play, indifferent acting, b below the average, unsatisfactory, inferior an indifferent player, cook, performance, meal &c & (elect) Neutral indifferent (II), n, fr proc Person who is indifferent, esp in politics indifferentism, n [1 indifferentizm, 2 indiferentizm] indifferent (I) & -ism Attitude of habitual, systematic indifference, specif to religious or political principles indifferentist, n [1 indiferentist, 2 indiferentist] indifferent (I) & -ist One who professes indifferentism indifferently, adv [1 indiferentli, 2 indiferentli] indifferent (I) & -ly In an indifferent manner 1 With indifference, impassively, without interest, unfeelingly to look on indifferently at a match 2 In a mediocre manner, rather badly to play but indifferently 3 (archaic) Impartially, dispassionately 'that they may truly and indifferently minister justice' (Prayer for Church Militant) indigence, n [1 indijəns, 2 indidʒəns], fr Lat indigentia, 'need, want, insatiable desire', indigent & -ce Poverty, destitution indigene, n [1 indijən, 2 indidʒən], or as Fr [indijən], fr Fr indigene, fr Lat indigena, 'a native', fr indū, 'in' (chiefly in compounds), older endo, op Gk endon, 'within' (see endo-), the second element is the base gen-*, 'to produce' See genus A native indigenous, adj [1 indijənəs, 2 indidʒənəs], fr Lat indigena (a), 'native' See indigene & -ous (of forms of life, customs, products)

Native, autochthonous, aboriginal, belonging from beginning, not exotic, or immigrant marsupials are indigenous to Australia indigenously, adv Proc & -ly Aboriginally indigent, adj [1 indijənt, 2 indidʒənt], fr Lat indigent (-em), 'needy', fr indig (ēre), 'to need, want, require, long for', fr indū, 'in', see indigence, & ēgēre, 'to be needy, be in want', cogn w O.E. ācan, 'to ache'

See also (II) Poor, needy, poverty-stricken indigested, adj [1 indidʒəstəd, 2 indidʒəstəd], fr obs indigest, fr Lat indigest (ue), 'unarranged, confused', fr in- (II) & digest (um), P.P. type of digere, 'to divide, distribute, set in order' See digest & -ed Not digested, chiefly used a of results of mental activity, crude, chaotic, confused, ill-arranged, improperly thought out, less commonly b (of food) undigested in stomach indigestibility, n [1 indidʒəstəbiliti, 2 indidʒəstəbiliti] Next word & -ity The quality of being indigestible indigestible, adj [1 indidʒəstəbl, 2 indidʒəstəbl], fr Lat indigestibil (is), 'indigestible' in- (II) & digestibil (lit and fig) Not capable of being digested, not easily digested indigestion, n [1 indidʒəstʃən, 2 indidʒəstʃən], fr L Lat indigestion (-em), 'indigestion' in- (II) & digestion 1 The state of not being digested 2 Inability to digest food, dyspepsia indigestive, adj [1 indidʒəstiv, 2 indidʒəstiv] in- (II) & digestive Suffering from, tending to promote, indigestion indign, adj [1 indign, 2 indain], fr Fr indigne, fr Lat indignus, 'unworthy, undeserving, shameful, disgraceful', fr in- (II) & dignus, 'worthy, honourable' See dignity (archaic) Unworthy, derogatory, shameful indignant, adj [1 indignant, 2 indignant], fr Lat indignatus (-em), Free Part of indign (āri), 'to be displeased at, regard as unworthy, improper', fr indign (ue), 'unworthy' See dignity Feeling, expressing, fierce, angry scorn, esp roused to anger by, emitting under, injustice, cruelty, meanness, insolence &c indignantly, adv Proc & -ly In an indignant manner indignation, n [1 indignantʃən, 2 indignatʃən], fr Lat indignatio (-em), 'indignation, displeasure', fr indign (āri), 'to be annoyed' See indignant & -ation Righteous anger aroused by injustice and baseness indignation-meeting, n Meeting held to express public indignation indignity, n [1 indigniti, 2 indigniti], fr Lat indignitas (-em), 'unworthiness, humousness, insulting treatment', fr indign (ue), 'unworthy' See indign & -ity A slight, a profound affront, any conduct towards another which humiliates him, and tends to affect or destroy his personal dignity indigo, n [1 indigə, 2 indigə] Fr, fr Lat Indicum, fr Gk Indikon, 'a blue (Indian) pigment', fr Indikos, 'Indian', fr India & -ic a A blue dye obtained from decomposition of certain substances in indigo plant, b the indigo plant, genus Indigofera indigo-blue, n The blue obtained from the indigo plant, a deep bluish violet indigotic, adj [1 indigotik; 2 indigotik] indigo & -ic Pertaining to, resembling, indigo indigo-white, n Deoxidized indigo, a colourless, crystalline powder indirect, adj [1 indirekt, 2 indirekt] in- (II) & direct 1 Not direct, not going straight, circuitous, roundabout, devious an indirect route 2 (of expression, behaviour &c) Not straightforward, not seeking to attain object aimed at by nearest, directest means an indirect reference, allusion, indirect methods indirectly, adv Proc & -ly a Not what is primarily aimed at, secondary, 3 Not what is primarily aimed at, secondary, consequential an indirect result, effect &c 4 (gram) a Indirect speech, oblique narration, reported speech, with first person changed to third he said that he was ill, (op he said, 'I am ill'), b Indirect object, person, or thing indirectly affected by action denoted by verb, as me in give me the book 5 (point soon) Indirect taxation, that paid in form of increased price of goods by consumer, which covers both actual price of article and the duty, not as direct payment to government indirection, n [1 indirekshən, 2 indirekʃən] Proc & -ion (Shakespeare, 'Hamlet', II: 66) Dishonest action, crookedness, dishonesty, deceit indirectly, adv [1 indirekʃli, 2 indirekʃli] indirect & -ly In an indirect manner indirectness, n [1 indirekʃnəs, 2 indirekʃnəs] See proc & -ness Quality of being indirect indiscernible, adj & n [1 indisernibl, 2 indisernibl] in- (II) & discernible 1 adj Not capable of being discerned, imperceptible, invisible 2 n An indiscernible thing indiscernably, adv Proc & -ly In an indiscernible manner, to an indiscernible degree indiscernibility, n [1 indisernəbiliti, 2 indisernəbiliti] See next word & -ity The quality of being indiscernible indiscernible, adj [1 indisernəbl, 2 indisernəbl] in- (II) & discernible Not capable of being resolved into component parts indisciplinary, adj [1 indisiplinabl, 2 indisiplinabl] in- (II) & disciplinary (rare) Not capable of being disciplined indiscipline, n [1 indisiplin, 2 indisiplin] in- (II) & discipline Absence of discipline indiscreet, adj [1 indiskret, 2 indiskrit] in- (II) & discreet Not discreet, injudicious, imprudent, esp in discussing and handling delicate questions indiscreetly, adv Proc & -ly In an indiscreet manner indiscrete, adj [1 indiskret, 2 indiskrit], fr Lat indiscrēt (ue), 'undivided, closely connected' in- (II) & discrete Not consisting of distinct and separate parts or elements, homogeneous indiscretion, n [1 indiskreshən, 2 indiskreshən], fr L Lat indiscrētia (-em), 'lack of discernment, indiscretion' in- (II) & discretion 1 Lack of the quality of discretion 2 An indiscreet action, specif a offence against conventional good behaviour or morality, b unjustifiable discussion of private matters indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & Lat discrimināt (um), P.P. type of discriminare, 'to divide, distinguish' See discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this

indiscriminate, adj [1 indiskriminat, 2 indiskriminat] in- (II) & discriminate Not based on, or resulting from, the exercise of this indisposed, adj [1 indispozəd, 2 indispozəd], fr P.P. of preo 1 Not in good health ill 2 Unwilling, averse, disinclined indisposition, n [1 indispozisən, 2 indispozisən], fr indis- (II) & disposition 1 Slight ailment, illness, ill health 2 (followed by to) Disinclination, unwillingness, reluctance, aversion indisputability, n [1 indisputəbiliti, 2 indisputəbiliti] See next word & -ity Quality of being indisputable indisputable, adj [1 indisputəbl, 2 indisputəbl], fr Lat indisputabilis (us), 'undisputable' in- (II) & disputable Not to be disputed, not open to question, certain indisputableness, n. Prec & -ness Quality of being indisputable indisputably, adv See prec & -ly In an indisputable manner, certainly, undoubtedly indissolubility, n [1 indissolubiliti, 2 indissolubiliti] See next word & -ity Quality of being indissoluble indissoluble, adj, fr Lat indissolubilis (us), 'that cannot be dissolved' in- (II) & dissoluble 1 (of material things) [1 indissolubl, 2 indissolubl] Not capable of being dissolved or broken up into component parts 2 (of non material things) [1 indissolubl, 2 indissolubl] Not to be destroyed, permanent, lasting, imperishable an indissoluble bond, friendship indissolubly, adv Prec & -ly In an indissoluble manner indistinct, adj [1 indistingkt, 2 indistingkt], fr Lat indistinctus (us), 'not distinct, confused, obscure' in- (II) & distinct Not distinct, not conveying a clear impression to the senses or mind, obscure, dim, subdued, confused indefinite an indistinct murmur of voices, or indistinct recollection, objects grow indistinct in the twilight indistinctive, adj [1 indistingktiv, 2 indistingktiv] in- (II) & distinctive Not distinctive or characteristic, not capable of serving as a distinction indistinctively, adv Prec & -ly In an indistinctive manner indistinctly, adv [1 indistingktli, 2 indistingktli] indistinct & -ly In an indistinct manner indistinctness, n [1 indistingktnes, 2 indistingktnes] See prec & -ness The quality of being indistinct indistinguishable, adj [1 indistingguwəbebl, 2 indistingguwəbebl] in- (II) & distinguishable Not capable of being distinguished indistinguishably, adv Prec & -ly So as to be indistinguishable indistributable, adj [1 indistributəbl, 2 indistributəbl] in- (II) & distributable Not capable of being distributed indite vb trans [1 indit, 2 indait] Variant or indirect 1 To compose, write express in words to indite a poem 2 To write, draw up, express in writing to indite a letter, complaint indium, n [1 indium, 2 indium] fr India, w Latinized termination A rare, malleable silvery metallic element found in zinc ores indivertible, adj [1 indirərtəbl, 2 indirərtəbl] in- (II) & divert & -ible Not capable of being diverted, or turned aside, not to be hindered from taking its course indivertibly, adv Prec & -ly In an indivertible manner individual (I), adj [1 indiridjuəl, 2 indiridjuəl], fr Med Lat individuum (us), individual, fr Lat individuus (us), 'undivided' fr in- (II) & dividus, divisible, fr dividere, to divide See divide & -al 1 Single separate, distinct each individual person word, tree &c 2 Marking a thing out as separate, unique, characteristic, peculiar, distinctive an individual style, method, mode of dress &c 3 Pertaining to, derived from, performed by, a single person to receive individual attention -ly individual labour, individual subexpressions individual (II), n, fr prec a A single member of class or group of persons, animals, plants, or inanimate things, b (colloq) a person, human being an agreeable individual, a nice man individualism, n [1 indiridjuəlizəm, 2 indiridjuəlizəm] Individual (I) & -ism 1 Tendency to regard oneself as the paramount interest in one's life, egoism 2 Social doctrine which emphasizes the rights of individuals rather than those of society and of the State as a whole individualist, n [1 indiridjuəlist, 2 indiridjuəlist] See prec & -ist An upholder of individualism individualistic, adj [1 indiridjuəlistik, 2 indiridjuəlistik] Prec & -ic Pertaining to, based on principles of individualism individuality, n [1 indiridjuəlititi, 2 indiridjuəlititi] Individual (I) & -ity 1 Individual character, group, sum, of essential distinctive traits, or characteristics which belong to an individual and mark him out from others 2 (philos) The fact of having separate existence, of being an individual separate existence, distinct personality individualization, n [1 indiridjuəlaizəʃən, 2 indiridjuəlaizəʃən] See next word & -ation The act of individualizing, state of being individualized individualize, vb trans [1 indiridjuəlaiz, 2 indiridjuəlaiz] individual (I) & -ize 1 To mark out, stamp, as an individual, be distinctive of 2 To particularize, specify, state definitely and in detail individually, adv [1 indiridjuəli, 2 indiridjuəli] individual (I) & -ly 1 As an individual person or thing, separately, as concerned with each one of a group or series, reverse of collectively to address each member of a class individually 2 Displaying individual characteristics, distinctively individuate, vb trans [1 indiridjuətat, 2 indiridjuətat], fr Med Lat individuum (um), P.P. type of individuare, to individualize, fr Lat individuus (us), 'undivided' See individual & -ate To individualize, give individuality to individuation, n [1 indiridjuətaʃən, 2 indiridjuətaʃən] Prec & -ion The act of individuating, state of being individuated indivisibility, n [1 indiridvəzəbiliti, 2 indiridvəzəbiliti] See next word & -ity Quality of being indivisible indivisible, adj & n [1 indiridvəzəbl, 2 indiridvəzəbl], fr Lat indivisibilis (us), 'indivisible' in- (II) & divisible 1 adj Not capable of being divided 2 n Something which is indivisible, an infinitely small thing or quantity indivisibly, adv Prec & -ly So as to be indivisible

Indo-, pref, fr Gk. Indo (s), 'Indus' See India

Indo-Chinese, adj [1 indəʃiːnz, 2 indəʃiːnz] Pertaining to Further India indoctrinate, adj [1 indəʃiːn, 2 indəʃiːn], fr Lat indoctrinatus, 'that cannot be taught' in- (II) & doctrinatus Not docile, not willing to be taught or trained, difficult to manage, untractable indoctrinability, n [1 indəʃiːnəbiliti, 2 indəʃiːnəbiliti] Prec & -ity Quality of being indoctrinable indoctrinate, vb trans [1 indəʃiːnətaɪz, 2 indəʃiːnətaɪz] in- (I) & doctrinate & -ate Cp Fr endoctriner To teach, instruct, to imbue with particular doctrines, opinions &c

Indo-European, n & adj [1 indəʃiːrəʊpian, 2 indəʃiːrəʊpian] 1 n a (frequently Argon) The family of languages, with many subdivisions, including most of those spoken in Europe and in part of western Asia, India, and Persia, b the parent language of this family 2 adj Pertaining to Indo European, or Aryan

Indo-Germanic, n & adj [1 indəʃiːdʒəˈmanik, 2 indəʃiːdʒəˈmanik] Indo European indolence, n [1 indələns, 2 indələns], fr Lat indolentia, 'freedom from pain, insensibility', fr in- (II) & dol (ere), 'to feel pain, to grieve', q v under dole (III), & -ence The state or quality of being indolent, idleness indolent, adj [1 indələnt, 2 indələnt], fr Lat in- (II) & dolent (-em), dol (ere), 'to feel pain, to grieve' See prec & -ent 1 Idle, lazy, slothful, indisposed to action, inactive 2 (med) Not giving pain an indolent abscess &c indolently, adv Prec & -ly In an indolent manner

indomitable, adj [1 indəmitəbl, 2 indəmitəbl], fr L Lat indomitabilis (us), 'indomitable', fr in- (II) & domit (are), 'to tame', fr domit (um), P.P. type of domare, 'to blame', q v under daunt, tame, & -able Not to be subdued, unconquerable, unyielding indomitable courage

indomitably, adv Prec & -ly In an indomitable manner

Indonesian, adj [1 indəʊˈneɪʃən, 2 indəʊˈneɪʃən], fr Indn- & Gk. nēs os, 'an island', possibly cogn. w Gk. nē lēin, 'to swim, float', & Lat nare, 'to swim' See natation. Pertaining to the East Indian Archipelago indoor, adj [1 indɔːr, 2 indɔːr] in- (I) & door Belonging to the inside of a house, performed, carried on, inside a house indoor games, indoor repairs, indoor relief, support given to paupers in a workhouse indomus, adv [1 indɔːr, 2 indɔːr] Prec & genitive used to form adv Inside a house, or building, so the house to slay, keep, go, indoors

indorsement, n [1 indɔːrəʃən, 2 indɔːrəʃən], fr Med Lat indorsare (are), 'to endorse' See endorse & -ation Endorsement indorse, n [1 indɔːrəʃ, 2 indɔːrəʃ] endɔːrso & -ee The person in whose favour a bill &c is endorsed indorsement, n See endorsement

indraught, indraft, n [1 indraɪt, 2 indraɪt] in- (I) & draught 1 Process of drawing inwards 2 Inward current of air or water

indrawn, adj [1 indrɔːn, 2 indrɔːn] in- (I) & drawn Drawn in, as of breath &c indri, n [1 indri, 2 indri], fr Malagasy indry, 'behold', mistaken for animal's name A kind of lemur found in Madagascar indubitable, adj [1 indəbɪtəbl, 2 indəbɪtəbl], fr Lat indubitabilis (us), 'that cannot be doubted' in- (II) & dubitatio & -able Not capable of being doubted, beyond doubt

indubitably, adv Prec & -ly In an indubitable manner, without doubt

induce, vb trans [1 induːs, 2 induːs], fr Lat inducere, 'to lead, bring in, to bring forward, exhibit, to persuade, to resolve, determine', fr in- (I) & ducere, 'to lead', q v under duct 1 To persuade, lead, prevail upon to induce a person to do something 2 To cause, produce, have as a consequence, bring about weakness induced by starvation 3 (rare) To infer, make an induction 4 (elect) To produce by induction

inducement, n [1 induːsmənt, 2 induːsmənt] Prec & -ment Something that serves, or tends, to induce one to do something, an attraction, incentive, motive induct, vb trans [1 indukt, 2 indukt], fr Lat inductum (um), P.P. type of inducere, 'to lead, bring in, to persuade' See induce 1 To lead, or bring with ceremony to, to establish, install to induct a person into a seat 2 To install formally, introduce with ceremony into an official position to induct a clergyman to a benefice

inductance, n [1 induktəns, 2 induktəns] See induction & -ance (elect) The coefficient of induction, particularly of self-induction in magnetic circuits

inductile, adj [1 induktɪl, 2 induktɪl] in- (II) & ductile Not ductile

inductin, n [1 indukʃən, 2 indukʃən], fr Lat inductio (em), 'a leading into, introduction, a purpose, resolve, a method of reasoning from the particular to the general', hility', fr in- (II) & dol (ere), 'to feel pain, to grieve', q v under dole (III), & -ence The state or quality of being indolent, idleness indolent, adj [1 indələnt, 2 indələnt], fr Lat in- (II) & dolent (-em), dol (ere), 'to feel pain, to grieve' See prec & -ent 1 Idle, lazy, slothful, indisposed to action, inactive 2 (med) Not giving pain an indolent abscess &c

indolently, adv Prec & -ly In an indolent manner

indomitable, adj [1 indəmitəbl, 2 indəmitəbl], fr L Lat indomitabilis (us), 'indomitable', fr in- (II) & domit (are), 'to tame', fr domit (um), P.P. type of domare, 'to blame', q v under daunt, tame, & -able Not to be subdued, unconquerable, unyielding indomitable courage

indomitably, adv Prec & -ly In an indomitable manner

Indonesian, adj [1 indəʊˈneɪʃən, 2 indəʊˈneɪʃən], fr Indn- & Gk. nēs os, 'an island', possibly cogn. w Gk. nē lēin, 'to swim, float', & Lat nare, 'to swim' See natation. Pertaining to the East Indian Archipelago indoor, adj [1 indɔːr, 2 indɔːr] in- (I) & door Belonging to the inside of a house, performed, carried on, inside a house indoor games, indoor repairs, indoor relief, support given to paupers in a workhouse

indomus, adv [1 indɔːr, 2 indɔːr] Prec & genitive used to form adv Inside a house, or building, so the house to slay, keep, go, indoors

indorsement, n [1 indɔːrəʃən, 2 indɔːrəʃən], fr Med Lat indorsare (are), 'to endorse' See endorse & -ation Endorsement

indorse, n [1 indɔːrəʃ, 2 indɔːrəʃ] endɔːrso & -ee The person in whose favour a bill &c is endorsed

indorsement, n See endorsement

indraught, indraft, n [1 indraɪt, 2 indraɪt] in- (I) & draught 1 Process of drawing inwards 2 Inward current of air or water

indrawn, adj [1 indrɔːn, 2 indrɔːn] in- (I) & drawn Drawn in, as of breath &c

indri, n [1 indri, 2 indri], fr Malagasy indry, 'behold', mistaken for animal's name A kind of lemur found in Madagascar

indubitable, adj [1 indəbɪtəbl, 2 indəbɪtəbl], fr Lat indubitabilis (us), 'that cannot be doubted' in- (II) & dubitatio & -able Not capable of being doubted, beyond doubt

indubitably, adv Prec & -ly In an indubitable manner, without doubt

induce, vb trans [1 induːs, 2 induːs], fr Lat inducere, 'to lead, bring in, to bring forward, exhibit, to persuade, to resolve, determine', fr in- (I) & ducere, 'to lead', q v under duct 1 To persuade, lead, prevail upon to induce a person to do something 2 To cause, produce, have as a consequence, bring about weakness induced by starvation 3 (rare) To infer, make an induction 4 (elect) To produce by induction

inducement, n [1 induːsmənt, 2 induːsmənt] Prec & -ment Something that serves, or tends, to induce one to do something, an attraction, incentive, motive

induct, vb trans [1 indukt, 2 indukt], fr Lat inductum (um), P.P. type of inducere, 'to lead, bring in, to persuade' See induce 1 To lead, or bring with ceremony to, to establish, install to induct a person into a seat 2 To install formally, introduce with ceremony into an official position to induct a clergyman to a benefice

inductance, n [1 induktəns, 2 induktəns] See induction & -ance (elect) The coefficient of induction, particularly of self-induction in magnetic circuits

inductile, adj [1 induktɪl, 2 induktɪl] in- (II) & ductile Not ductile

inductin, n [1 indukʃən, 2 indukʃən], fr Lat inductio (em), 'a leading into, introduction, a purpose, resolve, a method of reasoning from the particular to the general', fr induct(-um), PP type of inducere, 'to lead or bring in, to persuade'. See in- (I) & duct & -ion, & cp induce & induct 1 a The act of inducting, state of being inducted, introduction, installation, b the ceremony of inducting a person to an office 2 Method of reasoning from particular, or individual cases, to general conclusions 3 The introduction, statement, production (of facts &c) to support a conclusion, theory 4 (elect) Transference of magnetic or electric force without physical contact, magnetization at a distance induction-coil, n Apparatus for transforming electric energy from low to high pressure by induction inductive, adj [1 induktiv, 2 induktiv], fr Lat inductiv(us), 'inductive' induct & -ive 1 Pertaining to, based on, of the nature of, induction inductive reasoning &c 2 (elect) Producing electric energy by induction inductively, adv Preco & -ly By induction inductiveness, n See preco & -ness The quality of being inductive inductor, n [1 induktor, 2 induktō] induct & -or 1 One who inducts to an ecclesiastical benefice, or other office 2 Part of electroapparatus which produces induction indulge, vb trans & intrans [1 indulj, 2 induldj], fr Lat indulgere, 'to be kind, tender, indulgent to, to take pleasure in, give oneself up to, yield to', orig 'to be long-suffering, patient, enduring'. Cogn w Gk dolichos, 'long' (see dolichocephalic), otk tolgus, 'firm, constant'. A trans 1 a To give way, yield to, gratify, give a loose rein to (tastes, desires, passions &c), b to allow (a person, oneself) to gratify his, one's, desires, to favour unduly, to pamper, coddle, spoil 2 To bestow upon as a favour, confer a benefit upon, give pleasure to, favour to indulge the company with a song B intrans (colloq) To partake freely, too freely, of intoxicating drink I'm afraid he indulges too much Phrs (vulg) will you indulge?, will you have a drink? indulge in, a to give way to, permit oneself to enjoy to indulge in a nap, glass of wine, b to treat oneself to to indulge in a new suit indulgence, n [1 induljens, 2 induldjens], fr Lat indulgentia, 'complaisance, gentleness, remission', fr indulgere See preco 1 The act of indulging, state of being indulged 2 Constant gratification of one's desires, self-indulgence 3 Privilege, advantage, exemption, remission, granted as a favour, specif, Declaration of Indulgence, promise of religious toleration proclaimed, a by Charles II in 1672, b by James II in 1687 4 (R C Ch) Specif a remission or reduction of punishment due for sins, granted through the Church, and effected by the infinite merits of Christ, and the superabundant merits of the saints, these are held to release those who can take advantage of them from part of the period of Purgatory which they would otherwise undergo, b (loosely) remission, exemption indulged, adj [1 induljens, 2 induldjens] Preco & -ed (R C Ch) Securing indulgence indulgent, adj [1 induljens, 2 induldjens], fr Lat indulgent(em), 'indulgent, kind, tender' indulge & -ent Merciful, tolerant, not severe, exhibiting indulgence to others, tender, regardful of feelings and desires of others an indulgent parent indulgently, adv Preco & -ly In an indulgent manner induline, n [1 indulin, 2 indujin] Formed fr indigo, w dimin suff -ule & -ine (chem) Name given to a group of blue, grey, and black aniline dyes indult, n [1 indult, 2 indalt], fr Lat indult(-um), 'grace, favour, indulgence', fr PP type of indulgere, 'to be kind to, to be pleased with'. See indulge Dispensation granted by the Pope giving authority for something not ordinarily sanctioned by the law of the Church induna, n [1 indōna, 2 indūna] Zulu The chief leader of a Zulu impi or regiment, one of the elders or councillors of a Zulu tribe indurate, vb trans & intrans [1 indūrāt, 2 indūrēt], fr Lat indūrāt(-um), PP type of indūrāre, 'to make, become, hard', fr in- (I) & dūrāre, 'to harden', fr dūr(-us), 'hard'. See durable 1 trans a (of material action) To make hard, cause to become hard, firm, b (of non-material action) to harden, make callous, obdurate 2 intrans a (of material things) To become hard, b (of non-material things) to become obdurate, callous induration, n [1 indūrāshun, 2 indūrētshun] Preco & -ion The act or process of indurating, state of being indurated indurative, adj [1 indūrātiv, 2 indūrētiv] indurate & -ive Tending to indurate indusium, n [1 indūzium, 2 indjūziam] Lat indusium, 'a tunic', fr indū(ere), 'to put on'. See exuviae 1 (bot) a Outer case of spore cluster of fungi, b hairy covering of stigma 2 (entom) Case enclosing larva, esp larva case of fossilized insect industrial, adj & n [1 industriāl, 2 indastriāl] industry & -al 1 adj Pertaining to, connected with, industries Industrial school, one to which destitute children, those living in criminal surroundings, or themselves guilty of offenses, are committed by the magistrates 2 n Person engaged in industry industrialism, n [1 industriālizm, 2 indastriālizm] Preco & -ism Social system in which industrial occupations form an important or basal element industrialist, n [1 industriālist, 2 indastriālist] industrial & -ist a A supporter of industrialism, b one engaged in industry industrialize, vb trans [1 industriāliz, 2 indastriāliz] industrial & -ize To devote to industrial pursuits industrially, adv [1 industriāl, 2 indastriāl] industrial & -ly In an industrial manner, based on, considered from point of view of, industry industrious, adj [1 industrius, 2 indastrius], fr Lat industrius(us), 'diligent', fr industri(us), 'diligent', fr industri(us), 'industry'. See industry & -ous Paying attention to one's work, hard working, diligent, assiduous, painstaking industriously, adv Preco & -ly In an industrious manner industry, n [1 industri, 2 indastri], fr Lat industria, 'diligence, activity, industry', earlier indostrum, prob fr indū, 'in', q v under indigent, & struere, 'to build, erect, make'. See structure 1 The quality or state of being industrious, diligence, assiduity, painstaking, laborious activity 2 a Human exertion devoted to creation of wealth, or capital, b specif, labour devoted to manufactures, often contrasted with trade or commerce 3 Specific branch of trade, or manufacture shipping industry, iron industry &c induviae, n pl [1 indūvīs, 2 indjūvīs] Lat, 'things put on, clothes', fr induere, 'to put on'. See exuviae (bot) Leaves which remain attached to the stem after withering indwell, vb trans & intrans [1 indwel, 2 indwēl] in- (I) & dwell 1 trans To occupy, dwell in, inhabit, abide in (the mind, soul) 2 intrans Indwell in, to dwell, have an abiding place, in indweller, n [1 indwēler, 2 indwēls] Preco

& -or Inhabitant -ine (I), adj suff representing Lat -inus (Fr in(e), Engl in, ine) The suff gives the sense of 'like, pertaining to, of the nature of', & forms adjs fr ns, a w suff stressed, pronounced [aɪn] divine, b w suff unstressed, pronounced [aɪn] serpentine, caline, ferne, canine, lovine &c, c when stressed, in words recently borrowed fr Fr [ɪn] marine, & unstressed [ɪn] feminine, genuine &c Lat adjs in -inus, were also formed fr proper names, unstressed [aɪn] Byzantine &c Modern formations are mostly scientific alkaline, lacustrine &c, or fr proper names Levinine, Carotene, saturnine

-ine (II), adj suff representing Lat -inus, fr Gk -inos, 'of the nature of, pertaining to'. adamantine, crystalline, hyaline, elephantine

-ine (III), suff forming form ns, representing Lat -ina, fr Gk -inē heroine

-ine (IV), n suff representing Lat -ina, forming abstract ns fr vbs & other ns. doctrine, famine, rapine

-ine (V), n suff representing Lat adjs in -inus, -ina, used as ns lupine

-ine (VI), n suff representing Fr -ine, a forming names of derivative products brillantine, b fr Ital dimin suff -ino, -ina mandoline, figurine

-ine (VII), also -in, n suff forming names of chemical bases aniline, caffeine, creatine &c, occurs also in the names of the four elements, bromine, chlorine, fluorine, iodine, the -in form is seen in cassian, insulin inebriate (I), adj & n [1 inebrāt, 2 inebrūt], fr Lat inebrāt(-um), PP type of inebrāre, 'to make drunk', fr in- (I), intens, & ebriare, 'to intoxicate', fr ē brius, 'drunk'. See obrious 1 adj Drunken, intoxicated 2 n a Intoxicated person, b habitual drunkard inebriate (II), vb trans [1 inebrāt, 2 inebrēt], fr Lat inebrāt(-um), PP type of inebrāre, 'to make drunk'. See preco 1 To make drunk, intoxicate 2 (fig) To intoxicate, exhilarate, stir powerfully with excitement &c inebriated by success inebriation, n [1 inebrāshun, 2 inebrētshun] Preco & -ion The act or process of inebriating, state of being inebriated inebriety, n [1 inebrēt, 2 inebrētshun] in- (I) & ebriety a Intoxication, b habitual drunkenness inedibility, n [1 inedibīliti, 2 inedibīliti] in- (II) & edibility Quality of being inedible inedible, adj [1 inedibl, 2 inedibīl] in- (II) & edible Not suitable to be eaten inedited, adj [1 ineditēd, 2 ineditēd] in- (II) & edit & -ed 1 Not published 2 Published in original form, without editor's alterations ineffable, adj [1 inefābl, 2 inefābl], fr Lat ineffābil(is), 'unutterable, unpronounceable', fr in- (II) & effābilis, 'utterable', fr effār, 'to speak', fr ef- for ex- & fār, 'to say speak', q v under fable Not to be described or expressed in words, unutterable, inexpressibly great, marvellous, or sacred ineffably, adv Preco & -ly In an ineffable manner ineffaceability, n [1 inefāsābīliti, 2 inefāsābīliti] See next word & -ity Quality of being ineffaceable ineffaceable, adj [1 inefāsābl, 2 inefāsābl] in- (II) & effaceable Not capable of being effaced, indelible ineffaceably, adv Preco & -ly In an ineffaceable manner ineffective, adj [1 inefēktiv, 2 inefēktiv] in- (II) & effective 1 a Not producing the required effect, useless, b not producing an artistic effect, not striking 2 (of persons) Incompetent, inefficient, incapable ineffectively, adv Preco & -ly In an ineffective manner ineffectiveness, n See preco & -ness Quality of being ineffective ineffectual, adj [1 inefektūāl, 2 inefektūāl] in- (II) & effectual Having no result, unsuccessful, failing, fruitless ineffectually, adv Preco & -ly In an ineffectual manner ineffectualness, n See preco & -ness Quality of being ineffectual inefficacious, adj [1 inefīkāsūs, 2 inefīkāsūs] in- (II) & efficacious Not efficacious, not producing desired effect inefficiency, n [1 inefishens, 2 inefishens] in-(II) & efficiency The quality of being inefficient inefficient, adj [1 inefishent, 2 inefishent] in-(II) & efficient 1 (of persons) a incompetent, generally incapable, b not skilled in, or qualified to do, some particular thing an inefficient plumber 2 Not performing required and expected functions, not working properly an inefficient pump inefficiently, adv Proe & -ly In an inefficient manner inelastic, adj [1 inelastik, 2 inelastik] in-(II) & elastic 1 Not elastic 2 (fig) a (of mind &c) Not resilient, unadaptable, b (of rules, systems &c) fixed, rigid, not allowing of modification or exceptions inelasticity, n [1 inelastitsi, 2 inelastitsi] Proe & -ity Quality of being inelastic, rigidity, unadaptability inelegant, -cy, n [1 inelegans(i), 2 inelegans(i)] in-(II) & elegance, & -cy 1 The state of being inelegant, lack of elegance, clumsiness 2 Something that is inelegant, inelegant action, speech, harshness of style &c inelegant, adj [1 ineleant, 2 ineleant], fr Lat inelegans (em), 'without taste, judgment, discrimination' in-(II) & elegant 1 Wanting in physical elegance, lacking charm, shapeliness, grace, ungainly 2 (of non material things, actions, mode of expression &c) Unrefined, uncouth, awkward, unpolished, crude inelegantly, adv Proe & -ly In an inelegant manner ineligability, n [1 ineligibiliti, 2 ineligibiliti] See next word & -ity State of being ineligible ineligible, adj & n [1 ineligibil, 2 ineligibil] in-(II) & eligible 1 adj Not eligible, n not capable of being chosen or elected, b not qualified or suitable 2 n An ineligible person, object, an undesirable, unentitled candidate for a lady's hand ineligibly, adv Proe & -ly So as to be ineligible ineluctable, adj [1 ineluktibil, 2 ineluktibil] Fr, fr Lat ineluctabilis (u), 'unavoidable, inevitable', fr in-(II) & elucta (u), 'to struggle out of, to surmount', fr e- & lucta, 'to struggle, wrestle', cp lucta, 'wrestling match', cp lucta Gk lúgēs, 'to bend, twist, to wrinkle, to throw in wrestling', cp Gk lúgēs, 'withy', lúgēs, 'plaited', cp also Lith lūgas, 'supple, pliant', O N leikr, O H G loc, O E loc, 'look of hair' See lock. Not capable of being overcome, not to be escaped from, inescapable inept, adj [1 inept, 2 inept], fr Lat ineptus (u), 'unsuitable, absurd, tactless', fr in-(II) & aptus, 'fit, apposite, appropriate' See apt 1 (rare) Inapt, inappropriate, in appropriate, out of place 2 Absurd, foolish, fatuous, senseless ineptitude, n [1 ineptitūd, 2 ineptitūd] Proe & -tude 1 Quality of being inept, folly, fatuity of mind 2 Something that is inept, inept conduct, remark &c ineptly, adv [1 ineptli, 2 ineptli] Inept & -ly In an inept manner ineptness, n [1 ineptnes, 2 ineptnes] See proe & -ness Quality of being inept inequality, n [1 inekwóliti, 2 inekwóliti], fr Mod Lat inequalitās (em), 'inequality' in-(II) & equality 1 Absence of equality dissimilarity, difference, in size, amount, quality, rank &c 2 Tendency to change, variability, unevenness 3 (of surfaces) Roughness, unevenness irregularity 4 (astron) Deviation in motion inequilateral, adj [1 inekwílateral, 2 inekwílateral] in-(II) & equilateral Having sides of unequal length or area inequitable, adj [1 inekwítibil, 2 inekwítibil] in-(II) & equitable Unjust, not equitable, not fair inequitably, adv Proe & -ly Unjustly inequity, n [1 inekwiti, 2 inekwiti] in-(II) & equity Injustice, unfairness ineradicable, adj [1 ineradukabil, 2 ineradukabil] in-(II) & eradicable (chiefly in fig sense) Not to be rooted out, or uprooted, fixed firmly and deeply, deep rooted, deep-seated ineradicable habits, hatred, contempt ineradicably, adv Proe & -ly So as to be ineradicable inerrability, n [1 inerrabiliti, 2 inerrabiliti], fr L Lat inerrabilis (u), 'unerring' See next word & -ity Quality of being inerrable, inaccuracy to err, infallibility inerrable, adj [1 inerrabil, 2 inerrabil], fr L Lat inerrabilis (u), 'unerring', fr in-(II) & err are, 'to err' (see err), & -able Not liable to error, unerring, infallible inerrably, adv Proe & -ly Infallibly inerrancy, n [1 inerrans, 2 inerrans], fr in-(II) & Lat err are, 'to wander, to err' (see err), & -ancy Inerrability inertant, adj [1 inerrant, 2 inerrant], fr in-(II) & Lat err are, 'to wander, to err' (see proe), & -ant Not erring, not liable to err inert, adj [1 inerrt, 2 inerrt], fr Lat inertis, 'unskilled, inactive', fr in-(II) & er, 'skill' See art 1 a (phys) Having no power of independent motion inert mass, matter &c, b (chem) without active chemical properties 2 Not disposed to mental or bodily activity, slow, sluggish, inactive, heavy, dull, in mind or body inertia, n [1 inerrtia, 2 inerrtia] Lat inertia, 'unskillfulness, ignorance, inactivity, idleness' See proe 1 (phys) Property of matter by which when in rest it continues without motion, and when moved it continues to move in the direction originally imparted to it, until a new direction is given to it from without 2 Inactivity, sluggishness, inertness, dullness, torpor, of mind or body inertly, adv [1 inerrti, 2 inerrti] Inert & -ly In an inert manner inertness, n [1 inerrtnes, 2 inerrtnes] See proe & -ness Tendency to remain inactive, sluggishness, dullness, torpor, of mind or body inescapable, adj [1 ineskápebil, 2 ineskápebil] in-(II) & escape (i) & -able From which there is no escape, not to be escaped or avoided inessential, adj & n [1 inesenshal, 2 inesenshal] in-(II) & essential 1 adj Not essential, not indispensable, not absolutely necessary, not important 2 n Something that is inessential inestimable, adj [1 inestimabil, 2 inestimabil] in-(II) & estimable Not to be estimated, possessing a degree of size, or merit beyond computation, invaluable inestimable magnitude, an inestimable benefit, of inestimable value inestimably, adv Proe & -ly To an inestimable degree inevitability, n [1 inevitabiliti, 2 inevitabiliti] See next word & -ity Quality of being inevitable inevitable, adj [1 inevitabil, 2 inevitabil], fr Lat inevitabilis (u), 'unavoidable', fr in-(II) & evitabilis, 'avoidable', fr evit (are), 'to avoid, elude', fr e- & vicare, 'to seek to escape, avoid' Etymol doubtful 1 Not to be avoided, put off, turned aside, bound to happen or to appear 'the inevitable hour' (Gray's 'Elegy'), that of death 2 A Bound to happen as a necessary consequence of some earlier event or action after several of the contending states had mobilized their armies, war was inevitable, b following as a logical necessity from something already accepted as proved, logically irresistible in view of the facts, the conclusion is inevitable that inevitableness, n Proe & -ness Quality of being inevitable inevitably, adv See proe & -ly In an inevitable manner, unavoidably, necessarily, as a matter of course inexact, adj [1 inegákt, 2 inegákt] in-(II) & exact Not exact, not absolutely accurate inexactitude, n [1 inegáktitūd, 2 inegáktitūd] inexactness, n [1 inegáktitās, 2 inegáktitās] inexactly, adv [1 inegáktli, 2 inegáktli] In an inexact manner inexactness, n [1 inegáktitās, 2 inegáktitās] See proe & -ness The state or quality of being inexact inexcusable, adj [1 inekáktshab, 2 inekáktshab], fr Lat inexcusabilis (u), 'inexcusable' in-(II) & excusable Not to be excused, unpardonable, unjustifiable inexcusably, adv Proe & -ly In an inexcusable manner inexecutable, adj [1 inegáktshab, 2 inegáktshab] in-(II) & execute & -able Not capable of being performed, or earned out inexhaustibility, n [1 inegáktshab, 2 inegáktshab] See next word & -ity State of being inexhaustible inexhaustible, adj [1 inegáktshab, 2 inegáktshab] in-(II) & exhaustible 1 Not capable of being exhausted, or used up, copious, abundant, unfailing an inexhaustible supply 2 Unworn, indefatigable inexhaustibly, adv Proe & -ly To the point of being inexhaustible inexhaustive, adj [1 inegáktshab, 2 inegáktshab] in-(II) & exhaustive a) inexhaustible, b) not exhaustive inexorability, n [1 inekáktshab, 2 inekáktshab] See next word & -ity Quality of being inexorable inexorable, adj [1 inekáktshab, 2 inekáktshab], fr Lat inexorabilis (u), 'not to be moved by entreaty, rigorous, inexorable', fr in-(II) & exorabilis, 'easily entreated', fr exor (are), 'to prevail upon, persuade', fr ex- & orare, 'to pray, entreat' (see oration), & -able Relentless, stern, ruthless, rigorous, not to be turned from one's, its, path or purpose inexorably, adv Proe & -ly In an inexorable manner inexpectant, adj [1 inekáktshab, 2 inekáktshab] in-(II) & expectant Not expecting inexpediency, n [1 inekáktshab, 2 inekáktshab] in-(II) & expediency State of being inexpedient inexpedient, adj [1 inekáktshab, 2 inekáktshab] in-(II) & expedient Not expedient, unsuitable, unpolitic, under given circumstances, tending to defeat desired end inexpensive, adj [1 inekáktshab, 2 inekáktshab] in-(II) & expensive Not costing much, cheap, not tending to extravagance inexpensively, adv Proe & -ly In an inexpensive manner, without great expense, cheaply inexpensiveness, n See proe & -ness State or quality of being inexpensive inexperience, n [1 inekáktshab, 2 inekáktshab] in-(II) & experience Lack of experience inexperienced, adj [1 inekáktshab, 2 inekáktshab] Proe & -ed Lacking experience, unpractised inexpert, adj [1 inekáktshab, 2 inekáktshab], fr Lat inexpertus (u), 'unpractised, unaccustomed' in-(II) & expert Not expert, unskilful, clumsy inexpertly, adv Proe & -ly In an inexpert manner, unskilfully inexpiable, adj [1 inekáktshab, 2 inekáktshab], fr Lat inexpiable (u), 'that cannot be atoned for, implacable', in-(II) & expiable 1 (of action) Not capable of being expiated or atoned for 2 Unappeasable, relentless, implacable 'thou, who tookst the way To raise in me unexpiable hate' (Milton, 'Samson') inexpiably, adv Proe & -ly In an inexpiable manner inexplicability, n [1 inekáktshab, 2 inekáktshab] See next word & -ity Quality of being inexplicable inexplicable, adj [1 inekáktshab, 2 inekáktshab], fr Lat inexplicabilis (u), 'unexplicable', fr in-(II) & explicable Not capable of being explained, incomprehensible, unintelligible inexplicably, adv Prec & -ly In an inexplicable manner inexplicit, adj [1 inekspléit, 2 inekspléit], fr Lat inexplicitus (us), 'not to be traced', (poet) 'unexplained, obscure' in- (II) & explicit Not explicit, a lacking definiteness, not precisely defined; b (of persons) not making explicit statement, not defining fully, using vague or merely general terms inexplicitly, adv Prec & -ly In an explicit manner inexplicitness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being inexplicit inexplosive, adj [1 ineksplóv, 2 ineksplóv] in- (II) & explosive Not explosive, not able or liable to explode inexpressible, adj & n [1 inekspréibil, 2 inekspréibil] in- (II) & expressible 1 adj Greater than, beyond anything that can be expressed, unutterable, indescribable 2 n pl inexpressibles, (facetious, archaic) trousers inexpressibly, adv Prec & -ly To an inexpressible degree inexpressive, adj [1 inekspréiv, 2 inekspréiv] in- (II) & expressive 1 Not expressive, conveying little or no meaning; not significant 2 Not capable of expressing oneself, reticent inexpressively, adv Prec & -ly In an inexpressive manner inexpressiveness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being inexpressive inexpugnable, adj [1 ineksprugnábil, 2 ineksprugnábil], fr Lat inexpugnabilis (us), 'not to be taken by assault', fr in- (II) & expugnabilis (us), 'that may be captured', fr expugnare (are), 'to take by assault', fr ex- & pugnare, 'to assault, fight' See pugnacious & -able (lit and fig) Not capable of being overcome by attack; not yielding to force, impregnable, unconquerable inextensible, adj. [1 ineksténsibil, 2 ineksténsibil] in- (II) & extensible Not capable of being extended inextinguishable, adj [1 inekstínggwíshábil, 2 inekstínggwíshábil] in- (II) & extinguishable (lit and fig) Not to be extinguished, unquenchable, indestructible inextricable, adj [1 inekstrikábil, 2 inekstrikábil], fr Lat inextricabilis (us), 'that cannot be disentangled, disengaged' in- (II) & extricable (chiefly fig) Not to be disentangled, or smoothed out; incapable of being reduced to order inextricable confusion, difficulties inextricably, adv Prec & -ly In an inextricable manner infallibilism, n [1 infálbilizm, 2 infálbilizm], fr Med Lat infallibilis (us), 'infallible' See infallible & -ism The doctrine of the infallibility of the Pope infallibilist, n [1 infálbilíst, 2 infálbilíst] See infallible & -ist A believer in the Pope's infallibility infallibility, n [1 infálbilítá, 2 infálbilítá] infallible & -ity Quality of being infallible, freedom, exemption, from liability to error, specif, Papal infallibility, the dogma of the Roman Catholic Church laid down by the Vatican Council, 1870, that the Pope, when speaking ex cathedra in virtue of his office, he lays down a doctrine concerning faith and morals, possesses the same exemption from liability to error as that with which Christ endowed the Church infallible, adj [1 infálbil, 2 infálbil], fr Med Lat infallibilis (us), 'infallible' See in- (II) & fallible 1 (of person) Incapable of error in thought or action, invariably and unquestionably right, never mistaken 2 (of thought and action) Not liable to fail, certain to be right, incapable of going, or leading, astray, unerring 3 Occurring without fail, inevitable, always occurring under given circumstances the infallible result of such conduct will be infallibly, adv Prec & -ly In an infallible manner, without fail infamize, vb trans [1 infamíz, 2 infamíz] See next word & -ize (rare) To render infamous, defame infamous, adj [1 infámus, 2 infámus], fr Med Lat infamūs (us), fr Lat infamis (us), 'ill spoken of, notorious' See in- (II) & famous 1 Commonly known and reputed as scandalous and disgraceful, notorious a name infamous in history 2 a Disgraceful, odious, shameful, scandalous, spew (of medical practitioner) infamous conduct, such conduct as may be considered professionally disgraceful by the General Medical Council, b (colloq) very bad of its kind, not coming up to desired standard of excellence an infamous pen, dinner, horse, house &c 3 (law) Deprived of some civic or professional right or status through being convicted of crime infamously, adv. Prec & -ly In an infamous manner infamy, n [1 infámi, 2 infámi], fr Lat infamia, 'bad repute, dishonour, infamy', fr infamis (us), 'infamous' See infamous & -y. a The state or quality of being infamous, (1) dishonour, disgrace, evil repute, (2) moral depravity, b infamous conduct infancy, n [1 infánsi, 2 infánsi], fr Lat infantia, 'inability to speak, early childhood, lack of eloquence' infant & -cy 1 The state or period of being an infant, earliest years, early childhood 2 Legal minority 3 The beginning, earliest stages, of anything in the infancy of the arts and sciences infang(en)thief, n [1 infang(en)thíf, 2 infang(en)thíf] OE infangenþeof, see in- & outfang(en)thief The right of a lord to judge a thief taken within his jurisdiction infant (I), n [1 infánt, 2 infánt], fr Lat, infans (em), 'a young child, babe', lit 'unable, not yet able to speak', fr in- (II) & fans, Pres Part stem of fari, 'to speak' See fable, fate 1 Very young child, baby 2 Legal minor, person under the age of 21 infant (II), adj, fr prec Of, pertaining to, infants infant voices infante, infanta, n [1 infántá, infánta, 2 infánte, infánta] Span, masc & fem, fr Lat infans (em), 'infant' See prec Any son or daughter of a sovereign of Spain, formerly also of Portugal and Brazil, excluding the heir to the throne, who in Spain is Prince of Asturias infanticidal, adj [1 infántisíd, 2 infántisíd] See next word & -al Pertaining to infanthicide infanticide, n [1 infántisíd, 2 infántisíd], fr L Lat infanticida (rum), 'infanticide', fr infanticida, 'child murderer' See infant & -icide 1 n a The crime of child-murder, murder of a new born infant, b custom among some tribes of killing newborn children 2 (fr L Lat infanticida, 'child-murderer') One guilty of the crime of child-murder infantile, adj [1 infántil, 2 infántil], fr L Lat infantilis (us), 'of infants' infant & -ile 1 Connected with, affecting, infants, childish 2 In the first stages, elementary, incipient, rudimentary infantine, adj [1 infántin, 2 infántin] infant & -ine (I) Infantile, childish infantry, n [1 infántri, 2 infántri], fr Fr infanterie, fr Ital infanteria, fr infante, 'youth, servant, foot soldier' infant & -ery Foot-soldiers, mounted infantry, foot-soldiers mounted for rapidity of movement infantryman, n [1 infántri-man, 2 infántri-man] Soldier in an infantry regiment infant-school, n School for very young children infatuate, vb trans [1 infátúat, 2 infátúat], fr Lat infatuat (um), PP type of infatuare, 'to make a fool of, infatuate', fr in- (I) & fatu (us), 'foolish, simple' See infatuous 1 To make foolish, deprive of sane judgement 2 To inspire with a blind, unreasoning passion infatuated, adj [1 infátúatéd, 2 infátúatedid], fr PP of prec 1 Foolish, silly, demented, incapable of rational judgement. 2 Possessed with blind, extravagant, unreasoning passion. infatuatedly, adv Prec & -ly In an infatuated manner infatuation, n [1 infátúatshun; 2 infátúatshun] See infatuate & -ion a The act of infatuating, b an engrossing, absorbing passion infect, vb trans [1 infékt, 2 infékt], fr Lat infect (um), PP type of infectere, 'to dip into, to stain, tinge, to taint, infect', fr in- (I) & facere, 'to make, do'. See fact. 1 a To convey disease germs into, to contaminate with disease water infected with cholera, b to cause to suffer from a disease, communicate disease to (a living organism) 2 (fig) a To affect morally by example, to inspire with, impart to to infect a person with one's laziness, high spirits &c, b to influence intellectually, to instil (idea &c) into, imbue with, cause to adopt. to infect a person with a theory, belief &c infection, n [1 inféktshun, 2 inféktshun], fr L Lat infectio (em) See prec & -ion. 1 The act of infecting, process of being infected, communication, or absorption, of germs of disease, transmission or acquisition of disease 2 (fig) a Bad moral influence, contamination, viciation, b intellectual or moral influence the infection of another's excitement, enthusiasm &c infectious, adj [1 inféktshus, 2 inféktshus] infect & -ious 1 a (of person or thing) Suffering from, contaminated by infection, and in a condition which makes him or it liable to communicate disease, having the property of infecting, b (of disease) (1) arising from, due to, infection, (2) capable of being, liable to be, communicated from one person to another 2 (of moral, emotional, or intellectual influences &c) Easily communicated by, and picked up from others laughter, good manners, habits, are infectious infectiously, adv Prec & -ly In an infectious manner infectiousness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being infectious infective, adj [1 inféktiv, 2 inféktiv] infect & -ive Liable to infect, infectious infectively, adv Prec & -ly In an infective manner, by infection infectiveness, n See prec & -ness Quality or state of being infective infelicitic, adj [1 infélisítik, 2 infélisítik] in- (II) & felicitic (rare) Causing unhappiness infelicitious, adj [1 infélisítus, 2 infélisítus] in- (II) & felicitous 1 Unhappy 2 (of style, speech &c) Inappropriate, not happy, inept, not well expressed infelicity, n [1 infélisít, 2 infélisít], fr Lat infelicitas (em), 'ill luck, misfortune' in- (II) & felicity a Unhappiness, misery, misfortune, b inappropriateness, inept, inelegant turn of phrase &c infer, vb trans [1 infér, 2 infér], fr Lat inferre, 'to bring, carry in, to introduce, bring forward, to deduce, infer', fr in- (I) & ferre, 'to carry, bear' See ferous & bear (I) 1 To deduce, derive, as a consequence, draw conclusions what am I to infer from your remarks?, from the way he behaved I should infer that the man was drunk 2 To imply, involve, lead to as a conclusion your silence infers consent inferable, adj [1 inférábil, 2 inférábil] Prec & -able Capable of being inferred inference, n [1 inférens, 2 inférens], fr Med Lat inferentia, 'inference' infer & -ence 1 Act of inferring 2 Something inferred; deduction, conclusion 3 Some thing implied; implication inferential, adj [1 inférénshál, 2 inférénshál] See prec & -ial. Of, pertaining to, an inference, inferred inferentially, adv Prec & -ly By inference, as an inference unflinching inflexible courage, b (of material things, rare) not to be bent, rigid inflexibly, adv Prec & -ly In an inflexible manner inflection n [1 inflekshun, 2 inflekshən], fr Lat inflectō (-em), 'bending, inflexion, modification', fr inflex (-um), P.P type of inflectere, 'to bend' See inflect & -ion 1 The act of bending, state of being bent 2 Modulation of the voice, intonation 3 (gram) a Variation of words, by addition of suffixes, alteration of vowel of base &c, so as to express number, person, case, tense &c, b a suffix used in inflection, inflexional ending inflexional, adj [1 inflekshunəl, 2 inflekshənəl] Prec & -al Pertaining to, of the nature of, inflection, or of an inflection inflexionless, adj [1 inflekshunləs, 2 inflekshənə] See prec & -less Without inflection inflict, vb trans [1 inflikt, 2 inflikt], fr Lat inflicere (-um), P.P type of infligere, 'to strike, dash, aganet, to impose', fr in- (I) & figere, 'to strike, strike down' Cogn w O Slav blaziti, 'struck', blizna, 'scar', Lett blāzīt, 'to beat, strike', Gk phibēin, 'to press, crush' a To strike, deal, perpetrate upon, cause to undergo to inflict a blow, stroke, wound, pain &c upon a person, b to impose to inflict a penalty, loss, suffering inflictible, adj [1 infliktəbəl, 2 infliktəbəl] Prec & -able Capable of being inflicted infliction, n [1 infliktshun, 2 infliktshən] infliction & -ion 1 The act of inflicting, state of being inflicted 2 Something that is inflicted, punishment, suffering, tribulation &c inflorescence, n [1 infloresens, 2 infloresens] in- (I) & florescence (bot) 1 The character and arrangement of flowers of a plant 2 The whole number of flowers of a plant, considered collectively 3 (lit and fig) The process of flowering, blossoming forth inflow, n [1 inflo, 2 inflo] in (II) & flow The process of flowing in, influx inflowing, adj & n [1 infloing, 2 infloing] Prec & -ing 1 adj Flowing in 2 n Inflow influence (I), n [1 infloens, 2 infloens], fr Fr, fr Lat influi (-ere), 'to flow into', fr in- (I) & fluere, 'to flow' See fluant & -ce 1 (astrol) Effect supposed to be exerted by the heavenly bodies upon human affairs and human character 2 A Effect, consequence, result, of non-physical action, mental or spiritual effect of power exerted upon a person by precept or example the Salvation Army has a civilizing influence upon strata of society which are often not reached by the Churches b effect produced upon mind or body by some external agency, material or non-material to be under the influence of terror, of drugs, of drink, to feel the influence of music, of kindness &c 3 Power of producing a mental or spiritual effect, ability to modify another's will, behaviour &c, mental or moral ascendancy, suasion, advocacy to have influence with the Government, to exercise one's influence in a person's behalf, a person of influence, one able to affect the minds or conduct of others, esp of those in high places 4 Human, or supernatural being, exerting influence influences for good or for evil are all around us influence (II), vb trans, fr prec To exert influence upon, especially, to affect action or thought of, guide, move, incline, predispose, by intellectual or moral suasion or appeal influential, adj & n [1 infloent, 2 infloent] See influence & -ent 1 adj (lit and fig) Flowing in 2 n Tributary stream, affluent influential, adj [1 infloentshəl, 2 infloentshəl] fr Lat influens (-em), Prec Part of influi (-ere), 'to flow in' See influence & -al a Exerting influence, providing an inducement or motive circumstances which were influential in one's decision, b (of persons) possessing and exerting influence, able to effect something by exerting influence influentially, adv Prec & -ly By means of influence so as to exert influence influenza, n [1 infloenza, 2 infloenza] Ital See influenza Epidemic disease caused by bacteria, characterized by ostarri, high fever, and extreme weakness in patient influx, n [1 infliks, 2 infliks], fr L Lat influi (-um), 'a flowing in', fr influi (-um), P.P type of influi (-ere), 'to flow in' See in- (I) & flux 1 The process of flowing in, that which flows in 2 The act of coming in, entrance, a rapid, constant, copious, flow an influx of aliens, visitors, patients, influx of gold, wealth, of correspondence &c inform, vb trans & intrans [1 infōrm, 2 infōrm], fr O Fr enformer, fr Lat informā (-āre), 'to give form to, shape, to represent, delineate, to instruct', fr in- (I) & formāre, 'to shape, form' See form (II)

A trans 1 To fill, imbue, animate, with a moral or physical quality, pervade informed with new life, with beauty &c 2 To tell, instruct, impart knowledge to, acquaint with to inform a person of a fact, that he must do something &c B intrans Inform against, to bring a charge, complaint, against, to give information leading to a charge to inform against a person informal, adj [1 infōrməl, 2 infōrməl] in- (II) & formal 1 Not in accordance with usual form or procedure, not in order, irregular 2 Without formality and ceremony informality, n [1 infōrməli, 2 infōrməli] Prec & -ity 1 The state of being informal 2 An informal proceeding informally, adv [1 infōrməli, 2 infōrməli] See prec & -ly In an informal manner informant, n [1 infōrmənt, 2 infōrmənt] inform & -ant Person who gives information information, n [1 infōrməshun, 2 infōrməshən] Cp O Fr enformacion, fr Lat informā (-ōn) (-em), 'representation, outline, sketch, idea, conception' inform & -ation 1 The act of informing, state of being informed 2 a Something told, communicated, or acquired, imparted knowledge of a fact I have no information on the point b knowledge Instruction, facts learnt, learning to be a mine of information, to pick up useful information 3 (law) Accusation lodged with magistrate or court informational, adj [1 infōrməshunəl, 2 infōrməshənəl] Prec & -al Pertaining to information informative, adj [1 infōrmətiv, 2 infōrmətiv], fr Lat informāt (-um), P.P type of informāre, 'to give shape to' See inform & -ive Imparting information, instructive informatory, adj [1 infōrmətori, 2 infōrmətori] See prec & -ory Informative informed, adj [1 infōrməd, 2 infōrməd], fr P.P of inform Chiefly well-, or ill-informed, having, lacking, information, a in general, knowledgeable a very well informed man, b possessing, lacking, information on a specific matter ill-, well-informed as to another's intentions informer, n [1 infōrmer, 2 infōrmer] inform & -er Person who informs, brings accusation, against another, common informer, one who makes a business of collecting evidence of infringement of the law for the purposes of bringing a charge infra, adv [1 infra, 2 infra] Lat infra, 'below, underneath', fr earlier ndhru* & cogn w under See also inferior a Below, further down, underneath, b (in references) later, below, further on (in the book), as see infra p 40 &c infra, pref, fr Lat infra, 'below' See prec Below, specif (physics) infra-red, of invisible rays of the spectrum, below the red rays, the limit of visibility Cp ultra-violet infraction, n [1 infraکشun, 2 infraکشun], fr Lat infraction (-em), 'a breaking' See in- (I) & fraction, also infringe Infringement, breaking, violation of, offence against (the law &c) infra dig, adj [1 infra dig, 2 infra dig] Abbr of Lat infra dignitatem, 'below the dignity (of)' infra & dignity (pred) Be noath one's dignity, derogatory infralapsarian, n & adj [1 infralepshən, 2 infralepshən] infra & Lat laps (-us), 'a fall', see lapse, & -arian 1 n One of a school of Calvinists which holds that the decrees and purposes of God for the salvation of the Elect, were formed after, and in consequence of, the Fall of man, contrasted with supralapsarian 2 adj Pertaining to this doctrine infrequency, n [1 infrakwensi, 2 infrakwensi] in- (II) & frequency The state of being infrequent, rarity of occurrence infrequent, adj [1 infrakwent, 2 infrakwent], fr Lat infrequent (-em), 'seldom occurring, rare, unusual, uncommon, unfrequent' in- (II) & frequent a Not frequent, uncommon, seldom occurring, b occurring at considerable intervals, sparse infrequently, adv Prec & -ly Not often, seldom, rarely infringe, vb trans [1 infrin, 2 infrindz], fr Lat infring (-ere), 'to break, crack, snap off, to mitigate, assuage', fr in- (I) & frangere, 'to break' See fracture To fail to obey or keep, to violate, break to infringe the law, a rule, an oath, promise, copyright &c infringement, n [1 infrinjment, 2 infrindment] Prec & -ment The act of infringing, act which infringes infertuous, adj [1 infraktūs, 2 infrakt-jus], fr Lat infertuous (-us), 'unfruitful, useless, fruitless' See in- (II) & fructuous 1 Unfruitful, barren 2 (fig) Fruitless, useless, yielding no result, unprofitable infundibular, adj [1 infundibular, 2 infundibjula], fr Lat infundibul (-um), 'a funnel', fr infund (-ere), 'to pour in' See infuse & -ar Funnel shaped infuriate, vb trans [1 infūriāt, 2 infūriēt], fr Med Lat infuriāt (-um), P.P type of infuriāre, 'to enrage', fr in- (I) & Lat furiāre, 'to enrage', fr furia, 'fury' See fury To render furious, to enrage, madden, drive to frenzy infuse, vb trans [1 infūz, 2 infūz], fr Lat infus (-um), P.P type of infundere, 'to pour into or upon, to wet, moisten, to communicate, impart', fr in- (I) & fundere, 'to pour' See fuse (I) 1 To pour, introduce, transfer (liquid into vessel &c) 2 To steep, soak (organo, esp vegetable substance) in liquid, so as to extract its properties to infuse tea, 3 (fig) To introduce, inspire, cause to pass into, permeate to infuse (the mind, a person) with new hope, to infuse fresh courage into one infuser, n [1 infūzer, 2 infūzer] Prec & -er Vessel for infusing herbs &c infusibility, n [1 infūzəbiliti, 2 infūzəbiliti] See next word & -ity a The quality of being infusible, b quality of not being fusible infusible, adj [1 infūzəbəl, 2 infūzəbəl] infuse & -ible 1 Capable of being infused 2 (in- negative pref, & fusible) Not fusible, not capable of being melted or dissolved infusion, n [1 infūzhun, 2 infūzhən], fr Lat infusio (-em), 'a pouring into' See infuse & -ion 1 Act or process of infusing, state of being infused 2 Liquid solution of properties of a vegetable substance, obtained by infusion 3 Something added to, blended with, some thing else, a mixture

Infusoria, n [1 infūzōria, 2 infūzōria] See infuse & -ory & -ia One of several groups of Protozoa found in infusions of decaying organic matter infusorial, adj [1 infūzōriəl, 2 infūzōriəl] Prec & -al Of, containing, composed of, infusoria infusorian, adj & n [1 infūzōrian, 2 infūzōrian] Infusoria & -an a adj Infusorial, b n., one of the Infusoria infusory, adj [1 infūzuri, 2 infūzuri] infuse & -ory Infusorial

-ing (I), suff [1 ing, 2 ig] representing

O.E. M.E. -ing, -ung, Gmc. *unga, form of ing of action. In M.E. & Mod. Engl. these ns have the vbl property of being modified by an adv., and (if trans.) of governing an object the expectation of probably receiving a fortune in the future. 1 Besides denoting merely the vbl action (dancing, hunting &c.), esp. as occupation or trade (stock-broking, gardening), ns in ing have the senses of a material used raibing, clothing, facing, b thing produced painting, facings, smocking, a thing that is to be acted upon swiving, a sitting of eggs, a character of colouring. 2 Ns in ing are derived also fr other ns, usually w the senses of a employment clerking, soldiering, b thing used as grating, paining, carpentering, flooring.

-ing (II), suff forming Pres Part, wh during 14th cent gradually ousted the older ende, -mde &c. The origin of the suff is uncertain, but it is perh identical w preo

-ing (III), suff O.E. M.E. -ing, fr Gmc. *ing, forming patronyms (king, Athelving), & ns denoting 'thing related to, connected with, resembling, composed of' (stocking, farthing &c.)

ingathering, n [1 in gäðhering, 2 ingæðærɪŋ] in-(I) & gather & -ing (I) Gathering, binging in, collecting, harvesting ingeminate, vb trans [1 injɛmɪnæt, 2 in dɪsmɪnɪt], fr Lat ingemināt (um), PP type of ingemināre, 'to redouble, repeat reiterate', fr in-(I) & geminare, 'to double', fr germin (tw), 'twin' See gemini To repeat, say or do over again, reiterate 'he (Lord Falkland) would ingeminate the word Peace, Peace' (Clarendon, 'Hist of the Peabellion') ingenious, adj [1 injɛnɪʊs, 2 ɪndʒɪnɪʊs], fr Lat ingeniōs (us), 'intellectual, gifted, clever, skilfully made, ingenious', fr ingeni (um), 'nature, disposition, ability', fr in-(I) & stem *g'en-, 'to produce, to be born' See genus a (of person, the mind &c.) Clever, resourceful, skilled in, possessing faculty of, inventing contriving, b (of things contrived or devised) exhibiting originality, resourcefulness, and skill, skilfully contrived an ingenious device, excuse &c ingeniously, adv Preo & -ly In an ingenious manner ingenue, n [1 ɪnzɦænd, 2 ɛʒɛnɪ] Fr See ingenue a An artless, inexperienced, simple, girl, b actress representing such a character ingenuity, n [1 injɛnɪtɪ, 2 ɪndʒɪnɪtɪ], fr Lat ingeniuität (em), 'frankness ingeniousness, nobility', fr ingeni (us), 'free born' See next word & -ity The Engl meaning is due to confusion w ingenious a Resourcefulness in invention, power and skill in devising, b originality of design, cleverness ingenuous, adj [1 injɛnɪʊs, 2 ɪndʒɪnɪʊs], fr Lat ingenus (us), 'native, free born, noble, upright', fr in-(I) & *g'en-, 'to beget, to be born (see genus)', & -ous 1 Frank, straightforward, open concealing nothing, candid, sincere 2 Simple, artless, unsophisticated, unaffected

ingeniously, adv Preo & -ly In an ingenious manner

ingeniousness, n See preo & -ness The quality of being ingenious ingest vb trans [1 ɪnʒɛst, 2 ɪndʒɛst] fr Lat ingere (um) PP type of ingere 'to bring, put, carry, in, to press, force upon', fr in-(I) & erere, 'to carry' See -gorous To swallow take into the stomach ingestion, n [1 ɪnʒɛstʃən, 2 ɪndʒɛstʃən], fr Lat ingestio (er) a pouring in, introduction Preo & -ion. Process of ingesting, state of being ingested ingestive adj [1 ɪnʒɛstɪv, 2 ɪndʒɛstɪv] ingest & -ive Serving tending to ingest ingle n. [1 ɪŋgl, 2 ɪŋgl] Gsel & Ir engyal fire, a fire on hearth, b fire place ingle-zook, n. Preo & zook. Corner by fire, chimney-corner inglorious, adj [1 in glɔriəs, 2 ɪŋglɔriəs], fr Lat ingloriōs (us), 'inglorious, without repute' See in-(II) & glorious 1 Unrenowned, obscure, unknown to fame 'Some mute, inglorious Milton' (Gray's 'Elegy') 2 Dishonourable, ignoble, ignominious ingloriously, adv Preo & -ly In an inglorious manner ingoin, adj & n [1 in ɡɔɪŋ, 2 ɪŋɡɔɪŋ] in-(II) & go & -ing (I, II) 1 adj Going in, just entering ingoining tenant 2 n Act of going in, entrance ingot, n [1 ɪŋɡɒt, 2 ɪŋɡɒt], fr in-(I) & an element prob cogn w Mod Germ guss, 'a casting, mould', cp O.E. & M.E. goten, PP type of O.E. gētan, M.E. zēten, 'to pour, to shed, to cast (metal)', cp O.S. giotan, O.H.G. giotan, Goth giutan, 'to pour', Mod Germ gessen Cogn w Gl khēven (fr *khew ɔ), 'to pour', Philos, 'asp' (cp obyle), Ihuna, 'effusion', Lat fundere, 'to pour', PP fūs um, Sort jūhdi, 'pours into the fire, sacrifices' See fuse & perh gut Mass, lump, or bar of metal, esp gold or silver, cast in a mould ingrain, adj [1 in ɡræn, 2 ɪŋɡræn] before n, [1 ɪŋɡræn, 2 ɪŋɡræn] after n or pred in (I) & grain (I) 1 Dyed in the yarn or fibre, before being manufactured into goods 2 (fig) Invertebrate, ingrafted, ingrained ingrained, adj [1 in ɡrænd, 2 ɪŋɡrænd, 3 ɪŋɡrænd] Same as engrained Penetrating and permeating the whole; fully established, inveterate, inherent, innate In both material and non material senses ingrained dirt, ingrained habits, wickedness &c ingrate, adj & n [1 in ɡræt, 2 ɪŋɡræt], fr Lat ingrāt (us), 'unpleasant, ungrateful', fr in-(II) & grāt (us), 'pleasing, grateful' See grateful, grace (archaic) 1 adj Ungrateful, thankless 2 n Ungrateful person ingratitude, vb trans [1 in ɡrætɪtɪd, 2 ɪŋɡrætɪtɪd] Prob through Ital fr Lat Phr in gratium, 'for the favour (of)', see in-(I) & grace & -ate (reflex) To obtain another's goodwill, to bring (oneself) into another's good graces or favour to try to ingratiate oneself with a person ingratiating, adj [1 in ɡrætɪtɪŋ, 2 ɪŋɡrætɪtɪŋ], fr Pres Part of preo Serving, tending, to ingratiate, or propitiate, attractive, charming, winning an ingratiating smile, manner &c ingratiatingly, adv Preo & -ly In an ingratiating manner ingratitude, n [1 in ɡrætɪtɪd, 2 ɪŋɡrætɪtɪd], fr Fr, fr L Lat ingrātūdō, 'ingratitude' in-(II) & gratitudo Want of gratitude, thanklessness ingravescence, n [1 in ɡrævɛsɛns, 2 ɪŋɡrævɛsɛns] See next word & -ce The state of being ingravescence, process of growing worse ingravescence, adj [1 in ɡrævɛsɛnt, 2 ɪŋɡrævɛsɛnt], fr Lat ingravescere (em), Pres Part of ingravescere, 'to grow worse', fr in-(I) & gravi, 'heavy, severe' See grave (IV) (med, of disease) Becoming more serious ingredient, n [1 in ɡrɛdɪjɛnt, 2 ɪŋɡrɛdɪjɛnt], fr Lat ingredient (em), Pres Part of ingrediri 'to go into, enter, to enter upon, engage in', fr in-(I) & gradiri, 'to step, walk, go', fr grad us, 'a step' See gradus Material or non material thing entering into a mixture, forming part of a compound, component, constituent part, element the ingredients of a cake, an important ingredient in a character ingress, n [1 in ɡrɛs, 2 ɪŋɡrɛs], fr Lat ingressus, 'entrance, way in', fr ingress (um), PP type of ingrediri, 'to enter, to engage in' See preo 1 The act of going in, entrance the right, means, of ingress 2 Right of entrance ingrowing, adj [1 in ɡrɔʊŋ, 2 ɪŋɡrɔʊŋ] in (II) & grow & -ing (II) a Growing inwards b (of nail, esp too nail) growing into the flesh ingrowth, n [1 in ɡrɔʊθ, 2 ɪŋɡrɔʊθ] in (II) & growth a The process of growing inwards, b amount of inward growth ingurnal, adj [1 in ɡɪnɪrəl, 2 ɪŋɡɪnɪrəl], fr Lat ingurnal (is), 'of the groin', fr inguen, stem of inguen, 'the groin, a swelling in the groin, the abdomen' Cogn w Gl adn, gland', fr *ngwēn- See adenoid Of, relating to, the groin ingurgitate, vb trans [1 in ɡɜrʒɪtæt, 2 ɪŋɡɜrʒɪtæt], fr Lat ingurgitāt (um), PP type of ingurgitare, 'to pour in like a flood, to flood, fill, to gorge oneself', (fig) 'to be absorbed in, devoted to', fr in-(I) & gurgitare, 'to flood, surge' See gurgitation. 1 To swallow up voraciously, devour greedily 2 (fig) To engulf, absorb ingurgitation, n [1 in ɡɜrʒɪtætʃən, 2 ɪŋɡɜrʒɪtætʃən], fr Lat ingurgitātio (em), 'immoderate eating and drinking' Preo & -ion Act of ingurgitating, state of being ingurgitated inhabit, vb trans [1 ɪnhæbɪt, 2 ɪnhæbɪt] O Fr enhabiter, fr Lat inhabitāre, 'to dwell in', fr in-(I) & habitāre, 'to dwell' See habit 1 To dwell in, live in (a house, place, region &c.) 2 (of non material things) To occupy, abide in, pervade inhabitable, adj [1 ɪnhæbɪtəbəl, 2 ɪnhæbɪtəbəl] Preo & -able Able, fit, suitable, to be lived in inhabitaney, n [1 ɪnhæbɪtəns, 2 ɪnhæbɪtənsɪ] inhabit & -ancy Residence, state of being an inhabitant, esp as qualification, or to obtain some right inhabitant, n [1 ɪnhæbɪtənt, 2 ɪnhæbɪtənt] inhabit & -ant Person who lives in some specific place, house, region &c inhabitation, n [1 ɪnhæbɪtætʃən, 2 ɪnhæbɪtætʃən] inhabit & -ation 1 The act of inhabiting, state of being inhabited 2 Dwelling-place, habitation, residence inhalation, n [1 ɪnhæləʃən, 2 ɪnhæləʃən] See next word & -ation The act of inhaling, that which is inhaled inhale, vb trans [1 ɪnhæl, 2 ɪnhæɪl], fr Lat inhālāre, 'to breathe upon', fr in-(I) & hālāre, 'to breathe' See exhale To breathe in, draw into the lungs to inhale air, tobacco smoke, fumes of remedial substances &c, to inhale (without object), specify a to make a practice of inhaling tobacco smoke, b to inhale medicinal vapour inhaler, n [1 ɪnhælər, 2 ɪnhæɪlə] Preo & -er Apparatus for inhaling medicated vapour inharmonious, adj [1 ɪnhɑrmonɪk, 2 ɪnhɑrmonɪk] in-(II) & harmonious Not harmonious inharmonious, adj [1 ɪnhɑrmonɪs, 2 ɪnhɑrmonɪs] in-(II) & harmonious (lit and fig) Not in harmony, discordant inharmoniously, adv Preo & -ly In an inharmonious manner inhere, vb intrans [1 ɪnhɛr, 2 ɪnhɛr], fr Lat inhaerere (ere), 'to cling, cleave to, to inhere in, be closely connected with', fr in-(I) & haerere, 'to stick, cling, adhere' See adhere 1 (of qualities &c.) To be, reside in, be inseparable from, natural to, innate in a quality inhering in a person &c 2 a (of rights &c.) To be vested in, be inseparably associated with, b (of meaning) to be involved in (a form of words, formula), be implicit in inherence, -cy, n [1 ɪnhɛrɛnsɪ, 2 ɪnhɛrɛnsɪsɪ] See next word & -ce, -cy The state of being inherent inherent, adj [1 ɪnhɛrɛnt, 2 ɪnhɛrɛnt] inhere & -ent Naturally, and inseparably, associated with an inherent property of matter inherently, adv Preo & -ly In an inherent manner inherit, vb trans & intrans [1 ɪnhɛrɪt, 2 ɪnhɛrɪt], fr O Fr heriter, 'to put in possession', fr L Lat inheritāre, 'to appoint an heir', fr in-(I) & hereditāre, 'to inherit', fr hered, stem of heres, 'an heir' See heredity A trans 1 (law, in connexion with property, rights &c.) To receive by inheritance to inherit an estate, a fortune, title &c 2 (in relation to physical and mental characters) To derive, have transmitted to one, from one's parents or ancestors in- (II) & odorous Having no smell, without odour inoffensive, adj [1 inofénsiv, 2 inofénsiv] in- (II) & offensive (I). 1 Giving, causing, no offences, harmless, innocent 2 Neither positively offensive, nor actively pleasing, unnoticeable, negative inoffensively, adv Proo & -ly In an inoffensive manner inoffensiveness, n See proo & -ness Quality of being inoffensive inofficious, adj [1 inofishus, 2 inofishus], fr Lat inofficiōs (us), 'undutiful' in- (II) & officious 1 Without office or function 2 (law) Undutiful, negligent of duty, forgetful of moral obligations inoperative, adj [1 inopérativ, 2 inopérativ] in- (II) & operative (chiefly of laws) Not in operation, not working, having no force inopportune, adj [1 inoportūn, 2 inoportūn], fr L Lat inopportūn (us), 'unfitting' in- (II) & opportune Ill-timed, unseasonable inopportunately, adv Proo & -ly In an inopportune manner inopportuneness, n See proo & -ness Quality of being inopportune inordinate, adj [1 inórdinat, 2 inórdinat], fr Lat inordināt (us), 'not arranged, disorderly, irregular', fr in- (II) & ordināt (um), P P type of ordināre, 'to set in order, arrange, to ordain, appoint' See ordain Not properly restrained, immoderate, extravagant, excessive inordinate passions, appetites, pride, demands inordinately, adv Proo & -ly To an inordinate degree inorganic, adj [1 inorgánik, 2 inorgánik] in- (II) & organic. Not organic 1 Consisting, made up of, non living, inanimate, matter, inorganic chemistry, that dealing with substances other than those composing animal or vegetable matter, specif, that dealing with all substances other than hydrocarbons 2 (of forms of society, political institutions &c) Not resembling an organism in structure, showing absence of design, lack of relation and co ordination of parts inorganically, adv [1 inorgánikali, 2 inorgánikali] Proo & -al & -ly So as to be inorganic inorganization, n [1 inórganizáshun, 2 inórganizáshun] in- (II) & organization Lack of organization inornate, adj [1 inornát, 2 inornát], fr Lat inornāt (us), 'unadorned' in- (II) & ornate Not ornate, plain, simple inosculate, vb intrans & trans [1 inóskulát, 2 inóskulát], fr in- (I) & Lat osculāt (um), P P type of osculare, 'to supply with a mouth, opening', fr oscul (um), dimin of os, 'mouth' See osculum & oral A intrans 1 (of vessels, ducts &c in human or animal body) To unite at the ends by contact 2 (of fibres &c) To intertwine, become blended, so as to form one substance, also of non-material things, to blend, amalgamate B trans To cause to intertwine, to join (fibres &c) inoscultation, n [1 inóskuláshun, 2 inóskuláshun] Proo & -ion The act, process, or method of inosculating, the state of being inosculated in-patient, n [1 in páshent, 2 in páshent] in- (III) & patient Patient lodged and boarded in a hospital &c whom undergoing treatment inpouring, n [1 inpóring, 2 inpóring] in- (II) & pour & -ing Pouring in, addition inquest, n [1 inkwést, 2 inkwést], fr O Fr enquête, fr Med. Lat inquesto, fr P P type of Romance inquirere*, 'to inquire' See inquire 1 A Legal or judicial inquiry before a jury to ascertain facts, specif coroner's inquest, inquiry into cause of death Phr the Last, Great, Inquest, Last Judgement 2 Court before which an inquest is held inquietude, n [1 inkwíotúd, 2 inkwástíúd], fr L Lat inquietudo, 'restlessness, disturbance' in- (II) & quietude Restlessness, uneasiness, disturbance, discomposure, of mind or body inquire, enquire, vb trans & intrans [1 inkwír, 2 inkwáre] ME enquire, fr O Fr enquerre, fr Romance inquirere*, fr Lat in- (I) & querere, 'to seek, to ask' See query Inquire has -s- through influence of Lat inquirere, 'to inquire' See inquisition A trans To ask, to seek information about by questioning to inquire one's way, a person's name &c B intrans To make inquiries, ask questions, seek for information when I don't know I inquire C Followed by preposition Inquire after, to ask about the health of (a person &c) Inquire for, a to ask about the health of, inquire after, b to ask for, try to obtain by request to inquire for a particular book at a bookseller's Inquire into, to examine, investigate inquiring, adj [1 inkwíring, 2 inkwáring], fr Pres Part of proo A Expressive of inquiry an inquiring look, b seeking information, curious an inquiring mind inquiringly, adv Proo & -ly In an inquiring manner inquiry, enquiry, n [1 inkwír, 2 inkwáre] inquire & -y 1 The act of inquiring, asking to find out by inquiry 2 A question, interrogation Phr to make inquiries, ask questions, investigate 3 Investigation, examination, especially of an official character to make a searching inquiry, to hold an official inquiry inquisition, n [1 inkwízishun, 2 inkwízishun], fr Lat inquisition (em), 'a seeking or searching for, an inquiry, examination, legal inquiry', fr inquisit (um), P P type of inquirere, 'to seek after, inquire into', fr in- (I) & querere, 'to seek, to ask' See inquire 1 Searching examination, investigation, inquiry, esp legal, official, investigation 2 The Inquisition (RC Ch), ecclesiastical tribunal for the discovery and suppression of heresy, in full, the Congregation of the Holy Inquisition, or the Holy Office inquisitorial, adj [1 inkwízishunal, 2 inkwízishunal] Proo & -al 1 Pertaining to, making, inquiries 2 Of, pertaining to, resembling, the Inquisition inquisitive, adj [1 inkwízitiv, 2 inkwízitiv], fr L Lat inquisitiv (us), 'making inquiry', fr inquir (um), P P type of inquirere, 'to inquire into' See inquisition & -ive Curious, desirous of finding out what one does not know, given to asking questions, making inquiries, attempting to gain information by questions, often in derogatory sense, curious about what does not concern one, prying inquisitively, adv Proo & -ly In an inquisitive manner inquisitiveness, n See proo & -ness Quality of being inquisitive inquisitor, n [1 inkwízitor, 2 inkwízitor], fr O Fr inquisiteur, fr Lat inquisitor (em), 'one who searches for a suspected person, a detective; an investigator', fr inquisit (um), P P type of inquirere, 'to inquire, investigate' See inquisition 1 Person who asks questions, makes inquiries, investigates, especially an official investigator 2 Specif, member of a court of the Inquisition, Grand Inquisitor, head of this court, Inquisitor-General, head of court of Inquisition in Spain inquisitorial, adj [1 inkwízitórál, 2 inkwízitórál] Proo & -al 1 Of, pertaining to, resembling, an inquisitor, or an inquisition 2 Over curious, inquisitive, prying inquisitorially, adv Proo & -ly In an inquisitorial manner inroad, n [1 inróð, 2 inróud] in- (I) & road, in obs sense 'riding' 1 An attack, invasion, incursion 2 (fig) Attack, encroachment inroads upon one's time, into one's resources &c inrush, n [1 inrush, 2 inrush] in- (I) & rush (III) The act of rushing in, irruption insalivate, vb trans [1 insalívát, 2 insalívát] in- (I) & saliva & -ate To mix (food) with saliva insalivation, n [1 insalíváshun, 2 insalívátshun] Proo & -ion The act of insalivating, state of being insalivated insalubrious, adj [1 insalúbrius, 2 insalúbrius], fr Lat insalubris (s), 'unwholesome, unhealthy' in- (II) & salubrious (of place, climate) Unhealthy, not favourable or beneficial to health insalubrity, n [1 insalúbriti, 2 insalúbriti], fr Lat insalubritas (us), 'unhealthy' See proo & -ity Quality of being insalubrious insane, adj [1 insán, 2 insén], fr Lat insán (us), 'mad, insane, outrageous, extravagant, excessive' in- (II) & sane 1 Of unsound mind, mad 2 Of such a kind or character as to suggest madness, senseless, extravagant an insane proposal 3 as n. The insane, mad persons insanely, adv Proo & -ly In an insane manner insanitary, adj [1 insántari, 2 insántari] in- (II) & sanitary Not sanitary, unhealthy, likely to cause disease insanity, n [1 insániti, 2 insántiti] insane & -ity Unsoundness of mind, madness, lunacy insatiability, n [1 insásabílitá, 2 insásabílitá], fr Lat insatiabílitá (em), 'unsatiability', fr insatiabil (us), 'unsatisfiable' See next word & -ity. Quality of being insatiable insatiable, adj [1 insásabíli, 2 insásabíli], fr Lat insatiabil (us), 'that cannot be satisfied', fr in- (II) & satiable Not capable of being satisfied, unappeasable, unquenchable insatiably, adv Proo & -ly In an insatiable manner insatiate, adj [1 insásíat, 2 insásíat], fr Lat insatiāt (us), 'unsatisfied', fr in- (II) & satiāt (um), P P type of satiare, 'to satisfy'. See satiare Never satisfied, insatiable inscribable, adj [1 inskríbabíli, 2 inskríbabíli] See next word & -able (geom. of figure) Capable of being inscribed (within another figure) inscribe, vb trans [1 inskríb, 2 inskríb], fr Lat inscrib (ere), 'to write in or on anything, to furnish with an inscription, to inscribe', fr in- (I) & scribere, 'to write' See scribe 1 A To write, engrave, make written symbols, trace designs upon to inscribe a stone, a page &c, with one's name, b to engrave on, upon, write down on, or in to inscribe one's name in a book, on a page &c 2 To draw (a geometrical figure) within (another) 3 To enter (name of shareholders, subscribers) on register, list &c inscribed stock inscription, n [1 inskrípehun, 2 inskrípehun], fr Lat inscriptio (em), 'inscription', fr inscrip (um), P P type of inscribere, 'to inscribe' See proo That which is inscribed, anything, words &c, written or engraved, specif (i) name, words, records, cut on stone, (ii) those stamped upon a coin inscriptional, adj [1 inskrípshunal, 2 inskrípshunal] Proo & -al Pertaining to, of the character of, an inscription inscriptive, adj [1 inskrípív, 2 inskrípív], fr Lat inscripti, see inscription, & -ive Inscriptional inscrutability, n [1 inskrútábílitá, 2 inskrútábílitá], fr Lat inscrutábíli (us), 'inscrutable' See next word & -ity Quality of being inscrutable, that which is inscrutable inscrutable, adj [1 inskrútáblí, 2 inskrútáblí], fr Lat inscrutábíli (us), 'inscrutable', fr in- (II) & scrut (ari), 'to search, examine, investigate' See scrutiny & -able Not capable of being searched out, interpreted, understood, impenetrable, mysterious, enigmatic the inscrutable decrees of Providence, an inscrutable smile, expression &c inscrutably, adv Proo & -ly In an inscrutable manner insect, n [1 inékt, 2 inékt], fr Lat insect (um) (animal), 'animal notched or cut into, insect, fr PP type of insectare, 'to cut into', fr in- (I) & secare, 'to cut'. See section 1 a (entom.) Any member of the class Insecta, of arthropods, with segmented bodies, six paired legs, usually winged in the adult state, and breathing through tracheae, more loosely used of other small arthropods, as spiders, woodlice &c, b (popularly and inaccurately) only small creeping or flying animal 2 Abusive term applied to a contemptible, insignificant person, esp one who is small, and misshapen, or malevolent insectarium, n [1 Insektarium, 2 insekterium] Mod Lat, fr prec & -arium Place for keeping living insects insecticide, n [1 insektisid, 2 insektisid] insect & -cide Substance for killing insects Insectivora, n [1 insektivora, 2 insektivora] Mod Lat neut pl See insect & -vorous Order of mammals who prey upon insects, including moles, shrews, hedgehogs &c insectivore, n [1 insektivör, 2 insektivör] Anglified sing of prec Insect eating animal insectivorous, adj [1 insektivörus, 2 insektivörus] Prec & -ous Living on, given to eating insects insectology, n [1 insektölögi, 2 insektölögi] insect & -o & -logy Systematic study of insects insecure, adj [1 insektr, 2 insektr] See in- (II) & secure 1 Exposed to, not proof against, danger, harm, loss &c, not safe, in perilous position or circumstances 2 A likely to give way insecure footing, hold, b not to be depended upon, unreliable insecure hopes, promises &c insecurely, adv Prec & -ly In an insecure manner, not safely insecurity, n [1 insektriti, 2 insektriti] See prec & -ity State or quality of being insecure inseminate, vb trans [1 inseminat, 2 inseminat] fr Lat inseminat (um), PP type of inseminare, 'to sow, implant', fr in- (I) & seminare, 'to sow'. See semination. (lit and fig) To implant, impregnate insemination, n [1 inseminatshun, 2 inseminatshun] Prec & -ion The act of inseminating, state of being inseminated insensate, adj [1 insensat, 2 insensat] fr L Lat insensat (us) foolish, irrational, fr in- (II) & sensatus, 'intelligent, sensible', fr etna (us), 'sense, perception, sensation'. See sense & -ate 1 Not possessed of, incapable of experiencing, bodily sensation, inanimate 'the silence and the calm of mute insensate things' (Wordsworth) 2 (rare) Having lost consciousness, insensible 3 Unreasoning, lacking sense, irrational insensate rage insensately, adv Prec & -ly In an insensate manner insensibility, n [1 insensibilität, 2 insensibilität] fr L Lat insensibilität (em), 'insensibility'. See next word & -ity 1 A lack of sensuous perception or sensation insensibility to pain, b unconsciousness, condition of being senseless the patient lapsed into insensibility 2 A lack of moral feeling, incapacity for emotion or sympathy, obtuse ness, callousness b lack of intellectual or aesthetic perception, want of power of appreciation insensible, adj [1 insensibil, 2 insensibil] fr Lat insensibil (us) 'imperceptible, incomprehensible, not able to feel, senseless', in- (II) & sensibilis 1 A lacking power of physical perception or sensation insensible to pain, b unconscious, senseless insensible from wounds &c 2 Lacking intellectual, moral, or aesthetic perception and discrimination, unaware of indifferent to insensible of the beauties of art, insensible of pain. 'kindnesses' 3 So slight, so small as to be imperceptible insensible to the slightest degree insensibly, adv Prec & -ly Too gradually to be perceived imperceptibly insensitive, adj [1 insensitiv, 2 insensitiv] in- (II) & sensitive Not sensitive to, unaffected by, not alive to, physical, mental, or moral impressions insensitive to light, beauty &c insensitiveness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being insensitive insentient, adj [1 insensient, 2 insensient] in- (II) & sentient Not capable of perception, inanimate inseparability, n [1 inseparabilität, 2 inseparabilität] fr L Lat inseparabilität (em) See next word & -ity Quality of being inseparable inseparable (I), adj [1 inseparabil, 2 inseparabil] fr L Lat inseparabil (us), 'inseparable' in- (II) & separable 1 a Not capable of being separated, firmly united one to another, b constantly found together, intimately associated in friendship inseparable companions 2 (gram, of portules, prefixes &c) Not existing as separate word inseparable (II), n, fr prec (in pl) Things or persons that cannot be separated, esp inseparables, inseparable friends inseparably, adv [1 inseparabil, 2 inseparabil] inseparable (I) & -ly In an inseparable manner insert, vb trans [1 insert, 2 insert] fr Lat insert (um), PP type of inserere, 'to put or bring in, to introduce, mix with', fr in- (I) & serere, 'to join, bind together, to connect, combine', q v under series a To put, place, slip, push, into, within something else to insert a key in a lock, b to introduce, interpolate to insert a word in a line &c, c to cause to appear in to insert an advertisement in a newspaper insertion, n [1 insertshun, 2 insertshun] fr Lat insertio (em), 'a putting in, grafting' Prec & -ion 1 The act of inserting state of being inserted 2 Something that is inserted, eg a word, paragraph &c, introduced in written or printed matter, b advertisement &c in newspaper 3 Strip of embroidery, lace &c let into another kind of material. inset (I), n [1 inset, 2 inset] in- (I) & set (I) 1 Leaf or group of leaves inserted in a book between the sheets or pages 2 Small picture, diagram &c drawn or printed within larger one 3 Piece of material let into larger one inset (II), vb trans [1 inset, 2 inset] in- (I) & set (I) To insert, fix or place in inshore, adv & adj [1 inshör, 2 inshör] in (II) & shore (I) 1 adv Near the shore 2 adj Situated near the shore inshore fisheries Phr inshore of, nearer the shore than inside (I), n [1 insid, 2 insid, 2 insid, 2 insid, 2 insid] in (II) & side 1 The inner part, interior, part situated within the inside of a box, envelope &c Phr the inside of a week, middle, Monday to Friday &c, to turn (a thing) inside out, so that the inside becomes the outside 2 Inner surface the inside of a window, wall &c 3 a (of path &c) Part farthest from road, b (of road, track &c) part lying on inner edge of curve 4 Passenger travelling inside carriage &c 5 (colloq) Digestive organs, stomach some thing wrong with a pain in one's inside inside (II), adj [1 insid, 2 insid] fr prec Situated on the inner side, within, inside an inside cabin, coal, passenger &c inside (III), prep [1 insid, 2 insid] Within on, to, the inner side inside the house inside (IV), adv [1 insid, 2 insid] Within, on the inner side, in the interior to go, look, stay, inside colloq Phr inside of, within, in less than inside of a week, year &c insider, n [1 insider, 2 insider] inside & -or Person admitted to, belonging to, a specific society, circle, organization &c, an initiate, one possessing special knowledge, privileges &c insidious, adj [1 insidius, 2 insidius] fr Lat insidius (us), 'artful, deceitful, dangerous', fr insidi (ae), 'an ambush', 'stratagem, artifice, snare', fr insid (ere), 'to sit in or on, to occupy, stand on', fr in- (I) & sedere, 'to sit'. See sedentary, sit 1 Cunning, crafty, treacherous, serving to ensnare, deceive, entrap insidious wiles 2 Progressing, developing, advancing, gaining upon one, imperceptibly, stealthily the insidious approach of age insidiously, adv Prec & -ly In an insidious manner insidiousness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being insidious insight, n [1 insit, 2 insit] in (II) & sight. 1 Faculty of mental perception, observation, discernment, vision 2 Knowledge, enlightenment, acquaintance, familiarity to gain an insight into a person's mind, into the working of an organization &c insignia, n [1 insignia, 2 insignia] Lat. insignia, pl of insigne, 'distinctive mark, sign or badge of office, honour' &c, fr insignis, 'distinguished, remarkable', fr in- (I) & sign (um), 'a sign, mark, token'. See sign. Signs, tokens, symbols, badges, of office, honour, of an order of knighthood &c insignificance, -cy, n [1 insignifikans (i), 2 insignifikans (i)] in- (II) & significance, -cy The quality of being insignificant insignificant, adj [1 insignifikant, 2 insignifikant] in- (II) & significant 1 Without significance, conveying no meaning insignificant phrases &c 2 Unimportant, trivial, immaterial to waste time on insignificant points 3 Unimposing, without dignity, conveying an impression of futility, feebleness, or meanness an insignificant person insignificantly, adv Prec & -ly In an insignificant manner insincere, adj [1 insensér, 2 insensér] fr Lat insincer (us), 'not genuine, adulterated, not candid' in- (II) & sincere (of person, character, action, words &c) Not sincere, not expressing genuine feeling, hypocritical, dissembling, dissimulating insincerely, adv Prec & -ly In an insincere manner insincerity, n [1 insensériti, 2 insensériti] in- (II) & sincerity 1 The quality of being insincere 2 Insincere words, actions &c insinuate, vb trans [1 insinuat, 2 insinuat] fr Lat insinuat (um), PP type of insinuare, 'to wind, twist, oneself into, to ingratiate oneself', fr in- (I) & sinuare, 'to bend, wind, curve', fr sinu (e), 'a bend, curve, hollow'. See sinus 1 (referring to physical movement, reflexive) To force its way, penetrate, by gradual and imperceptible degrees the spy insinuates itself into every crevice 2 (referring to behaviour, reflexive) To gain entrance by subtle means, by furtive, cunning contrivance, to manoeuvre, worm, oneself to insinuate oneself into a person's favour, into good society &c 3 To suggest indirectly, hint, imply, convey by way of innuendo to insinuate that a man is dishonest insinuating, adj [1 insinuatig, 2 insinuatig] fr Pres Part of prec Tending to insinuate, ingratulating an insinuating smile, manner &c insinuatingly, n Prec & -ly In an insinuating manner insinuation, n [1 insinuatshun, 2 insinuatshun] fr Lat insinuatshun (em), 'entrance through a narrow or twisted passage, ingratulating' insinuate & -ion 1 The act of insinuating 2 A hint, indirect allusion, subtle suggestion, implication, innuendo insinuate, adj [1 insinuativ, 2 insinuativ] insinuate & -ive 1 Tending to gain another's favour, confidence, by insinuating manners &c 2 Making use of indirect hints and innuendo insinuatory, adj [1 insinuatshun, 2 insinuatshun] See prec & -ory (rare) Insinuatative insipid, adj [1 insipid, 2 insipid] fr L Lat insipid (us), 'tasteless', fr in- (II) & sapidus, 'savoury, tasty'. See sapid. 1 (of maternal things) Lacking kick and pungency of flavour, tasteless, flat 2 (fig) Arousing no interest, not stimulating, lacking in point, spice, bite, spirit, dull, rapid insipid conversation, an insipid beauty insipidly, adv [1 insipidly, 2 insipidly] Prec & -ly 1 Tastelessness, lack of flavour 2 (fig) Lack of animation, dullness, flatness insipidly, adv [1 insipidly, 2 insipidly] In an insipid manner insipidness, n [1 insipidness, 2 insipidness] See prec & -ness Insipidity insist, vb intrans & trans [1 insist, 2 insist], fr Lat insist (ere), 'to stand, tread upon, to pursue, to devote oneself to, to press upon, urge, to dwell upon', fr in- (I) & sistere, 'to stand, to place', by reduplication fr istare, 'to stand' See stats (I) 1 a Insist (upon), to dwell upon, enlarge, dilate, upon, to emphasize, bring into prominence continually to insist on a point, on the importance of, b to assert, affirm, declare confidently to insist upon one's innocence, or that one is innocent 2 To demand urgently, require with compelling force to insist on obedience, acceptance, to insist on something being done, that something shall be done, (absol) I will have another glass if you insist insistence, -cy, n [1 insistences, 2 insistences] See next word & -ce, -cy 1 A Act of insisting, continued dwelling upon, repetition of, emphasizing of his insistence upon the necessity of cold baths, b reiterated, confident assertion, affirmation, resolute maintaining insistence upon one's innocence 2 Act of insisting, enforcing, requiring, exacting insistence upon strict obedience insistent, adj [1 insistent, 2 insistent], fr Lat insistent (em), Pres Part of insistere See insist 1 Urgent, compelling, persistent, imperative insistent demands &c 2 (of colours, sounds, tones &c) Prominent, dominant, conspicuous, enforcing attention insistently, adv Prec & -ly In an insistent manner insobriety, n [1 insobriety, 2 insobriety] in-(II) & sobriety Intemperance, drunkenness insolation, n [1 insolation, 2 insolation], fr L Lat insolatio (em), 'a sitting in the sun', fr insolatus (um), PP type of insolare, 'to expose to the sun', fr in- (I) & solv, 'sun' See sol & -ation Exposure to the rays of the sun insolence, n [1 insolence, 2 insolence], fr Lat insolentia, 'unusualness, novelty, want of moderation, pride, haughtiness' See next word & -ce 1 The state or quality of being insolent 2 Insolent behaviour, or utterance, insulting arrogance, impudence insolent, adj [1 insolent, 2 insolent], fr Lat insolent (em), 'contrary to custom, unusual, immoderate, haughty, arrogant', orig 'puffed up', fr in- (I) & base solv, 'to swell', 'to swell', 'to swell', 'to swell' (I) Haughtily, contemptuously, insulting in behaviour or utterance, inhospitable insolently, adv Prec & -ly In an insolent manner insolubility, n [1 insolubility, 2 insolubility] See next word & -ity (of substances) Property of being insoluble insoluble, adj [1 insoluble, 2 insoluble], fr Lat insolubilis (is), 'that cannot be loosed, unloosable', fr in- (II) & solvibilis, 'that may be loosed, taken apart' See soluble 1 Not capable of being dissolved in a soluble substance 2 Admitting of no solution, not capable of being solved, explained, interpreted an insoluble problem, mystery insolubleness, n Prec & -ness Quality of being incapable of solution insolubly, adv See prec & -ly In an insoluble manner insolvency, n [1 insolvency, 2 insolvency] in-(II) & solvency The state of being insolvent, bankrupt insolvent, adj & n [1 insolvent, 2 insolvent] in-(II) & solvent 1 adj Unable to pay debts, to meet liabilities, bankrupt

2 n Insolvent person insomnia, n [1 insomnia, 2 insomnia] Lat, 'want of sleep', fr insonnia (is), 'sleep loss', fr in- (II) & sonn (us), 'sleep' See somnolent & -ia Inability to sleep, want of sleep, sleeplessness insomuch, adv [1 insomuch, 2 insomuch] in (I) & so & much To such a degree that insouciance, n [1 insouciance, 2 insouciance] Fr, 'carelessness, indifference' See next word & -ce Careless indifference, heedlessness insouciant, adj [1 insouciant, 2 insouciant] Fr, 'heedless, indifferent', fr in- (II) & Pres Part of soucier, 'to care' See solace, solicit Careless, heedless, indifferent inspan, vb trans & intrans [1 inspan, 2 inspan] S Afr, fr Dn inspannen, fr in (II) & spannen, 'to span, to fasten, join' See span (I) 1 trans To harness to waggon &c, yoke up to inspan oxen 2 intrans To perform action of inspanning inspect, vb trans [1 inspect, 2 inspect], fr Lat inspect (um), PP type of inspicere, 'to look at, look into, to contemplate, examine', fr in- (I) & specere, 'to look' See spectrum, species a To look carefully at, examine closely, specify b to perform duties of an official inspector inspection, n [1 inspection, 2 inspection], fr Lat inspectio (em), 'a looking into, inspection, examination, investigation' Prec & -ion a Careful scrutiny, close examination, b official examination or investigation inspector, n [1 inspector, 2 inspector] inspect & -or Person who inspects, specify, official appointed by higher authority to investigate, test, examine, and report (in schools factories &c), police inspector, officer between sergeant and superintendent inspectoral, adj [1 inspectoral, 2 inspectoral] Prec & -al Of, pertaining to, an inspector inspectorate, n [1 inspectorate, 2 inspectorate] inspector & -ate 1 The office of inspector 2 The body of inspectors as a whole 3 District under supervision of inspector inspectorial, adj [1 inspectorial, 2 inspectorial] inspector & -ial Of, pertaining to, an inspector inspectorship, n [1 inspectorship, 2 inspectorship] inspector & -ship a Office of inspector, b tenure of inspector's office inspectress, n [1 inspectress, 2 inspectress] See prec & -ess Woman inspector (of schools &c) inspiration, n [1 inspiration, 2 inspiration], 2 inspiration (em), inspiration (em), fr L Lat inspiratio (em), 'inspiration', fr inspirare, 'to breathe into, blow upon, to excite, inspire' See inspire & -ation 1 Act of breathing in, inhaling, drawing breath into the lungs 2 a Influence arousing creative power in the mind; instinctive, mental stimulus, creative impulse, affluence the inspiration of a poet, artist &c, b thoughts, ideas, due to such an impulse to have a sudden inspiration 3 The act of inspiring, imparting of power and will to create, intellectual stimulus the inspiration of one's teacher 4 Divine influence, esp divine guidance, direction, in the writing of the Scriptures, verbal inspiration, in which exact words are inspired, plenary inspiration, in which every idea is inspired, moral inspiration, limited to moral teaching, and not including historical narration &c inspirational, adj [1 inspirational, 2 inspirational] Prec & -al Pertaining to inspiration inspirationalism, n [1 inspirationalism, 2 inspirationalism] inspiration & -ism Belief in divine inspiration inspirationalist, n [1 inspirationalist, 2 inspirationalist] inspiration & -ist One who believes in the inspiration of the Scriptures, esp in plenary inspiration inspirator, n [1 inspirator, 2 inspirator] Lat, fr inspirator (um), PP of inspirare See inspire & -or Device for drawing in air, vapour &c inspiratory, adj [1 inspiratory, 2 inspiratory] 2 inspiratori, inspiratori Prec & -y Pertaining to the inspiration of air &c inspire, vb trans [1 inspire, 2 inspire], fr Lat inspirare (are), 'to breathe into, blow upon, to excite, inflame, to arouse by divine influence', fr in- (I) & spirare, 'to breathe' See spirant, spirit 1 To breathe in, draw into the lungs, inhale 2 a To fill, animate, with, as though by breathing into, to influence the mind from without, by, or as though by, supernatural agency to inspire the mind with terror, hope, love, with a sense of beauty &c, b to instil, infuse into, impart to (the mind) his words inspired new courage, c specify, to breathe into, fill with, as by supernatural power, animate with creative genius the muse does not inspire all poets equally inspired, adj [1 inspired, 2 inspired], fr PP of prec 1 a (i) Divinely influenced, dominated by divine power, specify, roused to a state of intense mental emotion, endowed with knowledge &c, by divine revelation an inspired prophet, (ii) moved with creative impulse inspired poet b produced under the guidance of divine influence the inspired books of the Bible, inspired words, c characterized by inspiration an inspired moment 2 Special use, an inspired orifice, statement &c, e.g. in a newspaper, dictated by one possessing inside knowledge in politics, or affairs generally inspiring, adj [1 inspiring, 2 inspiring] inspire & -ing (II) Tending to inspire, animating, stimulating inspirit, vb trans [1 inspirit, 2 inspirit] in- (I) & spirit To animate, exhilarate, put spirit into, infuse life into, instigate to action inspiring, adj [1 inspiring, 2 inspiring], fr Pres Part of prec Tending to inspire, animate, encouraging, stimulating inspiring words, an inspiring example inspissate, vb trans [1 inspissate, 2 inspissate], fr L Lat inspissatus (us), 'thickened', fr in- (I) & spissare (um), PP type of spissare, 'to thicken, condense', fr spissus (us), 'thick, compact, slow, late, protracted, hard, difficult', fr spissus o Cogn v Gk spissos, 'extended, protracted', Lat spissus, 'to press' See also spiks, spoke (I), spine To thicken, make thick, as by evaporation &c, also in PP as adj, in transferred sense, dense inspissated gloom inspissation, n [1 inspissation, 2 inspissation] Prec & -ion The act or process of inspissating, state of being inspissated instability, n [1 instability, 2 instability], fr Lat instabilitas (em), 'unsteadiness' See in- (II) & stability a Lack of steadiness, shakiness, a tottering, unsteady condition, b unsteadiness of character, liability to change, unreliability, inconstancy, irresolution install, vb trans [1 install, 2 install], fr Med Lat install (are), 'to introduce formally', fr in- (I) & stall (um), 'stall, seat', fr Gmc source See stall (I) 1 To introduce, induct, to an office &c, with formality, ceremony, to invest with a dignity &c to install a person in an office 2 To establish, settle, introduce comfortably installed in a seat by the fire 3 To place (apparatus &c) in position, and prepare for use to install electric light installant, n [1 installant, 2 installant] Prec & -ant Person conducting official ceremony of installation installation, n [1 installation, 2 installation] install & -ation 1 Act of installing, state of being installed 2 Complete mechanical apparatus, e.g. for system of lighting or heating instalment, n [1 instalment, 2 instalment] In early obs sense fr install & -ment,

In the other senses, the word is prob fr obs estall, stall, 'to arrange (payments) for', ep O Fr estallier, fr estallere, 'to arrange on a stall', see stall (I) 1 (archaic, obs) Installation 2 Sum of money paid as one of a series of payments, forming part of a total sum of money due, esp in hire purchase contracts 3 Each portion of a thing appearing, supplied, in parts at different times an instalment of a serial story, the first instalment of goods ordered instance (I), n [1 instans, 2 instans], fr Fr, fr Lat instantia, 'the state of being near or close, presence, force, earnestness, urgency', fr inst- (äre), 'to stand in or on, to be near, to follow, press upon, to solicit, insist upon', fr in- (I) & stäre, 'to stand' See state (I), stand (I) 1 Single example, individual case, fact, illustrating general statement Phr for instance, by way of example, as an illustration 2 Request, solicitation, suggestion, esp in Phr at the instance of, at his instance &c 3 (law) A institution of a process, suit, proceeding court of first instance, b a step, stage, in a legal suit, hence Phr in the first instance, to start with, as a beginning instance (II), vb trans, fr prec To cite, adduce, refer to, as an example or illustration instancey, n [1 instansi, 2 instansi], fr Lat instans, 'to be near, press upon, to urge, insist' See instance (I) & -cy Pressing character, urgency, insistency instant (I), adj [1 instant, 2 instant], fr Lat instant- (em), 'present, pressing, importunate, urgent', fr inst- (äre), 'to be near, to press upon, to urge, insist' See instance (I) & -ant 1 Urgent, active, ready, unceasing, unwearied 'continuing instant in prayer' 2 Immediate, without delay, occurring or acting at once an instant response 3 (with specified date) Of the current month the 13th instant (abbr inst)

instant (II), n, fr prec 1 Exact point of time, precise moment obey me this instant, at that very instant a shot was fired Phr on the instant, immediately, straightway, without delay, the instant, as soon as the instant you call 2 Very short space of time don't waste an instant, I shall be ready in an instant instantaneous adj [1 instantaneous, 2 instantaneous] instant & -aneous 1 A Done, or occurring, in an instant, b (of two actions or events) occurring at the same instant, without interval of time, immediate 'no dose produces an instantaneous effect, the two movements were almost instantaneous' 2 (mechanics, of position &c) At, referring to, a particular instant instantaneously, adv Prec & -ly In, at, the same instant, without an instant's delay, without an interval instantaneousness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being instantaneous instantly adv [1 instantly, 2 instantly] Lat instante, 'urgently, pressingly', fr instans (em) present urgent See instant (I) Immediately, without delay instantly, adv [1 instantly, 2 instantly] instant (I) & -ly At once immediately insatiation n [1 insatiatio, 2 insatiatio] fr Lat insatiatio (em) 'renewal, restoration', to renew, repeat, restore 'the second of a series of restoration' Phr of the thing once to its former state renewal restoration insatiate, v [1 insatiare, 2 insatiare] in (I) 2 Insatiate In place of as substitute for as an alternative to give in the instead of insatiable, adj [1 insatiabilis, 2 insatiabilis] Etymol insatiabilis 'insatiable' also as an early form of insatiable but origin is not clear A curved upper surface of human head, b part of a face, c a part of a face which covers the eye insatiablely, adv [1 insatiabiliter, 2 insatiabiliter] Lat insatiabiliter P.P. type of insatiabilis

'to urge, stimulate, incite', fr in- (I) & stigare (äre), 'to prick, goad', see further under stigma, stick (I), & stimulus 1 To stimulate, urge, incite, goad to instigate (a person) to do something 2 To be an active agent of, to stir up, foment, urge to instigate a rebellion &c instigation, n [1 instigatio, 2 instigatio] fr Lat instigatio (em), 'urging, incitement' Prec & -ion Act of instigating, state of being instigated instill (I), vb trans [1 instill, 2 instill], fr Lat instill (äre), 'to pour in drop by drop, (fig) to infuse, introduce', fr in- (I) & stillare, 'to drop, trickle, distil' See distil, still (V) 1 (rare) To pour in drop by drop 'from the well of life three drops instilled' (Milton, 'P.L.') 2 To inculcate, implant gradually, infuse to instill ideas into the mind &c instilment, n [1 instilment, 2 instilment] Prec & -ment Act or process of instilling, state of being instilled instinct (I), n [1 instinkt, 2 instinkt], fr Lat instinct (us), 'instigation, impulse', fr P.P. type of instinguere, 'to incite, impel', fr in- (I) & stinguere, 'to urge on, goad', w infixed -n-, fr Aryan base stig* &c, 'to prick' See instigate 1 Natural, involuntary propensity or tendency, not arising from reason or experience, of an organism possessing consciousness to behave in a certain way, which tends to some specific end, e.g. the safety, welfare, preservation, of the individual or of the species the instinct of self-preservation, to do something by instinct; to act on instinct 2 Natural aptitude, impulse, intuition an instinct for doing the right thing instinct (II), adj [1 instinkt, 2 instinkt], fr Lat instinct (um), P.P. type of instinguere, 'to incite, impel' See prec (followed by with) Animated by, filled, imbued, with a picture instinct with life instinctive, adj [1 instinktiv, 2 instinktiv] instinct (I) & -ive A Connected with, arising from, instinct or innate tendency or propensity, not the result of reasoning or experience on instinct re horror of spiders, an instinctive movement, b intuition, not due to knowledge or instruction an instinctive sense of danger, an instinctive taste for art instinctively, adv Prec & -ly In an instinctive manner, by instinct institute (I), n [1 institüt, 2 institüt], fr Lat institut (um), P.P. type of instituere, 'to place, fix, to found, establish' See next word 1 Formal organization or society established with a scientific, social, or educational or other object 2 Building forming headquarters of such society &c, or in which its work is carried on 3 (pl) Summary, digest, of fundamental principles, precepts elements, esp of jurisprudence, Institutes of Justinian, summary of Roman Law compiled by order of Justinian institute (II), vb trans, fr Lat institut (um), P.P. type of instituere, 'to put, fix, plant, to set up erect, construct, to found, organize establish, to appoint, ordain', fr in- (I) & stare, 'to cause to stand, erect, set up, to establish, constitute' See statute 1 To establish set up, found, introduce, organize to institute a custom rule &c 2 To begin, take initial proceedings in, set going to institute an inquiry 3 To appoint, install, induct to institute a person into a benefice institution, n [1 institutio, 2 institutio] fr Lat institutio (em) arrangement, disposition principles, elements, appointment' See institute (II) & -ion 1 A Act of instituting, state of being instituted, setting up founding establishment, introduction b specif, induction into a benefice 2 A Something that has been instituted established custom order, principle, system, law &c b (colloq fig) person, esp one possessing well-marked character istio or eccentricity, who is widely known and admired, or at least tolerated 3 Society, organization &c established for some scientific or social purpose, organized body supplying some public or educational need 4 Building in which the work of an institution is carried out institutional, adj [1 institutiohunal, 2 institutiohunal] Prec & -al Pertaining to, of the nature of, an institution instruct, vb trans [1 instrukt, 2 instrukt], fr Lat instruere (um), P.P. type of instruere, 'to build, erect, construct, to set in order, draw up, to prepare, provide, to teach' See in- (I) & structure 1 A To impart information or knowledge to, teach, train to instruct the young, to instruct a person in a subject, b specif (law) to give directions to, state facts as to, or law, concerning, a case 2 To direct, give orders to, command instruction, n [1 instruktshun, 2 instruktshun], fr Lat instruere (em), 'a building, construction, arrangement, disposition, teaching' Prec & -ion 1 Act of instructing, state of being instructed 2 Knowledge, information, imparted to another, teaching, training to give instruction in Latin, swimming &c 3 (pl) a Directions, commands, orders, b specif, directions given by a judge to a jury, or by a solicitor to counsel instructional, adj [1 instruktshunal, 2 instruktshunal] Prec & -al Of, pertaining to, for the purpose of, instruction instructive, adj [1 instruktiv, 2 instruktiv] instruct & -ive Containing instruction or information, conveying knowledge instructively, adv Prec & -ly In an instructive manner instructiveness, n See prec & -ness The quality of being instructive instructor, n [1 instruktör, 2 instruktör] instruct & -or a One who instructs, a teacher, trainer, b book giving instruction on some particular subject instructress, n [1 instruktress, 2 instruktress] Prec & -ess A female instructor instrument (I), n [1 inströment, 2 inströment], fr Lat instrument (um), 'tool, implement, apparatus, stock, material, furniture, document, record, provision, supply', fr base seen in instru (ere), 'to build, erect, to provide, furnish, to teach' See instruct & -ment 1 A Thing by means of which something is done, thing used in carrying out an operation, esp a tool, implement, used for scientific purposes surgical instrument, b one of various mechanical contrivances for the production of musical sounds musical instrument 2 Formal, legal, document, deed, record 3 A Person by whose agency something is done to be the instrument of a person's death, b one employed to do work planned by another, a tool he is the leader, the others are merely his instruments, the instrument of vengeance instrument (II), vb trans, fr prec To arrange (musical composition) for performance by musical instruments instrumental (I), adj [1 inströmentäl, 2 inströmentäl] instrument (I) & -al 1 (of persons) Serving as means or instrument by which something is done instrumental in obtaining an appointment for a friend 2 A Arising from, produced by, a mechanical device or instrument instrumental errors in measurement &c, b produced by, arranged for, musical instruments instrumental music 3 (gram) Denoting, expressing, indicating, means agent, instrument instrumental (II), n, fr prec (gram) Instrumental case instrumentalist, n [1 inströmentalist, 2 inströmentalist] instrumental (I) & -ist Performer on musical instrument instrumentality, n [1 inströmentälit, 2 inströmentälit] instrumental (I) & -ity Means, agent, agency, whereby something is done instrumentally, adv [1. inströmentäl, 2. inströmentäl]

2. instrumental] See prec & -ly a By means of, as, an instrument, b by means of musical instruments instrumentation, n [1. instruomentatshun, 2. instruimentatshun] instrument (II) & -ation 1 Arrangement of a musical composition for instrumental performance 2 The use of scientific instruments 3 (obs or rare) Agency, instrumentality insubordinate, adj [1. insubórdinat, 2. insabórdinat] in- (II) & subordinate Resisting authority, disobedient, unruly insubordination, n [1. insubordinatshun, 2. insabordinatshun] prec & -ion The state, quality, of being insubordinate, disobedience, rebelliousness, unruliness insubstantial, adj [1. insubstánshál, 2. insabstánshál] in- (II) & substantial Lacking in substance, unreal, illusory insubstantiality, n [1. insubstansháiliti, 2. insabstansháiliti] prec & -ity Quality of being insubstantial insufferable, adj [1. insúferabl, 2. insáférabl] in- (II) & sufferable Not to be endured, intolerable, detestable an insufferable person, nuisance, insufferable intolerance insufferably, adv prec & -ly To an insufferable degree insufficiency, n [1. insufishensi, 2. insafishensi] fr L Lat insufficiencia, 'insufficiency' in- (II) & sufficiency a State of being insufficient, b an insufficient quantity, a lack, dearth insufficient, adj [1. insufishent, 2. insáfisent] fr L Lat insufficient(em), 'insufficient' in- (II) & sufficient Not sufficient, inadequate insufficiently, adv prec & -ly To an insufficient degree or extent insufflate, vb trans [1. insuflát, 2. insáfíst] fr Lat insufflat(-um), PP type of insufflare, 'to blow, breathe into or upon', fr in- (I) & sufflare, 'to blow'. See suf- & flatus 1 To blow or breathe (air, vapour &c) into body, cavity in body &c 2 To fill (cavity &c) with air &c, breathed or blown into it insufflation, n [1. insuflátshun, 2. insáfístshun] fr L Lat insufflatio(n)em, 'a blowing into' prec & -ion The act of insufflating, state of being insufflated, specif a act of breathing upon, as symbolical of a new spiritual life, in baptism, b (med) blowing of air or gas into the lungs to stimulate respiratory action insufflator, n [1. insuflátur, 2. insáfístur] insufflate & -or Mechanical apparatus for injecting air, vapour &c into a cavity of the body &c insular, adj [1. insúlar, 2. insýlar] fr Lat insulár(-is), 'of, belonging to, an island', fr insul (a), 'an island', & -ar, according to Waldo, perh for en sálo*, '(that which is) in the sea', cp Lat sál, 'salt, the sea' See sal (I) 1 Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, an island 2 Of, pertaining to, characteristic of, the inhabitants of an island, specif, narrow-minded, illiberal, intolerant, as being out off from the current of ideas in the world at large insular habits, prejudices &c insularism, n [1. insúlarizm, 2. insýlarizm] prec & -ism Quality of being insular, narrow-mindedness, prejudice insularity, n [1. insúlariti, 2. insýlariti] insular & -ity 1 The state of being an island, or like an island 2 Quality of being insular, narrowness, illiberality of mind insularly, adv [1. insúlarh, 2. insýlarh] See prec & -ly a In an insular manner, as an island, b in a prejudiced manner, so as to exhibit insularism insulate, vb trans [1. insúlát, 2. insýlarit] fr Lat insul (a), 'an island' See insular & -ate 1 To make (land) into an island, surround by water 2 To separate, detach (person or thing) from surroundings, place in detached position, cut off from communication with, dependence on, surroundings, isolate 3 (phys and elect) To isolate, cut off, by means of non conducting substance, to prevent the passage of electricity, heat, or sound insulation, n [1. insúlatshun, 2. insýlaritshun] prec & -ion Act or process of insulating, state of being insulated insulator, n [1. insúlátur, 2. insýlarit] insulate & -or That which insulates, specif (elect) a substance of low conductivity, loosely a non conductor insulin, n [1. insúlin, 2. insýlin] fr Lat insulac, 'islands', see insular, & -in An extract made from the pancreas of sheep or other animals, containing the special secretion of the small masses of ductless cells known as 'the islets of Langerhans', used as a specific for diabetes insult (I), n [1. insúlt, 2. insáfált] fr L Lat insult (us), 'insult, roving', fr in- (I) & saltus, 'a leap, spring, bound' See next word Word or act which wounds the feelings of another, which tends to humiliate, and offend another, insolence, affront insult (II), vb trans [1. insúlt, 2. insáfált] fr Lat insult (dre), 'to spring, leap, upon, to behave insolently towards, revile, taunt', fr in- (I) & sallare, 'to leap repeatedly, to dance' See saltant & salient To treat with contempt and insolence, to wound feelings of, to affront, by word or act insulting, adj [1. insúltig, 2. insáfáltig] fr prec Part of prec Conveying, expressing, an insult, wounding, insolent insultingly, adv prec & -ly In an insulting manner insuperability, n [1. insúperábiliti, 2. insýperábiliti] fr Lat insuperabil (is), 'unsurmountable' See next word & -ity. Quality of being insuperable insuperable, adj [1. insúperabl, 2. insýperabl] fr Lat insuperabil (is), 'unsurmountable, unconquerable' in- (II) & superable (obedient fig) Not capable of being surmounted, not to be overcome, impassable an insuperable difficulty, obstacle insuperably, adv prec & -ly In an insuperable manner insupportable, adj [1. insupórtabl, 2. insáfórtabl] in- (II) & supportable Not capable of being supported or endured, unbearable, intolerable insupportably, adv prec & -ly To an insupportable extent or degree insurable, adj [1. insúbrabl, 2. insýbrabl] insure & -able Capable of being insured insurance, n [1. insúrans, 2. insýrans] insure & -ance 1 Act of insuring, state of being insured 2 A premium paid for insuring, b insurance policy insurance policy, n Written contract of insurance insurant, n [1. insúrant, 2. insýrant] Next word & -ant One who pays premium for insurance insure, vb trans [1. insúbr, 2. insýbr] Variant of ensure See also assure 1 (referring to action of insured) To contract, arrange for, secure, payment of sum of money, as compensation for loss of, damage to (one's property, life &c), by payment of premium to insure oneself, one's life, to insure one's property against fire, burglary &c 2 (referring to act of the insurer) To contract to pay a sum of money to (person or his heirs), in consideration of specified premium, upon certain contingencies, eg loss of life, damage to person or property &c 3 (by extension) To secure certain benefits, under Health or Unemployment Insurance Acts, by weekly payments of employed and employer with State contributions insured, n [1. insúrd, 2. insýrd] fr PP of prec The insured, person to whom payment is to be made insurer, n [1. insúbrer, 2. insýbrer] insure & -er Person or company contracting to pay money as compensation for, or in case of, loss or damage to person or property &c insurgency, n [1. insúrjensi, 2. insáfjensi] fr Lat insurgere (ere), 'to rise, rise up' See next word & -oy State of being insurgent insurgent, adj & n [1. insúrjent, 2. insáfjent] fr Lat insurgens (em), prec Part of insurgere, 'to rise, to rise up, rouse, to rise against, revolt, to rise in flood', fr in- (I) & surgere, 'to rise' See surge 1 adj a Rising against established authority, actively rebellious, resisting forcibly, b (poet, of natural phenomena) rising, surging, rushing in insurgent waters, sea &c 2 n A rebel, revolutionary insurmountable, adj [1. insúrmountabl, 2. insáfmountabl] in- (II) & surmountable Not capable of being surmounted insurmountably, adv prec & -ly In an insurmountable manner insurrection, n [1. insúrrekshun, 2. insáfrekshun] fr Lat insurrectio(n)em, 'a rising up, revolt', fr insurrect (um), PP type of insurgere, 'to rise up' See insurgent Organized and active opposition, resistance, to established authority, revolt, rebellion insurrectional, adj [1. insúrrekshunál, 2. insáfrekshunál] prec & -al Of, pertaining to, insurrection insurrectionary, adj [1. insúrrekshunár, 2. insáfrekshunár] insurrection & -ary Insurrectional insurrectionist, n [1. insúrrekshunist, 2. insáfrekshunist] insurrection & -ist One who incites or takes part in, approves of, insurrection insusceptibility, n [1. insuséptábiliti, 2. insáféptábiliti] See next word & -ity The quality or state of being insusceptible insusceptible, adj [1. insuséptabl, 2. insáféptabl] in- (II) & susceptible Not susceptible, not capable of being affected, a (physically) insusceptible of medical treatment, b (emotionally) incapable of being stirred, moved, inaccessible, insensible a heart insusceptible of, or to, mercy intact, adj [1. intákt, 2. intáfákt] fr Lat intact (us), 'untouched, unimpaired, intact, untrod, unattempted', fr in- (II) & tact (um), PP type of tangere, 'to touch, to reach, arrive at, to affect, to impress' See tact Untouched, unimpaired, undiminished, unimpaired, whole, entire, complete intagliated, adj [1. intágháted, 2. intáfágháted] fr Ital intagliat (o), PP of intagliare, 'to incise', fr in- (I) & tagliare, 'to cut' See next word Carved in intaglio, incised on a hard surface intaglio (I), n [1. intághé, intáfághé, 2. intághon, intáfághon] Ital, fr intagli are, 'to incise', in- & Med Lat intagliare, 'to cut', fr intalla, 'a cutting, layer, stake' See taylor 1 Design carved, engraved, in hard surface, incised figure 2 Gem with incised design, cp cameo intaglio (II), vb trans, fr prec a To engrave design on (surface), b to incise (design) on hard surface intake, n [1. inták, 2. intáfák] in (II) & take 1 A Point at which water or air flows into a narrow channel, pipe &c, b air shaft in a mine 2 (provins) Piece of enclosed land, esp portion reclaimed from a moor or swamp intangibility, n [1. intáknábiliti, 2. intáfáknábiliti] See next word & -ity Quality of being intangible intangible, adj [1. intánjibl, 2. intáfánjibl] in- (II) & tangible 1 Not perceptible to the touch, not to be touched or grasped, impalpable, incorporeal, insubstantial 2 Not capable of being grasped by the mind, vague, indefinite, not capable of clear, precise, definition intangibly, adv prec & -ly In an intangible manner, so as to be incapable of being grasped, or understood integer, n [1. intéjer, 2. intáféjer] Lat integer, adj, 'unhurt, untouched, unchanged, whole, entire, undiminished, sound, fresh, honest, blameless, unbiased, impartial' fr in- (II) & *tag, stem of tangere, 'to touch' See tact & tangent 1 An undivided whole, anything complete, entire 2 (arith) A whole number, opposed to fraction integral (I), adj [1 integral, 2 integrál], fr Lat integrál (is), 'whole, complete' Prec & -al 1 A Necessary to completeness, essential, intrinsic an integral part of object, scheme &c, b containing all that is necessary for completeness, having all constituent parts, whole, entire 2 (math, of quantity &c) Denoted by, composed of, pertaining to, integers integral (II), n, fr prec A whole, totality integrality, n [1 integrálit, 2 integrálit] integral (I) & -ity Quality of being integral integrally, adv [1 integrál, 2 integrál] integral (I) & -ly In an integral manner, as an integral part integrate, adj [1 integrat, 2 integrat], fr Lat integrat (em), Pres Part of integrare, 'to make whole, renew, to supply, keep full, to refresh', fr integer Forming a complete whole, constituent, component, essential to completeness integrate (I), adj [1 integrat, 2 integrat] See next word A Made up of component parts, b complete, whole integrate (II), vb trans [1 integrat, 2 integrat], fr Lat integrat (um), P P type of integrare, 'to make whole, renew, to refresh', fr integer 1 a To combine (parts) into a whole, put together to form a whole, b to make into a whole by adding, putting together, constituent parts, to complete, make entire 2 To give total sum of, mean value of, average of (temperature, velocity of wind, area of irregular figure &c) integration, n [1 integratión, 2 integratión] Prec & -ion The act of integrating, state of being integrated integrative, adj [1 integratív, 2 integratív] integrate (II) & -ive Of, pertaining to, integration, integrant integrator, n [1 integrátor, 2 integrátor] integrate (II) & -or One who, that which, integrates, special, mechanical device for obtaining numerical value of irregular figure &c integrity, n [1 integrit, 2 integrit], fr Lat integritas (em), 'completeness, soundness, blamelessness innocence' integer & -ity 1 Unimpaired condition, state of being not touched, undiminished, wholeness, original completeness 2 Wholeness of mind, honesty, probity, uprightness, sincerity integument, n [1 integrúment, 2 integrúment], fr Lat integumentum (um), 'a covering', fr in- (I) & teg (ere), 'to cover' See tegument Outer covering, case, envelope, esp natural covering of animal or vegetable body, skin, shell, husk, rind &c integumentary, adj [1 integrúmentár, 2 integrúmentár] Prec & -ary Of, pertaining to, forming, an integument intellect, n [1 intelekt, 2 intelekt], fr Lat intellectus (us), 'perception, discernment, faculty of understanding', fr P P type of intelligere, legere, 'to perceive, to understand, comprehend', fr inter- & legere, 'to pick out, choose, read' See lecture & op legend. 1 The faculty of perceiving, knowing, and thinking, reasoning power, mind, as distinguished from the emotional faculties 2 Intellectual persons collectively the whole intellect of the country approved the measure intellection, n [1 intelektshún, 2 intelektshún] fr Lat intellectus (um), P P type of intelligere 'to perceive, understand' See intelligent & -ion The process of thinking, understanding activity of the intellect intellective, adj [1 intelektív, 2 intelektív] intellect & -ive Of, pertaining to the intellect intellectual (I), adj [1 intelektshál, intelektshál, 2 intelektshál, intelektshál] fr Lat intellectualis (us), 'of the understanding', fr intelligere (e), 'perception, understanding' See intellect & -al 1 Of, pertaining to, appealing to, exercising, the intellect intellectual effort, pursuits &c 2 (of persons) Of trained intelligence, having capacity for high degree of mental effort, habitually exercising the intellect, inclined to mental activity intellectual (II), n, fr prec Intellectual person intellectualism, n [1 intelektsházm, 2 intelektsházm] intellectual & -ism 1 Ad diction to intellectual pursuits 2 a Doctrine that knowledge is entirely derived through the exercise of pure reason, b tendency to over estimate the rational and disregard the other faculties of the human mind intellectualist, n [1 intelektshásh, 2 intelektshásh] intellectual & -ist One who tends to over emphasize the rational faculties at the expense of others intellectuality, n [1 intelektshálth, 2 intelektshálth] intellectual & -ity Quality of being intellectual, intellectualism intellectualization, n [1 intelektshálshún, 2 intelektshálshún] See next word & -ation The act or process of intellectualizing, state of being intellectualized intellectualize, vb trans & intrans [1 intelektshálz, 2 intelektshálz] intellectual & -ize 1 trans a To give intellectual character to, reduce to an intellectual form, b to treat intellectually 2 intrans To use or develop the intellect intellectually, adv [1 intelektshál, -shóal, 2 intelektshál, -shál] See intellectual (I) & -ly In an intellectual manner intelligence, n [1 intelyjens, 2 inteldzhans], fr Lat intelligentia, 'power of understanding, discernment' See intelligent & -ce 1 a The faculty of understanding, power of perceiving, knowing, reasoning, intellect, mental ability, b readiness, quickness of understanding, mental alertness 2 (of animals) Mental quality resembling the power of reasoning, sagacity 3 Communicated information, general information on any subject, intelligence service, department, one collecting, filing, interpreting, information of value to the staff of an army, navy, to the police &c 4 Intelligent being intelligencer, n [1 intelyjenser, 2 inteldzhenser] Prec & -er Person supplying information or news, special, a spy intelligent, adj [1 intelyjént, 2 inteldzhént], fr Lat intelligent (em), Pres Part of intelligere, legere, 'to perceive, discern, to understand, comprehend', fr inter- & legere 'to gather, collect, to observe, select, to observe, survey, to read' See lecture & cp intellect

1 Endowed with faculty of understanding, with reasoning power, rational 2 Having an alert mind, of active intellect, acute an intelligent child, an intelligent reader &c 3 Revealing intelligence, indicating the exercise of mental activity an intelligent question, reply &c intelligential, adj [1 intelyjénshál, 2 inteldzhénshál] Prec & -ial Of, pertaining to, the intellect intelligently, adv [1 intelyjénth, 2 inteldzhénth] See prec & -ly In an intelligent manner intelligentia, n [1 intelligentia, 2 intelligentia], fr Russ intelligentsiya, fr Ital intelligenza or direct fr Lat intelligentia See intelligence A term applied, originally by Russian revolutionaries, to the scientific, learned, or intellectual classes collectively, as contrasted with the bourgeoisie on the one hand and the proletariat on the other intelligibility, n [1 intelyjibílth, 2 inteldzhíbílth] See next word & -ity Quality of being intelligible intelligible, adj [1 intelyjibíl, 2 inteldzhíbíl], fr Lat intelligibilis (us), 'that can be understood' fr intelligere (ere), 'to perceive, understand', q v under intelligent & -ible 1 Capable of being understood, clear in meaning 2 (philos) Capable of being grasped by the intellect only, not to be perceived by the senses intelligibly, adv Prec & -ly In an intelligible manner intemperance, n [1 intémperans, 2 intémperans], fr Lat intemperantia, 'immoderation, excess' in- (II) & temperance A Lack of moderation, control, restraint, extravagance, b over indulgence, excess, specif, excessive indulgence in intoxicating liquor, drunkenness intemperate, adj [1 intémperat, 2 intémperat], fr Lat intemperat (us), 'immoderate' in- (II) & temperate 1 (of person, conduct) Unrestrained, immoderate, excessive 2 Given to excess, addicted to over-indulgence, esp in strong drink intemperately, adv Prec & -ly In an intemperate manner intend, vb trans [1 inténd, 2 inténd], fr Fr entendre, fr Lat intendere, 'to stretch out, extend, to aim, direct, to apply oneself to, to purpose, intend', fr in- (I) & tendere, 'to stretch out' See tend (II) & words there referred to 1 a (i) To purpose, to have in mind as object, to contemplate, mean, design he does not intend to obey you, he intends to go, what do you intend doing?, 'I intended an ode', (ii) to plot, plan, scheme 'intend at home what best may ease the present misery' (Milton, 'P L' u 457 &c), b to have as a deliberate, set, purpose 'I didn't intend to hurt you' 2 To design, destine the gift was intended for you, his son was intended for the army, where did you intend him to go? 3 a To mean, signify, to mean, desire, to convey what do you intend by your words?, b to design to represent that portrait is intended for me intendancy, n [1 inténdansi, 2 inténdansi] See next word & -cy The office or status of an intendant intendant, n [1 inténdant, 2 inténdant], fr Fr See intend & -ant Director, superintendent, manager, of a business or some branch of public administration &c, the term is obsolete in English usage but survives in French and Spanish, specif (Fr hist) a one of the four financial controllers under Francis I, b chief administrator of a province intended, n [1 inténded, 2 inténded], fr P P of intend (colloq preceded by poss pron. or n) Future wife or husband, fiancée(s) intendement, n [1 inténdment, 2 inténdment], fr Fr entendement, fr entend (re), 'to mean, intend, hear, understand', fr Lat intendere, 'to extend, to aim, to intend' See intend & -ment (rare) Precise meaning (of document &c) as fixed or accepted by law intense, adj [1 inténs, 2 inténs], fr Fr, fr Lat intens (us), alternative to intens (us), P P type of intendere, 'to stretch out, extend, to aim, direct, to enlarge, magnify, to apply oneself, to endeavour, purpose, intend' See intend. 1 (of quality &c) Existing, present, in a high, marked, extreme, degree, deep, extreme, violent, excessive vivid intense cold, heat, colour, intense obstinacy, stupidity 2 (of feeling or action) Ferrent, ardent, eager, extreme an intense longing, hatred, &c, zealous intense devotion to duty 3 Experiencing and exhibiting intensity or exuberance of feeling, highly emotional an intense young lady intensely, adv Prec & -ly 1 In a high degree, extremely, excessively 2 In an intense manner, with strong feeling intenseness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being intense intensification, n [1 inténsifikashún, 2 inténsifikashún] intense & -fication The act or process of intensifying, state of being intensified intensify, vb trans & intrans [1 inténsifi, 2 inténsifi] intense & -fy 1 trans To make, cause to become, more intense, to heighten, to deepen, increase in degree 2 intrans To become more intense intension, n [1 intensiɒn, 2 'intɛnʃən], fr Lat intension (-em), 'a stretching out straining, increase, intensifying' intense & -ion 1 Vigorous effort, straining, exertion, esp of mind 2 Intensity, high degree, violence, vehemence 3 (log) Collective attributes of a general term or general notion, op extension intensity, n [1 intensiti, 2 intensiti] intense & -ity The quality of being intense, high degree, intenseness, of quality, feeling, force & strength, depth intensive, adj [1 intensiv, 2 intensiv] intense & -ive 1 Of, pertaining to, characterized by, intensity and concentration intensive study, intensifying, admitting of intensification 2 (gram) Giving added intensity or force, expressing intensity, emphasizing 3 (econ & o) Pertaining to the production of large results, by concentration of labour and care upon a small area of operation intensive cultivation, gardening & o 4 (med, of inoculation) Characterized by increasing strength of successive injections intensively, adv Proc & -ly In an intensive manner intent (I), n [1 intɛnt, 2 intɛnt], fr O Fr entent, fr Lat intenti (us), 'a stretching out, extending', fr PP type of intendere, 'to extend, to aim, direct, to purpose, intend' See intend Aim, purpose, design, intention, result desired, esp in Phrs with good, evil, intent, with intent to kill, defraud & c, to all intents and purposes, in every respect, practically intent (II), adj fr, Lat intenti (-us), alternative to intense (-um), PP type of intendere, 'to extend, to aim, to apply oneself' See intend 1 a Having the mind and will firmly fixed and concentrated upon, directed towards intent on an object, intent on pleasing everyone, b with the desires directed towards, occupied by, given up to to be intent on pleasure & o 2 (of faculty, look & o) Firmly directed upon some object, giving full attention to, fixed, earnest a mind intent upon study, an intent look intention, n [1 intenshun, 2 'intɛnʃən], fr Lat intentionem (-em), 'a straining, tension, effort, exertion, attention, application, design, purpose', fr intenti (um), PP type of intendere, 'to extend, to aim, to exert, to apply oneself to, intend' See intend & -ion 1 Something intended, a something implicit, import, bearing the intention of a clause, b something resolved upon in the mind, determination to do something, contemplated act my intention is to go abroad in the vacation, specif o (ooles) special concentration of the will towards accomplishment of particular purpose, e g to say a mass for a person's intention, in the hope, and with the earnest desire, that the act may benefit him 2 (philos) Concept, notion 3 (surg) Mode of healing of wounds, or fractures to heal with first intention, heal at once intentional, adj [1 intenshunl, 2 'intɛnʃənəl] Proc & -al Intended, designed, premeditated, done on purpose intentionally, adv Proc & -ly In an intentional manner, on purpose

-intentioned, adj [1 intenshunnd, 2 'intɛnʃənd] intention & -ed Having intentions of specified kind well-intentioned & o intently, adv [1 intɛntli, 2 'intɛntli] intent (II) & -ly In an intent manner intentness, n [1 intensnɪs, 2 intensnɪs] See proc & -ness The quality of being intent inter (I), vb trans [1 intɛr, 2 intɛr], fr O Fr enterrer, fr Low Lat intertere, fr in- (X) & terra, 'earth' See terra To place in the earth or in a tomb; to bury, inhumate inter (II), prep [1 intɛr, 2 intɛr] Lat inter, 'between, among', cogn w Sort inter, O HG untar, 'between', O HG untorn, O S undorn, 'mid-day', O E undorn, 'morning'. Orig comparative of en, 'in' See in (I). (in Lat Phrs) Inter alia, among other things, inter nos, et, among ourselves, themselves, inter viros, between living persons, esp (law) of gifts inter-, pref See proc Very common in words derived fr Lat, & also as a living pref, forming ns, adjs, & vbs, (1) w sense of 'between, among' intercollegiate, inter-oceanic & o, (2) expressing mutual relation, reciprocal action interconvertible, intergrowth, interknit & o, (3) in scientific words, esp adjs, w sense of 'between' intercostal, interfacial, interstellar & o interact (I), n [1 interakt, 2 interakt] inter- & -act (I), on anal of Fr entracte a Interval between two acts of a play, b performance given in such an interval, interlude interact (II), vb intrans [1 interakt, 2 interakt] inter- & -act (II) To act and react one upon another, have reciprocal effect interaction, n [1 interakshun, 2 interakshun] Proc & -ion The process of interacting, reciprocal effect, action, influence interactive, adj [1 interaktiv, 2 interaktiv] See proc & -ive Acting upon each other interblend, vb trans & intrans [1 interblend, 2 intablend] inter- & blend 1 trans To mix (two or more things) one with another 2 intrans To blend one with another interbreed, vb trans & intrans [1 interbrɛd, 2 intabrɛd] inter- & breed 1 trans To breed together (animals or plants) of different species 2 intrans To breed with each other intercalary, adj [1 interkalari, 2 intakalari], fr Lat intercalarius (-us), 'intercalary', fr intercal (are), 'to insert, intercalate' Next word & -ary 1 (of day(s) or month) Added to calendar, sometimes periodically, to make civil year correspond to solar year 2 (of year) Having an intercalary period added 3 Inserted, interpolated, intervening intercalary strata intercalate, vb trans [1 interkalat, 2 intakalest], fr Lat intercalat (us), PP type of intercalare, 'to proclaim insertion of intercalary day & o', fr inter- & calare, 'to call out, proclaim, call together' See calendar 1 To insert, add (intercalary period) to calendar 2 To insert, interpolate intercalation, n [1 interkalashun, 2 intakaleshun], fr Lat intercalatio (-em) Proc & -ion a The act of intercalating, b something intercalated, an insertion intercede, vb intrans [1 interseɪd, 2 intesɪd], fr Lat intercedere (-ere), 'to go between, intervene, to interpose, interfere, on another's behalf', fr inter- & cedere, 'to go, to depart, withdraw, to give place to, to yield' See cede To put forward a plea on another's behalf, mediate, plead for to intercede with (a person), for another, for mercy & o intercept, vb trans [1 intersɛpt, 2 intesɛpt], fr Lat interceptum (-um), PP type of intercipere, 'to seize while passing, to interrupt, cut off', fr inter- & capere, 'to take' See capitive 1 To seize, take, stop (person, object), between starting-point and destination, to prevent arrival at destination to intercept a letter, messenger & o 2 To interrupt, hinder, prevent passage, or progress of, to get, or put something, in the way of, to obstruct, cut off to intercept rays of light, a view & o 3 (math) To include between, cut off by, two points, lines & o interception, n [1 intersɛpshun, 2 intesɛpshun] Proc & -ion The act of intercepting, state of being intercepted interceptive, adj [1 intersɛptiv, 2 intesɛptiv] See proc & -ive Tending to intercept intercession, n [1 interseshun, 2 inteseshun], fr Lat intercessio (-em), 'a coming between, intervention', fr intercess (um), PP type of intercedere, 'to go between, to intervene, interpose' See intercede 1 The act or process of interceding, mediation, entreaty on behalf of another 2 Intercessory prayer intercessor, n [1 intersesur, 2 intesesur] Let intercessor, 'one who intervenes, mediator', fr stem intercess (-um) See proc & -or One who intercedes.

intercessorial, adj [1 interseshunal, 2 inteseseshunal] Proc & -ial Of, pertaining to, intercession, an intercessor intercessory, adj [1 interseshun, 2 inteseseshun] inter- & -y Making intercession, interceding interchange (I), n [1 interchɛnj, 2 intɛrʃɔndʒ], fr O Fr entrechange inter- & change (I) 1 Mutual exchange between two persons & o the interchange of greetings 2 Alternate succession, alternation interchange (II), vb trans & intrans [1 interchɛnj, 2 intɛrʃɔndʒ], fr O Fr entrechanger inter- & change (II) A trans 1 (of two persons) To exchange with each other, give and receive 2 To put each in place of the other, to change about 3 To alternate, cause to occur alternately B intrans 1 (of two things) To take each other's places, change about 2 To follow alternately interchangeability, n [1 interchɛnjabiliti, 2 intɛrʃɔndʒabiliti] See next word & -ity Quality of being interchangeable interchangeable, adj [1 interchɛnjabl, 2 intɛrʃɔndʒabl] inter- & -able Capable of being interchanged interchangeableness, n Proc & -ness Interchangeability interchangeably, adv See proc & -ly So as to be interchangeable intercollegiate, adj [1 interkolɛʒiat, 2 intakolɛʒiat] inter- & college Occurring & o between different colleges intercolonial, adj [1 interkolonial, 2 intakolonial] inter- & colonial Occurring & o between different colonies intercolumnar, adj [1 interkolumnar, 2 intakolumnar] inter- & columnar a (archit) Situated, placed, between columns, b (anat) between the columns of the abdominal ring intercolumniation, n [1 interkolumnashun, 2 intakolumnashun] inter- & column & -ation (archit) The clear space left between columns, the arrangement of columns in respect of their spacing intercommunicate, vb intrans [1 interkumunikat, 2 intakumunikat] inter- & communicate 1 To communicate, have intercourse, with each other 2 (of rooms & o) To lead from, open, one into the other intercommunication, n [1 interkumunikashun, 2 intakumunikashun] Proc & -ion Mutual intercourse, communication with, between, each other intercommunion, n [1 interkumunɪn, 2 intakumunɪn] inter- & communion Mutual, intimate, communion, specif, reciprocal spiritual relations and ministrations between different religious bodies intercommunity, n [1 interkumuniti, 2 intakumuniti] inter- & community Quality of being common to several interconnect, vb trans & intrans [1 interkonekt, 2 intakanekt] inter- & connect 1 trans To connect, link, join together, esp in PP interconnected 2 intrans To be connected, linked, together interconvertible, adj [1 interkunvertibl, 2 intakanvɛtbl] inter- & convertible Capable of being converted each into other, interchangeable intercostal, adj [1 interkɔstəl, 2 intakɔstəl] inter- & costal a (anat) Occurring between the ribs intercostal muscles, intercostal rheumatism & o, b (bot) between the veins of a leaf intercourse, n [1 interkurs, 2 intakurs], fr O Fr entrecourse, fr Lat intercurere (um), PP type of intercurrere, 'to run between, to mingle with, be among' See inter- & course 1 a Social dealings, communication, association (between individuals), b mutual dealings, relations, communication (between countries & o) 2 Spiritual or mental communion 3 Sexual connexion intercross, vb trans & intrans [1 interkrɔs, 2 intakrɔs] inter- & cross (II) 1 trans a To cause (lines & o) to be across Interline, vb trans [1 interlín, 2 intəlín], fr Med Lat interlinēre, 'to interline', fr inter- & Lat linēa, 'a line'. See line 1 To write between the lines of (a text, manuscript &c) 2 To insert between the lines of a text to interline corrections, a translation &c

Interlinear, adj [1 interlínear, 2 intəlínear], fr Med Lat interlineār-(is) inter- & linear Written, inserted, between the lines of a written or printed text an interlinear gloss

Interlineation, n [1 interlínəʃən, 2 intəlínəʃən], fr Med Lat interline (äre), 'to interline'. See interline & -ation 1 Act of interlining, state of being interlined 2 Word, passage, correction &c, inserted between the lines

Interlock, vb intrans & trans [1 interlók, 2 intəlók] inter- & lock (III) 1 intrans To lock, join, together, engage, become fastened, by reciprocal action, overlap, each other, become hooked, interlocking signals, on railways &c (also in transferred sense) interlocking directorate, of trusts, combines &c, in which seats on the boards are interchanged between the various companies 2 trans To cause to interlock

Interlocution, n [1 interlókúʃən, 2 intəlókúʃən], fr Lat interlocútio-(em) See inter- & locution A dialogue, conversation, interchange of speech

Interlocutor, n [1 interlókútor, 2 intəlókútor], fr Lat interlocút (um), PP type of interloqu, 'to interrupt in speaking'. See pre- & -or Person taking part in dialogue

Interlocutory, adj [1 interlókúturi, 2 intəlókúturi] See pre- & -ory 1 Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, consisting of, dialogue 2 (law) Intermediate, of proceedings under order of the court, taken during the preliminary stages of an action, before trial

Interlocutress, n [1 interlókútres, 2 intəlókútres] interlocutor & -ess Woman taking part in conversation

Interlocutrix, n [1 interlókútiks, 2 intəlókútiks] See pre- & -trix interlocutress

Interlope, vb intrans [1 interlóp, 2 intəlóp] Hybrid word fr inter-, & ON hlaupa, 'to leap, run', cogn w leap (rare) To act as an interloper

Interloper, n [1 interlóper, 2 intəlóper] Pre- & -or 1 Person who pushes himself into the affairs of others, or into a position to which he has no right, an intruder 2 (hist) Unlicensed, unauthorized, trader, esp one who attempts to interfere in the trade of a chartered company or monopoly

Interlude, n [1 interlúd, 2 intəl(ə)lúd], fr Mod Lat interlúd (um), 'interlude', fr inter- & lúd (us), 'game, play', q' under ludicrous 1 (hist) Short dramatic performance between the acts of a mystery or morality-play 2 A time intervening between two acts of play, interval, b performance during such an interval 3 A intervening period, interval differing in character from preceding and following periods, b action, incident, event, regarded as occurring in the course of other proceedings, or between two more important events &c 4 (mus) Instrumental passage played between verses of song, vocal passages &c

Intermarriage, n [1 intermárij, 2 intəmərij] inter- & marriage 1 Marriage between persons of different races, tribes, families &c 2 Marriage of related persons

Intermarry, vb intrans [1 intermárij, 2 intəmərij] inter- & marry (of families, tribes, races &c) To marry amongst, with, each other

Intermeddle, vb intrans [1 intermedl, 2 intəmedl] inter- & meddle To occupy oneself, concern oneself, interfere, meddle to intermeddle with what does not concern one, in other people's affairs

Intermediary (I), adj [1 intermédjári, 2 intəmədjári], fr Lat intermedius (us), 'intermediate'. See inter- & mediate & -ary.

1 Acting between two persons, parties &c, acting as agent, as means of communication, mediator &c 2 Situated or coming between, intervening, intermediate

Intermediary (II), n, fr pre- Intermediary person or thing, esp mediator

Intermediate (I), adj & n [1 intermédjət, 2 intəmədjət], fr Lat intermedius (us), 'lying between, intermediate', fr inter- & medius, 'middle', see medius, & -ate 1 adj Situated, existing, occurring, between two things, in time, space, order, degree &c intermediate rank, intermediate types in a series &c, spoof, Intermediate examination, one between that of Matriculation at a University, and the Final, or Degree examination 2 n a Something that is intermediate, b Intermediate examination

Intermediate (II), vb intrans [1 intermédjət, 2 intəmədjət] inter- & mediate (rare) To act as intermediary, intervene

Intermediately, adv [1 intermédjətli, 2 intəmədjətli] intermediate (I) & -ly In an intermediate position, as an intermediate

Intermediation, n [1 intermédjəʃən, 2 intəmədjəʃən] intermediate (II) & -ion The act of intermediating

Intermediator, n [1 intermédjətor, 2 intəmədjətor] intermediate (II) & -or Person who intermediates, intermediary Intermedium, n [1 intermédjum, 2 intəmədjəm] Lat intermedium, neut form of intermedius (us), 'intermediate'. See inter- & medium Intervening agent, means of communication or transmission, medium

Interment, n [1 intərmənt, 2 intərmənt] inter (I) & -ment Burial, inhumation Intermezzo, n [1 intermészó, 2 intərmészó] Ital, fr Lat intermedius (us), 'intermediate'. See intermediate (I) 1 Short dramatic performance, burlesque &c between acts of play, opera &c 2 (mus) Short composition connecting main movements of sonata, symphony &c, or played between the acts or scenes of an opera

Intermigration, n [1 intermigrəʃən, 2 intəməgrəʃən] inter- & migration Reciprocal migration between two countries or areas

Interminable, adj [1 intərmínəbl, 2 intərmínəbl], fr L Lat interminabilis (us), 'endless'. See in- (II) & terminable A lasting for ever, endless, b unduly prolonged, unending, ceaseless, wearisome an interminable discourse

Interminableness, n Pre- & -ness The state of being interminable Interminably, adv See pre- & -ly In an interminable manner, to an interminable extent

Intermingle, vb trans & intrans [1 intermíngl, 2 intəmíngl] inter- & mingle 1 trans To mix, mingle, blend, together 2 intrans To mingle, become blended

Intermission, n [1 intərmíʃən, 2 intərmíʃən], fr Lat intermissio-(em), 'a breaking off, interruption, cessation, pause', fr intermiss- (um), PP type of intermittere, 'to leave off, omit, neglect, to cease, pause'. See next word & -ion Temporary cessation, pause, interval, interruption, esp in Phr without intermission

Intermit, vb trans & intrans [1 intərmít, 2 intərmít], fr Lat intermitt (ere), 'to leave off, omit, suspend, to cease, pause', fr inter- & mittere, 'to send', q' under mission 1 trans To stop for a time, suspend, interrupt, cease temporarily 2 intrans To cease temporarily, pause, be interrupted

Intermittent, n [1 intərmítəns, 2 intərmítəns] Pre- & -ence The state of being intermittent

Intermittent, adj [1 intərmítənt, 2 intərmítənt] intermit & -ent Having periods of intermission, pausing at intervals, relaxing of violence, strength, or degree from time to time an intermittent pulse, intermittent fever, pain &c

Intermittently, adv Pre- & -ly In an intermittent manner, with occasional or periodic pauses

Intermix, vb trans & intrans [1 intərmíks, 2 intərmíks] inter- & mix To mix together, intermingle

Intermixture, n [1 intərmíkshur, 2 intərmíkʃə] inter- & mixture A compound, mass, blend, formed by mixing things together

Intern, vb trans [1 intərn, 2 intərn], fr Fr interner, fr Lat intern- (us), 'inward, internal', fr same base as inter (II), interior, op OS undorn, 'mid day'. To put under restraint, confine to specified area to intern aliens

Internal (I), adj [1 intərnəl, 2 intərn(ə)l], fr Lat intern (us), 'inner'. See pre- & -al 1 Of, pertaining to, situated on, the inside, interior, inner, inward to receive internal injuries 2 Of, pertaining to, based on, derived from, the substance, content, nature, of anything, intrinsic, inward Phr internal evidence, derived from the thing itself 3 Pertaining to one's inner nature, inward 4 Of, pertaining to, the home affairs of a country, domestic, civil, contrasted with foreign

Internal (II), n, fr, pre- (pl) Natural, internal, qualities

Internal-combustion engine, n Type of engine in which the motive power is produced by the explosion of gas or oil vapour in the cylinder, as in stationary gas engines or petrol driven motor vehicles &c

Internality, n [1 intərnəli, 2 intərnəli] internal (I) & -ity State or quality of being internal

Internally, adv [1 intərnəli, 2 intərnəli] See pre- & -ly a in the inside, so as to affect the interior or inner part, inwardly, b mentally or spiritually

International (I), adj [1 intərnəʃənəl, 2 intərnəʃənəl] inter- & national Existing between, carried on between, relating to, representing, different nations international peace, trade, an international code, conference, international games &c, international law, the law of nations, the body of rules regarded by the nations of the world as binding on them in their relations with each other, in peace and war, styled public, in distinction from private, international law, which deals with the rights and obligations of private citizens in a foreign country or with the conflict of laws of different countries

International (II), n, fr pre- 1 Person who takes part in international contest, esp in athletics, football &c 2 Name of a socialist political organization, the International Working Men's Association, the first of which lasted from 1864 to 1874, the second, founded in 1882, still meets the third, the Communist or Moscow organization, founded 1919, repudiates the second as reactionary

Internationalism, n [1 intərnəʃənəlizəm, 2 intərnəʃənəlizəm] international & -ism Political doctrine and policy which, claiming to be based on the principle of the universal brotherhood of man, tends to minimize or ignore the differences of interests, character, and ideals which exist between races and nations

Internationalist, n [1 intərnəʃənəlist, 2 intərnəʃənəlist] international & -ist 1 Student of international law 2 Adherent of the doctrine of internationalism

Internationality, n [1 intərnəʃənəli, 2 intərnəʃənəli] international & -ity The state of being international

Internationalization, n [1 intərnəʃənəlaɪzəʃən, 2 intərnəʃənəlaɪzəʃən] See next word & -ation The act of internationalizing, state of being internationalized

Internationalize, vb trans [1 intərnəʃənəlaɪz, 2 intərnəʃənəlaɪz] international & -ize To make international, bring under control of different nations

Internationally, adv [1 internashunali, 2 intashunjeli] international (I) & -ly From an international point of view, in a manner affecting different nations

Internecine, adj [1 internetsin, 2 intansuin], fr Lat internecius (us), 'deadly, destructive', fr internecere (dre), 'to kill, destroy', fr inter- & necare, 'to kill', cogn w Gk nekros, 'dead' (see necro-), also w Lat necare, 'to harm' (see noxious), & -ine a Deadly, involving destruction, b mutually destructive

Internment, n [1 internment, 2 intanment] intern & -ment The act of internment, state of being interned

Internuncial, adj [1 internansial, 2 intanansial], fr Lat internunci (us), 'a messenger' See next word & -al (of nerves) Communicating, acting as messengers, between different organs or parts of body

Internuncio, n [1 internunsio, 2 intanansio], fr Ital internuncio, fr Lat internuntius, 'messenger', fr inter- & nuntius, 'a messenger' See nuncio Papal representative of lesser rank than, and acting in absence of, a nuncio

Interoceanic, adj [1 interoshonik, 2 interushnik] inter- & oceanic Between, joining, oceans interoceanic canal, traffic &c Interoculate, vb trans [1 interoshklat, 2 interushkulet] inter- & occlude To intermix, speck (of species) to have certain characters in common

Interosculation, n [1 interoshkulashun, 2 interushkuleshan] Free & -ion Act or process of interosculating

Interpage, vb trans [1 interpaij, 2 intapaiidj] inter- & page (III) To insert on intermediate pages

Interpellate, vb trans [1 interpelat, 2 intapelat], 2 intipileit, intapelit] fr Lat interpellare (um), PP type of interpellare, 'to interrupt by speaking' See inter- & second element of appeal, also spell (I) (in foreign, esp French, legislative bodies) To demand statement or explanation from (a minister), a form of challenge to the Government, corresponding to a motion for adjournment, involving usually a debate, and vote of confidence, or the reverse

Interpellation, n [1 interpelashun, 2 intapelashun, 2 intipileishan, 2 intapelishan], fr Lat interpellatio (em), 'interruption' Free & -ion The act of interpellating, state of being interpellated

Interpenetrate, vb trans & intrans [1 interpenetrat, 2 intipenestreit] inter- & penetrate 1 trans To pervade, penetrate, pass into, be diffused through, all parts of, to permeate 2 intrans (of two things) To penetrate pervade, each other

Interpenetration, n [1 interpenetrashun, 2 intipenestreshan] Free & -ion The act or process of interpenetrating, state of being interpenetrated

Interpenetrative, adj [1 interpenetrativ, 2 intipenestrativ] interpenetrate & -ive Tending to, able to, interpenetrate

Interplay, n [1 interpli, 2 intaplei] inter- & play Reciprocal action, effect of two things upon each other, action and reaction

Interplead, vb intrans [1 interplid, 2 intaplid] inter- & plead (law) To initiate trial of an action under an interpleader

Interpleader, n [1 interplider, 2 intaplider] Free & -er (law) Form of action in which when two or more parties are suing a third for recovery of goods or money in his possession but in which he has no interest, he may compel them to have the issue tried between themselves only

Interpolate, vb trans [1 interpolat, 2 intipolat], fr Lat interpolare (um), PP type of interpolare, 'to give a new appearance to, to polish up, to falsify, to insert, interpolate', fr inter- & pol, stem of polire, 'to polish' See polish 1 To insert (spurious words, passages &c) in document, book &c 2 To insert such passages in (book &c) 3 (math) To insert (intermediate term) in a series Interpolation, n [1 interpolashun, 2 intaplashan] Free & -ion 1 The act of interpolating, state of being interpolated 2 Something interpolated, words or passages added by another, usually later, author, scribe &c

Interpolator, n [1 interpolator, 2 intipalator] See pre- & -or One who makes interpolations in book, manuscript &c

Interposai, n [1 interpoid, 2 intapoid] See next word & -al (rare) Interposition

Interpose, vb trans & intrans [1 interpoz, 2 intapouz], fr Fr interposer See inter- & pose A trans 1 To cause to come between, make intervene, put between, insert to interpose a barrier &c between two things

2 To put forward, offer, introduce as intervention, interference to interpose an objection 3 To interrupt by means of, break in with to interpose a remark B intrans

1 To come between, introduce oneself, intervene, interfere to interpose between opponents &c 2 To interrupt, break in upon, conversation, proceedings &c

Interposition, n [1 interpozashun, 2 intapozishan], fr Lat interpositio (em), 'a putting between, insertion, introduction' inter- & position 1 The act of interposing, state of being interposed, intervention 2 Something that is interposed

Interpret, vb trans & intrans [1 interpret, 2 intiprit], fr Fr interpréter, fr Lat interpretari, 'to explain, expound, translate', prob orig 'to act as agent between two parties in a bargain', the second element being the base in Lat pretium, 'price, value' &c See precious & price A trans 1 To explain, show the meaning of, by deciphering or elucidating to interpret an obscure passage, an inscription &c 2 To represent objectively, reveal meaning of, bring out character of a musician interprets the work of a composer, an actor interprets a character in a play &c 3 To understand in specific way, construe, take meaning to be to interpret a person's silence unfavourably 4 To translate (speech) in a foreign language as interpreter B intrans To act as interpreter

Interpretable, adj [1 interpretabl, 2 intipritabl] Free & -able Capable of being interpreted

Interpretation, n [1 interpretashun, 2 intipritashan], fr Lat interpretatio (em), 'explanation, exposition, translation' interpret & -ation 1 The act of interpreting, result of this, explanation, exposition, elucidation 2 Sense, meaning, given by an expositor, significance, construction 3 Dramatic or artistic representation of a character in a play, the spirit of a piece of music &c in accordance with performer's conception of it

Interpretative, adj [1 interpretativ, 2 intipritativ], fr Lat interpretare (um), PP type of interpretari, 'to explain, to translate' See interpret & -ive Intended, tending, to interpret, containing an interpretation, explanatory

Interpreter, n [1 interpreter, 2 intipritr], fr Fr interprèteur, fr L Lat interpretator (em), 'explainer', fr interpretari (um), PP type of interpretari, 'to explain, to translate' See interpret & -or 1 One who explains, expounds, interprets 2 One whose business it is to translate foreign languages orally, as they are being spoken

Interpretship, n [1 interpretashun, 2 intipritashan] Free & -ship The office of interpreter

Interregnum, n [1 interegnum, 2 intaregnum], Lat interregnum, fr inter- & regnum, 'reign' See reign 1 Time between two reigns, interval between the death, abdication &c of one sovereign and the accession of his successor 2 Any period forming a break in continuity, interval

Interrelation, n [1 interelashun, 2 interilashan] inter- & relation Mutual relation Interrogate, vb trans [1 interngat, 2 intaregut], fr Lat interrogare (um), PP type of interrogare, 'to ask, question, examine', fr inter- & rogare, 'to ask' See rogation. To question, ask questions of, esp searchingly, as in a formal examination

Interrogation, n [1 interngashun, 2 intaregashan], fr Lat interrogatio (em), 'a questioning, inquiry, examination' Free & -ion 1 The act of interrogating, speech, an official examination of a witness by question and answer 2 A question, inquiry, query note, mark point, of interrogation, the punctuation mark (?) used to indicate a direct question

Interrogative, adj & n [1 interngativ, 2 intaregativ], fr Lat interrogativus (us), 'of a question' interrogate & -ive 1 adj a Of, pertaining to, of the nature of, indicating, a question inquiring, b (gram, of pron &c) used in asking questions 2 n An interrogative pronoun

Interrogatively, adv Free & -ly In an interrogative manner

Interrogatory, adj & n [1 interngaturi, 2 intaregaturi], fr Lat interrogatorius (us), 'interrogatory' interrogate & -ory 1 adj Pertaining to, expressing, a question 2 n a Inquiry, questioning, interrogation, b series, formal set, of questions, esp (pl, law) written questions to be answered on oath sent from one party to another in the proceedings of an action before trial

Interrupt, vb trans [1 interpt, 2 intiprit], fr Lat interrupt (um), PP type of interruptere, 'to break up, break to pieces, to break off, interrupt', fr inter- & rumpere, 'to break' See rupture 1 To break in upon, cause to stop, temporarily or permanently to interrupt a conversation, a train of thought, a person speaking, to interrupt the proceedings, (also absol) children must learn not to interrupt 2 To get in the way of, hinder, obstruct the wall interrupts the view 3 To cut off, cut through, break, destroy, the continuity of to interrupt an electric current &c

Interrupted, adj [1 interptid, 2 intipritid], fr PP of pre- Broken by interruptions, not continuously interrupted sleep

Interruptedly, adv See pre- & -ly In an interrupted manner, with interruptions

Interruption, n [1 interptishun, 2 intipritishan], fr Lat interruptio (em), 'an interruption, interval' interrupt & -ion 1 The act of interrupting, state of being interrupted 2 Something that interrupts

Interruptionary, adj [1 interptiv, 2 intipritiv] interrupt & -ory Tending to interrupt, acting as an interruption

Interscapular, adj [1 interskaplar, 2 intashkapyla] inter- & scapular Situated between the scapulars or shoulder blades, esp of feathers of birds

Intersect, vb trans & intrans [1 intersékt, 2 intashékt], fr Lat intersect (um), PP type of intersecare, 'to cut asunder, separate', fr inter- & secare, 'to cut' See section. 1 trans To divide by cutting into or passing across, to cut through, pass across 2 intrans (of lines, surfaces &c) To cut, cut into, cross, one another

Intersection, n [1 intersashun, 2 intashéshan] Free & -ion 1 The act of intersecting, state of being intersected 2 (geom) Point or line of contact between two lines, planes &c

Intersectional, adj [1 intersashunali, 2 intashéshanali] Free & -al Of, pertaining to, intersection

Interspace, n & vb trans inter- & space 1 n [1 interspas, 2 intashpas] Space between two things, interval between two events or points of time 2 vb [1 interspas, 2 intashpas] To put, leave, spaces between Intersperse, vb trans [1 interspera, 2 intashpera], fr Lat interspersare (us), 'strew, sprinkled upon', fr inter- & spere (um), PP type of spargere, 'to scatter' See sparsa.

1 To set here and there, scatter among poppies interspersed among the corn, a few passages of humour interspersed in a dull book 2 To diversify by objects &c scattered here and there sky interspersed with stars Interspersion, n [1 interspersiō, 2 intēspāshun] Prec & -ion The act of interspersing, state of being interspersed Interstate, adj [1 intēstāt, 2 intēstēt] inter- & state (I) Pertaining to relations between, connecting, the states of a federal government, as of Australia, United States of America &c interstate railways, commerce &c Interstellar, adj [1 intēstēlār, 2 intēstēlā] inter- & stellar Situated, passing, between the stars interstellar space &c Interstice, n [1 intēstīs, 2 intēstis] fr Lat intēstis-(um), fr intēstis-(um), P.P. type of intēstere, 'to stand between', fr inter- & stare, 'to stand' See state (I) & stand (I) Intervening, adj [1 intēvēn, 2 intēvēn] a Intervening space, interval, b small opening, chink, crack, crevice Intervistial, adj [1 intēvistīāl, 2 intēvistīāl] fr Lat intēvistis (um), 'space between, interval' Prec & -al Of, pertaining to, occurring in, forming, an interstice Intertribal, adj [1 intētrībīl, 2 intētrībīl] inter- & tribal Existing between different tribes intertribal warfare, marriage &c Intertropical, adj [1 intētrōpīkāl, 2 intētrōpīkāl] inter- & tropical Lying, situated, within or between the tropics Intertwine, vb trans & intrans [1 intērtwīn, 2 intērtwīn] inter- & twine, vb 1 trans To twine, twist, wreath together, interlace 2 intrans To become twined or twisted together, interlace Intertwinement, n [1 intērtwīnmēt, 2 intērtwīnmēt] Prec & -ment The act or process of intertwining, state of being intertwined Interval, n [1 intērvāl, 2 intērvāl] fr Lat intērvall (um), 'open space between ramparts, palisades, space between, interval, intermission, pause, difference, dissimilarity', fr inter- & vallum 1 Intervening space, distance between two objects, points &c Phr at intervals, at a series of points, with spaces between 2 Amount of separation, extent of difference, in degree, quality, capacity &c 3 Intervening period of time between two fixed periods, a portion of time, distinguished in some way from those before and after it lucid intervals between fits of madness, the interval between birth and death 4 (mus) Difference of pitch between two tones Intervallo, adj [1 intērvālīk, 2 intērvālīk] Prec & -ic Of, pertaining to, forming, existing in, an interval Intervene, vb intrans [1 intērvēn, 2 intērvēn] fr Lat intērvēn-(ire), 'to come between, come upon, interrupt, to happen, occur, during other things, to prevent, hinder, to interfere', fr inter- & venire, 'to come' See venue 1 To come in, appear, as something irrelevant or extraneous 2 a (of events) To occur, take place, between other events Lent intervenes between Christmas and Easter, b (of things) to be placed, be situated, lie a small part of Bucks intervenes between Middlesex and Berkshire 3 a (of events, circumstances) To come, be interposed, happen, as preventive, hindering influence I will see you tomorrow, should nothing intervene, b (of persons) to interfere, make intervention, step in, take part to intervene in a dispute, 4 (law) To become a party to an action at law Intervener, n [1 intērvēnēr, 2 intērvēnēr] Prec & -er One who intervenes, esp in a lawsuit Intervient, adj [1 intērvēnēt, 2 intērvēnēt] fr Lat intērvēnēt-(em), Pres Part of intērvēnere, 'to come between, intervene' See prece Coming between, intervening, interposing Intervention, n [1 intērvēnshun, 2 intērvēnshun] fr Lat intērvēnshun-(em), 'interposition', fr intērvēn (um), P.P. type of intērvēnere, 'to come between, interpose' See intervene & -ion Act of intervening, a act of interference or interposition, b mediation Interview (I), n [1 intērvyū, 2 intērvyū] fr Fr entrevue, fr P.P. of (s)entrevoir, fr inter- & voir. A formal meeting and conversation between two persons or parties, conference, b specif, meeting between a journalist and a person upon whose conversation, opinions, habits &c he wishes to report Interview (II), vb trans, fr prece To have an interview with, specif, to meet and question (person) in order to report on his opinions Interviewer, n [1 intērvyūr, 2 intērvyūr] Prec & -er One who interviews, specif, newspaper reporter who interviews a person in order to elicit an expression of his opinions &c for publication Involve, vb trans [1 intēvōlv, 2 intēvōlv] fr inter- & Lat volvere, 'to roll' See volve To coil, roll up (two things) together, into each other Interweave, vb trans [1 intērvēw, 2 intērvēw] inter- & weave To weave, twine, wreath, together, interlace, intermingle Interwind, vb trans & intrans [1 intērvīnd, 2 intērvīnd] inter- & wind (IV) To wind together, twist into or through one another Intestacy, n [1 intēstāsī, 2 intēstāsī] See next word & -cy Fact of, result of, one's dying intestate Intestate, adj & n [1 intēstāt, 2 intēstāt] fr Lat intēstāt (us), 'having made no will', fr. in- (II) & testāt (us), P.P. type of testāre, 'to witness, to make a will' See testament 1 adj a Having made no will, esp in Phr to die intestate, b not disposed of by will an intestate estate 2 n Person who has died intestate Intestinal, adj [1 intēstīnāl, 2 intēstīnāl] See next word & -al 1 Pertaining to, situated in, the intestines 2 (rare) Internal, not foreign, domestic Intestine, n & adj [1 intēstīn, 2 intēstīn] fr Lat intēstīna, pl 'entrails', fr intēstīnus, 'inward, internal' Cp intusus, 'inward' See interior 1 n That part of the alimentary canal below the stomach, bowel, gut 2 adj (fig) Arising from, existing, within, specif (of war, strife) civil, domestic Intimacy, n [1 intīmāsī, 2 intīmāsī] See next word & -cy a The state or quality of being intimate, confidential, affectionate, intercourse, familiarity, familiar, intimate acquaintance, specif b sexual relations Intimate (I), adj [1 intīmāt, 2 intīmāt] Earlier intīme, fr Fr, present form has adj suff -ate See intimate (III) 1 Deep-seated, inward, pertaining to innermost nature one's intimate feelings 2 a Closely bound up, knit together in close physical or spiritual relation intimate friends, friendship, b private, personal intimate details, c penetrating to the essence intimate knowledge Intimate (II), n, fr prece Intimate friend.

Intimate (III), vb trans [1 intīmāt, 2 intīmāt] fr L Lat intīmāt (um), P.P. type of intīmāre, 'to bring, put, press, into, to announce, make known', fr intīm-(us), 'inmost', superl form of Lat in, adv & prep, see in (V) 1 To declare, announce, give notice 2 To hint, imply, suggest Intimately, adv [1 intīmātī, 2 intīmātī] intimately (I) & -ly In an intimate manner Intimation, n [1 intīmāshun, 2 intīmāshun] intimates (III) & -ion 1 Act of intimating 2 That which is intimated, a notification, information, b hint, suggestion Intimidate, vb trans [1 intīmīdāt, 2 intīmīdāt] fr Med Lat intīmīdāt-(um), P.P. type of intīmīdare, 'to intimidate', fr in- (I) & Lat timid-(us), 'timid' See timid & -ate a To strike fear into, scare, to terrorize, cow, b to restrain or coerce by threats or violence Intimidation, n [1 intīmīdāshun, 2 intīmīdāshun] Prec. & -ion. A act of intimidating, specif, the use of threats or violence to restrain or coerce another, b state of being intimidated Intimidator, n [1 intīmīdātūr, 2 intīmīdātūr] intimidates & -ory One who intimidates.

Intimidatory, adj [1 intīmīdātūrī, 2 intīmīdātūrī] intimidates & -ory Tending to intimidate, using threats Intimacy, n [1 intīmāsī, 2 intīmāsī] fr Lat intīm-(us), 'inmost', see intimate (II), & -ity a The state or quality of being intimate, intimacy, b privacy, seclusion Intinction, n [1 intīngkshun, 2 intīngkshun] fr Lat intīngkshun (em), see in- (I) & tingere Act of the priest at the Eucharist in dipping a Host into the consecrated wine before reception or administration Intitule, vb. trans [1 intītūl, 2 intītūl] fr O Fr intituler, fr L Lat intitulare, 'to give a name to', fr in- (I) & titulare, 'to entitle', fr titul (us), 'a name' See title To give a name to, entitle, chiefly used in P.P., and applied to an Act of Parliament Into, prep [1 intō, 2 intū] in (I) & to 1 Expressing direction of action or motion towards a point within an enclosed space or specified area, (in material and non-material sense) to put a cake into the oven; to go into the garden, to look into one's eyes, to look into one's antecedents, to inquire into a matter, to get into difficulties 2 Expressing passage, change from one state, condition, quality, arrangement &c to another to make flour into bread, to convert water into ice, to put Latin into English, a caterpillar turns into a butterfly, to harden into a mass Intold, adj [1 intōld, 2 intōld] in (II) & too & -ed Having the toes turned inwards Intolerable, adj [1 intōlērābl, 2 intōlērābl] fr Lat intōlērābil (us), 'that cannot be borne' in- (II) & tolerable Not to be borne, unendurable, unsupportable, unbearable Intolerableness, n Prec & -ness The quality of being intolerable Intolerably, adv See prece & -ly In an intolerable manner, to an intolerable degree Intolerance, n [1 intōlērāns, 2 intōlērāns] fr Lat intōlērāntia, 'impatience' in- (II) & tolerance Quality of being intolerant Intolerant, adj [1 intōlērānt, 2 intōlērānt] fr Lat intōlērānt (em), 'impatient, intolerant' in- (II) & tolerant Not able or willing to endure or consider, impatient of, beliefs, opinions, conduct &c at variance with one's own, bigoted, illiberal Intolerantly, adv Prec & -ly In an intolerant manner Intonate, vb trans [1 intōnāt, 2 intōnāt] fr Lat intōnāt (um), P.P. type of intōnāre, 'to thunder, to resound' See intone To intone Intonation, n [1 intōnāshun, 2 intōnāshun] Prec & -ion 1 The act of intoning 2 Modulation of the voice, rise and fall in pitch of the voice in speaking 3 (mus) a Production of musical tones, b opening phrase in plain song Intone, vb trans & intrans [1 intōn, 2 intōn] fr Lat intōnāre, 'to thunder, to resound, to sound', fr in- (I) & tonāre, 'to thunder, resound', fr ton-(us), 'tone' See tone 1 trans a To recite, utter (prayer &c) in musical recitative, utter with singing voice, b to give specific intonation to, enter in specified tones 2 intrans To practise intonation Intoxicant, adj & n [1 intōksikānt, 2 intōksikānt] See next word & -ant 1 adj Intoxicating 2 n Intoxicating liquor Intoxicate, vb trans [1 intōksikāt, 2 intōksikāt] fr Med. Lat intōksikāt-(um), P.P. type of intōksicare, 'to dip into or smear with poison' See in- (I) & toxica 1 To make drunk, to inebriate 2 To cause great emotional excitement in, to work on the passions of to the point at which complete self control is lost.

intoxicating, adj [1 intóksikátung, 2 intóksikétiŋ], fr Pres Part of preb Tending to intoxicate intoxication, n [1 intóksikášun, 2 intóksikéŋ] intoxicate & -ion. The act of intoxicating, state of being intoxicated.

intra-, pref representing Lat. intrā, 'within, on the inside, inwardly', contracted fr inērā*, fr inter (us), 'inner'. See interior & inter- (II). The pref is used chiefly in scientific words, e.g. intracardiac, within the heart, intracellular, inside the cells of a body, intraglandular, deposited inside a gland &c intractability, n [1 intraktabiliti, 2 intraktábliti] See next word & -ity. Quality of being intractable intractable, adj [1 intraktábl, 2 intraktábliti], fr Lat. intractābilis (us), 'unmanageable', in- (II) & tractable a (of living beings, character) Not capable of being controlled, not docile, refractory, b (of inanimate things) Difficult to deal with, unmanageable, hard, awkward, to manipulate, not amenable to treatment.

intractableness, n. Pref & -ness. The quality of being intractable intractably, adv. See pre & -ly. In an intractable manner intrados, n [1 intrádos, 2 intréidos] Fr, fr intra- & dos, 'back', fr Lat. dorsum, 'back'. See dorsal (arohit). The lower curve or interior of an arch intramural, adj [1 intramúral, 2 intramýral] intra- & mural. Within the walls of a city, building &c, specif. intramural burial, within the walls of, inside, a church intransigent, adj & n [1 intránshjént, intránshjént, 2 intránshjént, intránshjént], fr Fr intransigent, fr Span intransigente, political revolutionary party refusing compromise, fr in- (II) & Lat. transigere (em), Pres Part of transigere, 'to transact, pierce through, to carry through, accomplish, settle, to come to an agreement, understanding', fr trans- & agere, 'to set, do, perform'. See agent & act 1 adj. Refusing to compromise, or come to an understanding, irreconcilable 2 n. Intransigent person intransitive, adj & n. [1 intránshjív, intránshjív, 2 intránshjív, intránshjív], fr Lat. intransitivus (us), 'intransitive' in- (II) & transitive (gram) 1 adj. Not governing a direct object 2 n. Intransitive verb intransitively, adv. Pref & -ly. As an intransitive verb intransit, n [1 intránt, 2 intrént], fr Lat. intransit (em), Pres Part of transire, 'to enter'. See enter. Person who enters, esp one entering on public duty or membership of society &c intrench, vb. See entrench intrepid, adj [1 intrepíd, 2 intrepíditi], fr Lat. intrepidus (us), 'unshaken, undaunted', fr in- (II) & trepidus, 'restless, agitated, alarmed'. See trepidation. Not to be frightened, brave, dauntless, fearless intrepidity, n [1 intrepíditi, 2 intrepíditi] Pref & -ity. Quality of being intrepid, courage, fearlessness intrepidly, adv [1 intrepíditi, 2 intrepíditi] See pre & -ly. In an intrepid manner intricacy, n [1 intrikási, 2 intrikási] See next word & -cy 1 Quality of being intricate 2 Something that is intricate, convolution, complication intricate, adj [1 intrikási, 2 intrikási], fr Lat. intricatus (um), PP type of intricare, 'to entangle, perplex', fr in- (I) & tricare (oe), 'wiles, tricks, hindrances', cogn w Lat. torquere, 'to twist'. See torque, torture. Difficult to follow, involved, entangled, perplexing, complicated the intricate windings of a path, an intricate pattern, plot intricate directions Intricately, adv. Pref & -ly. In an intricate manner intrig(u)ant, n, Fr, hardly naturalized in Engl [1 intrégáun, 2 étrigá] Pres Part of intriguer. See intrigue (I). Person given to intrigue intrig(u)ante, n [1 intrégáun, 2 étrigá] Fr, fem form of preo Woman given to intrigue intrigue (I), vb intrans [1 intrég, 2 intrég], fr Fr intriguer, 'to intrigue', fr Lat. intricare, 'to entangle, embarrass'. See intricate

1 To plot, scheme, have underhand dealings 2 To engage in an illicit love affair, to have a liaison [Note: The trans use, in sense of 'to puzzle, attract, fascinate, mystify' &c, as, his curious character has intrigued many biographers, a most intriguing piece of news &c, is a modern journalistic usage, taken from the French] intrigue (II), n, Fr, fr Ital intrigo, fr intrigare, 'to intrigue', fr Lat. intricare, 'to entangle, embarrass'. See intricate 1 Secret, underhand, method or plot 2 Illicit love affair, liaison intrinsac, adj [1 intrínasik, 2 intrínasik], fr Fr intrinsèque, fr L Lat. intrinsecus (us), 'inward', fr Lat. intrinsecus (adv), 'on the inside, inwardly', fr intrin*, op intra-, & secus, 'according to, following', fr base of sequi, 'to follow'. See sequela. Pertaining to the real nature of a thing, inherent, essential, not dependent on outer circumstances in intrinsic qualities, worth, value &c intrinsically, adv [1 intrínasikali, 2 intrínasikali] Pref & -al & -ly. In an intrinsic manner intro-, pref representing Lat. intrō (fr interō*, see interior), 'to the inside', e.g. introgression, 'entrance', introflexion, 'a bending inward', introgressive, 'driving inward' introduce, vb trans [1 introdú, 2 introdú], fr Lat. introducere (ere), 'to lead or bring in, to introduce a person or subject, to institute, originate', fr intro- & ducere, 'to lead'. See duct 1 To put, place, in, or within, to insert to introduce a tube into a wound 2 a To bring into a given place or position to introduce a touch of colour into a room, a romantic situation into a novel, b to impart to introduce an ocermonious spirit into a discussion 3 To bring into use, give currency to, inaugurate to introduce a new method, an improvement, a strange custom 4 a To make known to, bring to the notice of, make acquainted with, present to formally let me introduce my brother (to you), b to give experience of, initiate unto to introduce a person to a strange mode of life, into a whirl of gaiety 5 To lead, conduct, usher, in, present, announce to introduce a person into an anteroom, to introduce a person into a company 6 a To bring forward, present formally for consideration to introduce a bill into Parliament, b to bring up, bring before, raise, moot to introduce a subject of conversation introduction, n [1 introdúkashun, 2 introdúkshun], fr Lat. introductionem (em), 'introduction', fr introducere (um), fr introducere. See introduce & -ion 1 Act or process of introducing, state of being introduced, a insertion the rapid introduction of a probe into a wound, b bringing into use or currency the introduction of a new fashion, c formal presentation of one person to another 2 a Something that leads up to, introduces, prepares the way for, something else, specif. b preliminary statement, section in book &c, defining or explaining subject &c 3 Elementary text book or treatise introductory, adj [1 introdúkshun, 2 introdúkshun], fr Lat. introductionem (us), 'introductory', fr introducere (um), fr introducere. See pre & -ory. Serving as an introduction, preliminary introit, n [1 intróit, 2 intróit], fr Fr introit, fr Lat. introitus, 'entrance', fr introitus (um), PP type of introire, 'to enter', fr intro- & ire, 'to go', q v under itinerate. Hymn &c, sung as the priest goes up to the altar to celebrate Mass intromission, n [1 intromíshun, 2 intromíshun], fr Lat. intromissio (um), PP type of intromittere, 'to send or let in' intro- & mission. The act of intromitting, state of being intromitted intromit, vb trans [1 intromít, 2 intromít], fr Lat. intromitt-ere, 'to send or let in', fr intro- & mittere, 'to send'. See mission 1 To allow to enter, let in, admit 2 To put or place in, insert intromittent, adj [1 intromítent, 2 intromítent], fr Lat. intromittent-em, Pres Part of intromittere, 'to send or let in'. See pre & Admitting, conveying inward introspect, vb intrans [1 introspékt, 2 introspékt], fr Lat. introspect (um), PP type of introspicere, 'to look into, observe closely', fr intro- & specere, 'to look', q v under species. To practise introspection introspection, n [1 introspéshun, 2 introspéshun] Pref & -ion. Observation, analysis, of, dwelling upon, one's own thoughts and feelings, self analysis, self examination introspectionist, n [1 introspekshuníst, 2 introspekshuníst] Pref & -ist. One who practises introspection introspective, adj [1 introspéktiv, 2 introspéktiv] introspect & -ive. Of, pertaining to, characterized by, based on, dealing with, introspection introspectively, adv. Pref & -ly. In an introspective manner, by means of introspection introspectiveness, n. See pre & -ness. Quality of being introspective, introspection introversible, adj [1 introvérshíbl, 2 introvérshíbl], fr intro- & Lat. vers (um), PP type of vertere, 'to turn'. See version & -ible. Capable of being introverted introversión, n [1 introvérshun, 2 introvérshun] intro- & version. Act of introverting, state of being introverted introvertive, adj [1 introvérshí, 2 introvérshí], fr intro- & Lat. vers (um), PP type of vertere, 'to turn'. See version & -ive. Tending to introvert, taking an inward direction introvert (I), vb trans [1 introvért, 2 introvért] intro- & Lat. vert (ere), 'to turn'. See pre 1 To direct inwards, cause to take an inward direction to introvert the thoughts 2 (zool) To draw (organ) inwards upon itself introvert (II), n [1 introvért, 2 introvért], fr pre Person who is naturally and habitually disposed to mental, psychological, introversion or introspection, as distinguished from extrovert introvertive, adj [1 introvértiv, 2 introvértiv] introvert (I) & -ive. Introvertive intrude, vb trans & intrans [1 intród, 2 intród], fr Lat. intrudere (ere), 'to thrust in', fr in- (I) & trudere, 'to thrust, push', cogn w O E þrētan, 'to oppress, threaten'. See strut (I), thrust, & threat, op O Slav truditi, 'distress'. A trans 1 a To thrust, force, push in, specif. b (geol.) to force into another series or stratum intruded rocks 2 To thrust, force, introduce, without invitation or permission to intrude oneself, one's views, upon a person B intrans. To come into, enter, join a company, without leave, invitation, or welcome I hope I am not intruding intruder, n [1 intród, 2 intród] Pref & -er. One who intrudes, one who pushes himself in where he is not invited or desired.

intrusion, n [1 intródshun, 2 intródshun], fr Lat. intrusio (um), PP type of intrudere, 'to thrust in'. See pre & -ion 1 The act of intruding, state of being intruded the intrusion of one's opinions upon another 2 The act of entering a place, forcing oneself upon a person &c, without leave or welcome an intrusion upon one's privacy 3 (geol) The forcing of masses of melted rock between strata or beds of different rock.

intrusive, adj [1 intródshí, 2 intródshí], fr Lat. intrusus (um), PP type of intrudere, 'to thrust in'. See intrude & -ive. Intruding, tending to intrude, given to intrusion.

intrusively, adv. Preo & -ly In an intrusive manner intrusiveness, n See preo & -ness The quality of being intrusive intubate, vb trans [1 intūtāt, 2 intūbest], fr in- (I) & Lat tub (us), 'a pipe, tube' See tube & -ate (med) To insert a tube into (a wound, passage of the body) intuit, vb trans & intrans [1 intūt, 2 intūst], fr Lat intūt(-um), PP type of intūsi, 'to look at, to regard, consider', fr in- (I) & tūsi, 'to look at, watch'. See tuition & tutor (rare) 1 trans To know by intuition 2 intrans To acquire knowledge by intuition intuition, n [1 intūtishun, 2 intūtsen], fr Fr, fr Med Lat intūtīō(-em), 'intuition'. Preo & -ion A faculty of the mind whereby there is immediate apprehension or cognition without the process of conscious reasoning, instinct, flair, b knowledge derived in this manner intutional, adj [1 intūtishunal, 2 intūtsenal], Preo & -al Pertaining to, derived from, of the nature of, intuition intuitionism, n [1 intūtishunelism, 2 intūtsenal-ism] Preo & -ism Philosophical doctrine that a knowledge of truth and of moral distinctions is derived by intuition intuitionalist, n [1 intūtishunalist, 2 intūtsenalist] intuitionist & -ist A believer in intuitionism intuitionism, n [1 intūtishunizm, 2 intūtsenal-izm] intuition & -ism Doctrine that the reality of perceived objects is known by intuition intuitionist, n [1 intūtishunist, 2 intūtsenalist] intuition & -ist A believer in intuitionism intuitive, adj [1 intūtīv, 2 intūtsīv] intuit & -ive Of, pertaining to, perceived or known by, intuition intuitively, adv Preo & -ly In an intuitive manner, by intuition intuitiveness, n See preo & -ness Quality of being intuitive intuitivism, n [1 intūtīvizm, 2 intūtsīv-izm] intuitive & -ism Intuitionism intuitivist, n [1 intūtīvist, 2 intūtsīvist] intuitive & -ist A believer in intuitivism intumesce, n [1 intūmsēns, 2 intūmsēns] See next word & -ce. 1 Process of swelling, state of being swollen 2 A swelling intumescent, adj [1 intūmsēsnt, 2 intūmsēsnt], fr Lat intūmsēsnt(-em), Preo Part of intumescere, 'to swell up', fr in- (I) & tumescere, 'to swell'. See tumescence & tumid Swelling up, becoming inflated intussusception, n [1 intūsūsēpsion, 2 intūsūsēpsion], fr Lat intūs, 'within' (fr in- (V) & abl suff -tū(-s) & susception(-em), 'a taking in hand, undertaking, acceptance', fr suscept(-um), PP type of suscipere, 'to support, to undertake, to take, receive'. See susceptible & -ion 1 The resection of foreign matter, i.e. food, by an organism, and conversion of it into tissue 2 Introversion of part of intestine into adjacent part 3 (fig) Reception, taking in, assimilation, of ideas &c inulin, n [1 inūlin, 2 inūlin], fr Lat inula, see elecampane, & -in (olom) A starch-like substance obtained from the root of Inula (elecampane) and other plants, b (med) a decoction of the extract of Inula used for various purposes, also a lactulose sugar used in cases of diabetes unction, n [1 inūngshun, 2 inūngshon], fr Lat unctiō(-em), 'anointing' in- (I) & unction, & ep ointment The act of anointing, state of being anointed, rubbing of ointment, oil &c into the skin inundate, vb trans [1 inundāt, 2 inundest], fr Lat inundāt(-um), PP type of inundāre, 'to overflow, flood', fr in- (I) & undāre, 'to rise in waves, surge, swell', fr undā, 'a wave'. See undulate 1. (of water) To cover by overflowing, to flood, swamp, deluge. 2 (fig) To fill to abundance, overwhelm a place inundated with visitors, inundated with invitations, correspondence &c inundation, n [1 inundāshun, 2 inundēsion], fr Lat inundātiō(-em), 'overflowing, inundation' Preo & -ion 1 A the act of inundating, b state of being inundated 2 A flood, deluge, overflow, influx (Also fig) inurbane, adj [1 inērbān, 2 inārbēm], fr Lat inurbān(-us), 'rustic, unpolished, unmannerly' in- (II) & urbāne (rare) Reverse of urbane, unpolished, discourteous, unmannerly, inelegant, lacking grace inurbanity, n [1 inērbāniti, 2 inārbēniti]

Preo & -ity (rare) Quality of being inurbane.

inure, enure, vb trans & intrans [1 inūr, 2 inūrē], fr in- (I) & obs urē, 'use, work', fr O Fr enure, fr Lat oporē, 'work'. See opus 1 trans To accustom, give experience, harden, habituate to be inured to exposure, cold, heat &c 2 intrans (law) To take effect, become operative, come into use, serve for the use or benefit of inurement, n [1 inūrmēt, 2 inūrēmēt] Preo & -ment The act or process of inuring, state of being inured.

inurn, vb trans [1 inūrā, 2 inūn] in- (I) & urn To enclose, place, in a cinerary urn inutile, adj [1 inūtīl, 2 inūtīl], fr Lat inūtīl(-is), 'useless', fr in- (II) & ūtīl, 'useful' See utility Useless, unprofitable inutility, n [1 inūtīliti, 2 inūtīliti], fr Lat inūtīliti(-em), 'uselessness' in- (II) & utility. Quality of being inutile, uselessness invade, vb trans [1 invād, 2 invēd], fr Lat invād(-ere), 'to go into, enter upon, to fall upon, make an attack on', fr in- (I) & vādēre, 'to go, stop, move', fr vādum, 'shoal, ford', ooga w wade 1 a (of hostile army, enemy &c) To enter with hostile intent, to overrun, make an incursion into, b (fig) to rush into, overwhelm, crowd into, throng my house was invaded by a crowd of visitors 2 (fig) a To assail, attack, take possession of terror invaded our minds, b to encroach upon, infringe to invade another's rights invader, n [1 invādēr, 2 invēdēr] Preo & -er One who, that which, invades, assailant, intruder invaginate, vb trans [1 invājīnāt, 2 invēdīnēt], fr in- (I.) & vagina & -ate 1 To put into, receive into, a sheath 2 To withdraw (part of tube) into itself, introvert invagination, n [1 invājīnāshun, 2 invēdīnēsion] Preo & -ion A act of invaginating, b state of being invaginated invalid (I), adj & n, fr Fr invālide, fr Lat invālid(-us), 'weak, infirm, inefficient, inadequate'. in- (II) & vālid 1 adj [1 invalid, 2 invēlid] A disabled by illness, weak, infirm, suffering from ill-health he supports an invalid mother, b suitable for illness or sick person an invalid diet, invalid chair &c 2 n [1 invalid, 2 invēlid] A sick person, one permanently or temporarily using a resort of invalids invalid (II), vb trans [1 invalidē, 2 invēlidē], fr Preo n To make into an invalid, disable by illness, speak b to consider, treat, as an invalid, put on sick-list, remove from active service on account of ill-health (esp of soldier or sailor) to be invalidated home, invalided out of the army invalid (III), adj [1 invalid, 2 invēlid], fr Lat invalid(-us), 'weak, infirm, inadequate' See invalid (I) a Without value, weight, effect, not valid invalid arguments &c, b without legal force or soundness invalid claims, to declare a marriage invalid invalidate, vb trans [1 invalidāt, 2 invēlidēt] Preo & -ate To render invalid, deprive of legal force, to deprive of weight, cogency to invalidate a claim &c invalidation, n [1 invalidāshun, 2 invēlidēsion] Preo & -ion Act of invalidating, state of being invalidated.

invalidhood, n [1 invalid-hood, 2 invēlid-hud] invalid (I) & -hood State of being an invalid invalidism, n [1 invalidism, 2 invēlidism], invalid (I) & -ism Invalidhood invalidity, n [1 invaliditi, 2 invēliditi] in- (II) & -ity 1 Lack of validity, of legal or binding force 2 (rare) Infirmary, invalidism invalidly, adv [1 invālidh, 2 invēlidh] invalid (III) & -ly Without validity invaluable, adj [1 invālūbāl, 2 invēlūvābāl] in- (II) & valuable Beyond estimation, priceless, of the greatest value invar, n [1 invār, 2 invērs], fr invariable An alloy of steel and nickel, used for making scientific instruments &c, as not liable to expand or shrink under changes of temperature invariability, n [1 invāriābiliti, 2 invērsābiliti] in- (II) & variability State or quality of being invariable invariable, adj & n [1 invārīābl, 2 invērsīābl] in- (II) & variable 1 adj A Not capable of being varied, unchangeable, unalterable an invariable rule, b not varying, unchanging, remaining constant, o (math) constant, fixed. 2 n An invariable thing, substance, property invariableness, n Preo & -ness Invariability invariably, adv See preo & -ly A Uniformly, regularly, without change or exception, always, b unalterably, without liability to change invasion, n [1 invāshun, 2 invēshon], fr Lat invāsiō(-em), 'attack', fr invāsi (um), PP type of invādere, 'to go into, to fall upon'. See invado & -ion Act of invading, state of being invaded Julius Caesar's invasion of Britain, invasion, violation, encroachment an invasion of one's privacy, prerogatives &c invasive, adj [1 invāziv, 2 invēziv] See preo & -ive Pertaining to, of the nature of, invasion, encroaching inveective, n [1 invēktīv, 2 invēktīv], fr Med Lat invectīve (oratio), fr Lat invectīvus, 'reproachful, abusive', fr invect (um), PP type of invecere, 'to carry or bring in, to enter, penetrate, to attack, assail, to inveigh against'. See next word & -ive n Abusive speech or writing, vituperation, wordy onslaught or attack As was a master of invective but a shallow reasoner, invective may score a cheap success, b (usually in pl) abusive words, abuse a stream of coarse invectives inveigh, vb intrans [1 invē, 2 invē], fr Lat invekt, pass of invecere, 'to carry, bring, into, to enter, penetrate, to fall upon, assail, to attack with words', fr in- (I) & vehere, 'to carry'. See vehicle & way. (followed by against) To attack violently in words, to censure vehemently; utter invective against inveigle, vb trans [1 invēgl, 2 invēgl], fr in- (I) & O Fr arugler, Mod Fr arugler, 'to blind, delude', fr Lat ab- & oculus, 'eye'. See ocular. To persuade by deceptive or underhand means, delude, lure, trick into, entice, seduce to inveigle a person into a place, into doing something inveiglement, n [1 invēglment, 2 invēglment] Preo & -ment Act of inveigling; state of being inveigled invent, vb trans [1 invēnt, 2 invēnt], fr Lat invent(-um), 'a device, contrivance', PP type of invenire, 'to find, come upon, meet with, to find out, discover, to contrive, devise, invent', fr in- (I) & venire, 'to come'. See venue 1 To contrive, discover use or form of, by thought or imagination, to originate, construct or use for the first time to invent a new method, new form of verb, to invent the steam engine, telephone &c 2 To fabricate, concoct, make up to invent an excuse, explanation &c invention, n. [1 invenšun, 2 invenʃən], fr Lat invenitō (em), 'invention', fr invent- (um), P.P. type of inventire, 'to find, to find out, discover, to devise, invent'. See preo & -ion. 1 The act of inventing, state of being invented the invention of the telescope. 2 Something that is invented, now method & new mechanical device or contrivance, a discovery a most useful invention has just been patented. 3 Fabrication, concoction, fiction, fictitious statement, narrative & the report was an invention of the sensational newspapers. 4 Capacity for inventing, inventiveness, creative faculty necessarily is the mother of invention. 5 The act of finding, fact of being found, discovery, only in Phr Intention of the Cross, festival (May 3rd) commemorating the discovery of the True Cross by St Helena in 326.

inventive, adj. [1 invenʃiv, 2 invenʃiv] invent & -ive Pertaining to invention, given to, capable of, invention, origination.

inventively, adv. Preo & -ly In an inventive manner.

inventiveness, n. See preo & -ness Quality of being inventive.

inventor, n. [1 invenʃər, 2 invenʃə] invent & -or One who invents, discoverer of new methods, or of new mechanical contrivances.

inventory (I), n. [1 invenʃəri, 2 invenʃ(ə)rɪ], fr Med Lat inventor (um) See invent & -ory 1 Detailed list, descriptive enumeration, catalogue an inventory of household furniture. 2 Articles named in an inventory, stock.

inventory (II), vb trans, fr preo To make an inventory of.

inveracity, n. [1 inverəstɪ, 2 inverəstɪ] in- (II) & veracity Lack of veracity, untruthfulness, op unveracious.

inverness, n. [1 inverəs, 2 inverəs], fr name of town in Scotland Also inverness cloak, coat, cape, kind of long coat or ulster with wide, sometimes removable, cape.

inverse, adj. [1 invers, 2 invers] & n. [1 invers, 2 invers], fr Lat invers (um), P.P. type of invertere, 'to turn upside down, to turn up, turn over, to transpose, change, pervert', fr in- (I) & vertere, 'to turn'. See version. 1 adj Opposed, reversed, contrary in inverse order of merit, inverse ratio, proportion, of two quantities, one of which increases in proportion to decrease in the other. 2 n. a State of being inverted, b thing that is direct opposite of another, that has contrary effect evil is the inverse of good.

inversely, adv. [1 inversli, 2 inversli] Preo & -ly In inverse order or manner, contrarily, in inverse ratio.

inversion, n. [1 inverʃən, 2 inverʃən], fr Lat inversio (em), 'inversion, transposition'. See inverse & -ion. 1 The act of turning upside-down, state of being upside down. 2 The act of reversing, transposing, changing, natural order of anything, state of being reversed, transposed, esp (gram) reversal of normal order of words. 3 (mus, of intervals) Transference of lower note of interval to that an octave above.

inversive, adj. [1 inversiv, 2 inversiv] inverse & -ive Pertaining to, causing, inversion.

invert (I), vb trans [1 inverʃ, 2 inverʃ], fr Lat invertere, 'to turn upside down, turn about, turn up, to transpose, change, reverse', fr in- (I) & vertere, 'to turn'. See version. 1 To turn upside down. 2 To change, transpose, reverse the order or position of, to put into reverse, contrary, order or relation. 3 (mus) To change relation of notes in (interval) by transferring lower note to position an octave higher. 4 (phon) To turn the point (of tongue) upwards and backwards, inverted consonant, one uttered with this position of the tongue.

invert (II), n. [1 inverʃ, 2 inverʃ] fr preo. 1 Inverted arch, vault, esp that at bottom of sewer. 2 Person with inverted or reversed sexual disposition. 3 (attrib) Inverted, specif, invert sugar, cane sugar rendered saccharose by acid or yeast.

invertebrate, adj & n, fr in- (II) & vertebrata 1 adj [1 inverʃibrat, 2 inverʃibrat] a (zool) Having no backbone or spinal column, b (fig, of person, character &c) without firmness, weak, irresolute. 2 n [1 inverʃibrat, 2 inverʃibros] Invertebrate animal.

inverted, adj [1 inverʃəd, 2 inverʃəd], fr P.P. of invert (I). 1 a Turned upside down, reversed, transposed, b (phon) see invert (I), 4.

invest, vb trans [1 invest, 2 invest], fr Lat invest (ire), 'to clothe, cover', fr in- (I) & vestire, 'to clothe'. See vest (II). 1 a To put a covering on, clothe, dress, b specif, to array, decorate, with dress, insignia, badge &c, symbolical of office, rank, honour. 2 To endue, clothe, surround (with qualities &c) a person invested with an air of dignity, mystery &c. 3 To lay siege to, surround, besiege. 4 To use, lay out, money, in such a way as to obtain a return upon it. Invest in, a to spend money in the purchase of, put money into a business, stocks &c, b (colloq) to spend money on, buy.

investigate, vb trans [1 investigat, 2 investigat], fr Lat investigare (um), P.P. type of investigare, 'to track, trace out, to search, examine, inquire into', fr in- (I) & vestigare, 'to track out, search after', fr vestig (um), 'footprint, track'. See vestige. To inquire into, make careful search into, examine systematically, research into.

investigation, n. [1 investigəʃən, 2 investigəʃən], fr Lat investigatio (em), 'a searching, inquiring into'. Preo & -ion. a Act of investigating, inquiry, examination, research, b treatise consisting of statement of results of research.

investigative, adj [1 investigativ, 2 investigativ] investigate & -ive Pertaining to, concerned with, investigation.

investigatory, adj [1 investigatɔri, 2 investigatɔri] investigate & -ory Investigative.

investiture, n. [1 investitʃər, 2 investitʃər], fr Med Lat investitura, fr Lat investire (um), P.P. type of investire, 'to clothe'. See invest & -ure 1 Process, formal ceremony, of investing a person with an office, benefice &c, or with symbol, badge, insignia, of an office, order, benefice &c. 2 State of being invested, endued with (a quality &c).

investment, n. [1 investmənt, 2 investmənt] invest & -ment 1 a The act of investing money, b (of money) state of being invested. 2 a Money that is invested, b property, stocks &c, in which money is invested a good investment, one making a profitable return. 3 The act of laying siege to, state of being besieged. 4 a Clothing, array, covering, b formal vesting, investiture.

inveteracy, n. [1 inveterəsɪ, 2 inveterəsɪ] inveterate & -cy The state or quality of being inveterate.

inveterate, adj [1 inveterat, 2 inveterat], fr Lat inveterat (us), 'preserved for a long time, of long standing, deep seated', fr P.P. of inveterare, 'to give age to, render old, to grow old, endure', fr in- (I) & eter, stem of vetus, 'old'. See veteran 1 (rare) Ancient, long established an inveterate feud, enmity. 2 (of feeling, disease &c) Deeply rooted, persistent, obstinate. 3 (of persons) Long confirmed, and persisting, in a habit &c, thorough-paced, out-and-out an inveterate liar, humbug, smoker, gambler &c.

inveterately, adv. Preo & -ly In an inveterate manner.

invidious, adj [1 invidiəs, 2 invidiəs], fr Lat invidios (us), 'envious, envious', fr invidia, 'envy', & -ous, op invidere, 'to look askance at, to envy', fr in- (I) & videre, 'to see'. See vision, op envy (of conduct, speech, quality &c) a Arousing hostile feelings, giving offence, provoking ill will, by ignominy, b falsely but undecisively and unjustly discriminating, and hence tending to create ill will invidious distinctions.

invidiously, adv. Preo & -ly In an invidious manner.

invidiousness, n. See preo & -ness Quality of being invidious.

invigilate, vb intrans [1 invigilat, 2 invigilat], fr Lat invigilare (um), P.P. type of invigilare, 'to be watchful, to watch over', fr in- (I) & vigilare, 'to watch over'. See vigil. To watch over, to keep order, secure good and honest behaviour among, candidates during a written examination.

invigilation, n. [1 invigiləʃən, 2 invigiləʃən] Preo & -ion Act or process of invigilating.

invigilator, n. [1 invigilətɔr, 2 invigilətɔr] See preo & -or One who invigilates at an examination.

invigorate, vb trans [1 invigorat, 2 invigorat], fr in- (I) & Lat igor, 'strength'. See vigour & -ate To make strong and vigorous, to brace, refresh, physically or mentally, to strengthen, animate, encourage.

invigorating, adj [1 invigoratɪŋ, 2 invigoratɪŋ], fr Pres Part of preo Tending to invigorate, bracing, stimulating, cheering.

invigorative, adj [1 invigorativ, 2 invigorativ] See preo & -ive Tending to invigorate, stimulating, refreshing.

invincibility, n. [1 invinsibiliti, 2 invinsibiliti], fr Lat invincibilis (us), 'unconquerable'. See next word & -ity Quality of being invincible.

invincible, adj & n [1 invinsibl, 2 invinsibl], fr Lat invincibilis (us), 'unconquerable'. in- (II) & vincibilis 1 adj Not capable of being overcome, unconquerable an invincible army, insuperable invincible opposition, Phr invincible ignorance, that which cannot be overcome by human powers, and for which the possessor cannot be held responsible. 2 n (cap) Name taken by a rebel Irish association in the eighth of 19th cent.

invincibly, adv. Preo & -ly In an invincible manner, to a degree that renders invincible.

inviolability, n. [1 invioleabiliti, 2 invioleabiliti], fr Lat inviolabilis (us), 'indestructible, invulnerable, inviolable'. See next word & -ity Quality, state, of being inviolable.

invulnerable, adj [1 invioleabl, 2 invioleabl], fr Lat invulnerabilis (us), 'invulnerable, inviolable, hallowed'. in- (II) & violabile 1 Not violated, unprofaned, kept free from physical or moral damage. 2 Not to be, not permitted to be, violated or profaned, not susceptible of violation.

invulnerably, adv. Preo & -ly In an invulnerable manner.

inviolacy, n. [1 inviolesi, 2 inviolesi] See next word & -acy State or quality of being inviolate.

involute, adj [1 involat, 2 involat], fr Lat involut (us), 'unhurt, inviolate', fr in- (II) & volat (um), P.P. type of violare, 'to violate'. See violate. Not violated, strictly preserved, kept sacred, unbroken, uninjured to keep one's faith, a promise, a rule &c involute.

involutely, adv. Preo & -ly In an involute manner.

involuteness, n. See preo & -ness State or quality of being involute.

invisibility, n. [1 invizibiliti, 2 invizibiliti], fr L Lat invisibilis (em), 'invisibility', fr invisibilis (us), 'invisible'. Next word & -ity State or quality of being invisible.

invisible (I), adj [1 invizibl, 2 invizibl], fr Lat invisibilis (us), 'invisible, unseen'. in- (II) & visibilis 1 Not capable of being seen, on account of remoteness, lack of size, external conditions, insubstantiality &c many stars are invisible without a telescope, an invisible particle, invisible in the dark, an invisible presence, Phr invisible ink, one which does not show up until heated. 2 Re fusing to show oneself, remaining withdrawn from society he remains invisible when out of sight invisible (II), n, fr prec The invisible, the unseen world invisibleness, n invisible (I) & -ness State or quality of being invisible, invisibility invisibly, adv See prec & -ly In an invisible manner, so as to be invisible invitation, n [1 invitashun, 2 invitashun], fr Lat invitatio(-em), 'an invitation, challenge, invitation' invite & -ation 1 The act of inviting 2 Message, request, which invites, specul, message offering hospitality, requesting a visit, or the acceptance of an honour or favour &c invitatory, adj [1 invitatori, 2 invitatori], fr Lat invitatio(-um), P P type of invitare, 'to invite' Next word & -ory Expressing, containing, an invitation invite vb trans [1 invit, 2 invit], fr Lat invit(-are), 'to invite, to entertain, to challenge, to attract' Etymologies suggested appear to be quite uncertain 1 a To make a polite request to (person) to be present at a place, ceremony, function, social gathering &c to invite a person to one's house, to dinner &c, b to request, urge, to do something to invite one to sing, to be seated, I invite you to consider 2 To allure, attract 'And every scene invites the ravished eye' 3 a To ask for, make a request for, solicit to invite questions, b to induce, court, encourage his manner does not invite confidences 4 To bring upon, lay open to, provoke, call for to invite attack inviting, adj [1 inviting, 2 inviting], fr Pres Part of prec Tempting, attractive, alluring invitingly, adv Prec & -ly In an inviting manner, alluringly, temptingly invocation, n [1 invokashun, 2 invokashun], fr Lat invocatio(-em), 'invocation' See invoke & -ation 1 Act of invoking, specifying, calling upon, prayer to, God, the saints, a deity, the Muses &c for help, inspiration &c 2 Words, prayer, passage in poem &c expressing invocation invocatory, adj [1 invokatori, 2 invokatori], fr Lat invocatio(-um), P P type of invocare, 'to invoke' See prec & -ory Of, pertaining to, containing, expressing, invocation invoice, n & vb trans [1 invoy, 2 invoy], fr Lat invoy, pl of invoy, 'something sent', fr O Fr envoy See envoy, voyage 1 n List of goods dispatched, with details of price &c 2 vb To make an invoice of (goods &c) invoke, vb trans [1 invok, 2 invok], fr Fr invoker, fr Lat invocare, 'to invoke, call upon, appeal to', fr in- (I) & vocare, 'to call'. See vocal & vocation 1 To call upon, address, make supplication to, for help, protection, or as witness &c to invoke the gods 2 To appeal to, summon, demand support from to invoke the power of the law 3 To ask for earnestly or solemnly, implore, demand insistently to invoke aid, protection, vengeance &c 4 To summon up, conjure up (spirits &c) involute, involutum, n [1 involut, 2 involut], fr Lat involutum, 'wrapper, covering, case, envelope', fr in- (I) & volvere, 'to roll up'. See involve 1 (chiefly anat) Covering, case, membranous envelope 2 (bot) Group of bracts surrounding base of flower or cluster of flowers involutarily, adv [1 involutarily, 2 involutarily], fr Lat involutarius(-us), 'involutary' involutary & -ly In an involutory manner, without deliberate exercise of the will involutariness, n [1 involutariness, 2 involutariness], fr Lat involutarius(-us), 'involutary' involutary & -ness State or quality of being involutory involutary, adj [1 involutary, 2 involutary], fr Lat involutarius(-us), 'involutary' involutary & -ly In an involutory manner, without deliberate exercise of the will will, unintentional, automatic, instinctive, b not done willingly, unwished for involute, adj [1 involut, 2 involut], fr Lat involutum(-um), P P type of involvere, 'to roll upon, to roll up, wrap up, unfold, envelop' See next word 1 Intricate, involved, complicated 2 (bot) Having the edges rolled inwards 3 (zool) Arranged in a spiral curve involution, n [1 involutashun, 2 involutashun], fr Lat involutio(-em), 'a rolling up', fr in- (I) & volvere, 'to roll up' See next word & -ion 1 The act of involving, state of being involved 2 Something that is involute or involved, a inward curve or curl, b complication, intricacy, entanglement 3 (math) Act of raising a quantity to any given power involve, vb trans [1 involv, 2 involv], fr Lat involvere(-ere), 'to wrap or roll up, to cover, unfold, envelop, surround, entangle', fr in- (I) & volvere, 'to roll' See volute 1 (archaic and rare) To wrap up, roll up, envelop, enfold 'And Night with sable Clouds involves the Main' (Dryden, 'Æneid', iii 227) 2 a To surround, entangle in, mix up with, so as to hamper movement to get involved with one's fishing-line, b (fig) to surround, entangle with, draw into, overwhelm &c involved in intrigues, debt, disaster 3 To imply, have as necessary or logical consequence, to entail lavish hospitality involves great expense on the giver, to accept the appointment would involve living in London involved, adj [1 involved, 2 involved], fr P P of prec 1 (of thought and expression) Complicated, lacking in clearness, obscure, confused, muddled. 2 (of pecuniary affairs) Embarrassed involvement, n [1 involvement, 2 involvement], fr Lat involvementum(-um), P P type of involvere, 'to involve' 1 The act of involving, state of being involved 2 That in which one is involved, embarrassment, perplexity, difficulty invulnerability, n [1 invulnerability, 2 invulnerability], fr Lat invulnerabilis(-is), 'invulnerable' See next word & -ity Quality of being invulnerable invulnerable, adj [1 invulnerable, 2 invulnerable], fr Lat invulnerabilis(-is), 'invulnerable' invulnerable & -ible a Not capable of being wounded, b (fig) not liable to injury, proof against attack, unsalable invulnerably, adv Prec & -ly In an invulnerable manner inward, adj & n [1 inward, 2 inward], fr Lat inwardum(-um), P P type of inwardere, 'to go in' See in (II) & -ward 1 adj a (in both physical and non material senses) Situated within, internal, inner the inward parts, organs, inward thoughts, b towards the inside an inward curve; c not outward or material, mental, spiritual inward nature 2 n (colloq, gen) [1 inward, 2 inward] Entrails, bowels, the guts a pain in the inward, internal organs of animals as food I can't eat tripe nor any sort of inward inward(s), adv [1 inward(s), 2 inward(s)], fr prec a Towards the inside, b in the mind, heart, soul inwardly, adv [1 inwardly, 2 inwardly], fr Lat inwardum(-um), P P type of inwardere, 'to go in' See in (II) & -ward 1 adj a In or towards the inside, centre, interior, b so as not to have outward expression, secretly, to oneself, c in the inner being, mind, soul inwardness, n [1 inwardness, 2 inwardness], fr Lat inwardum(-um), P P type of inwardere, 'to go in' See in (II) & -ward 1 Essential, inherent character or meaning, real nature, true quality Phr the true inwardness 2 The state of being inward, spirituality inweave, vb trans [1 inweave, 2 inweave], fr Lat inweavere(-ere), 'to weave into, interweave, work in' To weave into, interweave, work in inwrought, adj [1 inwrought, 2 inwrought], fr Lat inwroughtum(-um), P P type of inwolvere, 'to weave into, interweave, work in' 1 (of pattern, design) Worked into, forming an adornment on, a fabric interwoven. 2 (of material, fabric, background) Having a design worked into or impressed upon it 3 (fig) Closely blended, interwoven iyala, n [1 iyala, 2 iyala] Native Bantu name A horned antelope or bush buck of Central Africa iodic, adj [1 iodic, 2 iodic] See iodine & -ic Of, pertaining to, containing, iodine iodic acid, n [1 iodic acid, 2 iodic acid] Compound of iodine and oxygen, formed by treating iodine with nitric acid iodide, n [1 iodide, 2 iodide] See prec & -ide (ohm) Compound of iodine with another element or radical, as iodide of potash, used medicinally, iodide of silver, in photography &c iodine, n [1 iodine, 2 iodine], fr Fr iode, fr Gk iodēs, 'like the violet', fr io (n), 'violet' (see iolite) & eidēs, 'like' (q v under -oid), fr the colour of its fumes A non metallic element widely diffused in nature but seldom in the free state, obtained from the ashes of seaweed and from the mother liquor of Chile saltpetre, used in medicine as an antiseptic, also in photography and dyeing iodism, n [1 iodism, 2 iodism] See prec & -ism Iodine poisoning iodize, vb trans [1 iodize, 2 iodize] See iodine & -ize To treat with, impregnate with, expose to fumes of, iodine iodoform, n [1 iodoform, 2 iodoform] See iodine & -form A crystalline compound of iodine used as an antiseptic iolite, n [1 iolite, 2 iolite], fr Gk io (n), 'violet' (fr ion*, etymol doubtful, cogn w violet) & -lite A blue or violet coloured mineral ion, n [1 ion, 2 ion], fr Gk ion, neut sing Pres Part of ienai, 'to go', cogn w Lat ire, 'to go', see iterate (phys) A particle of matter, moving in an electric field, either in a gas or a liquid, carrying an electric charge See electron, ionize

-ion, suffix representing Lat -io(-em), forming ns denoting state, condition, action, fr ads (union, motion), fr present stems of *vb*s (region, legion, religion), or, most commonly, fr P P stems of *vb*s, often through O Fr (mission, question, fashion, lesson, flexion, inflation, nutrition &c)

Ionian, adj & n [1 Ionian, 2 Ionian], fr Lat Ionius(-us), 'Ionian', fr Gk Ionios & -an

1 adj a Of, belonging to, Ionia, b (mus) Ionian mode, one of the six medieval, ecclesiastical modes 2 n Member of one of the chief divisions of the ancient Greeks, originally settled in Attica and the neighbourhood ionic, adj [1 ionic, 2 ionic], fr Lat, fr Gk Ionik (de), 'Ionian' See prec & -ic Of, pertaining to, originating in, Ionia, esp a ionic dialect, that spoken in Ionia, including Attica and most of the Aegean islands, b (archit) ionic order, characterized by fluted columns, and capitals with four spiral scrolls, c (prosody) ionic a mayore, foot consisting of two long followed by two short syllables, ionic a minore, with two short followed by two long syllables ionization, n [1 ionization, 2 ionization], fr Lat ionizationem(-em), P P type of ionizare, 'to ionize' See next word & -ation The state of a liquid (electrolyte) or gas through which an electric current is passing ionize, vb trans [1 ionize, 2 ionize] See prec & -ize To charge the particles or ions of a liquid (electrolyte) with electricity, also applied to gases

-ior (I), suffix [1 ior, 2 ior] Variant of -ior, later than this, & influenced by Lat spelling, as warrior

-ior (II), suffix representing Lat compar ending -ior superior, interior, junior &c iota, n [1 iota, 2 iota] Gk iōta, loan word fr Phoenician, ep Heb yod & ep jot 1 The Greek letter 2 Insignificant part, jot, atom not an iota of truth in this statement

iotacism, n [1 iotacism, 2 iotacism], fr Lat iotacismus(-us), fr Gk iōtakhsmos, fr prec 1 Too frequent use of the Greek letter i, substitution of this letter for others

2 Greek tendency to level a number of originally different vowels and diphthongs under the sound (i), ē, ei, oi, all underwent this change.

IOU, n [1 iōu, 2 ai ou jū], = I owe you. Formal acknowledgement of debt, consisting of signed paper with these letters and statement of sum owed.

-iour, suff [1 ier; 2 ai], representing O Fr -iour, -iour, forming ns. denoting the agent carious, parious. Chiefly fr Lat. ns in -or. See -our.

-ious, adj suff [1 ijus, 2 (i)os], representing Lat. -iosus, Fr -ios, w sense 'characterized by, full of, exhibiting', found in a words representing Lat. adjs. in -iosus, formed fr ns ending in -ale (-us, -iur, -io, -ies delicious, furious, precious, fashionous, prodigious, religious, factions, or by anal. fr ns in -a curious, b new formations fr Lat. adjs. in iūs corrections, delicious, or -is delicious, o new formations fr Lat. ns. in -io, ia rebellious, pericious. See also -ous.

ipeacacuanha, often abbr. ipecac., n. [1 ipekakiana, ipekak, 2 ipekakiana, ipekak] Port, fr native Brazilian word. Root of a S. American herbaceous or shrubby plant, used as an emetic and expectorant, esp. in cases of bronchitis and laryngitis.

ipse dixit, n. [1 ipse dixit, 2 ipsi dixit]. Lat. 'he himself has said it'. Dogmatic statement, assertion, dictum.

ipso facto, adv. [1 ipso faktō, 2 ipso faktou]. Lat. 'by the fact itself'. By the fact itself, by that very fact.

ir- = in- (L, II) before -r.

iradē, n. [1 iradē, 2 iradē] Turkish, fr Arab iradā, 'will'. Written decrees of Sultan of Turkey.

Iranian, adj & n. [1 irāman, 2 aīranian] Pers. īrān, 'Persia', & -ian Cp Aryan. 1 adj. a. Of, pertaining to, Persia, b. belonging to that branch of the Aryan languages which includes Old Persian, Zend, and their descendants. 2 n. a. Member of Persian race, b. Iranian language.

irascibility, n. [1 irāsbiliti, 2 irāsbiliti], fr Lat. irascibilis (is), 'irascible'. See next word & -ity.

irascible, adj. [1 irāsbil, 2 irāsbil], fr Lat. irascibilis (is), 'irascible', fr irasc- (is), 'to be angry', fr ira, 'anger'. See ire. Easily angered, irritable, petulant, crusty.

irascibly, adv. Prec. & -ly. In an irascible manner.

irate, adj. [1 irāt, 2 aīrat], fr Lat. irātus (us), 'angry, violent, furious', fr P.P. of irasci, 'to grow angry'. See ire. Angry, enraged, wrathful.

ire, n. [1 ir, 2 ai] fr O Fr fr Lat. ira, 'anger', fr base is. Cogn. w Gk. oima, 'impetus', fr oima cp oistros, 'gadfly', frenzy, madness, vehement impulse' (see oistros), Scrt. irā, 'urges', irāyati, 'sets in motion', irād 'holy, strong', Gk. ierds, 'strong'. O.N. essa, 'hasten forward', O.E. (of-ae), O.S. (ob-ae), fr a-si*, 'haste, eagerress'. (chiefly poet.) Angry, wrath.

irreful, adj. [1 irfūol, 2 aīfūol]. Prec. & -ful. Wrathful, angry.

irrefully, adv. Prec. & -ly. In an irreful manner.

irreconcilable, adj. [1 irēnik(i), irēnik(i), 2 aīrēnik(i) aīrēnik(i)], fr Gk. irēnikos (os), 'peaceful', fr irēnia, 'peace', etymol. uncertain, & -ic (& -al). a. Of the nature of peace, peaceful, b. tending towards, promoting, peace, pacific.

iron-con n. See enironcon.

irrescence, n. [1 irēnsens, 2 aīrēnsens]. See next word & -ce. The state or quality of being iridescent.

iridescent, adj. [1 irēnsent; 2 aīrēnsent], fr Gk. irid-, stem of iris, 'rainbow'. See iris & -escent. Showing the colours of the rainbow, changing in colour as light falls from different angles.

iridium, n. [1 irīdum, 2 aīrīdum], fr Gk. irid-, stem of iris, 'rainbow'. See next word &

-ium. Hard, silvery, metallic element, related to platinum.

iris, n. [1 iriz, 2 aīriz] Gk. iris, 'rainbow', fr irid-* Orig. prob., 'the bent, curved thing', & fr base ir-*, 'to bend, twist', cp Lat. irēre, 'to bend, twist together, weave'. See further cognates under viti- & withy.

1 Coloured portion of the eye pierced by the pupil in the centre. 2 Genus of plants, called also flags with sword-shaped leaves and stiff, erect stems with large flowers, usually blue, purple, yellow, or white.

Irish, adj & n. [1 Irish, 2 aīriz]. M.E. Irish, fr O.E. Ir (as), 'the Irish', fr Irish Eire, 'Ireland', & -ish. 1 adj. Of, pertaining to, originating in, Ireland, Irish point, a kind of point-lace, Irish stew, mutton cutlets boiled with potatoes and onions. 2 n. a. The language of the Irish, b. the Irish, people of Ireland.

Irishism, n. [1 irishism, 2 aīrizism] Prec. & -ism. Idiom characteristic of the Irish language, or of English as spoken in Ireland, e.g. I'm after having my dinner, 'I've just had it'.

Irishize, vb trans. [1 irishiz, 2 aīrizavz].

Irish & -ize. To make Irish, give Irish character to.

Irishman, n. [1 irishman, 2 aīrizman]. Irish & man. Native of Ireland.

Irish terrier, n. A large breed of terrier, with rough, wiry coat of a reddish brown colour.

Irish wolfhound, n. A large, heavily built, rough-coated breed of hound, resembling a deer hound.

Irishwoman, n. [1 irishwoman, 2 aīrizwoman]. Irish & woman. Woman of Irish birth.

iritis, n. [1 iritis, 2 aīritus] iris & -itis. Inflammation of iris of the eye.

irk, vb trans. [1 irk, 2 āk]. M.E. irken, 'to be distasteful, to weary'. Orig. doubtful (arabic). To weary, fatigue, be tiresome to, worry, esp. in Phr. it irks me, him &c. irksome, adj. [1 irksom, 2 āksom] Prec. & -some. Wearsome, tedious, toilsome, tiresome, oppressive.

irksomely, adv. Prec. & -ly. In an irksome manner.

irksomeness, n. See prec. & -ness. The quality of being irksome.

iron (L), n. [1 iarn, 2 aīan] O.E. iren (& isen), M.E. iren, & rarely, isen, cp also O.E. weren, O.S. OHG weren, Goth. isarn. These appear to be all cogn. w Goth. ais, 'brass, money', O.H.G. ēr, O.E. ār, ēr, 'brass copper' (see ore), & further w Lat. aes, 'copper ore' &c. The base prob. meant orig. 'to shine, glow', & is seen also, in extended form in Lat. aedes, 'hearth, house', q.v. under aedile, edify, & Lat. aestas, 'summer heat' (see aestival). 1 A silvery, malleable, metallic element, very hard and tough, the most common metal used, with an admixture of carbon in various proportions, to make tools, weapons, utensils &c. Phr. to strike while the iron is hot, act promptly, and while circumstances are favourable, to rule with a rod of iron, with extreme severity, as hard as iron, very hard, very severe, man of iron, hard, unyielding man, will of iron, inflexible will, muscles of iron, very hard muscles. 2 Tool, implement, instrument, made of iron, often in compounds grappling iron, fire iron, stirrup iron &c., specify a iron, fettors, shackles, b. tool with smooth, flat surface for smoothing linen &c., Phr. to have a rubber of irons in the fire have many enterprises afoot at one time, too many irons in the fire, excessive number and variety of projects, c. (golf) club with iron head laid back. 3 Preparation of iron used in medicines as tonic.

iron (II), adj, fr prec. 1 Made of iron, consisting wholly or chiefly of iron iron bars &c. Phrs. iron horse, railway engine, iron ration, emergency ration. 2 (fig.) Like iron, very strong, firm, unyielding, hard an iron will, corstitution, grit &c. iron (III), vb trans, fr. iron (L). 1 To smooth (linen &c.) with a heated iron. 2 To put into irons, fetter, shackle. 3 To furnish, cover, with iron, put iron parts to.

iron age, n. Period in human history, succeeding bronze age, characterized by the use of iron implements and weapons.

iron-bark, n. Kind of eucalyptus tree with solid bark.

iron-bound, adj. 1 A Bound with iron, b. (in fig. sense) inflexible, unyielding. 2 (of coast) Rugged, rocky, edged with cliffs.

ironclad, adj & n. [1 iernklad, 2 aīernklad]. 1 adj. Covered with, protected by, iron, armoured. 2 n. Vessel protected by iron plates.

iron-foundry, n. Establishment for the production of cast-iron.

iron-grey, adj. Of the colour of newly broken iron.

ironic(al), adj. [1 ironik(i), 2 aīrēnik(i)], fr Gk. eirōnē (de), 'ironic', fr eirōn (ela), 'disimulation'. See irony & -ic. Of, pertaining to, given to, expressing, irony.

ironically, adv. Prec. & -ly. In an ironical manner.

ironing, n. [1 ierning, 2 aīerning] iron (III) & -ing (I). 1 The process of smoothing linen &c. with a heated iron. 2 Clothes, linen &c., to be ironed.

ironing-board, n. Smooth, cloth covered board on which clothes &c. are spread for ironing.

ironist, n. [1 ironist, 2 aīernist], fr Gk. eirōn, 'dissembler'. See irony & -ist. One given to the use of irony. ironmaster, n. [1 iernmāster, 2 aīernmāster]. Manufacturer of articles and appliances of iron.

ironmonger, n. [1 iernmānger, 2 aīernmānger]. Dealer in iron and other metal goods.

ironmongery, n. [1 iernmāngeri, 2 aīernmāngeri]. Iron and other metal goods.

iron-mould, n. & vb trans & intrans. 1 n. Stain made on textiles by iron rust or ink. 2 vb. To stain with iron mould.

ironsides, n. [1 iernsīdz, 2 aīernsīdz]. Man of courage and resolution, esp. (pl.) Cromwell's troops.

ironstone, n. [1 iernstōn, 2 aīernstōn]. Rock or mineral containing iron.

ironwork, n. [1 iernwērk, 2 aīernwērk]. Iron parts of a structure, castings, mouldings &c. made of iron.

ironworks, n. [1 iernwērks, 2 aīernwērks]. Establishment for smelting iron or making iron goods.

irony (L), adj. [1 ierni, 2 aīani] iron (L) & -y. Made of, consisting of, like, iron.

irony (II), n. [1 iram, 2 aīarni], fr Lat. irōnia, 'irony', fr Gk. eirōneia, 'irony, assumed ignorance', fr eirōn, 'dissembler', either fr base wer-*, 'to say', as in Gk. eirō, 'I say', fr werjo*, & cogn. w word, or for erjōn* for werjōn*, fr base seen in Lat. errare, 'to go astray, err' &c. See err, error. In the first case the original meaning would be 'said, but not meant', in the latter 'that which leads astray'. 1 Use of words, with humorous or sarcastic intention, so that the meaning is the direct opposite of what is actually said e.g. this is a nice, pleasant sort of weather—the weather is perfectly detestable. 2 Course of events, combination of circumstances, line or conduct, the result of which is the direct opposite of what is, or might be, expected, as though directed by malice, or the perversity of fate, and produced in mockery, chiefly, irony of fate, circumstances, life's ironies. 3 Socratic irony, assumption of ignorance for the purpose of confounding an opponent in dispute.

irradiance, n. [1 irādians, 2 irēdians] ir- = in- (L) & radiance. The quality or state of being irradiant.

irradiant, adj. [1 irādiant, 2 irēdiant], fr Lat. irradiant (em), Pres Part of irradiare, 'to illumine; to cast forth rays of light'. See next word. Radiating light, luminous.

irradiate, vb trans & intrans [1 irádúat, 2 iréidiot], fr Lat irradiat (um), P P type of irradiare, 'to illumine, to cast forth rays of light' See ir= in- (I) & radiate & trans 1 To radiate light upon, shine upon, illumine 2 (fig) a To throw intellectual light upon, make clear, illuminate, b to light up, give sweetness, animation, to a face irradiated by a smile. 3 To diffuse, scatter, shed to irradiate goodness and happiness B intrans To give out light irradiation, n [1 irádúashun, 2 iréidíshon] Prec & -ion. 1 (lit and fig) a The act of irradiating, b state of being irradiated, c ray of light 2 (phys) Apparent enlargement of bright object seen against a dark background irradiative, adj [1 irádúatív, 2 iréidíativ] irradiate & -ive Having the property of irradiating, illuminating irrational (I), adj [1 iráshunál, 2 iráshenál], fr Lat irrational-(is), 'without reason, irrational' ir= in- (II) & rational 1 Without power of reasoning man sometimes behaves like an irrational animal 2 Contrary to reason, not in accordance with, or resulting from, reasoning, illogical, foolish, extravagant such conduct is quite irrational 3 (math, of number) Not capable of being expressed by integer, or by vulgar fraction, surd irrational (II), n, fr prec (math) Irrational number irrationality, n [1 iráshunáliti, 2 iráshenáliti] Prec & -ity Quality of being irrational irrationalize, vb trans [1 iráshunáliz, 2 iráshenáliz] irrational & -ize To make irrational irrationally, adv [1 iráshunáli, 2 iráshenáli] See prec & -ly In an irrational manner irreclaimable, adj [1 irékúámábl, 2 irékúámábl] ir= in- (II) & reclaimable Not capable of being reclaimed irreclaimably, adv Prec & -ly In an unreclaimable manner irrecognizable, adj [1 irékúgnízabl, 2 irékúgnízabl] ir= in- (II) & recognizable Not capable of being recognized, unrecognizable irreconcilability, n [1 irékúnsáblábliti, 2 irékúnsáblábliti] ir= in- (II) & reconcilability Quality of being irreconcilable irreconcilable, adj & n [1 irékúnsáblábl, 2 irékúnsáblábl] ir= in- (II) & reconcilable 1 adj a (of persons &c) Not capable of being reconciled, permanently hostile, intransigent, b (of facts, ideas &c) not capable of being harmonized, inconsistent, conflicting, incompatible 2 n (in politics &c) One who will not agree to any plan but his own, who will not come to a compromise, an intransigent irreconcilableness, n Prec & -ness Quality of being irreconcilable irreconcilably, adv See prec & -ly In an irreconcilable manner, to an irreconcilable degree irrecoverable, adj [1 irékúverábl, 2 irékúverábl] ir= in- (II) & recoverable Not capable of being recovered or got back, specif, of debt, not to be redeemed, or regained, ir retrievable irrecoverably, adv Prec & -ly In an irrecoverable manner, beyond recall irresusable, adj [1 irékúzábl, 2 irékúzábl], fr L Lat irresusable (is), 'not to be refused', fr ir= in- (II) & recūs-(āre), 'to refuse' See recusant & -able Not to be refused or rejected, that must be accepted irredeemable, adj [1 irédémábl, 2 irédímábl] ir= in- (II) & redeemable 1 Not to be redeemed, beyond redemption, irremovable 2 a (of government loans &c) Not to be terminated by repayment, b (of paper notes &c) not to be converted into coin irredeemably, adv Prec & -ly In an irredeemable manner irredentism, n [1 irédéntizm, 2 irédéntízem] See next word & -ism Policy of the irredentists irredentist, n [1 irédéntíst, 2 irédéntíst], fr Ital irredentista (a), fr (Italia) irredenta, 'unredeemed (Italy)', fr ir= in- (II) & redempt-(a), P P type of redimere, 'to redeem' See redeem Member of Italian political party which demands the return to, and inclusion with, Italy of all Italian-speaking areas irreducibility, n [1 irédúsbábliti, 2 irédúsbábliti] ir= in- (II) & reducibility State or quality of being irreducible irreducible, adj [1 irédúsbábl, 2 irédúsbábl] ir= in- (II) & reducible 1 Not capable of being reduced, incapable of being brought to desired form, arrangement, state, degree &c 2 Not capable of being lessened, diminished irreducible minimum, smallest amount, lowest degree, to which anything can be reduced, point beyond which further reduction would render it useless, or unacceptable irrefragable, adj [1 iréfúrábl, 2 iréfúrábl], fr L Lat irrefragabil-(is), 'irrefragable', fr ir= in- (II) & refrag-(āre), 'to oppose, resist', fr re- & frāg (or), 'noise, crash, sound' The base frāg- is prob connected w frangere, 'to break' (see fraction), & w Engl break (I) Not capable of being refuted, incontrovertible, unanswerable, not to be denied or gainsaid irrefragably, adv Prec & -ly In an irrefragable manner irrefragable, adj [1 iréfúrábl, 2 iréfúrábl] ir= in- (II) & refragable 1 (of law &c) Not capable of being broken, inviolable 2 (opt) Not capable of being refracted irrefutability, n [1 iréfútábliti, 2 iréfútábliti], fr L Lat irrefutabil-(is), 'irrefutable' See next word & -ity State or quality of being irrefutable irrefutable, adj [1 iréfútábl, 2 iréfútábl], fr L Lat irrefutabil-(is), 'irrefutable' ir= in- (II) & refutable Not capable of being disproved, indisputable irrefutably, adv Prec & -ly In an irrefutable manner irregular (I), adj [1 irégúlar, 2 irégúle] ir= in- (II) & regular Not regular Various specific uses 1 Not in accordance with rule, not conforming to recognized standards, a (of act) not in accordance with law, not statutory, informal, invalid an irregular marriage, b (of conduct) disorderly, undisciplined, not in accordance with moral principles, c (eccles) irregular orders, not lawfully conferred, d not under the regulations, not trained according to, or fulfilling the requirements of, some particular, recognized body irregular troops 2 (of form, arrangement &c) Not symmetrical, uneven, not according to a systematic plan, broken, out of order, not evenly disposed or distributed an irregular outline, irregular group of buildings, trees &c 3 (gram) not inflected in normal way, specif, irregular verb, one that is anomalous in the way it forms its tenses, popular name in English for a strong verb irregular (II), n, fr prec A member of an irregular military force irregularity, n [1 irégúlariti, 2 irégúlariti] irregular & -ity 1 State or quality of being irregular, divergence from normal conditions, lack of symmetry, order, method, constancy of recurrence &c 2 Something that is irregular, a irregular action, conduct, method, b unevenness, roughness irregularly, adv [1 irégúlarí, 2 irégúleí] irregular (I) & -ly In an irregular manner irrelative, adj [1 iréláti, 2 iréláti] ir= in- (II) & relative Not relative, unconnected, unrelated, without relations irrelatively, adv Prec & -ly In an irrelative manner irrelevance, -cy, n [1 irélevans(i), 2 irélevans(i)] ir= in- (II) & relevance 1 State or quality of being irrelevant 2 Something that is irrelevant, irrelevant remark, question, statement &c irrelevant, adj [1 irélevánt, 2 irélevánt] ir= in- (II) & relevant Off the point, not relevant, not applicable to matter in hand, not pertinent irrelevantly, adv Prec & -ly In an irrelevant manner irreligion, n [1 irélíjún, 2 irélídján], fr L Lat irreligiō-(em), 'irreligion' ir= in- (II) & religion Indifference, opposition, hostility, to religion irreligious, adj [1 irélíjús, 2 irélídjás], fr L Lat irreligiōs-(us), 'impious' ir= in- (II) & religious a (of person &c) in different to, hostile to, religion, b (of thought, action, &c) not in accordance, out of harmony, with religion, impious irreligiously, adv Prec & -ly In an irreligious manner irretrievable, adj [1 iríméábl, 2 iríméábl] Ir, fr Lat irremediabilis, 'not returning', ir=, re-, and stem of meāre, 'to go', see meatus, and -ible From which there is no return, rare and poet 'My three brave brothers in one mournful day All trod the dark, irremediable way' (Pope, 'Iliad') irremediable, adj [1 irímédíábl, 2 irímédíábl], fr L Lat irremediabil-(is), 'mournable' ir= in- (II) & remediable Not capable of being remedied or redressed, irreparable irremediably, adv Prec & -ly So as to be irremediable irremissible, adj [1 irámísbábl, 2 irámísbábl], fr L Lat irremissibil-(is), 'unpardonable' ir= in- (II) & remissible Not capable of being remitted, not to be excused, unpardonable irremissibly, adv Prec & -ly In an irremissible manner irremovability, n [1 irémúvábábliti, 2 irémúvábábliti] ir= in- (II) & removability State or condition of being irremovable irremovable, adj [1 irémúvábábl, 2 irémúvábábl] ir= in- (II) & removable (lit and fig) Not capable of being removed, not to be blotted out, specif, not liable to removal from office, permanent irremovably, adv Prec & -ly In an irremovable manner irreparable, adj [1 iréparábl, 2 iréparábl], fr L Lat irreparabil-(is), 'irreparable' ir= in- (II) & reparable a Not capable of being repaired, incapable of being restored to original condition, or of being made good, past cure irreparable damage, injury, b not be rectified, recovered from, irreparable disaster, loss &c irreparableness, n Prec & -ness The state or quality of being irreparable irreparably, adv See prec & -ly To such a degree &c as to be irreparable irreplaceable, adj [1 iréplásábl, 2 iréplásábl] ir= in- (II) & replaceable Not capable of being replaced, leaving nothing, no one, to take the place of irrepressible, adj [1 irépresábl, 2 iréprésábl] ir= in- (II) & repress & -ible Not capable of being repressed, restrained, controlled, inextinguishable an irrepressible child, irrepressible laughter, spirits &c irrepressibly, adv Prec & -ly In an irrepressible manner irreproachability, n [1 irépróchábliti, 2 irépróchábliti] See next word & -ity State or quality of being irreproachable irreproachable, adj [1 irépróchábl, 2 irépróchábl], fr Ir irreprochable ir= in- (II) & reproach & -able Not liable to be found fault with, immaculate, blameless, above criticism, unexceptionable irreproachably, adv Prec & -ly In an irreproachable manner, faultlessly irresistibility, n [1 irézístábliti, 2 irézístábliti] ir= in- (II) & resistibility State or quality of being irresistible irresistible, adj [1 irézístábl, 2 irézístábl] ir= in- (II) & resistible a (of physical force) Overpoweringly great, not to be withstood, carrying all before it, b (of emotion, or emotional influence) overmastering isinglass, n [1 izingglās, 2 āzingglās] Modified fr OD huizenblas, fr huco, 'sturgeon', & blas, 'bladder' Semi-transparent gelatinous substance made from viscera of certain fish, esp the sturgeon, and used for glue, jellies &c

Islam, n [1 islām, -lahm, 2 izlām, -lām] Arab, 'surrender, obedience', fr salām, 'peace, safety', fr salama, 'he became safe' Cp Moslem & salaam 1 Mohammedan religion 2 Mohammedans collectively, countries under Mohammedan rule

Islamic, adj [1 islāmik, 2 izlāmik] Prec & -ic Of, pertaining to, Islam Islamism, n [1 islāmizm, 2 izlāmizm] Islam & -ism Mohammedanism

Islamite, n [1 islāmīt, 2 izlāmīt] Islam & -ite (I) Mohammedan island (I), n [1 lānd, 2 āland] OE īgland, ēgland, ME īland, fr OE ēg, īg, 'island', & land Cp ON ey M Du es The modern spelling has s by aol w isle 1 Piece of land entirely surrounded by water 2 Anything resembling an island, detached or isolated mound, patch &c 3 (anat) Group of cells of different formation from those surrounding them, cp isulin island (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To make into an island 2 To dot, intersperse, with or as with islands islander, n [1 flānder, 2 ālander] island (I) & -er Native of, inhabitant of, an island isle, n [1 il, 2 ail] ME i(s)le, fr O Fr i(s)le, fr Lat insula, 'island' See insular

Island, esp poetical or in proper names islet, n [1 lēt, 2 ālet], fr Fr ialette Prec & -ot a Small island, b small isolated patch, mound, spot &c ism, n [1 izm, 2 āizm] Popular abbr of one of many words having this suff A doctrine, system, theory, or practice, often derivative -ism, suff representing Fr -isme, fr Lat, fr Gk -ism(-os), -ism(a), fr vbl suff -ize & -m, forming abstract ns, a of action, corresponding to vbs in -ize baptism, catechism, ostracism, b of action, conduct, state, condition, process, of specified kind herosism, antagonism, metabolism, alcoholism, c system, doctrine, belief deism, Calvinism, scepticism, d characteristic, peculiarity mannerism, Irishism, utilitarianism

iso-, pref representing Gk (s), 'equal', fr wis-uo* s, cogn w Gk eidos, 'appearance' (fr weid wo-*, see idol, eidolon), idēa, 'form' (see idea) See also wise, wit (I) The pref is used chiefly to form scientific ns & adjs, e g isomerism, (ohem) the property of compound substances having the same elements in same proportion but with different qualities, isometric, of equal measure, isomorphous, having the property of crystallizing in identical or nearly identical forms isobar, n [1 isobar, 2 āisobar] See prec & baro- Line on map joining places at which the barometric pressure is the same on an average, or at a specified time isoclinic, adj [1 isōklīnik, 2 āisōklīnik] iso- & clinis (magnetism) Of lines, isoclinic lines, on a map where the magnetic needle has the same inclination isogonic, adj [1 isōgōnik, 2 āisōgōnik] iso- & gon & -ic (magnetism) Of lines, isogonic lines, on a map where the declination of the magnetic needle is the same isolate, vb trans [1 isōlāt, 2 āisōlāt] Orig as PP, fr Ital isolato, fr Lat in sulāt (um), 'made into an island', fr insula, 'an island' See insular & -ate 1 To place alone, apart, set in a detached position, separate from others of same kind, specif, to put (person) into quarantine, separate (infectious patient) from others &c 2 (elect) To insulate 3 (ohem & bacter) To recognize, detect, and separate out an element, constituent substance, from a compound, to perform this process in respect of a germ or bacillus isolation, n [1 isōlāshun, 2 āisōlāshun] Prec & -ion. Act of isolating, state of being isolated, also attrib, as isolation hospital, one in which patients suffering from infectious diseases may be treated

-ison, suff representing O Fr -aison, eison, -ison, fr Lat -āhēnem, -ēhēnem, -āhēnem, fr PP stems of vbs & -ion venison, orison, maison, also by anal in ns first found in O Fr garrison

isopod, n [1 isōpōd, 2 āisōpōd] iso- & Gk pod, 'stem of poise, foot' See -pod pedal Crustacean with pairs of thoracic legs similar and similarly placed isosceles, adj [1 isōsēlēs, 2 āisōsēlēs] L Lat isosceles, fr Gk isoscelēs, fr iso- & skelos, 'leg', cogn w Gk skēlos, 'twisted, oblique, bent', skēlēns, 'crooked, lame' (see scaleno), & w Lat oculus, 'crum' isosceles triangle, one having two sides equal isotherm, n [1 isōthērm, 2 āisōthērm] See iso- & therm Line on map joining places which have the same mean annual or monthly temperature

Israel, n [1 īsrāel, 2 āsrāel], fr Lat, fr Gk Israhēl, fr Heb yisrahel, 'one who strives with God', w reference to Gen xxxii 28 The Jewish people

Israelite, n [1 īsrāelit, 2 āsrāelit] Prec & -ite Descendant of Israel, a Jew Israelitish, adj [1 īsrāelitish, 2 āsrāelitish] Prec & -ish Of, pertaining to, the Jews issuable, adj [1 isūabl, 2 āisūabl] issue (II) & -able Capable of issuing or being issued issuance, n [1 isūāns, 2 āisūāns] issue (II) & -ance The act of issuing, state of being issued, giving out, distribution, promulgation issue (I), n [1 isū, ishū, 2 āisū, āishū], fr O Fr issus, fr Low Lat exiūta*, corresponding to Lat exiūta, 'a coming or going out', fr exit (um), PP type of exire, 'to go out' See exit 1 Point at which a passing outward, onward flow, takes place, exit, egress an issue of water 2 That which passes or flows out an issue of blood, bloody issue 3 A Act of emitting, of putting forth, sending out, delivery, publication the issue of stamps, coinage, issue of a newspaper &c, b something issued, sent out, published, esp at one time, or as part of a set or batch a new issue, e g of coinage, bank notes, printed matter, goods to troops by the government &c 4 A point or head of debate, controversy, or dispute to raise a new issue, b some question concerning which there is debate or dispute, subject debated, debate, discussion, controversy to debate an issue, Phrs at issue, under discussion, to join issue with, start an argument with 5 Result of a series of events, outcome, upshot to abide the issue 6 Offspring, progeny, child or children born from particular parent or parents to die without issue issue (II), vb trans & trans, fr prec A intrans 1 To come, go, flow, pour, out, proceed forth, emerge water issuing from the rock, smoke from a chimney, no words, sound, issued from his lips 2 a To proceed, be derived, emanate, spring from whence do these reports issue?, b to be descended from, have as parent or ancestor (archaic) 3 (rare) To result, end, in, turn out B trans 1 To send forth, circulate, make public, give out, pronounce to issue an order 2 To give out, distribute to issue ammunition &c to troops 3 To publish, put into circulation (book, paper &c) issueless, adj [1 isūlēss, 2 āisūlēss] issue (I) & -less Without issue

-ist, suff [1 ist, 2 āist] representing Fr -iste, fr Lat -ista, fr Gk -istēs, fr vbl suff -izo, & -ies denoting agent. The suff forms a agent ns corresponding to vbs in -izo etangelist, rhapsodist, b ns denoting adherent of, supporter of, some doctrine, custom, practice &c atheist, socialist, polygamist &c, c ns denoting person connected with, devoted to, some specific subject, occupation &c pianist, botanist, zoologist, dentist, florist, noctivist Many of the ns in -ist are new formations fr Engl, Fr, Lat, or Gk stems

-ister, n suff representing O Fr -astre, prol. a variant of -ist by anal w (min)astre (see minister) cherister isthmian, adj [1 isthmian, ismian, 2 isthmian, ismian], fr Lat isthmus (us), 'of an isthmus' See next word & -an a Of, pertaining to an isthmus, b (cap, in ancient Greece) of, pertaining to the Isthmus of Corinth, esp Isthmian Games, held there in alternate years isthmus, n [1 isthmus, ismus, 2 istmes, ismas] Lat isthmus, fr Gk isthmos, 'neck, narrow passage, neck of land between two seas' The original sense seems to have been 'passage', & the base is prob an extension of -to, 'to go' See itinerate

1 Narrow strip of land connecting two continents, or a peninsula with the main land 2 (anat, bot, zool) Narrow part or passage joining two larger parts istle, n [1 isth, 2 isth], fr Mexican isth Fibre obtained from certain tropical American plants, and used for cord &c it (I), pron [1 it, 2 it] OE hit, ME hit, it, noun pron of 3rd pers Cp O Frs il, Du hel, also Goth hita, 'this' Nom & acc sing neut of he. From pronominal stem h₁*, fr older demonstr part h₁i-, h₁i, h₁o*, see he, & noun ending -i, as in what, that 1 Used for an inanimate object, of a very young child or of a lower animal 2 Referring, with slight demonstrative force, to person, thing, circumstance, event, action, which one has in mind, or which is under discussion, whether already, or about to be, expressed, or merely implied who is it that I see?, it is your money that we want, 'It was a lover and his lass', I should like to have a horse, to go out hunting, but I can't afford it (Note current construction it's me, earlier, but now archaic or obs, it is I; O E & M E (hit am I)) 3 As subject of an impersonal verb it is going to rain, it will snow before long 4 Referring to general and vague terms, circumstances, state of things, affairs, the weather, temperature &c how goes it with you today?, don't let it come to a breach between us, you are cutting it rather fine, what can you do about it?, there it is, do what you like, it is getting very hot, it looks like snow 5 In such constructions as it is easy to be wise after the event = to be wise &c as easy, I take it that you will act at once, it is the fact (to be), we shall have to run for it, it is our purpose, in order to escape, or the like 6 In some colloquial phrases as the object of verbs which are normally intransitive, to foot it, to walk, hool it!, ho off!, b after nouns exceptionally used as verbs to queen it, behave like, play the part of, a queen, to lord it, play the lord it (II), n, fr prec (colloq and recent) Usually written in italics, and uttered with special emphasis, the ideal, the last word, absolute perfection, the thing he really looked it in his new clothes

It (III), n Abbreviation of Italian (lang)

Italian vormonth, in Phr gin and It Itacism, n [1 ītasizm; 2 ītasizm] fr Gk ita, the letter ē (see otacism), on anal of itacism 1 Pronunciation of Greek ē (orig [ē]), as [i], as in Modern Greek and English pronunciation of Greek 2 Substitution of Greek i for ē, ei, oi, in MS

Italian, adj & n [1 italyan, 2 stalyan], fr Lat Italia, 'Italy', & -an 1 adj Of, pertaining to, originating in, Italy, Italian greyhound, a small, delicate breed of greyhound, Italian wren, narrow, rounded iron for goffering, Italian warehouseman, one who deals in olive oil, macaroni, and other Italian goods 2 n An inhabitant of Italy, b the language of Italy

Italianism, n [1 italyanizm, 2 stalyanizm] Prec & -ism Custom, peculiarity, characteristic of Italy or Italian, an Italian idiom, or mode of speech

Italianize, vb trans [1 italyaniz, 2 stalyaniz] Italian & -ize To make Italian, give Italian character to italic, adj & n [1 itálik 2 itél'k], fr Lat italica (us), 'of Italy', fr Ital (ia), 'Italy', & -ic 1 adj a (cap) Of Italy, esp ancient Italy as distinct from Rome, italic type, printing type with letters sloping upwards to the right, first used by Aldus Manutius of Venice, c 1500, b specul (cap, phulol) referring to that branch of Aryan speech spoken in Italy, including Latin, Oscan &c 2 n a In pl., italics, italio type, used chiefly to indicate emphasis, or for other purposes of distinction, b Italo speech italicize, vb trans [1 itáliz, 2 itálizaz] Prec & -ize To print in italics for emphasis &c italiot, italiote, n [1 itálot, -ót, 2 itálot, -ót], fr Gk Italiótēs (es), 'Italiot', fr Lat Ital(a) & -ot Inhabitant of one of the Greek colonies in Italy itch (I), n [1 itch, 2 it], OE gicce, 'itch' Cp MHG jucke, & next word 1 An irritating sensation in the skin 2 (pathol) A contagious skin disease, accompanied by intense irritation, caused by the itch mite, which burrows under the surface of the skin 3 (fig) Restless longing, uneasy, irritating desire an itch for money, gain &c itch (II), vb intrans OE gicecan, ME gicche, icche, op OHG juckan, 'to itch' 1 To have an irritating sensation on surface of the skin 2 (fig) To have a restless longing, a teasing desire itching to get one's hands on a person Phr to have an itching palm, of person greedy of money itchiness, n [1 itchines, 2 itchins] See next word & -ness The state of being itchy itchy, adj [1 ichi, 2 itji] itch (I) & -y Involunt to itch, irritating, having, suffering from, the, or an, itch

-ite (I), suff [1 it, 2 it] representing Fr -ite, fr Lat ita, fr Gk -itēs, forming ns & adjs, a denoting person connected with, coming from, adherent of Semite, Israelite, Darwinite, b very common in scientific names of kinds of rock (e.g. dolomite), fossils (e.g. trilobite), chemical salts (e.g. selenite), explosives (e.g. dynamite) &c

-ite (II), -it, suff representing Lat -it- in PP types, found a in adjs fr Lat PP types in -it (um) polite, finite, definite, b in ns fr Lat PP types in it (um) appetite, c in vbs fr Lat PP types in -it (um) unite, those vbs fr Lat it- stems gen end in -ite in Engl, those fr the -it- type, in -it, e.g. deposit item (I), n [1 item, 2 item] See next word 1 Single detail, particular article, included in a list, detailed account to number each item in a catalogue. 2 Piece of news, subject of newspaper paragraph &c item (II), adv Lat item, adv, 'just so, in like manner, likewise', fr Lat ita, 'thus', op Scrt itām, 'so, thus', itāh, 'there' From pronominal stem i*, 'that one' &c (in enumeration) Also, likewise, further, used to introduce each new article itemize, vb trans [1 itemiz, 2 itemmaz] item (I) & -ize (Am usage) To set out (an account) in items or details iterance, -cy, n [1 iterans(i), 2 iterans(i)] See next word & -ance The act of iterating; state of being iterated, iteration iterate, vb trans [1 iterāt, 2 iteratē], fr Lat iterā (um), PP type of iterāre, 'to do over again, to repeat', to say again, rehearse', fr iter (um), 'again', fr pronominal stem i*, as in id, 'that', & item, & compers suff ter Cp Scrt stātā, 'the other', & interior To say over again, repeat, reiterate to iterate a warning, accusation &c iteration, n [1 iterāshun, 2 iterāshən], fr Lat iterāshō (em), 'repetition' Prec & -ion The act of iterating, that which is iterated, repetition iterative, adj [1 iteratīv, 2 iteratīv] iterate & -ive Characterized by, expressing, repetition ithyphallic, adj & n [1 ithifálik, 2 ithifálik], fr Lat ithyphallic (us), 'ithyphallic', fr Gk ithuphall (os), 'phallus earned erect in the Bacchus ceremonies', fr ithu (s), 'straight', & phallus ithus is cogn w Scrt aidhyah, 'to attain one's ends, succeed', addhah, 'cause to succeed', Aryan has aidh*, aidh*, aidh*, 'straight, direct' 1 adj a Of, pertaining to, the phallus carried in the rites of Bacchus, b (of verse) in the metre used in the Bacchic hymns 2 n Poem in ithyphallic metre itinerary, n [1 it-, itineram, 2 (a)itinerasi] See next word Itinerary itinerancy, n [1 it-, itineram, 2 (a)itineransi] See next word & -cy The state or condition of being itinerant, practice of travelling from place to place itinerant, adj [1 it-, itinerant, 2 (a)itinerant], fr Lat itinerant (em), Pres Part of itinerari, 'to travel' See itinerate A travelling from place to place, wandering, wayfaring itinerant musicians, b (of justices) travelling on circuit, c (of Methodist ministers) preaching on circuit itinerary (I), adj [1 it-, itineram, 2 (a)itinerant], fr L Lat itinerari (us), 'belonging to a journey', fr itiner (us), stem of iter, 'a journey' See itinerate & -ary Of, pertaining to, a journey or route itinerary (II), n, fr L Lat itinerari (um), 'account of a journey', fr neut form of prec 1 Way, course, path, followed in going from place to place, route 2 Account, description, record, indication, of route followed, or to be followed, record of travel, book of directions for traveller, guide book.

itinerate, vb intrans [1 it-, itinerat, 2 (a)itineratē], fr Lat itinerat (um), PP type of itinerari, 'to travel', fr itiner, stem of iter, 'a journey' This word contains the base i* &c, 'to go', op Lat ire, 'to go', Gk ei mi, 'I go', Scrt ih, 'he goes', Goth idja, 'he went' It is doubtful whether O E gā, 'I go', is fr ga-*, containing this base as has been suggested The Lat ex-: itum (see exit) & in: itum (see initial) certainly contain the base, further Lat janua, 'door', fr i-ān* (see janitor & Janus) To travel from place to place, speak, to travel on a circuit for specific purpose itineration, n [1 it-, itinerāshun, 2 (a)itinerāshən] Prec & -ion. Act of itinerating, itinerancy

-ition, suff [1 itshun, 2 itshən] forming ns expressing action or condition, fr Lat PP stems in -it (um) & -ion, e.g. petition, definition

-itious, suff [1 itshus, 2 itshes] forming adjs, a fr Lat PP stems in -it (um), & representing Lat vitiosus, or vitius (c & t confused in many Lat MSS), e.g. ambitious, adventitious, b fr Lat adj stems in -it, e.g. propitious In many Engl words the ending itious represents itious, e.g. malicious -ous always represents an additional Lat suff osus

-itis, suff [1 itis, 2 itis] representing Gk -itis, fem. form of itēs (see -ite (I)), used w nosos, 'disease (often understood), to denote 'characterized by, of the nature of' The suff is now used to denote especially diseases characterized by inflammation, e.g. neuritis, arthritis

-itous, adj suff [1 itus, 2 ites] formed fr n stem -it- & -ous iniquitous, felicitous itself, pron [1. itself, 2. 'itself'] it & self. a Emphatic form of it, used in apposition with noun to emphasize the latter even the well itself was empty, b reflexive form of it, Phrs by itself, alone, apart from other things; in itself, independently of external circumstances

-ity, suff [1 ita, 2 itē] Fr -ité, Lat -itāt (em), used to form abstract ns fr adjs, e.g. Lat. probus, 'good, upright', probitas, acc probitatē (em), 'uprightness, probity'

-ium, suff [1 ium, 2 iem] representing Lat. neut adj suff, a in adjs & ns fr Lat medium, presum, solum, b in new formations as names of metallic elements sodium, radium, iridium &c

-ive, suff [1 iv, 2 iv] representing Fr -if, ive, fr Lat ivus, forming adjs w the sense 'with a tendency to, in the manner of, having the character of', a fr PP stems naive, capive, nominalive, extensive, b fr ns festive, furtive Modern & mediaeval formations are fr a vb stems restive, sportive, b na. massive, c Lat PP stems aggressive, punitive. In some cases these adjs are used also as ns capive, motive, in others only as ns initiative, infective.

ivied, adj [1 ivid, 2 ivid] See ivy & -ed. Covered, overgrown, with ivy ivory, n [1 ivori, 2 ivari], fr O Fr ivoire, fr Lat eboreus, 'of ivory', fr ebur, 'ivory', perh fr Egyptian ab, abu, 'elephant, ivory' 1 Hard white substance composing tusks of elephant, hippopotamus, narwhal, and walrus Phr black ivory, African negro slaves, vegetable ivory, hard albuminous substance obtained from the ivory nut 2 (slang) The ivories, a things made of ivory, e.g. billiard-balls, piano keys &c, b teeth 3 Colour of ivory 4 (attrib) Made of ivory ivory-black, n Black pigment obtained from burnt ivory ivory-nut, n Seed of a tropical American palm, resembling ivory when dried and polished ivy, n [1 ivi, 2 ivi] OE ifig, ME for, up Germ epheu, etymol doubtful A climbing, evergreen shrub, Hedera helix, with dark green, glossy, usually five angled leaves

-ix, suff [1 iks, 2 iks] fr Lat, variant of -is. Suff used to form the fem fr masc ns in -or, as execratrix, executor Cp -ess ixia, n [1 iksa, 2 iksa], fr Gk ixōs, 'musteloid, its berry, bird lime', for ixos*, & cogn w Lat viscum, in same sense, & OHG uhsela, 'wild cherry' See viscous & viscera Genus of South African plants, of the ura family, cultivated in English gardens izard, n [1 izard, 2 izad], fr Fr sard, etymol doubtful Kind of chamois of the Pyrenees

-ize, -ise, vhl suff [1 iz, 2 iz] representing O Fr iser, fr L Lat -izāre, fr Gk -izō, -izen, wh was used to form trans & intrans vhs w the sense of 'to act, treat, in a specified way, put into a specified state' As a living pref, -ize is chiefly used to form vhs fr proper ns & scientific names 1 To act in specified way sympathize, diarize, diplomazize, soliloquize. 2 To treat in certain way organize, catechize, characterize. 3 To bring, come into, specific state equalize, Gallierize, civilize, decimalize. 4 To act like, treat in the way of, treat on system of Darwinize, Bowlerize. 5 To treat with chloralize, acidize.

J

J, [1 jə, 2 džə] A tooth letter in Engl alphabet, formerly written i, for use in abbr see end of Dictionary, b broad pointed pen nib jaal-gont, n [1 jaal, yáhl gōt, 2 džé-l, jdl gōt], fr Hoh ya'el, 'wild goat' Long-horned wild goat of Arabia, Upper Egypt, and Abyssina.

jab (I), vb trans [1 jab, 2 džab] Prob. imitative 1 To poke suddenly and violently. 2 To thrust roughly jab (II), n, fr prec A sudden rough thrust or poke jabber (I), vb intrans & trans [1 jáber, 2 džábe] Imitative 1 intrans a To speak rapidly and indistinctly, b (of monkeys &c) to chatter 2 trans To utter rapidly and indistinctly jabber (II), n, fr prec Chatter, gabble, voluble speech jabiru, n [1 jábiru, 2 džábiru] Brazil Large stork of tropical America, allied to the adjutant-bird jaborandi, n [1 jáborandi, 2 džáborandi] Brazil jaburandi Dried leaflets of a tropical American shrub, used in medicine jabot, n [1 džáhó, 2 džáhou] Fr, etymol doubtful a Frill of lace on front of woman's bodice, b (lust) frill or ruffle on man's shirt front jacamar, n [1 jákamar, 2 džákemá] Brazil name A tropical American insectivorous bird, with long sharp bill and deep metallic bronze and green plumage jacana, n [1 jákanah, 2 džákaná] Brazil name A wading bird of Central and S America, allied to the rails jacaranda, n [1 jákaranda, 2 džákaranda] Brazil A tropical American tree, with hard, scented wood jacinth, n [1 jásinth, jásinth, 2 džásinþ, džásinþ] fr O Fr jacinte, fr Lat hyacinthus, 'hyacinth', a precious stone. See hyacinth A reddish orange variety of zircon, used as gem Jack (I), n [1 jak, 2 džák], proh fr O Fr Jacques, 'James', fr Lat, fr Gk Iakchos See Jacob 1 Used as popular or familiar form of John, also in general sense of fellow, man Phrs every man jack, every-one, one and all, Jack Frost, personification of frost, Jack Kelch, hangman, before you could say Jack Robinson, very quickly, in a moment, Jack of all trades, one who can turn his hand to anything, Jack in office, pompous, self-important official, cheap jack, hawker, pedlar, Yellow Jack, yellow fever 2 Speed (of persons) a common sailor, jack-tar, b (archaic) workman Jack wants to be as good as his master, o hence, knave on playing-cards 3 Name for various machines, contrivances, esp a device for turning spit, b machine for raising heavy weights, o device for raising axle of carriage, motor &c in order to free wheel(s), d boot jack, e (elect) socket forming a terminal in an electric circuit, adapted to receive a plug connector 4 (bowls) Ball used as mark 5 Young pike jack (II), n Prob fr prec National flag flown at bow of ship on a jack staff; Union Jack, properly the Union flag when flown at bow of ship jack (III), n Fr jaque, cp jacket 1 Sleeveless, padded leather coat worn by mediaeval foot soldier 2 Leather vessel, hottle, usually black, jack jack (IV), vb trans, fr Jack (I) Also jack up, to raise with a jack, (colloq slang) to give up, abandon, to chuck up he threatened to jack up his job jack (V), n, fr Port jaca, fr Malayalam chakka Kind of East Indian coarse bread fruit jack-a-dandy, n (obs) Dandy, fop jackal, n [1 jákawi, 2 džáköl], fr Turk chakal, fr Pers shagāl 1 Animal of dog family, Canis aureus, about the size of a fox, with a bushy tail, and greyish yellow in colour, found chiefly in Southern Asia and Northern Africa, the jackal was formerly supposed to act as scout for the lion in hunting Hence, 2 (fig) Person who does menial, base work for another, a servile tool jackanapes, n [1 jákanáps, 2 džákanáps] 16th-cent Jackanapes, also a napee, jack napee, in sense of 'a fool' Jack Napee was a nickname of William de la Pole, Duke of Suffolk (d. 1460), whose badge was a dog and chain as attached to tame apes The name may also have contained an allusion to Naples, as Suffolk had advocated the marriage of the King with the daughter of the King of Naples See Skeat 1 (archaic) Monkey 2 Impertinent, insolent, monkey-like, mischievous, person, pert child. 3 A conceited, insignificant, vulgar fop, a cockcomb jackaroo, n [1 jákaroo, 2 džákaru] Australian slang name for a new hand or pupil on a sheep farm jackass, n [1 jákaks, 2 džákás] 1 a Male donkey, b stupid person, fool, ass, dolt 2 Laughing jackass, large Australian kingfisher jack-boot, n Large top boot reaching above the knee, as worn by fishermen &c, and formerly by cavalry &c for defensive purposes jackdaw, n [1 jákdaw, 2 džákdó] See daw British bird of corvine order, Corvus monedula, rather smaller than the ordinary crow jacket (I), n [1 jáket, 2 džákit], fr O Fr jaquet, dimin of jaque See jack (III) 1 Short, sleeved outer garment worn by man or woman Phr to dust a person's jacket for him, to beat him 2 Covering for pipes, boiler &c to prevent radiation of heat 3 Any outer coat or covering, skin &c., e.g. animal's coat, skin of potatoes, paper cover of book &c jacket (II), vb trans, fr prec a To provide cover with, a jacket, b (slang) to thrash Jack-in-office, n Self-important, dictatorial official, one magnifying office as his sole claim to notice jack-in-the-box, n Child's toy consisting of small box enclosing a figure on a spring, which leaps up when the lid is unfastened jack-in-the-green, n Man enclosed in framework of laths covered with branches, as a character in May day sports jack-knife, n Large clasp knife jack-o'-lantern, n [1 ják o lántern, 2 džák o lantán] Will o' the wisp jack-plane, n Large plane for rough work jack-pot, n A pool or pot, in poker, which can only be played for if a player opens the game holding a pair of knaves, 'jacks', or something better jack-pudding, n Buffoon jack-rabbit, n Large, long-legged, long-eared American hare jack-snipe, n Small species of snipe jack-tar, n Sailor jack-towel, n Roller-towel Jacob, n [1 jákub, 2 džákab], fr Lat, fr Gk Iakchos, fr Heb Ya'acob Jacob's ladder, a blue-flowered, cultivated herb, Polemonium, with ladder-like arrangement of leaves, b (nant) rope ladder with wooden rungs for climbing into rigging, Jacob's staff, surveyor's staff for supporting compass &c Jacobean, adj & n [1 jákobéan, 2 džákéhan], fr L Lat Jacobus (us), fr Jacob (us) See Jacob & -an. 1 adj Belonging to, made in, the reign of James I Jacobean poets, architecture, furniture &c 2 n. Personage belonging to this period Jacobin (I), n, & adj [1 jákobin, 2 džákabin] Fr, fr Med Lat Jacobin-(us) Jacob & -in(e) 1 n a French Dominican friar, named from original establishment of the order in a convent near the church of St Jacques in Paris, b member of a revolutionary society formed in Paris in 1789, so called from headquarters of society in the old Jacobin convent 2 adj Extreme, wild, violent, revolutionary Jacobin (II), n, fr Fr Jacobine, fr fem form of prec Kind of pigeon, with arrangement of feathers on back of neck suggesting a hood or owl Jacobine(al), adj [1 jákobinik(l), 2 džákébinik(l)] Jacobin (I) & -ic & -al Of, pertaining to, the Jacobins or Jacobinism Jacobinism, n [1 jákobinizm, 2 džákébinizm] See prec & -ism Principles of the Jacobins, violent opposition to established government Jacobinize, vb trans [1 jákobinix, 2 džákébinix] indus] Jacobin (I) & -ize To imbue with principles of Jacobinism Jacobite, n [1 jákobit, 2 džákébast], fr Lat Jacob (us), 'James' See Jacob & -ite Adherent of James II, after his abdication, and of the Stuart cause, in more recent times a theoretical advocate of the claims of the elder Stuart line to the English throne Jacobitical, adj [1 jákobitál, 2 džákébitál] Prec & -ic & -al Connected with, holding political principles of, the Jacobites Jacobitism, n [1 jákobitizm, 2 džákébitizm] Jacobite & -ism Political principles of the Jacobites Jacobus, n [1 jákóhns, 2 džákóhbas] Lat Jacobus, 'James' See Jacob English gold coin of reign of James I, worth twenty to twenty-five shillings jaconet, n [1 jákunet, 2 džákénet], fr Hind Jagannath, name of town in Bengal a Kind of soft white cotton fabric of medium thickness, b dyed cotton cloth, glazed on one side Jacquard loom, n [1 jákard loom, 2 džákard loom], fr name of French inventor (d. 1834) A loom for weaving silk or cotton textiles with figured patterns by use of an endless belt of cards punched with holes arranged to form the pattern required jacquerie, n [1 zhak(w)eré, 2 žek(w)eré] Fr, fr Jacques, 'James', used as general term for peasant, & -ery Peasants' revolt, specif, rising of French peasants in 1358 jaclatation, n [1 jáktátshun, 2 džáktátshun], fr Med Lat jaclatō (em), fr jacl lat (um), P P type of jaclare, 'to toss about', fr Lat jacl-(um), P P type of jacere, 'to throw, cast, toss' See jet (III) 1 (med) Frequent jerky movements of the body and limbs, uncontrollable restlessness, generally in delirium 2 (law) Ill founded assertion that some event, esp a marriage, has taken place &c, made to the prejudice of another jade (I), n [1 jád, 2 džáid], fr Fr le jade, orig, jejade, fr Span (pedra de) yada, 'stone for curing disease in the side', fr Lat ida, 'the flanks' See slac Hard, fibrous, nephritic or jadeite, silicate, varying in colour from pure white to green, cut and polished for ornaments jade (II), n O N jada, 'mare' a Wretched, worn out, horse a sorry jade, b (disparagingly) a battered, ill tempered, and, usually, disreputable woman, c (playfully) a wench, woman a saucy jade jade (III), vb trans, fr prec (rare, except in P P as adj) See next word jaded, adj [1 jáded, 2 džáid], fr P P of prec Worn, worn-out, harassed, showing effects of overwork or of worry jadeite, n [1 jádit, 2 džáidat] jade (II) & -ite A variety of jade, an aluminium sodium silicate jaeger (I), jäger, n [1 jáger, 2 jága] Germ, 'hunterman, hunter', fr jaeger, 'to hunt' A member of a rifle regiment in German and Austrian armies, sharpshooter jaeger (II), n, fr name of scientist who adduced hygienic value of wool clothing used as trade mark by The Jaeger Co Ltd, London jag (I), n [1 jag, 2 džág] 15th cent vagge, a rough cut or tear. Origin doubtful Sharp pointed projection, or corresponding indentation, tooth, notch, a rough, pointed tear in cloth &c jag (II), vb trans, fr prec To out into notches, tear unevenly, give a ragged edge to jagged, adj [1 jáged, 2 džágd], fr P P of prec Having rough indentations, uneven, notched, serrated, roughly, raggedly toro jaggedly, adv Prec & -ly In a jagged manner jaggedness, n See prec & -ness The state or quality of being jagged jaggy, adj [1 jági, 2 džégt] jag (I) & -y Rough-edged, uneven, notched jaguar, n [1 jágwár, jágwár, 2 džágwá, džágwá], fr Brazil yaguara Large, spotted, yellowish-brown, carnivorous mammal, Felis onca, of the cat family, found in the forests of Central and S America

Jah, n [1 jah, 2 dž] Heb Yah, fr Yahweh See Jehovah. Jenovah jail, n [1 jāl, 2 džēil] See gaol. jailbird, n [1 jālberd, 2 džēilbād] See gaolbird.

Jain, n & adj [1 jān, jīn, 2 džēin, džāin], fr Hind., fr Scrt jaina, 'of a Buddha', cogn w jina, 'saint, hero', jayaś, 'victory, jndit', 'conquers', cogn w Gk bia, 'force', biacin, 'to compel' 1 n. Member of Hindu religious sect having doctrines common both to Brahminism and Buddhism 2 adj Of, pertaining to, the Jains

Jainism, n [1 jānizm, 2 džēinzizm] Preco & -ism. The religious system of the Jains jalap, n [1 jālāp, 2 džēlāp], fr Fr, fr Span. jalapa, fr Xalapa, town in Mexico Dried root of a Mexican plant, used as purgative jalousie n [1 džaloozē, 2 dželuzē] Fr, fr O Fr gelosi, 'jealousy, suspicion' See jealousy External window shutter with slipping slats to keep out the sun.

jam (I), vb trans & intrans [1 jam, 2 džēm] Prob orig a variant of cham A trans 1 To press tightly, ram roughly, into constructed space 2 To fill (space) by crowding or pressing into it, block up, fill up 3 To catch, block, fix (part of machine &c) so as to prevent movement B intrans (of movable parts of machine) To become wedged, cease to work

jam (II), n, fr preo Number of persons or things wedged tightly together, esp so as to prevent movement, crush, squeeze jam (III), n & vb trans Origin doubtful, prob fr jam (I) 1 n Preserve of fruit, boiled with sugar poured into jars, and allowed to become firm 2 vb To make into jam to jam all one's fruit jamb, n [1 jam, 2 džēm], fr Fr jambe, 'leg', fr L Lat gamba, 'hoof' See gambol, gambit. Side post or side of doorway, window, or fire place jamboree, n [1 džamborē, 2 džēmborē] Origin unknown A A frolic, a spree, b a social gathering, specif. of boy scouts jam-jar, -pot, n Glass or earthenware vessel for holding jam jangle (I) vb intrans or trans [1 džāngl, 2 džāngl] fr O Fr jargler, prob imitative A intrans 1 To make a harsh, discordant, clanging sound 2 To speak noisily, angrily, harshly to wrangle, bicker B trans To ring (bells) out of tune jangle (II), n, fr preo 1 Harsh, discordant sound noisy clash 2 (archaic) Quarrel, dispute, bickering janitor, n [1 džānitor, 2 džēnitor] Lat janitor, 'door keeper', fr Jov (us), 'the deity presiding over doors' &c See Janus n Door-keeper, porter, b member of the lowest of the minor orders in Roman Catholic Church janissary, n [1 džānissari, 2 džēnissari] Turk. çelebis lit. 'new soldiers' 1 Member of troop of infantry formerly forming body-guard of Sultan of Turkey 2 Turkish soldier janneck adj [1 džānek, 2 džēnek] Northern dialect esp Lancs & Yorks Origin doubtful.

Straight-forward, genuine, thorough term used generally of persons or things one can trust or approve of Jansenism n [1 džānsenizm, 2 džēnsenizm] fr name of Cornelius Jansen Bishop of Xpres (d 1638) & -ism Doctrines of Jansen which closely recalled those of Calvin, but in which means whereby man could obtain Divine Grace that were declared heretical by the Roman Catholic Church

Jansenist, n [1 džānsenist, 2 džēnsenist] See Jansenism

Jansenist, adj [1 džānsenist, 2 džēnsenist] See Jansenism

January n [1 džānjari, 2 džēnjari] fr Lat Januarius, 'the deity presiding over doors' &c See Janus n

Janus n [1 džānus, 2 džēnus] Lat Janus, 'the deity presiding over doors' &c See Janus n

Janna, 'door', as the seat of his activity Formed fr en*, to go*, as in Lat ire, 'to go' See Itinerate Ancient Italian deity, presiding over beginnings and entrances, he was represented with two faces, one at the front and one at the back of his head Jap, adj & n [1 jap, 2 džēp] Colloq abbr Japanese japan (I), n [1 japin, 2 džēpān] Name of island country off east coast of Asia, prob fr Chinese Jih pun, 'sunrise' 1 Hard, black, resinous varnish, lacquer, as used originally in Japan 2 Japanned or other work in Japanese style

japan (II), vb trans, fr preo To lacquer with japan, or emular black varnish

Japanese, adj & n [1 džāpānē, 2 džēpānē] Japan (I) & -ese 1 adj Of, pertaining to, Japan 2 n A Native of Japan, b language of Japan

Japaneque, adj [1 džāpānek, 2 džēpānek] Japan (I) & -esque In the Japanese style jape, vb intrans & n [1 jāp, 2 džēip] Perh fr Fr yapper, 'to bark, yap, as a dog', (archaic and facet) a vb To make a mock, to joke, jest, b n, joke, jest, quip Japhetic, adj [1 džāfētik, 2 džēfētik] Japheth, third son of Noah, & -ic Of, descended from, Japheth, contrasted with Semitic and Hamitic, Aryan, Indo European

Japonic, adj [1 džāponik, 2 džēpōnik], fr Fr Japon, 'Japan' Japanese japonica, n [1 džāponika, 2 džēpōnika] Mod.

Bot Lat. Prec used as fem adj One of several varieties of a Japanese bright-flowered shrub, esp Pyrus or Cydonia Japonica jar (I), n [1 jar, 2 džā], fr next word 1 Harsh, discordant sound 2 a Shock, friction, vibration, caused by sudden collision, impact, of two bodies, b (fig) discord, clash of opinions or temperaments, quarrel 3 a Bodily shock, a jar to one's spine, b mental shock, perturbation, discomfiture, disconcerting effect the news gave me a nasty jar

jar (II), vb intrans & trans Probably imitative, but Skeat suggests derivation fr the very rare OE ceorran, 'to creak', cp also perh M Du karren, kerren, 'to creak like a cart' A intrans 1 a To emit a harsh, creaking sound, as of one hard substance rubbing against another, b to cause slight shaking and vibration, by impact 2 a To produce, be a cause of, disagreement and friction, b to cause disgust, wound sus-ceptibilities, excite feelings of disapproval, to jar on (a person), to wound feelings of, irritate, annoy, c to produce bodily or mental shock B trans 1 To shake, cause to tremble, throw out of gear, by sudden violent impact 2 a To cause bodily shock to by sudden fall, blow, or the like b to cause mental shock, as by sudden grief disaster &c jar (III), n, fr Fr jarre, fr Span jarra, jarro, fr Arab jarrah Deep, usually cylindrical, vessel of stone glass or earthenware, with no apert, sometimes without handles, sometimes with two jardinière, n [1 džārdinjār, 2 džēdjēts] Fr, fr jardin, 'garden', q r Ornamental flower pot, often mounted on stand jarful, n [1 džārfūl, 2 džēdfūl] jar (III) & -ful Contents of a jar, amount which a jar will contain jargon (I), n [1 džārgun, 2 džēdžun] O Fr, etymol doubtful A Confused, unintelligible speech, gibberish, b a debased, vulgar dialect c set of highly technical terms used by members of particular profession or trade, b students of particular branch of learning &c jargon (II) jargon, n [1 džārgun, džēdžun] & -ian Variant of -iron. Transparent, usually colorless or slightly brownish yellow variant of -iron found in Ceylon jargonelle, n [1 džārgonēl, 2 džēdžonēl] Fr dimin of perle, fr its colour A sweet, early pear

jargonize, vb intrans & trans [1 džārguniz, 2 džēdžonavz] jargon (I) & -ize a in trans To talk in a jargon, b trans, to convert into a jargon jarl, n [1 jarl, 2 džāl] O.N jarl, 'man of noble birth' See earl (hist) Scandinavian chieftain jarrah, n [1 jārā, 2 džārā], fr Australian native name jerrhyt a Kind of eucalyptus tree of S W Australia, with very durable wood, b timber from this tree jarring, adj [1 džāring, 2 džēring], fr Pres Part of jar (II) 1 (lit and fig) Harsh, discordant, unharmonious a jarring note 2 Causing a mental or physical shock jarring to the nerves jarringly, adv Preco & -ly In a jarring manner

jarvey, n [1 džarvi, 2 džēdvi], fr surname Jarvis Hackney coachman, cab driver, esp driver of Irish jaunting car jasmín(e), jessamin(e), n [1 džāsmun, džēsmun, 2 džēsmun, džēsmēn], fr Fr jasmin, jessamin, fr Arab, fr Pers yāsmīn Genus of ornamental, usually climbing, shrubs, with small, often fragrant, white or yellow flowers jasper, n [1 džāspēr, 2 džēspā], fr O Fr jaespe, fr Lat jaspis, fr Gk iaspis, 'a bright coloured, esp green, chalcedony', oriental loan word, op Arab yāsf, Heb yāshpēh Opaque variety of quartz, reddish, yellow, or brown jaundice (I), n [1 džāndis, džāndis, 2 džān-dis, džāndis], fr O Fr jaunice, fr jaune, 'yellow', fr Lat galbinus, greenish yellow, fr galbus, 'yellow', & -ice 1 Disease caused by obstruction of bile, and characterized by weakness, nausea, and temporary yellow pigmentation of the skin and the whites of the eyes 2 (fig) Mental state produced by prejudice, jealousy, condition in which the judgement is biased jaundice (II), vb trans, fr preo 1 (rare) To affect with jaundice 2 (fig, chiefly in PP) To affect with envy, jealousy, or gloom, to prejudice to take a jaundiced view jaunt (I), n [1 džāunt, džāunt, 2 džāunt, džāunt] Origin doubtful A pleasure trip, excursion jaunt (II), vb intrans, fr preo To take a short excursion for pleasure jauntily, adv [1 džāuntil, 2 džēntil] jauntily & -ly In a jaunty manner jauntiness, n [1 džāuntines, 2 džēntines] jauntily & -ness Quality of being jaunty, careless, cheerful, easy, good nature, self confidence, perkiness, esp as exhibited in manner jaunting-car, n [1 džāunting kar, 2 džāuntig kār] Irish two wheeled vehicle, with seats on either side back to back jaunty, adj [1 džāunt, 2 džēnti] Not connected with jaunt. Earlier jonkie, fr Fr gentil See genteele & gentile Feeling or affecting, careless ease, sprightly, swaggering, perky a jaunty manner, gait javelin, n [1 džāvin, 2 džēavin], fr Fr javelin, prob Celtic Light spear for throwing, dart jaw (I), n [1 jaw, 2 džā] Perh fr ME joice, fr O Fr joue, 'cheek, jaw', influenced in vowel sound by ME chau, fr OE caef, 'jaw' (see jowl) joue was earlier jode, fr Lat gobata, 'dish, platter' The word is difficult & doubtful See jowl 1 One of the two bones forming the framework of the mouth in vertebrates 2 (pl) a Mouth, including jaw bones and teeth (Phrs (vulg) hold your jaw, stop talking, b (fig) grip jaws of death 3 (pl) Parts of a machine &c between which material is held or crushed 4 (pl) Narrow entrance to, mouth of, a valley, &c 5 (colloq and vulg) n Talk, garrulity, loquacity, b lengthy and tedious reproof, warning lecture, admonition jaw (II), vb intrans & trans, fr preo 1 In-trans (vulg) n To talk, b to utter reproof 2 trans To lecture, reprove, admonish jabation n [1 džābāshun, 2 džēbēshun] fr Jobation by association with preo Lengthy tirade, reproof, moral allocution.

jaw-bone, n. One of the bones of the jaws jaw-breaker, n. (slang) Word composed of sounds difficult to pronounce jaw-breaking, adj. (of words) Containing strange, harsh sounds, difficult to pronounce jay, n. [1 jā, 2 džaj] M.E. fr O Fr Origin doubtful a One of a genus of noisy, crow-like birds, with brilliant colouring, longish tail, and short, rounded wings, b (fig) foolish, chattering person, jay walker (Am slang), person who walks the streets and roads, carelessly or absent-mindedly, without looking out for the traffic jazz, n. [1 jaz, 2 džaz] Invented word Noisy, discordant, usually syncopated, or ragtime music, played as accompaniment to dancing, originally of negro origin, also attrib, as jazz band &c jealous, adj. [1 jélus, 2 džélas], fr O Fr gelos, fr L zelō (-us), fr zēl (-us), 'zeal, emulation, jealousy' See zeal & -ous 1 Eager to uphold, solicitous for, guarding watchfully to be jealous of one's rights, honour &c 2 (Bib, of God) Requiring whole-hearted worship and service 3 a Apprehensive of being supplanted, outdone, by a rival in love, or in the favour of another jealous of one's friend, a jealous wife, b apprehensive of influence of rival, grudging, suspicious to be jealous of another's influence 4 Envious, feeling ill-will on account of another's possessions, happiness, success &c 5 Zealously vigilant, solicitous a jealous guardian jealously, adv Preo & -ly In a jealous manner jealousy, n. [1 jélusi, 2 džélas], fr O Fr gelosi jealous & -y 1 Watchful, solicitous care, esp in guarding 2 Envious, grudging suspicion and dislike of another, or of his achievements, advantages, possessions &c jean, jeane, n. [1 jān, 2 džōn], fr M.E. Gene, fr O Fr (drap de) Genes, Genoa a Strong, twilled, cotton fabric, b pl (Am slang) trousers, overalls jeer (I), n. [1 jēr, 2 džaj] Origin unknown (naut) Jeers, taunts for hoisting and lowering lower yards jeer (II), vb intrans & trans Not found before mid-16th cent, peth a form of choer 1 intrans To mock, scoff, speak contemptuously, derisively you may jeer, but can you do any better? Jeer at, to mock, throw contempt on 2 trans (rare) To taunt, deride jeer (III), n. fr preo Derisive speech, taunt, gibe jeihad, n. See jihad Jehovah, n. [1 jehōva; 2 džihōva], fr Heb Yahweh Hebrew name of God, in Old Testament Jehovist, n. [1 jshōvist, 2 džihōvist] See preo & -ist Author(s) of certain parts of the O T in which God is called Jehovah Jehovistic, adj. [1 jshōvistak, 2 džihōvistik] Preo & -ic Of, pertaining to, written by, a Jehovist Jehu, n. [1 jēhū, 2 džihū] With reference to 2 Kings ix 20 A driver, a skilful driver (of horses) jeune, adj. [1 jējūn, 2 džidžūn], fr Lat jēvūn (-us), 'fasting, hungry, barren, unproductive, meagre, spiritless, dull' Origin dubious 1 (lit and fig) Poor, unproductive, barren 2 Dull, dry, void of interest jejunely, adv. Preo & -ly In a jeune manner jeuneness, n. See preo & -ness The quality or state of being jeune jellied, adj. [1 jēlid, 2 dželid] jelly & -ed Stiffened, thickened, into a jelly jelly (I), n. [1 jēli, 2 džēli], fr Fr gelée, 'frost', fr Lat gelāta, fem PP of gelāre, 'to freeze' See golid 1 Soft, semi-transparent, gelatinous, resilient substance, specif a an edible material of this consistency, obtained by boiling down bones, and fleshy tissue, and allowing the liquid to cool, b substance of similar consistency obtained by boiling down fruit and sugar, and straining out the skins, stones &c 2 Fruit jelly flavoured with wine &c, moulded into a symmetrical shape and served as a sweet jelly (II), vb intrans & trans, fr preo To turn into, set as, jelly jelly-bag, n. Pointed bag through which jelly is strained jelly-fish, n. Marine animal, umbrella-shaped, and consisting chiefly of a whitish, jelly-like substance, with hanging tentacles; medusa jemadar, n. [1 jémadar, 2 džémədā] Hind, fr Arab jāmādar, fr jāmā, 'an aggregate', the compound indicates generally 'the leader of a troop of individuals' (Indian Army) Title of second rank of native officer in a company of sepoy jemmas, n. [1 jemimaz, 2 džimāmaz], fr woman's name (obs and colloq) Elastic-sided boots jemmy, n. [1 jēmi, 2 džēmi], fr man's name, popular form of James Burglar's short, sectional crowbar je ne sais quoi, n. [1 zhōnēsākwhā, 2 žōnēsākwhā, -kwā] Fr, 'I don't know what' Something too elusive for exact description or specification there is a je ne sais quoi of distinction about him jennet, n. [1 jēnst, 2 džēnt], fr Fr genet, fr Span jinete, 'light horseman', fr Arab Small Spanish breed of horses jenneting, n. [1 jēneting, 2 džēnting], fr Fr name Jeannel, dimin of Jean, 'John', so called because it is supposed to be ripe on St John Baptist's Day, June 24 Kind of very early summer apple, by popular etymology, also known as June eating jenny, n. [1 jēni, jīn, 2 džēni, džīn] Dimin of Jane 1 Travelling crane 2 (usually spinning-jenny) Machine for spinning several cotton threads at once 3 Stroke at billiards off the object ball placed near a cushion, into a pocket on the same side of the table jenny-wren, n. Female wren jeopardize, vb trans [1 jēpardiz, 2 džē-padaiz] Next word & -ize To bring into danger, put into jeopardy, imperil jeopardy, n. [1 jēpardī, 2 džēpēdī] M.E. je-, je-, je-, je-, fr O Fr jeu parti, 'even game', fr Lat jocus, 'game', see joke, & partii (-us), PP type of partire, 'to divide' See part Hazard, peril, danger jequirity, n. [1 jēkwīrti, 2 džikwīrti], fr Fr, fr native jequirity Indian shrub with coloured, poisonous seeds, used for ornament and in medicine jerboa, n. [1 jērbōa, 2 džārbōa], fr Arab yārba Small Arabian & N African rodent with long hind legs adapted for jumping, somewhat resembling a miniature kangaroo in appearance jeremiad, n. [1 jērimād, 2 džerimād], fr Fr jeremiade, fr Jeremie, fr Lat Jeremias, 'Jeremiah', & -ad, w reference to Lamentations of Jeremiah Lamentation, mournful complaint, tale of woe Jericho, n. [1 jērikō, 2 džerikōv] Town in S Palestine Phr go to Jericho, to this devil jerid, jerred, n. [1 jērid, 2 džarid], fr Arab jarid 1 Javelin used in Turkey, Arabia, Persia 2 Kind of mock tournament in which the jerid is used jerk (I), n. [1 jērk, 2 džāk] Not found before 16th cent, spelt also girk, yerk & jer, & has the meanings, 'blow, stroke, mp', the vb at first means 'to best' Origin unknown, though Skeat suggests a possible connexion w gird (II) 1 Sudden, sharp, staccato, movement, quirk, sudden, pull or twitch, sudden arrest of motion a jerk of the head, wrist &c, to give the rope a jerk, the carriage stopped with a jerk 2 a Involuntary, spasmodic, muscular contraction, specif b the jerks, spasmodic twitchings of limbs &c, esp as accompanying powerful emotional excitement jerk (II), vb trans & intrans, fr preo 1 trans To move, pull, throw, twitch &c, with a jerk 2 intrans To move with a jerk jerk (III), vb trans, fr S Am Span chargar, fr Peruv cachagua, 'dried meat' To cure (meat) by outting into long shoes and drying in the sun or over a fire, esp in PP jerked beef jerkin, adv [1 jērkū, 2 džākū] jerky & -ly In a jerky manner jerkin, n. [1 jērkin, 2 džākin] Origin doubtful Short, close fitting coat, usually of leather jerkinness, n. [1 jērkinēs, 2 džākinēs] jerky & -ness Quality of being jerky jerky, adj. [1 jērki, 2 džāki] jerk (I) & -y Moving in jerks, characterized by jerks, spasmodic, jumpy jersey, n. [1 jēri, 2 džēri], fr Jeremiah (schoolboy slang) A chamber utensil jersey-builder, n. Prob fr man's name Jerry, abbr fr Jeremiah Builder of cheap, trampy houses jersey-building, n. Hasty, careless, flimsy mode of construction jersey-built, adj. Built hastily and roughly of poor, flimsy materials jersey, n. & adj. [1 jēri, 2 džāzi] Name of one of the Channel Islands 1 n. A knitted or woven sleeved garment reaching from neck to waist; b animal of Jersey breed 2 adj. Derived from Jersey, specif, Jersey cow &c Jerusalem artichoke, n. [1 jērūsālem āru ohōk, 2 džērūsālem ārtjōuk], by popular etymol. fr Ital girasole, 'sun flower' See girasole The edible tuber, or plant itself, of a species of sunflower See artichoke Jerusalem pony, n. (facet) A donkey jess, n. & vb trans [1 jēs, 2 džēs] fr O Fr ges, fr Lat jactus, 'a throw', fr jact (um), PP type of jacere, 'to throw' See jact (III) 1 n. (falconry, usually in pl jesses) Short strap for putting round leg of hawk, with a ring at one end to which a leash is fastened 2 vb To put jesses on (hawk) jessamine, n. See jasmine Jesse, n. [1 jēsi, 2 džesi] Name of the father of David in the Bible, from whom the genealogy of Jesus Christ is traced in Matt &c, whence Tree of Jesse, representation of this genealogy by a tree growing from the body of Jesse, with various figures in the branches, and crowned with the figure of Christ at the top, frequently found in stained glass windows &c jest (I), n. [1 jēst, 2 džest] M.E. geste, geste, 'dead, exploit', fr O Fr geste, fr Lat gesta, 'deeds, acts', neut pl of PP of gerere, 'to do' See gerent, gest, & gestures 1 Some thing said or done to excite mirth, laughter, joke, witicism, a merry quip Phr (to speak) in jest, for fun, not in earnest 2 Object of ridicule, derision, laughing stock to be a standing jest jest (II), vb intrans, fr preo a To make jests, to speak or act in a comical, ludicrous manner, b to behave with levity, and irresponsibility, to trifle jest-book, n. Book containing collection of jests jester, n. [1 jēster, 2 džēste] jest (II) & -er One who jests, a funny fellow, specif, professional mirth-maker formerly attached to royal and noble households jesting, adj. [1 jēsting, 2 džēsting] jest (II) & -ing Of the nature of, expressing, a jest, given to jests, spoken in jest jestingly, adv Preo & -ly In a jesting manner, not in earnest Jesuit, n. [1 jēzuit, 2 džēzuit], fr Fr Jésuite, fr Mod Lat Jesuita, fr Lat stem Jesu, 'Jesus' & -ite 1 Member of Society of Jesus, Roman Catholic religious order founded in 1539 by Ignatius Loyola, Jesuit's bar, an ohona 2 (opprobriously, as used by Protestant opponents) A crafty, insidious intriguer, a dissembler, a casuist Jesuitical, adj. [1 jēzuitikl, 2 džēzuitikl] Preo & -ic & -al Resembling a Jesuit in principles and methods, specif (in opprobrious use, as above) crafty, intriguing,

- using cunning, insidious methods, subtle, jewelly, adj [1 jəʊəl, 2 dʒəʊəl] jewel & -y Like jewels, brilliant
- Jesuitically, adv Proc & -ly In a Jesuitical manner
- Jesuitism, n [1 jəzuitizm, 2 dʒezjuitizm] Jesuit & -ism Alleged principles and methods of the Jesuits, craftiness, subtlety, duplicity
- Jesuitize, vb trans & intrans [1 jəzuitiz, 2 dʒezjuitiz] See prec & -ize To treat, act, Jesuitically
- Jesuitry, n [1 jəzuitri, 2 dʒezjuitri] Jesuit & -ry Jesuitism
- jet (I), n [1 jət, 2 dʒet], fr O Fr jaet, fr Lat, fr Gk gagdes, 'jet', prob fr Gagas in Lycia 1 Rich, black, hard variety of lignite, capable of being highly polished, and used for ornaments 2 Colour of jet
- jet (II), adj, fr prec Of jet, of the colour of jet
- jet (III), vb trans & intrans, fr Fr jeter, 'to throw', fr L Lat jectare, fr Lat jacere, 'to throw', cogn w Gk hēō, 'I send' (fr juēn*), nor hēla Cp also jactitation, & cp adjacent 1 trans To emit, shoot out, in a thin stream 2 intrans To spurt forth in a jet
- jet (IV), n Fr See prec 1 Stream, rapid, continuous flow, spurt, emission, of water, steam, gas &c, driven upwards or forwards from a small opening 2 Spout, pipe &c, emitting gas, water &c
- jet (V), n [1 jətu, 2 dʒetən] Fr jeton, fr jeter see jet (III) Counter, with value stamped on it, used in gambling
- jetsam, n [1 jətsəm, 2 dʒetsəm] Variant of next word A Goods thrown overboard to lighten vessel, b such goods when washed ashore, in Phr jetsam and jetsam, c (fig) person tossed about by fate
- jettison, n & vb trans [1 jətsən, 2 dʒetsən], fr A Fr getteison, fr Lat jacere (em), 'a throwing, shaking', fr jac (fire), 'to throw', see jet (III), & -ation. 1 n The act of throwing goods overboard to lighten a ship 2 vb a To throw (cargo &c) overboard to lighten ship in distress, b (fig) to abandon, get rid of, free oneself from (an encumbrance)
- jetty, n [1 jəti, 2 dʒeti] ME jetley, O Fr jete, n, fr fem PP of jeter, 'to throw' See jet (III) 1 Lit 'something thrown, or built out' 2 Structure of wood or stone built out into water to form a rampart or mole to protect harbour or end of a pier 2 Land ing pier
- jeu de mots, n [1 ʒhə de mɔ, 2 ʒə de mɔ] Fr, 'play of words' Play on words, a pun
- jeu d'esprit, n Anglicized to [1 ʒhə dəsprɛ, 2 ʒə dəsprɛ] Fr, 'play of wit' Witicism, humorous sally, play of fancy
- Jew (I), n [1 jəʊ, 2 dʒə], fr O Fr giu, fr Lat Judaicus, fr Gk Ioudaios, fr Aramaic y'hudai, fr Heb y'hudah, 'Judah' a Member of Hebrew race, b (fig) avaricious, extortionate person, usurer
- Jew (II), vb trans, fr prec (colloq) To cheat, outwit, defraud
- Jewel (I), n [1 jəʊəl, 2 dʒəʊəl], fr A Fr juel, jewel, O Ir juel, jewel &c, fr Low Lat jocūla (pl), 'playthings, trinkets', fr Lat jocus 'play, jest' See joke & joy 1 a Personal ornament set with precious stone(s), b precious stone, gem 2 Highly valued person or thing, precious object
- Jewel (II), vb trans, fr prec 1 To adorn, set with jewels 2 To fit (watch) with precious stone, crystal &c for pivot holes
- Jewel-box, -case, n Small box, usually lined with velvet, and fitted with trays and divisions, for keeping jewels
- Jewel-house, n Building in Tower of London where crown jewels are kept
- Jeweller n [1 jəʊələr, 2 dʒəʊələr] jewel & -or Tradesman having a shop for the sale of jewels
- Jewellery, jewelry, n [1 jəʊəlri, 2 dʒəʊəlri] jewel & -ry Jewels collectively, ornaments set with gems
- Jewess, n [1 jəʊəs, 2 dʒəʊəs] Jew & -ess Female of Jewish race
- Jewing, n [1 jəʊɪŋ, 2 dʒəʊɪŋ] Jew, w reference to Jew's hooked nose, & -ing Wattles at base of beak of some pigeons
- Jewish, adj [1 jəʊɪʃ, 2 dʒəʊɪʃ] Jew & -ish Of, pertaining to, the Jews, like, of the nature of, a Jew
- Jewry, n [1 jəʊri, 2 dʒəʊri], fr O Fr guerie Jew & -ery 1 The Jewish people 2 That quarter of a town in which alone Jews were formerly allowed to live, ghetto
- Jew's-ear, n Kind of edible fungus growing on the elder tree
- Jews'-harp, n Earlier called Jews' trump, origin of name unknown Small harp shaped musical instrument, held against the teeth and played by striking a metal tongue with the finger
- Jezebel, n [1 jəzebl, 2 dʒəzebl] Name of Ahab's wife Vicious, abandoned, or shameless woman Phr paintred Jezebel
- jib (I), n [1 jɪb, 2 dʒɪb] Perch connected w gibbet (naut) Triangular sail set on a stay, and extending from jib boom to fore topmast head Phr cut of one's jib, external appearance, mode of dress &c
- jib (II), vb intrans & trans Prob of Du origin, variant of gybe (naut) 1 intrans (of sail) To swing across the vessel as the wind or course of vessel changes 2 trans To pull (sail &c) round, in tacking
- jib (III), vb intrans Etymol doubtful, perh same as prec fr sudden movement of sail 1 (of horse) a To stop suddenly, balk, b to move restively sideways or backwards 2 (fig) To come to a standstill, refuse to proceed Phr to jib at, to hesitate to do, to show reluctance, boggle at
- jibber, n [1 jɪbər, 2 dʒɪbər] Proc & -er Horse given to jibbing
- jib-boom, n Spar used to prolong bowsprit
- jib-door, n Origin doubtful Door set flush with wall, usually painted or papered for concealment
- jibe See gybe
- jiff (y), n [1 jɪf(i), 2 dʒɪf(i)] Etymol unknown (colloq) A moment, instant I'll come in half a jiffy
- jig (I), n [1 jɪg, 2 dʒɪg] O Fr gigue, 'a musical instrument, a lively dance', cp Ital giga, 'fiddle', cp M H G gige, Mod Germ geige, 'fiddle' The origin is very doubtful, Meyer Lubbe derives all two Romance words or thus group fr Gmc, & connects also Fr gigot, 'leg of mutton' a Quick, lively dance, b music for such a dance
- jig (II), vb intrans & trans See prec 1 intrans a To dance a jig, b to move jerkily up and down to jig up and down 2 trans a To move, jerk, shake, up and down, specif b to separate (coarse and fine ores &c) by shaking in sieves under water
- jigger (I), n [1 jɪgər, 2 dʒɪgər] jig (II) & -er 1 a One who jigs ore, b apparatus for this 2 (naut) a Kind of old fashioned fishing eloop, b small tackle consisting of double and single block. 3 Rest for billiard cue
- jigger (II), n Variant of chugoe Kind of mite, found in tropical countries, which burrows into, and lays its eggs in, the skin of men and animals, especially in the foot, causing sores
- jiggered, adj [1 jɪgəd, 2 dʒɪgəd] Mild and meaningless expletive well, I'm jiggered!
- juggle, vb trans [1 jʌgl, 2 dʒʌgl] jig (II) & -le To shake lightly, joggle
- jihad, jehad, n [1 jəhəd, 2 dʒɪhəd] Arab, 'contest, war' a Mohammedan war against unbelievers, campaign against the enemies of Islam; b (fig) campaign against a doctrine, pohoy &c
- jill See gill (IV)
- jilt (I), n [1 jɪlt, 2 dʒɪlt] Prob fr obs gilt, dimm of gill (IV) a Woman who
- heartlessly rejects a lover after encouraging him, b (rare) man who treats a woman in this way
- jilt (II), vb trans, fr prec To reject, discard (a lover, suitor), after encouraging him.
- Jim Crow, n [1 jɪm krɔ, 2 dʒɪm krɔ] American contemptuous name for a negro, Jim Crow car, railway carriage, tram car, set apart for exclusive use of negroes
- jump, edj [1 jʌmp, 2 dʒʌmp] Etymol unknown (Scots) a Slender, elegant, b skippy, scanty
- jungal See gingall
- jingle (I), n [1 jɪŋgl, 2 dʒɪŋgl] Imitative 1 Light, ringing, tinkling sound, as of small balls or light metal objects shaken together 2 Words or verses in simple rhythm with frequent repetition of sounds, designed to catch the attention or remain in the memory. 3 (obs, except in Cornwall) Light two-wheeled, covered or open, cart
- jingle (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec A intrans 1 To make a thin, ringing, tinkling sound 2 (of words, verses &c) To give an effect of easy rhythm and constant repetition of sounds B trans To cause to jingle
- jingo, n & adj [1 jɪŋɡɔ, 2 dʒɪŋɡɔʊl, fr popular patriotic song current in late seventies of 19th cent, beginning, 'We don't want to fight, but by Jingo if we do' 1 a Fiery, blustering person who professes vehement patriotism of a vulgar and rather frothy kind, a chauvinist, b term sometimes applied by political opponents to those who insist on taking every possible legitimate means to ensure national security and preparedness against attack 2 By Jingo, mild and meaningless expletive
- jingoism, n [1 jɪŋɡɔɪzəm, 2 dʒɪŋɡɔɪzəm] Proc & -ism Attitude of mind, political principles, of jingoes
- jingoist, n [1 jɪŋɡɔɪst, 2 dʒɪŋɡɔɪst] See prec & -ist Supporter of jingoism, a jingo
- jingoistic, adj [1 jɪŋɡɔɪstɪk, 2 dʒɪŋɡɔɪstɪk] Proc & -ic Of, pertaining to, jingoism
- jinks, n [1 jɪŋks, 2 dʒɪŋks] Imitative of rapid movement? High jinks, boisterous merry-making, sport, fun, jollification
- jinnæe, n [1 jɪnə, 2 dʒɪnə], fr Arab jin Often confused w genie One of a class of spirits in Mohammedan mythology able to assume the forms of men or animals, and having certain supernatural powers, genie
- juricksha, juriksha, n [1 ʃʊrɪk(ɪ)ʃəʊ, 2 dʒʊrɪk(ɪ)ʃəʊ] Jap jin, 'man', riksha, 'power', sha, 'carriage' Small two wheeled Japanese carriage, with a hood, and drawn by one or two men, often abbreviated 'rickshaw'
- jitney, n [1 jɪtu, 2 dʒɪtu] Origin doubtful (Am slang) a A five cent piece, b motor-car plying for hire over fixed route for a small sum
- ju-jitsu, n See ju-jutsu
- job (I), n [1 ʃɒb, 2 dʒɒb] Etymol unknown 1 Piece of work, either independent, or as part of larger undertaking, to do a job well, to finish one's job, to give a person a job Phrs to make a good job of it, do it well, to do his job for him, to destroy, ruin, him odd jobs, disconnected pieces of miscellaneous work, job lot, miscellaneous collection of things bought cheaply, by the job (of engagement to work, payment &c), for single piece of work, a good job too, a good thing, ihax, a good job, that is fortunate 2 Unscrupulous transaction which is profitable to private person at the expense of the public, specif, appointment of an unsuitable, incompetent person to a post from interested motives 3 (colloq) Habitual work, employment, 'profession, occupation, post, billet he's got a nice job as private secretary to a rich man
- job (II), vb intrans & trans, fr prec A intrans 1 To work irregularly at different kinds of employment, do odd jobs 2 To use an official position as opportunity for private gain, or unmerited advancement of friends 3 To act as broker B trans 1 a To let out (horse or carriage) for hire, b to hire, employ, by the job

 -2 To buy and sell, deal in (goods, stocks &c), as broker 3 To carry (a transaction) through by unscrupulous means from interested motives Phr to job (a person) into a post &c, put him there by unscrupulous means, by using undue influence &c job (III), vb trans & n Variant of jab 1 vb To strike, poke, prod, suddenly, to jab Phr to job at, make a stab, thrust, jab, at 2 n Sudden jab, poke, prod Job (IV), n [1 jób, 2 džoub] Name of Hebrew patriarch who gave his name to Book of Job in Old Testament, used as type of piousness Phr Job's comforter, one who aggravates person's distress under pretext of comforting him jobation, n [1 jóbášun, 2 džoubəʃən], fr obs jobe, 'to reprove', fr prec & -ation, often taken as jabation, & connected with jaw Lengthy reproof, tedious scolding jobber, n [1 jóber, 2 džəbə] job (II) & -er One who jobs, a an occasional workman who does odd jobs, b dealer in Stock Exchange securities, distinguished from broker, c man who lets out horses by the day, d person who carries out unscrupulous transactions in an underhand way, in public business jobbernowl, n [1 jóbernəl, 2 džəbənou] Cp Fr jobard, 'a dupe', & not, obs or provincial form of noddle Stupid person, blockhead jobbery, n [1 joberi, 2 džəberi] job (I) & -ery a Fraudulent method of gaining private advantage, esp in public, official, transactions, b unscrupulous action, exertion of undue influence, to further one's own ends johhing, adj [1 johing, 2 džohing], fr Pres Part of job (II) Doing occasional, odd work, not regularly employed johhing gardener johmaster, n [1 jóbmáster, 2 džəbmáster] One who lets out horses and carriages to hire Jock, n [1 jok, 2 džək] See next word. A Highland or Scottish soldier jockey (I), n [1 jóki, 2 džəki], fr Scots Jock=Jack (I), & -y Man, esp professional, riding in horse-races Jockey Club, society for promotion and regulation of horse racing jockey (II), vb trans & intrans, fr prec, in obs sense 'cheat' 1 trans To cheat, outwit, to persuade, coerce, by trickery, also jockey (person) into (doing something), jockey out of (property) 2 intrans To play the cheat, manoeuvre cunningly jockeydom, n [1 jokidum, 2 džəkidəm] jockey & -dom Jockeys collectively jockeyship, n [1 jókisip, 2 džəkiʃip] jockey & -ship The art of the jockey, skill in horse-racing jocko, n [1 jokò, 2 džəkou], fr Fr, fr native engco A chimpanzee jocose adj [1 jókòs, 2 džəukòs], fr Lat jocòs (us), 'humorous, jocose', fr joc-(us), 'a jest' See joke & -ose Facetious, playful, jesting, given to jesting, epoken in jest jocosely, adv Prec & -ly In a jocose manner jocoseness, n See prec & -ness The state or quality of being jocose, jocose behaviour or talk, jocosity jocosity, n [1 jókostì, 2 džəukostì] jocose & -ity Jocoseness jocular, adj [1 jókular, 2 džəkulà], fr Lat joculàr-(us), 'facetious', fr jocul-(us), dimin of jocus, 'a jest' See joke & -ar Humorous, facetious, mirthful jocularly, n [1 jókularitì, 2 džəkulàertì] Prec & -ity The state or quality of being jocular jocularly, adv [1 jókularlì, 2 džəkulàlì] See prec & -ly In a jocular manner jocund, adj [1 jókund, jókund, 2 džəukand, džəkand] O Fr, fr L. Lat jocundus, through the infance of jocus, a jest' (see joke), fr Lat jocundus, 'pleasant, delightful', fr juv.condos, cogn w juv are, 'to help, support, to please, delight' See coadjutor Merry, cheerful, blithe, pleasant, gay, genial jocundity, n [1 jókunditì, 2 džəukanditì] Prec & -ity. State or quality of being jocund jocundly, adv [1 jókundlì, 2 džəukandlì] See prec & -ly In a jocund manner Joe Miller, n [1 jò miler, 2 džou miler] Comedian (d. 1738) whose name was connected with a book of humorous stories published in 1739 Old, stale joke, a chestnut joe, n [1 jò, 2 džou], fr native (Australian) joe Young kangaroo jog (I), vb trans & intrans [1 jog, 2 džog] Etymol doubtful A trans 1 a To give a slight shake, jerk, push, to, to knock, shove, b to nudge, in order to attract attention to jog a person's elbow 2 (fig) To stimulate, stir up to jog one's memory B intrans a To move along at a slow trot, move heavily at a steady pace, to proceed slowly and heavily, but steadily, to jog on, along, b to move on, go on one's way, c (fig) to proceed, got on with, continue steadily in, one's occupation &c we jog along quietly jog (II), n, fr prec 1 Nudge, push, slight shake, shove 2 Slow, jolting trot, also jog trot joggle (I), vb trans & intrans [1 jógl, 2 džégl] Prec & -le 1 trans To shake slightly, give a push, jerk, or jolt to 2 intrans To shake, have a jolty or jerky motion joggle (II), n, fr prec Slight, jerky shake, jolt joggle (III), n Etymol doubtful, parh same as prec (mason's term) Method of jointing stone so that one piece is made to fit into another jog-trot, n jog (II) & trot a Regular, slow, heavy trot, b (fig) monotonous, humdrum, mode of life, method, or procedure Johannine, adj [1 jóhánin, 2 džəuhanen], fr L. Lat Johann-(es), fr Lat Johannes, 'John' See John & -ine Of, written by, the apostle St John Johannisberger, n [1 jóhánishérgér, 2 jouhánishérgé] German Place-Name & adj suff -er Kind of white Rhine wine or Hook from Johannisberg, near Wiesbaden John, n [1 jon, 2 džon], fr O Fr Jehan, fr Lat Johannes, fr Gk Iōánnēs, fr Heb Yohānān Man's Christian name John Barleycorn, personification of malt liquor, John Bull, a typical Englishman, the English nation, John Bullism, typically English character, oondnot, policy &c, John Chinaman, Chinaman, John Company, the old East India Company, John Doe, fictitious plaintiff in legal action, John Dory (see dory) Johnian, adj & n [1 jónian, 2 džóunian] John & -ian a adj Of St John's College, Cambridge, b n, member of this Johnny, n [1 joni, 2 džoni] John & -y (slang) a Fellow, chap, b a dandy, man about town, Phr Johnny Raw, beginner, novice, recruit Johnny-cake, n, fr Jonathan ? a (U.S.A.) Flat cake made from maize flour, b (Australia) wheat-meal cake Johnsone, n [1 jónsonez, 2 džonsóniz], fr name of Samuel Johnson, writer and lexicographer, d. 1784 a Literary style of Dr Johnson, b feeble imitation of this, reproducing its least admirable mannerisms, ponderous, verbose, inflated style, abounding in words of Latin origin Johnsonian, adj [1 jónsónian, 2 džonsónian], fr name of Samuel Johnson See prec & -ian Pertaining to, resembling, Dr Johnson or his style join (I), vb trans & intrans [1 jom, 2 džoin], fr O Fr joign, stem of joindre, 'to join', fr Lat jungere, 'to join, unite, connect', cogn.

w Sort yunakti, 'harnesses', yulla-i, 'harnessed', Gk zeugnais, 'to yoke, harness' (see zeugma), Lith jungiu, 'to yoke', O.E. geoc, 'yoke' See yoke & op coadjutor A. trans 1 To fasten, connect, attach, put together so as to form a whole, to combine to join two pieces of material together, one piece on to another, Phr to join battle, begin fighting, engage, to join hands, a to clasp hands, b to combine with another in action, unite for an undertaking 2 To give connecting link, way, road, to, unite to join two points by a line, to join two towns by a railway, banks of a river by a bridge &c 3 To unite, bring together, bring into close association with to join persons, one person with another, in friendship, marriage &c, Phr to join forces (with), to unite in action, act in concert with 4 a To come up to, come into company of, associate oneself with I will wait here till you join me, to join a person in a wall, a drink &c, b to become a member of to join a society &c, c to take one's place in, go, or return, to join one's ship, regiment &c 5 To come into connexion with, meet and form one with, flow, or run, into the stream joins the river, the lane joins the high road B intrans 1 a To be united, come together, meet the two roads join at that point, b to be in contact, be adjacent the two estates join 2 To associate oneself with, take part, in common with another, in join with me in buying him a present, if you are raising a subscription, I'll join (in) join (II), u, fr prec Place or line of contact or fastening, junction joinder, n [1 jóinder, 2 džóinda], fr Fr joindre, 'to join', see join (I), infu used as n (law) Act of joining, uniting, state of being joined, union joiner, n [1 jóiner, 2 džóina], fr O Fr joigneor, fr joigner, 'to join', fr joign, stem of joindre, 'to join' See join (I) & -er 1 One who, that which, joins 2 Specif, skilled workman doing the lighter kinds of work in wood, op carpenter joinery, n [1 jóiner, 2 džóinari] join & -ery 1 The art, occupation, of the joiner 2 Woodwork, furniture &c made by joiner joint (I), n [1 jóint, 2 džóint] O Fr, P.P. of joindre, 'to join'. See join (I) 1 a Place, line, surface &c where two things are joined, articulation, junction, b method, structure, contrivance, by means of which two things are joined 2 (anat) Place where two bones join, method or structure by which two bones fit together, either immovably, or so as to permit of movement to put (knee &c) out of joint, to dislocate it Phr to put one's nose out of joint, supplant one in another's favour &c, 'the times are out of joint' (Shakespeare), disordered. 3 One of the parts into which hatcher divides a carcass, esp as prepared for cooking a joint of beef 4 (bot) Point at which leaf or branch springs from stem 5 (geol) One of a series of more or less parallel cracks traversing a mass of rocks 6 (book-binding) Hinge of leather &c between back and sides of book. 7 (slang, USA) a A low, illegal drinking saloon, gambling hell &c, b an institution, a building, house joint (II), adj, fr prec 1 Of, pertaining to, done by, involving, produced by, two or more persons joint efforts, action, ownership &c 2 (of persons) United in some action, sharing, participating joint owners, heirs &c joint (III), vb trans, fr join (I) 1 To unite, connect, fasten, fit together, by joints a jointed fishing rod, doll &c 2 a To divide into joints, b cut at joints, disjoint 3 (masonry) To fill joints of (brickwork) with mortar 4 To give a true edge to, plane edge of (board &c), preparatory to fitting it to another jointer, n [1 jóinter, 2 džóinta] Prec & -er 1 Plane for jointing 2 Bent iron bar for riveting stones together 3 Mason's tool for pointing jointless, adj [1] jóintles; 2 džóintlēs. joint (I), & -less Without joints jointly, adv [1] jóintli, 2 džóintli joint (II) & -ly Together, unitedly, in combination jointress, n. [1] jóintres, 2 džóintres, fr obs jointer, 'joint holder', & -ess Widow on whom a jointure is settled joint stock company, n Association of persons who carry on a business with a common capital. jointure (I), n [1] jóimohur, 2 džóintjə, fr Fr, fr Lat junctura, 'jointure', fr junct- (um), PP type of jungere, 'to join' See join (I) & -ure Estate settled upon a woman at her marriage jointure (II), vb trans, fr preo To settle jointure upon joust, n [1] joust, 2 džoust, fr ME gieste, early Mod (16th cent) jiste, fr O Fr gieste, fr gaur, 'to lie', fr Lat jacere, 'to lie', fr jacere, 'to throw' See jet (III). One of the parallel timbers resting upon beams, to which floor boards or laths of coiling are nailed.

joisted, adj [1] jóisted, 2 džóisted Preo & -ed Provided with joists joke (I), n [1] jók, 2 džók. Only fr 17th cent, fr Lat jocus, 'a jest', cogn w Lith jūlas, 'jest', the orig meaning was prob 'jesting speech', cogn w Sert jačus, 'asks, begs', O H G jēhan, 'to say, declare', O N jā, 'to declare, confess'.
 Something said or done to cause amusement, laughter &c, incident, circumstance, exciting laughter, jest, witicism, amusing speech Phrs no joke, a serious matter, practical joke, trick played on person to give amusement to others joke (II), vb intrans & trans, fr preo 1 intrans To make jokes, to jest, to be merry, witty, humorous 2 trans To make fun of, make merry with, banter joker, n [1] jóker, 2 džouks Preo & -er 1 a One who jokes, b (slang) man, fellow, chap 2 (cards) Odd card in pack, used in some games, as enche, as highest trump, or in poker as any card the holder chooses to suit his hand. jokingly, adj [1] jókungh, 2 džókungh, fr Pres Part of joke (II) & -ly As a joke jokul jókul, n [1] jókool, yékool, 2 joukul, jíkul Icel jókull, 'icicle', dimin of jok,
 'ice', op OE gicel, 'icicle' See icicle Snow covered peak in Iceland joky adj [1] jóka, 2 džouks joke (I) &
 -y Fond of, given to, joking, of the nature of a joke jollification, n [1] jólikáfahun, 2 džólik- káfəjun See next word & -ification. a The act of jollifying, b festivity, revel, merry making jolly, vb trans & intrans [1] jóli, 2 džól- ai jolly & -ly a trans To make jolly, b intrans, to become jovial, make merry jollily, adv [1] jóli, 2 džólili jolly & -ly In a jolly manner jollity, n [1] jóli, 2 džóliti, fr O Fr jolivete, fr jolis, 'pretty, gay' See jolly & -ty State or condition of being jolly, mirth, merriment, gaiety jolly (I), adj, n, & vb trans [1] jóli, 2 džól- ai & jól(f), fr O Fr jól(f), merry, gay, pretty' Etymol doubtful 1 adj a Gay, merry, jovial, mirthful, b slightly intoxicated, Phr the jolly god, Bacchus, c (colloq) agreeable, pleasant, delightful, enjoyable jolly weather 2 n (slang) A Royal Marine 3 vb To treat with good humour, to flatter, cajole, into good temper or acquiescence, also jolly along, up jolly (II), adv, fr preo (colloq) Very, thoroughly a jolly good fellow, you will be jolly late, jolly well do what I tell you jolly-boat, n Origin doubtful, possibly fr Du jolle. See yawl Small ship's boat jolt (I), vb trans & intrans [1] jólt, 2 džóult 1 etymol unknown 1 trans To shake with sudden jerk or shock, give a jog to, e.g. in a moving vehicle 2 intrans (of vehicle)

To move along jerkily, bump along, as on rough surface. jolt (II), n, fr preo Sudden, rough, jerk, jog, or bump jolterhead, n [1] jóltəhed, 2 džóultəhed Earlier jolthead, etymol doubtful Stupid person, fool, blockhead jolty, adj [1] jólti, 2 džóulti jolt (II) &
 -y Causing, accompanied by, jolts, bumpy Jonah, n [1] jóna, 2 džóna, fr name of the Hebrew prophet Person supposed, or appearing, to bring bad luck and disaster upon an enterprise in which he takes part Jonathan, n [1] jónathan, 2 džónəpən Perh fr name of a governor of Connecticut, Jonathan Trumbull, d 1785 Also Brother Jonathan, a citizen of USA, b American nation personified jongleur, n [1] zhonglér, 2 žžglér Fr, variant of O Fr jo(u)gleur See juggler (hist) Wandering minstrel jonquil, n [1] jóngkwil, 2 džéngkwil, fr Fr jonquille, fr dimin of Lat juncus, 'rush', fr jōin* cos, ep O Ir aoine, 'rush' Plant growing from bulb, with sweet-smelling flowers, a variety of narcissus Jordan almond, n [1] jórdan áhmund, 2 džórdan áhmund Origin of Jordan doubtful, prob corrupt of Ir jardin, 'garden' Fine variety of almond orum, n [1] jórum, 2 džórum, fr King Joram a Large drinking vessel, b contents of drinking-vessel, large quantity of drink joss, n [1] jós, 2 džós Proh fr Port deus, fr Lat deus, 'god' See deity Chinese idol josses, n [1] jóser, 2 džosa Etymol unknown (slang, vulg) Fellow joss-house, n Chinese temple joss-stick, n Stick of fragrant gum mixed with clay, burned as incense in Chinese temples jostle (I), vb trans & intrans [1] jósl, 2 džásl Earlier juiste, fr joust & -le 1 trans To push against, knock, elbow, push roughly, hustle 2 intrans To perform act of jostling jostle (II), n, fr preo Rough push, elbowing jot (I), n [1] jót, 2 džót, fr Lat, fr Gk iota, 'letter i' See iota Triffo, negligible quantity, esp with negative not a jot jot (II), vb trans Prob fr preo To write down briefly, make a note of esp jot down jotting, n [1] jóting, 2 džóting Preo & -ing Rapidly made, brief, note joule, n [1] jóul, 2 džúil, fr J P Joule, d 1889, English physicist (physics) Unit of electrical energy, amount of work done per second by a current of one ampere flowing at a potential of one volt -10 million ergs jounce, vb trans & intrans [1] jouns, 2 džouns Perh mixture of jaunt or jump & brounce To hump, jolt journal (I), n [1] jérni, 2 džáni, fr O Fr journal, fr Lat diurnál (se), 'daily' See diurnal 1 a Book containing private record of events as they occur day by day, diary, b (part) the Journals, daily record of proceedings 2 (naut) Ship's journal, logbook 3 (book keeping) Book in which each day's transactions are entered. 4 a Daily newspaper b any periodical publication a monthly journal 5 (origin doubtful) Part of shaft resting on bearings, also journal box, part of machine in which the journal revolves or moves journal (II), adj See preo (archaic) Daily, cp Spenser 'Whiles from their journal labours they did rest' journalise, n [1] jérnaléz, 2 džáneléz journal & -ise Written style characteristic of inferior journalists, careless, unpolished style produced in a hurry, high flown style with cheap effects journalism, n [1] jérnalizm, 2 džánelizm journal & -ism Profession of a journalist journalist, n [1] jérnalíst, 2 džánelíst journal & -ist One who regularly writes for, or edits, a periodical publication, esp a newspaper journalistic, adj [1] jérnalístik, 2 džánel- ístik Preo & -ic Pertaining to, characteristic of, journalism or journalists journalize, vb trans & intrans [1] jérnalíz, 2 džánelíz journal & -ize 1 trans To enter, record, in a journal. 2 intrans To keep a journal, write a diary journey (I), n [1] jérni, 2 džáni, fr O Fr journee, 'day, day's work, day's journey', fr Low Lat diurnata, 'day, day's work', fr Lat diurn (se), 'daily', see diurnal, & fia, ending of fom PP of vbs in -ire, & cp journal 1 Expedition, esp of some duration, or to a place at a considerable distance, travels 2 Distance traversed, or that may be traversed, in specified time a day's journey from here journey (II), vb intrans, fr preo To take a journey, travel. journeyman, n [1] jérniman, 2 džánniman a Formerly, one hired to work by the day, b now, man who has learnt his craft, contrasted with an apprentice journey-work, n. a Work done by a journeyman, for hire, b routine, hack work. joust, just, vb intrans & n [1] jóust, joust, just, 2 džúst, džoust, džást, fr O Fr juiste (r), fr L Lat juistare, 'to approach', fr juis, 'near, close', fr juisatā*, adv formed fr superl of adj gh* (se), 'bound fast, closely', cogn w jugum, 'yoke' See jugate & yoke 1 vb intrans To take part in a tournament or joust, to tilt. 2 n. a In-counter between two armed and mounted knights at a tournament, b (often pl) display of jousting, a tournament Jove, n [1] jöv, 2 džouv, fr Lat Jov (er), acc, O Lat Jov (em), 'Jupiter', fr orig vocative djeu* of base djeu-*, 'shining, brilliant' See deity & dies non Jupiter, chiefly in Phr by Jove! jovial, adj [1] jóvial, 2 džóvial, fr Fr., fr Lat jovialis (se), 'of Jupiter', fr Jov (em), 'Jupiter' See preo & -al. Cheery, merry, hearty, festive, convivial, originally considered as being under the influence of the planet Jupiter, op and contrast saturnine joviality, n. [1] jóvialiti, 2 džóvialiti Preo & -ity State or quality of being jovial jovially, adv [1] jóvial, 2 džóvial See preo & -ly In a jovial manner Jovian, adj [1] jóvian, 2 džóvian Jove & -ian. a Pertaining to, resembling, Jupiter, august, majestic, b of the planet Jupiter jowl, n [1] jóul, 2 džául OE ceaf, 'jaw', ME chaul, thus wd. givo Mod Engl. [tʃɔl], it is probable that both the initial cons & the vowel have been influenced by O Fr. & ME joue, 'jaw', q.v. under jaw 1 Jaw, jawbone, more usually of lower part of face including cheeks and chin, and esp of a thick, fat, heavy face Phr cheek by jowl, close together, side by side 2 a Outside of neck, dewlap, of cattle &c, b head and shoulders of salmon.

joy (I), n. [1] jui, 2 džui, fr ME, fr O Fr joie, fr Low Lat gaudia*, fem sing n, fr Lat gaudia, pl of gaudium, 'joy' See gaud & gaudy (I) 1 Great pleasure, gladness, delight, rejoicing 2 Thing which provokes delight 'A thing of beauty is a joy forever' (Keats, 'Endymion') joy (II), vb intrans & trans, fr O Fr joir, 'rejoice', fr Lat gaudere, 'to rejoice' See preo (poetical) 1 intrans To take pleasure, rejoice in, to feel joy at I joy to see you happy 2 trans a To give joy to, delight, b (archaic) to enjoy joy-bells, n pl Church bells rung to celebrate a joyful occasion, or to announce a festivity, triumph &c joyful, adj [1] jóifool, 2 džóifool joy & -ful Feeling, expressing, bringing, joy, happy, glad joyfully, adv Preo & -ly In a joyful
 manner joyfulness, n. See preo & -ness State or quality of being joyful.

joyless, adj [1 jólas; 2 džólas] joy & -less Without joy, giving no joy, dismal, gloomy joylessly, adv Prec & -ly In a joyless manner joylessness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being joyless joyous, adj [1 jóus; 2 džóus] ME, fr O Fr. joyeux See joy & -ous Full of joy, happy, merry, gay, joyful joyously, adv Prec & -ly In a joyous manner joyousness, n See prec & -ness State or quality of being joyous joy-ride, n (colloq) An unnecessary, irresponsible, trip in a motor car, esp in one belonging to someone else, and without his knowledge or permission joy-sticks, n (airman's slang) Controlling lever of an aeroplane jubé, n [1 džóbá; 2 žúbe] Fr, fr Lat jube, imper of jubere, 'to command, bid', fr first word of Lat prayer, said before the reading of the Gospel fr the rood-loft Lat jubere, O Lat joub, PP jussum, seems to have meant orig 'to put in action, cause to move', fr base jēdh* &c, 'to shake', op Sert jūdhat, 'fights', Lath jūdmu, 'shake, move' A gallery or loft over the rood screen in a Church, a rood-loft jubilance, -cy, n [1 džóblans; 2 džúb-lans] fr Lat jubil (äre), 'to shout for joy' See next word & -ce (rare) Joy, exultation, triumphant delight jubilant, adj [1 džóblant; 2 džúb-lant] fr Lat jubilant (em), Pres Part of jubil (äre), 'to shout for joy' See jubilate Triumphant, exultant, elated jubilantly, adv Prec & -ly In a jubilant manner jubilate (I), vb intrans [1 džóblät; 2 džúb-lät] fr Lat jubilät (um), PP type of jubil (äre), 'to shout for joy', fr jubil (um), 'cry of joy, shout', the stem jā-* is cogn w MHG jūch, 'cry of joy', jūchezen, 'to shout', Mod Germ jauchzen Cp Gk υῖν, 'outcry' To exult, triumph, to hug oneself, shout with delight, jump for joy jubilate (II), n [1 džóbläht; 2 džúb-läht] Lat jubiläte, 'cry out with joy', imperat pl of jubilare, 'to shout for joy' See prec. 1 Hundredth psalm, beginning 'O be joyful', used as canticle, as alternative to Benedictus, in Anglican matins 2 Joyful outcry jubilation, n [1 džóbläshun; 2 džúb-läshun] jubilate & -ion Act of jubilating, exultation, triumphant rejoicing jubilee, n [1 džóblä; 2 džúb-il] fr Fr jubilé, fr L Lat jubilaeus (annus), 'year of jubilee', fr Gk ιὸβηλαί (os), adj, fr Heb yobel, 'ram, ram's horn trumpet, rejoicing, jubilee', w vowel assimilated in Lat to that of jubilum, 'joyous outcry' See jubilate (I) 1 Festival of emancipation, kept by Jews every fiftieth year 2 (RC Ch) Year of indulgence, granted at fixed intervals, or at time specially appointed 3 Fiftieth anniversary of a notable event silver jubilee, twenty-fifth anniversary, (the) diamond jubilee, sixtieth anniversary, specif, of the accession of Queen Victoria Phr jubilee port, name given to the '87 vintage on account of Queen Victoria's first jubilee 4 Festival, festive season or occasion

Judaic, adj [1 džóðäik; 2 džúðérik] fr Lat Judaicus (us), fr Gk Ιουδαϊκός (os), 'Jewish', fr Ioudai (os), 'a Jew' See Jew & -ic Jewish

Judaism, n [1 džóðäizm; 2 džúðéizm] fr Lat Judaus (us), 'Jewish', fr Gk Ιουδαῖος (os), 'a Jew' See Jew & -ism Religion of the Jews

Judaist, n [1 džóðäist; 2 džúðéist] See prec & -ist Adherent of Judaism

Judaize, vb trans & intrans [1 džóðäiz; 2 džúðéiz] fr L Lat judaiz (äre), 'to Judaize', fr Gk ιουδαῖσμαι, fr Ioudai (os), 'a Jew' See Jew & -ize 1 trans To make Jewish, convert to Judaism 2 intrans To follow Jewish customs &c

Judas, n [1 džóðas; 2 džúðas, -es] Name of disciple who betrayed Christ 1 Traitor, infamous betrayer 2 (without cap) A small peep-hole in a door

Judas-coloured, adj From colour of Judas's hair, according to tradition (of hair) Red Judas-kiss, n Act of treachery, performed under the pretence of friendship

Judas-tree, n Tree of S Europe and Asia Minor, with reddish-purple flowers appearing before the leaves, traditionally said to be the tree on which Judas hanged himself

Judenhetze, n [1 džóðnhetse; 2 džúðnhetse] Germ Persecution of Jews judge (I), n [1 jú; 2 džadz] fr O Fr juge, fr Lat jūdic (em), nom jūdex, 'judge', fr jous* dic- (s), 'he who declares what is just', fr jous*, 'law, justice' See jus & dic-, cogn w dic-ere, 'to say, declare', see dictation 1 a Official appointed to preside over court of justice, and to hear and decide cases Judge of the High Court &c, as title, only of County Court judges, in English usage, op jushice Phr as grave as a judge, very solemn, b (of God) supreme and absolute arbiter 2 (Jewish hist) a Supreme magistrate having civil and military authority before time of the kings, b (pl, cap) book of Old Testament recording events in the time of the judges 3 Person appointed to settle dispute, controversy 4 a Person able to give authoritative opinion on a point or thing a judge of dogs, wine, men &c, b person specially appointed to apporportion merit, to award success in a competition, or exhibition, e g at a race, horse show &c judge (II), vb trans & intrans, fr O Fr juger, fr Lat jūdicāre, 'to judge, decide', fr jūdic-, stem of jūdex, 'judge' See prec A trans 1 a To hear, try (a case) in a court of justice, to pronounce judgement, b to try (a person) and pronounce sentence - God will judge all men, c to pass moral or intellectual judgement upon, appraise critically merits and demerits of it is not for me to judge you, your conduct 2 To give a final opinion upon the relative merits of competitors in a contest of any kind; to decide authoritatively who has won a game, match &c, to discriminate between the claims of candidates and award prize to judge horses, cattle &c 3 To hold the opinion, deem I judge him to be a very honest sort of man B intrans 1 To act as a judge, pass judgement, award, a in a court of law, b at a competition, exhibition &c, c to pass moral judgement, esp unfavourable judgement, or appraise moral or intellectual values 'judge not that ye be not judged' 2 To draw conclusions from facts, form an opinion, come to a decision whether he was right or not I am unable to judge, to judge by appearances

Judge Advocate General, n. Legal official appointed to advise the Crown on matters of military law and court-martial, a deputy, judge advocate, appearing for him in court judge-made, adj Judge made law, that based on the interpretation put upon statutes &c by judges judg(e)ment, n [1 júment; 2 džáðimant] judge & -ment 1 a Authoritative decision given by a judge sitting officially in court, b decree, decision, of a court as to what is just or legal in a given case 2 (theol) Final award, sentence, of God as supreme judge of all things the Day of Judgement 3 Result of a Divine decree, or something regarded as such, a calamity sent by God as a punishment his misfortunes were a judgement upon him for his wickedness 4 Intellectual process of judging, of comparing, discriminating, relating, material, moral, or intellectual facts, and reaching a rational conclusion 5 Capacity for forming an intellectual judgement, esp a right one; discernment, discernment, prudence, sagacity - a man of good heart but poor judgement 6 Result of the process of judging (4), an opinion, a view, conclusion in my judgement you are wrong judg(e)ment-day, n. Day on which God will pronounce final judgement on all mankind judg(e)ment-seat, n Judge's seat, court of justice, tribunal judgeship, n [1 júshap; 2 džadz[ə]p] judges & ship Office of a judge judgmatic(al), adj [1 júmátek; 2 džadz/ metak; 3 džadz/ metak; 4 džadz/ metak] fr judge, on anal of dogmatic (colloq) Showing sound judgement, judicious judgmatically, adv Prec & -ly (colloq) In a judgmatic manner judicature, n [1 džóðikachur; 2 džáðikát[s]] fr Med Lat jūdicātura, fr Lat jūdicat (um), PP type of jūdicāre, 'to judge' See judge (II) & -ure 1 Judges collectively, body of those employed in the state administration of justice 2 Administration of justice Supreme Court of Judicature, used as full official title of the various Courts of Justice composing the High Court, as determined by the Judicature Acts judicial, adj [1 džóðishal; 2 džáðishal] fr Lat jūdicālis (is), 'judicial', fr jūdicat (um), 'legal investigation, trial, judgement', fr jūdic-, stem of jūdex See judge & -al 1 Pertaining to a judge, or to a court of justice, or to administration of justice the judicial bench, judicial proceedings Phr judicial murder, unjust sentence of death pronounced after legal trial 2 Judging, discriminating, apt at reasoning, and deciding, capable of forming an impartial judgement a judicial mind, intellect judicially, adv Prec & -ly In a judicial manner judiciary, adj & n [1 džóðishan; 2 džáðishan] fr Lat jūdicārius See judicial & -ary 1 adj Pertaining to a court of law, judicial judiciary proceedings &c 2 n Judges collectively, judicature an impartial and incorruptible judiciary judicious, adj [1 džóðishas; 2 džáðishas] fr Fr judicieux, fr Lat, fr stem jūdic See judge & -ous Wise, prudent, showing sound judgement, discerning judiciously, adv Prec & -ly In a judicious manner judiciousness, n See prec & -ness Quality of being judicious jug (I), n [1 jú; 2 džag] Etymol. unknown 1 Deep vessel of earthenware, glass &c, with handle and spout, for holding liquids 2 (slang) (Stone) jug, prison, in jug, in geol.

jug (II), vb trans, fr prec a To sew (hare, rabbit) in covered jar, b (slang) to put into gaol jug (III), also jug-jug, n & vb intrans Imitative a n Notes in song of nightingale, b vb, to utter this note jugate, adj [1 džógät; 2 džúgét] fr Lat jūgāt (um), PP type of jūgāre, 'to connect, join', fr jug (um), 'yoke', cogn w yoke (bot) Having the leaflets in pairs jugful, n [1 júgful; 2 džágful] jug (I) & -ful a Contents of a jug, b amount which a jug will hold

Juggernaut, n [1 júgernawt; 2 džágernät] fr Hind Jagannāth, 'lord of the universe', fr Sort Jagannātha, fr jagat, 'world', & nātha, 'lord' 1 Form of Hindu god Vishnu, the image of the god at Orissa was formerly dragged through the streets on a car, before and under which devotees were said to hurl themselves, allowing themselves to be crushed to death 2 (fig) Irresistible, relentless, ruthless force which destroys all that comes in its way, (also in same sense) Juggernaut's car jugguns, n [1 júgnz; 2 džággnz] Etymol. unknown (slang) Inexperienced, simple person who allows himself to be easily duped juggle (I), vb intrans & trans [1 júgl; 2 džágl] fr O Fr jogler, fr L Lat joculare, fr Lat joculār, 'to joke, jest', fr jocul (us), dimin. of jocus, 'jest' See joke A intrans 1 To perform conjuring tricks, exhibit manual dexterity, sleight-of-hand 2 (fig) Juggle with, a to misrepresent, distort (acts); b to practise artifice upon, deceive (person); to juggle with words, use them for purposes of deceptical and misrepresentation. B trans. To overcome by trickery, fraud, cunning, artifice, cheat. to juggle a person out of his money.

juggle (II), n. fr prec. 1. Feat of manual dexterity, sleight-of-hand. 2. Cunning trick, artifice, imposture, verbal deception, misuse of words for purpose of misleading. juggler, n. [1 juglér, 2 džigler], fr O Fr jouleur, fr Lat. joculator (-er) 'jester', fr joculāre, P.P type of joculāre, 'to jest'. See juggle (I) & -er. One who juggles, a one who performs feats of manual dexterity, b a cheat, trickster; pretension. juggler, n. [1 džigler, 2 džigler]. juggle & -ery. 1. The art, act, or practice of juggling. 2. Impudence, fraud, cunning trick, misrepresentation.

Jugo-Slav, n. [1 džo sláv, 2 džogov sláv]. Serbo, Southern Slav. Inhabitant, subject, of Jugo-Slavia, the kingdom of the Serbs, Croats, and Slovenes, formed by union of the former Serbs with the Hungarian Croats & Jugars. jugal, adj & n. [1 jūgāl, džogāl, 2 džogāl džogāl], fr Lat. jugal (-er), 'collarbone', cogn. w jūg (-er), 'yoke'. See yoke & -er. 1. adj. a Of, pertaining to, head and neck, jugular veins, four large veins conveying blood from head and face; b (of fish) with ventral fins in front of pectoral. 2. n. Jugular vein.

jugulate, vb trans. [1 jūgūlāt, džogūlāt, 2 džig, džigūlāt], fr Lat. jūgulāre (-er), P.P type of jūgulāre, 'to cut the throat of, kill, to destroy', fr jūgūl (-er), 'collar bone throat'. See jugal. A to cut throat of, strangle, b (med.) to check (disease) by drastic remedy.

juice, n. [1 jūc, 2 džic], fr Fr jus, fr Lat. jus 'broth, soup', cogn. w Serb ju 'broth', ju 'soup', fr ju 'juice', 'broth, mixture', connected w ju 'juice', 'juice', 'to join together', whence Lat. jungere, 'to join'. See join & yoke. 1. Fluid part of animal or vegetable tissue: juice of grapes, lemon juice, 2. (fig.) Essence, essential meaning, best part, of anything. 3. (slang or colloq., U.S.) a Electric current & motive power &c., b petrol, gasoline for motor-car.

juiceless, adj. [1 džūles, 2 džūles]. Prec. & -less. Without juice.

juiciness, n. [1 džūness, 2 džūness]. See juice word & -ness. Quality of being juicy. juicy, adj. [1 džū, 2 džū]. juice & -y. 1. Containing much juice, succulent. 2. (slang) Full of interest, not dull or dry, spicy.

ju-jū, n. [1 džū džū, 2 džū džū]. Etymol. doubtful, nature word in ju-jū. (V Afr) 1. Charm, magic spell, feat. 2. Ban, prohibition, effected by such a charm; taboo.

jujube, n. [1 džū, 2 džū]. fr Fr, fr Lat. jūjuba fr Gr. jūjuba an Eastern plant. 1. Small plum-like fruit an Eastern shrub. 2. Lozenge made of sugar, gelatine &c., containing in imitation of this.

ju-jitsu, ju-jitsu, n. [1 džū džitsu, 2 džū džitsu]. Jap. jū-jitsu. Japanese art and style of wrestling.

jūjū, n. [1 džū džū, 2 džū džū]. fr Fr, fr Arab jūjū, fr Pers jūjū, fr jūjū 'rose', & ch, water. Sweet syrup, soothing medicine.

Julian, adj. [1 džūlian, 2 džūlian]. fr Lat. jūlianus, adj. fr jūli (-er). Julian, & -an. Of Julian Caesar. Julian Calendar, calendar as reformd by Julian Caesar.

Julienne, n. [1 džūlien, 2 džūlien]. Fr, fr personal name. Clear soup containing finely chopped carrots and vegetables.

Juli, n. [1 džū, 2 džū]. M.E. Juli, fr O Fr Juli, fr Lat. jūlius (name) Juli, named s' of Julius Caesar. Seventh month of year.

jumble (I), -th trans. & intrans. [1 džūmbl, 2 džūmbl]. fr blend of jūmp (or jūp) & jūm. 1. trans. To mix up, shake up, confuse together without any order, put together things which are disparate and unrelated, esp to jumble up, or jumble. 2. intrans. To be mixed confusedly; to jostle.

jumble (II), n. fr prec. Confused mixture, miscellaneous collection; muddle, confusion. jumble (III), n. Kind of thin, sweet, sticky cake.

jumble-sale, n. Bazaar at which all kinds of miscellaneous articles are sold at very low prices, the proceeds being applied to charitable purposes.

jumbly, adj. [1 džūmbli, 2 džūmbli]. jumbly (II) & -y. Jumbled together, confused.

jumbo, n. [1 džūmbō, 2 džūmbō], fr name of celebrated elephant sent fr London Zoo to U.S.A. in the early eighties of 19th cent, whose departure caused great popular interest. Very large clumsy animal or person.

jump (I), vb. intrans & trans. [1 džūmp, 2 džūmp]. First recorded in 16th cent. Origin uncertain. A. intrans. 1. (of human beings and animals) to propel oneself suddenly into the air from the feet, by exertion of muscular energy, to spring, leap, bound, Para. to jump for joy, (U) to leap, dance, skip about under influence of exultant feelings, (II) to feel and show strong emotions of pleasure and exultation; to jubilate; his eyes were jumping out of his head, were very prominent, or were staring intently, b. spec. (of animals) to spring into the air and propel the body forwards so as to clear an obstacle. this horse is so good as a jumper, he can't jump. 2. a To make a sudden, brusque, involuntary movement, with the whole or part of the body, to start, give sudden, convulsive movement, to twitch as from a sudden physical or emotional shock of surprise, fright &c. you made me jump when you came in so suddenly, my heart jumped as I heard the news, b to throb, as an abscess, bad tooth &c. 3. (of inanimate objects) a (when stationary) To be propelled suddenly, be jerked, from position, as by strong impact or oscillation. he hit the table so hard that he made all the tea-cups jump, b (when moving) to be hurled into the air, and diverted from course by a sudden check. the car struck a stone and jumped clear of the pavement. 4. (of mental action) To pass rapidly and suddenly from a subject or thought &c. to jump from one topic to another. B. trans. 1. a (of men and animals) To pass over, cross, clear, by jumping. to jump a gate, a stream &c., b (of inanimate objects in motion) to be propelled, jerked, shot, over, or away from one engine jumped the rails, c to compel to jump to jump a horse over a fence &c. 2. To leave out, skip, pass over without considering to jump a chapter in a book. 3. To hoodwink, dupe, bamboozle, persuade by misrepresentations to be jumped into doing something. Plur to jump a claim, to obtain land, right of mining &c., to which another had a prior claim. 4. To dance, toes in one's arms to jump a baby on one's knee. C. Followed by adverb or preposition. Jump about, to cut capers, skip leap about, with excitement, pleasure, pain &c., to be restless. Jump at to accept, adopt, seize upon, with eagerness to jump at an offer, skipper's or idea &c. Jump down, a intrans. to spring to lower level b single muscular effort, b trans to help (child, &c) to jump down. Jump in, into, on, over &c., to get in (to) or out of quickly. jump over, to clear with a bound. Jump up, to get up quickly, use hurriedly to one's feet. to jump up from one's chair, he jumped up as I went in, jump up! get on to your horse, seat of carriage &c. Jump upon, or, to make a sudden attack on. spec. to scold severely, blame, reprimand. Jump with, to agree, coincide with, correspond to your statement. Doesn't it answer your jump with the facts.

jump (II), n. fr prec. 1. Voluntary spring from ground, leap, bound. high long jump, as athletic exercise or test. 2. A sudden involuntary movement, start, caused by shock

&c, b (slang) the jumps, nervous twitches, restless, jerking movements, the fidgets. 3. Sudden upward movement, rise, increase (in price, temperature &c.) 4. Interruption, break gap, abrupt transition, in a series &c. jumpable, adj. [1 džūmpabl, 2 džūmpabl]. jump & -able. Capable of being jumped.

jumper (I), n. [1 džūmper, 2 džūmper]. jump (I) & -er. 1. One who, that which, jumps, spec. a one of a sect of Welsh Methodists (c. 1780) who leapt about under influence of religious emotion, b insect that jumps. 2. (naut.) Ropes to keep yard &c in position.

jumper (II), n. Etymol uncertain, possibly corruption of Fr jupon, jupon, 'skirt'. 1. Sailor's loose tunic of canvas &c. 2. Woman's loose blouse or jersey, extending over top of skirt.

jumping-bean, n. [1 džūmping bēn, 2 džūmping bln]. Seed of tropical American plant, containing larva which causes it to move as though jumping.

jumping-deer, n. Black-tailed deer of N America.

jumping-hare, n. S African rodent, a kind of jerboa.

junction, n. [1 džūngkshun, 2 džūngkshun], fr Lat. junctio (-em), a joining, fr junct (um), P.P type of jungere, 'to join', see join, & -ion. 1. Act or process of joining. 2. a Place, line, point, at which two things join, spec. b station where two or more lines or branches of railway meet. 3. Means, method, by which two things join, joint, connexion.

juncture, n. [1 džūngkshur, 2 džūngkshur], fr Lat. junctura, 'a joining', fr junct (um), P.P type of jungere, 'to join'. See join & -ure. 1. Position of affairs, circumstances, critical point, esp in Plur at this juncture. 2. (rare) a Act or process of joining, b place, point, where things join, joint.

June, n. [1 džūn, 2 džūn] fr Lat. junius Jūnius, June, fr name of a Roman gens, prob fr same base as June. Sixth month of year. jungle, n. [1 džūngl, 2 džūngl], fr Hind jāngal, 'desert, forest'. Uncultivated land, overgrown with forest, brushwood &c.

jungled, adj. [1 džūngld, 2 džūngld]. Prec. & -ed. Overgrown with jungle.

jungle-fever, n. Severe malarial fever.

jungle-fowl, n. One of several varieties of game bird living in the jungle.

jung'y, adj. [1 džūngli, 2 džūngli]. jungle & -y. Overgrown with jungle, pertaining to, like, the jungle.

junior (I), adj. [1 džūnior, 2 džūnior]. Lat. jūnior, fr jūvenis, compar of jūvenis, young. See juvenile. 1. Younger, esp of two brothers, or of son with same names as his father Thomas Brown, junior. 2. Of less standing, subordinate junior partner, Fellow (of a College).

junior (II), n. fr prec. Person who is younger or of lower standing one's juniors, those younger than oneself.

juniorate, n. [1 džūmōrat, 2 džūn are t]. junior & -ate. Two-year course of instruction demanded of Jesuits before entering the priesthood.

juniority, n. [1 džūmōrit, 2 džūn ariti]. junior & -ity. State or condition of being junior.

jumper, n. [1 džūmper; 2 džūmper], fr Lat. jūmper (-us), 'jumper tree', etymol doubtful. Genus of coniferous evergreen trees, with dark, rough bark from which an essential oil is obtained, used in medicine and for flavouring gin.

junk (I), n. [1 džūngk, 2 džūngk]. Etymol. unknown. 1. A Old cables &c, used for making oakum &c, b (slang) rubbish, useless stuff nonsense. 2. (naut.) Salt meat. 3. Tissue in head of sperm-whale, from which spermaceti is obtained. 4. Lump piece, chunk, or anything.

junk (II), vb trans, fr prec. a To make into junk, b to cut into chunks.

Junk (III), n Port gunco, adaptation of Malay gong. Large, flat bottomed, usually three masted vessel, used in China sea junker, n [1 yöongkor, 2 jünks] Germ junker, fr M H G junker, 'young lord'. Cp youunker 1 A German landed gentleman, a squire, 2 member of political party in Prussia representing the conservative and landed interest junket (I), n [1 jungket, 2 džānket] Perh fr A-Fr jonquette, 'rush-basket' (for making junket in), fr Lat juncus, 'rush'. See jonquil 1 Milk thickened into soft curd with rennet, often eaten with cream 2 Morry-making &c, usually junketing junket (II), vb intrans, fr pro To feast, make morry junketing, n [1 jūngkoting, 2 džānkitip] Pro & -ing Feasting, morrymaking, jollification junk-shop, n junk (I) & shop Marine store

Junio, n [1 jūnō, 2 džānōu] Lat Jūno, etymol uncertain, prob fr Juen*, oogn w Sort yūna, gonit yūnā, 'young wife', & ultimately fr same base as Lat juvenis, 'young', see juvenile 1 (Roman mythol) Wife of Jupiter 2 Majestic, stately woman 3 Name of one of the smaller planets junta, n [1 jūnta, 2 džānta] Span, fr Lat juncta, P P fem of jungere, 'to join'. See join 1 Spanish or Italian administrative assembly, council of state 2 Junto

